– de•fend•er noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ The player got past two defenders. ▪ She's a staunch/tireless defender of human rights. — see also PUBLIC DEFENDER – defending adj ▪ He lost to the defending champ. [=to the person who won last year] ▪ This year, we are the defending world/national champions.

de•fend•ant /dɪˈfɛndənt/ noun, pl -ants [count] : a person who is being sued or accused of a crime in a court of law ▪ The jury believed that the defendant was guilty. — compare PLAINTIFF

de•fense (US) or Brit de•fence /dɪˈfɛns/ noun, pl -fens•es
1 : the act of defending someone or something from attack [noncount] weapons of defense = weapons used for defense ▪ They fought in defense of their country. [=they fought to defend their country] ▪ the body's first line of defense [=way of defending itself] against illness [count] They put up a good defense, but the city ultimately fell to the invaders. ▪ They mounted a good defense. — see also SELF-DEFENSE
2 [count] : something that is used to protect yourself, your country, etc. ▪ The best defense is a good offense. [=the best way to defend something is to try to beat the opposite side] ▪ The city's defenses were not strong enough to keep out the invaders. ▪ We need to improve our defenses. ▪ the nation's air and ground defenses — often + against ▪ We have no defense

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 24 SESS: 20 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:28:00 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-d

against such powerful weapons. [=we have no way to defend ourselves against such powerful weapons] ▪ the body's natural defenses against disease and infection

3 : the act of speaking or writing in support of someone or something that is being attacked or criticized [noncount] His friends quickly came/jumped to his defense. [=his friends began saying that he was right or good] — often used in the phrase in defense ▪ She spoke out in defense of justice. [=she defended justice] ▪ Let me say, in her defense, that I would have done the same thing that she did. ▪ He spoke up in his own defense. [=he defended himself] [count] — usually singular ▪ She offered no defense [=justification] for her actions. ▪ We listened to a passionate/spirited defense of the governor's decision.

4 [noncount] : the things that are done by a country to protect itself from enemies ▪ In my view, the most important issue facing our country today is national defense. ▪ The candidates accused each other of being soft/weak on defense. ▪ The President wants to increase spending on defense. ▪ He was the Secretary of Defense under the last President. — often used before another noun ▪ He proposed an increase in defense spending. ▪ the defense secretary/minister/department ▪ They signed a billion-dollar defense contract with the company. ▪ cuts in the defense budget

5 a [singular] : the side of a legal case which argues that a person who is being sued or accused of a crime is innocent : the lawyer or lawyers who represent the defendant in a court case ▪ His friends are raising money (to pay) for his defense. ▪ The defense rests, Your Honor. ▪ The defense told the jury that the prosecution had not proved its case. — often used before another noun ▪ defense attorneys/lawyers ▪ a defense witness [=a person who speaks to support the defense's case] ▪ He had three lawyers on his defense team. — compare PROSECUTION b [count] : the method that is used in a court case to prove that someone is innocent ▪ Her lawyers plan to use an insanity defense. [=they will say that she was not sane when she committed the crime] ▪ It's a valid defense, and I think we should be able to win the case.

6 /ˈdiːˌfɛns/ a : the group of players on a team who try to stop an opponent from scoring [count] He ran through the defense and scored a touchdown. ▪ Our team has the best defense in the league. ▪ a talented defense [noncount] She began the season on defense [=playing on the part of the team that defends the goal], but her coach later put her on offense. b [noncount] : the way that players on a team try to stop an opponent from scoring ▪ The team needs some work on its defense. ▪ These guys play good/strong/tough defense. — compare OFFENSE 4

de•fense•less (US) or Brit de•fence•less /dɪˈfɛnsləs/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not able to defend yourself, your country, etc. ▪ Without weapons of any kind, the people of the town were completely defenseless. ▪ Don't hurt them. They're just poor, defenseless [=helpless] animals. — often + against ▪ The disease leaves the body defenseless against infection.

de•fense•man (US) or Brit de•fence•man /dɪˈfɛnsmən/ noun, pl -men /-mən/ [count] : a player in a sport (such as hockey) who tries to stop the other team from scoring defense mechanism (US) or Brit defence mechanism noun, pl ~ -nisms [count] technical

1 : a process in the brain that makes you forget or ignore painful or disturbing thoughts, situations, etc. ▪ She is projecting her anger on you as a defense mechanism.

2 : a reaction in your body that protects against disease or danger ▪ the cell's normal defense mechanisms against infection

de•fen•si•ble /dɪˈfɛnsəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal

1 : able to be thought of as good or acceptable ▪ Both candidates hold defensible positions on the issue. ▪ Under those circumstances, her actions were completely defensible. ▪ Slavery is not morally defensible.

2 : able to be defended or protected : able to be kept safe from damage or harm ▪ The city has a defensible location. ▪ a defensible bridge

[1]de•fen•sive /dɪˈfɛnsɪv/ adj

1 always used before a noun : defending or protecting someone or something from attack : helping to keep a person or thing safe ▪ The city began building a defensive wall around its borders. ▪ The government decided to join a defensive alliance with several other nations. ▪ Defensive driving classes [=classes that teach you how to be a safe driver] can help you avoid accidents. ▪ We have taken many defensive measures [=we have done things to protect ourselves] against terrorist attacks. ▪ defensive actions — compare [1]OFFENSIVE 4

2 [more ~; most ~] : behaving in a way that shows that you feel people are criticizing you ▪ I was surprised by his defensive reaction to my suggestion. ▪ defensive behaviors/attitudes ▪ There's no need to get so defensive. I was only making a suggestion. ▪ When we asked her about the mistakes, she became defensive. — often + about ▪ He can be a bit defensive about his work as an artist.

3 always used before a noun, sports : of or relating to the way that players try to stop an opponent from scoring in a game or contest ▪ The coach has a strong defensive strategy. ▪ a defensive player/lineman — compare [1]OFFENSIVE 3

– de•fen•sive•ly adv ▪ "It wasn't my fault," she said defensively. ▪ The team needs to improve its game defensively. [=it needs to make its defense better] – de•fen•sive•ness noun [noncount] ▪ There was a bit of defensiveness in his answer.

[2]defensive noun

on/onto the defensive 1 : in or into a situation in which you are forced to defend or protect someone or something ▪ We won after keeping the other team on the defensive for most of the game. ▪ Their soldiers appear to be on the defensive. ▪ The company was pushed/forced onto the defensive in the lawsuit. 2 : in or into a position in which you have to argue that something (such as one of your actions or beliefs) is good or correct when others say that it is bad or wrong ▪ The reporter often asks questions that put/place people on the defensive. ▪ He found himself on the defensive when the subject of the environment was discussed. ▪ The company is now on the defensive for its illegal business dealings.

de•fer /dɪˈfɚ/ verb -fers; -ferred; -fer•ring [+ obj] : to choose to do (something) at a later time ▪ She deferred work on her book. ▪ The accountant advised us not to defer our taxes. [=not to pay our taxes later] ▪ She'll defer her decision. — see also TAX-DEFERRED defer to [phrasal verb] 1 defer to (someone) : to allow (someone else) to decide or choose something ▪ You have more experience with this, so I'm going to defer to you. ▪ deferring to the experts 2 defer to (something) : to agree to follow (someone else's decision, a tradition, etc.) ▪ The court defers to precedent in cases like these. ▪ He deferred to his parents' wishes.

def•er•ence /ˈdɛfərəns/ noun [noncount] formal : a way of behaving that shows respect for someone or something ▪ Her relatives treat one another with deference. ▪ He is shown much deference by his colleagues. — often + to ▪ The children were taught to show proper deference to their elders.

in deference to or out of deference to : in order to show respect for the opinions or influence of (someone or something) : out of respect for (someone or something) ▪ He decided not to get a tattoo in deference to his mother. ▪ The police have not yet revealed the victim's name out of deference to his family. ▪ customs used in deference to tradition

– def•er•en•tial /ˌdɛfəˈrɛnʃəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ The class listened with deferential [=respectful] attention. ▪ deferential to tradition – def•er•en•tial•ly adv ▪ She bowed deferentially.

de•fer•ment /dɪˈfɚmənt/ noun, pl -ments : the act of allowing something to be delayed or deferred: such as a : official permission to pay for something at a later time [count] She requested a six-month deferment on her loan. [noncount] She requested deferment of her loan. b : official permission to do required military service at a later time [count] a draft deferment ▪ He received a college/student deferment. [=permission to finish school before entering the military] [noncount] the policies of military deferment de•fer•ral /dɪˈfɚəl/ noun, pl -rals : the act of delaying or deferring something [count] a tax deferral [noncount] He applied for deferral.

de• •ance /dɪˈfajəns/ noun [noncount] : a refusal to obey something or someone : the act of defying someone or something ▪ acts of defiance — often + of ▪ He was jailed for his defiance of the law.

in defiance of : against or despite the wishes, rules, or laws of (someone or something) ▪ The group is acting in defiance of a government order. ▪ She married him in defiance of her parents. ▪ The dancers leap in seeming defiance of the laws of gravity.

de• •ant /dɪˈfajənt/ adj [more ~; most ~] : refusing to obey something or someone : full of defiance ▪ defiant rebels ▪ a defiant act ▪ He's taken a defiant stand/stance on the issue.

D

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 25 SESS: 7 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:28:01 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-d

D

– de• •ant•ly adv ▪ He's spoken out defiantly against the new law.

de• •bril•la•tor /dɪˈfɪbrəˌleɪtə/ noun, pl -tors [count] medical : a device that gives an electric shock to a person's heart in order to make it beat normally again especially after a heart attack

de• •cien•cy /dɪˈfɪʃənsi/ noun, pl -cies
1 : a lack of something that is needed : the state of not having enough of something necessary [count] The disease may be caused by nutritional deficiencies. ▪ The book's major deficiency is its poor plot. ▪ a deficiency of vitamin C [noncount] vitamin deficiency
2 [count] : a problem in the way something is made or formed ▪ There are several deficiencies in his plan. ▪ The accident was caused by deficiencies in the engine.

de• •cient /dɪˈfɪʃənt/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : not having enough of something that is important or necessary ▪ a nutritionally deficient diet — usually + in ▪ a diet deficient in certain vitamins ▪ a man who is deficient in judgment [=a man whose judgment is poor] ▪ students who are deficient [=lacking] in their knowledge of history
2 : not good enough : not as good as others ▪ mentally deficient ▪ Several bridges in the city are structurally deficient.

def•i•cit /ˈdɛfəsət/ noun, pl -cits [count]
1 : an amount (such as an amount of money) that is less than the amount that is needed ▪ The government is facing a deficit of $3 billion. ▪ We will reduce the federal budget deficit. ▪ Some economists advocate deficit spending [=spending borrowed money] to boost a slumping economy. — opposite SURPLUS; see also TRADE DEFICIT
2 : the amount by which a person or team is behind in a game or contest ▪ The team overcame a four-point deficit to win the game.
3 chiefly US : a problem that causes a decrease in some ability ▪ She has a slight hearing deficit in her left ear. — see also ATTENTION DEFICIT DISORDER

[1]de• le /dɪˈfajəl/ verb - les ; - led ; - l•ing [+ obj] formal
1 : to make (something) dirty ▪ The lake has been defiled by polluters.
2 : to take away or ruin the purity, honor, or goodness of (something or someone important) ▪ She thinks slang defiles the language. ▪ defiling the country's flag ▪ Vandals defiled the holy shrine.
– de• le•ment /dɪˈfajəlmənt/ noun [noncount] ▪ the defilement of the shrine

[2]de le noun, pl - les [count] formal : a narrow passage through mountains : GORGE

de• ne /dɪˈfaɪn/ verb - nes ; - ned ; - n•ing [+ obj]
1 : to explain the meaning of (a word, phrase, etc.) ▪ How would you define (the word) "grotesque"? ▪ a term that is difficult to define
2 : to show or describe (someone or something) clearly and completely ▪ The government study seeks to define urban poverty. ▪ Her book aims to define acceptable social behavior. ▪ He was defined by his passions. [=his passions showed what kind of person he was] ▪ She believes that success should be defined in terms of health and happiness. ▪ Tigers are broadly/loosely defined [=described very generally] as large cats. ▪ He narrowly defines [=describes very specifically] a hero as someone who has earned a medal in battle.
3 : to show the shape, outline, or edge of (something) very clearly ▪ That fence defines the far edge of the property.
– de• n•able /dɪˈfaɪnəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ an easily definable word ▪ definable risk factors – de ned adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ a clearly defined neighborhood ▪ Her cheekbones are well-defined. – de ning adj, always used before a noun ▪ That was the campaign's defining moment. [=the moment that showed very clearly what kind of campaign it was]

def•i•nite /ˈdɛfənɪt/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : said or done in a such way that others know exactly what you mean ▪ We'll need a definite answer by Tuesday. ▪ The answer is a definite no.
2 : not likely to change : already set or decided ▪ Are her plans definite? ▪ I don't know anything definite yet. ▪ The teacher sets definite standards for her students.
3 not used before a noun : confident or certain about doing something or that something will happen ▪ She seems to be pretty definite about leaving. ▪ I am definite that we will win.

de nite article noun, pl ~ articles [count] grammar : the word the used in English to refer to a person or thing that is identified or specified; also : a word that is used in a similar way in another language — compare INDEFINITE ARTICLE

def•i•nite•ly /ˈdɛfənɪtli/ adv [more ~; most ~] : without doubt : in a way that is certain or clear ▪ The new model is definitely an improvement. ▪ The party will definitely be next week. ▪ The room is definitely not ready. ▪ "Will you come over on Saturday?" "Definitely!" [=yes]

def•i•ni•tion /ˌdɛfəˈnɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions
1 [count] a : an explanation of the meaning of a word, phrase, etc. : a statement that defines a word, phrase, etc. ▪ dictionary definitions b : a statement that describes what something is ▪ What is the legal definition of a corporation? ▪ a definition of happiness
2 [singular] : a clear or perfect example of a person or thing ▪ He was the very definition of a gentleman. [=he was a perfect gentleman] ▪ A week of fishing is my definition of a vacation.
3 [noncount] : the quality that makes it possible to see the shape, outline, and details of something clearly ▪ muscle definition ▪ The picture lacks definition. [=the picture is not sharp/clear] ▪ a monitor with good definition and vibrant colors — see also HIGH-DEFINITION by definition : because of what something or someone is : according to the definition of a word that is being used to describe someone or something ▪ A volunteer by definition is not paid. ▪ A glider is by definition an aircraft with no engine.

de• n•i•tive /dɪˈfɪnətɪv/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : not able to be argued about or changed : final and settled ▪ We need a definitive answer to this question. ▪ The court has issued a definitive ruling.
2 : complete, accurate, and considered to be the best of its kind ▪ a definitive biography ▪ a definitive collection of the band's albums
– de• n•i•tive•ly adv ▪ a virus definitively linked to some stomach diseases

de• ate /dɪˈfleɪt/ verb - ates ; - at •ed; - at•ing
1 a [+ obj] : to release air or gas from (something, such as a tire or balloon) and make it smaller ▪ deflate the tires ▪ a deflated football b [no obj] : to lose air or gas from inside ▪ The birthday balloons deflated after a few days. — opposite INFLATE
2 [+ obj] a : to make (someone) lose confidence or pride ▪ The harsh criticism left him utterly deflated. ▪ an insult that would deflate their egos b : to show that (something) is not important or true ▪ deflate [=defuse] an argument ▪ He has worked to deflate popular myths about investing.
3 [+ obj] : to cause (prices, costs, etc.) to decrease : to cause (something, such as money or real estate) to lose value ▪ economic polices that could deflate (the value of) the dollar ▪ Deflated prices mean that farmers are getting less for their products.

de• a•tion /dɪˈfleɪʃən/ noun [noncount]
1 : a decrease in the amount of available money or credit in an economy that causes prices to go down ▪ Economists worry that deflation will bring the country into recession. — compare INFLATION
2 : the act or process of letting air or gas out of (something) ▪ deflation of a balloon – de• a•tion•ary /dɪˈfleɪʃəˌneri, Brit dɪˈfleɪʃənri/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ a deflationary period in the economy

de• ect /dɪˈflɛkt/ verb - ects ; - ect •ed; - ect •ing
1 a [+ obj] : to cause (something that is moving) to change direction ▪ armor that can deflect bullets ▪ The goalie deflected the ball with his hands. b [no obj] : to hit something and suddenly change direction ▪ The ball deflected off the goalie's shoulder.
2 [+ obj] : to keep (something, such as a question) from affecting or being directed at a person or thing ▪ She's skilled at deflecting [=avoiding] questions/criticism. ▪ They are trying to deflect attention from the troubled economy. ▪ The blame was deflected from the chairman.
– de• ec•tor /dɪˈflɛktə/ noun, pl -tors [count] ▪ a wind deflector

de• ec•tion /dɪˈflɛkʃən/ noun, pl -tions : the act of changing or causing something to change direction [noncount] measuring the angle of deflection [count] He scored with a deflection off another player's stick.

de• ow•er /diˈflawə/ verb -ers; -ered; -er•ing [+ obj] literary : to have sex with (someone who has not had sex before)

de•fog /diˈfɑːg/ verb -fogs; -fogged; -fog•ging [+ obj] US : to remove mist from (a window, mirror, etc.) by using dry heat ▪ defog [=(Brit) demist] the windshield — compare DEFROST, DEICE

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 26 SESS: 8 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:28:01 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−d

– de•fog•ger noun, pl -gers [count] ▪ a window defogger

de•fo•li•ant /diˈfoʊlijənt/ noun, pl -ants [count] technical : a chemical that is sprayed on plants to make their leaves fall off de•fo•li•ate /diˈfoʊliˌeɪt/ verb -ates; -at•ed; -at•ing [+ obj] technical : to cause the leaves of (a plant) to fall off ▪ a chemical used to defoliate trees ▪ Insects are defoliating the trees.

– de•fo•li•a•tion /diˌfoʊliˈeɪʃən/ noun [noncount]

de•for•es•ta•tion /diˌforəˈsteɪʃən/ noun [noncount] : the act or result of cutting down or burning all the trees in an area ▪ the deforestation of the island ▪ mudslides caused by deforestation — compare REFORESTATION

– de•for•est /diˈforəst/ verb -ests; -est•ed; -est•ing [+ obj] — usually used as (be) deforested ▪ regions that have been deforested ▪ deforested areas

de•form /dɪˈfoəm/ verb -forms; -formed; -form•ing : to change something so that it no longer has its normal or original shape [+ obj] The disease eventually deforms the bones. ▪ a face deformed [=distorted, contorted] by hatred [no obj] The disease eventually causes the bones to deform.

– de•for•ma•tion /ˌdi:ˌfoəˈmeɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count] skeletal deformations [=(more commonly) deformities] [noncount] the deformation of steel deformed adj [more ~; most ~] : not having the normal or expected shape especially because of a problem in the way something has developed or grown ▪ deformed frogs ▪ a deformed [=misshapen] hand de•for•mi•ty /dɪˈfoəməti/ noun, pl -ties : a condition in which part of the body does not have the normal or expected shape [count] facial deformities [noncount] a disease causing deformity of the spine

de•frag /diˈfræg/ verb -frags; -fragged; -frag•ging [+ obj] chiefly US, computers, informal : DEFRAGMENT

de•frag•ment /diˈfrægmənt/ verb -ments; -ment•ed; -ment•ing [+ obj] chiefly US, computers : to use a special program to move data on (a computer disk) so that related information is stored together ▪ I defragmented my hard drive.

de•fraud /dɪˈfrɑ:d/ verb -frauds; -fraud•ed; -fraud•ing : to trick or cheat someone or something in order to get money : to use fraud in order to get money from a person, an organization, etc. [+ obj] They were accused of trying to defraud the public. ▪ They conspired to defraud the government. [no obj] She was convicted of writing bad checks with intent to defraud.

de•fray /dɪˈfreɪ/ verb -frays; -frayed; -fray•ing [+ obj] somewhat formal : to pay for (something) ▪ This will defray the costs/expenses.

de•frock /diˈfrɑ:k/ verb -frocks; -frocked; -frock•ing [+ obj] : to officially remove (a priest) from his or her job as punishment for doing something wrong — usually used as (be) defrocked ▪ He was defrocked last year. ▪ a defrocked priest de•frost /diˈfrɑ:st/ verb -frosts; -frost•ed; -frost•ing

1 : to warm something that is frozen until it is no longer frozen [+ obj] You can defrost the soup in the microwave. [no obj] He took some fish out of the freezer to defrost [=thaw] in the fridge. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ It took a while for her to defrost [=to stop being unfriendly] and open up to us.

2 : to melt ice that has built up on the inside of a freezer or refrigerator [+ obj] defrost the freezer [no obj] Has the refrigerator defrosted yet?

3 [+ obj] : to melt ice on a car's windows by using heat ▪ defrost the windshield — compare DEFOG, DEICE

de•frost•er /diˈfrɑ:stə/ noun, pl -ers [count] US : a device that uses heat or hot air to melt ice on or remove moisture from a surface ▪ the car's rear defroster ▪ a freezer with a built-in defroster

deft /ˈdɛft/ adj deft•er; deft•est [or more ~; most ~]

1 : skillful and clever ▪ a deft politician ▪ The photographer is known for her deft use of lighting.

2 : able to do something quickly and accurately ▪ the trumpeter's deft fingers

– deft•ly adv ▪ a deftly played symphony – deft•ness /ˈdɛftnəs/ noun [noncount] ▪ political deftness ▪ the deftness of the surgeon de•funct /dɪˈfʌŋkt/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : no longer existing or being used ▪ a defunct steel company ▪ She wrote for the now-defunct newspaper.

de•fuse /diˈfju:z/ verb -fus•es; -fused; -fus•ing [+ obj]

1 : to make (something) less serious, difficult, or tense ▪ Skilled negotiators helped defuse the crisis/situation. ▪ Her joke diffused the tension in the room.

2 : to remove the part of (an explosive) that makes it explode : to remove the fuse from (an explosive) ▪ defuse a bomb

de•fy /dɪˈfaɪ/ verb - es ; - ed ; -fy•ing [+ obj]

1 : to refuse to obey (something or someone) ▪ She defied her parents and dropped out of school.

2 : to make (something) very difficult or impossible ▪ The article defies a simple summary. [=the article cannot be explained by a simple summary] ▪ views of nature that defy belief/description [=that are hard to believe/describe]

3 : to resist or fight (something) ▪ The group has continued to defy all efforts to stop them.

4 : to go against (something) ▪ The team defied the odds [=did something that was very unlikely] and won the championship. ▪ an explanation that defies all logic [=an explanation that does not make any sense]

5 : to tell (someone) to do something that you think cannot be done ▪ I defy you to prove that I lied. ▪ I defy anyone to name a better film. [=I do not think that anyone can name a better film; I do not think that there is a better film]

deg. abbr degree

[1]de•gen•er•ate /dɪˈʤɛnəˌreɪt/ verb -ates; -at•ed; -at•ing [no obj] : to change to a worse state or condition : to become worse, weaker, less useful, etc. ▪ As the disease progresses, the patient's health will degenerate [=deteriorate] rapidly. — often + into ▪ Experts fear that the country is degenerating into chaos. ▪ The meeting degenerated into a shouting match.

– de•gen•er•a•tion /dɪˌʤɛnəˈreɪʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ muscle tissue degeneration ▪ Experts fear the degeneration of the country into chaos.

[2]de•gen•er•ate /dɪˈʤɛnərət/ adj [more ~; most ~] : having low moral standards : not honest, proper, or good ▪ He criticizes what he believes is a degenerate society.

– de•gen•er•a•cy /dɪˈʤɛnərəsi/ noun [noncount] ▪ moral degeneracy

[3]de•gen•er•ate /dɪˈʤɛnərət/ noun, pl -ates [count] disapproving : a person whose behavior is not morally right or socially acceptable ▪ a couple of degenerates on a crime spree

de•gen•er•a•tive /dɪˈʤɛnərətɪv/ adj [more ~; most ~] medical : causing the body or part of the body to become weaker or less able to function as time passes ▪ a degenerative disease/disorder

de•grad•able /dɪˈgreɪdəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] technical : capable of being slowly broken down into simple parts ▪ plastic that is not degradable — compare BIODEGRADABLE deg•ra•da•tion /ˌdɛgrəˈdeɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions somewhat formal

1 : the act or process of damaging or ruining something [noncount] degradation of the environment [count] There has been a slight degradation [=decline] in the car's performance.

2 : the act of treating someone or something poorly and without respect [noncount] the degradation of women ▪ He was forced to live a life of degradation. [=a life in which he suffered and was treated very poorly] [count] He was forced to suffer the degradations [=indignities] of poverty and abuse.

de•grade /dɪˈgreɪd/ verb -grades; -grad•ed; -grad•ing

1 [+ obj] : to treat (someone or something) poorly and without respect ▪ The group accuses the company of degrading women in its ads. ▪ I am not going to degrade [=lower] myself by responding to these baseless accusations. ▪ He felt degraded by their remarks.

2 [+ obj] : to make the quality of (something) worse ▪ Scratches on a camera lens will degrade the image. ▪ Pollution has degraded air quality.

3 technical : to cause (something complex) to break down into simple substances or parts [+ obj] enzymes that degrade proteins [no obj] plastics that don't degrade [=decompose] easily – degrading adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ a degrading job ▪ He made a degrading remark about my weight.

de•gree /dɪˈgri:/ noun, pl -grees

1 [count] : a unit for measuring temperature ▪ Bake the bread at 350 degrees (Fahrenheit) for 35 minutes. ▪ 20 degrees Fahrenheit/Celsius [=20° F/C] — abbr. deg.

2 [count] : a unit for measuring the size of an angle ▪ There are 360 degrees in a circle. ▪ 47 degrees latitude/longitude ▪ a 15 degree angle [=a 15° angle] — abbr. deg.

3 : an amount or level that can be measured or compared to another amount or level [noncount] These trees will thrive,

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 27 SESS: 8 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:28:02 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-d

to a greater or lesser degree, in a number of climates. ▪ To what degree [=how much] is she interested in finance? ▪ We don't yet know the degree to which [=how much] the roof is damaged. [count] — usually + of ▪ a high degree of difficulty/skill ▪ They have had varying degrees of success. ▪ We can now predict the weather with a greater degree of accuracy. [=with more accuracy]

4 [noncount] : a measure of how severe or serious something is ▪ He was accused of murder in the first degree. = He was accused of first-degree murder. [=the most serious kind of murder] ▪ a second-degree burn — see also FIRST-DEGREE, SECOND-DEGREE, THIRD-DEGREE

5 [count] : an official document and title that is given to someone who has successfully completed a series of classes at a college or university ▪ She has a degree in engineering. ▪ a four-year degree [=a degree that is given to someone who has completed four years of study] ▪ a bachelor's/master's degree ▪ She received an honorary degree. [=a degree given by a college or university to someone who is not a student but who has done something important]

by degrees : very slowly : by a series of small changes ▪ The tomatoes changed by degrees from green to red.

to some degree also to a (certain) degree : not completely but partly ▪ To some degree, they're right. ▪ We simplified the process to a certain degree. [=somewhat]

to the nth degree see NTH

de•hu•man•ize also Brit de•hu•man•ise /diˈhju:məˌnaɪz/ verb -iz•es; -ized; -iz•ing [+ obj] : to treat (someone) as though he or she is not a human being ▪ Inspectors have observed terrible factory conditions that dehumanize workers. ▪ The government's propaganda is meant to dehumanize the enemy. [=to make the enemy seem less human] ▪ the dehumanizing nature of torture

– de•hu•man•iz•a•tion also Brit de•hu•man•is•a•tion /diˌhju:mənəˈzeɪʃən, Brit diˌhju:məˌnaɪˈzeɪʃən/ noun [noncount]

de•hu•mid•i• •er /ˌdi:hjuˈmɪdəˌfajə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a machine that takes moisture out of the air — compare HUMIDIFIER

de•hy•drate /diˈhaɪˌdreɪt/ verb -drates; -drat•ed; -drat•ing somewhat technical

1 [+ obj] : to remove water or moisture from (something, such as food) ▪ Salt dehydrates the meat and keeps it from spoiling.

2 : to lose too much water [no obj] Athletes drink lots of water so they don't dehydrate. [+ obj] Exercising in this heat will dehydrate you.

– dehydrated adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ dehydrated fruit ▪ dehydrated athletes – de•hy•dra•tion /ˌdi:ˌhaɪˈdreɪʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ Athletes drink lots of water to prevent dehydration.

de•ice /diˈaɪs/ verb -ic•es; -iced; -ic•ing [+ obj] : to remove ice from (something) ▪ We watched while they deiced the plane before takeoff. — compare DEFOG, DEFROST de•i•fy /ˈdijəˌfaɪ, ˈdejəˌfaɪ/ verb - es ; - ed ; -fy•ing [+ obj] : to treat (someone or something) like a god or goddess ▪ The people deified the emperor. ▪ Our society deifies [=worships] money.

– de•i• •ca•tion /ˌdijəfəˈkeɪʃən, ˌdejəfəˈkeɪʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ the deification of celebrities

deign /ˈdeɪn/ verb deigns; deigned; deign•ing [no obj] formal + disapproving : to do something that you think you should not have to do because you are too important — usually followed by to + verb ▪ She finally deigned to speak to me. ▪ The actor walked by, not even deigning [=stooping, condescending] to acknowledge his fans.

de•i•ty /ˈdi:jəti, ˈdejəti/ noun, pl -ties [count] : a god or goddess ▪ ancient Greek deities ▪ a reference to the Deity [=God]

dé•jà vu /ˌdeɪʒɑ:ˈvu:/ noun [noncount]

1 : the feeling that you have already experienced something that is actually happening for the first time ▪ I entered the room and immediately felt a sense of déjà vu.

2 chiefly US, informal : something that has happened many times before : something that is very familiar ▪ When the car broke down again, it was déjà vu. ▪ The rise in housing costs is déjà vu all over again.

de•ject•ed /dɪˈdʒɛktəd/ adj [more ~; most ~] : sad because of failure, loss, etc. ▪ The dejected players left the field. ▪ She's been so dejected [=depressed, unhappy] since her sister moved away.

– de•ject•ed•ly adv ▪ The players dejectedly walked off the field.

de•jec•tion /dɪˈdʒɛkʃən/ noun [noncount] : sadness that is caused by failure, loss, etc. ▪ You could see the dejection [=unhappiness] on her face.

de ju•re /diˈdʒuri/ adj, always used before a noun, law : based on or according to the law ▪ the end of de jure segregation ▪ de jure authority — compare DE FACTO – de jure adv ▪ The UN has recognized the country de jure.

Del. abbr, US Delaware

[1]de•lay /dɪˈleɪ/ noun, pl -lays

1 : a situation in which something happens later than it should [count] Do you know what's causing the delay? ▪ The nurse apologized for the delay [=wait] and said that the doctor would be in shortly. ▪ a number of flight delays [noncount] After months of delay, construction on the new school began. ▪ The roof must be repaired without delay. [=immediately]

2 [count] : the amount of time that you must wait for something that is late ▪ Airline travelers are experiencing delays of up to three hours.

[2]delay verb -lays; -layed; -lay•ing

1 : to wait until later to do something : to make something happen later [+ obj] The doctor wants to delay surgery for a few weeks. ▪ They delayed [=put off] having children until their late 30s. ▪ She's planning to delay her retirement. [no obj] He delayed too long, and now it's too late. ▪ "Don't delay! Sale ends Saturday."

2 [+ obj] : to make (something or someone) late : to make (something or someone) take longer than expected or planned ▪ Production problems delayed the introduction of the new model by several months. — often used as (be) delayed ▪ We were delayed by traffic. ▪ Many flights were delayed.

– delayed adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ He had a very delayed reaction to the medication. [=a reaction that did not happen immediately]

delaying tactic noun [count] : something that is done in order to delay a decision, an occurrence, etc. — called also (chiefly US) delay tactic

de•lec•ta•ble /dɪˈlɛktəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] somewhat formal

1 : very pleasant to taste or smell : DELICIOUS ▪ the restaurant's delectable food ▪ The meals he prepares are always delectable.

2 humorous : very attractive ▪ one of the most delectable men she's ever met

– de•lec•ta•bly /dɪˈlɛktəbli/ adv ▪ a delectably seasoned steak

de•lec•ta•tion /ˌdi:ˌlɛkˈteɪʃən/ noun [noncount] formal : pleasure or enjoyment ▪ Here is some chocolate for your delectation.

[1]del•e•gate /ˈdɛlɪgət/ noun, pl -gates [count] : a person who is chosen or elected to vote or act for others : REPRESENTATIVE ▪ the U.N. delegates from African countries ▪ He's been chosen as a delegate to the convention.

[2]del•e•gate /ˈdɛlɪˌgeɪt/ verb -gates; -gat•ed; -gat•ing

1 : to give (control, responsibility, authority, etc.) to someone : to trust someone with (a job, duty, etc.) [+ obj] A manager should delegate authority to the best employees. ▪ Those chores can be delegated to someone else. [no obj] He doesn't delegate very well.

2 [+ obj] : to choose (someone) to do something — often used as (be) delegated ▪ He was delegated by the town to take care of the monument.

del•e•ga•tion /ˌdɛlɪˈgeɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions

1 [count] : a group of people who are chosen to vote or act for someone else ▪ a delegation of diplomats ▪ He's been chosen to lead the delegation to the conference. ▪ the state's congressional delegation [=the group of officials elected to the U.S. Congress from a particular state]

2 [noncount] formal : the act of giving control, authority, a job, a duty, etc., to another person — usually + of ▪ the delegation of responsibilities

de•lete /dɪˈli:t/ verb -letes; -let•ed; de•let•ing [+ obj] : to remove (something, such as words, pictures, or computer files) from a document, recording, computer, etc. ▪ Delete this name from the list. ▪ When the movie was shown on TV all the swearwords had been deleted. ▪ She accidentally deleted [=erased] the file/e-mail.

– de•le•tion /dɪˈli:ʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count] The deletions shouldn't affect the meaning of the letter. [noncount] The deletion of that paragraph makes your letter read better.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 28 SESS: 8 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:28:02 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-d

del•e•te•ri•ous /ˌdɛləˈtirijəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : damaging or harmful ▪ The chemical is deleterious to the environment. ▪ The drug has no deleterious effects on patients.

deli /ˈdɛli/ noun, pl del•is [count] : a store where you can buy foods (such as meats, cheese, salads, and sandwiches) that are already cooked or prepared ▪ We bought sandwiches and drinks at the deli. — called also delicatessen

[1]de•lib•er•ate /dɪˈlɪbərət/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : done or said in a way that is planned or intended : done or said on purpose ▪ I don't think that was a mistake; I think it was deliberate. [=intentional] ▪ a deliberate [=planned] attempt to trick people
2 : done or decided after careful thought ▪ a deliberate choice/decision
3 : slow and careful ▪ She spoke in a clear, deliberate manner/way. ▪ He advocates a slow and deliberate approach to the problem.

[2]de•lib•er•ate /dɪˈlɪbəˌreɪt/ verb -ates; -at•ed; -at•ing : to think about or discuss something very carefully in order to make a decision [no obj] The jury deliberated for two days before reaching a verdict. [+ obj] They will deliberate the question. — often + whether, what, etc. ▪ I've been deliberating [=debating] whether or not to accept the job offer.

de•lib•er•ate•ly /dɪˈlɪbərətli/ adv [more ~; most ~]
1 : in a way that is meant, intended, or planned ▪ He deliberately tricked them.
2 : slowly and carefully : in a way that is not hurried ▪ She spoke clearly and deliberately to the audience.

de•lib•er•a•tion /dɪˌlɪbəˈreɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions
1 : careful thought or discussion done in order to make a decision [noncount] After hours of deliberation, the council came to a decision. [count] Jury deliberations lasted two days.
2 [noncount] : the quality of being slow and careful ▪ She spoke to the audience with clarity and deliberation.

de•lib•er•a•tive /dɪˈlɪbəˌreɪtɪv, dɪˈlɪbərətɪv/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : created or done in order to discuss and consider facts and reasons carefully ▪ Congress is a deliberative body. ▪ a deliberative process

del•i•ca•cy /ˈdɛlɪkəsi/ noun, pl -cies
1 [count] : a food that people like to eat because it is special or rare ▪ The restaurant serves delicious sausages and other regional delicacies.
2 [noncount] : the quality of being delicate: such as a : the quality of being easily broken or damaged ▪ the delicacy of the glassware b : the quality of being easily injured, hurt, or made sick ▪ the delicacy [=frailty] of his health c : the attractive quality of something that is formed from many small or fine parts ▪ The curtains were made from fine lace of great delicacy. ▪ a musician known for the delicacy of her compositions ▪ the delicacy of the young boy's features d : the appealing quality of something that is not too strong ▪ the delicacy of the perfume ▪ the delicacy of the wine's flavor 3 [noncount] a : special care or skill that is needed to prevent people from becoming upset or angry ▪ This is a difficult situation that should be handled with delicacy. [=tact] b : the quality of requiring special care or skill ▪ Because of the delicacy of the situation, we needed to speak privately.

del•i•cate /ˈdɛlɪkət/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 a : easily broken or damaged ▪ The cup is very delicate [=fragile], so please handle it carefully. ▪ delicate flowers b : easily injured, hurt, or made sick ▪ Her health is very delicate. [=frail] ▪ He has a delicate stomach and often gets sick when traveling.
2 a : attractive and made up of small or fine parts ▪ The fabric has a delicate floral print. ▪ a small boy with delicate (facial) features ▪ She has delicate hands. [=small and attractive hands] b : very carefully and beautifully made ▪ We hung delicate lace curtains in the windows. ▪ The tomb was adorned with delicate carvings.
3 : attractive because of being soft, gentle, light, etc. : pleasant or attractive in a way that is not too strong ▪ the delicate flavor of the wine ▪ a delicate perfume/sauce ▪ a delicate color
4 : easily disturbed or upset ▪ Many people struggle to maintain the delicate balance between work and family. ▪ The violence in the film offended her delicate sensibilities. ▪ The movie is not for delicate [=squeamish] people.
5 : requiring special care or skill : difficult to manage or do well ▪ The doctor performed the delicate operation. ▪ This is a delicate situation that needs to be handled carefully. ▪ The situation calls for a very delicate approach.
– del•i•cate•ly adv ▪ a delicately carved tomb ▪ a delicately flavored ginger sauce ▪ This situation must be handled delicately.

del•i•cates /ˈdɛlɪkəts/ noun [plural] : clothes made of delicate material that must be washed carefully

del•i•ca•tes•sen /ˌdɛlɪkəˈtɛsn̩/ noun, pl -sens [count] : DELI

de•li•cious /dɪˈlɪʃəs/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 a : very pleasant to taste ▪ Dinner was delicious. ▪ This is the most delicious ice cream I have ever eaten. b : having a smell that suggests a very pleasant taste ▪ The bread smells delicious. ▪ Delicious aromas were floating from the kitchen.
2 literary : very pleasing or enjoyable ▪ a delicious [=delightful] comedy about parenthood ▪ a delicious bit of gossip
– de•li•cious•ly adv ▪ They served a deliciously fruity dessert. ▪ a deliciously witty writer – de•li•cious•ness noun [noncount]

[1]de•light /dɪˈlaɪt/ noun, pl -lights
1 [noncount] : a strong feeling of happiness : great pleasure or satisfaction ▪ His expression when he saw the baby was one of pure delight. [=joy] ▪ We watched the fireworks with delight. ▪ The kids screamed in delight as they chased one another around the park. ▪ To our delight, our guests decided to stay another night. [=we were very happy that our guests decided to stay another night] ▪ To the delight of the children, there were enough cookies for everyone to have two. ▪ She takes delight in [=very much enjoys] her new job. ▪ Some people seem to take great delight in hearing about the misfortunes of others.
2 [count] : something that makes you very happy : something that gives you great pleasure or satisfaction ▪ The trip was a delight. ▪ a garden full of tasty delights ▪ The magazine is a cook's delight. ▪ The stories are a delight to read.
– see also TURKISH DELIGHT

[2]delight verb -lights; -light•ed; -light•ing [+ obj] : to make (someone) very happy : to give (someone) great pleasure or satisfaction ▪ The toy delighted the children. ▪ The stories will delight readers of all ages.
delight in [phrasal verb] delight in (something) : to be very happy because of (something) : to enjoy (something) very much ▪ I walked slowly, delighting in the crisp autumn air. ▪ He delights in meeting new people.

delighted adj [more ~; most ~] : made very happy : full of great pleasure or satisfaction ▪ I am delighted [=very pleased] to meet you. ▪ the delighted [=joyful] expression on his face ▪ The children were especially delighted that there were enough cookies for each of them to have two. ▪ She's delighted with her new job. [=she likes her new job very much] ▪ We were delighted by the performance. ▪ They are delighted at the prospect of a visit from their grandchildren.
– de•light•ed•ly adv ▪ He laughed delightedly.

de•light•ful /dɪˈlaɪtfəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : very pleasant : giving or causing delight ▪ It has been delightful meeting you. ▪ It is delightful [=wonderful, great] to be here. ▪ That was a delightful party. ▪ She's a delightful person.
– de•light•ful•ly adv ▪ a delightfully sunny day

de•lim•it /dɪˈlɪmət/ verb -its; -it•ed; -it•ing [+ obj] formal : to officially set or state the limits of (something) ▪ Strict guidelines delimit his responsibilities.

de•lin•eate /dɪˈlɪniˌeɪt/ verb -eates; -eat•ed; -eat•ing [+ obj] formal : to clearly show or describe (something) ▪ The report clearly delineates the steps that must be taken. ▪ The characters in the story were carefully delineated.
– de•lin•ea•tion /dɪˌlɪniˈeɪʃən/ noun [noncount]

de•lin•quen•cy /dɪˈlɪŋkwənsi/ noun, pl -cies
1 : crimes or other morally wrong acts : illegal or immoral behavior especially by young people [noncount] They tried to steer him away from delinquency by giving him a job in their store. ▪ She's been charged with contributing to the delinquency of a minor. [count] a series of minor delinquencies
— see also JUVENILE DELINQUENCY
2 US : the condition of someone who owes money and is not making payments at the required or expected time [count] Loan delinquencies are on the rise. [=an increasing number of people are failing to make their loan payments on time] [noncount] a high rate of delinquency ▪ Delinquency rates are soaring.

[1]de•lin•quent /dɪˈlɪŋkwənt/ noun, pl -quents [count] : a young person who regularly does illegal or immoral things : JUVENILE DELINQUENT ▪ a group of violent delinquents

[2]delinquent adj

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 29 SESS: 21 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:28:03 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-d

D

1 : doing things that are illegal or immoral ▪ a school for delinquent children ▪ His delinquent behavior could lead to more serious problems.
2 US a : not paid at the required or expected time ▪ Her credit card account was delinquent. [=she had not made the payments that were due on her credit card account] ▪ The town is trying to collect delinquent taxes. b : failing to pay an amount of money that is owed ▪ people who are delinquent in their loan payments [=people who have not been paying back their loans when they said they would] ▪ delinquent borrowers de•lir•i•ous /dɪˈlirijəs/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : not able to think or speak clearly especially because of fever or other illness ▪ As the child's temperature went up, he became delirious and didn't know where he was. ▪ He was delirious with fever.
2 : very excited ▪ a group of delirious fans celebrating the team's victory — often + with ▪ We were delirious with happiness when we heard the news.
– de•lir•i•ous•ly adv ▪ deliriously happy ▪ deliriously in love ▪ He spoke deliriously.

de•lir•i•um /dɪˈlirijəm/ noun, pl -iums
1 : a mental state in which you are confused and not able to think or speak clearly usually because of fever or some other illness [noncount] In her delirium, nothing she said made any sense. ▪ a period of delirium [count] drug deliriums
2 [noncount] : a state of wild excitement and great happiness ▪ The team's victory sent fans into (a state of) delirium.

delirium tre•mens /-ˈtri:mənz/ noun [noncount] medical : D.T.'S de•lish /dɪˈlɪʃ/ adj [more ~; most ~] US, informal : DELICIOUS ▪ The whole meal was delish.

de•list /diˈlɪst/ verb -lists; -list•ed; -list•ing [+ obj] formal : to remove (something) from a list ▪ The company has been delisted from the stock exchange. [=the company is no longer one of the companies listed on the stock exchange]

de•liv•er /dɪˈlɪvə/ verb -ers; -ered; -er•ing
1 : to take (something) to a person or place [+ obj] The package was delivered to the office this morning. ▪ She delivers the mail on my street. ▪ They are having the furniture delivered next week. ▪ The supermarket delivers groceries for free within 30 miles of the store. [no obj] "Does the restaurant deliver?" "No, you have to pick up the food yourself."
2 [+ obj] : to say (something) officially or publicly : to present (a speech, statement, etc.) to a group of people ▪ He will deliver the speech at noon. ▪ The actors delivered their lines with passion. ▪ The jury is expected to deliver a verdict later today. ▪ The judge delivered a warning to the protesters.
3 a [no obj] : to do what you say you will do or what people expect you to do : to produce the promised, wanted, or expected results ▪ We gave her the job because we know she'll deliver. [=come through] ▪ He failed to deliver on his promise. [=he failed to do what he promised to do] b [+ obj] : to provide or produce (something) ▪ The novel delivers an inspiring look into the life and ideas of Gandhi. ▪ The company charges too much for what it delivers. ▪ The car delivers excellent/poor gas mileage. — see also deliver the goods at ²GOOD
4 [+ obj] a : to give birth to (a baby) ▪ She delivered healthy twin girls early this morning. ▪ (technical) The patient was delivered of [=gave birth to] healthy twin girls this morning. b : to help someone give birth to (a baby) ▪ The doctor is delivering a baby right now.
5 [+ obj] : to give control of (someone or something) to another person or group — + to or into ▪ He argues that by letting children watch too much television, we are delivering them into the hands of advertisers. ▪ A group of soldiers were delivered up to [=handed over to] the enemy at the border. ▪ The agreement delivered over [=transferred] the documents into the possession of the museum.
6 [+ obj] : to cause (something, such as a punch, a thrown ball, etc.) to hit or go to a person or place ▪ The boxer delivered a crushing blow to his opponent's head. ▪ He delivered [=threw] a fastball right over the plate. ▪ The country is believed to have the ability to deliver nuclear warheads. [=to attack other countries with nuclear warheads]
7 [+ obj] chiefly US : to get (votes) for a particular person or issue in an election ▪ She is doing her best to deliver the college student vote. [=to convince college students to vote a particular way]
8 [+ obj] formal + literary : to free (someone) from something ▪ all those who long to be delivered from slavery/tyranny ▪ " . . . deliver [=save] us from evil." —Matthew 6:13 (KJV) deliver yourself of formal : to make, create, or produce (something) ▪ She has finally delivered herself of her long-awaited third novel.
– de•liv•er•able /dɪˈlɪvərəbəl/ adj ▪ a deliverable product – deliverable noun, pl -ables [count] — usually plural ▪ computer software deliverables [=products that can be delivered to customers] – de•liv•er•er /dɪˈlivərə-/ noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ When are the deliverers bringing the sofa?

de•liv•er•ance /dɪˈlɪvərəns/ noun [noncount] formal : the state of being saved from something dangerous or unpleasant ▪ She prayed for deliverance as the famine got worse. — often + from ▪ He knew that his retirement would bring deliverance from the worries and stresses of his job.

de•liv•ery /dɪˈlɪvəri/ noun, pl -er•ies
1 a : the act of taking something to a person or place [count] The delivery is scheduled for this morning. ▪ The supermarket makes deliveries [=takes goods to customers] for free within 30 miles of the store. ▪ The restaurant doesn't do deliveries. [=does not take food to customers] [noncount] The company offers free delivery with orders over $100. ▪ She does the mail delivery [=she delivers the mail] on my street. ▪ a delivery truck/service [=a truck/service that delivers something] ▪ Someone has to be home to accept/receive delivery of the package. ▪ Payment is due on delivery of the goods. [=when you receive the goods] ▪ Allow six weeks for delivery. — see also SPECIAL DELIVERY b [count] : something that is taken to a person or place : something that is delivered ▪ The store got a delivery [=shipment] of shirts yesterday.
2 : the act or process of giving birth [noncount] The baby weighed almost seven pounds at the time of delivery. ▪ the delivery room [=a special room in a hospital where women give birth to babies] [count] The doctor expects it to be a routine delivery. ▪ The doctor has had three deliveries today.
3 [singular] : the way someone says something officially or publicly : the way someone delivers a speech, statement, etc., to a group of people ▪ The joke was funny, but his delivery was terrible. ▪ I need to work on my delivery before I give the speech.
4 [count] sports : the way a ball is thrown in baseball or cricket ▪ The pitchers have similar deliveries. ▪ a high delivery take delivery of formal : to receive (something that is being delivered to you) ▪ The city will take delivery of the vehicles tomorrow.

delivery boy noun, pl ~ boys [count] somewhat old-fashioned : a boy or young man who delivers goods to customers from a store or restaurant

de•liv•ery•man /dɪˈlɪvərimən/ noun, pl -men /-mən/ [count] : a man who delivers goods to customers dell /ˈdɛl/ noun, pl dells [count] formal + literary : a small valley with trees and grass growing in it

de•louse /diˈlaʊs/ verb -lous•es; -loused; -lous•ing [+ obj] : to remove lice from (someone or something) ▪ delouse clothing

del•ta /ˈdɛltə/ noun, pl -tas
1 [count] : the fourth letter of the Greek alphabet — Δ or δ
2 [count] : a piece of land shaped like a triangle that is formed when a river splits into smaller rivers before it flows into an ocean ▪ a river delta ▪ the Ganges/Nile Delta
3 or Delta [singular] US : an area of low land along the Mississippi River that is mainly in the state of Mississippi ▪ the Mississippi Delta ▪ delta blues [=blues music that comes from the Mississippi delta]

del•toid /ˈdɛlˌtoɪd/ noun, pl -toids [count] : a large muscle of the shoulder ▪ well-developed deltoids ▪ the deltoid muscles

de•lude /dɪˈlu:d/ verb -ludes; -lud•ed; -lud•ing [+ obj] : to cause (someone) to believe something that is not true ▪ If she thinks I care, she's deluding [=fooling] herself. ▪ He was deluded [=deceived] by their lies. — often + into ▪ They deluded themselves into believing their team would win.
– deluded adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ His deluded family believed everything he said. ▪ a very deluded way of thinking

¹del•uge /ˈdɛlˌju:ʤ/ noun, pl -ug•es [count]
1 a : a large amount of rain that suddenly falls in an area ▪ The deluge caused severe mudslides. b : a situation in which a large area of land becomes completely covered with water : FLOOD ▪ the biblical deluge
2 : a large amount of things that come at the same time ▪ an advertising deluge [=many advertisements] — often + of ▪ The office receives a deluge of mail every day. ▪ a deluge of phone calls

²deluge verb -uges; -uged; -ug•ing [+ obj]
1 : to give or send (someone) a large amount of things at the same time — usually used as (be) deluged ▪ The family was deluged [=inundated, swamped] with calls about the free puppies. ▪ The office is deluged with mail every day.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 30 SESS: 8 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:28:03 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-d

2 : to flood (a place) with water ▪ Heavy rains deluged the region.

de•lu•sion /dɪˈluːʒən/ noun, pl -sions [count]

1 : a belief that is not true : a false idea ▪ He has delusions about how much money he can make at that job. ▪ He is living/laboring under the delusion that he is incapable of making mistakes. ▪ She is under the delusion that we will finish on time.

2 : a false idea or belief that is caused by mental illness ▪ As the illness progressed, his delusions took over and he had violent outbursts. ✧ If you have delusions of grandeur, you believe that you are much more important than you really are. ▪ The patient is suffering from hallucinations and delusions of grandeur. ▪ a young actress with delusions of grandeur

– de•lu•sion•al /dɪˈluːʒənl/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ He showed signs of delusional thinking near the end of his life. ▪ If you think we can afford a new car, you are delusional.

de•luxe /dɪˈlʌks/ adj [more ~; most ~] : of better quality and usually more expensive than the usual ones of its kind : very luxurious ▪ We stayed at a deluxe [=fancy] hotel. ▪ the deluxe model of the car ▪ The deluxe edition of the book includes many more illustrations.

delve /ˈdɛlv/ verb delves; delved; delv•ing [no obj]

1 : to search for information about something ▪ He tried to delve inside his memory for clues about what had happened. — usually + into ▪ Before the trip, I delved into the history of the city. ▪ Now is not the time to delve into the past. ▪ He delved deeply/further into his research.

2 chiefly Brit : to reach into a bag, container, etc., in order to find something — usually + in or into ▪ He delved in the drawer for a torch. ▪ She delved into her handbag in search of a pen.

Dem. abbr, US Democrat

dem•a•gogue /ˈdɛməˌgɑːg/ noun, pl -gogues [count] disapproving : a political leader who tries to get support by making false claims and promises and using arguments based on emotion rather than reason ▪ His opponent called him a bigoted demagogue.

– dem•a•gog•ic /ˌdɛməˈgɑːgɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ a demagogic politician – dem•a•gogu•ery /ˈdɛməˌgɑːgəri/ also dem•a•gogy /ˈdɛməˌgɑːgi/ noun [noncount] ▪ political demagoguery

[1]de•mand /dɪˈmænd, Brit dɪˈmɑːnd/ noun, pl -mands

1 [count] : a forceful statement in which you say that something must be done or given to you ▪ The committee is considering her demand that she be given more time to complete the study. ▪ The workers said they would not end the strike until their demands were met/satisfied. — often + for ▪ The store refused to meet the customer's demand for a refund. ▪ Parents made demands for the teacher's resignation.

2 [singular] : a strong need for something ▪ The demand for low-income housing is increasing as the economy gets worse. ▪ We are seeing an increased demand for hospital beds.

3 : the ability and need or desire to buy goods and services [noncount] The company increased production to meet demand. — often + for ▪ Demand for fresh milk has surpassed supply in the region. [=people want to buy more milk than is available] [singular] — often + for ▪ Local farmers say they will increase the number of peach trees they grow in order to meet a rising demand for peaches. [=in order to have as many peaches as customers want to buy] — see also SUPPLY AND DEMAND

4 demands [plural] a : difficult things you have to do because someone requires you to do them or because they are part of a job, activity, etc. — often + of ▪ He wasn't sure he could handle the physical demands of the work. ▪ The demands of the job became too much for him. ▪ New parents are sometimes overwhelmed by the demands of parenthood.

b — used to describe something that requires a large amount of energy, time, etc. ▪ Record high temperatures have placed heavy demands on the nation's energy supplies. [=because of the high temperatures, a lot of the nation's energy is being used] ▪ A full-time job in addition to school puts great demands on her time. [=most of her time is spent working and going to school] ▪ His novels make many demands on the reader. [=his novels are difficult for people to read and understand] in demand : needed or wanted by many people ▪ Tickets for her concerts are always in great demand. ▪ Good plumbers are in demand in our town.

on demand : when needed or wanted ▪ Help is available 24 hours a day on demand. ▪ The debt is payable on demand. [=it must be paid whenever the person who is owed the money wants it] — see also ON-DEMAND popular demand : a request made by or a desire shared by many people ▪ Because of popular demand, the restaurant has published a cookbook of favorite recipes. ▪ The show will continue for another week due to popular demand. ▪ The circus will be back by popular demand [=because many people want it to come back] later this summer.

[2]demand verb -mands; -mand•ed; -mand•ing [+ obj]

1 : to say in a forceful way that something must be done or given to you : to say that you have a right to (something) ▪ The customer demanded a refund. ▪ He demanded an apology. ▪ Parents have demanded that the teacher resign. ▪ The reporter demanded to see the documents. ▪ I demand to know what is going on here!

2 : to say or ask (something) in a very forceful way ▪ "Come here at once!" he demanded. ▪ "Why won't you answer me?" she demanded.

3 : to require (something) ▪ He is very sick and demands constant care. [=he has to be given constant care] ▪ The situation demands immediate action. ▪ A certain standard of dress is demanded by some professions. [=some people have to dress a certain way because of their jobs] ▪ The job demands too much of him. [=the job requires him to do too much] ▪ The group demands [=insists on] total honesty from its members.

demanding adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : requiring much time, attention, or effort ▪ She had a demanding schedule with little free time. ▪ Factory work can be physically demanding. ▪ I have heard it is one of the most demanding courses at the university.

2 : expecting much time, attention, effort, etc., from other people : hard to satisfy ▪ Their boss was really demanding, often expecting them to work long into the night. — opposite UNDEMANDING de•mar•cate /dɪˈmɑːˌkeɪt, ˈdiːˌmɑːˌkeɪt/ verb -cates; -cat•ed; -cat•ing [+ obj] formal : to show the limits or edges of (something) ▪ The plot of land is demarcated by a low brick wall. ▪ The bounardy between the countries must be clearly demarcated.

– de•mar•ca•tion /ˌdiːˌmɑːˈkeɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [noncount] the demarcation of the boundary ▪ Troops are positioned on either side of the line of demarcation. = Troops are positioned on either side of the demarcation line. [count] The media has blurred the demarcations [=lines, boundaries] between news and entertainment.

de•mean /dɪˈmiːn/ verb -means; -meaned; -mean•ing [+ obj] : to cause (someone or something) to seem less important or less worthy of respect ▪ He was careful not to demean [=debase, put down] his opponent, choosing instead to show him respect. ▪ Her statement demeans the hard work the group has done. ▪ Their casual reaction demeans the seriousness of the problem. [=fails to treat the problem in an appropriately serious way] ▪ I refuse to demean myself by replying to these unjust accusations.

– demeaning adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ Our petty arguments are demeaning to us both. ▪ His comment is demeaning to women. ▪ He found the work demeaning. [=degrading] ▪ demeaning stereotypes de•mean•or (US) or Brit de•mean•our /dɪˈmiːnɚ/ noun, pl -ors [count] : a person's appearance and behavior : the way someone seems to be to other people — usually singular ▪ She has a shy/friendly/warm demeanor. ▪ His quiet demeanor [=manner, bearing] had a calming effect on us. ▪ They maintained a solemn demeanor as they told us the bad news.

de•ment•ed /dɪˈmɛntəd/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not able to think clearly or to understand what is real and what is not real : crazy or insane ▪ Many of the patients there were demented. ▪ In the movie, he plays a demented man trying to survive on the streets of Los Angeles. ▪ Her demented ramblings are a symptom of her illness. ▪ He gave me a demented little smile. ▪ parents who are almost demented with worry

de•men•tia /dɪˈmɛnʃə/ noun, pl -tias medical : a mental illness that causes someone to be unable to think clearly or to understand what is real and what is not real [noncount] This patient suffers from dementia. [count] a new study on age-related dementias — see also SENILE DEMENTIA dem•e•rara sugar /ˌdɛməˈrɑrə-, ˌdɛməˈrerə-/ noun [noncount] Brit : a kind of light brown sugar

D

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 31 SESS: 8 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:28:04 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−d

de•mer•it /dɪˈmerət/ noun, pl -its [count]
1 US : a mark that is made on the school record of a student who has done something wrong ▪ Students are given demerits if they arrive late for classes.
2 formal : a bad quality in something or someone : a feature or part of something or someone that is unpleasant — usually plural ▪ The demerits of that job outweigh the benefits. ▪ We considered both the merits and demerits of the plan.

demi- /ˈdɛmi/ prefix : half or partly ▪ *demi*god

demi•god /ˈdɛmiˌgɑːd/ noun, pl -gods [count]
1 : an extremely impressive or important person : a person who seems like a god in some way ▪ the demigods of jazz
2 : a person in mythology who has some of the powers of a god : a being in mythology who is part god and part human ▪ the Greek demigod Triton de•mil•i•ta•rize also Brit de•mil•i•ta•rise /dɪˈmɪlətəˌraɪz/ verb -riz•es; -rized; -riz•ing [+ obj] : to remove weapons and military forces from (an area) — usually used as (be) demilitarized ▪ Analysts predict that the area will not be fully demilitarized this year. ▪ the demilitarized zone [=DMZ] between North and South Korea — opposite MILITARIZE

– de•mil•i•ta•ri•za•tion also Brit de•mil•i•ta•ri•sa•tion /dɪˌmɪlətərəˈzeɪʃən, Brit ˌdɪˌmɪlətəˌraɪˈzeɪʃən/ noun [noncount]

de•mise /dɪˈmaɪz/ noun [singular] formal 1 : an end of life : DEATH ▪ She had/owned no property at the time of her demise. ▪ The musician met an untimely demise. ▪ There are several theories about what caused the demise [=extinction] of the dinosaurs.
2 : the end of something that is thought of as being like a death ▪ We have not had truly local news coverage since the town newspaper's demise three years ago. ▪ the company's imminent demise ▪ Losing this game will mean/spell the team's demise.

de•mist /diˈmɪst/ verb -mists; -mist•ed; -mist•ing [+ obj] Brit : DEFOG demi•tasse /ˈdɛmɪˌtæs/ noun, pl -tass•es [count] chiefly US : a small amount of black coffee that is served in a small cup; also : the cup used to serve it

demo /ˈdɛmoʊ/ noun, pl dem•os [count]
1 : an example of a product that is not yet ready to be sold ▪ She will be showing a demo of the company's new alarm system. ▪ a demo version of the software
2 : an act of showing someone how something is used or done : DEMONSTRATION ▪ I saw a demo on how to use the computer program. ▪ The salesman gave us a demo of the vacuum cleaner, and it seemed to work very well.
3 : a recording that musicians make in order to show what their music is like ▪ They sent the demo to several record companies. ▪ She cut/made a demo last week.
4 Brit, informal : DEMONSTRATION 2 ▪ an antiwar demo

de•mob /diˈmɑb/ verb -mobs; -mobbed; -mob•bing [+ obj] chiefly Brit : DEMOBILIZE

de•mo•bi•lize also Brit de•mo•bi•lise /dɪˈmoʊbəˌlaɪz/ verb -liz•es; -lized; -liz•ing [+ obj] : to release (someone or something) from military service ▪ Both leaders agreed to demobilize their armies and sign the peace treaty. ▪ Ships returned to port to be demobilized. [=to be changed so that they were no longer ready for war]
– de•mo•bi•li•za•tion also Brit de•mo•bi•li•sa•tion /dɪˌmoʊbələˈzeɪʃən, Brit dɪˌmoʊbəˌlaɪˈzeɪʃən/ noun [noncount]

de•moc•ra•cy /dɪˈmɑːkrəsi/ noun, pl -cies
1 a [noncount] : a form of government in which people choose leaders by voting ▪ The nation has chosen democracy over monarchy. ▪ the principles of democracy b [count] : a country ruled by democracy ▪ In a democracy, every citizen should have the right to vote. ▪ Western democracies
2 : an organization or situation in which everyone is treated equally and has equal rights [count] The company is not a democracy; decisions are made by a board of directors, not the workers. [noncount] There is democracy within the company. — see also SOCIAL DEMOCRACY dem•o•crat /ˈdɛməˌkræt/ noun, pl -crats [count]

1 : a person who believes in or supports democracy
2 Democrat : a member of the Democratic Party of the U.S. ▪ a lifelong Democrat — compare REPUBLICAN

dem•o•crat•ic /ˌdɛməˈkrætɪk/ adj
1 : based on a form of government in which the people choose leaders by voting : of or relating to democracy ▪ The dictatorship gave way to a democratic (form of) government. ▪ Democratic elections were held there today for the first time. ▪ the country's new democratic constitution ▪ Debates are an important part of the democratic process.
2 Democratic : of or relating to one of the two major political parties in the U.S. ▪ The Democratic candidate for governor won the debate. ▪ Most of these policies appeal to Democratic voters. ▪ an interview with a leader of the Democratic Party — compare REPUBLICAN
3 [more ~; most ~] : relating to the idea that all people should be treated equally ▪ democratic principles ▪ The organization works to promote democratic reforms/changes around the world. ▪ a more democratic society
4 [more ~; most ~] formal : designed for or liked by most people ▪ democratic art ▪ Her article extols the benefits of democratic education.
– dem•o•crat•i•cal•ly /ˌdɛməˈkrætɪkli/ adv ▪ a democratically elected leader ▪ Decisions in the company are made democratically.

de•moc•ra•tize also Brit de•moc•ra•tise /dɪˈmɑːkrəˌtaɪz/ verb -tiz•es; -tized; -tiz•ing
1 : to make (a country or organization) more democratic [+ obj] Community leaders have had some success in democratizing the organization. [no obj] There is internal pressure on the government to democratize.
2 [+ obj] formal : to make (something) available to all people : to make it possible for all people to understand (something) ▪ The magazine's goal is to democratize art. ▪ an effort to democratize politics
– de•moc•ra•ti•za•tion also Brit de•moc•ra•ti•sa•tion /dɪˌmɑːkrətəˈzeɪʃən, Brit dɪˌmɒkrəˌtaɪˈzeɪʃən/ noun [noncount]

[1]de•mo•graph•ic /ˌdɛməˈgræfɪk/ noun, pl -ics
1 demographics [plural] : the qualities (such as age, sex, and income) of a specific group of people ▪ The town's demographics suggest that the restaurant will do well there. ▪ The newspaper will be making some changes in order to adapt to the region's shifting demographics. ▪ The demographics of the disease are changing, and we are seeing much younger people being affected by it.
2 [count] : a group of people that has a particular set of qualities — usually singular ▪ The magazine is trying to reach a younger/older demographic.

[2]demographic adj : of or relating to the study of changes that occur in large groups of people over a period of time : of or relating to demography ▪ The demographic information shows that the population increased but the average income went down. ▪ demographic trends/changes

de•mog•ra•phy /dɪˈmɑːgrəfi/ noun [noncount] : the study of changes (such as the number of births, deaths, marriages, and illnesses) that occur over a period of time in human populations; also : a set of such changes ▪ the shifting demography of Europe
– de•mog•ra•pher /dɪˈmɑːgrəfə/ noun, pl -phers [count]

de•mol•ish /dɪˈmɑːlɪʃ/ verb -ish•es; -ished; -ish•ing [+ obj]
1 a : to destroy (a building, bridge, etc.) : to forcefully tear down or take apart (a structure) ▪ The old factory was demolished to make way for a new parking lot. ▪ Tons of explosives were used to demolish the building. ▪ The town hopes to restore the old theater rather than have it demolished. b : to damage (something) so that it cannot be repaired ▪ The car was demolished in the accident. — often used figuratively ▪ His professional reputation was demolished [=ruined] by the scandal. ▪ The research demolished several myths about the disease. ▪ Her study demolished a theory that had gone unquestioned for years.
2 informal : to eat all of (something) quickly ▪ We demolished [=devoured] the pie in only a few minutes.
3 informal : to defeat (a person or team) easily or completely ▪ They demolished the other team 51–7.

de•mo•li•tion /ˌdɛməˈlɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions : deliberate destruction of a building or other structure [noncount] The old factory is scheduled for demolition next week. [count] The demolitions should be complete by the end of the year. — often used before another noun ▪ He is part of the demolition crew/team. ▪ a demolition project ▪ a demolitions expert — sometimes used figuratively ▪ the demolition of several myths about the disease demolition derby noun, pl ~ -bies [count] chiefly US : a contest in which drivers in old cars crash into each other until only one car is still running

de•mon /ˈdiːmən/ noun, pl -mons [count]
1 : an evil spirit ▪ angels and demons [=devils]

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 32 SESS: 8 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:28:04 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-d

2 informal : a person who has a lot of energy or enthusiasm ▪ She is a demon for work. = She works like a demon. [=she works very hard] — see also SPEED DEMON
3 : something that causes a person to have a lot of trouble or unhappiness — usually plural ▪ She spent her whole life battling the demons of drug and alcohol addiction. ▪ He finally was able to face the demons from his unhappy childhood. ▪ his inner demons

demon drink noun
the demon drink Brit, usually humorous : alcoholic drink ▪ slave to the demon drink [=unable to resist drinking alcohol]

de•mo•ni•ac /dɪˈmoʊniˌæk/ also de•mo•ni•a•cal /ˌdi:moˈnajəkəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : DEMONIC ▪ demoniac possession ▪ demoniac fury/energy

de•mon•ic /dɪˈmɑ:nɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] : caused or done by a demon ▪ demonic possession : of, relating to, or like a demon ▪ demonic cruelty/laughter/energy

de•mon•stra•ble /dɪˈmɑ:nstrəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : able to be proven or shown : possible to demonstrate ▪ There is no demonstrable evidence that the treatment is effective. ▪ a clearly demonstrable improvement – de•mon•stra•bly /dɪˈmɑ:nstrəbli/ adv ▪ The statements are demonstrably untrue/false.

dem•on•strate /ˈdɛmənˌstreɪt/ verb -strates; -strat•ed; -strat•ing
1 [+ obj] a : to prove (something) by showing examples of it : to show evidence of (something) ▪ Each student must demonstrate mastery of the subject matter in order to pass the class. ▪ Employees must demonstrate competence in certain skills before they can work independently. ▪ The medication will not be marketed until it is demonstrated to be safe. b : to prove (something) by being an example of it : to be evidence of (something) ▪ The town's crowded classrooms demonstrate [=point to] the need for more schools in the area. ▪ The latest test results clearly demonstrate that the vaccine works. ▪ The group's failed efforts demonstrate how difficult it is to convince people to change their habits.
2 [+ obj] : to show (a quality, feeling, etc.) clearly to other people ▪ They have demonstrated a willingness to negotiate.
3 [+ obj] : to show or explain how something is used or done : to show or explain the function or use of (something) ▪ Several people will be demonstrating traditional farming techniques. ▪ The instructor demonstrated the correct procedure for pruning a tree. ▪ Would you mind demonstrating how the machine works?
4 [no obj] : to take part in an event in which people gather together in order to show that they support or oppose something or someone ▪ A large crowd was demonstrating [=protesting] downtown. ▪ Protesters demonstrated against the war.

dem•on•stra•tion /ˌdɛmənˈstreɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions
1 : an act of showing someone how something is used or done [count] I went to a sculpture demonstration last weekend. ▪ One of the instructors gave/did a demonstration of how to prune a tree. ▪ Would you mind giving us a demonstration so that we can see how the machine works? [noncount] He brought along a copy of the software for demonstration. — sometimes used before another noun ▪ We saw a demonstration [=demo] version of the new software.
2 : an event in which people gather together in order to show that they support or oppose something or someone [count] Students took part in several nonviolent/peaceful demonstrations against the government. ▪ demonstrations against the war = antiwar demonstrations ▪ demonstrations for women's rights [noncount] Protesters marched in demonstration.
3 : an act of showing or proving something [count] The latest tests are a clear demonstration that the vaccine works. — often + of ▪ a demonstration of their power/loyalty/skill ▪ a demonstration of grief/bravery ▪ They brought some bread to share as a demonstration [=token] of goodwill. [noncount] Many people sent cards and flowers in demonstration of their sympathy.
– dem•on•stra•tion•al /ˌdɛmənˈstreɪʃənl/ adj ▪ a demonstrational video

[1]de•mon•stra•tive /dɪˈmɑ:nstrətɪv/ adj
1 [more ~; most ~] formal : freely and openly showing emotion or feelings ▪ She is more demonstrative (about her feelings) than I am. [=she shows her feelings more openly than I do]
2 grammar : showing who or what is being referred to ▪ In the phrase "this is my hat," the word "this" is a demonstrative pronoun. ▪ In the phrase "give me that book," the word "that" is a demonstrative adjective.

[2]demonstrative noun, pl -tives [count] : a word (such as "this," "that," "these," or "those") that tells who or what is being referred to dem•on•stra•tor /ˈdɛmənˌstreɪtə/ noun, pl -tors [count]

1 : a person who is part of an event in which people gather together in order to show that they support or oppose something or someone : a person who participates in a demonstration ▪ Thousands of demonstrators marched through the streets. ▪ antiwar demonstrators
2 : a person who shows other people how something is used or done ▪ a product demonstrator

de•mor•al•ize also Brit de•mor•al•ise /dɪˈmorəˌlaɪz/ verb -iz•es; -ized; -iz•ing [+ obj] : to cause (someone) to lose hope, courage, or confidence : to weaken the morale of (a person or group) ▪ They demoralized [=discouraged, disheartened] the other team by scoring three goals in a row.
– de•mor•al•i•za•tion /dɪˌmorələˈzeɪʃən, Brit dɪˌmɒrəˌlaɪˈzeɪʃən/ noun [noncount] – demoralized adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ The troops were completely demoralized. – demoralizing adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ They suffered a series of demoralizing defeats.

de•mote /diˈmoʊt/ verb -motes; -mot•ed; -mot•ing [+ obj] : to change the rank or position of (someone) to a lower or less important one ▪ Teachers can choose to demote a student to a lower grade. ▪ The army major was demoted to captain. — opposite PROMOTE – de•mo•tion /dɪˈmoʊʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count, noncount]

de•mot•ic /dɪˈmɑ:tɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : popular or common ▪ a more demotic way of speaking ▪ demotic culture

[1]de•mur /dɪˈmə/ verb -murs; -murred; -mur•ring [no obj] formal
1 : to disagree politely with another person's statement or suggestion ▪ She suggested that he would win easily, but he demurred, saying he expected the election to be close.
2 : to politely refuse to accept a request or suggestion ▪ A number of people wanted her to run for governor, but she demurred. [=declined]

[2]demur noun [count] chiefly Brit, formal : an act of disagreeing about something — usually used in the phrase without demur ▪ She accepted the group's decision without demur. [=(more commonly) without protest] de•mure /dɪˈmjuə/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : quiet and polite — usually used to describe a woman or girl ▪ a demure young lady
2 : not attracting or demanding a lot of attention : not showy or flashy ▪ She was wearing a demure gray suit. ▪ the demure charm of the cottage ▪ a demure personality
– de•mure•ly adv ▪ a demurely dressed young woman ▪ She smiled demurely. – de•mure•ness noun [noncount] de•mur•ral /dɪˈmərəl/ noun, pl -als [count] formal : an act of disagreeing politely about something : an act of demurring ▪ Suggestions that she run for president have been met with repeated demurrals.

de•mys•ti•fy /diˈmɪstəˌfaɪ/ verb - es ; - ed ; -fy•ing [+ obj] : to make (something) clear and easy to understand : to explain (something) so that it no longer confuses or mystifies someone ▪ The class is intended to demystify the process of using a computer.
– de•mys•ti• •ca•tion /diˌmɪstəfəˈkeɪʃən/ noun [noncount]

den /ˈdɛn/ noun, pl dens [count]
1 : the home of some kinds of wild animals ▪ a fox's den [=lair] ▪ The bears will spend most of the winter in their den. — see also LION'S DEN
2 a US : an informal and comfortable room in a house ▪ The TV is in the den. b chiefly Brit, informal + old-fashioned : a small and quiet room in a house where someone goes to read, work, etc. ▪ He spent most evenings in the den reading and smoking his pipe.
3 : a secret place where people meet especially to do things that are illegal or immoral ▪ a den of thieves ▪ a gambling den ▪ an opium den ▪ the club's reputation as a den of iniquity [=a place where immoral or illegal things are done]
4 Brit : a small often secret structure that children play in ▪ The children had built themselves a den in the woods.
5 US : a group of Cub Scouts — see also DEN MOTHER

de•na•tion•al•ize also de•na•tion•al•ise /diˈnæʃənəˌlaɪz/ verb -iz•es; -ized; -iz•ing [+ obj] Brit : PRIVATIZE de•ni•able /dɪˈnajəbəl/ adj : possible to deny ▪ The failure of

D

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 33 SESS: 8 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:28:05 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−d

the policy is no longer deniable. [=it is no longer reasonable to say that the policy is not failing] — opposite UNDENIABLE

de•ni•al /dɪˈnajəl/ noun, pl -als
1 [count] : a statement saying that something is not true or real : a statement in which someone denies something ▪ She issued a flat/absolute/outright denial of the charges made against her. ▪ The accusations have met with angry denials from school officials. ▪ The city government has been heavily criticized for its denial of the seriousness of the situation. ▪ her denial of responsibility
2 [noncount] psychology : a condition in which someone will not admit that something sad, painful, etc., is true or real ▪ I think she's still in a state of denial about her husband's death. [=she still has not fully accepted that her husband is dead] — often used in the phrase in denial ▪ He's in denial about his drinking problem. [=he will not admit that he drinks too much alcohol]
3 : the act of not allowing someone to have something [noncount] The hardest part of the punishment was the denial of his right to see his children. ▪ The group is protesting the denial of voting rights to convicted felons. ▪ The lawyers were disappointed by the court's denial of their motion to dismiss the case. [count] — usually singular ▪ Making false statements on a job application will result in a denial of employment. ▪ The court has issued a denial of their motion. — see also SELF-DENIAL den•i•grate /ˈdɛnɪˌgreɪt/ verb -grates; -grat•ed; -grat•ing [+ obj] formal

1 : to say very critical and often unfair things about (someone) ▪ Various groups denigrated [=slandered, maligned] both candidates throughout the presidential campaign. ▪ Her story denigrates him as a person and as a teacher.
2 : to make (something) seem less important or valuable ▪ Such behavior denigrates [=belittles] the value of honesty in the workplace. ▪ No one is trying to denigrate the importance of a good education. We all know that it is crucial for success. ▪ denigrating the talents and achievements of women
– den•i•gra•tion /ˌdɛnɪˈgreɪʃən/ noun [noncount]

den•im /ˈdɛnəm/ noun, pl -ims
1 [noncount] : a strong usually blue cotton cloth that is used especially to make jeans — often used before another noun ▪ denim jeans ▪ a denim skirt/jacket
2 denims [plural] : pants that are made of denim ▪ He's wearing faded denims and cowboy boots.

den•i•zen /ˈdɛnəzən/ noun, pl -zens [count] : a person, animal, or plant that lives in or often is found in a particular place or region ▪ the city's nightclub denizens [=people who often go to nightclubs] — usually + of ▪ the denizens of the forest ▪ He was well known among the denizens of the city's criminal underworld. ▪ denizens of the deep [=plants and animals that live in the deepest parts of the ocean]

den mother noun, pl ∼ -ers [count] US : a woman who is the leader of a group of Cub Scouts

de•nom•i•na•tion /dɪˌnɑːməˈneɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count]
1 : a religious group ▪ People from several different religious denominations participated in the event. ▪ Methodists, Baptists, and other Christian denominations ▪ It's one of the more conservative denominations.
2 a : the value that a particular coin or bill has ▪ coins of different denominations [=pennies, nickels, dimes, etc.] ▪ The kidnappers asked for bills in small denominations. b : an amount of money that something is worth ▪ The gift certificates are available in $5 and $10 denominations.
3 formal : a general name for a group or kind ▪ She spoke with people of many different political denominations.
– de•nom•i•na•tion•al /dɪˌnɑːməˈneɪʃənl/ adj ▪ denominational differences

de•nom•i•na•tor /dɪˈnɑːməˌneɪtɚ/ noun, pl -tors [count] mathematics : the number in a fraction that is below the line and that divides the number above the line ▪ In the fraction ⅔, the numerator is 2 and the denominator is 3. — compare NUMERATOR; see also COMMON DENOMINATOR

de•no•ta•tion /ˌdiːnoʊˈteɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count] : the meaning of a word or phrase ▪ The word has one literal denotation but several different connotations. ▪ The definition provides the word's denotation. — compare CONNOTATION

de•note /dɪˈnoʊt/ verb -notes; -noted; -not•ing [+ obj] formal
1 of a word : to have (something) as a meaning : to mean (something) ▪ The word "derby" can denote a horse race or a kind of hat. — compare CONNOTE
2 : to show, mark, or be a sign of (something) ▪ The symbol * next to a name denotes [=indicates] a contest finalist. ▪ Her death denoted the end of an era.

de•noue•ment also dé•noue•ment /ˌdeɪˌnuːˈmɑːn/ noun, pl -ments [count] formal : the final part of something (such as a book, a play, or a series of events) ▪ In the play's denouement, the two lovers kill themselves. ▪ the competition's exciting denouement

de•nounce /dɪˈnaʊns/ verb -nounc•es; -nounced; -nounc•ing [+ obj]
1 : to publicly state that someone or something is bad or wrong : to criticize (someone or something) harshly and publicly ▪ The government called on the group to denounce the use of violence. ▪ denouncing their political enemies ▪ The film was denounced for the way it portrayed its female characters. — often + as ▪ The film was denounced [=condemned] as sexist. ▪ His former followers now denounce him as a traitor. ▪ The plan was denounced as risky and dangerous.
2 : to report (someone) to the police or other authorities for illegal or immoral acts — often + as ▪ She had to flee the country after being denounced as a spy to government authorities.

dense /ˈdɛns/ adj dens•er; -est [or more ∼; most ∼]
1 : having parts that are close together ▪ They cut a path through the dense jungle. ▪ dense undergrowth ▪ The book's pages were dense [=packed, filled] with helpful ideas. ▪ the cat's dense [=thick] coat of fur ▪ a dense tangle of wires ▪ heavy, dense bread ▪ a dense cluster of stars
2 : crowded with people ▪ That part of the city has a dense population of immigrants. ▪ A dense mass of spectators filled the courtroom.
3 informal : not smart : not able to understand things easily ▪ I'm sorry to be so dense [=slow-witted, stupid, dumb] this morning. ▪ In the movie, she plays his kind but somewhat dense aunt.
4 : difficult to see through ▪ We drove though dense [=thick] fog/smoke.
5 : difficult to understand; especially : hard to read ▪ The book's technical subject and dense prose will discourage many readers.
6 technical : heavier than most things of the same size ▪ a dense substance like lead or mercury ▪ a disease that causes bones to become less dense [=to become less solid and heavy]
– dense•ly adv ▪ a densely populated area [=an area in which many people live] ▪ densely forested mountains ▪ a densely packed sports arena – dense•ness noun [noncount]

den•si•ty /ˈdɛnsəti/ noun, pl -ties
1 [noncount] : the quality or state of being dense: such as a : the quality of having parts that are close together ▪ the jungle's density b : the quality of being difficult to see through ▪ We were surprised by the fog's density. c : the quality of being difficult to understand ▪ the density of her writing style
2 : the amount of something in a particular space or area [count] This part of the country has a high population density. [=many people live in this part of the country] [noncount] There has been an increase in (population) density in this area.
3 technical : the amount of matter in something that is shown by the relationship between its weight and size [count] metals with different densities ▪ These instruments are used for measuring the density of the atmosphere. [noncount] older women who have lost bone density [=whose bones are less solid and heavy]

[1]dent /ˈdɛnt/ noun, pl dents [count] : an area on a surface that is lower than the rest of the surface especially because of being hit or pushed in ▪ The accident left/made a small dent in the car's fender. ▪ a few small dents in the wall
make/put a dent ✧ In figurative use, to make a dent (in something) or to put a dent in something is to decrease something slightly or to make it somewhat weaker. ▪ We tried our best to fix the problem, but nothing we did seems to have made a dent. [=nothing we did has had any effect] ▪ It's going to take more than a new law to make a dent in the city's drug crime. [=a new law is not enough to decrease the city's drug crime] ▪ The $10,000 payment hardly makes a dent in the amount the company owes. ▪ a vacation that won't put too big a dent in your wallet [=a vacation that will not cost a lot of money]

[2]dent verb dents; dent•ed; dent•ing
1 : to make a dent in (something) [+ obj] I'm afraid I dented the wall pretty badly when I was hammering in that nail. ▪ He

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 34 SESS: 8 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:28:05 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-d

dented his (car's) fender in the accident. ▪ Many of the cans were badly dented. [no obj] Some types of metal dent more easily than others.

2 [+ obj] : to decrease (something) : to make (something) weaker ▪ The team's confidence has been dented by a recent series of losses.

den•tal /'dɛntl/ adj : of or relating to teeth or to the work dentists do ▪ dental decay ▪ your dental records [=the information about your teeth that your dentist has] ▪ She decided to go to dental school. [=a school where you are trained to be a dentist]

dental floss noun [noncount] : a special thread that is used to clean between your teeth — see picture at GROOMING

dental hygienist noun, pl ~ -ists [count] : a person who works with a dentist and whose job includes cleaning people's teeth

dente see AL DENTE

den•tist /'dɛntəst/ noun, pl -tists [count]

1 : a person whose job is to care for people's teeth ▪ I have an appointment with my dentist today. = I have a dentist appointment today.

2 the dentist or the dentist's : the place where a dentist works ▪ I saw her at the dentist last week. ▪ He goes to the dentist's for a check-up every six months.

den•tist•ry /'dɛntəstri/ noun [noncount] : the work that a dentist does ▪ a career in dentistry

den•ture /'dɛntʃɚ/ noun, pl -tures [count] : a set of artificial teeth — usually plural ▪ She takes out her dentures before going to bed. ▪ a new pair of dentures [=false teeth] ▪ partial dentures [=a partial set of artificial teeth]

de•nude /dɪ'nu:d, Brit dɪ'nju:d/ verb -nudes; -nud•ed; -nud•ing [+ obj] : to remove all the trees from (an area) or all the leaves from (a tree) ▪ Excessive logging has denuded the hillside of trees. — usually used as (be) denuded ▪ a countryside denuded by wildfires ▪ a landscape of denuded trees — sometimes used figuratively ▪ people denuded of hope [=people who have lost all hope]

de•nun•ci•a•tion /dɪˌnʌnsi'eɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions : a public statement that strongly criticizes someone or something as being bad or wrong : a statement that denounces something or someone [count] The attack drew strong denunciations from leaders around the world. ▪ a denunciation of violence [noncount] a letter of denunciation

Den•ver boot /'dɛnvə-/ noun, pl ~ boots [count] US : an object that the police lock onto one of the wheels of a car so that the car cannot be moved ✧ A Denver boot is usually placed on a car in order to force the car's owner to pay money that is owed for parking illegally. — called also (US) boot, (Brit) clamp, (Brit) wheel clamp

de•ny /dɪ'naɪ/ verb -nies; -nied; -ny•ing [+ obj]

1 a : to say that something is not true ▪ He denied the report that he would be quitting his job. ▪ She denies all the charges that have been made against her. ▪ I don't deny that I have made some mistakes. [=I admit that I have made some mistakes] ▪ They are still denying (that) the problem exists. ▪ The police deny that racism is a problem in the department. ▪ Yes, I was there. I don't deny it. ▪ There's no denying [=it is clearly true] that he knows how to run a successful company. b : to refuse to accept or admit (something) ▪ You can't deny her beauty. = You can't deny that she is beautiful. ▪ She denied responsibility [=she said that she was not responsible] for the error.

2 : to refuse to give (something) to someone : to prevent someone from having or receiving (something) ▪ The banks denied [=refused] them credit. ▪ The judge denied their request. ▪ I don't want to deny them this pleasure. = I don't want to deny this pleasure to them. ▪ a government that denies its citizens basic freedoms — see also denied bail at [1]BAIL deny yourself : to not allow yourself to enjoy things or to have the things that you want ▪ On this diet, I don't feel like I'm denying myself. ▪ I'm not denying myself the foods that I love, I'm just eating smaller amounts. ▪ He's always denied himself the simple pleasures in life.

de•odor•ant /di'oʊdərənt/ noun, pl -ants [count, noncount] : a substance that you put on your body and especially under your arms to prevent, remove, or hide unpleasant smells — see picture at GROOMING; compare ANTIPERSPIRANT

– deodorant adj, always used before a noun ▪ deodorant soap

de•odor•ize also Brit de•odor•ise /di'oʊdəˌraɪz/ verb -iz•es; -ized; -iz•ing [+ obj] : to remove an unpleasant smell from (something) ▪ We had the carpet cleaned and deodorized.

– de•odor•iz•er also Brit de•odor•is•er noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ room deodorizers

de•oxy•ri•bo•nu•cle•ic acid /di'ɑ:ksiˌraɪboʊnu'kli:jɪk-/ noun [noncount] technical : DNA

dep. abbr depart; departure ▪ flight 348 dep. 8:30 a.m.

de•part /di'pɑət/ verb -parts; -part•ed; -part•ing

1 somewhat formal a : to leave a place especially to start a journey [no obj] The group is scheduled to depart tomorrow at 8:00 a.m. ▪ Our flight departs at 6:15 a.m. ▪ The train departed (from the station) on time. [+ obj] (US) ▪ The train departed the station on time. b [no obj] : to leave a job or position ▪ He is departing after 20 years with the company. ▪ She is replacing the departing manager. [=the manager who is leaving that job]

2 [no obj] : to change something or do something in a different way — usually + from ▪ The river departs [=turns, deviates] from its original course a few miles downstream. ▪ The actors were not allowed to depart from the script. [=they were not allowed to say anything that was not in the script] ▪ The company's managers don't want to depart from an approach that has worked well in the past. [=they do not want to change their approach] depart this life formal : to die ▪ My aunt departed this life at the age of 92.

departed adj

1 somewhat formal : no longer living — used as a polite way to say that someone is dead ▪ We have come to say goodbye to our dear departed friend. ▪ his recently departed father

2 literary : existing in the past ▪ These clothes recall the elegance of a departed [=bygone] era.

the departed : people who have died ▪ They left flowers at the graves of the departed. ▪ the spirits of the departed

de•part•ment /dɪ'pɑətmənt/ noun, pl -ments [count]

1 : one of the major parts of a company, organization, government, or school ▪ Your letter has been forwarded to our sales department. ▪ When you get to the hospital, go directly to the X-ray department. ▪ the country's energy department ▪ the Department of Defense = the Defense Department ▪ the county sheriff's department ▪ the university's math and science departments ▪ the department of modern languages ▪ the college's athletic department ▪ She joined the town's police department. — abbr. dept.; see also FIRE DEPARTMENT

2 : an area in a store where a particular kind of product is sold ▪ the toy department ▪ "Which department should we go to first?" "I'd like to start in the men's department." [=the part of the store that sells clothing for men]

3 informal a : a subject or activity that a person is interested in or responsible for ▪ Taking care of the cat is not my department. [=responsibility] b often humorous — used to say that someone or something has or does not have a particular quality ▪ She's sweet, but she's somewhat lacking in the intelligence department. [=she is not very intelligent] ▪ He does pretty well in the looks department. [=he is attractive] ▪ Both cars do well in the safety department. [=both cars are safe to drive]

– de•part•men•tal /dɪˌpɑət'mɛntl/ adj ▪ departmental responsibilities ▪ the departmental budget

de•part•men•tal•ize also Brit de•part•men•tal•ise /dɪˌpɑət'mɛntəˌlaɪz/ verb -iz•es; -ized; -iz•ing [+ obj] : to divide (something, such as a company) into departments ▪ The organization is highly departmentalized.

department store noun, pl ~ stores [count] : a large store that has separate areas in which different kinds of products are sold

de•par•ture /dɪ'pɑətʃɚ/ noun, pl -tures

1 : the act of departing: such as a : the act of leaving a place especially to start a journey [noncount] What is your time of departure? ▪ Our departure is scheduled for 5 p.m. = Our departure time is 5 p.m. ▪ They had to postpone (their) departure because of bad weather. ▪ You should plan to arrive at the airport an hour before departure. ▪ the ferry's departure point [count] a schedule of arrivals and departures b [count] : the act of leaving a job, an organization, etc. ▪ The departures of several key employees have caused problems for the company. ▪ her sudden departure from the company ▪ The team has struggled since the departure of its head coach.

2 [count] : a new or different way of doing something ▪ His previous movies have all been comedies, so this dramatic role is a real departure for him. — often + from ▪ These new techniques are major/dramatic/radical departures from standard practices. ▪ a departure from tradition — see also POINT OF DEPARTURE

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 35 SESS: 8 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:28:06 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-d

de•pend /dɪˈpɛnd/ verb -pends; -pend•ed; -pend•ing [no obj] informal — used in speech in phrases like it depends and that depends to say that the answer to a question will be different in different situations ▪ "Are you going to the party?" "I might. It depends." [=I do not know yet; there may be something that prevents me from being able to go or from wanting to go] ▪ "Do you think you'll go back to college?" "It all depends. I will if I can afford it." ▪ "Which team do you think will win?" "That depends. If all of our players are healthy, I think we'll win." ▪ (very informal) "How long does it take to get to the airport?" "Depends. If you're going during rush hour it'll take at least an hour. If not, you can probably be there in 20 minutes."

depend on/upon [phrasal verb] depend on/upon (someone or something) 1 : to be determined or decided by (something) ▪ We're not sure if we'll have the picnic. It depends on the weather. [=if the weather is good we will have the picnic] ▪ "Will you go back to college?" "I don't know. It depends on whether or not I can afford it." ▪ The stamp's value depends on how rare it is. ▪ Depending upon your child's weight and height, she or he may have to sit in the back seat of the car. ▪ It's not clear how many people were at the rally. Reports vary between 10,000 and 20,000, depending on who's counting. [=some people report that there were 10,000 people at the rally, others report that there were 20,000] — sometimes used informally without on or upon ▪ "Are you happy?" "It depends what you mean by 'happy.'" — see also life depends on at ¹LIFE 2 : to need (someone or something) for support, help, etc. ▪ He no longer depends on [=relies on] his parents for money. ▪ They depend heavily/largely/solely/entirely on her income to pay the bills. [=without her income they would not be able to pay their bills] 3 : to be sure about (someone or something) : to trust (someone or something) ▪ She's someone you can always depend on. [=count on] ▪ She will be remembered as a woman upon whom people could depend. ▪ The manufacturer promises quality you can depend on. — sometimes used humorously ▪ You could always depend on him to disagree. [=you could always be sure that he would disagree] ▪ I can always depend on it to rain on days when I forget my umbrella.

de•pend•able /dɪˈpɛndəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : able to be trusted to do or provide what is needed : able to be depended on ▪ The old well is a dependable source of water. [=there is always water in the old well] ▪ a dependable [=reliable] old car ▪ He's the team's most dependable [=consistent] player.

– de•pend•abil•i•ty /dɪˌpɛndəˈbɪlətɪ/ noun [noncount] ▪ the car's proven dependability [=reliability] – de•pend•ably /dɪˈpɛndəbli/ adv ▪ a plant that will bloom dependably [=reliably], year after year

de•pen•dence /dɪˈpɛndəns/ noun : the state of being dependent: such as a : the state of needing something or someone else for support, help, etc. — + on or upon [noncount] The company was hurt by its dependence on government loans. ▪ Our dependence upon foreign oil makes our economy vulnerable. [singular] a harmful dependence on foreign oil b : the state of being addicted to alcohol or a drug [noncount] drug and alcohol dependence [=addiction, dependency] [singular] — usually + on ▪ She eventually developed a dependence on the painkillers she was taking.

de•pen•den•cy /dɪˈpɛndənsi/ noun, pl -cies
1 : the quality of being dependent : DEPENDENCE [noncount] the country's dependency on foreign oil ▪ drug/chemical dependency [=addiction] [singular] a dependency on foreign oil
2 [count] : an area that is controlled by a country but that is not formally a part of it

¹de•pen•dent /dɪˈpɛndənt/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : decided or controlled by something else — + on or upon ▪ The stamp's value is dependent on how rare it is. ▪ She believes that success is dependent upon hard work. ▪ Whether or not we go is entirely dependent on the weather.
2 : needing someone or something else for support, help, etc. ▪ soldiers with dependent children [=soldiers who have children whose food, clothing, etc., they are responsible for providing] — usually + on or upon ▪ The region's economy is heavily/highly/largely dependent on tourism. ▪ They're entirely dependent on her income to pay the bills. ▪ He remained financially dependent on his parents even as an adult. ▪ children who are emotionally dependent on their mothers ▪ The theater is dependent upon the generosity of its patrons to pay for basic operating expenses.
3 : addicted to alcohol or a drug ▪ He has been alcohol dependent for several years. ▪ chemically dependent patients [=patients who are addicted to a drug]

²dependent also Brit de•pen•dant /dɪˈpɛndənt/ noun, pl -ents [count] : a person (such as a child) whose food, clothing, etc., you are responsible for providing ▪ The insurance provides coverage for workers and their dependents. ▪ a person's spouse and dependents ▪ Do you have any dependents?

dependent clause noun, pl ~ clauses [count] grammar : SUBORDINATE CLAUSE

de•pict /dɪˈpɪkt/ verb -picts; -pict•ed; -pict•ing [+ obj]
1 : to show (someone or something) in a picture, painting, photograph, etc. ▪ The wall was painted with a large mural depicting famous scenes from American history. ▪ Several of the architect's most famous buildings will soon be depicted on postage stamps. ▪ The photograph depicts the two brothers standing in front of a store. ▪ Angels are usually depicted with wings. ▪ In the drawing, the magic cap was depicted as a soft, black hat.
2 : to describe (someone or something) using words, a story, etc. ▪ The movie depicts the life of early settlers. ▪ I like the way she depicts the characters in her novels. ▪ His enemies depict [=portray] him as a cruel and dangerous leader.

– de•pic•tion /dɪˈpɪkʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count] an honest depiction of life in the city [noncount] The book is fascinating in its depiction of the country's early history.

de•pil•a•to•ry /dɪˈpɪləˌtori, Brit dɪˈpɪlətri/ noun, pl -ries [count] : a substance that removes body hair you do not want

– depilatory adj, always used before a noun ▪ a depilatory cream

de•plane /diˈpleɪn/ verb -planes; -planed; -plan•ing [no obj] chiefly US : to get out of an airplane after it arrives at an airport ▪ We were the last passengers to deplane. [=get off the plane]

de•plete /dɪˈpliːt/ verb -pletes; -plet•ed; -plet•ing [+ obj] : to use most or all of (something important) : to greatly reduce the amount of (something) ▪ Activities such as logging and mining deplete our natural resources. ▪ We completely depleted our life savings when we bought our new house. — often used as (be) depleted ▪ The soil has been depleted by years of drought. ▪ lakes and rivers that are depleted of fish ▪ depleted soil ▪ the country's badly depleted resources

– de•ple•tion /dɪˈpliːʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count] a depletion of the water supply [noncount] the depletion of the ozone layer = ozone depletion

de•plor•able /dɪˈplorəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : very bad in a way that causes shock, fear, or disgust : deserving to be deplored ▪ The company has shown a deplorable [=appalling, unconscionable] lack of concern for the environment. ▪ children living in deplorable [=horrible, disgusting, terrible] conditions ▪ deplorable ignorance

– de•plor•ably /dɪˈplorəbli/ adv ▪ deplorably cruel

de•plore /dɪˈploə/ verb -plores; -plored; -plor•ing [+ obj] : to hate or dislike (something) very much : to strongly disapprove of (something) ▪ We deplore the development of nuclear weapons. ▪ Many people deplored the change. ▪ Although deplored by many, her decisions have greatly benefited the company.

de•ploy /dɪˈplɔɪ/ verb -ploys; -ployed; -ploy•ing
1 [+ obj] : to organize and send out (people or things) to be used for a particular purpose ▪ The troops were deployed for battle. ▪ They plan to deploy more American soldiers over the next six months. ▪ Two scientists were deployed to study the problem. ▪ Both campaigns are deploying volunteers to the cities to encourage people to vote. ▪ Equipment and supplies have been deployed across the country. ▪ He deploys several arguments to prove his point.
2 : to open up and spread out the parts of (something, such as a parachute) [+ obj] Wait several seconds before deploying the parachute. ▪ The boat's sails were not fully deployed. [no obj] The parachute failed to deploy properly.

– de•ploy•ment /dɪˈplɔɪmənt/ noun, pl -ments [count] additional troop deployments ▪ a monthlong deployment [noncount] the deployment of ground troops

de•po•lit•i•cize also Brit de•po•lit•i•cise /ˌdiːpəˈlɪtəˌsaɪz/ verb -ciz•es; -cized; -ciz•ing [+ obj] : to change (something) so that it is no longer influenced or controlled by politics ▪ She says we need to depoliticize the process by which

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 36 SESS: 22 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:28:06 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-d

judges are chosen. ▪ The humanitarian aid groups want to see foreign aid depoliticized. — opposite POLITICIZE
– de•po•lit•i•ci•za•tion also Brit de•po•lit•i•ci•sa•tion /ˌdi:pəˌlɪtəsəˈzeɪʃən, Brit ˌdi:pəˌlɪtəˌsaɪˈzeɪʃən/ noun [noncount] de•pop•u•late /diˈpɑ:pjəˌleɪt/ verb -lates; -lat•ed; -lat•ing [+ obj] : to greatly reduce the number of people living in (a city, region, etc.) ▪ Large areas of the country had been depopulated by disease. ▪ an empty, depopulated landscape

– de•pop•u•la•tion /diˌpɑ:pjəˈleɪʃən/ noun [noncount]

de•port /dɪˈpoət/ verb -ports; -port•ed; -port•ing [+ obj] : to force (a person who is not a citizen) to leave a country ▪ Thousands of immigrants had been illegally deported.
– de•por•ta•tion /ˌdi:ˌpoəˈteɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [noncount] She is now facing deportation. [=she may be forced to leave the country] ▪ a deportation hearing [count] The government has ordered thousands of deportations. – de•por•tee /diˌpoəˈti:/ noun, pl -tees [count] ▪ thousands of deportees [=people who have been deported] de•port•ment /dɪˈpoətmənt/ noun [noncount] formal : the way that a person behaves, stands, and moves especially in a formal situation ▪ The new students were instructed in proper dress and deportment. ▪ His stiff deportment matched his strict demeanor.

de•pose /dɪˈpoʊz/ verb -pos•es; -posed; -pos•ing [+ obj] : to remove (someone) from a powerful position ▪ The group is plotting to depose [=overthrow] the king. ▪ a deposed military leader

[1]de•pos•it /dɪˈpɑ:zət/ verb -its; -it•ed; -it•ing [+ obj]
1 : to put (money) in a bank account ▪ Your paycheck will be automatically deposited into your account. ▪ I deposited over $3,000 this afternoon.
2 somewhat formal : to put or leave (someone or something) in a particular place ▪ He carefully deposited [=(more commonly) put, placed] the tools in the trunk of his car. ▪ Please deposit your things in your room and return to the hotel lobby. ▪ The taxi deposited us at the train station.
3 : to leave an amount of (something, such as sand, snow, or mud) on a surface or area especially over a period of time ▪ layers of mud deposited by flood waters ▪ The storm may deposit [=leave] up to three feet of snow in some areas.
– de•pos•i•tor /dɪˈpɑ:zətəɹ/ noun, pl -tors [count] ▪ bank depositors [=people who put money in a bank account]

[2]deposit noun, pl -its [count]
1 : an amount of money that is put in a bank account ▪ a bank deposit ▪ a deposit of $3,000 ▪ savings deposits [=money put into savings accounts] ▪ I need to make a deposit [=put some money in a bank account] this afternoon. ▪ Our records show that she made a large deposit to her account earlier in the month. — opposite WITHDRAWAL; see also DIRECT DEPOSIT, SAFE-DEPOSIT BOX
2 a : money that you give someone when you agree to buy something (such as a house or car) ✧ A deposit shows that there is an agreement between a buyer and seller. When the sale is made final, the seller keeps the deposit as the first payment. ▪ He just put a deposit on a new house. ▪ The company will refund your deposit since they are unable to do the project for you. b : money that you pay when you buy or rent something and that you can get back if you return the thing or leave it in good condition ▪ If you return that empty soda can, you'll get back the five-cent deposit you paid when you bought the soda. ▪ The rental car company requires a deposit for drivers under the age of 25. — see also SECURITY DEPOSIT
3 a : an amount of something (such as sand, snow, or mud) that has formed or been left on a surface or area over a period of time ▪ a deposit of mud left by the flood ▪ He had surgery to remove calcium deposits from his knee. ▪ the buildup of fat/fatty deposits in the arteries b : an amount of a substance (such as oil or coal) that exists naturally in the ground ▪ Their company has discovered new oil deposits below the ocean floor. ▪ mineral deposits on deposit ✧ Money that has been put in a bank is on deposit. ▪ The company has millions of dollars on deposit with several foreign banks. ▪ money/funds on deposit in/at the bank

deposit account noun, pl ~ -counts [count] chiefly Brit : SAVINGS ACCOUNT

de•po•si•tion /ˌdɛpəˈzɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions
1 [count] law : a formal statement that someone who has promised to tell the truth makes so that the statement can be used in court; especially : a formal statement that is made before a trial by a witness who will not be present at the trial ▪ She gave a videotaped deposition about what she saw that night. ▪ His attorneys took depositions from the witnesses.
2 [noncount] technical : the action of depositing something (such as sand, snow, or mud) on a surface or area especially over a period of time ▪ the deposition of sand and gravel on the river bed
3 [count, noncount] formal : the act removing someone from a powerful position : the act of deposing someone ▪ deposition of the king

de•pos•i•to•ry /dɪˈpɑ:zəˌtori, Brit dɪˈpɒzətri/ noun, pl -ries [count] : a place where something is put so that is can be kept safe ▪ a book/food depository ▪ The bank is used as a depository for government funds.

deposit slip noun, pl ~ slips [count] US : a piece of paper that you give with a bank deposit to show how much money you are putting in an account — called also (Brit) paying-in slip

de•pot /ˈdɛpoʊ, ˈdi:poʊ/ noun, pl depots [count]
1 US : a train or bus station ▪ the train/bus depot
2 : a place where military supplies are kept or where soldiers are trained ▪ supply/weapons depots
3 : a place where goods are stored : STOREHOUSE ▪ a storage depot

de•praved /dɪˈpreɪvd/ adj [more ~; most ~] : very evil : having or showing an evil and immoral character ▪ a depraved criminal ▪ the work of depraved minds ▪ He acted with depraved indifference to human suffering.

de•prav•i•ty /dɪˈprævəti/ noun, pl -ties
1 [noncount] : a very evil quality or way of behaving ▪ He was sinking into a life of utter depravity. ▪ moral/sexual depravity ▪ People were shocked by the depravity of her actions.
2 [count] : an evil or immoral act ▪ the depravities of war dep•re•cate /ˈdɛprɪˌkeɪt/ verb -cates; -cat•ed; -cat•ing [+ obj] formal : to criticize or express disapproval of (someone or something) ▪ I don't mean to deprecate [=belittle, minimize] his accomplishments.

– deprecating adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ Her office issued an apology after she made some deprecating remarks about her opponent. — see also SELF-DEPRECATING – dep•re•ca•tion /ˌdɛprɪˈkeɪʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ the deprecation of old methods – dep•re•ca•to•ry /ˈdɛprɪˌkeɪtəri, ˈdɛprɪkəˌtori, Brit ˈdɛprɪkeɪtri/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ She had made some deprecatory remarks about her opponent.

de•pre•ci•ate /dɪˈpri:ʃiˌeɪt/ verb -ates; -at•ed; -at•ing
1 a [+ obj] : to cause (something) to have a lower price or value ▪ These changes have greatly depreciated the value of the house. b [no obj] : to decrease in value ▪ New cars depreciate rapidly. ▪ The value of the house has depreciated greatly. — opposite APPRECIATE
2 [+ obj] formal : to describe (something) as having little value ▪ He often depreciates [=disparages, belittles] the importance of his work.

de•pre•ci•a•tion /dɪˌpri:ʃiˈeɪʃən/ noun [noncount]
1 : a decrease in the value of something ▪ You'll need to estimate the car's depreciation. ▪ currency depreciation — opposite APPRECIATION
2 formal : the act of making a person or a thing seem less valuable ▪ the depreciation of the role of art in our schools

dep•re•da•tion /ˌdɛprəˈdeɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions formal : a usually violent act in which something is damaged or destroyed or in which a person or animal is killed [count] — usually plural ▪ The town had somehow escaped the depredations of enemy soldiers. [noncount] a brutal act of depredation ▪ trying to prevent livestock depredation by wolves de•press /dɪˈprɛs/ verb -press•es; -pressed; -press•ing [+ obj]

1 : to make (someone) feel sad : to make (someone) depressed ▪ The news seemed to depress him a little. ▪ I don't mean to depress you, but there's no way we can win. ▪ We were all depressed by the loss. ▪ You shouldn't let this kind of problem depress you.
2 : to decrease the activity or strength of (something) ▪ This medicine may depress [=decrease] your appetite. [=it may make you less hungry] ▪ These changes could depress the economy. ▪ Market conditions are likely to depress earnings in the next quarter. ▪ depressing the price of a stock
3 formal : to press (something) down ▪ Slowly depress the car's brake pedal. ▪ Depress the "shift" key on your keyboard. ▪ The doctor will depress your tongue and look at your throat.

de•pres•sant /dɪˈprɛsnt/ noun, pl -sants [count] : a chem-

D

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 37 SESS: 23 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:28:07 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−d

ical substance (such as a drug) that makes a body's systems less active ▪ alcohol and other depressants — see also ANTIDEPRESSANT

– depressant adj ▪ the depressant effects of alcohol

de•pressed /dɪˈprɛst/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 a : feeling sad ▪ I've been feeling a little depressed [=(informally) down, blue] lately. ▪ The rainy weather had her feeling lonely and depressed. ▪ He was depressed about having to return to school. ▪ in a depressed mood b : having a serious medical condition that causes a person to feel very sad, hopeless, and unimportant : suffering from mental depression ▪ The new drug is being tested on a group of severely depressed patients.

2 : having little economic activity and few jobs : suffering from economic depression ▪ living in a depressed area ▪ a depressed economy

3 : less strong, active, high, etc., than usual ▪ The patient has a somewhat depressed appetite. ▪ Prices have remained at a depressed level.

depressing adj [more ~; most ~] : causing someone to feel sad or without hope : causing depression ▪ This rainy weather is depressing. ▪ He paints a depressing picture of modern life. ▪ a very/deeply depressing movie

– de•press•ing•ly adv ▪ depressingly bad weather ▪ a depressingly familiar situation

de•pres•sion /dɪˈprɛʃən/ noun, pl -sions

1 [noncount] a : a state of feeling sad ▪ anger, anxiety, and depression b : a serious medical condition in which a person feels very sad, hopeless, and unimportant and often is unable to live in a normal way ▪ She has been undergoing treatment for severe/deep depression. ▪ Many people suffer from clinical depression for years before being diagnosed. ▪ bouts/periods of depression — see also MANIC DEPRESSION

2 : a period of time in which there is little economic activity and many people do not have jobs [count] After several years of an economic boom, it looks as though we may be heading toward a depression. ▪ He grew up during the (Great) Depression. [=the 1930s, when the U.S. and many other countries were in a very bad depression] [noncount] periods of economic depression

3 [count] : an area on a surface that is lower than other parts : a low spot ▪ The photographs show depressions in the moon's surface.

4 [count] weather : a large area where there is low pressure in the atmosphere with usually clouds and rain ▪ a tropical depression

de•pres•sive /dɪˈprɛsɪv/ adj, medical : of or relating to the medical condition of depression ▪ a depressive disorder/illness — see also MANIC-DEPRESSIVE

– depressive noun, pl -sives [count] ▪ treatment of depressives [=people who suffer from depression]

dep•ri•va•tion /ˌdɛprəˈveɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions : the state of not having something that people need : the state of being deprived of something [noncount] She is studying the effects of sleep deprivation. ▪ social/emotional deprivation [count] She eventually overcame the deprivations of her childhood.

de•prive /dɪˈpraɪv/ verb -prives; -prived; -priv•ing

deprive of [phrasal verb] deprive (someone or something) of (something) : to take something away from someone or something : to not allow (someone or something) to have or keep (something) ▪ The change in her status deprived her of access to classified information. ▪ The new environmental law will deprive some fishermen of their livelihood. ▪ They're depriving him of a chance to succeed. ▪ I don't want to deprive you of this opportunity to meet new people. — often used as (be) deprived of ▪ The children are being deprived of a good education. ▪ The study is examining what happens to people when they are deprived of sleep.

deprived adj [more ~; most ~] : not having the things that are needed for a good or healthy life ▪ emotionally deprived children ▪ The diet allows you to eat small amounts of your favorite foods, so you won't feel deprived. ▪ people who are sleep-deprived [=people who do not get enough sleep]

dept. abbr department

depth /ˈdɛpθ/ noun, pl depths

1 a : a distance below a surface [count] These fish typically live at depths of 500 feet or more. ▪ Students will test the temperature of the water at different/varying/various depths. ▪ shallow/great depths ▪ The boat sank to a depth of several hundred feet. ▪ measuring the depth of the water/river/sea ▪ the depth of a hole ▪ The pool has a depth of 12 feet. [noncount] The pool is 12 feet in depth. [=12 feet deep] b [count] : the distance from the front of something to the back — usually singular ▪ Measure the height, width, and depth of the cabinet. ▪ The bench's depth is 22 inches.

2 [count] : an area that exists far below a surface or far inside something : a deep place or area — usually plural ▪ They disappeared into the depths of the forest. ▪ Scientists have begun using the machine to explore the ocean depths. ▪ the black depths of outer space — often used figuratively ▪ The actress must examine her own emotional depths to perform the role successfully. ▪ Around midnight, a loud noise woke us from the depths of sleep. ▪ I knew in the depths of my heart/soul/being [=I believed very strongly] that we would survive. ▪ The memory lies hidden in the depths of her mind. [=she has not thought about the memory in a long time] ▪ in the depths of winter [=in the middle of winter; in the coldest part of winter]

3 [count] a : a very low or bad state or condition — usually plural ▪ After losing his job, he sank into the depths of misery/despair/depression. ▪ The film portrays a family's difficult climb from the depths of poverty. ▪ I can't believe he lied. He's really sunk to new depths. ▪ The team is reaching/plumbing new depths this season. [=the team is playing worse than it ever has before] b : the worst part of something ▪ I began working at the factory during the depth/depths of the Depression.

4 [noncount] : the quality of being deep: such as a : the quality of being strongly felt ▪ We were surprised by the depth of her anger/pain/shame. ▪ He wanted to express the depth of his love for her. ▪ No one doubted the depth of his faith. [=they all knew that his faith was strong] ▪ the depth of her commitment to the project ▪ The dancers expressed great depth of feeling/emotion. b : the quality of being very bad or serious ▪ I was shocked when I realized the depth of the problem. c : the quality of being complete or thorough ▪ We were impressed by the depth [=extent] of her experience/knowledge. ▪ Your essay lacks depth. [=it does not cover its topic in a complete way] d : the quality of being strong in color, taste, etc. ▪ the depth of a color ▪ The wine has great depth of flavor. e : the quality of being low in sound ▪ the depth of his voice f US, sports : the quality of having many good players on a team ▪ The team lacks depth this year.

in depth : in a thorough or complete way ▪ The problem has yet to be examined/explored/studied in depth. [=thoroughly] ▪ These topics need to be discussed in (more/greater) depth. — see also IN-DEPTH out of your depth also beyond your depth 1 : dealing with a situation or subject that is too difficult for you ▪ When the debate turned to physics, I knew that I was out of my depth. [=in over my head] 2 chiefly Brit : in water that is deeper than your height ▪ He is just getting used to swimming in water that is out of his depth. [=over his head]

depth charge noun, pl ~ charges [count] : a bomb that is made to explode under water at a particular depth in order to destroy submarines depth perception noun [noncount] : the ability to see how far away something is or how much space is between things dep•u•ta•tion /ˌdɛpjəˈteɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count] formal : a group of people who are sent to a place to represent other people ▪ Many countries will be sending deputations to the peace conference.

de•pute /dɪˈpjuːt/ verb -putes; -put•ed; -put•ing [+ obj] chiefly Brit, formal : to give (someone) a job or responsibility ▪ Several officers were deputed to guard the building. ▪ I've been deputed to meet them at the airport.

dep•u•tize also Brit dep•u•tise /ˈdɛpjəˌtaɪz/ verb -tiz•es; -tized; -tiz•ing

1 [+ obj] chiefly US : to give (someone) the power to do something in place of another person : to make (someone) a deputy — often followed by to + verb ▪ The new system deputizes the nurses to perform some of the doctors' duties.

2 [no obj] Brit : to act in place of another person : to act for someone as a deputy ▪ I deputize for the newspaper's editor on the weekends.

dep•u•ty /ˈdɛpjəti/ noun, pl -ties [count]

1 : an important assistant who helps the person who the leader of a government, organization, etc. ▪ (US) a sheriff's deputy [=an assistant who helps a sheriff enforce the law] — often used before another noun ▪ a deputy sheriff ▪ She's now the department's deputy director. ▪ a deputy mayor

2 : a member of Parliament in some countries

de•rail /dɪˈreɪl/ verb -rails; -railed; -rail•ing

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 38 SESS: 8 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:28:07 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-d

1 [no obj] of a train : to leave its tracks ▪ The train derailed in heavy snow.
2 [+ obj] : to cause (a train) to leave its tracks ▪ The train was derailed by heavy snow. — often used figuratively ▪ His plans for becoming a professional football player were derailed [=ruined] by several injuries in college. ▪ The incident threatened to derail her career.
– de•rail•ment /dɪˈreɪlmənt/ noun, pl -ments [count] train derailments [noncount] the threat of derailment ▪ derailment of the peace process derailleur noun, pl -leurs [count] : a part on a bicycle that is used to change gears by moving the chain from one gear to another one — see picture at BICYCLE

de•ranged /dɪˈreɪnʤd/ adj [more ~; most ~] : unable to think or act in a normal or logical way especially because of severe mental illness : crazy or insane ▪ The actor was being followed by a (mentally) deranged fan. ▪ deranged criminals ▪ a deranged mind
– de•range•ment /dɪˈreɪnʤmənt/ noun [noncount] ▪ mental derangement

der•by /ˈdəbi, Brit ˈdɑːbi/ noun, pl -bies [count]
1 : a type of horse race that takes place every year — used especially in proper names ▪ the Kentucky Derby
2 : a race or contest ▪ a fishing derby — see also DEMOLITION DERBY, ROLLER DERBY
3 Brit : a game between local sports teams ▪ a derby between Manchester United and Manchester City
4 US : a hard usually black cloth hat that has a round top and that was worn by men especially in the 1800s — called also (US) derby hat, (chiefly Brit) bowler

de•reg•u•late /diˈrɛgjəˌleɪt/ verb -lates; -lat•ed; lat•ing [+ obj] : to give up control of (something, such as an industry) by removing laws : to remove regulations or restrictions from (something) ▪ The government plans to further deregulate the oil industry.
– de•reg•u•la•tion /diˌrɛgjəˈleɪʃən/ noun [noncount]

[1]der•e•lict /ˈderəˌlɪkt/ adj, formal
1 : no longer cared for or used by anyone ▪ a derelict house/ship/place ▪ a slum filled with derelict [=run-down, dilapidated] warehouses
2 [more ~; most ~] US, formal : failing to do what should be done : NEGLIGENT ▪ The officer was charged with being derelict in his duty.

[2]derelict noun, pl -licts [count] formal + disapproving : a person who has no money, job, home, etc. ▪ a drunken derelict [=vagrant, bum] ▪ It was a run-down neighborhood filled with drugs addicts and derelicts.

der•e•lic•tion /ˌderəˈlɪkʃən/ noun, formal
1 [noncount] a : the act of no longer caring for, using, or doing something : the act of abandoning something ▪ the dereliction of a cause by its leaders b : the condition of being no longer cared for ▪ The building is in a state of dereliction. [=is in poor condition from being abandoned]
2 [singular] law : failure to do your job or duty : failure to do what you should do ▪ The officer was formally charged with dereliction of duty. ▪ a serious dereliction of duty ✧ Dereliction is usually used to refer to the crime that is committed when a military officer or police officer fails to do an important part of his or her job.

de•ride /dɪˈraɪd/ verb -rides; -rid•ed; -rid•ing [+ obj] formal : to talk or write about (someone or something) in a very critical or insulting way : to say that (someone or something) is ridiculous or has no value ▪ politicians attempting to win votes by deriding [=belittling] their opponents — often + as ▪ One critic derides the book as dull and predictable. — often used as (be) derided ▪ For years women were derided as the weaker sex.

de rigueur /dəˌriˈgə/ adj, formal : necessary if you want to be fashionable, popular, socially acceptable, etc. ▪ Dark sunglasses are de rigueur these days. ✧ The phrase de rigueur comes from French.

de•ri•sion /dɪˈrɪʒən/ noun [noncount] formal : the feeling that people express when they criticize and laugh at someone or something in an insulting way ▪ yells of derision ▪ The governor's plan was greeted with derision [=ridicule] by most journalists and pundits. ▪ One of the students laughed/snorted in derision at my error. ▪ The team's awful record has made it an object of derision in the league. ▪ "Nerd" is a term of derision.
– de•ri•sive /dɪˈraɪsɪv/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ derisive [=scornful] laughter ▪ a derisive [=derogatory] term – de•ri•sive•ly adv ▪ laughing derisively [=scornfully]

de•ri•so•ry /dɪˈraɪsəri/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal
1 : of too little value to be considered seriously : ridiculously small ▪ He offered to buy the car for some derisory [=paltry, measly] sum/amount, but I turned him down.
2 : expressing a belief that something or someone is ridiculous or without value : expressing derision ▪ The presentation was so bad that it received only a few derisory [=(more commonly) derisive] comments.

der•i•va•tion /ˌderəˈveɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions
1 a : the origin of a word [count] It is a word for which several derivations [=etymologies] have been suggested. ▪ He is doing research into the derivation of "Yankee." [noncount] words of Latin derivation b [noncount] : the act of forming a word from another word ▪ "Childish" was formed by derivation from "child."
2 a [noncount] : the source or origin of something ▪ foods of Indian derivation [=foods originally from India] b [count] : an act or process by which one thing is formed or created from another ▪ Scientists are debating the possible derivation of birds from dinosaurs.

[1]de•riv•a•tive /dɪˈrɪvətɪv/ noun, pl -tives [count]
1 : a word formed from another word ▪ The word "childish" is a derivative of "child."
2 : something that comes from something else : a substance that is made from another substance ▪ Tofu is one of many soybean derivatives. ▪ Petroleum is a derivative of coal tar.

[2]derivative /dɪˈrɪvətɪv/ adj
1 [more ~; most ~] usually disapproving : made up of parts from something else : not new or original ▪ derivative poetry ▪ A number of critics found the film derivative and predictable. ▪ His style seems too derivative of Hemingway.
2 : formed from another word ▪ a derivative term

de•rive /dɪˈraɪv/ verb -rives; -rived; -riv•ing
1 [+ obj] : to take or get (something) from (something else) ▪ The river derives its name from a Native American tribe. ▪ She derived [=received, took] great satisfaction from their friendship. — often used as (be) derived ▪ Many English words are derived from French. ▪ Petroleum is derived from coal tar and used to make gasoline.
2 [no obj] : to have something as a source : to come from something ▪ Much of the book's appeal derives from the personality of its central character.
– de•riv•able /dɪˈraɪvəbəl/ adj ▪ a substance derivable from coal tar der•ma•ti•tis /ˌdəməˈtaɪtəs/ noun [noncount] medical : a disease in which the skin becomes red, swollen, and sore

der•ma•tol•o•gy /ˌdəməˈtɑːlədʒi/ noun [noncount] medical : the scientific study of the skin and its diseases ▪ One of the doctors at the clinic specializes in dermatology.
– der•ma•tol•o•gist /ˌdəməˈtɑːlədʒɪst/ noun, pl -gists [count] ▪ The dermatologist said that the baby's rash was nothing to worry about.

der•o•gate /ˈderəˌgeɪt/ verb -gates; -gat•ed; -gat•ing [+ obj] formal : to insult (someone or something) : to say or suggest that (something or someone) is not important or worthy of respect ▪ The title of the book derogates the people it is about. ▪ Her parents are constantly derogating her achievements.
derogate from [phrasal verb] derogate from (something or someone) formal : to lessen the importance or value of (something or someone) ▪ These criticisms are not meant to derogate from [=detract from] the excellent work they have done.
– de•rog•a•tion /ˌderəˈgeɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count, noncount]

de•rog•a•to•ry /dɪˈrɑːgəˌtori, Brit dɪˈrɒgətri/ adj [more ~; most ~] : expressing a low opinion of someone or something : showing a lack of respect for someone or something ▪ He was accused of making derogatory [=insulting, disrespectful] remarks about her. ▪ a derogatory [=disparaging] term/word

der•rick /ˈderɪk/ noun, pl -ricks [count]
1 : a tall machine with a long part like an arm that is used to move or lift heavy things especially on ships
2 : a tall tower that is built over an oil well and used to support and guide the tool that is used to dig the hole and get oil out of the ground

der•ri•ere or der•ri•ère /ˌderiˈeə/ noun, pl -eres or -ères [count] humorous : the part of the body you sit on : BUTTOCKS ▪ I slipped on the ice and fell on my derriere.

der•ring–do /ˌderɪŋˈduː/ noun [noncount] old-fashioned + humorous : brave acts : behavior that requires courage ▪ She is known for her spectacular feats of derring-do. [=bravery] ✧

D

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 39 SESS: 8 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:28:08 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−d

Derring-do suggests the brave acts of characters in movies and stories about adventure.

der•vish /ˈdəvɪʃ/ noun, pl -vish•es [count] : a member of a Muslim religious group that is known for its customs including a fast spinning dance that is done as part of worship ✧ In U.S. English, dervish is most common in figurative uses where it describes someone or something that is spinning or moving very fast. ▪ The actor whirled like a dervish on stage.

de•sa•li•nate /diˈsælə,neɪt/ verb -nates; -nat•ed; -nat•ing [+ obj] technical : to remove salt from (something, such as water) ▪ The company is building a plant that will desalinate seawater.
– de•sa•li•na•tion /di,sælə'neɪʃən/ noun [noncount]

de•scale /diˈskeɪl/ verb -scales; -scaled; -scal•ing [+ obj] Brit, technical : to remove the hard white substance that forms on the inside of something (such as pipes or a boiler) that heats water

des•cant /ˈdɛs,kænt/ noun, pl -cants [count] music : a high melody that is sung or played along with the main melody of a song

de•scend /dɪˈsɛnd/ verb -scends; -scend•ed; -scend•ing formal
1 : to go down : to go or move from a higher to a lower place or level [no obj] Wait for the elevator to descend. ▪ The workers descended into the hole. ▪ The submarine was descending. ▪ They descended from [=got down from] the platform. ▪ A herd of goats descended into the valley. ▪ The airplane will descend to a lower altitude soon. [+ obj] Descending the mountain was even more dangerous than climbing/ascending it. ▪ The children descended the staircase silently. ▪ descend a ladder — opposite ASCEND
2 [no obj] : to slope or lead downward ▪ The path descends to the river. ▪ The stairs descended into the tunnel. — opposite ASCEND
3 [no obj] : to go or change to a worse state or condition — + into ▪ After his wife died, he descended [=sank] into a deep depression. ▪ The classroom descended into chaos after the teacher left.
4 [no obj] : to appear or happen like something that comes down from the sky ▪ As night descended, the campers built a fire. — usually + on or upon ▪ The invaders descended on the village without warning. [=the invaders attacked without warning] ▪ In autumn/fall, thousands of students descend on/upon [=visit] our town. ▪ Silence descended upon the crowd. [=the crowd became silent] descend from [phrasal verb] descend from (something or someone) : to have (something or someone in the past) as an origin or source ▪ Recent evidence supports the theory that birds descended from dinosaurs. ▪ The plants descend from a common ancestor. ▪ The tradition descends from [=comes from] an ancient custom. ▪ They claim to be descended from a noble British family.
descend to [phrasal verb] 1 descend to (someone) formal : to become owned by (someone) when the former owner has died ▪ The estate descended to her from her grandparents. [=she inherited the estate from her grandparents] 2 descend to (something) : to lower yourself by doing (something) ▪ She was desperate for money, but she would not descend to [=(more commonly) stoop to] asking her friends for help. — see also descend to someone's level at ¹LEVEL in descending order ✧ If people or things are in descending order, they are are arranged in a series that begins with the greatest or largest and ends with the least or smallest. ▪ The states are listed in descending order of population size. ▪ The sale items are arranged in descending order according to price.

de•scen•dant /dɪˈsɛndənt/ noun, pl -dants [count]
1 : someone who is related to a person or group of people who lived in the past ▪ One of the famous inventor's descendants is also an inventor. ▪ Many people in this area are descendants of German immigrants.
2 : a plant or animal that is related to a particular plant or animal that lived long ago ▪ Recent evidence supports the theory that birds are the modern descendants of dinosaurs.
3 : something that developed from another thing that was made or existed earlier ▪ The Italian language is one of Latin's descendants.

de•scent /dɪˈsɛnt/ noun, pl -scents formal
1 [count] : the act or process of descending: such as a : the act or process of going from a higher to a lower place or level — usually singular ▪ The climbers were faced with a dangerous descent in bad weather. ▪ the submarine's descent ▪ After only an hour of flight, the pilot announced our descent. — opposite ASCENT b : the act or process or changing to a worse state or condition ▪ The book describes his descent into a deep depression after the death of his wife. ▪ her slow descent to a life of addiction
2 [count] : a way of going down something : a downward slope, path, etc. ▪ The only path that goes down to the river is a rather steep descent, so be careful.
3 [noncount] : the people in your family who lived before you were born : your ancestors ▪ Many people in this area are of German descent. [=ancestry] ▪ They claim to be of royal descent. [=they say that their ancestors were kings, queens, etc.]

de•scribe /dɪˈskraɪb/ verb -scribes; -scribed; -scrib•ing [+ obj]
1 : to tell someone the appearance, sound, smell, events, etc., of (something or someone) : to say what something or someone is like ▪ The witness wasn't able to describe the robber. ▪ He described the house in perfect detail. ▪ The article describes how the experiment was done. ▪ She described watching dolphins play beside the ship. ▪ Please describe what happened next. ▪ Can you describe the lost dog to me? — often + as ▪ He was described by his friends as generous and loyal. ▪ Reporters described the scene as a disaster area.
2 formal : to make a motion or draw a line that shows the shape of (something) ▪ She used a stick to describe a circle on the ground.
– de•scrib•able /dɪˈskraɪbəbəl/ adj ▪ The process is not easily describable.

de•scrip•tion /dɪˈskrɪpʃən/ noun, pl -tions
1 : a statement that tells you how something or someone looks, sounds, etc. : words that describe something or someone [count] Reporters called the scene "a disaster area," and I think that was an accurate description. ▪ I applied for the position after reading the job description. ▪ We are looking for someone with experience and a sense of humor. Do you know anyone who fits/matches that description? [=anyone who has those qualities] — often + of ▪ a brief/general description of the process ▪ The witness was unable to give/provide a description of the robber. [=was unable to describe the robber] ▪ Someone fitting/answering/matching the witness' description of the burglar has been arrested. [noncount] a writer with a gift of/for description ▪ The landscape is beautiful beyond description. [=is extremely beautiful]
2 [count] : type or kind — used after of ▪ We saw people of every description. [=sort] ▪ The museum features toys of all descriptions. [=kinds] ▪ The store sells hats, gloves, and things of that description. [=nature, ilk]

de•scrip•tive /dɪˈskrɪptɪv/ adj
1 [more ~; most ~] : giving information about how something or someone looks, sounds, etc. : using words to describe what something or someone is like ▪ She gave a descriptive account of the journey. ▪ a talent for descriptive writing ▪ a poem full of descriptive detail ▪ The black cat was given the descriptive name "Midnight." — often + of ▪ They chose a name descriptive of the company's philosophy.
2 technical : providing facts about how a language is actually used rather than rules that tell people how it should be used ▪ The book is a descriptive grammar. ▪ descriptive dictionaries — opposite PRESCRIPTIVE – de•scrip•tive•ly adv [more ~; most ~] des•e•crate /ˈdɛsɪ,kreɪt/ verb -crates; -crat•ed; -crat•ing [+ obj] : to damage (a holy place or object) : to treat (a holy place or object) with disrespect ▪ The vandals were accused of desecrating graves. ▪ a desecrated church – des•e•cra•tion /,dɛsɪˈkreɪʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ The law forbids desecration of the flag.

de•seg•re•gate /diˈsɛgrə,geɪt/ verb -gates; -gat•ed; -gat•ing : to end a policy that keeps people of different races apart : to end a policy of segregation [+ obj] efforts to desegregate the town's buses — usually used as (be) desegregated ▪ The city's schools were finally desegregated in the 1960s. [no obj] Eventually the city's schools desegregated.
– de•seg•re•ga•tion /di,sɛgrɪˈgeɪʃən/ noun [noncount]

de•se•lect /,di:sə'lɛkt/ verb -lects; -lect•ed; -lect•ing [+ obj]
1 computers : to remove (something) from a list of choices especially by clicking with a computer mouse ▪ If you don't want the computer program to automatically correct your spelling, you will have to deselect that option.
2 Brit, politics : to choose not to have (a current member of

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 40 SESS: 24 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:28:08 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-d

Parliament) as a candidate again at the next election
– de•se•lec•tion noun [noncount]

de•sen•si•tize also Brit de•sen•si•tise /diˈsɛnsəˌtaɪz/ verb -tiz•es; -tized; -tiz•ing [+ obj] : to cause (someone or something) to react less to or be less affected by something : to cause (someone or something) to be less sensitive ▪ The shot will help to desensitize the nerve. — usually + to; often used as (be/become) desensitized ▪ People can become desensitized to violence by endless images of war. ▪ Her body has become desensitized to the medication.
– de•sen•si•ti•za•tion also Brit de•sen•si•ti•sa•tion /diˌsɛnsətəˈzeɪʃən, Brit diˌsɛnsəˌtaɪˈzeɪʃən/ noun [noncount]

[1]des•ert /ˈdɛzət/ noun, pl -erts
1 : an area of very dry land that is usually covered with sand and is very hot [count] Many settlers died while trying to cross the desert. ▪ the Arabian and African deserts [noncount] The region is mostly desert. — often used before another noun ▪ the shifting desert sands ▪ a study of desert plants ▪ stranded on a desert island [=an island where no people live] — see color picture on page C7
2 [count] : a place or area that does not have something interesting or important ▪ For many years, the city was a cultural desert, but now there are several museums and also a concert hall. — see also DESERTS

Do not confuse desert with dessert.

[2]de•sert /dɪˈzət/ verb -serts; -sert•ed; -sert•ing
1 [+ obj] : to go away from (a place) : to leave (a place) ▪ The inhabitants had deserted the town. ▪ If the nest is disturbed, the bird may desert [=abandon] it.
2 [+ obj] : to leave and stop helping or supporting (someone or something) ▪ She had been married for just over a year when her husband deserted her. ▪ He was deserted by his friends and family. ▪ He vowed that he would never desert [=abandon] a friend in trouble. ▪ He urged people not to desert the cause. [=not to stop supporting the cause]
3 [+ obj] of a useful quality or ability : to no longer be with (someone) in a time of need ▪ The soldiers prayed that their courage would not desert them. [=that they would not lose their courage] ▪ She was a respected academic until late in life when her memory deserted her. [=she lost her ability to remember things]
4 [no obj] of a soldier : to leave the military without permission and without intending to return ▪ Many soldiers deserted during the first weeks of the war.
– deserted adj ▪ The town was deserted. [=there were no people in the town] ▪ We came upon a deserted [=abandoned] old hotel. ▪ a deserted street/road ▪ deserted wives/husbands/children – de•ser•tion /dɪˈzəʃən/ noun, pl -tions [noncount] the mysterious desertion of the town by its inhabitants ▪ He was guilty of desertion during wartime. [count] The military has reported 350 desertions.

de•sert•er /dɪˈzətə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a soldier who leaves without permission : a military person who deserts de•sert•i• •ca•tion /dɪˌzətəfəˈkeɪʃən/ noun [noncount] technical : the process by which an area becomes a desert ▪ The organization was awarded for its efforts to prevent further desertification in Africa.

de•serts /dɪˈzəts/ noun [plural] : punishment that someone deserves ▪ We all want to see this criminal get/receive his just deserts.

de•serve /dɪˈzəv/ verb -serves; -served; -serv•ing [+ obj] — used to say that someone or something should or should not have or be given something ▪ She deserves another chance. ▪ He doesn't deserve the award. ▪ Every defendant deserves a fair trial. ▪ The newspaper deserves a lot of credit for calling attention to the problem. ▪ I think the idea deserves [=merits] consideration. ▪ The story deserves telling. [=the story should be told; the story is important enough to tell] ▪ What did I do to deserve this kind of harsh treatment? [=you should not treat me this way] ▪ She believes that people eventually get what they deserve. ▪ He deserves a medal for coming up with a solution so quickly. [=he did something very good and impressive by coming up with a solution so quickly] — often followed by to + verb ▪ Anyone who will not use a map deserves to get lost. ▪ They deserve to be punished. ▪ He deserves to win.
– deserved /dɪˈzəvd/ adj ▪ a well-deserved vacation/break ▪ a deserved win/victory/reputation ▪ The award/criticism was not deserved. – de•serv•ed•ly /dɪˈzəvədli/ adv ▪ She was deservedly praised for her generosity. ▪ He has been accused of being selfish, and deservedly so. [=he deserves to be called selfish; it is reasonable to call him selfish because of his behavior]

deserving adj [more ~; most ~]
1 always used before a noun : having good qualities that deserve praise, support, etc. ▪ He's a very deserving young man. ▪ The church provides aid to deserving families.
2 not used before a noun — used to say that someone or something should have or be given something; + of ▪ She was deserving of praise. [=she deserved praise] ▪ criminals deserving of harsh punishment ▪ an idea that is deserving of attention

des•ic•cat•ed /ˈdɛsɪˌkeɪtəd/ adj
1 technical : having had the water removed ▪ desiccated [=(more commonly) dried, dehydrated] coconut
2 formal : very dry ▪ desiccated land

des•ic•ca•tion /ˌdɛsɪˈkeɪʃən/ noun [noncount] technical : the process by which something becomes completely dry ▪ desiccation of soil

de•sid•er•a•tum /dɪˌsɪdəˈrɑːtəm/ noun, pl -ta /-tə/ [count] formal : something that is needed or wanted ▪ a list of political desiderata

[1]de•sign /dɪˈzaɪn/ verb -signs; -signed; -sign•ing [+ obj]
1 : to plan and make decisions about (something that is being built or created) : to create the plans, drawings, etc., that show how (something) will be made ▪ A team of engineers designed the new engine. ▪ a badly designed building ▪ She designs clothes. ▪ Who designed the book's cover?
2 : to plan and make (something) for a specific use or purpose ▪ He designed the chair to adjust automatically. — usually used as (be) designed ▪ The course is designed to teach beginners. [=the purpose of the course is to teach beginners] ▪ The book is designed as a college textbook. ▪ The shoes are designed to keep your feet warm and dry. ▪ The book is specially designed for learners. ▪ The new models have been designed for easier use.
3 : to think of (something, such as a plan) : to plan (something) in your mind ▪ They thought they could design the perfect crime. ▪ design a strategy for battle

[2]design noun, pl -signs
1 : the way something has been made : the way the parts of something (such as a building, machine, book, etc.) are formed and arranged for a particular use, effect, etc. [noncount] There are problems with the design of the airplane's landing gear. ▪ I like the design of the textbook. ▪ I love the sculpture's design. [count] The machine had a flawed design.
2 [noncount] : the process of planning how something will look, happen, be made, etc. : the process of designing something ▪ She is studying furniture/Web design. [=how to design furniture/Web sites] ▪ the design and development of new products ▪ The new model is still in the design stage. [=is still being designed] ▪ Correcting mistakes is part of the design process. ▪ a number of design concepts/ideas — see also INTERIOR DESIGN
3 [count] : a drawing of something that is being planned or created — often + for ▪ We reviewed the preliminary design for the new stadium. ▪ Can I see the designs [=plans] for both bridges?
4 [count] : a decorative pattern that covers something : a repeating picture, shape, etc., on something ▪ The wallpaper in the bedroom has a floral design. ▪ a skirt with a paisley design ▪ fabric sold in a variety of colors and designs
5 : something that you plan to do : INTENTION [count] My design [=(more commonly) purpose] in writing to you is to ask for your support. [noncount] The motor is loud by design. [=because it was intended to be loud] ▪ The meeting happened by accident, not by design. [=on purpose] have designs on 1 : to have a secret desire and plan to get (something) ▪ She had designs on my job. 2 formal + humorous : to want to date or have a sexual relationship with (someone) ▪ You can deny it all you want, but I think it's pretty obvious that you have designs on her.

[1]des•ig•nate /ˈdɛzɪgˌneɪt/ verb -nates; -nat•ed; -nat•ing [+ obj]
1 : to officially choose (someone or something) to do or be something : to officially give (someone or something) a particular role or purpose ▪ It might be difficult to designate [=select] an appropriate place for the event. ▪ We need to designate [=appoint] a new leader. — often used as (be) designated ▪ money designated [=set aside] for the scholarship fund ▪ He was designated team captain. = He was designated as team captain. [=he was made team captain] ▪ The park has been designated as a wildlife refuge. — often followed by to +

D

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 41 SESS: 8 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:28:09 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-d

verb ▪ He was designated to be team captain.

2 a : to call (something or someone) by a particular name or title ▪ We designated [=named] the first one "alpha." — often used as (be) designated ▪ The four parts were designated A, B, C, and D in the diagram. b : to be used as a name for (something or someone) ▪ The word eventually came to designate [=refer to] any kind of mistake.

3 : to mark, show, or represent (something) ▪ The wooden stakes designate the edge of the building site. — usually used as (be) designated ▪ Free items are designated by blue stickers. ▪ The state capital is designated [=indicated] by a star.

– designated adj ▪ We all agreed to meet at a designated time. [=a specific time that we agreed on] ▪ 18 years old is the designated age to vote. — see also DESIGNATED DRIVER, DESIGNATED HITTER – des·ig·na·tor /ˈdɛzɪgˌneɪtə/ noun, pl -tors [count]

[2]designate adj, not used before a noun, formal : chosen for a particular job but not officially doing that job yet ▪ the governor designate [=the governor elect]

designated driver noun, pl ~ -ers [count] : a person who agrees not to drink alcohol on a particular occasion so that he or she will be able to safely drive around other people who will be drinking alcohol designated hitter noun, pl ~ -ters [count] baseball : a player who is chosen at the beginning of a game to bat in the place of the pitcher and who does not play a position in the field — called also DH

des·ig·na·tion /ˌdɛzɪgˈneɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions formal

1 [noncount] : the act of officially choosing someone or something to do or be something — + as ▪ Everyone supported the park's designation as a wildlife refuge. ▪ The committee favors designation of the house as an historic building.

2 [count] : a name or title that identifies someone or something ▪ Though many people call her a liberal, it is not a designation she uses herself.

des·ig·nee /ˌdɛzɪgˈniː/ noun, pl -nees [count] chiefly US, formal : a person who has been officially chosen to do or be something : a person who has been designated ▪ the President's designees for Cabinet positions

[1]de·sign·er /dɪˈzaɪnə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a person who plans how something new will look and be made : a person who creates and often produces a new product, style, etc. ▪ She is one of the leading designers in the fashion world. ▪ He is a designer and engineer for a car company. ▪ She was the designer of the book's jacket. ▪ a boat/clothing/computer/costume designer ▪ a Web (site) designer — see also INTERIOR DESIGNER

[2]designer adj, always used before a noun

1 : created by a famous designer ▪ designer jeans/fashions ▪ designer wallpaper

2 : very fashionable and popular ▪ designer coffee drinks ▪ designer perfumes

3 technical : scientifically changed from the usual or natural form ▪ designer foods ▪ designer estrogen

designer drug noun, pl ~ drugs [count]

1 : a drug that is created to be only slightly different from an illegal drug so that it will not be considered illegal

2 : an artificially made drug that is used for pleasure ▪ Ecstasy is a designer drug.

de·sign·ing /dɪˈzaɪnɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~] old-fashioned : having plans to get something in a way that is not honest or fair ▪ a plot by a group of wicked and designing [=crafty, scheming] men de·sir·able /dɪˈzaɪrəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : having good or pleasing qualities : worth having or getting ▪ The house is in a highly desirable location/neighborhood. ▪ desirable jobs ▪ The new stove has many desirable features/characteristics. ▪ the qualities that make a desirable business partner ▪ The experiment did not achieve a desirable result. ▪ It is desirable [=(more commonly) advisable, smart] to talk with a lawyer before signing any contract. — opposite UNDESIRABLE

2 : sexually attractive ▪ a beautiful and desirable woman

– de·sir·abil·i·ty /dɪˌzaɪrəˈbɪlətiː/ noun [noncount] ▪ Housing prices vary according to the desirability of the location. – de·sir·ably /dɪˈzaɪrəbliː/ adv [more ~; most ~] ▪ a desirably located apartment

[1]de·sire /dɪˈzajə/ verb, not used in progressive tenses -sires; -sired; -sir·ing [+ obj]

1 somewhat formal : to want or wish for (something) : to feel desire for (something) ▪ Many people desire wealth. ▪ He desired her approval more than anything. ▪ The apartment has modern amenities, a great location—everything you could desire. ▪ Those desiring [=looking for] a more relaxed atmosphere will prefer the pub in the restaurant's lower level. — sometimes followed by to + verb ▪ I have always desired [=wanted] to go to France.

2 : to want to have sex with (someone) ▪ She knew that men still desired her.

3 formal : to express a wish for (something) ▪ The committee desires [=requests] an immediate answer.

leave much to be desired or leave a lot to be desired or leave a great deal to be desired — used to say that something is not very good at all or is not close to being good enough ▪ Your work leaves much to be desired. ▪ Although her education left much to be desired, she was an extremely intelligent person. ▪ The working conditions here leave a lot to be desired.

– desired adj ▪ an artist mixing paints to get a desired color ▪ a desired effect/result

[2]desire noun, pl -sires

1 a [noncount] : the feeling of wanting something ▪ Desire is a common theme is music and literature. ▪ an object of desire [=something that people want to have] b [count] : a strong wish ▪ It is our desire that all of you be treated fairly. [=we want all of you to be treated fairly] ▪ The magazine tries to attend to the needs and desires of its readers. : a wish for something or to do something ▪ Both sides feel a real desire for peace. ▪ His decisions are guided by his desire for land/money/power/change. ▪ They expressed a desire to go with us. ▪ They have a desire to have children. ▪ a strong/burning/aching desire to travel around the world

2 : a feeling of wanting to have sex with someone [count] He had/felt a strong (sexual) desire for her. [noncount] He was overcome with desire for her.

3 [count] : someone or something that you want or wish for — usually singular ▪ He worried that he might never achieve his desire. [=might never do the thing that he wanted to do] ▪ A good education had always been her heart's desire. [=something she wanted very much] ▪ "You are my heart's desire," he told her.

de·sir·ous /dɪˈzaɪrəs/ adj, not used before a noun [more ~; most ~] somewhat formal : wanting or wishing for something very much : feeling desire for something — usually + of ▪ parents desirous of a better way to educate their children [=parents who want a better way to educate their children] ▪ consumers desirous of saving money [=consumers who want to save money]

de·sist /dɪˈsɪst/ verb -sists; -sist·ed; -sist·ing [no obj] formal : to stop doing something ▪ Despite orders from the police, the protesters would not desist. — often + from ▪ They were ordered to desist from using the symbol as a logo. ▪ The court ordered the company to cease and desist from selling the photographs. [=to immediately stop selling the photographs] — see also CEASE AND DESIST ORDER

desk /ˈdɛsk/ noun, pl desks [count]

1 : a piece of furniture that is like a table and often has drawers ✧ People often sit at desks when they are writing or using a computer. ▪ a cluttered desk ▪ a classroom with desks arranged in rows ✧ Often desk refers specifically to the desk a person uses to do his or her job. ▪ I'm sorry I missed your call. I've been away from my desk. — often used before another noun ▪ a desk lamp/calendar/chair ▪ She left her desk job [=the job that she did while sitting at a desk] to become a farmer. — see picture at OFFICE

2 : a place where people can get information or be served at an office, a hotel, etc. ▪ an information desk at an airport ▪ We will ask for directions to the restaurant at the front desk. ▪ We went to the reception desk to check into our room.

3 : the part of a company or organization that deals with a particular subject ▪ the television network's financial/foreign desk [=department] ▪ the newspaper's sports desk ▪ the news desk [=the office where news is gathered to be reported in a newspaper, on television, etc.] — see also CITY DESK desk·bound /ˈdɛksˌbaʊnd/ adj : having a job that requires you to be at a desk ▪ deskbound office workers

[1]desk·top /ˈdɛskˌtɑːp/ noun, pl -tops [count]

1 : the top surface of a desk ▪ The desktop was covered with books and stacks of papers.

2 a : a computer that is designed to be used on a desk or table : a desktop computer — compare LAPTOP, NOTEBOOK b : an area or window on a computer screen in which small pictures (called icons) are arranged like objects on top of a desk ▪ He created a new folder on his desktop.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 42 SESS: 25 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:28:09 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-d

[2]desktop adj, always used before a noun
1 : of a size that is suitable to be used on a desk or table ▪ a desktop computer
2 : done using a personal computer ▪ She is working on a desktop video project. ▪ Do you have any experience in desktop publishing? [=the use of a computer to design and produce magazines, books, etc.]

[1]des•o•late /ˈdɛsələt/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : lacking the people, plants, animals, etc., that make people feel welcome in a place ▪ a landscape as desolate [=barren, lifeless] as the moon ▪ We drove for hours along a desolate [=deserted] stretch of road.
2 : very sad and lonely especially because someone you love has died or left ▪ desolate [=grief-stricken] parents grieving over the death of their son ▪ desolate thoughts and memories

[2]des•o•late /ˈdɛsəˌleɪt/ verb -lates; -lat•ed; -lat•ing [+ obj] formal + literary
1 : to make (someone) feel very sad and lonely for a long time — usually used as (be) desolated ▪ They were desolated [=(more commonly) devastated] by the death of their son.
2 : to damage (a place) in such a way that it is no longer suitable for people to live in ▪ The constant bombings had desolated [=(more commonly) destroyed, devastated] the town.
– desolated adj ▪ a desolated village

des•o•la•tion /ˌdɛsəˈleɪʃən/ noun [noncount]
1 : extreme sadness caused by loss or loneliness ▪ She sank into a state of desolation and despair.
2 : the condition of a place or thing that has been damaged in such a way that it is no longer suitable for people to live in : the state or condition of being desolate ▪ photos that show the desolation of war ▪ It was a scene of utter desolation. [=ruin, devastation]

[1]de•spair /dɪˈspeɚ/ noun [noncount]
1 : the feeling of no longer having any hope ▪ His despair nearly drove him mad. ▪ She let out a cry of despair. [=desperation] ▪ I was overcome by despair at being unable to find them. ▪ She finally gave up in despair. ▪ The people were driven to despair by the horrors of war. ▪ This latest setback has brought/carried/driven her to the depths of despair.
2 : someone or something that causes extreme sadness or worry — + of ▪ He was the despair of his parents.

[2]despair verb -spairs; -spaired; -spair•ing [no obj] : to no longer have any hope or belief that a situation will improve or change ▪ Things look bad now, but don't despair. — often + of ▪ We had begun to despair of ever finding a house we could afford.

despairing adj [more ~; most ~] : feeling very sad and without hope : showing or feeling despair ▪ He plays the role of a lonely and despairing [=despondent] widower. ▪ a despairing cry/look – de•spair•ing•ly adv ▪ They cried out despairingly.

despatch Brit spelling of DISPATCH

des•per•a•do /ˌdɛspəˈrɑːdoʊ/ noun, pl -dos or -does [count] old-fashioned : a violent criminal who is not afraid of getting hurt or caught ▪ the notorious desperados of the Wild West des•per•ate /ˈdɛsprət/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : very sad and upset because of having little or no hope : feeling or showing despair ▪ The collapse of her business had made her desperate. ▪ As the supply of food ran out, people became desperate. ▪ We could hear their desperate cries for help. ▪ a desperate phone call
2 : very bad or difficult to deal with ▪ The building is in desperate [=terrible, awful] shape and may have to be demolished. ▪ desperate [=hopeless] situations ▪ The outlook was desperate.
3 : done with all of your strength or energy and with little hope of succeeding ▪ a desperate struggle to defeat the enemy ▪ He made a desperate bid/attempt to save his job. ▪ They made one last desperate attempt to fight their way out.
4 : having a strong need or desire for something or to do something ▪ He is desperate for money/attention/work. ▪ After traveling all night, they were desperate for sleep. ▪ She was desperate to prove that she was right.
5 : very severe or strong ▪ The animals were in desperate need of food and water when they were found. ▪ a desperate shortage of medical supplies ▪ The situation called for desperate measures.
– des•per•ate•ly /ˈdɛsprətli/ adv ▪ We are trying desperately to find a solution. ▪ They desperately struggled to defeat the enemy. ▪ They were desperately [=extremely, terribly] unhappy/poor. ▪ desperately ill patients ▪ We were desperately in need of food and water.

des•per•a•tion /ˌdɛspəˈreɪʃən/ noun [noncount] : a strong feeling of sadness, fear, and loss of hope ▪ She felt overcome by desperation. ▪ a life of desperation ▪ the desperation of severe poverty ▪ The robbery was an act of desperation. [=a desperate act] ▪ They hired me out of desperation, because they couldn't get anyone else. ▪ Finally, in desperation, he tried to flee the country.

de•spi•ca•ble /dɪˈspɪkəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] somewhat formal : very bad or unpleasant : deserving to be despised ▪ She is a despicable traitor. ▪ It was a despicable [=contemptible] act of racism.
– de•spi•ca•bly /dɪˈspɪkəbli/ adv ▪ He behaved despicably.

de•spise /dɪˈspaɪz/ verb -spis•es; -spised; -spis•ing [+ obj] : to dislike (something or someone) very much ▪ He despises [=hates, loathes] pop music. ▪ Although despised [=scorned, disdained] by critics, the movie attracted a wide audience. ▪ She was despised as a hypocrite.

de•spite /dɪˈspaɪt/ prep : without being prevented by (something) — used to say that something happens or is true even though there is something that might prevent it from happening or being true ▪ Despite [=in spite of] our objections, he insisted on driving. ▪ She ran the race despite an injury. ▪ Despite our best efforts to save him, the patient died during the night. ▪ They are not getting married, despite rumors to the contrary. [=even though there have been rumors saying they are getting married] ▪ Despite its small size, the device is able to store thousands of hours of music. ▪ The law has yet to be passed, despite the fact that most people are in favor of it.
despite yourself : even though you do not want to ▪ She stared at the couple despite herself. ▪ Despite myself, I began to enjoy the movie. ▪ They grew to love each other, almost despite themselves.

de•spoil /dɪˈspojəl/ verb -spoils; -spoiled; -spoil•ing [+ obj] literary
1 : to severely damage or ruin (a place) ▪ The landscape has been despoiled by industrial development.
2 : to forcefully take what is valuable from (a place) ▪ The invaders despoiled [=plundered] the village.
– de•spoil•er noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ He sees human beings as despoilers of nature.

de•spond•ent /dɪˈspɑːndənt/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : very sad and without hope ▪ I had never seen them looking so despondent. ▪ a group of despondent fans — often + over or about ▪ She is despondent over losing her job. ▪ He grew increasingly despondent about her illness.
– de•spond•en•cy /dɪˈspɑːndənsi/ also de•spon•dence /dɪˈspɑːndəns/ noun [noncount] ▪ He went through a period of deep despondency after his divorce.

des•pot /ˈdɛspət/ noun, pl -pots [count]
1 : a ruler who has total power and who often uses that power in cruel and unfair ways ▪ medieval despots [=tyrants]
2 formal : a person who has a lot of power over other people ▪ He was a successful basketball coach, but many people regarded him as a petty despot. ▪ The company is run by a benevolent despot.
– des•pot•ic /dɛˈspɑːtɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ a despotic government

des•po•tism /ˈdɛspəˌtɪzəm/ noun [noncount] : rule by a despot ▪ The people have had to endure many years of despotism. [=(more commonly) tyranny]

des•sert /dɪˈzɚt/ noun, pl -serts : sweet food eaten after the main part of a meal [count] She doesn't care for rich desserts. ▪ a chocolate dessert [noncount] Coffee and tea will be served with dessert. ▪ We had ice cream and apple pie for dessert. — sometimes used before another noun ▪ They asked to look at the dessert menu. ▪ dessert plates

> Do not confuse dessert with desert.

des•sert•spoon /dɪˈzɚtˌspuːn/ noun, pl -spoons [count] Brit
1 : a spoon of medium size that is used to eat desserts and other foods
2 : the amount that a dessertspoon will hold ▪ a dessertspoon of sugar

des•sert•spoon•ful /dɪˈzɚtˌspuːnˌfʊl/ noun, pl -fuls [count] Brit : DESSERTSPOON 2

dessert wine noun, pl ~ wines [count, noncount] : a sweet wine that people drink with dessert or after dessert

de•sta•bi•lize also Brit de•sta•bi•lise /diˈsteɪbəˌlaɪz/ verb -liz•es; -lized; -liz•ing [+ obj] : to cause (something, such as a government) to be unable to continue existing or working in the usual or desired way : to make (something) unstable ▪ The group hoped the assassination of the new President would destabilize the government. ▪ Economists warn that the crisis could destabilize the nation's currency.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 43 SESS: 25 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:28:10 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-d

– de•sta•bi•li•za•tion also Brit de•sta•bi•li•sa•tion /diˌsteɪbələˈzeɪʃən, Brit diˌsteɪbəˌlaɪˈzeɪʃən/ noun [noncount] – destabilizing also Brit destabilising adj ▪ a destabilizing influence/force/factor des•ti•na•tion /ˌdɛstəˈneɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count] : a place to which a person is going or something is being sent ▪ After stopping for lunch, we continued on toward/to our destination. ▪ The package reached its destination two days later. ▪ He enjoys traveling to remote and exotic destinations. ▪ a popular tourist destination ▪ We traveled through three states before reaching our final destination. ▪ a destination restaurant/resort [=a restaurant/resort that people are willing to travel a long distance to go to]

des•tined /ˈdɛstənd/ adj, not used before a noun
1 a : certain to do or to be something ▪ Without the support of the unions, the plan seems destined to fail. ▪ He is destined to be famous. ▪ She felt that she was destined [=fated, meant] to become a writer. b : certain to achieve or experience something : certain to have a particular job, status, etc. — + for ▪ a nation destined for greatness ▪ They believed that their son was destined for the priesthood. ▪ a technology that is destined for a short life
2 : going or traveling to a particular place — + for ▪ The ship was destined [=headed, heading, bound] for New York. ▪ The shipment is destined for Bombay.

des•ti•ny /ˈdɛstəni/ noun, pl -nies
1 [count] : what happens in the future : the things that someone or something will experience in the future ▪ They believed it was their destiny to be together. ▪ His parents believed that the priesthood was his destiny. [=that he would or should become a priest because fate or God intended it] ▪ The factory's closing shaped the destiny [=fate] of the entire town. ▪ She believes that people can choose/control their own destinies. [=that people can control what will happen to them]
2 [noncount] : a power that is believed to control what happens in the future ▪ She felt that destiny [=fate] had decided that she would one day be President. ▪ motivated by a sense of destiny — see also MANIFEST DESTINY

synonyms DESTINY, FATE, and LOT mean a future that someone or something will have. DESTINY and FATE both suggest that the future has been decided or planned by God or by some godlike power. DESTINY often suggests a future that includes something great and important. ▪ He was a great leader whose destiny was to free the people of his country. FATE often suggests a future that cannot be avoided and that is usually sad or unpleasant. ▪ It was the explorer's fate to die lost and alone. LOT suggests that someone's future has been decided by luck. ▪ It was not their lot in life to have children.

des•ti•tute /ˈdɛstəˌtuːt, Brit ˈdɛstəˌtjuːt/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : extremely poor ▪ His business failures left him destitute.
2 formal + literary : without something that is needed or wanted — + of ▪ a lake destitute of fish ▪ a man destitute of wisdom the destitute : people who are extremely poor : destitute people ▪ The charity provides food and clothing for the destitute. [=the needy]
– des•ti•tu•tion /ˌdɛstəˈtuːʃən, Brit ˌdɛstəˈtjuːʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ lives of destitution [=poverty]

de–stress /ˈdiːˈstrɛs/ verb -stress•es; -stressed; -stress•ing [no obj] : to relax your body or mind : to stop feeling the effects of stress ▪ Taking a hot bath is a good way to de-stress [=unwind] after a busy day.

de•stroy /dɪˈstrɔɪ/ verb -stroys; -stroyed; -stroy•ing [+ obj]
1 : to cause (something) to end or no longer exist : to cause the destruction of (something) ▪ Eventually our problems with money destroyed our marriage. ▪ All the files were deliberately destroyed. ▪ The disease destroys the body's ability to fight off illness. : to damage (something) so badly that it cannot be repaired ▪ The bomb blast destroyed the village. ▪ The scandal destroyed [=ruined] his reputation. ▪ The building was partially destroyed [=demolished] by fire.
2 : to kill (an animal) especially because it is sick, injured, or dangerous ▪ The dog had to be destroyed since its owner could not prevent it from attacking people.
3 informal : to defeat (someone or something) easily or completely ▪ They destroyed [=demolished] the other team 51–7.

de•stroy•er /dɪˈstrɔjə/ noun, pl -ers [count]
1 : a small and fast military ship that protects bigger ships
2 : something that causes the destruction of something ▪ The pamphlet describes alcohol as a destroyer of families.

de•struc•tion /dɪˈstrʌkʃən/ noun [noncount] : the act or process of damaging something so badly that it no longer exists or cannot be repaired : the act or process of destroying something ▪ a scene of destruction ▪ War results in death and widespread destruction. ▪ We are trying to save the building from destruction. ▪ weapons of mass destruction [=weapons that can destroy entire buildings, cities, etc.] ▪ His phenomenal success carried within it the seeds of its own destruction. [=the thing that made him successful eventually caused him to fail] — often + of ▪ the destruction of documents/evidence ▪ The storm caused the destruction of many homes. — see also SELF-DESTRUCTION

de•struc•tive /dɪˈstrʌktɪv/ adj [more ~; most ~] : causing a very large amount of damage : causing destruction or harm ▪ It was one of the most destructive storms in recent memory. ▪ She argued that the law was destructive of personal liberties. ▪ The school is concerned about the destructive behavior of a few students. ▪ These kinds of budget cuts can be destructive to morale. [=can damage morale] ▪ destructive criticism [=harsh criticism that hurts someone] — compare CONSTRUCTIVE; see also SELF-DESTRUCTIVE – de•struc•tive•ly adv ▪ The dog behaves destructively.
– de•struc•tive•ness noun [noncount] ▪ the destructiveness of the storm des•ul•to•ry /ˈdɛsəlˌtori, Brit ˈdɛsəltri/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal 1 : not having a plan or purpose ▪ desultory [=aimless] conversation.

2 : done without serious effort ▪ He made a desultory [=half-hearted] attempt to study.
– des•ul•to•ri•ly /ˌdɛsəlˈtorəli, Brit ˈdɛsəltrəli/ adv ▪ Talk drifted desultorily from one topic to another.

de•tach /dɪˈtætʃ/ verb -tach•es; -tached; -tach•ing
1 : to separate (something) from something larger [+ obj] Detach the upper part of the form and return it with your payment. ▪ During the accident the trailer was detached from the car. [no obj] The brush detaches from the vacuum cleaner for easy cleaning. — opposite ATTACH 2 [+ obj] : to separate (yourself) from someone or something ▪ It can be difficult to detach yourself from the chaos of the situation. ▪ She has been trying to detach herself from an abusive relationship.
– de•tach•able /dɪˈtætʃəbəl/ adj ▪ The stereo is equipped with detachable speakers.

detached adj
1 [more ~; most ~] : not emotional : not influenced by emotions or personal interest ▪ They wanted the opinion of a detached [=impartial, unbiased] observer. ▪ The article takes a detached [=objective] view of the issue. ▪ He watched them work with a detached [=indifferent] amusement.
2 : not joined or connected : separate from another part or thing ▪ The house has a detached garage. ▪ a detached house [=a house that is not connected to any other house or building] — see also SEMIDETACHED

de•tach•ment /dɪˈtætʃmənt/ noun, pl -ments
1 [noncount] : lack of emotion or of personal interest ▪ I wish the article had approached the issue with a bit more detachment. ▪ In her films she views the modern world with an air/sense of detachment. [=aloofness] ▪ He was able to discuss their concerns with cool detachment. [=impartiality]
2 [noncount] a : the act or process of separating something from a larger thing ▪ The form is perforated to make detachment of the bottom section easier. b : a condition in which something has become separated from something else ▪ a patient diagnosed with retinal detachment [=a condition in which the retina of the eye is no longer connected to the eye as it should be]
3 [count] : a group of soldiers who have a special job or function ▪ A detachment of soldiers was called to assist the police. ▪ helicopter detachments [=groups of soldiers traveling in helicopters]

[1]de•tail /dɪˈteɪl, ˈdiːˌteɪl/ noun, pl -tails
1 [count] a : a small part of something ▪ Every/each detail of the wedding was carefully planned. ▪ They designed every detail of the house. ▪ He planned the party down to the small-

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 44 SESS: 25 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:28:11 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-d

est/last/tiniest detail. [=he planned everything about the party] ▪ Don't sweat the details. [=don't worry about minor things] b [noncount] : the small parts of something ▪ the wooden box's fine carved detail ▪ We admired the detail of the artist's work. ▪ Use a small paintbrush for the detail work. [=decorative work or work done using small pieces] ▪ The job requires attention to detail. ✧ If you have an eye for detail or a fine/good/keen eye for detail, you are good at noticing small but important things that other people might not notice. ▪ It is helpful to have a good eye for detail when you are building a house. ▪ a filmmaker with an eye for detail

2 a [count] : a particular fact or piece of information about something or someone ▪ The article provides further details. ▪ You left out an important detail about their new baby: is it a girl or boy? ▪ The novel is full of historical details. b [noncount] : information about something or someone that is often specific or precise ▪ The book includes a wealth of detail on living conditions aboard ships at that time. ▪ The novel is full of historical detail. ▪ The book covers the topic of grammar at a level of detail that most people would find boring.

3 [count] : a special job that is given to a soldier or group of soldiers — usually singular ▪ They were assigned to security/maintenance/kitchen detail.

go into detail : to discuss or describe everything about something including the small or unimportant parts ▪ The newspaper reports went into (great) detail about his political background. ▪ I will try to tell the story without going into too much detail.

in detail : including a lot of information about something : without leaving out any important parts ▪ She explained in detail how they met. ▪ We will discuss/examine/explore the plan in detail. ▪ Please describe the scene in as much detail as you can. [=in a way that includes as much information as possible] ▪ We will talk about this issue in more/further/greater detail tomorrow.

[2]detail verb -tails; -tailed; -tail•ing [+ obj]
1 : to state particular facts or information about (something) : to describe or discuss the details of (something) ▪ The book details the series of events that led to the tragedy. ▪ She wrote a letter detailing her complaints.
2 US : to thoroughly clean (a car) in an attempt to make it look new ▪ I am going to have the car detailed [=(Brit) valeted] before I try to sell it.
3 formal : to choose (a person or group of people) to do a special job ▪ The Army has detailed him to investigate the complaints. — often used as (be) detailed ▪ The infantry officer was detailed to another unit during maneuvers.

detailed adj [more ~; most ~] : including many details : including a lot information ▪ a detailed report/analysis ▪ We need a more detailed comparison of the available options. ▪ a detailed account/description ▪ He gave us very detailed instructions. ▪ detailed maps/pictures detailing noun [noncount]

1 : small decorative parts : details added to a building, piece of clothing, etc. ▪ the building's fine architectural detailing ▪ a bowl with gold detailing
2 US : the act or process of thoroughly cleaning a car in an attempt to make it look new — called also (Brit) valeting

de•tain /dɪˈteɪn/ verb -tains; -tained; -tain•ing [+ obj]
1 : to officially prevent (someone) from leaving a place : to hold or keep (someone) in a prison or some other place ▪ They were detained by the police for questioning. ▪ He claimed he had been illegally detained.
2 formal : to keep or prevent (someone) from leaving or arriving at the expected time ▪ We were detained [=delayed] for 15 minutes by a flat tire. ▪ Unexpected business had detained her.
– de•tain•ment /dɪˈteɪnmənt/ noun, pl -ments [noncount] He demanded to be released after two hours of detainment. [count] He ordered the detainments of two suspects.

de•tain•ee /dɪˌteɪˈniː/ noun, pl -ees [count] : a person who is being kept in a prison especially for political reasons : a person who is being detained de•tect /dɪˈtɛkt/ verb -tects; -tect•ed; -tect•ing [+ obj] : to discover or notice the presence of (something that is hidden or hard to see, hear, taste, etc.) ▪ The test is used to detect the presence of alcohol in the blood. ▪ This type of cancer is difficult to detect in its early stages. ▪ He thought he detected [=sensed] a note of irony in her comments.

– de•tect•able /dɪˈtɛktəbəl/ adj ▪ a dim star that is only detectable with a powerful telescope ▪ sounds barely detectable by the human ear

de•tec•tion /dɪˈtɛkʃən/ noun [noncount] : the act or process of discovering, finding, or noticing something ▪ I don't know how the errors managed to avoid/escape detection for so long. ▪ methods of crime detection — sometimes used before another noun ▪ a detection system/device

[1]de•tec•tive /dɪˈtɛktɪv/ noun, pl -tives [count]
1 : a police officer whose job is to find information about crimes that have occurred and to catch criminals ▪ She is a detective on the police force. ▪ Detective Sgt. Lee is working on the case. ▪ a homicide detective
2 : a person whose job is to find information about something or someone : PRIVATE INVESTIGATOR ▪ She hired a detective to follow her husband.

[2]detective adj, always used before a noun
1 : done in order to find out hidden or unknown information ▪ We had to do some detective work to find out who used to own the property.
2 : of or relating to crimes and detectives ▪ a detective story ▪ He enjoys reading detective novels.

de•tec•tor /dɪˈtɛktə/ noun, pl -tors [count] : a device that can tell if a substance or object is present : a device that detects the presence of something ▪ a smoke/radar detector ▪ using metal detectors to improve safety at airports — see also LIE DETECTOR

dé•tente or de•tente /deɪˈtɑːnt/ noun, formal : an ending of unfriendly or hostile relations between countries [noncount] as the countries move toward détente ▪ a period of détente [count] the start of a détente

de•ten•tion /dɪˈtɛnʃən/ noun, pl -tions
1 a : the act of keeping someone in a prison or similar place [noncount] the detention of suspected terrorists ▪ detention camps/facilities [count] The jail is only used for brief detentions. b [noncount] : the state of being kept in a prison or similar place ▪ Dozens of protesters were held/kept in detention for six hours. [=were detained for six hours]
2 : a punishment in which a student is required to stay at school after the rest of the students have left [count] They both got/received three detentions this year. [noncount] He got detention for being late to class.

detention center (US) or Brit detention centre noun, pl ~ -ters [count]
1 : a place where people who have entered a country illegally are kept for a period of time
2 : a place where people who have committed crimes are kept as punishment ▪ She spent several months in a detention center for women. ▪ a juvenile detention center

de•ter /dɪˈtə/ verb -ters; -terred; -ter•ring [+ obj]
1 : to cause (someone) to decide not to do something ▪ Some potential buyers will be deterred by the price. — often + from ▪ They hoped that the new law would deter advertisers from making false claims. ▪ The heavy fines should deter [=discourage] people from dumping garbage here.
2 : to prevent (something) from happening ▪ He played an important role in international efforts to deter [=prevent] nuclear war. ▪ Painting the metal will deter rust.

de•ter•gent /dɪˈtəʤənt/ noun, pl -gents : a powder or liquid that is used to clean clothes, dishes, etc. : a chemical substance that is like soap [count] We have tried different laundry detergents. [noncount] a box of detergent — see picture at KITCHEN de•te•ri•o•rate /dɪˈtirijəˌreɪt/ verb -rates; -rat•ed; -rat•ing

1 [no obj] : to become worse as time passes ▪ The weather gradually deteriorated [=worsened] as the day went on. ▪ Her health continues to deteriorate. [=decline] ▪ efforts to save a deteriorating rain forest ▪ The disagreement deteriorated into a fight. [=the disagreement got worse and eventually became a fight]
2 [+ obj] : to make (something) worse ▪ Exposure to rain and sun will gradually deteriorate the paint.
– deteriorated adj ▪ a deteriorated [=run-down, dilapidated] building ▪ a badly deteriorated part of the city

de•te•ri•o•ra•tion /dɪˌtirijəˈreɪʃən/ noun [singular] : the act or process of becoming worse ▪ economic deterioration ▪ the gradual deterioration of the weather ▪ a deterioration of academic standards ▪ a deterioration in quality de•ter•min•able /dɪˈtəmənəbəl/ adj, formal : possible to know or calculate : able to be determined ▪ a determinable amount/value ▪ The cause of the accident is not determinable at this time.

de•ter•mi•nant /dɪˈtəmənənt/ noun, pl -nants [count] formal : a thing that controls or influences what happens — often + of ▪ Level of education is often a determinant of income.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 45 SESS: 8 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:28:11 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-d

de•ter•mi•nate /dɪˈtɚmənət/ adj, formal : definitely known or decided ▪ a determinate period of time — opposite INDETERMINATE

de•ter•mi•na•tion /dɪˌtɚməˈneɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions
1 [noncount] : a quality that makes you continue trying to do or achieve something that is difficult ▪ What he lacked in talent he made up for in determination. ▪ dogged/fierce/steely/stubborn determination — often followed by to + verb ▪ We all respected her fierce determination to succeed. — see also SELF-DETERMINATION
2 formal : the act of finding out or calculating something [count] age determinations — often + of ▪ They were unable to make an accurate determination of the ship's position. [noncount] The new instruments allow for more precise determination of the size of the tumor.
3 formal : the act of officially deciding something [noncount] The document will be used for determination of ownership. [count] judicial determinations ▪ The inspectors made the determination that the building was unsafe. [=they determined/decided that the building was unsafe]

de•ter•mine /dɪˈtɚmən/ verb -mines; -mined; -min•ing [+ obj]
1 a : to officially decide (something) especially because of evidence or facts : to establish (something) exactly or with authority ▪ The town has finally determined ownership of the land. = The town has finally determined who owns the land. ▪ The new policy will be determined by a special committee. b : to be the cause of or reason for (something) ▪ The demand for a product determines its price. ▪ He believes that one's personality is determined mostly by genetics. ✧ A determining factor is a reason to make a particular choice or decision. ▪ Price was the determining factor in their decision.
2 : to learn or find out (something) by getting information ▪ An autopsy will be performed to determine the cause of death. ▪ They are unable to accurately determine the ship's position at this time. ▪ Scholars have determined that the book was written in the late 16th century. ▪ I am trying to determine what happened and when.
3 formal : to make a decision : DECIDE ▪ They are determining if/whether they should stay. ▪ They determined to leave immediately. ▪ He determined [=resolved] that he would learn a foreign language.

determined adj [more ~; most ~]
1 not used before a noun : having a strong feeling that you are going to do something and that you will not allow anyone or anything to stop you — often followed by to + verb ▪ They are determined to find out the cause of the accident. ▪ Her early failures made her even more determined to succeed. ▪ We are determined not to let it happen again. ▪ We were bound and determined [=very determined] to finish the project on time. — often + that ▪ We are determined that it will never happen again.
2 : not weak or uncertain : having or showing determination to do something ▪ He is a very determined [=resolute] opponent. ▪ We are making a determined effort to correct our mistakes. ▪ a determined smile
– de•ter•mined•ly adv ▪ They fought determinedly for a new trial. ▪ She is a determinedly cheerful hostess.

de•ter•mi•ner /dɪˈtɚmənɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] grammar : a word (such as "a," "the," "some," "any," "my," or "your") that comes before a noun and is used to show which thing is being referred to de•ter•min•ism /dɪˈtɚməˌnɪzəm/ noun [noncount] philosophy : the belief that all events are caused by things that happened before them and that people have no real ability to make choices or control what happens

– de•ter•min•ist /dɪˈtɚmənəst/ noun, pl -ists [count] – de•ter•min•is•tic /dɪˌtʰɚməˈnɪstɪk/ or determinist adj ▪ a deterministic view of life ▪ determinist philosophers de•ter•rence /dɪˈtɚrəns/ noun [noncount] formal

1 : the act of making someone decide not to do something : the act of preventing a particular act or behavior from happening ▪ the deterrence of crime
2 politics : the policy of developing a lot of military power so that other countries will not attack your country ▪ The author argues that deterrence is no longer the best way to prevent war. ▪ nuclear deterrence

de•ter•rent /dɪˈtɚrənt/ noun, pl -rents [count] : something that makes someone decide not to do something ▪ We would like to go, but cost is a major deterrent. ▪ The security alarm is a theft deterrent. ▪ a crime deterrent — often + to or against ▪ They argued over whether the death penalty is an effective deterrent to murder. ▪ They hope that the new law will be a deterrent against false advertising.
– deterrent /dɪˈtɚrənt/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ They hope that the new law will have a deterrent effect.

de•test /dɪˈtɛst/ verb -tests; -test•ed; -test•ing [+ obj] formal : to dislike (someone or something) very strongly ▪ Those two really seem to detest [=hate, despise] each other. ▪ She detested [=loathed] living in the city.

de•test•able /dɪˈtɛstəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : causing or deserving strong dislike : deserving to be detested ▪ He found her selfish attitude detestable. [=contemptible, despicable] ▪ He is a detestable villain.
– de•test•ably /dɪˈtɛstəbli/ adv ▪ a detestably cruel act de•throne /dɪˈθroʊn/ verb -thrones; -throned; -thron•ing [+ obj] : to take away the power and authority of (a king or queen) : to remove (a king or queen) from power — now usually used figuratively ▪ Last year's champion was dethroned in the first round of the play-offs.

– de•throne•ment /dɪˈθroʊnmənt/ noun [noncount] ▪ the dethronement of the queen/champion det•o•nate /ˈdɛtn̩ˌeɪt/ verb -nates; -nat•ed; -nat•ing : to explode or to cause (something, such as a bomb) to explode [no obj] They knew that the bomb could detonate [=blow up] at any time. [+ obj] The first atomic bomb was detonated in 1945.

– det•o•na•tion /ˌdɛtn̩ˈeɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count, noncount]

det•o•na•tor /ˈdɛtn̩ˌeɪtɚ/ noun, pl -tors [count] : a device that is used to make a bomb explode

[1]de•tour /ˈdiːˌtʊɚ/ noun, pl -tours [count]
1 : the act of going or traveling to a place along a way that is different from the usual or planned way ▪ After a number of unexpected detours, we finally arrived at our destination. ▪ The little restaurant is worth a detour. ▪ We had to make a detour around the heaviest traffic. ▪ We took a detour from the main streets. — often used figuratively ▪ After teaching for many years, he made a brief detour into professional cooking. [=he worked as a cook for a short period of time] ▪ The conversation took a detour onto another topic.
2 US : a road, highway, etc., that you travel on when the the usual way of traveling cannot be used ▪ The road is closed ahead, so traffic will have to follow the detour. ▪ a detour sign/route — called also (Brit) diversion

[2]detour verb -tours; -toured; -tour•ing US
1 always followed by an adverb or preposition [no obj] : to go along a way that is different from and usually longer than the usual or planned way ▪ We detoured around the heaviest traffic. — often used figuratively ▪ After teaching for many years, he briefly detoured into professional cooking.
2 [+ obj] a : to make (someone or something) go in a direction that is not planned or expected ▪ A police officer was detouring traffic around the scene of the accident. ▪ Traffic will be detoured to 72nd Street. — often used figuratively ▪ Her athletic career was detoured by a series of injuries. b : to avoid (something) by going around it ▪ Commuters are being advised to detour [=bypass] this section of the road. — often used figuratively ▪ You can detour the whole process by applying online.

de•tox /ˈdiːˌtɑːks/ noun, pl -tox•es informal : special treatment that helps a person to stop using drugs or alcohol [noncount] He spent one week in detox. ▪ The famous writer recently went into detox. [count] She has been through two detoxes in the past year. — often used before another noun ▪ a detox center/clinic/program

de•tox•i•fy /diˈtɑːksəˌfaɪ/ verb - es ; - ed ; -fy•ing [+ obj]
1 : to remove a poisonous or harmful substance from (something) ▪ a special tea that is supposed to detoxify the body
2 : to cause (someone) to stop using drugs or alcohol by providing special help and treatment ▪ a drug addict who is being detoxified
– de•tox•i• •ca•tion /diˌtɑːksəfəˈkeɪʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ the detoxification of drug addicts — often used before another noun ▪ a detoxification [=detox] process/program

de•tract /dɪˈtrækt/ verb -tracts; -tract•ed; -tract•ing detract from [phrasal verb] detract from (something) formal : to reduce the strength, value, or importance of (something) ▪ They worried that the scandal would seriously detract from [=diminish, hurt] her chances for reelection. ▪ The overcooked vegetables detracted somewhat from an otherwise fine meal.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 46 SESS: 12 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:28:12 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-d

de•trac•tor /dɪˈtræktə/ noun, pl -tors [count] formal : a person who criticizes something or someone ▪ Despite his popularity, his many detractors [=critics] still think his work is overrated. ▪ Even her detractors had to admit that she had made the company successful.

de•train /diˈtreɪn/ verb -trains; -trained; -train•ing [no obj] : to get off a train ▪ They were the first passengers to detrain.

det•ri•ment /ˈdɛtrəmənt/ noun, formal
1 [count] : something that will cause damage or injury to something or someone — usually singular; often + to ▪ He saw the new regulations as a detriment to progress.
2 [noncount] : the act of causing damage or injury to something or someone ▪ He puts all his time into his career, to the detriment of [=in a way that is harmful to] his personal life. ▪ relying on bad advice, much to your detriment [=in a way that is harmful to you] — often + to ▪ She was able to work long hours without detriment to her health. [=without harming her health] det•ri•men•tal /ˌdɛtrəˈmɛntl/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : causing damage or injury ▪ The detrimental [=harmful] effects of overeating are well known. — often + to ▪ She argues that watching too much TV is detrimental to a child's intellectual and social development.

– det•ri•men•tal•ly adv

de•tri•tus /dɪˈtraɪtəs/ noun [noncount] formal : the pieces that are left when something breaks, falls apart, is destroyed, etc. ▪ the detritus of ancient civilizations ▪ As he packed, he sifted through the detritus of a failed relationship.

deuce /ˈduːs, Brit ˈdjuːs/ noun, pl deuc•es
1 [count] chiefly US, informal : a playing card that has the number two on it or two symbols on it ▪ a pair of deuces [=twos]
2 tennis : a situation in which each side has a score of 40 [count] She beat her opponent after eight deuces. [noncount] The score is deuce.
3 [singular] old-fashioned + informal — used to make a question or statement more forceful ▪ Who the deuce [=devil, hell] was that? ▪ We've had a deuce of a time finding a good doctor. [=it has been very difficult to find a good doctor]

de•us ex ma•chi•na /ˈdeɪəsˌɛksˈmɑːkɪnə/ noun [singular] : a character or thing that suddenly enters the story in a novel, play, movie, etc., and solves a problem that had previously seemed impossible to solve deutsche mark or deutsch•mark /ˈdɔɪʧˌmɑək/ noun, pl ~ marks [count] : a basic unit of money that was formerly used in Germany; also : a coin or bill representing one deutsche mark — called also mark, German mark

de•val•ue /diˈvælju/ verb -ues; -ued; -u•ing
1 finance : to lower the value of a country's money so that it is worth less when it is traded with another country's money [+ obj] The government has decided to devalue its currency. [no obj] Economic woes forced the government to devalue.
2 [+ obj] : to cause (something or someone) to seem or to be less valuable or important ▪ He argues that placing too many requirements on schools devalues the education they provide. ▪ Domestic work is often devalued. [=undervalued]
– de•val•u•a•tion /diˌvæljəˈweɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [noncount] attempts to avoid devaluation [count] currency devaluations

dev•as•tate /ˈdɛvəˌsteɪt/ verb -tates; -tat•ed; -tat•ing [+ obj]
1 : to destroy much or most of (something) : to cause great damage or harm to (something) ▪ The flood devastated the town. ▪ The disease has devastated the area's oak tree population. ▪ The hurricane left the island completely devastated. ▪ The town was devastated [=ruined] when the factory closed.
2 : to cause (someone) to feel extreme emotional pain — usually used as (be) devastated ▪ She was devastated by the breakup of her marriage.
– dev•as•ta•tion /ˌdɛvəˈsteɪʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ economic devastation ▪ the devastation of war [=the damage and destruction caused by war]

devastating adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : causing great damage or harm ▪ It was a devastating flood. ▪ a rare but devastating disease ▪ devastating consequences — often + to ▪ The fall in prices dealt a devastating blow to the company.
2 : causing extreme emotional pain ▪ The news was devastating. ▪ They suffered a devastating loss.
3 : extremely effective or powerful ▪ The movie is a devastating satire of the current political scene. ▪ a writer known for his devastating wit
– dev•as•tat•ing•ly adv ▪ a devastatingly accurate portrayal

de•vel•op /dɪˈvɛləp/ verb -ops; -oped; -op•ing
1 a [+ obj] : to cause (something) to grow or become bigger or more advanced ▪ She has been exercising regularly to develop her back muscles. ▪ The story was later developed into a novel. ▪ The island has developed its economy around tourism. ▪ The course is designed to develop your writing skills. b [no obj] : to grow or become bigger or more advanced ▪ A blossom develops from a bud. ▪ The doctor says that the child is developing normally. ▪ In this class, we will be learning about how languages develop. — often + into ▪ In a short time, the town developed into a city.
2 [+ obj] : to create (something) over a period of time ▪ Scientists are developing a treatment for the disease. ▪ The company has developed a new method for recycling old tires.
3 [+ obj] : to make (an idea, argument, theory, etc.) easier to understand by giving more information ▪ He develops the concept/theory more fully in his book. ▪ You need to develop your argument more.
4 [no obj] : to gradually begin to exist ▪ A dangerous situation is developing. ▪ Romantic relationships often develop between coworkers. ▪ Towns developed along this trade route hundreds of years ago.
5 [+ obj] : to gradually begin to have (something) ▪ As he grew older he developed [=acquired] a taste for expensive wines. ▪ She developed an interest in music when she was just a child. ▪ He developed a close relationship with her.
6 [+ obj] : to begin to suffer from or be affected by (an illness, problem, etc.) ▪ people who develop cancer late in life ▪ The patient later developed a cough. ▪ At some point the pipe developed a leak.
7 [no obj] chiefly US : to become known or understood ▪ The facts of what had happened slowly developed over the next several days. ▪ It eventually developed [=turned out] that he had forgotten to mail the package.
8 [+ obj] a : to build houses or other buildings on (land) ▪ A builder wants to develop a large piece of land along the river. b : to make (something) available for use ▪ The government plans to develop the natural resources of this region.
9 [+ obj] : to make a photograph from (film) by using special chemicals and a special process ▪ Our vacation pictures should be developed by tomorrow. ▪ Did you get the film developed yet?
– de•vel•op•able /dɪˈvɛləpəbəl/ adj ▪ developable land developed adj [more ~; most ~]

1 of a country, society, etc. : having many industries and relatively few poor people who are unable to buy the things they need ▪ The disease is almost unheard of in developed countries. — opposite DEVELOPING, UNDERDEVELOPED
2 : larger or more advanced ▪ Many dogs have a highly developed sense of smell. [=a very strong sense of smell] ▪ The younger plant has a less developed root system.

de•vel•op•er /dɪˈvɛləpə/ noun, pl -ers : a person or thing that develops something: such as a [count] : a person or company that builds and sells houses or other buildings on a piece of land ▪ a real estate developer b [count] : a person or company that creates computer software ▪ a software developer c [noncount] : a chemical that is used to develop photographs developing adj, always used before a noun

1 : having few industries and many poor people who are unable to buy the things they need ▪ international programs to assist developing [=underdeveloped] nations — opposite DEVELOPED
2 : growing larger or more advanced ▪ a developing embryo ▪ the developing crisis

de•vel•op•ment /dɪˈvɛləpmənt/ noun, pl -ments
1 [noncount] : the act or process of growing or causing something to grow or become larger or more advanced ▪ Good nutrition is important for proper muscle development. ▪ efforts to promote economic development [=growth] ▪ experts in child development ▪ The company offers many opportunities for professional/personal/career development. — often + of ▪ the development of the English language ▪ The vitamin may help prevent the development of cancer.
2 [noncount] a : the act or process of creating something over a period of time ▪ The software is still in the early stages of development. — often + of ▪ The company is working on (the) development of a new method for recycling old tires. — see also RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT b : the state of

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 47 SESS: 57 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:28:12 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-d

being created or made more advanced ▪ The new system is still under development. [=being developed] ▪ She has a number of projects in development. [=(informal) in the works]
3 [count] : something that has happened or has become known ▪ I try to keep up with the latest developments in computer technology. ▪ Have there been any new developments in the case?
4 a [count] : an area of land with buildings that were all built at around the same time ▪ a condominium development ▪ new commercial and industrial developments — see also HOUSING DEVELOPMENT b [noncount] : the process of building a group of houses or other buildings on an area of land ▪ A large piece of land along the river was sold for development.
5 [noncount] : the chemical process by which photographic film is used to make a photograph ▪ chemicals used for the development of film

de•vel•op•men•tal /diˌvɛləpˈmɛntl/ adj
1 : of or relating to the growth or development of someone or something ▪ A drop in temperature can slow the plant's developmental process. ▪ developmental biology/psychology ▪ a child with developmental abnormalities/defects/disabilities/problems ▪ My theory is still in its developmental stage.
2 : designed to help a child grow or learn ▪ developmental toys
– de•vel•op•men•tal•ly adv ▪ a developmentally disabled child [=a child who is not able to develop in the normal way because of a physical or mental problem]

[1]de•vi•ant /ˈdi:vijənt/ adj [more ~; most ~] : different from what is considered to be normal or morally correct ▪ a deviant lifestyle ▪ a study of deviant behavior among criminals
– de•vi•ance /ˈdi:vijəns/ also de•vi•an•cy /ˈdi:vijənsi/ noun [noncount] ▪ sexual deviance/deviancy

[2]deviant noun, pl -ants [count] : a person who behaves in a way that most people consider to be not normal or morally correct ▪ a sexual deviant

de•vi•ate /ˈdi:viˌeɪt/ verb -ates; -at•ed; -at•ing [no obj] : to do something that is different or to be different from what is usual or expected — usually + from ▪ He almost never deviates from his usual routine. ▪ The investigation showed that the airplane had deviated [=strayed] from its scheduled route. ▪ This pattern of behavior deviates slightly from the norm.

de•vi•a•tion /ˌdi:viˈeɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions
1 : an action, behavior, or condition that is different from what is usual or expected [count] There have been slight deviations in the satellite's orbit. ▪ Having juice instead of coffee was a deviation from his usual routine. [noncount] The pattern's deviation from the norm is significant. ▪ The book discusses sexual deviation [=deviance] in serial killers.
2 [count] technical : the difference between the average of a group of numbers and a particular number in that group

de•vice /dɪˈvaɪs/ noun, pl -vic•es [count]
1 : an object, machine, or piece of equipment that has been made for some special purpose ▪ mechanical devices ▪ The store sells TVs, VCRs, and other electronic devices. ▪ a hidden recording device
2 : a weapon that explodes ▪ an explosive device [=a bomb] ▪ agreeing to dismantle all nuclear devices
3 : something that is done in order to achieve a particular effect ▪ a marketing device ▪ a useful mnemonic device for remembering the names of the planets ▪ The company's method of tracking expenses is just a device to make it seem more profitable.
4 : something in a book, play, poem, movie, etc., that is used to achieve a particular effect ▪ He is known for his use of irony and other literary devices. ▪ a contrived plot device ▪ the play's use of traditional comic devices such as slapstick leave you to your own devices ✧ If someone leaves you to your own devices or you are left to your own devices, you are allowed to do what you want or what you are able to do without being controlled or helped by anyone else. ▪ The students were left to their own devices when the teacher failed to appear on time. ▪ Left to its own devices, the school would accept only the most advanced students.

dev•il /ˈdɛvl/ noun, pl -ils
1 a the Devil : the most powerful spirit of evil in Christianity, Judaism, and Islam who is often represented as the ruler of hell ▪ He went to the Halloween party dressed up as the Devil. [=Satan] b [count] : an evil spirit ▪ an imaginary world haunted by ghosts and devils [=demons]
2 [count] informal a : a person who does bad things or causes trouble usually in a way that is not too serious ▪ She is a tricky devil, so be careful. ▪ Those kids can be little devils sometimes. b : a person (especially a man) who is lucky, unlucky, etc. ▪ The poor devil [=poor guy] broke his leg on the first day of his skiing vacation. ▪ He's such a lucky devil that he'll probably win the lottery someday.
3 the devil informal — used to make a statement or question more forceful ▪ What the devil are you talking about? ▪ Where the devil have you been?
4 [singular] informal : something that is very difficult or that causes a lot of trouble ▪ The shoes look great, but they're the devil to walk in. [=they are very difficult to walk in] — usually used in the phrase a devil of ▪ The new regulations have created a devil of a problem [=a very difficult problem] for many small businesses. ▪ He had a devil of a time getting another job. [=he found it very difficult to get another job] — see also the devil to pay at [1]PAY be a devil Brit, informal — used to tell someone who is not sure about doing something to go ahead and do it ▪ "I don't know if I should eat anything else." "Oh, go on, be a devil, order dessert!" better the devil you know than the devil you don't — used to say that it is better to deal with a difficult person or situation you know than with a new person or situation that could be worse between the devil and the deep blue sea old-fashioned : in a situation that is difficult because you must choose between two unpleasant things ▪ She felt caught between the devil and the deep blue sea. [=in a very bad situation] go to the devil informal — used to forcefully and rudely tell someone to go away and leave you alone ▪ She angrily told him to go to the devil. [=(more commonly) go to hell] like the devil informal 1 : very much ▪ I'm sorry to hear about your injury. It must hurt like the devil. 2 : with a lot of energy and speed ▪ He ran like the devil. [=he ran very fast] speak/talk of the devil informal — used in speech to say that someone you have been talking about has unexpectedly appeared ▪ "Well, speak of the devil! We were just talking about you!"

dev•iled (US) or Brit dev•illed /ˈdɛvld/ adj, always used before a noun : spicy or highly seasoned ▪ deviled eggs/ham dev•il•ish /ˈdɛvlɪʃ/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : evil and cruel ▪ a devilish [=sinister] villain ▪ devilish [=diabolical] tricks
2 : showing a desire to cause trouble but in a way that is not serious ▪ She was attracted by his devilish charm. ▪ There was a devilish look of mischief in her eyes. ▪ a devilish [=mischievous] grin have a devilish time informal + somewhat old-fashioned : to have a difficult time doing something ▪ We had a devilish time finding a parking space.
– dev•il•ish•ly /ˈdɛvlɪʃli/ adv ▪ a devilishly cruel villain ▪ a devilishly attractive man ▪ a devilishly [=very] hard/difficult problem dev•il–may–care /ˌdɛvlˌmeɪˈkeə/ adj [more ~; most ~] : relaxed and without worry ▪ He has a devil-may-care attitude about life.

dev•il•ment /ˈdɛvlmənt/ noun [noncount] chiefly Brit, formal : behavior that causes trouble ▪ engaging in all kinds of devilment [=mischief] : a desire to cause trouble ▪ Ruffians were breaking windows out of sheer devilment.

devil's advocate noun, pl ~ -cates [count] : a person who expresses an opinion that disagrees with others so that there will be an interesting discussion about some issue ▪ Teachers often play devil's advocate to provoke discussion in the classroom.

devil's food cake noun, pl ~ cakes [count, noncount] US : a sweet chocolate cake — compare ANGEL FOOD CAKE

de•vi•ous /ˈdi:vijəs/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : willing to lie and trick people in order to get what is wanted ▪ a dishonest and devious politician ▪ The company was accused of using devious [=dishonest, deceptive] methods/ways to get the contract.
2 formal : not straight or direct : having many twists and turns ▪ He took us by a devious route to the center of the city.
– de•vi•ous•ly adv – de•vi•ous•ness noun [noncount] de•vise /dɪˈvaɪz/ verb -vis•es; -vised; -vis•ing [+ obj] : to invent or plan (something that is difficult or complicated) ▪ They have devised a new method for converting sunlight into electricity. ▪ She is accused of devising [=hatching] a plot to overthrow the government.

de•void /dɪˈvoɪd/ adj
devoid of : not having (something usual or expected) : completely without (something) ▪ He is devoid of (any) ambition. [=he has no ambition] ▪ The landscape seems to be completely devoid of life.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 48 SESS: 11 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:28:13 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-d

de•vo•lu•tion /ˌdɛvəˈluːʃən/ noun [noncount] : the act or process by which a central government gives power, property, etc., to local groups or governments ▪ devolution of power

de•volve /dɪˈvɑːlv/ verb -volves; -volved; -volv•ing formal

1 [no obj] chiefly US : to gradually go from an advanced state to a less advanced state ▪ She cynically asserts that our species is devolving. ▪ Somehow the debate devolved into a petty competition to see who could get more applause. — opposite EVOLVE

2 : to pass (responsibility, power, etc.) from one person or group to another person or group at a lower level of authority — + to, on, or upon [+ obj] Community leaders hope that the new government will devolve more power to/on/upon the community itself. [no obj] Responsibility has devolved to/upon the individual teachers.

3 [no obj] : to be given to someone after the owner has died — + to, on, or upon ▪ Upon his death, the estate devolved to/on/upon a distant cousin. [=a distant cousin inherited the estate]

de•vote /dɪˈvoʊt/ verb -votes; -vot•ed; -vot•ing

devote to [phrasal verb] devote (something) to (something or someone) : to decide that (something) will be used for (a special purpose) : to use (time, money, energy, attention, etc.) for (something) ▪ They devote [=dedicate] an hour every day to worship. ▪ She plans to devote part of her vacation to reading. ▪ Some of the money they raise will be devoted to repairing the church's roof. ▪ Part of the class was devoted to questions from last week's reading. ▪ The magazine will devote an entire issue to this year's winner of the Nobel Peace Prize. ▪ He devoted [=dedicated] his life/time to helping the poor. = He devoted himself to helping the poor. [=he used his time, energy, etc., to help the poor] ▪ She devoted herself to her family.

devoted adj [more ~; most ~] : having strong love or loyalty for something or someone ▪ a rock star's most devoted fans ▪ The author's devoted [=loyal, faithful] readers have been eagerly waiting for the new book. ▪ The TV show has a devoted following. — often + to ▪ He remains devoted to his wife. ▪ Her grandchildren are devoted to her.

– de•vot•ed•ly adv ▪ They worked devotedly [=faithfully] to help him win reelection.

dev•o•tee /ˌdɛvoʊˈtiː/ noun, pl -tees [count]

1 : a person who enjoys or is interested in something very much ▪ The nightclub is popular among jazz devotees. — often + of ▪ She is a devotee of Italian cooking. ▪ a devotee of the arts

2 : a person who has very strong loyalty to a particular religion or religious figure ▪ a group of religious devotees

de•vo•tion /dɪˈvoʊʃən/ noun, pl -tions

1 [singular] : a feeling of strong love or loyalty : the quality of being devoted ▪ acts of devotion ▪ She has cared for the poor with selfless devotion. ▪ The devotion they felt for each other was obvious. — often + to ▪ I admire his devotion to his wife. ▪ She has a strong devotion to the cause.

2 [noncount] : the use of time, money, energy, etc., for a particular purpose ▪ The project will require the devotion of a great deal of time and money.

3 devotions [plural] : prayer, worship, or other religious activities that are done in private rather than in a religious service ▪ They spend an hour each morning at their devotions.

de•vo•tion•al /dɪˈvoʊʃənl/ adj : relating to or used in religious services ▪ devotional music/literature

de•vour /dɪˈvawɚ/ verb -vours; -voured; -vour•ing [+ obj]

1 : to quickly eat all of (something) especially in a way that shows that you are very hungry ▪ He devoured everything on his plate. ▪ The lions devoured their prey. synonyms see EAT

2 : to enjoy (something) in a way that shows you are excited about it: such as a : to read (something) quickly and with much enthusiasm ▪ She devoured every golf magazine she could find. b : to look at (something) with much enjoyment or enthusiasm ▪ He watched intently, devouring the scene before him with his eyes.

3 : to destroy (something) completely ▪ The forest was devoured [=consumed] by fire.

4 of an emotion : to greatly affect or control (someone) ▪ Jealousy devoured [=consumed] him. — usually used as (be) devoured ▪ She was devoured by guilt/remorse.

de•vout /dɪˈvaʊt/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : deeply religious : devoted to a particular religion ▪ They are devout Catholics.

2 a : loyal to something : devoted to a particular belief, organization, person, etc. ▪ His parents are devout [=staunch] believers in the value of a good education. b : serious and sincere ▪ It is his devout wish to help people in need.

– de•vout•ly adv ▪ a devoutly religious family ▪ It is a thing devoutly to be wished. [=a thing worth wishing for; a thing you want very much to happen]

dew /ˈduː, Brit ˈdjuː/ noun [noncount] : drops of water that form outside at night on grass, trees, etc. ▪ The grass was wet with the morning dew.

dew•drop /ˈduːˌdrɑːp, Brit ˈdjuːˌdrɒp/ noun, pl -drops [count] : a drop of dew dew point noun [count] technical : the temperature at which the moisture in the air forms visible drops of water : the temperature at which dew forms ▪ It's 78° outside and the dew point is 63°.

dewy /ˈduːwi, Brit ˈdjuːwi/ adj : wet with dew or with something like dew ▪ a dewy meadow ▪ dewy eyes

dewy–eyed /ˈduːwiˌaɪd, Brit ˈdjuːwiˌaɪd/ adj, usually disapproving

1 : showing too much emotion ▪ the author's dewy-eyed [=sentimental] nostalgia ▪ He gets annoyed by people who get all dewy-eyed [=teary-eyed] at weddings.

2 : young and innocent ▪ a dewy-eyed adolescent

dex•ter•i•ty /dɛkˈstɛrəti/ noun [noncount]

1 a : the ability to use your hands skillfully ▪ The job requires manual dexterity. ▪ He has the dexterity needed to deal cards quickly. b : the ability to easily move in a way that is graceful ▪ The amazing dexterity of the acrobat.

2 formal : clever skill : the ability to think and act quickly and cleverly ▪ He's a teacher known for his imagination and verbal dexterity. ▪ political dexterity [=adroitness]

dex•ter•ous also dex•trous /ˈdɛkstrəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : having or showing great skill or cleverness : showing dexterity ▪ They praised her dexterous handling of the crisis. ▪ The movie is a dexterous retelling of a classic love story. ▪ a dexterous maneuver ▪ a dexterous carpenter

– dex•ter•ous•ly also dex•trous•ly adv ▪ The various elements of the book have been dexterously combined.

dex•trose /ˈdɛkˌstroʊs/ noun [noncount] technical : a kind of sugar found in fruits, plants, etc. : a form of glucose

DH /ˌdiˈeɪʧ/ noun, pl DHs [count] baseball : DESIGNATED HITTER

dhow /ˈdaʊ/ noun, pl dhows [count] : an Arab boat that is low in the front, high in the back, and that usually has one or two sails that are shaped like triangles di- prefix, chemistry : containing two atoms or groups of a specified kind ▪ carbon *di*oxide di•a•be•tes /ˌdajəˈbiːtiz/ noun [noncount] medical : a serious disease in which the body cannot properly control the amount of sugar in your blood because it does not have enough insulin

[1]di•a•bet•ic /ˌdajəˈbɛtɪk/ adj

1 : affected with diabetes ▪ new drugs for treating diabetic patients ▪ He became diabetic [=he developed diabetes] in his old age.

2 : caused by diabetes ▪ a diabetic coma

3 : suitable for people with diabetes ▪ a diabetic diet

[2]diabetic noun, pl -ics [count] : a person who has diabetes di•a•bol•i•cal /ˌdajəˈbɑːlɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 also di•a•bol•ic /ˌdajəˈbɑːlɪk/ : extremely evil ▪ a diabolical [=fiendish, devilish] enemy ✧ Diabolical often describes a plot, scheme, etc., that is very clever and that is intended for an evil purpose. ▪ a diabolical plot to overthrow the government

2 Brit, informal : very unpleasant, bad, or annoying ▪ The party was awful: the guests were boring and the food was diabolical. [=awful, terrible]

– di•a•bol•i•cal•ly /ˌdajəˈbɑːlɪkli/ adv ▪ a diabolically clever plan di•a•crit•ic /ˌdajəˈkrɪtɪk/ noun, pl -ics [count] technical : a mark that is placed over, under, or through a letter in some languages to show that the letter should be pronounced in a particular way ▪ Two diacritics appear in the word "déjà vu."

di•a•dem /ˈdajəˌdɛm/ noun, pl -dems [count] literary : a crown that is worn especially by a king or queen as a symbol of royalty di•ag•nose /ˈdajəgˌnoʊs/ verb -nos•es; -nosed; -nos•ing [+ obj]

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 49 SESS: 11 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:28:13 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−d

1 a : to recognize (a disease, illness, etc.) by examining someone ▪ The test is used to help in diagnosing heart disease. ▪ Thousands of new cases have been diagnosed in the past year. ▪ The doctor was unable to diagnose the skin condition. — often + as ▪ The tumor was diagnosed as benign. ▪ Her illness was incorrectly diagnosed as a bacterial infection. b : to recognize a disease, illness, etc., in (someone) ▪ a new doctor with little experience diagnosing patients ▪ She was diagnosed as having cancer. = She was diagnosed with cancer. 2 : to find the cause of (a problem) ▪ The mechanic was unable to diagnose the problem. — often + as ▪ The mechanic diagnosed the problem as a faulty spark plug.

di•ag•no•sis /ˌdajəgˈnoʊsəs/ noun, pl -no•ses /ˌdajəgˈnoʊˌsi:z/ 1 [noncount] : the act of identifying a disease, illness, or problem by examining someone or something ▪ The unusual combination of symptoms made accurate diagnosis difficult. ▪ She is an expert in the diagnosis and treatment of eye diseases. 2 [count] : a statement or conclusion that describes the reason for a disease, illness, or problem ▪ The diagnosis was a mild concussion. ▪ His doctor made an initial diagnosis of pneumonia. ▪ The committee published its diagnosis of the problems affecting urban schools. — compare PROGNOSIS di•ag•nos•tic /ˌdajəgˈnɑ:stɪk/ adj, technical : of, relating to, or used in diagnosis : used to help identify a disease, illness, or problem ▪ diagnostic tests for cancer ▪ Ultrasound is now widely used as a diagnostic tool. ▪ One important diagnostic feature of this condition is a mild rash.

di•ag•nos•tics /ˌdajəgˈnɑ:stɪks/ noun [plural] technical : the skill or practice of identifying illnesses or problems : methods used for diagnosis ▪ This technology could revolutionize medical diagnostics. ▪ automotive diagnostics

[1]di•ag•o•nal /daɪˈægənl/ adj 1 of a straight line : joining two opposite corners of a shape (such as a square or rectangle) especially by crossing the center point of the shape ▪ Draw a diagonal line. — compare HORIZONTAL, VERTICAL 2 : not going straight across or up and down ▪ The blanket is covered with diagonal stripes. ▪ a diagonal pattern – di•ag•o•nal•ly adv ▪ diagonally striped ▪ The stone wall runs diagonally across the field.

[2]diagonal noun, pl -nals [count] : a diagonal line, direction, or pattern ▪ a design with strong diagonals ▪ The stone wall cuts across the field on a diagonal. [=diagonally] ▪ Slice the vegetables on the diagonal. [=diagonally]

[1]di•a•gram /ˈdajəˌgræm/ noun, pl -grams [count] : a drawing that explains or shows the parts of something ▪ a diagram of the nervous system ▪ This diagram shows how the clock operates. – di•a•gram•mat•ic /ˌdajəgrəˈmætɪk/ adj ▪ a diagrammatic representation of the nervous system – di•a•gram•mat•i•cal•ly /ˌdajəgrəˈmætɪkli/ adv

[2]diagram verb -grams; -grammed or -gramed; -gramming or -gram•ing [+ obj] US : to show or explain (something) in a diagram ▪ The coach diagrammed the new play on the blackboard. ▪ The students were required to diagram a sentence.

[1]di•al /ˈdajəl/ noun, pl di•als [count] 1 a : the part of a clock or watch that has the numbers on it ▪ a clock with a shiny silver dial [=face] — see also SUNDIAL b : the part of a piece of equipment that shows the measurement of something with a moving piece (such as a needle) that points to a number ▪ the dial of a pressure gauge 2 : a round part on a piece of equipment that you turn to operate something: such as a : a round control on a radio or television that you use to select a station or channel or to make the volume louder or quieter ▪ I had to keep adjusting the radio dial to make the station come in clearly. ▪ We'll be back right after this commercial, so don't touch that dial! [=don't change the channel/station] b : a round part of some telephones that you move to select numbers

[2]dial verb di•als; US di•aled or Brit di•alled; US di•al•ing or Brit di•al•ling [+ obj] 1 : to select (a series of numbers) on a telephone by turning a dial or pushing buttons ▪ In an emergency you should dial [=call] 911. ▪ I'm sorry. I must have dialed the wrong number. 2 : to make a telephone call to (a person, business, etc.) ▪ She dialed [=(more commonly) called] her office as soon as she got home. ▪ He dialed (up) a friend to say he was in town.

di•a•lect /ˈdajəˌlɛkt/ noun, pl -lects : a form of a language that is spoken in a particular area and that uses some of its own words, grammar, and pronunciations [count] They speak a southern dialect of French. ▪ peasant/regional/local dialects [noncount] The author uses dialect in his writing. ▪ The play was hard to understand when the characters spoke in dialect. – di•a•lec•tal /ˌdajəˈlɛktl/ adj ▪ the many dialectal forms of English di•a•lec•tic /ˌdajəˈlɛktɪk/ also di•a•lec•tics /ˌdajəˈlɛktɪks/ noun [noncount] philosophy : a method of examining and discussing opposing ideas in order to find the truth – di•a•lec•ti•cal /ˌdajəˈlɛktɪkəl/ adj ▪ a dialectical method/philosophy

dialling code noun, pl ~ codes [count] Brit : AREA CODE

dialling tone noun, pl ~ tones [count] Brit : DIAL TONE

dialog box noun, pl ~ boxes [count] computers : a box that appears on a computer screen with a question inside asking the user to make a choice or give information di•a•logue also US di•a•log /ˈdajəˌlɔ:g/ noun, pl -logues also -logs 1 : the things that are said by the characters in a story, movie, play, etc. [noncount] He is an expert at writing dialogue. ▪ There's very little dialogue in the film. ▪ The best part of the book is the clever dialogue. [count] Students were asked to read dialogues from the play. 2 formal a : a discussion or series of discussions that two groups or countries have in order to end a disagreement [count] The two sides involved in the labor dispute are trying to establish a dialogue. [noncount] The two parties have been in constant dialogue with each other. b [count] : a conversation between two or more people ▪ They had a lengthy dialogue [=(more commonly) talk] about her plans for college.

dial tone noun, pl ~ tones [count] US : the sound that comes from a telephone when it is ready for a call to be made — called also (Brit) dialling tone

dial–up /ˈdajəlˌʌp/ adj, always used before a noun, computers : done using an ordinary telephone line ▪ dial-up Internet access ▪ a dial-up connection di•al•y•sis /daɪˈæləsəs/ noun [noncount] medical : the process of removing some of a person's blood, cleaning it, and then returning it to the person's body ▪ patients undergoing/receiving dialysis ▪ a dialysis machine ✧ People usually receive dialysis when they have damaged kidneys.

di•am•e•ter /daɪˈæmətɚ/ noun, pl -ters 1 [count] : a straight line from one side of something (such as a circle) to the other side that passes through the center point ▪ The dotted line indicates the diameter of the circle. — see picture at GEOMETRY 2 : the distance through the center of something from one side to the other [count] What is the diameter of the tree trunk? ▪ a pipe with a diameter of two inches = a pipe with a two-inch diameter [noncount] Dig a hole that's two feet deep and three feet in diameter. — compare RADIUS di•a•met•ri•cal•ly /ˌdajəˈmɛtrɪkli/ adv : completely or entirely ▪ His position on the issue is diametrically opposed to that of his partner. [=his position is the exact opposite of his partner's position] ▪ They grew up in diametrically opposite [=completely different] environments.

[1]di•a•mond /ˈdaɪmənd/ noun, pl -monds 1 : a very hard usually colorless stone that is a form of carbon and is used especially in jewelry [count] a necklace studded with diamonds and rubies ▪ Her husband gave her a diamond [=a diamond ring] for her birthday. [noncount] The ruby was surrounded by a ring of diamond. — often used before another noun ▪ a diamond mine/ring — see color picture on page C11 2 [count] : a shape that is formed by four equal straight lines and that has two opposite angles that are smaller than a right angle and two opposite angles that are larger than a right angle ▪ The children cut the fabric into diamonds. — compare SQUARE 3 a [count] : a playing card that is marked with a red diamond shape ▪ one heart, two diamonds, and two clubs — see picture at PLAYING CARD b *diamonds [plural] : the suit in a deck of playing cards that is marked by red diamond shapes ▪ He played the queen of diamonds. — compare CLUB, HEART, SPADE 4 [count] a : the part of a baseball field that includes the area within and around the three bases and home plate : IN-

diamond

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 50 SESS: 11 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:28:14 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-d

FIELD ▪ The infielders warmed up by throwing the ball around the diamond. b : the entire playing field in baseball ▪ It's sad to see the town's old baseball diamond deserted.

[2]diamond adj, always used before a noun : of or relating to the 60th or 75th anniversary of an important event (such as a marriage) ▪ The couple celebrated their diamond (wedding) anniversary a few months ago. = (Brit) They celebrated their diamond wedding. ▪ the celebration of Queen Victoria's diamond jubilee in 1897 ✧ It is more common for diamond to refer to the 60th anniversary of something. — compare GOLDEN, SILVER

diamond in the rough noun, pl diamonds in the rough [count] US
1 : a person who has talent or other good qualities but who is not polite, educated, socially skilled, etc. — called also (Brit) rough diamond
2 : something that is in poor condition but that is likely to become valuable with appropriate care or attention ▪ The house is a diamond in the rough, and with some hard work it will be really beautiful.

[1]di•a•per /ˈdaɪpə/ noun, pl -pers [count] US : a piece of cloth or other material that is placed between a baby's legs and fastened around the waist to hold body waste ▪ disposable diapers ▪ changing a baby's diaper — called also (Brit) nappy

[2]diaper verb -pers; -pered; -per•ing [+ obj] US : to put a diaper on (someone) ▪ diaper a baby

diaper rash noun [noncount] US : sore red spots that sometimes form on the area of a baby's skin that a diaper covers — called also (Brit) nappy rash

di•aph•a•nous /daɪˈæfənəs/ adj, formal — used to describe cloth that is very thin and light ▪ a diaphanous scarf ▪ diaphanous fabrics di•a•phragm /ˈdajəˌfræm/ noun, pl -phragms [count]

1 medical : a large flat muscle that separates the lungs from the stomach area and that is used in breathing — see picture at HUMAN
2 technical : a device that controls the amount of light passing through the lens of a camera
3 : a device shaped like a cup that is placed in the vagina to prevent pregnancy — called also (Brit) cap
4 technical : a thin disk that is used in microphones, telephones, speakers, etc., to help reproduce sound or make sounds louder di•a•rist /ˈdajərəst/ noun, pl -rists [count] : a person who writes a diary di•ar•rhea (US) or chiefly Brit di•ar•rhoea /ˌdajəˈri:jə/ noun [noncount] medical : an illness that causes you to pass waste from your body very frequently and in liquid rather than solid form ▪ The symptoms of the disease include fever, nausea, and diarrhea.

di•a•ry /ˈdajəri/ noun, pl -ries [count]
1 : a book in which you write down your personal experiences and thoughts each day ▪ His diaries [=journals] were published after his death. ▪ She kept a diary [=wrote regularly in her diary] while she was traveling in Europe.
2 Brit : DATEBOOK

di•as•po•ra or Di•as•po•ra /daɪˈæspərə/ noun, pl -ras [count] formal : a group of people who live outside the area in which they had lived for a long time or in which their ancestors lived — usually singular ▪ the art of the African/Chinese diaspora ▪ members of the Diaspora [=Jewish people throughout the world who do not live in Israel]

dia•ton•ic /ˌdajəˈtɑ:nɪk/ adj, music : of or relating to a musical scale that has five whole steps and two semitones ▪ diatonic harmonies/notes ▪ the diatonic scale — compare CHROMATIC di•a•tribe /ˈdajəˌtraɪb/ noun, pl -tribes [count] formal : an angry and usually long speech or piece of writing that strongly criticizes someone or something ▪ The article is a diatribe against mainstream media. ▪ a bitter diatribe about/on how unfair the tax system is

dibs /ˈdɪbz/ noun [plural] US, informal : the right to have or choose something — usually + on ▪ We stood in line for hours to get/have dibs on the best seats in the theater. ▪ The farm always gives first dibs on its vegetables to local families. [=the farm sells its vegetables to local families before anyone else] ▪ "Dibs on the front seat!" [=I am claiming the front seat for myself]

[1]dice /ˈdaɪs/ noun, pl dice
1 [count] : a small cube that is made of plastic, wood, etc., that has one to six dots on each side, and that is used usually in pairs in various games ▪ a pair of dice ▪ Throw the dice. ▪ In this game, each player rolls the dice to see who plays first. ▪ He was caught using a pair of loaded dice. [=dice used for cheating]
2 [noncount] : a gambling game played with dice ▪ They were shooting dice in one of the bar's back rooms.

dice

3 [count] : a small cube ▪ Chop the onions into ¼-inch dice.
a roll of the dice informal — used to say that something could have either a good result or a bad result ▪ Opening a new restaurant is always a roll of the dice. ▪ It's a roll of the dice whether we succeed or fail.
load the dice informal : to unfairly make one possible result more likely than another ▪ We received information that would load the dice in favor of our arguments. ▪ The dice were loaded against them but they still managed to win.
no dice US, informal — used to say that something hoped for or wanted was not possible to do or to get ▪ We hoped that tickets would still be available, but no dice, they were all sold. ▪ I've proposed several different deals, but their response continues to be no dice. [=their response continues to be no] roll the dice informal : to do something that may have a good result or a bad result : to take a chance ▪ They decided to roll the dice and start their own business.

[2]dice verb dic•es; diced; dic•ing [+ obj] : to cut (food) into small cubes ▪ Dice the potatoes and add them to the soup.
slice and dice see [2]SLICE – diced adj ▪ diced carrots – dic•er noun, pl -ers [count]

dic•ey /ˈdaɪsi/ adj dic•i•er; -est informal : involving a chance that something bad or unpleasant could happen : RISKY ▪ Starting a business can be quite a dicey proposition. ▪ The weather looks a little dicey this morning. I hope it doesn't rain.

di•chot•o•my /daɪˈkɑ:təmi/ noun, pl -mies [count] formal : a difference between two opposite things : a division into two opposite groups ▪ Her essay discusses the dichotomy between good and evil in the author's novels.

dick /ˈdɪk/ noun, pl dicks [count]
1 informal + offensive : PENIS
2 informal + offensive : a mean, stupid, or annoying man
3 US, informal + old-fashioned : DETECTIVE ▪ a private dick — see also CLEVER DICK

dick•ens /ˈdɪkənz/ noun
the dickens informal + old-fashioned — used to make a statement or question more forceful ▪ What the dickens [=the devil] do you mean? ▪ We'll have to work like the dickens [=very hard] to finish this project. ▪ (US) It scared/frightened the dickens out of people. [=scared people very badly] ▪ (US) She's as cute as the dickens. [=she's very cute]

dick•er /ˈdɪkə/ verb -ers; -ered; -er•ing [no obj] chiefly US : to talk or argue with someone about the conditions of a purchase, agreement, or contract ▪ I tried to dicker for a discounted price. — often + with or over ▪ I don't have time to dicker with you. ▪ They spent hours dickering [=haggling] over the car's price.

dick•head /ˈdɪkˌhɛd/ noun, pl -heads [count] informal + offensive : a mean, stupid, or annoying man

dicta plural of DICTUM

Dic•ta•phone /ˈdɪktəˌfoʊn/ trademark — used for a machine that records a person's spoken words so that the words can be written down later

[1]dic•tate /ˈdɪkˌteɪt/ verb -tates; -tat•ed; -tat•ing [+ obj]
1 : to speak or read (something) to a person who writes it down or to a machine that records it ▪ She's dictating a letter to her secretary.
2 : to say or state (something) with authority or power ▪ They insisted on being able to dictate the terms of surrender.
3 : to make (something) necessary ▪ Our choice of activities will likely be dictated [=determined, controlled] by the weather. ▪ His health dictates [=requires] that he work at home. ▪ Tradition dictates that the youngest member should go first. ▪ The basket's function dictates its size and shape.
dictate to [phrasal verb] dictate to (someone) : to give orders to (someone) — usually used as (be) dictated to ▪ I resent being dictated to by someone with half my experience.

[2]dictate noun, pl -tates [count] formal
1 : an order or direction given with authority — usually plural ▪ They don't allow any disagreement with the dictates of the party.
2 : a rule or principle that guides something (such as an activity or a person's behavior) — usually plural ▪ She tried to live her life according to the dictates of her conscience. ▪ We pay no attention to the dictates of fashion. ▪ the dictates of common sense

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 51 SESS: 11 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:28:14 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-d

dic•ta•tion /dɪkˈteɪʃən/ noun [noncount] : the act of speaking words that someone writes down or that a machine records : the act of dictating words ▪ He used a tape recorder for dictation. ▪ writing from dictation take dictation : to write down the words that someone says so that they can be used in a letter, report, etc. ▪ Her secretary's very good at taking dictation.

dic•ta•tor /ˈdɪkˌteɪtə/ noun, pl -tors [count] : a person who rules a country with total authority and often in a cruel or brutal way ▪ The country was ruled by a military dictator. ▪ fascist dictators

dic•ta•to•ri•al /ˌdɪktəˈtoriəl/ adj
1 : of, relating to, or ruled by a dictator ▪ a dictatorial ruler [=a ruler who is a dictator] ▪ He was given dictatorial powers. ▪ a dictatorial government ▪ dictatorial regimes
2 [more ~; most ~] disapproving — used to describe a person who tries to control other people in a forceful and unfair way ▪ a dictatorial boss [=a boss who acts like a dictator] ▪ All his students resented his harsh, dictatorial manner.
– dic•ta•to•ri•al•ly adv ▪ behaving dictatorially

dic•ta•tor•ship /dɪkˈteɪtəˌʃɪp/ noun, pl -ships
1 [noncount] : rule by a dictator : rule, control, or leadership by one person with total power ▪ The country suffered for many years under his dictatorship.
2 [count] : a government or country in which total power is held by a dictator or a small group ▪ His enemies accused him of establishing a dictatorship. ▪ a military dictatorship

dic•tion /ˈdɪkʃən/ noun [noncount]
1 : the clearness of a person's speech ▪ The actor's diction was so poor I could hardly understand what he was saying.
2 : the way in which words are used in speech or writing ▪ The student's essay was full of careless diction.

dic•tio•nary /ˈdɪkʃəˌneri, Brit ˈdɪkʃənri/ noun, pl -nar•ies [count]
1 : a reference book that contains words listed in alphabetical order and that gives information about the words' meanings, forms, pronunciations, etc. ▪ an English dictionary ▪ Look it up in the dictionary.
2 : a reference book that lists in alphabetical order the words of one language and shows their meanings or translations in a different language ▪ an English-French dictionary
3 : a reference book that lists in alphabetical order words that relate to a particular subject along with their definitions and uses ▪ a law dictionary ▪ a dictionary of medicine dic•tum /ˈdɪktəm/ noun, pl dic•ta /ˈdɪktə/ also dic•tums [count] formal : a statement or well-known remark that expresses an important idea or rule ▪ A doctor must follow the dictum of "First, do no harm."

did past tense of DO di•dac•tic /daɪˈdæktɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal

1 : designed or intended to teach people something ▪ didactic poetry
2 usually disapproving — used to describe someone or something that tries to teach something (such as proper or moral behavior) in a way that is annoying or unwanted ▪ Audiences were turned off by the movie's didactic quality.
– di•dac•ti•cal•ly /daɪˈdæktɪkli/ adv

did•dle /ˈdɪdl/ verb did•dles; did•dled; did•dling informal 1 [no obj] US : to spend time doing something or handling something in an aimless way ▪ He spent hours diddling [=fiddling] with the car's engine.
2 [+ obj] Brit : to steal money from (someone) by cheating ▪ He had tried to diddle his insurance agency. ▪ She felt she had been diddled out of her inheritance.

did•dly /ˈdɪdli/ noun [noncount] US slang : DIDDLY-SQUAT ▪ Her contributions don't amount to diddly. [=anything] ▪ He helped us a lot, but she didn't do diddly.

did•dly–squat /ˈdɪdliˌskwɑːt/ noun [noncount] US slang : the least amount : anything at all ▪ You don't know diddly-squat about sports. ▪ He loved his job even though it didn't pay diddly-squat.

didn't /ˈdɪdnt/ — used as a contraction of did not ▪ I didn't know you were coming.

[1]die /ˈdaɪ/ verb dies; died; dy•ing /ˈdajɪŋ/
1 a [no obj] : to stop living ▪ She claims she's not afraid to die. ▪ More than a hundred people died [=were killed] in the crash. ▪ He died in 1892 at the age of 37. ▪ His mother died [=passed away, passed on] on April 15. ▪ People in the town began dying suddenly/unexpectedly. ▪ He died in his sleep. [=he died while he was sleeping] ▪ She died in childbirth. [=she died while giving birth to a baby] b [no obj] : to end life in a specified state or condition — followed by an adjective, noun, or noun phrase ▪ He died happy. ▪ They both died young. ▪ She died a hero. ▪ One day, you're going to die a lonely and bitter old man. c [+ obj] : to have or suffer (a specified kind of death) ▪ He died a violent and painful death. ▪ dying a natural death
2 [no obj] : to wish strongly or desperately for something or to do something — used as (be) dying ▪ I'm dying for a cold drink. ▪ They were dying to leave. ▪ We've been dying to see that movie.
3 [no obj] a : to pass out of existence : to come to an end ▪ Her secret died with her. ▪ He's the last of a dying breed. b : to disappear gradually or become less strong ▪ The wind gradually died. [=died away, died down]
4 [no obj] a : to stop working or running ▪ The motor died. b : to end in failure ▪ The bill died in committee. [=the bill was considered and rejected by a committee] die away [phrasal verb] : to disappear gradually or become less strong ▪ The echo slowly died away.

die back [phrasal verb] of a plant : to die in the parts that are above the ground but to remain alive in the roots ▪ The plant dies back every winter and sends up new shoots each spring.

die down [phrasal verb] : to gradually become less strong ▪ The wind will die down in the evening. ▪ She waited for the noise to die down before she started singing.

die hard : to take a long time to die or end : to continue for a long time ▪ Such rumors die hard. ▪ That kind of determination dies hard. — see also DIE-HARD die in bed or die in your bed : to die of disease or old age ▪ After a long and adventurous life, he ended up dying in his bed.

die laughing informal : to laugh for a long time in an uncontrollable way : to laugh very hard ▪ If the guys hear about this, they're going to die laughing.

die of [phrasal verb] die of (something) : to die because of (something) ▪ My uncle died of cancer. ▪ She died of old age. ▪ They say that he died of a broken heart. ▪ I almost died of embarrassment. [=I was extremely embarrassed] ✧ People often say that they are dying of something that causes a lot of discomfort, distress, etc. ▪ Would you like some water? You must be dying of thirst. [=you must be very thirsty] ▪ We're all dying of the heat. [=we're all very hot and uncomfortable] die off [phrasal verb] : to die one after another so that fewer and fewer are left ▪ The remaining members of her family gradually died off. ▪ The animals died off one by one.

die on the vine informal : to fail at an early stage because of a lack of support or enthusiasm ▪ Her plan to run for public office died on the vine.

die out [phrasal verb] : to disappear gradually ▪ Like most fads, this one eventually died out. ▪ The disease gradually died out over the last two generations. ▪ Many more species are expected to die out completely [=to become extinct] unless we do something to help.

never say die — used to encourage someone to continue something or to remain hopeful ▪ It doesn't look good for the team, but never say die. [=but don't give up hope] They could pull off a miracle.

to die for informal : worth dying for : extremely desirable or appealing ▪ Dinner was nothing special, but the dessert was to die for. ▪ The apartment has a view to die for. [=has a great view]

[2]die /ˈdaɪ/ noun [count]
1 pl dice /ˈdaɪs/ : [1]DICE 1 ▪ Each player throws/rolls one die.
2 pl dies /ˈdaɪz/ : a tool that is used for cutting, shaping, or stamping a material or an object the die is cast — used to say that a process or course of action has been started and that it cannot be stopped or changed ▪ Once we signed the contract, the die was cast, and there was no turning back.

die–hard /ˈdaɪˌhɑəd/ adj [more ~; most ~] : very determined or loyal ▪ die-hard fans; especially : very loyal to a set of beliefs and not willing to change those beliefs ▪ a die-hard conservative — see also die hard at [1]DIE – die•hard noun, pl -hards [count] ▪ a bunch of conservative diehards

diem see PER DIEM

die•sel /ˈdiːzəl/ noun, pl -sels

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 52 SESS: 11 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:28:15 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−d

1 [count] : a vehicle (such as a truck or bus) that has a diesel engine ▪ His truck's a diesel.
2 [noncount] : DIESEL FUEL ▪ Does your car take diesel or gasoline?

diesel engine noun, pl ~ -gines [count] : a type of engine that uses diesel fuel rather than gasoline and that is used especially in large vehicles (such as trucks and buses)

diesel fuel noun [noncount] : a type of fuel that is used in vehicles with diesel engines

[1]di•et /ˈdajət/ noun, pl -ets
1 : the food that a person or animal usually eats [count] Diets that are rich in fruits and vegetables have been shown to help prevent disease. ▪ a balanced diet — often + of ▪ Many birds live on a diet of insects. [noncount] studying the association between diet and disease
2 : the kind and amount of food that a person eats for a certain reason (such as to improve health or to lose weight) [noncount] She lost a lot of weight through diet and exercise. [count] a low-fat diet ▪ a liquid diet ▪ He's on a diet. [=he is eating less food or only particular kinds of food in order to lose weight] ▪ He went on a diet and lost 30 pounds in six months.
3 [singular] : something that is provided or experienced repeatedly — + of ▪ We've been given a steady diet of political scandals in recent months.

[2]diet verb -ets; -et•ed; -et•ing [no obj] : to eat less food or to eat only particular kinds of food in order to lose weight : to be on a diet ▪ I've been dieting for two months.

[3]diet adj, always used before a noun
1 : having a smaller number of calories than usual ▪ a diet soda
2 : intended to help people lose weight ▪ diet pills di•e•tary /ˈdajəˌteri, Brit ˈdajətri/ adj, always used before a noun : of or relating to a diet ▪ Many of our patients have special dietary needs. ▪ dietary deficiencies di•et•er /ˈdajətə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a person who is trying to lose weight : a person who is dieting ▪ I've been an unsuccessful dieter for years. ▪ chronic dieters — called also (Brit) slimmer

di•eti•tian or di•eti•cian /ˌdajəˈtɪʃən/ noun, pl -tians or -cians [count] : a person whose job is to give people advice about what to eat in order to be healthy

dif•fer /ˈdɪfə/ verb -fers; -fered; -fer•ing [no obj]
1 : to be different ▪ Their styles differ. ▪ The two schools differ in their approach to discipline. — often + from ▪ The new version differs significantly from the old one.
2 : to have opinions that don't agree ▪ We differ [=disagree] on/about/over how best to raise the money. — often + with ▪ They differed with each other on religious matters.
agree to differ see AGREE beg to differ see BEG – differing adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ The students had widely differing [=different] interpretations of the poem. ▪ differing views

dif•fer•ence /ˈdɪfrəns/ noun, pl -enc•es
1 : the quality that makes one person or thing unlike another [noncount] She knows the difference between right and wrong. ▪ There's no difference between the two houses. They look exactly the same. [singular] There's a striking difference in the sisters' looks. [=they look very different from each other] ✧ To tell the difference between two people or things is to see how they are unlike each other. ▪ It's hard to tell the difference [=distinguish] between one action movie and another. ▪ The new version is supposed to be much better than the old one, but I can't tell the difference (between them).
2 [count] : something that people do not agree about : a disagreement in opinion ▪ They've always had their differences. [=they have always disagreed about some things] ▪ The debate gave them a chance to air their differences. [=to discuss the things that they disagree about] ▪ We need to find a way to resolve/settle our differences. [=to stop disagreeing, arguing, etc.] ▪ There seems to be a difference of opinion [=people disagree] about what we should do next. ▪ They divorced because of irreconcilable differences. [=serious disagreements that they were not able to settle]
3 [count] : the degree or amount by which things differ ▪ There's a big difference in price. ▪ There's a 15-year age difference between her oldest and youngest children. [=her oldest child is fifteen years older than her youngest child]
make a difference 1 : to cause a change : to be important in some way ▪ Cost can make a difference in deciding on a college. ▪ "When would you like to leave?" "It makes no difference (to me)." [=it doesn't matter to me; I don't care] ▪ The weather didn't make any difference in our plans. [=didn't change our plans] ▪ It would make a lot of difference if you came. ▪ Your help made a big difference. ▪ It makes very little difference. [=it matters very little] ▪ The size of the engine can make all the difference. [=can be very important; can matter most] ▪ It may not matter to you, but it makes all the difference in the world to me. = It makes a world of difference to me. [=it matters very much to me] 2 : to do something that is important : to do something that helps people or makes the world a better place ▪ She says that she got into politics because she wanted to make a difference.
same difference chiefly US, informal — used to say that two things are not really different in any important way ▪ "They lost 100 games last year." "Actually, they only lost 96 games." "Same difference. The point is, they were awful."
split the difference see [1]SPLIT
what's the difference? 1 — used to ask how one thing is different from another ▪ "I like this one a lot more than that one." "Why? What's the difference (between them)?" 2 or what difference does it/that make? — used to ask why something is important or to suggest that something is not important ▪ What's the difference whether I go or not? ▪ What difference does it make [=what does it matter] if I go with you?

dif•fer•ent /ˈdɪfrənt/ adj
1 [more ~; most ~] : not of the same kind : partly or totally unlike ▪ The two brothers could not have been more different. ▪ The students come from (very) different backgrounds. ▪ We need to try an entirely different approach. — often + from, than, or to ▪ Our house is different from the others on our street. ▪ (US) The movie was different than I expected. ▪ (Brit) Her dress is different to mine.

> usage In both U.S. English and British English, one person or thing is said to be different from another. Different is also often followed by than in U.S. English. Some people believe that different than is incorrect, but it is very common. In British English, different can be followed by to. Different to is not used in U.S. English. ▪ The old house looks different from what I remember. = (Brit) The old house looks different to what I remember. = (US) The old house looks different than I remember.

2 always used before a noun : not the same ▪ They met with each other on several different occasions.
3 [more ~; most ~] : not ordinary or common : UNUSUAL ▪ advertising that tries to be different ▪ That movie certainly was different. ▪ He has a very different style of dressing.
a horse of a different color see [1]HORSE different drummer see DRUMMER put a different complexion on see COMPLEXION
– dif•fer•ent•ly adv ▪ She sees the situation a little differently. ▪ He dresses differently now that he's out of college.

[1]dif•fer•en•tial /ˌdɪfəˈrɛnʃəl/ adj, always used before a noun [more ~; most ~] formal : relating to or based on a difference : treating some people or groups differently from others ▪ The law is intended to prevent differential [=discriminatory] treatment of women in the workplace.
– dif•fer•en•tial•ly adv

[2]differential noun, pl -tials [count]
1 : a difference between people or things ▪ Although there is a small price differential [=a small difference in price], we believe it's worth buying the computer with a faster processor.
2 technical : a gear or an arrangement of gears in a vehicle that allows one wheel to turn faster than another when the vehicle is going around a curve — called also differential gear; see picture at CAR

dif•fer•en•ti•ate /ˌdɪfəˈrɛnʃiˌeɪt/ verb -ates; -at•ed; -at•ing
1 [+ obj] : to make (someone or something) different in some way ▪ The only thing that differentiates the twins is the color of their eyes. — often + from ▪ Our excellent customer service differentiates us from our competitors.
2 : to see or state the difference or differences between two or more things [no obj] — often + between ▪ We've been learning how to differentiate between different types of plants. [+ obj] — often + from ▪ It's sometimes hard to differentiate one action movie from all the others.
– dif•fer•en•ti•a•tion /ˌdɪfəˌrɛnʃiˈeɪʃən/ noun [noncount]

dif• •cult /ˈdɪfɪkəlt/ adj [more ~; most ~] 1 : not easy : requiring much work or skill to do or make ▪

D

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 53 SESS: 11 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:28:15 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−d

Our last test was extremely difficult. [=hard, tough] ▪ We were asked lots of difficult questions. ▪ I had to make a very difficult decision/choice. ▪ We'll be hiking over difficult terrain. ▪ It's more difficult than it sounds. — often followed by to + verb ▪ It's difficult to imagine why she would do that. — often + for ▪ It is difficult for me to say this, but you have to leave. ▪ She has a cold, which makes it difficult for her to breathe.

2 : not easy to deal with or manage ▪ He gave a good performance under difficult [=trying] circumstances. ▪ I found myself in a difficult position/situation. ▪ Some difficult days lie ahead of us. ▪ He's been having a difficult time coping [=he has not been dealing well] with his father's death. ▪ These changes will make life/things difficult for everyone involved.

3 : not willing to help others by changing your behavior : stubborn or unreasonable ▪ My parents tell me that I was a difficult child. [=I did not obey my parents] ▪ Why do you have to be so difficult? [=uncooperative]

dif•fi•cul•ty /ˈdɪfɪkəlti/ noun, pl -ties

1 [noncount] : the quality of something that makes it hard to do : the difficult nature of something ▪ He has difficulty [=trouble] reading without his glasses. [=it is difficult for him to read without his glasses] ▪ She underestimated the difficulty of saving so much money. ▪ They had some difficulty (in) explaining their behavior. ✧ If something can be done with difficulty, it is difficult to do. ▪ It was only with (great/considerable) difficulty that we were able to continue. ✧ To do something without difficulty is to do it easily or without problems. ▪ I couldn't breathe without difficulty.

2 [count] : something that is not easy to do or to deal with : a difficult situation — usually plural ▪ He had to overcome many difficulties. [=hardships] ▪ Since the election, the country has been facing serious economic/financial difficulties. ▪ This television station is currently experiencing technical difficulties. [=having technical problems]

3 [count] : a disagreement in opinion — usually plural ▪ The partners have been unable to iron out their difficulties. = They haven't been able to resolve their difficulties.

dif•fi•dent /ˈdɪfɪdənt/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : lacking confidence : not feeling comfortable around people ▪ He becomes diffident [=shy, timid] around girls.

2 : very careful about acting or speaking ▪ She has a diffident [=reserved] manner. ▪ She was diffident about stating her opinion.

– dif•fi•dence /ˈdɪfədəns/ noun [noncount] – dif•fi•dent•ly adv ▪ He asked diffidently about her family.

dif•fract /dɪˈfrækt/ verb -fracts; -fract•ed; -fract•ing [+ obj] technical : to cause (a beam of light) to bend or spread ▪ Light is diffracted when it passes through a prism.

– dif•frac•tion /dɪˈfrækʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ a light undergoing diffraction

[1]dif•fuse /dɪˈfjuːs/ adj [more ~; most ~] : spread out over a large space : not concentrated in one area ▪ The forest was filled with a soft, diffuse light. ▪ diffuse pain

– dif•fuse•ly adv ▪ The pain spread diffusely through his legs. – dif•fuse•ness noun [noncount]

[2]dif•fuse /dɪˈfjuːz/ verb -fus•es; -fused; -fus•ing

1 a : to spread out : to move freely throughout a large area [no obj] The heat from the radiator diffuses throughout the room. [+ obj] The heat was diffused throughout the room. b : to exist or be known throughout an area [no obj] Their culture gradually diffused [=spread] westward. [+ obj] diffusing their ideas

2 [+ obj] : to cause (light) to be soft and spread out ▪ The photographer uses a screen to diffuse the light. ▪ an area of diffused light

– dif•fu•sion /dɪˈfjuːʒən/ noun [noncount]

[1]dig /ˈdɪg/ verb digs; dug /ˈdʌg/; dig•ging

1 a [no obj] : to move soil, sand, snow, etc., in order to create a hole ▪ Some animal has been digging in the garden. ▪ They dug into the sand with their hands. ▪ He dug down about 10 feet before he hit water. b [+ obj] : to form (a hole, tunnel, etc.) by removing soil, sand, snow, etc. ▪ Dig a hole three feet deep. ▪ The first step in building a house is to dig the foundation. ▪ The prisoners escaped by digging a tunnel under the fence.

2 [+ obj] : to uncover (something that is underground) by moving earth, soil, sand, etc. ▪ digging potatoes ▪ digging clams on the beach — see also DIG FOR (below)

3 [no obj] : to look for information about something ▪ These detectives won't stop digging until they find out what happened.

4 slang a [+ obj] : to like or admire (someone or something) ▪ I really dig this music. b : to understand or appreciate (someone or something) [+ obj] You dig me? [no obj] We don't want you here. You dig? c [+ obj] : to pay attention to or look at (someone or something) ▪ Hey, dig that hat. ✧ Senses 4b and 4c have an old-fashioned quality. They are still used, but they are often intended to suggest the language of the 1950s and '60s. Sense 4a is somewhat more common.

5 : to reach for something [no obj] She dug (around) in her purse for her keys. : to put (your hand) into something [+ obj] He dug his hands into his pockets.

dig for [phrasal verb] dig for (something) : to search for (something) by digging ▪ miners digging for coal — often used figuratively ▪ The police have been digging for clues to help solve this murder.

dig in [phrasal verb] 1 dig (something) in or dig in (something) : to mix (something) into the soil in the ground by digging ▪ dig the compost in 2 dig in or dig (yourself) in : to dig a trench and take position inside it ▪ The soldiers dug in and waited for the enemy to approach. ▪ The soldiers dug themselves in. — often used figuratively ▪ We just have to dig in and prepare ourselves for the tough times ahead. 3 informal : to begin eating ▪ Just grab a plate and dig in. 4 dig in your heels or dig your heels in : to behave in a stubborn way : to refuse to change ▪ The salesman dug in his heels and refused to lower the price any further.

dig into [phrasal verb] 1 dig (something) into (something) : to mix (something) into (soil) by digging ▪ dig the compost into the soil 2 dig into (something) a informal : to begin eating (something) ▪ The family was digging into a delicious meal. ▪ They dug into their steaks. b somewhat informal : to try to learn or uncover information by studying (something) ▪ The detectives dug into his past and learned that he had once lived in another country. 3 dig (something) into (something) or dig into (something) : to push against (a body part) in a sharp and painful way ▪ The bed's springs are digging into my back. ▪ Her fingernails dug into my hand. = She dug her fingernails into my hand. ▪ He dug his elbow into my ribs.

dig out [phrasal verb] dig (something) out or dig out (something) 1 : to get (something) by searching ▪ I dug some old books out of the attic. ▪ She dug out some change from her purse. 2 : to get (something) out of soil, sand, snow, etc., by digging ▪ We had to dig the car out of the snow after the storm. ▪ We spent the afternoon digging out [=shoveling snow] after the blizzard.

dig up [phrasal verb] dig up (something) or dig (something) up 1 : to uncover or find (something) by digging ▪ They dug up [=unearthed] buried treasure. ▪ digging up large rocks ▪ I want to move this bush. Will you help me dig it up? 2 informal : to discover (information) ▪ The investigators did a lot of research to dig up the facts.

dig up (the) dirt see DIRT

dig your own grave : to behave in a way that will cause you to lose or fail ▪ The coach dug his own grave when he publicly insulted the team's owner.

[2]dig noun, pl digs

1 [count] : a push with a body part (such as your elbow) : a poke or thrust ▪ She gave me a dig in the ribs to get my attention.

2 [count] : a criticism or insult that is directed toward a particular person or group ▪ a personal dig — often + at ▪ Her comments have been interpreted as a sly dig at her former husband.

3 [count] : a place where scientists try to find buried objects by digging ▪ archaeological digs; also : the act of digging for buried objects ▪ She participated in a dig last summer.

4 digs [plural] informal a US : the place where someone lives ▪ She's buying furniture for her new digs in the city. b Brit, old-fashioned : a room rented in another person's home ▪ He still lives in digs [=in a rented room] just outside the city.

[1]di•gest /daɪˈʤɛst/ verb -gests; -gest•ed; -gest•ing

1 : to change (food that you have eaten) by a biological process into simpler forms that can be used by the body [+ obj] He has trouble digesting certain foods. ▪ an easily digested protein [no obj] Soft-boiled eggs digest easily.

2 [+ obj] : to think over and try to understand (news, information, etc.) ▪ It will take me a while to digest this news.

– di•gest•ible /daɪˈʤɛstəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ easily digestible foods – di•gest•ibil•i•ty /daɪˌʤɛstəˈbɪlɪti/ noun [noncount]

[2]di•gest /ˈdaɪˌʤɛst/ noun, pl -gests [count] : information or a piece of writing that has been made shorter ▪ a digest of the laws ✧ Digest is often used in the names of magazines, such as "Reader's Digest" and "Architectural Digest."

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 54 SESS: 50 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:28:16 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-d

di•ges•tion /daɪˈʤɛstʃən/ noun [noncount] : the process by which food is changed to a simpler form after it is eaten ▪ an enzyme that aids in the digestion of protein ▪ She began to suffer from poor digestion as she grew older.

di•ges•tive /daɪˈʤɛstɪv/ adj, always used before a noun
1 : of or relating to digestion ▪ the digestive system of the body
2 : having the power to cause or help digestion ▪ digestive enzymes dig•ger /ˈdɪgɚ/ noun, pl -gers [count] : a large machine that digs and moves dirt, rocks, etc. — see also GOLD DIGGER

dig•it /ˈdɪʤət/ noun, pl -its [count]
1 : a written symbol for any of the numbers 0 to 9 ▪ a three-digit number like 507 ▪ a five-digit zip code
2 : a finger or toe ▪ She suffered several broken digits.

dig•i•tal /ˈdɪʤətl/ adj
1 : showing the time with numbers instead of with hour and minute hands ▪ a digital watch ▪ digital clocks — compare ANALOG
2 : of or relating to information that is stored in the form of the numbers 0 and 1 ▪ You can transfer digital images/pictures from your camera to your computer. ▪ a digital radio broadcast ▪ a digital recording of a sound
3 : using or characterized by computer technology ▪ laptop computers and other digital [=electronic] devices ▪ In this new digital age, computers and the Internet are part of our everyday lives.
4 : of or relating to the fingers or toes ▪ digital dexterity
– dig•i•tal•ly adv ▪ digitally recorded music digital camera noun, pl ~ -eras [count] : a camera that takes pictures without using film : a camera that records images as digital data

digital computer noun, pl ~ -ers [count] : a computer that works with numbers that are represented by the digits 0 and 1

dig•i•tize also Brit dig•i•tise /ˈdɪʤəˌtaɪz/ verb -tiz•es; -tized; -tiz•ing [+ obj] : to change (information or pictures) to digital form ▪ The record company digitized the songs and made them available on the Internet.

dig•ni• ed /ˈdɪgnəˌfaɪd/ adj [more ~; most ~] : serious and somewhat formal : having or showing dignity ▪ She has a kind but dignified manner. ▪ He looked very dignified in his new suit. ▪ The hotel's lobby is dignified but inviting.

dig•ni•fy /ˈdɪgnəˌfaɪ/ verb - es ; - ed ; -fy•ing [+ obj]
1 : to cause (something) to have more serious and important quality : to give dignity or importance to (something) ▪ She felt that formal clothing would help dignify the occasion.
2 : to treat (something or someone) with respect or seriousness that is not deserved ▪ He said he wouldn't dignify his opponents' accusations by responding to them.

dig•ni•tary /ˈdɪgnəˌteri, Brit ˈdɪgnətri/ noun, pl -tar•ies [count] : a person who has a high rank or an important position ▪ The dinner was attended by many foreign dignitaries. ▪ dignitaries of the church

dig•ni•ty /ˈdɪgnəti/ noun [noncount]
1 : a way of appearing or behaving that suggests seriousness and self-control ▪ She showed dignity in defeat. ▪ The ceremony was conducted with great dignity.
2 : the quality of being worthy of honor or respect ▪ Theirs is a country that cherishes freedom and human dignity.
beneath your dignity : suitable for someone who is less important than you ▪ He thought washing dishes was beneath his dignity. [=he thought that he was too good or important to wash dishes]

di•gress /daɪˈgrɛs/ verb -gress•es; -gressed; -gress•ing [no obj] : to speak or write about something that is different from the main subject being discussed ▪ He digressed so often that it was hard to follow what he was saying. ▪ If I can digress for a moment, I'd like to briefly mention her earlier films.
– di•gres•sion /daɪˈgrɛʃən/ noun, pl -sions [count] ▪ The story is filled with humorous digressions.

dike (chiefly US) or chiefly Brit dyke /ˈdaɪk/ noun, pl dikes [count]
1 : a long narrow hole that is dug in the ground to carry water : a ditch or trench
2 : a bank or mound of earth that is built to control water and especially to protect an area from flooding : LEVEE

dik•tat /dɪkˈtɑːt/ noun, pl -tats [count] disapproving : an order that must be followed ▪ The company president issued a diktat that employees may not wear jeans to work.

di•lap•i•dat•ed /dəˈlæpəˌdeɪtəd/ adj [more ~; most ~] : in very bad condition because of age or lack of care ▪ She was living in a dilapidated [=run-down] old apartment building. ▪ a dilapidated neighborhood di•lap•i•da•tion /dəˌlæpəˈdeɪʃən/ noun [noncount] : a bad condition caused by age or lack of care : a dilapidated condition ▪ The old houses were in various stages of dilapidation.

di•late /ˈdaɪˌleɪt/ verb -lates; -lat•ed; -lat•ing : to become larger or wider [no obj] The drug causes the blood vessels to dilate. ▪ During labor, a woman's cervix will dilate to about 10 centimeters. [+ obj] The drug dilates the blood vessels.
dilate on/upon [phrasal verb] dilate on/upon (something) formal : to talk about (a subject) for a long time ▪ We spent a long evening listening to him dilate on the need for tax relief.
– dilated adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ dilated pupils – di•la•tion /daɪˈleɪʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ dilation of the arteries

dil•a•to•ry /ˈdɪləˌtori, Brit ˈdɪlətri/ adj, formal
1 : causing a delay ▪ The committee's dilatory [=delaying] actions caused the loss of hundreds of jobs.
2 [more ~; most ~] : tending to be late : slow to do something ▪ She tends to be dilatory [=slow] about answering letters.
– dil•a•to•ri•ness noun [noncount]

dil•do /ˈdɪldoʊ/ noun, pl -dos [count] : an artificial penis that is used to give sexual pleasure di•lem•ma /dəˈlɛmə/ noun, pl -mas [count] : a situation in which you have to make a difficult choice ▪ The country's decision to go to war has caused a major dilemma for its allies. ▪ We're facing a terrible dilemma. ▪ I don't know what to do; it's a real dilemma. ▪ a moral dilemma on the horns of a dilemma see [1]HORN

dil•et•tante /ˈdɪləˌtɑːnt, Brit ˌdɪləˈtænti/ noun, pl -tantes also -tan•ti /ˌdɪləˈtɑːnti, Brit ˌdɪləˈtænti/ [count] : a person whose interest in an art or in an area of knowledge is not very deep or serious ▪ You can always tell a true expert from a dilettante.
– dil•et•tant•ish /ˈdɪləˌtɑːntɪʃ/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ a dilettantish interest in the arts – dil•et•tan•tism /ˈdɪləˌtɑːnˌtɪzəm, Brit ˌdɪləˈtæntɪzəm/ noun [noncount] dil•i•gence /ˈdɪləʤəns/ noun [noncount] : careful hard work : continued effort ▪ The reporter showed great diligence in tracking down the story. ▪ The company's success reflects the diligence of its employees.

– dil•i•gent /ˈdɪləʤənt/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ Many hours of diligent [=painstaking, careful] research were required. ▪ a diligent worker – dil•i•gent•ly adv

dill /ˈdɪl/ noun [noncount] : an herb with leaves that are used in cooking and with seeds that are used in flavoring foods such as pickles — called also (US) dill weed; see color picture on page C6

dill pickle noun, pl ~ pickles [count] : a pickle that is flavored with dill

dil•ly•dal•ly /ˈdɪliˌdæli/ verb -dal•lies; -dal•lied; -dal•ly•ing [no obj] informal : to move or act too slowly : to waste time ▪ We need to stop dillydallying [=dawdling, fooling around] and get to work.

[1]di•lute /daɪˈluːt/ verb -lutes; -lut•ed; -lut•ing [+ obj]
1 : to make (a liquid) thinner or less strong by adding water or another liquid ▪ You can dilute the medicine with water.
2 : to lessen the strength of (something) ▪ The hiring of the new CEO diluted the power of the company's president. ▪ diluting the quality of our products – diluted adj ▪ diluted wine – di•lu•tion /daɪˈluːʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count] lower dilutions of the medicine [noncount] There's been some dilution in the stock's value.

[2]dilute adj [more ~; most ~] technical : reduced in strength as a result of containing an added liquid ▪ a dilute solution of acid

[1]dim /ˈdɪm/ adj dim•mer; dim•mest
1 : not bright or clear ▪ I found her sitting in a dim [=dark] corner of the restaurant. ▪ a dim [=obscure, faint] light ▪ dim stars : not seen clearly ▪ Just the dim outline of the building could be seen through the fog.
2 : not understood or remembered in a clear way ▪ We had only a dim [=faint, vague] notion of what was going on. ▪ I have a dim memory of your last visit. — see also the dim and distant past at DISTANT
3 : not likely to to be good or successful ▪ Prospects for a quick settlement of the strike appear dim. [=unlikely] ▪ (US) The industry faces a dim [=grim] future.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 55 SESS: 27 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:28:16 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-d

4 : not good or favorable — used in the phrase dim view ▪ The author's dim view [=bad opinion] of politicians is apparent throughout the book. ▪ She takes a dim view of human nature. [=she believes that people are naturally bad] ▪ Many fans take a dim view of [=many fans are unhappy about] recent changes in the team.

5 informal : not intelligent : stupid or dim-witted ▪ She found him pretty dim at times.

– dim•ly adv ▪ The lights were shining dimly. ▪ a dimly lit room ▪ I dimly remember him. – dim•ness noun [noncount] ▪ the gray dimness of dawn

D

[2]dim verb dims; dimmed; dim•ming

1 : to make (a light) less bright or to become less bright [+ obj] Dim the lights. ▪ The car's headlights were dimmed. [=(Brit) dipped] [no obj] The lights dimmed.

2 : to make (something) less strong or clear or to become less strong or clear [+ obj] The latest setback has dimmed hopes of an early settlement. [no obj] Hopes of an early settlement have dimmed. ▪ Her beauty dimmed rapidly.

dim bulb noun, pl ~ bulbs [count] US, informal : a person who is not very smart ▪ He was considered something of a dim bulb by his coworkers.

dime /ˈdaɪm/ noun, pl dimes [count] : a U.S. or Canadian coin that is worth 10 cents a dime a dozen US, informal : too common to be valuable or interesting ▪ Beautiful actresses are a dime a dozen.

on a dime informal 1 : very quickly ▪ My new car can stop on a dime. 2 : in a very small space ▪ turn on a dime

— see also FIVE-AND-DIME, NICKEL-AND-DIME

di•men•sion /dəˈmɛnʃən/ noun, pl -sions [count]

1 : the length, width, height, or depth of something : a measurement in one direction (such as the distance from the ceiling to the floor in a room) ▪ She carefully measured each dimension of the room. ▪ The room's dimensions [=its length, width, and height] were surprisingly small.

2 : the amount or number of things that something affects or influences — usually plural ▪ We underestimated the dimensions [=extent, range] of this problem. ▪ the vast dimensions [=magnitude, scope] of the disaster

3 : a part of something ▪ There are many dimensions [=aspects] to the problem. ▪ The social/political/religious dimensions of the problem must also be taken into account. ▪ The more powerful engine gives this car a (whole) new dimension. [=makes the car very different]

– di•men•sion•al /dəˈmɛnʃənl/ adj — usually used in combination ▪ a multi-dimensional problem — see also ONE-DIMENSIONAL, TWO-DIMENSIONAL, THREE-DIMENSIONAL dime store noun, pl ~ stores [count] US, old-fashioned : a store that sells inexpensive goods : FIVE-AND-DIME dime–store /ˈdaɪmˌstoə/ adj, always used before a noun, informal : poor or inferior in quality ▪ dime-store [=cheap] perfume ▪ They regarded him as just another dime-store [=second-rate] philosopher.

di•min•ish /dəˈmɪnɪʃ/ verb -ish•es; -ished; -ish•ing

1 : to become or to cause (something) to become less in size, importance, etc. [+ obj] The passing years did nothing to diminish [=decrease, lessen] their friendship. ▪ The strength of the army was greatly diminished by outbreaks of disease. [no obj] My interest in the subject has steadily diminished. [=dwindled] ▪ The drug's side effects should diminish over time.

2 [+ obj] : to lessen the authority or reputation of (someone or something) ▪ Nothing could diminish the importance of his contributions. : to describe (something) as having little value or importance ▪ I don't mean to diminish [=belittle, disparage] her accomplishments.

– di•min•ish•ment /dəˈmɪnɪʃmənt/ noun [noncount] ▪ the diminishment of her reputation

di•min•u•en•do /dəˌmɪnjuˈɛndoʊ/ noun, pl -dos [count] music : a gradual decrease in the loudness of a section of music

dim•i•nu•tion /ˌdɪməˈnuːʃən/ noun, pl -tions formal : the act or process of becoming less [singular] a diminution [=(more commonly) decrease] of power [noncount] the diminution of wealth

[1]di•min•u•tive /dəˈmɪnjətɪv/ adj

1 [more ~; most ~] : very small ▪ a diminutive actor ▪ a radio with a diminutive set of speakers

2 linguistics : indicating small size ▪ the diminutive suffixes "-ette" and "-ling" ▪ the diminutive noun "duckling" ✧ A diminutive word or suffix is usually used in describing something small, often with the added suggestion that it is appealing or lovable in some way.

– di•min•u•tive•ness noun [noncount]

[2]diminutive noun, pl -tives [count]

1 : a word or suffix that indicates that something is small ▪ the diminutives "-ette" and "kitchenette"

2 : an informal form of a name ✧ Diminutives can be a shortened form of a name (such as "Jen" for "Jennifer" and "Dick" for "Richard") or a name with a diminutive suffix added to it (such as "Bobby" for "Bob").

dim•mer /ˈdɪmə/ noun, pl -mers [count] : a device that allows you to control the brightness of a light ▪ All the lights in the room are on dimmers. [=all the lights can be made brighter or dimmer because they have special switches] ▪ a dimmer switch dim•ple /ˈdɪmpəl/ noun, pl dim•ples [count]

1 : a small area on a part of a person's body (such as the cheek or chin) that naturally curves in ▪ She noticed his dimples when he smiled.

2 : a small area on a surface that curves in ▪ the dimples on a golf ball dim•pled /ˈdɪmpəld/ adj [more ~; most ~] : having dimples ▪ her dimpled face/smile ▪ a dimpled chin ▪ the baby's chubby, dimpled hands dim•wit /ˈdɪmˌwɪt/ noun, pl -wits [count] informal : a stupid person ▪ a harmless dimwit dim–wit•ted /ˈdɪmˈwɪtəd/ adj [more ~; most ~] informal : not intelligent ▪ In the comedy, he plays the part of a bumbling, dim-witted salesman.

din /ˈdɪn/ noun [singular] : a loud, confusing mixture of noises that lasts for a long time ▪ It was hard to hear anything above/over the din in the restaurant.

dine /ˈdaɪn/ verb dines; dined; din•ing [no obj] somewhat formal : to eat dinner : to have the main meal of the day ▪ We'll be dining at six o'clock. ▪ She likes to dine at/in expensive restaurants. ▪ I will be dining alone tonight. ▪ We hope you have an enjoyable dining experience.

dine in [phrasal verb] : to have dinner at home ▪ I'm tired of dining in. [=eating in] Let's go out to eat tonight.

dine on [phrasal verb] dine on (something) : to eat (something) for dinner ▪ We dined on pasta and fresh vegetables. ▪ They dined on chicken every day for a month. ▪ animals dining on fruits, leaves, and insects dine out [phrasal verb] : to have dinner at a restaurant ▪ We always dine out [=eat out] on Fridays.

wine and dine see [2]WINE

din•er /ˈdaɪnə/ noun, pl -ers [count]

1 : a person who is eating dinner in a restaurant ▪ wealthy diners

2 chiefly US : a small, informal, and inexpensive restaurant that looks like a railroad car ▪ a roadside diner

di•nette /daɪˈnɛt/ noun, pl -nettes [count] : a small room or an area near a kitchen that is used for dining ▪ The apartment includes a dinette. ▪ a cheap dinette set [=a small dining table and chairs]

ding•bat /ˈdɪŋˌbæt/ noun, pl -bats [count] US, informal : a stupid or crazy person ▪ I told you it wouldn't work, you dingbat!

ding–dong /ˈdɪŋˌdɑːŋ/ noun, pl -dongs [count]

1 : the sound of a bell ringing ▪ We were startled by the ding-dong of the doorbell.

2 Brit, informal : a noisy argument ▪ They were having another ding-dong about money.

din•ghy /ˈdɪŋi/ noun, pl -ghies [count]

1 : a small boat that is often carried on or towed behind a larger boat

2 : a small rubber boat that is used by people escaping from a sinking boat din•go /ˈdɪŋgoʊ/ noun, pl -goes [count] : a wild dog of Australia

dingo

din•gy /ˈdɪnʤi/ adj din•gi•er; -est [also more ~; most ~] : dark and dirty : not fresh or clean ▪ He's been staying in a dingy motel. ▪ a dingy room ▪ dingy colors

– din•gi•ness noun [noncount]

dining car noun, pl ~ cars [count] : a railroad car in which meals are served — called also (Brit) buffet car

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 56 SESS: 11 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:28:17 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-d

dining hall noun, pl ~ halls [count] : a large room where meals are served at a school, college, etc.

dining room noun, pl ~ rooms [count] : a room that is used for eating meals din•ky /ˈdɪŋki/ adj din•ki•er; -est informal 1 US : very small and not appealing ▪ a dinky apartment ▪ I used to drive a dinky little car.

2 Brit : small and appealing ▪ wearing nice shoes and dinky [=cute] accessories

din•ner /ˈdɪnɚ/ noun, pl -ners
1 : the main meal of the day [count] We had many pleasant dinners together. ▪ a steak/lobster dinner [noncount] What's for dinner? ▪ They had dinner early. ▪ We're planning to ask them to dinner soon. ▪ Dinner is served. [=dinner is ready; it's time to come to the table for dinner] — often used before another noun ▪ dinner guests ▪ dinner rolls ▪ an enjoyable dinner companion ▪ My new boyfriend and I had a dinner date [=a date to eat dinner together] last night. ▪ She hosted a dinner party [=a party at which dinner is served] at her apartment. ▪ the dinner table [=the table where people eat dinner] ✧ To go out to dinner is to have dinner at a restaurant. ▪ We haven't gone out to dinner in weeks. ▪ He took her out to dinner several times.

> usage Most Americans have dinner in the evening, although if the main meal of the day is served in the afternoon it is also referred to as dinner. When referring to the evening meal, dinner and supper are basically synonyms in U.S. English. Dinner is a somewhat more formal word than supper and it tends to describe a somewhat more formal meal.

2 [count] : a usually large formal event at which dinner is eaten ▪ Two hundred people attended his retirement dinner. ▪ the club's annual dinner [=banquet] ▪ an awards dinner [=a dinner at which awards are given]
3 [count] : a cooked and packaged meal that usually only needs to be heated before it is eaten ▪ a frozen dinner — see also TV DINNER dinner jacket noun, pl ~ -ets [count] : a jacket that is worn by men on formal occasions : the jacket of a tuxedo

dinner suit noun, pl ~ suits [count] Brit : TUXEDO

dinner theater noun, pl ~ -aters [count] US : a restaurant in which a play is presented after the meal is over din•ner•time /ˈdɪnɚˌtaɪm/ noun [noncount] : the usual time for dinner ▪ I hate getting phone calls at dinnertime.

din•ner•ware /ˈdɪnɚˌweɚ/ noun [noncount] chiefly US : plates, bowls, glasses, etc., that are used for serving and eating dinner di•no•saur /ˈdaɪnəˌsoɚ/ noun, pl -saurs [count]

1 : one of many reptiles that lived on Earth millions of years ago
2 : someone or something that is no longer useful or current : an obsolete or out-of-date person or thing ▪ The old factory is now a rusting dinosaur. ▪ The character she plays is a dinosaur—a former beauty queen who is living in the past.

dint /ˈdɪnt/ noun
by dint of formal : because of (something) : by means of (something) ▪ They succeeded by dint of hard work.

di•o•cese /ˈdajəsəs/ noun, pl -ces•es /ˈdajəsəsəz/ [count] : the area that is controlled by a bishop in a Christian church ▪ a Catholic diocese
– di•oc•e•san /daɪˈɑːsəsən/ adj ▪ diocesan priests di•ode /ˈdaɪˌoʊd/ noun, pl -odes [count] technical : an electronic device that allows an electric current to flow in one direction only di•ox•ide /daɪˈɑːkˌsaɪd/ noun, pl -ides [count] chemistry : a molecule that has two atoms of oxygen and one atom of another element (such as carbon) — see also CARBON DIOXIDE, SULFUR DIOXIDE di•ox•in /daɪˈɑːksən/ noun, pl -ins [count] : a poisonous chemical that is sometimes used in farming and industry

[1]dip /ˈdɪp/ verb dips; dipped; dip•ping
1 [+ obj] a : to put (something) into a liquid and pull it out again quickly — usually + in or into ▪ Lightly dip the paintbrush into the paint. ▪ We dipped our toes into the water to see how cold it was. ▪ The shrimp are dipped in batter and then fried. ▪ a dipping sauce [=a sauce that food is dipped into] b : to move (something) into and out of something — + in or into ▪ He dipped his hand into his pocket and pulled out a key.
2 [+ obj] : to lift (liquid) out from a container ▪ Use a ladle to dip some water out of the pot. ▪ dipping water from a well
3 : to move downward [no obj] The sun dipped below the horizon. ▪ The road dips over the hill. ▪ I saw his head dip below the surface of the water. [+ obj] He dipped his head.
4 [no obj] : to decrease somewhat usually for a short time ▪ Gasoline prices have dipped again. ▪ The temperature could dip below freezing tonight.
5 [+ obj] Brit : to reduce the amount of light coming from (headlights) ▪ Dip [=(US) dim] the car's headlights.
6 [+ obj] : to put (an animal) into a liquid containing a chemical that kills insects ▪ dipping sheep dip into [phrasal verb] dip into (something) 1 a : to take out an amount of money from (something) ▪ They had to dip into their savings to pay for the repairs. ▪ Consumers are dipping into their pocketbooks [=they are spending money] this season. b : to use part of (something) ▪ He dipped into his knowledge of history to reconsider the present political situation. ▪ a company dipping into its pool of job applicants 2 : to read parts of (something) in a casual or brief way ▪ dip into a book of poetry — see also [1]DIP 1 (above)

[2]dip noun, pl dips
1 [count] : a brief swim ▪ They went for a quick dip in the pool.
2 [count] : a low place in a surface ▪ There's a dip in the road just beyond the curve.
3 [count] : a decrease that continues usually for a short time ▪ There's been a slight dip [=drop] in the unemployment rate. ▪ a dip in prices
4 [count] : an amount of something (such as food) that is taken by dipping into a container ▪ a dip [=scoop] of ice cream
5 : a sauce or soft mixture into which food (such as raw vegetables) may be dipped [noncount] All they had to eat were crackers and cheese dip. ▪ potato chips and onion dip [count] a delicious bean dip
6 [count, noncount] : a liquid into which an animal is dipped in order to kill insects ▪ sheep dip
7 [count] US slang : a stupid person ▪ That guy's a complete dip.

diph•the•ria /dɪfˈθirijə/ noun [noncount] medical : a serious disease that makes breathing very difficult diph•thong /ˈdɪfˌθɑːŋ/ noun, pl -thongs [count] linguistics : two vowel sounds joined in one syllable to form one speech sound ▪ The sounds of "ou" in "out" and of "oy" in "boy" are diphthongs.

di•plo•ma /dəˈploʊmə/ noun, pl -mas [count] : a document which shows that a person has finished a course of study or has graduated from a school ▪ He earned his high school diploma by attending classes at night.

di•plo•ma•cy /dəˈploʊməsi/ noun [noncount]
1 : the work of maintaining good relations between the governments of different countries ▪ She has had a long and distinguished career in diplomacy. ▪ The government avoided a war by successfully resolving the issues through diplomacy. ▪ international diplomacy — see also gunboat diplomacy at GUNBOAT
2 : skill in dealing with others without causing bad feelings ▪ This is a situation that calls for tactful diplomacy.

dip•lo•mat /ˈdɪpləˌmæt/ noun, pl -mats [count]
1 : a person who represents his or her country's government in a foreign country : someone whose work is diplomacy ▪ The President will be meeting with foreign diplomats.
2 : a person who has skill in dealing with other people ▪ He's a talented architect but a poor diplomat.

dip•lo•mat•ic /ˌdɪpləˈmætɪk/ adj
1 : involving the work of maintaining good relations between the governments of different countries : of or relating to diplomats or their work ▪ Negotiators are working to restore full diplomatic relations. ▪ diplomatic credentials ▪ a diplomatic career
2 [more ~; most ~] : not causing bad feelings : having or showing an ability to deal with people politely ▪ We need to find a diplomatic [=tactful] way to say no.
– dip•lo•mat•i•cal•ly /ˌdɪpləˈmætɪkli/ adv ▪ The situation was resolved diplomatically. ▪ One critic diplomatically described the show as "interesting."

diplomatic corps noun, pl diplomatic corps [count] : all of the foreign diplomats in a country ▪ She is an important member of the diplomatic corps.

diplomatic immunity noun [noncount] : an international law that gives foreign diplomats special rights in the country where they are working ✧ Under diplomatic immunity, diplomats cannot be arrested and do not have to pay taxes while working in other countries.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 57 SESS: 11 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:28:18 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-d

dip•per /ˈdɪpə/ noun, pl -pers [count] : a large spoon with a long handle that is used for dipping liquids : LADLE — see also BIG DIPPER, LITTLE DIPPER

dip•py /ˈdɪpi/ adj dip•pi•er; -est informal : silly or foolish in usually an appealing way ▪ a dippy comedy ▪ a movie about a slightly dippy young musician

dip•so /ˈdɪpsoʊ/ noun, pl -sos [count] informal + old-fashioned : DIPSOMANIAC

dip•so•ma•ni•ac /ˌdɪpsəˈmeɪnijæk/ noun, pl -acs [count] : a person who has an extreme and uncontrollable desire for alcohol : ALCOHOLIC dip•stick /ˈdɪpˌstɪk/ noun, pl -sticks [count]

1 : a long thin piece of metal with marks that are used to show how much of a fluid (such as motor oil) is in a container or an engine

2 informal : a stupid person ▪ Some dipstick cut in front of me on the highway.

dip switch noun, pl ~ switches [count] Brit : a switch for dimming or lowering the headlights of an automobile dire /ˈdajə/ adj dir•er; dir•est [or more ~; most ~]

1 : very bad : causing great fear or worry ▪ Even the smallest mistake could have dire [=terrible, dreadful] consequences. ▪ a dire emergency ▪ The circumstances are now more dire than ever. ▪ With its best player out of the game, the team found itself in dire straits. [=in a very bad or difficult situation] ▪ The company now finds itself in dire financial straits. [=the company is having bad financial problems]

2 : warning of disaster : showing a very bad future ▪ Some analysts are issuing dire economic forecasts. ▪ a dire prediction/warning

3 a : requiring immediate action : very urgent ▪ The government is in dire [=desperate] need of reform. ▪ dire necessity b : very serious or extreme ▪ They live in dire poverty.

[1]di•rect /dəˈrɛkt/ verb -rects; -rect•ed; -rect•ing

1 [+ obj] : to cause (someone or something) to turn, move, or point in a particular way ▪ Lights were directed [=aimed] toward the paintings on the wall. ▪ Be sure that the water nozzle is directed downward. ▪ The sloping ground helps direct water away from the home.

2 [+ obj] a : to cause (someone's attention, thoughts, emotions, etc.) to relate to a particular person, thing, goal, etc. ▪ Let me direct your attention to the book's second chapter. ▪ We were asked to direct our thoughts and prayers to the people who survived the disaster. ▪ The students directed their efforts/energies/talents toward improving their community. ▪ He directed [=aimed] much of his anger at his coworkers. ▪ A lot of the criticism has been directed toward the concert's organizers. b : to say (something) to a particular person or group ▪ I'd like to direct [=address] my opening comments to the younger members of the audience.

3 [+ obj] : to guide, control, or manage (someone or something) ▪ She's been chosen to direct [=handle] the project. ▪ He is responsible for directing the activities of the sales team. ▪ In my current position, I direct a staff of over 200 employees. ▪ We need someone to direct traffic.

4 : to lead a group of people in performing or filming (a movie, play, etc.) [+ obj] They're still looking for someone to direct the show. ▪ She has directed over 20 films in her career. ▪ The play was poorly directed. [no obj] She enjoys both acting and directing. ▪ I think I'd like to direct some day.

5 [+ obj] : to show or tell (someone) how to go to a place : to give (someone) directions ▪ The signs directed [=guided] us to the museum. ▪ Could you please direct me to the office? [=please tell me where the office is]

6 [+ obj] somewhat formal a : to ask or tell (a person or group) to do something ▪ He directed [=instructed, ordered] the workers to stop what they were doing. ▪ The judge directed the jury to disregard several of the attorney's comments. ▪ The resolution directed the commission to prepare proposals. b : to order (something) to be done — + that ▪ His will directed that the money be used to support local schools.

7 [+ obj] : to send (a letter, note, etc.) to a specified person or place ▪ Please direct [=address, send] your letters to my office. ▪ The letter was directed to the company's president.

[2]direct adj

1 [more ~; most ~] : going the shortest distance from one place to another : going straight without turning or stopping ▪ I found a more direct route to the city. ▪ We'll be taking a direct [=nonstop] flight from New York to Los Angeles. ▪ That way is more direct. — opposite INDIRECT

2 always used before a noun [more ~; most ~] : coming straight from a source ▪ Keep these plants out of direct sunlight. ▪ The coastline was exposed to the direct force of the hurricane. — opposite INDIRECT

3 always used before a noun [more ~; most ~] : coming straight from a cause or reason : connected or related to something in a clear way ▪ These problems are a direct result of poor planning. [=poor planning was the cause of these problems] ▪ The weather had a direct effect/impact on our plans. ▪ There's a direct connection between the two events. ▪ The investigation began in direct response to the newspaper story. — opposite INDIRECT

4 always used before a noun [more ~; most ~] : having no people or things in between that could have an effect ▪ His position gives him direct access to the president. [=he can talk to the president face-to-face] ▪ This is a direct order from the General. ▪ The board of directors has direct control of the company's future. ▪ Her theory was based on direct observation. ▪ There's no direct evidence to support his claims. ▪ direct knowledge/experience — opposite INDIRECT

5 always used before a noun : related in a line from your parent, grandparent, great-grandparent, etc. ▪ She's my direct ancestor. ▪ He claims to be a direct descendant of George Washington.

6 always used before a noun : perfect or exact ▪ The word has no direct translation in English. ▪ The building took a direct hit from an enemy plane.

7 [more ~; most ~] a : said or done in a clear and honest way : sincere and straightforward ▪ We need a direct answer. Are you coming or not? ▪ The candidate made a direct appeal to the voters. b : speaking in a clear and honest way ▪ I wish you would be more direct. ▪ She has a very direct way of dealing with customers. — opposite INDIRECT

8 always used before a noun, grammar : consisting of the exact words of a speaker or writer ▪ She used several direct quotations from the artist in her article. — opposite INDIRECT

[3]direct adv : in a direct way: such as a : in a straight line without turning or stopping ▪ We flew direct [=straight, nonstop] from Chicago to Paris. b : straight from a source with nothing and nobody in between ▪ The company sells its product direct [=directly] to customers on the streets. ▪ It costs less if you buy it direct from the manufacturer.

direct current noun [noncount] : an electric current that is flowing in one direction only — abbr. DC; compare ALTERNATING CURRENT direct debit noun, pl ~ -its [count, noncount] chiefly Brit : a way of paying bills by allowing people or companies to take money directly from your bank account on a particular day ▪ paying your bills by direct debit direct deposit noun [noncount] US : a way of paying someone so that the money is sent directly into the person's bank account without the use of checks or cash ▪ Our employees are paid by direct deposit.

di•rec•tion /dəˈrɛkʃən/ noun, pl -tions

1 [count] : the course or path on which something is moving or pointing ▪ The army attacked from three different directions. ▪ Down the road, he could see a bus coming from the opposite direction. ▪ The wind changed direction and started blowing in our faces. ▪ I've got a bad sense of direction. [=I become lost frequently; I often don't know which way to go] — often used after in ▪ She and I were walking in the same direction. ▪ You're headed in the wrong direction. ▪ The top of the hill provides a view in all directions. ▪ The car was last seen headed in the direction of [=towards] the stadium. ▪ She started walking in my direction. [=toward me]

2 directions [plural] a : a statement that tells a person what to do and how to do it : an order or instruction ▪ Carefully read the directions before you begin the test. ▪ Directions appear on the package. ▪ You have to learn to follow directions. [=do what you are told or are instructed to do] b : instructions that tell you how to go to a place ▪ We had to stop to ask for directions to the beach. ▪ Excuse me. Could you please give me directions to the movie theater?

3 [noncount] a : control or management of someone or something ▪ He was put in charge and given overall direction of the program. ▪ Twenty-three employees work under her direction. ▪ Several nurses working under the direction of this doctor have made complaints. b : the act or process of directing a play, movie, television show, or musical performance ▪ The play's unusual direction demanded much from the actors.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 58 SESS: 11 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:28:18 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-d

4 a [count] : the way that something is progressing or developing ▪ These discoveries have given a new direction to their research. ▪ Our business is expanding in all directions. ▪ He hasn't yet decided what direction he should take as a writer. [=hasn't decided exactly what he should try to do as a writer] b [noncount] : a goal or purpose that guides your actions or decisions ▪ Her life seemed to lack direction after she left school.

– di•rec•tion•less adj ▪ a talented but directionless musician – di•rect•ness /dəˈrɛktnəs/ noun [noncount] ▪ the directness of the route/connection ▪ He answered their questions with honesty and directness.

di•rec•tion•al /dəˈrɛkʃənl/ adj
1 : relating to or showing direction ▪ We work with maps to improve the students' directional skills. ▪ directional stability ▪ the directional signal lights on an automobile
2 technical : used for receiving sounds, radio signals, etc., that are coming from a particular direction ▪ a directional microphone ▪ The radio has a directional antenna.

di•rec•tive /dəˈrɛktɪv/ noun, pl -tives [count] formal : an official order or instruction ▪ They received a written directive instructing them to develop new security measures. ▪ a presidential directive

[1]di•rect•ly /dəˈrɛktli/ adv
1 [more ~; most ~] : in a direct way ▪ He refused to answer the question directly. ▪ She said that she wanted to speak to you directly. ▪ The package will be sent directly to your home. ▪ The two accidents are directly related. ▪ Thousands of people were directly affected by the disaster. ▪ Antonyms are words that are directly opposite in meaning.
2 : in a straight or direct line from a particular position ▪ We parked directly behind the store. ▪ He sat directly across from me at the dinner table. ▪ Their house is directly ahead. = It's directly in front of us.
3 : without delay ▪ The second game followed directly [=immediately] after the first.
4 somewhat old-fashioned : in a little while ▪ We'll be leaving directly. [=soon, shortly]

[2]directly conj, Brit : immediately after : as soon as ▪ I came directly I received your message.

directly proportional adj : related so that one becomes larger or smaller when the other becomes larger or smaller ▪ His earnings are directly proportional to the number of units he sells. — compare INVERSELY PROPORTIONAL direct mail noun [noncount] : papers containing advertisements that are mailed directly to people's homes

direct marketing noun [noncount] : a way of selling things by calling people on the telephone or mailing them advertisements or catalogs direct object noun, pl ~ -jects [count] grammar : a noun, pronoun, or noun phrase which indicates the person or thing that receives the action of a verb ▪ "Me" in "He likes me" is a direct object. ▪ In the sentence "They built a house for her," the direct object is "house" and the indirect object is "her." — compare INDIRECT OBJECT di•rec•tor /dəˈrɛktə/ noun, pl -tors [count]

1 : a person who manages an organized group of people or a part of an organization (such as a school or business) ▪ the choir director ▪ The company will hire a new director of marketing. ▪ She's the director of graduate studies at the university. ▪ the school's athletic director — see also FUNERAL DIRECTOR
2 : one of a group of managers who control a company or corporation ▪ executive/deputy/associate directors ▪ She's on the board of directors [=a group of people who make decisions] for a large corporation. — see also MANAGING DIRECTOR
3 : a person who directs a play, movie, etc. ▪ She's considered one of the best young directors in Hollywood. ▪ a movie/film/theater director

di•rec•tor•ate /dəˈrɛktərət/ noun, pl -ates [count]
1 : a group of managers who control a company or corporation : a board of directors ▪ the corporation's eight-member directorate
2 : a group of people who are in charge of a program or department ▪ the government's agricultural directorate di•rec•to•ri•al /dəˌrɛkˈtorijəl/ adj : of or relating to a director and especially to the director of a play, movie, etc. ▪ her directorial style ✧ A movie director's first film is often called a directorial debut. ▪ He made his directorial debut with a film that he also wrote and produced.

di•rec•tor•ship /dəˈrɛktəˌʃɪp/ noun, pl -ships
1 [count] : a position as a director of a company or corporation ▪ He holds directorships at several banks.
2 [noncount] : the time when a person holds the position of director ▪ The museum has flourished under her directorship.

di•rec•to•ry /dəˈrɛktəri/ noun, pl -ries [count] : a book that contains an alphabetical list of names of people, businesses, etc.; especially : PHONE BOOK directory assistance noun [noncount] US : a service that people can call to get the telephone number for a person or organization : INFORMATION — called also (Brit) directory enquiries

dirge /ˈdəːdʒ/ noun, pl dirg•es [count] : a slow song that expresses sadness or sorrow ▪ a funeral dirge

dirt /ˈdəːt/ noun [noncount]
1 : loose earth or soil ▪ Pack dirt loosely around the base of the plant. ▪ mounds/piles of dirt
2 : a substance (such as mud or dust) that makes things unclean ▪ You've got some dirt on your face. ▪ Their shoes were covered with dirt. ▪ No amount of cleaning will get rid of all this dirt.
3 informal : a person or thing that has no value ▪ He treated me like dirt. [=he treated me very badly]
4 informal : information about someone that could harm the person's reputation ▪ She's been spreading dirt [=gossip] about her ex-husband. ✧ To dig up (the) dirt on someone is to find out information that is harmful to that person's reputation. ▪ He's been digging up dirt on his political rivals. ✧ To dish (the) dirt is to spread harmful gossip or information. ▪ He seems to have written his memoirs mainly so that he can dish the dirt on all his former lovers.
hit the dirt see [1]HIT in the dirt ✧ In baseball, a pitch is in the dirt when it hits the ground near home plate before reaching the catcher. ▪ He swung and missed at a curveball in the dirt.
– see also PAY DIRT

dirt•bag /ˈdəːtˌbæg/ noun, pl -bags [count] chiefly US, informal : a very bad and unpleasant person ▪ a sleazy dirtbag

dirt bike noun, pl ~ bikes [count] : a small motorcycle that is designed to be used on rough surfaces dirt cheap adj, informal : very cheap or inexpensive ▪ The tickets were dirt cheap. ▪ dirt cheap prices – dirt cheap adv ▪ I can get you a stereo system dirt cheap.

dirt farmer noun, pl ~ -ers [count] US, informal : a poor farmer who lives by farming the land usually without the help of paid workers dirt oor noun, pl ~ oors [count] : a floor with a hard dirt surface dirt–poor /ˈdəːtˈpuə/ adj, informal : very poor : suffering extreme poverty ▪ When I was growing up, my family was dirt-poor.

dirt road noun, pl ~ roads [count] : a road with a hard dirt surface : an unpaved road

[1]dirty /ˈdəːti/ adj dirt•i•er; -est
1 : not clean ▪ All my socks are dirty. ▪ Try not to get your clothes dirty. ▪ dirty dishes ▪ I can't breathe this dirty city air. ▪ The baby has a dirty diaper.
2 a : indecent and offensive ▪ dirty language — see also DIRTY WORD b : relating to sex in an indecent or offensive way ▪ dirty [=pornographic] movies/magazines/pictures ▪ I hate listening to his dirty jokes. ▪ He has a dirty mind. [=he often thinks about sex] — see also DIRTY OLD MAN
3 : not fair or honest ▪ He has a reputation as a dirty player. [=he cheats; he tries to hurt his opponents] ▪ a criminal's dirty money [=money earned in an illegal activity] ▪ That was a dirty trick! [=an unkind thing to do]
4 a : very bad : deserving to be hated or regretted ▪ War is a dirty business. ▪ It's a dirty shame that nobody tried to help him. ▪ That's a dirty lie! ▪ He's a dirty liar! b : likely to cause shame or disgrace ▪ That's the dirty [=shameful] little secret that the industry doesn't want you to know.
5 : difficult or unpleasant ▪ Why do I always get stuck doing the dirty work? ▪ It's a dirty job, but somebody's got to do it. ✧ To get your hands dirty is to do difficult and often unpleasant work. ▪ Our boss isn't afraid to get her hands dirty and help us finish the work on time.
6 : showing dislike or anger ▪ She gave me a dirty look.
7 : not clear or bright in color ▪ a dirty [=dull] red — see also dirty blond at [1]BLOND – dirt•i•ness noun [noncount] ▪ the dirtiness of the house

[2]dirty verb dirt•ies; dirt•ied; dirty•ing [+ obj] : to make (something) dirty ▪ Take off your shoes to keep from dirtying the floor. ▪ Her fingers were dirtied with ink. ▪ The baby just

D

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 59 SESS: 11 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:28:19 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-d

dirtied [=soiled] her diaper. ▪ The river was dirtied [=polluted] with industrial waste.

[3]dirty adv

1 : in an unfair or dishonest way ▪ Watch out for her. She plays dirty. ▪ He usually wins because he fights dirty.

2 : in an indecent or offensive way ▪ talking dirty

dirty bomb noun, pl ~ bombs [count] : a bomb that is designed to spread a large amount of radioactive material dirty laundry noun [noncount] : private information that causes shame and embarrassment when it is made public ▪ The company is trying to keep its dirty laundry from being aired/washed in public. ▪ Let's not air our dirty laundry [=discuss our problems, make our problems known] in public. — called also dirty linen

dirty old man noun, pl ~ men [count] disapproving : an old man who is too interested in sex dirty tricks noun [plural] : secret and dishonest activities that are done to ruin someone's or something's chance of success ▪ political dirty tricks

dirty word noun, pl ~ words

1 [count] : an offensive word ▪ The movie is just a lot of sex, violence, and dirty words.

2 [singular] : a word, subject, or idea that is disliked by some people ▪ They regard "taxes" as a dirty word. ▪ Politics is a dirty word [=they don't talk about politics] in their home. ▪ The way he acts, you'd think compassion was a dirty word.

dis also diss /ˈdɪs/ verb dis•ses; dissed; dis•sing [+ obj] US slang

1 : to treat (someone) with disrespect : to be rude to (someone) ▪ He got dissed [=insulted] by the other guys on the team.

2 : to criticize (something) in a way that shows disrespect ▪ Don't dis my car.

– dis also diss noun, pl disses [count] ▪ It's not a dis. [=not an insult]

dis- prefix

1 in verbs : to do the opposite of ▪ *dis*agree ▪ *dis*appear ▪ *dis*approve

2 in nouns : opposite or absence of ▪ *dis*belief ▪ *dis*comfort ▪ *dis*honor

3 in adjectives : not ▪ *dis*agreeable ▪ *dis*connected ▪ *dis*interested dis•abil•i•ty /ˌdɪsəˈbɪləti/ noun, pl -ties

1 [count] : a condition (such as an illness or an injury) that damages or limits a person's physical or mental abilities ▪ She has learned to keep a positive attitude about her disability. ▪ disabilities such as blindness and deafness ▪ a program for children with disabilities — see also LEARNING DISABILITY

2 [noncount] : the condition of being unable to do things in the normal way : the condition of being disabled ▪ It's a serious disease that can cause disability or death.

3 [noncount] US : a program that provides financial support to a disabled person ▪ After he injured his back he had to quit his job and go on disability.

dis•able /dɪsˈeɪbəl/ verb -ables; -abled; -abling [+ obj]

1 : to cause (something) to be unable to work in the normal way ▪ disable a bomb ▪ disable an alarm ▪ disable a computer program

2 : to make (someone) unable to do something (such as use part of the body) in the usual way — often used as (be) disabled ▪ He was disabled by the accident.

– dis•able•ment /dɪsˈeɪbəlmənt/ noun [noncount]

– disabling adj ▪ He suffered a disabling illness when he was in college. ▪ a disabling injury/condition ▪ The patient was experiencing severe, disabling pain.

disabled adj [more ~; most ~] : having a physical or mental disability : unable to perform one or more natural activities (such as walking or seeing) because of illness, injury, etc. ▪ The organization is working to protect the rights of disabled veterans. ▪ special classes for learning disabled children [=for children who have a learning disability]

the disabled : people who are disabled : people who have a disability ▪ She's always been an effective spokesperson for the disabled.

disabled list noun

the disabled list US, sports : a list of players on a team (such as a baseball team) who are unable to play because of injury or illness ▪ The team has had to place several key players on the disabled list. — abbr. DL dis•abuse /ˌdɪsəˈbjuːz/ verb -abus•es; -abused; -abusing [+ obj] formal : to show or convince (someone) that a belief is incorrect — + of ▪ He offered to disabuse us of what he called our "cherished myths." ▪ Anyone expecting a romantic story will be quickly disabused of that notion by the opening chapter.

dis•ad•van•tage /ˌdɪsədˈvæntɪʤ/ noun, pl -tag•es

1 [count] a : something that causes difficulty : something that makes someone or something worse or less likely to succeed than others ▪ This program has the disadvantage [=shortcoming] of being more expensive than the others. ▪ She had the disadvantage of growing up in a poor community. ▪ He felt that his lack of formal education put/placed him at a disadvantage [=made it harder for him to succeed] in the business world. ▪ They argued that the new regulations would place their company at a competitive disadvantage in the marketplace. b : a bad or undesirable quality or feature ▪ There are advantages and disadvantages to the new system.

2 [noncount] : loss, damage, or harm ▪ The deal worked to our disadvantage. [=the deal was harmful to us in some way] — opposite ADVANTAGE dis•ad•van•taged /ˌdɪsədˈvæntɪʤd/ adj [more ~; most ~] : lacking the things (such as money and education) that are considered necessary for an equal position in society ▪ The program provides aid for economically disadvantaged groups/communities. ▪ disadvantaged [=underprivileged] children

the disadvantaged : disadvantaged people ▪ protecting the rights of the disadvantaged

dis•ad•van•ta•geous /dɪsˌædˌvænˈteɪʤəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : making it harder for a person to succeed or to do something : causing someone to have a disadvantage ▪ They might have to resell the property at a disadvantageous time. ▪ Minority groups find themselves in a disadvantageous position. ▪ The current system is disadvantageous to women. — opposite ADVANTAGEOUS

– dis•ad•van•ta•geous•ly adv [more ~; most ~] dis•af•fected /ˌdɪsəˈfɛktəd/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : no longer happy and willing to support a leader, government, etc. ▪ bored and disaffected youth ▪ The troops had become disaffected. ▪ Both political parties are looking for ways to regain the trust of disaffected voters.

– dis•af•fec•tion /ˌdɪsəˈfɛkʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ There was widespread disaffection among the troops.

dis•agree /ˌdɪsəˈgriː/ verb -agrees; -agreed; -agree•ing [no obj]

1 : to have a different opinion : to fail to agree ▪ I think that I should sell my car, but he disagrees. — often + with ▪ I strongly disagree with that statement. ▪ She disagrees with him on almost every subject. — often + on, about, or over ▪ They disagreed about the price. ▪ We disagree on the best way to raise the money. ▪ We found ourselves disagreeing over the meaning of the poem.

2 : to be different ▪ The two descriptions disagree. [=they do not match] — often + with ▪ Her story disagrees with the facts of the case.

3 : to not be suitable for or pleasing to someone — + with ▪ Fried foods disagree with me. [=make me feel unwell]

agree to disagree see AGREE dis•agree•able /ˌdɪsəˈgriːjəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : not pleasing : unpleasant or offensive ▪ The medicine had a disagreeable taste. ▪ the disagreeable odor of the garbage ▪ Some of her duties are very disagreeable (to her).

2 of a person : difficult to deal with : easily angered or annoyed ▪ His health problems made him surly and disagreeable. [=irritable, querulous] ▪ I've never known her to be so disagreeable. — opposite AGREEABLE

– dis•agree•ably /ˌdɪsəˈgriːjəbli/ adv ▪ a disagreeably bitter taste

dis•agree•ment /ˌdɪsəˈgriːmənt/ noun, pl -ments

1 a [noncount] : failure to agree ▪ There's been a lot of disagreement about/on/over how best to spend the money. ▪ He has expressed disagreement [=he has said that he disagrees] with some aspects of the proposal. b [count] : a difference of opinion : an argument caused by people having different opinions about something ▪ We've had a number of serious disagreements [=disputes, arguments] over the years. ▪ Several disagreements have yet to be resolved.

2 [noncount] : the state of being different or unalike ▪ There's considerable disagreement between the descriptions given by the two witnesses. [=the two descriptions do not agree/match]

dis•al•low /ˌdɪsəˈlaʊ/ verb -lows; -lowed; -low•ing [+ obj] : to refuse to allow (something) : to officially decide that (something) is not acceptable or valid ▪ The court disallowed

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 60 SESS: 11 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:28:19 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-d

[=rejected] their claim. ▪ The touchdown was disallowed because of a penalty.
– dis•al•low•ance /ˌdɪsəˈlawəns/ noun [noncount] ▪ disallowance [=rejection] of the tax deductions dis•ap•pear /ˌdɪsəˈpiə/ verb -pears; -peared; -pear•ing [no obj]

1 : to stop being visible : to pass out of sight ▪ The moon disappeared [=vanished] behind a cloud. ▪ The two men disappeared around the corner.
2 a : to stop existing : to die or go away completely ▪ The dinosaurs disappeared millions of years ago. ▪ Their original enthusiasm has all but disappeared. [=vanished] ▪ These problems won't just disappear by themselves. b : to become lost : to go to a place that is not known ▪ My car keys have disappeared again. [=I can't find them] ▪ He disappeared without a trace two years ago. ▪ The speaker suddenly disappeared just before the beginning of the ceremony.
– dis•ap•pear•ance /ˌdɪsəˈpirəns/ noun, pl -anc•es [noncount] We're witnessing the gradual disappearance of an old way of life. [count] Police are investigating several mysterious disappearances.

dis•ap•point /ˌdɪsəˈpɔɪnt/ verb -points; -point•ed; -point•ing : to make (someone) unhappy by not being as good as expected or by not doing something that was hoped for or expected [+ obj] The team disappointed its fans. ▪ The show may disappoint some viewers. [no obj] The novel disappoints by being predictable and overly long.
– dis•ap•point•ing /ˌdɪsəˈpɔɪntɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ Dinner was disappointing. ▪ The team had a very disappointing season. – dis•ap•point•ing•ly /ˌdɪsəˈpɔɪntɪŋli/ adv ▪ a disappointingly poor performance dis•ap•point•ed /ˌdɪsəˈpɔɪntəd/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : feeling sad, unhappy, or displeased because something was not as good as expected or because something you hoped for or expected did not happen ▪ We were disappointed that they couldn't go. ▪ Disappointed fans slowly left the ballpark. ▪ I was disappointed to see that my suggestions had been ignored. ▪ They were deeply disappointed by her lack of interest. ▪ Don't be too disappointed if everything doesn't go as planned.
2 : unhappy because someone has behaved badly ▪ Your father and I are very disappointed in/with you.

dis•ap•point•ment /ˌdɪsəˈpɔɪntmənt/ noun, pl -ments
1 [noncount] : the state or feeling of being disappointed ▪ She couldn't hide her disappointment. ▪ To our disappointment, the game was rained out. [=we were disappointed that the game was rained out]
2 [count] : someone or something that disappoints people : a disappointing person or thing ▪ The play was a (big) disappointment. [=it was very disappointing] ▪ He's a disappointment to his parents.

dis•ap•pro•ba•tion /dɪsˌæprəˈbeɪʃən/ noun [noncount] formal : DISAPPROVAL ▪ the constant disapprobation of critics dis•ap•prov•al /ˌdɪsəˈpruːvəl/ noun [noncount] : lack of approval : the belief that someone or something is bad or wrong ▪ The plan met with disapproval. [=opposition] ▪ I could sense her disapproval. ▪ They made their disapproval of our behavior very clear. — opposite APPROVAL

dis•ap•prove /ˌdɪsəˈpruːv/ verb -proves; -proved; -prov•ing
1 : to believe that someone or something is bad or wrong : to not approve of someone or something [no obj] She married him even though her parents disapproved. — often + of ▪ She disapproves of smoking. ▪ Some people may disapprove of the government's actions. ▪ I disapproved of [=I disagreed with] their decision, but I said nothing against it. [+ obj] The word "ain't" is disapproved [=criticized] by most teachers.
2 [+ obj] : to officially refuse to approve or accept (something) ▪ They disapproved [=rejected] the architect's plans. ▪ The treaty was disapproved by the Senate. — opposite APPROVE – dis•ap•prov•ing adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ She gave him a disapproving look. ▪ a disapproving frown ▪ He felt uncomfortable in the presence of his disapproving parents. – dis•ap•prov•ing•ly adv ▪ She shook her head disapprovingly.

dis•arm /dɪsˈɑəm/ verb -arms; -armed; -arm•ing
1 a [+ obj] : to take weapons from (someone or something) ▪ disarm a prisoner ▪ The government has been unsuccessful at disarming the rebels. b [no obj] : to give up weapons ▪ The terrorists have refused to disarm. — opposite ARM
2 [+ obj] : to make (a bomb, mine, etc.) harmless ▪ It took more than an hour to disarm the bomb. — opposite ARM
3 [+ obj] : to make (someone) friendly or less suspicious ▪ He has a way of disarming [=winning over] his critics by flattering them. ▪ We were disarmed [=charmed, captivated] by her sense of humor.

dis•ar•ma•ment /dɪsˈɑəməmənt/ noun [noncount] : the process of reducing the number of weapons controlled by a country's military ▪ nuclear disarmament — opposite ARMAMENT

disarming adj [more ~; most ~] : tending to remove any feelings of unfriendliness or distrust ▪ We were all charmed by his disarming openness and modesty. ▪ a disarming smile – dis•arm•ing•ly adv ▪ Her answers were disarmingly [=surprisingly] honest.

dis•ar•range /ˌdɪsəˈreɪnʤ/ verb -rang•es; -ranged; -rang•ing [+ obj] formal : to make (something) messy or untidy ▪ The wind disarranged my hair. ▪ His bed was disarranged and clothes were strewn on the floor.

dis•ar•ray /ˌdɪsəˈreɪ/ noun [noncount] : a lack of order : a confused or messy condition ▪ The room was in disarray. ▪ The company has fallen into complete/total disarray.

dis•as•sem•ble /ˌdɪsəˈsɛmbəl/ verb -sem•bles; -sem•bled; -sem•bling
1 [+ obj] : to disconnect the pieces of (something) ▪ disassemble [=take apart] an engine
2 [no obj] : to come apart into smaller pieces ▪ The bookshelf disassembles for easy storage.
– dis•as•sem•bly /ˌdɪsəˈsɛmbli/ noun [noncount]

dis•as•so•ci•ate /ˌdɪsəˈsoʊsiˌeɪt/ verb -ates; -at•ed; -at•ing [+ obj] : DISSOCIATE

di•sas•ter /dɪˈzæstə, Brit dɪˈzɑːstə/ noun, pl -ters
1 [count] : something (such as a flood, tornado, fire, plane crash, etc.) that happens suddenly and causes much suffering or loss to many people ▪ The program examined several bridge failures and other engineering disasters. ▪ a nuclear disaster ▪ The earthquake was one of the worst natural disasters [=a disaster caused by natural forces] of this century. ▪ The state is asking for federal disaster relief. [=money to help rebuild an area after a disaster]
2 a : something that has a very bad effect or result [count] The new regulations could be a disaster for smaller businesses. ▪ Opponents say the government's policy is a disaster waiting to happen. [=something that will probably have a very bad or tragic result] [noncount] They're trying to find a way to avoid disaster. ▪ They narrowly escaped disaster. ▪ The new regulations could spell disaster [=result in serious problems] for smaller businesses. ▪ The government's policy is a recipe for disaster. = The government is flirting with disaster by pursuing this policy. ▪ When disaster strikes, [=when something very bad happens] we will be prepared. b [count] : a complete or terrible failure ▪ economic/financial disasters ▪ The dinner party was a complete disaster.

disaster area noun, pl ~ areas [count]
1 : an area where there has been a major disaster (such as a flood, tornado, or earthquake) and where people can receive special help from the government (such as money to rebuild homes or emergency supplies) ▪ After the hurricane, the state was declared a disaster area.
2 informal : a place that is very messy or dirty ▪ His office is a disaster area. How can he find anything in all this clutter?

di•sas•trous /dɪˈzæstrəs, Brit dɪˈzɑːstrəs/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : causing great suffering or loss ▪ Half the city was destroyed by a disastrous fire.
2 : very bad or unfortunate ▪ The bad weather could have a disastrous effect on the area's tourism industry. ▪ His failure to back up the computer files had disastrous consequences. ▪ The strike was economically disastrous.
– di•sas•trous•ly adv ▪ a disastrously bad choice/idea dis•avow /ˌdɪsəˈvaʊ/ verb -avows; -avowed; -avow•ing [+ obj] formal : to say that you are not responsible for (something) : to deny that you know about or are involved in (something) ▪ He disavowed the actions of his subordinates. ▪ She now seems to be trying to disavow her earlier statements.

– dis•avow•al /ˌdɪsəˈvawəl/ noun, pl -als [count, noncount] dis•band /dɪsˈbænd/ verb -bands; -band•ed; -band•ing : to end an organization or group (such as a club) [+ obj] They've decided to disband the club. [no obj] The members of the organization have decided to disband.

– dis•band•ment /dɪsˈbændmənt/ noun [noncount] dis•bar /dɪsˈbɑə/ verb -bars; -barred; -bar•ring [+ obj] : to take away the right of (a lawyer) to work in the legal profession — often used as (be) disbarred ▪ She was disbarred for unethical practices.

D

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 61 SESS: 28 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:28:20 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-d

– dis•bar•ment /dɪsˈbɑɚmənt/ noun [noncount] ▪ The charges could lead to his disbarment.

dis•be•lief /ˌdɪsbəˈliːf/ noun [noncount] : a feeling that you do not or cannot believe or accept that something is true or real ▪ The initial reports were met with widespread disbelief. [=many people did not believe the reports] ▪ She stared at him in utter disbelief. ▪ If you want to enjoy this story, you have to suspend your disbelief. [=allow yourself to believe things that cannot be true] — compare UNBELIEF dis•be•lieve /ˌdɪsbəˈliːv/ verb -lieves; -lieved; -liev•ing formal : to not believe (someone or something) [+ obj] Several jurors disbelieved the witness's testimony. [no obj] — + in ▪ She disbelieves in the value of exercise.

– disbelieving adj ▪ The announcement was met with shocked and disbelieving silence. – dis•be•liev•er noun, pl -ers [count] dis•burse /dɪsˈbɚs/ verb -burse; -bursed; -burs•ing [+ obj] formal : to pay out (money) from a fund that has been created for a special purpose ▪ The money will be disbursed on the basis of need. ▪ The government has disbursed millions of dollars in foreign aid.

– dis•burse•ment /dɪsˈbɚsmənt/ noun, pl -ments [noncount] disbursement of government funds [count] The company has made large disbursements for research.

disc or disk /ˈdɪsk/ noun, pl discs or disks [count]
1 : a flat, thin, round object ▪ a plastic disc ▪ a cracker topped with a thin disk of sausage
2 disk : a flat, thin, round object that is used to store large amounts of information (such as computer data) ▪ Insert the disk into the CD drive. ▪ There isn't much disk space [=room for storage on a computer disk] left. — see also DISK DRIVE, FLOPPY DISK, HARD DISK, OPTICAL DISK
3 disc a : CD ▪ I don't have that recording on vinyl, but I have it on disc. b old-fashioned : [1]RECORD 4 — see also DISC JOCKEY
4 medical : one of the flat, rubbery pieces that separate the bones of the backbone — called also intervertebral disc; see also SLIPPED DISC

[1]dis•card /dɪˈskɑɚd/ verb -cards; -card•ed; -card•ing [+ obj]
1 : to throw (something) away because it is useless or unwanted ▪ Remove and discard the stems. ▪ a pile of discarded tires — often used figuratively ▪ Many of his original theories have been discarded [=rejected] in recent years.
2 : to remove (a playing card) from your hand in a card game ▪ She discarded the six of hearts.

[2]dis•card /ˈdɪsˌkɑɚd/ noun, pl -cards [count] : something (such as a playing card) that has been discarded disc brake noun, pl ~ brakes [count] : a brake that works by two plates pressing against the sides of a disc that is connected to the center of a wheel dis•cern /dɪˈsɚn/ verb -cerns; -cerned; -cern•ing [+ obj]

1 : to see, hear, or notice (something) with difficulty or effort ▪ We could just discern [=distinguish, make out] the ship through the fog.
2 : to come to know, recognize, or understand (something) ▪ The reasons behind this sudden change are difficult to discern. ▪ The purpose of the study is to discern [=identify] patterns of criminal behavior. ▪ unable to discern [=distinguish] right from wrong – dis•cern•ible /dɪˈsɚnəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ There is no discernible difference between the original and the copy. – dis•cern•ibly /dɪˈsɚnəbli/ adv [more ~; most ~] ▪ The original and copy aren't discernibly different.

discerning adj [more ~; most ~] : able to see and understand people, things, or situations clearly and intelligently ▪ a discerning critic ▪ She has a discerning eye for good art.
– dis•cern•ing•ly adv

dis•cern•ment /dɪˈsɚnmənt/ noun [noncount] : the ability to see and understand people, things, or situations clearly and intelligently ▪ His lack of discernment led to his disastrous choice of business partners.

[1]dis•charge /dɪsˈtʃɑɚʤ/ verb -charg•es; -charged; -charg•ing
1 [+ obj] : to allow (someone) to leave a hospital, prison, etc. ▪ She's due to be discharged from the hospital on Wednesday. ▪ Discharge the prisoners.
2 [+ obj] a : to take away the job of (someone) : to end the employment of (someone) ▪ The company illegally discharged [=fired] several union organizers. ▪ We had to discharge several employees last week. b : to end the service of (someone) in a formal or official way ▪ Thousands of soldiers were discharged after the war. : to release (someone) from duty ▪ The judge discharged the jury.
3 : to shoot or fire (a weapon) [+ obj] The ship discharged missiles against enemy targets. ▪ discharging a firearm [no obj] The gun failed to discharge.
4 [+ obj] : to allow (someone) to get out of a vehicle ▪ The bus had stopped to discharge [=let off] passengers.
5 a : to send out (a liquid, gas, or waste material) [+ obj] Smokestacks from the factory discharge [=emit] chemicals into the air. ▪ discharging pollution into a lake ▪ The wound began to discharge pus. [no obj] a river that discharges [=flows] into the ocean b : to send out (electricity) [+ obj] discharge electricity from a battery [no obj] allowing the electricity to discharge safely
6 [+ obj] formal a : to do what is required by (something) ▪ He vowed to faithfully discharge [=fulfill] the duties/responsibilities of his office. ▪ discharging an obligation b : to pay (a debt) ▪ They have failed to discharge their debts.

[2]dis•charge /ˈdɪsˌtʃɑɚʤ/ noun, pl -charg•es
1 : the release of someone from a hospital, prison, etc. [noncount] The doctors approved her discharge from the hospital. [count] early hospital discharges
2 a : the act of firing or dismissing someone from a job [noncount] Several former employees are suing the company for wrongful discharge. [count] a discharge from employment b [count] : the act of ending a person's service to the military ▪ After his discharge from the military, he went to college to become a teacher. ✧ A dishonorable discharge is given to a soldier who has done something wrong and is forced to leave the military. ▪ He was court-martialed for improper conduct and left the navy with a dishonorable discharge. ✧ An honorable discharge is given to a soldier who has not done anything wrong and is not being forced to leave. ▪ He went to college after receiving an honorable discharge from the army.
3 : the act of firing a weapon [noncount] The damage was caused by accidental discharge of a hunting rifle. [count] a rapid discharge from a gun
4 a [count] : a liquid or gas that flows out of something ▪ a clear discharge from the nose and eyes ▪ nasal discharges b [noncount] : the movement of a liquid or gas from something ▪ The factory was charged with the illegal discharge of pollution into a stream. ▪ the discharge of pus from a wound
5 [count] : a flow of electricity ▪ an electrical discharge
6 formal : the act of doing what is required or of paying a debt [noncount] the discharge of debts/obligations [count] a discharge of debt dis•ci•ple /dɪˈsaɪpəl/ noun, pl -ci•ples [count]

1 : someone who accepts and helps to spread the teachings of a famous person ▪ a disciple of Sigmund Freud
2 : one of a group of 12 men who were sent out to spread the teachings of Jesus Christ : APOSTLE – dis•ci•ple•ship /dɪˈsaɪpəlˌʃɪp/ noun [noncount]

dis•ci•pli•nar•i•an /ˌdɪsəpləˈnerijən/ noun, pl -ans [count] : a person who is very strict about punishing bad behavior : a person who uses discipline as a way of making sure that rules or orders are obeyed ▪ The school's principal is a strict/rigid disciplinarian.

dis•ci•plin•ary /ˈdɪsəpləˌneri, Brit ˈdɪsəplənri/ adj : intended to correct or punish bad behavior : of or relating to discipline ▪ a disciplinary hearing ▪ taking disciplinary action ▪ The committee is considering disciplinary measures against him.

[1]dis•ci•pline /ˈdɪsəplən/ noun, pl -plines
1 [noncount] a : control that is gained by requiring that rules or orders be obeyed and punishing bad behavior ▪ The teacher has a hard time maintaining discipline in the classroom. b : a way of behaving that shows a willingness to obey rules or orders ▪ The troops were praised for their dedication and discipline. c : behavior that is judged by how well it follows a set of rules or orders ▪ poor discipline ▪ maintaining good discipline d : punishment for bad behavior ▪ Some parents feel that the school's principal has been too harsh in meting out discipline.
2 [noncount] : the ability to keep working at something that is difficult ▪ I tried learning the piano, but I lacked the discipline [=self-discipline] to stick with it. ▪ He doesn't have the discipline [=self-control] to stay on his diet.
3 [count] : an activity that is done regularly as a way of training yourself to do something or to improve your behavior ▪ Keeping a journal is a good discipline for a writer.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 62 SESS: 29 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:28:20 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-d

4 [count] : a field of study : a subject that is taught ▪ She has received training in several academic disciplines.

[2]discipline verb -plines; -plined; -plin·ing [+ obj]
1 : to punish (someone) as a way of making sure that rules or orders are obeyed ▪ She was disciplined for misbehaving in class. ▪ He seems unwilling or unable to discipline his children. ▪ disciplining the troops
2 : to train (yourself) to do something by controlling your behavior ▪ I'm trying to discipline myself to eat less.
– disciplined adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ I'm not disciplined enough to exercise everyday. ▪ We need a more disciplined approach if the program is to be successfully implemented. ▪ an orderly and disciplined mind disc jockey noun, pl ~ -eys [count] : a person who plays popular recorded music on the radio or at a party or nightclub — called also DJ, (informal) deejay dis·claim /dɪsˈkleɪm/ verb -claims; -claimed; -claim·ing [+ obj] formal : to say that you do not have (something, such as knowledge, responsibility, etc.) ▪ The government disclaimed [=disavowed] any knowledge of his activities. ▪ She disclaimed [=(less formally) denied] all responsibility for the accident.

dis·claim·er /dɪsˈkleɪmə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a statement that is meant to prevent an incorrect understanding of something (such as a book, a movie, or an advertisement) ▪ The documentary opens with a disclaimer that many of its scenes are "fictional re-creations" of real events.

dis·close /dɪsˈkloʊz/ verb -clos·es; -closed; -clos·ing [+ obj] : to make (something) known to the public ▪ He refused to disclose the source of his information. ▪ The company has disclosed that it will be laying off thousands of workers later this year. ▪ The identity of the victim has not yet been disclosed.
– dis·clos·er noun, pl -ers [count]

dis·clo·sure /dɪsˈkloʊʒə/ noun, pl -sures
1 [noncount] : the act of making something known : the act of disclosing something ▪ We demand full disclosure of the facts.
2 [count] : something (such as information) that is made known or revealed : something that is disclosed ▪ This is just the latest in a series of shocking disclosures [=revelations] about his criminal past.

dis·co /ˈdɪskoʊ/ noun, pl -cos
1 [count] : a nightclub where people dance to recorded popular music
2 [noncount] : a type of popular dance music

dis·col·or (US) or Brit dis·col·our /dɪsˈkʌlə/ verb -ors; -ored; -or·ing : to change in color especially in a bad way [no obj] The fabric is guaranteed not to discolor. [+ obj] The wine stain discolored the rug.
– discolored adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ badly discolored teeth

dis·col·or·a·tion /dɪsˌkʌləˈreɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions
1 [noncount] : the act of changing color in a bad way ▪ The medicine may cause discoloration [=staining] of the teeth.
2 [count] : a discolored spot or area ▪ His shirt has a small discoloration [=stain] on the sleeve.

dis·com·fit /dɪsˈkʌmfət/ verb - fits ; - fit·ed ; - fit·ing [+ obj] formal : to make (someone) confused or upset — often used as (be) discomfited ▪ The governor was clearly discomfited [=disconcerted] by the question.
– discom·fit·ing adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ She bears a discomfiting resemblance to one of my old teachers. – dis·com·fit·ure /dɪsˈkʌmfətʃə/ noun [noncount] ▪ His discomfiture was obvious.

[1]dis·com·fort /dɪsˈkʌmfət/ noun, pl -forts
1 : an uncomfortable or painful feeling in the body [noncount] The patient is still experiencing some discomfort. [count] the discomforts of pregnancy
2 [noncount] : a feeling of being somewhat worried, unhappy, etc. ▪ These new developments are being watched with discomfort by many of our allies.

[2]discomfort verb -forts; -fort·ed; -fort·ing [+ obj] formal : to make (someone) uncomfortable, worried, etc. — often used as (be) discomforted ▪ Some audience members were discomforted by the graphic violence.
– discomforting adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ discomforting questions/thoughts dis·con·cert /ˌdɪskənˈsət/ verb -certs; -cert·ed; -cert·ing [+ obj] somewhat formal : to make (someone) upset or embarrassed ▪ News of his criminal past has disconcerted even his admirers. — often used as (be) disconcerted ▪ I was disconcerted by her tone of voice.

– disconcerted /ˌdɪskənˈsətəd/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ We were very disconcerted to learn that our flight had been canceled. – disconcerting /ˌdɪskənˈsətɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ I found it disconcerting to be left alone in her office. ▪ He has a disconcerting habit of answering a question with another question. – dis·con·cert·ing·ly adv

dis·con·nect /ˌdɪskəˈnɛkt/ verb -nects; -nect·ed; -nect·ing [+ obj]
1 : to separate (something) from something else : to break a connection between two or more things ▪ disconnect a hose ▪ The hose and faucet had been disconnected. — often + from ▪ Disconnect the hose from the faucet.
2 a : to stop or end the supply of electricity, water, gas, etc., to (something, such as a piece of electronic equipment) ▪ Disconnect the old printer and connect the new one. ▪ The alarm system had been disconnected. b : to stop or end the supply of (electricity, water, gas, etc.) ▪ Before starting, be sure to disconnect the power supply. ▪ Our landlord threatened to disconnect our electricity.
3 : to end the connection to a system, network, etc., through a telephone, computer, or other device ▪ We were talking on the phone but suddenly we got disconnected. ▪ I got disconnected when I was surfing the Internet. [=I lost my Internet connection] — opposite CONNECT – dis·con·nec·tion /ˌdɪskəˈnɛkʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count] telephone disconnections [noncount] disconnection from a power source

disconnected adj
1 : not connected to something (such as a power source) ▪ The phone lines are all disconnected. ▪ a disconnected television set
2 [more ~; most ~] : not having parts joined together in a logical way ▪ Her biography reads like a series of disconnected stories. ▪ a disconnected [=incoherent] speech – dis·con·nect·ed·ness noun [noncount]

dis·con·so·late /dɪsˈkɑːnsələt/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : very unhappy or sad ▪ Campaign workers grew increasingly disconsolate as the results came in.
– dis·con·so·late·ly adv

[1]dis·con·tent /ˌdɪskənˈtɛnt/ noun [noncount] : a feeling of unhappiness or disapproval : a lack of contentment ▪ The survey indicates public discontent [=dissatisfaction] with the current administration. ▪ There was widespread discontent [=(less commonly) discontentment] over the court's ruling. — opposite CONTENTMENT

[2]discontent adj [more ~; most ~] : not pleased or satisfied : DISCONTENTED ▪ Polls show that voters are growing increasingly discontent.
– dis·con·tent·ment /ˌdɪskənˈtɛntmənt/ noun [noncount] dis·con·tent·ed /ˌdɪskənˈtɛntəd/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not happy with your situation, position, etc. : not contented ▪ discontented employees — often + with ▪ She's been feeling discontented with life in general.

– dis·con·tent·ed·ly adv

dis·con·tin·ue /ˌdɪskənˈtɪnju/ verb -tin·ues; -tin·ued; -tin·u·ing [+ obj]
1 : to end (something) : STOP ▪ He discontinued his visits to the psychiatrist. ▪ She chose to discontinue her studies. — often used as (be) discontinued ▪ The treatment has been discontinued.
2 : to stop making or offering (a product, service, etc.) ▪ The company has announced that the current model will be discontinued next year. ▪ They are planning to discontinue bus service between the two towns.
– discontinued adj ▪ They're having a sale on discontinued models. ▪ a discontinued line of products – dis·con·tin·u·a·tion /ˌdɪskənˌtɪnjuˈeɪʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ the discontinuation of services

dis·con·ti·nu·i·ty /dɪsˌkɑːntəˈnuːwəti, Brit dɪsˌkɒntəˈnjuːwəti/ noun, pl -ties
1 [noncount] : the quality or state of not being continuous : lack of continuity ▪ There is a sense of discontinuity between the book's chapters.
2 [count] : a change or break in a process ▪ Some patients have experienced delays or discontinuities [=gaps] in their care.

dis·con·tin·u·ous /ˌdɪskənˈtɪnjəwəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not continuous : having interruptions or gaps ▪ discontinuous sleep ▪ a discontinuous series of events dis·cord /ˈdɪsˌkoəd/ noun, pl -cords formal 1 [noncount] : lack of agreement between people, ideas, etc. ▪ marital discord [=conflict] ▪ discord between political parties ▪

D

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 63 SESS: 11 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:28:21 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−d

The city has long been known as a scene of racial intolerance and discord.

2 : an unpleasant combination of musical notes [count] The song ends on a discord. [noncount] musical discord

dis•cord•ant /dɪsˈkoədnt/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : harsh or unpleasant in sound ▪ discordant music

2 : not agreeing : not in harmony ▪ She has the difficult task of bringing together a number of discordant elements. ▪ discordant opinions ✧ To strike/sound a discordant note means to express an opinion that disagrees with what other people are saying. ▪ Most reviewers loved the show, but one critic struck a discordant note, finding it "trite and predictable."

dis•co•theque /ˌdɪskəˈtɛk/ noun, pl -theques [count] : DISCO 1

[1]dis•count /ˈdɪsˌkaʊnt/ noun, pl -counts [count] : an amount taken off a regular price : a price reduction ▪ The store offers a two percent discount when customers pay in cash. ▪ We were able to buy our tickets at a discount. [=for less than the usual price]

[2]discount adj, always used before a noun

1 : selling goods or services at reduced prices ▪ a discount store/chain/retailer ▪ discount airlines

2 : offered or sold at a reduced price ▪ discount tickets

3 : cheaper than usual ▪ discount prices/rates

[3]discount verb -counts; -count•ed; -count•ing [+ obj]

1 a : to lower the amount of (a bill, price, etc.) ▪ The vacation plan included a discounted price/rate on our hotel room. b : to lower the price of (a product) ▪ Car dealers are heavily discounting last year's unsold models.

2 a : to think of (something) as having little importance or value ▪ You shouldn't discount [=minimize] the importance of studying. b : to believe that (something, such as information, a rumor, etc.) is not worth serious attention ▪ We can't discount [=dismiss, disregard] the possibility that the economy will worsen in the near future. ▪ These threats cannot be entirely discounted.

dis•cour•age /dɪˈskərəʤ/ verb -ag•es; -aged; -ag•ing [+ obj]

1 : to make (someone) less determined, hopeful, or confident ▪ Try not to let losing discourage you. — often used (be/get) discouraged ▪ We were discouraged by their lack of enthusiasm. ▪ Students may get discouraged by activities that are too advanced.

2 a : to make (something) less likely to happen ▪ The area's dry climate discourages agriculture. ▪ He claims the new regulations will discourage investment. b : to try to make people not want to do (something) ▪ The purpose of the law is to discourage [=deter] speeding. ▪ That type of behavior ought to be discouraged. ✧ To discourage (someone) from doing (something) is to tell or advise someone not to do something. ▪ His parents discouraged him from watching too much television. [=told him he should not watch too much television] ▪ They discouraged her from going. [=they told her why she should not go] — opposite ENCOURAGE – discouraged adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ The team's losing streak has left many fans feeling hopeless and discouraged. [=downhearted, disheartened]

dis•cour•age•ment /dɪˈskərəʤmənt/ noun, pl -ments

1 [noncount] : the act of making something less likely to happen or of making people less likely to do something ▪ the discouragement of drug use among teenagers ▪ He joined the army despite discouragement from his parents. [=despite being discouraged from joining by his parents]

2 [noncount] : a feeling of having lost hope or confidence ▪ She expressed discouragement over the difficulty of finding a good job. ▪ The team's losses have left fans with a feeling of discouragement.

3 [count] : something (such as a failure or difficulty) that discourages someone ▪ He says that the tax is a discouragement to doing business in this state. ▪ Despite the discouragements of the past week, we need to continue moving forward.

discouraging adj [more ~; most ~] : causing loss of hope or confidence ▪ The team suffered another discouraging loss. ▪ The latest test results were very discouraging. — opposite ENCOURAGING

– dis•cour•ag•ing•ly adv ▪ discouragingly expensive

[1]dis•course /ˈdɪsˌkoəs/ noun, pl -cours•es formal

1 [noncount] : the use of words to exchange thoughts and ideas ▪ It's a word that doesn't have much use in ordinary discourse. [=conversation] ▪ He likes to engage in lively discourse with his visitors. ▪ public/political discourse

2 [count] : a long talk or piece of writing about a subject ▪ She delivered an entertaining discourse on the current state of the film industry.

[2]dis•course /dɪˈskoəs/ verb -cours•es; -coursed; -cours•ing [no obj] formal : to talk about something especially for a long time ▪ She could discourse for hours on/about almost any subject.

dis•cour•te•ous /dɪsˈkətijəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : rude or impolite : not showing good manners ▪ The waiter was discourteous to me. ▪ It was thoughtless and discourteous to leave us waiting so long. — opposite COURTEOUS

– dis•cour•te•ous•ly adv ▪ They treated us discourteously. – dis•cour•te•ous•ness noun [noncount]

dis•cour•te•sy /dɪsˈkətəsi/ noun, pl -sies formal

1 [noncount] : rude or impolite behavior ▪ They've received many complaints about customers being treated with disrespect and discourtesy. [=rudeness]

2 [count] : a rude act ▪ His tardiness was just another in a series of small discourtesies.

dis•cov•er /dɪˈskʌvə/ verb -ers; -ered; -er•ing [+ obj]

1 : to see, find, or become aware of (something) for the first time ▪ Christopher Columbus discovered the New World in 1492. ▪ Several new species of plants have recently been discovered. ▪ Scientists claim to have discovered [=found] a new way of controlling high blood pressure. ▪ It took her several weeks to discover the solution. ▪ His life was never the same after he discovered sailing. [=after he first went sailing; after he found how much he enjoyed sailing]

2 : to show the presence of (something hidden or difficult to see) : to make (something) known ▪ The autopsy discovered [=revealed, uncovered] traces of poison in the victim's blood. ▪ The tests have discovered problems in the current design.

3 : to learn or find out (something surprising or unexpected) ▪ I was surprised to discover [=realize] that I had lost my keys. ▪ She soon discovered what had been going on.

4 : to find out about and help (a talented new performer, writer, etc.) ▪ During her career she was responsible for discovering many now famous musicians.

– dis•cov•er•er noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ The species is named for its discoverer.

dis•cov•ery /dɪˈskʌvəri/ noun, pl -er•ies

1 : the act of finding or learning something for the first time : the act of discovering something [count] Scientists announced the discovery of a new species of plant. ▪ Her research led to a number of important discoveries about the disease. ▪ Reporters made the shocking discovery that the governor had been unfaithful to his wife. ▪ the discovery of pollution in the river ▪ the discovery of a talented musician [noncount] voyages of discovery [=voyages that are done to discover and learn about new places, people, etc.] ▪ sailors during the age of discovery

2 [count] : something seen or learned for the first time : something discovered ▪ recent archaeological discoveries ▪ It was one of the most important discoveries in the history of medicine.

[1]dis•cred•it /dɪsˈkrɛdət/ verb -its; -it•ed; -it•ing [+ obj]

1 : to cause (someone or something) to seem dishonest or untrue ▪ The prosecution discredited the witness by showing that she had lied in the past. ▪ Many of his theories have been thoroughly discredited.

2 : to damage the reputation of (someone) ▪ an attempt to discredit the governor

– dis•cred•it•able /dɪsˈkrɛdətəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ discreditable conduct – dis•cred•it•ably /dɪsˈkrɛdətəbli/ adv

[2]discredit noun [noncount] : loss of reputation or respect — often used with bring ▪ His criminal activities brought discredit on/upon/to his family. ▪ This scandal has brought the whole enterprise into lasting discredit. ✧ Something that is to your discredit causes people to have a less favorable opinion of you. ▪ To our discredit, we failed to offer help when it was most needed.

dis•creet /dɪˈskri:t/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 — used to suggest that someone is being careful about not allowing something from being known or noticed by many people ▪ a discreet way to handle the problem ▪ She was always very discreet about her personal life. ▪ He made discreet inquiries about the job. ▪ He maintained a discreet silence. — opposite INDISCREET

2 : not likely to be seen or noticed by many people ▪ A photographer followed the bride and groom at a discreet [=unobtrusive] distance.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 64 SESS: 11 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:28:21 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-d

Do not confuse discreet with discrete.

– dis•creet•ly adv ▪ a letter discreetly hidden in the pages of an old book dis•crep•an•cy /dɪˈskrɛpənsi/ noun, pl -cies : a difference especially between things that should be the same [count] Discrepancies in the firm's financial statements led to an investigation. ▪ There were discrepancies between their accounts of the accident. [noncount] There is some discrepancy [=disagreement] between the results of the two studies.

dis•crete /dɪˈskri:t/ adj, formal : separate and different from each other ▪ The process can be broken down into a number of discrete [=separate, individual] steps.

Do not confuse discrete with discreet.

– dis•crete•ly adv

dis•cre•tion /dɪˈskrɛʃən/ noun [noncount]
1 : the right to choose what should be done in a particular situation ▪ Each artist in the gallery has discretion over the price that will be charged for his or her work. ▪ The coach used/exercised his own discretion to let the injured quarterback play. ▪ The amount each person contributes will be left to the discretion of the individual. [=each person will decide how much he or she will contribute] ▪ Because of the violence in the movie, parental discretion is advised. [=parents are advised to think about whether or not they want their children to see the movie] ✧ Something that is done at your discretion is done if, how, when, etc., you choose to do it. ▪ You can cancel the service at your (own) discretion. [=you can cancel the service whenever you choose] ▪ Exactly how much to tip a server is at the discretion of the customer.
2 : the quality of being careful about what you do and say so that people will not be embarrassed or offended : the quality of being discreet ▪ He always uses care and discretion when dealing with others. ▪ She handled the awkward situation with great discretion. ▪ She is the soul of discretion. [=she is very discreet] — opposite INDISCRETION discretion is the better part of valor — used to say that it is better to be careful than to do something that is dangerous and unnecessary

dis•cre•tion•ary /dɪˈskrɛʃəˌneri, Brit dɪˈskrɛʃənri/ adj
1 : available to be used when and how you decide ▪ She has enough discretionary income [=income that is left after paying for things that are essential, such as food and housing] to pay for a nice vacation each year.
2 : done or used when necessary ▪ the governor's discretionary power dis•crim•i•nate /dɪˈskrɪməˌneɪt/ verb -nates; -nat•ed; -nat•ing

1 [no obj] : to unfairly treat a person or group of people differently from other people or groups ▪ The school is not allowed to discriminate. ▪ It is illegal to discriminate on the grounds/basis of race/sex. [=it is illegal to treat someone differently because of his or her race/sex] — often + against ▪ The firm discriminated against him because of his race.
2 somewhat formal : to notice and understand that one thing is different from another thing : to recognize a difference between things [+ obj] He is old enough to discriminate [=distinguish, tell] right from wrong. ▪ I can discriminate [=differentiate] the individual voices in the choir. [no obj] — often + among or between ▪ He could discriminate among the birds by their calls. ▪ She can discriminate between ripe and unripe fruit by smell alone.

discriminating adj [more ~; most ~] approving : liking only things that are of good quality : able to recognize the difference between things that are of good quality and those that are not ▪ a discriminating audience ▪ Those with more discriminating [=discerning] tastes are likely to find the movie dull and clichéd.

dis•crim•i•na•tion /dɪˌskrɪməˈneɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions
1 [noncount] : the practice of unfairly treating a person or group of people differently from other people or groups of people ▪ racial/sexual/religious discrimination = discrimination based on race/sex/religion = discrimination on the basis of race/sex/religion ▪ The law prohibits discrimination in hiring. ▪ He sued the company for age discrimination. ▪ blatant forms of discrimination — often + against ▪ Company policy does not allow discrimination against women.
2 [noncount] formal a : the ability to recognize the difference between things that are of good quality and those that are not ▪ Those with more discrimination [=discernment] are likely to find the movie dull and clichéd. b : the ability to understand that one thing is different from another thing ▪ the animal's impressive scent/visual discrimination
3 [count] : a difference that is understood or recognized ▪ He was able to make discriminations among/between the birds by their calls. [=able to distinguish the birds by their calls]

dis•crim•i•na•to•ry /dɪˈskrɪmənəˌtorɪ, Brit dɪˈskrɪmənətri/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not fair : unfairly treating a person or group of people differently from other people or groups of people ▪ The law prohibits discriminatory hiring practices. ▪ discriminatory treatment of minorities dis•cur•sive /dɪˈskɚsɪv/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : talking or writing about many different things in a way that is not highly organized ▪ The instructor gave a discursive [=rambling] lecture that wandered from one topic to another. ▪ discursive prose – dis•cur•sive•ly adv ▪ He writes discursively.

dis•cus /ˈdɪskəs/ noun, pl -cus•es
1 [count] : a heavy flat round object that people throw as far as they can as a sport ▪ a discus thrower
2 the discus : an athletic event in which people compete by trying to throw a discus farther than everyone else ▪ winner of the discus

discus

dis•cuss /dɪˈskʌs/ verb -cuss•es; -cussed; -cus•sing [+ obj]
1 : to talk about (something) with another person or group ▪ She discussed the plan with several colleagues. ▪ They held a meeting to discuss the future of the company. ▪ We'll discuss where to meet later. ▪ Have you discussed the matter with your family?
2 : to give information, ideas, opinions, etc., about (something) in writing or speech ▪ In the first chapter, the author discusses childcare issues. ▪ The article discusses the theory in depth.

dis•cus•sion /dɪˈskʌʃən/ noun, pl -sions
1 : the act of talking about something with another person or a group of people : a conversation about something [count] The class was involved in a heated discussion about politics. ▪ I hope to have a discussion with them about the matter soon. [noncount] After much discussion of the plan, the idea was rejected entirely. ▪ She usually has an opinion about whatever subject/topic/issue is under discussion. [=being talked about] ▪ During the period under discussion, the town grew in size. ▪ The smoking ban is a major topic of discussion these days. ▪ The proposal is up for discussion [=the proposal will be talked about] at today's meeting.
2 [count] : a speech or piece of writing that gives information, ideas, opinions, etc., about something ▪ The article is an in-depth discussion of his theories. ▪ The first chapter includes a discussion of childcare issues.

[1]dis•dain /dɪsˈdeɪn/ noun [singular] : a feeling of strong dislike or disapproval of someone or something you think does not deserve respect ▪ He glared at the waiter with a look of disdain [=contempt, scorn] on his face. ▪ He regarded their proposal with disdain. ▪ I have a healthy disdain for companies that mistreat their workers.

[2]disdain verb -dains; -dained; -dain•ing [+ obj] formal
1 : to strongly dislike or disapprove of (someone or something) ▪ They disdained him for being weak. ▪ teenagers who disdain [=loathe, detest] authority ▪ a critic who disdains [=abhors, hates] all modern art ▪ She disdains gambling.
2 : to refuse to do (something) because of feelings of dislike or disapproval ▪ She disdained to answer their questions.

dis•dain•ful /dɪsˈdeɪnfəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] somewhat formal : felling strong dislike or disapproval for something or someone you think does not deserve respect : feeling or showing disdain ▪ He looked at the waiter with a disdainful glare. ▪ a disdainful attitude toward authority — often + of ▪ a critic who is disdainful of all modern art – dis•dain•ful•ly adv ▪ He glared disdainfully at the waiter.

dis•ease /dɪˈzi:z/ noun, pl -eas•es
1 : an illness that affects a person, animal, or plant : a condition that prevents the body or mind from working normally [count] infectious/contagious diseases ▪ He suffers from a rare genetic disease. ▪ a deadly/debilitating disease ▪ a disease of the mind/kidneys ▪ diseases of poultry [noncount] Thousands die of heart disease each year. ▪ They are working to stop the spread of disease in rural areas. ▪ gum/liver disease

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 65 SESS: 30 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:28:22 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−d

2 [count] : a problem that a person, group, organization, or society has and cannot stop ▪ The article cites intolerance as one of the most dangerous of society's diseases. ▪ He sees crime as a disease that too often plagues the poor and disadvantaged.
– dis•eased /dɪˈziːzd/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ She removed the diseased tree limbs. ▪ diseased cells/lungs/plants ▪ a diseased mind

dis•em•bark /ˌdɪsəmˈbɑək/ verb -barks; -barked; -bark•ing
1 [no obj] : to leave a ship or airplane ▪ The plane's crew members were the last ones to disembark. ▪ Passengers disembarked [=debarked] from the ship. — opposite EMBARK 2 [+ obj] : to remove (something or someone) from a ship or airplane ▪ They disembarked [=(more commonly) unloaded] the cargo at the dock.
– dis•em•bar•ka•tion /dɪsˌɛmˌbɑəˈkeɪʃən/ noun [noncount]

dis•em•bod•ied /ˌdɪsəmˈbɑːdid/ adj
1 : not having a body ▪ disembodied spirits : not attached to a body ▪ a disembodied head
2 : coming from a person who cannot be seen ▪ We heard disembodied voices coming over the speakers.

dis•em•bow•el /ˌdɪsəmˈbawəl/ verb -els; US -eled or Brit -elled; US -el•ing or Brit -el•ling [+ obj] : to take the stomach, intestines, etc., out of (an animal or person) : to remove the bowels of (an animal or person) ▪ The fierce cat uses its claws to disembowel its prey. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ Critics say that the spending cuts will disembowel the program.
– dis•em•bow•el•ment /ˌdɪsəmˈbawəlmənt/ noun [noncount]

dis•em•pow•er /ˌdɪsɪmˈpawɚ/ verb -ers; -ered; -er•ing [+ obj] : to cause (a person or a group of people) to be less likely than others to succeed : to prevent (a person or group) from having power, authority, or influence ▪ They have been disempowered by a society that believes they are intellectually inferior. ▪ disempowered minorities — opposite EMPOWER – dis•em•pow•er•ment /ˌdɪsɪmˈpawɚmənt/ noun [noncount] ▪ the disempowerment of minorities dis•en•chant•ed /ˌdɪsɪnˈʧæntəd, Brit ˌdɪsɪnˈʧɑːntəd/ adj [more ~; most ~] : no longer happy or satisfied with something ▪ disenchanted voters — often + with ▪ He became more disenchanted [=dissatisfied] with his job every day.

– dis•en•chant•ment /ˌdɪsɪnˈʧæntmənt, Brit ˌdɪsɪnˈʧɑːntmənt/ noun [noncount] ▪ voter disenchantment ▪ He talked about his growing disenchantment with his job.

dis•en•fran•chise /ˌdɪsɪnˈfrænˌʧaɪz/ verb -chis•es; -chised; -chis•ing [+ obj] : to prevent (a person or group of people) from having the right to vote ▪ They disenfranchised poor people by making property ownership a requirement for registering to vote. ▪ disenfranchised minorities — opposite ENFRANCHISE – dis•en•fran•chise•ment /ˌdɪsɪnˈfrænˌʧaɪzmənt/ noun [noncount] ▪ the disenfranchisement of minorities dis•en•gage /ˌdɪsɪnˈgeɪʤ/ verb -gag•es; -gaged; -gag•ing

1 : to separate from someone or something [no obj] The two dancers moved together in a series of quick movements before disengaging and leaping apart. [+ obj] — usually + from ▪ I was trying to disengage [=free] myself from the safety harness.
2 [no obj] : to stop being involved with a person or group : to stop taking part in something — usually + from ▪ He began to disengage [=(more commonly) withdraw] from the family when he was 15 or so.
3 : to move (a mechanism or part of a machine) so that it no longer fits into another part [+ obj] Put the car in gear, and then slowly disengage the clutch while pressing on the gas pedal. [no obj] If there is a malfunction, the gears will automatically disengage. — opposite ENGAGE
4 military : to order (a group of soldiers) to stop fighting and move away from an area [+ obj] The government says it will gradually disengage [=withdraw] soldiers from the region. [no obj] Troops in the area have begun to disengage. [=withdraw] – dis•en•gaged /ˌdɪsɪnˈgeɪʤd/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ She became more and more disengaged [=withdrawn] as her depression worsened. – dis•en•gage•ment /ˌdɪsɪnˈgeɪʤmənt/ noun [noncount] ▪ emotional disengagement [=withdrawal] ▪ disengagement of the clutch ▪ the disengagement of troops from the region

dis•en•tan•gle /ˌdɪsɪnˈtæŋgəl/ verb -tan•gles; -tan•gled; -tan•gling [+ obj]
1 : to separate (things that are twisted together or caught on one another) ▪ I can't disentangle [=untangle] the wires/hangers. — often + from ▪ She was trying to disentangle her hair from her necklace. — often used figuratively ▪ She finally disentangled herself from a bad relationship.
2 : to remove the twists or knots in (something) ▪ disentangle [=untangle] a knotted string/rope
– dis•en•tan•gle•ment /ˌdɪsɪnˈtæŋgəlmənt/ noun [noncount]

dis•equi•lib•ri•um /dɪsˌiːkwəˈlɪbrijəm/ noun [singular] formal + technical : a loss or lack of balance ▪ The condition is caused by a disequilibrium in the brain's chemistry. ▪ the disequilibrium of power dis•es•tab•lish /ˌdɪsəˈstæblɪʃ/ verb -lish•es; -lished; -lish•ing [+ obj] formal : to take away a particular church's status as the official church of a nation or state ▪ efforts to disestablish the Church of England

– dis•es•tab•lish•ment /ˌdɪsəˈstæblɪʃmənt/ noun [noncount]

[1]dis•fa•vor (US) or Brit dis•fa•vour /dɪsˈfeɪvɚ/ noun [noncount] formal
1 : a feeling of disapproval or dislike ▪ He regarded their proposal with disfavor. ▪ They looked with disfavor upon her.
2 : the condition of being disapproved of or disliked ▪ The theory has long been in disfavor. [=the theory has been unpopular for a long time] ▪ The style fell into disfavor [=became unpopular] a decade ago.

[2]disfavor (US) or Brit disfavour verb -vors; -vored; -vor•ing [+ obj] formal
1 : to disapprove of or dislike (someone or something) ▪ Some bar owners disfavor [=(more commonly) are against] the ban on smoking.
2 : to make it more difficult for (a person, organization, etc.) to succeed or achieve something than it is for another person, organization, etc. ▪ The current laws favor large businesses and disfavor smaller businesses.

dis• g•ure /dɪsˈfɪgjɚ, Brit dɪsˈfɪgə/ verb -ures; -ured; -ur•ing [+ obj] : to spoil or damage the appearance of (something or someone) ▪ His face was disfigured by a scar. ▪ Vandals disfigured [=(more commonly) defaced] the wall with graffiti.
– dis gured adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ The fire left her horribly disfigured. – dis• g•ure•ment /dɪsˈfɪgjɚmənt/ noun, pl -ments [count] His disfigurements were caused by an accident. [noncount] The lifesaving operation will cause some disfigurement. – dis guring adj ▪ disfiguring surgery dis•gorge /dɪsˈgoɚʤ/ verb -gorg•es; -gorged; -gor•ging

1 [+ obj] somewhat formal : to empty whatever is in the stomach through the mouth ▪ The cat coughed and then disgorged [=(more commonly) vomited, threw up] a wad of hair.
2 a [+ obj] : to let out or release (something) ▪ We watched the airplane disgorging its passengers at the gate. ▪ The damaged ship disgorged thousands of gallons of oil into the bay. b [no obj] : to flow out ▪ The river disgorges into the ocean just south of the city.

[1]dis•grace /dɪˈskreɪs/ verb -grac•es; -graced; -grac•ing [+ obj]
1 : to cause (someone) to feel ashamed ▪ Her behavior disgraced [=shamed] the whole family.
2 : to cause (someone or something) to lose or become unworthy of respect or approval ▪ Many feel that the mayor has disgraced the town government by accepting personal favors from local businesspeople. ▪ He felt he had disgraced himself by failing at school. — often used as (be) disgraced ▪ The administration was disgraced by the scandal.

[2]disgrace noun
1 [noncount] : the condition of feeling ashamed or of losing or becoming unworthy of respect or approval ▪ The secret was protected out of a fear of political disgrace. ▪ The family is enduring the disgrace [=dishonor, shame] of scandal/suicide. ▪ Many feel that the mayor has brought disgrace upon/on the town. ▪ She was forced to leave in disgrace.
2 [singular] : something that you are or should be ashamed of ▪ His table manners are a disgrace. ▪ It is an absolute/utter disgrace [=shame] that the city has ignored the problem for so long. ▪ The health-care system is a national disgrace. ▪ It is no disgrace to be poor. [=you should not feel ashamed because you are poor] — often + to ▪ The politicians responsible for this scandal are a disgrace to their country.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 66 SESS: 50 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:28:22 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-d

– dis•grace•ful /dɪˈskreɪsfəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ her disgraceful behavior ▪ His table manners are disgraceful. ▪ It's disgraceful that the city has ignored the problem for so long. – dis•grace•ful•ly adv ▪ He behaved disgracefully. ▪ disgracefully selfish dis•grun•tled /dɪsˈgrʌntld/ adj [more ~; most ~] : unhappy and annoyed ▪ She has to deal with disgruntled customers all day. ▪ disgruntled employees ▪ He was disgruntled over the lack of recognition he received.

[1]dis•guise /dəˈskaɪz/ verb -guis•es; -guised; -guis•ing [+ obj]
1 : to change the usual appearance, sound, taste, etc., of (someone or something) so that people will not recognize that person or thing ▪ He tried to disguise his voice on the phone but I could tell it was him. ▪ She disguised herself in a wig and glasses. — often + as ▪ The journalist traveled the city disguised as [=dressed like; pretending to be] a beggar. ▪ She disguised herself as a musician to get into the concert hall early.
2 : to hide (something) so that it will not be seen or noticed ▪ I could not disguise [=hide] my surprise. ▪ They disguised [=masked] their true feelings. ▪ We disguised the fact that we were disappointed. ▪ I was aware of her thinly disguised [=poorly hidden] hostility.

[2]disguise noun, pl -guis•es
1 [count] : clothes or other things that you wear so that people will not recognize you ▪ He wore a disguise of glasses, a fake mustache, and a cap.
2 [noncount] : the act of changing your appearance so that people will not recognize you ▪ The famous thief is known to be a master of disguise.
a blessing in disguise see BLESSING in disguise 1 : wearing a disguise ▪ I've heard that she sometimes travels around the country in disguise. 2 : made to look like something else : presented as another thing ▪ He says that the new fee is really just a tax increase in disguise.

[1]dis•gust /dɪˈskʌst/ noun [noncount]
1 : a strong feeling of dislike for something that has a very unpleasant appearance, taste, smell, etc. ▪ He eyed the greasy food with disgust. ▪ As the smell of garbage drifted through the air, she wrinkled her nose in disgust.
2 : annoyance and anger that you feel toward something because it is not good, fair, appropriate, etc. ▪ He talked about his disgust with/at the way the news media focuses on celebrities. ▪ Much to the disgust of some listeners, the speech was interrupted several times by a few people in the audience. ▪ She shook her head in disgust when I described the scene.

[2]disgust verb -gusts; -gust•ed; -gust•ing [+ obj]
1 : to cause (someone) to have a strong feeling of dislike for something especially because it has a very unpleasant appearance, taste, smell, etc. ▪ The greasy food they were serving disgusted [=repulsed] him. ▪ She's a vegetarian because the idea of eating meat totally disgusts her.
2 of something bad, unfair, improper, etc. : to cause (someone) to feel very annoyed and angry ▪ The way the news media focuses on celebrities disgusts [=revolts] me. ▪ The photographs disgust some people.

disgusted adj [more ~; most ~] : very annoyed or angry about something : feeling or showing disgust ▪ He's disgusted by all the attention people give to celebrities. ▪ He had a disgusted expression on his face. ▪ She was disgusted with herself for not knowing the answer.
– dis•gust•ed•ly adv ▪ He turned away disgustedly and walked out the door.

disgusting adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : so unpleasant to see, smell, taste, consider, etc., that you feel slightly sick ▪ The food was disgusting. [=(informally) gross] ▪ She finds the idea of eating meat totally disgusting. [=repulsive] ▪ a disgusting [=repugnant] photograph
2 : so bad, unfair, inappropriate, etc., that you feel annoyed and angry ▪ I think the way the news media focuses on celebrities is disgusting. [=repugnant] ▪ What a disgusting way to treat people.
– dis•gust•ing•ly /dɪˈskʌstɪŋli/ adv ▪ disgustingly greasy food ▪ disgustingly filthy ▪ (informal + humorous) a disgustingly good player [=an extremely good player]

[1]dish /ˈdɪʃ/ noun, pl dish•es
1 [count] a : a shallow container that you cook or serve food in ▪ a baking/serving dish [=a container used to bake/serve food] ▪ a casserole/pie dish [=a container used to bake a casserole/pie]; specifically : a shallow bowl ▪ a candy dish [=a container used to serve candy] ▪ the cat's food/water dish b : the food served in a dish ▪ a dish of strawberries ▪ a small dish of ice cream
2 [count] : food that is prepared in a particular way ▪ Each person made a dish for the potluck supper. ▪ The restaurant serves some of my favorite dishes. ▪ a fish/pasta/potato dish [=food that has fish/pasta/potatoes as a main ingredient] ▪ The main dish [=the biggest dish of a meal] was poached salmon, and it was served with a side dish [=a food that is served at the same time as the main dish] of spinach.
3 dishes [plural] : all the things (such as plates, forks, glasses, pans, cooking utensils, etc.) that are used to prepare, serve, and eat a meal ▪ We piled all the dishes in the sink after dinner. ▪ Will you wash the breakfast dishes, please? ▪ a sink full of dirty dishes ▪ It's your turn to do the dishes. [=wash the dishes]
4 [count] a : a shallow container that holds something other than food ▪ a soap dish b : something that is shaped like a shallow bowl ▪ Do you have cable TV or a dish? [=an antenna shaped like a dish that receives television signals from a satellite] ▪ a dish antenna — see also PETRI DISH, SATELLITE DISH
5 [singular] informal + old-fashioned : a sexually attractive person ▪ I hear your cousin is a dish. [=hottie]

[2]dish verb dishes; dished; dish•ing [no obj] slang : to talk about the personal life of someone else : GOSSIP ▪ The two of them are always dishing about their coworkers.
dish out [phrasal verb] dish out (something) also dish (something) out informal 1 : to serve (food) ▪ The restaurant dishes out more than 500 meals every night. 2 : to give (something) freely or in large amounts ▪ She dishes out advice to anyone who'll listen. ▪ He's always dishing out money and gifts to his grandchildren. 3 *dish it out : to criticize other people ▪ He can dish it out, but he can't take it. [=he likes to criticize other people, but he doesn't like being criticized] dish (the) dirt see DIRT
dish up [phrasal verb] dish up (something) also dish (something) up informal : to put (food) into a dish or dishes for serving or eating ▪ dish up some soup — sometimes used figuratively ▪ The movie dishes up [=serves up] a wild mix of sex and violence.

dis•har•mo•ny /dɪsˈhɑɚməni/ noun [noncount] somewhat formal : lack of agreement that often causes unhappiness or trouble ▪ a period of disharmony [=discord] between the two groups ▪ Money problems are often a source of marital disharmony. [=strife]
– dis•har•mo•ni•ous /ˌdɪsˌhɑɚˈmoʊnijəs/ adj ▪ a disharmonious relationship dish•cloth /ˈdɪʃˌklɑːθ/ noun, pl -cloths [count] : a cloth that is used for washing dishes — called also (US) dish rag

dish detergent noun, pl ~ -gents [count, noncount] US : liquid soap that is used for washing dishes — called also (US) dishwashing detergent, (US) dishwashing liquid, (Brit) washing-up liquid dis•heart•en /dɪsˈhɑɚtn̩/ verb -ens; -ened; -en•ing [+ obj] : to cause (a person or group of people) to lose hope, enthusiasm, or courage : to discourage (someone) ▪ The conflict between their families disheartened them. — often used as (be) disheartened ▪ I was disheartened by the news.

– disheartened adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ I felt very disheartened. – disheartening adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ a disheartening failure ▪ It was disheartening to hear the news. – dis•heart•en•ing•ly adv

di•shev•eled (US) also Brit di•shev•elled /dɪˈʃɛvəld/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not neat or tidy ▪ His wrinkled suit gave him a disheveled appearance. ▪ disheveled hair ▪ They looked dirty and disheveled.

dis•hon•est /dɪsˈɑːnəst/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not honest: such as a : saying or likely to say things that are untrue ▪ I think he is being dishonest [=untruthful] about what he knows. ▪ a dishonest car dealer b : containing information that is untrue ▪ dishonest advertising ▪ She gave dishonest answers to our questions. c : used to deceive someone ▪ dishonest [=deceitful] business practices – dis•hon•est•ly adv ▪ I think she answered our questions dishonestly. ▪ They have been running their business dishonestly.

dis•hon•es•ty /dɪsˈɑːnəsti/ noun [noncount] : lack of honesty : the quality of being untruthful or deceitful ▪ dishonesty

D

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 67 SESS: 11 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:28:23 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−d

in advertising ▪ Are you accusing him of dishonesty? ▪ her dishonesty about what happened

[1]dis•hon•or (US) or Brit dis•hon•our /dɪsˈɑːnə/ noun [noncount] somewhat formal : loss or lack of honor : damage to your reputation and loss of respect from other people ▪ warriors who choose death before dishonor ▪ She found it difficult to endure the dishonor [=disgrace] of being involved in a scandal. ▪ He is afraid that his confession will bring dishonor on/upon the family. ▪ There's no dishonor in doing manual labor. [=doing manual labor does not make you unworthy of respect]

[2]dishonor (US) or Brit dishonour verb -ors; -ored; -or•ing [+ obj] somewhat formal
1 : to cause (someone or something) to lose honor : to cause (someone or something) to no longer be respected ▪ His actions dishonored [=brought dishonor on] the family. ▪ Quitting now would dishonor [=disgrace] the memory of our predecessors.
2 : to fail to do what is required by (a promise, contract, etc.) : to fail to honor (something) ▪ She dishonored her oath of office.
3 of a bank : to refuse to give out the money promised by (a check) ▪ The bank dishonored my check. ▪ a dishonored check dis•hon•or•able (US) or Brit dis•hon•our•able /dɪsˈɑːnərəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not deserving honor or respect : not morally or socially acceptable ▪ His dishonorable behavior has shamed the family. ▪ dishonorable [=shameful] conduct ▪ Her military career ended with a dishonorable discharge. [=she was forced to leave the military because of unacceptable behavior] — opposite HONORABLE – dis•hon•or•ably (US) or Brit dis•hon•our•ably /dɪsˈɑːnərəbli/ adv ▪ He behaved dishonorably.

dish•pan /ˈdɪʃˌpæn/ noun, pl -pans [count] US : a large usually plastic container with a flat bottom that holds water to wash dishes in dishpan hands noun [plural] chiefly US : hands that are red, rough, and sore because of washing a lot of dishes dish rack noun, pl ~ racks [count] US : a rack that you place dishes on so they can dry — see picture at KITCHEN

dish•rag /ˈdɪʃˌræg/ noun, pl -rags [count] US : DISHCLOTH

dish towel noun, pl ~ -els [count] US : a cloth that is used for drying dishes — called also (Brit) tea cloth, (chiefly Brit) tea towel; see picture at KITCHEN dish•ware /ˈdɪʃˌweə/ noun [noncount] chiefly US : plates, bowls, cups, etc., that are usually part of a set dish•wash•er /ˈdɪʃˌwɑːʃə/ noun, pl -ers [count]

1 : a person whose job is to wash dishes in a restaurant
2 : a machine that is used to wash dishes — see picture at KITCHEN – dish•wash•ing /ˈdɪʃˌwɑːʃɪŋ/ adj ▪ dishwashing soap dishwashing detergent noun, pl ~ -gents [count, noncount] US : DISH DETERGENT

dishwashing liquid noun, pl ~ -quids [count, noncount] US : DISH DETERGENT dish•wa•ter /ˈdɪʃˌwɑːtə/ noun [noncount] : water in which dishes have been or are going to be washed

(as) dull as dishwater US, informal : very boring or dull ▪ The conversation was as dull as dishwater. [=(Brit) as dull as ditchwater] like dishwater informal : having very little flavor — used to describe soups or drinks ▪ This coffee is like dishwater!

dishy /ˈdɪʃi/ adj dish•i•er; -est informal
1 : sexually attractive ▪ a dishy actor
2 US : containing gossip or information about a usually famous person's private life ▪ a dishy new biography dis•il•lu•sion /ˌdɪsəˈluːʒən/ verb -sions; -sioned; -sion•ing [+ obj] : to cause (someone) to stop believing that something is good, valuable, true, etc. ▪ Working at that store for six months was enough to disillusion me about retail work.

– disillusion noun [noncount] ▪ His disillusion [=disillusionment] with the job was obvious. – disillusioning adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ a very disillusioning experience – dis•il•lu•sion•ment /ˌdɪsəˈluːʒənmənt/ noun [noncount] ▪ Disillusionment with the city government grew as conditions worsened.

disillusioned adj [more ~; most ~] : having lost faith or trust in something : disappointed that something is not as good, valuable, true, etc., as it had seemed ▪ a disillusioned journalist — often + with ▪ She became more and more disillusioned with politics.

dis•in•cen•tive /ˌdɪsɪnˈsɛntɪv/ noun, pl -tives [count] : something that causes or that could cause a person to decide not to do something ▪ We considered volunteering, but the complicated application process was a disincentive. ▪ The complicated application process was a disincentive to volunteering our time. — opposite INCENTIVE

dis•in•cli•na•tion /dɪsˌɪnklɪˈneɪʃən/ noun [singular] formal : a feeling of not wanting to do something : a tendency to avoid a particular activity — usually followed by to + verb ▪ Her disinclination [=reluctance] to talk about her past made them all the more curious. — sometimes + for ▪ a disinclination for [=dislike of] outdoor work dis•in•clined /ˌdɪsɪnˈklaɪnd/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : not wanting to do something : not inclined to do something — usually followed by to + verb ▪ I'm disinclined [=reluctant] to accept her explanation. ▪ He seemed disinclined [=hesitant] to take part in the discussion.

dis•in•fect /ˌdɪsɪnˈfɛkt/ verb -fects; -fect•ed; -fect•ing [+ obj]
1 : to clean (something) especially by using a chemical substance that kills all germs and bacteria ▪ Chemicals were added to disinfect the water. ▪ The wound needs to be disinfected. ▪ a clean, disinfected knife
2 computers : to remove a virus from (a computer) by using a special program
– dis•in•fec•tion /ˌdɪsɪnˈfɛkʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ methods of water disinfection

dis•in•fect•ant /ˌdɪsɪnˈfɛktənt/ noun, pl -ants : a chemical substance that is used to kill harmful germs and bacteria : a substance that disinfects something [count] They use a strong disinfectant on the medical equipment. [noncount] a bottle of disinfectant ▪ Clean the area with disinfectant.

dis•in•for•ma•tion /dɪsˌɪnfəˈmeɪʃən/ noun [noncount] : false information that is given to people in order to make them believe something or to hide the truth ▪ The government used disinformation to gain support for the policy. ▪ a campaign of disinformation = a disinformation campaign — compare MISINFORMATION dis•in•gen•u•ous /ˌdɪsɪnˈʤɛnjəwəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : not truly honest or sincere : giving the false appearance of being honest or sincere ▪ Her recent expressions of concern are self-serving and disingenuous. ▪ a disingenuous response — compare INGENUOUS – dis•in•gen•u•ous•ly adv ▪ He claims disingenuously to have supported the plan from the beginning. – dis•in•gen•u•ous•ness noun [noncount] dis•in•her•it /ˌdɪsɪnˈherət/ verb -its; -it•ed; -it•ing [+ obj] : to prevent (someone, such as your daughter or son) from having the legal right to receive your money or property after you die ▪ She threatened to disinherit her son and leave him penniless.

dis•in•te•grate /dɪsˈɪntəˌgreɪt/ verb -grates; -grat•ed; grat•ing : to break apart into many small parts or pieces [no obj] The old iron hinge rusted and eventually disintegrated [=crumbled] into dust. ▪ The paper will disintegrate if it gets wet. — often used figuratively ▪ Their relationship gradually disintegrated. ▪ With the rise of nationalism, the colonial empires began to disintegrate. [+ obj] The laser can disintegrate most kinds of rock.
– dis•in•te•gra•tion /dɪsˌɪntəˈgreɪʃən/ noun [noncount]

dis•in•ter /ˌdɪsɪnˈtə/ verb -ters; -terred; -ter•ring [+ obj] formal : to take (a body) out of a grave or tomb : to dig up (a body) ▪ The body was disinterred for further study. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ disinter an old manuscript dis•in•ter•est /dɪsˈɪntrəst/ noun [noncount]

1 : lack of interest ▪ His proposal was met with complete disinterest. — often + in ▪ Their disinterest in politics is obvious.
2 : the quality or state of not being influenced by personal feelings, opinions, or concerns ▪ The jurors must look at the facts of the case with complete disinterest. [=objectivity, impartiality]

dis•in•ter•est•ed /dɪsˈɪntrəstəd/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : not influenced by personal feelings, opinions, or concerns ▪ A disinterested [=unbiased, impartial] third party mediated the dispute. ▪ the disinterested pursuit of truth
2 : having no desire to know about a particular thing : not interested — often + in ▪ They are obviously disinterested [=uninterested] in politics. ✧ This sense is commonly used but some people consider it to be incorrect and say that "uninterested" should be used instead.
– dis•in•ter•est•ed•ly adv ▪ observing disinterestedly

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 68 SESS: 31 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:28:23 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-d

– dis•in•ter•est•ed•ness noun [noncount] ▪ the disinterestedness of judges dis•in•vest /ˌdɪsɪnˈvɛst/ verb -vests; -vest•ed; -vest•ing [no obj] finance : to take your money out of an area, industry, company, etc., by selling property, shares, or stock ▪ Several companies have disinvested from the country to protest its human rights policies. ▪ disinvesting in real estate

– dis•in•vest•ment /ˌdɪsɪnˈvɛstmənt/ noun [noncount] ▪ disinvestment in real estate

dis•joint•ed /dɪsˈʤɔɪntəd/ adj [more ~; most ~] : lacking order and organization ▪ She could hardly follow their disjointed [=incoherent, disconnected] conversation. ▪ a disjointed narrative/book dis•junc•tion /dɪsˈʤʌŋkʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count] formal : a lack of connection between things that are related or should be connected — often + between ▪ It is difficult to reconcile the disjunction between what he says and what he does.

dis•junc•tive /dɪsˈʤʌŋktɪv/ adj, grammar : showing choice or opposition ▪ "Or" and "but" are disjunctive conjunctions.

– disjunctive noun, pl -tives [count] ▪ "Or" and "but" are disjunctives.

dis•junc•ture /dɪsˈʤʌŋkʧɚ/ noun, pl -tures [count] formal : DISJUNCTION disk variant spelling of DISC disk drive noun, pl ~ drives [count] : a computer part that holds a computer disk or set of disks and that reads data from and copies data to disks dis•kette /ˌdɪˈskɛt/ noun, pl -kettes [count] computers : FLOPPY DISK

[1]dis•like /dɪsˈlaɪk/ verb -likes; -liked; -lik•ing [+ obj] : to not like (something or someone) : to feel dislike for (something or someone) ▪ I dislike basketball, but I enjoy baseball. ▪ She dislikes [=she does not like] the cold weather. ▪ He dislikes being interviewed. ▪ Most people dislike it when they are told what to do.

[2]dislike noun, pl -likes

1 [singular] : a feeling of not liking or approving of something or someone — often + of or for ▪ His dislike of cats was obvious. ▪ She developed a general dislike for journalists. ✧ If you take a dislike to someone or something, you begin to not like that person or thing. ▪ They took an instant dislike to the new neighbors.

2 [count] : something that you do not like, approve of, or enjoy — usually plural ▪ among his dislikes ▪ He soon knew all of her likes and dislikes.

dis•lo•cate /ˈdɪsloʊˌkeɪt/ verb -cates; -cat•ed; -cat•ing [+ obj]

1 medical : to move (a bone) out of its normal location or position in a joint ▪ She fell and dislocated her shoulder.

2 chiefly US, formal : to force (someone or something) to move from a place or position ▪ The new hotel will dislocate several businesses. ▪ Thousands of workers have been dislocated by the latest economic crisis.

3 formal : to cause (a business, system, etc.) to change in some major way : to stop (something) from functioning as it used to function ▪ economies dislocated [=disrupted] by war

– dislocated adj ▪ a dislocated shoulder/finger/hip/wrist ▪ (US) thousands of dislocated workers – dis•lo•ca•tion /ˌdɪsloʊˈkeɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count] patients with fractures and dislocations ▪ the dislocations of war [noncount] The brace will prevent recurring hip dislocation. ▪ social and economic dislocation dis•lodge /dɪsˈlɑːʤ/ verb -lodg•es; -lodged; -lodg•ing [+ obj] : to forcefully remove (something or someone) from a place or position ▪ The earthquake dislodged several boulders from the cliff. ▪ He kicked at the stone to dislodge it. ▪ The army has dislodged enemy forces from their stronghold.

dis•loy•al /dɪsˈlɔjəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : failing to support or be true to someone or something : not loyal or faithful to your friends, family, country, etc. ▪ It would be disloyal to abandon them. ▪ disloyal employees — often + to ▪ a traitor disloyal to his country

– dis•loy•al•ty /dɪsˈlɔjəlti/ noun [noncount] ▪ His disloyalty to the company led to his dismissal.

dis•mal /ˈdɪzməl/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : showing or causing unhappiness or sad feelings : not warm, cheerful, etc. ▪ a dark, dismal room ▪ dismal [=gloomy, dreary] weather ▪ The barren landscape looks dismal [=bleak, desolate] in winter.

2 : very bad or poor ▪ The show was a dismal failure. ▪ a dismal performance ▪ The team's record is dismal.

– dis•mal•ly adv ▪ The show failed dismally.

dis•man•tle /dɪsˈmæntl/ verb -man•tles; -man•tled; -man•tling [+ obj]

1 : to take (something, such as a machine or structure) apart so that it is in separate pieces ▪ The mechanic dismantled the engine to repair it. ▪ When will they dismantle the old bridge? ▪ a dismantled power plant

2 : to destroy (something) in an orderly way : to gradually cause (something) to come to an end ▪ The after-school program was dismantled due to lack of funding. ▪ He accuses them of trying to dismantle the country's legal system.

– dis•man•tle•ment /dɪsˈmæntlmənt/ noun [noncount] ▪ the dismantlement of the power plant – dismantling noun [noncount] ▪ the dismantling of old factories ▪ the dismantling of government programs

[1]dis•may /dɪsˈmeɪ/ verb -mays; -mayed; -may•ing [+ obj] : to cause (someone) to feel very worried, disappointed, or upset ▪ Her choice of career dismays her parents. ▪ What especially dismayed [=upset, bothered] me was that no one else protested.

– dismayed adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ She was very dismayed to learn/discover that he was so ill. ▪ I was dismayed by/at his indifference. – dismaying adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ her dismaying indifference – dis•may•ing•ly /dɪsˈmejɪŋli/ adv ▪ dismayingly indifferent

[2]dismay noun [noncount] : a strong feeling of being worried, disappointed, or upset ▪ His comments were met with cries of dismay. ▪ They watched in dismay as the house burned. ▪ Much to the dismay of her fans, she announced her retirement immediately after the book's release. ▪ To my dismay, I did not get chosen for the job. ▪ We listened with dismay to the news of the accident.

dis•mem•ber /dɪsˈmɛmbɚ/ verb -bers; -bered; -ber•ing [+ obj]

1 : to cut or tear (a body) into pieces ▪ The victims' bodies had been dismembered and buried in the basement. ▪ a dismembered corpse

2 formal : to separate (something) into smaller parts ▪ dismembering a corporate empire

– dis•mem•ber•ment /dɪsˈmɛmbɚmənt/ noun, pl -ments [count, noncount]

dis•miss /dɪsˈmɪs/ verb -miss•es; -missed; -mis•sing [+ obj]

1 : to decide not to think about or consider (something or someone) ▪ We dismissed his accusations. ▪ We can't completely dismiss [=discount] the possibility that she's right. ▪ I don't think we should dismiss the matter lightly. — often + as ▪ His idea was dismissed as impractical. ▪ For a long time they dismissed her as a silly old woman.

2 : to send (someone) away : to cause or allow (someone) to leave ▪ The students were dismissed early because of the snowstorm. ▪ Class is dismissed. [=the class is over and students are free to leave]

3 : to officially make (someone) leave a job : to end the employment or service of (someone) ▪ He was dismissed [=fired] from his job. ▪ Several employees were recently dismissed.

4 law : to officially end or stop (something, such as a legal case) ▪ The judge dismissed the case/suit. ▪ All charges were dismissed. [=dropped]

– dis•miss•al /dɪsˈmɪsəl/ noun, pl -als [count] I was surprised by his dismissal of the idea. ▪ A small group is protesting the dismissals of several employees. ▪ the dismissal of the lawsuit [noncount] He still hopes to win his claim for unfair dismissal.

dis•miss•ive /dɪsˈmɪsɪv/ adj

1 : refusing to think about or consider something or someone — usually + of ▪ He was dismissive of my idea.

2 : showing that you do not think something or someone is worth thinking about or considering ▪ a dismissive remark ▪ a dismissive wave of the hand

– dis•miss•ive•ly adv ▪ He spoke dismissively about the accident. ▪ She laughed dismissively [=scornfully] when I expressed admiration for the book.

dis•mount /dɪsˈmaʊnt/ verb -mounts; -mount•ed; -mount•ing [no obj] : to get down from something (such as a horse or bicycle) ▪ The cyclist dismounted and walked her bike across the street. ▪ The gymnast dismounted from the parallel bars. — opposite MOUNT

– dismount noun, pl -mounts [count] ▪ the gymnast's perfect dismount

dis•obe•di•ence /ˌdɪsəˈbiːdijəns/ noun [noncount] : refusal or failure to obey rules, laws, etc. : a lack of obedience ▪ The

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 69 SESS: 11 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:28:24 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-d

student's disobedience shocked the teacher. ▪ The dog was punished for its disobedience. — see also CIVIL DISOBEDIENCE dis•obe•di•ent /ˌdɪsəˈbi:dijənt/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not doing what someone or something with authority tells you to do : refusing or failing to obey rules, laws, etc. ▪ The disobedient soldier was given cleanup duty. ▪ The dog was being disobedient. — opposite OBEDIENT – dis•obe•di•ent•ly adv

dis•obey /ˌdɪsəˈbeɪ/ verb -obeys; -obeyed; -obey•ing : to not do what someone or something with authority tells you to do : to refuse or fail to obey rules, laws, etc. [no obj] If you disobey, you will be severely punished. [+ obj] The soldier disobeyed the general's orders. ▪ He was afraid to disobey his father. ▪ The driver had disobeyed the law.

dis•or•der /dɪsˈoədə/ noun, pl -ders
1 [noncount] : a confused or messy state : a lack of order or organization ▪ People who witnessed the tragedy describe a scene of disorder [=chaos] as rescuers tried to find survivors. ▪ The filing system was thrown into disorder [=was disrupted or upset] when the computer program malfunctioned. — often used with in ▪ His finances were in complete disorder. [=his finances were not organized] ▪ The clothes/papers were in (a state of) disorder. — opposite ORDER
2 [noncount] : a state or situation in which there is a lot of noise, crime, violent behavior, etc. ▪ The mayor is concerned that a rally could create/cause public disorder. ▪ problems of crime and social disorder — opposite ORDER
3 medical : a physical or mental condition that is not normal or healthy [count] A dermatologist treats disorders [=diseases] of the skin. ▪ an eating disorder ▪ a disorder of the blood = a blood disorder [noncount] Millions of people suffer from some form of personality/mental disorder.

dis•or•dered /dɪsˈoədəd/ adj
1 [more ~; most ~] : in a confused or messy state : having a lack of order or organization ▪ The project was in a disordered state. ▪ The file was completely disordered. — opposite ORDERED 2 medical : not working in a normal, healthy way ▪ a disordered mind ▪ The child is emotionally disordered. [=(more commonly) disturbed] dis•or•der•ly /dɪsˈoədəli/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : causing a problem especially in a public place by making a lot of noise, behaving violently, etc. ▪ Two disorderly [=unruly] persons were arrested. ▪ She was charged with being drunk and disorderly. ▪ He was found guilty of disorderly conduct.
2 : not neat or orderly ▪ A disorderly [=disordered] pile of papers covered most of her desk.

dis•or•ga•nized also Brit dis•or•ga•nised /dɪsˈoəgəˌnaɪzd/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not organized: such as a : not arranged or planned in a particular way ▪ The meeting was very disorganized. b : not having parts arranged in a neat and effective way ▪ a disorganized essay ▪ a disorganized desk c : not able to keep things arranged in a neat or effective way ▪ He is very disorganized. ▪ disorganized students
– dis•or•ga•ni•za•tion also Brit dis•or•ga•ni•sa•tion /dɪsˌoəgənəˈzeɪʃən, Brit dɪsˌɔ:gəˌnaɪˈzeɪʃən/ noun [noncount]

dis•ori•ent /dɪsˈorijənt/ verb -ents; -ent•ed; -ent•ing [+ obj] : to make (someone) lost or confused ▪ Thick fog can disorient even an experienced hiker. — compare ORIENT – dis•ori•en•ta•tion /dɪsˌorijənˈteɪʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ The medication may cause drowsiness and disorientation.
– disoriented adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ The patient became increasingly disoriented as the illness progressed. ▪ a disoriented hiker – disorienting adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ It's disorienting to wake up in total darkness.

dis•ori•en•tate /dɪsˈorijənˌteɪt/ verb -tates; -tat•ed; -tat•ing [+ obj] chiefly Brit : DISORIENT dis•own /dɪsˈoʊn/ verb -owns; -owned; -own•ing [+ obj] : to say or decide that you will no longer be connected with, associated with, or responsible for (someone or something) ▪ Her parents threatened to disown her if she didn't go back to school. ▪ He was disowned for bringing shame to the family.

dis•par•age /dɪˈsperɪʤ/ verb -ag•es; -aged; -ag•ing [+ obj] formal : to describe (someone or something) as unimportant, weak, bad, etc. ▪ Voters don't like political advertisements in which opponents disparage one another. ▪ It's a mistake to disparage their achievements. ▪ The article disparaged polo as a game for the wealthy.
– dis•par•age•ment /dɪˈsperɪʤmənt/ noun [noncount] ▪ a term of disparagement ▪ the author's relentless disparagement of politicians – disparaging adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ I heard her making disparaging remarks about her coworkers. – dis•par•ag•ing•ly adv ▪ He referred disparagingly to his car as "an old clunker."

dis•par•ate /ˈdɪspərət/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : different from each other ▪ The conversation covered topics as disparate [=diverse] as fashion and biology. ▪ disparate cultures ▪ music that combines/blends disparate [=dissimilar] elements dis•par•i•ty /dɪˈsperəti/ noun, pl -ties formal : a noticeable and often unfair difference between people or things [count] problems that exist when there is a disparity of power [=when one person, group, etc., has much more power than another] ▪ There is a great disparity between (the) rich and (the) poor in this country. ▪ The age disparity between the players is obvious. [noncount] the region's increasing income disparity dis•pas•sion•ate /dɪsˈpæʃənət/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not influenced or affected by emotions ▪ Journalists aim to be dispassionate observers. ▪ He spoke in a dispassionate tone about the accident.

– dis•pas•sion•ate•ly adv [more ~; most ~]

[1]dis•patch also Brit des•patch /dɪˈspæʧ/ verb -patch•es; -patched; -patch•ing [+ obj]
1 : to send (someone or something) quickly to a particular place for a particular purpose ▪ Rescue workers were immediately dispatched to the area. ▪ The hotel dispatched a limo to pick us up from the airport. ▪ (formal) The message was dispatched to the general.
2 : to defeat (a person or team) in a game, contest, etc. ▪ She easily dispatched [=(more commonly) beat] her opponent.
3 old-fashioned : to kill (a person or animal) quickly ▪ He dispatched the guard with one bullet.

[2]dispatch also Brit despatch noun, pl -patches
1 [count] : an important official message ▪ The general sent a dispatch to headquarters. ✧ In British English, a soldier who is mentioned in dispatches is noted for bravery.
2 [noncount] somewhat formal : the act of sending someone or something to a particular place for a particular purpose ▪ He requested the immediate dispatch of supplies/troops.
3 [count] : a news story that a reporter sends to a newspaper usually from a foreign country ▪ The reporter sent many dispatches from the war zone.
with dispatch formal : in a quick and efficient way ▪ The problem was handled with dispatch.

dispatch box also despatch box noun, pl ~ boxes Brit
1 the Dispatch Box : a box on a table in the House of Commons that important government officials stand behind when speaking
2 [count] : a container for holding important documents

dis•patch•er /dɪˈspæʧə/ noun, pl -ers [count] US
1 : someone whose job is to talk by radio with people in vehicles (such as police cars, ambulances, or taxis) in order to send them to a particular place
2 : someone who is in charge of the departure of trains, airplanes, buses, trucks, etc.

dispatch rider also Brit despatch rider noun, pl ~ -ers [count] chiefly Brit : someone who delivers messages or packages especially by traveling on a motorcycle dis•pel /dɪˈspɛl/ verb -pels; -pelled; -pel•ling [+ obj] : to make (something, such as a belief, feeling, or idea) go away or end ▪ This report should dispel any doubts you have about the plan. ▪ She made an official statement to dispel any rumors about her retirement. ▪ The experience dispelled some of our fears about the process.

dis•pens•able /dɪˈspɛnsəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not necessary or required ▪ Computers have made typewriters dispensable. ▪ Do you consider any of the staff to be dispensable? ▪ dispensable luxuries — opposite INDISPENSABLE dis•pen•sa•ry /dɪˈspɛnsəri/ noun, pl -ries [count] : a place where medicine or minor medical treatment is given ▪ a hospital dispensary

dis•pen•sa•tion /ˌdɪspənˈseɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions formal
1 : permission to break a law or an official promise you have made : release from a rule, vow, or oath [noncount] The priest asked for dispensation from his vows. [count] The state gave the town a special dispensation, allowing it to ignore the law in this case.
2 [singular] : an act of providing something to people ▪ The ship's doctor handled the dispensation [=distribution] of medicine. ▪ a speedy dispensation [=administration] of justice

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 70 SESS: 11 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:28:24 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-d

dis•pense /dɪˈspɛns/ verb -pens•es; -pensed; -pens•ing [+ obj]
1 : to give or provide (something) ▪ The ATM only dispenses $20 bills. ▪ A judge's job is to dispense [=administer] justice. ▪ a newspaper columnist who dispenses advice to millions of readers each week
2 : to prepare and give (medicine) ▪ Pharmacists are certified to dispense medication.
dispense with [phrasal verb] dispense with (something) formal : to no longer use or require (something) : to get rid of (something) ▪ Let's dispense with the usual introductions and get down to business. ▪ The new cleaning process will dispense with the need for ventilation.

dis•pens•er /dɪˈspɛnsɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count]
1 : a machine or container that lets you take small amounts of something ▪ a paper towel dispenser ▪ a soap/tape dispenser
2 : a person or organization that gives or provides something to people ▪ hospitals and other health-care dispensers — often + of ▪ A teacher should be more than a dispenser of knowledge.

dis•perse /dɪˈspɚs/ verb -pers•es; -persed; -pers•ing
: to go or move in different directions : to spread apart [no obj] Police ordered the crowd to disperse. ▪ The clouds dispersed [=broke], revealing blue sky above. ▪ The fog gradually dispersed [=dissipated, vanished] as the day grew warmer. [+ obj] Police dispersed the protesters.
– dis•per•sal /dɪˈspɚsəl/ noun [noncount] ▪ The police are trained in crowd dispersal. – dis•per•sion /dɪˈspɚʒən/ noun [noncount] technical ▪ Laws were established to limit the dispersion of pollutants.

dis•pir•it•ed /dɪˈspɪrətəd/ adj [more ~; most ~] : feeling unhappy and without hope or enthusiasm ▪ The loss left the team dispirited. [=disheartened, discouraged] ▪ dispirited supporters — opposite SPIRITED – dis•pir•it•ed•ly adv ▪ The team sat dispiritedly on the bench.

dis•pir•it•ing /dɪˈspɪrətɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~] : causing a loss of hope or enthusiasm ▪ It was very dispiriting [=discouraging, disheartening] to lose yet another game. ▪ a dispiriting failure dis•place /dɪˈspleɪs/ verb -plac•es; -placed; -plac•ing [+ obj]

1 : to take the job or position of (someone or something) ▪ Many of the company's workers were displaced [=replaced] by machines. ▪ Some say football has displaced [=replaced, supplanted] baseball as America's national pastime.
2 a : to force (people or animals) to leave the area where they live ▪ The war has displaced thousands of people. ▪ The hurricane displaced most of the town's residents. ▪ animals displaced by wildfire b chiefly US : to remove (someone) from a job or position ▪ The closing of the factory has displaced many workers.
3 : to move (something) so that it is no longer in its original or regular location or position ▪ farming practices that displace large amounts of soil ▪ (technical) The ship displaces 20,000 tons (of water).
– displaced adj ▪ a crisis involving thousands of displaced persons/people [=people who have been forced to leave the area/country where they live]

dis•place•ment /dɪˈspleɪsmənt/ noun, pl -ments
1 : the act of displacing something: such as a : the act of forcing people or animals to leave the area where they live [noncount] The war has caused the displacement of thousands of people. [count] population displacements b : the movement of something from its original or regular position [count] displacements in the Earth's crust [noncount] soil displacement caused by farming
2 [count] technical : the amount of water that is moved by an object when it is placed in water — usually singular ▪ The ship has a very large displacement.

[1]dis•play /dɪˈspleɪ/ verb -plays; -played; -play•ing [+ obj]
1 : to put (something) where people can see it ▪ Students displayed their projects at the science fair. ▪ The results are displayed [=shown] on the computer screen. ▪ Toys were displayed in the store window. ▪ Her awards are prominently/proudly displayed on the mantel. ▪ The museum displays relics found during the excavation of the site. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ The tree displays pretty pink flowers in the spring.
2 : to show that you have (an emotion, quality, skill, etc.) ▪ He displayed no emotion when I told him the news. ▪ I was impressed by the care she displayed in making the flower arrangements. ▪ The children displayed [=exhibited] no interest in learning how to play the piano. ▪ The rookie player displayed great skill. ▪ The company has displayed exceptional dedication to this community.

[2]display noun, pl -plays [count]
1 : an arrangement of objects intended to decorate, advertise, entertain, or inform people about something ▪ Each table had a beautiful display of flowers. = Each table had a beautiful flower display. ▪ the bookstore's display of dictionaries = the bookstore's dictionary display ▪ The library's current display features locally made crafts. ▪ There is a display [=exhibit, exhibition] of his early paintings at the museum. ▪ Her trophies are in a display case/cabinet. ▪ a store's window display [=a display of products shown in a store's window]
2 : an event at which something is done or shown to impress or entertain people ▪ The celebration ended with a spectacular fireworks display.
3 : an action, performance, etc., which shows very clearly that you have some ability, feeling, quality, etc. — usually + of ▪ a display of anger ▪ In a remarkable display of generosity, the students gave the money they had raised for the class trip to their sick classmate. ▪ the soccer player's impressive display of footwork ▪ shocking displays of wealth in a country of extreme poverty ▪ He disapproved of their public displays of affection. [=hugging, kissing, etc., in public]
4 : an electronic device (such as a computer monitor) that shows information ▪ The computer comes with a high-resolution color display. ▪ The display showed an error message. ▪ a calculator's display screen
5 biology : a way of behaving that a bird or animal uses to show another bird or animal that it wants to mate, fight, etc. ▪ courtship/threat displays on display : put somewhere for people to see : in a display ▪ Autographed baseballs are on display at the show. ▪ Only a few of the artifacts will be put on display. = Only a few of the artifacts will go on display.

dis•please /dɪsˈpliːz/ verb -pleas•es; -pleased; -pleas•ing [+ obj] : to make (someone) feel unhappy or annoyed ▪ What I said obviously displeased her. = She was obviously displeased by what I said. — opposite PLEASE – displeased adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ She looked displeased when I told her about it. ▪ We're very displeased with the delays. – displeasing adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ visually displeasing buildings dis•plea•sure /dɪsˈplɛʒɚ/ noun [noncount] : a feeling of unhappiness or annoyance ▪ The meeting will give people who object to the policy a chance to voice/express their displeasure. ▪ Fans showed their displeasure at the umpire's call by booing loudly.

[1]dis•pos•able /dɪˈspoʊzəbəl/ adj
1 : made to be used once or only a few times : made to be thrown away after one use or several uses ▪ disposable diapers/razors
2 somewhat formal : available to be used ▪ disposable resources/assets ▪ I don't have enough disposable income [=income that is left after paying taxes and for things that are essential, such as food and housing] to buy such luxuries.

[2]disposable noun, pl -ables [count] : something that is made to be thrown away after it is used once — usually plural ▪ Do you use cloth diapers or disposables? [=disposable diapers]

dis•pos•al /dɪˈspoʊzəl/ noun, pl -als
1 [noncount] : the act of disposing of something: such as a : the act of throwing something away ▪ trash disposal ▪ the disposal of nuclear waste b law : the act of giving control or ownership of land, possessions, etc., to someone ▪ the disposal of property
2 [count] US : GARBAGE DISPOSAL
at someone's disposal : available for someone to use ▪ We had plenty of money at our disposal. ▪ I'm at your disposal. [=I'm ready to do whatever you would like me to do] ▪ They are using every legal tool at their disposal to prevent the bridge from being built.

dis•pose /dɪˈspoʊz/ verb -pos•es; -posed; -pos•ing [+ obj] formal
1 : to cause (someone) to be likely to do or have something — + to or toward ▪ His upbringing disposes him to question authority. ▪ people whose genes dispose them toward a particular disease
2 always followed by an adverb or preposition : to put (someone or something) in a particular position or place ▪ The troops/cottages were disposed [=(more commonly) arranged] along either side of the river.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 71 SESS: 31 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:28:25 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-d

D

dispose of [phrasal verb] 1 dispose of (something) a : to throw (something) away : to get rid of (something) ▪ The waste was not properly disposed of. ▪ Please dispose of your cigarette butts in one of the ashtrays available. b formal : to deal with and finish (something) ▪ I have some business to dispose of [=(less formally) wrap up, take care of] before we meet. c law : to give control or ownership of (land, possessions, etc.) to someone ▪ A will is a legal document that is used to dispose of property. 2 dispose of (someone or something) a : to defeat (a person or team) in a game, contest, etc. ▪ She easily disposed of her opponent. b : to kill (a person or animal) ▪ The article includes a list of the weapons the soldiers used to dispose of their enemies.

disposed adj, not used before a noun, formal

1 : wanting to do something or likely to do something ▪ Join us for dinner if you feel so disposed. [=if you want to] ▪ dogs that are naturally disposed toward fighting — usually followed by to + verb ▪ He disagreed but was not disposed [=inclined] to argue. ▪ Many people seem disposed to distrust salespeople.

2 : feeling or thinking in a specified way about something — usually + to or toward ▪ They were favorably/unfavorably disposed to/toward the idea. [=they liked/disliked the idea] — see also ILL-DISPOSED, WELL-DISPOSED dis•po•si•tion /ˌdɪspəˈzɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions

1 [count] : the usual attitude or mood of a person or animal ▪ He always had a cheerful/nervous disposition. [=temperament, personality] ▪ It's nice to work with someone who has such a sunny disposition. [=who is usually cheerful] ▪ a dog with an excellent disposition

2 formal a [singular] : a tendency to act or think in a particular way ▪ Her disposition was to always think negatively. ▪ He has a disposition toward criminal behavior. b [count] : a tendency to develop a disease, condition, etc. ▪ people with a genetic disposition toward a particular disease

3 formal : the act or power of officially or legally giving land, possessions, etc., to someone [count] the philanthropist's charitable dispositions [=(less formally) donations] [noncount] A will is a legal document that is used in the disposition of property.

4 [count] formal : the way things are placed or arranged — usually singular; often + of ▪ The map showed the disposition of troops on the border.

dis•pos•sess /ˌdɪspəˈzɛs/ verb -sess•es; -sessed; -sess•ing [+ obj] formal : to take land, possessions, etc., from (someone) ▪ The land was settled by dispossessing the native people who lived here. — often + of ▪ The new regime dispossessed many people of their land.

– dis•pos•ses•sion /ˌdɪspəˈzɛʃən/ noun [noncount]

dispossessed adj, always used before a noun, formal : having had your land, possessions, etc., taken away from you ▪ The organization helps dispossessed people rebuild their lives.

the dispossessed : people whose land, possessions, etc., have been taken away from them ▪ helping the poor and the dispossessed dis•pro•por•tion /ˌdɪsprəˈpoəʃən/ noun, pl -tions formal : a difference that is not fair, reasonable, or expected [count] The author does not explain the disproportion [=(more commonly) disparity] between the value of the stones. [noncount] His salary is in disproportion to what people who have similar jobs earn.

– dis•pro•por•tion•al /ˌdɪsprəˈpoəʃənl/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ The punishment was disproportional [=(more commonly) disproportionate] to the crime. – dis•pro•por•tion•al•ly adv [more ~; most ~] dis•pro•por•tion•ate /ˌdɪsprəˈpoəʃənət/ adj [more ~; most ~] : having or showing a difference that is not fair, reasonable, or expected : too large or too small in relation to something ▪ He believes that middle-class people bear a disproportionate share of the tax burden. ▪ A disproportionate number of the students are poor. — often + to ▪ The organization's political influence is disproportionate to its size.

– dis•pro•por•tion•ate•ly adv [more ~; most ~] ▪ A disproportionately high number of the students are poor.

dis•prove /dɪsˈpruːv/ verb -proves; -proved or chiefly US -prov•en /dɪsˈpruːvən/; -prov•ing [+ obj] : to show that (something) is false or wrong ▪ disprove [=refute] an argument/claim — often used as (be) disproved ▪ The theory has been disproved. — opposite PROVE dis•put•able /dɪˈspjuːtəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not yet proved or shown to be true : likely to be questioned or doubted ▪ The source of the text is disputable. [=debatable] ▪ a disputable claim ▪ The conclusion was based on disputable [=questionable] evidence. — opposite INDISPUTABLE

– dis•put•ably /dɪˈspjuːtəbli/ adv ▪ It's been proved indisputably.

dis•pu•tant /dɪˈspjuːtnt, Brit ˈdɪspjətənt/ noun, pl -tants [count] formal : a person who is involved in a dispute and especially in a legal dispute dis•pu•ta•tion /ˌdɪspjəˈteɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions formal : a disagreement or argument [count] legal disputations [noncount] years of debate and disputation

– dis•pu•ta•tious /ˌdɪspjəˈteɪʃəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ a disputatious person [=a person who often disagrees and argues with other people]

[1]dis•pute /dɪˈspjuːt/ noun, pl -putes : a disagreement or argument [count] They could not settle their dispute. ▪ legal disputes ▪ There is a labor dispute between workers and management. ▪ The two farmers are involved in a land dispute. ▪ a domestic dispute [=an argument between people who live together] — often + over or about ▪ There was a dispute [=disagreement] over/about what to do with the extra money. [noncount] There is dispute [=debate] among scholars as to the source of the text. = The source of the text is a matter/subject of dispute among scholars. ▪ The matter/issue is still in dispute. [=people still disagree about it] ▪ The drug's effectiveness is beyond dispute. [=it is certain that the drug is effective] ▪ How it happened is open to dispute. [=people disagree about how it happened]

[2]dispute verb -putes; -put•ed; -put•ing

1 [+ obj] : to say or show that (something) may not be true, correct, or legal ▪ The lawyer disputed [=challenged] the witness's statement. ▪ You can dispute your bill if you believe it is inaccurate. ▪ She disputed the claim. ▪ These estimates are hotly/much disputed by scientists. ▪ No one ever disputed that it was the right decision. ▪ There is no disputing the drug's effectiveness. [=it is certain that the drug is effective]

2 : to argue about (something) [+ obj] The source of the text has been disputed for centuries. ▪ We were disputing [=debating] whether we should call the police or look for the thief ourselves. [no obj] It's no use disputing [=(more commonly) arguing] with them.

3 [+ obj] formal : to fight in order to take control of (something) ▪ a part of the city where two drug gangs are disputing territory

– disputed adj ▪ a disputed phone bill ▪ various disputed claims/questions ▪ the disputed territory/area/land

dis•qual•i•fy /dɪsˈkwɑːləˌfaɪ/ verb - es ; - ed ; -fy•ing [+ obj] : to stop or prevent (someone) from doing, having, or being a part of something ▪ His poor eyesight disqualified him from becoming a pilot. ▪ The judge might disqualify [=bar] her from serving on the jury. — usually used as (be) disqualified ▪ The winner was later disqualified for cheating. ▪ (Brit) He was disqualified from driving for three months. [=he was not allowed to drive for three months]

– dis•qual•i• •ca•tion /dɪsˌkwɑːləfəˈkeɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [noncount] A positive drug test is grounds/reason for disqualification. [count] What are the disqualifications for military service?

[1]dis•qui•et /dɪsˈkwajət/ verb -ets; -eted; -et•ing [+ obj] formal : to make (someone) worried or nervous — usually used as (be) disquieted ▪ We were disquieted by the news.

– disquieting adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ We found the news disquieting. ▪ The letter gave disquieting news of the war.

[2]disquiet noun [noncount] formal : a feeling of worry or nervousness ▪ There is increasing public disquiet about/over the number of violent crimes in the city. ▪ The falling stock prices have caused great disquiet [=concern] among shareholders.

dis•qui•si•tion /ˌdɪskwəˈzɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count] formal : a long speech or written report on a subject ▪ a lengthy disquisition on foreign policy

[1]dis•re•gard /ˌdɪsrɪˈgaəd/ verb -gards; -gard•ed; -gard•ing [+ obj] : to ignore (something) or treat (something) as unimportant ▪ Please disregard what I said before. ▪ He disregarded his father's advice and left school. ▪ Some students completely disregard the rules of the school.

[2]disregard noun : the act of ignoring something or treating something as unimportant [noncount] They treated the rules with complete/total disregard. — usually + for or of ▪ the government's casual disregard for the rights of its citizens ▪ The terrorists acted in complete/total disregard of human life. ▪ The judge found that the statements were made with reckless disregard for/of the truth. [singular] — usually + for or of ▪ Some students show a complete disregard for the rules of the school. ▪ a disregard of the evidence dis•re•pair /ˌdɪsrɪˈpeɚ/ noun [noncount] : the state of needing to be repaired : bad condition ▪ The lighthouse was in disrepair until the volunteers cleaned it up. ▪ A number of major bridges are in (states of) disrepair. ▪ After years of neglect, the house fell into disrepair.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 72 SESS: 50 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:28:25 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-d

dis•rep•u•ta•ble /dɪsˈrɛpjətəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : not respected or trusted by most people : having a bad reputation ▪ disreputable people ▪ The company was using disreputable [=dishonest] hiring practices. — opposite REPUTABLE

dis•re•pute /ˌdɪsrɪˈpjuːt/ noun [noncount] formal : a state of not being respected or trusted by most people : a state of having a bad reputation ▪ The theory has been in disrepute for years. ▪ The star player's drug use will bring the game into disrepute. [=give the game a bad reputation; make people not respect the game] ▪ The technique has fallen into disrepute. [=it is no longer respected or trusted]

[1]dis•re•spect /ˌdɪsrɪˈspɛkt/ noun : speech or behavior which shows that you do not think someone or something is valuable, important, etc. : lack of respect [noncount] The student treated the teacher with disrespect. ▪ With no disrespect to the other players [=I do not mean to say that other players are not good], he is clearly the star of the team. ▪ I'm sorry. I meant no disrespect. [singular] He showed a shocking disrespect for authority.

– dis•re•spect•ful /ˌdɪsrɪˈspɛktfəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ She was very disrespectful to the teacher. ▪ disrespectful behavior – dis•re•spect•ful•ly adv

[2]disrespect verb -spects; -spect•ed; -spect•ing [+ obj] : to say or do something that shows a lack of respect for (someone or something) ▪ He disrespected [=insulted] the police officer. ▪ He was angry because he felt he had been disrespected. [=treated with disrespect] dis•robe /dɪsˈroʊb/ verb -robes; -robed; -rob•ing formal 1 [no obj] : to remove your clothes : UNDRESS ▪ She disrobed and stepped into the bathtub.

2 [+ obj] : to remove the clothes of (someone) : UNDRESS ▪ She disrobed herself.

dis•rupt /dɪsˈrʌpt/ verb -rupts; -rupt•ed; -rupt•ing [+ obj] : to cause (something) to be unable to continue in the normal way : to interrupt the normal progress or activity of (something) ▪ Protesters disrupted the conference. ▪ The barking dogs disrupted my sleep. ▪ The weather disrupted our travel plans. ▪ a chemical that disrupts cell function

– dis•rup•tion /dɪsˈrʌpʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count] The construction caused disruptions in bus service. ▪ The chemical causes a disruption of cell function. [noncount] The change will be made with minimal disruption of service. – dis•rup•tive /dɪsˈrʌptɪv/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ disruptive behavior ▪ She has a disruptive influence on the other students. – dis•rup•tive•ly adv

diss variant spelling of DIS

dis•sat•is•fac•tion /dɪsˌsætəsˈfækʃən/ noun, pl -tions : a feeling of unhappiness or disapproval [count] — usually singular ▪ We're aware of a growing dissatisfaction among group members. ▪ She expressed her dissatisfaction with the restaurant's service. [noncount] There was widespread dissatisfaction with the President and his administration. ▪ a source of dissatisfaction — opposite SATISFACTION dis•sat•is• ed /dɪsˈsætəsˌfaɪd/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not happy or pleased ▪ dissatisfied customers — often + with ▪ He was dissatisfied with his job. — opposite SATISFIED; compare UNSATISFIED dis•sat•is•fy /dɪsˈsætəsˌfaɪ/ verb - es ; - ed ; -fy•ing [+ obj] : to fail to make (someone) happy or pleased ▪ Their final decision dissatisfied [=displeased] everyone. ▪ She was dissatisfied by the poor service. — opposite SATISFY

– dissatisfying adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ a dissatisfying experience ▪ The movie was dissatisfying.

dis•sect /daɪˈsɛkt, dɪˈsɛkt/ verb -sects; -sect•ed; -sect•ing [+ obj]
1 : to cut (a plant or dead animal) into separate parts in order to study it ▪ We dissected a frog in science class.
2 : to study or examine (something) closely and carefully : ANALYZE ▪ She dissected each point of his argument. ▪ We dissected the poem in class.
3 : to divide (something) into parts ▪ Streams dissect the land. ▪ The city is dissected by a network of highways.

– dis•sec•tion /daɪˈsɛkʃən, dɪˈsɛkʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count] The students performed a dissection. ▪ Her essay includes an excellent dissection of the poem. [noncount] a process of careful dissection

dis•sem•ble /dɪˈsɛmbəl/ verb -sem•bles; -sem•bled; -sem•bling [no obj] formal + literary : to hide your true feelings, opinions, etc. ▪ It's now clear that he dissembled about the risks involved. [=he did not tell the truth about the risks involved]

– dissembling noun [noncount] ▪ Such dissembling from a politician is nothing new.

dis•sem•i•nate /dɪˈsɛməˌneɪt/ verb -nates; -nat•ed; -nat•ing [+ obj] formal : to cause (something, such as information) to go to many people ▪ The Internet allows us to disseminate information/news/ideas faster. ▪ The findings were widely disseminated.

– dis•sem•i•na•tion /dɪˌsɛməˈneɪʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ the dissemination of information – dis•sem•i•na•tor /dɪˈsɛməˌneɪtɚ/ noun, pl -tors [count] ▪ disseminators of information dis•sen•sion /dɪˈsɛnʃən/ noun [noncount] formal : disagreement that causes the people in a group to argue about something that is important to them ▪ The incident has caused a lot of dissension within/in the police department. ▪ Religious dissension threatened to split the colony.

[1]dis•sent /dɪˈsɛnt/ verb -sents; -sent•ed; -sent•ing [no obj] formal : to publicly disagree with an official opinion, decision, or set of beliefs ▪ The Supreme Court, with two justices dissenting, ruled that the law was constitutional. — often + from ▪ Several scientists dissented from the decision.

– dis•sent•er /dɪˈsɛntɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] – dissenting adj ▪ dissenting opinions/views ▪ There are few dissenting voices within the party.

[2]dissent noun, pl -sents
1 formal : public disagreement with an official opinion, decision, or set of beliefs [noncount] Church leaders permitted no dissent from church teachings. ▪ He did everything in his power to suppress political dissent. [count] These dissents come from prominent scientists and should not be ignored.
2 [count] US, law : a statement by a judge giving reasons why the judge does not agree with the decision made by the other judges in a court case ▪ She argued in her dissent that Congress had exceeded its authority.

dis•ser•ta•tion /ˌdɪsɚˈteɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count] : a long piece of writing about a particular subject that is done to earn an advanced degree at a university ▪ He wrote his dissertation on an obscure 16th-century poet.

dis•ser•vice /dɪsˈsɚvɪs/ noun [singular] : something that harms or damages someone or something ▪ Her comments were a disservice to those volunteers. — usually used in the phrase do a disservice ▪ He did a disservice to readers by providing wrong information. ▪ Her behavior has done the sport a great disservice. [=her behavior has hurt the sport] dis•si•dent /ˈdɪsədənt/ noun, pl -dents [count] : someone who strongly and publicly disagrees with and criticizes the government ▪ Many political dissidents were arrested.

– dis•si•dence /ˈdɪsədəns/ noun [noncount] ▪ political/religious dissidence [=dissent] – dissident adj, always used before a noun ▪ dissident scholars/students ▪ the dissident movement dis•sim•i•lar /dɪsˈsɪmələ/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not the same : different or unalike ▪ The two movies are very dissimilar. ▪ The writers have dissimilar backgrounds. ▪ A not dissimilar [=similar] situation has occurred overseas. ▪ The question is not dissimilar to one asked earlier. — opposite SIMILAR – dis•sim•i•lar•i•ty /dɪsˌsɪməˈlerəti/ noun, pl -ties [count] dissimilarities in the writers' backgrounds [noncount] I could see no dissimilarity between the twins.

dis•si•pate /ˈdɪsəˌpeɪt/ verb -pates; -pat•ed; -pat•ing formal
1 a [+ obj] : to cause (something) to spread out and disappear ▪ The morning sun dissipated the fog. b [no obj] : to separate into parts and disappear or go away ▪ The fog should dissipate soon. ▪ By noon the crowd had dissipated. [=(more commonly) dispersed] — often used figuratively ▪ Her anger began to dissipate after a while.
2 [+ obj] : to use all or a lot of (something, such as money or time) in a foolish way ▪ He had dissipated [=squandered] his family's fortune in only a few years.

dis•si•pa•tion /ˌdɪsəˈpeɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions formal 1 [noncount] : the process of slowly disappearing or becom-

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 73 SESS: 32 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:28:26 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-d

ing less ▪ Insulation helps prevent the dissipation of heat from houses in the winter.
2 [noncount] : the act of using all or a lot of money, time, etc., in a foolish way ▪ a movie about the dissipation of a famous heir's fortune ▪ the dissipation of resources
3 disapproving : behavior that shows you are interested only in pleasure, money, etc. [noncount] He lived a life of dissipation. [count] her gambling and dissipations

dis•so•ci•ate /dɪˈsoʊʃiˌeɪt/ verb -ates; -at•ed; -at•ing [+ obj] : to end your relationship with or connection to someone or something : to separate (yourself) from someone or something ▪ She became famous and dissociated [=disassociated] herself from her past. ▪ The director has tried to dissociate himself from his earlier films. ▪ Why is the organization choosing to dissociate itself from its founder?
– dis•so•ci•a•tion /dɪˌsoʊʃiˈeɪʃən/ noun [noncount]

dis•so•lute /ˈdɪsəˌluːt/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal + disapproving — used to describe someone (such as a person who often gets drunk) whose way of living is considered morally wrong ▪ a dissolute drunk ▪ She has led a dissolute life.

dis•so•lu•tion /ˌdɪsəˈluːʃən/ noun [noncount] formal
1 : the act of officially ending a marriage, organization, agreement, etc. ▪ the dissolution of the marriage/business/contract
2 : the process of making something slowly end or disappear ▪ the dissolution of old beliefs ▪ The treatment is used for the dissolution of kidney stones.

dis•solve /dɪˈzɑːlv/ verb -solves; -solved; -solv•ing
1 of something solid : to mix with a liquid and become part of the liquid [no obj] Sugar/salt dissolves in water. [+ obj] Dissolve the tablet in water.
2 [+ obj] formal : to officially end (something, such as a marriage, organization, or agreement) ▪ She dissolved [=terminated] their partnership. — often used as (be) dissolved ▪ The marriage/business/government was dissolved. ▪ The company has been dissolved.
3 somewhat formal : to end or disappear or cause (something) to end or disappear [no obj] His smile dissolved [=disappeared] when I told him the news. ▪ Hopes for peace dissolved in renewed violence. [+ obj] His kind words dissolved her sadness. ▪ The treatment is used to dissolve kidney stones.
✧ If you dissolve in/into tears/laughter, etc., you start to cry, laugh, etc., in an uncontrolled way. ▪ The audience dissolved into tears during the play's final scene. ▪ The children dissolved into laughter/giggles.
– dis•solv•able /dɪˈzɑːlvəbəl/ adj ▪ The doctor used dissolvable stitches to close the wound.

dis•so•nant /ˈdɪsənənt/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 formal : not in agreement with something : DISCORDANT ▪ dissonant views
2 music : not in harmony : DISCORDANT ▪ dissonant chords — opposite CONSONANT – dis•so•nance /ˈdɪsənəns/ noun, pl -nanc•es [noncount] The dissonance [=conflict] between the truth and what people want to believe. ▪ When played together, the chords create dissonance. [count] The composer uses dissonances freely.

dis•suade /dɪˈsweɪd/ verb -suades; -suad•ed; -suad•ing [+ obj] : to convince (someone) not to do something ▪ Our warnings did not dissuade them. — often + from ▪ He tried to dissuade them from going. — compare PERSUADE dis•taff /ˈdɪˌstæf, Brit ˈdɪˌstɑːf/ adj, always used before a noun, formal : of, relating to, or being a woman : FEMALE ▪ the distaff [=maternal] side of the family ▪ distaff executives

[1]dis•tance /ˈdɪstəns/ noun, pl -tanc•es
1 : the amount of space between two places or things [count] What is the distance between the Earth and the Sun? ▪ The gas station is a short distance away. ▪ He spotted the group at a distance of one mile. [=he saw the group when they were one mile away from him] [noncount] Speed is measured in time and distance. ▪ The nearest gas station is some distance away. [=it is not nearby] ▪ Her house is within walking/striking distance of the school. [=she lives very close to the school] — see also LONG DISTANCE, MIDDLE DISTANCE
2 [singular] : a point or place that is far away from another point or place ▪ She kept the children a safe distance from the road. ▪ The sign was hard to read from a distance. ▪ We followed them at a distance. ▪ He saw a light in the distance. [=he saw a light that was far away] — often used figuratively ▪ After observing politics from a distance for years, I've decided to run for office. ▪ (Brit) The book is better than the movie by some distance. [=the book is much better than the movie]
3 : a state in which people are not involved with or friendly toward each other [singular] She feels a distance from her brother that wasn't there before. ▪ He heard the distance [=unfriendliness] in her voice. [noncount] Although they were once good friends, there was now considerable distance between them. ▪ He wants to put distance between himself and his former boss.
go the distance also last the distance : to complete something you have started ▪ Even with an injured elbow, he went/lasted the distance and pitched the rest of the game. ▪ Don't volunteer for the job if you can't go the distance.
keep (someone) at a distance : to be unfriendly toward (someone) ▪ She always kept her coworkers at a distance.
keep your distance 1 : to stay far enough away from someone or something to be safe ▪ Visitors are told to keep their distance from the monkeys. 2 : to avoid getting involved in something or becoming friendly with someone ▪ He tried to keep his distance from the scandal. ▪ After their break-up, she thought it was wise to keep her distance.

[2]distance verb -tances; -tanced; -tanc•ing [+ obj] : to show that you are not involved with someone or something : to end a connection to or relationship with someone or something — usually + from ▪ She has tried to distance herself from her family. ▪ They all want to distance themselves from the scandal.

distance learning noun [noncount] : a method of study where teachers and students do not meet in a classroom but use the Internet, e-mail, mail, etc., to have classes — called also distance education

dis•tant /ˈdɪstənt/ adj
1 [more ~; most ~] : existing or happening far away in space : separated by space ▪ astronomers studying distant galaxies ▪ They visited all sorts of distant [=far-off] places. ▪ He finished the race a distant second. [=he was the second person to finish the race but he was far behind the winner] ▪ The town is about 30 miles distant. [=(more commonly) away]
2 always used before a noun [more ~; most ~] : far away in time : happening far in the past or far into the future ▪ In the distant past, dinosaurs roamed the earth. ▪ The day I left home is now a distant memory. ▪ the distant future ▪ We're expecting major changes in the not too distant future. [=soon]
3 always used before a noun [more ~; most ~] — used to describe a relative who is not closely related to you ▪ She's a distant cousin of mine. ▪ Some of my more distant relatives still live there. — opposite CLOSE; compare IMMEDIATE
4 : having to do with something that is not related to what is happening where you are or at the present time ▪ His mind drifted to distant thoughts. ▪ I remember when the restaurant's opening was nothing more than a distant possibility. ▪ She has a distant look in her eye. [=the look on her face shows that she is thinking about something that is not related to what is happening now]
5 [more ~; most ~] somewhat formal : not friendly or showing emotion ▪ People did not like her distant manner. ▪ He was cold and distant.
6 [more ~; most ~] : not like someone or something else — usually + from ▪ The values of that time seem very distant [=different] from our own.
the dim and distant past chiefly Brit : a time that is so far in the past it is difficult to remember ▪ I remember the dim and distant past when the town was much smaller.
– dis•tant•ly adv ▪ We are distantly related to each other. ▪ She stared distantly out the window.

dis•taste /dɪsˈteɪst/ noun, pl -tastes : a strong feeling of not liking someone or something [count] — usually singular ▪ I've developed a real distaste [=dislike] for paperwork. [noncount] "I see you still smoke," she said with distaste.

dis•taste•ful /dɪsˈteɪstfəl/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : not pleasant or enjoyable ▪ The work was distasteful, but it was the best I could find at the time. ▪ It was a distasteful subject to him.
2 : morally offensive ▪ distasteful jokes/behavior
– dis•taste•ful•ly adv

dis•tem•per /dɪsˈtɛmpɚ/ noun [noncount] medical : a serious disease of animals (such as dogs and cats) that is easily passed to other animals dis•tend /dɪˈstɛnd/ verb -tends; -tend•ed; -tend•ing medical + formal : to become larger and rounder because of pressure from inside [no obj] The illness can cause the stomach to distend. [=swell] [+ obj] an abdomen distended by disease ▪ a distended abdomen/stomach – dis•ten•sion or US dis•ten•tion /dɪˈstɛnʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ abdominal distension [=swelling]

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 74 SESS: 32 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:28:26 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-d

dis•till (US) or chiefly Brit dis•til /dɪˈstɪl/ verb -tills; -tilled; -till•ing [+ obj]
1 a : to make (a liquid) pure by heating it until it becomes a gas and then cooling it until it is a liquid again : to purify (a liquid) by distillation ▪ distilled water b : to make (a strong alcoholic drink) by using this process ▪ They distill the whiskey from malted barley.
2 : to take the most important parts of something and put them in a different and usually improved form ▪ He has perfectly distilled the meaning of the holiday into a poem. ▪ Her wisdom is distilled from [=her wisdom comes from] many years of experience.
– dis•til•la•tion /ˌdɪstəˈleɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [noncount] the distillation of brandy from wine ▪ the distillation of experience [count] The poem is a perfect distillation of the meaning of the holiday.

dis•till•er /dɪˈstɪlə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a person or company that produces strong alcoholic drinks (such as whiskey) by distilling them dis•till•ery /dɪˈstɪləri/ noun, pl -er•ies [count] : a place where alcoholic drinks (such as whiskey) are produced dis•tinct /dɪˈstɪŋkt/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : different in a way that you can see, hear, smell, feel, etc. : noticeably different ▪ There are three distinct categories/classes/groups/types. ▪ The two plants are quite distinct (from one another). ▪ Each herb has its own distinct flavor. ▪ The phrase has three distinct meanings. ▪ The class focuses on U.S. English, as distinct from British English. [=the class focuses on U.S. English and not on British English]
2 : easy to see, hear, smell, feel, etc. ▪ He speaks with a distinct [=noticeable] Southern accent. ▪ There was the distinct smell of something burning. ▪ The outline became less and less distinct as the light faded.
3 : strong and definite ▪ A flight cancellation is a distinct [=real] possibility. ▪ We had the distinct impression that they were lying.
– dis•tinct•ly adv ▪ Each island has a distinctly different character. ▪ I distinctly told you not to call me. ▪ a distinctly American phenomenon [=something that happens only in America] – dis•tinct•ness noun [noncount] ▪ distinctness of form

dis•tinc•tion /dɪˈstɪŋkʃən/ noun, pl -tions
1 [count] : a difference that you can see, hear, smell, feel, etc. : a noticeable difference between things or people ▪ These dogs are different breeds, but this distinction is lost on most people. [=most people do not see a difference between these dogs] ▪ There are no obvious distinctions between the two designs. ▪ distinctions between social classes ▪ She made/drew a distinction between the words "less" and "fewer."
2 [noncount] : the separation of people or things into different groups ▪ The law should be enforced without distinction as to race, sex, or religion. [=the law should not treat people of different races, sexes, or religions differently]
3 [noncount] : importance, excellence, or achievement ▪ He was raised in a small town of no great distinction. ▪ Her talents gave distinction to the work. ▪ She was a politician of some distinction. [=she was a distinguished politician]
4 : a special honor, recognition, or award [count] She's won many distinctions. ▪ (Brit) She was awarded a distinction for her dissertation. [noncount] They should give him the distinction he deserves. ▪ He graduated with distinction. [=with special awards or recognition]
5 [noncount] : the quality that makes a person or thing special or different — + of ▪ It had the distinction of being the oldest house in the city. ▪ The city bears the dubious distinction of being the most polluted in the nation.

dis•tinc•tive /dɪˈstɪŋktɪv/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : having a quality or characteristic that makes a person or thing different from others : different in a way that is easy to notice ▪ He had a very distinctive walk. ▪ This wine has a more distinctive flavor than that one. ▪ a cooking style that is distinctive [=characteristic] of this region
2 : appealing or interesting because of an unusual quality or characteristic ▪ The store sells only the most distinctive chocolates.
– dis•tinc•tive•ly adv ▪ a distinctively regional cooking style – dis•tinc•tive•ness noun [noncount] ▪ the distinctiveness of the store's chocolates dis•tin•guish /dɪˈstɪŋgwɪʃ/ verb -guish•es; -guished; -guish•ing

1 : to notice or recognize a difference between people or things [no obj] You're old enough to distinguish between fact and fantasy. ▪ I have trouble distinguishing between the two of them. [+ obj] Their voices are hard to distinguish. [=tell apart] ▪ I have trouble distinguishing the difference between the two of them. ▪ You should be able to distinguish fact from fantasy.
2 not used in progressive tenses [+ obj] : to make (someone or something) different or special in some way ▪ The only thing that distinguishes the dogs is their bark. ▪ The recipe is distinguished by its simplicity. [=the unusual or interesting thing about the recipe is its simplicity] ▪ The singer's voice is what distinguishes the band. — often + from ▪ Our excellent customer service distinguishes us from our competitors. ▪ The law affects private property as distinguished from public property. [=the law affects private property and not public property]
3 not used in progressive tenses [+ obj] : to see or hear (someone or something) clearly ▪ You can't distinguish the detail from this distance.
distinguish yourself : to do something very well or in a way that deserves special recognition ▪ She has distinguished herself as a leader in the community. ▪ He distinguished himself in the war.
– dis•tin•guish•able /dɪˈstɪŋgwɪʃəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ The plant is distinguishable by its oddly shaped leaves. ▪ There are four distinguishable types. ▪ The copy is clearly/barely distinguishable from the original. – distinguishing adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ The plant has several distinguishing characteristics/features.

dis•tin•guished /dɪˈstɪŋgwɪʃt/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : known by many people because of some quality or achievement ▪ a distinguished scientist/career ▪ She is distinguished for her achievements in genetic research.
2 : making someone seem important and worth respect ▪ the professor's distinguished appearance ▪ He's a distinguished-looking gentleman.

dis•tort /dɪˈstɔɚt/ verb -torts; -tort•ed; -tort•ing
1 : to change the natural, normal, or original shape, appearance, or sound of (something) in a way that is usually not attractive or pleasing [+ obj] Her face was distorted by pain. ▪ The odd camera angle distorted her figure in the photograph. ▪ The sound of the guitar was distorted. [no obj] Heat caused the plastic to distort.
2 [+ obj] : to change (something) so that it is no longer true or accurate ▪ She felt he was distorting the facts. ▪ The story was distorted by the press. ▪ The loss of both her parents at an early age distorted her outlook on life.
– distorted adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ a distorted face/image ▪ He had a distorted view of the situation. ▪ His voice sounded distorted over the phone. – dis•tor•tion /dɪˈstɔɚʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count] The statement was an intentional distortion of the facts. ▪ Curved mirrors cause image distortions. [noncount] an image/sound that is free of distortion

dis•tract /dɪˈstrækt/ verb -tracts; -tract•ed; -tract•ing [+ obj]
1 : to cause (someone) to stop thinking about or paying attention to someone or something and to think about or pay attention to someone or something else instead ▪ You sneak into his room while I distract him. ▪ He was distracted from his studies. ▪ The students are easily distracted, especially when they're tired. ▪ I was distracted by a loud noise.
2 : to take (attention) away from someone or something ▪ The local story distracted attention from news of the war overseas.
– distracting adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ The music was very distracting. ▪ a distracting noise distracted /dɪˈstræktəd/ adj [more ~; most ~] : unable to think about or pay attention to something : unable to concentrate ▪ If you're feeling distracted, take a break.

– dis•tract•ed•ly adv ▪ "I wonder if it's going to snow," she said distractedly. [=absentmindedly]

dis•trac•tion /dɪˈstrækʃən/ noun, pl -tions
1 : something that makes it difficult to think or pay attention [count] It was hard to work with so many distractions. ▪ One of them created a distraction while the other grabbed the money. [noncount] He worked without distraction.
2 [count] : something that amuses or entertains you so that you do not think about problems, work, etc. ▪ He found reading to be a good distraction. [=diversion] ▪ A weekend at the beach was a good distraction from her troubles.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 75 SESS: 33 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:28:27 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-d

3 [noncount] : a state in which you are very annoyed or upset ▪ Their endless chatter drove her to distraction.

dis•traught /dɪˈstrɑːt/ adj [more ~; most ~] : very upset : so upset that you are not able to think clearly or behave normally ▪ Distraught relatives are waiting for news of the missing children. ▪ She was distraught over the death of her partner.

[1]dis•tress /dɪˈstrɛs/ noun [noncount]
1 : unhappiness or pain : suffering that affects the mind or body ▪ Citizens voiced their distress over delays in fixing the problem. ▪ The patient showed no obvious signs of distress. ▪ He suffered severe emotional distress as a result of the accident. ▪ The new drug can cause abdominal/gastric distress. [=stomach pain] ▪ a cry of distress ▪ He was clearly in distress [=very upset] upon hearing the news.
2 : a very difficult situation in which you do not have enough money, food, etc. ▪ She's chosen to devote her life to helping those in distress. [=in trouble, in need] ▪ Donations were given to families in (financial) distress.
3 of a boat, airplane, etc. : a state of danger or desperate need ▪ The ship was in distress. [=the ship was possibly going to sink] ▪ The Coast Guard responded to the ship's distress signal/call. [=signal or call for help]
damsel in distress see DAMSEL

[2]distress verb -tress•es; -tressed; -tress•ing [+ obj] : to worry or upset (someone) ▪ The news distressed [=disturbed] her. — usually used as (be) distressed ▪ I was distressed to learn that the hospital had closed.
– distressing adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ I heard some distressing news. ▪ It was distressing to learn that the hospital had closed. – dis•tress•ing•ly adv

distressed adj
1 [more ~; most ~] : feeling or showing extreme unhappiness or pain ▪ He was very distressed [=upset] about the accident. ▪ She felt emotionally and physically distressed.
2 [more ~; most ~] somewhat formal : not having enough money : experiencing financial trouble ▪ The government provided funds to the economically distressed city. ▪ Donations were given to financially distressed families.
3 — used to describe something (such as a piece of clothing or furniture) that has been made to look old or to look like something that has been used a lot ▪ a distressed pair of jeans ▪ distressed leather ▪ a distressed oak table

dis•trib•ute /dɪˈstrɪbjuːt/ verb -utes; -ut•ed; -ut•ing [+ obj]
1 a : to give or deliver (something) to people ▪ She distributes [=hands out] the paychecks every week. — usually + to ▪ He'd been hired to distribute leaflets to people who passed by. ▪ The organization distributes food and clothing to needy families. b : to deliver (something) to a store or business — usually + to ▪ The trucking company distributes goods to stores throughout the state. ▪ One million copies of the CD were distributed to stores.
2 : to divide (something) among the members of a group — usually + between or among; often used as (be/get) distributed ▪ The profits are evenly distributed between them. ▪ The work for the project gets distributed among the editors.
3 : to spread or place (something) over an area ▪ The machine distributes [=scatters] the seeds evenly on the ground. — often used as (be/get) distributed ▪ Make sure the paint is distributed evenly over the surface area. — often used figuratively ▪ The player's 200 pounds are evenly distributed over his six-foot frame. ▪ The plant is widely distributed throughout the world. [=the plant grows throughout the world]

dis•tri•bu•tion /ˌdɪstrəˈbjuːʃən/ noun, pl -tions
1 [noncount] a : the act of giving or delivering something to people ▪ The group collects food and clothing for distribution to needy families. ▪ The distribution of paychecks will happen every other Friday. ▪ The university does not permit distribution of leaflets on campus. b : the act of delivering something to a store or business ▪ She was responsible for product distribution. ▪ The company handles the distribution of goods to stores nationwide. — often used before another noun ▪ The company acquired U.S. distribution rights. ▪ distribution costs ▪ a distribution company/center
2 : the way that something is divided or spread out [count] He complained that the distribution of work was unfair. ▪ He studies the distributions of wildcats in North America. [noncount] The new design provides better weight distribution.

dis•trib•u•tor /dɪˈstrɪbjətɚ/ noun, pl -tors [count]
1 : a person or company that supplies stores or businesses with goods ▪ a software distributor
2 technical : a device that sends electricity to the spark plugs of an engine — see picture at ENGINE

dis•trict /ˈdɪstrɪkt/ noun, pl -tricts [count] : an area or section of a country, city, or town: such as a : an area established by a government for official government business ▪ postal/election districts ▪ Six police officers are in charge of the district. ▪ She represents the eighth congressional district. — see also SCHOOL DISTRICT b : an area or section that has some special characteristic or purpose ▪ a church/sales district ▪ the city's entertainment/shopping district ▪ He was promoted to district manager. [=he was put in charge of that company's activities in a particular district]

district attorney noun, pl ~ -neys [count] : a lawyer who works for the U.S. government in a state, county, etc., and who is responsible for starting a criminal case against someone — abbr. DA

district court noun, pl ~ courts [count] law : a court in the U.S. in which cases in a particular area are brought to trial; especially : one of the trial courts for cases involving federal law

[1]dis•trust /dɪsˈtrʌst/ verb -trusts; -trust•ed; -trust•ing [+ obj] : to have no trust or confidence in (someone or something) : MISTRUST ▪ He generally distrusts doctors. ▪ She's always distrusted their promises.

[2]distrust noun : lack of trust or confidence : a feeling that someone or something is not honest and cannot be trusted [noncount] He regards doctors with distrust. [=mistrust] [singular] He has a distrust of doctors.
– dis•trust•ful /dɪsˈtrʌstfəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ He is generally distrustful [=mistrustful] of doctors. – dis•trust•ful•ly adv ▪ He looked distrustfully at them.

dis•turb /dɪˈstɚb/ verb -turbs; -turbed; -turb•ing [+ obj]
1 : to stop (someone) from working, sleeping, etc. : to interrupt or bother (someone or something) ▪ I'm sorry to disturb you at such a late hour. ▪ She doesn't want to be disturbed while she's working. ▪ Don't disturb the baby when he's sleeping. ▪ The noise disturbed my concentration. ▪ They were arrested for disturbing the peace. [=behaving in a violent or noisy manner in public]
2 : to worry or upset (someone) ▪ The news disturbed [=distressed] him. ▪ His behavior disturbs me. — often used as (be) disturbed ▪ I am disturbed at/by his behavior. ▪ She was disturbed to learn that her son was failing one of his classes.
3 : to change the position, arrangement, or order of (something) ▪ The police ordered that nothing be disturbed in the room. [=that nothing be touched or moved] ▪ His visit disturbed [=disrupted] our morning routine.
– disturbing adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ It was a deeply disturbing sight. ▪ I thought the movie was very disturbing. – dis•turb•ing•ly adv ▪ There was a disturbingly high number of crimes last year. ▪ Disturbingly, the story is true.

dis•turb•ance /dɪˈstɚbəns/ noun, pl -anc•es
1 a : something that stops you from working, sleeping, etc. : the act of disturbing someone or something [count] She doesn't want any more disturbances while she is studying. ▪ She suffered from frequent sleep disturbances. [=disruptions] [noncount] He reacts badly to disturbance of his daily routine. b : a change in the position, arrangement, or order of something [count] Fish are able to detect even slight disturbances in the water. [noncount] Disturbance of the river's sediment causes cloudy water.
2 : violent or noisy behavior especially in public [count] Neighbors called the police to report a disturbance. ▪ They were arrested for creating/causing a disturbance. [noncount] He was arrested for disturbance of the peace. [=behaving in a violent or noisy way in public]
3 : an unhealthy physical or mental condition in which something is not normal [count] heart rhythm disturbances ▪ visual/emotional/mental disturbances [noncount] The violence that soldiers experience in war can lead to emotional disturbance in later years.

disturbed adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : having or showing evidence of a mental or emotional illness ▪ mentally/emotionally disturbed children
2 : worried and unhappy ▪ He seems very disturbed about his work lately.
3 of sleep : affected by a disturbance ▪ She'd been experiencing disturbed sleep. [=sleep that is interrupted] dis•unit•ed /ˌdɪsjuˈnaɪtəd/ adj, chiefly Brit : not able to work or agree with other people within the same group, organization, etc. ▪ The rebels seem to be increasingly disunited. ▪ a disunited political party

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 76 SESS: 33 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:28:27 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-d

dis•uni•ty /dɪsˈju:nəti/ noun [noncount] : the state of not being able to agree about important things : lack of unity ▪ They are concerned about disunity [=dissension, disagreement] within the party.

dis•use /dɪsˈju:s/ noun [noncount] : the state of not being used : lack of use ▪ The room was dusty from/with disuse. ▪ The word fell into disuse [=people stopped using it] many years ago.

dis•used /dɪsˈju:zd/ adj, always used before a noun : no longer used ▪ disused buildings/mines ▪ a disused word

[1]ditch /ˈdɪʧ/ noun, pl ditch•es [count] : a long narrow hole that is dug along a road, field, etc., and used to hold or move water ▪ irrigation ditches ▪ He drove the car into the ditch. — see also LAST-DITCH

[2]ditch verb ditches; ditched; ditch•ing

1 [+ obj] informal : to stop having or using (something you no longer want or need) : to get rid of (something) ▪ The thief ditched the purse in an alley. ▪ They ditched the car in a vacant lot. ▪ We've ditched [=abandoned] plans to open a café together.

2 [+ obj] informal : to end a relationship with (someone) ▪ His girlfriend ditched him. = He got ditched by his girlfriend. ▪ The team's owner ditched [=fired, dismissed] the head coach.

3 [+ obj] US, informal : to get away from (someone you do not want to be with) without saying that you are leaving ▪ They ditched me at the concert.

4 [+ obj] US, informal : to not go to (something, such as school, work, etc.) ▪ Let's ditch [=skip] school today. ▪ He ditched [=left, quit] school to join the army.

5 : to land an aircraft on water because of an emergency : to crash-land on water [no obj] Engine trouble forced the pilot to ditch. [+ obj] He had to ditch the helicopter.

ditch•wa•ter /ˈdɪʧˌwɑ:tə/ noun

(as) dull as ditchwater Brit, informal : very boring ▪ The book is as dull as ditchwater. [=(US) (as) dull as dishwater]

[1]dith•er /ˈdɪðə/ noun [singular] informal : a very nervous, confused, or excited state — usually used in the phrase in a dither ▪ They're in a dither over what to do next. ▪ The news of his arrival had us (all) in a dither.

[2]dither verb -ers; -ered; -er•ing [no obj] informal : to delay taking action because you are not sure about what to do ▪ We don't have time to dither. ▪ She did not dither about/over what to do next.

– dith•er•er noun, pl -ers [count]

[1]dit•to /ˈdɪtoʊ/ adv, informal

1 — used to say that whatever you have said about one person or thing is also true of another person or thing ▪ Boston is getting a lot of rain. Ditto New York. [=New York is also getting a lot of rain] ▪ He is good at baseball, ditto at golf.

2 — used in speech to show you agree with what someone has just said or have the same opinion ▪ "I don't like spinach." "Ditto." [=I don't like spinach either]

[2]ditto noun, pl -tos [count] : a pair of marks " used underneath a word to save space and show that the word is repeated where the marks are — called also ditto marks dit•ty /ˈdɪti/ noun, pl -ties [count] sometimes humorous : a short and simple song ▪ Play us a little ditty.

ditz /ˈdɪts/ noun, pl ditz•es [count] chiefly US, informal + sometimes disapproving : a silly person who often forgets things ▪ His girlfriend is nice but she's a bit of a ditz. [=his girlfriend is somewhat ditzy]

dit•zy or dit•sy /ˈdɪtsi/ adj ditz•i•er or dits•i•er; -est [or more ~; most ~] chiefly US, informal : silly and tending to forget things : DIZZY — used especially of a woman ▪ a ditzy blonde di•uret•ic /ˌdajəˈrɛtɪk/ noun, pl -ics [count] medical : a substance that increases the amount of urine you pass from your body ▪ The drug is a diuretic.

– diuretic adj ▪ a diuretic drug/effect di•ur•nal /daɪˈərnl/ adj, technical

1 : active mainly during the day ▪ diurnal animals — opposite NOCTURNAL

2 : happening every day ▪ diurnal tides

div. also div abbr division di•va /ˈdi:və/ noun, pl -vas [count]

1 : the main female singer in an opera company

2 : a famous and successful woman who is very attractive and fashionable; especially : an attractive and successful female performer or celebrity ▪ pop divas ▪ a fashion diva

di•van /dɪˈvæn/ noun, pl -vans [count]

1 : a long, low seat that has no back or arms or only part of a back and one arm

2 Brit : a bed that has a thick base and usually no footboard

[1]dive /ˈdaɪv/ verb dives; dived /ˈdaɪvd/ or chiefly US dove /ˈdoʊv/; div•ing [no obj]

1 : to jump into water with your arms and head going in first ▪ She dove into the swimming pool. ▪ The children like to dive off the boat. ▪ The competitors will be diving from the highest platform.

2 : to swim underwater usually while using special equipment to help you breathe ▪ Many people enjoy diving on the island's coral reefs. ▪ You can't dive in this water without a wet suit. ▪ He dives for pearls. [=he dives in order to find pearls] — see also SCUBA DIVE, SKIN-DIVE

3 : to go underwater or down to a deeper level underwater ▪ The submarine can dive to 3,000 feet. ▪ The whale dove down to deeper water.

4 : to move down through the air at a steep angle ▪ We watched the hawk dive for its prey. ▪ The plane suddenly dove. — see also DIVE-BOMB, NOSE-DIVE, SKYDIVE

5 : to fall suddenly and quickly in amount, value, etc. ▪ The temperature dived [=(more commonly) plunged, dropped] down below zero. ▪ The stock's value dove to an all-time low.

6 : to suddenly jump toward something that is on or near the ground ▪ The goalie dove in front of the goal. — often + for ▪ He dove for the ball. ▪ He dove for cover. [=he suddenly jumped to a place where he would be safe or protected] — sometimes used figuratively ▪ Her books always have me diving for my dictionary. [=I often need a dictionary to understand the words she uses in her books]

7 informal : to start doing something with enthusiasm — usually + into or in ▪ They dove into their work. ▪ I'm just not ready to dive (right) into another romantic relationship. ▪ They sat down at the dinner table and dove (right) in. [=started eating immediately] ▪ We have a lot of things to discuss, so let's dive right in. [=let's get started immediately]

8 informal : to quickly reach into (a bag, pocket, etc.) ▪ She dove into her purse to find some change.

[2]dive noun, pl dives [count]

1 : a jump into water with your arms and head going in first ▪ She practiced her dives for the competition. ▪ a perfect dive

2 : an act of swimming underwater usually while using special equipment (such as a snorkel or air tank) to help you breathe ▪ This will be my first dive on a coral reef. ▪ She has done dives all around the world.

3 : a usually steep downward movement of a submarine, airplane, bird, etc. ▪ The crew of the submarine prepared for a dive. ▪ The jet rolled into a dive.

4 : a sudden quick fall in amount, value, etc. ▪ Temperatures across the region will take a dive tonight. ▪ The stock market took a dive.

5 informal : a bar, nightclub, etc., that is cheap and dirty ▪ That bar is a real dive.

6 : a sudden jump or movement toward something that is on or near the ground ▪ He made a dive for the ditch/ball/gun. ▪ He made a dive for cover. [=he suddenly jumped to a place where he would be safe or protected]

dive–bomb /ˈdaɪvˌbɑ:m/ verb -bombs; -bombed; -bomb•ing [+ obj]

1 : to drop a bomb from an airplane on (something) after approaching it at a sharp or steep angle ▪ The pilots/planes dive-bombed the enemy ships.

2 : to attack (someone or something) from the air at a sharp or steep angle ▪ We were dive-bombed by seagulls at the beach.

div•er /ˈdaɪvə/ noun, pl -ers [count]

1 : a person who dives into water ▪ competitive divers

2 : a person who swims underwater usually while using special equipment to breathe ▪ pearl divers ▪ a deep-sea diver — see also SCUBA DIVER, SKIN DIVER, SKYDIVER di•verge /dəˈvəʤ/ verb -verg•es; -verged; -verg•ing [no obj] formal

1 : to split and move out in different directions from a single point ▪ A prism causes rays of light to diverge. ▪ "Two roads diverged in a yellow wood . . . " —Robert Frost, "The Road Not Taken" (1916) — opposite CONVERGE

2 : to be or become different ▪ They were close friends in college, but after graduation, their lives diverged. ▪ When it comes to politics, their opinions/views diverge. [=they have different opinions/views]

– di•ver•gence /dəˈvəʤəns/ noun, pl -genc•es [count] divergences between dialects ▪ There is a wide divergence of opinion between the parties. [noncount] He is studying the levels of divergence between the species. – di•ver•gent /dəˈvɚʤənt/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ divergent lines/opinions/cultures ▪ Their views are widely divergent.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 77 SESS: 11 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:28:28 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-d

di•verse /daɪˈvɚs/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : different from each other ▪ The magazine covers topics as diverse [=varied] as chemistry and sculpture. ▪ people with diverse interests
2 : made up of people or things that are different from each other ▪ His message appealed to a diverse audience. ▪ The group of students is very diverse. [=the students are different ages, races, etc.] ▪ a diverse group of subjects – di•verse•ly adv – di•verse•ness noun [noncount]

di•ver•si•fy /dəˈvɚsəˌfaɪ/ verb - es ; - ed ; -fy•ing
1 : to change (something) so that it has more different kinds of people or things [+ obj] The country is diversifying its energy sources. ▪ farmers who want to diversify their crops ▪ You should diversify your investments. = Your investments should be diversified. [=you should invest your money in several different ways instead of investing it all in one thing] [no obj] Investors should diversify.
2 : to produce or sell more kinds of products : to increase the variety of goods or services produced or offered by (someone or something) [+ obj] The new CEO's chief aim is to diversify the company. [no obj] The company needs to diversify. ▪ Many publishing companies have diversified into online services.
– di•ver•si• •ca•tion /dəˌvɚsəfəˈkeɪʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ The company's efforts at diversification have been successful. – di•ver•si• ed adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ a diversified company ▪ a diversified economy [=an economy that has a variety of industries]

di•ver•sion /dəˈvɚʒən/ noun, pl -sions
1 formal : the act of changing the direction or use of something : the act of diverting something [count] The bad weather forced the diversion of several flights. [=several flights had to land somewhere else because of bad weather] ▪ small diversions of river water for irrigation [noncount] The officials were charged with illegal diversion of public funds. [=they were charged with using public money illegally for some improper purpose]
2 formal : something that people do because it is enjoyable, entertaining, or pleasant [count] Hiking is one of my favorite diversions. ▪ Our town offers few diversions. ▪ Sports provide him with a welcome diversion from the pressures of his job. [noncount] We're in need of some diversion. [=amusement, entertainment]
3 [count] : something that takes attention away from what is happening ▪ He created a diversion while his partner stole her pocketbook.
4 [count] Brit : [1]DETOUR 2 ▪ The road is closed—please follow the diversion.

di•ver•sion•ary /dəˈvɚʒəˌnɛri, Brit dɑˈvɚːʒənri/ adj, formal : tending or intended to take attention away from someone or something important ▪ This is nothing more than a diversionary tactic to distract attention from the issues.

di•ver•si•ty /dəˈvɚsəti/ noun, pl -ties
1 : the quality or state of having many different forms, types, ideas, etc. [noncount] The island has more diversity in plant life than other islands nearby. ▪ biological/genetic/linguistic diversity ▪ There was some diversity of opinion about what should be done. [=people had different opinions about what should be done] [count] — usually singular ▪ The area has a great diversity [=variety] of birds. ▪ She has a wide diversity of interests. [=she has many different interests]
2 : the state of having people who are different races or who have different cultures in a group or organization [noncount] The city is known for its cultural/ethnic diversity. ▪ The school aims for diversity in its student population. [count] — usually singular ▪ There is a greater diversity in the city's population now.

di•vert /dəˈvɚt/ verb -verts; -vert•ed; -vert•ing [+ obj]
1 : to change the direction or use of (something) ▪ Police diverted traffic to a side street. ▪ The stream was diverted toward the farmland. ▪ They were charged with illegally diverting public funds for private use.
2 a : to take (attention) away from someone or something ▪ He lied to divert attention from the real situation. ▪ They're only proposing the law to divert attention from important issues. b : to take the attention of (someone) away from something or someone ▪ Nothing can divert [=distract] me from my goal.
3 formal : to entertain (someone) ▪ The children diverted [=(more commonly) amused] themselves with games.
– diverting adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ some fairly/mildly diverting [=(more commonly) amusing, entertaining] books/movies/evenings di•vest /daɪˈvɛst/ verb -vests; -vest•ed; -vest•ing [+ obj] finance : to sell (something valuable, such as property or stocks) ▪ The company is divesting 8 of its 20 stores. ▪ We may have to divest assets to raise capital/money.

divest of [phrasal verb] formal 1 *divest (someone or something) of (something) : to take (something) away from (someone or something else) : to cause (someone or something) to lose or give up (something) ▪ The document does not divest her of her right to use the property. — often used as (be) divested ▪ He was divested of his title/power/dignity. 2 *divest (yourself) of (something) a : to sell or give away (possessions, money, etc.) ▪ She divested herself of most of her possessions. b old-fashioned : to remove (clothing, equipment, etc.) from your body ▪ He divested himself of his coat.
– di•vest•ment /daɪˈvɛstmənt/ noun, pl -ments [count] asset divestments [noncount] the divestment of assets di•ves•ti•ture /daɪˈvɛstəˌʧuɚ/ noun, pl -tures finance : the act of selling stock, property, etc., because of a government order [count] Divestitures are used to break up monopolies. [noncount] Before divestiture, the telephone company monopolized the state.

[1]di•vide /dəˈvaɪd/ verb -vides; -vid•ed; -vid•ing
1 a : to separate (something) into two or more parts or pieces [+ obj] He divided [=split] the loaf in half. ▪ The river divides the town. [=parts of the town are on both sides of the river] ▪ She divided the pie into eight pieces. ▪ The equator divides the Earth into two hemispheres. ▪ The teacher divided the class (up) into four groups. = The teacher divided (up) the class into four groups. — often used as (be) divided ▪ The class was divided (up) into four groups. ▪ The book is divided into three sections. [no obj] The cells divide rapidly. ▪ The river divides after the bridge. b [+ obj] : to separate (something) into classes or categories ▪ We divided (up) the beads according to size and color. ▪ The author divides literature into three categories. [=the author says that there are three categories of literature] — often used as (be) divided ▪ Animals can be divided into several major types.
2 [+ obj] a : to give (something) out in usually equal amounts ▪ They divided [=distributed] the profits between/among themselves. ▪ We divided the work (up) equally. ▪ They divided (up) [=shared] the remaining food. b : to use (your time, energy, etc.) for two or more purposes or activities — usually + between ▪ He divides his energy between sports and school. ▪ Her time is divided between home, work, and school.
3 [+ obj] : to cause (something) to be separate or apart from something else ▪ A tall fence divides the two yards. — often + from ▪ Her cubicle is divided from his by a low wall. ▪ A screen divides (off) the dining area from the living room.
4 [+ obj] a : to separate (people) into groups that disagree ▪ The war divided the nation. ▪ The divorce divided the family. — often used as (be) divided ▪ The nation was divided by war. = We were a nation divided by war. b : to cause (opinions, views, etc.) to not agree — usually used as (be) divided ▪ Opinions on the issue are divided. [=people do not agree about the issue]
5 mathematics : to calculate how many times one number contains another number [+ obj] Divide 8 by 2. ▪ Eight divided by two is four. [=8 ÷ 2 = 4; 8/2 = 4] [no obj] The teacher taught the children how to divide. ▪ Two divides evenly into eight. [=eight can be divided into two an exact number of times with nothing left over] — compare MULTIPLY divide and conquer or divide and rule : to make a group of people disagree and fight with one another so that they will not join together against you ▪ His military strategy is to divide and conquer.

[2]divide noun, pl -vides [count]
1 chiefly US : a line of hills or mountains from which rivers drain : a ridge between two rivers : WATERSHED
2 : a separation of people into two or more groups that is caused by different opinions or beliefs or by a disagreement — usually singular ▪ The argument created a divide within the group. — usually + among or between ▪ We must bridge the divide among races. ▪ the divide between generations

divided adj
1 [more ~; most ~] : separated by different opinions : in a state of disagreement ▪ Experts are sharply divided on/over the issue. ▪ The issue has created a deeply divided nation.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 78 SESS: 34 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:28:28 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-d

2 : given to two or more people or things rather than to just one person or thing ▪ She feels like she only gets her mother's divided attention. ▪ He has divided loyalties. [=he is trying to be loyal to opposing groups, ideals, etc.]

divided highway noun, pl ~ -ways [count] US : a major road that has something (such as a guardrail or an area with grass and trees) that separates lanes of traffic moving in opposite directions — called also (Brit) dual carriageway

div•i•dend /ˈdɪvəˌdɛnd/ noun, pl -dends [count]
1 finance : an amount of a company's profits that the company pays to people who own stock in the company ▪ Profits are distributed to shareholders/stockholders as dividends.
2 : an advantage or benefit that you get because of something you have done — usually plural ▪ Eating healthy and exercising yields big dividends. ▪ Our efforts are finally paying dividends. [=we are finally benefiting from our efforts]
3 mathematics : a number that is being divided by another number ▪ In the equation 8 ÷ 2 = 4, eight is the dividend. — compare DIVISOR

di•vid•er /dəˈvaɪdɚ/ noun, pl -ers
1 [count] a : a thing that keeps two spaces or areas separate ▪ Concrete barriers are used as highway dividers. b : someone or something that causes people to disagree with one another ▪ She has proven to be a divider of people. ▪ He says that he's a uniter, not a divider.
2 dividers [plural] : a tool that consists of two pointed sticks joined at the top and that is used for measuring or marking lines and angles ▪ a pair of dividers

dividing line noun, pl ~ lines [count] : a line or object that separates two areas ▪ The dividing lines on the street were newly painted. ▪ A fence marked the dividing line between the two properties. — often used figuratively ▪ the dividing line between right and wrong

div•i•na•tion /ˌdɪvəˈneɪʃən/ noun [noncount] : the practice of using signs (such as an arrangement of tea leaves or cards) or special powers to predict the future ▪ the art of reading tea leaves and other forms of divination

[1]di•vine /dəˈvaɪn/ adj
1 : relating to or coming from God or a god ▪ divine will/law/love/inspiration ▪ They prayed for divine intervention/help. ▪ The pharaohs of ancient Egypt were considered divine. [=were considered to be gods] ▪ a divine ruler [=a ruler who is believed to be a god] ▪ divine beings
2 [more ~; most ~] informal + somewhat old-fashioned : very good ▪ This pie is divine. [=heavenly] ▪ You look divine.
– di•vine•ly adv ▪ a divinely inspired prophet ▪ divinely [=wonderfully] clever

[2]divine verb -vines; -vined; -vin•ing [+ obj] formal + literary : to discover or understand (something) without having direct evidence ▪ He divined [=(more commonly) sensed] her unhappiness before she said a word. ▪ divine the answer to a question di•vin•er noun, pl -ers [count]

1 formal + literary : a person who uses special powers to predict future events ▪ Diviners foretold of the event.
2 : a person who searches for water under the ground by using a special stick (called a divining rod) ▪ a water diviner

divine right noun [singular]
1 : the right that is supposedly given to a king or queen by God to rule a country ▪ He ruled by divine right.
2 informal : the right to do or have something without having to ask permission ▪ My boss seems to think he has a divine right to order people around.

diving noun [noncount]
1 : a sport or activity in which people dive into water from a diving board or a platform ▪ He won a gold medal in diving.
2 : a sport or activity in which people swim underwater while using special equipment to breathe ▪ He likes deep-sea diving. ▪ We went diving on the coral reef. — often used before another noun ▪ diving equipment ▪ diving lessons — see also SCUBA DIVING

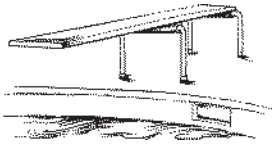
diving bell noun, pl ~ bells [count] : a large container that is open at the bottom, filled with air, and lowered into deep water to provide a dry place for underwater workers diving board noun, pl ~ boards [count] : a board above a swimming pool, lake, etc., that people can jump off of to dive into the water



diving board

divining rod noun, pl ~ rods [count] : a stick that is usually shaped like a Y and is used by some people to search for an underground source of water — called also dowsing rod

di•vin•i•ty /dəˈvɪnəti/ noun, pl -ties
1 [noncount] : the state of being a god : the state of being divine ▪ Christians believe in the divinity of Jesus Christ.
2 [count] : a god or goddess ▪ Hindu divinities ▪ the divinities of ancient Greece
3 [noncount] : the formal study of religion, religious practices, and religious beliefs ▪ a doctor of divinity ▪ a divinity student ▪ She attends the divinity school. [=a professional school that teaches religious subjects and trains people for religious jobs] di•vis•i•ble /dəˈvɪzəbəl/ adj, not used before a noun : able to be divided ▪ 9 is divisible by 3 ▪ (formal) The piece of land is divisible into three small lots.

di•vi•sion /dəˈvɪʒən/ noun, pl -sions
1 : the act or process of dividing something into parts : the way that something is divided [noncount] the process of cell division [singular] a division of profits into equal shares ▪ Their society has a clear division of labor between men and women. [=in their society, the men do one kind of work and the women do another kind of work]
2 [count] : something that physically divides or separates something else — often + between ▪ A line of trees served as a division between our property and theirs.
3 [noncount] mathematics : the process of finding out how many times one number is contained in another ▪ After learning multiplication, the students were taught division. — see also LONG DIVISION
4 [count] : a group of people who do a particular job within a larger organization (such as a government, business, or school) ▪ She was transferred to a different division within the company. ▪ He worked for many years in the news division [=department] of a major television network.
5 [count] : a large military group ▪ The infantry division is made up of five brigades.
6 [count] a : a group of teams that form one section of a sports league ▪ There are five teams in the league's western division. ▪ Both divisions in the league have agreed to the new rules. ▪ teams that are in the first/second division b : a group of people who are similar in age, size, etc., and who compete against each other — usually singular ▪ She finished third in her division at the national championships. ▪ boxers competing in the heavyweight division
7 : a situation in which different groups, countries, etc., have different opinions, beliefs, or ways of life that separate them from each other [count] We're attempting to resolve the divisions [=disagreements] between our two countries. ▪ There were serious divisions within the party on a number of issues. ▪ The book explores the racial and economic divisions in/of our society. [noncount] The issue caused division within the group.
8 [count] : any one of the parts or groups that form something : SECTION ▪ a major division of the earth's surface di•vi•sion•al /dəˈvɪʒənl/ adj, always used before a noun

1 : of or relating to a large division of a business or a branch of the military ▪ the divisional manager/commander
2 : of or relating to a group of teams that make up one part of a sports league ▪ the divisional champion/play-offs division sign noun, pl ~ signs [count] mathematics : the symbol ÷ that is used to show that two numbers are to be divided into each other — usually singular di•vi•sive /dəˈvaɪsɪv/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : causing a lot of disagreement between people and causing them to separate into different groups ▪ divisive issues like abortion – di•vi•sive•ness noun [noncount]

di•vi•sor /dəˈvaɪzɚ/ noun, pl -sors [count] mathematics : the number by which another number is being divided — usually singular ▪ In the equation 8 ÷ 2 = 4, two is the divisor. — compare DIVIDEND

[1]di•vorce /dəˈvoɚs/ noun, pl -vorc•es
1 : the ending of a marriage by a legal process [count] Since getting a divorce, she has been raising her children alone. ▪ They went through a lengthy/messy divorce. [noncount] Their marriage ended in divorce. ▪ They are filing for divorce. [=they are filing a paper with the courts asking that their marriage be legally ended] ▪ Financial problems are a leading cause of divorce. — often used before another noun ▪ a divorce lawyer/court ▪ a high divorce rate ▪ divorce proceedings
2 [count] formal : a complete separation between two things

D

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 79 SESS: 11 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:28:29 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-d

— usually singular ▪ a divorce between theory and practice

[2]divorce verb -vorces; -vorced; -vorc·ing
1 : to legally end your marriage with (your husband or wife) [+ obj] After years of unhappiness, she decided to divorce him. [no obj] They both agreed it was best to divorce.
2 [+ obj] formal : to make or keep (something) separate ▪ Their constitution divorces church and state. — often + from ▪ The organization hasn't yet fully divorced itself from its troubled past.
– divorced adj ▪ They're getting divorced. ▪ He's been divorced since 2003. ▪ a divorced man = a man who is divorced ▪ a theory that is completely divorced from reality [=a wrong theory that shows no connection to reality]

di·vor·cé /dəˌvoəˈseɪ/ noun, pl -cés [count] chiefly US : a man who is divorced di·vor·cée /dəˌvoəˈseɪ/ noun, pl -cées [count] : a divorced person; especially : a woman who is divorced div·ot /ˈdɪvət/ noun, pl -ots [count] : a loose piece of grass and dirt that is dug out of the ground when the ground is struck by something (such as a golf club)

di·vulge /dəˈvʌldʒ/ verb -vulg·es; -vulged; -vulg·ing [+ obj] formal : to make (information) known : to give (information) to someone ▪ She refused to divulge [=reveal, tell] the name of her informant. ▪ The company will not divulge its sales figures.

div·vy /ˈdɪvi/ verb -vies; -vied; -vy·ing
divvy up [phrasal verb] divvy (something) up or divvy up (something) informal : to divide or share (something) ▪ We divvied up the money.

Dix·ie·land /ˈdɪksiˌlænd/ noun [noncount] : a type of traditional American jazz music that was popular in the 1920s

DIY /ˌdi:ˌaɪˈwaɪ/ adj, always used before a noun : DO-IT-YOURSELF ▪ a DIY home improvement project ▪ DIY home repair

diz·zy /ˈdɪzi/ adj diz·zi·er; -est
1 : feeling that you are turning around in circles and are going to fall even though you are standing still ▪ The children were dizzy after spinning in circles. ▪ I'm feeling a bit weak and dizzy. I think I'm having a dizzy spell.
2 : mentally or emotionally upset or confused ▪ Complex math problems make me dizzy. ▪ dizzy with anger/relief
3 always used before a noun : causing you to feel dizzy: such as a : very high ▪ looking down from dizzy heights — sometimes used figuratively ▪ She has reached the dizzy heights of vice president. b : very fast ▪ Prices rose at a dizzy rate. ▪ the dizzy pace of our lives
4 informal : very silly and tending to forget things — used especially of a woman ▪ an actress who is known for playing dizzy [=ditzy] blondes
– diz·zi·ly /ˈdɪzəli/ adv ▪ He staggered dizzily toward the couch. – diz·zi·ness /ˈdɪzinəs/ noun [noncount] ▪ This medicine may cause dizziness and nausea.

diz·zy·ing /ˈdɪzijɪŋ/ adj, always used before a noun : causing or likely to cause dizziness ▪ The cars move at dizzying speeds around the track. ▪ a dizzying array of choices ▪ the skyscraper's dizzying heights

DJ /ˈdi:ˌdʒeɪ/ noun, pl DJs [count] : DISC JOCKEY

djinn /ˈdʒɪn/ variant spelling of JINNI

DL abbr disabled list ▪ He was put on the DL for the remainder of the season.

DMV abbr, US Department of Motor Vehicles ▪ I'm going to the DMV this afternoon to get my driver's license renewed.

DMZ abbr demilitarized zone ▪ Forces were not allowed in the DMZ.

DNA /ˌdi:ˌɛnˈeɪ/ noun [noncount] : a substance that carries genetic information in the cells of plants and animals — often used before another noun ▪ DNA analysis ▪ DNA testing ▪ a DNA fingerprint [=a sample of a person's DNA that can be used to identify someone, such as a criminal] ▪ DNA fingerprinting ✧ DNA is an abbreviation of "deoxyribonucleic acid." — compare NUCLEIC ACID, RNA

[1]do /ˈdu:/ verb does /ˈdʌz/; did /ˈdɪd/; done /ˈdʌn/; do·ing /ˈdu:wɪŋ/
1 a : to perform (an action or activity) [+ obj] We should do something special to celebrate your birthday. ▪ This crime was done deliberately. ▪ I have to do some chores this afternoon. ▪ Tell me what to do and I'll do it. ▪ I'm obliged to do my duty. ▪ He does his work without complaining. ▪ I do the ironing on Wednesdays and the cooking on Thursdays. [=I iron on Wednesdays and cook on Thursdays] ▪ I did a favor for him. = I did him a favor. ▪ "What do you do with this lever? = What does this lever do?" "It operates the pump." ▪ He did a lot for us. ▪ What can I do to help you? = What can I do for you? [=how can/may I help you?] ▪ What have I done to you to make you so angry? ▪ Have you done something to/with this room? [=have you changed this room in some way?] It looks different. ▪ My knee is sore. I must have done something to it [=I must have hurt it] when I fell. ▪ Don't just stand there: do something! [=take some sort of action to stop what is happening] ▪ We need to do something about this problem. [=we need to take some action to correct this problem] ▪ All we can do is hope for the best. [=there is no other action we can take except to hope for the best] ▪ I didn't do it! = I didn't do anything! [=I didn't do what you said I did] ▪ Are you doing anything right now? [=are you busy right now?] ▪ If you're not doing anything this evening [=if you're not busy this evening], why not come over for dinner? ▪ "What are you doing this weekend?" "I'm just relaxing at home." ▪ What is the stock market doing now: rising or falling? ▪ What have I done with my keys? [=where did I put my keys?] ▪ My hair is a mess. I can't do anything with it. ▪ There's nothing to do in this town on a Saturday night! [no obj] Do as I say, not as I do. [=do the things that I say you should do, not the things that I do myself] ▪ Shut up and do as you're told! [=do what I tell you to do] b [+ obj] — used with what to ask or talk about a person's job ▪ "What does your husband do?" "He's a writer." ▪ She's a lawyer. I'm not sure what her husband does. ▪ What does she do for a living? [=what is her job?]
2 [+ obj] : to finish working on (something) ▪ His mother won't let him watch television until he has done his homework. ▪ I've only done three of the walls so far—I'll paint the last one tomorrow. — compare [2]DONE 1
3 [no obj] — used to describe the success or progress of someone or something ▪ "How is she doing in school?" "She did badly/poorly at first, but now she's doing much better." ▪ She does well in math but badly in history. ▪ The company is doing well. ▪ How is the stock market doing these days? ▪ He started out poor, worked hard, did very well (for himself) in business [=was very successful in business], and died rich. ✧ How are you doing? or (very informally) How you doing? is used as a greeting. ▪ "Hi, Dave. How are you doing?" "I'm fine, thanks. How are you?"
4 [+ obj] — used to describe the effect that something has ▪ You've been working too hard. A few days off will do you (some) good. [=a few days off will be good for you] ▪ We didn't mean to do him (any) harm. [=to harm him] ▪ Criticism can do people a lot of harm/damage; praise can do people a lot of good. ▪ The new design doesn't do much for me. [=I don't like the new design very much] ▪ That hat does nothing for you. [=that hat does not look good on you]
5 — used to describe the amount of effort someone makes [+ obj] She did nothing to help us. [=she did not try to help us at all] ▪ I did my best. = I did my utmost. = I did all that I could. = I did everything I could. [no obj] I did as well as I could.
6 [+ obj] a : to create or produce (something) ▪ a writer who is doing a new biography on Abraham Lincoln ▪ a painter who has done some beautiful landscapes b : to perform in or be the producer or director of (a movie, play, etc.) ▪ an actress who has done several hit movies ▪ a director who is doing a play on Broadway
7 [+ obj] a : to play (a role or character) ▪ an actor who did Hamlet on Broadway b : to pretend to be (someone, such as a famous person) : to copy the speech and appearance of (someone) ▪ a comedian who does a great George Bush [=a comedian who does a very good and entertaining imitation of George Bush] c informal : to behave like (someone) ▪ I wish he'd do a Houdini and disappear. [=I wish he'd go away]
8 [+ obj] a : to wash or clean (something) ▪ It's your turn to do [=wash] the laundry. ▪ The woman we hired to clean our house doesn't do windows. b : to decorate (a place) ▪ They did the bedroom in blue and the living room in green. — see also DO OVER 2 (below) c : to make (someone's face, hair, etc.) more attractive by putting on makeup, etc. ▪ She wanted to do her face before the party. ▪ She had her hair done [=styled] at the beauty parlor. ▪ She was doing her fingernails/nails. d : to put on (makeup) ▪ It took her a few minutes to do her makeup.
9 [+ obj] : to cook or prepare (food) ▪ I like my steak done rare. ▪ I'll do the salad while you do the pasta. — compare [2]DONE 2 10 [+ obj] : to make or sell (a product) ▪ This is the company's most popular computer, but they also do a less expensive model.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 80 SESS: 11 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:28:29 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-d

11 [+ obj] chiefly US, informal : to participate in (an activity) with other people ▪ We should do dinner some time. [=we should have dinner together some time] ▪ do a meeting [=have a meeting] ▪ We should do a movie [=go to a movie] this weekend. — see also do lunch at ¹LUNCH

12 [+ obj] : to go to (a place) when traveling ▪ a group of tourists who are doing [=visiting] 12 countries in 30 days

13 [+ obj] a : to move or travel (a distance) ▪ We did [=traveled] 500 miles yesterday. b : to move at (a speed) ▪ They were doing [=going, driving] 85 on the turnpike. ▪ That plane can do [=go] 1,400 mph!

14 [+ obj] : to be in a place for (a period of time) ▪ He did [=spent] two years in college before he dropped out.; especially : to be in a prison for (a period of time) ▪ He did [=served] five years (in prison) for robbery. ▪ He has been doing time in a federal penitentiary. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ I've done my time at that terrible job, and now it's time to move on.

15 a : to be enough : to be adequate [no obj] I don't need any more cake, thank you. One piece will do. [=one piece is enough] ▪ I'd prefer to use glue, but tape will/would do. [+ obj] (informal) One piece of cake will do me. [=one piece of cake is enough for me] b ✧ Phrases like that will do (it) and that should do (it) are used in informal speech to tell someone that you do not want or need anything more. ▪ "Would you like anything else?" "No, that'll do it." = "No, that should do it." That will do it and that should do it are also used to say that you have finished doing something or are about to finish doing something. ▪ I just have one more letter to sign and that should do it. [=and then I'll be finished] That will do is also sometimes used to tell someone (such as a child) to stop doing or saying something that is bothering you or making you angry. ▪ That will do [=that's enough], young man: one more word out of you and you're grounded! c ✧ The phrase that does it is used to say that you have finished doing something. ▪ I just need to sign one more letter . . . There, that does it. That does it is also used in angry speech to say that you will not accept or allow something anymore. ▪ "They say we'll have to wait another hour." "That does it! We're leaving right now!"

16 [no obj] : to be proper — used in negative statements ▪ It doesn't do for a doctor to become too friendly with his patients. = It won't/wouldn't do for a doctor to become too friendly with his patients. [=a doctor should not become too friendly with his patients] ▪ Such behavior will never do! [=such behavior should not be allowed] ▪ We should leave soon. It won't do to be late. ▪ This is a formal occasion, so jeans simply won't do. [=jeans are not appropriate] ✧ In U.S. English, this sense of do has a somewhat formal or old-fashioned quality. — compare ²DONE 3

17 [+ obj] informal : to use (illegal drugs) ▪ He says that he doesn't do drugs anymore.

18 [no obj] informal a : to happen ▪ Is there anything doing tomorrow? ▪ There is nothing doing around here. ▪ Let's find out what's doing downtown. b ✧ People ask what is something/someone doing . . .? when they are surprised or upset about where someone or something is. ▪ What are all my clothes doing (lying/scattered) on the floor? [=why are all my clothes on the floor?] ▪ What were you doing (standing) outside in the rain? [=why were you outside in the rain?] People ask what is someone doing with (something)? when they are surprised or upset because someone has something. ▪ What are you doing with my notebook? = What do you think you're doing with my notebook? [=why do you have my notebook?]

19 [+ obj] informal + offensive : to have sex with (someone)

be to do with see HAVE TO DO WITH (below)

do a number on see ¹NUMBER

do away with [phrasal verb] 1 do away with (someone) : to kill (someone) ▪ She's accused of hiring a hit man to do away with [=murder, do in] her husband. 2 do away with (something) : to cause the end of (something) : to get rid of (something) ▪ The struggling company had to do away with a number of jobs.

do battle see ¹BATTLE

do by [phrasal verb] do by (someone) : to deal with or treat (someone) well or badly ▪ She feels that they did poorly/badly by her. [=that they treated her poorly/badly] ▪ They did pretty well by me when I retired. [=they treated me pretty well when I retired] — see also hard done by at ²HARD

do down [phrasal verb] do (someone) down Brit, informal : to talk about (someone) in an insulting or critical way ▪ She thinks that if she does everybody else down, people will think more highly of her. ▪ Stop doing yourself down: you've got a lot to offer!

do for [phrasal verb] do for (someone) Brit, informal 1 : to cause the death or ruin of (someone) ▪ All that hard work nearly did for him. [=nearly killed him] — see also done for at ²DONE 2 : to do the cleaning and cooking for (someone) ▪ Mrs. Jones does for the vicar now his wife's passed on.

do good see ²GOOD

do in [phrasal verb] do (someone) in informal 1 a : to kill (someone) ▪ They threatened to do him in if he didn't pay the money he owed them. ▪ He's been so depressed lately that his friends are afraid he might do himself in. [=he might kill himself] : to cause the death of (someone) ▪ He struggled with lung disease for many years, but it was a heart attack that finally did him in. b : to cause the failure of (someone) ▪ His inability to attract Southern voters is what finally did him in as a presidential candidate. [=he failed because he was unable to attract Southern voters] ▪ a businessman who was done in by greed 2 : to make (someone) very tired ▪ Working in the garden all day really did me in. = After working in the garden all day, I was/felt done in. [=exhausted] — see also done in at ²DONE do it informal : to have sex ▪ They've kissed—but have they actually done it?

do justice see JUSTICE

do out of [phrasal verb] do (someone) out of (something) informal : to unfairly prevent (someone) from getting or having (something) ▪ I've been done out of what was rightfully mine! ▪ They did [=cheated] him out of his inheritance.

do over [phrasal verb] 1 do (something) over US : to do (something) again ▪ I made a mistake when I measured the window and I had to do it over (again). ▪ If I had to do it (all) over again, I would have stayed in college. 2 do (something) over or do over (something) : to decorate or change a room, house, etc., so that it looks very different ▪ We're planning to do over the kitchen next year. 3 do (someone) over or do over (someone) Brit, informal : to attack and beat (someone) ▪ He got done over by a gang of teenagers.

do someone proud see PROUD

do the trick see ¹TRICK

do up [phrasal verb] 1 do up (something) or do (something) up a : to decorate (something) ▪ They did up the room in bright colors for the party. = The room was all done up in bright colors for the party. b : to adjust (something, such as your hair) in a particular way ▪ She did up her hair in a ponytail. c chiefly Brit : to wrap (something) ▪ packages done up [=wrapped up] in paper and ribbon d chiefly Brit : to repair (something) ▪ do up [=fix up] old furniture ▪ do up an old house 2 do (someone) up : to dress (someone) up : to put attractive clothes, makeup, etc., on (someone) ▪ She really did herself up for the party. = She was all done up for the party. 3 do up or do (something) up or do up (something) of clothing : to be fastened or to fasten (something) with buttons, a zipper, etc. ▪ a dress that does up at the back = a dress that is done up at the back ▪ She did up her dress. ▪ buttons that do up easily = buttons that you can do up easily [=buttons that can be easily buttoned] do well ✧ If you would do well to do something, you should do it. ▪ You would do well to avoid him right now. [=you should avoid him right now] If you did well to do something, you were correct to do it. ▪ You did well to avoid him when he was in a bad mood. If you did well to escape, survive, etc., you were lucky to escape, survive, etc. ▪ When the tornado hit, they did well to escape uninjured.

do with [phrasal verb] do with (something) : to be helped by having (something) ▪ I could (really) do with a cup of hot coffee right now! [=I could use a cup of coffee; I would like/appreciate a cup of coffee] ▪ I could do with a little less criticism right now, if you don't mind!

do without [phrasal verb] do without or do without (something or someone) : to not have (something) : to live, work, etc., without having (something) ▪ If you can't afford a new car, you'll just have to do without (one). ▪ I don't know how we ever did without computers. ▪ I'd like to get a new car, but I can do without it for now. ✧ The phrase can/could do without is often used to say that you do not like or approve of something. ▪ I enjoy traveling, but I can do without having to wait around in crowded airports. [=I don't like having to wait around] ▪ He was late again. That's the kind of selfish behavior I could do without.

do your bit see ¹BIT

D

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 81 SESS: 34 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:28:30 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-d

D

easy does it see ²EASY
have to do with 1 or chiefly Brit be to do with a : to relate to (something) : b : to be about (something) ▪ The problem has to do with fishing rights. = (chiefly Brit) The problem is to do with fishing rights. ▪ "What does her husband do?" "I think it has something to do with computers." = "I think it's got something to do with computers." [=it involves computers in some way] b : to relate to or involve (someone) ▪ That's your problem: it has nothing to do with me! = (chiefly Brit) It's nothing to do with me! [=it doesn't involve me in any way; it's not my problem] ▪ You're wrong. It's got everything to do with you: you're legally responsible for what went wrong. 2 : to be involved in or in some way responsible for (something) ▪ He claims that he had nothing to do with the accident. = He claims that he didn't have anything to do with the accident. [=that he was not involved in the accident] ▪ He claims he wasn't involved, but I know he had something to do with it. 3 ✧ If you do not want to have anything to do with someone or if you want nothing to do with someone, you do not want to be involved with that person in any way. ▪ She thinks he's a liar and she refuses to have anything to do with him. [=she refuses to talk to him, to see him, etc.] ▪ After the way he's treated me, I want nothing (further) to do with him. = I don't want (to have) anything (further) to do with him.
how do you do? see ¹HOW make do see ¹MAKE
nothing doing see ¹NOTHING
– compare ²DO

²do verb does; did; doing; negative forms do not or don't; did not or didn't; does not or doesn't [auxiliary verb]
1 a — used before the subject in a question ▪ Do you play the piano? ▪ How well do you play the piano? ▪ What did he say? ▪ What does her husband do for a living? ▪ When does the train leave? b — used to form brief questions (called tag questions) that come at the end of a statement ▪ You play the piano, don't you? ▪ So you play the piano, do you? ▪ Her husband works with computers, doesn't he?
2 a — used with not to form negative statements ▪ I do not know. = I don't know. ▪ I don't believe anything he says. b — used with not to form commands ▪ Do not lie to me! = (more commonly) Don't lie to me! ▪ Don't touch the stove. ▪ Don't be afraid. Everything will be all right. c somewhat formal — used before the subject in a statement after words like never, seldom, and rarely ▪ Never did he see his native land again. [=he never saw his native land again] ▪ Seldom do we experience such joy! [=we seldom experience such joy]
3 — used to replace another verb or verb phrase ▪ "May I come in?" "Yes, (please) do." ▪ You work harder than I do. ▪ "Do you play the piano?" "No, I don't, but my sister does." ▪ He works hard and I do, too. = He works hard and so do I. ▪ Don't touch the stove: if you do, you'll burn yourself! ▪ She asked me to open the window, which I did. = What I did was (to) open the window when she asked me to. ▪ (informal) "Can you finish it by tomorrow?" "Sure, boss, will do!" [=I will finish it by tomorrow] ▪ (informal) "Can you finish it by tomorrow?" "Sorry, boss, no can do!" [=I can't finish it by tomorrow] ▪ (Brit) "Are you going to the party?" "I might do." [=I might] ▪ (Brit) He can work hard and I can do too. [=I can too] ▪ (Brit) Would you mind feeding the dog if nobody else already has done? [=if nobody else already has] 4 a — used to make a statement stronger ▪ You really do look lovely today! ▪ "It hurts!" "Well, I did warn you it would sting a little!" ▪ I never did like him much. ▪ Oh, do be quiet! b somewhat formal — used as a polite way to tell or urge someone to do something ▪ Do come in and have a seat. ▪ Do come and see us again soon. ▪ Do be careful.
– compare ¹DO

³do noun, pl dos [count] informal
1 : something that a person should do — usually used in the phrase dos and don'ts ▪ She told her daughter about the dos and don'ts of dating. [=about the things that she should and should not do when dating someone]
2 US : a way of cutting and arranging a person's hair : HAIRDO ▪ She was worried that the wind might mess up her do.
3 : a party or social gathering ▪ We threw a big do for her after graduation.
– compare ⁴DO

⁴do /ˈdoʊ/ or chiefly Brit doh noun [noncount] : the first note of a musical scale ▪ do, re, mi, fa, sol, la, ti — compare ³DO

DOA abbr dead on arrival ✧ In U.S. English, people who are dead when brought to a hospital are said to be DOA. ▪ The patient was DOA. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ Because of budget cuts, the proposed park is DOA.

do•able /ˈduːwəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : able to be done ▪ It will be difficult, but it's still doable.

DOB abbr date of birth

Do•ber•man pin•scher /ˌdoʊbɚmənˈpɪnʃɚ/ noun, pl ~ -schers [count] : a type of tall, thin, muscular dog with short hair that is usually black and tan — called also Doberman doc /ˈdɑːk/ noun, pl docs [count] informal : DOCTOR ▪ Am I going to be OK, doc?

doc. abbr document

doc•ile /ˈdɑːsəl, Brit ˈdoʊˌsaɪl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : easily taught, led, or controlled ▪ His students were docile and eager to learn. ▪ a docile, well-behaved pet – doc•ile•ly adv ▪ The horses behaved docilely. – do•cil•i•ty /dɑˈsɪləti, Brit dəʊˈsɪləti/ noun [noncount] ▪ This breed is known for its gentleness and docility.

¹dock /ˈdɑːk/ noun, pl docks
1 a : an area of water in a port where ships are loaded, unloaded, or repaired [count] A crowd was waiting at the dock to greet them. [noncount] The ship is in dock for repairs. — see also DRY DOCK b *the docks : the area in a town or city that has rows of docks, offices, and other buildings ▪ We went down to the docks to watch the ships come in.
2 [count] US : a long structure that is built out into water and used as a place to get on, get off, or tie up a boat ▪ Tie the boat to the dock.
3 [count] US : a place for loading materials onto ships, trucks, trains, etc. ▪ a loading dock
4 [count] : the place in a court of law where a person who is accused of a crime stands or sits during a trial in the dock : on trial for committing a crime ▪ He was arrested and is in the dock on charges of assault and battery.

²dock verb docks; docked; dock•ing
1 : to bring a ship or boat into a dock [no obj] We spent two days at sea before docking in Miami, Florida. [+ obj] The captain was forced to dock the ship.
2 : to join together (two spacecraft) while in space [no obj] The shuttle was scheduled to dock with the space station. [+ obj] They docked the spaceship with the satellite.
3 [+ obj] : to connect an electronic device (such as a computer or a digital camera) to another device ▪ You can dock the camera directly to the printer and download the pictures. ▪ The handheld PC can be docked into/with your desktop computer. ▪ a docking station
– compare ³DOCK

³dock verb docks; docked; dock•ing [+ obj]
1 : to take away part of (the money that is paid to someone) ▪ Her boss docked her pay/wages for coming in late.
2 : to cut off the end of (an animal's tail) ▪ The puppy's tail was docked.
– compare ²DOCK

dock•er /ˈdɑːkɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] Brit : DOCKWORKER

dock•et /ˈdɑːkət/ noun, pl -ets [count] US
1 : a list of the legal cases that will be tried in a court of law ▪ The judge had to postpone some of the cases on the docket.
2 : a list of things to do or discuss ▪ The new library will be the first item on the committee's docket. [=on the committee's agenda]

dock•land /ˈdɑkˌlænd/ noun, pl -lands Brit : the part of a port where there are docks [noncount] an area of dockland [count] an old dockland — called also docklands

dock•side /ˈdɑːkˌsaɪd/ noun [singular] : the area along a shore next to a dock ▪ The fish are unloaded at dockside and taken right to the market. — often used before another noun ▪ dockside warehouses/restaurants

dock•work•er /ˈdɑːkˌwɚkɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] US : a person who loads and unloads ships at a port : LONGSHOREMAN

dock•yard /ˈdɑːkˌjɑɚd/ noun, pl -yards [count] : a place where ships are built and repaired : SHIPYARD

¹doc•tor /ˈdɑːktɚ/ noun, pl -tors [count] ✧ The abbreviation Dr. is usually used in writing when doctor is being used as a title for a specific person. ▪ I have an appointment with Dr. Brown.
1 a : a person who is skilled in the science of medicine : b : a person who is trained and licensed to treat sick and injured people ▪ I think you should see a doctor. [=physician] ▪ He needed medicine but refused to go to a doctor. ▪ a visit to the doctor's office = a doctor's visit ▪ She was under doctor's orders not to return to work. ▪ Most of her money goes to paying doctors' bills. [=bills for visits to doctors and medical treatment] b the doctor or the doctor's : the place where a doctor works ▪ I saw her at the doctor's last week. ▪ How long will you be at the doctor?

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 82 SESS: 11 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:28:30 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-d

2 US a : a dentist — used chiefly as a title or as a form of address ▪ My dentist is Dr. Smith. b : a person who is trained to treat sick and injured animals : VETERINARIAN ▪ an animal doctor — used chiefly as a title or as a form of address ▪ We took our dog to Dr. Jones.

3 : a person who has the highest degree (such as a PhD) given by a university ▪ Most of the faculty members at this college are doctors in their fields. ▪ a Doctor of Philosophy ▪ Dr. Smith, can you explain the exam requirements again?

just what the doctor ordered informal : exactly what is wanted or needed ▪ A day at the beach was just what the doctor ordered. — see also SPIN DOCTOR, WITCH DOCTOR

[2]doctor verb -tors; -tored; -tor·ing [+ obj]

1 : to change (something) especially in order to trick or deceive people ▪ They were accused of doctoring the company's financial records. ▪ a doctored photo of the actress

2 : to add something (such as alcohol or drugs) to (a food or drink) ▪ I think somebody doctored the punch.

3 : to give medical treatment to (an injury, a person, etc.) ▪ He had time to doctor his wounds. ▪ She doctored the sick child until the physician arrived.

doc·tor·al /ˈdɑːktərəl/ adj, always used before a noun : of or relating to the highest degree that is given by a university ▪ a doctoral degree ▪ He wrote his doctoral dissertation/thesis on William Shakespeare. ▪ doctoral candidates [=students trying to earn their doctorates] — see also POSTDOCTORAL doc·tor·ate /ˈdɑːktərət/ noun, pl -ates [count] : the highest degree that is given by a university ▪ She got a job teaching at the university after earning her doctorate. [=PhD]

doc·tri·naire /ˌdɑːktrəˈneə/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal + disapproving — used to describe a person who has very strong beliefs about what should be done and will not change them or accept other people's opinions ▪ The senator is less doctrinaire than generally believed. ▪ a doctrinaire conservative/socialist

doc·trine /ˈdɑːktrən/ noun, pl -trines

1 : a set of ideas or beliefs that are taught or believed to be true [count] The government was founded on a doctrine of equality for all people. ▪ Many psychologists now question the doctrines of Sigmund Freud. [noncount] teaching religious doctrine to young people

2 [count] US : a statement of government policy especially in international relations ▪ the Truman/Monroe doctrine

– doc·tri·nal /ˈdɑːktrənl, Brit dɒkˈtraɪnl/ adj ▪ The group split into two parties as a result of doctrinal differences. – doc·tri·nal·ly adv

do·cu·dra·ma /ˈdɑːkjəˌdrɑːmə/ noun, pl -mas [count] : a movie that is usually made for television and that tells a story about real events that have happened recently ▪ They are making a docudrama about the controversial court case.

[1]doc·u·ment /ˈdɑːkjəmənt/ noun, pl -ments [count]

1 : an official paper that gives information about something or that is used as proof of something ▪ It is important to keep all of your financial documents in a safe place. ▪ legal/official/historical documents ▪ An important classified document has been leaked to the media.

2 : a computer file that contains text that you have written ▪ creating a new document on your computer ▪ I lost the document when the hard drive crashed.

[2]doc·u·ment /ˈdɑːkjəˌmɛnt/ verb -ments; -ment·ed; -ment·ing [+ obj]

1 : to create a record of (something) through writing, film, photography, etc. ▪ Her study was the first to document this type of behavior in gorillas. ▪ He wrote a book documenting their struggle.

2 : to prove (something) by using usually written evidence ▪ Can you document the claims you're making? ▪ The charges are well/fully documented.

– doc·u·ment·able /ˈdɑːkjəˌmɛntəbəl/ adj ▪ documentable evidence

[1]doc·u·men·ta·ry /ˌdɑːkjəˈmɛntri/ noun, pl -ries [count] : a movie or television program that tells the facts about actual people and events ▪ We watched a documentary on the early history of jazz. — often used before another noun ▪ a documentary filmmaker ▪ She has produced several award-winning documentary films.

[2]documentary adj, always used before a noun : consisting of documents : written down ▪ You must present documentary proof of your residence. ▪ documentary evidence

doc·u·men·ta·tion /ˌdɑːkjəmənˈteɪʃən/ noun [noncount]

1 : the documents, records, etc., that are used to prove something or make something official ▪ You cannot visit the country unless you have the proper documentation. ▪ Keep your receipts as documentation of your purchases. ▪ written documentation ▪ Can you provide documentation of the claims you're making?

2 : written instructions for using a computer or computer program ▪ The program's documentation is poorly written.

DOD abbr, US Department of Defense

dod·der·ing /ˈdɑːdərɪŋ/ adj : walking and moving in a slow and unsteady way because of old age ▪ a doddering old man dod·dle /ˈdɑːdl/ noun [singular] Brit, informal : something that is very easy to do ▪ This machine makes cleaning your home a doddle. [=cinch]

[1]dodge /ˈdɑːʤ/ verb dodg·es; dodged; dodg·ing

1 a [+ obj] : to move quickly to one side in order to avoid being hit by (someone or something) ▪ He dodged the first punch but was hit by the second. ▪ dodging traffic b always followed by an adverb or preposition [no obj] : to move quickly in order to avoid being hit, seen, stopped, etc. ▪ She dodged through the crowds as she hurried home. ▪ He dodged [=ducked] behind the bushes. ▪ We dodged between the cars as we raced across the street.

2 [+ obj] : to get away from or avoid (someone or something) in a skillful or dishonest way ▪ She dodged [=evaded] the question by changing the subject. ▪ They managed to dodge the reporters by leaving through the back exit. ▪ She accused him of dodging his responsibilities as a parent. ▪ Many young men tried to dodge the draft [=to avoid being drafted into the military] by leaving the country.

dodge a/the bullet chiefly US, informal : to barely avoid being hit or affected by something harmful ▪ The island dodged a bullet when the hurricane turned south.

[2]dodge noun, pl dodges [count] : a clever or dishonest trick done in order to avoid something ▪ It was just another dodge to get out of working. ▪ a tax dodge

dodge·ball /ˈdɑːʤˌbɑːl/ noun [noncount] : a game in which players try to hit their opponents with an inflated ball in order to get them removed from the game

dodg·em car /ˈdɑːʤəm-/ noun, pl ~ cars [count] Brit : BUMPER CAR

dodg·er /ˈdɑːʤə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a person who avoids doing something by being dishonest ▪ tax dodgers [=evaders] ▪ a draft dodger [=a person who illegally avoids being drafted into the military] dodgy /ˈdɑːʤi/ adj dodgier; -est [also more ~; most ~] chiefly Brit, informal

1 a : false or dishonest ▪ dodgy business deals ▪ a dodgy insurance claim b : causing a lack of trust or confidence ▪ I heard he has a pretty dodgy [=questionable] reputation.

2 : in bad condition ▪ The car's got a dodgy engine. ▪ my dodgy knees

3 : difficult or risky ▪ They got into a dodgy situation.

do·do /ˈdoʊˌdoʊ/ noun, pl -does or -dos [count]

1 : a type of bird that lived in the past and that was large, heavy, and unable to fly

2 US, informal + humorous : a stupid or silly person ▪ That dodo can't do anything right. ▪ I feel like a complete dodo.

(as) dead as a dodo see [1]DEAD

doe /ˈdoʊ/ noun, pl does or doe [count] : a female animal (such as a deer, rabbit, or kangaroo) — compare BUCK; see also JANE DOE, JOHN DOE

doe–eyed /ˈdoʊˌaɪd/ adj : having large eyes that make you look innocent ▪ a doe-eyed little boy do·er /ˈduːə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a person who actively does things instead of just thinking or talking about them ▪ I'm more of a thinker than a doer.

does see DO doesn't /ˈdʌzn̩t/ — used as a contraction of does not ▪ She doesn't like cake. ▪ This shirt doesn't fit.

doff /ˈdɑːf/ verb doffs; doffed; doff·ing [+ obj] old-fashioned : to take off or remove (a hat or a piece of clothing) ▪ He doffed his cap as he introduced himself. ▪ They doffed their coats when they came inside.

[1]dog /ˈdɑːg/ noun, pl dogs

1 [count] a : a type of animal that is often kept as a pet or trained to work for people by guarding buildings, hunting, etc. ▪ That dog barks all day long. ▪ children playing with the family dog ▪ a guard dog ▪ a hunting dog ▪ wild dogs such as the Australian dingo — often used before another noun ▪ a

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 83 SESS: 35 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:28:31 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−d

dog collar ▪ dog food/shows ▪ I'm not really a dog person. [=I don't particularly like dogs] b : a male dog

2 [count] informal a : a person who is regarded as lucky, unlucky, etc. ▪ You lucky dog! — see also TOP DOG b : a person who is lazy or who is not liked ▪ He's a lazy dog. ▪ He's a worthless dog. [=bum] c offensive : an unattractive girl or woman ▪ They say she's a real dog.

3 [count] US, informal : something that is poor in quality ▪ Her latest book turned out to be a real dog. ▪ That was a dog of a movie.

4 [count] US, informal : HOT DOG ▪ Would you like another dog? — see also CHILI DOG, CORN DOG

5 dogs [plural] US, informal + old-fashioned : FEET ▪ My dogs were tired from standing all day.

a dog's breakfast Brit, informal : something that is messy or poorly done ▪ It was a dog's breakfast of a match, and our coach was understandably upset.

a dog's life : a difficult, boring, and unhappy life ▪ Everyone knows it's a dog's life in this business.

(as) sick as a dog informal : very sick ▪ I'm sick as a dog.

dog and pony show US, usually disapproving : a very fancy and elaborate event that is done to sell something, to impress people, etc. ▪ The sales presentation was a real dog and pony show.

every dog has his/its day informal — used to say that every person has a successful moment in life go to the dogs informal : to become ruined : to change to a much worse condition ▪ Our favorite restaurant has gone to the dogs lately. ▪ The economy is going to the dogs.

hair of the dog (that bit you) see HAIR

in a dog's age see [1]AGE

let sleeping dogs lie : to ignore a problem because trying to deal with it could cause an even more difficult situation ▪ I thought about bringing up my concerns but decided instead to let sleeping dogs lie.

put on the dog US, informal + old-fashioned : to pretend that you are very stylish or rich ▪ They really put on the dog for their daughter's wedding.

rain cats and dogs see [2]RAIN

the tail wagging the dog see [1]TAIL

you can't teach an old dog new tricks — used to say that a person who is old or is used to doing things in a certain way cannot learn or does not want to learn a new way ▪ I tried to get my mother to start using a computer, but she says you can't teach an old dog new tricks.

[2]dog verb dogs; dogged; dog•ging [+ obj]

1 : to follow (someone) very closely ▪ He dogged her every move.

2 : to ask (someone) about something or for something constantly or frequently ▪ Creditors dogged him until he finally paid his bills. ▪ Reporters kept dogging [=pestering] her for information.

3 : to cause problems for (someone) for a long time — often used as (be) dogged ▪ His career has been dogged [=plagued] by controversy. ▪ an athlete dogged by injuries [=an athlete who has had many injuries]

dog biscuit noun, pl ∼ -cuits [count] : a hard, dry cracker for dogs dog•catch•er /ˈdɑːgˌkɛʧɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] US : a public official who is responsible for catching dogs that do not have homes — called also (Brit) dog warden dog days noun [plural] : the hottest time of the year ▪ The kids used to go swimming every afternoon during the dog days of summer.

dog–eared /ˈdɑːgˌiɚd/ adj [more ∼; most ∼] : having some pages with the top corners folded down ▪ All I had was a few old dog-eared copies of my favorite books. ▪ a dog-eared magazine — sometimes used figuratively ▪ dog-eared jokes [=old jokes that have been told many times] dog–eat–dog /ˌdɑːgˌiːtˈdɑːg/ adj — used to describe a situ-

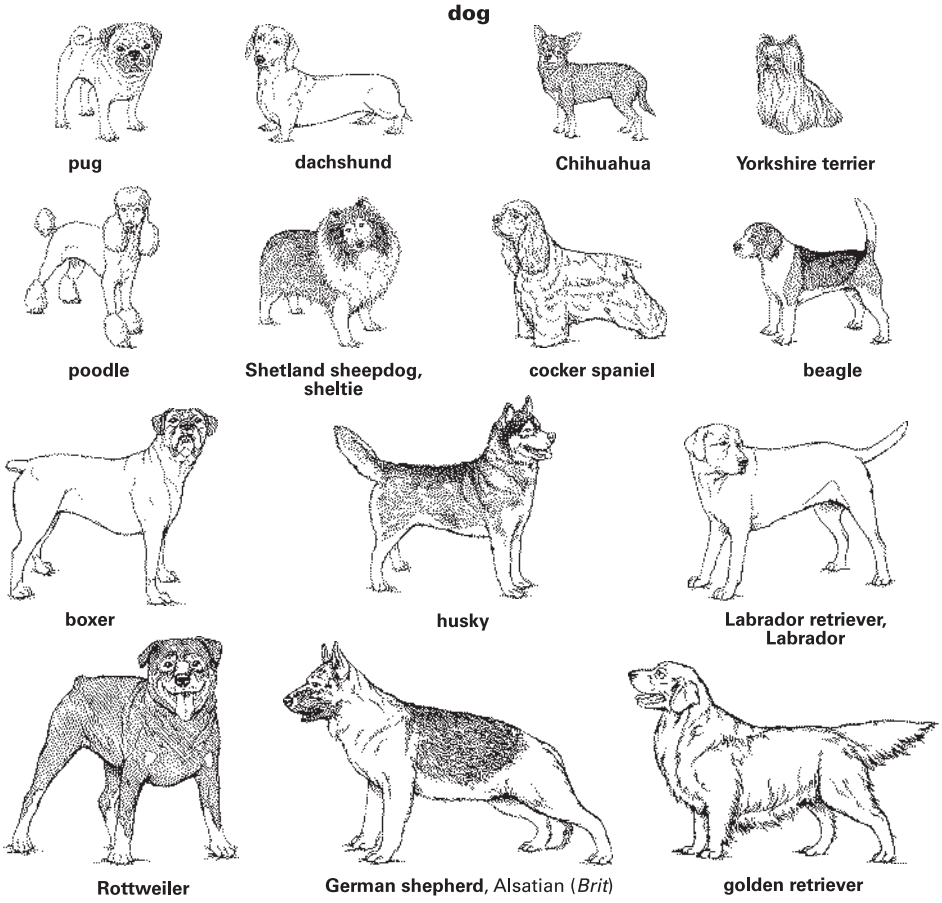
dog



JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 84 SESS: 51 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:28:31 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-d

ation in which people compete with each other for success in a cruel and selfish way ▪ It's a dog-eat-dog business we're in. ▪ dog-eat-dog competitions dog•fight /ˈdɑːgˌfaɪt/ noun, pl -fights [count]

1 : a fight between dogs
2 : a fight between fighter planes that are flying close to each other ▪ He was shot down in a dogfight over enemy territory.
3 : a fierce fight or struggle between people or groups ▪ The election has turned into a real dogfight.

dog•ged /ˈdɑːgəd/ adj [more ~; most ~] : having or showing the attitude of a person who wants to do or get something and will not stop trying : stubborn and determined ▪ Her dogged efforts eventually paid off. ▪ a dogged pursuit of power
– dog•ged•ly adv ▪ He worked doggedly to maintain his lead. ▪ The press doggedly pursues him wherever he goes. – dog•ged•ness noun [noncount]

dog•ger•el /ˈdɑːgərəl/ noun [noncount] : poetry that is poorly written and that often is not meant to be taken seriously ▪ a few lines of doggerel

doggie bag also doggy bag noun, pl ~ bags [count] : a bag that is used for carrying home food that is left over from a meal eaten at a restaurant

[1]dog•gone /ˈdɑːgˈgɑːn/ interj, US, informal + somewhat old-fashioned — used as a more polite form of damn ▪ Doggone! That hurt!

[2]doggone verb, US, informal + somewhat old-fashioned [+ obj] — used as a more polite form of damn ▪ Doggone it! I forgot my keys! ▪ Listen to me, doggone it! ▪ (I'll be) Doggoned if he didn't leave early. [=I'm surprised that he left early]

[3]doggone or doggoned /ˈdɑːgˈgɑːnd/ adj, US, informal + somewhat old-fashioned — used as a more polite form of damn ▪ Those doggone kids stepped on our flowers! ▪ He didn't do a doggone thing today. ▪ It's a doggone shame that you missed it. ▪ If you believe that, you're a doggoned fool!
– doggone /ˈdɑːgˈgɑːn/ or doggoned /ˈdɑːgˈgɑːnd/ adv ▪ What's so doggone funny? ▪ She's too doggoned skinny.

dog•gy or dog•gie /ˈdɑːgi/ noun, pl -gies [count] informal : a dog ✧ Doggy is used especially by children or when talking to children. ▪ Oh, what a cute little doggy!
– doggy adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ a doggy smell dog•house /ˈdɑːgˌhaʊs/ noun, pl -hous•es [count] US : an outdoor shelter with a roof for a dog in the doghouse informal : in a bad situation because someone is angry at you : in trouble ▪ He's in the doghouse with his wife [=his wife is angry at him] for being late.

dog•leg /ˈdɑːgˌlɛg/ noun, pl -legs [count] : a place where a road, golf course, etc., bends or turns sharply ▪ a sharp dogleg to the left – dogleg adj, always used before a noun ▪ dogleg fairways – dogleg verb -legs; -legged; -leg•ging [no obj] ▪ a fairway that doglegs to the left dog•ma /ˈdɑːgmə/ noun, pl -mas [count, noncount] formal

1 usually disapproving : a belief or set of beliefs that is accepted by the members of a group without being questioned or doubted ▪ These new findings challenge the current dogma in the field. ▪ political dogma
2 : a belief or set of beliefs that is taught by a religious organization dog•mat•ic /dɑgˈmætɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] disapproving : expressing personal opinions or beliefs as if they are certainly correct and cannot be doubted ▪ She's become so dogmatic lately that arguing with her is pointless. ▪ dogmatic critics ▪ dogmatic statements – dog•mat•i•cal•ly /dɑgˈmætɪkli/ adv [more ~; most ~] – dog•ma•tism /ˈdɑːgməˌtɪzəm/ noun [noncount] ▪ moral/religious/political dogmatism – dog•ma•tist /ˈdɑːgmətɪst/ noun, pl -tists [count] ▪ a political dogmatist [=a person with dogmatic political opinions] do–good•er /ˈduːˌgʊdə/ noun, pl -ers [count] disapproving : someone whose desire and effort to help people (such as poor people) is regarded as wrong, annoying, useless, etc. ▪ He dismisses his critics as a bunch of politically correct do-gooders.

dog–paddle also doggy–paddle verb -pad•dles; -pad•dled; -pad•dling [no obj] : to swim like a dog with your head above water and your arms and legs paddling under the water ▪ When she first learned to swim, all she could do was dog-paddle.
– dog paddle also doggy paddle noun [singular] ▪ doing a/the dog paddle

dog•sled /ˈdɑːgˌslɛd/ noun, pl -sleds [count] chiefly US : a type of sled that is pulled by dogs
– dogsled verb -sleds; -sled•ded; -sled•ding [no obj] He dogsledded across the tundra. [+ obj] They dogsledded supplies to the fort. – dogsledding noun [noncount] ▪ She likes to go dogsledding in the winter.

dog tag noun, pl ~ tags [count] : a small, thin piece of metal that is worn around the neck of an American soldier and that lists the soldier's name, service number, and other information dog–tired adj [more ~; most ~] informal : very tired : EXHAUSTED ▪ I was dog-tired and ready for bed.

dog warden noun, pl ~ -dens [count] Brit : DOGCATCHER dog•wood /ˈdɑːgˌwʊd/ noun, pl -woods

1 [count] : a type of bush or small tree with groups of small flowers ▪ We planted two dogwoods. ▪ a dogwood tree 2 [noncount] : the hard wood of a dogwood ▪ The furniture is made of dogwood.

doh chiefly Brit spelling of [4]DO

DoH abbr, Brit Department of Health

d'oh /ˈdoʊ/ interj, informal + humorous — used when you realize that you have just said or done something stupid or foolish doi•ly /ˈdɔɪli/ noun, pl -lies [count] : a usually round cloth or paper that has a decorative pattern made of many small holes ✧ Doilies are typically placed on top of something (such as a piece of furniture) to protect it or for decoration. ▪ She placed a lace doily under the vase.

do•ing /ˈduːɪŋ/ noun, pl -ings
1 [noncount] : the act of making something happen through your own action ▪ It's the doing of the good deed that is important, not the thanks you receive. ✧ Informal phrases like take a bit of doing, take some doing, and take a lot of doing are used to say that something is difficult to do and requires a lot of effort or work. ▪ Finishing the work on time may take a bit of doing. ▪ It will take some doing to win the game. ▪ Getting the project done on time will take a lot of doing. ✧ If something is your doing, you did it. ▪ Is this mix-up your doing? [=did you cause the mix-up?] ▪ The surprise party was not all our doing; we had lots of help.
2 doings [plural] : things that someone does ▪ I've been reading about the governor's latest doings. [=activities] : things that happen ▪ There have been some strange doings [=goings-on, occurrences] lately.

do–it–yourself adj, always used before a noun : of or relating to work (such as fixing or building something) that you do yourself instead of hiring someone to do it ▪ a do-it-yourself [=DIY] home improvement project ▪ do-it-yourself home repair ▪ do-it-yourself stores [=stores where you buy materials to fix or build things]
– do–it–your•self•er noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ a how-to guide for do-it-yourselfers

do•jo /ˈdoʊʤoʊ/ noun, pl -jos [count] : a school for teaching people karate, judo, etc.

Dol•by /ˈdɑːlbi, ˈdoʊlbi/ trademark — used for an electronic device that removes unwanted noise from recorded or broadcast sound

dol•drums /ˈdoʊldrəmz/ noun [plural]
1 : a state or period of sadness or depression ▪ We watched movies to fight off the winter doldrums. — often used in the phrase in the doldrums ▪ She has been in the doldrums since her best friend moved away.
2 : a state or period in which there is no activity or improvement ▪ The company is slowly climbing out of its economic doldrums. — often used in the phrase in the doldrums ▪ The market is in the doldrums.

[1]dole /ˈdoʊl/ noun [noncount] : money that a government (especially the British government) gives to people who do not have jobs or who are very poor ▪ dole money — usually used as the dole ▪ The government is changing the rules for receiving the dole. [=(US) welfare] ▪ They've been on/off the dole for a year. ▪ They're going on/off the dole.

[2]dole verb doles; doled; dol•ing
dole out [phrasal verb] dole out (something) also dole (something) out : to give (something) to people ▪ She is always doling out advice on relationships. ▪ The organization has doled out millions of dollars in grants. ▪ The nurse doles the pills out carefully. ▪ The agency doles out [=hands out, distributes] food to thousands of needy families each year.

dole•ful /ˈdoʊlfəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : very sad ▪ The girl had a doleful look/expression on her face. ▪ You sounded so doleful about your future that night.

D

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 85 SESS: 37 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:28:32 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−d

D

– dole•ful•ly adv

[1]doll /ˈdɑːl/ noun, pl dolls [count]
1 : a child's toy in the form of a baby or small person ▪ The child was busy playing with her (baby) dolls. ▪ My aunt collects porcelain dolls. — see also RAG DOLL
2 chiefly US, informal : a kind and helpful person — usually singular ▪ Thanks for the help. You're a doll. [=dear]
3 informal + old-fashioned : a woman; especially : an attractive woman ✧ This sense of doll is now often considered offensive especially when it is used as a way to address a woman.

[2]doll verb dolls; dolled; doll•ing doll up [phrasal verb] doll (yourself) up informal : to make (yourself) attractive with makeup and fancy or stylish clothes ▪ She dolled herself up for the party. = She got (all) dolled up for the party.

dol•lar /ˈdɑːlə/ noun, pl -lars
1 [count] a : a basic unit of money in the U.S., Canada, Australia, and other countries that is equal to 100 cents ▪ The shirt costs 20 dollars. [=$20] ▪ She had to pay hundreds of dollars in auto repairs. ▪ The property is worth a million dollars. = It's a million-dollar property. ▪ Do you have a 20-dollar bill? [=a twenty] ▪ It costs 500 pesos. How much is that in dollars? [=how many dollars equals 500 pesos?] b : a bill or coin that is worth one dollar ▪ I found a dollar on the sidewalk. = I found a dollar bill on the sidewalk. ▪ She put a wrinkled dollar down on the counter. — see also HALF-DOLLAR, TOP DOLLAR
2 the dollar technical : the value of a dollar when it is compared to another unit of money ▪ The dollar dropped sharply against the pound. ▪ the strength/weakness of the dollar ▪ The dollar is worth more in Mexico.
3 [count] : money that is from a specified source or used for a specified purpose ▪ You want to know how the state spends every federal dollar [=money from the federal government] it receives? — usually plural ▪ Should a program like this be paid for with tax/taxpayer dollars? [=with money the government collects through taxes] ▪ tourist/tourism dollars [=money that an economy gets because of the money tourists spend there] ▪ The company needs to invest its advertising dollars wisely.
bet your bottom dollar see [2]BET look/feel like a million dollars see MILLION
– see also SAND DOLLAR

dollar sign noun, pl ~ signs [count] : a symbol $ placed before a number to show that it represents an amount of dollars — often used figuratively ▪ Where other people saw junk, she saw dollar signs. [=she saw a way to earn money] ▪ investors with dollar signs in their eyes [=investors who want very much to earn money]

doll•house /ˈdɑːlˌhaʊs/ noun, pl -hous•es [count] US : a small toy house that is used by children for playing with dolls — called also (Brit) doll's house

dol•lop /ˈdɑːləp/ noun, pl -lops [count]
1 : a small amount of soft food ▪ My piece of pie was served with a dollop of whipped cream. ▪ a dollop of ketchup
2 : a usually small amount of something ▪ A dollop of milk was left in the container. ▪ large dollops of wit and humor

doll's house noun, pl dolls' houses [count] Brit : DOLLHOUSE

dol•ly /ˈdɑːli/ noun, pl -lies [count]
1 : a child's toy doll ✧ Dolly is usually used by children or by adults speaking to children.
2 : a piece of equipment that has wheels and that is used for moving heavy objects ▪ We'll need a dolly to move the refrigerator.

dol•men /ˈdoʊlmən, ˈdɑːlmən/ noun, pl -mens [count] technical : an ancient structure made of two or more upright stones and a single stone lying across them ✧ Dolmens are believed to be tombs.

dol•phin /ˈdɑːlfən/ noun, pl -phins [count] : a small usually gray whale that has a pointed nose — compare PORPOISE

dolt /ˈdoʊlt/ noun, pl dolts [count] informal : a stupid person ▪ What a dolt I've been!
– dolt•ish /ˈdoʊltɪʃ/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ a doltish person ▪ doltish behavior

-dom /dəm/ noun suffix
1 : the state of being (something) ▪ free*dom*
2 : the rank of ▪ duke*dom*
3 : the area ruled by ▪ king*dom*
4 : the group having a specified job, position, interest, or character ▪ official*dom*

do•main /doʊˈmeɪn/ noun, pl -mains [count]
1 : the land that a ruler or a government controls : TERRITORY ▪ The forest is part of the king's domain. ▪ the British/Ottoman imperial domain — see also EMINENT DOMAIN, PUBLIC DOMAIN
2 : an area of knowledge or activity ▪ My sister is the math expert in the family, but literature is my domain. ▪ Childcare is no longer solely a female domain. — often + of ▪ Federal crimes are outside the domain of city police.
3 computers a : a section of the Internet that is made up of computers or sites that are related in some way (such as by use or source) ✧ An abbreviation of an Internet site's domain (such as .gov, .org, and .com) is included in its address: www.Merriam-Webster.com. b : DOMAIN NAME domain name noun, pl ~ names [count] computers : the characters (such as Merriam-Webster.com or Whitehouse.gov) that form the main part of an Internet address dome /ˈdoʊm/ noun, pl domes [count]

1 : a large rounded roof or ceiling that is shaped like half of a ball ▪ the dome of the Capitol building ▪ the church's high dome
2 : a structure that looks like the dome of a building ▪ a dome of ice
3 : a stadium that is covered by a roof ▪ The team's new stadium is a dome.
4 informal : a person's head ▪ He wears a hat to protect his bald dome from the summer sun.

domed /ˈdoʊmd/ adj : shaped like or covered with a dome ▪ The dog's skull is slightly domed. ▪ a domed ceiling/church/stadium

[1]do•mes•tic /dəˈmɛstɪk/ adj
1 : of, relating to, or made in your own country ▪ the domestic economy/market ▪ foreign and domestic affairs/policy ▪ international and domestic politics ▪ The company hopes to attract both foreign and domestic investors. ▪ The wine is domestic. ▪ domestic and imported cheeses ▪ The airline only offers domestic flights. [=flights to and from places within the country] — opposite FOREIGN
2 always used before a noun : relating to or involving someone's home or family ▪ domestic happiness ▪ His domestic [=home] life was not very happy. ▪ domestic abuse/violence [=physical harm done to a member of a family or household by another member of the same family or household]
3 a always used before a noun : relating to the work (such as cooking and cleaning) that is done in a person's home ▪ domestic chores/duties/work/services/help ▪ a domestic worker/servant [=a worker/servant who is hired to work in someone's home] b [more ~; most ~] — used to describe a person who enjoys work and activities that are done at home ▪ I'm not a domestic person. ▪ She is not very domestic. c always used before a noun : used in the home ▪ domestic furniture/appliances
4 of an animal : living with people : bred or trained to need and accept the care of human beings : DOMESTICATED ▪ The wolf is related to the domestic dog. ▪ wild and domestic cats ▪ domestic animals/cattle – do•mes•ti•cal•ly /dəˈmɛstɪkli/ adv ▪ It is a domestically produced wine. ▪ Domestically, the economy is not doing well.

[2]domestic noun, pl -tics [count]
1 old-fashioned : a servant who is hired to work in someone's home : a domestic servant
2 Brit, informal : a fight between members of a family or household ▪ She got in a domestic with her husband.

do•mes•ti•cate /dəˈmɛstəˌkeɪt/ verb -cates; -cat•ed; -cat•ing [+ obj]
1 a : to breed or train (an animal) to need and accept the care of human beings : to tame (an animal) ▪ Humans have domesticated dogs/cattle/chickens. ▪ Horses and oxen have been domesticated to work on farms. b : to grow (a plant) for human use ▪ Native Americans domesticated corn.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 86 SESS: 11 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:28:33 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-d

2 humorous : to train (someone) to behave in an appropriate way at home (such as by using good manners, being polite, being helpful, etc.) ▪ She jokes that dogs are easier to domesticate than men.
– domesticated adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ domesticated animals – do•mes•ti•ca•tion /dəˌmɛstəˈkeɪʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ the domestication of animals do•mes•tic•i•ty /ˌdoʊˌmɛˈstɪsəti/ noun [noncount] formal : life inside a home : the activities of a family or of the people who share a home ▪ We got married and settled into a life of comfortable domesticity.

domestic partner noun, pl ~ -ners [count] US, formal : a person you live with and have a sexual relationship with but are not married to ✧ Domestic partner is usually used in legal situations. ▪ The organization is trying to get tax and insurance benefits for domestic partners.
– domestic partnership noun, pl ~ -ships [count] ▪ People in domestic partnerships qualify for insurance benefits.

domestic science noun [noncount] old-fashioned : HOME ECONOMICS

dom•i•cile /ˈdɑːməˌsajəl/ noun, pl -ciles law : the place where you live : your home [noncount] You will need to report your change of domicile to your insurance company. [count] Students must establish a domicile in the state to be eligible for reduced tuition.

dom•i•ciled adj, not used before a noun, law : living or established in a particular place ▪ The defendant/corporation is domiciled in Texas. ▪ students domiciled outside the state

dom•i•nant /ˈdɑːmənənt/ adj
1 [more ~; most ~] : more important, powerful, or successful than most or all others ▪ The university has/plays a dominant [=major] role in the local economy. ▪ Money is the dominant [=main] force in consumer societies. ▪ The company is now dominant in its market. ▪ What is the dominant [=major, predominant] theme of the play? ▪ It is the dominant culture/tribe in the region. ▪ She has a very dominant [=domineering] personality. ▪ the dominant female/male of the pack
2 : most common ▪ the dominant [=prevailing] language/religion of the country
3 biology : causing or relating to a characteristic or condition that a child will have if one of the child's parents has it ▪ dominant genes ▪ Brown hair is a dominant trait. = Brown hair is dominant. — opposite RECESSIVE
– dom•i•nance /ˈdɑːmənəns/ noun [noncount] The companies are competing for dominance in the market. = The companies are competing for market dominance. ▪ military/political dominance [=predominance] ▪ male dominance [=the state of men or male animals having more power than women or female animals] ▪ the French language's dominance in the region = the regional dominance of the French language [singular] The company has established a dominance in the market. ▪ the team's dominance over its rivals ▪ a neighborhood with a dominance [=predominance] of older homes – dom•i•nant•ly adv ▪ The population is dominantly [=(more commonly) predominantly] Catholic. ▪ a dominantly inherited disease

dom•i•nate /ˈdɑːməˌneɪt/ verb -nates; -nat•ed; -nat•ing
1 [+ obj] : to have control of or power over (someone or something) ▪ The king dreamed of dominating [=ruling] the world. ▪ One company has dominated the market for years. ▪ Men dominate the field. = It's a male-dominated field. ▪ He dominated her life for many years.
2 [+ obj] : to be the most important part of (something) ▪ His work dominated the art scene last year. ▪ The business dominated her life. [=most of her life/time was devoted to the business] ▪ The topic of her arrest dominated the conversation. [=most of the conversation was about her arrest]
3 : to be much more powerful or successful than others in a game, competition, etc. [no obj] Our team dominated throughout the game. [+ obj] Our team dominated play throughout the game. ▪ She dominated the match.
4 [no obj] : to be most common ▪ Pine trees dominate in the eastern part of the forest. ▪ French dominates throughout the region, but German is also spoken.
5 [+ obj] : to be the largest or most noticeable object in (a place) ▪ The statue dominates the town's square. ▪ The room was dominated by a large table.
– dominating adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ He has had a dominating influence in her life. ▪ a very dominating team – dom•i•na•tion /ˌdɑːməˈneɪʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ The king had dreams of world domination. ▪ market domination – dom•i•na•tor /ˈdɑːməˌneɪtɚ/ noun, pl -tors [count] ▪ The company is a market dominator.

do•mi•na•trix /ˌdɑːmɪˈneɪtrɪks/ noun, pl -tri•ces /-trəˌsiːz/ also -trix•es [count] : a woman who controls and hurts her partner during sexual activity in order to give her partner sexual pleasure

dom•i•neer•ing /ˌdɑːməˈnɪrɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~] : tending too often to tell people what to do : often trying to control the behavior of others ▪ a domineering [=controlling] parent ▪ Their manager is much too domineering. [=(informal) bossy]

Do•min•i•can /dəˈmɪnɪkən/ noun, pl -cans [count] : a member of a Roman Catholic group of friars founded in 1215 by St. Dominic – Dominican adj ▪ the Dominican order ▪ Dominican friars do•min•ion /dəˈmɪnjən/ noun, pl -ions formal

1 [noncount] : the power to rule : control of a country, region, etc. ▪ The U.S. has/holds dominion over the island. ▪ The countries fought for dominion of the territory. synonyms see ¹POWER
2 [count] : the land that a ruler or government controls ▪ The whole island is the king's dominion. [=domain] ▪ the dominions of the empire
3 Dominion [count] : a country that was part of the British Empire but had its own government ✧ Countries that were formerly Dominions are now members of the Commonwealth.

dom•i•no /ˈdɑːməˌnoʊ/ noun, pl -noes or -nos
1 [count] : a small flat rectangular block made of wood or plastic that has one or more dots on one side and that is used in playing games
2 dominoes [noncount] : a game played with dominoes ▪ Dominoes is one of my favorite games.

domino effect noun [singular] : a situation in which one event causes a series of similar events to happen one after another ▪ The delay created a domino effect [=ripple effect], disrupting deliveries around the country.

¹don /ˈdɑːn/ noun, pl dons [count]
1 Brit : a teacher in a college or university; especially : a teacher at Oxford or Cambridge University
2 informal : a powerful Mafia leader

²don verb dons; donned; don•ning [+ obj] formal + old-fashioned : to put on (a piece of clothing) ▪ He donned his gloves and hat. ▪ She donned her jacket.

do•nate /ˈdoʊˌneɪt, doʊˈneɪt/ verb -nates; -nat•ed; -nat•ing
1 : to give (money, food, clothes, etc.) in order to help a person or organization [+ obj] The computers were donated by local companies. ▪ We donated our old clothes to charity. ▪ people who donate money to political candidates ▪ He donates some of his free time to volunteer work. [no obj] Everyone is encouraged to donate.
2 : to give (blood, a body organ, etc.) to a hospital or other medical organization so that it can be given to someone who needs it [+ obj] People are encouraged to donate blood. ▪ Please sign this form if you would like to donate your organs when you die. [no obj] You can donate at the blood bank every eight weeks.
– do•na•tor /ˈdoʊˌneɪtɚ, doʊˈneɪtɚ/ noun, pl -ors [count] ▪ The donators [=(more commonly) donors] of the money did not give their names.

do•na•tion /doʊˈneɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions
1 : something (such as money, food, clothes, etc.) that you give in order to help a person or organization [count] All donations are appreciated. ▪ They thanked her for the generous donation. [=gift] ▪ The organization is funded by private donations. ▪ Would you like to make a donation? [=make a contribution; give money] [noncount] We are grateful for the donation of whatever you can afford to give.
2 : something (such as blood or a body organ) that you give to a hospital or clinic so that it can be given to someone who needs it [count] blood/organ donations [noncount] trying to encourage the donation of blood/organs

¹done past participle of ¹DO

²done adj, not used before a noun
1 — used to say that an activity, job, etc., has ended ▪ One more question and we're done. ▪ He'll travel many miles before he's done. [=through] ▪ My work is never done. [=finished, completed] ▪ I'm (almost) done reading this book. ▪ Turn out the light when you're done. ▪ Are you done with the scissors? ▪ When will you be done with [=finish, complete] the

D

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 87 SESS: 51 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:28:33 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-d

project? = (Brit) When will you have done with the project? ▪ Just call her and be done with it. [=get it over with] = (Brit) Just call her and have done with it. — compare [1]DO 2

2 : cooked completely or enough ▪ The cake is done. ▪ Check to see if the meat is done. — see also OVERDONE, UNDERDONE, WELL-DONE

3 : socially acceptable or fashionable ▪ Getting a divorce just wasn't done at the time.

consider it done see CONSIDER done for informal 1 : in a very bad situation : certain to fail, lose, be punished, etc. ▪ If she finds out we cheated, we're done for. [=in trouble] ▪ We'll never catch up now. We're done for. 2 : certain to die or be killed ▪ When we saw the explosion, we thought she was done for. — see also do for 1 at [1]DO

done in informal : very tired ▪ After working in the garden all day, I was/felt completely done in. [=exhausted] — see also do in 2 at [1]DO hard done by see [2]HARD

no harm done see [1]HARM

over and done with see [1]OVER when all is said and done see [3]ALL

[3]done interj — used to say that you agree with the conditions of a deal or accept an offer ▪ "I'll offer you $5,000 for the car." "Done."

done deal noun [singular] informal : something that has been done and that cannot be changed ▪ It's a done deal. ▪ The sale is far from a done deal. [=it is very possible that it will not happen]

done•ness /ˈdʌnnəs/ noun [noncount] : the state of being cooked completely or enough ▪ Cover the pan and cook to (the) desired doneness.

Don Juan /ˈdɑːnˈwɑːn/ noun, pl ~ Juans [count] : a man who has sexual relationships with many women ▪ She was wined and dined by the local Don Juan. [=Casanova]

don•key /ˈdɑːŋki/ noun, pl -keys [count] : an animal that is like a small horse with large ears donkey work noun [noncount] chiefly Brit, informal : hard work that is not interesting ▪ I had to do the donkey work.

donkey's years noun [plural] chiefly Brit, informal : a very long time ▪ It's been donkey's years [=ages] since I saw her.

don•nish /ˈdɑːnɪʃ/ adj [more ~; most ~] chiefly Brit : like a typical don (sense 1) ▪ a donnish [=bookish] manner ▪ a donnish old professor

don•ny•brook /ˈdɑːniˌbrʊk/ noun, pl -brooks [count]
1 : a public argument ▪ a political donnybrook [=dispute] ▪ A donnybrook has erupted over the court's decision.
2 : an uncontrolled fight ▪ A donnybrook [=brawl, free-for-all] broke out at the end of the game.

do•nor /ˈdoʊnə/ noun, pl -nors [count]
1 : a person or group that gives something (such as money, food, or clothes) in order to help a person or organization ▪ The money was raised from individual donors. ▪ She is one of the charity's/cause's major donors.
2 : a person who gives something (such as blood or a body organ) so that it can be given to someone who needs it ▪ blood/organ donors ▪ a kidney donor ▪ a donor organ ▪ a donor card [=a card that says that you want to donate your organs when you die]

[1]do–noth•ing /ˈduːˌnʌθɪŋ/ adj, always used before a noun
1 : not willing to work, help, etc. : LAZY ▪ a do-nothing husband
2 : failing to achieve or do anything important ▪ a do-nothing policy/government/politician

[2]do–nothing noun, pl -ings [count] informal : someone who is lazy ▪ He's a no-good do-nothing.

[1]don't /ˈdoʊnt/ — used as a contraction of do not ▪ I don't like it. ▪ The shoes don't fit.

> usage Don't is also sometimes used as a contraction of "does not." ▪ She don't like it. This use is usually regarded as an error, but it is common in the very informal speech of some people. It is often used in stories in the speech of characters who do not have much education.

[2]don't noun, pl don'ts [count] informal : something that a person should not do — usually used in the phrase dos and don'ts ▪ We each got a long list of dos and don'ts. [=things we should and should not do]

donut chiefly US spelling of DOUGHNUT doo•bie /ˈduːbi/ noun, pl -bies [count] US slang : a marijuana cigarette ▪ He lit up a doobie. [=joint] doo•dad /ˈduːˌdæd/ noun, pl -dads [count] US, informal

1 : a usually small object that is used as a decoration — usually plural ▪ a shelf cluttered with doodads [=knickknacks]
2 : a small useful device : GADGET — usually plural ▪ The shop sells all kinds of nifty doodads.

doo•dah /ˈduːˌdɑː/ noun, pl -dahs [count] Brit, informal : DOODAD 2 doo•dle /ˈduːdl/ verb doo•dles; doo•dled; doo•dling [no obj] : to draw something without thinking about what you are doing ▪ She doodled in her notebook instead of taking notes.

– doodle noun, pl doodles [count] ▪ Her notebook was full of doodles.

doo–doo /ˈduːˌduː/ noun [noncount] informal : solid waste discharged from the body ▪ I stepped in dog doo-doo. [=poop]
in deep doo-doo informal : in a very bad situation ▪ If the car won't start, we're in deep doo-doo. [=in deep trouble] doo•fus /ˈduːfəs/ noun, pl -fus•es [count] US slang : a stupid or foolish person ▪ Don't be such a doofus.

doo•hick•ey /ˈduːˌhɪki/ noun, pl -eys [count] US, informal : an object or device whose name you do not know or have forgotten ▪ I need one of those doohickeys [=thingamajigs, whatchamacallits] with the long handles.

[1]doom /ˈduːm/ noun [noncount]
1 : very bad events or situations that cannot be avoided ▪ The sailors had a sense/feeling of (impending) doom as the storm approached. [=they sensed or felt that something very bad was going to happen] ▪ The prophets of doom [=people who predict that bad things will happen] say that the Internet will kill off print newspapers. ▪ The papers are filled with stories of gloom and doom.
2 : death or ruin ▪ the story of a mysterious creature who lures travelers to their doom ▪ Prepare to meet your doom. [=die] ▪ The poor economy spelled doom for many small businesses. [=many small businesses would fail because of the poor economy]

[2]doom verb dooms; doomed; doom•ing [+ obj] : to make (someone or something) certain to fail, suffer, die, etc. ▪ A criminal record will doom your chances of becoming a politician. — usually used as (be) doomed ▪ The plan was doomed from the start. ▪ The treaty is doomed [=destined] to failure/fail. ▪ If no one rescues us, we are doomed. ▪ a project doomed by the poor/weak economy ▪ The species is doomed to extinction.
– doomed adj ▪ a doomed plan/mission/ship

doom•say•er /ˈduːmˌseɪjə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : someone who predicts that bad things will happen ▪ Don't listen to the doomsayers.

dooms•day /ˈduːmzˌdeɪ/ noun [singular] : the day the world ends or is destroyed ▪ a warning that doomsday is near ▪ doomsday predictions ▪ The book explores a doomsday scenario in which an asteroid hits the Earth. ▪ a doomsday machine [=a machine that will destroy the world] ▪ It'll be like that from now until doomsday. [=for a very long time; forever]

doom•ster /ˈduːmstə/ noun, pl -sters [count] Brit, informal : DOOMSAYER

door /ˈdoə/ noun, pl doors [count]
1 a : a movable piece of wood, glass, or metal that swings or slides open and shut so that people can enter or leave a room, building, vehicle, etc. ▪ open/shut/slam/lock/bolt the door ▪ I heard a knock on/at the door. ▪ the bedroom/bathroom/cellar door ▪ The car has four doors. = It's a four-door car. ▪ Leave the package at the front/back/side door. [=the door at the front/back/side of the house, building, etc.] ▪ Can you answer the door? [=open the door to see who is knocking on the door or ringing the doorbell] ▪ Is somebody at the door? [=knocking on the door or ringing the doorbell] ▪ Let me open the door for you. = (US) Let me get the door for you. ▪ (US) Can you get the door? [=can you open or close the door for me?] My hands are full. ▪ an exterior/outside door [=a door that can be used to enter or leave a building] ▪ an interior door [=a door inside a building; a door that connects rooms] ▪ a garage door [=a large door that covers the opening through which a car enters and leaves a garage] ▪ turn/pull the door handle ▪ a large brass door knocker [=knocker] — see also BACK DOOR, DUTCH DOOR, FRENCH DOOR, REVOLVING DOOR, STORM DOOR, TRAPDOOR b : a part of an object (such as piece of furniture or an appliance) that swings or slides open and shut ▪ the cupboard/closet/refrigerator/oven door
2 : the opening for a door : the entrance to a room or building : DOORWAY ▪ Please don't block the door. ▪ I peeked

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 88 SESS: 38 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:28:33 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-d

through the open door. ▪ He stood at/before the door. ▪ He greeted his guests as they came in/through the door. = He greeted his guests at the door. ▪ She walked out the door [=left] without saying goodbye. ▪ standing (just/right) inside/outside the door [=inside/outside the room, building, etc., near the door]

3 : a house, building, apartment, office, etc. — used with an adverb to indicate where something is in relation to something else ▪ She lives in a house two doors down/up from me. [=there is one house between our houses] ▪ The library is a few doors down from the bank. [=there are several buildings between the library and the bank] ▪ We grew up two doors apart. [=with one house/apartment between our houses/apartments] ✧ If you do something (from) door to door, you do it at each of the houses, apartments, or buildings in an area. ▪ Girl Scouts are selling cookies door to door. = Girl Scouts are going door to door selling cookies. ▪ She went (from) door to door looking for her cat. — see also DOOR-TO-DOOR, NEXT DOOR

4 — used especially with open or unlock to describe an opportunity or possibility ▪ The grant will open new doors for our town. [=will give our town new opportunities] ▪ The discovery may unlock the door to a cure for the disease. ▪ The door is open (to you) if you want a better job. ▪ A good education can open/unlock the door of success. [=can make success possible] ▪ The patent on the product has expired, which leaves the door open for [=makes it possible for] other companies to make it. — see also OUT OF DOORS

at death's door see DEATH

behind closed doors see CLOSED

close the door on : to no longer think about, consider, or accept (something) ▪ I'd like to close the door on that chapter in my life. ▪ The former senator says she hasn't closed the door on politics. ▪ Don't close the door on your options.

close your doors 1 : to not allow someone to enter ▪ The country has closed its doors to immigrants. 2 of a business or organization : to close permanently : to stop operating ▪ The museum may be forced to close its doors. ▪ The store closed its doors (for the last time) last fall.

darken someone's door/doors see DARKEN get your foot in the door see [1]FOOT

keep the wolf from the door see [1]WOLF

lay the blame for (something) at someone's door : to blame someone for (something) ▪ They laid the blame for the book's failure at my door.

open doors for see [2]OPEN

open the door see [2]OPEN

open your doors 1 : to allow someone to enter ▪ The country has opened its doors to immigrants. ▪ local churches that open their doors to the homeless in the winter months [=that let homeless people stay there] 2 of a business or organization : to open for business : to begin operating ▪ The new store will be opening its doors next month.

show (someone) the door : to tell or force (someone) to leave ▪ We don't tolerate bad behavior. If you cause trouble, we'll show you the door. ▪ If the coach doesn't win this year, they'll show him the door. [=they'll fire him]

show/see (someone) to the door : to go to the door with (someone who is leaving) ▪ My secretary will show you to the door. [=show you out]

– doorless adj ▪ a doorless cubicle door•bell /ˈdoəˌbɛl/ noun, pl -bells [count] : a bell inside a house or building that is rung usually by pushing a button beside an outside door ▪ We rang the doorbell until someone came to let us in.

do–or–die /ˈduːwəˈdaɪ/ adj

1 always used before a noun : very determined ▪ Her do-or-die attitude is inspiring.

2 — used to describe a situation in which you have to do something or you will fail, lose, etc. ▪ With only 10 seconds left, this is a do-or-die situation for the team. If they don't score, the game is over. ▪ It is do-or-die for the team.

door•frame /ˈdoəˌfreɪm/ noun, pl -frames [count] : a door's frame : the structure around the opening of a door door•jamb /ˈdoəˌʤæmb/ noun, pl -jambs [count] : an upright piece that forms the side of a door's frame door•keep•er /ˈdoəˌkiːpə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : someone who guards a door and checks people to see if they are allowed to enter the building door•knob /ˈdoəˌnɑːb/ noun, pl -knobs [count] : a round handle that you turn to open a door — see pictures at DOOR, KNOB door•man /ˈdoəˌmæn/ noun, pl -men /-ˌmɛn/ [count] : a person (especially a man) whose job is to stand next to the main door of a building (such as a hotel or apartment building) and help people by opening the door, calling taxis, etc.

door•mat /ˈdoəˌmæt/ noun, pl -mats [count]

1 : a mat that you put on the floor or ground on one side of a door so that people can wipe the bottoms of their shoes on it

2 informal : someone who is treated badly by other people and does not complain ▪ She was tired of being a doormat and decided it was time to stand up for herself.

door•nail /ˈdoəˌneɪl/ noun

(as) dead as a doornail see [1]DEAD

door•post /ˈdoəˌpoʊst/ noun, pl -posts [count] : DOORJAMB

door prize noun, pl ~ prizes [count] US : a prize that you get at a social event if you were given the winning ticket when you arrived door•step /ˈdoəˌstɛp/ noun, pl -steps [count] : a step or series of steps leading up to one of the doors that is used to enter or leave a building ▪ We sat on the doorstep. ▪ The police were at my doorstep. — often used figuratively ▪ The beach is right at your doorstep. [=the beach is very close] ▪ Bars and restaurants are on the doorstep of the hotel. [=bars and restaurants are very close to the hotel] — see picture at HOUSE door•stop /ˈdoəˌstɑːp/ noun, pl -stops [count]

1 : an object that is attached to a wall or the floor to prevent a door from hitting and damaging the wall

2 : something (such as a wedge or weight) that is used to hold a door open door–to–door /ˌdoətəˈdoə/ adj, always used before a noun : going or made by going to each house, apartment, or building in an area ▪ a door-to-door salesman ▪ a door-to-door survey — see also (from) door to door at DOOR

door•way /ˈdoəˌweɪ/ noun, pl -ways [count]

1 : the opening where a door is ▪ Please don't block the doorway. ▪ She stepped through the doorway. ▪ the castle's arched doorways — sometimes used figuratively ▪ We hope that these talks will be a doorway to peace. [=will lead to peace]

2 : the space in front of a door ▪ He stood in the doorway, wondering if he should go in. ▪ Homeless people sleep in the doorways of the shops.

door•yard /ˈdoəˌjɑəd/ noun, pl -yards [count] US : a yard next to the door of a house ▪ flowers blooming in the dooryard ▪ dooryard gardens doo–wop /ˈduːˌwɑːp/ noun [noncount] : a style of popular music that involves singing nonsense syllables doo•zy or doo•zie /ˈduːzi/ noun, pl -zies [count] US, informal : something that is unusually good, bad, big, severe, etc. ▪ They say the snowstorm tonight is going to be a doozy. ▪ Watch out for that first step. It's a doozy. ▪ Some of her comments have been real doozies. ▪ a doozy of a year

[1]dope /doʊp/ noun, pl dopes informal

1 [noncount] : an illegal drug (such as marijuana or heroin) ▪ They were caught smoking dope. ▪ a dope addict/dealer

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 89 SESS: 38 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:28:34 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−d

D

2 [count] : a stupid or annoying person ▪ What a dope he is.
3 the dope : information about someone or something that is not commonly or immediately known ▪ What's the dope [=skinny, scoop] on the new guy? [=what do you know about him?] ▪ The magazine claims to have the inside dope [=information known only by those involved] on her new romance. ▪ Give me the straight dope on it. [=tell me the truth about it]

[2]dope verb dopes; doped; dop•ing [+ obj] informal
1 : to give a drug to (a person or animal) especially to cause unconsciousness ▪ They tried to dope him. — often used as (be) doped ▪ She was doped and kidnapped.
2 : to put a drug in (something, such as food or a drink) to make a person or animal unconscious ▪ They doped his food. — often used as (be) doped ▪ She began to feel sleepy and suspected that her drink had been doped.
dope out [phrasal verb] dope out (something) or dope (something) out US : to understand or find (something, such as a reason or a solution) by thinking : to figure out (something) ▪ She's still trying to dope out exactly what happened.
dope up [phrasal verb] dope up (someone) or dope (someone) up : to give (someone) a drug that affects the ability to think or behave normally — usually used as (be) doped up ▪ I was doped up with/on painkillers after my surgery.

[3]dope adj [more ~; most ~] US slang : great or excellent ▪ That movie was so dope. ▪ Check out this dope new song.

dope•head /ˈdoʊpˌhɛd/ noun, pl -heads [count] informal : a person who uses a lot of illegal drugs : a drug addict

dop•ey /ˈdoʊpi/ adj dop•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~] informal 1 a : feeling the effects of a drug ▪ I'm still a little dopey from the painkillers. b : slow because you are tired ▪ After being up all night I was pretty dopey at work.
2 : foolish or stupid ▪ a dopey movie ▪ He's a little dopey.

doping noun [noncount] : the illegal use of a drug (such as a steroid) to improve an athlete's performance ▪ increased efforts to detect doping at the Olympic Games ▪ doping tests/scandals — see also BLOOD DOPING

dop•pel•gäng•er or dop•pel•gang•er /ˈdɑːpəlˌgæŋgə/ noun, pl -ers [count]
1 : someone who looks like someone else ▪ I saw your doppelgänger [=(more commonly) double] yesterday.
2 literary : a ghost that looks like a living person ▪ In the story, the character is haunted by a doppelgänger.

Dopp•ler radar /ˈdɑːplə–/ noun [noncount] : a radar system that is used especially for predicting the weather do–rag /ˈduːˌræg/ noun, pl -rags [count] US, informal : a piece of cloth that is worn on the head to cover the hair

dork /ˈdoək/ noun, pl dorks [count] informal : a person who behaves awkwardly around other people and usually has unstylish clothes, hair, etc. ▪ Back in high school, all the kids thought he was a dork. [=nerd, loser] ▪ I look like a complete dork in these clothes.
– dorky /ˈdoəki/ adj dork•i•er; -est ▪ He's that tall, dorky [=nerdy] guy with the glasses.

dorm /ˈdoəm/ noun, pl dorms [count] informal : DORMITORY ▪ We all lived in the same dorm during our sophomore year. ▪ my old dorm room dor•mant /ˈdoəmənt/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not doing anything at this time : not active but able to become active ▪ a dormant volcano ▪ The seeds will remain/lie dormant until the spring. ▪ Her emotions have lain dormant for many years.

– dor•man•cy /ˈdoəmənsi/ noun [noncount] ▪ The volcano has been in a state of dormancy for many years. ▪ a period of dormancy

dor•mer /ˈdoəmə/ noun, pl -mers [count]
1 : a window that is in a part of a building that sticks out from a slanted roof — called also dormer window; see picture at HOUSE
2 : the part of a building that contains a dormer
– dor•mered /ˈdoəməd/ adj ▪ dormered windows

[1]dor•mi•to•ry /ˈdoəməˌtori, Brit ˈdɔːmətri/ noun, pl -ries [count]
1 US : a building on a school campus that has rooms where students can live ▪ a college dormitory [=dorm, residence hall]
2 : a large room with many beds where people can sleep ▪ Guests at the camp can stay in private cabins or for a smaller fee in the dormitories.

[2]dormitory adj, always used before a noun, Brit : lived in by people who go to another town or city to work ▪ a dormitory town [=(US) bedroom community]

dor•mouse /ˈdoəˌmaʊs/ noun, pl -mice /-ˌmaɪs/ [count] : a European animal that looks like a small squirrel dor•sal n /ˈdoəsəl-/ noun, pl ~ ns [count] : a flat thin part on the back of some fish (such as sharks)

do•ry /ˈdori/ noun, pl -ries [count] : a boat that has a flat bottom and high sides and that is used especially for fishing

dos•age /ˈdoʊsɪʤ/ noun, pl -ag•es [count] : the amount of a medicine, drug, or vitamin that should be taken at one time or regularly during a period of time — usually singular ▪ Each pill/tablet has the dosage necessary to reduce pain and swelling. ▪ Some patients may benefit from a larger dosage of this medication. ▪ Do not exceed the recommended dosage. [=do not take more than doctors recommend]

[1]dose /ˈdoʊs/ noun, pl dos•es [count]
1 : the amount of a medicine, drug, or vitamin that is taken at one time ▪ I've been taking the same dose for five years. ▪ a large dose of vitamin C
2 : an amount of a substance ▪ The drug is lethal even in small doses. ▪ a large dose of sugar ▪ a high dose of radiation
3 : an amount of something that a person experiences ▪ Her parents hoped a daily dose of hard work would keep her out of trouble. ▪ He needs a good dose of reality.
a dose of your own medicine see MEDICINE

[2]dose verb doses; dosed; dos•ing [+ obj]
1 : to give a dose of medicine to (someone or something) ▪ Most patients are dosed at 50 milligrams per day. — often + with ▪ She dosed herself daily with aspirin.
2 : to give an amount of a substance to (someone or something) — usually + with ▪ The victims were dosed with poison.
3 US : to add something to (something) — usually + with ▪ The pasta sauce was heavily dosed with garlic. [=there was a lot of garlic in the pasta sauce]

dosh /ˈdɑːʃ/ noun [noncount] Brit, informal : MONEY ▪ earning lots of dosh

doss /ˈdɑːs/ verb doss•es; dossed; doss•ing [no obj] Brit, informal : to sleep in a usually uncomfortable place that does not have a bed — usually + down ▪ We'll have to doss down [=bed down] in the car for the night.

doss•er /ˈdɑːsə/ noun, pl -ers [count] Brit, informal : a person who does not have a home to sleep in : a homeless person

doss–house /ˈdɑːsˌhaʊs/ noun, pl -hous•es [count] chiefly Brit, informal : FLOPHOUSE

dos•sier /ˈdɑːsˌjeɪ/ noun, pl -siers [count] : a group of papers that contain detailed information about someone or something ▪ the patient's medical dossier [=(more commonly) file] — often + on ▪ Investigators began compiling a dossier on him after he was suspected of stealing.

[1]dot /ˈdɑːt/ noun, pl dots [count]
1 : a small round mark ▪ Put a dot over the i. ▪ The dots on the map represent cities. ▪ She said, "Go to Learners Dictionary dot com [=the Web site www.learnersdictionary.com] for more information." — see also POLKA DOT
2 : a small spot : a small area that is different in color from the main part ▪ You have a dot of ketchup on your shirt. ▪ As we drove away, the house became just a dot on the horizon.
3 : a short signal (such as a sound or a flash of light) that represents a letter or a part of a letter in Morse code ▪ The Morse code for the letter v is three dots and a dash. — compare [2]DASH 7 connect the dots see CONNECT on the dot informal : exactly at a particular time ▪ She arrived at 3 o'clock on the dot. = She arrived on the dot of 3. [=she arrived exactly at 3 o'clock]
since the year dot see YEAR

[2]dot verb dots; dot•ted; dot•ting [+ obj]
1 : to mark (something) with a dot ▪ Don't forget to dot the i. ✧ If you dot the/your i's and cross the/your t's, you make sure that all of the small details in something have been completed. ▪ We need some extra time to dot the i's and cross the t's on the report.
2 : to appear at many different places on the surface of (something) ▪ Quaint cottages dot the countryside. ▪ The fields were dotted with wildflowers.
3 : to put a small amount of something on different parts of (a surface) ▪ Dot the cream all over your face.

dot•age /ˈdoʊtɪʤ/ noun [noncount] : the period of old age : the time when a person is old and often less able to remember or do things — often used after in or into ▪ He has become friendlier in his dotage. ▪ The actress continued to work well into her dotage.

dot–com /ˈdɑːtˌkɑːm/ noun, pl -coms [count] : a company that sells its products or services only on the Internet ▪ a successful dot-com — often used before another noun ▪ She owned thousands of dollars in dot-com stock. ▪ the dot-com boom of the 1990s

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 90 SESS: 11 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:28:34 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-d

dote /ˈdoʊt/ verb dotes; dot•ed; dot•ing

dote on/upon [phrasal verb] dote on/upon (someone or something) : to give a lot of love or attention to (someone or something) ▪ She doted on her new grandchild.

doting adj, always used before a noun : showing a lot of love or attention ▪ the child's doting grandmother

– dot•ing•ly adv ▪ She smiled dotingly at the baby.

dot matrix noun, pl ~ matrices or ~ matrixes [count] : a pattern of dots that form letters, numbers, etc., on a computer screen or on something printed from a computer — often used before another noun ▪ Dot matrix printers have been largely replaced with laser printers.

dotted adj : covered with dots ▪ the plant's dotted green and white leaves [=leaves covered with green and white dots] ▪ He drew a dotted line. [=a line that is made up of a series of dots] ✧ Dotted line is often used to refer to the place at the bottom of a document where a person signs and agrees to the terms in the document. ▪ Just sign on the dotted line and we'll have a deal.

dot•ty /ˈdɑːti/ adj dot•ti•er; -est old-fashioned + informal : somewhat crazy ▪ my dotty old grandparents

[1]dou•ble /ˈdʌbəl/ adj

1 : made of two parts that are similar or exactly the same ▪ One of the eggs had a double yolk. ▪ The truck crossed the double yellow line and entered the other lane. ▪ My name is "Allison," with a double "l." ▪ The band is releasing a double album [=a set of two records, CDs, etc.] later this year. ▪ Go through those double doors and walk to the end of the hall. ▪ He was convicted of a double murder. [=of killing two people at the same time]

2 : having two very different parts or qualities ▪ He served a double [=dual] role as both king and servant to his people. ▪ His statement has a double meaning. [=it means two different things] ▪ In this film, he does double duty [=performs two roles] as both actor and director. ✧ If you are leading/living a double life, you have something secret that you do as an important part of your life in addition to the regular parts of your life that other people know about. ▪ She was a newspaper reporter who led/lived a double life as a spy.

3 a : of a size that is twice as big as usual : of an amount that is twice as much as usual ▪ I'll have a double espresso, please. ▪ two double martinis ▪ a double dose of medicine ▪ Line the pan with a double thickness [=two layers] of foil. ▪ a double order of fries b : coming from two different places or sources ▪ families with a double income [=two incomes]

4 : two times as great or as many as the number, amount, size, etc., of something else ▪ The college had double [=twice] the number of expected applicants. ▪ Our new car was double the price of our last one. ▪ The CEO's salary is nearly double that of the president.

5 : made for two people to use ▪ We'll need a double room. ▪ a room with a double bed

6 of a flower : having more than the usual number of petals ▪ double flowers/blooms

[2]double verb dou•bles; dou•bled; dou•bling

1 a [+ obj] : to cause (something) to become two times as great or as many ▪ They doubled their winnings. b [no obj] : to become two times as great or as many ▪ The price of the house had doubled. = The house had doubled in price.

2 [no obj] : to have a second job or use — + as ▪ Our couch often doubles as a bed. [=is often used as a bed] ▪ Their living room doubles as a home office.

3 a [+ obj] : to bend or fold (something, such as a piece of paper) usually in the middle — usually + over or up ▪ I doubled over the paper and put it in my notebook. b : to bend forward at the waist — usually + over or up [no obj] We all doubled over laughing. ▪ He doubled up in pain. [+ obj] The pain doubled him over. = He was doubled over with pain.

4 [no obj] baseball : to hit a double : to hit the ball so that you can reach second base ▪ He doubled to left field.

double back [phrasal verb] : to turn around and return on the same path ▪ I'm going to double back to see if I dropped the ring on the way here.

double up [phrasal verb] : to share a place to live or sleep that is made for one person or one family ▪ Some families have to double up [=live with another family] in crowded apartments. ▪ There was only one bed, so we had to double up. — see also [2]DOUBLE 3b (above)

double up on [phrasal verb] double up on (something) : to use or do two times as many of (something) ▪ I'm going to have to double up on [=take twice as many] classes this semester if I want to graduate this year.

[3]double noun, pl doubles

1 [singular] : something that is two times the usual size, strength, or amount ▪ I'll have one more glass of vodka. Make it a double, please.

2 [count] a : someone who looks very much like another person ▪ People often tell me that I'm his double. b : a person who looks like an actor and takes the actor's place in some scenes in a movie or TV show ▪ The actress's double did all of the dangerous scenes. ▪ Can you tell if it's the actor or his double in that shot? — see also BODY DOUBLE, STUNT DOUBLE

3 [count] baseball : a hit in baseball that allows a batter to reach second base ▪ He hit a double in the eighth inning. — compare HOME RUN, SINGLE, TRIPLE

4 doubles [plural] : a game of tennis or a similar sport that is played between two pairs of players ▪ We play doubles with another couple on the weekends. ▪ He's my doubles partner.

5 [count] : a room in a hotel, inn, etc., for two people ▪ We'll need a double for the night. — compare SINGLE double or nothing (US) or Brit double or quits : a gambling bet in which you could win two times as much money as you have already won or you could lose all of the money ▪ I won $20 on the first game but lost it on the second game going double or nothing.

on the double (US) or Brit at the double informal : very quickly : as soon as possible ▪ I need you back here on the double. [=immediately]

[4]double adv

1 : two times as many or as much ▪ The last question on the exam counts double. [=is worth twice as many points] ▪ I was charged/billed double. [=twice the usual amount]

2 : two times — usually used in combination ▪ I was double-charged/billed. [=I was charged/billed twice for the same product or service]

bend double : to fold in the middle. ▪ I held on tight as my fishing rod bent double. ▪ He bent double [=doubled over] in pain. ✧ Bend double is used more frequently in British English than in U.S. English.

see double : to see two things when only one thing is present ▪ As her eyesight got worse, she began seeing double.

that goes double for informal — used to say that something you have just said about one person or thing relates even more strongly to another ▪ You're in trouble, Steven. And that goes double for you, John. [=you, John, are in even more trouble than Steven] double agent noun, pl ~ agents [count] : a spy who pretends to spy for one government while actually spying for another ▪ He was secretly working as a double agent for the Americans during the war.

dou•ble–bar•reled (US) or Brit dou•ble–bar•relled /ˌdʌbəlˈberəld/ adj

1 of a gun : having two tubes (called barrels) that bullets or pellets are shot through ▪ a double-barreled shotgun

2 US : having two parts or purposes ▪ She made a double-barreled announcement that she was both leaving the company and getting married. ▪ a double-barreled question double bass noun, pl ~ basses [count] : a very large musical instrument that is shaped like a violin — called also contrabass; see picture at STRINGED INSTRUMENT double bill noun, pl ~ bills [count] : two movies, plays, concerts, etc., that are seen one after the other — compare DOUBLE FEATURE double bind noun, pl ~ binds [count] : a very difficult situation that has no good solution — usually singular ▪ He finds himself caught in a double bind: By doing his job, he could end up hurting his family.

dou•ble–blind /ˌdʌbəlˈblaɪnd/ adj, technical — used to describe an experiment that is done so that neither the people who are doing the experiment nor the people who are the subjects of the experiments know which of the groups being studied is the control group and which is the test group ▪ a double-blind drug trial double bogey noun, pl ~ -geys [count] golf : a score that is two more than the official standard score for a particular hole : a score of two strokes over par on a hole ▪ He made/scored a double bogey on the fourth hole.

– double bogey verb ~ -geys; ~ -geyed; ~ -geying [+ obj] ▪ He double bogeyed the fourth hole.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 91 SESS: 51 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:28:35 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−d

double boiler noun, pl ~ -ers [count] : a pair of deep cooking pans that fit together so that the contents of the top pan can be cooked or heated by boiling water in the bottom pan ▪ Melt the chocolate in a double boiler. — see picture at KITCHEN double bond noun, pl ~ bonds [count] technical : a chemical bond in which two atoms in a molecule share two pairs of electrons — compare SINGLE BOND, TRIPLE BOND double–book verb -books; -booked; -book·ing [+ obj]

1 : to make plans for (someone or something) to be in two different places at the same time ▪ My husband and I are double-booked for/on Friday night. [=we are scheduled to go to two different places at the same time on Friday night]
2 : to promise a room, seat, table, etc., to two different people or groups at the same time ▪ The airline double-booked my seat. = The airline double-booked me. — compare OVERBOOK

dou·ble–breast·ed /ˌdʌbəlˈbrɛstəd/ adj, of a coat or jacket : having two rows of buttons ▪ He is wearing a tan double-breasted jacket. — compare SINGLE-BREASTED

dou·ble–check /ˌdʌbəlˈʧɛk/ verb -checks; -checked; -check·ing : to check (something) again in order to be certain [+ obj] Be sure to double-check your answers before handing in your test. [no obj] I thought I mailed the letter already, but let me double-check.
– double check noun, pl ~ checks [count] ▪ Did you do a double check of the list?

double chin noun, pl ~ chins [count] : a fold of fat that some people have under their chin and that looks like a second chin double–click verb -clicks; -clicked; -click·ing : to choose something on a computer screen by quickly pressing a button on a computer mouse or other device two times [+ obj] Double-click the icon to start the program. [no obj] — often + on ▪ Double-click on the icon.

– double click noun, pl ~ clicks [count] ▪ A double click with the mouse will start the program.

double cream noun [noncount] Brit : HEAVY CREAM

dou·ble–cross /ˌdʌbəlˈkrɑːs/ verb -cross·es; -crossed; -cross·ing [+ obj] : to cheat or deceive (someone) especially by doing something that is different from what you said you would do ▪ I thought I could trust her, but she double-crossed me.
– double cross noun, pl ~ crosses [count] ▪ He accused his manager of a dirty double cross. ▪ lies and double crosses
– dou·ble–cross·er noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ They're a couple of dirty double-crossers.

double date noun, pl ~ dates [count] : an activity (such as going to the movies or going out to eat) that two couples do together ▪ Would you two ladies like to go on a double date with me and my friend?
– double–date verb -dates; -dated; -dat·ing [no obj] ▪ My boyfriend and I often double-date with a couple that we met in college.

dou·ble–deal·ing /ˌdʌbəlˈdiːlɪŋ/ noun [noncount] : the practice of pretending to do or think one thing while really doing or thinking something different : dishonest or deceptive behavior ▪ His double-dealing [=duplicity, deceitfulness] has caused many of his former friends to distrust him.
– dou·ble–deal·er /ˌdʌbəlˈdiːlə/ noun, pl -ers [count]
– double–dealing adj ▪ He could no longer trust his double-dealing friend.

dou·ble–deck·er /ˌdʌbəlˈdɛkə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : something that has two levels or layers ▪ The bus we rode on was a double-decker. — usually used before another noun ▪ We took a tour of London on a double-decker bus. ▪ double-decker trains ▪ a double-decker sandwich — compare SINGLE-DECKER, TRIPLE-DECKER double digits noun [plural] chiefly US : a number or percentage that is 10 or greater ▪ They won the game by double digits. [=by 10 or more] ▪ The state's unemployment rate remains in the double digits. — called also double figures

– dou·ble–dig·it /ˌdʌbəlˈdɪʤɪt/ adj, always used before a noun ▪ the state's double-digit unemployment rate ▪ double-digit price increases double dribble noun, pl ~ dribbles [count] basketball : an illegal action that happens when a player dribbles the ball with two hands at the same time or starts to dribble again after stopping double Dutch noun [noncount]

1 US : the activity of jumping over two jump ropes that two people are swinging in circles in opposite directions ▪ The girls were playing double Dutch on the sidewalk.
2 chiefly Brit, informal : language that cannot be understood ▪ It was all double Dutch [=nonsense, gibberish] to me.

dou·ble–edged /ˌdʌbəlˈɛʤd/ adj
1 : having two sharp edges ▪ a double-edged knife
2 : having two different and opposite parts ▪ a double-edged problem/strategy
3 : able to be understood in two different ways ▪ double-edged remarks ▪ a double-edged description double–edged sword noun, pl ~ swords [count]

1 : a sword that has two sharp edges
2 : something that has both good and bad parts or results ▪ Freedom of expression can be a double-edged sword.

dou·ble en·ten·dre /ˈdʌbəlɑnˈtɑːndrə/ noun, pl ~ -dres [count] : a word or expression that can be understood in two different ways with one way usually referring to sex ▪ The song's title is a double entendre.

double fault noun, pl ~ faults [count] tennis : two bad serves that result in the loss of a point double feature noun, pl ~ -tures [count] US : two movies that are shown one after the other — compare DOUBLE BILL

double gures noun [plural] : DOUBLE DIGITS double glazing noun [noncount] technical : two layers of glass that are set in a window to keep heat inside and reduce noise – double–glazed adj ▪ double-glazed windows

dou·ble·head·er /ˌdʌbəlˈhɛdə/ noun, pl -ers [count] chiefly US : two games (especially baseball games) that are played one after the other on the same day ▪ The two teams will meet in a doubleheader this Saturday.

double helix noun, pl ~ helices also ~ helixes [count] technical : the shape formed by two parallel lines that twist around each other ✧ The strands of DNA are arranged in a double helix.

double–hung window noun, pl ~ -dows [count] US : a window that can be opened either by sliding the bottom half up or by sliding the top half down — called also (Brit) sash window; see picture at WINDOW double jeopardy noun [noncount] US, law : the act of causing a person to be put on trial two times for the same crime ▪ constitutional protections against double jeopardy

dou·ble–joint·ed /ˌdʌbəlˈʤɔɪntəd/ adj : having a joint that allows body parts to move in ways that are not typical ▪ His right shoulder is double-jointed. ▪ double-jointed fingers

double knit noun, pl ~ knits
1 [noncount] : a type of cloth that is made with two sets of needles and has two connected layers
2 [count] US : a piece of clothing that is made of double knit ▪ 1960s-style double knits
– dou·ble–knit adj ▪ a pair of polyester double-knit pants double negative noun, pl ~ -tives [count] grammar : a clause that has two negative words (such as "nothing" and "don't") when only one is necessary ✧ Double negatives are usually considered incorrect in English. ▪ "I didn't do nothing" is a double negative. If you want to be correct, you should say "I didn't do anything."

dou·ble–park /ˌdʌbəlˈpɑəːk/ verb -parks; -parked; -park·ing : to park (a car or other vehicle) beside a row of vehicles that are already parked on the side of the street [+ obj] — usually used as (be) double-parked ▪ My truck is double-parked outside. [no obj] If you double-park, you will get a ticket.

double play noun, pl ~ plays [count] baseball : a play in which the team in the field causes two runners to be put out ▪ The batter hit into a double play. ▪ They turned a double play to end the inning. — compare TRIPLE PLAY

dou·ble–quick /ˈdʌbəlˌkwɪk/ adj, always used before a noun, chiefly Brit, informal : extra fast or quick ▪ They've been working in double-quick time [=they've been working very quickly] to finish the project.
– double–quick adv ▪ We have to get this done double-quick.

double–sided adj : having two sides that can be used ▪ Fill out this double-sided form. ▪ double-sided adhesive tape

dou·ble–space /ˌdʌbəlˈspeɪs/ verb -spac·es; -spaced; -spac·ing : to write or type (a paper, letter, etc.) so that each line of words is followed by a line without words [+ obj] — often used as (be) double-spaced ▪ All essays must be typed and double-spaced. [no obj] Be sure to double-space. It makes reading much easier.

dou·ble·speak /ˈdʌbəlˌspiːk/ noun [noncount] disapproving

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 92 SESS: 52 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:28:35 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-d

: language that can be understood in more than one way and that is used to trick or deceive people ▪ political doublespeak double standard noun, pl ~ -dards [count] : a situation in which two people, groups, etc., are treated very differently from each other in a way that is unfair to one of them ▪ She argued that society applies a double standard in dealing with women who commit adultery.

double take noun, pl ~ takes [count] : an act of quickly looking at something that is surprising or unusual a second time after looking at it a moment earlier ▪ His parents did a double take when he came home with a tattoo.

dou•ble–talk /ˈdʌbəlˌtɑːk/ noun [noncount] disapproving : language that uses many words but has very little meaning ▪ We asked for a clear and honest answer, but all we got was a bunch of meaningless double-talk.

double–team /ˈdʌbəlˌtiːm/ verb -teams; -teamed; -team•ing [+ obj] US, sports : to block or guard (an opponent) with two players at one time ▪ He was double-teamed [=two players guarded him] in the first half of the game.

double time noun [noncount] : payment of a worker at two times the usual rate ▪ She was paid double time [=she was paid twice as much as usual] for working on Thanksgiving. — compare TIME AND A HALF double vision noun [noncount] : a problem with the eyes that causes a person to see two objects when only one is present ▪ He wore special glasses to correct his double vision.

double wham•my /-ˈwæmi/ noun, pl ~ -mies [count] informal : a situation that is bad in two different ways : a situation in which two bad conditions exist at the same time or two bad things happen one after the other ▪ With the cold weather and the high cost of heating fuel, homeowners were hit with a double whammy this winter.

dou•ble–wide /ˌdʌbəlˈwaɪd/ noun, pl -wides [count] US : a mobile home that is made of two units that have been connected together side by side — called also double-wide trailer

dou•bly /ˈdʌbli/ adv, always used before an adjective
1 : much more than usual or previously : to a much higher degree than usual ▪ We did the test again because we wanted to be doubly [=extra, especially, very] sure the results were accurate. ▪ I had to work doubly [=twice as] hard after my partner left the competition.
2 : in two ways : for two reasons ▪ Her grades and musical talent make her parents doubly proud of her.

[1]doubt /daʊt/ verb doubts; doubt•ed; doubt•ing [+ obj]
1 : to be uncertain about (something) : to believe that (something) may not be true or is unlikely ▪ She began to doubt [=question] everything he said. ▪ I have always doubted the existence of life on other planets. ▪ No one doubts that the mission will be a success. ▪ I seriously doubt my parents will let me go. ▪ "Do you think you can come tonight?" "I doubt it."
2 : to have no confidence in (someone or something) ▪ I began to doubt [=question] my own judgment. ▪ She doubted his ability to succeed. ▪ He said he could do it, but I couldn't help doubting him.
– doubt•er noun, pl -ters [count] ▪ He did everything he could to reassure the doubters.

[2]doubt noun, pl doubts : a feeling of being uncertain or unsure about something [noncount] I still have moments of doubt. ▪ There can be little doubt that smoking is bad for your health. ▪ There is no doubt [=question] in my mind that he is best candidate. ▪ These mistakes cast/throw doubt on her ability. = They cast/throw into doubt her ability. [=they make people question or lose confidence in her ability] ▪ (US) The results of the study have been called into doubt. [=people are expressing doubts about the results] — often + about ▪ She was filled with doubt [=uncertainty] about the future. ▪ The evidence against her leaves little room for doubt about her guilt. [=the evidence shows that she is guilty] [count] I had a nagging doubt in the back of my mind. — often + about ▪ He still has doubts about his chances of success. ▪ I've always had my doubts about him. ▪ Two separate studies have raised doubts about the car's safety.
beyond doubt ✧ If something is beyond doubt, it is definitely true. ▪ The test results proved beyond (all/any) doubt that he was not the child's father. ▪ If she is to be found guilty, the charges against her must be proved beyond a reasonable doubt. ▪ I knew, beyond a shadow of a doubt, that everything was going to be okay.
in doubt : in a state of being uncertain or unsure ▪ The outcome was in doubt [=not known with certainty] until the final seconds of the game. ▪ The future of the company remains very much in doubt. ▪ When/if in doubt, please contact us with your questions.
no doubt : without doubt or with very little doubt — used when you are making a statement that you think is certainly or almost certainly true ▪ She was no doubt [=certainly, doubtless, unquestionably] the smartest person in her class. ▪ No doubt many readers will find the book too long. ▪ By now, you have no doubt heard the news. ▪ "He'll probably blame someone else." "No doubt." [=I agree that he'll blame someone else] no doubt about it — used to stress that something is true ▪ No doubt about it, the fans are disappointed in the team.
the benefit of the doubt see [1]BENEFIT without (a) doubt — used to stress that something is true ▪ They are, without doubt, the nicest people I've ever met.

doubt•ful /ˈdaʊtfəl/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : uncertain or unsure about something ▪ I tried to reassure them, but they remained doubtful. ▪ She gave him a doubtful look. [=a look that shows doubt] — often + about or of ▪ They were doubtful about the benefits of the new system. = They were doubtful of its benefits.
2 : not likely to be true : not probable ▪ He made the doubtful [=dubious] claim that he had never been sick a day in his life. ▪ The truth of the statements was doubtful. — often + that, if, or whether ▪ It's highly doubtful [=unlikely, improbable] that anyone will notice. ▪ It is doubtful if she really meant what she said. ▪ The situation is bad and it's doubtful whether it will get better soon.
3 : likely to be bad : not worthy of trust ▪ The water available in the village is of doubtful [=questionable] quality. ▪ Their decisions were based on data of doubtful accuracy.
4 : not certain : unknown or undecided ▪ The outcome of the election remains doubtful. ▪ The company is facing a doubtful future.
– doubt•ful•ly adv ▪ She looked at him doubtfully.

doubting Thom•as /-ˈtɑːməs/ noun, pl ~ -as•es [count] somewhat old-fashioned : someone who rarely trusts or believes things before having proof : a doubtful or skeptical person ▪ She kept trying, hoping to prove all those doubting Thomases wrong.

doubt•less /ˈdaʊtləs/ adv [more ~; most ~] : without doubt or with very little doubt — used when you are making a statement that you think is certainly or almost certainly true ▪ She was doubtless [=unquestionably, no doubt] the smartest person in her class. ▪ There will doubtless be many more issues to deal with before this is over. ▪ The car accident will doubtless result in a lawsuit.

douche /duːʃ/ noun, pl douch•es [count] : a liquid that a woman squirts into her vagina to wash it; also : an object used to squirt such a liquid into the vagina – douche verb douches; douched; douch•ing [no obj] ▪ She advises her patients not to douche because doing so can lead to infections.

dough /doʊ/ noun, pl doughs
1 [count, noncount] : a mixture of flour, water, and other ingredients that is baked to make bread, cookies, etc.
2 [noncount] informal : MONEY ▪ I don't have much dough.

dough•nut or chiefly US do•nut /ˈdoʊˌnʌt/ noun, pl -nuts [count]
1 : a piece of sweet fried dough that is often shaped like a ring ▪ powdered doughnuts ▪ a jelly donut
2 : something that has a round shape like a doughnut ▪ drawing doughnuts in the sand ▪ a foam doughnut

dough•ty /ˈdaʊti/ adj, always used before a noun dough•ti•er; -est [also more ~; most ~] old-fashioned : brave, strong, and determined ▪ a doughty fighter

doughy /ˈdowi/ adj [more ~; most ~] : resembling dough: such as a : not completely baked ▪ High humidity can make your loaves turn out doughy. b : not hard or firm ▪ a doughy consistency c : pale in color and unhealthy ▪ her doughy [=pasty] white skin

Doug•las r /ˌdʌgləs-/ noun, pl ~ rs [count] : a very tall evergreen tree that grows in the western U.S.

dou•la /ˈduːlə/ noun, pl -las [count] medical : a woman whose job is to give advice and comfort to a woman who is giving birth

dour /ˈduə, ˈdawə/ adj dour•er; -est [also more ~; most ~] formal : serious and unfriendly ▪ a dour politician ▪ a dour manner ▪ She had a dour expression on her face. : silent and gloomy ▪ the dour mood of the crowd

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 93 SESS: 52 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:28:36 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−d

– dour•ly adv [more ~; most ~] – dour•ness noun [non-count]

douse /ˈdaʊs/ verb dous•es; doused; dous•ing [+ obj]
1 a : to cause (a fire) to stop burning by pouring or spraying water on it : to extinguish (a fire) with water ▪ It took firefighters 15 minutes to douse the blaze. ▪ She managed to douse the flames with water. b : to turn off (a light) ▪ Don't forget to douse the lights before coming to bed.
2 : to cover (someone or something) with a liquid — usually + in or with ▪ The books were doused in gasoline and set on fire. ▪ She doused herself with perfume.

D

[1]dove /ˈdʌv/ noun, pl doves [count]
1 : a small wild bird that is related to pigeons ✧ Doves are often used as a symbol of peace.
2 : a person who does not want war and does want peace ▪ The President sided with the doves and worked to avoid war. — compare HAWK
– dov•ish /ˈdʌvɪʃ/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ a dovish politician

[2]dove past tense and past participle of [1]DIVE dove•cote /ˈdʌvˌkoʊt/ also dove•cot /ˈdʌvˌkɑːt/ noun, pl -cotes also -cots [count] : a small house or box for pigeons to live in

[1]dove•tail /ˈdʌvˌteɪl/ noun, pl -tails [count] : a type of joint that is used to connect two pieces of wood together — called also dovetail joint

[2]dovetail verb -tails; -tailed; -tail•ing
1 [+ obj] : to join (two pieces of wood) with dovetail joints ▪ The carpenter dovetailed (together) the corners (of the boards) for extra strength.
2 [no obj] formal : to fit together in a pleasing or satisfying way ▪ She found that the positions of the party and her own opinions dovetailed [=agreed, corresponded] nicely. — often + with ▪ His research dovetails with other similar studies.

Dow /ˈdaʊ/ noun
the Dow US : DOW JONES INDUSTRIAL AVERAGE

dow•a•ger /ˈdaʊɪʤə/ noun, pl -gers [count]
1 : a woman who has inherited property or a title from her dead husband — often used before another noun ▪ the dowager Duchess 2 : an old woman who is very formal or serious ▪ The estate is owned by a wealthy dowager.

dowdy /ˈdaʊdi/ adj dowd•i•er; -est [or more ~; most ~] : having a dull or uninteresting appearance : not attractive or stylish ▪ She played a dowdy old woman in the film. ▪ a dowdy [=frumpy, drab] gray dress

dow•el /ˈdaʊəl/ noun, pl -els [count] : a pin or peg that is used for joining together two pieces of wood, metal, plastic, etc. ▪ wooden/steel dowels

Dow Jones Industrial Average /ˌdaʊˌʤoʊnz-/ noun
the Dow Jones Industrial Average : the daily average of the stock prices of a group of large American companies

[1]down /ˈdaʊn/ adv
1 a : from a higher to a lower place or position ▪ The land slopes down to the sea. ▪ Please pull down the window shade. = Please pull the window shade down. ▪ I'll come down [=downstairs] in a minute. ▪ She called down to her friends in the street below. ▪ They set/put the cake down on the table. ▪ Lay down your book for a minute. ▪ We watched the sun go down. b : in a low position or place ▪ Keep your head down. ▪ We keep our wine collection down in the basement. ▪ What's going on down there?
2 : to or toward the ground or floor ▪ He fell down and hurt his knee. ▪ Climb down out of that tree! ▪ He knocked him down with one punch. ▪ Don't look down! ▪ Brightly colored flags hang down from the ceiling.
3 : to a lying or sitting position ▪ Please, sit down. ▪ Lie down and go to sleep.
4 a : to or toward the south ▪ They went down to Florida for two weeks. ▪ We drove down from New York. ▪ The weather's much warmer down south. b informal : to or toward a place that is thought of as below or away from another place ▪ She drove down to our house. ▪ Come on down and see us sometime. c : to or toward a place that is away from the speaker ▪ He is heading down to the store. ▪ Would you mind moving (further) down so that we can sit here, too?
5 : on a piece of paper ▪ Write down everything he says. ▪ Take down this number. ▪ Did you get that down?
6 : at a lower or lesser important position in a list or series ▪ Supporting public education seems to be far down [=low] on the government's agenda. ▪ Cleaning my house ranks pretty far down on my list. [=there are many other things I'd rather do] — opposite UP
7 : to a lower or lesser degree, level, or rate ▪ Slow down. ▪ Could you turn the volume down, please? ▪ We should give them some time to cool down. ▪ We should wait for the winds to calm down before we set sail. ▪ The company's stock went down last week. ▪ The team was 10 points down [=it had 10 fewer points than the other team] in the third quarter. ▪ The price of gasoline is starting to go down again. — opposite UP
8 : to a smaller or weaker state ▪ We have scaled down our plans for the new building. ▪ Some people want to use the budget surplus to pay down the national debt. [=to make payments that will reduce the a national debt] ▪ They have cut/whittled down the number of candidates. — often + to ▪ He finally got his report down to three pages.
9 : to a state of failure or defeat ▪ The school board voted the budget down 55 to 15. [=it voted not to pass the budget]
10 : in a way that causes someone or something to be less able to move ▪ Remember to tie down the load. ▪ They had to strap the patient down to his bed.
11 : in a thorough or complete way ▪ The car needs to be washed down. ▪ Hose the dog down outside.
12 : to the place where a person or thing is or came from ▪ They use dogs to hunt down escaped prisoners. ▪ He chased the ball down and threw it to third base. ▪ Every attempt to pin down the cause of the disease has proved unsuccessful. ▪ I haven't been able to track down that quotation.
13 : from a past time ▪ This vase has been handed down in our family for several generations. ▪ Most of these stories were passed down by word of mouth.
14 : as a first payment : as a down payment ▪ We put 10 percent down [=we made a 10 percent down payment] on the house. ▪ Buy a car now with no money down. [=without making a down payment]
15 : in the stomach ▪ The baby is having trouble keeping food down.
16 Brit : away from a school or university ▪ He was sent down for misconduct and never earned his degree.
down in the mouth see [1]MOUTH down to 1 : in a way that includes even (the smallest or least important part) ▪ Our work must be accurate down to the last detail. ▪ They knew everything about him down to the cologne he wore. 2 : to the last person or thing that can be used ▪ It looks like it's down to you and me. [=we are the last two people that are available] ▪ I'm down to my last dollar. [=I have only one dollar left] down with — used to say that you do not like something and want it to stop or fail ▪ Down with racism! ▪ Down with the government!
keep your head down see [1]HEAD let your hair down see HAIR put your foot down see [1]FOOT up and down see [1]UP with your pants down see PANTS

[2]down adj
1 : in a low place or position ▪ The window shades were down. ▪ The candy is down on the bottom shelf. : on the ground or floor ▪ There was a pile of dirty clothes down on the floor.
2 : going downward ▪ She took the down escalator.
3 : lower in price or value ▪ These changes should help keep prices down. ▪ Stocks are down again today.
4 : less than an earlier or normal level ▪ Attendance has been down lately. ▪ New construction is down sharply this month.
5 : having a lower level of activity ▪ Our business is having a down year. ▪ a down market/economy
6 : having fewer points than an opponent ▪ His team was down by 10 points [=trailed by 10 points] in the third quarter. ▪ We're down two runs.
7 : not operating properly : not able to function ▪ We can't get any work done while the network/system is down.
8 [more ~; most ~] : sad or unhappy ▪ You look pretty down. What's the matter? ▪ She was feeling down.
9 : finished or completed ▪ I've got eight down and only two more to go. [=I've finished eight and have two more to do]
10 : learned in a complete way ▪ Do you all have your lines down? [=memorized] ▪ We have our routine down pat. [=we have mastered our routine; we can do it easily]
11 : having something written or recorded in an official way ▪ You are down for two tickets. [=you are signed up to get two tickets]
12 US slang — used to say that you understand or approve of something; usually + with ▪ I told them I wasn't down with lying to people. [=I don't think that lying to people is right] ▪ Yeah, I'm down with that.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 94 SESS: 11 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:28:36 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-d

13 baseball — used to say how many outs have been made in the inning by the team that is batting ▪ There are now two (men) down in the top of the third inning.
14 American football — used to say that the ball or the player who has the ball is on the ground and the play has ended ▪ The runner was down on the fify-yard line. ▪ The ball was down.
down for the count see [2]COUNT down on informal : having a bad opinion of someone or something ▪ My coach has been down on me lately.
down on your luck see [1]LUCK down with : affected by (an illness) ▪ She has been down with the flu for a week.
when the chips are down see [1]CHIP

[3]down prep
1 : from a higher to a lower part of (something) ▪ Sweat dripped down her neck. ▪ The children ran down the hill. ▪ She fell down the stairs. ▪ He climbed down the ladder. ▪ He spilled mustard down the front of his shirt. ▪ Her hair hung loosely down her back.
2 : along the course or path of (something) ▪ Go down the road/street and turn left. ▪ We grew up down the block from each other. ▪ There's a bridge three miles down the river. [=three miles in the same direction that the water is going in the river] ▪ ships sailing down the coast [=along the coast usually toward the south] ▪ The bathroom is halfway down the hall on the right. ▪ His pitches were right down the middle of the plate. ▪ I usually part my hair down the center. ▪ He is still pacing up and down [=back and forth in] the room.

[4]down noun, pl downs
1 [count] : a period or state of failure, trouble, etc. — usually plural ▪ The company has had more downs than ups this year. ▪ We have had our ups and downs.
2 American football : one of a series of four chances that a team has to move the ball forward 10 yards in order to keep the ball and begin a new series [noncount] He caught the ball on second/third down. [count] a series of downs — see also FIRST DOWN
– compare [5]DOWN, DOWNS

[5]down noun [noncount]
1 : small and very soft feathers ▪ goose down ▪ a pillow filled with down — often used before another noun ▪ a down pillow/comforter/jacket
2 : small soft hairs ▪ The young man had just a light trace of down on his cheeks. ▪ the down of a peach
– compare [4]DOWN, DOWNS

[6]down verb downs; downed; down•ing [+ obj]
1 : to cause (something) to fall to the ground ▪ He downed [=shot down] four enemy planes. ▪ The storm downed power lines throughout the city. ▪ a downed bird/plane ▪ a large number of downed power lines
2 informal : to eat or drink (something) especially quickly ▪ She quickly downed [=took, swallowed] the pills I gave her. ▪ They were downing beers and watching the game on TV.
3 American football : to cause (a football) to be out of play ▪ The quarterback downed the ball to stop the clock.
4 informal : DEFEAT ▪ Smith downed Jones in the first round of the tournament. ▪ The Cardinals downed the Braves by a score of 5–2.

down–and–dirty adj [more ~; most ~] chiefly US, informal
1 : involving methods that are regarded as harsh, unfair, etc. ▪ down-and-dirty business practices ▪ down-and-dirty competition
2 : dirty and in poor condition ▪ The story takes place on the down-and-dirty [=seedy, decrepit] streets of the city.
3 : relating to harsh and unpleasant subjects in an honest and often shocking way ▪ I told them the down-and-dirty truth. ▪ a down-and-dirty interview
4 : basic and practical ▪ We have to get down to the down-and-dirty [=nitty-gritty] details.
get down and dirty : to do or say harsh and unpleasant things ▪ Sometimes you have to get down and dirty with your competitors.

down–and–out adj [more ~; most ~] informal : very poor and without hope : having no money, job, etc. ▪ No one would help him when he was down-and-out. ▪ a movie about a down-and-out musician living on the streets

down–at–the–heels (chiefly US) or chiefly Brit down–at–heel adj : looking or seeming cheap or poor and dirty or worn ▪ We got a room at a down-at-the-heels [=dingy, seedy] motel. ▪ a down-at-heel traveler

[1]down•beat /ˈdaʊnˌbi:t/ noun, pl -beats [count] music
1 : the downward movement that a conductor makes to show which note is played with the greatest stress or force
2 : the first beat of a measure of music

[2]downbeat adj [more ~; most ~] : sad or depressing : not happy or hopeful ▪ Many will be surprised by the movie's unusually downbeat [=pessimistic, gloomy] ending. — opposite UPBEAT down•cast /ˈdaʊnˌkæst, Brit ˈdaʊnˌkɑ:st/ adj

1 [more ~; most ~] : not happy, confident, or hopeful ▪ I've never seen her looking so downcast. [=depressed, unhappy, sad] ▪ There were a lot of downcast faces in the crowd.
2 of eyes : looking downward ▪ downcast eyes down•court /ˈdaʊnˈkoɚt/ adv : into or toward the opposite end of a basketball court ▪ He passed the ball downcourt. ▪ running downcourt

down•draft /ˈdaʊnˌdræft, Brit ˈdaʊnˌdrɑ:ft/ noun, pl -drafts [count] technical : a downward flow of air ▪ a strong downdraft from the thunderstorm down•er /ˈdaʊnɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] informal 1 : a drug that makes the body relax; especially : BARBITURATE ▪ I took some downers to help me sleep. — compare UPPER 2 : something that is unpleasant or depressing ▪ "His cat just died." "Oh, that's a real downer." ▪ Our conversation about death was a bit of a downer.

down•fall /ˈdaʊnˌfɑ:l/ noun, pl -falls [count]
1 : a sudden loss of power, happiness, success, etc. ▪ She was blamed for the company's downfall. [=decline, ruin] ▪ Their downfall was the result of several bad decisions.
2 : something that causes failure ▪ In the end, gambling proved to be his downfall. [=ruin, undoing] ▪ Bad decision-making was their downfall.

down• eld /ˈdaʊnˈfi:ld/ adv, sports : into or toward the part of the field toward which a team is headed ▪ He threw/kicked the ball downfield.
– down eld adj ▪ a downfield pass

[1]down•grade /ˈdaʊnˌgreɪd/ verb -grades; -grad•ed; -grad•ing [+ obj]
1 : to give (someone or something) a lower rank or grade ▪ If you confess to the crime, we may be able to downgrade [=reduce] the charge. ▪ The restaurant was downgraded from three to two stars. ▪ a soldier downgraded [=demoted] in rank for misconduct — opposite UPGRADE
2 : to cause (someone or something) to be thought of as less valuable, important, etc. ▪ She didn't intend to downgrade the importance of her colleague's work.

[2]downgrade noun, pl -grades [count] chiefly US
1 : an area or surface that goes downward : a downward slope ▪ a steep downgrade
2 : an occurrence in which something becomes worse, less valuable, etc. ▪ a downgrade in the company's stock prices ▪ slight downgrades in quality down•heart•ed /ˈdaʊnˈhɑɚtəd/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not happy, confident, or hopeful ▪ Everyone was downhearted [=sad, depressed] about the decision to close the factory.

[1]down•hill /ˌdaʊnˈhɪl/ adv
1 : toward the bottom of a hill or mountain ▪ It is easier to ride a bike downhill than uphill.
2 : toward a worse state ▪ Her career/health is heading downhill. ▪ After his divorce, he went downhill fast. ▪ The service has gone downhill under the new owner.

[2]down•hill /ˈdaʊnˌhɪl/ adj
1 : going or sloping down toward the bottom of a hill or mountain ▪ The second half of the hike is mostly downhill. ▪ a downhill path/slope
2 not used before a noun a : not difficult : easy to do, deal with, etc. ▪ The worst part is over. It's all downhill from here. b : becoming worse or less successful ▪ The first part of the movie was pretty good, but after that it was all downhill. ▪ His career has been all downhill in recent years.
3 always used before a noun : relating to or used in a kind of skiing that is done down a mountain or hill instead of over the countryside ▪ I enjoy downhill skiing. ▪ a downhill skier/competition ▪ downhill skis — compare [1]CROSS-COUNTRY 3

[3]down•hill /ˈdaʊnˌhɪl/ noun, pl -hills [count] : a downhill skiing race — usually singular ▪ He finished first in the downhill.

down–home /ˈdaʊnˌhoʊm/ adj [more ~; most ~] US : simple and informal in a way that reminds people of life in a small town or in the country especially in the southern U.S. ▪ She's very famous but there is something quiet and down-home about her. ▪ down-home cooking

D

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 95 SESS: 11 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:28:37 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-d

Dow•ning Street /ˈdaʊnɪŋ-/ noun [singular] : the British Prime Minister or the British government ▪ Downing Street and the White House are currently discussing the issue. ✧ The term Downing Street comes from the address of the official home of the British Prime Minister at Number 10 Downing Street in London.

[1]down•load /ˈdaʊnˌloʊd/ verb -loads; -load•ed; -load•ing computers : to move or copy (a file, program, etc.) from a usually larger computer system to another computer or device [+ obj] He downloaded the files onto his computer. ▪ She downloads songs from/off the Internet. [no obj] The software downloads quickly. ▪ The new program makes downloading faster. — compare UPLOAD – down•load•able /ˈdaʊnˌloʊdəbəl/ adj ▪ downloadable files

[2]download noun, pl -loads computers
1 : an act of moving or copying a file, program, etc., from a usually larger computer system to another computer or device [count] The modem is capable of high-speed downloads. ▪ The download will take about three minutes. [noncount] The program is available for download at the company's Web site.
2 [count] : a file, program, etc., that is downloaded ▪ The downloads are all in this folder.

down–mar•ket /ˈdaʊnˌmɑəkət/ adj [more ~; most ~] chiefly Brit : made for or appealing to people who do not have much money ▪ a down-market [=(US) downscale] store/hotel; also : of low quality ▪ down-market tabloids/products – down–market adv ▪ The store is going/moving down-market. [=starting to sell products for people with less money] down payment noun, pl ~ -ments [count] : a first payment that you make when you buy something with an agreement to pay the rest later ▪ She made a 10 percent down payment on the car. ▪ We put/made a down payment on the house.

downpipe noun, pl -pipes [count] Brit : DOWNSPOUT down•play /ˈdaʊnˌpleɪ/ verb -plays; -played; -play•ing [+ obj] : to make (something) seem smaller or less important ▪ She downplayed [=played down] her role in the research. ▪ Athletes often downplay their injuries.

down•pour /ˈdaʊnˌpoɚ/ noun, pl -pours [count] : a sudden heavy rain — usually singular ▪ We got caught in a torrential downpour.

down•right /ˈdaʊnˌraɪt/ adv : to the fullest degree : completely or totally ▪ The movie was downright stupid/bad/scary. ▪ It's very difficult, if not downright impossible. ▪ They were downright overjoyed.
– downright adj, always used before a noun ▪ a downright [=absolute, outright] lie ▪ I was met with downright hostility.

down•riv•er /ˈdaʊnˈrɪvɚ/ adv : in the direction in which a river flows : DOWNSTREAM ▪ The raft drifted downriver.

downs /ˈdaʊnz/ noun [plural] : a high area of land that has low hills and no trees ▪ Sheep graze on the grassy downs. ▪ the South Downs of Southern England ✧ Downs often appears in the names of racetracks that are used for horseracing. ▪ His horse won the Kentucky Derby at Churchill Downs.

Down's /ˈdaʊnz/ noun [noncount] medical : DOWN SYNDROME ▪ He has Down's. ▪ (informal) a Down's baby

[1]down•scale /ˈdaʊnˌskeɪl/ verb -scales; -scaled; -scal•ing [+ obj] US : to make (something) smaller ▪ The company has downscaled production. [=the company is making fewer products] ▪ The festival will have to be downscaled this year.

[2]downscale adj [more ~; most ~] US : relating or appealing to people who do not have much money ▪ an apartment in a downscale neighborhood ▪ The company aims to reach a more downscale market with its new stores.; also : of low quality ▪ downscale [=(chiefly Brit) down-market] products down•shift /ˈdaʊnˌʃɪft/ verb -shifts; -shift•ed; -shift•ing [no obj]

1 : to put the engine of a vehicle into a lower gear ▪ You can downshift to slow the car down. — opposite UPSHIFT
2 : to begin to work or happen at a level that is slower, easier, or more relaxed ▪ Several employees will be downshifting from full-time to part-time. [=will start working less than the regular number of hours] ▪ Expect the real estate market to downshift in the next few months. [=expect that fewer people will be buying and selling houses, buildings, etc.]
– downshift noun, pl -shifts [count] ▪ a downshift into first gear ▪ downshifts in economic growth

down•side /ˈdaʊnˌsaɪd/ noun, pl -sides [count] : a part of something that you do not want or like : a drawback or disadvantage ▪ He could find no downside to the car. ▪ On the downside [=when you consider the disadvantages], the car does not have much trunk space. — often + of ▪ The downside of the camera is that the batteries have to be replaced often. — opposite UPSIDE down•size /ˈdaʊnˌsaɪz/ verb -siz•es; -sized; -siz•ing

1 : to make (something) smaller [+ obj] They have downsized the car's engine in the new model. [no obj] We downsized to a smaller apartment last year. [=we moved to a smaller apartment]
2 : to make a company smaller and more efficient by reducing the number of workers [no obj] The company is planning to downsize next year. [+ obj] The company will be downsized next year. ▪ The company has downsized [=reduced] its staff. ▪ She was downsized [=she was dismissed from her job] after 15 years with the company.
– downsizing noun, pl -ings [count] He lost his job in a recent downsizing at the company. ▪ corporate downsizings [noncount] problems caused by corporate downsizing down•slide /ˈdaʊnˌslaɪd/ noun, pl -slides [count] US : a situation in which something decreases or becomes worse — usually singular ▪ an economic downslide [=(more commonly) downturn] ▪ Her career has been on a/the downslide.

down•slope /ˈdaʊnˌsloʊp/ adv, US : toward the bottom of a hill or mountain : down a slope ▪ We slowly walked downslope. [=(more commonly) downhill] — opposite UPSLOPE
– downslope adj ▪ downslope winds – downslope noun, pl -slopes [count] ▪ We'll stop to rest on the downslope.

down•spout /ˈdaʊnˌspaʊt/ noun, pl -spouts [count] US : a pipe that carries rainwater from the roof of a building to the ground — called also drainpipe, (Brit) downpipe; see picture at HOUSE down•stage /ˈdaʊnˈsteɪʤ/ adv : toward the front part of a stage ▪ The actress walked downstage to address the audience.

Down's syndrome noun [noncount] medical : DOWN SYNDROME

[1]down•stairs /ˈdaʊnˈsteɚz/ adv : on or to a lower floor of a building ▪ He ran downstairs to answer the door. ▪ He lives downstairs from us. ▪ "Where are the kids?" "They're downstairs."

[2]down•stairs /ˈdaʊnˌsteɚz/ adj, always used before a noun : located on a lower, main, or first floor of a building ▪ the downstairs bathroom ▪ There are five downstairs rooms.

[3]down•stairs /ˈdaʊnˈsteɚz/ noun
the downstairs : the lower and usually main floor of a building ▪ The downstairs needs to be cleaned. ▪ We painted the downstairs.

down•state /ˈdaʊnˌsteɪt/ noun [noncount] US : the southern part of a state ▪ He is from downstate.
– downstate adj ▪ downstate New York – down•state /ˈdaʊnˈsteɪt/ adv ▪ She moved downstate last year. ▪ He lives downstate.

down•stream /ˈdaʊnˈstriːm/ adv : in the direction in which a stream, river, etc., flows ▪ The next town is six miles downstream. ▪ float downstream

down•swing /ˈdaʊnˌswɪŋ/ noun, pl -swings [count]
1 : a situation in which something decreases or becomes worse ▪ The company is experiencing a financial downswing. [=(more commonly) downturn] ▪ The company's sales are on a/the downswing. [=are decreasing]
2 golf : a forward and downward movement of a club as a golfer hits a shot

Down syndrome /ˈdaʊn-/ noun [noncount] medical : a condition that someone is born with and that causes below average mental abilities and problems in physical development. — called also Down's, Down's syndrome

down•time /ˈdaʊnˌtaɪm/ noun [noncount]
1 US : time when you are not working or busy ▪ After a busy day at work, I look forward to some downtime at home. ▪ The kids napped during their downtime.
2 : time during which a computer or machine is not working ▪ We need to minimize network downtime.

down–to–earth adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : informal and easy to talk to ▪ a down-to-earth person ▪ He's very down-to-earth despite his fame.
2 : practical and sensible ▪ down-to-earth advice ▪ Students liked the teacher's down-to-earth approach.

[1]down•town /ˈdaʊnˌtaʊn/ noun, pl -towns [count] chiefly US : the main or central part of a city or town : the part of a city or town where there are tall buildings, stores, offices, etc. — usually singular ▪ I live close to downtown. ▪ The city's

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 96 SESS: 11 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:28:37 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-d

downtown is thriving. — compare UPTOWN

[2]downtown /ˌdaʊnˈtaʊn/ adv, chiefly US : to, toward, or in the main or central part of a city or town ▪ Does this bus go downtown? ▪ We went shopping downtown.

– downtown adj, always used before a noun ▪ downtown stores/restaurants ▪ downtown Boston down•trod•den /ˈdaʊnˈtrɑːdn̩/ adj, somewhat formal : without hope because of being treated badly by powerful people, governments, etc. ▪ downtrodden people ▪ They were poor and downtrodden.

the downtrodden : downtrodden people ▪ He showed compassion for the downtrodden.

down•turn /ˈdaʊnˌtɚn/ noun, pl -turns [count] : a situation in which something (such as business or economic activity) decreases or becomes worse — usually singular ▪ an economic downturn = a downturn in the economy ▪ There's been a downturn in the housing market.

[1]down•ward (chiefly US) /ˈdaʊnwəd/ or chiefly Brit down•wards /ˈdaʊnwədz/ adv

1 : from a higher place or level to a lower place or level ▪ The mountain streams flow downward to the lake. ▪ Heating costs rise as the temperature heads downward. [=as the weather becomes colder]

2 : toward the ground, floor, etc. : not up ▪ The hawk flew downward. ▪ The arrow pointed downward. ▪ Mud covered his pants from the knees downward.

3 : toward people with less power, money, etc. ▪ Everyone in the company, from the president downward, has been involved in these decisions. [=the president and all the employees with less authority, power, etc., have been involved]

4 : to a smaller amount : to a lower number ▪ We received an estimate, but the number has since been revised downward.

[2]downward adj, always used before a noun

1 : moving or going from a higher place or level to a lower place or level ▪ a downward slope ▪ Sales continued their downward trend. ▪ Her life was in a downward spiral [=a process of constantly getting worse] as she battled depression and addiction.

2 : moving or going toward the ground, floor, etc. ▪ the hawk's downward flight

3 : changing to a smaller amount or lower number ▪ the downward revision of an estimate down•wind /ˈdaʊnˈwɪnd/ adv : in the direction that the wind is moving ▪ We sailed downwind. — often + of or from ▪ His clothes smelled like smoke after standing downwind of the campfire. ▪ Pollution from the factory affects those who live downwind from it.

– downwind adj ▪ the downwind side of a campfire

downy /ˈdaʊni/ adj down•i•er; -est

1 — used to describe small, soft feathers or something that resembles such feathers ▪ the down feathers of a baby bird ▪ her soft downy hair

2 : covered or filled with small, soft feathers or something like them ▪ downy chicks/leaves/pillows

dow•ry /ˈdaʊri/ noun, pl -ries [count] : money or property that a wife or wife's family gives to her husband when the wife and husband marry in some cultures

dowse /ˈdaʊz/ verb dows•es; dowsed; dows•ing [no obj] : to search for an underground supply of water by using a special stick that leads you to it — usually + for ▪ dowse for water

– dows•er noun, pl -ers [count]

dowsing rod noun, pl ~ rods [count] : DIVINING ROD

doy•en /ˈdojən/ noun, pl -ens [count] formal : a person who has a lot of experience in or knowledge about a particular profession, subject, etc. ▪ a fashion doyen ▪ He is considered the doyen of political journalists/journalism.

doy•enne /doɪˈɛn/ noun, pl -ennes [count] : a woman who has a lot of experience in or knowledge about a particular profession, subject, etc. ▪ the doyenne of the fashion industry

doz. abbr dozen

doze /ˈdoʊz/ verb doz•es; dozed; doz•ing [no obj] : to sleep lightly especially for a short period of time ▪ He was dozing [=napping] on the sofa when I got home.

doze off [phrasal verb] : to fall asleep especially for a short period of time ▪ A few students dozed off [=nodded off, dropped off] during the movie.

– doze noun [singular] ▪ He drifted into a light doze.

doz•en /ˈdʌzn̩/ noun, pl doz•ens or dozen

1 pl dozen [count] : a group of 12 people or things ▪ a dozen eggs [=12 eggs] ▪ half a dozen eggs = a half-dozen eggs [=six eggs] ▪ two dozen roses [=24 roses] ▪ We'll need a couple dozen hot dogs for the party. [=we will need about 24 hot dogs] ▪ A few dozen people were at the party. [=about 36 people were at the party] ▪ She has published several dozen [=many, probably more than 36] poems. — see also BAKER'S DOZEN

2 dozens [plural] : large numbers of people or things ▪ People entered the park by/in the dozens. [=large groups of people entered the park] — often + of ▪ Dozens of [=many] people were at the park. ▪ The shop sells dozens and dozens of [=very many] kinds of tea.

a dime a dozen see DIME six of one, half a dozen of the other see SIX

dozy /ˈdoʊzi/ adj doz•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~] informal

1 : tired or sleepy ▪ I feel dozy.

2 Brit : stupid or silly ▪ He's a dozy old chap. ▪ He's a little dozy.

dpi abbr dots per inch ▪ an image with 72 dpi [=an image that is made of 72 dots of ink in each inch]

Dr. (US) or Brit Dr abbr 1 doctor ▪ Dr. Jones 2 drive ▪ The reception will be held at 27 Chestnut Dr.

drab /ˈdræb/ adj drab•ber; drab•best [also more ~; most ~] : not bright or colorful : too plain or dull to be interesting ▪ drab buildings/clothes/offices/rooms ▪ He lives a drab life. — see also OLIVE DRAB

– drab•ly adv ▪ a drably dressed woman – drab•ness noun [noncount] ▪ the drabness of the buildings drabs /ˈdræbz/ noun

dribs and drabs see DRIBS

dra•co•ni•an /dreɪˈkoʊnijən/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal + disapproving : very severe or cruel ▪ The editorial criticizes the draconian measures being taken to control the spread of the disease. ▪ draconian punishments

[1]draft /ˈdræft, Brit ˈdrɑːft/ noun, pl drafts

1 [count] : a version of something (such as a document) that you make before you make the final version ▪ The published poem differs quite a bit from earlier drafts. ▪ I just completed a rough draft [=a first version that needs a lot of editing and rewriting] of my speech. ▪ The final draft [=the final version] is due tomorrow.

2 US draft or Brit draught [count] : cool air moving in a closed space (such as a room) ▪ You may want to seal the windows with plastic to stop drafts.

3 [count] US a : a system in which young people are required to join the armed forces of a country for a period of service — usually singular ▪ There is debate about whether the country needs a draft. ▪ Congress reinstated the draft. — often used before another noun ▪ He burned his draft card. ▪ He's a draft dodger. [=a person who illegally avoids joining the armed forces] b : a system by which professional sports teams choose players from college or high school teams — usually singular ▪ He was chosen in the first round of the draft. — often used before another noun ▪ draft day ▪ He was a first-round draft pick.

4 US draft or Brit draught [count] formal + literary : an act of drinking something; also : the amount swallowed at one time ▪ He took a big draft of beer.

5 US draft or Brit draught [count] : a beer that is stored in and poured from a large container ▪ The bar has 15 different drafts on tap.

6 : an order for the payment of money from a person or bank to another person or bank [count] The bank issued a draft. [noncount] Payment must be made by bank draft.

7 US draft or Brit draught technical a : the depth of water that a boat needs in order to be able to float [count] — usually singular ▪ a boat with a deep/shallow draft [noncount] a ship with 45 feet of draft b [noncount] : the depth of the water in a river, channel, etc. ▪ a canal/channel that provides 60 feet of draft

8 draught [count] Brit : [2]CHECKER

on draft (US) or Brit on draught of beer : stored in and poured from a large container instead of in individual bottles or cans ▪ The bar has beer on draft. [=on tap]

[2]draft adj, always used before a noun

1 US draft or Brit draught of an animal : used for pulling heavy loads ▪ draft animals/horses

2 US draft or Brit draught of beer : stored in and poured from a large container ▪ draft beer

3 : not yet in the final form ▪ a draft law/constitution/treaty

[3]draft verb drafts; draft•ed; draft•ing [+ obj]

1 : to make a version of (something, such as a document or plan) that will need more work in order to be finished ▪ He drafted a speech. ▪ The two countries are drafting a treaty.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 97 SESS: 38 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:28:38 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-d

2 a : to choose (someone) for a special purpose ▪ The drama club drafted three teenagers to be in the parade. — often used as (be/get) drafted ▪ A few of us were drafted to help distribute flyers. ▪ He got drafted for the fall play. b US : to officially order (someone) to join the armed forces ▪ The legislature debated drafting more soldiers. — often used as (be/get) drafted ▪ He was drafted for the war. ▪ He got drafted into the army. c US : to choose (someone) to play on a professional sports team ▪ The new rule prohibits teams from drafting players under 18. — often used as (be/get) drafted ▪ He was drafted in the first round. ▪ He got drafted by the Jets.

draft•ee /ˌdræfˈti:, Brit ˌdrɑ:fˈti:/ noun, pl -ees [count] US
1 : someone who is officially ordered to join the armed forces
2 : someone who is chosen to play on a professional sports team draft•er /ˈdræftɚ, Brit ˈdrɑ:ftə/ noun, pl -ers [count]

1 : someone who writes an official or legal document (such as a law) based on the ideas that have been officially discussed ▪ the drafters of the amendment/constitution
2 : a person whose job is to make drawings that will be used to make machines, buildings, etc. : DRAFTSMAN
3 : someone who makes a version of something (such as a document or plan) that will need more work in order to be finished ▪ She spoke to the drafter of the report.

drafts•man /ˈdræftsmən, Brit ˈdrɑ:ftsmən/ noun, pl drafts•men /ˈdræftsmən, Brit ˈdrɑ:ftsmən/ [count]
1 US draftsman or Brit draughtsman : a person whose job is to make drawings that will be used to make machines, buildings, etc.
2 : someone who writes an official or legal document (such as a law) based on the ideas that have been officially discussed ▪ the draftsmen [=(more commonly) drafters] of the U.S. Constitution
3 US draftsman or Brit draughtsman : an artist who draws well ▪ Her use of color is not outstanding, but she is a first-rate draftsman.
– drafts•man•ship (US) or Brit draughts•man•ship /ˈdræftsmənˌʃɪp, Brit ˈdrɑ:ftsmənˌʃɪp/ noun [noncount] ▪ Her work shows sophisticated draftsmanship.

drafts•per•son (US) or Brit draughts•per•son /ˈdræftsˌpəsn, Brit ˈdrɑ:ftsˌpə:sn/ noun, pl drafts•peo•ple /ˈdræftsˌpi:pəl, Brit ˈdrɑ:ftsˌpi:pəl/ [count] : DRAFTSMAN ▪ She was one of the bill's draftspeople.

drafty (US) or Brit draughty /ˈdræfti, Brit ˈdrɑ:fti/ adj draf•ti•er; -est : having cold air moving through in a way that is unpleasant or uncomfortable ▪ a drafty room ▪ The house is very drafty.
– draf•t•i•ness (US) or Brit draught•i•ness /ˈdræftinəs, Brit ˈdrɑ:ftinəs/ noun [noncount]

[1]drag /ˈdræg/ verb drags; dragged; drag•ging
1 [+ obj] : to pull (someone or something that is heavy or difficult to move) ▪ She dragged one of the other tables over to ours. ▪ Firefighters dragged the man to safety. ▪ One of the parents eventually dragged the screaming toddler out of the store. — often used figuratively ▪ She practically had to drag her husband to the opera. ▪ You drag me all the way out here only to tell me that the store is closed!? ▪ She was dragged kicking and screaming into the family business. [=she was forced to join the family business]
2 a [no obj] : to move along the ground, floor, etc., while being pulled ▪ Your scarf is dragging. ▪ The broken muffler dragged behind the car. ▪ The dog's leash was dragging along the ground. b [+ obj] : to cause (something) to move along the ground, floor, etc., by pulling it ▪ The child is always dragging his blanket. ▪ The puppy ran up to us, dragging her leash behind her.
3 a always followed by an adverb or preposition [+ obj] : to force (yourself) to move or to go to a place when you are tired, busy, etc. ▪ He dragged himself up the stairs and climbed into bed. ▪ Can you drag yourself away from that computer? ▪ I could barely drag myself out of bed. [=I had a hard time waking up] b [no obj] : to go or move more slowly than others ▪ Quit dragging—walk faster. ▪ The nation's economy is dragging [=(more commonly) lagging] behind the rest of the world.
4 [+ obj] : to bring (an unpleasant or complicated subject, fact, etc.) into a discussion or argument — + up or into ▪ Do you always have to drag [=dredge] up the past? ▪ They can't seem to avoid dragging religion into politics. [=mentioning religion in a discussion about politics]
5 [no obj] : to go on for a long time in a way that seems slow and boring ▪ The movie was good, but I thought it dragged at the end. ▪ The hours seemed to drag (by) as the day went on.
6 [+ obj] : to pull a net or set of hooks through (a river, lake, pond, etc.) in order to search for or collect something ▪ Searchers used three boats to drag the river. ▪ They dragged [=trawled] the waters for fish.
7 [+ obj] computers : to move (items on a computer screen) by using a computer mouse ▪ Drag the file/picture to this folder.

drag down [phrasal verb] 1 drag (someone) down or drag down (someone) : to force (someone) into a bad situation or condition ▪ We cannot let our enemies drag us down to their level. [=we should not let their bad behavior convince us to behave badly] 2 drag (someone) down : to make (someone) unhappy ▪ You can't let her bad moods drag you down. 3 drag down (something) or drag (something) down : to make (something) lower in amount or quality ▪ High energy costs are dragging down profits.

drag into [phrasal verb] drag (someone) into (something) : to involve (a person, group, etc.) in (a difficult or complicated situation) ▪ I'm sorry for dragging you into this. ▪ Don't drag the children into this. ▪ We will not let the country be dragged into another war. — see also [1]DRAG 4 (above) drag on [phrasal verb] disapproving : to go on for a long time : to progress slowly ▪ The meeting dragged on until almost midnight. ▪ The lawsuit dragged on for years.

drag out [phrasal verb] 1 drag out (something) or drag (something) out : to cause (something) to take more time than necessary ▪ He dragged out the speech much too long. ▪ Stop dragging the story out and get to the point. 2 drag (something) out of (someone) : to force (something, such as a confession) from (someone) : to make (someone) tell you (something) ▪ The teacher eventually dragged a confession out of one of the students. ▪ Doctors sometimes have to drag information out of their patients.

drag someone's name through the mud : to publicly say false or bad things that harm someone's reputation ▪ My opponent has dragged my name through the mud.

drag your feet also drag your heels : to avoid doing something for a long time because you do not want to do it ▪ Quit dragging your feet and make a decision! ▪ After months of dragging its heels, Congress voted on the bill.

like something the cat dragged in see CAT

Look what the cat dragged in! see CAT

[2]drag noun, pl drags
1 [singular] informal : someone or something that is boring, annoying, or disappointing ▪ My parents can be such a drag. They won't let me do anything. ▪ These meetings are a total drag.
2 [singular] informal : someone or something that makes action or progress slower or more difficult — usually + on ▪ High taxes have been a drag on the economy. ▪ The senator should resign before she becomes a drag on the party. [=before she causes people to vote for candidates in another political party]
3 [count] informal : the act of breathing in smoke from a cigarette, cigar, pipe, etc. ▪ Let me have a drag from your cigarette. ▪ He took a long drag on the cigarette.
4 [noncount] physics : the force of air that pushes against an airplane, a car, etc., as it moves forward ▪ The jet's sleek design reduces drag.
in drag : wearing clothes that are usually worn by the opposite sex ▪ They went to the party (dressed) in drag. ▪ She's in drag. [=dressed as a man]
– see also MAIN DRAG

drag•net /ˈdrægˌnɛt/ noun, pl -nets [count]
1 : a series of actions that are done by the police in order to catch criminals ▪ Nine suspects were caught in the police dragnet.
2 : a net that is pulled along the bottom of a river, lake, pond, etc., to search for or collect something drag•on /ˈdrægən/ noun, pl -ons [count] : an imaginary animal that can breathe out fire and looks like a very large lizard with wings, a long tail, and large claws drag•on• y /ˈdrægənˌflaɪ/ noun, pl - ies [count] : a large insect that has a long thin body and four wings and that is often seen near water — see color picture on page C10 dragon lady noun, pl ∼ ladies [count] chiefly US, informal + disapproving : a woman who is often angry or cruel especially when people do not do what she wants ▪ The new boss is a real dragon lady.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 98 SESS: 11 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:28:38 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-d

[1]dra•goon /drəˈguːn/ noun, pl -goons [count] chiefly Brit : a soldier especially in the past who rode a horse and carried a gun

[2]dragoon verb -goons; -gooned; -goon•ing dragoon into [phrasal verb] dragoon (someone) into (something) : to force or convince (someone) to do (something) ▪ Somehow I was dragooned into working overtime.

drag queen noun, pl ~ queens [count] informal : a homosexual man who dresses as a woman especially to entertain people drag race noun, pl ~ races [count] : a contest in which people race cars at very high speeds over a short distance – drag racer noun, pl ~ -ers [count] ▪ He is one of the best drag racers in the country. – drag racing noun [noncount] ▪ He likes drag racing.

drag•ster /ˈdrægstə/ noun, pl -sters [count] : a car that is made for drag racing drag strip noun, pl ~ strips [count] : a place where drag races happen

[1]drain /ˈdreɪn/ verb drains; drained; drain•ing
1 a [+ obj] : to remove (liquid) from something by letting it flow away or out ▪ Drain the canned tomatoes before adding them to the pot. ▪ The swamp has been drained. — often + from ▪ Drain the fat/grease from the pan. ▪ We have to drain some water from the pool. b [no obj] of a container : to become empty of a liquid ▪ I was waiting for the bathtub to drain. ▪ The sink won't drain. c [no obj] of a liquid : to flow into, away from, or out of something ▪ The river drains into a lake. ▪ The blood/color drained from her face. [=she got pale]
2 a [+ obj] : to cause (something) to lose something important — + of ▪ Years of civil war have drained the country of its resources. [=have used up the country's resources] ▪ Overuse has drained the phrase of all meaning. b : to slowly be used up or to cause (something) to slowly be used up [+ obj] Years of civil war have drained the country's resources. ▪ The city's emergency fund has been drained. [no obj] — usually + away ▪ She felt her anger drain away.
3 [+ obj] : to make (someone) very physically or mentally tired ▪ The work drained [=exhausted] me. ▪ I feel totally drained of energy this evening. ▪ Her work is very draining. [=tiring]
4 [+ obj] : to drink all of the liquid in (something) ▪ He drained the mug and left.
5 [+ obj] US, sports, informal : to make (a successful shot) in a very skillful and impressive way ▪ (basketball) She took a long jump shot and drained it. ▪ (golf) He drained the putt for a birdie.
drain off [phrasal verb] drain off (something) or drain (something) off a : to cause (a liquid) to flow away from something or to leave the surface of something ▪ When the beans have cooked long enough to be tender, drain off the water and set them aside. b : to take (something important or valuable) from something ▪ An independent candidate could drain off [=siphon off] votes from either party.

[2]drain noun, pl drains [count]
1 : something (such as a pipe) that is used for removing a liquid from a place or container ▪ He poured the spoiled milk down/into the drain. [=(Brit) plughole] ▪ The drain in the bathtub/sink is blocked/clogged. ▪ (chiefly Brit) They are repairing the drains. [=sewer system]
2 : something that uses a lot of time, money, etc. — usually singular; usually + on ▪ Tuition costs are a drain on the family income. ▪ The war has been a big drain on the country's resources. — see also BRAIN DRAIN down the drain informal 1 — used to describe something that is being wasted or lost ▪ All my hard work went down the drain. ▪ You're pouring your money down the drain. [=you're wasting your money] 2 — used to describe something that is getting much worse ▪ The public schools are going down the drain.

drain•age /ˈdreɪnɪʤ/ noun [noncount] : the act or process of draining something : the act or process of removing water or liquid from a place or thing ▪ the drainage of swamps ▪ The soil has good drainage. [=extra water does not stay in the soil] ▪ The holes in the bottom of the flower pot are for drainage. [=are for the extra water to flow out] — often used before another noun ▪ a drainage system/basin/ditch/channel drain•board /ˈdreɪnˌboəd/ noun, pl -boards [count] US : a sloping area near a kitchen sink used for drying dishes — called also (Brit) draining board

drained /ˈdreɪnd/ adj
1 : with the water or liquid removed ▪ a drained swamp ▪ Add one cup tomatoes, drained. ▪ well-drained soil
2 not used before a noun [more ~; most ~] : very tired : EXHAUSTED ▪ I feel totally drained.

drain•pipe /ˈdreɪnˌpaɪp/ noun, pl -pipes [count]
1 : a pipe that carries rainwater from the roof of a building to the ground : DOWNSPOUT
2 US : a pipe that carries liquid waste and water away from buildings — see picture at PLUMBING

drake /ˈdreɪk/ noun, pl drakes [count] : a male duck dram /ˈdræm/ noun, pl drams [count] : a small amount of an alcoholic drink ▪ a dram of whiskey

dra•ma /ˈdrɑːmə/ noun, pl -mas
1 a [count] : a piece of writing that tells a story and is performed on a stage ▪ He is reading an ancient Greek drama. b : a play, movie, television show, or radio show that is about a serious subject and is not meant to make the audience laugh [count] a television/radio drama ▪ a police drama [=a serious show about police work] [noncount] I prefer drama to comedy.
2 [noncount] : the art or activity of performing a role in a play, show, etc. : ACTING ▪ His interest in drama began at a very young age. ▪ She studied drama in college. ▪ drama school ▪ a drama teacher/student
3 : a situation or series of events that is exciting and that affects people's emotions [count] the dramas of teenage life ▪ She watched the drama unfold as they began screaming at each other. [noncount] a competition full of drama ▪ the drama of the courtroom proceedings ▪ a moment of high drama [=a very exciting and dramatic moment]

Dram•a•mine /ˈdræməˌmiːn/ trademark — used for a drug that people take to prevent nausea drama queen noun, pl ~ queens [count] disapproving : a person (especially a woman) who acts as though things are much worse than they really are

dra•mat•ic /drəˈmætɪk/ adj
1 [more ~; most ~] a : sudden and extreme ▪ His parents noticed a dramatic change/improvement/difference in his behavior. ▪ There was a dramatic increase/decrease/rise/fall in prices. b : greatly affecting people's emotions ▪ the team's dramatic [=exciting] overtime victory ▪ The book tells the dramatic story of her battle with cancer. c : attracting attention : causing people to carefully listen, look, etc. ▪ She made a dramatic entrance wearing a bright red dress. ▪ There was a dramatic pause before his big announcement. ▪ The painter used dramatic colors/accents. d : often showing a lot of emotion : tending to behave and react in an exaggerated way ▪ Oh, you're fine—don't be so dramatic. [=melodramatic]
2 always used before a noun : of or relating to plays and the performance of plays ▪ They are members of the local dramatic society.
– dra•mat•i•cal•ly /drəˈmætɪkli/ adv [more ~; most ~] ▪ His behavior has improved dramatically. [=very much] ▪ They called to us from shore, waving their arms dramatically. [=using large motions]

dra•mat•ics /drəˈmætɪks/ noun
1 [plural] : behavior that is very emotional in a way that does not seem sincere : exaggerated behavior ▪ a child prone to dramatics
2 [noncount] : the study or practice of acting in or producing plays ▪ She is studying/learning dramatics in school. — see also AMATEUR DRAMATICS

dra•ma•tis per•so•nae /ˌdræmətəspəˈsoʊniː/ noun [plural] formal : the characters or actors in a play, movie, etc.

dram•a•tist /ˈdræmətɪst/ noun, pl -tists [count]
1 : someone who writes plays : PLAYWRIGHT ▪ the American dramatist Arthur Miller
2 : someone who writes dramas (sense 1b) ▪ a radio/television dramatist

dram•a•tize also Brit dram•a•tise /ˈdræməˌtaɪz/ verb -tiz•es; -tized; -tiz•ing [+ obj]
1 : to make (a book, an event, etc.) into a play, movie, television show, etc. ▪ The movie dramatizes her early life. ▪ The book is dramatized in a new play.
2 : to make a situation seem more important or serious than it really is ▪ I know I tend to dramatize things but it really was awful.
3 : to show (something that might not be noticed) in a clear and effective way ▪ She cited a series of statistics to dramatize the seriousness of the problem. ▪ This tragedy dramatizes the need for improvements in highway safety.
– dram•a•ti•za•tion also Brit dram•a•ti•sa•tion

D

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 99 SESS: 40 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:28:39 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-d

D

/ˌdræmətəˈzeɪʃən, Brit ˌdræməˌtaɪˈzeɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count] — often + of ▪ a radio dramatization of the novel ▪ The TV show included many dramatizations of actual events. [noncount] The novel is not fit for dramatization.

drank past tense of [1]DRINK

drape /ˈdreɪp/ verb drapes; draped; drap•ing
1 a [+ obj] : to loosely place or hang (something) ▪ We'll drape strings of lights between the trees for the party. — often + over or around ▪ He had one leg draped over the arm of the sofa. ▪ She draped the coat around my shoulders. ▪ He had a scarf draped around his neck. b [no obj] of cloth : to hang in a pleasing way ▪ This silk drapes beautifully.
2 [+ obj] : to cover (someone or something) with a cloth — usually + with or in ▪ The police draped the body with a blanket. ▪ The tables were draped in linen. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ She was draped in gold chains. [=she was wearing many gold chains]

drap•ery /ˈdreɪpəri/ noun, pl -er•ies
1 US : long heavy curtains [plural] We bought new draperies [=(more commonly) drapes] for the room. [noncount] (somewhat formal) I'd like to replace the drapery in the living room.
2 [noncount] : a decorative cloth that is arranged or hung in loose folds ▪ The painter arranged several items among drapery and began to work.

drapes /ˈdreɪps/ noun [plural] chiefly US : long heavy curtains ▪ This room needs new drapes.

dras•tic /ˈdræstɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] : extreme in effect or action : severe or serious ▪ The situation calls for drastic measures/action. ▪ drastic cuts/reductions in spending ▪ Maybe we should try something less drastic first.
– dras•ti•cal•ly /ˈdræstɪkli/ adv ▪ In recent years, the town's population has declined drastically. [=(more commonly) dramatically] ▪ The neighborhood has drastically changed.

drat /ˈdræt/ interj, informal + old-fashioned — used to show that you are annoyed or disappointed ▪ Drat! I forgot the tickets.

drat•ted /ˈdrætəd/ adj, always used before a noun, informal + old-fashioned : annoying or disappointing ▪ That dratted [=darn, darned] dog is back again.

[1]draught Brit spelling of DRAFT

[2]draught /ˈdræft, Brit ˈdrɑːft/ noun, pl draughts [count] Brit : [2]CHECKER draught•board /ˈdræftˌbɔəd, Brit ˈdrɑːftˌbɔːd/ noun, pl -boards [count] Brit : CHECKERBOARD

draughts /ˈdræfts, Brit ˈdrɑːfts/ noun [noncount] Brit : CHECKERS

draughtsman, draughtsperson, draughty Brit spellings of DRAFTSMAN, DRAFTSPERSON, DRAFTY

[1]draw /ˈdrɑː/ verb draws; drew /ˈdruː/; drawn /ˈdrɑːn/; draw•ing
1 : to make (a picture, image, etc.) by making lines on a surface especially with a pencil, pen, marker, chalk, etc., but not usually with paint [+ obj] He drew me a picture of the bike. = He drew a picture of the bike for me. ▪ The computer can draw the graph for you. ▪ Students drew maps of the states and labeled them. [no obj] You draw very well. ▪ She sat down and began to draw. — compare PAINT
2 [+ obj] : to cause (attention) to be given to someone or something ▪ The case has drawn attention to the fact that many athletes never graduate. ▪ I would like to draw your attention to the third line. ▪ He didn't want to draw attention to himself. [=he did not want to cause people to notice him]
3 [+ obj] a : to cause (someone or something) to come : to attract (someone or something) ▪ The band always draws a large crowd. ▪ She felt drawn [=attracted] to the young man. ▪ The college draws students from around the world. ▪ The animals were drawn to the campsite by the smell of food. ▪ We hope the display in the window will draw customers in from the street. ▪ The lure of city life has drawn away many of the town's young people. ▪ My eye was drawn to the painting. [=some characteristic of the painting made me want to look at it] b : to cause (someone) to become involved or interested in something or someone — + in, into, or to ▪ What first drew you to teaching? ▪ A good writer knows how to draw readers in. [=how to make readers interested; how to make people want to read something] — often used as (be/get) drawn ▪ She was drawn in by his friendly manner. [=she wanted to know and talk to him because he was friendly] ▪ She got drawn into the conversation.
4 [+ obj] : to get or receive (something) ▪ a television show that has drawn consistently high ratings ▪ The player drew a foul. : to get (a particular response or reaction) ▪ His speech drew cheers from the crowd. ▪ The movie has drawn much criticism/praise from critics. ▪ He is a talented high school athlete who has drawn the interest of several major colleges. ▪ The principal's remarks have drawn fire [=attracted angry criticism] from both parents and teachers.
5 a always followed by an adverb or preposition [no obj] : to move in a specified direction ▪ She drew away from the spider. ▪ He opened the door and drew back in horror/shock/fear. ▪ The car drew (up) alongside us. ▪ The train drew [=pulled] into the station. ▪ She drew her eyebrows together in a frown of concentration. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ He drew away [=(more commonly) withdrew] from his family. b [+ obj] : to move (something) by pulling ▪ a carriage drawn by horses = a horse-drawn carriage ▪ Draw the curtains/blinds/shades. [=open or close the curtains/blinds/shades] ▪ a special fabric that draws moisture away from the skin ▪ She drew the blanket over her head. ▪ Draw up a chair and join us. [=bring a chair to where we are and sit down with us] ▪ She sat down in the chair and drew up her knees/legs. [=she bent her legs and moved her knees toward her chest] — sometimes used figuratively ▪ The tragedy drew us closer together. [=made us emotionally closer]
6 [no obj] : to move gradually or steadily in time or space ▪ The lion drew closer to its prey. ▪ The sun is setting and the day is drawing to a close. [=ending] ▪ Spring is drawing near/nigh. [=approaching] ▪ The car drew to a halt/stop. [=the car slowed down and stopped]
7 [+ obj] a : to form (something, such as an idea or conclusion) after thinking carefully about information you have ▪ You can draw your own conclusions. — often + from ▪ a writer who draws ideas from newspaper stories ▪ We can draw lessons from past mistakes. [=we can learn from past mistakes] b : to describe how two or more things are similar or different : to make (a comparison, distinction, etc.) between two or more things ▪ Many people have been drawing comparisons between the two movies. [=have been saying that the movies are similar] ▪ She drew important distinctions between the two methods. [=described important ways that the two methods are different]
8 a [+ obj] : to take (something) out of a container, pocket, etc. ▪ They were arguing, and then one of them drew [=pulled] a gun. ▪ One of the thieves drew a knife on her. [=one of the thieves took a knife out of a pocket, container, etc., and pointed it at her] ▪ She drew water from the well. — see also at daggers drawn at DAGGER b [+ obj] : to cause (something) to come out of a source ▪ He drew [=ran] water for a bath. c [+ obj] : to get (something) from a source ▪ The car also draws power from a battery. ▪ She draws strength/inspiration from her loving family. d : to take (a card) from a group of cards [+ obj] Draw four cards. [no obj] You haven't drawn yet.
9 a [+ obj] : to choose (a thing) from a group without knowing which one you are choosing ▪ She drew the winning number/ticket. ▪ We drew names from a hat to decide who would go on the trip. ▪ (Brit) The U.S. team have been drawn against [=chosen to play against] Greece in the first round. — see also draw lots at LOT b [no obj] : to decide something by choosing something from a group ▪ We'll draw to see who will drive. — see also DRAW STRAWS (below)
10 [+ obj] : to make (something, such as a legal document) in a proper or legal form ▪ We hired a lawyer to draw a will. — often + up ▪ They drew up a contract/proposal/plan/list.
11 a [+ obj] : to take (something, such as air or smoke) into your lungs by breathing ▪ She drew a deep breath before responding. — often + in ▪ He drew the fresh air in. = He drew in the fresh air. b [no obj] : to let air flow through ▪ Make sure the chimney is drawing properly. ▪ The pipe draws well.
12 [+ obj] a : to take (money) from a bank account : WITHDRAW — usually + from or out ▪ He drew $100 from the bank. ▪ She drew out the money. b : to receive (money) regularly from an employer, government, bank, etc. ▪ He draws a salary of about $100,000. ▪ He draws unemployment benefits. ▪ She has started to draw her pension. c : to write (a check) and have money taken from a bank account ▪ You are now authorized to draw checks from the corporate account.
13 Brit : to finish a game, contest, etc., without having a winner : TIE [+ obj] We drew [=(US) tied] the game 3–3. [no obj] The teams drew [=(US) tied] 3–3. [=each team scored three points] — often + against ▪ The teams have drawn against each other.
14 [+ obj] archery : to bend (a bow) by pulling back the string ▪ He drew his bow and aimed at the target.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 100 SESS: 40 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:28:39 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-d

15 [+ obj] Brit : to cause (someone) to say more about something especially by questioning — often used as (be) drawn; usually + on ▪ She refused to be drawn on whether the company is considering a merger.
16 [+ obj] technical, of a boat : to need (a particular depth of water) in order to float ▪ The ship draws 45 feet of water.
draw a bead on see BEAD draw a blank see [2]BLANK draw a/the line see [1]LINE draw blood see BLOOD draw in your horns see [1]HORN draw off [phrasal verb] draw off (something) or draw (something) off : to take or remove (something) from a source or supply ▪ They illegally drew off thousands of dollars that had been donated to the charity.
draw on/upon [phrasal verb] 1 draw on literary : to come closer in time ▪ It became colder as night drew on. [=approached] 2 draw on/upon (something) a : to use (something) as a source or supply ▪ The family is drawing on/upon the community for support. b : to use (information, experience, knowledge, etc.) to make something ▪ Her new book draws on her personal experience as a firefighter. ▪ The report draws upon several recent studies. 3 draw on (something) : to breathe in smoke from (a cigarette, cigar, pipe, etc.) ▪ He drew on his cigarette.
draw out [phrasal verb] 1 draw (something) out or draw out (something) : to cause (something) to leave a source or supply ▪ Trees draw water out of the soil. ▪ Salt will draw out moisture from vegetables. 2 draw (something) out or draw out (something) : to cause (something) to last longer than the usual or expected amount of time ▪ Questions drew the meeting out for another hour. ▪ The movie's love scene was drawn out. — see also DRAWN-OUT, LONG-DRAWN-OUT 3 draw (someone) out or draw out (someone) : to cause (someone) to talk freely ▪ She tried to draw the frightened child out by asking him questions about his toys. ▪ The reporter had an ability to draw out people.
draw straws ✧ If you draw straws, you choose a stick from a group of sticks that are different sizes but that are being held in such a way that they look like they are all the same size. Usually, whoever chooses the shortest stick or gets/draws the short straw will have to do a particular thing. ▪ Let's draw straws to see who will drive. ▪ He drew the short straw so he has to drive.
draw the blinds/curtain/shades on : to end (something that has been continuing for a long time) ▪ Let's draw the curtain on this investigation. — see also [1]DRAW 5b (above) draw up [phrasal verb] 1 of a vehicle : to approach and stop at a place ▪ A car drew up [=pulled up] in front of the house. 2 draw (yourself) up : to stand as straight and tall as you can ▪ He drew himself up to (his) full height. — see also [1]DRAW 10 (above)

[2]draw noun, pl draws [count]
1 : someone or something that causes a lot of people to come to a place : ATTRACTION ▪ Their band is the main draw at the festival. ▪ The festival is always a big draw.
2 : the final result of a game, contest, etc., that does not have a winner : TIE ▪ The game ended in a draw. = The game was a draw. [=both teams/players had the same score] ▪ They played to a 3–3 draw. [=each team/player had 3 points when the game ended]
3 chiefly Brit : DRAWING ▪ Who won the (prize) draw? — often + for ▪ The draw for the raffle will take place in one hour.
4 : an act of breathing in smoke from a cigarette, cigar, pipe, etc. : DRAG — often + on or from ▪ He took a long draw on/from his cigarette.
be quick on the draw : to be quick about removing a gun from where it is kept : to quickly draw a gun and be ready to shoot it — often used figuratively ▪ When the huge crowd suddenly became unruly, security was quick on the draw. [=security reacted very quickly] ▪ Critics may have been a little too quick on the draw.
the luck of the draw see [1]LUCK

draw•back /ˈdrɑːˌbæk/ noun, pl -backs [count] : something that causes problems : DISADVANTAGE ▪ The only drawback [=downside] to the plan is that we don't have the time it requires. ▪ The trip sounds great, but cost is a major drawback.

draw•bridge /ˈdrɑːˌbrɪʤ/ noun, pl -bridg•es [count] : a bridge that can be raised up so that people cannot cross it or so that boats can pass under it ▪ raise/lower the drawbridge

draw•er /ˈdrɑːɚ/ noun, pl -ers
1 [count] : a box that slides into and out of a piece of furniture (such as a desk) and that is used to store things ▪ the top/middle/bottom drawer of the desk/dresser ▪ There are some pens in my desk drawer. ▪ a sock/cash drawer [=a drawer for storing socks/cash] — see picture at OFFICE; see also CHEST OF DRAWERS
2 drawers [plural] old-fashioned + humorous : underwear for the lower part of the body ▪ He stood there in only his drawers. — often used informally in the phrase drop your drawers ▪ At least the doctor didn't make me drop my drawers. [=pull down my underpants]

draw•ing /ˈdrɑːɪŋ/ noun, pl -ings
1 a [count] : a picture, image, etc., that is made by making lines on a surface with a pencil, pen, marker, chalk, etc., but usually not with paint ▪ She made a drawing of my house. ▪ pencil drawings of flowers — see also LINE DRAWING b [noncount] : the act or art of making a picture, image, etc., with a pencil, pen, marker, chalk, etc., but usually not with paint ▪ I've always loved drawing. — see also MECHANICAL DRAWING
2 [count] US : an act of choosing something (such as a winning ticket) from a group without knowing which one you are choosing ▪ Who won the (prize) drawing? — often + for ▪ The drawing for the raffle will take place in one hour. — called also (chiefly Brit) draw

drawing board noun, pl ~ boards
1 [count] : a large flat board that is used for holding paper for drawing; also : DRAWING TABLE
2 [noncount] : the time during which something is being planned : the planning stage of something ▪ Plans for the new stadium are on the drawing board. [=are being created] ▪ The project will never get off the drawing board. [=will never go beyond the planning stage] ▪ The company went back to the drawing board [=started over] to make a better product.

drawing pin noun, pl ~ pins [count] Brit : THUMBTACK

drawing power noun [noncount] : the ability to attract a lot of people to a performance, event, etc. ▪ The team has a lot of drawing power. — called also (chiefly Brit) pulling power

drawing room noun, pl ~ rooms [count] formal + old-fashioned : a formal room that is used for spending time with guests or relaxing

drawing table noun, pl ~ -bles [count] : a table that has a surface that can be raised up or down or turned to different angles and that is used for drawing drawl /ˈdrɑːl/ verb drawls; drawled; drawl•ing : to speak slowly with vowel sounds that are longer than usual [+ obj] "Well, hello there," she drawled. ▪ He drawled his name in a Southern accent. [no obj] a drawling voice – drawl noun, pl drawls [count] — usually singular ▪ He had a charming Southern drawl. ▪ She spoke with a drawl.

[1]drawn past participle of [1]DRAW

[2]drawn /ˈdrɑːn/ adj [more ~; most ~] : looking very thin and tired especially from worry, pain, or illness ▪ His illness left him looking very pale and drawn. ▪ She had a drawn face.

drawn–out adj [more ~; most ~] : continuing for or taking a long time ▪ We're trying to avoid a drawn-out process. — compare LONG-DRAWN-OUT draw•string /ˈdrɑːˌstrɪŋ/ noun, pl -strings [count] : a string that can be pulled to close or tighten something (such as a bag or a piece of clothing) ▪ a drawstring bag ▪ drawstring pants [=pants that have a drawstring at the waist]

[1]dread /ˈdrɛd/ verb dreads; dread•ed; dread•ing [+ obj] : to fear something that will or might happen ▪ He can't swim and dreads going in the water. ▪ She dreaded making speeches in front of large audiences. ▪ I dread the day I will have to leave my friends. ▪ I dread the thought of moving next week. ▪ I dread to think about what they might do next.
– dreaded adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ The dreaded moment had arrived. ▪ a dreaded disease ▪ the dreaded word "cancer"

[2]dread noun, pl dreads
1 : a strong feeling of fear about something that will or might happen [singular] She has a dread of failure. ▪ He lives with the/a constant dread of rejection. [noncount] She awaited her punishment with dread. ▪ The news about the war fills me with dread. ▪ They live in constant dread of another attack. synonyms see [1]FEAR
2 [count] : a person or thing that causes fear — usually singular ▪ They lived in tight rows of wooden houses, and fire was a constant dread.
3 dreads [plural] informal : DREADLOCKS

[3]dread adj, always used before a noun, formal : causing great fear ▪ a dread [=dreaded] disease

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 101 SESS: 41 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:28:39 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-d

dread•ful /ˈdrɛdfəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : very bad or unpleasant ▪ Her performance was absolutely/simply dreadful. ▪ She has a dreadful [=awful, terrible] cold. ▪ Those children have such dreadful manners. ▪ What dreadful weather! ▪ a dreadful mistake/accident ▪ a dreadful storm/scream – dread•ful•ly /ˈdrɛdfəli/ adv ▪ a dreadfully bad performance ▪ dreadfully [=extremely] dull ▪ He was dreadfully lonely. ▪ I miss you dreadfully. [=very much]

dread•locks /ˈdrɛdˌlɑːks/ noun [plural] : hair that is twisted together into long pieces that hang down around your shoulders ✧ Dreadlocks are often worn by people who are Rastafarians. — called also dreads; see picture at HAIR

D

[1]dream /ˈdriːm/ noun, pl dreams
1 [count] : a series of thoughts, visions, or feelings that happen during sleep ▪ He had a dream about climbing a mountain. ▪ You were in my dream last night. ▪ Scary movies always give me bad dreams. [=nightmares] ▪ "Good night, my love. Sweet dreams." [=I hope you will sleep well and have pleasant dreams] — see also WET DREAM
2 [count] : an idea or vision that is created in your imagination and that is not real ▪ She indulged in dreams [=fantasies] of living in a palace. ▪ I've found the man/woman of my dreams. ▪ They succeeded beyond their wildest dreams. ▪ Never in my wildest dreams did I imagine it would be so much fun. ▪ If you think the work will be easy, you're living in a dream world.
3 a [count] : something that you have wanted very much to do, be, or have for a long time ▪ He has had a lifelong dream of becoming an actor. ▪ It's a dream of mine to own a house in the country. ▪ Tell me your hopes and dreams. ▪ She followed/fulfilled her dreams. ▪ Making it to the Olympics was a dream come true. ▪ Many believe that worldwide peace is an impossible dream. — see also AMERICAN DREAM, PIPE DREAM b [singular] : someone or something that has the qualities that a person wants most ▪ The meal was a garlic lover's dream. ▪ He's every woman's dream. — usually used before another noun ▪ She's still trying to find her dream husband. ▪ Managing a professional baseball team is his dream job. ▪ They just moved into their dream home. — see also DREAM TEAM
4 [singular] informal : something that is beautiful, excellent, or pleasing ▪ It's a dream of a house. ▪ The new car is a dream to drive. = The new car drives like a dream. ▪ My new computer works like a dream. [=works very well]
5 [singular] : a state or condition in which you are not thinking about or aware of the real things that are around you ▪ He was walking around in a dream.
in your dreams informal — used to say that you do not think something that another person wants or expects will ever happen ▪ "Maybe my parents will lend me the car tonight." "In your dreams."

[2]dream verb dreams; dreamed /ˈdrɛmt, ˈdriːmd/ or dreamt /ˈdrɛmt/; dream•ing
1 : to have visions and thoughts in your sleep : to have a dream while you are sleeping [no obj] — often + of or about ▪ He dreamed of drowning and woke up trembling. ▪ I have trouble remembering the things I dream about. [+ obj] Last night I dreamed (that) you were here talking to me. ▪ Did it really happen or did I just dream it?
2 : to think about something that you wish would happen or something that you want to do or be [no obj] He tends to dream big but he never really does the things he dreams of doing. ▪ She stared out the window dreaming. [=daydreaming] ▪ You're dreaming [=you're completely wrong] if you think being a parent is going to be easy. — often + of ▪ She spent hours reading love stories and dreaming of romance. ▪ They dreamed of success. ▪ He dreamed of becoming a teacher. [+ obj] As a child, I always dreamed (that) I would be an astronaut when I grew up. ▪ I sat on the porch and dreamed away the day. [=I spent the whole day thinking and dreaming] ▪ I never dreamt that it would be so difficult. [=it was much more difficult than I expected it to be] dream on informal — used to say that you do not think something that another person wants or expects will ever happen ▪ "I think my band will be famous one day." "Dream on."
dream up [phrasal verb] dream up (something) also dream (something) up : to think of or invent (something) in your mind ▪ He dreams up all sorts of fantastic adventures. ▪ She tries a lot of new recipes that she dreams up herself. ▪ They dreamed up a plan to get the information.
never/not dream of — used to say that you would never do something or think of doing something ▪ I would never dream of asking for more money. ▪ "Did you ever do anything to hurt her?" "I wouldn't dream of it!"

dream•boat /ˈdriːmˌboʊt/ noun, pl -boats [count] informal + old-fashioned : a very attractive person — usually used of a man ▪ an actor who's a real dreamboat

dream•er noun, pl -ers [count]
1 disapproving : a person whose ideas and plans are not practical or based in reality ▪ I am a realist, but my sister is a dreamer.
2 : a person who dreams while sleeping ▪ Some dreamers talk in their sleep to the people in their dreams.

dream•land /ˈdriːmˌlænd/ noun, informal : a pleasant place or situation that exists only in the mind [noncount] Bored with the classroom lecture, she drifted off to dreamland. [=she started daydreaming] ▪ (disapproving) He's in dreamland [=he's dreaming] if he thinks he can get by without a full-time job. [singular] He's living in a dreamland.

dream•less /ˈdriːmləs/ adj, of sleep : without dreams : deep and peaceful ▪ She fell into a dreamless sleep.

dream•like /ˈdriːmˌlaɪk/ adj : seeming to exist in a dream : like a dream ▪ Her photographs have a dreamlike quality.

dreamt past tense and past participle of [2]DREAM dream team noun, pl ~ teams [count] : a group of people who work or play a sport together and who are the best at what they do — usually singular ▪ She got a legal dream team to work on the case.

dreamy /ˈdriːmi/ adj dream•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]
1 : tending to dream instead of thinking about what is real or practical ▪ She was a dreamy young woman who never gave much serious thought to her future.
2 : having a quality which shows or suggests that you are not noticing or thinking about what is happening around you ▪ He gazed at me with a dreamy look in his eyes.
3 : pleasant, peaceful, and relaxing ▪ dreamy music
4 informal + old-fashioned : very attractive ▪ Her boyfriend is so dreamy.
– dream•i•ly /ˈdriːməli/ adv ▪ She spoke dreamily of traveling around the world. ▪ They stared dreamily into each other's eyes. – dream•i•ness /ˈdriːmiːnəs/ noun [noncount]

drea•ry /ˈdrɪri/ adj drea•ri•er; -ri•est [or more ~; most ~] : causing unhappiness or sad feelings : not warm, cheerful, etc. ▪ It was a gray, dreary morning. ▪ She longed to leave her dreary [=gloomy, dismal] hometown. ▪ The family struggled through dreary economic times.
– drea•ri•ly /ˈdrɪrəli/ adv [more ~; most ~] ▪ He spoke drearily of his meager job prospects. – drea•ri•ness noun [noncount]

dreck /ˈdrɛk/ noun [noncount] US, informal : something that is of very bad quality : trash or rubbish ▪ The movie was pure dreck.

[1]dredge /ˈdrɛʤ/ verb dredg•es; dredged; dredg•ing
1 : to remove mud from the bottom of (a lake, river, etc.) in order to deepen it or to search for something [+ obj] They dredged the river. [no obj] They are dredging for oysters.
2 [+ obj] : to dig (something) out of the bottom of a lake, river, etc. ▪ They dredged sand from the river to add to the eroding beach. ▪ They dredge oysters in the bay. — often + up ▪ They are dredging up silt from the canal bottom.
dredge up [phrasal verb] dredge up (something) or dredge (something) up : to start talking or thinking again about (something unpleasant that happened a long time ago) ▪ Reporters dredged up the fact that the senator avoided the military draft. ▪ She didn't like to dredge up bad memories.
– compare [3]DREDGE

[2]dredge noun, pl dredges [count] : a machine or boat that removes mud, sand, etc., from the bottom or a lake, river, etc. — called also dredger

[3]dredge verb dredges; dredged; dredg•ing [+ obj] : to lightly cover (food) with a dry substance (such as sugar or flour) — often + with or in ▪ Dredge the fish in flour before frying it. ▪ The cookies had been dredged with powdered sugar. — compare [1]DREDGE

dredg•er /ˈdrɛʤə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : [2]DREDGE

dregs /ˈdrɛgz/ noun [plural]
1 : solid materials that fall to the bottom of a container full of a liquid ▪ the dregs in a bottle of wine ▪ He discarded the dregs of his coffee.
2 : the worst or most useless part of something ▪ people who were regarded as the dregs of society

drench /ˈdrɛnʧ/ verb drench•es; drenched; drench•ing [+ obj] : to make (someone or something) completely wet —

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 102 SESS: 42 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:28:40 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-d

often + with or in ▪ She drenched him with a bucket of cold water. — often used as (be) drenched ▪ The players were drenched in sweat after the game. ▪ pancakes drenched in syrup ▪ She was drenched in perfume. [=she was wearing a lot of perfume] — sometimes used figuratively ▪ a beach drenched in sunlight ▪ Her novels are drenched in history. — see also SUN-DRENCHED

[1]dress /ˈdrɛs/ verb dress•es; dressed; dress•ing

1 a [+ obj] : to put clothes on (yourself or someone else) ▪ They dressed themselves in a hurry. ▪ He dressed the child in a snowsuit. — opposite UNDRESS b [no obj] : to put clothes on yourself ▪ She showered, dressed, and ate breakfast. — opposite UNDRESS

2 [no obj] a : to put on or wear a particular type or style of clothes ▪ She dressed warmly for skiing. ▪ He dresses fashionably/well. ▪ She always dresses in black (clothes). b : to put on or wear formal clothes ▪ She is dressing for the opera. ▪ They always dress for dinner.

3 [+ obj] : to clean, put medicine on, and cover (a wound) ▪ The nurse dressed the cut on my knee.

4 [+ obj] : to prepare (food) for cooking or eating ▪ dress the chicken/salad

5 [+ obj] : to decorate (something, especially a window) for display ▪ His job is to dress the store window for the holiday.

6 [+ obj] technical : to prepare (wood, stone, leather, etc.) for use

dress down [phrasal verb] 1 : to wear informal clothes ▪ Most of the students dress down for class, usually wearing jeans and T-shirts. ▪ On Fridays everyone in the office dresses down. — see also DRESS-DOWN 2 dress (someone) down or dress down (someone) : to speak angrily to (someone) for doing something wrong ▪ He was/got dressed down for failing to follow orders. — see also DRESSING-DOWN

dress up [phrasal verb] 1 a : to put on or wear formal clothes ▪ We dressed up for the awards banquet. ▪ Do I need to dress up for the party? b dress (someone) up or dress up (someone) : to put formal or fancy clothes on (someone) ▪ She dressed up the children for the wedding. 2 a : to put on a costume ▪ We dressed up like/as ghosts for Halloween. b dress (someone) up or dress up (someone) : to put a costume on (someone) ▪ We dressed the baby up as a lion. 3 dress up (something) or dress (something) up : to make (something) more attractive, impressive, or fancy ▪ dress up a plain dessert with a rich chocolate sauce

[2]dress noun, pl dresses

1 [count] : a piece of clothing for a woman or a girl that has a top part that covers the upper body and a skirt that hangs down to cover the legs ▪ She wore dresses only on special occasions. ▪ She wore a short/long black dress to the party. ▪ Her wedding dress was decorated with lace. — see color picture on page C15; see also HOUSEDRESS, SUNDRESS

2 [noncount] : a particular type of clothing ▪ The guests were clothed in traditional Indian dress. ▪ It is wise to wear conservative dress to an interview.

[3]dress adj, always used before a noun : suitable or required for a formal event ▪ I wore dress pants and a nice sweater. ▪ uncomfortable dress shoes

dres•sage /drəˈsɑːʒ, Brit ˈdrɛˌsɑːʒ/ noun [noncount] : a competition in which horses perform special movements in response to signals from their riders ▪ a dressage horse dress circle noun, pl ~ circles [count] chiefly Brit : the lowest section of seats above the main floor in a theater or opera house ▪ sitting in the dress circle

dress code noun, pl ~ codes [count] : a set of rules about what clothing may and may not be worn at a school, office, restaurant, etc. ▪ The school imposed a new dress code that forbids students from wearing jeans. ▪ a casual dress code

dress–down adj, always used before a noun — used to describe a day during which people are allowed to wear informal clothes at work or school ▪ Friday is dress-down day at the office. ▪ dress-down Friday — see also dress down at [1]DRESS dressed adj : wearing clothes ▪ Don't come in. I'm not dressed yet. ▪ It's time to get out of bed and get dressed. [=put on clothes] : wearing clothes of a particular type ▪ She wasn't dressed for such a fancy restaurant. ▪ He is usually dressed in black. ▪ She was dressed (up) as a ladybug. ▪ a well-dressed young man dressed to kill informal : wearing very fancy or attractive clothes ▪ We attended the party dressed to kill.

dress•er /ˈdrɛsə/ noun, pl -ers [count]

1 : a person who dresses in a particular way ▪ She is a stylish/sloppy dresser.

2 US : a piece of furniture that has drawers for storing clothes : CHEST OF DRAWERS

3 Brit : HUTCH 1

– see also HAIRDRESSER, WINDOW DRESSER

dress•ing /ˈdrɛsɪŋ/ noun, pl -ings

1 [count, noncount] : a usually seasoned mixture of liquids that is added to a salad — called also salad dressing; see also FRENCH DRESSING, ITALIAN DRESSING, RANCH DRESSING, RUSSIAN DRESSING, THOUSAND ISLAND DRESSING

2 US : STUFFING 2 [noncount] We had turkey with dressing and potatoes for dinner. [count] bread dressings

3 [count] : special material that is used to cover a wound ▪ The nurse cleaned the cut and applied a dressing.

4 [noncount] : the act or process of putting on clothes ▪ After breakfast, there will still be enough time for bathing and dressing. — see also CROSS-DRESSING, WINDOW DRESSING

dres•sing–down /ˌdrɛsɪŋˈdaʊn/ noun [singular] : the act of speaking angrily to someone about something done wrong ▪ He received a furious dressing-down from his boss in front of his colleagues. — see also dress down at [1]DRESS dressing gown noun, pl ~ gowns [count] : a loose piece of clothing that is worn indoors while relaxing, getting ready for bed, etc. ✧ Dressing gown is more common in British English than in U.S. English. In U.S. English, robe and bathrobe are more commonly used.

dressing room noun, pl ~ rooms [count]

1 : a room where performers, actors, etc., can change their clothes ▪ He waited in his dressing room until it was time for him to appear on stage.

2 US : FITTING ROOM

dressing table noun, pl ~ tables [count] : a table often with drawers and a mirror in front of which you sit while dressing, putting on makeup, etc.

dress•mak•er /ˈdrɛsˌmeɪkə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a person who makes dresses and other clothes as a job

– dress•mak•ing /ˈdrɛsˌmeɪkɪŋ/ noun [noncount]

dress rehearsal noun, pl ~ -als [count] : the final practice of a play that is done with all the costumes, scenery, etc., that will be used in the first real performance before an audience — often used figuratively ▪ The local election is a dress rehearsal for the national election that will take place later this year.

dress shirt noun, pl ~ shirts [count]

1 US : a man's shirt that is usually worn with a necktie — see color picture on page C14

2 : a man's formal white shirt that is worn with a bow tie dress uniform noun, pl ~ -forms [count] : a military uniform that is worn at formal events

dressy /ˈdrɛsi/ adj dress•i•er; -est

1 : suitable for formal events ▪ Those shoes are so dressy, I rarely wear them. ▪ She wore an outfit that was much too dressy for the occasion.

2 : requiring fancy or formal clothes ▪ a dressy affair/restaurant

3 : liking to wear fancy or formal clothes ▪ a dressy chap

drew past tense of [1]DRAW

[1]drib•ble /ˈdrɪbəl/ verb drib•bles; drib•bled; drib•bling

1 always followed by an adverb or preposition a [no obj] : to fall or flow in small drops ▪ Coffee dribbled [=trickled] down the side of the mug. ▪ Juice dribbled down his chin. b [+ obj] : to let (a liquid) fall in small drops ▪ She accidentally dribbled wine onto the rug. ▪ Dribble olive oil over the warm bread before serving.

2 [no obj] : to let saliva or another liquid drip or trickle from your mouth ▪ The baby dribbled [=drooled] down the back of her dad's shirt.

3 : to move a ball or puck forward by tapping, bouncing, or kicking it [no obj] She dribbled across the basketball court. [+ obj] He skillfully dribbled the soccer ball towards the goal.

[2]dribble noun, pl dribbles [count]

1 : a small flow of liquid ▪ He wiped a dribble of juice from the corner of the baby's mouth. ▪ dribbles of blood

2 : an act of moving a ball or puck forward by tapping, bouncing, or kicking it ▪ She gave the ball a dribble before passing it. — see also DOUBLE DRIBBLE

dribs /ˈdrɪbz/ noun

dribs and drabs informal : small amounts that come or happen over a period of time ▪ They received donations in dribs and drabs.

dried adj — used to describe foods and plants that have had

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 103 SESS: 11 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:28:40 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-d

all their liquid removed so that they will last for a long time ▪ dried beans/mushrooms/pasta ▪ dried milk/fish ▪ a mixture of nuts and dried fruit ▪ an arrangement of dried flowers ▪ sun-dried tomatoes drier variant spelling of DRYER

[1]drift /ˈdrɪft/ noun, pl drifts

1 [singular] : a slow and gradual movement or change from one place, condition, etc., to another ▪ the slow drift of the clouds ▪ As she got older, you could observe a drift in her writing towards more serious subjects. ▪ the government's drift towards a centralization of power ▪ a population drift [=a gradual movement of people that lowers the population in one area and increases it in another] — see also CONTINENTAL DRIFT

2 [count] : a large pile of snow or sand that has been blown by the wind ▪ We sped over the drifts [=snowdrifts] on our skis.

3 [singular] informal : the general or basic meaning of something said or written ▪ I don't get your drift. [=I don't understand what you're saying] ▪ I won't tell you his name, but he's someone you know very well, if you catch my drift. [=if you understand what I'm suggesting]

4 [noncount] : movement of an airplane or a ship in a direction different from the one desired because of air or water currents

[2]drift verb drifts; drift•ed; drift•ing [no obj]

1 : to move slowly on water, wind, etc. ▪ The boat slowly drifted out to sea. ▪ The clouds drifted across the sky.

2 of snow or sand : to form a pile by being blown by the wind : to form a drift ▪ The snow drifted against the side of the house. ▪ Drifting snow covered most of the car.

3 a : to move smoothly or easily in a way that is not planned or guided ▪ The party guests drifted from room to room, eating and mingling. ▪ Her eyes drifted across the crowd. ▪ The conversation drifted from topic to topic. ▪ My thoughts drifted back to the time when we first met. b : to behave or live in a way that is not guided by a definite purpose or plan ▪ After he left the army he just drifted for a few years. ▪ She drifted from job to job. ▪ He has always drifted through life without a care. — see also DRIFTER

4 : to change slowly from one state or condition to another ▪ The patient drifted in and out of consciousness all day.

drift apart [phrasal verb] : to stop having a close relationship ▪ They used to be great friends, but they've gradually drifted apart over the years.

drift off [phrasal verb] informal : to fall asleep ▪ She drifted off while I was still talking. ▪ He gradually drifted off to sleep.

drift•er /ˈdrɪftɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a person who moves from one place or job to another without a purpose or plan ▪ He was a drifter who hitchhiked from state to state.

drift net noun, pl ~ nets [count] : a large fishing net that floats in the water or is pulled behind a boat drift•wood /ˈdrɪftˌwʊd/ noun [noncount] : wood that is floating in water or carried to the shore by water

[1]drill /ˈdrɪl/ noun, pl drills

1 [count] : a tool used for making holes in hard substances ▪ an electric/power drill ▪ the dentist's drill — see picture at CARPENTRY; see also PNEUMATIC DRILL

2 a : an exercise done to practice military skills or procedures [count] During basic training, the recruits spent hours a day doing drills. ▪ a drill sergeant [=a sergeant who trains new soldiers] [noncount] (chiefly Brit) ▪ soldiers doing drill b : a physical or mental activity that is done repeatedly in order to learn something, become more skillful, etc. [count] The students do vocabulary/multiplication drills every Monday. ▪ The players are doing their drills. [noncount] The students were taught by drill. — see also FIRE DRILL know the drill informal : to know how something is done : to be familiar with a regular process, procedure, etc. ▪ You don't have to tell us what to do. We all know the drill by now.

– compare [3]DRILL, [5]DRILL

[2]drill verb drills; drilled; drill•ing

1 : to make a hole in something with a drill [+ obj] He drilled a hole in the back of the cabinet. ▪ The dentist drilled the tooth. [no obj] They are planning to drill for oil here.

2 [+ obj] a : to teach or train (someone) by repeating a lesson or exercise again and again ▪ We drilled the children on their multiplication tables. ▪ The players were drilled in practice. b : to train (soldiers) by making them practice military procedures and exercises ▪ The commander drilled the troops.

3 [+ obj] US, sports, informal : to hit (someone or something) very hard ▪ He drilled a single to right field. ▪ The quarterback got drilled.

drill into [phrasal verb] drill (something) into (someone) : to force (something) to be learned very well by (someone) by repeating it again and again ▪ Our teacher drilled the lesson into our heads. ▪ The importance of saying "please" and "thank you" was drilled into us as children.

– compare [4]DRILL

– drill•er noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ an oil driller

[3]drill noun, pl drills [count]

1 : a row of seeds planted by a special machine

2 : a special machine that plants seeds in rows

– compare [1]DRILL, [5]DRILL

[4]drill verb drills; drilled; drilling [+ obj] : to plant (seeds) in a row with a special machine — compare [2]DRILL

[5]drill noun [noncount] : a type of strong cotton cloth — compare [1]DRILL, [3]DRILL

drily variant spelling of DRYLY

[1]drink /ˈdrɪŋk/ verb drinks; drank /ˈdræŋk/; drunk /ˈdrʌŋk/; drink•ing

1 : to take a liquid into your mouth and swallow it [no obj] The baby still drinks from a bottle. ▪ What would you like to drink? [+ obj] We drank orange juice with breakfast. ▪ I drink lots of water when I'm hiking.

2 a [no obj] : to drink alcohol ▪ She drank too much last night and woke up sick this morning. ▪ I don't drink. [=I never drink alcohol] ▪ It's not safe to drink and drive. ✧ Someone who drinks like a fish regularly drinks too much alcohol. ▪ When he was younger he used to drink like a fish. b [+ obj] : to put (yourself) into a specified state by drinking alcohol ▪ She drank herself into a stupor. ▪ He nearly drank himself to death. — see also drink someone under the table at [1]TABLE drink in [phrasal verb] drink in (something) or drink (something) in : to stop and look at or listen to something in order to enjoy it fully ▪ The view is so beautiful. Let's just take a minute to drink it all in.

drink to [phrasal verb] drink to (someone or something) : to speak words that honor or express good wishes for (someone or something) and then take a drink : to make a toast to (someone) ▪ We drank to their 30th anniversary. = We drank a toast to their 30th anniversary. ▪ We drank to their health. ✧ I'll drink to that! means that you agree completely with something that someone has said. ▪ "It will be the best vacation of our lives." "I'll drink to that!"

drink up [phrasal verb] drink up or drink up (something) or drink (something) up : to drink all of (something) ▪ They drank up (all) the orange juice. ▪ Here's a glass of the vineyard's latest wine. Drink up!

– drinking noun [noncount] ▪ Drinking is not allowed in the park. [=you are not allowed to drink alcohol in the park] ▪ a night of heavy drinking — often used before another noun ▪ a drinking buddy/partner ▪ (US) She has a drinking problem. [=(Brit) drink problem; she regularly drinks too much alcohol] ▪ The drinking age [=the age at which a person can legally buy and drink alcohol] in the U.S. is 21.

[2]drink noun, pl drinks

1 : a liquid that you can drink : BEVERAGE [count] We serve coffee, tea, and other hot drinks. [noncount] Food and drink will be provided. — see also SOFT DRINK

2 a [count] : an alcoholic beverage ▪ They went to the bar for a few drinks. ▪ Can I get you another drink? ▪ He poured himself a stiff drink. [=a strong alcoholic drink] b [noncount] : the habit or practice of drinking a lot of alcohol ▪ It was during this period that she took to drink. [=began drinking lots of alcohol] ▪ The stress of the job drove him to drink. [=caused him to drink lots of alcohol] ▪ (Brit) She has a drink problem. [=(US) drinking problem; she regularly drinks too much alcohol] — see also DEMON DRINK, MIXED DRINK

3 [singular] : an act of drinking ▪ He took a long drink from his glass.

4 [count] : an amount of liquid for drinking ▪ Give the dog a drink of water.

the drink old-fashioned : an area of water (such as a lake or pond) ▪ The ball rolled down the hill and into the drink.

drink•able /ˈdrɪŋkəbəl/ adj

1 : able to be drunk ▪ They boiled the water to make it drinkable. [=safe for drinking] ▪ This coffee is so hot it's not drinkable.

2 [more ~; most ~] : having a pleasant taste ▪ a very drinkable wine drink–driver noun, pl -ers [count] Brit : DRUNK DRIVER

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 104 SESS: 53 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:28:41 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-d

drink–driv•ing /ˈdrɪŋkˈdraɪvɪŋ/ noun [noncount] Brit : DRUNK DRIVING drink•er /ˈdrɪŋkɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count]

1 : a person who drinks alcohol especially in large amounts ▪ He's a heavy/moderate drinker. ▪ I'm not much of a drinker. ▪ Most of his friends are drinkers.
2 : a person who drinks a particular beverage ▪ She's a big beer/wine/coffee drinker. [=she drinks a lot of beer/wine/coffee]

drinking fountain noun, pl ~ -tains [count] : a device in a public place that produces a stream of water for people to drink from — called also (chiefly US) water fountain drinking water noun [noncount] : water that is clean enough for people to drink ▪ Pollution is seeping into our drinking water.

drinks party noun, pl ~ ties [count] Brit : COCKTAIL PARTY

[1]drip /ˈdrɪp/ verb drips; dripped; drip•ping
1 [no obj] : to fall in drops ▪ Water dripped from a leak in the ceiling. ▪ Blood dripped down his leg from the cut. ▪ Hot wax dripped onto my fingers.
2 : to let drops of (a liquid) fall [+ obj] The pine trees dripped sap onto the cars. ▪ The kids dripped water all over the house. [no obj] The faucet is dripping. [=water is dripping from the faucet] ▪ a dripping faucet — often + with ▪ His face was dripping with sweat. [=sweat was dripping from his face] ▪ The toast was dripping with butter. ✧ If you are dripping wet you are so wet that drops of water are falling off you. ▪ The kids were dripping wet.
3 [no obj] : to have or show a large amount of something — usually + with ▪ Her voice dripped with contempt/charm. ▪ She was dripping with diamonds. [=she was wearing a lot of diamonds]

[2]drip noun, pl drips
1 a [count] : a drop of liquid that falls from something ▪ Drips of water fell from a leak in the ceiling. b [singular] : the sound of liquid falling in drops ▪ We heard the drip of the rain. ▪ the steady drip, drip, drip of the faucet c [singular] : the act or action of falling in drops ▪ Water fell from the ceiling in a steady/slow drip.
2 [count] medical : a device used in hospitals to pass fluid slowly through a tube into a patient's blood ▪ The doctor put the patient on a morphine drip to manage the pain.
3 [count] informal + old-fashioned : a dull and often weak person ▪ Don't invite that drip to your party!

[1]drip–dry /ˈdrɪpˌdraɪ/ verb -dries; -dried; -dry•ing : to dry wet clothing by hanging it so that water drips from it [no obj] I washed the shirt and hung it on the line to drip-dry. [+ obj] I drip-dried the shirt.

[2]drip–dry adj : able to dry with few or no wrinkles when hung up while wet ▪ a drip-dry shirt drip•ping /ˈdrɪpɪŋ/ noun, pl -pings : the fat and juices that come out of meat during cooking [plural] (US) ▪ He cooked a turkey and made gravy from the drippings. [noncount] (Brit) ▪ Pour the dripping from the pan.

[1]drive /ˈdraɪv/ verb drives; drove /ˈdroʊv/; driv•en /ˈdrɪvən/; driv•ing
1 a : to direct the movement of (a car, truck, bus, etc.) [+ obj] He drove the car down a bumpy road. ▪ She drives a taxi. [=her job is driving a taxi] [no obj] Do you want to drive or should I? ▪ He is learning to drive. b always followed by an adverb or preposition [no obj] of a car, truck, etc. : to move in a specified manner or direction ▪ The car stopped and then drove off. ▪ A car drove by us slowly. ▪ The bus slowly drove away. c : to travel in a car [no obj] We drove all night and arrived at dawn. ▪ Are you driving or flying to Canada? [=will you travel to Canada by car or airplane?] ▪ We drove (for) eight hours yesterday. ▪ We drove 160 miles to get here. ▪ I drive on/along this route every day. [+ obj] I drive this route every day. d [+ obj] : to take (someone or something) to a place in a car, truck, etc. ▪ I drove her to the train station this morning. ▪ I had to drive myself to the hospital. ▪ Her mom drove us home. e [+ obj] : to own and use (a vehicle of a specified kind) ▪ He drives a pickup/motorcycle. ▪ She drives a Ford.
2 [+ obj] : to move (people or animals) to or from a place by using force ▪ Cowboys drove the herds across the prairie. ▪ They drove the invaders back across the border. ▪ Thousands of people have been driven from their homes. [=have been forced to leave their homes]
3 [+ obj] : to push (something) with force ▪ drive a nail with a hammer — often + into ▪ He drove a nail into the wall. ▪ She drove the sword into her enemy's side.
4 [+ obj] : to make (a machine or vehicle) work or move : to provide power for (something) ▪ Electricity drives the machinery. ▪ a steam-driven turbine [=a turbine that gets its power from steam] — often used figuratively ▪ What drives the economy? ▪ a market-driven industry
5 [+ obj] a : to cause (someone) to behave in a particular way ▪ They were driven [=motivated] by hunger to steal. ▪ Poverty drove them to a life of crime. ▪ Ambition drove her to succeed. b : to force (someone) to work very hard ▪ The sergeant drove the recruits. ▪ The team was driven hard by the coach. ▪ He's been driving himself too hard. [=he's been working too hard]
6 [+ obj] : to bring (someone) into a particular condition ▪ That noise is driving me insane/crazy. ▪ The new store drove him out of business. [=caused him to go out of business] ▪ Her perfume drives me wild. [=gets me sexually excited]
7 [+ obj] : to cause (a price, number, etc.) to increase or decrease — + up or down ▪ The government report drove stock prices up. ▪ An increase in investments is driving down interest rates.
8 [no obj] sports : to move toward or through something with a lot of force or speed ▪ He took a pass and drove to/toward the basket/net. ▪ The running back drove through the line of scrimmage.
9 [+ obj] sports : to hit or kick (a ball or puck) with a lot of force or speed ▪ She drove the (golf) ball down the fairway. ▪ He drove the puck into the net. — see also DRIVING RANGE
10 [no obj] of rain, wind, etc. : to fall or blow with great force ▪ The rain drove against the windows. — see also DRIVING

drive a hard bargain see [1]BARGAIN

drive at [phrasal verb] drive at (something) : to attempt to say or do (something) — usually used as (be) driving at ▪ I have no idea what he was driving at. ▪ I think I see what you*'re driving at*.

drive away [phrasal verb] drive (someone) away or drive away (someone) : to cause or force (someone) to leave especially by making a situation unpleasant or unattractive ▪ The store's high prices are driving away customers.

drive a wedge between see [1]WEDGE drive in [phrasal verb] drive (someone or something) in or drive in (someone or something) baseball : to cause (a run or runner) to score ▪ He drove in another run. ▪ The hit drove him in for a 5–4 lead.

drive off [phrasal verb] drive (someone or something) off or drive off (someone or something) : to cause or force (someone or something) to leave ▪ They drove off the invaders.

drive out [phrasal verb] drive (someone or something) out or drive out (someone or something) : to cause or force (someone or something) to leave ▪ They drove out the invaders. ▪ The family was driven out of the neighborhood by rising real estate prices.

drive (someone) up a/the wall see [1]WALL drive your point home see [2]HOME

[2]drive noun, pl drives
1 [count] : a journey in a car ▪ It's a two-hour drive to the beach. ▪ Her house is an hour's drive east of Los Angeles. ▪ We took a pleasant drive in the country. ▪ Would you like to go for a drive? — see also TEST DRIVE
2 [count] : a hard area or small road outside of a house where cars can be parked : DRIVEWAY ▪ A white car was parked in the drive.
3 — used in the name of some public roads ▪ Morningside Drive ▪ They live at 156 Woodland Drive. — abbr. Dr.
4 [count] : an effort made by a group of people to achieve a goal, to collect money, etc. ▪ a fund-raising drive ▪ The school holds a canned food drive every winter. ▪ a membership drive [=an effort to get more people to join a group, club, etc.]
5 : a strong natural need or desire [count] The need for food and water are basic drives for all living things. [noncount] Sex drive [=the desire to have sex] generally decreases as you get older.
6 [noncount] : a strong desire for success ▪ She is an ambitious young woman, full of drive and determination. — see also DRIVEN
7 [count] : a device in a computer that can read information off and copy information onto disks or tape ▪ Insert the disk into the floppy drive. ▪ a CD-ROM drive — see also DISK DRIVE, HARD DRIVE
8 [noncount] a : the way power from an engine controls and directs the movement of a vehicle ▪ The car has front-wheel/rear-wheel drive. — see also FOUR-WHEEL DRIVE b

D

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 105 SESS: 44 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:28:41 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-d

chiefly US : a condition in which the gears of a vehicle are working in a way that allows the vehicle to move forward ▪ He put the car in/into drive and pulled onto the street.

9 [count] a sports : a ball, puck, etc., that is hit very hard ▪ He hit a hard/long drive down the left-field line. — see also LINE DRIVE b golf : a long shot that is hit from a tee ▪ She hit her drive into the rough.

10 [count] : a long or forceful military attack on an enemy ▪ an armored drive into enemy territory

11 [count] American football : a series of plays that move the ball down the field toward the opponent's end zone ▪ They scored a touchdown following a ten-play drive.

12 [count] : an act of leading cattle or sheep over land and keeping them in a group ▪ a cattle drive

drive–by /ˈdraɪvˈbaɪ/ adj, always used before a noun : done from a moving vehicle ▪ a drive-by shooting/killing

– drive–by /ˈdraɪvˌbaɪ/ noun, pl -bys [count] ▪ They were both shot in a drive-by. [=a drive-by shooting]

drive–in /ˈdraɪvˌɪn/ noun, pl -ins [count]

1 : a place where people can watch movies outdoors while sitting in their cars — called also drive-in theater

2 : a restaurant at which people are served in their cars — called also drive-in restaurant

[1]driv•el /ˈdrɪvəl/ noun [noncount] : foolish writing or speech ▪ I'm not going to waste my time reading this drivel. [=nonsense]

[2]drivel verb -els; US -eled or Brit -elled; US -el•ing or Brit -el•ling [no obj] informal : to talk in a very foolish or silly way ▪ What is he driveling about now?

– driveling (US) or Brit drivelling adj ▪ a driveling idiot

[1]driven past participle of [1]DRIVE

[2]driven adj : very determined to succeed ▪ They are driven, successful people.

driv•er /ˈdraɪvə/ noun, pl -ers [count]

1 a : a person who drives a car, truck, etc. ▪ Who was the driver at the time of the accident? ▪ He's a good/careful/fast/bad driver. ▪ The front door on the driver's side [=the side of the car where the driver sits] is scratched. — see also BACKSEAT DRIVER b : a person whose job is to drive a vehicle (such as a taxi, truck, or bus) ▪ We told the taxi driver to take us to the library. ▪ He likes to sit at the front of the bus, near the driver. ▪ an ambulance/truck driver

2 technical : a piece of computer software that controls a device (such as a mouse or printer) that is attached to the computer ▪ There's a problem with the printer's driver.

3 golf : a club that is used for hitting long shots off a tee in the driver's seat : in a position in which you are able to control what happens ▪ When his boss went on vacation, he suddenly found himself in the driver's seat.

– see also PILE DRIVER

driver's license noun, pl ~ -censes [count] US : an official document or card which shows that you have the legal right to drive a vehicle — called also (Brit) driving licence

drive•shaft /ˈdraɪvˌʃæft, Brit ˈdraɪvˌʃɑːft/ noun, pl -shafts [count] technical : a part of a vehicle that carries power from the gears to the wheels drive–through also drive–thru /ˈdraɪvˌθruː/ noun, pl -throughs also -thrus [count] : a business (such as a bank or restaurant) that is designed so that customers can be served while remaining in their cars; also, US : the window from which people are served ▪ I ordered a salad and fries at the drive-through.

– drive–through also drive–thru /ˈdraɪvˌθruː/ adj, always used before a noun ▪ a drive-through restaurant ▪ (US) the drive-through window drive time noun [noncount] chiefly US : the time when people are driving to or from work and are listening to the radio in their cars ▪ Her show airs during the morning drive time. ▪ a drive-time radio show drive–up /ˈdraɪvˌʌp/ adj, always used before a noun, US : designed to allow people to remain in their cars while being served ▪ a bank with a drive-up window

drive•way /ˈdraɪvˌweɪ/ noun, pl -ways [count] : a short private road from a street to a house or other building where cars can usually be parked ▪ A long driveway led to the mansion. ▪ We shoveled the driveway [=drive] after the snowstorm. — see picture at HOUSE

[1]driving adj, always used before a noun

1 : falling or blowing with great force and speed ▪ a hard driving rain/wind

2 — used in the phrase driving force to describe the person or thing that causes or controls something ▪ He has been the driving force behind these changes. [=he has been the person who has caused these changes to happen] ▪ She believes that greed is the driving force behind our economy.

– see also HARD-DRIVING

[2]driving noun [noncount]

1 : the act of operating a vehicle ▪ I enjoy driving in good weather. ▪ She doesn't like night driving. [=driving at night] ▪ (US) He was arrested for driving under the in uence . = He was arrested for driving while intoxicated. [=for driving when he was drunk] — often used before another noun ▪ a driving school ▪ He failed his driving test.

2 : the way someone operates a vehicle ▪ I don't trust her driving and would rather take my own car. ▪ He got pulled over for reckless driving. — see also DRUNK DRIVING, driving to endanger at ENDANGER driving licence noun, pl ~ -cences [count] Brit : DRIVER'S LICENSE

driving range noun, pl ~ ranges [count] : a place where people can practice hitting golf balls

[1]driz•zle /ˈdrɪzəl/ verb driz•zles; driz•zled; driz•zling

1 [no obj] : to rain in very small drops ▪ It was beginning to drizzle, so she pulled on her hood.

2 [+ obj] : to pour a small amount of liquid onto or over something ▪ She drizzled syrup on her pancakes. = She drizzled her pancakes with syrup. ▪ The vegetables were drizzled with olive oil.

[2]drizzle noun [singular] : rain that falls lightly in very small drops ▪ Yes, it's raining, but it's only a drizzle.

– driz•zly /ˈdrɪzəli/ adj driz•li•er; -est ▪ It was a drizzly, gray weekend.

droll /ˈdroʊl/ adj droll•er; -est : having an odd and amusing quality ▪ a droll little man with a peculiar sense of humor ▪ a book of droll stories

drom•e•dary /ˈdrɑːməˌderi, Brit ˈdrɒmədri/ noun, pl -dar•ies [count] : a camel of western Asia and northern Africa that has one hump on its back

[1]drone /ˈdroʊn/ noun, pl drones [count] : a deep continuous sound : HUM — usually singular ▪ the endless drone of washing machines at the laundry ▪ the drone of passing traffic — compare [3]DRONE

[2]drone verb drones; droned; dron•ing [no obj] : to make a continuous low humming sound ▪ A plane droned overhead. ▪ We could hear wasps droning in the garden.

drone on [phrasal verb] informal : to speak for a long time in a dull voice without saying anything interesting ▪ She had trouble keeping awake as he droned on about himself.

[3]drone noun, pl drones [count]

1 : a type of male bee that does not gather honey

2 chiefly US, informal : a person who does work that is boring and not very important ▪ one of many office drones

– compare [1]DRONE

[1]drool /ˈdruːl/ verb drools; drooled; drool•ing [no obj]

1 : to let saliva flow out from the mouth ▪ a drooling baby

2 : to show admiration or desire for something in an exaggerated way — usually + over ▪ Everyone was drooling over his new car.

[2]drool noun [noncount] chiefly US : saliva that drips from the mouth ▪ He wiped the drool from the baby's face.

droop /ˈdruːp/ verb droops; drooped; droop•ing [no obj]

1 : to sink, bend, or hang down ▪ The flowers were drooping in the hot sun. ▪ Her eyelids drooped as she grew tired. ▪ The tree's branches drooped under the weight of the snow.

2 : to become sad or weak ▪ His spirits drooped when he didn't get the job.

– droop noun [singular] ▪ the sad droop of the dog's tail

– droopy /ˈdruːpi/ adj droop•i•er; -est ▪ a droopy mustache

[1]drop /ˈdrɑːp/ noun, pl drops

1 [count] : a very small amount of liquid that falls in a rounded shape ▪ He squeezed the bottle until a few drops came out. ▪ She knew rain was coming when she felt a drop [=raindrop] land on her arm. — often + of ▪ Drops of water fell from the leaky faucet. ▪ a drop of blood — see also DEWDROP, RAINDROP, TEARDROP

2 [count] informal : a small amount of a drink — usually singular ▪ I didn't have a drop of your orange juice. ▪ I'd just like a drop of brandy, please. ▪ He used to have a drinking problem but he hasn't touched a drop [=hasn't drunk any alcohol] in years.

3 [singular] : a small amount of something (such as a quality) ▪ She doesn't have a single drop of selfishness in her. ▪ The poet wrings the last drop of meaning from every word.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 106 SESS: 11 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:28:41 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-d

4 drops [plural] : liquid medicine that is measured in drops and put into your eyes, ears, or nose ▪ The doctor prescribed daily drops for the child's ears. ▪ eye/ear drops

5 [count] : a usually small, round piece of candy with a particular flavor ▪ We sucked on lemon drops. — see also COUGH DROP, GUMDROP

6 [count] a : the distance from a higher to a lower level — usually singular ▪ It is a 50-foot drop from the cliff to the ground below. b : an area that goes downward suddenly ▪ A steep drop in the river forms a waterfall.

7 [count] : a decrease in amount or quality — usually singular ▪ His income took a sudden drop. — often + in ▪ He had a sudden drop in income. ▪ The patient experienced a sharp drop in blood pressure. ▪ a drop [=decline] in prices/sales ▪ a four percent drop in body weight

8 [count] informal a : the act of taking something (such as something secret or illegal) to a place and leaving it there ▪ He made the drop. b : a place where something is taken to and left to be picked up ▪ I left the package at the drop. — see also AIRDROP, MAIL DROP a drop in the bucket (US) or Brit a drop in the ocean informal : an amount that is so small that it does not make an important difference or have much effect ▪ They need to raise thousands of dollars for this project, so our 20-dollar donation is just a drop in the bucket.

9 [count] American football : a move back from the line of scrimmage — usually singular ▪ The quarterback made a quick three-step drop.

at the drop of a hat : very quickly and immediately ▪ He says he's ready to help us at the drop of a hat. ▪ She loses her temper at the drop of a hat.

[2]drop verb drops; dropped; drop•ping

1 a [+ obj] : to let (something) fall ▪ Be careful not to drop the chair on your foot. ▪ She dropped the apple core into the trash can. ▪ They dropped bombs on the city. ▪ He dropped the vase and it shattered into pieces. ▪ The player dropped the ball. ▪ The trees drop their needles in the winter. [=the needles fall off the trees in the winter] b [no obj] : to fall ▪ The pen rolled to the edge of the table and dropped to the floor. ▪ The book dropped from my hand. ▪ The ball dropped between the right and center fielders.

2 [no obj] a : to lie down or fall down suddenly ▪ He dropped (down) to the floor and hid under the bed. b : to lie down or become unconscious because you are sick or exhausted : COLLAPSE ▪ She was so tired she felt she would drop. ▪ He worked until he dropped. ▪ (informal) We're going to the mall to shop till we drop.

3 [no obj] : to go down suddenly and form a steep slope ▪ The road drops into the valley. ▪ The cliff drops almost vertically.

4 a [no obj] : to change to a lower level, amount, position, etc. ▪ The temperature dropped (to 50 degrees). ▪ His voice dropped [=became quieter] as he told us the secret. ▪ Increased competition has caused prices to drop. [=decline, go down] ▪ Production has dropped. [=decreased] ▪ The team has dropped [=fallen] to third place. ▪ He dropped [=fell] behind the other runners when he hurt his ankle. b [+ obj] : to cause (something) to lessen or decrease in level or amount ▪ He dropped [=lowered] his voice. ▪ She dropped [=reduced] her speed when she saw the patrol car.

5 [+ obj] : to send (someone) a letter, note, etc. ▪ I'll drop you an e-mail when I know my schedule. ▪ Drop me a line [=write me a letter] sometime.

6 a [+ obj] : to stop talking or thinking about (something) ▪ You can drop that idea right now. ▪ Let's just drop the subject. ▪ Just drop it. I don't want to talk about it any more. b [no obj] : to stop being talked about ▪ Please let the matter drop. ▪ Once he starts talking about a subject he just won't let it drop.

7 [+ obj] : to stop doing or continuing with (something) ▪ I'm going to drop my calculus class and take a biology course instead. ▪ New evidence was found and the case was dropped. ▪ The prosecutors dropped the charges against her. ▪ I dropped everything [=stopped what I was doing] and ran to the window to see what was going on.

8 [+ obj] : to not include (someone or something) ▪ You should drop [=cut, omit] this sentence from your essay. ▪ The newspaper decided to drop the story. ▪ He was dropped from the team.

9 [+ obj] : to suddenly end a relationship or connection with (someone) ▪ They dated for a while, but then she suddenly dropped him. ▪ She moved away and dropped her old friends.

10 [+ obj] : to take (someone or something) to a place and then leave ▪ She dropped him in front of the library. ▪ He dropped the package at the post office this morning. — often + off ▪ I drop the kids off at school in the morning. ▪ I'll drop off the paperwork as soon as it's all filled out.

11 always followed by an adverb or preposition [no obj] : to make a brief social visit — usually + by or in or over ▪ His sister dropped by unexpectedly. ▪ They dropped in for a chat. ▪ Drop over sometime! ▪ We were in the neighborhood and thought we would drop in on you. — see also DROP-IN 12 [+ obj] : to say (something) in an informal or casual way ▪ He casually dropped the news that they are getting married. ▪ She's always dropping names. [=saying the names of famous people she knows to try to impress others] ▪ She has been dropping hints that she is looking for another job.

13 [+ obj] informal : to lose (a game) ▪ They dropped the first game but won the next two.

14 [+ obj] informal : to spend (an amount of money) — usually + on ▪ She dropped $300 on a new suit.

15 [+ obj] informal : to lose (an amount of weight) ▪ Through diet and exercise, I managed to drop 20 pounds in a year.

16 : to move down [+ obj] When the teacher became angry at her, she dropped her eyes/head. [=she looked down] [no obj] His gaze dropped to the floor in embarrassment.

17 [+ obj] knitting : to let (a loop of yarn) fall off a knitting needle ▪ Count the stitches on the needle to make sure you didn't drop one. ▪ Be careful you don't drop a stitch.

18 [+ obj] : to not pronounce (a letter) when you speak ▪ When she spoke quickly, she dropped the "g" in "running."

19 [+ obj] informal : to take (a drug) by swallowing it ▪ They dropped acid. [=they took LSD]

drop a brick or drop a clanger Brit, informal : to make a very bad or embarrassing mistake drop back [phrasal verb] American football : to move straight back from the line of scrimmage ▪ The quarterback dropped back and threw a long pass down the field.

drop dead see [1]DEAD

drop in/into/on your lap see [1]LAP

drop off [phrasal verb] 1 : to decrease in amount ▪ After the holidays, business usually drops off. 2 : to fall asleep ▪ The baby tends to drop off after he eats. ▪ She lay down and dropped off to sleep. — see also [2]DROP 10 (above)

drop out [phrasal verb] 1 : to stop attending a school or university before you have completed your studies ▪ He dropped out after 10th grade. — often + of ▪ He dropped out of [=quit] college/school and began working full-time. 2 : to stop being part of a group — usually + of ▪ She was the first to drop out of the band. 3 : to stop being involved in regular society because you do not agree with or support its rules, customs, and values ▪ Back in the sixties he dropped out and lived as a hippie for several years. — see also DROPOUT drop out of sight : to stop being seen ▪ The house dropped out of sight as we drove over the hill. ▪ a famous and successful actor who suddenly dropped out of sight

drop the ball see [1]BALL

jaw drops see [1]JAW

the bottom drop out see [1]BOTTOM

the penny drops see PENNY

you could hear a pin drop see [1]PIN drop cloth noun, pl ~ cloths [count] US : a sheet of cloth or plastic that is used to cover the floor and furniture while you are painting a room — compare DUST SHEET drop–dead /ˈdrɑːpˈdɛd/ adj, informal : very attractive or impressive ▪ a drop-dead evening gown – drop–dead adv ▪ an actress who is drop-dead gorgeous drop–dead date noun, pl ~ dates [count] US : a date by which something must be done or finished : a deadline that must be met ▪ They were given a drop-dead date of June 30 to accept or reject the contract.

drop–down menu noun, pl ~ menus [count] computers : a list of choices that appears on a computer screen when a person clicks on the menu's title ▪ To print the document, click on "print" in the "file" drop-down menu. — called also drop-down list, pull-down menu

drop goal noun, pl ~ goals [count] rugby : a goal that is made by a dropkick

drop–in /ˈdrɑːpˌɪn/ adj, always used before a noun
1 of a place : able to be visited without an appointment ▪ a drop-in clinic/lab/restaurant ▪ a drop-in medical center
2 of a person : visiting a place without an appointment ▪ drop-in customers/clients drop•kick /ˈdrɑːpˌkɪk/ noun, pl -kicks [count] : a kick that

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 107 SESS: 54 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:28:42 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-d

is made by dropping a ball to the ground and kicking it as it begins to bounce back up – drop–kick /ˈdrɑːpˌkɪk/ verb -kicks; -kicked; -kick•ing [+ obj] ▪ He drop-kicked the ball.

drop•let /ˈdrɑːplət/ noun, pl -lets [count] : a very small drop of liquid ▪ Droplets of water collected on the windows.

drop–off /ˈdrɑːpˌɑːf/ noun, pl -offs [count]
1 : a very steep downward slope ▪ The drop-off along the trail is very steep.
2 : a very large decrease in level or amount ▪ There has been a drop-off in attendance this year. — see also drop off at ²DROP
3 : the act of taking someone or something to a place and then leaving : the act of dropping someone or something off ▪ This area is for student drop-offs.

drop•out /ˈdrɑːpˌaʊt/ noun, pl -outs [count]
1 : a person who stops going to a school, college, etc., before finishing : a person who drops out of school ▪ The program is designed for dropouts who wish to get high school equivalency certificates. ▪ a high school dropout
2 : a person who stops being involved in society because he or she does not believe in its rules, customs, and values — see also drop out at ²DROP

drop pass noun, pl ~ passes [count] ice hockey : a pass in which a player stops the puck and skates past it in order to leave it for another player who is close behind dropped adj, always used before a noun, of clothing : made to be in a lower position on the body than is usual ▪ a dress with a dropped waist ▪ dropped shoulders drop•per /ˈdrɑːpɚ/ noun, pl -pers [count] : a glass or plastic tube that is used to measure out liquids by drops ▪ He put drops in his eyes with a dropper. — called also eyedropper, medicine dropper

drop•ping /ˈdrɑːpɪŋ/ noun, pl -pings [count] : a piece of solid waste from an animal or bird — usually plural ▪ bird droppings

drop shot noun, pl ~ shots [count] : a softly hit shot in tennis or a similar game that falls quickly after passing over the net

dross /ˈdrɑːs/ noun [noncount]
1 technical : unwanted material that is removed from a mineral (such as gold) to make it better
2 : something of low value or quality ▪ There is quite a lot of dross on TV these days. ▪ His editor has a talent for turning literary dross into gold.

drought /ˈdraʊt/ noun, pl droughts : a long period of time during which there is very little or no rain [count] The drought caused serious damage to crops. [noncount] a period of drought that lasted several years

¹drove /ˈdroʊv/ noun, pl droves [count] : a large group of people or animals that move or act together ▪ a drove of cattle — usually plural ▪ droves of students ▪ People came in droves [=many people came] to hear her sing.

²drove past tense of ¹DRIVE

drov•er /ˈdroʊvɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] chiefly Brit : a person who moves groups of animals (such as cattle or sheep) from one place to another drown /ˈdraʊn/ verb drowns; drowned; drown•ing

1 a [no obj] : to die by being underwater too long and unable to breathe ▪ Four people drowned in the flood. ▪ She fell in the river and drowned. b [+ obj] : to hold (a person or animal) underwater until death occurs ▪ She claims that he tried to drown her. ▪ He tried to drown himself.
2 [+ obj] : to cover (something) completely with a liquid ▪ The river overflowed, drowning whole villages. ▪ The food was drowned in sauce.
3 [+ obj] : to cause (something or someone) not to be heard by making a loud noise ▪ The loud music drowned the sound of their conversation. — usually + out ▪ Noise from the passing airplane drowned out our conversation. ▪ He talked loudly to try to drown her out.
4 : to experience or be affected by too much of something : to be overwhelmed by something — usually + in [no obj] Many young people today are drowning in credit card debt. ▪ She was drowning in sadness. [+ obj] I'm being drowned in paperwork. [=I'm being overwhelmed by paperwork]
5 [+ obj] : to forget about (unpleasant feelings or thoughts) by getting drunk ▪ He went to the bar to drown his sorrows. ▪ He was trying to drown his fears. [=to get drunk so that he wouldn't be afraid]
– drowning noun, pl -ings [count, noncount]

drowse /ˈdraʊz/ verb drows•es; drowsed; drows•ing [no obj] : to sleep lightly or to almost be asleep ▪ She drove while I drowsed [=(more commonly) dozed] in the back seat.

drowsy /ˈdraʊzi/ adj drows•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]
1 : tired and ready to fall asleep ▪ I started feeling drowsy [=sleepy] and decided to take a nap.
2 : causing you to feel relaxed and ready to sleep ▪ We spent a drowsy afternoon by the pool.
– drows•i•ly /ˈdraʊzəli/ adv – drows•i•ness noun [noncount] ▪ These medications may cause drowsiness.

drub•bing /ˈdrʌbɪŋ/ noun, pl -bings [count] informal : an occurrence in which one person or team easily beats another person or team ▪ She withdrew after her drubbing [=after she was badly beaten] in the New Hampshire primary. ▪ Our team took a drubbing. = They gave us a drubbing. [=they beat us very easily]

drudge /ˈdrʌʤ/ noun, pl drudg•es [count] : a person who does boring, difficult, or unpleasant work ▪ She was tired of working as an office drudge. — often used before another noun ▪ drudge work ▪ a drudge job

drudg•ery /ˈdrʌʤəri/ noun [noncount] : boring, difficult, or unpleasant work ▪ He hated the drudgery of his job.

¹drug /ˈdrʌg/ noun, pl drugs [count]
1 : a substance that is used as a medicine ▪ a new drug used to treat people with high blood pressure ▪ an experimental drug for the treatment of AIDS ▪ prescription drugs [=drugs that people are allowed to use only if they have a note from a doctor] ▪ a miracle/wonder drug [=a drug that is very effective] — often used before another noun ▪ drug treatment/therapy ▪ drug companies
2 : an illegal and often harmful substance (such as heroin, cocaine, LSD, or marijuana) that people take for pleasure ▪ Have you ever taken/used any illegal drugs? ▪ He got hooked on drugs [=he became addicted to drugs] at an early age. ▪ I don't smoke, drink, or do drugs. ▪ She looks like she's on drugs. [=like she uses drugs or is high on a drug] — often used before another noun ▪ intravenous drug users [=people who inject drugs into their veins] ▪ She died of a drug overdose. ▪ drug-treatment programs ▪ drug addiction/addicts/abuse — see also DESIGNER DRUG, GATEWAY DRUG

²drug verb drugs; drugged; drug•ging [+ obj]
1 : to give a drug to (a person or animal) in order to make that person or animal very sleepy or unconscious ▪ He looks like he's been drugged.
2 : to add a drug to (a food or drink) in order to make someone sleepy or unconscious ▪ Someone could have drugged your drink.

drug dealer noun, pl ~ -ers [count] : a person who sells illegal drugs drug•gie /ˈdrʌgi/ noun, pl -gies [count] informal : a person who often uses illegal drugs drugging noun [noncount] chiefly US, informal : use of illegal drugs ▪ His drinking and drugging will kill him one day.

drug•gist /ˈdrʌgɪst/ noun, pl -gists [count] US, somewhat old-fashioned : a person who prepares and sells medicines : PHARMACIST ▪ Your local druggist can fill the prescription.

drug•store /ˈdrʌgˌstoɚ/ noun, pl -stores [count] US : a store that sells medicines and various other products (such as newspapers, candy, soap, etc.)

dru•id or Druid /ˈdruːwɪd/ noun, pl -ids [count] : a member of a group of priests in an ancient British religion

¹drum /ˈdrʌm/ noun, pl drums
1 [count] : a musical instrument that is made with a thin layer of skin or plastic stretched over the end of a round frame and that is played by hitting the skin or plastic with sticks or with your hands ▪ a child beating on a drum ▪ We heard the rhythmic beating of drums. ▪ She plays the drums. ▪ That was Miles Davis on trumpet and Max Roach on drums. [=playing the drums] — see also KETTLEDRUM, SNARE DRUM, STEEL DRUM
2 [noncount] : the sound that is made when something hits a surface over and over again ▪ He lay listening to the steady drum of the rain on the roof.
3 [count] a : a large usually metal container for liquids ▪ oil drums ▪ a 55-gallon drum b : a machine or part of a machine that is shaped like a cylinder ▪ the drum of a clothes dryer beat/bang the drum for : to say or write things that strongly support (someone or something) ▪ They joined together to beat the drum for their candidate. ▪ banging the drum for human rights

²drum verb drums; drummed; drum•ming

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 108 SESS: 11 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:28:42 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-d

1 [no obj] : to beat or play a drum or set of drums ▪ She drummed while he played the guitar.
2 : to make a sound by hitting a surface over and over again [no obj] Rain drummed [=beat] on the roof. ▪ Her fingers drummed nervously on the table. [+ obj] He was nervously drumming a pencil on the desk. ▪ She was drumming her fingers [=rapidly tapping her fingertips] on the table.
drum into [phrasal verb] drum (something) into (someone) : to force (something) to be learned by (someone) by repeating it over and over again ▪ Our teacher drummed the lesson into our heads. ▪ The importance of saying "please" and "thank you" was drummed into us as children.
drum out of [phrasal verb] drum (someone) out of (something) : to force (someone) to leave (a place or organization) ▪ They drummed her out of the club. ▪ He got drummed out of the military.
drum up [phrasal verb] drum up (something) also drum (something) up : to get or create (support, business, etc.) through hard work and a lot of effort ▪ They sent out flyers to drum up support for their candidate. ▪ Somehow, we need to drum up some new business. ▪ The company is trying to drum up demand for a new product.

drum•beat /ˈdrʌmˌbi:t/ noun, pl -beats [count] : the sound made by beating a drum ▪ I could hear the drumbeat of a parade down the street. ▪ hard and fast drumbeats ▪ a rock-and-roll drumbeat — often used figuratively ▪ The constant drumbeat for better working conditions [=the constant effort and complaints from people who demanded better working conditions] finally made a difference. ▪ The drumbeat of opposition has increased in recent months. ▪ We have been subjected to a steady drumbeat [=barrage] of bad news.

drum kit noun, pl ~ kits [count] : a set of drums and cymbals drum machine noun, pl ~ -chines [count] : an electronic device that makes sounds like the sounds of a drum drum major noun, pl ~ -jors [count] : the leader of a marching band

drum majorette noun, pl ~ -ettes [count] : MAJORETTE drum•mer /ˈdrʌmə/ noun, pl -mers [count] : a person who plays a drum or a set of drums ▪ The band got a new drummer.

different drummer US — used in phrases like march to the beat of a different drummer to describe a person who thinks, lives, or behaves in an unusual way ▪ His strange behavior was no surprise—he had always marched to (the beat of) a different drummer. [=done things differently from other people] ▪ Her friends went to college, but she heard a different drummer and moved to the city to be an actor.

drum roll noun, pl ~ rolls [count] : a continuous sound made by a series of very quick hits on a drum especially in order to introduce an exciting public announcement, act, etc.

drum•stick /ˈdrʌmˌstɪk/ noun, pl -sticks [count]
1 : the lower part of the leg of a bird (such as a chicken or turkey) that is eaten as food
2 : a stick used for playing a drum

[1]drunk past participle of [1]DRINK

[2]drunk /ˈdrʌŋk/ adj drunk•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]
1 : having drunk so much alcohol that normal actions (such as talking, thinking, and moving) become difficult to do ▪ I don't like being around drunk people. ▪ She was so drunk that she could barely walk. ▪ I was drunk and couldn't think straight. ▪ We got drunk on wine. ▪ He was blind drunk. = He was roaring drunk. = (chiefly US) He was stinking drunk. [=he was extremely drunk] ▪ (US) He was (as) drunk as a skunk. = (Brit) He was (as) drunk as a lord. [=he was extremely drunk]
2 : behaving in an unusual or improper way because of excitement, anger, etc. — usually + with ▪ He was drunk with power/anger/excitement. — see also PUNCH-DRUNK

[3]drunk noun, pl drunks [count]
1 disapproving : a person who is drunk or who often gets drunk ▪ the town drunk
2 informal : a period of time when someone drinks too much alcohol ▪ They went on a two-day drunk. [=bender, binge] drunk•ard /ˈdrʌŋkəd/ noun, pl -ards [count] disapproving : a person who is drunk or who often gets drunk ▪ Her father was a drunkard.

drunk driver noun, pl ~ -ers [count] chiefly US : a person who drives a vehicle while drunk ▪ He was killed by a drunk driver. — called also drunken driver, (Brit) drink-driver drunk driving noun [noncount] chiefly US : the act of driving a vehicle while drunk ▪ He was arrested for drunk driving. — called also drunken driving, (Brit) drink-driving drunk•en /ˈdrʌŋkən/ adj, always used before a noun

1 : drunk or often becoming drunk ▪ The streets were filled with drunken revelers on New Year's Eve. ▪ He lives in an apartment with his drunken mother.
2 : caused by drinking too much alcohol ▪ He fell into a drunken stupor.
3 : involving people who are drunk ▪ A drunken brawl broke out at the bar.
– drunk•en•ly adv ▪ She staggered drunkenly to a chair.
– drunk•en•ness /ˈdrʌŋkənnəs/ noun [noncount] drunk tank noun, pl ~ tanks [count] US, informal : a large jail cell where drunk people who have been arrested are kept druth•ers /ˈdrʌðəz/ noun [plural] US, informal : the power or opportunity to choose ▪ If I had my druthers, [=if I could choose what to do] I would travel all the time. ▪ Given her druthers, she would play tennis every day.

[1]dry /ˈdraɪ/ adj dri•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]
1 a : having no or very little water or liquid ▪ a dry riverbed ▪ Mix the dry ingredients first, then add the milk and eggs. ▪ a cool, dry place ▪ Wipe the surface dry. [=wipe the surface until it is dry] ▪ The air is usually dry during the winter. [=there is very little moisture in the air] ▪ the dry heat of the desert ▪ We tried to stay/keep dry in the rain by standing under a tree. ▪ The stream is usually (as) dry as a bone [=completely dry] this time of year. ▪ The stream is bone dry. b : no longer wet ▪ Are the clothes dry yet? ▪ The paint should be dry in a few hours.
2 : having no rain or little rain ▪ This has been an unusually dry summer. [=there has been little rain this summer] ▪ a stretch of dry weather ▪ a dry spell/season ▪ a country with a very dry climate ▪ This plant does well in dry conditions.
3 a : not having the usual or desired amount of moisture ▪ My throat is dry. ▪ My lips are dry. ▪ dry, itchy skin ▪ dry hair ▪ The medication can cause dry mouth. [=a condition in which the inside of your mouth become very dry] b : having the moisture removed by cooking or some other process ▪ The chicken was dry and tasteless. ▪ dry [=powdered] milk
4 : not producing a wet substance ▪ a dry cough [=a cough that does not produce any phlegm] ▪ The baby stayed dry all night. [=the baby did not urinate all night] ▪ His eyes were dry. [=there were no tears in his eyes] ✧ If there is not a dry eye in the house/room (etc.), everyone in a place is emotional or is affected deeply by something. ▪ When the hero proclaimed his love for the heroine at the end of the play, there wasn't a dry eye in the house.
5 : no longer producing water, oil, etc. ▪ a dry well ▪ a dry oil well ▪ The well went/ran dry. ▪ (chiefly US) They drilled for oil but the well came up dry. — often used figuratively ▪ The author went through a dry [=unproductive] period and couldn't write anything. ▪ The group stayed together despite several dry [=unsuccessful] years. ▪ They went searching for clues but came up dry. [=came up empty]
6 : served or eaten without butter, jam, etc. ▪ a breakfast of dry toast and coffee
7 of wine, sherry, etc. : not sweet ▪ a very dry red wine ▪ dry sherry
8 : not interesting, exciting, or emotional ▪ The novel included several long, dry [=boring] passages. ▪ His lectures were usually very dry.
9 : funny or clever but expressed in a quiet or serious way ▪ He has a very dry sense of humor. ▪ a dry wit
10 a : not having or offering alcoholic beverages ▪ a dry party b : not allowing alcoholic beverages ▪ The college campus has been dry for 10 years. ▪ a dry state/county [=a state/county where alcoholic beverages cannot be sold] c : not drinking alcoholic beverages ▪ He's been dry [=sober] for several years now.
high and dry see [2]HIGH home and dry see [2]HOME keep your powder dry see [1]POWDER milk/bleed/suck (someone or something) dry informal : to take or use up everything from (someone or something) ▪ He married her for her money and then bled her dry. ▪ She milked the system dry.
– dry•ness noun [noncount]

[2]dry verb dries; dried; dry•ing
1 a [+ obj] : to remove water or moisture from (something or someone) : to make (something or someone) dry ▪ I'll wash the dishes if you dry them. ▪ Make sure you dry your hands. ▪ He dried himself with the towel. ▪ Stop crying and dry your eyes. b [no obj] : to make plates, dishes, pots, etc., dry by rubbing them with a towel ▪ I'll wash and you dry, okay? 2 [no obj] : to become dry ▪ Your shirt is drying on the clothesline. ▪ The paint dried overnight. — see also AIR-DRY, DRIP-DRY, FREEZE-DRY

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 109 SESS: 11 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:28:43 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-d

dry off [phrasal verb] 1 a : to become dry ▪ My umbrella's drying off in the hall. b : to make your body dry ▪ We got out of the pool and dried off. 2 *dry off (someone or something) or dry (someone or something) off : to make (someone or something) dry ▪ He dried off the bench and sat down. ▪ Dry yourself off and get dressed.

dry out [phrasal verb] 1 : to become dry ▪ Water the plant every week; don't allow the soil to dry out completely. 2 *dry out (something) or dry (something) out : to make (something) dry ▪ The wind dries out my eyes. ▪ Baking at a high temperature will dry the meat out. ▪ We dried out our shoes near the fire. 3 informal : to stop using drugs or alcohol for a period of time especially by going to a special kind of hospital ▪ After years of alcoholism, he went to a clinic to dry out.

dry up [phrasal verb] 1 : to become completely dry ▪ The river/well is drying up. ▪ The stream dries up every summer. 2 *dry up (something) or dry (something) up : to make (something) dry ▪ The sun had dried up the roads an hour after it stopped raining. 3 informal : to go away or disappear completely ▪ Interest in the project dried up when he withdrew his support. ▪ After several months, new leads in the murder investigation dried up. 4 *dry up (something) or dry (something) up : to cause the supply of (something) to go away or disappear ▪ Closing the factory dried up local job opportunities. 5 informal + impolite — used as a command to tell someone to stop talking ▪ Oh, dry up! [=shut up] I'm sick of hearing what you have to say. ▪ He told her to dry up.

hang (someone or something) out to dry see hang out at [1]HANG dry cell noun, pl ~ cells [count] : a sealed container that holds chemicals which are used for producing electricity — called also dry battery dry–clean /ˈdraɪˌkli:n/ verb -cleans; -cleaned; -cleaning [+ obj] : to clean (clothing, curtains, etc.) by using special chemicals instead of water ▪ His suit was dry-cleaned.

dry cleaner noun, pl ~ -ers [count] : a shop where clothes and other cloth items are dry-cleaned ▪ I take my clothes to a local dry cleaner. ▪ My wool coat is still at the dry cleaner's/cleaners.

dry cleaning noun [noncount]
1 : the process of cleaning cloth with special chemicals instead of water ▪ Dry cleaning is recommended. ▪ a dry-cleaning shop [=a shop that does dry cleaning]
2 : clothing or cloth items that have been dry-cleaned ▪ I can pick up the dry cleaning on my way home.

dry dock noun, pl ~ docks : a dock that can be kept dry and that is used for building or repairing boats or ships [count] The dry dock is full. [noncount] The ship is in dry dock.

dry•er also dri•er /ˈdrajɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a device that is used for drying something (such as clothes or hair) by using heat or air ▪ He threw his wet clothes in the dryer. ▪ Her hair dryer broke. — see also BLOW-DRYER dry–eyed /ˈdraɪˌaɪd/ adj : not crying ▪ She was dry-eyed during the funeral but cried all the way home afterwards.

dry goods noun [plural]
1 : items (such as tobacco, tea, and coffee) that do not contain liquid
2 US, old-fashioned : items made of cloth (such as fabrics, lace, and ribbon)

dry heaves noun [plural] US : a condition in which someone is vomiting but nothing is coming up from the stomach ▪ He had a case of (the) dry heaves.

dry ice noun [noncount] : solid carbon dioxide that is used mainly to keep food and other things cold and to create the appearance of smoke and fog in plays, movies, etc.

dry land noun [noncount] : land that is not covered with water : land as opposed to the ocean, a lake, etc. ▪ The sea was rough and we couldn't wait to get back to dry land.

dry•ly also dri•ly /ˈdraɪli/ adv [more ~; most ~]
1 : in a funny but quiet or serious way ▪ "I love this store!" "I couldn't tell," she said dryly.
2 : without excitement or emotion ▪ "If that's the way it must be," he remarked dryly, "that's the way it will be."

dry rot noun [noncount] : a condition in which wood is destroyed by a type of fungus ▪ The windowsill was badly damaged by dry rot. ▪ Dry rot had eaten away part of the beam.

dry run noun, pl ~ runs [count] : a practice event that is done to prepare for the actual event that will happen in the future ▪ We did a dry run of the experiment. ▪ After several dry runs, she was ready to give the speech. — called also (Brit) dummy run

dry•stone wall /ˈdraɪˌstoʊn-/ noun, pl ~ walls [count] Brit : a stone wall that is made without mortar to hold the stones together

dry•wall /ˈdraɪˌwɑ:l/ noun [noncount] US : building material that is used for making walls and ceilings and that is made of large sheets of plaster covered with thick paper : PLASTERBOARD

DSL abbr digital subscriber line ▪ high-speed DSL Internet access ✧ DSL refers to a system that uses telephone lines to allow you to connect to the Internet at high speeds.

DSS abbr Department of Social Services ✧ In the U.S., a state's Department of Social Services is usually responsible for protecting children from harmful treatment, helping people to adopt children, and providing advice and support to families and children who need it.

DTP abbr 1 desktop publishing 2 or DTaP diphtheria, tetanus, and pertussis ▪ You need to have the DTaP vaccine before you can enroll in school.

D.T.'s /ˌdi:ˈti:z/ noun [plural] : a condition that is caused by drinking too much alcohol for a very long time and that causes a person to shake and see things that are not real — usually used with the ▪ an alcoholic who has the D.T.'s — called also delirium tremens

du•al /ˈdu:wəl, Brit ˈdju:wəl/ adj, always used before a noun
1 : having two different parts, uses, etc. ▪ the dual purpose of the study ▪ The song's lyrics have a dual [=(more commonly) double] meaning. ▪ a dual function ▪ She held dual citizenship in France and the United States. [=she was a citizen of both countries]
2 : having two of something ▪ Our car has dual air bags. [=has two air bags] ▪ She pursued dual careers in music and acting. ▪ families with dual incomes – du•al•ly adv ▪ He is dually certified to teach math and science.

dual car•riage•way /-ˈkerɪʤˌweɪ/ noun, pl ~ -ways [count] Brit : DIVIDED HIGHWAY du•al•ism /ˈdu:wəˌlɪzəm, Brit ˈdju:wəˌlɪzəm/ noun [noncount]

1 philosophy : the idea or belief that everything has two opposite parts or principles
2 formal : the quality or state of having two different or opposite parts or elements ▪ the dualism of human nature ▪ the dualism of good and evil – du•al•ist /ˈdu:wəlɪst, Brit ˈdju:wəlɪst/ noun, pl -ists [count] – du•al•is•tic /ˌdu:wəˈlɪstɪk, Brit ˌdju:wəˈlɪstɪk/ adj ▪ a dualistic view/approach du•al•i•ty /duˈæləti, Brit djuˈæləti/ noun, pl -ties formal : the quality or state of having two parts [noncount] the duality of human nature [count] They discussed the dualities of the novel's characters.

[1]dub /ˈdʌb/ verb dubs; dubbed; dub•bing [+ obj]
1 : to give (someone or something) a name or title ▪ The actress was dubbed "America's sweetheart." ▪ Critics dubbed him the new king of rock 'n' roll.
2 : to give (someone) the title of a knight ▪ The queen dubbed him Sir Philip.
– compare [2]DUB

[2]dub verb dubs; dubbed; dub•bing [+ obj]
1 : to replace the original recorded speech in a movie or television show with speech recorded in another language ▪ He was hired to dub the dialogue for a foreign film. — often used as (be) dubbed ▪ The film was dubbed in/into French and Spanish.
2 : to add (speech or other sounds) to a movie or television show — usually + in ▪ They dubbed in the music. = They dubbed the music in.
3 : to make a copy of (a movie, piece of music, etc.) that has already been recorded ▪ dub a CD
– compare [1]DUB

du•bi•ous /ˈdu:bijəs, Brit ˈdju:bijəs/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 not used before a noun : unsure or uncertain : feeling doubt about something — usually + about ▪ I was dubious [=doubtful] about our chances for success.
2 : causing doubt, uncertainty, or suspicion : likely to be bad or wrong ▪ Her conclusions are pretty dubious, if you

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 110 SESS: 47 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:28:43 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-d

ask me. [=her conclusions are probably wrong] ▪ He made the highly dubious claim that Elvis is still alive and living in Hawaii. ▪ She was a dubious choice for the job. [=she was not a good choice for the job] ▪ They got their money through dubious means/methods. [=methods that were probably dishonest or illegal] ▪ a man of dubious character

3 — used ironically in phrases like dubious honor and dubious distinction to describe something bad or undesirable as if it were an honor or achievement ▪ He is the lawyer with the dubious honor of having lost the most cases in the firm. ▪ We had the dubious distinction of losing 12 games in a row.

– du•bi•ous•ly adv ▪ He looked at me dubiously when I explained why I was late. – du•bi•ous•ness noun [noncount]

du•cal /ˈduːkəl, Brit ˈdjuːkəl/ adj, always used before a noun : of or relating to a duke ▪ the ducal palace ▪ a ducal title

duch•ess /ˈdʌʧəs/ noun, pl -ess•es [count]
1 : the wife or widow of a duke
2 : a woman who has the same rank as a duke duchy /ˈdʌʧi/ noun, pl duch•ies [count] : an area of land that is controlled by a duke or duchess

[1]duck /ˈdʌk/ noun, pl ducks
1 [count] : any one of many different kinds of birds that swim and have a flat beak, a short neck, a heavy body, short legs, and webbed feet — often used before another noun ▪ duck eggs/feathers ▪ a duck pond ▪ duck hunting — see color picture on page C9
2 [count] : a female duck — compare DRAKE
3 [noncount] : the meat of a duck used as food ▪ crispy roast duck
4 [count] informal : a person who you think is lucky, unusual, etc. ▪ He's an odd duck. [=a strange person] ▪ You lucky duck!
5 or ducks Brit, informal — used to address someone you love ▪ How was your day, ducks? [=sweetheart, darling] like a duck to water informal : very quickly or easily ▪ She took to dancing like a duck (takes) to water. [=she learned to dance very quickly and easily] ▪ He took to her like a duck to water. [=he liked her immediately] water off a duck's back see [1]WATER
– see also DEAD DUCK, LAME DUCK, SITTING DUCK

[2]duck verb ducks; ducked; duck•ing
1 a [no obj] : to lower your head or body suddenly to avoid being seen or hit ▪ The ceiling was so low I had to duck. — often + down ▪ Quick, duck down before they see us! b [+ obj] : to lower (your head) suddenly ▪ The ceiling was so low I had to duck my head. ▪ He ducked his head so they wouldn't see him. c [+ obj] : to avoid (something, such as a punch) by lowering your head or body suddenly ▪ He ducked the punch.
2 [+ obj] : to avoid (something or someone you do not want to see or deal with) ▪ We can't afford to duck the issue any longer. ▪ He managed to duck [=evade] the question. ▪ They've been ducking each other for months.
3 always followed by an adverb or preposition [no obj] : to move quickly ▪ She ducked into a store when it started to rain. ▪ He ducked around a corner.
4 [+ obj] Brit : to push (someone or something) underwater : DUNK ▪ The children were ducking each other in the pool.
duck out [phrasal verb] informal : to leave suddenly and usually without telling anyone that you are leaving ▪ We ducked out after the first act of the play. — often + on or of ▪ They ducked out on us without even saying goodbye. ▪ I had to duck out of the meeting to take a phone call. — often used figuratively ▪ He wants to duck out of the contract. [=to get out of the contract] ▪ She ducked out on paying the bill for the meal. [=she avoided paying the bill in a sneaky or improper way]

duck–billed platypus noun, pl ~ -puses [count] : PLATYPUS

duck•ling /ˈdʌklɪŋ/ noun, pl -lings [count]
1 : a young duck — see also UGLY DUCKLING
2 : the meat of a young duck that is used as food ▪ roast duckling

duck sauce noun [noncount] US : a sweet, thick sauce that is used in Chinese cooking duck soup noun [noncount] US, informal + old-fashioned : something that is very easy to do ▪ The trip was duck soup for experienced travelers.

[1]ducky /ˈdʌki/ adj duck•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~] US, informal + somewhat old-fashioned : very pleasing, delightful, or attractive ▪ Everything is just ducky. [=satisfactory, fine] — often used ironically to describe something that is bad or unpleasant ▪ "Our flight is delayed." "Well, isn't that just ducky!"

[2]ducky noun, pl duck•ies [count] chiefly US, informal
1 : a duck ✧ Ducky is used especially by children or when talking to children. ▪ Look at the cute little ducky!
2 : a toy duck ▪ a rubber ducky [=a rubber toy that looks like a duck]

duct /ˈdʌkt/ noun, pl ducts [count]
1 : a pipe or tube for air, water, electric power lines, etc., to pass through ▪ a building's air/heating/ventilation ducts
2 : a tube in the body that carries a particular liquid ▪ tear ducts ▪ the bile duct duc•tile /ˈdʌktl, ˈdʌkˌtʰajəɬ/ adj, technical, of a metal : capable of being bent or pulled into different shapes ▪ ductile iron duct•ing /ˈdʌktɪŋ/ noun [noncount] technical 1 : the material used to make ducts ▪ a piece of ducting

2 chiefly Brit : DUCTWORK

duct tape noun [noncount] : a wide, sticky, and usually silver tape that is made of cloth and that is used especially to repair things

duct•work /ˈdʌktˌwɚk/ noun [noncount] chiefly US : a system of ducts

[1]dud /ˈdʌd/ noun, pl duds
1 [count] : something that does not do what it is supposed to do : something that is a complete failure ▪ The movie was a box office dud. [=few people went to see the movie] ▪ The seeds must have been duds because the plants never grew. ▪ The firework was a dud. [=the firework did not explode]
2 duds [plural] informal : clothes ▪ She put on her new duds for the party.

[2]dud adj, always used before a noun — used to describe something that fails completely or does not work properly ▪ a dud grenade [=a grenade that does not explode] ▪ a dud movie [=a movie that fails] ▪ (Brit) a dud cheque [=a bad check, a check that cannot be cashed]

dude /ˈduːd, Brit ˈdjuːd/ noun, pl dudes [count] chiefly US slang : a man — used especially by young people ▪ He's a cool dude. [=guy] ▪ Ask that dude over there. ▪ a surfer dude ▪ Hey, dude, what's up?

dude ranch noun, pl ~ ranches [count] : a large farm especially in the western U.S. where people on vacation can ride horses and do other activities that cowboys typically do

dud•geon /ˈdʌʤən/ noun
in high dudgeon formal : feeling and usually showing that you are angry or offended ▪ She walked out of the meeting in high dudgeon.

[1]due /ˈduː, Brit ˈdjuː/ adj
1 not used before a noun : required or expected to happen : expected to be in a particular place at a particular time ▪ When is the assignment due? [=when are you supposed to give the completed assignment to your teacher?] ▪ Your books are due back to the library (by/on) May 15. [=you must return your books to the library by May 15] ▪ The movie is due out this summer. [=the movie is supposed to be released in theaters this summer] — often followed by to + verb ▪ They are due to arrive any minute now.
2 not used before a noun a : expected to be born ▪ The baby is due [=the baby will probably be born] in three weeks. b : expected to give birth ▪ When is she due? ▪ My wife is due in three weeks.
3 not used before a noun : having reached the date by which payment is required ▪ The bill is due at the end of the month. ▪ The balance is now due. ▪ The amount due is 45 dollars. ▪ The bill is past due. [=it is late; it should have been paid before now]
4 not used before a noun — used to say that someone should be given something or has earned something ▪ He is due a full day's pay. ▪ Teachers are not always accorded the respect due (to) them. = They are not always given the respect they are due. ▪ He finally got the recognition he was due. ▪ I will give credit where credit is due.
5 always used before a noun : appropriate or proper ▪ She accepted the compliment with due modesty. ▪ The issue demands due consideration. ▪ I will answer all of your questions in due time. [=eventually at an appropriate time] ▪ The court agreed that he failed to exercise due care/caution/diligence in trying to prevent the accident. [=he should have done more to prevent the accident from happening] due for : needing, requiring, or expecting something to happen ▪ I'm due for a dentist's appointment. [=I need to go to the dentist soon] ▪ He will be due for another raise in June.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 111 SESS: 11 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:28:44 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−d

D

due to : because of (something) ▪ The accident was primarily due to her carelessness. ▪ Due to the bad weather, the game was canceled. ▪ Their success is due to a lot of hard work. = They are successful due to the fact that they work hard. ▪ Traffic was slow due to roadwork. ▪ The pool is closed due to the approaching storm.

in due course see ¹COURSE

with (all) due respect see ¹RESPECT

²due noun, pl dues

1 dues [plural] : a regular payment that you make to be a member of an organization ▪ Membership dues are $45. ▪ Dues are increasing this year. ▪ Workers are required to join the union and pay dues.

2 [noncount] : something that someone should be given : something that a person has earned ▪ He deserves to be given his due. ▪ She has yet to receive her due. = She is still being denied her due. ✧ People use the phrase to give someone his/her due when they are going to say something good about someone they have criticized. ▪ I can't say that I like him, but to give him his due [=to be fair to him], I trust him completely.

pay your dues : to work hard and have difficult experiences in order to become successful ▪ I've paid my dues. It's time that I began reaping some benefits.

³due adv : directly or exactly — followed by north, south, east, or west ▪ The lake is due north of the city. ▪ The road runs due south.

due date noun, pl ~ dates [count] : the day when someone or something is due: such as a : the day by which something must be done, paid, etc. ▪ The due date for the assignment is Friday. ▪ Tomorrow's the due date for our electricity bill. [=the bill must be paid by tomorrow] b : the day when a woman is expected to give birth ▪ She started having contractions two weeks before her due date.

¹du•el /ˈduːwəl, Brit ˈdjuːwəl/ noun, pl -els [count]

1 : a fight between two people that includes the use of weapons (such as guns or swords) and that usually happens while other people watch ✧ Duels were used in the past to settle arguments or protect someone's honor. ▪ I challenge you to a duel.

2 : a situation in which two people or groups argue or compete with each other ▪ They engaged in a duel of wits. ▪ The baseball game turned into a duel between the teams' pitchers. = The game turned into a pitching duel.

²duel verb duels; US du•eled or Brit du•elled; US du•eling or Brit du•el•ling [no obj] : to fight a duel: such as a : to fight with someone using weapons (such as guns or swords) while other people watch ▪ He accepted the challenge to duel. b : to compete or argue with someone ▪ Legislators dueled over the tax increases. ▪ The two runners dueled for the lead.

due process noun [noncount] US, law : the official and proper way of doing things in a legal case : the rule that a legal case must be done in a way that protects the rights of all the people involved ▪ Due process requires that evidence not be admitted when it is obtained through illegal methods.

du•et /duˈet, Brit djuˈet/ noun, pl -ets [count] : a piece of music that is performed by two singers or musicians ▪ They sang the duet beautifully. ▪ a piano and flute duet duff /ˈdʌf/ noun, pl duffs [count] US, informal : the part of the body you sit on : BUTTOCKS ▪ Get off your duff [=butt, rear] and help me!

duf•fel bag or duf•fle bag /ˈdʌfəl-/ noun, pl ~ bags [count] : a large cloth bag that is held by a strap or handles and is used to carry personal belongings — see picture at BAG

duf•fer /ˈdʌfɚ/ noun, pl -fers [count] informal

1 chiefly US : a person who plays golf without much skill ▪ We joined the other duffers at the course. ▪ a weekend duffer

2 Brit : a clumsy or awkward person ▪ He's a lovable old duffer.

dug past tense and past participle of ¹DIG dug•out /ˈdʌgˌaʊt/ noun, pl -outs [count]

1 : a low shelter that faces a baseball field and contains the bench where the players and coaches of a team sit

2 : a shelter that is made by digging a hole in the ground or into the side of a hill

3 : a small boat that is made by cutting out the center of a large tree trunk — called also dugout canoe

duh /ˈdʌ, usually with a prolonged vowel/ interj, US, informal

1 — used in an angry or annoyed way to show that something just said is already known or is obvious ▪ "It sure is dark out." "Duh, it's the middle of the night." ▪ "You have to turn the key to start the car." "Well, duh." [=I know that]

2 — used to show or pretend that you do not know something ▪ "Why didn't you leave earlier?" "Duh, I don't know."

DUI /ˌdiːˌjuːˈaɪ/ noun, pl DUIs US : the crime of driving a vehicle while drunk [noncount] He was arrested for DUI. [count] She was in jail on a DUI. — often used before another noun ▪ a DUI arrest/conviction; also [count] : a person who is arrested for driving a vehicle while drunk ▪ He is a convicted DUI. — called also DWI ✧ DUI is an abbreviation of "driving under the influence."

du jour /duˈʒɚ/ adj, not used before a noun

1 : served in a restaurant as a special item on a particular day ▪ Our soup du jour is chicken noodle. ▪ the vegetable/dessert du jour

2 formal : happening or popular at a particular time ▪ Long hair was the style du jour. ▪ the crisis du jour ✧ Du jour is a French phrase that means "of the day."

¹duke /ˈduːk, Brit ˈdjuːk/ noun, pl dukes

1 [count] : a man of very high rank in the British nobility

2 [count] : the ruler of an independent area of land especially in some parts of Europe in the past — compare DUCHESS; see also ARCHDUKE

3 dukes [plural] US slang, old-fashioned : fists or hands ▪ Put up your dukes and fight, you coward!

²duke verb dukes; duked; duk•ing

duke it out US, informal : to fight with your fists ▪ A couple of drunks were duking it out. — often used figuratively ▪ Scientists duked it out [=argued] over the causes of global warming. ▪ Airlines are duking it out [=competing] for customers by lowering airfares.

duke•dom /ˈduːkdəm, Brit ˈdjuːkdəm/ noun, pl -doms [count]

1 : an area of land that is controlled by a duke or duchess : DUCHY

2 : the rank of a duke

dul•cet /ˈdʌlsət/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : pleasant to hear ▪ the dulcet [=melodious] sounds of the piano ▪ her dulcet [=sweet] voice ▪ the dulcet tones of her voice

dul•ci•mer /ˈdʌlsəmə/ noun, pl -mers [count]

1 : a flat musical instrument that has strings stretched across it and is played with two light hammers

2 : an instrument used in American folk music that has three or four strings, is held on the lap, and is played with the fingers, a pick, or a small stick

¹dull /ˈdʌl/ adj dull•er; -est

1 : not exciting or interesting : BORING ▪ a dull lecture/speaker ▪ There's never a dull moment in our house. [=our house is always very busy or exciting]

2 : having an edge or point that is not sharp ▪ a dull [=blunt] knife ▪ a dull pencil

3 of a sound : not clear and loud ▪ the dull roar of the crowd ▪ He heard a dull [=muffled] thud.

4 of pain : constant but not sharp or severe ▪ She complained of a dull ache/pain in her knee.

5 : not shiny ▪ The paint has a dull finish. ▪ The dog had no appetite and its eyes were dull.

6 : not sunny : having a lot of clouds ▪ a dull winter sky

7 : slightly grayish or dark : not bright ▪ a dull light ▪ The sky was a dull blue.

8 old-fashioned : stupid or slow in understanding something ▪ a dull student

9 : not having a lot of business or financial activity ▪ a dull [=slow, sluggish] market

(as) dull as dishwater see DISHWATER

(as) dull as ditchwater see DITCHWATER

– dull•ness noun [noncount] ▪ I couldn't get past the dullness of the book's topic. – dul•ly adv ▪ He sat staring dully into the distance.

²dull verb dulls; dulled; dull•ing : to become dull or to make (something) dull: such as a : to become or cause (something) to become less clear, distinct, bright, or shiny [+ obj] Fog dulled the morning sunlight. ▪ Special earplugs dulled the sound of the chain saw. [no obj] His hair dulled as he aged. ▪ The dog's eyes dulled as he got sick. b [+ obj] : to make (something, such as a feeling) less sharp, strong, or severe ▪ She takes medicine to dull the pain. ▪ Fear dulled his need for adventure. ▪ (formal) Her mind was dulled by the medication. c : to become or cause (something, such as a knife or blade) to become less sharp [+ obj] The knife was dulled from use. [no obj] The blade should be replaced as soon as it dulls.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 112 SESS: 47 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:28:44 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-d

dull•ard /'dʌlərd/ noun, pl -ards [count] old-fashioned : a stupid and uninteresting person ▪ The company is run by a bunch of dullards.

du•ly /'du:li, Brit 'dju:li/ adv, formal
1 : in the proper or expected way ▪ They were duly impressed by her speech. ▪ The objections were duly noted.
2 : at the correct or expected time ▪ The singer duly appeared back on stage for an encore.

[1]dumb /'dʌm/ adj dumb•er; -est
1 informal a : not showing or having good judgment or intelligence : stupid or foolish ▪ I'm not dumb enough to believe that. ▪ It was a dumb idea in the first place. ▪ He just stood there with a dumb grin on his face. ▪ This is one of the dumbest TV shows I've ever seen. ▪ She played/acted dumb [=pretended to know or understand less than she really did] so we would assign her the easier tasks. b : not requiring or resulting from intelligence ▪ It was dumb luck that we found this place at all. ▪ His success is just a matter of dumb luck.
2 a : not able to speak especially after being shocked or surprised ▪ I was struck dumb [=made speechless] by the surprise. — see also DUMBSTRUCK b old-fashioned + often offensive : not having the ability to speak ▪ He was born deaf and dumb.
– dumb•ly adv ▪ He stared dumbly at the test. – dumb•ness noun [noncount] informal ▪ The movie's dumbness [=stupidity] is actually pretty funny.

[2]dumb verb dumbs; dumbed; dumb•ing dumb down [phrasal verb] dumb down (something) or dumb (something) down usually disapproving 1 : to make (something) easier to understand ▪ She refused to dumb down the language in her report. ▪ The movie was a dumbed down version of the play. 2 : to make (a group of people) less intelligent or educated ▪ Cutting training programs will dumb down the American workforce.
– dumbing down noun [noncount] ▪ She thinks television is contributing to the dumbing down of America.

dumb•bell /'dʌmˌbɛl/ noun, pl -bells [count]
1 : a short bar with weights at the ends that is used to make muscles stronger — see picture at GYM
2 US, informal : a stupid or foolish person ▪ I feel like a dumbbell for making such a stupid mistake.

dumb•found•ed /ˌdʌm'faʊndəd/ adj [more ~; most ~] : very shocked or surprised ▪ We were dumbfounded at what we saw. ▪ I was dumbfounded to hear that she resigned.
– dumb•found /ˌdʌm'faʊnd/ verb -founds; -found•ed; -found•ing [+ obj] ▪ It dumbfounded me to hear that she had resigned.

dumb•struck /'dʌmˌstrʌk/ adj : so shocked or surprised that you cannot speak ▪ The people in the courtroom were dumbstruck by his confession.

dumb•wait•er /'dʌmˌweɪtɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a small elevator for carrying food or goods from one floor of a building to another

dum•dum /'dʌmˌdʌm/ noun, pl -dums [count] : a bullet that expands or explodes when it hits an object in order to cause greater damage — called also dumdum bullet

[1]dum•my /'dʌmi/ noun, pl dum•mies
1 [count] chiefly US, informal : a stupid person ▪ He's no dummy. [=fool] ▪ She loves you, you dummy.
2 [count] : a doll that is shaped like and is as large as a person ▪ a tailor's/dressmaker's dummy ▪ They practiced CPR on a dummy. ▪ a crash test dummy [=a life-size model of a person used in tests to see what happens to people when a car gets in an accident]
3 [count] : a copy of a finished object that is used during practice or training ▪ The bomb was just a dummy.
4 [count] : a large doll with a movable mouth that is used by a performer ▪ a ventriloquist's dummy
5 [noncount] : the set of cards in a game of bridge that are played faceup so everyone can see them
6 [count] Brit : PACIFIER

[2]dummy adj, always used before a noun : looking real but not functioning or able to be used ▪ They took apart a dummy bomb. ▪ a dummy corporation [=a corporation that is not real] ▪ a dummy pill [=placebo]

dummy run noun, pl ~ runs [count] Brit : DRY RUN

[1]dump /'dʌmp/ verb dumps; dumped; dump•ing [+ obj]
1 : to put (something) somewhere in a quick and careless way ▪ You can dump the coats on the bed. ▪ I dumped the coffee down the drain. ▪ The murderer dumped the body in the river. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ The blizzard dumped three feet of snow in one night.
2 : to leave or get rid of (something or someone) quickly or without concern ▪ They dumped [=left] their friends at the party and went home. ▪ The team's coach was dumped [=fired] after a season of losses. ▪ They had to dump [=quickly sell] most of their stock to pay off their debts.
3 informal : to end a romantic relationship with (someone) ▪ My girlfriend dumped me. ▪ I got dumped yesterday.
4 : to get rid of (waste or garbage) especially in a secret and illegal way ▪ The factory has been dumping waste into the river.
5 : to sell (goods) in foreign countries for less than what they would sell for in your own country ▪ The company dumped its unsold parts on the U.S. market.
6 computers : to copy or move (data) from a computer's memory to a disk, another computer, etc. ▪ Dump the file to a disk.
dump in your lap see [1]LAP
dump on [phrasal verb] informal 1 dump on (someone) US : to criticize (someone) severely ▪ I'm tired of getting dumped on every time I make a little mistake. 2 dump (something) on (someone) : to give (something) to (someone else) to do, deal with, or think about because you do not want to ▪ She dumped her chores on her little brother. ▪ I can't stand it when he dumps all his problems on me. ▪ I hate to dump this on you.

[2]dump noun, pl dumps [count]
1 : a place where waste (such as trash) is taken and left ▪ We bring our trash to the town dump on Saturdays. ▪ (US) a garbage dump ▪ The site has become a toxic (waste) dump. [=a place where dangerous waste is left usually illegally]
2 : a place where military supplies are stored ▪ an ammunition dump
3 informal : a messy, dirty, and unpleasant place ▪ I can't believe you live in this dump. [=pigsty] ▪ What a dump!
4 computers : an act of sending data stored in a computer to another place ▪ a screen dump to the printer down in the dumps informal : feeling very sad ▪ I guess I'm just down in the dumps.
take a dump informal + impolite : to pass solid waste from the body

dump•er /'dʌmpɚ/ noun, pl -ers chiefly US
1 [count] : a person who leaves waste where it is not supposed to be left ▪ The cops caught the illegal dumpers.
2 the dumper informal : a state of failure ▪ The economy is in the dumper. ▪ His career has gone down the dumper. [=his career has been ruined]

dumper truck noun, pl ~ trucks [count] Brit : DUMP TRUCK

dump•ing /'dʌmpɪŋ/ noun [noncount] : the act of getting rid of waste or garbage especially in an illegal way ▪ No dumping allowed. ▪ laws that prohibit the dumping of toxic materials dumping ground noun, pl ~ grounds [count] : a place where people or things that are not wanted are sent — often + for ▪ The class became a dumping ground for students with behavioral problems.

dump•ling /'dʌmplɪŋ/ noun, pl -lings [count]
1 : a small lump of dough that is boiled or steamed ▪ chicken and dumplings
2 : a piece of food that is wrapped in dough and cooked ▪ We had vegetarian/pork dumplings as an appetizer. ▪ an apple dumpling

Dump•ster /'dʌmpstɚ/ trademark — used for a large trash container dump truck noun, pl ~ trucks [count] US : a large truck usually with a container on the back of it that is used for carrying and unloading loose material — called also (Brit) dumper truck; see picture at TRUCK

dumpy /'dʌmpi/ adj dump•i•er; -est informal 1 : short and fat ▪ a dumpy guy in his forties
2 US : dirty and in bad condition ▪ dumpy hotel rooms

dunce /'dʌns/ noun, pl dunc•es [count] old-fashioned : someone who is stupid or slow at learning things ▪ Don't be a dunce. ▪ a dunce/dunce's cap [=a tall pointy hat worn in the past by students as a punishment for failing to learn their lessons]

dune /'du:n, Brit 'dju:n/ noun, pl dunes [count] : a hill of sand near an ocean or in a desert that is formed by the wind ▪ We wandered over the dunes. — called also sand dune; see color picture on page C7 dune buggy noun, pl ~ -gies [count] : a small vehicle with very large tires for driving on sand — called also beach buggy

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 113 SESS: 48 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:28:45 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-d

dung /ˈdʌŋ/ noun [noncount] : solid waste from an animal ▪ cow/cattle dung

dun•ga•rees /ˌdʌŋgəˈriːz/ noun [plural]
1 US, old-fashioned : pants or work clothes made of usually blue denim ▪ a new pair of dungarees [=(more commonly) jeans]
2 Brit : OVERALLS

dun•geon /ˈdʌnʤən/ noun, pl -geons [count] : a dark underground prison in a castle ▪ The king threw them in/into the dungeon.

D

[1]dunk /ˈdʌŋk/ verb dunks; dunked; dunk•ing
1 [+ obj] a : to dip (food) quickly into a liquid (such as coffee or milk) while eating ▪ I like to dunk my doughnut in my coffee. b chiefly US : to push (someone or something) under water or other liquid for a short amount of time ▪ She dunked him while they were swimming. ▪ He dunked the ladle into the soup.
2 basketball : to jump high in the air and push (the ball) down through the basket [+ obj] He dunked the ball. [no obj] He could dunk when he was 16.

[2]dunk noun, pl dunks [count] basketball : a shot that is made by jumping high in the air and pushing the ball down through the basket ▪ The pass led to a dunk. — called also dunk shot, slam dunk dun•no /dəˈnoʊ/ — used in writing to represent the sound of the phrase don't know or I don't know when it is spoken quickly ▪ "What do you want to do today?" "I dunno." ▪ "Where did he go?" "Dunno." ✧ The pronunciation represented by dunno is common in informal speech. The written form should be avoided except when you are trying to represent or record such speech.

duo /ˈduːwoʊ, Brit ˈdjuːwəʊ/ noun, pl du•os [count]
1 : two people who perform together, are usually seen together, or are associated with each other ▪ The comedy duo will perform tonight. ▪ The author-illustrator duo will be signing their books tomorrow. ▪ He and his partner make/form quite a duo.
2 : a piece of music that is performed by two musicians ▪ They sang a duo. [=(more commonly) duet]

du•o•de•num /ˌduːwəˈdiːnəm, Brit ˌdjuːwəˈdiːnəm/ noun, pl -de•na /-ˈdiːnə/ or -de•nums [count] medical : the part of the small intestine that is right below your stomach
– du•o•de•nal /ˌduːwəˈdiːnl, Brit ˌdjuːwəˈdiːnl/ adj ▪ duodenal ulcers

[1]dupe /ˈduːp, Brit ˈdjuːp/ verb dupes; duped; dup•ing [+ obj] : to deceive or trick (someone) into believing or doing something ▪ They duped her out of $300. — usually used as (be) duped ▪ He was duped into buying a phony watch. ▪ We were duped by the con artist.

[2]dupe noun, pl dupes [count] : a person who is easily deceived or tricked ▪ He was an unwitting dupe in the scheme.

du•plex /ˈduːˌplɛks, Brit ˈdjuːˌplɛks/ noun, pl -plex•es [count] US
1 : a building that is divided into two separate homes ▪ We live in the brick duplex.
2 : an apartment with two floors ▪ a duplex penthouse

[1]du•pli•cate /ˈduːplɪkət, Brit ˈdjuːplɪkət/ adj, always used before a noun : exactly the same as something else ▪ I began receiving duplicate copies of the magazine every month. : made as an exact copy of something else ▪ I had a duplicate key made. — compare TRIPLICATE

[2]du•pli•cate /ˈduːplɪˌkeɪt, Brit ˈdjuːplɪˌkeɪt/ verb -cates; -cat•ed; -cat•ing [+ obj]
1 : to make an exact copy of (something) ▪ She duplicated the video to give to family and friends. ▪ Unfortunately, the results of the first study could not be duplicated.
2 : to produce (something) in another form ▪ They tried to duplicate [=repeat] last year's performance. ▪ If we both do the project, we'll just be duplicating the work. [=doing the same work twice; doing more work than we need to]

[3]du•pli•cate /ˈduːplɪkət, Brit ˈdjuːplɪkət/ noun, pl -cates [count] : something that is exactly the same as something else : an exact copy of something else ▪ In case you lose your keys, keep a set of duplicates somewhere safe. — often + of ▪ He made duplicates of the forms before mailing them. ▪ an exact duplicate of the original in duplicate 1 : two times so that there are two copies ▪ We were required to fill out the paperwork in duplicate. 2 : with an exact copy ▪ Please send the contract in duplicate.

du•pli•ca•tion /ˌduːplɪˈkeɪʃən, Brit ˌdjuːplɪˈkeɪʃən/ noun
1 [noncount] : the act or process of copying something ▪ He sent the manuscript out for duplication.
2 : the state of containing copies of something or being a copy of something [noncount] Please eliminate duplication when combining the lists. [count] It was a needless duplication of work. [=they did the work twice though they did not need to]

du•plic•i•ty /duːˈplɪsəti, Brit djuːˈplɪsəti/ noun [noncount] formal : dishonest behavior that is meant to trick someone ▪ He exposed the spy's duplicity.
– du•plic•i•tous /duːˈplɪsətəs, Brit djuːˈplɪsətəs/ adj ▪ duplicitous [=deceptive] tactics du•ra•ble /ˈdurəbəl, Brit ˈdjʊrəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : staying strong and in good condition over a long period of time ▪ durable fabric — often used figuratively ▪ She is one of Hollywood's most durable stars. ▪ a durable athlete ▪ durable myths – du•ra•bil•i•ty /ˌdurəˈbɪləti, Brit ˌdjʊrəˈbɪləti/ noun [noncount] ▪ cars known for their durability – du•ra•bly /ˈdurəbli, Brit ˈdjʊrəbli/ adv ▪ durably built homes durable goods noun [plural] US : products (such as cars and stoves) that that usually last a very long time — called also (Brit) consumer durables du•ra•tion /duˈreɪʃən, Brit djuˈreɪʃən/ noun [noncount] : the length of time that something exists or lasts ▪ You should gradually increase the duration of your workout.

for the duration : until the end of something ▪ He was living in England when the war began and remained there for the duration. — often + of ▪ The camera remained on the President for the duration of his speech.

du•ress /duˈrɛs, Brit djuˈrɛs/ noun [noncount] formal : force or threats meant to make someone do something ▪ He gave the information under duress.

dur•ing /ˈdurɪŋ, Brit ˈdjʊrɪŋ/ prep
1 : throughout the entire time of (an event, period, occurrence, etc.) ▪ She swims every day during the summer. ▪ We got along well during the trip. ▪ He worked in the field during most of the day.
2 : at some time in the course of (something) ▪ You can call me during the day. [=at some time in the day] ▪ During the interview, they asked about my previous jobs. ▪ The fire alarm went off during the ceremony.

dusk /ˈdʌsk/ noun [noncount] : the time when day changes into night and the sky begins to get darker ▪ The park closes at dusk. — compare [1]DAWN

dusky /ˈdʌski/ adj dusk•i•er; -est : somewhat dark ▪ a dusky brown ▪ in the dusky firelight

[1]dust /ˈdʌst/ noun [noncount]
1 : fine dry powder that builds up inside buildings on surfaces that have not recently been cleaned ▪ The floor was covered with dust. ▪ You can see the dust particles floating through the air. ▪ There is not a speck of dust in that house. ✧ Something that is collecting/gathering dust is not being used. ▪ The book just sat on the shelf gathering dust.
2 : fine powder made up of very small pieces of earth or sand ▪ As the car sped down the dirt road, it left a cloud of dust behind. ▪ The wind kicked up dust. [=blew dust into the air]
3 : fine powder made from a particular substance ▪ coal/gold dust ▪ He wiped the chalk dust off his hands. — see also SAWDUST bite the dust see [1]BITE eat dust US, informal : to breathe the dust that has been raised into the air by the vehicle that is moving in front of you ▪ He said, "Eat my dust! " as he jumped in his car and drove away. — often used figuratively ▪ They've left other companies eating their dust. [=they have gone far ahead of other companies] leave (someone) in the dust US, informal : to go far ahead of (someone) : to be much more advanced than (someone) ▪ The company has left its competitors in the dust.
the dust settles — used to talk about what happens when things become clear or calm after a period of change or confusion ▪ I'll call you as soon as the dust settles from the move. [=as soon as I am not busy with moving] ▪ When the dust settled [=when the situation became less confusing] and the votes were recounted, she had won the election. ▪ You should let the dust settle before you make any big decisions.

[2]dust verb dusts; dust•ed; dust•ing
1 : to make (something) clean by brushing or wiping dirt and dust from the surface [+ obj] He dusted the furniture. — often + off or down ▪ She dusted the sand off her leg. ▪ (US) He stood up and dusted himself off. = (Brit) He stood up and

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 114 SESS: 54 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:28:45 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-d

dusted himself down. [=he brushed the dirt/dust off his clothes] [no obj] I dust at least once a week.

2 [+ obj] : to cover (something) with a fine powder ▪ Dust the pan with flour. ▪ The police dusted the table for fingerprints. [=they put a fine powder on the table so that any fingerprints could be seen] ▪ The crops will be dusted with pesticide.

dust off [phrasal verb] dust (something) off or dust off (something) : to use (something) again after not using it for a long time ▪ For his comeback tour, the comedian dusted off some of his old jokes. — see also ²DUST 1 (above)

dust•bin /ˈdʌstˌbɪn/ noun, pl -bins [count] Brit : a can for trash or garbage : a garbage can or trash can dust bowl noun, pl ~ bowls [count] : an area of land that was once used for farming but that has become a desert because of a lack of rain ▪ They left the dust bowl and moved west.

dust bunny noun, pl ~ -nies [count] US, informal : a ball of dust that forms in places that are not swept or dusted often ▪ I swept the dust bunnies from under the bed.

dust•cart /ˈdʌstˌkɑət/ noun, pl -carts [count] Brit : GARBAGE TRUCK dust cover noun, pl ~ -ers [count]

1 : DUST JACKET

2 : a piece of cloth, plastic, etc., that covers and protects something from dust dust devil noun, pl ~ -ils [count] chiefly US : a small area of rapidly spinning wind that contains sand or dust dust•er /ˈdʌstə/ noun, pl -ers [count]

1 : something that removes dust ▪ a feather duster [=a tool with feathers at one end used to remove dust]

2 US : a device that is used by farmers to spray chemicals (such as pesticides) over a large area ▪ a crop duster

3 US, somewhat old-fashioned : a long light coat ▪ He wore a tan duster.

dusting noun [singular]

1 : the act of making something clean by brushing or wiping away dirt and dust from the surface ▪ The table needs dusting. ▪ The shelves need a good dusting.

2 : a small amount of something that falls over a surface ▪ There was a light dusting of snow on the ground.

dust jacket noun, pl ~ -ets [count] : a paper cover that protects a book and can be removed ▪ The dust jacket was torn. — called also dust cover, jacket

dust•man /ˈdʌstmən/ noun, pl -men /-mən/ [count] Brit : GARBAGEMAN dust mite noun, pl ~ mites [count] : a very small creature that lives in the dust in your house and that can cause an allergic reaction dust•pan /ˈdʌstˌpæn/ noun, pl -pans [count] : a flat pan that is open on one side and into which dirt from the floor is swept ▪ Here's a broom and dustpan. Go sweep the kitchen.

dustpan

dust sheet noun, pl ~ sheets [count] Brit : a large piece of cloth that is used to protect furniture from dust, paint, etc. — compare DROP CLOTH dust storm noun, pl ~ storms [count] : a very strong wind that carries clouds of dust across a large area dust•up /ˈdʌstˌʌp/ noun, pl -ups [count] informal : a fight or loud argument ▪ He had a dustup with a guy in the bar.

dusty /ˈdʌsti/ adj dust•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]

1 : filled or covered with dust ▪ He pulled dusty candlesticks from the shelf. ▪ a dusty basement ▪ a dusty road/town

2 : slightly gray : somewhat dark or dull in color ▪ His new tie is a dusty blue.

¹Dutch /ˈdʌtʃ/ adj : of or relating to the Netherlands ▪ Dutch history ▪ Her family is Dutch. ▪ a Dutch woman

²Dutch noun

1 [noncount] : the language of the Netherlands ▪ He speaks Dutch fluently.

2 the Dutch : the people of the Netherlands ▪ He loves learning about the Dutch.

³Dutch adv

go Dutch : to go to a movie, restaurant, etc., as a group with each person paying for his or her own ticket, food, etc. ▪ We went Dutch on dinner. ▪ I'll go Dutch with you on the movie if you want.

Dutch courage noun [noncount] chiefly Brit, informal : courage or confidence that a person gets from drinking alcohol

Dutch door noun, pl ~ doors [count] US : a door that is divided into a top and bottom half that open and close separately

Dutch elm disease noun [noncount] : a disease that kills elm trees and that is caused by a fungus

Dutch•man /ˈdʌtʃmən/ noun, pl -men /-mən/ [count] : a Dutch man

Dutch oven noun, pl ~ -ens [count] US : a large covered pot

Dutch treat noun [noncount] chiefly US : something (such as a dinner or movie) for which each person pays his or her own share of the cost ▪ It was Dutch treat—we each bought our own ticket. ▪ a Dutch treat luncheon

du•ti•ful /ˈduːtɪfəl, Brit ˈdjuːtɪfəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : doing what is expected of you ▪ a dutiful servant/daughter/father ▪ the dutiful way he took care of his sick mother – du•ti•ful•ly /ˈduːtɪfli, Brit ˈdjuːtɪfli/ adv ▪ He dutifully answered my questions.

du•ty /ˈduːti, Brit ˈdjuːti/ noun, pl -ties

1 : something that is done as part of a job [count] His primary/main duty at the event is to take attendance. ▪ If new employees are unable to carry out their duties, they may be fired. ▪ She has a variety of adminsitrative duties. [noncount] Please report for duty [=show up for work] at 7 a.m. ▪ This year no firefighters/police were killed in the line of duty. [=while they were doing their jobs] ▪ In helping them, he went beyond the call of duty. [=did more than he was required or expected to do] synonyms see ¹TASK

2 : something that you must do because it is morally right or because the law requires it [count] We felt it was our duty to help. ▪ He has a duty to support his family. [noncount] They helped her out of a sense of duty. ▪ I'll be ready when duty calls. ▪ He was selected for jury duty. [=to serve on a jury]

3 [noncount] : active military service ▪ Her brother returned from duty overseas. ▪ a twelve-month tour of duty ▪ Many reserve troops were called into active duty.

4 : a tax on goods that are being brought into a country [count] All goods had a 15 percent (import) duty. ▪ customs duties [noncount] We had to pay duty on our souvenirs.

do duty as 1 : to do the work of (someone or something) ▪ He did (double) duty as the star and director of the film. 2 : to be used as (something) ▪ The backpack she uses at school also does duty as an overnight bag.

off duty : not working at a particular time ▪ I go off duty in two hours.

on duty : working at a particular time ▪ I can't take any personal calls while I'm on duty.

– see also HEAVY DUTY

duty–free /ˌduːtiˈfriː, Brit ˌdjuːtiˈfriː/ adj

1 : not taxed when taken into another country ▪ duty-free goods

2 : selling goods that will not be taxed when taken into another country ▪ I bought chocolate at the duty-free shop at the airport.

– duty–free adv ▪ A certain amount of liquor can be imported duty-free.

du•vet /duˈveɪ, ˈduːˌveɪ/ noun, pl -vets [count] chiefly Brit : COMFORTER

DVD /ˌdiːˌviːˈdiː/ noun, pl DVDs [count] : a computer disk that contains a large amount of information (such as a movie) ▪ a DVD player ▪ The movie just came out on DVD.; also : a movie that is recorded on a DVD ▪ Do you want to pick up a few DVDs for the weekend? ✧ DVD is an abbreviation of "digital video disc" or "digital versatile disc."

DVR /ˌdiːˌviːˈaə/ noun, pl DVRs [count] : a machine that is used to make and watch recordings of television programs ✧ DVR is an abbreviation of "digital video recorder."

¹dwarf /ˈdwoəf/ noun, pl dwarfs /ˈdwoəfs/ also dwarves /ˈdwoəvz/ [count]

1 in stories : a creature that looks like a small man and that often lives underground and has magical powers

2 sometimes offensive : a person who is much smaller than most people because of a medical condition

– see also WHITE DWARF

– dwarf•ish /ˈdwoəfɪʃ/ adj

²dwarf verb dwarfs; dwarfed; dwarf•ing [+ obj] : to make (something) look very small or unimportant when compared

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 115 SESS: 55 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:28:46 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-d

with something else — usually used as (be) dwarfed ▪ The bike was dwarfed by the truck next to it. [=the bike looked very small compared to the truck]

[3]dwarf adj, always used before a noun, of a plant or animal : smaller than normal size ▪ dwarf evergreens ▪ a dwarf porcupine dwarf•ism /ˈdwoəˌfɪzəm/ noun [noncount] medical : a condition that causes a person to stop growing before reaching normal adult size dweeb /ˈdwi:b/ noun, pl dweebs [count] US, informal : a person who behaves awkwardly around other people and usually has unstylish hair, clothes, etc. ▪ She's such a dweeb. – dweeby /ˈdwi:bi/ adj ▪ I was a dweeby kid.

dwell /ˈdwɛl/ verb dwells; dwelled /ˈdwɛld, ˈdwɛlt/ or dwelt /ˈdwɛlt/; dwell•ing [no obj] literary + formal : to live in a particular place ▪ a cave where bats dwell ▪ He dwelled [=lived] in the same town for years. ▪ In ancient Greek mythology, Mount Olympus was the dwelling place of the gods. [=the place where the gods lived] dwell on/upon [phrasal verb] dwell on/upon (something) : to think or talk about (something) for a long time ▪ There is no need to dwell on the past. ▪ Don't dwell upon your mistakes.

dwell•er /ˈdwɛlə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a person or animal that lives in a particular place ▪ a city dweller ▪ cave dwellers dwelling noun, pl -ings [count] formal : a place where a person lives ▪ cave dwellings ▪ Sales of single-family dwellings [=houses] are improving.

DWI /ˌdi:ˌdʌbəljuˈaɪ/ noun, pl DWIs [count, noncount] US : DUI ✧ DWI is an abbreviation of "driving while intoxicated."

dwin•dle /ˈdwɪndl/ verb dwin•dles; dwin•dled; dwin•dling [no obj] : to gradually become smaller ▪ Our energy dwindled as the meeting dragged on. ▪ The town's population is dwindling away. ▪ dwindling resources/numbers

[1]dye /ˈdaɪ/ noun, pl dyes [count, noncount] : a substance used for changing the color of something (such as hair or cloth) usually permanently ▪ purple dye ▪ hair dye

[2]dye verb dyes; dyed; dye•ing [+ obj] : to change the color of (something, such as hair or cloth) by using a dye ▪ She had been dyeing her hair for years. ▪ The fabric is bleached, dyed, and then washed. ▪ dyed hair — see also TIE-DYEING dyed–in–the–wool /ˌdaɪdnðəˈwʊl/ adj, always used before a noun, often disapproving : having very strong beliefs, opinions, etc., that you are not willing to change ▪ He is known as a dyed-in-the-wool conservative.

[1]dying present participle of [1]DIE

[2]dy•ing /ˈdaɪŋ/ adj, always used before a noun : happening as someone dies : relating to someone's death ▪ It was her dying wish [=her last wish] to see them married. ▪ I will remember his words until my dying day. [=until I die]

[1]dyke chiefly Brit spelling of DIKE

[2]dyke /ˈdaɪk/ noun, pl dykes [count] informal + offensive : LESBIAN

[1]dy•nam•ic /daɪˈnæmɪk/ adj

1 [more ~; most ~] a : always active or changing ▪ a dynamic city ▪ a dynamic relationship b : having or showing a lot of energy ▪ a dynamic [=enthusiastic] speaker ▪ an exciting and dynamic performance

2 technical : of or relating to energy, motion, or physical force ▪ the dynamic theory of heat ▪ dynamic and potential energy

– dy•nam•i•cal•ly /daɪˈnæmɪkli/ adv ▪ The camera moves dynamically around the actors.

[2]dynamic noun, pl -ics

1 : the way that two or more people behave with each other because of a particular situation [singular] the dynamic between a doctor and a patient ▪ the teacher-student dynamic [plural] Group dynamics are important to consider. ▪ The dynamics of this class are different from those of other classes.

2 [count] : something that causes change or growth in something else ▪ Disease was a central dynamic in the decrease in population. ▪ a study on famine and population dynamics

3 dynamics [noncount] technical : the science that studies motion and the forces that cause or stop motion ▪ molecular/fluid dynamics

4 dynamics [plural] music : changes in how loudly a piece of music is played or sung ▪ Dynamics greatly affect the impact of the music.

dy•na•mism /ˈdaɪnəˌmɪzəm/ noun [noncount] somewhat formal : energy and a strong desire to make something happen ▪ He has the dynamism of a natural leader.

[1]dy•na•mite /ˈdaɪnəˌmaɪt/ noun [noncount]

1 : a powerful explosive that is often used in the form of a stick ▪ a stick of dynamite

2 : someone or something that may cause arguments or trouble ▪ The death penalty is political dynamite.

[2]dynamite verb -mites; -mit•ed; -mit•ing [+ obj] : to blow up (something) using dynamite ▪ They plan to dynamite the old building.

[3]dynamite adj, informal : exciting and very impressive or pleasing ▪ Her new album is dynamite! [=terrific, wonderful] ▪ They put on a dynamite performance.

dy•na•mo /ˈdaɪnəˌmoʊ/ noun, pl -mos [count]

1 : a machine that produces electricity : GENERATOR

2 informal : someone who has a lot of energy ▪ He's a dynamo on-screen. ▪ a human dynamo

dy•nas•ty /ˈdaɪnəsti, Brit ˈdɪnəsti/ noun, pl -ties [count]

1 : a family of rulers who rule over a country for a long period of time ▪ a dynasty that ruled China for nearly 300 years; also : the period of time when a particular dynasty is in power ▪ There was a civil war during the dynasty.

2 : a family, team, etc., that is very powerful or successful for a long period of time ▪ She was born into a powerful political dynasty. ▪ a baseball dynasty

– dy•nas•tic /daɪˈnæstɪk, Brit dɪˈnæstɪk/ adj, always used before a noun ▪ dynastic succession

dys•en•tery /ˈdɪsnˌteri, Brit ˈdɪsntri/ noun [noncount] medical : a serious disease that causes severe diarrhea and a loss of blood

dys•func•tion /dɪsˈfʌŋkʃən/ noun, pl -tions

1 [noncount] : the condition of having poor and unhealthy behaviors and attitudes within a group of people ▪ family dysfunction

2 medical : the state of being unable to function in a normal way [noncount] treatment for erectile/sexual dysfunction [count] The disease causes gastrointestinal dysfunctions.

– dys•func•tion•al /dɪsˈfʌŋkʃənl/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ He hated spending holidays with his girlfriend's dysfunctional family. ▪ a dysfunctional kidney

dys•lex•ia /dɪsˈlɛksijə/ noun [noncount] medical : a condition in the brain that makes it hard for a person to read, write, and spell

– dys•lex•ic /dɪsˈlɛksɪk/ adj ▪ a dyslexic child – dyslexic noun, pl -ics [count] ▪ a dyslexic [=a person with dyslexia] who overcame early problems with reading dys•pep•sia /dɪsˈpɛpʃə, dɪsˈpɛpsijə/ noun [noncount] medical : pain in the area of your stomach caused by a difficulty in digesting food : INDIGESTION ▪ He is suffering from dyspepsia.

dys•pep•tic /dɪsˈpɛptɪk/ adj

1 : suffering from pain caused by digestive problems ▪ dyspeptic patients

2 formal + old-fashioned : having a bad temper ▪ a dyspeptic old man

dys•to•pia /dɪsˈtoʊpijə/ noun, pl -pias [count] : an imaginary place where people are unhappy and usually afraid because they are not treated fairly — compare UTOPIA

– dys•to•pi•an /dɪsˈtoʊpijən/ adj ▪ a dystopian society

dystrophy see MUSCULAR DYSTROPHY

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 1 SESS: 19 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:32:02 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−e

E

e or E /ˈi:/ noun, pl e's or es or E's or Es
1 : the fifth letter of the English alphabet [count] a word that begins with an e [noncount] a word that begins with e
2 : the musical note or key referred to by the letter E : the third tone of a C-major scale [count] play/sing an E [noncount] a song in the key of E
an E for effort see EFFORT

E abbr east, eastern

e- combining form : electronic : Internet : online ▪ e-mail ▪ e-commerce [=commerce on the Internet] ▪ e-retailing

[1]each /ˈi:ʧ/ adj : every one of two or more people or things considered separately ▪ A rope was tied to each end of the boat. ▪ Each student had a different explanation. ▪ Each student has done his best. = Each student has done his or her best. = (informal) Each student has done their best. ▪ Each one of them has done his/her best. = (informal) Each one of them has done their best. ▪ Each one of us took a turn. [=we each took a turn] ▪ Each one of them costs 50 cents. [=they each cost 50 cents] each and every — used as a more forceful way of saying each ▪ I want to thank each and every person who has contributed to this project.

[2]each pronoun : each one ▪ Each of us took a turn. = We each took a turn. ▪ Each (of them) costs 50 cents. ▪ They each have done their best. = They have each done their best. ▪ He took shot after shot, each missing by inches.
to each his own or each to his own — used to say that other people are free to like different things than you do ▪ I don't care for football, but to each his own.

[3]each adv : to or for each : APIECE ▪ They cost 50 cents each. ▪ We were allowed two tries each.

each other pronoun : each of two or more people, animals, etc., who are doing something together or in relationship to the other or others in the group ▪ My brother and I looked at each other. [=we looked at one another; he looked at me and I looked at him] ▪ The twins can wear each other's clothes. [=each one can wear the other's clothes] made for each other see [2]MADE ea•ger /ˈi:gɚ/ adj [more ~; most ~] : very excited and interested ▪ an eager student ▪ eager enthusiasm/anticipation : feeling a strong and impatient desire to do something or for something ▪ She was eager to get started. ▪ They were eager to hear the latest news. = They were eager for the latest news. ▪ The crowd was eager for more.

– ea•ger•ly adv ▪ The news was eagerly awaited. ▪ His offer was eagerly [=enthusiastically] accepted. – ea•ger•ness noun [noncount] ▪ In their eagerness to leave they forgot to lock the door.

eager beaver noun, pl ~ -vers [count] informal : a person who is very enthusiastic about doing something : a hard-working and eager person ▪ When she first started working she was a real eager beaver.

[1]ea•gle /ˈi:gəl/ noun, pl ea•gles
1 [count] : a large bird that has very good eyesight and that kills other birds and animals for food — see color picture on page C9
2 golf : a golf score of two strokes less than par on a hole [count] She made/scored an eagle on the fourth hole. [noncount] She made eagle on the fourth hole. — compare BIRDIE, BOGEY

[2]eagle verb eagles; ea•gled; ea•gling [+ obj] : to score an eagle on (a hole in golf) ▪ She eagled the fourth hole.

eagle eye noun
1 eagle eyes [plural] : eyes that watch or look carefully and see or notice many things ▪ watching with eagle eyes ▪ students working under the eagle eyes of the teacher
2 [count] : an unusually good ability to see or notice things ▪ an editor with an eagle eye ▪ an editor with eagle eyes
3 [singular] : close watch ▪ The guard kept an eagle eye on the prisoner. [=the guard watched the prisoner very closely]
– ea•gle–eyed /ˈi:gəlˌaɪd/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ an eagle-eyed [=sharp-eyed] proofreader

Eagle Scout noun, pl ~ Scouts [count] : a Boy Scout who has reached the highest level of achievement in scouting ea•glet /ˈi:glət/ noun, pl -glets [count] : a young eagle

-ean see [1]-AN

[1]ear /ˈiɚ/ noun, pl ears
1 [count] : the part of the body that you hear with ▪ He was whispering something in her ear. ▪ a dog with floppy ears ▪ pierced ears [=ears with earlobes that have been pierced for wearing earrings] — see picture at FACE
2 [singular] a : an ability to understand and appreciate something heard ▪ He has a good ear for music/languages. b — used to describe the way something sounds to you ▪ It sounds a little old-fashioned to my ear. [=it sounds old-fashioned to me]
3 [count] : attention that is shown or given by listening to what someone says ▪ Thanks for your ear. [=thanks for listening] ▪ When I told my story, my brother listened with only half an ear. [=did not listen closely] ✧ To lend an ear or, in literary language, to lend someone your ears is to listen to what someone has to say. ▪ She's always willing to lend a sympathetic ear. ▪ "Friends, Romans, countrymen, lend me your ears." —Shakespeare, Julius Caesar (1599) all ears informal — used to say that someone is listening very closely ▪ As I told the story, my daughter was all ears.
a word in someone's ear see [1]WORD bend someone's ear see [1]BEND box someone's ears see [3]BOX can't believe your ears see BELIEVE cock an/your ear see [2]COCK ears are burning ✧ If your ears are burning or you feel your ears burning, you have the feeling that other people are talking about you. ▪ (humorous) "We were talking about you last night." "That explains why I felt my ears burning."
ears pop see [1]POP fall on deaf ears : to fail to be heard : to be ignored ▪ Her pleas for mercy fell on deaf ears.
grin/smile from ear to ear : to smile widely : to have a big smile on your face ▪ He was grinning from ear to ear.
have someone's ear ✧ If you have someone's ear you can talk and give advice to that person because you are trusted. ▪ an adviser who has the President's ear in one ear and out the other : through someone's mind without being remembered or noticed ▪ Everything you say to him goes in one ear and out the other. [=he doesn't listen to or remember what you say] out on your ear informal : forced out : thrown out ▪ If you're late to work again, you'll be out on your ear! [=you'll be fired] play by ear 1 ✧ To play a song or a piece of music by ear is to play it after hearing it without looking at written music. ▪ He could play any tune by ear after hearing it only once. 2 ✧ To play it by ear is to do something without special preparation. ▪ I don't know how they'll react to our proposal, so we'll just have to play it by ear [=improvise, (informal) wing it] and hope for the best.
set (something) on its ear informal : to cause something to be in a state of great excitement or shock ▪ She set the racing world on its ear [=she surprised and shocked the racing world] by winning several major races. ▪ His early recordings set the jazz world on its ear. [=his recordings caused a sensation in the jazz world]
talk someone's ear off see [1]TALK turn a deaf ear : to refuse to listen to what someone says ▪ The company president turned a deaf ear to my proposals.
up to your ears : deeply involved in something ▪ They are up to their ears in debt. [=they are deeply in debt] ▪ We're up to our ears in work. [=we are very busy] wet behind the ears see [1]WET
– compare [2]EAR
– eared /ˈiɚd/ adj ▪ a long-eared dog – ear•less /ˈiɚləs/ adj

[2]ear noun, pl ears [count] : the part of a corn plant on which the seeds grow ▪ an ear of corn — compare [1]EAR ear•ache /iɚˌeɪk/ noun, pl -aches : an ache or pain in the ear [count] He has/gets frequent earaches. [noncount] (chiefly Brit) ▪ He has/gets frequent earache.

ear canal noun, pl ~ -nals [count] : the tube that leads into the ear ear candy noun [noncount] US, informal : music that is

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 2 SESS: 21 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:32:03 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−e

pleasing to listen to but is not serious or interesting ear•drum /ˈiəˌdrʌm/ noun, pl -drums [count] : a thin, tightly stretched piece of tissue in the ear that vibrates when sound waves hit it ear•ful /iəˌfʊl/ noun [singular] informal : a lot of angry talk ▪ I got an earful about what a bad job I had done. ▪ He gave me an earful.

earl /ˈərl/ noun, pl earls [count] : a high-ranking member of the British nobility earliest noun

at the earliest — used to indicate the earliest possible time when something will happen or be done ▪ The job will not be finished until next year at the (very) earliest. [=it will not be finished before next year] — compare LATEST ear•lobe /ˈiəˌloʊb/ noun, pl -lobes [count] : the soft part of the ear that hangs down from the bottom — see picture at FACE

[1]ear•ly /ˈərli/ adv ear•li•er; -est

1 : at or near the beginning of a period of time or a process, activity, series, etc. ▪ Early in his career he moved to the city. ▪ a word first recorded early in the 17th century ▪ They were trailing by a touchdown early in the fourth quarter. ▪ We learned early [=early on] not to question his decisions. ▪ The package should be arriving early next week. — opposite LATE

2 : before the usual or expected time ▪ She arrived early to help with the preparations. ▪ I got up early to finish packing. ▪ I got up bright and early. [=very early] — opposite LATE early on : at or during an early point or stage ▪ The reasons were obvious early on [=early] in the experiment. ✧ Early on originated in British English. Some American writers have objected to it, but it is now very common in the U.S. Note that unlike early, early on can appear at the beginning of a sentence. ▪ Early on, the project was in trouble.

[2]early adj earlier; -est

1 a : existing or happening near the beginning of a period of time ▪ early morning ▪ the early 20th century ▪ He is in his early thirties. [=he is about 31 or 32 years old] ▪ She works the early shift. [=the shift that is in the early part of the day] ▪ It was still early (in the morning) when she got out of bed. — opposite LATE b always used before a noun : happening near the beginning of a process, activity, series, etc. ▪ the early symptoms of the disease ▪ the composer's early works [=works created at the beginning of the composer's career] ▪ The early part of the book is better than the later part.

2 a : coming or happening before the usual or expected time ▪ We had an early spring this year. ▪ an early bedtime ▪ We're early. The show doesn't start for half an hour. — opposite LATE b : doing something before the usual time or before others usually do ▪ I've always been an early riser. ▪ My daughter was an early reader. [=she learned to read at a young age] ✧ The expression the early bird catches/gets the worm means that people who start or arrive before others are more likely to succeed. — opposite LATE early days (yet) Brit — used to say that it is too soon to know how something will turn out ▪ Things haven't gone well so far, but it's early days yet.

early hours see HOUR

get/make an early start : to get started on a journey, activity, etc., early in the day ▪ We want to make an early start tomorrow.

make an early night of it : to go home or go to bed early ▪ They decided to make an early night of it.

[1]ear•mark /ˈiəˌmɑək/ noun, pl -marks [count] : a mark or quality that shows what something is or what it could be ▪ The business plan had (all) the earmarks of success. [=it seemed likely to succeed] — compare HALLMARK

[2]earmark verb -marks; -marked; -mark•ing [+ obj]

1 : to say that something will be used or treated in a specified way — often used as (be) earmarked ▪ The old building has been earmarked for demolition.

2 : to put (money) aside for a special purpose ▪ The project uses funds that had been earmarked for education.

ear•muff /ˈiəˌmʌf/ noun, pl -muffs [count] : either one of a pair of pads that cover the ears to keep them warm and that are connected by a flexible band ▪ wearing a pair of earmuffs

earn /ˈərn/ verb earns; earned; earn•ing [+ obj]

1 : to get (money, a salary, etc.) for work that you have done ▪ She earns a good salary. ▪ I need to earn some money. ▪ He will do anything to earn his keep. [=to earn what is needed to support himself] ▪ She's just trying to earn a living. [=to earn the money needed for food, clothing, etc.]

2 a : to deserve or get (something) because of something you have done ▪ He earned a promotion through hard work. ▪ The team has earned [=gained] a reputation for poor sportsmanship. ▪ She needs to earn [=gain, win] their trust/respect. b : to make (someone) worthy or deserving of (something) ▪ His hard work earned [=gained] him a promotion. ▪ Her honesty earned [=gained, won] her their trust/respect.

earn a/your crust see CRUST earn your spurs see [1]SPUR earn your stripes see [1]STRIPE

– earn•er noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ high earners on Wall Street

[1]ear•nest /ˈənəst/ adj [more ~; most ~] : serious and sincere : not lighthearted or playful ▪ an earnest plea for help ▪ an earnest young journalist – ear•nest•ly adv ▪ speaking earnestly – ear•nest•ness /ˈənəstnəs/ noun [noncount]

[2]earnest noun

in earnest 1 : in an earnest or serious way ▪ The search began in earnest when the police arrived. ▪ It began to rain in earnest [=heavily] in the evening. ▪ It's hard to tell if he's making this proposal in earnest. 2 : not fooling : serious and sincere ▪ We thought he was joking at first, but then we realized that he was in earnest. [=he was being serious] — compare for real at [1]REAL earn•ings /ˈənɪŋz/ noun [plural] : money received as wages or gained as profit ▪ corporate earnings ear•phone /ˈiəˌfoʊn/ noun, pl -phones [count] : a device that is worn over or inserted into the ear and is used for listening to something (such as music or a radio) without having other people hear it ear•piece /ˈiəˌpiːs/ noun, pl -piec•es [count]

1 : a part of a device that is placed in the ear for listening to something ▪ the earpiece of a stethoscope

2 : either one of the two pieces that support eyeglasses by resting on the ears ear•plug /ˈiəˌplʌg/ noun, pl -plugs [count] : a piece of soft material that you put in your ear to keep out water, noise, etc.

ear•ring /ˈirɪŋ/ noun, pl -rings [count] : a piece of jewelry that is worn on the ear and especially on the earlobe — see color picture on page C11 ear•shot /ˈiəˌʃɑːt/ noun [noncount] : the distance within which someone's voice can be heard ▪ They were within earshot of each other. ▪ We waited until he was out of earshot [=until he could no longer hear us] before speaking again.

ear•split•ting /ˈiəˌsplɪtɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~] of a sound : extremely loud or harsh ▪ The train's whistle made an earsplitting noise.

[1]earth /ˈərθ/ noun

1 or Earth [singular] : the planet on which we live ▪ (The) Earth is the third planet from the sun. ▪ life on earth ▪ the planet Earth ▪ Many species are in danger of vanishing from (the face of) the earth.

2 [noncount] : land as opposed to the sea, the air, etc. ▪ The moisture will eventually fall to earth in the form of rain or snow. ▪ We could feel the earth shake.

3 [noncount] : the material in which plants grow : SOIL ▪ a mound of earth

4 [count] Brit : [1]GROUND 10

5 [singular] chiefly Brit, informal : a large amount of money ▪ furniture that looks good and that doesn't cost the earth ▪ pay the earth

(a) heaven on earth see HEAVEN

move heaven and earth see [1]MOVE on earth 1 : in the world ▪ It's the tallest building on earth. ▪ She said she wouldn't marry him if he were the last man on earth. ▪ He says that nothing on earth will change his mind. 2 — used to make a question more forceful ▪ Why on earth [=in the world, ever] did you do that? ▪ What on earth is he talking about? ▪ Where on earth are my keys?

promise someone the earth see [2]PROMISE

the ends of the earth see [1]END

the salt of the earth see [1]SALT

[2]earth verb earths; earthed; earth•ing [+ obj] Brit : [2]GROUND 5 ▪ The appliance is dangerous unless properly earthed. [=(US) grounded]

earth•bound /ˈərθˌbaʊnd/ adj

1 : located on the surface of the earth : not able to fly or to go to outer space ▪ earthbound astronomers

2 : not having or showing imagination ▪ a dull and earthbound mind

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 3 SESS: 57 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:32:03 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−e

earth•en /ˈəθən/ adj, always used before a noun : made of earth or of baked clay ▪ an earthen dam ▪ earthen [=earthenware] dishes earth•en•ware /ˈəθənˌweə/ noun [noncount] : a heavy substance that is made by baking clay and that is usually covered with another substance (called a glaze) before it is baked so that it will not absorb water ▪ The dish is made of/from earthenware. ▪ earthenware pottery earth•ling /ˈəθlɪŋ/ noun, pl -lings [count] : a human being living on Earth ✧ Earthling is usually used in stories and movies that involve creatures from outer space.

earth•ly /ˈəθli/ adj, always used before a noun
1 : having to do with life on the Earth ▪ earthly joys/delights/pleasures ▪ our earthly existence — compare EARTHY
2 : imaginable or possible — used to make a question or a negative statement more forceful ▪ What earthly [=possible, conceivable] good could it do him? ▪ There is no earthly reason [=there is no reason on earth; there is no reason at all] for feeling that way.

earth mother noun, pl ∼ -thers [count] : a woman who takes care of other people and has qualities that are associated with being a mother in a traditional culture where people live in a simple and natural way earth•quake /ˈəθˌkweɪk/ noun, pl -quakes : a shaking of a part of the earth's surface that often causes great damage [count] a devastating earthquake [noncount] a building destroyed by earthquake — called also quake

earth•shak•ing /ˈəθˌʃeɪkɪŋ/ adj [more ∼; most ∼] : very important ▪ an earthshaking [=momentous] decision/event earth•shat•ter•ing /ˈəθˈʃætərɪŋ/ adj [more ∼; most ∼] : very important : EARTHSHAKING ▪ There haven't been any earthshattering developments lately.

earth tone noun, pl ∼ tones [count] chiefly US : a color that contains some brown ▪ She wears a lot of earth tones.
– earth–toned adj

earth•work /ˈəθˌwək/ noun, pl -works [count] : a raised bank or wall made of soil — usually plural ▪ prehistoric earthworks

earth•worm /ˈəθˌwəm/ noun, pl -worms [count] : a long worm that lives in damp soil earthy /ˈəθi/ adj earth•i•er; -est

1 : suggesting earth or soil in texture, odor, color, etc. ▪ earthy aromas ▪ a blend of earthy colors ▪ The wine had an earthy flavor. — compare EARTHLY
2 [more ∼; most ∼] a : practical and straightforward : open and direct ▪ Critics were impressed by the movie's earthy realism. ▪ an earthy [=down-to-earth] person b chiefly US : plain and simple in style ▪ food made with simple, earthy ingredients c : not polite : somewhat rude or crude ▪ earthy humor – earth•i•ness noun [noncount] ▪ the earthiness of the ingredients/humor ear•wax /ˈɪəˌwæks/ noun [noncount] : a waxlike substance produced inside the ear ear•wig /ˈɪəˌwɪg/ noun, pl -wigs [count] : an insect that has long, thin feelers and two curved, pointed parts at the end of the body — see color picture on page C10

[1]ease /ˈiːz/ noun [noncount]
1 : freedom from pain or trouble : comfort of body or mind ▪ a life of ease
2 : lack of difficulty ▪ The program is known for its ease of use. [=it is easy to use] ▪ I was able to do it with (surprising) ease. [=easily] ▪ These features can be modified with the greatest of ease. [=very easily]
3 : a relaxed and informal way of behaving ▪ He delighted people with his charm and ease of manner. [=his relaxed and easy manner] at ease 1 also at your ease : in a relaxed and comfortable state ▪ Her relaxed manner at the meeting put/set everyone at (their) ease. ▪ They no longer felt at ease [=comfortable] with each other. ▪ You can set/put your mind at ease. [=you can relax and stop worrying] — see also ILL AT EASE 2 : standing silently with the feet apart and one or both hands behind the body ▪ The troops stood at ease. — often used as a military command ▪ At ease! compare at attention at ATTENTION take your ease : to rest or relax ▪ I found him taking his ease on the front porch.

[2]ease verb eas•es; eased; eas•ing
1 [+ obj] : to free (someone or something) from trouble or worry ▪ trying to ease my troubled mind
2 [+ obj] : to make (something) less painful ▪ We were unable to ease [=alleviate] their suffering.
3 a [+ obj] : to make (tension, a problem, etc.) less severe or troubling ▪ The diplomats failed to ease tensions between the two nations. ▪ Authorities are looking for ways to ease prison overcrowding. ▪ The government is expected to ease travel restrictions. b [no obj] : to become less severe or troubling ▪ Tensions have eased [=moderated] in recent weeks.
4 always followed by an adverb or preposition a [+ obj] : to move (someone or something) gently or carefully ▪ He eased the car into the parking space. ▪ She eased herself into the driver's seat. ▪ They eased the heavy block into position. b [no obj] : to move or pass slowly or easily ▪ The car eased out into traffic. ▪ She wants to ease into her new job slowly.
ease off or ease up [phrasal verb] : to become less severe ▪ The slope gradually eased off. ▪ The pressure should ease up soon.
ease up on [phrasal verb] 1 a ease up on (someone) : to treat (someone) in a less harsh or demanding way ▪ The students might respond better if the teacher eased up on them a little. b ease up on (something) : to apply less pressure to (something) ▪ ease up on the accelerator 2 ease up on (something) : to do or use less of (something) ▪ My doctor told me I should ease up on fatty foods.

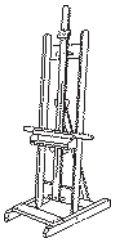
ea•sel /ˈiːzəl/ noun, pl -sels [count] : a frame for supporting an artist's painting



easel

eas•i•ly /ˈiːzəli/ adv
1 [more ∼; most ∼] : in an easy manner : without difficulty ▪ We won the game easily. [=with ease] ▪ These ingredients are easily obtained. ▪ I'm too heavy to be carried easily.
2 : by a great extent or degree : by far ▪ She's easily the best player on the team. [=she is much better than the other players]
breathe easily see BREATHE

[1]east /ˈiːst/ noun
1 [noncount] : the direction where the sun rises : the direction that is the opposite of west ▪ The city is framed by mountain ranges to the east and west. ▪ The wind blew from the east. ▪ Which way is east?
2 the east or the East : regions or countries east of a certain point: such as a : the eastern part of the U.S. ▪ This summer has been unusually hot in the East. b : the countries of Asia (such as Japan, China, and Korea) — see also FAR EAST, MIDDLE EAST

[2]east adj, always used before a noun
1 : lying toward or at the east ▪ the east side of town
2 : coming from the east ▪ an east wind

[3]east adv : to or toward the east ▪ The ships sailed east. [=easterly, eastward] back East or back east US, informal : in or toward the eastern part of a country or region ▪ She attended college back East.

east•bound /ˈiːstˌbaʊnd/ adj : going toward the east ▪ an eastbound train

Eas•ter /ˈiːstə/ noun, pl -ters [count, noncount] : a Christian church festival that celebrates the return of Jesus Christ to life following his death; also : the Sunday in early spring on which this festival is observed — often used before another noun ▪ Easter Sunday ▪ an Easter egg [=an egg that is specially decorated at Easter] ▪ an Easter basket [=a basket of candy, toys, etc., that is given to children at Easter]

Easter lily noun, pl ∼ lilies [count] : a white garden flower that blooms in spring east•er•ly /ˈiːstəli/ adj [more ∼; most ∼]

1 : located or moving toward the east ▪ They sailed in an easterly direction.
2 : blowing from the east ▪ an easterly wind

east•ern /ˈiːstən/ adj
1 [more ∼; most ∼] : located toward the east ▪ They live in the eastern part of the state. ▪ the eastern shore of the river ▪ Eastern Europe
2 Eastern : of or relating to the countries of Asia : ASIAN ▪ Eastern philosophy
– east•ern•most /ˈiːstənˌmoʊst/ adj

East•ern•er /ˈiːstənə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a person born or living in the East; especially : a person born or living in the eastern U.S. — compare WESTERNER east•ward /ˈiːstwəd/ also chiefly Brit east•wards /ˈiːstwədz/ adv [more ∼; most ∼] : toward the east ▪ We sailed eastward. [=east]

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 4 SESS: 24 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:32:04 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−e

E

– eastward adj ▪ an eastward course

[1]easy /'i:zi/ adj eas•i•er; -est
1 : not hard to do : not difficult ▪ an easy lesson ▪ It's surprisingly easy to use. ▪ It was an easy decision to make. ▪ They scored an easy goal late in the game. ▪ It wasn't easy for her to leave home. ▪ He's an easy person (for other people) to like. = It's easy (for other people) to like him. ▪ There are no easy solutions to this problem. ▪ He likes to keep a dictionary within easy reach [=nearby] when he's writing.
2 a : free from pain, trouble, or worry ▪ He's had an easy life. ▪ This new schedule should make our lives easier. ▪ I hope this will make things easier for you. ▪ I won't feel easy until I know that she arrived safely. ▪ an easy mind b : not hurried ▪ We proceeded at an easy [=leisurely] pace. c : not requiring much strength or energy ▪ easy, gentle movements
3 a : not harsh or severe in punishing or criticizing someone ▪ I think they're being too easy on him. [=they're not criticizing/punishing him harshly enough] b : not hard to please ▪ an easy [=lenient] teacher ✧ The informal phrase I'm easy is used as a way of saying that you are easy to please and will accept what someone else decides. ▪ "Should we stay at home or go out?" "Whatever you like: I'm easy."
4 : not steep ▪ easy slopes
5 informal : not hard to get ▪ easy money ▪ easy pickings [=things that are easy to get]
6 : relaxed and informal ▪ He has an easy [=easygoing] manner. ▪ an easy smile — see also free and easy at [1]FREE
7 — used to describe someone or something that is easy to attack, trick, criticize, etc. ▪ His lack of experience makes him an easy target for his political enemies. ▪ insects that are easy prey for many birds ▪ (US) He's an easy mark for anyone needing a loan.
8 informal : lightly pleasant and enjoyable ▪ music for easy listening
9 informal + old-fashioned : not sexually respectable ▪ an easy woman [=a woman who has sex with many men] ▪ easy morals ▪ a woman of easy virtue
(as) easy as ABC or (as) easy as pie or (as) easy as falling off a log informal : very easy ▪ Getting the permit turned out to be as easy as pie.
easy on the eye or US easy on the eyes informal : easy or pleasant to look at ▪ The monitor's display is easy on the eyes. ▪ She's very easy on the eyes. [=pretty, good-looking] over easy see [3]OVER
– eas•i•ness noun [noncount]

[2]easy adv easier; -est : without difficulty or stress ▪ He just wants to take life easy now. ▪ The repairs will cost $100, easy. [=the repairs will cost at least $100] ▪ "We just need to raise the money." "That's easier said than done." [=that will not be easy to do] ▪ Success hasn't come easy for her. [=success has not been easy to achieve] breathe easy see BREATHE easy come, easy go informal — used to say that you are not bothered about losing something ▪ His attitude toward money has always been, easy come, easy go.
easy does it informal — used to tell someone to move slowly and carefully ▪ Easy does it! We don't want anyone to get hurt.
go easy informal 1 go easy on (someone) : to treat (someone) in a way that is not harsh or demanding ▪ The students might respond better if the teacher went (a little) easy on them. 2 go easy on/with (something) : to use less of (something) ▪ My doctor said to go easy on fatty foods.
nice and easy see NICE rest easy see [3]REST
take it easy informal 1 : to relax and avoid hard work or strain ▪ The doctor told her she should take it easy for a while. 2 : to stay or become calm and unexcited — usually used as a command ▪ Take it easy, Joe. Everything is going to be just fine.

easy chair noun, pl ~ chairs [count] : a chair that is large, soft, and very comfortable easy•go•ing /ˌi:zi'gowɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~] : relaxed and informal ▪ an easygoing boss ▪ a boss with an easygoing [=easy] manner easy street noun [singular] : a situation with no worries : a situation of wealth and ease ▪ If I'd been smarter about investing my money, I could be on easy street now. [=I could be rich now]

eat /'i:t/ verb eats; ate /'eɪt, Brit 'ɛt, 'eɪt/; eat•en /'i:tn̩/; eating
1 : to take food into your mouth and swallow it [+ obj] You'll feel better if you eat something. ▪ I ate a big breakfast so I'm not very hungry. ▪ Let's grab a bite to eat. = Let's get something to eat. ▪ I've been trying to watch what I eat. [=to be more careful about eating healthy foods and not eating too much] [no obj] I'm hungry. Let's eat. ▪ They like to eat at home. ▪ It's important to eat right. [=to eat healthy foods] ✧ To eat out is to dine at a restaurant rather than at home. ▪ We like to eat out on Fridays. ✧ To eat in is to dine at home. ▪ Let's eat in tonight.
2 : to gradually destroy, use, or take away something : to wear something away [+ obj] — usually + away ▪ The rocks were eaten away by erosion. [no obj] — usually + into, away at, or at ▪ Marketing costs ate into their profits. ▪ The acids were eating away at the metal finish. ▪ The failure of his business has eaten away at his confidence.
3 [+ obj] informal : to bother or annoy (someone) ▪ What's eating you?
be eating out of someone's hand : to be completely controlled by someone ▪ He had them eating out of his hand. [=he controlled them completely]
eat a horse see [1]HORSE eat crow (US) or eat humble pie informal : to admit that you were wrong or accept that you have been defeated ▪ He was forced to eat crow when the company fired him. ▪ They had to eat humble pie when the rumors they were spreading were proved false.
eat light see [5]LIGHT eat (someone or something) alive 1 of insects : to bite (someone or something) many times ▪ The mosquitoes were eating us alive. [=we were being bitten frequently by many mosquitoes] 2 : to badly defeat or harm someone or something ▪ Their competitors are going to eat them alive if they don't cut their prices. ▪ If this story gets out, the press will eat him alive.
eat someone's or something's lunch see [1]LUNCH eat up [phrasal verb] 1 — used to tell someone to start or continue eating ▪ Eat up! Your dinner is getting cold. 2 eat up (something) or eat (something) up a : to eat all of (something) ▪ Eat your dinner up before it gets cold. b : to use up (time, resources, etc.) ▪ This project has been eating up a large part of the budget. ▪ Your savings may be eaten up by inflation. 3 ✧ A person who is eaten up with or by jealousy, bitterness, etc., cannot escape that feeling and is made unhappy by it. ▪ He was eaten up with envy of his brother's success. 4 eat (something) up informal : to enjoy (something) greatly ▪ I thought the speech was stupid, but the audience ate it up.
eat up the clock see [1]CLOCK eat your fill see [2]FILL eat your heart out : to be jealous ▪ "Eat your heart out," he jokingly told his friend before getting on his new boat.
eat your words : to take back what you have said : to admit that you were wrong about something ▪ She said she would eat her words if the wedding was called off. ▪ They promised success, but if things don't get better soon, they may have to eat their words.
have your cake and eat it too or have your cake and eat it see [1]CAKE I'll eat my hat informal + old-fashioned — used to say that something will not happen or cannot be true ▪ If he wins the election, I'll eat my hat! [=I don't believe he has any chance to win the election]
the proof of the pudding is in the eating see PUDDING
– eat•able /'i:rəbəl/ adj ▪ an eatable [=(more commonly) edible] plant – eat•er noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ a picky eater [=someone who dislikes many kinds of food] ▪ a big eater [=someone who eats a lot] synonyms EAT, CONSUME, and DEVOUR mean to chew and swallow food. EAT is a general word that can apply to any manner of taking in food. ▪ Eat your dinner. CONSUME suggests completely eating something up so that none is left. ▪ By noon they had consumed all of their food supplies. DEVOUR suggests eating quickly and greedily. ▪ The hungry children devoured the grapes.

eat•ery /'i:təri/ noun, pl -er•ies [count] chiefly US, informal : a usually small and informal restaurant eats /'i:ts/ noun [plural] informal : FOOD ▪ cheap eats ▪ good eats

eau de co•logne /ˌoʊdəkə'loʊn/ noun, pl eaux de cologne or eau de colognes [count, noncount] : COLOGNE

eaves /'i:vz/ noun [plural] : the lower edge of a roof that sticks out past the wall — see picture at HOUSE

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 5 SESS: 57 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:32:05 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−e

eaves•drop /ˈivzˌdrɑːp/ verb -drops; -dropped; -drop•ping [no obj] : to listen secretly to what other people are saying — usually + on ▪ He was eavesdropping [=listening in] on his sister and her friends in the next room. ▪ She was accused of eavesdropping on private telephone conversations. – eaves•drop•per noun, pl -pers [count] – eaves•drop•ping noun [noncount] ▪ electronic eavesdropping

[1]ebb /ˈɛb/ noun, pl ebbs [count]
1 : the time when the tide flows out from the land
2 : a low point or condition : a condition of weakness, failure, etc. ▪ Morale seems to have reached its lowest ebb. — often used after at ▪ Our spirits were at a low ebb. [=were very low] ▪ His fortunes were at their lowest ebb.
ebb and flow — used to describe something that changes in a regular and repeated way ▪ the ebb and flow of fashion ▪ the ebb and flow of human history

[2]ebb verb ebbs; ebbed; ebb•ing [no obj]
1 of a tide : to flow outward from the land ▪ waiting for the tide to ebb
2 : to get worse ▪ Their fortunes had already begun to ebb. [=decline] ebb tide noun, pl ~ tides [count]

1 : the tide while it is flowing outward from the land
2 : a low point or condition ▪ the empire's ebb tide

[1]eb•o•ny /ˈɛbəni/ noun [noncount] : a hard, heavy wood that comes from tropical trees

[2]ebony adj
1 : made of or resembling ebony
2 : very dark or black ▪ ebony skin

e–book /ˈiːˌbʊk/ noun, pl -books [count] : a book that is read on a computer or other electronic device ebul•lient /ɪˈbʊljənt/ adj [more ~; most ~] : lively and enthusiastic ▪ her ebullient charm ▪ an ebullient entertainer – ebul•lience /ɪˈbʊljəns/ noun [noncount] ▪ her delightful ebullience – ebul•lient•ly adv ▪ speaking ebulliently

[1]ec•cen•tric /ɪkˈsɛntrɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 a : tending to act in strange or unusual ways ▪ He was a kind but eccentric man. ▪ an eccentric inventor ▪ She's become more eccentric over the years. b : strange or unusual ▪ eccentric behavior/ideas ▪ eccentric clothes
2 technical : not following a perfectly circular path ▪ an eccentric orbit
– ec•cen•tri•cal•ly /ɪkˈsɛntrɪkəli/ adv ▪ behaving eccentrically

[2]eccentric noun, pl -trics [count] : a person who acts in strange or unusual ways : an eccentric person ▪ a wealthy eccentric

ec•cen•tric•i•ty /ˌɛksɛnˈtrɪsəti/ noun, pl -ties
1 [noncount] : the quality of being strange or unusual in behavior ▪ Some people weren't very tolerant of his eccentricity.
2 [count] : an act or habit that is strange or unusual ▪ Talking to her plants is one of her many eccentricities.

ec•cle•si•as•tic /ɪˌkliːziˈæstɪk/ noun, pl -tics [count] formal : a Christian priest or minister

ec•cle•si•as•ti•cal /ɪˌkliːziˈæstɪkəl/ also ecclesiastic adj : of or relating to the Christian church or clergy ▪ ecclesiastical history ▪ civil or ecclesiastical authorities

ECG /ˌiːˌsiːˈʤiː/ noun, pl ECGs [count] : EKG

ech•e•lon /ˈɛʃəˌlɑːn/ noun, pl -lons [count] : a level in an organization : a level of authority or responsibility ▪ the lower echelons of the bureaucracy ▪ the industry's top echelon ▪ We heard stories of corruption in the upper/higher echelons of the firm.

[1]echo /ˈɛkoʊ/ noun, pl ech•oes [count]
1 : a sound that is a copy of another sound and that is produced when sound waves bounce off a surface (such as a wall) ▪ We shouted into the canyon and listened to the echo of our voices. ▪ the echo of footsteps in the hall ▪ faint echoes
2 a : something (such as a feature or quality) that repeats or resembles something else ▪ His work contains echoes of older and greater poets. ▪ The book's title is an echo of a line from an old folk song. b : something that is similar to something that happened or existed before ▪ The crime is a chilling echo of the murders that shocked the city two years ago.

[2]echo verb echoes; ech•oed; echo•ing
1 [no obj] a : to be filled with sounds and especially with echoes ▪ The stadium echoed [=resounded] with cheers. b : to fill a space, area, etc., with sounds and especially with echoes ▪ The music echoed through the church. ▪ Laughter echoed across the lake. ▪ Their voices echoed in/along the hall. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ His words echoed in my head/ears. [=I kept thinking about what he had said]
2 [+ obj] : to repeat (what someone else has said or written) ▪ His warnings are echoed by many other experts in the field. ▪ "It's in Rome." "In Rome?" she echoed. ▪ Others have echoed her criticisms.
3 [+ obj] a : to have a feature or quality that repeats or resembles (something else) ▪ The book's title echoes a line from an old folk song. ▪ The color of the sofa is echoed in the painting above it. = The painting echoes the color of the sofa. [=the color of the painting is like the color of the sofa] b : to be similar to something that happened or existed before ▪ The crime echoes last year's shocking murders.

éclair /iˈkleə/ noun, pl éclairs [count] : a type of long pastry that is filled with whipped cream or a sweet cream filling and usually topped with chocolate

eclec•tic /ɪˈklɛktɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] : including things taken from many different sources ▪ The collection includes an eclectic mix of historical artifacts. ▪ a person with eclectic tastes [=a person who likes many different kinds of things] – eclec•ti•cal•ly /ɪˈklɛktɪkli/ adv ▪ an eclectically decorated room – eclec•ti•cism /ɪˈklɛktəˌsɪzəm/ noun [noncount] ▪ the eclecticism of her tastes

[1]eclipse /ɪˈklɪps/ noun, pl eclips•es
1 [count] a : an occasion when the sun looks like it is completely or partially covered with a dark circle because the moon is between the sun and the Earth ▪ a total/partial solar eclipse ▪ an eclipse of the sun b : an occasion when the moon looks like it is completely or partially covered with a dark circle because the Earth's shadow is on it ▪ a total/partial lunar eclipse
2 : a loss of power, success, popularity, etc. [singular] the civilization's sudden/eventual eclipse ▪ The popularity of television led to the eclipse of the radio drama. [noncount] an author who has fallen/gone into eclipse [=who has become much less popular] ▪ an artist whose reputation/career has long been in eclipse

[2]eclipse verb eclipses; eclipsed; eclips•ing [+ obj]
1 : to cause an eclipse of (the sun or moon) ▪ The sun was partially eclipsed by the moon.
2 a : to make (something) less important or popular ▪ Train travel was eclipsed by the growth of commercial airlines. b : to do or be much better than (someone or something) ▪ Her sister's accomplishments always seemed to eclipse [=outshine] her own. ▪ The new runner's time eclipsed [=surpassed] the old record.

eco- combining form : ecology : ecological ▪ eco-friendly technologies [=technologies that do not harm the environment] ▪ eco-politics [=politics that relate to ecology]

E. coli /ˌiːˈkoʊˌlaɪ/ noun [noncount] : a kind of bacteria that is sometimes in food and water and that can make people sick

ecol•o•gy /ɪˈkɑːləʤi/ noun, pl -gies
1 [noncount] : a science that deals with the relationships between groups of living things and their environments ▪ She studies plant/marine ecology.
2 [count] : the relationships between a group of living things and their environment — usually singular ▪ the behavior and ecology of the great white shark ▪ the fragile ecology of the desert = the fragile desert ecology
– eco•log•i•cal /ˌiːkəˈlɑːʤɪkəl/ adj ▪ the ecological consequences of water pollution ▪ The organization promotes ecological awareness. – eco•log•i•cal•ly /ˌiːkəˈlɑːʤɪkli/ adv ▪ ecologically sound technologies ▪ an ecologically stable environment – ecol•o•gist /ɪˈkɑːləʤɪst/ noun, pl -gists [count]

e–com•merce /ˈiːˌkɑːmərs/ noun [noncount] : activities that relate to the buying and selling of goods and services over the Internet

ec•o•nom•ic /ˌɛkəˈnɑːmɪk/ adj
1 a : relating to an economy : relating to the process or system by which goods and services are produced, sold, and bought ▪ a program to prevent inflation and economic collapse ▪ the country's economic growth ▪ the President's chief economic adviser b : relating to the science of economics ▪ controversial economic theories
2 [more ~; most ~] : ECONOMICAL 1 ▪ We're looking for a more economic way of doing business.

ec•o•nom•i•cal /ˌɛkəˈnɑːmɪkəl/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : using money, resources, etc., carefully ▪ an economical way to heat your house ▪ a practical and economical solution to the problem ▪ an economical cook [=a cook who does not waste food] ▪ The author is often praised for her simple, economical writing style. [=a way of writing that uses only the

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 6 SESS: 58 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:32:05 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−e

words that are most necessary] ▪ We offer quality products at economical prices. [=prices that many people can afford] 2 — used to describe a product that is not expensive to own and use ▪ The company is making smaller, more economical cars. [=cars that do not use a lot of fuel]

ec•o•nom•i•cal•ly /ˌɛkəˈnɑːmɪkli/ adv
1 : in a way that relates to an economy ▪ An increase in tourism will help the city economically. [=will help the city's economy] ▪ an economically depressed area ▪ economically disadvantaged people [=poor people]
2 : in an economical way ▪ a way to economically heat your house ▪ She writes simply and economically.

ec•o•nom•ics /ˌɛkəˈnɑːmɪks/ noun
1 [noncount] : a science concerned with the process or system by which goods and services are produced, sold, and bought ▪ She studied economics before becoming a banker. ▪ a professor of economics ▪ Economics is my least favorite subject.
2 [plural] : the part of something that relates to money ▪ the economics of buying a house [=the financial aspects of buying a house] ▪ The economics of this agreement are complicated.
– see also HOME ECONOMICS

econ•o•mist /ɪˈkɑːnəmɪst/ noun, pl -mists [count] : a person who studies or specializes in economics (sense 1) ▪ Economists are predicting rapid inflation.

econ•o•mize also Brit econ•o•mise /ɪˈkɑːnəˌmaɪz/ verb -miz•es; -mized; -miz•ing : to use money, resources, etc., carefully [no obj] He was born into a wealthy family and never learned to economize. — often + on ▪ We're finding new ways to economize [=save] on fuel. [+ obj] (chiefly US) ▪ efforts to economize [=save] fuel/time

[1]econ•o•my /ɪˈkɑːnəmi/ noun, pl -mies
1 [count] : the process or system by which goods and services are produced, sold, and bought in a country or region ▪ The war altered the country's economy. ▪ An increase in tourism will help the city's economy. ▪ We currently have a strong/weak economy. [=many/few goods and services are being produced, sold, and bought] ▪ the Mexican economy = Mexico's economy ▪ the world/global economy ▪ the region's fishing/information/retail economy ▪ People are worried about (the state of) the economy. [=their country's economy] ▪ changes in the economy
2 [noncount] : careful use of money, resources, etc. ▪ We must learn to practice economy. ▪ a writer known for her economy of language [=her careful use of language; her use of only the words that are most necessary] ▪ cars with better fuel economy [=cars that use less fuel]
3 : something that makes it possible for you to spend less money [count] We'll also benefit from the economies provided by more efficient energy sources. ▪ Mass production creates economies of scale. [=situations in which it costs less to produce something because you are producing a lot at one time] ▪ Using cheap materials proved to be a false economy. [=it cost less at first but resulted in more money being spent later] [noncount] It would be false economy to repair the leak without replacing the pipe.

[2]economy adj, always used before a noun : designed to cost less money ▪ an economy car [=a car that costs less to buy, drive, maintain, etc.] ▪ an economy class ticket [=the least expensive kind of airline ticket] — often used in combination ▪ an economy-size bottle/bag/box [=a large bottle/bag/box that you buy for less money than it would cost to get the same amount in several smaller containers]

eco•sys•tem /ˈiːkoʊˌsɪstəm/ noun, pl -tems [count] : everything that exists in a particular environment ✧ An ecosystem includes living things, such as plants and animals, and things that are not living, such as rocks, soil, sunlight, and water. ▪ the forest's ecosystem eco•tour•ism /ˌiːkoʊˈtʊəˌɪzəm/ noun [noncount] : the practice of traveling to beautiful natural places for pleasure in a way that does not damage the environment there ecru /ˈɛkru/ noun, pl ecrus [count, noncount] : a pale color that is slightly yellow or brown

– ecru adj

ec•sta•sy /ˈɛkstəsi/ noun, pl -sies
1 : a state of very great happiness : extreme delight [noncount] shouts of pure/sheer ecstasy ▪ shrieking with/in ecstasy [count] His performance sent the audience into ecstasies.
2 or Ecstasy [noncount] : an illegal drug that is used to produce a feeling of excitement and pleasure

ec•stat•ic /ɛkˈstætɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] : very happy or excited : feeling or showing ecstasy ▪ He was ecstatic when he heard that he was going to be a father. ▪ ecstatic applause
– ec•stat•i•cal•ly /ɛkˈstætɪkli/ adv ▪ She was ecstatically happy.

ECT /ˌiːˌsiːˈtiː/ noun [noncount] medical : SHOCK THERAPY

ec•u•men•i•cal /ɛkjəˈmɛnɪkəl/ adj : involving people from different kinds of Christian churches ▪ an ecumenical council/service
– ec•u•men•i•cal•ly /ɛkjəˈmɛnɪkli/ adv

ec•ze•ma /ˈɛgzəmə/ noun [noncount] medical : a skin disease that causes areas of the skin to become red, rough, and itchy

ed /ˈɛd/ noun [noncount] informal : education ▪ driver's ed [=classes or lessons that teach students to drive]

ed. abbr edited, edition, editor

-ed /əd, ɪd after t or d; t after p, k, ʧ, f, θ, s, or ʃ; d elsewhere; exceptions are pronounced at their entries/ verb suffix or adj suffix
1 — used to form the past tense and past participle of regular verbs ▪ It end*ed*. ▪ It has end*ed*. ▪ clapp*ed* ▪ tri*ed* ▪ patt*ed*
2 : having : characterized by ▪ dom*ed* ▪ cultur*ed* ▪ two-legg*ed* ▪ blue-ey*ed*

[1]ed•dy /ˈɛdi/ noun, pl ed•dies [count] : a circular movement of air or water ▪ The boat was caught in a powerful eddy.

[2]eddy verb ed•dies; ed•died; ed•dy•ing [no obj] : to move in a circle : to form an eddy ▪ The wind gusted and eddied around us. ▪ The waves swirled and eddied against the pier.

Eden /ˈiːdn/ noun, pl Edens
1 [singular] in the Bible : the garden where Adam and Eve first lived — called also Garden of Eden
2 a [count] : a very beautiful natural place ▪ a tropical Eden
b [singular] : a place that is perfect for a particular activity or for a person who enjoys that activity : PARADISE ▪ The new store is an Eden for book lovers.

[1]edge /ˈɛʤ/ noun, pl edg•es [count]
1 : the line or part where an object or area begins or ends ▪ They peered over the edge of the roof. ▪ The fabric was frayed at the edge. ▪ He made us all nervous by standing so close to the edge of the cliff. ▪ We sat at the water's edge. [=where the water touched the land] ▪ She sat on the edge of the counter, swinging her legs.
2 a : the part of a blade that cuts ▪ the edge of an ax ▪ a razor's edge b : the sharpness of a blade ▪ This knife has no edge. [=this knife is not sharp]
3 a : a harsh or unkind quality ▪ His voice/comments had a sarcastic/sardonic edge. b : force or effectiveness ▪ Her writing seem to have lost its edge. ▪ These amendments will blunt the edge of the legislation.
4 : an advantage over others ▪ Our experience gave us an/the edge. ▪ You need to get/gain an edge on your competition. ▪ The company still has/holds an edge over its competitors. ▪ a competitive edge — see also CUTTING EDGE, LEADING EDGE close to the edge or on the edge ✧ Someone who lives (life) on the edge or lives close to the edge often deals with dangerous situations and takes many risks. ▪ He likes to live on the edge.
on edge : feeling nervous : not calm or relaxed ▪ She was on edge [=edgy] before her exam. = Her nerves were on edge before her exam.
on the edge of : very close to (something) ▪ a species on the edge of extinction ▪ The company was teetering on the edge of disaster/bankruptcy. ▪ They were poised on the edge of success. ▪ He was on the edge of saying something when the phone rang.
on the edge of your seat ✧ If you are on the edge of your seat, you are watching or listening to something with great interest especially because you do not know what is going to happen. ▪ It's a thrilling movie that keeps audiences on the edge of their seats.
on the ragged edge see RAGGED over the edge : into a mental or emotional state that makes someone completely lose control ▪ His friends worried that the news might send/drive/push him over the edge.
razor/razor's edge see RAZOR set your teeth on edge see TOOTH take the edge off : to make (something) weaker or less severe ▪ a medication that takes the edge off the pain ▪ A glass of milk will take the edge off your hunger/appetite. [=will make you feel less hungry]
– edged /ˈɛʤd/ adj ▪ an edged weapon [=a weapon with a

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 7 SESS: 19 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:32:06 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−e

sharp edge, such as a sword or knife] — see also TWO-EDGED

[2]edge verb edg•es; edged; edg•ing
1 [+ obj] a : to give an edge to (something) ▪ Edge the sleeve with lace. — usually used as (be) edged ▪ The sleeve was edged with/in lace. [=it had a lace edge] b : to be on the edge of (something) ▪ Trees edge the lake. — usually used as (be) edged ▪ The garden is edged [=fringed, bordered] with/in/by flowers.
2 always followed by an adverb or preposition : to move slowly or with small movements in a specified direction [no obj] She edged away from him. ▪ Gasoline prices have been edging upward. [+ obj] I edged my chair closer to the table.
3 [+ obj] : to defeat (someone) by a small amount ▪ (chiefly US) He was edged in the semifinals by the defending champion. — usually + out ▪ He was edged out in the semifinals. ▪ She barely/narrowly edged out her opponent.
edge out [phrasal verb] edge (someone or something) out or edge out (someone or something) : to slowly become more successful, popular, etc., than (someone or something) ▪ The company is gradually edging out the competition. ▪ Efficiency has edged out price as the top reason people give for buying the car. — see also [2]EDGE 3 (above)

edge•wise (US) /ˈɛʤˌwaɪz/ or chiefly Brit edge•ways /ˈɛʤˌweɪz/ adv : SIDEWAYS ✧ If you can't get a word in edgewise it means that someone else is talking so much that you are not able to say anything. ▪ I wanted to explain what had happened but I couldn't get a word in edgewise.

edg•ing /ˈɛʤɪŋ/ noun, pl -ings : something that forms an edge or border [count] sleeves with lace edgings [noncount] sleeves with lace edging

edgy /ˈɛʤi/ adj edg•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]
1 : nervous and tense ▪ Too much coffee makes me edgy. ▪ Why are you so edgy? ▪ People are starting to get edgy [=on edge] about rising prices.
2 : having or showing a harsh or unkind quality ▪ edgy humor ▪ an edgy scene/situation ▪ Their relationship has always been edgy.
3 : new and unusual in a way that is likely to make some people uncomfortable ▪ one of the director's edgier films ▪ an edgy artist – edg•i•ly /ˈɛʤəli/ adv ▪ edgily funny – edg•i•ness /ˈɛʤinəs/ noun [noncount] the excitement and edginess in the artist's work [singular] There was an edginess [=a harsh quality] in her voice.

ed•i•ble /ˈɛdəbəl/ adj : suitable or safe to eat ▪ edible fruit ▪ a plant with edible leaves ▪ All of the decorations on the gingerbread house were edible. — opposite INEDIBLE
– ed•i•bil•i•ty /ˌɛdəˈbɪləti/ noun [noncount] – edibles noun [plural] informal ▪ cheese, crackers, and other edibles

edict /ˈiːˌdɪkt/ noun, pl edicts [count] : an official order given by a person with power or by a government : DECREE ▪ The government issued an edict banning public demonstrations. ▪ a royal/religious edict

ed•i• ce /ˈɛdəfəs/ noun, pl - c•es [count] : a large and usually impressive building (such as a church or government building) ▪ a magnificent edifice with a domed ceiling

ed•i•fy /ˈɛdəˌfaɪ/ verb - es ; - ed ; -fy•ing [+ obj] : to teach (someone) in a way that improves the mind or character ▪ These books will both entertain and edify readers.
– ed•i• •ca•tion /ˌɛdəfəˈkeɪʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ books that provide both entertainment and edification
– edifying adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ an edifying sermon/experience ▪ The books are both entertaining and edifying.

ed•it /ˈɛdət/ verb ed•its; ed•it•ed; ed•it•ing [+ obj]
1 a : to prepare (something written) to be published or used : to make changes, correct mistakes, etc., in (something written) ▪ edit a poem ▪ This chapter needs to be edited. ▪ The book was poorly edited. ▪ The stories have been edited for a younger audience. ▪ Students learn to edit their essays for grammar and punctuation. b : to prepare (a film, recording, photo, etc.) to be seen or heard : to change, move, or remove parts of (a film, recording, photo, etc.) ▪ The software allows you to edit videos on your computer. ▪ This film has been edited for television.
2 : to be in charge of the publication of (something) ▪ edit a magazine/daily newspaper ▪ an anthology of ancient poetry edited by a local professor edit out [phrasal verb] edit out (something) or edit (something) out : to remove (something, such as an unwanted word or scene) while preparing something to be seen, used, published, etc. ▪ They edited out the scene. ▪ Write freely. You can always edit things out later.
edit yourself : to change what you were going to say or would normally say ▪ I feel like I have to edit myself when I talk to them. ▪ "I never saw it," she said before quickly editing herself, "or at least I don't remember seeing it."
– editing noun [noncount] ▪ The editing was done poorly. ▪ editing techniques

edi•tion /ɪˈdɪʃən/ noun, pl edi•tions [count]
1 a : a particular version of a book ▪ an illustrated edition [=a version that has pictures] ▪ a hardcover/paperback edition b : a particular version of a product ▪ the latest edition of the software
2 : all the copies of a book that are printed or published at one time ▪ The errors were corrected in the book's second edition. — see also FIRST EDITION, LIMITED EDITION
3 : one of the several versions of a newspaper that are printed for a single day ▪ the late edition ▪ the city edition
4 : something that is presented as one of a series ▪ the most recent edition of the city's film festival ▪ tonight's edition [=episode] of the show ed•i•tor /ˈɛdətə/ noun, pl -tors [count]

1 : a person whose job is to edit something ▪ the editor of the city paper ▪ working as a film editor ▪ the fiction editor of a magazine [=the person who decides what fiction pieces get published]
2 : a computer program that is used to create and make changes to data (such as words or pictures) ▪ a text editor
– ed•i•tor•ship /ˈɛdətəˌʃɪp/ noun [noncount] ▪ The magazine has done well under her editorship.

[1]ed•i•to•ri•al /ˌɛdəˈtorijəl/ adj : of or relating to an editor ▪ editorial offices ▪ He got an editorial job at the newspaper.
– ed•i•to•ri•al•ly adv

[2]editorial noun, pl -als [count] : an essay in a newspaper or magazine that gives the opinions of its editors or publishers ▪ The paper published an editorial strongly criticizing the mayor's actions. — called also (Brit) leader, (Brit) leading article

editor in chief noun, pl editors in chief [count] : a person whose job is to be in charge of a group of editors ▪ the magazine's editor in chief = the editor in chief of the magazine

ed•u•cate /ˈɛʤəˌkeɪt/ verb -cates; -cat•ed; -cat•ing
1 : to teach (someone) especially in a school, college, or university [+ obj] Parents trust schools to educate their children. — often used as (be) educated ▪ She was educated at private schools. [no obj] The job of our public schools is to educate.
2 [+ obj] : to give (someone) information about something : to train (someone) to do something ▪ It takes time to educate [=train] new workers on how to use the machines. ▪ We need to educate [=inform] the public about this dangerous disease. — sometimes followed by to + verb ▪ educating consumers to use these products more effectively educated adj [more ~; most ~]

1 a : having an education and especially a good education ▪ These companies want an educated work force. ▪ an educated woman with an impressive career — opposite UNEDUCATED b : having a particular kind of education ▪ He is poorly/well educated. — sometimes used in combination ▪ college-educated people ▪ a Harvard-educated economist — see also SELF-EDUCATED
2 : showing education (sense 1b) ▪ educated speech/tastes — opposite UNEDUCATED; see also educated guess at [2]GUESS

ed•u•ca•tion /ˌɛʤəˈkeɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions
1 a [noncount] : the action or process of teaching someone especially in a school, college, or university ▪ The school is devoted to the education of children with reading difficulties. — see also ADULT EDUCATION, HIGHER EDUCATION, PHYSICAL EDUCATION b : the knowledge, skill, and understanding that you get from attending a school, college, or university [count] a college education ▪ She received her education at private schools. ▪ The applicants had comparable educations. [noncount] He had little formal education. [=schooling]
2 [noncount] : a field of study that deals with the methods and problems of teaching ▪ She earned her master's degree in education. ▪ a school of education

ed•u•ca•tion•al /ˌɛʤəˈkeɪʃənl/ adj
1 : having to do with education ▪ educational theorists ▪ a leading educational institution
2 [more ~; most ~] : teaching something ▪ an educational film ▪ educational television ▪ Our vacation turned out to be a very educational experience.

E

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 8 SESS: 28 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:32:06 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−e

ed•u•ca•tion•ist /ˌɛʤəˈkeɪʃənɪst/ or ed•u•ca•tion•al•ist /ˌɛʤəˈkeɪʃənlɪst/ noun, pl -ists [count] Brit : EDUCATOR

ed•u•ca•tor /ˈɛʤəˌkeɪtə/ noun, pl -tors [count] chiefly US : a person (such as a teacher or a school administrator) who has a job in the field of education ▪ The conference will attract many leading scholars and educators.

ed•u•tain•ment /ˌɛʤəˈteɪnmənt/ noun [noncount] : entertainment (such as through games, films, or shows) that is designed to teach something

-ee /i/ noun suffix
1 : a person who gets or is affected by a specified action or thing ▪ appoint*ee* ▪ train*ee*
2 : a person who does a specified action ▪ escap*ee* ▪ stand*ee*

EEG /ˌi:ˌi:ˈʤi:/ noun, pl EEGs [count] medical
1 : a printed recording of the brain's electrical activity made by a special machine — called also electroencephalogram
2 : a machine that detects and records the electrical activity of the brain — called also electroencephalograph

eek /ˈi:k/ interj — used to express surprise and fear ▪ Eek! There's a mouse in the cupboard!

eel /ˈi:l/ noun, pl eels [count] : a long fish that looks like a snake and has smooth slippery skin — see color picture on page C8
– eel•like /ˈi:lˌlaɪk/ adj

-eer /iə/ noun suffix : a person who is connected with or who operates or produces something ▪ auction*eer* ▪ puppet*eer*

ee•rie /ˈiri/ adj ee•ri•er; -est [or more ~; most ~] : strange and mysterious ▪ a coyote's eerie howl ▪ The flames cast an eerie glow. ▪ a land of eerie beauty ▪ an eerie coincidence – ee•ri•ly /ˈirəli/ adv ▪ The two towns are eerily similar.
– ee•ri•ness /ˈirinəs/ noun [noncount] the eeriness of the coyote's howl [singular] There is an eeriness about that coincidence.

ef•face /ɪˈfeɪs/ verb -fac•es; -faced; -fac•ing [+ obj] formal : to cause (something) to fade or disappear ▪ coins with dates effaced by wear ▪ a memory effaced by time — see also SELF-EFFACING
– ef•face•ment /ɪˈfeɪsmənt/ noun [noncount]

[1]ef•fect /ɪˈfɛkt/ noun, pl -fects
1 : a change that results when something is done or happens : an event, condition, or state of affairs that is produced by a cause [count] The defeat had a terrible effect [=impact] on the team's spirits. ▪ He now needs more of the drug to achieve/get/produce the same effect. ▪ The experience has had a bad/adverse/negative effect on him. ▪ a good/beneficial/positive effect ▪ Computers have had a profound/significant effect on our lives. ▪ The effects of the drug soon wore off. ▪ He was able to stop taking the drug with no ill effects. [=with nothing bad happening] ▪ This treatment causes fewer ill effects. [noncount] The change in policy had little effect on most people. ▪ the effect [=influence] of climate on growth ▪ He was able to stop taking the drug without ill effect. ✧ If something has an effect on something or someone, it changes or influences that thing or person in some way. ▪ The new regulations may have an effect on small businesses. ▪ It could have effects on other businesses as well. — see also DOMINO EFFECT, GREENHOUSE EFFECT, RIPPLE EFFECT, SIDE EFFECT, SNOWBALL EFFECT, placebo effect at PLACEBO
2 [count] : a particular feeling or mood created by something ▪ The total effect of the painting was one of gloom. ▪ The color gives the effect of being warm. ▪ He achieves/gets amazing effects with wood. ✧ Something that is done for effect is done in a deliberate way to produce a particular feeling or reaction. ▪ Her tears were only for effect. [=she was crying or pretending to cry to make people feel sympathy for her] ▪ The movie exaggerates his odd habits for comic/humorous effect. ▪ Before making the announcement, he paused for dramatic effect. [=he paused to make the announcement more dramatic]
3 [count] : an image or a sound that is created in television, radio, or movies to imitate something real : SPECIAL EFFECT — usually plural ▪ Computers are essential now in creating effects for the movies. ▪ sound effects ▪ visual effects
4 [noncount] : the state of something that is actually working or operating ▪ The policy will be in effect next year. ✧ If a law or something like a law takes effect, comes into effect, or goes into effect, it begins to work or to be enforced. ▪ The law went/came into effect today. ▪ The new regulations will take effect next year. ✧ If a drug or something like a drug takes effect, it begins to produce the results it is meant to produce. ▪ The medication should take effect half an hour after you take the pills. ✧ To give effect to something or to carry/bring/put something into effect is to make it begin doing what it was intended to do. ▪ The court refused to give effect to that part of the document. ▪ The company has not yet carried these plans into effect. [=the company has not yet acted on these plans] ▪ The new regulations will be put into effect next year.
5 effects [plural] : personal property or possessions ▪ household effects ▪ Pick up your (personal) effects before you leave.
in effect — used to say that one thing has the same effect or result as something else ▪ The suggestion was in effect an order.
to good effect ✧ If you use something to good/great/fine/outstanding (etc.) effect, you use it in a way that produces good results. ▪ The city has used these resources to good effect. ▪ These changes have been implemented to great effect.
to little/no effect ✧ If something is done to little effect or to no effect, it produces little or no change. ▪ His doctors have repeatedly adjusted his medication to little effect.
to that effect or to the effect that — used to indicate that the meaning of words is roughly correct even if the words themselves are not completely accurate ▪ He said more time was needed to reach a decision, or words to that effect. = He said something to the effect that more time was needed to reach a decision.

[2]effect verb -fects; -fect•ed; -fect•ing [+ obj] formal
1 : to cause (something) : to make (something) happen ▪ The president could not effect [=bring about] a change in policy. ▪ They are trying to effect a settlement of the dispute.
2 : to cause (something) to produce the desired result ▪ The duty of the legislature is to effect the will of the people.
usage see AFFECT

ef•fec•tive /ɪˈfɛktɪv/ adj
1 [more ~; most ~] : producing a result that is wanted : having an intended effect ▪ drugs effective in the treatment of a disease = drugs effective in treating a disease = drugs effective against a disease ▪ It's a simple but effective technique. ▪ He gave an effective speech. — opposite INEFFECTIVE
2 of a law, rule, etc. : in use : ACTIVE ▪ The law becomes effective [=the law takes effect; the law will start to be used] next year. ▪ the effective date of the law [=the day when the law starts to be used]
3 : starting at a particular time — used to introduce a clause ▪ Effective [=starting, as of] tomorrow, the store will be open until 8:00 p.m. every day. ▪ Effective next month, the landfill will no longer accept old televisions.
4 always used before a noun — used to describe something that exists or has an effect but that is not officially stated or recognized ▪ the effective tax rate ▪ The army has taken effective control of the city.
– ef•fec•tive•ness noun [noncount] ▪ The effectiveness of the drug was questioned.

ef•fec•tive•ly /ɪˈfɛktɪvli/ adv [more ~; most ~]
1 : in a way that produces a desired result : in an effective manner ▪ Try to communicate your ideas more effectively.
2 : in an indirect way — used to say that one thing has the same effect or result as something else ▪ By turning down the permit they effectively [=in effect, for all practical purposes] ended the housing plans.

ef•fec•tu•al /ɪˈfɛkʧəwəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : producing a desired result or effect ▪ an effectual [=effective] remedy — opposite INEFFECTUAL
– ef•fec•tu•al•ly /ɪˈfɛkʧəwəli/ adv ▪ The law would effectually bar new development in the neighborhood.

ef•fem•i•nate /ɪˈfɛmənət/ adj [more ~; most ~] : having or showing qualities that are considered more suited to women than to men : not manly ▪ an effeminate manner ▪ He had a high and somewhat effeminate voice.
– ef•fem•i•na•cy /ɪˈfɛmənəsi/ noun [noncount] – ef•fem•i•nate•ly adv ▪ dressed effeminately

ef•fer•ves•cence /ˌɛfəˈvɛsns/ noun [noncount]
1 : an exciting or lively quality ▪ The actress's effervescence was charming. ▪ the effervescence of his writing style
2 : bubbles that form and rise in a liquid
– ef•fer•ves•cent /ˌɛfəˈvɛsnt/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ her effervescent [=bubbly] personality ▪ an effervescent drink
– ef•fer•ves•cent•ly adv

ef•fete /ɪˈfi:t/ adj [more ~; most ~] disapproving
1 : lacking strength, courage, or spirit ▪ effete intellectuals ▪ effete members of the aristocracy
2 : resembling a woman : EFFEMINATE ▪ an effete young man

ef• •ca•cious /ˌɛfəˈkeɪʃəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 9 SESS: 30 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:32:07 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-e

: having the power to produce a desired result or effect : EFFECTIVE ▪ an efficacious remedy
– ef• •ca•cious •ly adv – ef• •ca•cious •ness noun [noncount]

ef• •ca•cy /ˈɛfɪkəsi/ noun [noncount] formal : the power to produce a desired result or effect ▪ The efficacy [=effectiveness] of this treatment has not yet been proved.

ef• •cien•cy /ɪˈfɪʃənsi/ noun, pl -cies
1 : the ability to do something or produce something without wasting materials, time, or energy : the quality or degree of being efficient [noncount] Because of her efficiency, we got all the work done in a few hours. ▪ The factory was operating at peak efficiency. ▪ a car with greater fuel efficiency [=a car that uses fuel more efficiently] ▪ A furnace with 80 percent fuel efficiency wastes 20 percent of its fuel. [plural] (technical) ▪ The company is trying to lower costs and improve efficiencies.
2 [count] US : EFFICIENCY APARTMENT efficiency apartment noun, pl ~ -ments [count] US : a small apartment that usually includes furniture and has a small and simple kitchen area

ef• •cient /ɪˈfɪʃənt/ adj [more ~; most ~] : capable of producing desired results without wasting materials, time, or energy ▪ an efficient worker ▪ efficient machinery
– ef• •cient •ly adv ▪ learning to work more efficiently

ef• •gy /ˈɛfəʤi/ noun, pl -gies [count] : an image of a person ✧ An effigy is often a large doll made to look like someone who is disliked or hated. ▪ The governor was hanged/burned in effigy by a mob of protesters. [=a large doll that looked like the governor was hanged or burned by the mob]

ef• u•ent /ˈɛˌflu:wənt/ noun, pl -ents formal : liquid (such as sewage or industrial chemicals) that is released as waste [noncount] The factory has been accused of discharging effluent into the river. [count] industrial effluents

ef•fort /ˈɛfət/ noun, pl -forts
1 : work done by the mind or body : energy used to do something [noncount] He put a lot of effort into finishing the project on time. ▪ It wasn't easy, but it was worth the effort. ▪ We need to expend more/extra effort. ▪ The job will require/take a great deal of time and effort. ▪ a lack of effort ▪ She seems to do everything without effort. [=effortlessly; very easily] [count] Our success is due to the combined/concerted efforts of many people. ▪ Her efforts were rewarded with a new contract. ▪ He lost the campaign despite the best efforts of his supporters. ✧ If you get an A for effort or an E for effort or (Brit) full marks for effort, you are given credit for working hard to do something, even though the result of the work was not successful. ▪ His novel's surprise ending is not really convincing, but we'll give him an A for effort.
2 [count] : a serious attempt to do something ▪ Even though they didn't win, the team made a good/valiant effort. ▪ a determined/desperate effort ▪ a last-ditch effort ▪ Her early efforts at writing a novel were awkward. ▪ The project is a team effort. [=is being done by a group of people] ▪ Despite my best efforts, I never found out who she was. — often followed by to + verb ▪ He made no effort to hide his feelings. [=he showed his feelings openly] ▪ In an effort to avoid further delays, the delivery process has been simplified. ▪ I had to make a conscious/deliberate effort not to laugh. ▪ The school makes every effort [=the school does all that it can] to help new students become adjusted to college life.
3 [count] : something produced by work ▪ This painting was one of my best efforts. ▪ It wasn't bad for a first effort.
4 [singular] : something that is hard to do ▪ I was so tired this morning that is was an effort (for me) to get out of bed.
5 [noncount] : all that is being done to achieve a particular goal ▪ He wanted to contribute in some way to the war effort. [=to the effort to win the war]

ef•fort•less /ˈɛfətləs/ adj [more ~; most ~] : showing or needing little or no effort : appearing very easy ▪ She walked with effortless grace. ▪ His writing is known for its seemingly effortless style. ✧ Effortless usually describes something that appears to be easy because of the skill of the person who is doing it. ▪ The skier made a series of effortless turns.
– ef•fort•less•ly adv ▪ gliding effortlessly across the ice – ef•fort•less•ness noun [noncount]

ef•fron•tery /ɪˈfrʌntəri/ noun [noncount] formal : a very confident attitude or way of behaving that is shocking or rude : NERVE ✧ Effrontery describes the attitude of a person who does something very boldly and without shame even though it is wrong or offensive in some way. ▪ He had the effrontery to deny doing something that we saw him do.

ef•fu•sion /ɪˈfju:ʒən/ noun, pl -sions
1 [count] formal : something that is said or expressed too much or with a lot of emotion ▪ Her poetic effusions became tiresome.
2 [count, noncount] technical : a flow of liquid or gas

ef•fu•sive /ɪˈfju:sɪv/ adj [more ~; most ~] : expressing a lot of emotion ▪ They offered effusive thanks for our help. ▪ He was effusive in praising their work. = He gave their work effusive praise. ▪ an effusive welcome
– ef•fu•sive•ly adv ▪ praising their work effusively – ef•fu•sive•ness noun [noncount]

EFL /ˌi:ˌɛfˈɛl/ noun [noncount] : the teaching of English as a foreign language

e.g. abbr for example ▪ products imported from many countries, e.g., France, Germany, and Japan ✧ The abbreviation e.g. comes from the Latin phrase "exempli gratia," which means "for example."

egal•i•tar•i•an /ɪˌgælə̇ˈterijən/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : aiming for equal wealth, status, etc., for all people ▪ egalitarian policies for the redistribution of wealth – egalitarian noun, pl -ans [count] ▪ He is a committed egalitarian. – egal•i•tar•i•an•ism /ɪˌgælə̇ˈterijəˌnɪzəm/ noun [noncount]

[1]egg /ˈɛg/ noun, pl eggs
1 [count] : a hard-shelled oval thing from which a young bird is born ▪ The egg will hatch about 10 days after it is laid.; also : an oval or round thing from which a snake, frog, insect, etc., is born
2 : the egg of a bird (especially a chicken) eaten as food [count] poached/fried/boiled eggs ▪ hard-boiled/soft-boiled eggs ▪ the smell of rotten eggs ▪ (US) scrambled eggs ▪ I bought a carton of eggs. ▪ (US) They served us bacon and eggs for breakfast. = (Brit) They served us eggs and bacon for breakfast. ▪ an Easter egg [=an egg that is specially decorated at Easter] [noncount] (Brit) scrambled egg ▪ a batter made from flour and egg ▪ egg white(s)/yolk
3 [count] biology : a cell that is produced by the female sexual organs and that combines with the male's sperm in reproduction ▪ The egg is fertilized by the sperm. — called also ovum
4 [count] : something that is shaped like a bird's egg ▪ a chocolate egg bad egg informal + somewhat old-fashioned : someone who does bad things ▪ He was dishonest, but he was the only bad egg in the group.
curate's egg see CURATE egg on your face ✧ If you have egg on your face you appear foolish, usually because something that you said would happen has not happened. ▪ The unexpected election result left a lot of journalists with egg on their faces.
good egg informal + somewhat old-fashioned : a likeable person ▪ I've known Jim for years. He's a good egg.
lay an egg US, informal : to fail completely : to fail in a very obvious or embarrassing way ▪ He used to be a very popular star, but his last two movies have laid an egg.
put all your eggs in one basket ✧ If you put all your eggs in one basket, you risk all you have on the success or failure of one thing (such as an investment), so that if something goes wrong you could lose everything. ▪ Investors should diversify their investments instead of putting all their eggs in one basket. [=instead of investing all their money in one company or one kind of company]
the goose that lays the golden egg see [1]GOOSE walk on eggs see [1]WALK
– see also NEST EGG

[2]egg verb eggs; egged; egg•ing egg on [phrasal verb] egg (someone) on : to urge or encourage (someone) to do something that is usually foolish or dangerous ▪ He continued to take off his clothes while the crowd egged him on.

eggbeater noun, pl -ers [count] : a tool that is used by cooks to mix eggs very thoroughly egg•cup /ˈɛgˌkʌp/ noun, pl -cups [count] : a cup-shaped device which holds an egg that is being eaten egg•head /ˈɛgˌhɛd/ noun, pl -heads [count] informal + usually disapproving : a highly educated person who may not know much about real life ▪ He dismissed all scientists as a bunch of eggheads.

– egg•head•ed /ˈɛgˌhɛdəd/ adj [more ~; most ~] informal ▪ eggheaded scientists egg•nog /ˈɛgˌnɑ:g/ noun, pl -nogs [count, noncount] : a drink made of eggs beaten with sugar, milk or cream, and often alcoholic liquor ✧ Eggnog is a traditional drink at Christmastime.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 10 SESS: 59 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:32:08 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−e

egg•plant /ˈɛgˌplænt/ noun, pl -plants [count, noncount] chiefly US : a somewhat egg-shaped vegetable with usually purple skin — called also (Brit) aubergine; see color picture on page C4 egg roll noun, pl ~ rolls [count] US : a very thin flat piece of dough that is wrapped around a mixture of chopped vegetables and often meat and then usually fried — called also spring roll ✧ Egg rolls are served in Chinese restaurants.

egg•shell /ˈɛgˌʃɛl/ noun, pl -shells [count] : the hard outside part of an egg : the shell of an egg walk on eggshells see [1]WALK ego /ˈi:goʊ/ noun, pl egos [count]

1 : the opinion that you have about yourself ▪ Winning was good for our egos. = Winning boosted our egos. [=winning made us proud of ourselves] ▪ He has a big/inflated/enormous ego. [=he has an overly high opinion of himself] ▪ She has a fragile ego. [=she lacks confidence in herself] ▪ a bruised ego [=a feeling that you are not as important as you thought you were] ▪ a healthy/strong ego
2 psychology : a part of the mind that senses and adapts to the real world — compare ID, SUPEREGO massage your ego see [2]MASSAGE
– see also ALTER EGO ego•cen•tric /ˌi:goʊˈsɛntrɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] : caring too much about yourself and not about other people : SELF-CENTERED ▪ an egocentric movie actor

ego•ism /ˈi:gəˌwɪzəm/ noun [noncount] : EGOTISM – ego•ist /ˈi:gəˌwɪst/ noun, pl -ists [count] – ego•is•tic /ˌi:gəˈwɪstɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] ego•ma•ni•ac /ˌi:goʊˈmeɪniˌæk/ noun, pl -acs [count] : someone who does not care about other people and thinks that their problems and concerns are not important : a very egotistical person ▪ an insufferable egomaniac

– ego•ma•nia noun [noncount]

ego•tism /ˈi:gəˌtɪzəm/ noun [noncount] : the feeling or belief that you are better, more important, more talented, etc., than other people : CONCEIT ▪ In his egotism he thought everyone was coming just to see him.
– ego•tist /ˈi:gəˌtɪst/ noun, pl ego•tists [count] ▪ a selfish egotist – ego•tis•tic /ˌi:gəˈtɪstɪk/ or ego•tis•ti•cal /ˌi:gəˈtɪstɪkəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ an egotistical person ▪ She had an egotistic obsession with her looks. – ego•tis•ti•cal•ly /ˌi:gəˈtɪstɪkəli/ adv

ego trip noun, pl ~ trips [count] informal : something that someone does to feel more important or better than other people ▪ He's on a self-indulgent ego trip with his latest movie, which he wrote, directed, and starred in himself.

egre•gious /ɪˈgri:ʤəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : very bad and easily noticed ▪ The article contains a number of egregious [=glaring, obvious] errors. ▪ an egregious example of political bias ▪ egregious misconduct
– egre•gious•ly adv – egre•gious•ness noun [noncount]

egress /ˈi:ˌgrɛs/ noun [noncount] formal : a way to get out of a place or the act of leaving a place : EXIT ▪ The auditorium is designed to provide easy egress in an emergency. — compare INGRESS egret /ˈi:grət/ noun, pl egrets [count] : a large, long-legged bird that has a long neck and bill and usually white feathers

Egyp•tian /ɪˈʤɪpʃən/ noun, pl -tians
1 [count] : a person born or living in Egypt
2 [noncount] : the language spoken by ancient Egyptians – Egyptian adj ▪ Egyptian culture

eh /ˈeɪ/ interj
1 — used to ask someone to repeat something ▪ "He's only three feet tall!" "Eh? How's that again?" [=please repeat what you said because it seems wrong]
2 — used to urge someone to agree ▪ Let's have another drink, eh? ✧ This use of eh occurs especially in British and Canadian English.

ei•der•down /ˈaɪdəˌdaʊn/ noun, pl -downs
1 [noncount] : soft feathers that come from ducks and that are used in warm clothing and bed covers
2 [count] : a bed cover made with eiderdown eight /ˈeɪt/ noun, pl eights

1 [count] : the number 8
2 [count] : the eighth in a set or series ▪ the eight of hearts
3 [noncount] : eight o'clock ▪ Dinner is at eight. ▪ He's working until eight.
– eight adj ▪ eight cars – eight pronoun ▪ Eight (of them) passed the test.

eight ball noun, pl ~ balls [count] : a black ball that is numbered 8 in the game of pool behind the eight ball informal : in a bad position ▪ The loss of this contract puts the company behind the eight ball.

eigh•teen /ˌeɪtˈti:n/ noun, pl -teens [count] : the number 18
– eighteen adj ▪ eighteen years – eighteen pronoun ▪ Eighteen (of them) were present. – eigh•teenth /ˌeɪtˈti:nθ/ noun, pl -teenths [count] ▪ one eighteenth of the total – eighteenth adj ▪ the eighteenth day – eighteenth adv ▪ He finished eighteenth in the race.

eight•fold /ˈeɪtˌfoʊld/ adj : eight times as great or as many ▪ There has been an eightfold increase in membership in the past year.
– eight•fold /ˈeɪtˈfoʊld/ adv ▪ Membership has increased eightfold.

[1]eighth /ˈeɪtθ/ noun, pl eighths
1 [singular] : number eight in a series ▪ My appointment is on the eighth (of the month).
2 [count] : one of eight equal parts of something ▪ one eighth of the pie ▪ An eighth of a pound is two ounces.

[2]eighth adj : occupying the number eight position in a series ▪ the eighth car in line ▪ the eighth edition ▪ Her son is in (the) eighth grade.
– eighth adv ▪ She finished eighth (in the race).

eighth note noun, pl ~ notes [count] music : a musical note that lasts to ⅛ of the length of a whole note — called also (Brit) quaver

800 number /ˌeɪtˈhʌndrəd-/ noun, pl ~ -bers [count] US : a telephone number that people can use to call a distant place (such as a business) for free ✧ In the U.S. 800 numbers usually have 800 as an area code. ▪ Call our 800 number to place an order or ask questions.

eighty /ˈeɪti/ noun, pl eight•ies
1 [count] : the number 80
2 eighties [plural] a : the numbers ranging from 80 to 89 ▪ The temperature rose to the high eighties. b : a set of years ending in digits ranging from 80 to 89 ▪ She is in her mid-eighties. ▪ a television show from the (nineteen) eighties [=from 1980–1989] – eight•i•eth /ˈeɪtijəθ/ noun, pl -eths [count] ▪ one eightieth of the total – eightieth adj ▪ the eightieth day – eighty adj ▪ eighty days – eighty pronoun ▪ Eighty (of them) were rejected.

[1]ei•ther /ˈi:ðɚ, Brit ˈaɪðə/ adj
1 : one and the other of two ▪ Flowers bloomed on either side [=on both sides] of the walk. ▪ Either [=each] answer is correct. [=both answers are correct] ▪ I don't like either book. [=I like neither book] ▪ French and English are closer to each other than either language is to Chinese. ▪ I haven't written to either parent. [=I haven't written to the mother or the father]
2 : one or the other of two ▪ You may take either road. ▪ You may choose either answer. ▪ Either way/option is all right with me. ▪ It's all right with me either way. = I don't mind either way. = Either way, I don't mind. [=both possibilities are okay to me]

[2]either pronoun : the one or the other ▪ Either (of the two answers) is correct. [=both answers are correct] ▪ I don't think that either of the two answers is correct. = Of the two answers, I don't think that either is correct. ▪ I don't like either of the answers. [=I like neither of the answers] ▪ I haven't written to either of my parents. ▪ French and English are closer to each other than either (of the two languages) is to Chinese.

> usage According to the rules of grammar, the pronoun either is singular and requires a singular verb. ▪ Either is correct. However, in informal writing and speech, a plural verb is common when either is followed by of. ▪ Either of the answers is/are correct. ▪ This was not something that either of them was/were happy about.

[3]either conj — used with or to indicate choices or possibilities ▪ You can either go or stay. ▪ I can't remember her name. It's either Marie or Mary. ▪ He will give the money either to his son or his daughter. = He will give the money to either his son or his daughter. ▪ A statement is either true or false. [=no statement is both true and false] ▪ They can either be black, brown, or blue. = They can be either black, brown, or blue. ✧ When either and or are used to join two subjects in a sentence, the verb should agree with the subject that is closer to it. ▪ Either the professor or the students are wrong. ▪ Either you or I am wrong.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 11 SESS: 19 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:32:08 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−e

[4]either adv : in addition — used after a negative statement ▪ The cars are reliable and are not expensive either. ▪ He is not wise or handsome either. [=he is neither wise nor handsome] ✧ The phrase me either is used in informal U.S. speech to say that you agree with a negative statement that someone has made. ▪ "I didn't like the movie." "Me either." [=I also didn't like the movie] The phrase me neither is used in the same way. ▪ "I don't like that guy." "Me neither."

ejac•u•late /ɪˈʤækjəˌleɪt/ verb -lates; -lat•ed; -lat•ing
1 medical : to release semen from the penis [+ obj] ejaculate semen [no obj] He was unable to ejaculate.
2 [+ obj] old-fashioned : to say (something) suddenly and forcefully ▪ "Good God!" he ejaculated.
– ejac•u•la•to•ry /ɪˈʤækjələˌtori/ adj, medical ▪ ejaculatory ducts

ejac•u•la•tion /ɪˌʤækjəˈleɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions
1 [count, noncount] medical : the release of semen from the penis ▪ premature ejaculation
2 [count] old-fashioned : a short and sudden expression of emotion ▪ He was greeted with ejaculations of surprise.

eject /ɪˈʤɛkt/ verb ejects; eject•ed; eject•ing
1 [+ obj] : to force (someone) to leave — often + from ▪ They ejected him from the game for hitting another player. ▪ She was ejected from the restaurant. ✧ When someone is ejected from a place, it often means that physical force was used to make that person leave. ▪ Several drunks had to be physically ejected from the bar.
2 [+ obj] : to push (something) out ▪ The machine automatically ejected the CD.
3 [no obj] : to use a special device that throws you out and away from an airplane in an emergency : to use an ejection seat ▪ The pilot ejected when his plane caught fire.
– ejec•tion /ɪˈʤɛkʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count] protesting their ejections from the game ▪ the foul meant an automatic ejection [noncount] automatic ejection of the CD

ejection seat (US) or ejec•tor seat /ɪˈʤɛktə-/ noun, pl ~ seats [count] : a special seat in an airplane that is used to throw you out and away from the plane when the plane is going to crash

eke /ˈiːk/ verb ekes; eked; ek•ing
eke out [phrasal verb] eke out (something) also eke (something) out 1 : to get or achieve (a living, a victory, etc.) with great difficulty ▪ They eked out a living from the poor soil of the family's farm. [=they could grow only enough food to survive] ▪ It looks like he has narrowly eked out a win in the election. ▪ The company eked out a tiny profit last year. 2 : to increase (something) by a small amount ▪ He eked out [=(more commonly) supplemented] his small income by working for neighbors. 3 : to make (a limited amount of something) last by using it carefully in small amounts ▪ eke out food supplies

EKG /ˌiːˌkeɪˈʤiː/ noun, pl EKGs [count] medical
1 : a printed recording of the heart's electrical activity made by a special machine — called also ECG, electrocardiogram
2 : a machine that detects and records the electrical activity of the heart — called also ECG, electrocardiograph

[1]elab•o•rate /ɪˈlæbərət/ adj [more ~; most ~] : made or done with great care or with much detail : having many parts that are carefully arranged or planned ▪ They made elaborate preparations for his visit. ▪ I see now that her behavior was all part of an elaborate plan/plot/scheme. ▪ The dancers were wearing elaborate costumes. ▪ He told the story in elaborate detail. ▪ an elaborate meal – elab•o•rate•ly adv ▪ The room was elaborately decorated.
– elab•o•rate•ness noun [noncount]

[2]elab•o•rate /ɪˈlæbəˌreɪt/ verb -rates; -rat•ed; -rat•ing
1 [no obj] : to give more details about something : to discuss something more fully ▪ I'll be glad to elaborate if you want to hear more. ▪ She was asked to say more about her earlier statements, but she declined/refused to elaborate. — often + on ▪ She refused to elaborate on her earlier statements.
2 [+ obj] : to bring (something, such as an idea or a plan) to a more advanced or developed state ▪ The philosopher spent years elaborating [=developing] his ideas.
– elab•o•ra•tion /ɪˌlæbəˈreɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [noncount] The design requires further elaboration. [count] his elaborations of the basic design élan /eɪˈlɑːn/ noun [noncount] literary : energy and enthusiasm ▪ The dancer performed with great élan.

elapse /ɪˈlæps/ verb elaps•es; elapsed; elaps•ing [no obj] of time : to pass by ▪ Weeks elapsed [=passed] before he returned home.

[1]elas•tic /ɪˈlæstɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : able to return to an original shape or size after being stretched, squeezed, etc. ▪ elastic fibers ▪ an elastic bandage ▪ pants with an elastic [=stretchable] waist
2 : able to be changed ▪ an elastic [=flexible] plan ▪ an elastic concept
– elas•tic•i•ty /ɪˌlæsˈtɪsəti/ noun [noncount] ▪ the elasticity of the fibers

[2]elastic noun, pl -tics
1 [noncount] : material that can be stretched : elastic fabric ▪ the elastic in socks
2 [count] US : RUBBER BAND ▪ She wrapped an elastic around the cards.

elas•ti•cat•ed /ɪˈlæstəˌkeɪtəd/ adj, Brit : ELASTICIZED

elastic band noun, pl ~ bands [count] Brit : RUBBER BAND

elas•ti•cized /ɪˈlæstəˌsaɪzd/ adj, US : containing something that returns to an original shape or size after being stretched : made with an elastic material inside ▪ an elasticized waistband elate /ɪˈleɪt/ verb elates; elat•ed; elat•ing [+ obj] : to make (someone) very happy and excited ▪ The discovery has elated researchers.

– ela•tion /ɪˈleɪʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ her feelings of elation at being chosen for the job

elat•ed /ɪˈleɪtəd/ adj [more ~; most ~] : very happy and excited ▪ She was elated at/about/over the news. ▪ She was elated to be chosen for the job. = She was elated that she was chosen for the job.

[1]el•bow /ˈɛlˌboʊ/ noun, pl -bows [count]
1 a : the joint where your arm bends — see picture at HUMAN b : the part of a piece of clothing that covers the elbow ▪ He wore a tattered coat with holes in the elbows.
2 : something (such as a pipe or a piece of food) that is bent like an elbow ▪ elbow macaroni — see picture at PLUMBING at someone's elbow : next to someone : at someone's side ▪ His assistant is always at his elbow. ▪ The drink at her elbow was untouched.
give (someone) the elbow Brit, informal : to end a relationship with someone : to tell someone to go away ▪ She gave her boyfriend the elbow after he lied to her.
rub elbows see [1]RUB

[2]elbow verb elbows; el•bowed; el•bow•ing : to push or shove (someone) with your elbow [+ obj] The actor's bodyguards rudely elbowed everyone out of the way. ▪ I quietly elbowed [=nudged] my friend to get his attention. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ Some of the older workers are being elbowed [=pushed] aside as the company tries to attract young employees. [no obj] Everyone was shoving and elbowing to get a good position. ✧ If you elbow your way through a crowd, you move ahead by pushing and forcing people to move out of the way. ▪ He elbowed his way through the crowd to get closer to the stage.

elbow grease noun [noncount] informal : physical effort : hard work ▪ It's going to take some elbow grease to get this counter clean. ✧ Elbow grease usually refers to the effort needed to clean or polish something.

elbow room noun [noncount] : room or space to move or work freely ▪ It's a small kitchen with very little elbow room. — often used figuratively ▪ The company provides its workers with elbow room to try new ideas.

[1]elder /ˈɛldɚ/ adj, always used before a noun : of greater age : OLDER ✧ Elder is usually used to describe people who are members of the same family. ▪ my elder brother/sister [=my brother/sister who is older than I am] ▪ my elder son/daughter [=the older one of my two sons/daughters] the elder 1 — used in comparing the ages of two people who are members of the same family ▪ He's the elder of her two brothers. 2 — used to refer to the older of two people (such as a father and son) who have the same name ▪ Pliny the Elder and his nephew Pliny the Younger

[2]elder noun, pl el•ders
1 [count] : a person who is older — usually plural ▪ He was told to respect his elders. [=people who were older than he was] ▪ She learned from her elders. ▪ (formal) He was my elder by 11 months. [=he was 11 months older than I was] ▪ (chiefly Brit) You should respect your elders and betters. [=people who are older and more important than you]
2 [count] : a person who has authority because of age and experience ▪ a village elder ▪ Traditions passed down by elders in the tribe.

E

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 12 SESS: 31 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:32:09 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−e

E

3 elders [plural] : old people ▪ day care for elders [=the elderly]
4 [count] : an official in some Christian churches
– compare [3]ELDER

[3]elder noun, pl elders [count] : ELDERBERRY 2 — compare [2]ELDER el•der•ber•ry /ˈɛldəˌberi/ noun, pl -ries [count]

1 : a black or red berry that comes from a type of bush or tree with bunches of white or pink flowers
2 : a tree or bush that produces elderberries

elder care noun [noncount] US : the care of old people ▪ an elder care facility [=a place that provides care for elderly people] : the care of elderly parents by their children ▪ resources for childcare and elder care

el•der•ly /ˈɛldəli/ adj [more ~; most ~] : old or rather old : past middle age ▪ The program is intended to provide medical care for elderly people. ▪ an elderly couple the elderly : elderly people ▪ providing care for the elderly

elder statesman noun, pl ~ -men [count]
1 : a retired government leader who gives advice to current leaders
2 : a respected man who has been a member of a group or organization for a long time ▪ an elder statesman of baseball coaches

el•dest /ˈɛldəst/ adj, always used before a noun : of the greatest age : OLDEST ✧ Eldest is usually used to describe people who are members of the same family. ▪ my eldest brother/sister/son/daughter/child the eldest — used in comparing the ages of people who are members of the same family ▪ He's the eldest of her three brothers.

[1]elect /ɪˈlɛkt/ verb elects; elect•ed; elect•ing [+ obj]
1 : to select (someone) for a position, job, etc., by voting ▪ She was elected (as) senator. = She was elected to the Senate. ▪ He hopes to be elected to the committee. ▪ an elected official
2 somewhat formal : to choose to do (something) — followed by to + verb ▪ We elected [=decided] to stay home.

[2]elect noun [plural] : people who belong to a special group and have privileges that other people do not have ▪ His new status earned him a place among the city's elect. [=(more commonly) elite]

[3]elect adj, always used after a noun : having been elected : chosen for a public office but not yet holding that office ▪ the governor elect — often hyphenated ▪ the president-elect

elec•tion /ɪˈlɛkʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count]
1 : the act or process of choosing someone for a public office by voting ▪ a presidential/gubernatorial election ▪ He's favored to win the election. — often used before another noun ▪ The election results are in. ▪ (US) Today is election day. [=(Brit) polling day] — see also GENERAL ELECTION
2 : the fact of being elected ▪ The scandal may affect his chances for election. ▪ Her election to the Senate was a surprise to many.

elec•tion•eer•ing /ɪˌlɛkʃəˈnɪrɪŋ/ noun [noncount] : the things that are done and said to help a political candidate or party to win an election ▪ Her tireless electioneering won her the election.

[1]elec•tive /ɪˈlɛktɪv/ adj
1 : held by a person who is elected ▪ He's never held an elective office.
2 : done or taken by choice: such as a : not medically necessary ▪ Plastic surgery is elective surgery. b chiefly US : not required in a particular course of study ▪ She took three elective courses last term.

[2]elective noun, pl -tives [count] US : a class that is not required in a particular course of study ▪ She's taking several electives this year. — called also (Brit) option

elec•tor /ɪˈlɛktər/ noun, pl -tors [count]
1 : a member of the Electoral College in the U.S.
2 formal : someone who can vote in an election : VOTER elec•tor•al /ɪˈlɛktərəl, ˌiːlɛkˈtorəl/ adj, always used before a noun : of or relating to an election or to the process by which people are elected ▪ electoral politics ▪ an electoral district ▪ an electoral system

Electoral College noun
the Electoral College : a group of people chosen from each U.S. state who meet to elect the President and Vice President of the U.S. based on the votes of all the people in each state elec•tor•ate /ɪˈlɛktərət/ noun, pl -ates [count] : the people who can vote in an election — usually singular ▪ The candidates try hard to appeal to the electorate. [=voters]

electr- or electro- combining form
1 : electricity ▪ *electro*magnet
2 : electric ▪ *electro*de : electric and ▪ *electro*chemical

elec•tric /ɪˈlɛktrɪk/ adj
1 or elec•tri•cal /ɪˈlɛktrɪkəl/ a : of or relating to electricity ▪ an electric/electrical current ▪ The device administers a mild electric shock. b : operated by electricity ▪ an electric motor/heater/blanket/razor/appliance ▪ The pasture was surrounded by an electric fence. [=a fence that has an electrical current passing through it] c : providing electricity ▪ It plugs into any electric socket. ▪ The electrical cord is damaged. ▪ There's a problem with the building's electrical wiring. — compare ELECTRONIC
2 : producing sound by using electricity ▪ an electric piano ▪ electric guitars
3 [more ~; most ~] : very exciting or thrilling ▪ The pianist gave an electric performance.; also : filled with tension or excitement ▪ The atmosphere in the room was electric.
– elec•tri•cal•ly /ɪˈlɛktrɪkli/ adv ▪ an electrically operated switch electrical engineering noun [noncount] : a type of engineering that deals with the uses of electricity – electrical engineer noun, pl ~ -neers [count] electrical storm noun, pl ~ storms [count] : a storm that has a lot of lightning — called also electric storm electric chair noun [singular] : a special chair in which a criminal who has been sentenced to death is killed by using a strong electric current electric eel noun, pl ~ eels [count] : a long, thin South American fish that is able to give a severe electric shock

elec•tri•cian /ɪˌlɛkˈtrɪʃən/ noun, pl -cians [count] : a person who works on and repairs electrical equipment

elec•tric•i•ty /ɪˌlɛkˈtrɪsəti/ noun [noncount]
1 : a form of energy that is carried through wires and is used to operate machines, lights, etc. ▪ Electricity can be dangerous. — see also STATIC ELECTRICITY
2 : electric current or power ▪ The electricity went off during the storm. ▪ an old building with no plumbing or electricity
3 : a feeling of excitement or tension ▪ You could feel the electricity in the room.

elec•trics /ɪˈlɛktrɪks/ noun [plural] Brit : the electrical parts of something (such as a machine or a house)

electric storm noun, pl ~ storms [count] : ELECTRICAL STORM

elec•tri•fy /ɪˈlɛktrəˌfaɪ/ verb - es ; - ed ; -fy•ing [+ obj]
1 a : to pass electricity through (something) ▪ an electrified fence [=a fence that has electricity running through it] b : to supply (an area, building, etc.) with electric power ▪ Many of the rural areas still aren't electrified.
2 : to cause (someone) to feel great excitement ▪ The news electrified the nation.
– elec•tri• •ca•tion /ɪˌlɛktrəfəˈkeɪʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ rural electrification programs [=programs for supplying electricity to rural areas] – electrifying adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ His performance was electrifying. [=very exciting] ▪ electrifying news

electro- see ELECTR-

elec•tro•car•dio•gram /ɪˌlɛktroʊˈkɑədijəˌgræm/ noun, pl -grams [count] medical : EKG

elec•tro•car•dio•graph /ɪˌlɛktroʊˈkɑədijəˌgræf, Brit ɪˌlɛktrəʊˈkɑːdiəˌgrɑːf/ noun, pl -graphs [count] medical : EKG

elec•tro•con•vul•sive therapy /ɪˌlɛktroʊkənˈvʌlsɪv-/ noun [noncount] medical : SHOCK THERAPY

elec•tro•cute /ɪˈlɛktrəˌkjuːt/ verb -cutes; -cut•ed; -cut•ing [+ obj] : to kill (a person or animal) by electric shock — usually used as (be/get) electrocuted ▪ He stepped on the power line and was nearly electrocuted.
– elec•tro•cu•tion /ɪˌlɛktrəˈkjuːʃən/ noun, pl -tions [noncount] There is a risk of electrocution. [count] There have been two electrocutions this year.

elec•trode /ɪˈlɛkˌtroʊd/ noun, pl -trodes [count] : one of the two points through which electricity flows into or out of a battery or other device elec•tro•en•ceph•a•lo•gram /ɪˌlɛktrowɪnˈsɛfələˌgræm/ noun, pl -grams [count] medical : EEG elec•tro•en•ceph•a•lo•graph /ɪˌlɛktrowɪnˈsɛfələˌgræf, Brit ɪˌlɛktrəwɪnˈsɛfələˌgrɑːf/ noun, pl -graphs [count] medical : EEG

elec•trol•y•sis /ɪˌlɛkˈtrɑːləsəs/ noun [noncount]

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 13 SESS: 60 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:32:09 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−e

1 : the process of removing unwanted hair by killing the hair root with an electric current ▪ She had electrolysis done on her upper lip.
2 chemistry : the process of separating a liquid into its different chemical parts by passing an electric current through it elec•tro•lyte /ɪˈlɛktrəˌlaɪt/ noun, pl -lytes [count]

1 chemistry : a liquid (such as the liquid in a battery) through which electricity can pass
2 technical : any one of various substances in the fluid of your body that control how your body processes waste and absorbs vitamins, minerals, etc. ▪ The drink will replenish your electrolytes.
– elec•tro•lyt•ic /ɪˌlɛktrəˈlɪtɪk/ adj, technical ▪ electrolytic processes

elec•tro•mag•net /ɪˌlɛktroʊˈmægnət/ noun, pl -nets [count] : a piece of metal that becomes magnetic when an electric current is passed through or near it

elec•tro•mag•ne•tism /ɪˌlɛktroʊˈmægnəˌtɪzəm/ noun [noncount] technical : a magnetic field that is produced by a current of electricity
– elec•tro•mag•net•ic /ɪˌlɛktroʊmægˈnɛtɪk/ adj ▪ the electromagnetic spectrum ▪ electromagnetic waves

elec•tron /ɪˈlɛkˌtrɑːn/ noun, pl -trons [count] physics : a very small particle of matter that has a negative charge of electricity and that travels around the nucleus of an atom elec•tron•ic /ɪˌlɛkˈtrɑːnɪk/ adj

1 : operating through the use of many small electrical parts (such as microchips and transistors) ▪ electronic devices such as televisions and computers ▪ an electronic circuit — compare ELECTRIC
2 : produced by the use of electronic equipment ▪ electronic music
3 a : operating by means of a computer : involving a computer or a computer system ▪ an electronic dictionary ▪ We did an electronic funds transfer. [=moved money from one bank to another using their computer systems] b : done over the Internet ▪ Sign up for electronic banking. ▪ electronic messaging services
– elec•tron•i•cal•ly /ɪˌlɛkˈtrɑːnɪkli/ adv ▪ We transferred the money electronically from one bank to another.

elec•tron•i•ca /ɪˌlɛkˈtrɑːnɪkə/ noun [noncount] : a kind of popular dance music that is produced using electronic equipment (such as synthesizers) electronic mail noun [noncount] : E-MAIL ▪ They communicate frequently by electronic mail.

elec•tron•ics /ɪˌlɛkˈtrɑːnɪks/ noun
1 [plural] a US : devices (such as televisions, radios, and computers) that operate using many small electrical parts ▪ Sales of consumer electronics are up. b : electronic parts ▪ There are problems with the system's electronics.
2 [noncount] technical : a science that deals with the uses and effects of electrons electron microscope noun, pl ~ -scopes [count] technical : a very powerful microscope that uses a beam of electrons to produce a large image of a very small object elec•tro•plate /ɪˈlɛktrəˌpleɪt/ verb -plates; -plat•ed; -plat•ing [+ obj] : to coat (something) with a thin layer of metal (such as silver) by using electrolysis (sense 2) — usually used as (be) electroplated ▪ The platter has an electroplated finish.

el•e•gant /ˈɛlɪgənt/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : showing good taste : graceful and attractive ▪ elegant clothes ▪ elegant prose ▪ an elegant dinner
2 : simple and clever ▪ an elegant solution to the problem
– el•e•gance /ˈɛlɪgəns/ noun [noncount] ▪ She's known for her elegance. ▪ the elegance of the solution – el•e•gant•ly adv ▪ elegantly dressed ▪ an elegantly simple solution

el•e•gy /ˈɛlədʒi/ noun, pl -gies [count] literary : a sad poem or song : a poem or song that expresses sorrow for someone who is dead — compare EULOGY
– el•e•gi•ac /ˌɛləˈdʒajək/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ elegiac poetry ▪ The passage has an elegiac tone.

el•e•ment /ˈɛləmənt/ noun, pl -ments
1 [count] chemistry : one of the basic substances that are made of atoms of only one kind and that cannot be separated by ordinary chemical means into simpler substances ▪ chemical elements ▪ Water is composed of the elements hydrogen and oxygen.
2 [count] : a particular part of something (such as a situation or activity) ▪ Self-confidence was a key/vital element [=factor] in her success. ▪ There's always an element of risk [=there's always some risk] in starting a new business. ▪ There's a large element of truth [=there's a great deal of truth] in what she says. ▪ The attackers were relying on the element of surprise. [=they were relying on their attack being a surprise]
3 [count] : a part of an electrical device that produces heat ▪ the (heating) element of an electric iron
4 elements [plural] : the most basic parts of a subject of study ▪ the elements [=rudiments] of grammar
5 [count] : a group of people that form part of a larger group ▪ the different elements of society ▪ the criminal element
6 elements [plural] : the weather and especially stormy or cold weather ▪ The deck's bare wood was exposed to the elements. ▪ The climbers battled/braved the elements to reach the summit.
7 [singular] : the state or place that is normal or suited to a person or thing ▪ At school she was (really) in her element. [=in a place where she was comortable and did well] ▪ I tried living in the city, but I was/felt out of my element there. [=living in the city did not suit me]
8 [count] : one of the four substances (air, water, fire, and earth) that were believed in the past to make up every physical thing in the universe

el•e•men•tal /ˌɛləˈmɛntl/ adj
1 [more ~; most ~] somewhat formal : basic and important : FUNDAMENTAL ▪ elemental human needs ▪ an elemental difference between the two — compare ELEMENTARY
2 [more ~; most ~] literary : having the power of a force of nature ▪ Their elemental passion led to tragedy. ▪ the elemental power/violence/fury of the storm
3 technical : of or relating to a chemical element ▪ elemental components ▪ an elemental analysis of the solution – el•e•men•tal•ly adv ▪ an elementally [=fundamentally] simple notion

el•e•men•ta•ry /ˌɛləˈmɛntri/ adj
1 [more ~; most ~] : basic and simple ▪ an elementary principle ▪ He is lacking even the most elementary notions of fairness. ▪ The researchers made an elementary error. : involving the simplest parts of a subject ▪ He has an elementary understanding of calculus. ▪ elementary arithmetic — compare ELEMENTAL
2 always used before a noun, chiefly US : of or relating to elementary school ▪ elementary [=grade-school] students ▪ elementary education elementary particle noun, pl ~ -cles [count] physics : a particle (such as an electron or proton) that is smaller than an atom and does not appear to be made up of a combination of more basic things elementary school noun, pl ~ schools [count, noncount] : a school in the U.S. for young children ✧ Children in the U.S. attend elementary school for their first four to eight years of schooling. — called also grade school, grammar school, primary school

el•e•phant /ˈɛləfənt/ noun, pl -phants [count] : a very large gray animal that has a long, flexible nose and two long tusks — see also WHITE ELEPHANT elephant

el•e•phan•tine /ˌɛləˈfænˌtiːn, Brit ɛləˈfænˌtaɪn/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : very large like an elephant ▪ a problem of elephantine [=massive] proportions ▪ He has an elephantine ego.
2 : not graceful : awkward or clumsy ▪ elephantine movements el•e•vate /ˈɛləˌveɪt/ verb -vates; -vat•ed; -vat•ing [+ obj]

1 : to lift (something) up ▪ The doctor told her to elevate [=raise] her leg.
2 : to increase the level of (something) : to make (something) higher ▪ exercises that elevate the heart rate
3 : to raise (someone) to a higher rank or level ▪ He was elevated to (the position of) chairman. = He was elevated to the chairmanship.
4 somewhat formal : to improve the mind or mood of (someone) ▪ A great book can both elevate and entertain its readers. ▪ A great book can elevate the human spirit. ▪ It was an elevating [=uplifting] experience.
elevate something to an art (form) see ART el•e•vat•ed /ˈɛləˌveɪtəd/ adj [more ~; most ~]

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 14 SESS: 61 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:32:10 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−e

1 : raised above the ground ▪ an elevated highway
2 : higher than normal ▪ elevated blood pressure
3 : having an intelligent and usually formal tone or quality ▪ an elevated mind ▪ elevated discourse ▪ Her poetry is known for its elevated style/tone.

el•e•va•tion /ˌɛləˈveɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count]
1 : the height of a place ▪ a plant species found only at higher/lower elevations ▪ an elevation [=altitude] of 4,000 feet (above sea level)
2 : an act or result of lifting or raising someone or something ▪ We charted the elevations in her temperature. ▪ His elevation to (the position of) chairman was a surprise to many.
3 : a place (such as a hill) that is higher than the area around it

el•e•va•tor /ˈɛləˌveɪtə/ noun, pl -tors [count] US
1 : a machine used for carrying people and things to different levels in a building ▪ We took/rode the elevator to the 10th floor. — called also (Brit) lift
2 : a tall building for storing grain — called also grain elevator elevator music noun [noncount] US : instrumental versions of popular songs that are often played in elevators, offices, etc.

elev•en /ɪˈlɛvən/ noun, pl -ens
1 [count] : the number 11
2 [count] : the eleventh in a set or series ▪ page eleven ▪ item/question number eleven
3 [noncount] : eleven o'clock ▪ I got home last night at eleven.
– eleven adj ▪ eleven turtles – eleven pronoun ▪ Eleven (of them) were absent from the ceremony. – elev•enth /ɪˈlɛvənθ/ noun, pl -enths [count] ▪ one eleventh of the total – eleventh adj ▪ the eleventh person in line – eleventh adv ▪ He finished eleventh in the race.

eleventh hour noun [singular] : the latest possible time — usually used in the phrase at the eleventh hour ▪ The killer's life was spared at the eleventh hour. [=at the last minute]

elf /ˈɛlf/ noun, pl elves /ˈɛlvz/ [count] : a small creature in stories usually with pointed ears and magical powers ▪ a mischievous elf
– elf•ish /ˈɛlfɪʃ/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ an elfish face

elf•in /ˈɛlfən/ adj [more ~; most ~] : having to do with elves : looking like an elf ▪ They were delighted with the child's elfin charm. ▪ a cute, elfin face elic•it /ɪˈlɪsət/ verb elic•its; elicit•ed; elicit•ing [+ obj] formal : to get (a response, information, etc.) from someone ▪ She's been trying to elicit the support of other committee members. ▪ My question elicited no response. ▪ She's been unable to elicit much sympathy from the public.

el•i•gi•ble /ˈɛlədʒəbəl/ adj
1 : able to be chosen for something : able to do or receive something ▪ I'd like to join but I'm not eligible yet. ▪ eligible voters — often followed by to + verb ▪ She is eligible to be (elected) president. ▪ He won't be eligible to retire until next year. — often + for ▪ He's eligible for health insurance through his employer. ▪ eligible for a loan
2 [more ~; most ~] : suitable and desirable for marriage ▪ He's an eligible bachelor. [=an unmarried man who would make a good husband]
– el•i•gi•bil•i•ty /ˌɛləjəˈbɪləti/ noun [noncount] ▪ eligibility for a loan

elim•i•nate /ɪˈlɪməˌneɪt/ verb -nates; -nat•ed; -nat•ing [+ obj]
1 : to remove (something that is not wanted or needed) : to get rid of (something) ▪ Doctors seek to eliminate the causes of the epidemic. ▪ The body naturally eliminates waste products. ▪ The company plans to eliminate more than 2,000 jobs in the coming year. ▪ The regime has ruthlessly eliminated [=killed] the leaders of the opposition. ▪ She's trying to eliminate fatty foods from her diet.
2 : to defeat and remove (a team, player, etc.) from a competition — often used as (be/get) eliminated ▪ The team was eliminated in the first round of the play-offs.

elim•i•na•tion /ɪˌlɪməˈneɪʃən/ noun [noncount] : the act or process of removing something or someone ▪ the elimination of waste products from the body ▪ They arrived at their decision by a process of elimination. [=by considering and rejecting each possible choice until only one was left]

elite /ɪˈliːt/ noun, pl elites [count]
1 : the people who have the most wealth and status in a society : the most successful or powerful group of people — usually singular ▪ a store that caters to the (social) elite ▪ the intellectual/political/academic elite ✧ Elite can be used with either a singular or, more commonly, a plural verb. ▪ The country's elite is/are opposed to the new ruler.
2 US : a person who is a member of an elite : a successful and powerful person — usually plural ▪ Many business elites oppose the new policy.
– elite adj, always used before a noun [more ~; most ~] ▪ elite members of the division ▪ an elite corps/club/university

elit•ist /ɪˈliːtɪst/ adj [more ~; most ~] disapproving
1 : giving special treatment and advantages to wealthy and powerful people ▪ elitist colleges ▪ The country club is very elitist.
2 : regarding other people as inferior because they lack power, wealth, etc. ▪ She's an elitist snob.
– elit•ism /ɪˈliːˌtɪzəm/ noun [noncount] ▪ the elitism of top colleges – elitist noun, pl -ists [count] ▪ a country club full of elitists

elix•ir /ɪˈlɪksə/ noun, pl -irs [count] : a magical liquid that can cure illness or extend life ▪ the elixir of life

Eliz•a•be•than /ɪˌlɪzəˈbiːθən/ adj : relating to Queen Elizabeth I of England or the time when she ruled (1558 to 1603) ▪ Elizabethan poetry – Elizabethan noun, pl -thans [count] ▪ Shakespeare and other great Elizabethans

elk /ˈɛlk/ noun, pl elk or elks [count]
1 US : a large kind of North American deer with big antlers — see picture at DEER; compare RED DEER
2 Brit : a European or Asian moose el•lipse /ɪˈlɪps/ noun, pl -lips•es [count] : a shape that resembles a flattened circle : OVAL

el•lip•sis /ɪˈlɪpsəs/ noun, pl -lip•ses /ɪˈlɪpˌsiːz/
1 [noncount] : the act of leaving out one or more words that are not necessary for a phrase to be understood ▪ "Begin when ready" for "Begin when you are ready" is an example of ellipsis.
2 [count] : a sign (such as . . .) used in printed text to show that words have been left out el•lip•ti•cal /ɪˈlɪptɪkəl/ or el•lip•tic /ɪˈlɪptɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : shaped like a flattened circle : OVAL ▪ The moon follows an elliptical path around the Earth.
2 : using few words and therefore hard to understand ▪ a writer with an elliptical style – el•lip•ti•cal•ly /ɪˈlɪptɪkli/ adv

elm /ˈɛlm/ noun, pl elms
1 [count, noncount] : a tall shade tree with spreading branches
2 [noncount] : the wood of an elm

El Ni•ño /ɛlˈniːnyoʊ/ noun, pl ~ Ni•ños [count] : a flow of unusually warm water along the western coast of South America that causes many changes in weather in other places (such as a lot of rain in areas that are usually dry) el•o•cu•tion /ˌɛləˈkjuːʃən/ noun [noncount] formal : the study of how to speak clearly and in a way that is effective and socially acceptable ▪ He took lessons in elocution.

– el•o•cu•tion•ary /ˌɛləˈkjuːʃəˌneri/ adj ▪ her elocutionary skill – el•o•cu•tion•ist /ˌɛləˈkjuːʃənɪst/ noun, pl -ists [count] ▪ He took lessons from an elocutionist.

elon•gate /ɪˈlɑːŋˌgeɪt, Brit ˈiːlɒŋgeɪt/ verb -gates; -gat•ed; -gat•ing : to make (something) longer or to grow longer : LENGTHEN [+ obj] These stretching exercises can help elongate your leg muscles. ▪ New medical procedures have elongated the careers of many athletes. [no obj] an elongating cell – elon•gat•ed /ɪˈlɑːŋˌgeɪtəd, Brit ˈiːlɒŋgeɪtəd/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ an elongated pause ▪ an elongated [=long and thin] figure – elon•ga•tion /iːˌlɑːŋˈgeɪʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ muscular elongation

elope /ɪˈloʊp/ verb elopes; eloped; elop•ing [no obj] : to run away secretly to get married ▪ The couple eloped in the middle of the night.
– elope•ment /ɪˈloʊpmənt/ noun, pl -ments [count, noncount]

el•o•quence /ˈɛləkwəns/ noun [noncount] : the ability to speak or write well and in an effective way ▪ The senator's eloquence is well known. ▪ She spoke with eloquence on the need for better schools. ▪ We were moved by her eloquence. = We were moved by the eloquence of her words.

el•o•quent /ˈɛləkwənt/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : having or showing the ability to use language clearly and effectively ▪ an eloquent speech/speaker ▪ an eloquent essay ▪ He waxed eloquent [=he said many things] on/about the pleasures of gardening.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 15 SESS: 19 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:32:10 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−e

2 : clearly showing feeling or meaning ▪ His success serves as an eloquent reminder of the value of hard work.
– el•o•quent•ly adv [more ~; most ~] ▪ She spoke eloquently about the need for better schools.

[1]else /ˈɛls/ adv : in a different or additional manner or place ▪ How else could it be done? [=in what other way could it be done?] ▪ Where else can we meet? [=at what other place can we meet?] ▪ "Where did you meet that actor?" "In Hollywood—where else?" [=at what other place would I be likely to meet an actor?] ▪ We decided to go someplace else for dinner. : at a different or additional time ▪ I don't know when else we could go. [=don't know another time when we could go] or else 1 — used to say what will happen if something is not done ▪ You have to leave or else you will be arrested for trespassing. 2 — used to say what another possibility is ▪ He either thinks he can't do it or else he just isn't interested. 3 informal — used in angry speech to express a threat without saying exactly what the threat is ▪ Do what I say or else!

[2]else adj — used to refer to a different or additional person or thing ▪ He values friendship more than anything else. = He values friendship above all else. ▪ That's somebody else's [=some other person's] problem. ▪ If all else fails, surgery is an option. ▪ Someone else in addition to him will have to do it. ▪ What else did he say? ▪ There was nothing else to be done. ▪ Who else is coming to the party? ▪ Would you like anything/something else? ▪ There isn't much else [=more] going on. ▪ The food was cheap, if nothing else. [=the food was not very good, but at least it was cheap]
nothing else for it see [1]NOTHING something else see [1]SOMETHING what else is new? informal — used to say that you are not surprised by something you have been told ▪ "They lost again." "So what else is new?"

else•where /ˈɛlsˌweə/ adv : in or to another place ▪ The angry customer said he would take his business elsewhere. ▪ Elsewhere in the same book she gives another date. ▪ The parts are produced elsewhere.

elu•ci•date /ɪˈluːsəˌdeɪt/ verb -dates; -dat•ed; -dat•ing formal : to make (something that is hard to understand) clear or easy to understand [+ obj] The spokesman was asked to elucidate [=clarify, explain] the government's policies (to/for us). [no obj] When asked for details, he declined to elucidate further.
– elu•ci•da•tion /ɪˌluːsəˈdeɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [noncount] notes providing elucidation of the text ▪ reporters seeking elucidation of the government's policy [count] reporters seeking elucidations of the government's policy

elude /iˈluːd/ verb eludes; elud•ed; elud•ing [+ obj]
1 : to avoid or escape (someone or something) by being quick, skillful, or clever ▪ The killer was able to elude the police. ▪ The killer has eluded capture. ▪ (American football) The running back eluded five tacklers.
2 a : to fail to be understood or remembered by (someone) ▪ The cause of the disease continues to elude researchers. ▪ The name of the author eludes me for the moment. [=I don't remember the name of the author] b : to fail to be achieved by (someone) ▪ Victory has eluded us. [=we have been unable to achieve victory] c ✧ When something eludes detection/discovery, people try to find it but are unable to. ▪ The cause of the disease has eluded detection/discovery.

Do not confuse elude with allude.

elu•sive /iˈluːsɪv/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : hard to find or capture ▪ elusive creatures ▪ The solution remains elusive. ▪ The truth may prove elusive.
2 : hard to understand, define, or remember ▪ an elusive concept/idea/name – elu•sive•ly adv – elu•sive•ness noun [noncount] ▪ the elusiveness of truth

elves plural of ELF em- see EN-

'em /əm/ pronoun, informal : THEM — used to represent an informal pronunciation of "them" ▪ He said, "Let 'em think what they want."

ema•ci•at•ed /ɪˈmeɪʃiˌeɪtəd/ adj [more ~; most ~] : very thin because of hunger or disease ▪ The illness left her in an emaciated condition. = The illness left her emaciated.
– ema•ci•a•tion /ɪˌmeɪʃiˈeɪʃən/ noun [noncount]

[1]e–mail /ˈiːˌmeɪl/ noun, pl -mails
1 [noncount] : a system for sending messages from one computer to another computer ▪ They communicate with each other by e-mail. ▪ an e-mail message
2 a [noncount] : messages that are sent electronically from one computer to another ▪ I seem to spend most of my time these days reading e-mail. b [count] : an e-mail message ▪ She sent me an e-mail.

[2]e–mail verb -mails; -mailed; -mail•ing [+ obj] : to send e-mail to (someone) ▪ I'll e-mail you tomorrow. : to send (a message) to someone by e-mail ▪ I'll e-mail my response to you tomorrow. = I'll e-mail you my response tomorrow.

em•a•nate /ˈɛməˌneɪt/ verb -nates -nat•ed; -nat•ing
1 [no obj] : to come out from a source ▪ Good smells emanated from the kitchen. ▪ Constant criticism has emanated from her opponents. ▪ Happiness seems to emanate from her.
2 [+ obj] : to send (something) out : to give out (something) ▪ Some radioactive substances can emanate [=(more commonly) emit] radiation for many years. ▪ She seems to emanate happiness.
– em•a•na•tion /ˌɛməˈneɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count] radioactive emanations [noncount] the continuous emanation of new ideas

eman•ci•pate /ɪˈmænsəˌpeɪt/ verb -pates; -pat•ed; -pat•ing [+ obj] formal : to free (someone) from someone else's control or power ▪ emancipate a slave ▪ He felt the only way to emancipate himself from his parents was to move away.
– emancipated adj ▪ an emancipated slave ▪ She considers herself an emancipated woman. [=a woman who is free from old social limitations and customs] – eman•ci•pation /ɪˌmænsəˈpeɪʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ the emancipation of the slaves – eman•ci•pa•tor /ɪˈmænsəˌpeɪtə/ noun, pl -tors [count] chiefly US ▪ an emancipator of slaves ▪ Abraham Lincoln is sometimes called the Great Emancipator.

emas•cu•late /ɪˈmæskjəˌleɪt/ verb -lates; -lat•ed; -lat•ing [+ obj]
1 : to make (a man) feel less masculine : to deprive (a man) of his male strength, role, etc. ▪ He plays the role of a meek husband who has been emasculated by his domineering wife.
2 : to make (something) weaker or less effective ▪ Critics charged that this change would emasculate the law.
– emas•cu•la•tion /ɪˌmæskjəˈleɪʃən/ noun [noncount] em•balm /ɪmˈbɑːm/ verb -balms; -balmed; -balm•ing [+ obj] : to treat (a dead body) with special chemicals to keep it from decaying – em•balm•er noun, pl -ers [count]

em•bank•ment /ɪmˈbæŋkmənt/ noun, pl -ments [count] : a raised bank or wall that is built to carry a roadway or hold back water em•bar•go /ɪmˈbɑəgoʊ/ noun, pl -goes [count] : a government order that limits trade in some way — often + on ▪ The government has placed/put an embargo on arms shipments. ▪ The embargo on oil will be lifted. ▪ an embargo on oil/arms = an oil/arms embargo – embargo verb -goes; -goed; -go•ing [+ obj] ▪ The government has embargoed all arms shipments.

em•bark /ɪmˈbɑək/ verb -barks; -barked; -bark•ing [no obj] : to begin a journey especially on a ship or airplane ▪ The troops are waiting to embark. ▪ Millions of Europeans embarked for America in the late 19th century. — opposite DEBARK, DISEMBARK embark on also embark upon [phrasal verb] embark on/upon (something) 1 : to begin (a journey) ▪ They embarked on their trip to America with high hopes. 2 : to begin (something that will take a long time or happen for a long time) ▪ She's embarking on a new career. ▪ The company has embarked upon a risky new project.
– em•bar•ka•tion /ˌɛmˌbɑəˈkeɪʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ a port of embarkation

em•bar•rass /ɪmˈberəs/ verb -rass•es; -rassed; -rass•ing
1 : to make (someone) feel confused and foolish in front of other people [+ obj] Unexpected laughter embarrassed the speaker. ▪ She's worried about embarrassing herself in front of such a large audience. [no obj] She doesn't embarrass easily. [=she is not easily embarrassed]
2 [+ obj] : to make (a person, group, government, etc.) look foolish in public ▪ I would never do anything to embarrass my family. ▪ The protest was staged as a deliberate attempt to embarrass the government.
– embarrassed adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ I've never been more embarrassed in my life. ▪ I'm embarrassed (to admit) that I've never actually read the book. – embarrassing adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ It was one of my most embarrassing

E

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 16 SESS: 34 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:32:11 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−e

moments. ▪ a very embarrassing scandal for the government – em•bar•rass•ing•ly /ɪmˈberəsɪŋli/ adv ▪ He was embarrassingly unprepared for the job interview.

em•bar•rass•ment /ɪmˈberəsmənt/ noun, pl -ments
1 [noncount] : the state of feeling foolish in front of others ▪ She couldn't hide her embarrassment. ▪ Much to my embarrassment, I realized that I had forgotten his name. [=I was very embarrassed when I realized that I had forgotten his name]
2 [count] : something or someone that causes a person or group to look or feel foolish ▪ The scandal was a major embarrassment for the government. ▪ He's an embarrassment to his family.
3 [count] : a very large number of things from which to choose — usually singular; + of ▪ We have an embarrassment of choices/options. [=we have a very large number of choices/options] ▪ With so many fine restaurants in the city, diners are faced with an embarrassment of riches. [=there are so many fine restaurants that it is difficult to choose one]

em•bas•sy /ˈembəsi/ noun, pl -sies [count]
1 : a group of people who work under an ambassador and represent their country in a foreign country ▪ embassy officials
2 : the building where an ambassador lives and works ▪ Protesters marched outside the American embassy.

em•bat•tled /ɪmˈbætld/ adj
1 : engaged in battle or conflict : surrounded by enemies ▪ an embattled city
2 [more ~; most ~] : constantly criticized or attacked ▪ the embattled coach of a losing team ▪ the company's embattled president

em•bed also im•bed /ɪmˈbɛd/ verb -beds; -bed•ded; -bed•ding [+ obj] : to place or set (something) firmly in something else ▪ embed a post in concrete — often used figuratively ▪ deeply embedded dislikes [=dislikes that have been felt for a long time and that are very deep] ▪ values and beliefs that are embedded in our culture [=that are established as part of our culture]

em•bel•lish /ɪmˈbɛlɪʃ/ verb -lish•es; -lished; -lish•ing [+ obj] : to decorate (something) by adding special details and features : to make (something) more appealing or attractive ▪ a book embellished with colorful illustrations ▪ He embellished his speech with a few quotations. ▪ (humorous) I didn't lie, I just embellished the story a little bit.
– em•bel•lish•ment /ɪmˈbɛlɪʃmənt/ noun, pl -ments [noncount] a story that doesn't require embellishment [count] architectural embellishments em•ber /ˈembə/ noun, pl -bers [count] : a glowing piece of coal or wood from a fire — usually plural ▪ He sat staring at the embers in the fireplace.

em•bez•zle /ɪmˈbɛzəl/ verb -bez•zles; -bez•zled; -bez•zling : to steal money that you have been trusted with [+ obj] He was caught embezzling money/funds from his clients. [no obj] He was convicted of embezzling.
– em•bez•zle•ment /ɪmˈbɛzəlmənt/ noun [noncount] ▪ the embezzlement of funds – em•bez•zler /ɪmˈbɛzələ/ noun, pl -zlers [count] ▪ a convicted embezzler em•bit•ter /ɪmˈbɪtə/ verb -ters; -tered; -ter•ing [+ obj] : to cause bitter feelings in (someone) ▪ The soldier was embittered by the war.

– embittered adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ The war left him angry and embittered.

em•bla•zon /ɪmˈbleɪzn/ verb -zons; -zoned; -zon•ing [+ obj]
1 : to write or draw (a name, picture, etc.) on a surface so that it can be seen very clearly — usually used as (be) emblazoned ▪ The team's name was emblazoned on their helmets. ▪ slogans and portraits emblazoned on banners
2 : to decorate (a surface) with something (such as a name or a picture) — usually used as (be) emblazoned ▪ The helmets were emblazoned with the team's name. ▪ banners emblazoned with slogans and portraits

em•blem /ˈembləm/ noun, pl -blems [count]
1 : an object or picture used to suggest a thing that cannot be shown ▪ The flag is the emblem of our nation. ▪ our national emblem
2 : a person or thing that represents an idea ▪ He has come to be regarded as an emblem of conservatism.

em•blem•at•ic /ˌemblə̇ˈmætɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] : representing something (such as an idea, state, or emotion) that cannot be seen by itself ▪ an emblematic image — usually + of ▪ The crown is emblematic of royalty. ▪ The project's failure is now seen as emblematic of poor corporate judgment.

em•bod•i•ment /ɪmˈbɑːdɪmənt/ noun, pl -ments [count] somewhat formal : someone or something that is a perfect representative or example of a quality, idea, etc. ▪ She's the embodiment of all our hopes. ▪ Some consider him the (very) embodiment of evil.

em•body /ɪmˈbɑːdi/ verb -bod•ies; -bod•ied; -body•ing [+ obj]
1 : to represent (something) in a clear and obvious way : to be a symbol or example of (something) ▪ He is a leader who embodies courage. [=he is a very courageous leader]
2 formal : to include (something) as a part or feature ▪ The legislature embodied a revenue provision in the new law. ▪ The new law embodies a revenue provision. = A revenue provision is embodied in the new law.

em•bold•en /ɪmˈboʊldən/ verb -ens; -ened; -en•ing [+ obj] : to make (someone) more confident — usually used as (be) emboldened ▪ He was emboldened by the success of his speech.

em•boss /ɪmˈbɑːs/ verb -boss•es; -bossed; -boss•ing [+ obj] : to decorate a surface with a raised pattern or design — usually used as (be) embossed ▪ His stationery was embossed with his initials. ▪ His initials were embossed on his stationery.
– embossed adj ▪ embossed stationery/paper/leather ▪ an embossed pattern/image

[1]em•brace /ɪmˈbreɪs/ verb -brac•es; -braced; -brac•ing
1 : to hold someone in your arms as a way of expressing love or friendship [+ obj] He embraced her warmly/lovingly/tenderly. ▪ two old friends (warmly) embracing [=hugging] each other [no obj] They embraced one last time before going their separate ways. ✧ Although embrace and hug each describe holding another person in your arms, embrace usually suggests deeper or stronger feelings than hug does.
2 [+ obj] a : to accept (something or someone) readily or gladly ▪ a politician who has been embraced by conservatives ▪ embrace [=adopt] a cause/religion ▪ These ideas have been (widely) embraced by a the scientific community. b : to use (an opportunity) eagerly ▪ She gladly/eagerly embraced [=welcomed] the opportunity/chance to study abroad.
3 [+ obj] formal : to contain or include (something) as a part of something larger ▪ Charity embraces all acts of generous giving. ▪ It's a subject that embraces many areas of learning.
4 [+ obj] literary : to enclose (something) on all sides — usually used as (be) embraced ▪ a town embraced [=surrounded] by low hills
– em•brace•able /ɪmˈbreɪsəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] – em•brac•er noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ an embracer of new technology

[2]embrace noun, pl embraces [count] : the act of holding someone in your arms : the act of embracing someone ▪ He held her in a warm/loving/tender embrace.

em•broi•der /ɪmˈbroɪdə/ verb -ders; -dered; -der•ing [+ obj]
1 : to sew a design on a piece of cloth ▪ She embroidered tiny flowers on the baby's scarf. ▪ a scarf embroidered with tiny flowers ▪ an embroidered scarf
2 : to make (a story, the truth, etc.) more interesting by adding details that are not true or accurate ▪ He is known to embroider the truth about his service in the army.
– em•broi•der•er /ɪmˈbroɪdərə/ noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ a skillful embroiderer

em•broi•dery /ɪmˈbroɪdəri/ noun, pl -der•ies
1 [noncount] : the process or art of sewing a design on cloth ▪ She learned embroidery from her grandmother.
2 : cloth decorated by sewing : embroidered material [count] a beautiful embroidery [noncount] her collection of embroidery
3 [noncount] : extra details that are added to make a story more interesting and that are not true or accurate ▪ His stories about his travels include a good deal of embroidery.

em•broil /ɪmˈbrojəl/ verb -broils; -broiled; -broil•ing [+ obj] : to involve (someone or something) in conflict or difficulties ▪ His stand on this issue has embroiled him in controversy. ▪ The new drug has been embroiled in controversy. ▪ They were embroiled in a complicated lawsuit.
– em•broil•ment /ɪmˈbrojəlmənt/ noun [noncount]

em•bryo /ˈembriˌoʊ/ noun, pl -bry•os [count] : a human or animal in the early stages of development before it is born, hatched, etc. — compare FETUS in embryo formal : in an early or undeveloped stage ▪ The ideas he explored fully in his later work can be seen in embryo in his early books.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 17 SESS: 62 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:32:12 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-e

em•bry•on•ic /ˌɛmbriˈɑːnɪk/ adj
1 : of or relating to an embryo ▪ human embryonic development ▪ embryonic tissue/cells
2 : in an early or undeveloped stage ▪ an embryonic plan ▪ The tourism industry there is still in/at an embryonic stage.

[1]em•cee /ˌɛmˈsiː/ noun, pl -cees [count] US : MASTER OF CEREMONIES ▪ It was his third appearance as emcee [=host] of the awards dinner.

[2]emcee verb -cees; -ceed; -cee•ing US : to be the master of ceremonies for something [+ obj] She agreed to emcee [=host] an awards dinner. [no obj] She agreed to emcee at an awards dinner.

emend /iˈmɛnd/ verb emends; emend•ed; emend•ing [+ obj] : to correct errors in (something written) ▪ emend a text — compare AMEND
– emen•da•tion /ˌiːˌmɛnˈdeɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count, noncount]

em•er•ald /ˈɛmərəld/ noun, pl -alds
1 [count] : a bright green stone that is used in jewelry — see color picture on page C11
2 [noncount] : a bright or rich green color — called also emerald green; see color picture on page C2
– emerald /ˈɛmərəld/ adj ▪ emerald [=bright green] eyes

emerge /iˈmɜːʤ/ verb emerg•es; emerged; emerg•ing [no obj]
1 a : to become known or apparent ▪ The facts emerged after a lengthy investigation. ▪ A simple pattern has emerged. [=become clear] ▪ Several possible candidates have emerged. b : to become known or regarded as something ▪ She has emerged as a leading contender in the field. ▪ His war record has emerged as a key issue in the election. ▪ The movie has (suddenly/quickly/rapidly) emerged as one of the year's most surprising hits.
2 : to rise or appear from a hidden or unknown place or condition : to come out into view ▪ when land first emerged from the sea ▪ The cat emerged from its hiding place behind the couch. ▪ animals emerging from a long period of inactivity
3 — used to indicate the usually good state or condition of someone or something at the end of an event, process, etc. ▪ Both sides in the election remain confident that they will emerge victorious/triumphant. [=that they will win] ▪ He emerged unharmed from the accident. [=he was not harmed in the accident]

emer•gence /iˈmɜːʤəns/ noun [noncount] : the act of becoming known or coming into view : the act of emerging ▪ his surprising emergence [=arrival, appearance] as a leader ▪ the emergence of the Internet as an important means of communication ▪ the economy's emergence from a recession

emer•gen•cy /iˈmɜːʤənsi/ noun, pl -cies [count] : an unexpected and usually dangerous situation that calls for immediate action ▪ Her quick thinking in an emergency saved the baby's life. ▪ Here's a phone number where I can be reached in (the event of) an emergency. — often used before another noun ▪ emergency vehicles/procedures/exits ▪ The pilot was forced to make an emergency landing when one of the engines failed. ✧ A state of emergency is declared to give the government special powers to deal with an emergency. ▪ The government declared a state of emergency to deal with all damage caused by the hurricane.

emergency brake noun, pl ~ brakes [count] chiefly US : a special brake (such as a parking brake in an automobile) that can be used for stopping when the main brakes fail emergency medical technician noun, pl ~ -cians [count] US : EMT emergency room noun, pl ~ rooms [count] US : a hospital room or area that is used for treating people who need immediate medical care — abbr. ER — called also (Brit) casualty

emer•gent /iˈmɜːʤənt/ adj, always used before a noun : EMERGING ▪ newly emergent nations emerging adj, always used before a noun : newly created or noticed and growing in strength or popularity : becoming widely known or established ▪ an emerging breed/group of new filmmakers [=a group of filmmakers who are becoming well known] ▪ There is an emerging consensus that the war will end soon. ▪ newly emerging countries/markets

emer•i•tus /iˈmerətəs/ adj : retired with an honorary title from an office or position especially in a university ▪ a professor emeritus of American history = an emeritus professor of American history em•ery board /ˈɛməri-/ noun, pl ~ boards [count] : a piece of cardboard that is covered with a rough material and that is used for smoothing and shaping fingernails em•i•grant /ˈɛmɪgrənt/ noun, pl -grants [count] : a person who leaves a country or region to live in another one : a person who emigrates ▪ Millions of European emigrants came to America in the 19th century. ▪ emigrants from Europe ▪ emigrants to America — compare IMMIGRANT, MIGRANT em•i•grate /ˈɛməˌgreɪt/ verb -grates; -grat•ed; -grat•ing [no obj] : to leave a country or region to live elsewhere — often + from ▪ My grandparents emigrated from Hungary. — sometimes + to ▪ My grandparents emigrated to America. — compare IMMIGRATE, MIGRATE – em•i•gra•tion /ˌɛməˈgreɪʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ Political unrest caused mass emigration following the war.

émi•gré also US emi•gré /ˈɛmɪˌgreɪ/ noun, pl -grés [count] : EMIGRANT; especially : a person who is forced to leave a country for political reasons ▪ He was one of a group of Soviet émigrés living in New York.

em•i•nence /ˈɛmɪnəns/ noun, pl -nenc•es
1 [noncount] : a condition of being well-known and successful ▪ literary/social eminence [=prestige] ▪ Many of his students have achieved eminence [=distinction] in their fields.
2 [count] formal : a person of high rank or achievements ▪ a literary eminence — used as a title for a cardinal in the Roman Catholic church ▪ His Eminence, Cardinal Cushing ▪ Will Your Eminence please step this way.
3 [count] formal : an area of high ground ▪ He built his home on an eminence [=height, hill] overlooking the city.

em•i•nent /ˈɛmɪnənt/ adj [more ~; most ~] : successful, well-known and respected ▪ an eminent physician

Do not confuse eminent with imminent.

eminent domain noun [noncount] law : a right of a government to take private property for public use ▪ The state took the homes by eminent domain to build the new road.

em•i•nent•ly /ˈɛmɪnəntli/ adv [more ~; most ~] somewhat formal : to a high degree ▪ It was an eminently [=extremely, very] enjoyable evening. ▪ an eminently sensible plan

emir /əˈmɪə/ noun, pl emirs [count] : a ruler, chief, or commander in an Islamic country emir•ate /ˈɛmərət/ noun, pl -ates [count] : the country or position of an emir em•is•sary /ˈɛməˌseri, Brit ˈɛməsri/ noun, pl -sar•ies [count] : a person who is sent on a mission to represent another person or organization ▪ government emissaries [=envoys] trying to negotiate a settlement ▪ She acted as the president's personal emissary to the union leaders.

emis•sion /iˈmɪʃən/ noun, pl -sions
1 [noncount] : the act of producing or sending out something (such as energy or gas) from a source ▪ emission of light ▪ trying to reduce the emission of greenhouse gases
2 [count] : something sent out or given off ▪ The new regulations are intended to reduce auto emissions. [=harmful substances released into the air by automobiles]

emit /iˈmɪt/ verb emits; emit•ted; emit•ting [+ obj]
1 : to send (light, energy, etc.) out from a source ▪ The telescope can detect light emitted by distant galaxies. ▪ chimneys emitting thick, black smoke ▪ The flowers of this plant emit [=give off] a powerful odor.
2 : to make (a certain sound) ▪ The brakes emitted a loud squeal. ▪ The students emitted [=let out] a (collective) groan as the test results were announced.

Em•my /ˈɛmi/ noun, pl -mys [count] : a small statue that is awarded each year to the best actors, programs, etc., in American television ▪ She won an Emmy for that role.

emote /iˈmoʊt/ verb emotes; emot•ed; emot•ing [no obj] : to express emotion in a very dramatic or obvious way ▪ He stood on the stage, emoting and gesturing wildly.

emo•ti•con /iˈmoʊtiˌkɑːn/ noun, pl -cons [count] : a group of keyboard characters that are used to represent a facial expression (such as a smile or frown) ✧ Emoticons are used by people writing on computers to indicate the tone or attitude of what is written. People often use a smiling emoticon like :-) to show that their comments are meant in a friendly or joking way.

emo•tion /iˈmoʊʃən/ noun, pl -tions : a strong feeling (such as love, anger, joy, hate, or fear) [count] He's always found it hard to express (his) emotions. [=to show his feelings] ▪ strong/deep emotions ▪ negative/positive emotions ▪ I have mixed emotions [=mixed feelings] about doing this. [=I'm not sure if I want to do this or not] [noncount] He spoke with great emotion. [=passion] ▪ a display of raw emotion ▪ The defendant showed/displayed no emotion when the verdict was read. ▪ She was overcome with/by emotion at the news of her friend's death.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 18 SESS: 36 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:32:12 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-e

emo•tion•al /ɪˈmoʊʃənl/ adj
1 : relating to emotions ▪ an emotional disorder
2 [more ~; most ~] a : likely to show or express emotion : easily upset, excited, etc. ▪ He's a very emotional person. b : showing emotion — used especially to describe someone who is crying because of strong emotion ▪ He tends to get emotional at weddings.
3 [more ~; most ~] : causing a person to feel emotion ▪ He gave an emotional [=moving] speech. ▪ an emotional experience ▪ Abortion is an emotional issue. [=an issue that causes people to feel strong emotions]
– emo•tion•al•ly /ɪˈmoʊʃənəli/ adv [more ~; most ~] ▪ He wasn't emotionally ready to become a father. ▪ an emotionally disturbed person

emo•tion•less /ɪˈmoʊʃənləs/ adj [more ~; most ~] : showing, having, or expressing no emotion ▪ She did her job with emotionless efficiency. ▪ emotionless eyes emo•tive /ɪˈmoʊtɪv/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : of or relating to emotions ▪ emotive language
2 Brit : causing strong emotions for or against something ▪ Abortion is a very emotive [=(US) emotional] issue.

empanel variant spelling of IMPANEL em•pa•thize also Brit em•pa•thise /ˈɛmpəˌθaɪz/ verb -thiz•es; -thized; -thiz•ing [no obj] : to have the same feelings as another person : to feel empathy for someone — often + with ▪ He learned to empathize with the poor. — compare SYMPATHIZE em•pa•thy /ˈɛmpəθi/ noun [noncount] : the feeling that you understand and share another person's experiences and emotions ▪ He felt great empathy with/for/toward the poor. : the ability to share someone else's feelings ▪ His months spent researching prison life gave him greater empathy towards/for convicts. — compare SYMPATHY em•per•or /ˈɛmpərə/ noun, pl -ors [count] : a man who rules an empire ▪ Roman emperors — compare EMPRESS em•pha•sis /ˈɛmfəsəs/ noun, pl -pha•ses /-fəˌsiːz/

1 [noncount] : a forceful quality in the way something is said or written ▪ You need to state your arguments with greater emphasis. [=state your arguments more forcefully]
2 [noncount] : added force that is given to a word or syllable when speaking ▪ The emphasis [=stress] in the word "happiness" is on the first syllable.
3 : special importance or attention given to something [noncount] — usually + on ▪ The emphasis in this drill is on using proper technique. ▪ She puts/places/lays (particular/special/great) emphasis on developing good study habits. [count] Our candidate's plan has a different emphasis.

em•pha•size also Brit em•pha•sise /ˈɛmfəˌsaɪz/ verb -siz•es; -sized; -siz•ing [+ obj] : to give special attention to (something) : to place emphasis on (something) ▪ Their father always emphasized [=stressed] the importance of discipline. [=always said that discipline was important] ▪ He wanted to emphasize (to us) that he hadn't meant to offend anyone.

em•phat•ic /ɪmˈfætɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : said or done in a forceful or definite way ▪ Her answer was an emphatic [=resounding] "Yes!" ▪ a man with emphatic [=strong, definite] opinions ▪ an emphatic victory
2 : speaking or acting in a forceful way ▪ They were emphatic about their political differences.
– em•phat•i•cal•ly /ɪmˈfætɪkli/ adv ▪ He declared emphatically [=forcefully] that he did not believe them. ▪ This is emphatically [=definitely] not the right thing to do.

em•phy•se•ma /ˌɛmfəˈziːmə, Brit ˌɛmfəˈsiːmə/ noun [noncount] medical : a disease in which the lungs become stretched and breathing becomes difficult em•pire /ˈɛmˌpajə/ noun, pl -pires [count]

1 : a group of countries or regions that are controlled by one ruler or one goverment; especially : a group of countries ruled by an emperor or empress ▪ the Roman Empire
2 : a very large business or group of businesses under the control of one person or company ▪ She built a tiny business into a worldwide empire. ▪ He controlled a cattle empire in the heart of Texas. ▪ a media empire

em•pir•i•cal /ɪmˈpɪrɪkəl/ also em•pir•ic /ɪmˈpɪrɪk/ adj : based on testing or experience ▪ They collected plenty of empirical data/evidence from their experiments. ▪ empirical laws – em•pir•i•cal•ly /ɪmˈpɪrɪkli/ adv ▪ Her theory had not yet been tested empirically.

em•pir•i•cism /ɪmˈpirəˌsɪzəm/ noun [noncount] : the practice of basing ideas and theories on testing and experience – em•pir•i•cist /ɪmˈpirəsɪst/ noun, pl -cists [count]

em•place•ment /ɪmˈpleɪsmənt/ noun, pl -ments
1 [count] : a position that is specially prepared for a weapon ▪ machine-gun emplacements
2 [noncount] : the act of putting something (such as a weapon) into position ▪ secret emplacement of missiles on the island

[1]em•ploy /ɪmˈploɪ/ verb -ploys; -ployed; -ploy•ing [+ obj]
1 somewhat formal a : to use (something) for a particular purpose or to do something ▪ She employed [=used] a pen for sketching wildlife. ▪ a method (widely/commonly/frequently) employed to improve garden soil ▪ The company is accused of employing questionable methods to obtain the contract. b : to use or direct (something, such as your time or effort) in order to achieve a particular goal ▪ You should find better ways to employ your time. ▪ Your time could be better employed [=spent] in learning a new skill.
2 a : to use or get the services of (someone) to do a particular job ▪ I had to employ a lawyer to review the contract. b : to provide (someone) with a job that pays wages or a salary ▪ It's a small company, employing a staff of only 20. ▪ He's employed by the local drugstore. [=he has a job at the local drugstore] ▪ She hasn't been gainfully employed [=hasn't had a job that pays wages or a salary] for a few years. — often + as ▪ She's been employed as a gardener for many years.
– em•ploy•able /ɪmˈplojəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ He lacks the skills needed to be employable.

[2]employ noun
in someone's employ formal : employed by someone for wages or a salary ▪ The company has been generous to people in their employ. [=generous to their employees] ▪ The defendant was at that time in the employ of [=employed by] a trucking company.

em•ploy•ee /ɪmˌplɔɪˈiː, ɪmˈplɔɪˌiː/ noun, pl -ees [count] : a person who works for another person or for a company for wages or a salary ▪ A good boss listens to his employees. ▪ The company has more than 2,000 employees worldwide. ▪ employee benefits em•ploy•er /ɪmˈplojə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a person or company that has people who do work for wages or a salary : a person or company that has employees ▪ It was the employer's responsibility to improve workplace safety. ▪ Your travel expenses should be paid for by your employer.

em•ploy•ment /ɪmˈplɔɪmənt/ noun [noncount]
1 : the act of employing someone or something: such as a : the act of using something ▪ We object to the company's employment [=use, utilization] of pesticides. b : the act of paying someone to do a job ▪ laws that have encouraged the employment of women
2 a : work that a person is paid to do ▪ I've been looking for employment in the machine trade. ▪ The new factory should provide employment for hundreds of workers. ▪ unskilled workers trying to find paid/gainful employment ▪ full-time/part-time employment ▪ She hopes to find employment as a teacher. — often used before another noun ▪ an employment contract ▪ my employment history b : the state of being employed : the state of being paid to do a job ▪ The magazine did well during the course of her employment as editor. c : the number of people who have jobs in a particular place or area ▪ Employment is at an all-time high in this part of the state. d : jobs that are available for workers ▪ The city is faced with inadequate housing and a lack of employment.

employment agency noun, pl ~ -cies [count] : a company whose business is to find jobs for people ▪ He found work as a mechanic through an employment agency.

em•po•ri•um /ɪmˈporijəm/ noun, pl -po•ri•ums also -po•ria /-ˈporijə/ [count] old-fashioned : a store or shop ▪ a furniture emporium ▪ a men's clothing emporium

em•pow•er /ɪmˈpawə/ verb -ers; -ered; -er•ing [+ obj]
1 : to give power to (someone) ▪ seeking changes in the workplace that will empower women
2 : to give official authority or legal power to (someone) — followed by to + verb ▪ Congress has empowered state legislatures to set educational standards. — often used as (be) empowered ▪ His attorney was empowered to act on his behalf. — opposite DISEMPOWER – em•pow•er•ment /ɪmˈpawəmənt/ noun [noncount] ▪ empowerment of women

em•press /ˈɛmprəs/ noun, pl -press•es [count]

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 19 SESS: 19 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:32:13 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-e

1 : the wife or widow of an emperor ▪ the Emperor and Empress of Japan
2 : a woman who rules an empire ▪ Catherine the Great was Empress of Russia. — compare EMPEROR

emptor see CAVEAT EMPTOR

[1]emp•ty /ˈɛmpti/ adj emp•ti•er; -est
1 : containing nothing ▪ The box was empty. ▪ an empty beer can ▪ vast empty spaces ▪ empty shelves ▪ This medication should not be taken on an empty stomach. [=you should eat something before taking this medication]
2 : not having any people : not occupied ▪ an empty house ▪ an empty beach/street ▪ empty beds/seats ▪ an empty factory ▪ The arena was completely empty.
3 : having no real purpose or value ▪ She felt trapped in an empty marriage. ▪ unhappy people leading empty lives
4 : having no effect : not sincere or meaningful ▪ an empty [=hollow, idle] threat ▪ an empty promise ▪ Her apology was just an empty gesture. ▪ Their promises are just a lot of empty talk/words.
5 : not showing emotion or life ▪ She looked at me with empty eyes. ▪ a crowd of empty faces come up empty see [1]COME empty of : completely without (something) ▪ The arena was empty of spectators. ▪ The streets are now empty of traffic.
– emp•ti•ly /ˈɛmptəli/ adv ▪ He stared emptily out the window. – emp•ti•ness /ˈɛmptinəs/ noun [noncount] ▪ the vast emptiness of outer space

[2]empty verb emp•ties; emp•tied; emp•ty•ing
1 [+ obj] : to remove the contents of (something) : to make (something) empty ▪ empty (out) a bag ▪ She emptied her purse (out) onto the table. ▪ The bomb threat emptied the crowded theater. [=caused everyone to leave the theater] ▪ He emptied his glass. [=he drank everything that was in his glass] ▪ She tried to empty her mind (of thoughts). ▪ He emptied his gun. [=he shot all the bullets in his gun]
2 [+ obj] : to remove all of (something) from a container ▪ She emptied the contents of her purse onto the table. ▪ It's your turn to empty the trash.
3 [no obj] : to become empty ▪ The theater emptied (out) quickly after the show.
empty into [phrasal verb] empty into (something) of a river, stream, etc. : to flow into (something) ▪ The river empties into the Indian Ocean.

[3]empty noun, pl empties [count] : an empty bottle or can — usually plural ▪ Return your empties here.

emp•ty–hand•ed /ˌɛmptiˈhændəd/ adj : without having, carrying, or bringing anything ▪ I don't want to show up (at the party) empty-handed. ▪ She came back (from the conference) empty-handed.

emp•ty–head•ed /ˌɛmptiˈhɛdəd/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not intelligent : STUPID ▪ He thinks all athletes are just empty-headed jocks.
– emp•ty–head•ed•ness /ˌɛmptiˈhɛdədnəs/ noun [noncount]

empty nester noun, pl ~ -ers [count] : a parent whose children have grown up and moved away from home

EMT /ˌiːˌɛmˈtiː/ noun, pl EMTs or EMT's [count] : a person who is trained to provide emergency medical services to patients who are being taken to a hospital — called also emergency medical technician

emu /ˈiːmju, ˈiːmu/ noun, pl emus [count] : an Australian bird that does not fly but is a very fast runner em•u•late /ˈɛmjəˌleɪt/ verb -lates; -lat•ed; -lat•ing [+ obj] : to try to be like (someone or something you admire) ▪ She grew up emulating her sports heroes. ▪ artists emulating the style of their teachers – em•u•la•tion /ˌɛmjəˈleɪʃən/ noun [noncount]

em•u•la•tor /ˈɛmjəˌleɪtɚ/ noun, pl -tors [count]
1 : a person who tries to be like someone else ▪ great artists and their emulators [=imitators]
2 computers : a program or device that permits programs written for one kind of computer to be used on another kind of computer

emul•si•fy /ɪˈmʌlsəˌfaɪ/ verb - es ; - ed ; -fy•ing technical : to mix liquids together to form an emulsion [+ obj] emulsify oil and vinegar [no obj] mix the oil and vinegar until they emulsify
– emul•si• •ca•tion /ɪˌmʌlsəfəˈkeɪʃən/ noun [noncount] – emul•si• •er /ɪˈmʌlsəˌfajɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count, noncount] emul•sion /ɪˈmʌlʃən/ noun, pl -sions [count] technical

1 : a mixture of liquids ✧ In an emulsion, small drops of one liquid are mixed throughout another liquid. ▪ an emulsion of oil in water
2 : a thin coating on photographic film or paper that contains chemicals which are sensitive to light en- /ɪn/ also em- /ɪm/ prefix ✧ In all senses em- is usually used before words starting with b, m, or p.

1 : to put into or onto ▪ *en*code ▪ *en*danger ▪ *en*throne ▪ *em*bed
2 : to cause to be ▪ *en*rich ▪ *en*slave
3 : to provide with ▪ *em*power ▪ *em*body
4 : to cover with ▪ *en*shroud
5 : thoroughly ▪ *en*snare ▪ *en*tangle

[1]-en /ən/ adj suffix : made of : consisting of ▪ earth*en* ▪ wool*en*

[2]-en verb suffix
1 : to become or cause to be ▪ sharp*en* ▪ whit*en* ▪ sadd*en* ▪ broad*en*
2 : to cause or come to have ▪ length*en* ▪ strength*en*

en•able /ɪˈneɪbəl/ verb -ables; -abled; -abling [+ obj]
1 a : to make (someone or something) able to do or to be something ▪ The machine enables us to create copies without losing quality. ▪ The system enables students to access class materials online. ▪ These choices are part of what enabled the company to be successful. b : to make (something) possible, practical, or easy ▪ a filing system that enables easy access to information ▪ The proposed tax will enable [=facilitate] the hiring of more police officers.
2 technical : to cause (a feature or capability of a computer) to be active or available for use ▪ Be sure to enable your computer's firewall. — often used in combination ▪ a wireless-enabled laptop [=a laptop that is able to send and receive wireless signals]

en•act /ɪˈnækt/ verb -acts; -act•ed; -act•ing [+ obj]
1 somewhat formal : to perform (something, such as a scene in a play) ▪ We will enact [=act out] parts of three plays.
2 : to make (a bill or other legislation) officially become part of the law ▪ Congress will enact legislation related to that issue. ▪ The law was finally enacted today.
– en•act•ment /ɪˈnæktmənt/ noun, pl -ments [noncount] The enactment [=passage] of this law will save lives. [count] legislative enactments

enam•el /ɪˈnæməl/ noun, pl -els
1 a : a material like colored glass that is heated until it is liquid and then used to decorate the surface of metal, glass, or pottery [noncount] The tea set is decorated with enamel. [count] an artist who works with enamels b [count] : something decorated with enamel ▪ The museum has a fine collection of enamels.
2 [noncount] : the very hard outer layer of a tooth
3 : a kind of paint that is shiny and very hard when it dries [noncount] We painted the doors with enamel (paint). [count] enamels and acrylics
– enam•eled (US) or Brit enam•elled /ɪˈnæməld/ adj ▪ colorful enameled jewelry [=jewelry that is decorated with enamel] ▪ an enameled pot

enam•e•ling (US) or Brit enam•el•ling /ɪˈnæməlɪŋ/ noun [noncount]
1 : decoration done with enamel ▪ The box was covered with elaborate enameling. ▪ The enameling on the teapot is beautiful.
2 : the act or technique of decorating things with enamel ▪ He studied enameling with a master craftsman.

en•am•or (US) or Brit en•am•our /ɪˈnæmɚ/ verb -ors; -ored; -or•ing [+ obj] : to cause (someone) to be loved or admired — usually used in negative statements; usually + to ▪ His bad temper did not enamor [=endear] him to his employees. [=his bad temper made his employees dislike him]

enamored (US) or Brit enamoured adj [more ~; most ~] : in a state in which you love, admire, or are very interested in something or someone ▪ the movie star's enamored fans — usually + of or with ▪ I became completely enamored of [=fascinated with] the island and its people. ▪ He was enamored with her [=in love with her] from the day they met. ▪ She is less than enamored with her new job. [=she does not like it]

en bloc /ɑnˈblɑːk/ adv, chiefly Brit : as or in a united group : all together ▪ The amendments were accepted en bloc.

enc. abbr enclosure

en•camp /ɪnˈkæmp/ verb -camps; -camped; -camp•ing formal : to set up and use a camp [no obj] Napoleon's troops encamped there. [+ obj] — usually used as (be) encamped ▪ the location where Napoleon's troops were encamped ▪ Refugees are encamped along the border. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ Reporters were encamped [=(more commonly)

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 20 SESS: 37 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:32:13 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−e

camped out] in front of the courthouse.
– en•camp•ment /ɪn'kæmpmənt/ noun, pl -ments [count] ▪ a military encampment

en•cap•su•late /ɪn'kæpsəˌleɪt/ verb -lates; -lat•ed; -lat•ing [+ obj]
1 : to show or express the main idea or quality of (something) in a brief way ▪ a phrase that perfectly encapsulates [=sums up] my feelings about the day ▪ The first song encapsulates [=captures] the mood of the whole album.
2 : to completely cover (something) especially so that it will not touch anything else ▪ The contaminated material should be encapsulated and removed.
– en•cap•su•la•tion /ɪnˌkæpsə'leɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count] The book is an encapsulation of the history of marathons. [noncount] a complex subject that resists encapsulation en•case /ɪn'keɪs/ verb -cas•es; -cased; -cas•ing [+ obj] : to completely cover (something) ▪ Ice encased the trees and power lines after the storm. — often used as (be) encased ▪ The package is encased in plastic. ▪ His feet were encased in heavy boots.

-ence /əns/ noun suffix
1 : the state of having a particular quality ▪ confid*ence* ▪ depend*ence* ▪ despond*ence*
2 : the action or process of doing something ▪ emerg*ence* ▪ refer*ence* ▪ reminisc*ence*

en•chant /ɪn'ʧænt, Brit ɪn'ʧɑ:nt/ verb -chants; -chant•ed; -chant•ing
1 : to attract and hold the attention of (someone) by being interesting, pretty, etc. [+ obj] The book has enchanted children for almost a century. — often used as (be) enchanted ▪ Visitors will be enchanted [=captivated, charmed] by the beauty of the place. [no obj] The beauty of the place enchants.
2 [+ obj] : to put a magic spell on (someone or something) ▪ a tale about a wizard who enchants [=bewitches] a princess – enchanted adj ▪ It's a beautiful, enchanted [=enchanting, captivating] place. ▪ The story takes place in an enchanted forest. – enchanting adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ an enchanting book ▪ the enchanting beauty of the place – en•chant•ing•ly adv ▪ an enchantingly beautiful place

en•chant•er /ɪn'ʧæntə, Brit ɪn'ʧɑ:ntə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a person who uses spells or magic : a sorcerer or wizard

en•chant•ment /ɪn'ʧæntmənt, Brit ɪn'ʧɑ:ntmənt/ noun, pl -ments
1 [noncount] : a feeling of being attracted by something interesting, pretty, etc. : the state of being enchanted ▪ Our enchantment faded when we found that the house needed even more repairs. — often + with ▪ My enchantment [=fascination] with the place continues to grow. — compare DISENCHANTMENT
2 : a quality that attracts and holds your attention by being interesting, pretty, etc. [noncount] the enchantment of a snowy field bathed in moonlight [count] He writes about the dangers as well as the enchantments of sailing.
3 [count] : a magic spell ▪ stories about wizards and enchantments

en•chant•ress /ɪn'ʧæntrəs, Brit ɪn'ʧɑ:ntrəs/ noun, pl -ress•es [count]
1 : a woman who uses spells or magic : a sorceress or witch
2 : a very interesting or beautiful woman

en•chi•la•da /ˌɛnʧə'lɑ:də/ noun, pl -das [count] : a Mexican food that consists of a flat piece of bread (called a tortilla) that is rolled around a meat, bean, or cheese filling and covered with a sauce the big enchilada US, informal : the most important issue, person, etc. ▪ She's won many awards for her writing in the past, but this one is the big enchilada.
the whole enchilada US, informal : the entire thing : EVERYTHING ▪ The celebration included music, food, fireworks—the whole enchilada. ▪ The team may win the whole enchilada [=the championship] this year.

en•cir•cle /ɪn'sɚkəl/ verb -cir•cles; -cir•cled; -cir•cling [+ obj] : to form a circle around (someone or something) ▪ A fence encircles the field. = The field is encircled by a fence. : to surround (someone or something) ▪ A crowd of reporters encircled the mayor.

encl. abbr enclosure

en•clave /'ɛnˌkleɪv, 'ɑ:nˌkleɪv/ noun, pl -claves [count] : an area with people who are different in some way from the people in the areas around it ▪ The city has a large Chinese enclave. [=an area where many Chinese people live] ▪ one of the city's wealthy enclaves [=one of the areas in the city where only wealthy people can afford to live]

en•close /ɪn'kloʊz/ verb -clos•es; -closed; -clos•ing [+ obj]
1 a : to surround (something) ▪ High walls enclose the courtyard. = The courtyard is enclosed by high walls. ▪ The pie's flaky crust encloses a fruit filling. b : to put something around (something) ▪ We want to enclose the porch [=build walls around the porch] and use it as a dining room. ▪ Enclose the fish in foil and bake.
2 : to include (something) with a letter or in a package ▪ She enclosed a photo with the card. ▪ Please enclose a check with your application. ▪ Enclosed with this letter are the tickets you ordered.
– enclosed adj ▪ an enclosed porch/courtyard ▪ The enclosed tickets are for you.

en•clo•sure /ɪn'kloʊʒə/ noun, pl -sures
1 [count] : an area that is surrounded by a wall, fence, etc. : an enclosed space ▪ During the day the horses are kept in an enclosure. ▪ a garden enclosure
2 [count] : something that is included with a letter or in a package ▪ a letter with two enclosures ▪ One of the enclosures was a photograph. — abbr. enc. or encl.
3 [noncount] : the act of enclosing something ▪ the enclosure of a photograph with a letter ▪ the enclosure of the garden en•code /ɪn'koʊd/ verb -codes; -cod•ed; -cod•ing [+ obj]

1 : to put (a message) into the form of a code so that it can kept secret : CODE ▪ an encoded message — compare DECODE
2 : to put information in the form of a code on (something) ▪ Credit cards are encoded with cardholder information.
3 : to change (information) into a set of letters, numbers, or symbols that can be read by a computer ▪ a technology that encodes images/files – en•cod•er noun, pl -ers [count]

en•com•pass /ɪn'kʌmpəs/ verb -pass•es; -passed; -pass•ing [+ obj]
1 : to include (something) as a part ▪ My interests encompass [=cover, include] a broad range of topics. ▪ The district encompasses most of the downtown area. — see also ALL-ENCOMPASSING
2 : to cover or surround (an area) ▪ A thick fog encompassed [=enveloped] the city. ▪ a neighborhood encompassed by a highway

[1]encore /'ɑ:nˌkoə/ interj — used by an audience to call for another song, dance, etc., when a performance has ended ▪ The audience shouted "Encore!" as the singer left the stage.

[2]encore noun, pl en•cores [count]
1 : an extra piece of music performed in response to a request from the audience ▪ He sang a folk song as/for an encore.
2 : something that follows a success ▪ Her first novel was a best seller—but what is she going to do for an encore?

[1]en•coun•ter /ɪn'kaʊntə/ verb -ters; -tered; -ter•ing [+ obj]
1 : to have or experience (problems, difficulties, etc.) ▪ We encountered problems early in the project. ▪ The pilot told us that we might encounter turbulence during the flight. ▪ Her suggestion has encountered a lot of opposition.
2 formal : to meet (someone) without expecting or intending to ▪ I encountered [=ran into] an old friend on a recent business trip.

[2]encounter noun, pl -ters [count]
1 a : a meeting that is not planned or expected ▪ an accidental encounter ▪ a chance encounter with a famous writer b : a usually brief experience with another person ▪ a brief/painful encounter ▪ He's accused of having had sexual encounters with several young women. ▪ They had a romantic encounter [=a brief romantic relationship] several years ago. c : a violent or very unfriendly meeting ▪ Two protesters were arrested during an encounter [=clash] with police. ▪ There was a violent encounter between fans of the opposing teams.
2 : an occasion when you deal with or experience something ▪ It was her first encounter with cigarettes. ✧ To have a close encounter with something is to come very close to being hurt or damaged by it. ▪ The island has had several close encounters with major hurricanes in recent years.

en•cour•age /ɪn'kɚɪʤ/ verb -ag•es; -aged; -ag•ing [+ obj]
1 : to make (someone) more determined, hopeful, or confident ▪ They encouraged us in our work. ▪ Encourage each other with kind words. — often used as (be) encouraged ▪ We were encouraged by their enthusiasm. ▪ Researchers are encouraged by the findings. ▪ I am encouraged that the project seems to be moving ahead. — sometimes followed by to + verb ▪ We were encouraged to learn of their enthusiasm. — opposite DISCOURAGE

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 21 SESS: 65 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:32:14 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−e

2 a : to make (something) more appealing or more likely to happen ▪ The program is meant to encourage savings. ▪ Warm weather encourages plant growth. ▪ He claims the new regulations will encourage investment. b : to make (someone) more likely to do something ▪ He claims the new regulations will encourage people to invest. ▪ We want to encourage students to read more. : to tell or advise (someone) to do something ▪ My parents encouraged me to go back to college. ▪ They encouraged her to go. — opposite DISCOURAGE – encouraged adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ Our early success left us feeling hopeful and encouraged.

en•cour•age•ment /ɪnˈkərɪʤmənt/ noun, pl -ments

1 [noncount] : the act of making something more appealing or more likely to happen ▪ Our aim is the encouragement of investment. ▪ the encouragement of plant growth

2 a : something that makes someone more determined, hopeful, or confident [noncount] teachers who give their students a lot of encouragement ▪ words of encouragement ▪ With support and encouragement from their parents, the students organized a fundraiser. [count] kind words and encouragements b [count] : something that makes someone more likely to do something ▪ They offered him gifts of money and other encouragements.

en•cour•ag•ing /ɪnˈkərɪʤɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~] : causing a hopeful feeling ▪ We've just heard some encouraging news. ▪ an encouraging smile — opposite DISCOURAGING

– en•cour•ag•ing•ly adv ▪ She smiled encouragingly at the new student.

en•croach /ɪnˈkroʊʧ/ verb -croach•es; -croached; -croach•ing [no obj]

1 : to gradually move or go into an area that is beyond the usual or desired limits ▪ The suburbs encroach further into the rural areas each year. — usually + on or upon ▪ People are encroaching on the animal's habitat. ▪ The ocean is slowly encroaching upon the shoreline.

2 : to gradually take or begin to use or affect something that belongs to someone else or that someone else is using — usually + on or upon ▪ He argues that the law would encroach on/upon states' authority. ▪ The new company is encroaching on their traditional market.

– en•croach•ment /ɪnˈkroʊʧmənt/ noun, pl -ments [noncount] the gradual encroachment of the ocean [count] the encroachments of neighboring countries

en•crusted /ɪnˈkrʌstəd/ adj : coated or covered with something ▪ The crown is encrusted with jewels. ▪ mud-encrusted shoes en•crypt /ɪnˈkrɪpt/ verb -crypts; -crypt•ed; -crypt•ing [+ obj] : to change (information) from one form to another especially to hide its meaning ▪ The software will encrypt the message before it is sent. ▪ The passwords are encrypted.

en•cum•ber /ɪnˈkʌmbə/ verb -bers; -bered; -ber•ing [+ obj] somewhat formal

1 : to make (someone or something) hold or carry something heavy — usually used as (be) encumbered ▪ We were encumbered by our heavy coats and boots. ▪ encumbered [=burdened] by equipment and supplies — often used figuratively ▪ The company is encumbered with debt.

2 : to cause problems or difficulties for (someone or something) ▪ These rules will only encumber the people we're trying to help. ▪ Lack of funding has encumbered the project. — usually used as (be) encumbered ▪ Peace talks have been encumbered by a mutual lack of trust.

– en•cum•brance /ɪnˈkʌmbrəns/ noun, pl -branc•es [count] ▪ the encumbrances of equipment and supplies ▪ These rules will only be an encumbrance.

-en•cy /ənsi/ noun suffix : the quality or state of being (something) — used to form nouns from adjectives that end in -ent ▪ depend*ency* ▪ effici*ency* ▪ frequ*ency*

en•cyc•li•cal /ɪnˈsɪklɪkəl/ noun, pl -cals [count] : an official letter from the Pope to the Roman Catholic bishops

en•cy•clo•pe•dia also en•cy•clo•pae•dia /ɪnˌsaɪkləˈpiːdijə/ noun, pl -pe•dias also -pae•dias [count] : a reference work (such as a book, series of books, Web site, or CD-ROM) that contains information about many different subjects or a lot of information about a particular subject ▪ a general encyclopedia ▪ an encyclopedia of literature

en•cy•clo•pe•dic also en•cy•clo•pae•dic /ɪnˌsaɪkləˈpiːdɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] : dealing with or knowing a subject thoroughly or completely ▪ She published an encyclopedic study of ancient Egypt. ▪ The event was described in encyclopedic detail. ▪ his almost encyclopedic knowledge of movies

[1]end /ˈɛnd/ noun, pl ends

1 [singular] a : a point that marks the limit of something : the point at which something no longer continues to happen or exist ▪ The report is due at/by the end of the month. ▪ She interviewed several players at the end of the game. ▪ There is no end [=limit] to their generosity. [=they are extremely generous] ▪ I'm at the end of my patience. = I've reached the end of my patience. [=I can no longer be patient; I have run out of patience] b : the last part of a story, movie, song, etc. ▪ I liked most of the book, but I didn't like the end. [=ending] ▪ He read the book from beginning to end [=he read the entire book] in one day.

2 [count] a : the part at the edge or limit of an area ▪ The restaurant is in the north end of the city. ▪ We biked from one end of the island to the other. ▪ The house is at the end of the road. ▪ They live at opposite ends of town. ▪ He left the car at the far end [=most distant part] of the parking lot. ▪ the deep/shallow end of a swimming pool — see also DEAD END, REAR END b : the first or last part or section of something that is long ▪ She drove the end of the stake into the ground. ▪ The car's front/rear/back end was damaged. ▪ One end of the rope was tangled. ▪ Smoke curled off the end of the cigarette. ▪ The hose is leaking at both ends. ▪ the pointed end of the knife c : either limit of a scale or range ▪ The car was in the high/low end of the price range. ▪ The candidates represent opposite ends of the political spectrum. ▪ The resort attracts tourists from the upper end of the social scale.

3 [count] : the stopping of a condition, activity, or course of action ▪ The agency's goal is the end of world hunger. ▪ The treaty marked the end of the war. ▪ His death marks the end of an era. ✧ When something is at an end it is finished or completed. ▪ The battle was at an end. [=over] ▪ We would like to see this matter at an end. ✧ If you bring something to an end or bring an end to something, you stop, finish, or complete it. ▪ She brought the concert to an end with a piano solo. ▪ Negotiations brought an end to the conflict. ✧ If you put an end to something, you cause it to stop or prevent it from continuing. ▪ They promise to put an end to unfair policies. ▪ The new mayor vowed to put an end to the violence. ✧ Something comes to an end when it stops or finishes. ▪ After three weeks the strike finally came to an end. ▪ Summer always seems to come to an end much too quickly. ▪ The curtain fell as the play came to an end. ✧ If there is no end in sight, the point at which something will be finished is not known. ▪ There is no end in sight to this heat wave. ▪ Prices continue to go up with no end in sight.

4 [count] : the point at which someone is no longer living : DEATH ▪ He came to a tragic end [=he died] in a freak accident. ▪ The doctors told her that the end was near. [=that she would die soon] — sometimes used with meet ▪ He met his end [=he died] in the icy water. ▪ She met an untimely end.

5 [count] : a goal or purpose ▪ Our ultimate end [=aim] in sponsoring the event is to raise money for charity. ▪ corrupt leaders who use their power for their own ends ▪ There are several ways to achieve/accomplish the same end. ✧ If something is an end in itself, it is something that you do because you want to and not because it will help you achieve or accomplish something else. ▪ She started exercising for her health, but she enjoyed it so much that exercising became an end in itself. ▪ For him, taking classes was an end in itself. ✧ If the end justifies the means, a desired result is so good or important that any method, even a morally bad one, may be used to achieve it. ▪ They believe that the end justifies the means and will do anything to get their candidate elected.

6 [count] American football : a player whose position is at the end of the line of scrimmage — see also END RUN, SPLIT ENDS, TIGHT END

7 [count] : a specific part of a project, activity, etc. ▪ She is in the creative end of the business. ▪ It's important to know what's going on in all ends of a business.; especially : the part of a project, activity, etc., that you are responsible for ▪ Let me know if you have any problems at your end. — usually used with keep up or hold up ▪ He promised to keep up his end of the agreement. [=he promised to do what he had agreed to do] ▪ You can count on her to hold up her end. [=to do what she is supposed to do]

8 [count] : any one of the places connected by a telephone

E

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 22 SESS: 19 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:32:14 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−e

call ▪ She picked up the phone and heard an unfamiliar voice at the other end. ▪ I can't hear you very well—there is a lot of noise at this end.

9 ends [plural] : parts of something that are left after the main part has been used ▪ a quilt made from bits and ends of fabric — see also LOOSE END, ODDS AND ENDS

a light at the end of the tunnel see ¹LIGHT

at the end of the day informal : when all things are considered : in the end ▪ It was a difficult decision, but at the end of the day, we knew we made the right choice.

at (your) wits'/wit's end see WIT

burn the candle at both ends see ¹BURN

come to a bad end 1 : to end up in a bad situation because of your actions ▪ If he keeps living this way he's sure to come to a bad end. 2 : to die in an unpleasant way ▪ According to legend, more than one person came to a bad end because of her.

end to end : with ends touching each other ▪ Put the two small tables end to end. ▪ railroad cars lined up end to end

go off the deep end see ¹DEEP

in the end 1 : finally or after a long time ▪ We worked hard, and in the end [=ultimately], we achieved our goal. 2 : when all things are considered ▪ He thought about moving to the city, but in the end, decided to stay where he was. ▪ In the end, what really matters in a relationship is trust.

make ends meet : to pay for the things that you need to live when you have little money ▪ We had a hard time making ends meet.

make your hair stand on end see HAIR

never/not hear the end of it see HEAR not the end of the world informal ✧ If something is not the end of the world, it is not as terrible or unpleasant as it seems to be. ▪ It won't be the end of the world if it rains on the day of the wedding. ▪ Losing your job does not have to be the end of the world.

on end 1 : without interruption ▪ For days on end [=for many days] she didn't answer the phone. 2 : in an upright position : not lying flat ▪ We set the bricks on end around the garden. ▪ His skis stood on end in the corner.

on/at the receiving end see RECEIVE the end of the line or the end of the road informal : the point or time when someone or something stops or cannot continue : the end ▪ A loss in the primary elections will mean the end of the road for his campaign. ▪ It will be the end of the line for me unless there are some changes around here. ▪ They reached the end of the road as a couple [=their relationship was over] a long time ago.

the end of time : FOREVER, ALWAYS — used figuratively after to, till, or until ▪ He promised to love her to the end of time. ▪ Their heroism will be remembered until the end of time.

the end of your rope or chiefly Brit the end of your tether informal : a state in which you are not able to deal with a problem, difficult situation, etc., any longer ▪ It was clear from her outburst that she was at the end of her rope. ▪ I've been dealing with their lies for too long. I'm at the end of my rope.

the ends of the earth : places in the world that are very far away from cities, large groups of people, etc. : the most remote places in the world — used figuratively ▪ He would go to the ends of the earth [=he would do anything] to please her. ▪ We will search the ends of the earth [=everywhere; for a long time] if we have to.

the short end of the stick see ¹STICK

the wrong end of the stick see ¹STICK

(to) no end : a lot : a great deal ▪ It pleases me to no end [=very much] to see you so happy. ▪ We've had no end of trouble finding somewhere to live.

to that/this end formal : as a way of dealing with or doing something ▪ We want to save the building. To this end, we have hired someone to assess its current state.

to/till/until the bitter end see ¹BITTER

²end verb ends; end•ed; end•ing

1 a [no obj] : to stop or finish : to no longer continue to happen or exist ▪ The meeting ended [=concluded] at noon. ▪ The line of people ended around the corner. ▪ The road ends at the top of the hill. ▪ As soon as school ends [=(Brit) breaks up] she'll start her summer job. ▪ The demonstration ended peacefully. ▪ The meeting ended on a positive note. ▪ She started out poor but ended (up) a rich woman. b [+ obj] : to stop or finish (something) : to cause (something) to no longer continue to happen or exist ▪ They ended [=concluded] the meeting at noon. ▪ The allegations could end his career. ▪ Her speech ended the convention. ▪ The argument ended their friendship. ▪ The company claims that its new product will be a/the computer to end all computers. [=a computer that is the ultimate or perfect computer] ▪ World War I was supposed to be the war to end all wars. : to come to the end of (something) ▪ She ended her career (as) a rich woman. [=she was rich at the end of her career] ▪ He ended his life/days (living) in a nursing home. [=he spent the last part of his life in a nursing home]

2 [+ obj] : to be the final part of (something) ▪ The letters "ing" end the word "going." ▪ A wedding scene ends the film. ▪ A marching band will end the parade. ▪ Her speech will end the convention.

end in [phrasal verb] end in (something) : to have (something) at the end ▪ The word ends in a suffix. [=the last part of the word is a suffix] ▪ The knife ends in a sharp point. ▪ Their marriage ended in divorce. ▪ The race ended in a tie. ▪ The demonstration ended in chaos.

end up [phrasal verb] end up or end up (something) or end up (doing something) : to reach or come to a place, condition, or situation that was not planned or expected ▪ The book ended up in the trash. ▪ He didn't want to end up [=wind up] like his father. ▪ She ended up rich. = She ended up a rich woman. ▪ He ended up (living) in a nursing home. ▪ The movie we wanted to see was sold out so we ended up seeing a different one.

end with [phrasal verb] 1 end with (something) : to have (something) at the end ▪ The film ends with a wedding scene. [=the last part of the film is a wedding scene] ▪ The convention will end with her speech. ▪ The parade will end with a marching band. 2 end (something) with (something) : to cause (something) to have (something) at the end ▪ She will end the convention with her speech. [=the convention will be over after her speech] ▪ He ended the concert with one of his new songs.

end your life or end it all : to kill yourself : to commit suicide ▪ He tried to end his life by taking an overdose of pills. ▪ She thought about ending it all after her baby died.

³end adj, always used before a noun : ¹FINAL ▪ the end product/result of a process ▪ the end point/stage of the operation — see also END USER en•dan•ger /ɪnˈdeɪnʤə/ verb -gers; -gered; -ger•ing /ɪnˈdeɪnʤrɪŋ/ [+ obj] : to cause (someone or something) to be in a dangerous place or situation ▪ Parents feared that the dog could endanger their children. ▪ The severe drought has endangered crops throughout the area. ▪ The controversy endangered [=threatened] his chances for reelection. ✧ In the U.S., if you drive in a way that is not safe the police may officially accuse you of driving to endanger.

endangered adj [more ~; most ~] — used to describe a type of animal or plant that has become very rare and that could die out completely ▪ endangered plants ▪ Two more species have been added to the endangered list. [=a list of plant and animal species that are protected by law because there are very few of them] ▪ The bald eagle is no longer considered an endangered species. [=a species that is in danger of becoming extinct] — sometimes used figuratively ▪ She claims that honest politicians are an endangered species.

en•dear /ɪnˈdiə/ verb -dears; -deared; -dear•ing

endear to [phrasal verb] endear (someone) to (someone or something) : to cause (someone) to be loved or admired by (someone or something) ▪ They endeared themselves to the whole town. ▪ His generosity has endeared him to the public. [=the people in his country, city, etc., love and admire him because he is generous] ▪ Her bad temper did not endear her to her coworkers. [=her bad temper made it difficult for people to like her]

– endearing adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ Good humor is one of your most endearing traits. – en•dear•ing•ly adv [more ~; most ~] ▪ an endearingly good-humored person

en•dear•ment /ɪnˈdiəmənt/ noun, pl -ments [count] : a word or phrase that shows love or affection ▪ two lovers whispering endearments to each other ✧ A special word or name that friends or lovers use when they speak to each other is sometimes called a term of endearment. ▪ "honey," "sweetie," and other terms of endearment

¹en•deav•or (US) or Brit en•deav•our /ɪnˈdɛvə/ verb -ors; -ored; -or•ing [+ obj] formal : to seriously or continually try to do (something) ▪ The school endeavors to teach students to be good citizens. ▪ They endeavored to create a government that truly serves its people. synonyms see ¹ATTEMPT

²endeavor (US) or Brit endeavour noun, pl -ors formal : a serious effort or attempt [count] His endeavors have gone unrewarded. ▪ He failed despite his best endeavors. [=efforts] ▪ She is involved in several artistic endeavors. [noncount] Technology is the fastest-changing area/field of human endeavor.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 23 SESS: 40 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:32:15 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-e

en•dem•ic /ɛn'dɛmɪk/ adj
1 : growing or existing in a certain place or region ▪ endemic diseases ▪ endemic wildlife — often + to or in ▪ A wide variety of animal and plant species are endemic to this area. ▪ The disease is endemic in parts of northern Europe.
2 : common in a particular area or field — often + to or in ▪ A distrust of strangers is endemic in/to this community. ▪ Sentimentality is endemic to that style of writing.

end•ing /'ɛndɪŋ/ noun, pl -ings [count]
1 : the final part of something ▪ The movie has a happy ending. [=end, conclusion] ▪ I didn't like the book's ending.
2 : a letter or group of letters added to the end of a word : SUFFIX ▪ Common verb endings in English are "-s," "-ed," and "-ing." ▪ You can often recognize an English adverb by its "-ly" ending.

en•dive /'ɛn,daɪv, ,ɑ:n'di:v/ noun, pl -dives [count, noncount]
1 : a plant with curly green leaves that are eaten raw
2 US : BELGIAN ENDIVE

end•less /'ɛndləs/ adj : having no end : seeming to have no end : lasting or taking a long time ▪ We endured endless meetings. ▪ The flight seemed endless. ▪ There was an endless line at the bank. ▪ There is endless work to do on the house.
– end•less•ly adv ▪ She talks about it endlessly. – end•less•ness noun [noncount]

en•dorse also in•dorse /ɪn'dɔəs/ verb -dors•es; -dorsed; -dors•ing [+ obj]
1 : to publicly or officially say that you support or approve of (someone or something) ▪ The newspaper has endorsed the conservative candidate for mayor. ▪ The committee must endorse [=approve] the decision. ▪ We do not endorse their position.
2 : to publicly say that you like or use (a product or service) in exchange for money ▪ She endorses a line of clothing. ▪ That brand of sneaker is endorsed by several basketball stars.
3 : to write your name on the back of (a check) ▪ You must endorse the check before you deposit it in the bank.
4 Brit : to put information about a driving offense on (a person's driver's license) — usually used as (be) endorsed ▪ His driving license was endorsed for speeding.
– en•dors•er noun, pl -ers [count]

en•dorse•ment also in•dorse•ment /ɪn'dɔəsmənt/ noun, pl -ments : the act or result of endorsing someone or something: such as a : a public or official statement of support or approval [count] The newspaper has announced its political endorsements. ▪ We're pleased that the project has received your endorsement. [noncount] Without official endorsement, the project cannot proceed. b [count] : the act of publicly saying that you like or use a product or service in exchange for money ▪ Many retired athletes are able to make a lot of money by doing product endorsements. c [count] : the act or result of writing your name on the back of a check ▪ The bank requires that someone witness the endorsement of the check. ▪ We need your endorsement before we can cash this check. d Brit : the act or result of putting information about a driving offense on a person's driver's license [noncount] the endorsement of a license [count] receive/get an endorsement for speeding en•dow /ɪn'daʊ/ verb -dows; -dowed; -dow•ing [+ obj]

1 : to give a large amount of money to a school, hospital, etc., in order to pay for the creation or continuing support of (something) ▪ The wealthy couple endowed a new wing of the hospital. ▪ She plans to endow a faculty position at the university. ▪ The money will be used to endow the museum and research facility.
2 : to freely or naturally provide (someone or something) with something — usually used as (be) endowed ▪ Human beings are endowed with reason. [=they naturally have reason; they are naturally able to think in a logical way] ▪ The country is richly endowed with mineral deposits. ▪ "... all men ... are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable rights ..." —U.S. Declaration of Independence (1776) — see also WELL-ENDOWED

en•dow•ment /ɪn'daʊmənt/ noun, pl -ments
1 a [count] : a large amount of money that has been given to a school, hospital, etc., and that is used to pay for its creation and continuing support ▪ The hospital's endowment was established by a local family. ▪ The college has a large endowment. ▪ an endowment fund b : the act of providing money to create or support a school, organization, etc. [noncount] the endowment of a hospital wing [count] generous endowments
2 [count] : a person's natural ability or talent ▪ an athlete's physical endowments

end run noun, pl ~ runs [count] American football : a play in which the player carrying the ball tries to run around the line of defensive players — often used figuratively in U.S. English to describe a secret or dishonest attempt to avoid a rule, problem, etc. ▪ They tried to make/do an end run around the law but they failed.

end table noun, pl ~ tables [count] US : a small table next to a sofa or chair — see picture at LIVING ROOM

en•dur•ance /ɪn'dərəns, Brit ɪn'djʊərəns/ noun [noncount]
1 a : the ability to do something difficult for a long time ▪ The exercise program is designed to increase both strength and endurance. ▪ a test of endurance = an endurance test [=a task that tests your ability to do something difficult for a long time] ▪ endurance training b : the ability to deal with pain or suffering that continues for a long time ▪ The overseas flight tested our (powers of) endurance. ▪ children who are teased beyond endurance [=for such a long time or to such a great degree that they can no longer deal with it]
2 : the quality of continuing for a long time ▪ We need to assure the endurance [=survival] of this tradition.

en•dure /ɪn'dɚ, Brit ɪn'djʊə/ verb -dures; -dured; -dur•ing
1 [no obj] : to continue to exist in the same state or condition ▪ This tradition has endured [=lasted] for centuries. ▪ She wants to make sure her legacy will endure.
2 [+ obj] a : to experience (pain or suffering) for a long time ▪ The refugees have endured [=suffered] more hardship than most people can imagine. ▪ He endured five years as a prisoner of war. b : to deal with or accept (something unpleasant) ▪ We endured the lecture for as long as we could. — often used in negative statements ▪ I cannot endure [=(more commonly) stand] the sound of her voice. ▪ I refuse to endure [=(more commonly) put up with, stand for] such behavior any longer.
– en•dur•able /ɪn'dərəbəl, Brit ɪn'djʊərəbəl/ adj ▪ Such behavior is no longer endurable. [=it is unendurable] – enduring adj ▪ enduring [=lasting] friendships ▪ an enduring tradition/legacy – en•dur•ing•ly adv ▪ an enduringly popular tradition end user noun, pl ~ users [count] : the person who will eventually use a product ▪ Programmers should always keep the end user in mind when designing a new piece of software.

end zone noun, pl ~ zones [count] : the area beyond the goal line at each end of the field in American football en•e•ma /'ɛnəmə/ noun, pl -mas [count] medical : a procedure in which liquid is forced into the intestines through the anus in order to make solid waste pass from the body ▪ The nurse gave the patient an enema.; also : the liquid that is used for an enema

en•e•my /'ɛnəmi/ noun, pl -mies [count]
1 : someone who hates another : someone who attacks or tries to harm another ▪ They are sworn/bitter enemies. ▪ He made a lot of enemies during the course of his career. ✧ If you are your own worst enemy you act in a way that causes harm to yourself or to the people or things that you care about.
2 : something that harms or threatens someone or something ▪ Tradition is the enemy of progress. ▪ In many countries today, drug abuse is public enemy number one. [=the most dangerous threat to society]
3 a : a group of people (such as a nation) against whom another group is fighting a war — usually singular ▪ Some of the soldiers went over to the enemy. ▪ He found himself behind enemy lines. ▪ The plane was shot down by enemy fire. b : a military force, a ship, or a person belonging to the other side in a war — usually singular ▪ They targeted the enemy at close range.

en•er•get•ic /,ɛnə'dʒɛtɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : having or showing a lot of energy ▪ She has an energetic personality. ▪ The children are energetic workers.
2 : involving a lot of effort ▪ They mounted an energetic campaign.
– en•er•get•i•cal•ly /,ɛnə'dʒɛtɪkli/ adv [more ~; most ~] ▪ They were working energetically.

en•er•gize also Brit en•er•gise /'ɛnə,dʒaɪz/ verb -giz•es;

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 24 SESS: 41 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:32:15 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-e

-gized; -giz•ing [+ obj] : to give energy or excitement to (someone or something) ▪ His rousing speech energized the crowd. ▪ You'll feel more energized after a bit of exercise.
– en•er•giz•er also Brit en•er•gis•er noun, pl -ers [count]
– energizing also Brit energising adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ Our vacation was a very energizing experience.

en•er•gy /ˈɛnəˌʤi/ noun, pl -gies
1 : ability to be active : the physical or mental strength that allows you to do things [noncount] The kids are always so full of energy. ▪ They devoted all their energy to the completion of the project. ▪ I have a lot of nervous energy. [=energy that comes from being nervous] [plural] They devoted all their energies to the completion of the project.
2 [noncount] : natural enthusiasm and effort ▪ She puts a lot of energy into her work.
3 [noncount] : usable power that comes from heat, electricity, etc. ▪ The newer appliances conserve more energy. ▪ an energy crisis ▪ renewable energy — see also NUCLEAR ENERGY
4 technical : the ability of something (such as heat, light, or running water) to be active or do work [noncount] kinetic energy [plural] particles with high kinetic energies
5 [noncount] informal : a type of power that some people believe a person or place produces ▪ I sense a lot of negative/bad energy coming from her right now. ▪ There's good/positive energy in this room.

en•er•vate /ˈɛnəˌveɪt/ verb -vates; -vat•ed; -vat•ing [+ obj] formal : to make (someone or something) very weak or tired — usually used as (be) enervated ▪ The government was enervated by corruption.
– enervating adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ The heat was enervating. – en•er•va•tion /ˌɛnəˈveɪʃən/ noun [noncount] en•fant ter•ri•ble /ˌɑːnˌfɑːntˈriːblə/ noun, pl en•fants ter•ri•bles /ˌɑːnˌfɑːntˈriːblə/ [count] formal : a young and successful person who is sometimes shocking and does things in a way that is very different from normal ▪ He is the enfant terrible [=bad boy] of daytime television.

en•fee•bled /ɪnˈfiːbəld/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : made very weak or tired ▪ They took measures to stabilize the enfeebled economy. ▪ a patient enfeebled by illness
– en•fee•ble•ment /ɪnˈfiːbəlmənt/ noun [noncount]

en•fold /ɪnˈfoʊld/ verb -folds; -fold•ed; -fold•ing [+ obj] formal
1 : to cover (someone or something) completely ▪ The dish is made of vegetables enfolded in a pastry crust. ▪ We watched as darkness enfolded the city.
2 : to hold (someone or something) in your arms ▪ He enfolded the child in his arms. [=he hugged the child]

en•force /ɪnˈfoəs/ verb -forc•es; -forced; -forc•ing [+ obj]
1 : to make (a law, rule, etc.) active or effective : to make sure that people do what is required by (a law, rule, etc.) ▪ Police will be enforcing the parking ban. ▪ enforce a contract
2 : to make (something) happen : to force or cause (something) ▪ trying to enforce obedience/cooperation – en•force•able /ɪnˈfoəsəbə/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ This is not an enforceable contract. – en•force•ment /ɪnˈfoəsmənt/ noun [noncount] ▪ the enforcement of the treaty ▪ She works in law enforcement. [=she works for the police]
– en•forc•er /ɪnˈfoəsə/ noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ law enforcers [=police officers]

en•fran•chise /ɪnˈfræn,ʧaɪz/ verb -chis•es; -chised; -chis•ing [+ obj] formal : to give (someone) the legal right to vote ▪ newly enfranchised voters — opposite DISENFRANCHISE – en•fran•chise•ment /ɪnˈfræn,ʧaɪzmənt/ noun [noncount] ▪ She was a leader in the movement for the enfranchisement of women in the early 20th century.

Eng. abbr English

en•gage /ɪnˈgeɪʤ/ verb -gag•es; -gaged; -gag•ing
1 [+ obj] formal : to hire (someone) to perform a particular service ▪ He was engaged as a tutor. : to pay for (help, services, etc.) ▪ I suggest you engage the services of a lawyer. [=I suggest you hire a lawyer]
2 [+ obj] : to get and keep (someone's attention, interest, etc.) ▪ He sure can engage an audience. ▪ The story engaged my interest.
3 : to start fighting against (an opponent) [+ obj] The troops prepared to engage the enemy. [no obj] (formal) ▪ The troops prepared to engage with the enemy. — opposite DISENGAGE
4 : to move (a mechanism or part of a machine) so that it fits into another part [+ obj] He engaged the clutch and drove away. [no obj] As I released the clutch, the gears engaged. — opposite DISENGAGE

engage in [phrasal verb] 1 engage in (something) : to do (something) ▪ At college she engaged in various sports. ▪ We don't engage in that sort of behavior. 2 engage (someone) in (something) : to cause (someone) to take part in (something) ▪ She engaged him in conversation. [=she started a conversation with him]

engage with [phrasal verb] engage with (someone or something) formal : to give serious attention to (someone or something) ▪ The book fails to engage with the problems of our time. : to become involved with (someone or something) ▪ a teacher who will not engage with the students

en•gaged /ɪnˈgeɪʤd/ adj
1 : promised to be married ▪ They recently got engaged (to be married). ▪ She's engaged to him. ▪ an engaged couple
2 : busy with some activity ▪ (US) He is engaged in research. = (Brit) He is engaged on research. ▪ He won't be able to attend because he's otherwise engaged. [=he is busy doing something else]
3 a chiefly Brit, of a telephone or telephone line : being used ▪ The line is still engaged. [=(US) busy] ▪ I keep getting the engaged tone. [=(US) busy signal] b Brit, of a public toilet : being used ▪ Is the bathroom engaged? [=(US) occupied] en•gage•ment /ɪnˈgeɪʤmənt/ noun, pl -ments

1 [count] : an agreement to be married : the act of becoming engaged or the state of being engaged to be married ▪ The couple recently announced their engagement. ▪ She surprised everyone by breaking off her yearlong engagement. — often used before another noun ▪ We're invited to their engagement party. ▪ an engagement ring
2 [count] a : a promise to meet or be present at a particular place and time ▪ He was forced to decline due to a previous engagement. [=commitment, appointment] ▪ We have a dinner engagement this weekend. b : a job as a performer ▪ She's been offered several speaking engagements.
3 : the act or state of being involved with something : INVOLVEMENT [singular] his lifelong engagement with politics [noncount] a lack of emotional engagement
4 : a fight between military forces [count] a naval engagement [noncount] the rules of engagement
5 [noncount] formal : the act of hiring someone to do work or to perform a service ▪ engagement of a lawyer
6 [noncount] : the act or result of moving a mechanism or part of a machine so that it fits into another part ▪ engagement of the gears/clutch engaging adj [more ~; most ~] : very attractive or pleasing in a way that holds your attention ▪ an engaging smile ▪ a very engaging story – en•gag•ing•ly adv ▪ an engagingly sweet song

en•gen•der /ɪnˈʤɛndə/ verb -ders; -dered; -der•ing [+ obj] formal : to be the source or cause of (something) ▪ The issue has engendered a considerable amount of debate.

en•gine /ˈɛnʤən/ noun, pl -gines [count]
1 : a machine that changes energy (such as heat from burning fuel) into mechanical motion ▪ The car has a four-cylinder engine. ▪ jet/diesel engines
2 : the vehicle that pulls a train : LOCOMOTIVE
3 formal + literary a : something that is used for a particular purpose ▪ tanks, planes, and other engines of war/destruction b : something that produces a particular and usually desirable result ▪ The tax cut could be an engine of economic growth.
– see also FIRE ENGINE, SEARCH ENGINE

[1]en•gi•neer /ˌɛnʤəˈnɪə/ noun, pl -neers [count]
1 : a person who has scientific training and who designs and builds complicated products, machines, systems, or structures : a person who specializes in a branch of engineering ▪ Design engineers are working on ways to make the cars run more efficiently. ▪ a mechanical/civil/electrical engineer ▪ a software engineer
2 a : a person who runs or is in charge of an engine in an airplane, a ship, etc. ▪ a flight engineer b US : a person who runs a train ▪ The engineer stopped the train. c Brit : a person who is trained to repair electrical or mechanical equipment ▪ The telephone engineer [=(US) repairman] soon got my phone working again.
3 : a soldier who builds roads, bridges, etc. ▪ Army engineers were called in to construct the canal.

[2]engineer verb -neers; -neered; -neer•ing [+ obj]
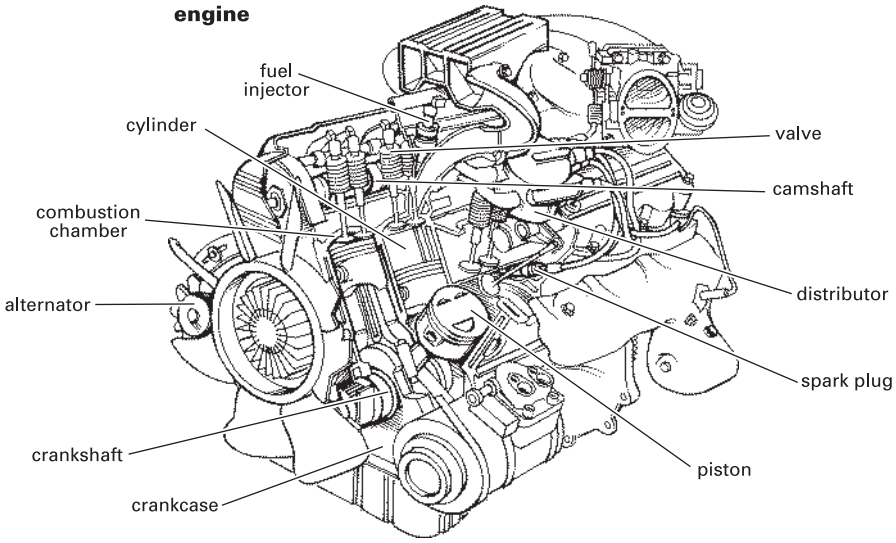
1 : to plan, build, or manage (something) by using scientific methods — usually used as (be) engineered ▪ The system is engineered [=designed] for maximum efficiency. ▪ a well-engineered highway ▪ engineered materials

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 25 SESS: 63 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:32:16 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−e



2 : to produce or plan (something) especially in a clever and skillful way ▪ a brilliantly engineered [=crafted] plan ▪ She managed to engineer [=finagle] a deal. ▪ The rebels engineered a successful attack.

3 technical : to change the genetic structure of (a plant or animal) — usually used as (be) engineered ▪ These soybeans were engineered for greater yield. ▪ genetically engineered crops engineering /ˌɛnʤəˈnirɪŋ/ noun [noncount]

1 : the work of designing and creating large structures (such as roads and bridges) or new products or systems by using scientific methods ▪ She studied mechanical/civil/chemical engineering. ▪ software engineering ▪ This control panel is a good example of smart engineering.

2 : the control or direction of something (such as behavior) ▪ social engineering — see also GENETIC ENGINEERING

[1]En•glish /ˈɪŋglɪʃ/ adj

1 : of or relating to England or its people ▪ an English town/poet/garden ▪ English customs

2 : of or relating to the chief language of Great Britain, the U.S., etc. ▪ They're studying English grammar. ▪ the English language ▪ an English dictionary

[2]English noun

1 [noncount] a : the chief language of Great Britain, the U.S., and many areas now or formerly under British control ▪ Do you speak English? ▪ the grammar of English b : a particular type of English ▪ American/British/Indian/Irish English c : English language, literature, or writing as a subject of study ▪ I teach high-school English.

2 the English : the people of England ▪ The English traditionally have afternoon tea.

3 [noncount] : normal English that is not difficult to understand ▪ I asked the doctor to give me my diagnosis in English, not medical jargon. — often used in the phrase in plain English ▪ She's good at explaining difficult scientific concepts in plain English. ▪ The contract is written in plain English.

English breakfast noun, pl ∼ -fasts [count] chiefly Brit : a large breakfast that usually includes eggs, meat, toast, and coffee or tea — compare CONTINENTAL BREAKFAST

English horn noun, pl ∼ horns [count] chiefly US : a musical instrument that is similar to the oboe but lower in pitch — called also (Brit) cor anglais

English ivy noun, pl ∼ ivies [count, noncount] US : IVY

En•glish•man /ˈɪŋglɪʃmən/ noun, pl -men /-mən/ [count] : an English man

English muffin noun, pl ∼ -fins [count] US : a type of flat, round bread that is split and toasted just before it is eaten ▪ We had coffee and English muffins for breakfast. — see picture at BAKING

En•glish•wom•an /ˈɪŋglɪʃˌwʊmən/ noun, pl -wom•en /-ˌwɪmən/ [count] : an English woman en•gorged /ɪnˈgoəʤd/ adj [more ∼; most ∼] : swollen and filled completely with a liquid (such as blood) ▪ engorged tissue

– en•gorge•ment /ɪnˈgoəʤmənt/ noun [noncount]

en•grave /ɪnˈgreɪv/ verb -graves; -graved; -grav•ing [+ obj] : to cut or carve lines, letters, designs, etc., onto or into a hard surface ▪ They will engrave your initials on the ring for free. ▪ She had the ring engraved with her initials. ▪ The image was engraved on the plaque. — often used figuratively ▪ That incident was engraved in my memory. = That incident engraved itself on my memory. [=I will never forget that incident]

– engraved adj ▪ engraved wedding invitations [=wedding invitations that are printed from a surface that has letters, designs, etc., engraved into it] – en•grav•er noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ He is a skillful engraver.

engraving noun, pl -ings

1 [noncount] : the art of cutting something into the surface of wood, stone, or metal ▪ She studied engraving in an art class.

2 [count] : a picture made from an engraved surface ▪ a wood engraving

en•gross /ɪnˈgroʊs/ verb -gross•es; -grossed; -gross•ing [+ obj] : to hold the complete interest or attention of (someone) — usually used as (be/get) engrossed ▪ She gets completely engrossed in her work. ▪ They were engrossed in conversation.

– engrossing adj [more ∼; most ∼] ▪ The book explains the sequence of events in engrossing detail. ▪ an engrossing story/account/study

en•gulf /ɪnˈgʌlf/ verb -gulfs; -gulfed; -gulf•ing [+ obj] : to flow over and cover (someone or something) ▪ The valley was engulfed in a thick fog. ▪ Flames engulfed the building. — often used figuratively ▪ The city threatens to engulf the nearby suburbs. ▪ The entire country has been engulfed by chaos/crisis/violence. ▪ He found himself engulfed by fear.

en•hance /ɪnˈhæns, Brit ɪnˈhɑːns/ verb -hanc•es; -hanced; -hanc•ing [+ obj] : to increase or improve (something) ▪ You can enhance the flavor of the dish by using fresh herbs. ▪ The image has been digitally enhanced to show more detail. ▪ The company is looking to enhance its earnings potential. ▪ drugs that enhance [=improve] performance = performance-enhancing drugs

– enhanced adj ▪ The new version includes many enhanced features. ▪ She approached the meeting with an enhanced understanding of the issues. – en•hance•ment /ɪnˈhænsmənt, Brit ɪnˈhɑːnsmənt/ noun, pl -ments [noncount] techniques for color enhancement [count] software enhancements – en•hanc•er noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ flavor enhancers

enig•ma /ɪˈnɪgmə/ noun, pl -mas [count] : someone or something that is difficult to understand or explain ▪ To his friends, he was always something of an enigma. ▪ one of the great enigmas of our time en•ig•mat•ic /ˌɛnɪgˈmætɪk/ also en•ig•mat•i•cal /ˌɛnɪg-

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 26 SESS: 42 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:32:17 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−e

E

ˈmætɪkəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : full of mystery and difficult to understand ▪ an enigmatic answer/smile
– en•ig•mat•i•cal•ly /ˌɛnɪgˈmætɪkli/ adv ▪ smiling enigmatically en•join /ɪnˈʤɔɪn/ verb -joins; -joined; -join•ing [+ obj] formal 1 : to direct or order (someone) to do something — usually followed by to + verb ▪ The court enjoined the debtors to pay.

2 : to prevent (someone) from doing something ▪ He was enjoined by his conscience from telling a lie.; especially : to give a legal order preventing (someone) from doing something ▪ The judge enjoined them from selling the property.

en•joy /ɪnˈʤɔɪ/ verb -joys; -joyed; -joy•ing [+ obj]
1 : to take pleasure in (something) ▪ Did you enjoy [=like] the movie? ▪ Relax and enjoy the view. ▪ He always enjoys a good laugh. ▪ No one enjoys being teased. ✧ In speech, enjoy is sometimes used by itself as an informal way of saying that you hope someone will enjoy something. ▪ Here is your pie. Enjoy! [=enjoy it; enjoy yourself]
2 : to have or experience (something good or helpful) ▪ She enjoyed great success in her new business. ▪ The show enjoyed a brief surge of popularity. ▪ They enjoyed a large income from their investments.
enjoy yourself : to have a good time : to spend time doing something that gives you pleasure ▪ He really enjoyed himself at the party.
– en•joy•able /ɪnˈʤɔjəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ We had an enjoyable time. – en•joy•ably /ɪnˈʤɔjəbli/ adv ▪ The book is enjoyably silly.

en•joy•ment /ɪnˈʤɔɪmənt/ noun
1 [noncount] : a feeling of pleasure caused by doing or experiencing something you like ▪ She always found sports to be a source of great enjoyment. ▪ I read the book strictly for my own enjoyment.
2 [noncount] : the condition of having and using something that is good, pleasant, etc. ▪ the enjoyment of good health ▪ This is land set aside for the public's enjoyment.
3 enjoyments [plural] : things that give you pleasure ▪ life's simple enjoyments [=(more commonly) pleasures]

en•large /ɪnˈlɑəʤ/ verb -large•es; -larged; -larg•ing : to make (something) larger or to become larger [+ obj] We had the photograph enlarged. ▪ The company is in the process of enlarging [=expanding] its offices. [no obj] The glands enlarge [=swell] when you have an infection.
enlarge on/upon [phrasal verb] enlarge on/upon (something) formal : to give more information about (something) ▪ Would you kindly enlarge [=elaborate] on that point?
– en•larg•er noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ a photo enlarger

en•large•ment /ɪnˈlɑəʤmənt/ noun, pl -ments
1 : the act of making something larger or of becoming larger [noncount] Symptoms include enlargement of the lymph nodes. [count] The plans call for an enlargement of the company's offices.
2 [count] : a larger copy of a photograph ▪ I ordered several enlargements.

en•light•en /ɪnˈlaɪtn/ verb -ens; -ened; -en•ing [+ obj] : to give knowledge or understanding to (someone) : to explain something to (someone) ▪ I don't understand what's going on; can someone please enlighten me?
– enlightening adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ We found the talk very enlightening. [=informative] enlightened adj [more ~; most ~] : having or showing a good understanding of how people should be treated : not ignorant or narrow in thinking ▪ an enlightened people/attitude/society ▪ an enlightened approach to prison reform en•light•en•ment /ɪnˈlaɪtṇmənt/ noun [noncount]

1 : the state of having knowledge or understanding ▪ the search for spiritual enlightenment ▪ His comments failed to provide enlightenment. : the act of giving someone knowledge or understanding ▪ the enlightenment of the public through education
2 the Enlightenment : a movement of the 18th century that stressed the belief that science and logic give people more knowledge and understanding than tradition and religion
3 Buddhism : a final spiritual state marked by the absence of desire or suffering en•list /ɪnˈlɪst/ verb -lists; -list•ed; -list•ing

1 [+ obj] a : to get the support and help of (someone or something) ▪ They're enlisting volunteers for an experiment. ▪ We enlisted all available resources. b : to get (help, support, sympathy, etc.) from someone ▪ I enlisted the help of our neighbors. ▪ We enlisted the services of a professional.
2 a [+ obj] : to sign up (a person) for duty in the army, navy, etc. ▪ They enlisted several new recruits. b [no obj] : to become a member of the army, navy, etc. ▪ After graduating, I enlisted in the navy.
3 [no obj] : to become involved with a large group of people in a cause, movement, etc. ▪ He enlisted in the cause of world peace.
– en•list•ee /ɪnˌlɪsˈti:, ɪnˈlɪsti/ noun, pl -ees [count] ▪ Army enlistees – en•list•ment /ɪnˈlɪstmənt/ noun, pl -ments [count] Enlistments in the armed forces have increased this year. [noncount] Military enlistment is voluntary.

enlisted /ɪnˈlɪstəd/ adj, always used before a noun, chiefly US : serving in the armed forces in a rank below the rank of officers ▪ an enlisted man/woman ▪ enlisted personnel en•liv•en /ɪnˈlaɪvən/ verb -ens; -ened; -en•ing [+ obj] : to make (something) more interesting, lively, or enjoyable ▪ He enlivened his speech with a few jokes. ▪ a soup enlivened by chili peppers ▪ A few touches of color will enliven the room.

en masse /ɑnˈmæs/ adv : as a single group : all together ▪ Her supporters arrived en masse for the rally.

en•mesh /ɪnˈmɛʃ/ verb -mesh•es; -meshed; -mesh•ing [+ obj] : to wrap or tangle (someone or something) in a net — usually used as (be) enmeshed ▪ The dolphin was enmeshed [=entangled] in/by the net. — often used figuratively ▪ The committee was enmeshed [=entangled] in a series of disputes.

en•mi•ty /ˈɛnməti/ noun, pl -ties formal : a very deep unfriendly feeling [noncount] There's a long history of enmity between them. ▪ His comments earned him the enmity of his coworkers. [count] We need to put aside old enmities for the sake of peace.

en•no•ble /ɪˈnoʊbəl/ verb -no•bles; -no•bled; -no•bling [+ obj] formal
1 : to make (someone or something) better or more worthy of admiration ▪ a life ennobled by suffering ▪ Her skill and talent ennoble her profession.
2 : to make (someone) a member of the nobility ▪ He was ennobled by the queen.
– en•no•ble•ment /ɪˈnoʊbəlmənt/ noun [noncount] – ennobling adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ Volunteering is an ennobling experience.

en•nui /ˌɑ:nˈwi:/ noun [noncount] : a lack of spirit, enthusiasm, or interest ▪ He suffered from a general sense of ennui. [=boredom]

enor•mi•ty /ɪˈnoəməti/ noun, pl -ties
1 [count] formal : a shocking, evil, or immoral act — usually plural ▪ the enormities of war
2 [noncount] : great evil or wickedness ▪ We were shocked at the enormity of the crime.
3 [noncount] a : great size ▪ I was overwhelmed by the enormity [=immensity] of the task at hand. b : great importance ▪ They didn't fully grasp the enormity of their decision. ✧ Although senses 3a and b are sometimes criticized, they are commonly used.

enor•mous /ɪˈnoəməs/ adj [more ~; most ~] : very great in size or amount ▪ They live in an enormous house. ▪ We chose not to undertake the project because of the enormous costs involved. ▪ He enjoys enormous popularity.
– enor•mous•ly adv ▪ Their new album is enormously popular. ▪ He enjoyed himself enormously. [=very much] – enor•mous•ness noun [noncount] ▪ the enormousness of the house

[1]enough /ɪˈnʌf/ adj : equal to what is needed ▪ Have you got enough money? ▪ That's enough talk for now; let's get started. ▪ There's enough food for everyone. ▪ There's enough room for five people. = There's room enough for five people.

[2]enough adv, always used after an adjective, adverb, or verb
1 : in the amount needed : to the necessary degree ▪ I couldn't run fast enough to catch up with her. ▪ She's old enough to know better. ▪ Are you rich enough to retire? ▪ That's good enough for me. ▪ Oddly/curiously/strangely/amazingly/surprisingly enough, they've never actually met. ▪ As if the crowds aren't bad enough, the parking situation is terrible. ▪ You're always ready enough [=always very or too ready] to blame someone else for your mistakes. ▪ I was happy/willing enough [=I was happy/willing] to go along with his plan. ▪ We can do it if they help enough.
2 : to a degree that is not very high or very low : to a reasonable extent ▪ He sings well enough. [=he sings fairly well] ▪ The solution seems simple enough. [=the solution seems fairly simple]

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 27 SESS: 43 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:32:17 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−e

fair enough see [1]FAIR
sure enough see [2]SURE

[3]enough pronoun [noncount] : an amount that provides what is needed or wanted : an amount that is enough ▪ There's enough for everyone. ▪ Have you had enough to eat? ▪ He hasn't had much Spanish, but he knows enough to get by. ▪ The crowds are enough of a problem as it is, without having to worry about parking as well! ▪ It's enough to drive you crazy! ▪ I've had (more than) enough of their foolishness. [=I'm sick of their foolishness] ▪ That's enough, young lady! [=stop behaving or talking in that way]

enough is enough — used to say that you want something to stop because you can no longer accept or deal with it ▪ I don't mind loaning her a bit of money now and then, but enough is enough!

enough said informal — used in speech to say that you understand what someone is telling you and no further information is needed ▪ "Is he in good condition?" "Well, he ran in the Boston Marathon last month." "Enough said."

enquire, enquiring, enquiry chiefly Brit spellings of INQUIRE, INQUIRING, INQUIRY en•rage /ɪn'reɪʤ/ verb -rag•es; -raged; -rag•ing [+ obj] : to make (someone) very angry : to fill (someone) with rage ▪ His thoughtless behavior enraged us. ▪ People were enraged by/at/over the decision.

en•rap•ture /ɪn'ræpʧə/ verb -tures; -tured; -tur•ing [+ obj] formal : to fill (someone) with delight ▪ Her melodious voice enraptured the audience. — usually used as (be) enraptured ▪ The children were enraptured by his stories.

en•rich /ɪn'rɪʧ/ verb -rich•es; -riched; -rich•ing [+ obj]
1 : to make (someone) rich or richer ▪ They tried to enrich themselves at the expense of the poor.
2 : to improve the quality of (something) : to make (something) better ▪ Their lives were enriched by the experience. = It was a life-enriching experience for them. ▪ Their research has enriched [=improved] our understanding of the problem. ▪ How can I enrich my vocabulary?
3 : to improve the usefulness or quality of (something) by adding something to it ▪ He used manure to enrich the soil. ▪ The drink is enriched with vitamin C. ▪ enriched flour – en•rich•ment /ɪn'rɪʧmənt/ noun [noncount] ▪ after-school enrichment programs ▪ uranium enrichment

en•roll (US) or chiefly Brit en•rol /ɪn'roʊl/ verb -rolls; -rolled; -roll•ing
1 [+ obj] : to enter (someone) as a member of or participant in something — usually + in ▪ They enrolled their children in a private school. ▪ He enrolled himself in a weight-loss program. [=he joined a weight-loss program]
2 a [+ obj] : to take (someone) as a member or participant ▪ The college enrolls about 25,000 students. ▪ They enrolled several volunteers for the study. b [no obj] : to become a member or participant — usually + in ▪ After graduating from high school he enrolled in the army. ▪ We enrolled in the history course.
– en•roll•ment (US) or chiefly Brit en•rol•ment /ɪn'roʊlmənt/ noun, pl -ments [noncount] the enrollment of volunteers ▪ School enrollment is up this year. [count] School enrollments are up this year.

en route /ɑn'ru:t/ adv : on or along the way when you are going to a place ▪ We stopped to eat en route to the museum.
– en route adj ▪ They arrived early despite several en route delays.

en•sconce /ɪn'skɑ:ns/ verb -scon•ces; -sconced; -sconc•ing [+ obj] : to firmly place or hide (someone or something) ▪ The sculpture is safely ensconced behind glass. ▪ He ensconced himself in front of the television. ▪ She's already ensconced in her new job. [=she is comfortably settled into her new job]

en•sem•ble /ɑn'sɑ:mbəl/ noun, pl -sem•bles [count] : a group of people or things that make up a complete unit (such as a musical group, a group of actors or dancers, or a set of clothes) ▪ We went to listen to a new jazz ensemble. ▪ She wore an elegant three-piece ensemble. ▪ The actor performed an ensemble piece.

en•shrine /ɪn'ʃraɪn/ verb -shrines; -shrined; -shrin•ing [+ obj] formal : to remember and protect (someone or something that is valuable, admired, etc.) — usually used as (be) enshrined ▪ The artifacts are now safely enshrined in a museum. ▪ great players enshrined in the Hall of Fame ▪ These rights are enshrined in the U.S. Constitution.

en•shroud /ɪn'ʃraʊd/ verb -shrouds; -shroud•ed; -shroud•ing [+ obj] formal : to cover (something or someone) in a way that makes seeing or understanding difficult ▪ The details of his life are enshrouded [=(more commonly) shrouded] in mystery. ▪ Darkness enshrouded the earth.

en•sign /'ɛnsən, 'ɛn,saɪn/ noun, pl -signs [count]
1 : an officer of the lowest rank in the U.S. Navy
2 : a flag that is flown on a ship to show what country the ship belongs to en•slave /ɪn'sleɪv/ verb -slaves; -slaved; -slav•ing [+ obj] : to make (someone) a slave — usually used as (be) enslaved ▪ Her ancestors were enslaved during the war. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ She felt like she was enslaved in a loveless marriage.

– en•slave•ment /ɪn'sleɪvmənt/ noun [noncount] – en•slav•er noun, pl -ers [count]

en•snare /ɪn'sneə/ verb -snares; -snared; -snar•ing [+ obj] : to catch (an animal or person) in a trap or in a place from which there is no escape ▪ The animals got ensnared in the net. ▪ The police successfully ensnared the burglar. — often used figuratively ▪ He was ensnared [=trapped, caught] in/by his own web of lies. ▪ The project became hopelessly ensnared [=entangled] in red tape.

en•sue /ɪn'su:, Brit ɪn'sju:/ verb -sues; -sued; -su•ing [no obj] : to come at a later time : to happen as a result ▪ When the news broke, a long period of chaos ensued. [=followed] – ensuing adj ▪ In the ensuing weeks, [=in the weeks afterward] her health gradually improved.

en suite /ɑn'swi:t/ adj or adv — used to describe a bedroom to which a bathroom is directly connected or a bathroom that is directly connected to a bedroom ▪ an en suite bedroom/bathroom ▪ The bathroom is en suite.

en•sure /ɪn'ʃʊə/ verb -sures; -sured; -sur•ing [+ obj] : to make (something) sure, certain, or safe ▪ They took steps to ensure the safety of the passengers. ▪ We want to ensure [=make certain/sure] that it doesn't happen again.

en•tail /ɪn'teɪl/ verb -tails; -tailed; -tail•ing [+ obj] : to have (something) as a part, step, or result ▪ I'll need to know a little more about what the job entails. [=involves] ▪ The procedure does entail [=carry] certain risks. ▪ He accepted the responsibility, with all that it entails.

en•tan•gle /ɪn'tæŋgəl/ verb -tan•gles; -tan•gled; -tan•gling [+ obj]
1 : to cause (something) to get caught in or twisted with something else : TANGLE — usually used as (be/get) entangled ▪ The kite got entangled in the tree. ▪ She tried to get up, but her foot was entangled in the strap. ▪ The birds fly into the net and become entangled.
2 : to get (someone) involved in a confusing or difficult situation — usually used as (be/get) entangled ▪ They were entangled in a messy lawsuit. ▪ He was/got romantically entangled with the girl next door.
– en•tan•gle•ment /ɪn'tæŋgəlmənt/ noun, pl -ments [count] romantic/legal entanglements [noncount] the entanglement of his kite in the tree

en•ter /'ɛntə/ verb -ters; -tered; -ter•ing
1 : to go or come into (something) [+ obj] Knock on the door before you enter the room. ▪ The medication will quickly enter the blood stream. ▪ The river enters the sea near here. [no obj] Knock before you enter. = Knock before entering. [=knock on the door before you open it to go into the room] ▪ You may enter now. — opposite EXIT
2 [+ obj] a : to begin to be in (an organization, school, etc.) ▪ Our son will be entering college next year. b : to cause (someone) to be in an organization, school, etc. ▪ enter a child in kindergarten ▪ (Brit) We entered him for a good school.
3 [+ obj] a : to start to do something ▪ He was a teacher before he entered politics. [=before he began his political career] ▪ He's been faced with many scandals since he entered office. [=since he began his term in office] ▪ The new battleship is scheduled to enter service next spring. b : to begin to be in (a particular situation, period of time, etc.) ▪ enter middle age ▪ an actor who's just now entering his prime ▪ The strike has now entered its second week. ▪ We've entered a new phase in our relationship. ▪ The country is entering a period of prosperity. ▪ Entering [=at the start of] the season, he was expected to be an important part of the team. ▪ The word has entered common usage [=become commonly used] in recent decades. c : to appear for the first time in (something) ▪ He entered the game in the fifth inning. ▪ The company has several new products now entering the marketplace.
4 a : to officially say that you will be in a race, competition,

E

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 28 SESS: 19 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:32:18 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−e

etc. [+ obj] She entered every race. ▪ Several leading players have entered the tournament. [no obj] She won the race last year, but this year she decided not to enter. ▪ (Brit) He entered for the tournament. b [+ obj] : to officially say that (someone) will be in a race, competition, etc. ▪ Her coach entered her in every race. ✧ If you are entered in a race, competition, etc., you are one of the people who are competing in it. ▪ She was entered in every race.

5 [+ obj] a : to include (something) in a book, list, etc. ▪ The teacher entered my name on the roster. ▪ enter an item in a journal ▪ These words are not yet entered in the dictionary. [=they do not yet appear in the dictionary] b : to type in (words, data, etc.) on a computer ▪ You need to enter your password in order to log on. ▪ Please enter the new data in the spreadsheet.

6 [+ obj] : to make or state (something) in a formal and official way ▪ enter a complaint ▪ The defendant entered a guilty plea to a lesser charge of manslaughter.

enter into [phrasal verb] enter into (something) 1 : to begin to be in or to take part in (something) ▪ enter into a discussion ▪ enter into an agreement ▪ The two companies finally entered into a partnership. 2 : to be a part of or to influence (something, such as a choice or decision) ▪ You shouldn't allow your prejudices to enter into your decision. 3 : to share or become involved in (something) ▪ You need to enter into the spirit of the occasion.

enter on/upon [phrasal verb] enter on/upon (something) : to begin to be in or to take part in (something) ▪ She will soon be entering on [=starting] a new career. ▪ The country is entering upon a period of prosperity.

enter the picture/scene 1 : to become involved in something ▪ The company went through many drastic changes after its new owner entered the scene. 2 or enter (into) the equation : to become something that must be considered or dealt with ▪ Once politics enters the picture, chances for a quick settlement are greatly reduced. ▪ Money didn't enter the equation when he offered to help. [=he didn't expect to be paid for helping] enter your mind/head : to occur in your thoughts ▪ The idea of quitting never entered my mind. [=I never thought of quitting]

en•ter•prise /ˈɛntəˌpraɪz/ noun, pl -pris•es

1 [count] : a project or activity that involves many people and that is often difficult ▪ Moving the drilling rig offshore was a costly enterprise. ▪ a criminal enterprise ▪ Agriculture is the main economic enterprise among these people.

2 [count] : a business organization ▪ When he purchased the company it was a thriving commercial enterprise. ▪ The new regulations are intended to encourage the growth of small, independent enterprises. [=companies]

3 [noncount] : the ability or desire to do dangerous or difficult things or to solve problems in new ways ▪ She showed great enterprise [=initiative] as a young reporter. ▪ He was criticized for his lack of enterprise in dealing with the crisis.

– see also FREE ENTERPRISE, PRIVATE ENTERPRISE

en•ter•pris•ing /ˈɛntəˌpraɪzɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~] : having or showing the ability or desire to do new and difficult things ▪ As an enterprising young reporter, she covered many important stories.

en•ter•tain /ˌɛntəˈteɪn/ verb -tains; -tained; -tain•ing

1 : to have people as guests in your home or in a public place (such as a restaurant) [+ obj] They like to entertain their friends at their summer home. ▪ Much of his job as a salesman involves entertaining clients. [no obj] They enjoy cooking and entertaining. [=hosting dinner parties and other social occasions]

2 a [+ obj] : to perform for (an audience) : to provide amusement for (someone) by singing, acting, etc. ▪ Jugglers were on hand to entertain the crowd. ▪ Our father entertained us with stories. b : to provide or be entertainment for (someone) [+ obj] Our father's stories entertained us. [no obj] Our father's stories never failed to entertain. [=his stories were always enjoyable]

3 [+ obj] : to have (a thought, idea, etc.) in your mind ▪ She was so unhappy with her job that she entertained thoughts of quitting. [=she thought about quitting] ▪ It now seems possible to entertain hopes [=to hope] that the strike will be settled soon.

en•ter•tain•er /ˌɛntəˈteɪnə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a person (such as a singer, an actor, or a comedian) who entertains other people : a professional performer ▪ a singer regarded as one of the great entertainers of our time entertaining /ˌɛntəˈteɪnɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~] : amusing and enjoyable : providing entertainment ▪ an entertaining book ▪ an entertaining speaker

– en•ter•tain•ing•ly adv ▪ She wrote an entertainingly honest account of her childhood.

en•ter•tain•ment /ˌɛntəˈteɪnmənt/ noun, pl -ments

1 : amusement or pleasure that comes from watching a performer, playing a game, etc. [noncount] Entertainment was provided by jugglers. ▪ plays, movies, and other forms of entertainment ▪ They played games in the evening for entertainment. [count] plays, movies, and other entertainments

2 [noncount] : the act of amusing or entertaining people ▪ They hired a band for the entertainment of the guests. [=to entertain the guests]

en•thrall (chiefly US) or Brit en•thral /ɪnˈθrɑːl/ verb -thralls; -thralled; -thrall•ing [+ obj] : to hold the attention of (someone) by being very exciting, interesting, or beautiful ▪ The movie has enthralled [=charmed, captivated] audiences across the country. — often used as (be) enthralled ▪ I was enthralled by/with the beauty of the landscape.

– enthralling adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ The movie is an enthralling adventure story.

en•throne /ɪnˈθroʊn/ verb -thrones; -throned; -thron•ing [+ obj] : to make (someone) a king, queen, bishop, etc., in a formal ceremony — usually used as (be) enthroned ▪ The archbishop was enthroned last year.

– en•throne•ment /ɪnˈθroʊnmənt/ noun, pl -ments [count, noncount]

en•thuse /ɪnˈθuːz, Brit ɪnˈθjuːz/ verb -thus•es; -thused; -thus•ing

1 a [+ obj] : to say (something) with enthusiasm ▪ "This dinner is wonderful!" he enthused. b [no obj] : to show enthusiasm : to talk about something with enthusiasm — usually + over or about ▪ She enthused over/about the variety of flowers in the garden.

2 [+ obj] : to make (someone) enthusiastic ▪ His presentation failed to enthuse the committee.

– enthused adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ The committee members are not enthused [=enthusiastic] about the project.

en•thu•si•asm /ɪnˈθuːziˌæzəm, Brit ɪnˈθjuːziˌæzəm/ noun, pl -asms

1 [noncount] : strong excitement about something : a strong feeling of active interest in something that you like or enjoy ▪ The party supported its candidate with enthusiasm. ▪ He seems to lack enthusiasm for the work he's doing.

2 [count] : something causing a feeling of excitement and active interest : a hobby that someone feels enthusiastic about ▪ Among his latest enthusiasms are sailing and fishing.

en•thu•si•ast /ɪnˈθuːziˌæst, Brit ɪnˈθjuːziˌæst/ noun, pl -asts [count] : a person who feels enthusiasm for something : a person who enjoys something very much ▪ a golf enthusiast

en•thu•si•as•tic /ɪnˌθuːziˈæstɪk, Brit ɪnˌθjuːziˈæstɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] : feeling or showing strong excitement about something : filled with or marked by enthusiasm ▪ They were enthusiastic supporters of the president. ▪ I'm not wildly enthusiastic about your latest idea. ▪ They were less than enthusiastic. = They were far from enthusiastic. ▪ She received an enthusiastic welcome.

– en•thu•si•as•ti•cal•ly /ɪnˌθuːziˈæstɪkli, Brit ɪnˌθjuːziˈæstɪkli/ adv ▪ They welcomed her enthusiastically.

en•tice /ɪnˈtaɪs/ verb -tic•es; -ticed; -tic•ing [+ obj] : to attract (someone) especially by offering or showing something that is appealing, interesting, etc. ▪ The store hopes to entice [=tempt, lure] shoppers with attractive window displays.

– en•tice•ment /ɪnˈtaɪsmənt/ noun, pl -ments [count] The city offered the company tax breaks as an enticement [=inducement] to build a factory there. [noncount] using attractive displays for the enticement of customers – enticing adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ an enticing display of merchandise – en•tic•ing•ly /ɪnˈtaɪsɪŋli/ adv [more ~; most ~] en•tire /ɪnˈtajə/ adj : complete or full : not lacking or leaving out any part ▪ We spent the entire [=whole] day at the beach. ▪ He had entire [=complete, total] control of the project. ▪ The war affected an entire generation of young Americans. ▪ the entire community ▪ The fence runs along the entire length of the building. ▪ She has dedicated her entire life to helping others. ▪ He was listening the entire time. [=the whole time, all the time]

– en•tire•ly adv ▪ The decision is entirely yours. ▪ That's an entirely different question. = That's a different question entirely.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 29 SESS: 19 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:32:19 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−e

en•tire•ty /ɪnˈtajəti/ noun [noncount] : the whole or total amount of something ▪ the entirety of an estate in its/their entirety : with nothing left out ▪ He played the song in its entirety. [=he played the entire song] ▪ His comments will be broadcast in their entirety. [=all of his comments will be broadcast]

en•ti•tle /ɪnˈtaɪtl/ verb -ti•tles; -ti•tled; -ti•tling [+ obj]

1 : to give a title to (something, such as a book) : TITLE ▪ He entitled his book "My Life on Mars."

2 : to give a right to (someone) — + to ▪ The card entitles us to a discount. [=we can get a discount because we have this card] — often used as (be) entitled ▪ I'm entitled to a refund. [=I should be given a refund] ▪ You're entitled to your opinion. [=I don't agree with you, but you are free to think what you want]

en•ti•tle•ment /ɪnˈtaɪtlmənt/ noun, pl -ments

1 [noncount] a : the condition of having a right to have, do, or get something ▪ my entitlement to a refund b : the feeling or belief that you deserve to be given something (such as special privileges) ▪ celebrities who have an arrogant sense of entitlement

2 [count] US : a type of financial help provided by the government for members of a particular group ▪ entitlements such as medical aid for the elderly and poor

en•ti•ty /ˈɛntəti/ noun, pl -ties [count] formal : something that exists by itself : something that is separate from other things ▪ One division of the company was broken off as a separate entity. ▪ a business/commercial/corporate entity ▪ government/political/legal entities ▪ distinct/independent entities

en•tomb /ɪnˈtuːm/ verb -tombs; -tombed; -tombing [+ obj] : to place (someone or something) in a tomb — often used as (be) entombed ▪ The remains of former kings are entombed there. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ fossils entombed in sediment

– en•tomb•ment /ɪnˈtuːmmənt/ noun, pl -ments [count, noncount]

en•to•mol•o•gy /ˌɛntəˈmɑːlədʒi/ noun [noncount] : a branch of science that deals with the study of insects – en•to•mo•log•i•cal /ˌɛntəməˈlɑːdʒɪkəl/ adj ▪ entomological studies – en•to•mol•o•gist /ˌɛntəˈmɑːlədʒɪst/ noun, pl -gists [count]

en•tou•rage /ˌɑːntʊˈrɑːʒ/ noun, pl -rag•es [count] : a group of people who go with and assist an important person ▪ the President and his entourage

en•trails /ˈɛnˌtreɪlz/ noun [plural] : the internal organs of an animal ▪ sheep entrails — sometimes used figuratively ▪ examining the entrails of a computer

[1]en•trance /ˈɛntrəns/ noun, pl -tranc•es

1 [count] : the act of entering something ▪ the entrance of the army into the city ▪ the country's entrance into war ▪ The book describes his entrance into politics. ▪ The thieves gained entrance to/into our house by breaking a window. ▪ She always knew how to make a grand entrance. ▪ Everyone noticed when she made her entrance. [=when she entered]

2 [count] : something (such as a door) that is used for entering something ▪ The main entrance is on the left side. ▪ There are two entrances to the park. ▪ The ship passed through the narrow entrance to the bay. ▪ a building's front/back/side/main entrance ▪ a large entrance hall [=a hall located near an entrance to a building] — compare [1]EXIT 1

3 [noncount] : the right to enter something ▪ We gained entrance [=entry, admission] to the club. ▪ He was denied entrance into the country. ▪ She applied for entrance at/to several colleges. — often used before another noun ▪ a college entrance exam ▪ an entrance fee

[2]en•trance /ɪnˈtræns, Brit ɪnˈtrɑːns/ verb -tranc•es; -tranced; -tranc•ing [+ obj] : to fill (someone) with delight and wonder — usually used as (be) entranced ▪ We were entranced by/with the magnificent view.

– en•trance•ment /ɪnˈtrænsmənt, Brit ɪnˈtrɑːnsmənt/ noun [noncount] – entrancing adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ an entrancing view en•trant /ˈɛntrənt/ noun, pl -trants [count] : a person who enters something (such as a competition) ▪ Each entrant had to agree to the contest rules. ▪ new entrants into a highly competitive field

en•trap /ɪnˈtræp/ verb -traps; -trapped; -trap•ping [+ obj] formal : to catch (someone or something) in a trap or in something like a trap : TRAP ▪ We used the net to entrap a school of fish. ▪ The air bubbles were entrapped in ice. ▪ She felt that she was entrapped in an unhappy marriage.

en•trap•ment /ɪnˈtræpmənt/ noun [noncount]

1 : the act of entrapping someone or something or the condition of being entrapped ▪ her entrapment in an unhappy marriage

2 : the illegal act of tricking someone into committing a crime so that the person you have tricked can be arrested ▪ His lawyer argued that he was a victim of police entrapment.

en•treat /ɪnˈtriːt/ verb -treats; -treat•ed; -treat•ing [+ obj] formal : to ask (someone) in a serious and emotional way ▪ I entreat you to help me. ▪ His parents entreated [=implored, begged] him to return to school.

en•treaty /ɪnˈtriːti/ noun, pl -treat•ies [count] formal : a serious request for something ▪ The senator has resisted repeated entreaties [=appeals] to run for president. ▪ He finally succumbed to their entreaties. [=he did what they asked] en•trée or en•tree /ˈɑːnˌtreɪ/ noun, pl -trées or -trees

1 [count] : the main dish of a meal especially in a restaurant ▪ We had steak as an entrée.

2 formal a [count] : the act or manner of entering something ▪ She made a graceful entrée [=entrance] into the ballroom. ▪ His entrée [=entry] into the restaurant business was unexpected. b [noncount] : the right to enter something ▪ His family connections have given him entrée [=entry] into the most exclusive clubs in the city.

en•trench /ɪnˈtrɛnʧ/ verb -trench•es; -trenched; -trench•ing [+ obj] : to place (someone or something) in a very strong position that cannot easily be changed ▪ officials who have tried to entrench themselves in office

– entrenched adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ These attitudes are (deeply/firmly) entrenched in our culture. ▪ Computers are now an entrenched part of modern life. – en•trench•ment /ɪnˈtrɛnʧmənt/ noun [noncount] ▪ the entrenchment of certain attitudes

en•tre•pre•neur /ˌɑːntrəprəˈnɚ/ noun, pl -neurs [count] : a person who starts a business and is willing to risk loss in order to make money

– en•tre•pre•neur•ial /ˌɑːntrəprəˈnɚiəl/ adj ▪ entrepreneurial skills – en•tre•pre•neur•ship /ˌɑːntrəprəˈnɚˌʃɪp/ noun [noncount] ▪ admired for her entrepreneurship

en•trust /ɪnˈtrʌst/ verb -trusts; -trust•ed; -trust•ing [+ obj] : to give someone the responsibility of doing something or of caring for someone or something ▪ She was entrusted with the job of organizing the reception. ▪ entrust your car to a friend = entrust a friend with your car en•try /ˈɛntri/ noun, pl -tries

1 [noncount] : the act of entering something ▪ His parents tried to make his entry into school life as smooth as possible. ▪ His friends were surprised by his entry into politics. ▪ The thieves gained entry [=they entered] through a back window.

2 [noncount] : the right to enter something ▪ He was able to gain entry [=entrance, admission] to an exclusive club. ▪ She was denied entry into the courtroom. ▪ students competing for entry into the college ▪ The sign read "No Entry." [="do not enter"] — often used before another noun ▪ an entry fee/form

3 [count] : a place for entering something ▪ He hung up his hat in the entry. [=entryway] ▪ the south entry [=entrance] of the church — see also PORT OF ENTRY

4 a [noncount] : the act of entering something in a book, list, etc. ▪ The word is not common enough for entry in the dictionary. ▪ She was hired to do data entry. [=to enter data on a computer] b [count] : something that is entered in a book, list, etc. ▪ dictionary entries ▪ a diary entry ▪ a database entry

5 [count] a : a person or thing that is entered in a contest ▪ Her pie was the winning entry in the baking competition. ▪ The race has attracted a record number of entries. b chiefly Brit : the number of people or things entered in a contest ▪ The race has attracted a record entry.

entry–level adj : at the lowest level : at the level of someone who is just starting a job or career ▪ The company is looking to fill several entry-level positions.

en•try•way /ˈɛntriˌweɪ/ noun, pl -ways [count] : a place for entering something ▪ A truck was blocking the entryway. [=entry, entrance] en•twine /ɪnˈtwaɪn/ verb -twines; -twined; -twin•ing : to twist together or around [+ obj] The snake entwined itself around the branch. — often used as (be) entwined ▪ The roses were entwined in an iron fence. — often used figuratively ▪ Their lives were tragically entwined. [=intertwined] ▪ The themes in the novel are closely entwined. [no obj] Their lives entwined tragically.

E

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 30 SESS: 19 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:32:19 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−e

E

enu•mer•ate /ɪˈnuːməˌreɪt, Brit ɪˈnjuːməˌreɪt/ verb -ates; -at•ed; -at•ing [+ obj] : to name (things) one after another in a list ▪ Let me enumerate my reasons for doing this.
– enu•mer•a•tion /ɪˌnuːməˈreɪʃən, Brit ɪˌnjuːməˈreɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count, noncount]

enun•ci•ate /ɪˈnʌnsiˌeɪt/ verb -ates; -at•ed; -at•ing
1 [+ obj] formal : to make a clear statement of (ideas, beliefs, etc.) ▪ He set out to enunciate the basic principles of his system. ▪ enunciate a basic set of beliefs
2 : to pronounce words or parts of words clearly [+ obj] Be sure to enunciate [=articulate] every syllable. [no obj] Children should be taught to enunciate clearly.
– enun•ci•a•tion /ɪˌnʌnsiˈeɪʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ the enunciation of principles ▪ precise enunciation – enun•ci•a•tor /ɪˈnʌnsiˌeɪtə/ noun, pl -tors [count] ▪ a careful enunciator en•vel•op /ɪnˈvɛləp/ verb -ops; -oped; -op•ing [+ obj] : to completely cover (someone or something) : to completely enclose or surround (someone or something) ▪ She enveloped [=wrapped] the baby in a large towel. ▪ Mist enveloped the mountains. = The mountains were enveloped by/in mist.

– en•vel•op•ment /ɪnˈvɛləpmənt/ noun [noncount]

en•ve•lope /ˈɛnvəˌloʊp, ˈɑːnvəˌloʊp/ noun, pl -lopes [count] : an enclosing cover for a letter, card, etc. — see picture at MAIL push the envelope : to go beyond the usual or normal limits by doing something new, dangerous, etc. ▪ a director who has pushed the envelope in his recent films ▪ a new airplane design that pushes the envelope

en•vi•able /ˈɛnvijəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : causing envy : very desirable ▪ The company is in the enviable position of having no real competitors. ▪ an enviable task ▪ She has an enviable reputation for honesty. — compare UNENVIABLE – en•vi•ably /ˈɛnvijəbli/ adv ▪ The company has had enviably high profits.

en•vi•ous /ˈɛnvijəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] : feeling or showing a desire to have what someone else has : feeling or showing envy ▪ envious neighbors ▪ an envious look — often + of ▪ His neighbors were envious [=jealous] of his success.
– en•vi•ous•ly adv ▪ We looked enviously at his new car.

en•vi•ron•ment /ɪnˈvaɪrənmənt/ noun, pl -ments
1 : the conditions that surround someone or something : the conditions and influences that affect the growth, health, progress, etc., of someone or something [count] He grew up in a loving environment. ▪ an informal office environment ▪ We're trying to create a better business/learning environment. ▪ These animals were raised in a controlled environment. ▪ Many plants are unable to survive in such a harsh/hostile environment. [noncount] Heredity and environment are both important.
2 the environment : the natural world ▪ Pollution is bad for the environment. ▪ protecting the (natural) environment
– en•vi•ron•men•tal /ɪnˌvaɪrənˈmɛntl/ adj ▪ The chemical refinery explosion was an environmental disaster. ▪ environmental laws ▪ environmental protection – en•vi•ron•men•tal•ly /ɪnˌvaɪrənˈmɛntli/ adv ▪ environmentally safe methods of waste disposal

en•vi•ron•men•tal•ist /ɪnˌvaɪrənˈmɛntəlɪst/ noun, pl -ists [count] : a person who works to protect the natural world from pollution and other threats – en•vi•ron•men•tal•ism /ɪnˌvaɪrənˈmɛntəlɪzm/ noun [noncount]

en•vi•rons /ɪnˈvaɪrənz/ noun [plural] : the area that is around a place (such as a city) ▪ We bought a guide to New York and (its) environs. ▪ a town and its immediate environs en•vis•age /ɪnˈvɪzɪʤ/ verb -ag•es; -aged; -ag•ing [+ obj] : to picture (something) in your mind : ENVISION ▪ I envisage a day when proper health care will be available to everyone. ✧ Envisage is used in U.S. English but it is more common in British English.

en•vi•sion /ɪnˈvɪʒən/ verb -sions; -sioned; -sion•ing [+ obj] chiefly US : to think of (something that you believe might exist or happen in the future) : to picture (something) in your mind ▪ The inventor envisioned many uses for his creation. ▪ She envisioned a better life for herself.

en•voy /ˈɛnˌvoɪ, ˈɑːn-/ noun, pl en•voys [count] : a person who is sent by one government to represent it in dealing with another government ▪ diplomatic envoys ▪ a special envoy

[1]en•vy /ˈɛnvi/ noun [noncount]
1 : the feeling of wanting to have what someone else has ▪ my envy of his success ▪ Their exotic vacations inspired envy in/among their friends. ▪ We watched with envy as the yacht slid past us. ▪ They were green with envy. [=they were filled with envy; they were very envious] ▪ Her beautiful hair was an object of envy. [=people felt envy because of her beautiful hair] — sometimes used humorously after a noun that indicates an object of envy ▪ My neighbor's new lawn mower has given me a bad case of lawn mower envy. [=I'm very envious of my neighbor's new lawn mower]
2 : someone or something that causes envy — used in the phrase the envy of ▪ She was the envy of all her friends. [=all her friends envied her] ▪ Our car was the envy of the neighborhood. [=the neighbors envied us for our car]

[2]envy verb -vies; -vied; -vy•ing [+ obj] : to feel a desire to have what someone else has : to feel envy because of (someone or something) ▪ I envy you for your large group of friends. ▪ They envied his success. = They envied him for his success. ▪ I envy the way you've made so many friends. ▪ I don't envy you your dental problems. [=I'm glad that I don't have your dental problems]

en•zyme /ˈɛnˌzaɪm/ noun, pl -zymes [count] technical : a chemical substance in animals and plants that helps to cause natural processes (such as digestion)
– en•zy•mat•ic /ˌɛnzəˈmætɪk/ adj

eon (US) or chiefly Brit ae•on /ˈiːˌɑːn/ noun, pl eons [count] : a very long period of time — usually plural ▪ Over the eons, the river changed its course many times. ▪ (informal) How have you been? I haven't seen you in eons! [=ages] ep•au•let (chiefly US) or chiefly Brit ep•au•lette /ˌɛpəˈlɛt/ noun, pl -lets [count] : a decorative piece on the shoulder of a uniform ephem•era /ɪˈfɛmərə/ noun [plural] : things that are important or useful for only a short time : items that were not meant to have lasting value ▪ He has a large collection of old menus and other ephemera.

ephem•er•al /ɪˈfɛmərəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : lasting a very short time ▪ His fame turned out to be ephemeral. [=short-lived]

[1]ep•ic /ˈɛpɪk/ noun, pl -ics [count]
1 : a long poem that tells the story of a hero's adventures ▪ Homer's ancient Greek epic "The Odyssey"
2 : a long book, movie, etc., that usually tells a story about exciting events or adventures

[2]epic adj
1 : telling a story about a hero or about exciting events or adventures ▪ an epic poem ▪ an epic film/novel
2 [more ~; most ~] : very great or large and usually difficult or impressive ▪ The football game was an epic battle between two great teams. ▪ The bridge was an epic achievement. ▪ The company is engaged in an epic struggle for survival. ▪ an accomplishment of epic proportions ▪ undertaking an epic journey

epi•cen•ter (US) or Brit epi•cen•tre /ˈɛpɪˌsɛntə/ noun, pl -ters [count] : the part of the earth's surface that is directly above the place where an earthquake starts ep•i•cure /ˈɛpɪˌkjuə/ noun, pl -cures [count] formal : a person who appreciates fine food and drink : GOURMET

ep•i•cu•re•an /ˌɛpɪkjʊˈriːjən, ˌɛpɪˈkjuriːjən/ adj : involving an appreciation of fine food and drink : of or relating to an epicure ▪ a person of epicurean tastes ▪ epicurean delights/pleasures – epicurean noun, pl -reans [count] ▪ affluent epicureans [=epicures]

ep•i•dem•ic /ˌɛpəˈdɛmɪk/ noun, pl -ics [count]
1 medical : an occurrence in which a disease spreads very quickly and affects a large number of people ▪ a flu epidemic ▪ the AIDS epidemic
2 : a sudden quickly spreading occurrence of something harmful or unwanted ▪ a crime epidemic ▪ an epidemic of bankruptcies – epidemic adj ▪ an epidemic disease ▪ The violence has now reached epidemic proportions.

ep•i•de•mi•ol•o•gy /ˌɛpəˌdiːmiˈɑːləʤi/ noun [noncount] medical : the study of how disease spreads and can be controlled
– ep•i•de•mi•o•log•i•cal /ˌɛpəˌdiːmijəˈlɑːʤɪkəl/ also US ep•i•de•mi•o•log•ic /ˌɛpəˌdiːmijəˈlɑːʤɪk/ adj – ep•i•de•mi•ol•o•gist /ˌɛpəˌdiːmiˈɑːləʤɪst/ noun, pl -gists [count]

epi•der•mis /ˌɛpəˈdəːməs/ noun [noncount] medical : the outer layer of skin
– epi•der•mal /ˌɛpəˈdəːməl/ adj ▪ epidermal tissues

epi•du•ral /ˌɛpəˈdurəl, Brit ˌɛpəˈdjʊərəl/ noun, pl -rals [count] medical : an injection of a substance into a person's spine to cause the lower part of the body to become unable to feel pain ▪ Many women undergoing childbirth are given epidurals.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 31 SESS: 44 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:32:20 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−e

ep•i•gram /ˈɛpəˌgræm/ noun, pl -grams [count] : a short and clever poem or saying – ep•i•gram•mat•ic /ˌɛpəgrəˈmætɪk/ adj ▪ epigrammatic poetry – ep•i•gram•ma•tist /ˌɛpəˈgræmətɪst/ noun, pl -tists [count]

ep•i•lep•sy /ˈɛpəˌlɛpsi/ noun [noncount] medical : a disorder of the nervous system that can cause people to suddenly become unconscious and to have violent, uncontrolled movements of the body

[1]ep•i•lep•tic /ˌɛpəˈlɛptɪk/ adj, medical : having epilepsy ▪ epileptic patients : resulting from epilepsy ▪ an epileptic seizure

[2]epileptic noun, pl -tics [count] medical : a person who has epilepsy ep•i•logue /ˈɛpəˌlɑːg/ noun, pl -logues [count] : a final section or speech after the main part of a book, play, or musical composition — sometimes used figuratively ▪ His final years were a peaceful epilogue to a life of adventure. — compare PROLOGUE

epiph•a•ny /ɪˈpɪfəni/ noun, pl -nies
1 Epiphany [singular] : a Christian festival held on January 6 in honor of the coming of the three kings to the infant Jesus Christ
2 [count] : a moment in which you suddenly see or understand something in a new or very clear way ▪ Seeing her father again when she was an adult was an epiphany that changed her whole view of her childhood. ▪ She experienced an epiphany.

epis•co•pal /ɪˈpɪskəpəl/ adj
1 : of or relating to a bishop or to bishops as a group ▪ an episcopal conference ▪ episcopal teachings
2 Episcopal : of or relating to either the Protestant Episcopal Church in the U.S. or the Episcopal Church in Scotland ▪ an Episcopal [=Episcopalian] church/clergyman

Epis•co•pa•lian /ɪˌpɪskəˈpeɪljən/ noun, pl -lians [count] : a member of either the Protestant Episcopal Church in the U.S. or the Episcopal Church in Scotland ▪ She was raised as an Episcopalian.
– Episcopalian adj ▪ an Episcopalian family ▪ an Episcopalian [=Episcopal] church/clergyman – Epis•co•pa•lian•ism /ɪˌpɪskəˈpeɪljəˌnɪzəm/ noun [noncount]

ep•i•sode /ˈɛpəˌsoʊd/ noun, pl -sodes [count]
1 : an event or a short period of time that is important or unusual ▪ It was a brief romantic episode in a life devoted to work. ▪ He tried to forget the whole embarrassing episode. ▪ a painful episode from my childhood
2 : a television show, radio show, etc., that is one part of a series ▪ Millions of people are expected to watch the show's final episode. ▪ a special holiday episode
3 : an occurrence of an illness ▪ The patient has experienced recurrent/repeated episodes [=bouts] of severe infection. ▪ a fainting episode

ep•i•sod•ic /ˌɛpəˈsɑːdɪk/ adj, formal
1 a : made up of many different events or episodes ▪ He led an episodic life. [=a life in which many different and unusual things happened] b : telling about many separate events ▪ an episodic novel
2 : happening or appearing at different times ▪ an episodic illness

epis•tle /ɪˈpɪsəl/ noun, pl epis•tles [count]
1 Epistle in the Bible : any one of the letters to the early Christians that are part of the New Testament ▪ St. Paul's Epistle to the Romans
2 formal : LETTER ▪ He penned lengthy epistles to her.

epis•to•lary /ɪˈpɪstəˌleri, Brit ɪˈpɪstələri/ adj, formal
1 : of or relating to a letter : suitable to a letter ▪ an epistolary writing style
2 : written in the form of a series of letters ▪ an epistolary novel ep•i•taph /ˈɛpəˌtæf/ noun, pl -taphs [count] : something written or said in memory of a dead person; especially : words written on a gravestone ▪ The epitaph reads "In loving memory of John Gray: husband, father, soldier."

ep•i•thet /ˈɛpəˌθɛt/ noun, pl -thets [count]
1 : a word or phrase that describes a person or thing ▪ His charitable works have earned him the epithet "Mr. Philanthropy."
2 : an offensive word or name that is used as a way of abusing or insulting someone ▪ Many were offended by her use of racial epithets. ▪ a group of angry people hurling epithets at one another

epit•o•me /ɪˈpɪtəmi/ noun, pl -mes [count] : a perfect example : an example that represents or expresses something very well — usually used in the phrase the epitome of ▪ Your response was the epitome of good sense. ▪ In his tailored suit and fashionable haircut, he was the (very) epitome of style.

epit•o•mize also Brit epit•o•mise /ɪˈpɪtəˌmaɪz/ verb -miz•es; -mized; -miz•ing [+ obj] : to be a perfect example or representation of (something) : to be the epitome of (something) ▪ He epitomizes laziness. ▪ This student's struggles epitomize the trouble with our schools.

ep•och /ˈɛpək, Brit ˈiːˌpɒk/ noun, pl -ochs [count] : a period of time that is very important in history ▪ The Civil War era was an epoch in 19th-century U.S. history. ▪ The development of the steam engine marked an important epoch in the history of industry. — compare ERA
– ep•och•al /ˈɛpəkəl, Brit ˈɛˌpɒkəl/ adj ▪ an epochal [=epoch-making] invention/event epoch–making adj : very important in history : causing an important change in history ▪ The steam engine was an epoch-making [=epochal] development in the history of industry.

ep•oxy /ɪˈpɑːksi/ noun [noncount] : a type of glue — called also epoxy resin

Ep•som salt /ˈɛpsəm-/ noun, pl ~ salts [count] : a bitter salt that is used in medicine — usually plural equa•ble /ˈɛkwəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : tending to remain calm : free from sudden or harsh changes ▪ an equable temperament ▪ an equable [=mild] climate ▪ a calm, equable fellow — compare EQUITABLE – eq•ua•bly /ˈɛkwəbli/ adv ▪ He accepted the criticism equably. [=he was not upset by the criticism]

[1]equal /ˈiːkwəl/ adj
1 a : the same in number, amount, degree, rank, or quality ▪ an equal number of apples and oranges ▪ officers of equal rank ▪ issues of equal importance = issues that are equal in importance ▪ We divided the profits into three equal shares. ▪ The play combines tragedy and comedy in equal measure/proportions. ▪ The opposing candidate has demanded equal time on television. ▪ " . . . all men are created equal . . . " —U.S. Declaration of Independence (1776) ▪ people from different cultures learning to live together on equal terms [=learning to live together as equals] ▪ making it possible for poor children to compete on an equal footing [=in conditions where they have an equal chance] with other children — often + to ▪ In one night he earned an amount equal to an entire month's salary. ▪ issues that are equal in importance to the most serious problems we face b : having the same mathematical value ▪ The fractions ½ and ⅔ are equal. — often + to ▪ ½ is equal to ⅔.
2 : not changing : the same for each person ▪ providing equal opportunities for children of all races ▪ We need to have equal academic standards for male and female students. ▪ equal rights ▪ (US) an equal opportunity employer = (Brit) an equal opportunities employer [=an employer who does not discriminate against people because of their race, religion, etc.]
3 formal : able to do what is needed — + to ▪ He says that he's equal to the task. [=he's capable of completing the task]
all/other things being equal see THING

[2]equal noun, pl equals [count] : someone or something that is as good, skillful, valuable, etc., as another person or thing ▪ I consider him my equal. ▪ They say they are producing wine that is the equal of the best wines in the world. [=that is as good as the best wines in the world] ▪ We are all equals here. ▪ He has no equal at chess. = He is without equal at chess. [=no one plays chess as well as he does] first among equals see [1]FIRST

[3]equal verb equals; US equaled or chiefly Brit equalled; US equal•ing or chiefly Brit equal•ling
1 [linking verb] — used to say that one amount or number is the same as another ▪ His salary equals mine. ▪ Three plus two equals five.
2 [+ obj] a : to be as good as (something else) ▪ Nothing can ever equal that experience. b : to produce something that is as good as (something else) or to do something as well as (someone else) ▪ See if you can equal that! ▪ a weight lifter attempting to equal his rival's performance ▪ No one can equal him in chess.
3 [+ obj] : to have the same force, effect, etc., as (something else) — usually used as (be) equaled ▪ His arrogance is equaled only by his vanity. [=he is both extremely arrogant and vain]

E

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 32 SESS: 44 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:32:20 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−e

equal•i•ty /ɪˈkwɑ:ləti/ noun [noncount] : the quality or state of being equal : the quality or state of having the same rights, social status, etc. ▪ racial/gender equality ▪ the ideals of liberty and equality ▪ women's struggle for equality — opposite INEQUALITY; compare EQUIVALENCE equal•ize also Brit equal•ise /ˈi:kwəˌlaɪz/ verb -iz•es; -ized; -iz•ing

1 : to make (something) equal or to become equal [+ obj] They are hoping to equalize pay for workers with similar jobs. ▪ We need to equalize educational opportunities for all children. [=to give equal educational opportunities to all children] [no obj] Educational opportunities have not yet equalized.
2 : to make (something) even or to become even [+ obj] trying to equalize the pressure [no obj] The pressure soon equalized.
3 [no obj] Brit, sports : to tie the score ▪ Their best chance to equalize [=(US) tie] came in the 60th minute. — see also EQUALIZER – equal•i•za•tion also Brit equal•i•sa•tion /ˌi:kwələ-ˈzeɪʃən, Brit ˌi:kwəˌlaɪˈzeɪʃən/ noun [noncount]

equal•iz•er also Brit equal•is•er /ˈi:kwəˌlaɪzɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count]
1 : something that makes people or things equal ▪ Education can be the great equalizer. [=education can give poor people an equal chance]
2 sports : a score (such as a point, goal, or run) that ties a game ▪ He scored the equalizer in the 60th minute.

equal•ly /ˈi:kwəli/ adv
1 : in an equal or even manner ▪ The money will be distributed equally among the winners. ▪ sharing the work equally
2 : to an equal degree or extent ▪ My opinions are equally valid. ▪ She's respected equally by the young and old. ▪ The two projects are equally important. ✧ Equally is sometimes used to introduce a statement that is added to and just as important as a previous statement. ▪ We need to be concerned about his rise to power. Equally, the influence of his opponents cannot be ignored.
equally as informal — used to say that one thing is as important, good, etc., as another thing ▪ One project is equally as [=just as] important as the other.

equal sign noun, pl ~ signs [count] : a symbol = used to show that two numbers are equal ▪ ½ = ¾ — called also equals sign

equa•nim•i•ty /ˌi:kwəˈnɪməti, ˌɛkwəˈnɪməti/ noun [noncount] formal : calm emotions when dealing with problems or pressure ▪ She accepted her misfortunes with equanimity. [=she did not become upset; she remained calm] equate /ɪˈkweɪt/ verb equates; equat•ed; equat•ing [+ obj] : to say or think that (two things) are equal or the same ▪ You shouldn't equate those two things. — often + with or and ▪ He equates disagreement with/and disloyalty. ▪ You shouldn't equate material wealth with happiness.

equate to [phrasal verb] equate to (something) : to be the same as or similar to (something) ▪ Disagreement doesn't equate to [=equal] disloyalty.

equa•tion /ɪˈkweɪʒən/ noun, pl -tions
1 [count] mathematics : a statement that two expressions are equal (such as 8 + 3 = 11 or 2x − 3 = 7) ▪ solve an equation
2 [count] : a complicated situation or issue — usually singular ▪ Helping a troubled teenager is more difficult when drugs are part of the equation. [=when drugs are involved] ▪ The southern states will be an important part of the election equation.
3 [noncount] : the act of regarding two things as the same : the act of equating things ▪ the equation of material wealth with/and happiness

equa•tor /ɪˈkweɪtɚ/ noun
the equator : an imaginary circle around the middle of the Earth that is the same distance from the North Pole and the South Pole ▪ The city of Quito, Ecuador, lies very close to the equator. ▪ Is it near the equator?

equa•to•ri•al /ˌi:kwəˈtorijəl, ˌɛkwəˈtorijəl/ adj : of or relating to the equator : located at or near the equator ▪ equatorial regions/countries ▪ equatorial Africa ▪ the equatorial climate

[1]ques•tri•an /ɪˈkwɛstrijən/ adj : of or relating to the riding of horses ▪ equestrian sports ▪ an equestrian competition

[2]equestrian noun, pl -ans [count] : a person who rides horses

equi•dis•tant /ˌi:kwəˈdɪstənt, ˌɛkwəˈdɪstənt/ adj : of equal distance : located at the same distance ▪ Points on a circle are equidistant from its center. ▪ Montreal is roughly equidistant from New York, Boston, and Toronto.

equi•lat•er•al triangle /ˌi:kwəˈlætərəl-, ˌɛkwəˈlætərəl-/ noun, pl ~ -angles [count] mathematics : a triangle in which all three sides are the same length

equi•lib•ri•um /ˌi:kwəˈlɪbrijəm, ˌɛkwəˈlɪbrijəm/ noun [noncount]
1 : a state in which opposing forces or actions are balanced so that one is not stronger or greater than the other ▪ Supply and demand were in equilibrium. ▪ chemical equilibrium
2 : a state of emotional balance or calmness ▪ It took me several minutes to recover my equilibrium. [=composure]

[1]equine /ˈi:ˌkwaɪn, ˈɛˌkwaɪn/ adj
1 : of or relating to horses ▪ an equine disease ▪ equine grace
2 : resembling a horse ▪ an equine face — compare EQUESTRIAN

[2]equine noun, pl equines [count] formal : HORSE

equi•nox /ˈi:kwəˌnɑ:ks, ˈɛkwəˌnɑ:ks/ noun, pl -nox•es [count] : a day when day and night are the same length ✧ There are two equinoxes in the year: the spring (or vernal) equinox, which occurs around March 21, and the autumn (or autumnal) equinox, which occurs around September 23. — compare SOLSTICE

equip /ɪˈkwɪp/ verb equips; equipped; equip•ping [+ obj]
1 a : to provide (someone) with necessary materials or supplies ▪ More money was needed to train and equip the troops. ▪ Equipped with a hoe and a shovel, I headed for the garden.
b : to provide (something) with a particular feature or ability ▪ All of the buses are equipped with air-conditioning. [=all of the buses have air-conditioning] ▪ specially/fully equipped aircraft
2 : to prepare (someone) for a particular activity or problem ▪ Her training has equipped her to deal with emergencies. ▪ She is well-equipped to deal with emergencies. ▪ Those students are not equipped for the challenges of college.

equip•ment /ɪˈkwɪpmənt/ noun [noncount]
1 : supplies or tools needed for a special purpose ▪ sports/stereo/laboratory equipment ▪ The photographer came early to set up his equipment. ▪ I'm looking for a hobby that doesn't require a lot of fancy equipment. ▪ an expensive piece of medical equipment
2 : the act of equipping someone or something ▪ Not enough funds were provided for the equipment of the troops.

eq•ui•ta•ble /ˈɛkwətəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : just or fair : dealing fairly and equally with everyone ▪ They reached an equitable settlement of their dispute. ▪ fighting for a more equitable distribution of funds ▪ an equitable system of taxation — compare EQUABLE
– eq•ui•ta•bly /ˈɛkwətəbli/ adv

eq•ui•ty /ˈɛkwəti/ noun, pl -ties
1 [noncount] formal : fairness or justice in the way people are treated ▪ In making these decisions we should be governed by the principle of equity.
2 finance a [noncount] : the value of a piece of property (such as a house) after any debts that remain to be paid for it (such as the amount of a mortgage) have been subtracted ▪ We've been slowly paying off our mortgage and building up equity in our house. ▪ a home equity loan [=a loan based on the amount of equity you have in your home] b [count] : a share in a company : a share of a company's stock — usually plural ▪ Half of his money is invested in bonds and the other half in equities.

equiv•a•lence /ɪˈkwɪvələns/ noun [noncount] formal : the quality or state of being alike : the quality or state of having the same value, function, meaning, etc. ▪ the equivalence of the two propositions — compare EQUALITY

equiv•a•len•cy /ɪˈkwɪvələnsi/ noun [noncount]
1 : EQUIVALENCE
2 chiefly US : a level of achievement that is considered to be on the same level as finishing a course of study — often used before another noun ▪ He went to night school and got his high school equivalency certificate. [=a certificate that is equivalent to a high school degree]

[1]equiv•a•lent /ɪˈkwɪvələnt/ adj : having the same value, use, meaning, etc. ▪ Those less-known companies manufacture equivalent products at cheaper prices. ▪ I haven't taken English 202, but I took an equivalent course at another university. ▪ an equivalent amount of money ▪ two words of equivalent meaning = two words that are equivalent in meaning — often + to ▪ 100 milligrams of calcium, which is equivalent to three glasses of milk ▪ Allowing him to leave prison now would be equivalent to [=would amount to, would be the same as] saying that his crime was not serious.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 33 SESS: 57 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:32:21 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−e

– equiv•a•lent•ly adv ▪ The two products are priced equivalently.

[2]equivalent noun, pl -lents [count] : something that has the same value, use, meaning, etc., as another thing ▪ a Chinese word for which English has no (exact) equivalent ▪ His newspaper column is the journalistic equivalent of candy.

equiv•o•cal /ɪˈkwɪvəkəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal
1 : having two or more possible meanings : AMBIGUOUS ▪ an equivocal term ▪ He responded to reporters' questions with equivocal answers. — opposite UNEQUIVOCAL
2 : not easily understood or explained ▪ The experiment produced equivocal results. ▪ equivocal evidence ▪ equivocal behavior
– equiv•o•cal•ly /ɪˈkwɪvəkli/ adv

equiv•o•cate /ɪˈkwɪvəˌkeɪt/ verb -cates; -cat•ed; -cating [no obj] formal : to use unclear language especially to deceive or mislead someone ▪ The applicant seemed to be equivocating when we asked him about his last job. ▪ When asked about her tax plan, the candidate didn't equivocate.
– equiv•o•ca•tion /ɪˌkwɪvəˈkeɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [noncount] The candidate spoke without equivocation about her tax plan. [count] His answers were filled with evasions and equivocations. – equiv•o•ca•tor /ɪˈkwɪvəˌkeɪtə/ noun, pl -tors [count] er /ˈɚ:, ˈɚ: usually with a prolonged vowel/ interj — used when you are speaking and you are not sure what to say ▪ "What's the answer?" "Well, er, I just don't know."

ER abbr emergency room

[1]-er /ɚ/ adj suffix or adv suffix — used to form the comparative form of adjectives and adverbs of one syllable ▪ fast*er* ▪ hott*er* ▪ dr*ier* — used to form the comparative of some adjectives and adverbs of two or more syllables ▪ shallow*er* ▪ earl*ier* — compare -EST

[2]-er /ɚ/ also -ier /iɚ, jɚ/ or -yer /jɚ/ noun suffix
1 a : person having a particular job ▪ hatt*er* ▪ furr*ier* ▪ lawy*er* ▪ jail*er* b : person or thing belonging to or associated with something ▪ old-tim*er* ▪ high schoo*ler* ▪ prison*er* c : native of : resident of ▪ New York*er* ▪ cottag*er* d : thing that has ▪ double-decke*r*
2 : person or thing that does or performs a specified action ▪ reporte*r* ▪ playe*r* ▪ sharpene*r* ▪ do-good*er*
3 : person who is ▪ foreigne*r* ▪ Westerne*r*

era /ˈerə, Brit ˈɪərə/ noun, pl eras [count] : a period of time that is associated with a particular quality, event, person, etc. ▪ the Victorian era ▪ the Christian era ▪ the era of the horse and buggy ▪ We're just now entering an era of great prosperity. ▪ His death marks the end of an era. — compare EPOCH

erad•i•cate /ɪˈrædəˌkeɪt/ verb -cates; -cat•ed; -cat•ing [+ obj] formal : to remove (something) completely : to eliminate or destroy (something harmful) ▪ The disease has now been completely eradicated. ▪ His ambition is to eradicate poverty in/from his community.
– erad•i•ca•tion /ɪˌrædəˈkeɪʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ working for the eradication of poverty erase /ɪˈreɪs, Brit ɪˈreɪz/ verb eras•es; erased; eras•ing

1 [+ obj] : to remove (something that has been recorded) from a tape (such as a videotape or audiotape) or a computer disk ▪ The recording can be erased and the tape used again. ▪ Several important files were accidentally erased.; also : to remove recorded material from (a tape or disk) ▪ You can erase the tape/disk and use it again.
2 chiefly US a : to remove (something written) by rubbing or scraping so that it can no longer be seen [+ obj] She erased the wrong answer from her paper and filled in the correct one. ▪ I erased the chalk marks from the blackboard. [no obj] These marks won't erase. [=can't be erased] b : to remove something written from (a surface) ▪ erase [=clean] the blackboard
3 [+ obj] : to remove any thought or memory of (something) ▪ Time has erased the event from her memory. [=she has completely forgotten the event]
– eras•able /ɪˈreɪsəbəl, Brit ɪˈreɪzəbəl/ adj ▪ an erasable tape eras•er /ɪˈreɪsɚ, Brit ɪˈreɪzə/ noun, pl -ers [count] chiefly US : a small piece of rubber or other material that is used to erase something you have written or drawn — called also (Brit) rubber; see picture at OFFICE era•sure /ɪˈreɪʃɚ, Brit ɪˈreɪʒə/ noun, pl -sures : an act of erasing something [noncount] accidental erasure of the tape [count] (chiefly US) ▪ There were many errors and erasures in the typescript.

ere /ˈeɚ/ prep or conj, old-fashioned or literary : BEFORE ▪ ere nightfall ▪ ere long [=soon]

[1]erect /ɪˈrɛkt/ adj
1 [more ~; most ~] : straight up and down ▪ an erect [=upright] pole ▪ erect trees ▪ She sat erect, listening for her name. ▪ The soldiers stood erect.
2 : in a state of erection because of sexual excitement : swollen and stiff ▪ an erect penis ▪ erect nipples – erect•ly adv ▪ standing/sitting erectly – erect•ness /ɪˈrɛktnəs/ noun [noncount] ▪ the erectness of her posture

[2]erect verb erects; erect•ed; erect•ing [+ obj]
1 : to build (something) by putting together materials ▪ The settlers erected [=built] a stone wall. ▪ The city erected a statue in his honor. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ He has had to overcome many obstacles erected by his political enemies. ▪ erect a civilization
2 : to set or place (something) so that it stands up ▪ erect a flagpole ▪ They erected a marker over the grave.

erec•tile /ɪˈrɛktl, ɪˈrɛkˌtajəl/ adj, technical : of or relating to an erection (sense 1) ▪ erectile dysfunction [=a problem that makes a man unable to get an erection]

erec•tion /ɪˈrɛkʃən/ noun, pl -tions
1 [count] : the state in which a body part (such as the penis) becomes firm and swollen because of sexual excitement; also : the penis when it is in such a state ▪ get/have an erection
2 [noncount] : the act or process of building or erecting something ▪ the erection of a new apartment building er•go /ˈeɚgoʊ, ˈɚgoʊ/ adv, formal : THEREFORE, HENCE ▪ The products are poorly constructed; ergo, they break easily.

er•go•nom•ics /ˌɚgəˈnɑ:mɪks/ noun
1 [noncount] : a science that deals with designing and arranging things so that people can use them easily and safely
2 [plural] : the parts or qualities of something's design that make it easy to use ▪ Ergonomics are a crucial consideration when designing an office ▪ The car's ergonomics are outstanding.
– er•go•nom•ic /ˌɚgəˈnɑ:mɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ ergonomic chairs/injuries/factors ▪ The binoculars have a comfortable ergonomic shape. – er•go•nom•i•cal•ly /ˌɚgəˈnɑ:mɪkli/ adv ▪ ergonomically designed office furniture

er•mine /ˈɚmən/ noun, pl ermine or er•mines
1 [count] US : a small animal that has a long body and fur that turns white in winter — compare STOAT
2 [noncount] : the white fur of an ermine ▪ an ermine coat erode /ɪˈroʊd/ verb erodes; erod•ed; erod•ing : to gradually destroy (something) or to be gradually destroyed by natural forces (such as water, wind, or ice) [+ obj] Crashing waves have eroded the cliffs along the beach. — often used as (be) eroded ▪ The shoreline was badly eroded by last winter's storms. — often used figuratively ▪ Years of mismanagement have eroded the quality of their products. ▪ The value of your savings can be eroded by inflation. [no obj] The shoreline has eroded badly. — often used figuratively ▪ Support for the new law has been eroding steadily.

erog•e•nous /ɪˈrɑ:ʤənəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] : producing sexual excitement or pleasure when touched : sexually sensitive ▪ erogenous zones [=sensitive areas on the body that cause sexual arousal when they are touched] ero•sion /ɪˈroʊʒən/ noun [noncount] : the gradual destruction of something by natural forces (such as water, wind, or ice) : the process by which something is eroded or worn away ▪ Landscapers planted grass to stop the erosion of the hillside. ▪ Centuries of erosion by wind have carved grooves in the rocks. — often used figuratively ▪ the erosion of moral standards ▪ an erosion of support for the new law ▪ Many companies fear further erosion of liberal trade policies.

– ero•sion•al /ɪˈroʊʒənl/ adj, technical ▪ erosional areas/periods/processes – ero•sive /ɪˈroʊsɪv/ adj [more ~; most ~] technical ▪ the erosive effect of water ▪ erosive processes

erot•ic /ɪˈrɑ:tɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] : relating to sex ▪ erotic dreams/fantasies/feelings ▪ an erotic [=sexual] relationship : causing sexual feelings ▪ erotic literature/art ▪ erotic beauty ▪ an erotic dance
– erot•i•cal•ly /ɪˈrɑ:tɪkli/ adv

erot•ica /ɪˈrɑ:tɪkə/ noun [noncount] : works of art or literature that deal with sex and are meant to cause sexual feelings : erotic works ▪ a collection of erotica

erot•i•cism /ɪˈrɑ:təˌsɪzəm/ noun [noncount] : a quality that causes sexual feelings ▪ the subtle eroticism of his films ▪ an actress known for her smoldering eroticism

err /ˈeɚ, ˈɚ/ verb errs; erred; err•ing [no obj] formal : to

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 34 SESS: 46 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:32:21 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−e

make a mistake ▪ I may have erred in my calculations. ▪ The court erred in refusing to allow bail. ▪ To err is human. [=it is normal for people to make mistakes]

err on the side of ✧ To err on the side of something, such as caution, is to use or show more of it than may be needed so that you can be sure that you are using or showing enough of it. ▪ It's better to err on the side of generosity [=to be too generous] than to be too stingy. ▪ We chose to err on the side of caution [=to be very cautious] when planning our investments.

er•rand /ˈerənd/ noun, pl -rands [count] : a short journey that you take to do or get something ▪ He was sent out on an urgent errand. ▪ We were there on an errand of mercy to help provide medical care for the refugees. — often used with run ▪ I have to run some errands for my mom this afternoon. — sometimes used with do ▪ She had a bunch of errands to do before dinner. ✧ A fool's errand is an errand that does not need to be done or that cannot be done successfully.

errand boy noun, pl ~ boys [count] US : a person whose job is to run errands for important people ▪ He worked his way up from errand boy to regional sales manager. ✧ Errand boy is often used figuratively to criticize people by suggesting that they are controlled by someone more powerful. ▪ The governor is nothing more than an errand boy for the big companies in his state.

er•rant /ˈerənt/ adj

1 always used before a noun a : behaving wrongly ▪ an errant [=unfaithful] husband ▪ an errant cop [=a policeman who has broken the law] b US : going outside the proper area ▪ an errant calf ▪ an errant motorboat c US, sports : not going in the intended direction : not accurate ▪ an errant throw/pass/shot

2 : wandering to different places in search of adventure ▪ an errant knight — see also KNIGHT-ERRANT

Do not confuse errant with arrant.

er•rat•ic /ɪˈrætɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] : acting, moving, or changing in ways that are not expected or usual : not consistent or regular ▪ His behavior seemed erratic. ▪ The light flashes at erratic [=irregular, random] intervals. ▪ He's an erratic [=inconsistent] shooter. ▪ erratic [=fluctuating] oil prices

– er•rat•i•cal•ly /ɪˈrætɪkli/ adv ▪ behaving/moving/acting erratically

er•ro•ne•ous /ɪˈroʊnijəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : not correct ▪ We received erroneous information. ▪ an erroneous diagnosis/theory

– er•ro•ne•ous•ly adv ▪ The paper reported erroneously [=incorrectly] that he had died.

er•ror /ˈerɚ/ noun, pl -rors

1 : something that is not correct : a wrong action or statement : MISTAKE [count] I made an error in my calculations. ▪ They uncovered several errors in his report to the committee. ▪ The paper contains numerous spelling errors. ▪ The computer displayed an error message. [=a message indicating that an error has occurred] ▪ The project was a comedy of errors. [=there were many errors made throughout the project] ▪ The company has admitted that it made an error in judgment [=a poor decision] in trying to expand too quickly. [noncount] horrifying cases of hospital error ▪ The accident was caused by human error. [=by a mistake made by a person] — see also trial and error at ¹TRIAL

2 [count] : a mistake made by a person who is playing a sport (such as baseball or tennis) ▪ The shortstop was charged with an error.

in error 1 : not correct ▪ I believe your conclusion is in error. [=incorrect, mistaken] ▪ The judge was in error when she allowed the evidence to be admitted. 2 : in a way that is not correct ▪ My earlier statement was made in error. [=my earlier statement was incorrect] ▪ The evidence was admitted in error. [=incorrectly, mistakenly]

margin of/for error see MARGIN

the error of your ways ✧ To see, recognize, acknowledge, etc., the error of your ways is to admit that you have been doing something wrong or behaving badly and to stop doing it. ▪ Congress recognized the error of its ways and repealed the law. ▪ He publicly acknowledged the error of his ways and asked for forgiveness.

– er•ror•less /ˈerələs/ adj

er•satz /ˈeɚˌsɑːts, Brit ˈɛəˌzæts/ adj [more ~; most ~] : copied from something else and usually not as good as the original : FAKE ▪ an apartment complex designed as an ersatz Mediterranean villa

erst•while /ˈɚstˌwajəl/ adj, always used before a noun, formal : in the past : FORMER ▪ erstwhile friends [=people who were friends in the past] ▪ erstwhile allies/enemies/lovers

er•u•dite /ˈerəˌdaɪt/ adj [more ~; most ~] : having or showing knowledge that is learned by studying ▪ an erudite [=learned] scholar/professor/librarian ▪ an erudite essay

– er•u•dite•ly adv

er•u•di•tion /ˌerəˈdɪʃən/ noun [noncount] : impressive knowledge that is learned by studying ▪ a scholar of remarkable erudition ▪ an amazing display of erudition [=learning]

erupt /ɪˈrʌpt/ verb erupts; erupt•ed; erupt•ing [no obj]

1 : to send out rocks, ash, lava, etc., in a sudden explosion ▪ The volcano erupted with tremendous force.; also : to come out in a sudden explosion — + from ▪ Tons of ash erupted from the volcano. ▪ Steam erupted from the geyser.

2 : to happen or begin suddenly and violently ▪ War could erupt [=break out] in that part of the world at any time. ▪ Riots erupted last summer. ▪ A bitter dispute has erupted among the members of the team.

3 : to begin doing something (such as shouting or applauding) suddenly — usually + in, into, or with ▪ The crowd erupted in applause when she finished her speech. ▪ The audience erupted into/with laughter.

4 : to appear suddenly on the skin ▪ A rash has erupted on his back.

5 of a tooth : to come out through the gum ▪ permanent teeth erupting

– erup•tion /ɪˈrʌpʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count] a volcanic eruption ▪ a sudden eruption of violence ▪ a skin eruption [=a rash that has erupted on the skin] [noncount] trying to prevent eruption of violence – erup•tive /ɪˈrʌptɪv/ adj, technical ▪ eruptive volcanic activity

-ery /əri/ noun suffix

1 : qualities considered as a group : character ▪ snobb*ery*

2 : place of doing, keeping, producing, or selling (something) ▪ fish*ery* ▪ bak*ery*

3 : collection ▪ fin*ery*

4 : state or condition ▪ slav*ery*

¹-es /əz, ɪz after s, z, ʃ, ʧ; z after v or a vowel/ noun plural suffix — used to form the plural of most nouns that end in s, x, z, sh, ch, or a final y that changes to i ▪ glass*es* ▪ box*es* ▪ waltz*es* ▪ bush*es* ▪ peach*es* ▪ lad*ies* — compare ¹-S

²-es verb suffix — used to form the third person singular present tense of most verbs that end in s, x, z, sh, ch, or a final y that changes to i ▪ bless*es* ▪ mix*es* ▪ fizz*es* ▪ hush*es* ▪ catch*es* ▪ defi*es* — compare ²-S

es•ca•late /ˈɛskəˌleɪt/ verb -lates; -lat•ed; -lat•ing

1 : to become worse or to make (something) worse or more severe [no obj] The conflict has escalated into an all-out war. ▪ a time of escalating tensions/violence [+ obj] We are trying not to escalate the violence.

2 : to become greater or higher or to make (something) greater or higher [no obj] Salaries of leading executives have continued to escalate. ▪ an effort to combat escalating [=rising] costs [+ obj] The cold weather has escalated fuel prices.

– es•ca•la•tion /ˌɛskəˈleɪʃən/ noun [count, noncount]

es•ca•la•tor /ˈɛskəˌleɪtɚ/ noun, pl -tors [count] : a moving set of stairs that carries people up or down from one level of a building to another es•ca•pade /ˈɛskəˌpeɪd/ noun, pl -pades [count] : an exciting, foolish, or dangerous experience or adventure ▪ a madcap/drunken/comic escapade ▪ As a teenager he embarked on a series of ill-advised escapades. ▪ sexual/erotic escapades

¹es•cape /ɪˈskeɪp/ verb -capes; -caped; -cap•ing

1 [no obj] a : to get away from a place (such as a prison) where you are being held or kept ▪ The prisoner escaped (from jail). ▪ an escaped convict [=a convict who has escaped from prison] b : to get away from a dangerous place or situation ▪ The boat sank but the crew escaped (unharmed). ▪ They managed to escape from the burning building.

2 : to get away from something that is difficult or unpleasant [+ obj] He needed a vacation to escape the routine of daily life. ▪ She moved to the city to escape the memory of her mother's death. ▪ trying to help people to escape poverty [no obj] trying to help people to escape from poverty ▪ This vacation will give us a chance to escape (from the routine of daily life). ▪ escape from reality

3 : to avoid something : to not experience something (such as disease or injury) [+ obj] He succeeded in escaping punishment for many years. ▪ A few passengers somehow escaped injury. ▪ escaped being injured ▪ She barely/narrowly escaped death/disaster when her car slid off the road. ▪ Many cases of fraud escape detection. [=are not detected] [no obj] Several passengers escaped without injury. ▪ She narrowly escaped with her life. [=she narrowly avoided death]

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 35 SESS: 64 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:32:22 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−e

4 [+ obj] : to fail to be remembered or noticed by (someone) ▪ His name escapes me. [=I can't remember his name] ▪ Nothing escapes her. = Nothing escapes her notice.

5 [no obj] : to come out from somewhere ▪ A bit of light escaped through the cracks. : to leak out ▪ Gas is escaping from the tank.

6 literary : to come out or be spoken without being intended [+ obj] A sigh of relief escaped her. [=she sighed in relief without realizing that she was doing it] [no obj] A sigh escaped from her lips.

escape the ax see [1]AX

there is no escaping — used to say that something is certainly true, real, etc., and cannot be avoided or denied ▪ There's no escaping the conclusion [=it is necessary to conclude] that he lied about his involvement. ▪ There's no escaping the fact that this system needs to be replaced.

[2]escape noun, pl -capes

1 [count] : an act of escaping from a place, situation, etc. ▪ The prisoners attempted a daring escape. ▪ He celebrated his escape from his boring job with a long vacation. ▪ He made his escape. = He made good his escape. [=he succeeded in escaping] ▪ She had a lucky escape when she wasn't injured in the accident. ▪ She managed to avoid serious injury, but it was a narrow escape.

2 [count] : a way of escaping from a place, situation, etc. ▪ The door was locked; there was no escape. ▪ Gardening offered an escape from her busy life. — see also FIRE ESCAPE

3 : an occurrence in which an amount of liquid or gas passes out through a hole or crack in a container [count] an accidental escape of poisonous gases [noncount] trying to prevent further escape of liquid escape artist noun, pl ∼ -ists [count] : a person (such as an entertainer) who is good at escaping ▪ Harry Houdini became famous as an escape artist.

escape clause noun, pl ∼ clauses [count] : a part of a contract that allows you to get out of the contract in a particular situation

es•cap•ee /ɪˌskeɪˈpi:/ noun, pl -ees [count] : a person who has escaped : a prisoner who has escaped ▪ an escapee from the local jail escape hatch noun, pl ∼ hatches [count] : a door or hatch that can be used to get out of something in an emergency ▪ the escape hatch of a submarine escape mechanism noun, pl ∼ -nisms [count] : a way of behaving or thinking that is used to avoid unpleasant facts or problems ▪ She uses humor as an escape mechanism. ▪ Football gives him an escape mechanism for his anger.

es•cap•ism /ɪˈskeɪˌpɪzəm/ noun [noncount] : an activity or form of entertainment that allows people to forget about the real problems of life ▪ The movie is pure escapism. [=fantasy] ▪ Reading romantic novels is for her a form of escapism.

– es•cap•ist /ɪˈskeɪpɪst/ adj ▪ escapist fiction ▪ the film's escapist appeal

es•carp•ment /ɪˈskɑəpmənt/ noun, pl -ments [count] : a long cliff or steep slope that separates two flat or slightly sloped areas

es•chew /ɛˈʃu:, ɛsˈʧu/ verb es•chews; es•chewed; es•chew•ing [+ obj] formal : to avoid (something) especially because you do not think it is right, proper, etc. ▪ They now eschew the violence of their past. ▪ a psychologist who eschews the traditional methods of psychotherapy

[1]es•cort /ˈɛsˌkoət/ noun, pl -corts [count]

1 a : a person or group of people who go with someone to give protection guidance ▪ Visitors are not allowed to enter the building without an escort. ▪ a police escort — sometimes used after under ▪ The prisoner was taken to the court under police escort. [=with a police escort] b : a group of vehicles, ships, or planes that provide protection ▪ The bombers were protected by a fighter escort.

2 a formal : a man who goes with a woman to a social event ▪ Everyone was surprised when she arrived at the party without an escort. b : a woman or a man who is hired to go with someone to a social event — often used before another noun ▪ an escort agency/service

[2]es•cort /ɪˈskoət/ verb -corts; -cort•ed; -cort•ing [+ obj] : to go with (someone or something) to give protection or guidance ▪ He escorted [=guided, led] me to the library upstairs. ▪ Several fighters escorted the bombers back to base.

Es•ki•mo /ˈɛskəˌmoʊ/ noun, pl Eskimo or Es•ki•mos [count] : a member of a group of people of Alaska, northern Canada, Greenland, and northeastern Siberia ✧ The word Eskimo is now considered offensive by some people. — compare INUIT

ESL /ˌi:ˌɛsˈɛl/ noun [noncount] : the teaching of English to people who speak a different language and who live in a country where English is the main language spoken ✧ ESL is an abbreviation of "English as a second language."

esoph•a•gus (US) or Brit oe•soph•a•gus /ɪˈsɑ:fəgəs/ noun, pl -a•gi /-ˌgaɪ/ [count] medical : the tube that leads from the mouth through the throat to the stomach — see picture at HUMAN es•o•ter•ic /ˌɛsəˈterɪk/ adj [more ∼; most ∼]

1 : only taught to or understood by members of a special group ▪ esoteric knowledge : hard to understand ▪ esoteric subjects/concepts

2 : limited to a small number of people ▪ esoteric pursuits ▪ esoteric religious sects

– es•o•ter•i•cal•ly /ˌɛsəˈterɪkli/ adv

esp. abbr especially

ESP /ˌi:ˌɛsˈpi:/ noun [noncount] : EXTRASENSORY PERCEPTION es•pe•cial /ɪˈspɛʃəl/ adj, always used before a noun, formal : more than usual : SPECIAL ▪ This is a matter of especial importance.

es•pe•cial•ly /ɪˈspɛʃəli/ adv [more ∼; most ∼]

1 : more than usually : VERY, EXTREMELY ▪ He was especially concerned about the contract. ▪ an especially good essay ▪ There is nothing especially radical about that idea. ▪ Winning this tournament was especially satisfying. ▪ The food was not especially good. [=not very good]

2 a — used to indicate something that deserves special mention ▪ She can't be sure she will win, especially at this early stage of the campaign. ▪ The appetizers and especially [=particularly] the soup were delicious. ▪ Especially in the beginning, they had many doubts. b : for a particular purpose or person ▪ The facility was built especially [=specifically] for research. ▪ I made this pie especially for you.

not especially informal — used to say that you are not very interested in doing something ▪ "Would you like to go to a movie?" "No, not especially."

es•pi•o•nage /ˈɛspijəˌnɑ:ʒ/ noun [noncount] : the things that are done to find out secrets from enemies or competitors : the activity of spying ▪ He was charged with several counts of espionage. ▪ international/industrial espionage ▪ an espionage novel/thriller es•pla•nade /ˈɛsplə ˌnɑ:d, Brit ˌɛsplə ˈneɪd/ noun, pl -nades [count] : a level, open area; especially : an area for walking or driving along a shore ▪ a tree-lined esplanade by the river es•pous•al /ɪˈspaʊzəl/ noun [singular] formal : the act of expressing support for a cause or belief : the act of espousing something — + of ▪ His espousal of socialism has been a surprise to many former colleagues.

es•pouse /ɪˈspaʊz/ verb -pous•es; -poused; -pous•ing [+ obj] formal : to express support for (a cause, belief, etc.) ▪ The new theory has been espoused by many leading physicists. ▪ Those espousing unpopular views were often excluded.

– es•pous•er noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ an espouser [=supporter, proponent] of liberal causes espres•so /ɛˈsprɛsoʊ/ noun, pl -sos : strong coffee that is made by forcing steam through finely ground roasted coffee beans [noncount] a cup of espresso [count] Two espressos, [=cups of espresso] please.

es•prit de corps /ɪˌspri:dəˈkoə/ noun [noncount] : feelings of loyalty, enthusiasm, and devotion to a group among people who are members of the group ▪ The troops showed great esprit de corps.

es•py /ɪˈspaɪ/ verb -pies; -pied; -py•ing [+ obj] formal + literary : to see or notice (someone or something) ▪ " . . . the next thing he espies may be the lady." —Shakespeare, A Midsummer Night's Dream (1595)

Esq. abbr esquire

es•quire /ˈɛˌskwajə, Brit ɪˈskwajə/ noun, pl -quires [count] — used as a title of courtesy after a name; in writing usually used in its abbreviated form Esq. ▪ John Smith, Esq. ✧ The use of Esq. after a man's name was once common in British English but is now considered somewhat old-fashioned. In U.S. English, Esq. is used in writing after the name of an attorney, and it is used for both men and women. ▪ Sheila Jones, Esq.

[1]es•say /ˈɛˌseɪ/ noun, pl -says [count] : a short piece of writing that tells a person's thoughts or opinions about a subject ▪ Your assignment is to write a 500-word essay on one of Shakespeare's sonnets. ▪ The book is a collection of his previously unpublished essays on/about a variety of topics.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 36 SESS: 47 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:32:22 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−e

[2]es•say /ɛˈseɪ/ verb -says; -sayed; -say•ing [+ obj] formal : to try to do, perform, or deal with (something) ▪ He at first essayed [=tried, attempted] a career as a writer. ▪ There is no hint as to which of the approaches essayed in this book will prove most useful. — sometimes followed by to + verb ▪ He essayed [=tried, attempted] to restore an emphasis on classical languages.

es•say•ist /ˈɛˌseɪɪst/ noun, pl -ists [count] : a writer of essays ▪ a 17th-century essayist

es•sence /ˈɛsns/ noun

1 [singular] : the basic nature of a thing : the quality or qualities that make a thing what it is ▪ The essence of love is unselfishness. ▪ The book's illustrations capture the essence of the story. ▪ Competition is the (very) essence of capitalism.

2 [noncount] : a substance that contains in very strong form the special qualities (such as the taste and smell) of the thing from which it is taken ▪ essence of peppermint/lemon in essence : at the most basic level ▪ He was in essence [=basically, essentially, fundamentally] an honest person. ▪ In essence, I believe that a real solution is not possible.

of the essence : of the greatest importance ▪ Time/speed is of the essence when dealing with a medical emergency.

[1]es•sen•tial /ɪˈsɛnʃəl/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : extremely important and necessary ▪ As a fighter pilot, he knows that good vision is essential. ▪ Reservations are essential [=necessary, needed] if you plan to eat there on a Saturday. — often + to or for ▪ The river is essential to the region's economy. ▪ Food is essential [=necessary] for life. — often followed by to + verb ▪ It is essential to use the proper technique. ▪ It's essential to arrive on time. — often + that ▪ It's essential that we arrive on time.

2 : very basic : FUNDAMENTAL ▪ Free speech is an essential right of citizenship. ▪ The essential problem with this plan is that it will cost too much. ▪ There's no essential difference between the two products.

– es•sen•tial•ly /ɪˈsɛnʃəli/ adv [more ~; most ~] ▪ All action movies have essentially [=basically, fundamentally] the same plot. ▪ What he says is essentially true. – es•sen•tial•ness /ɪˈsɛnʃəlnəs/ noun [noncount]

[2]essential noun, pl -tials [count] : something that is basic or necessary : something essential — usually plural ▪ the essentials for success ▪ He tried to teach them the essentials of physics in just a week. ▪ a computer stripped down to its essentials ▪ We only had enough room to pack the bare essentials. [=the things that are absolutely necessary]

essential oil noun, pl ~ oils [count] : an oil that comes from a plant, that smells like the plant it comes from, and that is used in perfumes and flavorings

-est /əst, ɪst/ adj suffix or adv suffix — used to form the superlative of most adjectives and adverbs of one syllable ▪ sweet*est* ▪ fatt*est* ▪ late*st* — used to form the superlative of some adjectives and adverbs of two or more syllables ▪ lucki*est* ▪ often*est* — compare -ER

es•tab•lish /ɪˈstæblɪʃ/ verb -lish•es; -lished; -lish•ing [+ obj]

1 a : to cause (someone or something) to be widely known and accepted ▪ establish a claim ▪ The film established her as a star. ▪ She established a reputation as a hard worker. ▪ The word is now established as part of the English language. ▪ The company has established itself as a leader in the industry. b : to put (someone or something) in a position, role, etc., that will last for a long time ▪ As a young doctor he worked hard to establish himself in the community. ▪ They want to establish their children in the family business.

2 a : to begin or create (something that is meant to last for a long time) ▪ establish [=found] a school ▪ The city was established [=founded] in the 18th century. b : to succeed in making or creating (something) ▪ He was never able to establish [=build, forge] a close relationship with his son. ▪ She established a system of tracking expenses more accurately. ▪ We need to establish [=set] more realistic goals for ourselves. ▪ The two countries established a mutual trade agreement.

3 a : to make the truth or existence of (something) clear or certain : to show that (something) is true or real ▪ He was unable to establish [=prove] his innocence. ▪ Research has established [=demonstrated, shown] that he played an important role in the negotiations. ▪ establishing a link between diet and cancer b : to find out (something) ▪ Investigators are trying to establish if/whether anyone knew about these problems before the accident. ▪ I was unable to establish why these changes were made.

established adj

1 : accepted and used by many people ▪ You need to follow established [=standard] procedures/practices. ▪ a well-established principle ▪ He challenged the established order. [=the way things are usually done in society, in an organization, etc.]

2 : successful for a long period of time ▪ an established author/artist ▪ an established law firm

3 of a church or religion : officially recognized and accepted by the government of a country ▪ an established church — often used in British English to refer to the Church of England ▪ a leader of the Established Church es•tab•lish•ment /ɪˈstæblɪʃmənt/ noun, pl -ments

1 [count] : a place or organization where people live or do business ▪ a dry-cleaning establishment ▪ a business establishment

2 [noncount] : the act of establishing something or someone: such as a : the act of starting something that will last for a long time ▪ the establishment of a business/school/church/settlement b : the act of causing something or someone to be widely known and accepted ▪ the establishment of a scientific fact

3 a or Establishment [singular] often disapproving : the people in business, government, etc., who have power over the other people in a society ▪ She dislikes establishment types. ▪ an anti*establishment* campaign — usually used with the ▪ We spent our youth rebelling against the Establishment. ▪ He accepted a boring job and became a member of the Establishment. b *the establishment : the part of a particular group that has power or control ▪ His novels were disliked by the literary establishment. ▪ the medical establishment

es•tate /ɪˈsteɪt/ noun, pl es•tates

1 [count] a : all of the things that a person owns ▪ His estate is worth millions of dollars. b : the things left by someone who has died ▪ He inherited the estate from his parents.

2 [count] : a large piece of land with a large house on it ▪ a country estate ▪ the grounds of the estate — see also REAL ESTATE

3 [count] Brit : a group of buildings that were built for a particular purpose (such as housing or industry) on an area of land ▪ a council estate [=buildings built by a local government council] — see also INDUSTRIAL ESTATE

4 [count] Brit : ESTATE CAR, STATION WAGON

5 [noncount] formal : a particular state or condition ▪ the estate [=state] of matrimony

– see also FOURTH ESTATE

estate agent noun, pl ~ agents [count] Brit : REAL ESTATE AGENT estate car noun, pl ~ cars [count] Brit : STATION WAGON estate tax noun, pl ~ taxes [count, noncount] : a tax that you pay on the money and other property that comes to you because someone has died : a tax on an estate that you inherit — called also (Brit) death duty, (chiefly US) death tax

[1]es•teem /ɪˈstiːm/ noun [noncount] formal

1 : respect and affection ▪ She has won esteem for her work with cancer patients. ▪ His movies have always enjoyed critical esteem. [=have always been praised by critics] ▪ Please accept this gift as a token of my esteem. [=as a sign of my affection and respect]

2 — used to say how much someone or something is admired and respected ▪ His movies have fallen in critical esteem. [=are admired less now than they were before] — often used after hold ▪ He holds his father in high esteem. [=he respects and admires his father] ▪ That type of job is held in low esteem [=is poorly regarded] by most people. — see also SELF-ESTEEM

[2]esteem verb es•teems; es•teemed; es•teem•ing [+ obj] formal : to think very highly or favorably of (someone or something) — usually used as (be) esteemed ▪ She is (highly) esteemed for her work with cancer patients. ▪ an actor esteemed [=admired] by all his peers ▪ an esteemed author/artist/colleague

esthete, esthetic variant spellings of AESTHETE, AESTHETIC

es•ti•ma•ble /ˈɛstəməbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : deserving respect : ADMIRABLE ▪ She has written an estimable novel. ▪ We owe thanks to our estimable colleague.

[1]es•ti•mate /ˈɛstəmət/ noun, pl -mates

1 [count] : a guess that you make based on the information

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 37 SESS: 19 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:32:23 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-e

you have about the size, amount, etc., of something ▪ According to government estimates, current oil reserves are 10 percent lower than they were a year ago. ▪ One conservative estimate is that he stole five million dollars. ▪ At a (very) rough estimate, the job will take three months.

2 [count] : a statement about how much a job will cost ▪ We solicited several estimates for the project. ▪ The contractor's estimate for the job seemed high.

3 : an opinion or judgment about how good or bad something is [singular] He has a high estimate [=opinion, estimation] of his own abilities. [noncount] The company's products are, by general estimate, poorly made.

[2]es•ti•mate /ˈɛstəˌmeɪt/ verb -mates; -mat•ed; -mat•ing [+ obj] : to give or form a general idea about the value, size, or cost of (something) : to make an estimate of (something) ▪ They estimated the distance at/as about three miles. ▪ We need to estimate how much paint we'll need for the job. ▪ The cost of the project has been estimated at/as about 10 million dollars. ▪ He estimates that current oil reserves are 20 percent lower than they were a year ago. ▪ Damage from the hurricane is estimated (to be) in the billions of dollars.

– estimated adj ▪ An estimated 50,000 people were in attendance. – es•ti•ma•tor /ˈɛstəˌmeɪtə/ noun, pl -tors [count]

es•ti•ma•tion /ˌɛstəˈmeɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions

1 [singular] formal : a judgment or opinion about something ▪ My estimation of his films was never very high. [=I never thought his films were very good] ▪ This is not, in my estimation, an efficient use of our resources. ▪ She went down in her supporters' estimation after she voted against the plan.

2 a [noncount] : the act of judging the size, amount, cost, etc., of something : the act of estimating something ▪ Planning the project requires careful cost estimation. ▪ By his own estimation [=estimate] he had wrecked six different cars.

b [count] : a guess about the size, amount, cost, etc., of something ▪ My estimation [=(more commonly) estimate] of the amount of materials we needed was wrong.

es•trange /ɪˈstreɪnʤ/ verb -trang•es; -tranged; -trang•ing [+ obj] formal

1 : to cause someone to be no longer friendly or close to another person or group — usually + from ▪ His political beliefs have estranged him from his family. — often used as (be) estranged ▪ They are estranged from their children. ▪ an estranged couple [=a married couple who no longer live together] ▪ her estranged husband [=her husband, who no longer lives with her] ▪ an estranged wife [=a wife who no longer lives with her husband]

2 : to cause someone to be no longer involved or connected with something — usually + from ▪ This decision estranged her from the church. ▪ He felt estranged from his past life.

– es•trange•ment /ɪˈstreɪnʤmənt/ noun [noncount] ▪ His estrangement from his family was deeply painful.

es•tro•gen (US) or Brit oes•tro•gen /ˈɛstrəʤən, Brit ˈiːstrəʤən/ noun [noncount] medical : a substance (called a hormone) that occurs naturally in women ✧ Estrogen plays an important role in the development of the female characteristics of a woman's body.

– es•tro•gen•ic (US) or Brit oes•tro•gen•ic /ˌɛstrəˈʤɛnɪk, Brit ˌiːstrəˈʤɛnɪk/ adj, technical ▪ estrogenic chemicals es•tu•ary /ˈɛstʃəˌweri, Brit ˈɛstʃuəri/ noun, pl -ar•ies [count] : an area where a river flows into the sea

ETA abbr estimated time of arrival ▪ The flight's ETA is 5:00 p.m. [=the flight is expected to arrive at around 5:00 p.m.]

e–tail /ˈiːˌteɪl/ noun [noncount] : the business of using the Internet to sell products directly to the people who will use them ▪ growing opportunities in e-tail — often used before another noun ▪ an e-tail store/site ▪ e-tail sales

– e–tail•er /ˈiːˌteɪlə/ noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ a book e-tailer [=an online bookstore] et al. /ˌɛtˈɑːl, ˌɛtˈæl/ abbr and others — used to shorten a list of names ▪ a paper written by Jones, Smith, et al. ✧ The abbreviation et al. comes from a Latin phrase that means "and others."

etc. abbr et cetera

et cet•era /ɛtˈsɛtərə/ : and other things of the same kind : and so forth — in writing usually used in its abbreviated form etc. ▪ They accuse us of being fat, stupid, lazy, etc. ▪ He brought a tent, sleeping bag, etc., when he came to visit.

etch /ˈɛʧ/ verb etch•es; etched; etch•ing [+ obj] : to produce a pattern, design, etc., by using a powerful liquid (called an acid) to cut the surface of metal or glass ▪ etched an identification number on the back of the television ▪ glass that has been etched with an identification number — often used figuratively ▪ That trip is etched in her memory. [=she will never forget that trip] ▪ Pain/sorrow was etched [=was shown very clearly] on his face.

– etch•er noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ a skillful painter and etcher

etching /ˈɛʧɪŋ/ noun, pl -ings [count] : a picture made by putting ink on an etched piece of metal and then pressing paper against the metal

eter•nal /ɪˈtərnl/ adj

1 : having no beginning and no end in time : lasting forever ▪ eternal life ▪ eternal damnation ▪ eternal bliss ▪ the eternal flames of hell ▪ light an eternal flame [=a small fire that is kept burning as a symbol to show that something will never end]

2 : existing at all times : always true or valid ▪ eternal [=timeless] truths ▪ in search of eternal wisdom

3 : seeming to last forever ▪ When will his eternal whining stop?

– eter•nal•ly adv ▪ I will be eternally grateful for your help. ▪ eternally young

eter•ni•ty /ɪˈtərnəti/ noun

1 [noncount] : time without an end ▪ She promised to love him for all eternity. [=to love him forever]

2 [noncount] : a state that comes after death and never ends ▪ They believed that sinners would spend eternity in hell.

3 [singular] : time that seems to be without an end ▪ I waited (for) an eternity for my car to be fixed. ▪ We suffered through an eternity of delays during the lawsuit.

-eth see -TH

eth•a•nol /ˈɛθəˌnɑːl/ noun [noncount] technical : ALCOHOL 1 — used especially to refer to alcohol when it is used as a fuel ▪ a car that uses a mixture of ethanol and gasoline for fuel ether /ˈiːθə/ noun [noncount]

1 : a liquid that burns easily, that is used to turn solid substances into liquid, and that was used in medicine in the past to prevent patients from feeling pain during operations

2 the ether : the air : the sky ▪ The balloon disappeared into the ether. ▪ plucked an answer out of the ether [=out of thin air] — used especially when describing electronic signals that travel through the air ▪ broadcasting radio signals into the ether ▪ sent a message over/through the ether

ethe•re•al /ɪˈθirijəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal

1 a : in heaven ▪ ethereal heights b : resembling heaven : seeming to belong to another world ▪ The windows give the church an ethereal glow. ▪ ethereal music

2 : very delicate ▪ an ethereal ballet dancer ▪ ethereal elegance ▪ His writing is filled with ethereal [=airy] abstractions.

– ethe•re•al•ly adv ▪ an ethereally beautiful image

Ether•net /ˈiːθəˌnɛt/ noun [noncount] technical : a system of wires and devices for connecting computers so that they can work together

eth•ic /ˈɛθɪk/ noun, pl -ics

1 [count] : rules of behavior based on ideas about what is morally good and bad ▪ the Protestant/Puritan ethic — usually plural ▪ legal/medical ethics ▪ government/journalistic/professional ethics ▪ His ethics are questionable. [=some of the things he does may be morally wrong] ▪ The company has its own code of ethics. [=its own set of rules about good and bad behavior]

2 ethics [noncount] : an area of study that deals with ideas about what is good and bad behavior : a branch of philosophy dealing with what is morally right or wrong ▪ Ethics is his chosen field of study.

3 [count] : a belief that something is very important — usually singular ▪ a peace ethic ▪ People here have a strong work ethic. [=a strong belief in the importance and value of work]

eth•i•cal /ˈɛθɪkəl/ adj

1 : involving questions of right and wrong behavior : relating to ethics ▪ ethical [=moral] principles/standards ▪ ethical theories/problems

2 [more ~; most ~] : following accepted rules of behavior : morally right and good ▪ Some doctors feel that this procedure is not medically ethical. ▪ favoring the ethical [=humane] treatment of animals — opposite UNETHICAL – eth•i•cal•ly /ˈɛθɪkli/ adv ▪ behaving ethically [=in a way that is right and good] ▪ ethically dubious behavior [=behavior that may be morally wrong] ▪ Her involvement in the case was ethically wrong.

[1]eth•nic /ˈɛθnɪk/ adj

1 : of or relating to races or large groups of people who have the same customs, religion, origin, etc. ▪ The U.S. has a wide variety of ethnic groups made up of immigrants or their de-

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 38 SESS: 48 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:32:23 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-e

scendants. ▪ ethnic Germans/Chinese [=people whose culture or background is German/Chinese] ▪ ethnic violence/fighting [=violence/fighting between different ethnic groups] ▪ ethnic minorities [=people who belong to an ethnic group that is a relatively small part of a population]

2 : associated with or belonging to a particular race or group of people who have a culture that is different from the main culture of a country ▪ an ethnic neighborhood ▪ ethnic customs ▪ I love ethnic food/restaurants.

– eth·ni·cal·ly /ˈɛθnɪkli/ adv ▪ an ethnically diverse population – eth·nic·i·ty /ɛθˈnɪsəti/ noun, pl -ties [count] people of different ethnicities [=people who belong to different ethnic groups] [noncount] groups separated by race and ethnicity

E

²ethnic noun, pl -nics [count] chiefly US : a person who belongs to a particular ethnic group — used chiefly in newspapers and magazines ▪ trying to win the votes of blacks and of white ethnics ▪ urban ethnics

ethnic cleansing noun [noncount] : the practice of removing or killing people who belong to an ethnic group that is different from the ruling group in a country or region eth·no·cen·tric /ˌɛθnoʊˈsɛntrɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] disapproving : having or based on the idea that your own group or culture is better or more important than others ▪ The review was criticized for its ethnocentric bias.

– eth·no·cen·tric·ity /ˌɛθnoʊsɛnˈtrɪsəti/ noun [noncount] – eth·no·cen·trism /ˌɛθnoʊˈsɛnˌtrɪzəm/ noun [noncount]

eth·nog·ra·phy /ɛθˈnɑːgrəfi/ noun [noncount] : the study of human races and cultures

– eth·nog·ra·pher /ɛθˈnɑːgrəfə/ noun, pl -phers [count] – eth·no·graph·ic /ˌɛθnəˈgræfɪk/ adj ▪ ethnographic research – eth·no·graph·i·cal·ly /ˌɛθnəˈgræfɪkli/ adv

ethos /ˈiːˌθɑːs/ noun [singular] formal : the guiding beliefs of a person, group, or organization ▪ The company made environmental awareness part of its business ethos. ▪ They are working to keep a democratic ethos alive in the community. ▪ an ethos of arrogance

eth·yl alcohol /ˈɛθəl-/ noun [noncount] technical : ETHANOL

et·i·quette /ˈɛtɪkət/ noun [noncount] : the rules indicating the proper and polite way to behave ▪ Her failure to respond to the invitation was a serious breach of etiquette. ▪ a book of etiquette ▪ telephone etiquette [=the proper way to behave when speaking on the telephone]

-ette noun suffix

1 : little one ▪ kitch*enette*

2 : female ▪ major*ette*

et·y·mol·o·gy /ˌɛtəˈmɑːlədʒi/ noun, pl -gies

1 [count] : an explanation of where a word came from : the history of a word ▪ According to its etymology, the English word "dope" comes from the Dutch word "doop" (which means "sauce"). ▪ Several different etymologies have been proposed.

2 [noncount] : the study of word histories ▪ an expert in etymology

– et·y·mo·log·i·cal /ˌɛtəˌməˈlɑːdʒɪkəl/ adj ▪ etymological research ▪ an etymological dictionary/expert – et·y·mo·log·i·cal·ly /ˌɛtəˌməˈlɑːdʒɪkli/ adv ▪ The words are related etymologically. – et·y·mol·o·gist /ˌɛtəˈmɑːlədʒɪst/ noun, pl -gists [count] ▪ a brilliant etymologist

EU abbr European Union

eu·ca·lyp·tus /ˌjuːkəˈlɪptəs/ noun, pl -tus·es also -ti /ˌjuːkəˈlɪpˌtaɪ/ [count] : a type of tree that grows naturally in western Australia and that is grown in other places for the products (such as wood and oil) that it provides

Eu·cha·rist /ˈjuːkərəst/ noun

the Eucharist : a Christian ceremony in which bread is eaten and wine is drunk as a way of showing devotion to Jesus Christ : COMMUNION ▪ celebrate the Eucharist

– Eu·cha·ris·tic /ˌjuːkəˈrɪstɪk/ adj

eu·gen·ics /juˈʤɛnɪks/ noun [noncount] : a science that tries to improve the human race by controlling which people become parents eu·lo·gize also Brit eu·lo·gise /ˈjuːləˌʤaɪz/ verb -giz·es; -gized; -giz·ing [+ obj] : to say or write good things about (someone or something); especially : to praise (someone who has died) in a eulogy ▪ He was eulogized at his funeral as a great actor and a good friend.

– eu·lo·gist /ˈjuːləʤɪst/ noun, pl -gists [count] ▪ described by his eulogist as a great actor

eu·lo·gy /ˈjuːləʤi/ noun, pl -gies [count] : a speech that praises someone who has died ▪ He delivered a moving eulogy at his father's funeral. ✧ Eulogy can refer to any speech expressing praise, but it almost always refers to a funeral speech. — compare ELEGY eu·nuch /ˈjuːnək/ noun, pl eu·nuchs [count] : a man who has had his sexual organs removed eu·phe·mism /ˈjuːfəˌmɪzəm/ noun, pl -misms [count] : a mild or pleasant word or phrase that is used instead of one that is unpleasant or offensive ▪ using "eliminate" as a euphemism for "kill"

– eu·phe·mis·tic /ˌjuːfəˈmɪstɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ euphemistic language – eu·phe·mis·ti·cal·ly /ˌjuːfəˈmɪstɪkli/ adv ▪ The prison was euphemistically referred to as a "correctional facility."

eu·pho·ni·ous /juˈfoʊnijəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : having a pleasant sound ▪ a euphonious name ▪ euphonious harmonies eu·pho·ria /juˈforijə/ noun [noncount] : a feeling of great happiness and excitement ▪ The initial euphoria following their victory in the election has now subsided. ▪ The drug produces intense feelings of euphoria.

– eu·phor·ic /juˈfɔrɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ a euphoric mood ▪ feeling euphoric ▪ euphoric effects of a drug – eu·phor·i·cal·ly /juˈfɔrɪkli/ adv

Eur·asian /juˈreɪʒən/ adj

1 : of or relating to both Europe and Asia ▪ a Eurasian empire ▪ a Eurasian species of bird

2 : having ancestors from both Europe and Asia ▪ a Eurasian child

– Eurasian noun, pl -asians [count]

eu·re·ka /juˈriːkə/ interj — used to express excitement when a discovery has been made ▪ He held up the gold and shouted "Eureka! I have found it!"

eu·ro /ˈjuroʊ/ noun, pl -ros also -ro [count] : a monetary unit used by countries of the European Union since 1999 ▪ was sold for 100,000 euros

Euro- or Eur- combining form : Europe : European : European and ▪ Euro-American relations ▪ *Eur*asian

Eu·ro·pe·an /ˌjurəˈpiːjən/ noun, pl -ans [count]

1 : a person born, raised, or living in Europe; also : a native or resident of the continent of Europe rather than Britain

2 : a person who is descended from Europeans

– European adj ▪ European history

eu·tha·na·sia /ˌjuːθəˈneɪʒə/ noun [noncount] : the act or practice of killing someone who is very sick or injured in order to prevent any more suffering ▪ a physician who refuses to practice euthanasia — called also mercy killing

evac·u·ate /ɪˈvækjəˌweɪt/ verb -ates; -at·ed; -at·ing

1 [+ obj] : to remove (someone) from a dangerous place ▪ People who live along the coast are being evacuated as the hurricane approaches. ▪ During World War II, children were evacuated from London to the country.

2 : to leave (a dangerous place) [+ obj] Residents were ordered to evacuate the building. [no obj] Residents have been ordered to evacuate.

3 [+ obj] medical : to pass (solid waste) from your body ▪ evacuate your bowels

– evac·u·a·tion /ɪˌvækjəˈweɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [noncount] Many nations are assisting in the evacuation of the refugees. [count] repeated evacuations of the embassy evac·u·ee /ɪˌvækjəˈwiː/ noun, pl -ees [count] : a person who has been removed from a dangerous place : a person who has been evacuated ▪ One hundred evacuees spent the night at a school during the storm.

evade /ɪˈveɪd/ verb evades; evad·ed; evad·ing [+ obj]

1 a : to stay away from (someone or something) : to avoid (someone or something) ▪ The criminals have so far managed to evade the police. ▪ They have evaded capture/arrest. [=have avoided being captured/arrested] ▪ His criminal activities somehow evaded detection. [=were not detected] b : to avoid dealing with or facing (something) ▪ a politician skilled at evading difficult questions ▪ The governor has been accused of evading the issue. c : to avoid doing (something required) ▪ illegally evading taxes [=failing to pay taxes]

2 a : to not be understood by (someone) ▪ Their purpose in doing this evades me. [=I don't understand their purpose] b : to fail to be achieved by (someone) ▪ Up to now, success has evaded [=eluded] me.

– evad·er noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ tax evaders eval·u·ate /ɪˈvæljəˌweɪt/ verb -ates; -at·ed; -at·ing [+ obj] : to judge the value or condition of (someone or something) in a careful and thoughtful way ▪ We need to evaluate our options. ▪ evaluate a job candidate ▪ evaluate a training program as effective/ineffective – eval·u·a·tion /ɪˌvæljəˈweɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count] make/do an evaluation of the program ▪ He's been ordered to undergo/have/get a psychiatric evaluation. ▪ teacher evaluations [noncount] The program will be undergoing careful evaluation. – eval·u·a·tive /ɪˈvæljəˌweɪtɪv, Brit ɪˈvæljuətɪv/ adj, formal ▪ evaluative procedures/criteria – eval·u·a·tor /ɪˈvæljəˌweɪtə/ noun, pl -tors [count]

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 39 SESS: 19 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:32:24 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-e

ev·a·nes·cent /ˌɛvəˈnɛsnt/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal + literary : lasting a very short time ▪ evanescent fame
– ev·a·nes·cence /ˌɛvəˈnɛsns/ noun [noncount]

evan·gel·i·cal /ˌiːˌvænˈʤɛlɪkəl/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : of or relating to a Christian sect or group that stresses the authority of the Bible, the importance of believing that Jesus Christ saved you personally from sin or hell, and the preaching of these beliefs to other people ▪ the evangelical movement ▪ She is an evangelical Christian.
2 : having or showing very strong and enthusiastic feelings ▪ He spoke about the project with evangelical zeal.
– evangelical or Evangelical noun, pl -cals [count] ▪ She is an Evangelical. – evan·gel·i·cal·ly /ˌiːˌvænˈʤɛlɪkli/ adv

evan·ge·list /ɪˈvænʤəlɪst/ noun, pl -lists [count]
1 : a person and especially a preacher who tries to convince people to become Christian — see also TELEVANGELIST
2 : someone who talks about something with great enthusiasm ▪ an evangelist of space exploration ▪ software evangelists
3 or Evangelist : a writer of any of the Gospels in the Bible ▪ St. John the Evangelist
– evan·ge·lism /ɪˈvænʤəlɪzəm/ noun [noncount] ▪ television evangelism – evan·ge·lis·tic /ɪˌvænʤəˈlɪstɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ He spoke with evangelistic [=evangelical] zeal. ▪ the evangelistic movement

evan·ge·lize also Brit evan·ge·lise /ɪˈvænʤəˌlaɪz/ verb -liz·es; -lized; -liz·ing : to try to convert (a group or area) to a different religion (especially Christianity) [+ obj] The missionaries set out to evangelize the world. — often used figuratively ▪ They evangelized their neighbors about the importance of saving energy. [no obj] They were evangelizing about the importance of saving energy.
– evan·ge·li·za·tion also Brit evan·ge·li·sa·tion /ɪˌvænʤələˈzeɪʃən, Brit ɪˌvænʤəˌlaɪˈzeɪʃən/ noun [noncount]

evap·o·rate /ɪˈvæpəˌreɪt/ verb -rates; -rat·ed; -rat·ing
1 : to change from a liquid into a gas [no obj] Let the liquid start to evaporate. [+ obj] The heat evaporated the water.
2 [no obj] : to go away suddenly : to disappear or vanish ▪ The opportunity evaporated before he could act on it.
– evap·o·ra·tion /ɪˌvæpəˈreɪʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ water loss through evaporation – evap·o·ra·tive /ɪˈvæpəˌreɪtɪv/ adj, technical ▪ evaporative cooling – evap·o·ra·tor /ɪˈvæpəˌreɪtə/ noun, pl -tors [count] ▪ The boiling takes place in machines called evaporators.

evaporated milk noun [noncount] : canned milk from which most of the water has been removed — compare CONDENSED MILK

eva·sion /ɪˈveɪʒən/ noun, pl -sions
1 a [noncount] : the act of avoiding something that you do not want to do or deal with : the act of evading something ▪ He was arrested for tax/draft evasion. b [count] : a way of avoiding something ▪ They came up with an evasion of the law to keep all the land for themselves.
2 [count] : a statement or action that avoids directly dealing with something (such as a difficult problem or question) ▪ His reply was nothing but careful evasions.

eva·sive /ɪˈveɪsɪv/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : not honest or direct ▪ She gave an evasive answer.
2 : done to avoid harm, an accident, etc. ▪ They took evasive action to avoid capture. ▪ an evasive maneuver
– eva·sive·ly adv ▪ She answered evasively. – eva·sive·ness noun [noncount]

eve /ˈiːv/ noun, pl eves [count]
1 literary : EVENING ▪ one pleasant summer's eve ▪ " . . . from noon to dewy eve . . . " —John Milton, Paradise Lost (1667)
2 : the evening or the day before a special day — usually singular ▪ New Year's Eve ▪ Christmas Eve
3 : the period of time just before an important event — used in the phrase on the eve of ▪ The students were nervous on the eve of their graduation.

[1]even /ˈiːvən/ adj
1 [more ~; most ~] a : having a flat, smooth, or level surface ▪ We finally reached even ground after the long climb. ▪ The ground became more even. [=level] b : not having breaks or bumps ▪ an even coastline ▪ The transition was even [=smooth] and slow.
2 : located next to someone or something else ▪ They slowed down and waited for him to draw even. — often + with ▪ The houses are lined up even with each other. [=lined up so that neither one is in front of or behind the other]
3 : not changing : staying the same ▪ She spoke with a calm, even voice. ▪ the even beat of the drum ▪ He was maintaining an even [=constant] speed.
4 a [more ~; most ~] : equal and fair : not giving an advantage to one side or group ▪ an even trade ▪ He favors a more even distribution of wealth. ▪ Everyone should have an even chance. b : having nothing owed by either side ▪ Here's the money I owe you. Now we're even. [=now we don't owe each other anything] c : not likely to be won easily by one side or another ▪ an even match
5 a of a number : able to be divided by two into two equal whole numbers ▪ 2, 4, 6, and 8 are even numbers; 1, 3, 5, and 7 are odd numbers. b : marked by an even number ▪ the even and odd pages of a book c always used before a noun : not more or less than a stated amount ▪ That'll cost you an even dollar. [=that'll cost you exactly one dollar] ▪ an even dozen 6 — used to say that something is as likely to happen as to not happen ▪ He stands an even [=fifty-fifty] chance of winning. ▪ Our chances of success or failure are about even.
break even see [1]BREAK get even : to do something bad or unpleasant to someone who has treated you badly or unfairly ▪ He vowed that he would get even (with them) for the way he'd been treated.
on an even keel see [1]KEEL
– even·ly adv ▪ The money was distributed evenly. ▪ The committee was evenly divided. ▪ The two teams are evenly matched. ▪ Apply pressure slowly and evenly. – even·ness /ˈiːvənnəs/ noun [noncount] ▪ the evenness of the lighting/distribution/match

[2]even adv
1 — used to stress something that is surprising or unlikely ▪ It's so simple that even a child can do it. ▪ Not only did she stay in business, she even managed to make a profit. ▪ They've changed everything about the place, even the color! ▪ They've changed the doors, the carpets, the color, even!
2 — used to stress the difference between two things that are being compared ▪ His first book was good, but this one is even better. ▪ An even bigger change came the next year.
3 — used after a negative word (such as not or a contraction of not) to stress the smallness of an amount or effort ▪ Not only didn't they help, they didn't even offer to help! ▪ We thought he'd be interested in the painting, but he didn't even glance at it. ▪ She didn't even give him a second thought.
4 — used to stress something that goes beyond what has just been mentioned in some way (such as by being stronger or more specific) ▪ They were willing, even eager, to help. ▪ The disease can cause brain damage and even death.
even as : at the same time as ▪ They are finishing the job even as we speak. [=they are finishing the job right now] even if — used to stress that something will happen despite something else that might prevent it ▪ I'm going to the party even if it rains. [=whether or not it rains] even now/then 1 — used to stress that something is or was happening at a particular time ▪ They are even now preparing for his arrival. [=they are preparing for his arrival right now] ▪ Enemy troops were even then approaching the city.
2 — used to stress that something (such as a person's attitude or behavior) was or is very surprising and unexpected ▪ We showed her the proof, but even then, she wouldn't admit she was wrong. ▪ Despite all that went wrong, he insists even now that he would do it again.
even so — used to introduce a statement that is somehow different from what has just been said ▪ These problems are not as bad as they were. Even so, there is much more work to be done.
even though — used as a stronger way to say "though" or "although" ▪ She stayed with him even though he often mistreated her. ▪ I'm going even though it may rain.

[3]even verb evens; evened; even·ing [+ obj] : to make (something) equal ▪ He evened [=tied] the set at two games apiece. — see also even the score at [1]SCORE even out [phrasal verb] 1 : to become level ▪ After a long climb the ground evened out. [=leveled out] 2 even (something) out or even out (something) : to make (something)

E

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 40 SESS: 19 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:32:24 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-e

E

even and smooth ▪ Let me even out the rug. 3 even out or even (something) out or even out (something) : to reach a balanced or middle state between extremes over a period of time ▪ The economy had good periods and bad periods, but it all evened out by the end of the year. ▪ Any variations will be evened out eventually.

even•hand•ed /ˌivənˈhændəd/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not favoring one side or group over another : FAIR ▪ evenhanded justice ▪ I thought it was an evenhanded assessment/analysis/treatment of her performance.

– even•hand•ed•ly adv – even•hand•ed•ness noun [noncount]

[1]eve•ning /ˈivnɪŋ/ noun, pl -nings [count]

1 : the last part of the day and early part of the night ▪ We're going out to dinner this evening. ▪ He devotes his evenings to charity work. ▪ They left on the evening of July 26. — often used before another noun ▪ an evening walk ▪ We watched the evening news. [=a news program broadcast in the evening] ▪ I'm taking two evening classes. [=classes for adult students that are scheduled in the evening]

2 : an event or activity that happens during an evening ▪ We're looking forward to an evening at the theater. ▪ several fun-filled evenings of poker

3 literary : a late part of something (such as a person's life) ▪ He met her in the evening of his life.

[2]evening present participle of [3]EVEN evening gown noun, pl ~ gowns [count] : a long, formal dress that is worn to evening parties or events — called also evening dress; see color picture on page C15 evenings /ˈivnɪŋz/ adv, US : in the evening ▪ He has to work evenings.

evening star noun

the evening star : the planet Venus when it can be seen in the western sky at sunset or just after sunset — compare MORNING STAR event /ɪˈvɛnt/ noun, pl events [count]

1 a : something (especially something important or notable) that happens ▪ The article recounted the events of the past year. ▪ the last major/big event of the summer ▪ He had no memory of the events that happened afterwards. ▪ The accident was caused by an unusual sequence/chain/series of events. ▪ It's difficult to predict the course of events [=to predict what will happen] with any confidence. — see also CURRENT EVENTS b : a planned occasion or activity (such as a social gathering) ▪ She likes to arrive at social events early. ▪ upcoming events ▪ a sporting event ▪ a calendar of events — see also MEDIA EVENT, NONEVENT

2 : any one of the contests in a sports program ▪ track-and-field events ▪ It's the only event on the golf tour that she hasn't yet won. ▪ the main event at all events or in any event — used to say that what is being said is true no matter what other things may or may not happen or be true ▪ It's possible that she was too nervous to pay close attention. At all events [=in any case, anyway], she does not have all the details quite right. ▪ It is curious, in any event, why their decision bothers him so much.

in the event chiefly Brit : when something that was planned or thought about actually happened ▪ We thought the weather might delay us, but, in the event [=as it turned out], we were able to leave on time.

in the event of : if (something) happens ▪ In the event of rain [=if it rains], the ceremony will be held indoors. ▪ I can call for help in the event of an emergency.

in the event (that) : if it happens that (something occurs) : IF ▪ In the event you (should) decide not to continue your subscription, you may cancel it at any time. ▪ The insurance policy will provide you with a regular income in the (unlikely) event that you are injured.

overtaken by events see OVERTAKE even–tempered adj [more ~; most ~] : not easily upset or made angry ▪ a very even-tempered girl event•ful /ɪˈvɛntfəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : having many important things happening ▪ an eventful [=busy] day ▪ He led a short but eventful life. ▪ It was an extremely eventful period in American history.

– event•ful•ly adv ▪ The day began eventfully. – event•ful•ness noun [noncount]

even•tu•al /ɪˈvɛntʃəwəl/ adj : coming or happening at a later time ▪ our eventual success ▪ She lost to the eventual champion. [=the person who would later become champion] ▪ This plant reaches an eventual height of 15 feet. [=this plant will grow to be 15 feet high] even•tu•al•i•ty /ɪˌvɛntʃəˈwæləti/ noun, pl -ties [count] formal : something that might happen : a possible event or occurrence ▪ He planned carefully and was ready for any eventuality.

even•tu•al•ly /ɪˈvɛntʃəwəli, ɪˈvɛntʃəli/ adv : at some later time : in the end ▪ Eventually, I did get better and returned to work. ▪ I am sure that we'll succeed eventually. ▪ Her constant campaigning eventually got her the nomination. ▪ This plant eventually reaches a height of 15 feet.

ev•er /ˈɛvə/ adv

1 : at any time ▪ The crime rate is higher now than it has ever been. ▪ He's forgotten all he's ever learned about history. ▪ Have you ever been to France? ▪ She's doing fine and is as pretty as ever. ▪ No one has ever seen a better example of woodwork. ▪ We need your help now more than ever (before). ▪ Has this ever been done before? ▪ That was my best vacation ever. [=the best vacation I have ever had] ▪ Did it ever occur to you that I might like more myself? ▪ He's a born politician if ever I saw one. [=he is certainly a born politician] ▪ That was the worst movie I ever saw. ▪ I don't ever want to do that again. = (informal) I don't want to ever do that again. = I don't want to do that again, ever!

2 formal : at all times ▪ He is ever [=always] faithful. ▪ moving ever westward ▪ a guard who is ever watchful = an ever-watchful guard

3 : to a greater degree ▪ Technology in recent years has become ever more sophisticated. ▪ The deadline draws ever closer. ▪ Millions of farmers were forced into ever-deeper debt during the Great Depression.

4 — used after words like where, who, how, and why to make a question more forceful ▪ How ever can I (possibly) thank you? ▪ What ever happened to my former classmates? ▪ Where ever did I put my keys? ▪ "I can't do that." "Why ever not?" ▪ Who ever would want to go there? — also used in indirect questions ▪ I can't imagine who ever would want to go there!

5 US, informal — used to give stress to what follows ▪ Wow, was he ever funny! [=he was very funny] ▪ Am I ever embarrassed! [=I am very embarrassed] as ever : as has always been true : as usual ▪ The problem, as ever, is to find a better way to control spending.

ever after old-fashioned : from that time forward ▪ She remembered him fondly ever after. ✧ Fairy tales sometimes end by saying that the characters in the story lived happily ever after. ▪ The prince saved the queen and they all lived happily ever after. The phrase live happily ever after is also used to describe real people who are being compared in some way to characters in a fairy tale. ▪ His biography tells the story of a poor boy who grew up to be a millionaire and lived happily ever after.

ever and anon old-fashioned + literary : at different times : now and then ▪ Ever and anon [=every so often] there came the sound of bells.

ever since 1 : continually or often from a past time until now ▪ We both liked the idea and have been working on it ever since. [=since then] ▪ I went to the festival its first year and have been returning ever since. 2 : continually from the time in the past when : SINCE ▪ She's wanted to be a firefighter ever since she was a young girl.

ever so informal : VERY ▪ Thank you ever so much. ▪ I'm ever so glad that you got better. ▪ The violin was ever so slightly out of tune.

ever such chiefly Brit, informal — used as a more forceful way to say "such" ▪ He's ever such a nice person! [=he's a very nice person] for ever (and ever) : FOREVER ▪ I'll love you for ever and ever!

hardly/scarcely ever : almost never : RARELY ▪ She hardly ever sings anymore. ▪ I scarcely ever think of them now.

never ever informal — used especially in speech as a more forceful way to say "never" ▪ He never ever wanted to grow up. ▪ I promise to never ever do it again.

rarely/seldom ever : almost never : RARELY ▪ We seldom ever dine out these days. ▪ She rarely ever drinks wine. ✧ Some people regard rarely ever and seldom ever as incorrect, but these phrase are common in speech and in informal writing.

rarely/seldom if ever — used as a more forceful way to say "rarely" or "seldom" ▪ I have seldom if ever been so embarrassed. ✧ Rarely if ever and seldom if ever can be written both with or without commas ▪ Such radical opinions have rarely, if ever, been heard here before. ▪ She rarely if ever sings anymore.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 41 SESS: 49 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:32:25 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-e

Yours ever or Ever yours Brit — used as a way to end an informal letter ▪ Yours ever, Robert

ev•er•green /ˈɛvəˌgriːn/ adj : having leaves that remain green all year long ▪ Most pines are evergreen trees. ▪ evergreen forests/leaves – evergreen /ˈɛvəˌgriːn/ noun, pl -greens [count] ▪ Most pine trees are evergreens.

ev•er•last•ing /ˌɛvəˈlæstɪŋ, Brit ˌɛvəˈlɑːstɪŋ/ adj : lasting forever ▪ everlasting love = love everlasting ▪ To his everlasting credit, he never once gave in to temptation.

– ev•er•last•ing•ly adv ▪ We are everlastingly hopeful.

ev•ery /ˈɛvri/ adj

1 : including each person or thing in a group or series ▪ I heard every word you said. ▪ He devotes every spare moment to his hobby. ▪ His every move was carefully watched. ▪ She's beautiful in every way/respect. ▪ Ceramics of every kind were on display. ▪ We have every reason to believe (that) he's telling the truth. [=we have no reason not to believe him] ▪ He looked closely at every last one [=every one] of them. ▪ They were questioning every little thing [=everything] she said. ▪ He provided them with guidance every step of the way. [=throughout the entire process] ▪ Every time [=whenever] I go there I learn something new. ▪ We're making every effort [=we're doing all that we can] to solve the problem.

2 a — used to describe how often some repeated activity, event, etc., happens or is done ▪ She drives to town every few days. ▪ Every day she starts work at 8 a.m. ▪ The fair is held every other/second year. [=the fair is held one year, not held the next year, held the following year, and so on] b — used to describe how far apart the things in a series of things are placed from each other ▪ They placed a marker every 20 yards or so. c — used in phrases like one in every three to describe how common something is ▪ problems that affect one in every three people

3 : not lacking in any way ▪ I have every [=complete, total] confidence in you.

at every turn see [2]TURN each and every see [1]EACH every bit see [1]BIT

every expectation of see EXPECTATION

every man for himself see [1]MAN

every now and then/again or every once in a while or every so often : sometimes but not often : from time to time : OCCASIONALLY ▪ We still see each other every now and then. ▪ They would get together every now and again. ▪ Every so often she'd come in to check on him.

every which way US, informal 1 : in every direction ▪ Bullets were flying every which way. 2 : in a disorderly manner ▪ The papers were stacked every which way.

ev•ery•body /ˈɛvriˌbɑdi, ˈɛvriˌbɑːdi, Brit ˈɛvriˌbɒdi/ pronoun

1 : every person : EVERYONE ▪ The president waved to everybody in the crowd. ▪ Everybody hates to hear bad news.

2 : every important person ▪ Everybody will be there.

ev•ery•day /ˈɛvriˌdeɪ/ adj, always used before a noun : used or seen every day : suitable for every day ▪ everyday clothes ▪ Don't let the problems of everyday life get you down. ▪ She uses a variety of everyday [=familiar, ordinary] objects in her art. ▪ everyday [=ordinary] people

ev•ery•man or Ev•ery•man /ˈɛvriˌmæn/ noun [singular] : the typical, ordinary person ▪ an actor who is seen as the image of everyman

ev•ery•one /ˈɛvriˌwʌn/ pronoun : every person : EVERYBODY ▪ He hated the movie but everyone else enjoyed it. ▪ Not everyone got the joke.

ev•ery•place /ˈɛvriˌpleɪs/ adv, US : EVERYWHERE ▪ We've been seeing them everyplace. ▪ We see them everyplace we go.

ev•ery•thing /ˈɛvriˌθɪŋ/ pronoun

1 a : every thing there is : all that exists ▪ People will buy everything she paints. ▪ I didn't agree with everything he said. ▪ What do you buy for the man who has everything? b : all that is related to a particular subject ▪ Tell us everything that happened. ▪ He denied everything about the incident. ✧ The phrase everything from (something) to (something) is used to show the wide range of things that are included in something. ▪ The company makes everything from golf tees to diapers. ▪ Her paintings have been called everything from childish to brilliant.

2 : all that is important ▪ To him, money is everything. [=he only cares about money] ▪ She means everything to me.

3 informal : the things that are happening in a person's life ▪ How's everything? ▪ Everything is fine. ▪ We're pretty happy with everything right now. ✧ Phrases like How's everything? and How's everything going? are used, especially in U.S. English, as informal ways to say "How are you?"

and everything informal : and other things like that ▪ I like being out in the forest with all the birds and trees and everything. ▪ He has a lot on his mind, what with his health problems and everything.

carry everything before you see [1]CARRY

ev•ery•where /ˈɛvriˌweə/ adv : in or to every place ▪ Everywhere we went, people were friendly. ▪ His new book is anxiously awaited by fans everywhere. ▪ I seem to hear his music everywhere these days! ▪ We went everywhere we could.

evict /ɪˈvɪkt/ verb evicts; evict•ed; evict•ing [+ obj] : to force (someone) to leave a place ▪ His landlord has threatened to evict him if he doesn't pay the rent soon. ▪ They were evicted from their apartment.

– evic•tion /ɪˈvɪkʃən/ noun, pl -tions [noncount] He was threatened with eviction for failing to pay the rent. [count] unlawful evictions

[1]ev•i•dence /ˈɛvədəns/ noun, pl -denc•es

1 a [noncount] : something which shows that something else exists or is true ▪ There is no evidence that these devices actually work. ▪ He has been unable to find evidence to support his theory. ▪ She first showed/gave evidence of her abilities [=she first showed her abilities] at an early age. ▪ Investigators could find no evidence linking him to the crime. ▪ He denies that he was involved, despite (abundant/ample) evidence to the contrary. [=despite evidence indicating that he was involved] b [count] chiefly US, somewhat formal : a visible sign of something — usually plural ▪ They found many evidences of neglect.

2 [noncount] : material that is presented to a court of law to help find the truth about something ▪ The jury had a great deal of evidence to sort through before reaching a verdict. ▪ There is not a scrap/shred of evidence in her favor. ▪ circumstantial evidence ▪ Anything you say may be used as/in evidence against you. ▪ The letter was admitted in evidence. = (chiefly US) The letter was admitted into evidence. [=the letter was accepted by the court as evidence] ▪ You may be asked to give evidence [=testify] at the trial. — see also STATE'S EVIDENCE in evidence : easily seen ▪ Her charm was very much in evidence throughout the meeting. ▪ Their former confidence is now nowhere in evidence. [=nowhere to be seen, entirely absent]

[2]evidence verb -denc•es; -denced; -denc•ing [+ obj] formal : to offer or show evidence of (something) : to show or indicate (something) ▪ certificates evidencing stock ownership — often used as (be) evidenced ▪ The effectiveness of the program is clearly evidenced [=shown] by the recent decrease in drug-related crimes throughout the city.

as (is) evidenced by : as is clearly shown by ▪ She has become known for the power of her writing, as (is) evidenced by the popularity of her new book. ▪ There clearly were settlements here, as evidenced by these remains.

ev•i•dent /ˈɛvədənt/ adj [more ~; most ~] : clear to the sight or mind : OBVIOUS ▪ She spoke with evident anguish about the death of her son. ▪ The problems have been evident for quite some time. — compare SELF-EVIDENT

ev•i•dent•ly /ˈɛvədəntli, ˌɛvəˈdɛntli/ adv

1 : in a way that can be easily seen or noticed : in an evident way ▪ He was evidently [=obviously] uncomfortable. ▪ Evidently you and I have different feelings on this issue. ▪ "We seem to have different feelings on this issue." "Evidently!"

2 — used to describe something that appears to be true based on what is known ▪ Ancient Spartans were evidently taught to prefer death to dishonor. ▪ Evidently [=apparently] nobody saw them leave.

[1]evil /ˈiːvəl/ adj evil•er; evil•est [or more ~; most ~]

1 : morally bad ▪ an evil villain ▪ evil spirits ▪ evil deeds

2 a : causing harm or injury to someone ▪ She drank an evil potion. b : marked by bad luck or bad events ▪ The city has fallen on evil days/times. c : very unpleasant or offensive ▪ an evil smell ▪ an evil temper d : showing that something bad will happen ▪ It was an evil omen.

– evil•ly adv ▪ He grinned evilly. – evil•ness noun [noncount]

[2]evil noun, pl evils

1 [noncount] : the force of things that are morally bad ▪ the

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 42 SESS: 19 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:32:25 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-e

battle of good versus evil ▪ He believed that the world was full of evil. [=wickedness]
2 [count] : something that is harmful or bad — usually plural ▪ They were talking about the evils of alcohol. ▪ all the evils that plague us ✧ The lesser of two evils or the lesser evil is the better choice between two unpleasant choices. ▪ Since neither candidate is appealing, voters are forced to choose the lesser of two evils. ▪ Which candidate would be the lesser evil? ✧ A necessary evil is a bad or unwanted thing that has to be done or accepted to achieve some good result. ▪ He thinks of taxes as a necessary evil.

evil•do•er /ˌi:vəlˈdu:wɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a person who does bad or evil things ▪ The sheriff is protecting the community from evildoers.
– evil•do•ing /ˌi:vəlˈdu:wɪŋ/ noun, pl -ings [noncount] no evidence of evildoing [=wrongdoing] [count] his defense of his evildoings

evil eye noun
the evil eye : a look that is thought to be able to harm someone ▪ He gave her the evil eye.

evil–mind•ed /ˌi:vəlˈmaɪndəd/ adj [more ~; most ~] : thinking bad or evil thoughts : having a morally bad mind or character ▪ an evil-minded villain
– evil–mind•ed•ness noun [noncount]

evince /ɪˈvɪns/ verb evinc•es; evinced; evinc•ing [+ obj] formal : to show (something) clearly ▪ She evinced an interest in art at an early age.

evis•cer•ate /ɪˈvɪsəˌreɪt/ verb -ates; -at•ed; -at•ing [+ obj] formal : to take out the internal organs of (an animal) : DISEMBOWEL ▪ tools used for eviscerating [=gutting] fish — often used figuratively ▪ Opponents charge that the amendment would eviscerate [=badly weaken] the new law.

evo•ca•tion /ˌi:voʊˈkeɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions : the act of bringing something into the mind or memory : the act of evoking something [count] rich evocations of the sights, sounds, and smells of the carnival [noncount] the evocation of a simpler time

evoc•a•tive /ɪˈvɑ:kətɪv/ adj [more ~; most ~] : bringing thoughts, memories, or feelings into the mind ▪ He wrote a powerful and evocative biography. — often + of ▪ His photographs are evocative of the solitude of the desert.

evoke /ɪˈvoʊk/ verb evokes; evoked; evok•ing [+ obj]
1 : to bring (a memory, feeling, image, etc.) into the mind ▪ The old house evoked memories of his childhood. ▪ His photographs evoke the isolation and solitude of the desert.
2 : to cause (a particular reaction or response) to happen ▪ His wisecrack evoked [=elicited] snickers from around the classroom. ▪ Her remarks have evoked [=provoked] an angry response.

ev•o•lu•tion /ˌɛvəˈlu:ʃən/ noun [noncount]
1 biology a : a theory that the differences between modern plants and animals are because of changes that happened by a natural process over a very long time ▪ the theory of evolution b : the process by which changes in plants and animals happen over time ▪ changes brought about by evolution
2 : a process of slow change and development ▪ an important step in the evolution of computers ▪ We have been able to watch her evolution [=growth] into a world-class runner.
– ev•o•lu•tion•ary /ˌɛvəˈlu:ʃəˌneri/ adj ▪ evolutionary changes/development/history – ev•ol•u•tion•ist /ˌɛvəˈlu:ʃənɪst/ noun, pl -ists [count] ▪ a brilliant evolutionist evolve /ɪˈvɑ:lv/ verb evolves; evolved; evolv•ing : to change or develop slowly often into a better, more complex, or more advanced state : to develop by a process of evolution [no obj] Some believe that birds evolved from dinosaurs. = Some believe that dinosaurs evolved into birds. ▪ Her company has evolved from a hobby into a thriving business. [+ obj] Some flowers have evolved remarkable means of insect pollination.

ewe /ˈju:/ noun, pl ewes [count] : a female sheep — compare [1]LAMB, [1]RAM

ew•er /ˈju:wɚ/ noun, pl ew•ers [count] : a type of pitcher or jug that is shaped like a vase and that was used in the past for holding water ex /ˈɛks/ noun, pl ex•es [count] informal : a former husband, wife, boyfriend, or girlfriend ▪ I ran into my ex at the mall yesterday.

ex- /ɛks/ prefix : former ▪ ex-president ▪ ex-girlfriend ▪ ex-husband ex•ac•er•bate /ɪgˈzæsɚˌbeɪt/ verb -bates; -bat•ed; -bat•ing [+ obj] : to make (a bad situation, a problem, etc.) worse ▪ The proposed factory shutdown would only exacerbate our unemployment problems. ▪ His angry comments have exacerbated tensions in the negotiation process.

– ex•ac•er•ba•tion /ɪgˌzæsɚˈbeɪʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ the exacerbation of symptoms/problems/tensions

[1]exact /ɪgˈzækt/ adj
1 : fully and completely correct or accurate ▪ the exact time ▪ an exact copy/duplicate/replica/reproduction ▪ Those were his exact words. ▪ The exact cause of the fire is still under investigation. ▪ We don't know the exact nature of the problem. ▪ Predicting the path of hurricanes is not an exact science.
2 [more ~; most ~] : very careful and accurate ▪ The police have an exact description of the killer. ▪ Please take the most exact measurements possible. ▪ exact [=precise] instruments ▪ He is very exact in the way he solves a problem.
exact opposite : the complete opposite ▪ I realize now that I have tried to make my work the exact opposite of my father's. [=to make my work as different as possible from my father's] ▪ He used to be romantic, but now he's the exact opposite. [=now he is not at all romantic] exact same or US same exact — used as a more forceful way to say "same" ▪ We grow the exact same vegetables in our garden every year. ▪ They showed up at the party in the same exact outfits.
to be exact — used to indicate that a statement is accurate and specific ▪ that afternoon, June 22, to be exact ▪ They had many children—seven, to be exact. ▪ He came a long way—from Nome, Alaska, to be exact—to attend the wedding.
– exact•ness noun [noncount] ▪ mathematical exactness [=precision]

[2]exact verb -acts; -act•ed; -act•ing [+ obj] formal
1 : to demand and get (something, such as payment or revenge) especially by using force or threats ▪ They would not rest until they had exacted revenge. ▪ He was able to exact a promise from them.
2 — used in phrases like exact a terrible toll and exact a high/heavy price to say that something has caused a lot of suffering, loss, etc. ▪ The war has exacted a terrible toll. ▪ These mistakes have exacted a heavy price.

ex•act•ing /ɪgˈzæktɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~] : requiring much time, attention, or effort from someone : very difficult or demanding ▪ an exacting process/teacher/task ▪ He has very exacting standards/requirements.
– ex•act•ing•ly adv ▪ exactingly high standards

ex•ac•ti•tude /ɪgˈzæktəˌtu:d, Brit ɪgˈzæktəˌtju:d/ noun [noncount] formal : the quality or state of being accurate and correct ▪ She was able to recall the event with remarkable exactitude. [=exactness, precision]

ex•act•ly /ɪgˈzæktli/ adv [more ~; most ~]
1 — used to stress that something is accurate, complete, or correct ▪ The mansion has exactly 33 rooms. ▪ I know exactly where they went. ▪ The two rooms are exactly the same size. ▪ When exactly are they supposed to arrive? = Exactly when are they supposed to arrive?
2 informal — used in speech to say that what someone has said is exactly correct or that you agree with it completely ▪ "So you think we should take an earlier flight?" "Exactly." [=yes, that's exactly what I think] ▪ "It's just not worth the trouble." "Exactly." — see also NOT EXACTLY (below)
3 : in a correct or precise way ▪ The levers need to be exactly positioned. : in a way that agrees completely with what is needed ▪ You need to do exactly [=just, precisely] as you're told.
4 : in every way ▪ That was exactly the wrong thing to do. ▪ He is exactly what a good student ought to be.
not exactly informal 1 — used in speech as a mild way of saying "no" especially to indicate that what someone has said is not completely correct or true ▪ "He's your boss, isn't he?" "Not exactly." ▪ "Did everything go the way you planned it?" "Not exactly." 2 — used as a humorous or ironic way to say "not" ▪ He's not exactly the smartest guy I've ever met. [=he is not very smart]

ex•ag•ger•ate /ɪgˈzæʤəˌreɪt/ verb -ates; -at•ed; -at•ing
1 : to think of or describe something as larger or greater than it really is [+ obj] The book exaggerates the difficulties he faced in starting his career. ▪ It's impossible to exaggerate the importance of this discovery. [no obj] He tends to exaggerate when talking about his accomplishments.
2 [+ obj] : to make (something) larger or greater than normal ▪ He exaggerated his movements so we could see them more clearly.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 43 SESS: 50 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:32:26 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-e

– exaggerated adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ He has a very/greatly exaggerated idea of his own importance. ▪ a very exaggerated gesture – ex•ag•ger•at•ed•ly adv [more ~; most ~] ▪ an exaggeratedly large gesture – ex•ag•ger•a•tion /ɪgˌzædʒəˈreɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count] The report was filled with exaggerations and outright lies. [noncount] She told us what happened without exaggeration. [=without exaggerating] – ex•ag•ger•a•tor /ɪgˈzædʒəˌreɪtə/ noun, pl -tors [count] ▪ He's an exaggerator, if not an outright liar.

ex•alt /ɪgˈzɑːlt/ verb -alts; -alt•ed; -alt•ing [+ obj]
1 formal : to raise (someone or something) to a higher level ▪ His behavior has exalted the power and prestige of his office.
2 a formal : to praise (someone or something) highly ▪ The essay exalts the simple beauty of the country. ▪ We exalt thee, O Lord. b : to present (something) in a way that is very favorable or too favorable ▪ His new film exalts [=glorifies] military power. ▪ He shamelessly exalts his own role in the peace process.

Do not confuse exalt with exult.

– exalted adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ She rose to an exalted [=very high] position in the company. ▪ an exalted feeling [=a very happy feeling] ▪ He had an exalted [=very high] opinion of his own work. – exalting adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ The movie is an exalting [=uplifting] experience.

ex•al•ta•tion /ˌɛgˌzɑːlˈteɪʃən/ noun [noncount] formal
1 : the act of raising someone or something in importance : the act of exalting someone or something or the state of being exalted ▪ the exaltation [=glorification] of athletic skill
2 : a strong sense of happiness, power, or importance ▪ feelings of joy and exaltation

ex•am /ɪgˈzæm/ noun, pl -ams [count]
1 US : EXAMINATION 1b ▪ an annual physical exam
2 : EXAMINATION 2 ▪ Your final exam will count for half of the semester's grade.

ex•am•i•na•tion /ɪgˌzæməˈneɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions
1 a : the act of looking at something closely and carefully : the act of examining something [noncount] On closer/further examination, the painting appears to be a fake. ▪ The victim's clothes were sent to the lab for examination. ▪ The policy is under examination. [=is being examined] [count] The police made/performed a rigorous examination of the evidence at the crime scene. b [count] : a close and careful study of someone or something to find signs of illness or injury ▪ medical/eye examinations ▪ The court ordered that the defendant undergo a psychiatric examination. ▪ an examination table [=a table in a doctor's office on which a patient lies to be examined]
2 [count] : a test to show a person's progress, knowledge, or ability ▪ I have to study for the history examination. ▪ an examination in/on history ▪ I took an examination. = (Brit) I did/sat an examination. ▪ an entrance examination [=a test to see if someone should be admitted to a school]
3 [noncount] law : the act of questioning a witness in a court of law ▪ procedures that are not allowed during examination of witnesses — see also CROSS-EXAMINATION

ex•am•ine /ɪgˈzæmən/ verb -ines; -ined; -in•ing [+ obj]
1 : to look at (something) closely and carefully in order to learn more about it, to find problems, etc. ▪ An accountant has been hired to examine the company's books. ▪ We need to examine [=consider] this question more carefully. ▪ The police examined the evidence carefully.
2 : to test or look carefully at (something or someone) for signs of illness or injury ▪ You should have your eyes examined. ▪ He was examined by several doctors, who found nothing wrong with him. ▪ the examining room [=a room in a doctor's office where the doctor examines patients]
3 law : to question (someone) closely ▪ examine a witness — see also CROSS-EXAMINE – ex•am•in•er noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ photo examiners — see also MEDICAL EXAMINER

ex•am•ple /ɪgˈzæmpəl/ noun, pl -am•ples
1 : a person or way of behaving that is seen as a model that should be followed [count] He was inspired by the example of his older brother. [=he wanted to do what his older brother did] ▪ You should try to follow her example. [=try to do as she does] ▪ Let that be an example to you! [=let that show you what you should or should not do] ▪ He set a good/bad example for the rest of us. ▪ It's up to you to set an example. [=to behave in a way that shows other people how to behave] [noncount] She chooses to lead by example. [=to lead by behaving in a way that shows others how to behave]
2 [count] a : someone or something that is mentioned to help explain what you are saying or to show that a general statement is true ▪ She gave/offered several examples to show that the program is effective. b : something or someone chosen from a group in order to show what the whole group is like ▪ We've chosen three examples of contemporary architecture for closer study. ▪ a classic example of a Persian rug ▪ a fine/prime example of the artist's work
3 [count] a : a phrase or sentence that shows how a word is used ▪ The dictionary includes thousands of examples. b : something (such as a problem that a student has to solve) that is used to teach how a rule or process works ▪ arithmetic examples for example — used when you are mentioning a specific person or thing that helps to explain what you are saying or to show that a general statement is true ▪ Things are getting better. Last year, for example [=for instance], the company achieved record sales in Europe. ▪ It was obvious that her memory was failing. For example, she would often forget where she put her car keys. ▪ A lot of my friends were there—John and Linda, for example.
make an example of ✧ If you make an example of a person who has done something wrong, you punish that person as a way of warning other people not to do the same thing. ▪ Although it was only his first offense, the judge decided to make an example of him and sentence him to prison.

ex•as•per•ate /ɪgˈzæspəˌreɪt, Brit ɪgˈzɑːspəreɪt/ verb -ates; -at•ed; -at•ing [+ obj] : to make (someone) very angry or annoyed ▪ The criticism of his latest movie is sure to exasperate his admirers. ▪ We were exasperated by the delays.
– exasperated adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ The delays left us feeling tired and exasperated. ▪ an exasperated smile – ex•as•per•at•ed•ly adv ▪ smiling/sighing exasperatedly – exasperating adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ exasperating delays ▪ He wants everyone to know how exasperating his job can be. – ex•as•per•at•ing•ly adv ▪ His lectures were exasperatingly dull.

ex•as•per•a•tion /ɪgˌzæspəˈreɪʃən, Brit ɪgˌzɑːspəˈreɪʃən/ noun [noncount] : the state of being very annoyed or upset ▪ They had all experienced the exasperation and frustration of holiday shopping. ▪ He sighed in exasperation.

ex•ca•vate /ˈɛkskəˌveɪt/ verb -vates; -vat•ed; -vat•ing [+ obj]
1 : to uncover (something) by digging away and removing the earth that covers it ▪ They excavated an ancient city. ▪ It is the first site to be excavated in this area.
2 a : to dig a large hole in (something) ▪ They began excavating the backyard for their new pool. b : to form (a hole, tunnel, etc.) by digging ▪ excavate a tunnel c : to dig out and remove (dirt, soil, etc.) ▪ The excess dirt was carefully excavated.
– ex•ca•va•tion /ˌɛkskəˈveɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count, noncount]

ex•ca•va•tor /ˈɛkskəˌveɪtə/ noun, pl -tors [count]
1 : a person who digs up things that have been buried for a long time ▪ The excavators found ancient tools at the site.
2 : STEAM SHOVEL

ex•ceed /ɪkˈsiːd/ verb -ceeds; -ceed•ed; -ceed•ing [+ obj]
1 : to be greater or more than (something) ▪ The cost must not exceed 10 dollars. ▪ The cost exceeded our estimate. ▪ The demand for new housing has already exceeded the supply. : to be better than (something) ▪ Their accomplishments far exceeded [=surpassed] our expectations. ▪ He's trying to match or exceed last year's sales.
2 : to go beyond the limit of (something) ▪ Lawyers argue that the court exceeded [=overstepped] its authority in ordering a new trial.

ex•ceed•ing•ly /ɪkˈsiːdɪŋli/ adv, somewhat formal : VERY, EXTREMELY ▪ an exceedingly fine job ▪ The weather was exceedingly cold. ▪ The crime rate is exceedingly high.

ex•cel /ɪkˈsɛl/ verb ex•cels; ex•celled; ex•cel•ling
1 [no obj] : to be better than others — usually + at or in ▪ He excelled at whatever role he played. ▪ She excels in sports.
2 [+ obj] : to be or do better than (others) ▪ She excels everyone else in sports. ▪ (Brit) She really excelled herself [=she did much better than usual] in her last race!

ex•cel•lence /ˈɛksələns/ noun [noncount] : extremely high quality ▪ The school is known for the excellence of its teachers. ▪ an award for academic excellence ▪ setting a high standard of excellence — see also PAR EXCELLENCE

Ex•cel•len•cy /ˈɛksələnsi/ noun, pl -cies [count] — used as a title for some high government and church officials ▪ your

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 44 SESS: 51 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:32:26 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−e

Excellency ▪ their Excellencies the Ambassadors of India and Indonesia

ex•cel•lent /ˈɛksələnt/ adj : very good : extremely good ▪ Her new movie has received excellent reviews. ▪ He is an excellent role model for young men everywhere. ▪ That dinner was excellent. ▪ The car is in excellent condition. ▪ She enjoys excellent health. ▪ "At last we're making a profit!" "(That's) Excellent!"
– ex•cel•lent•ly adv ▪ The food was delicious and excellently prepared.

[1]ex•cept /ɪkˈsɛpt/ also ex•cept•ing /ɪkˈsɛptɪŋ/ prep : not including (someone or something) : other than (something or someone) ▪ The stores will be open daily except Sundays. ▪ Excepting [=with the exception of] one student, no one could answer the questions correctly. ▪ Everyone was invited except [=but] me.

except for 1 : not including (someone or something) : other than (someone or something) ▪ I got all As on my report card, except for a B in Latin. ▪ Except for that one typo, there were no mistakes. ▪ Everyone was invited except for [=but] me. 2 : if not for (someone or something) ▪ They would all have died except for [=but for] her and her quick thinking. [=it was only because of her that they did not die]

[2]except conj
1 — used to introduce a statement that indicates the only person or thing that is not included in or referred to by a previous statement ▪ Take no orders except from me. [=take orders only from me] ▪ Employees were not allowed to leave except in an emergency. [=unless there was an emergency] ▪ She didn't leave the house all weekend, except to go to church. [=she only left the house to go to church] ▪ He does nothing except [=but] complain. [=all he does is complain]
2 — used to introduce a statement that explains the reason why something is not possible, will not happen, etc. ▪ We'd go, except (that) it's too far. ▪ I would buy a new suit, except I don't have enough money.

[3]except verb -cepts; -cept•ed; -cept•ing [+ obj] formal : to leave out (someone or something) : to not include (someone or something) ▪ Children were excepted from the study. ▪ Everyone was included in the study—children excepted. [=except for children] ▪ I don't like lawyers—present company excepted, of course! [=although I don't like lawyers, I make an exception in your case]

ex•cep•tion /ɪkˈsɛpʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count]
1 : someone or something that is different from others : someone or something that is not included ▪ I like all his books, with one exception. [=I like all but one of his books] ▪ The decision was supported by almost everyone, the single/sole exception being me. [=everyone supported the decision but me] ▪ Her parties are always elegant, and last night's party was no exception. [=last night's party was also elegant]
2 : a case where a rule does not apply ▪ There will be no exceptions to this rule. ▪ We'll make an exception [=allow the rule not to be followed] this time.
take exception : to object to something : to feel or express disagreement with or opposition to something — usually + to ▪ I take exception to the tone of her remarks. [=I am offended by the tone of her remarks] without exception — used to say that a statement is true in all or almost all cases ▪ Without exception, his books have been widely read and admired. ▪ The critics have praised her films almost without exception. [=the critics have praised almost every one of her films] with the exception of : not including (someone or something) ▪ It's all here, with the exception of [=except for, except] the sweater. ▪ With the (notable) exception of the bland soup, the food was very good. ▪ Everyone should be there, with the (possible) exception of my brother.

ex•cep•tion•able /ɪkˈsɛpʃənəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : likely to cause objection or offense ▪ an unpleasant and highly exceptionable [=objectionable] piece of writing — opposite UNEXCEPTIONABLE

ex•cep•tion•al /ɪkˈsɛpʃənl/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : not usual : unusual or uncommon ▪ an exceptional [=unusually large] amount of rain ▪ We're bending the rules for this exceptional situation. ▪ exceptional circumstances
2 : unusually good : much better than average ▪ an exceptional student in math ▪ The seafood dishes at this restaurant are exceptional. ▪ exceptional skill
3 : mentally or physically disabled ▪ a separate school for exceptional children
– ex•cep•tion•al•ly adv ▪ an exceptionally hardy plant ▪ The film was exceptionally good.

[1]ex•cerpt /ˈɛkˌsɚpt, ˈɛgˌzɚpt/ noun, pl -cerpts [count] : a small part of a longer written work ▪ She read an excerpt from the play. ▪ I've read only excerpts of/from Moby-Dick, never the whole book.

[2]ex•cerpt /ˌɛkˈsɚpt, ˌɛgˈzɚpt/ verb -cerpts; -cerpt•ed; -cerpt•ing [+ obj] : to include (part of a longer written work) in something else — usually used as (be) excerpted ▪ This article was excerpted from the New York Times. ▪ Portions of her novel were excerpted in a literary magazine.

[1]ex•cess /ɪkˈsɛs, ˈɛkˌsɛs/ noun, pl -cess•es
1 [singular] : an amount that is more than the usual or necessary amount ▪ They were equipped with an excess of provisions. ▪ The tests found an excess of sodium in his blood. ▪ an excess of enthusiasm/zeal ▪ There was an excess of 10 bushels (over what was needed to fill the bin). ▪ Eating anything in excess [=in overly large amounts] can be bad for you.
2 a [noncount] : behavior that is considered wrong because it goes beyond what is usual, normal, or proper ▪ He lived a life of excess. b excesses [plural] : actions or ways of behaving that go beyond what is usual or proper ▪ The movie embraces all the worst excesses of popular American culture. ▪ the violent excesses of the military regime ▪ He apologized for his past excesses.
in excess of : more than (an amount) ▪ Annual repairs cost in excess of [=over] $50,000. ▪ traveling at speeds in excess of 100 mph to excess : more than is usual, normal, or proper ▪ He often eats to excess. [=excessively] ▪ college students who drink to excess [=who drink too much]

[2]excess adj, always used before a noun : more than is usual, allowed, or needed ▪ excess baggage ▪ Basketball provided an outlet for their excess energy. ▪ She is trying to eliminate excess fat and calories from her diet.

ex•ces•sive /ɛkˈsɛsɪv/ adj [more ~; most ~] : going beyond what is usual, normal, or proper ▪ an excessive display of wealth ▪ She was reprimanded for her excessive tardiness. [=for being tardy too often] ▪ High fever, nausea, and excessive sweating are some of the symptoms. ▪ He drinks excessive amounts of coffee. [=he drinks too much coffee]
– ex•ces•sive•ly adv ▪ a dog who barks excessively ▪ drinking excessively [=to excess]

[1]ex•change /ɪksˈʧeɪnʤ/ noun, pl -chang•es
1 : an occurrence in which people give things of similar value to each other : the act of giving or taking one thing in return for another thing [noncount] the exchange [=exchanging] of goods [count] an exchange of goods ▪ an exchange of prisoners ▪ an even/fair exchange of property
2 [count] a : an occurrence in which people direct something at each other ▪ an exchange of glances ▪ an angry exchange of insults ▪ an exchange of blows [=a fistfight] b : an occurrence in which people give information to each other ▪ a useful exchange of information/knowledge/ideas c : an occurrence in which people use weapons against each other ▪ an exchange of gunfire ▪ threats of a nuclear exchange
3 [count] : an occurrence in which people talk to each other for a short time : a brief conversation ▪ a friendly exchange; especially : an angry conversation ▪ a heated exchange ▪ a bitter exchange
4 [count] a : a place where things or services are traded ▪ the student book exchange b : an office or building in which telephone calls are connected ▪ a telephone exchange in exchange ✧ If you give something to a person and get something in exchange, that person also gives something of similar value to you. ▪ If I give you this, what will you give me in exchange? ▪ She bought me dinner in exchange for helping her move. [=she bought me dinner as a way of paying me for helping her move]
– see also FOREIGN EXCHANGE, STOCK EXCHANGE

[2]exchange verb -changes; -changed; -chang•ing [+ obj]
1 : to give something and receive something in return ▪ We exchanged addresses and promised we'd write each other often. ▪ We exchange gifts [=give gifts to each other] at the holidays. ▪ These coupons can be exchanged for food. ▪ I'll exchange [=trade, swap] my orange for your pear.
2 : to direct (words, looks, etc.) at each other ▪ They exchanged glances. [=they looked quickly at each other] ▪ They exchanged greetings [=they greeted each other] when they met. ▪ They exchanged insults/blows. [=they insulted/hit each other] ▪ soldiers exchanging fire [=shooting at each other]
3 : to return (a product) to a store and have it replaced by another product : to trade (something that has been purchased) for something else ▪ I'd like to exchange this sweater for a smaller one. ▪ The vase had a crack in it, so he exchanged it (for an unbroken one). ▪ Can I exchange this vase? = Can you exchange this cracked vase for me?

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 45 SESS: 66 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:32:27 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−e

– ex•change•able /ɪksˈʧeɪnʤəbəl/ adj ▪ exchangeable merchandise exchange rate noun, pl ~ rates [count] : a number that is used to calculate the difference in value between money from one country and money from another country — called also rate of exchange exchange student noun, pl ~ -dents [count] : a student from one country who attends a school in another country ▪ I went to Germany as an exchange student.

Ex•che•quer /ˈɛksˌʧɛkə˞, ɪksˈʧɛkə˞/ noun [singular] : a department of the British government which manages the money that is used to run the government : TREASURY — now used chiefly in the title the Chancellor of the Exchequer

[1]ex•cise /ˈɛkˌsaɪz/ noun, pl -cis•es [count] : a tax on certain things that are made, sold, or used within a country ▪ an excise imposed on a number of goods — called also excise tax

[2]ex•cise /ɪkˈsaɪz/ verb -cis•es; -cised; -cis•ing [+ obj] formal : to remove (something) by cutting it out ▪ excise a tumor ▪ All of the scandalous parts had been excised [=deleted] from the diary.

– ex•ci•sion /ɪkˈsɪʒən/ noun, pl -sions [noncount] surgical excision of the tumor [count] The diary was published with numerous excisions. [=deletions]

excise tax noun, pl ~ taxes [count] : [1]EXCISE

ex•cit•able /ɪkˈsaɪtəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : easily excited ▪ an excitable dog/child

– ex•cit•abil•i•ty /ɪkˌsaɪtəˈbɪləti/ noun [noncount]

ex•cite /ɪkˈsaɪt/ verb -cites; -cit•ed; -cit•ing [+ obj]

1 : to cause feelings of enthusiasm in (someone) : to make (someone) feel energetic and eager to do something ▪ ideas that excite young people ▪ Our announcement excited the children. ▪ It excites me [=it arouses me sexually] when you dress like that.

2 : to cause (a particular emotion or reaction) to be felt or to happen ▪ excite admiration/suspicion/discussion ▪ The posters excited much interest in the show.

3 : to increase the activity of (something, such as nerve tissue) ▪ a chemical that excites [=stimulates] the nerve cells in the brain excited adj [more ~; most ~] : very enthusiastic and eager about something ▪ They were excited about/over the trip. ▪ We were excited (to hear) that they were getting married. ▪ The children were excited before the school play.

– ex•cit•ed•ly adv ▪ He talked excitedly about visiting his old friends.

ex•cite•ment /ɪkˈsaɪtmənt/ noun, pl -ments

1 [noncount] : a feeling of eager enthusiasm and interest : the state of being excited ▪ Our excitement was building/growing/mounting as the end of the game approached. ▪ His hands shook with excitement. ▪ The child cried out in excitement.

2 a : exciting activity [noncount] a trip filled with excitement and adventure ▪ We had some excitement this morning. [=something exciting happened this morning] [count] She talked about the excitements of her new life. b [singular] : a quality that causes feelings of eager enthusiasm : an exciting quality ▪ This job loses its excitement after a while.

exciting /ɪkˈsaɪtɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~] : causing feelings of interest and enthusiasm : causing excitement ▪ an exciting discovery ▪ an exciting trip to Africa ▪ an exciting account of her adventures ▪ This isn't a very exciting book.

– ex•cit•ing•ly adv ▪ an excitingly close election

ex•claim /ɪkˈskleɪm/ verb -claims; -claimed; -claim•ing

1 [+ obj] : to say (something) in an enthusiastic or forceful way ▪ "I won!" she exclaimed. ▪ "Here he comes!" someone exclaimed.

2 [no obj] : to cry out or speak suddenly or with strong feeling ▪ She exclaimed in delight over/at the Christmas tree. ▪ The children exclaimed with wonder when they saw the elephant.

ex•cla•ma•tion /ˌɛkskləˈmeɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count] : a sharp or sudden cry : a word, phrase, or sound that expresses a strong emotion ▪ Her unexpected announcement caused a few exclamations of surprise. ▪ an exclamation of pain ▪ exclamations of delight

– ex•clam•a•to•ry /ɪkˈsklæməˌtori, Brit ɪkˈsklæmətri/ adj ▪ exclamatory outbursts

exclamation point noun, pl ~ points [count] US : a punctuation mark ! used to show a forceful way of speaking or a strong feeling — often used figuratively ▪ His victory in the final game put an exclamation point on a brilliant year. [=ended a brilliant year in a very exciting way] — called also (chiefly Brit) exclamation mark

ex•clude /ɪkˈsklu:d/ verb -cludes; -clud•ed; -clud•ing [+ obj]

1 a : to prevent (someone) from doing something or being a part of a group ▪ You can share files with some people on the network while excluding others. — often + from ▪ Don't exclude your little sister from the game. ▪ Until 1920, women were excluded from the right to vote in the U.S. — opposite INCLUDE b : to leave out (something) : to not include (something) ▪ The prices on the menu exclude tax. — often + from ▪ Certain words should be excluded from polite conversation. [=should not be used in polite conversation] — opposite INCLUDE

2 : to think that (something, such as a possibility) is not worth attention ▪ We can't altogether/entirely exclude [=discount] the possibility that the economy will soon improve.

– ex•clu•sion /ɪkˈsklu:ʒən/ noun, pl -sions [noncount] the exclusion of women from the priesthood ▪ He spent all his time with colleagues to the exclusion of [=in a way that excluded] his own family. [count] exclusions noted in the insurance policy

excluding prep : not including (someone or something) ▪ The store is open all week, excluding [=except for] Sundays. see also FOREIGN EXCHANGE, STOCK EXCHANGE

[1]ex•clu•sive /ɪkˈsklu:sɪv/ adj

1 : not shared : available to only one person or group ▪ We have exclusive use of the beach. [=we are the only ones who can use the beach] ▪ The company has exclusive rights to (use) the logo. ▪ an exclusive interview

2 [more ~; most ~] a : only allowing in people from a high social class ▪ He belongs to an exclusive club. ▪ an exclusive hotel ▪ an exclusive party — opposite INCLUSIVE b : available to only a few people because of high cost ▪ exclusive suburban neighborhoods ▪ She attended an exclusive private school. ▪ one of the city's most exclusive restaurants exclusive of formal : not including (something) ▪ for five days exclusive of today ▪ There is a sale on all merchandise exclusive of jewelry.

3 : full and complete ▪ They gave their exclusive attention to the job.

– see also MUTUALLY EXCLUSIVE

– ex•clu•sive•ly adv ▪ a restaurant that exclusively [=only] serves vegetarian cuisine = a restaurant that serves vegetarian cuisine exclusively ▪ The store's customers were almost exclusively [=all] male. – ex•clu•sive•ness noun [noncount] ▪ The club has been criticized for its exclusiveness. [=exclusivity]

[2]exclusive noun, pl -sives [count] : a news story that appears in only one newspaper or that is broadcast by only one television or radio station

ex•clu•siv•i•ty /ˌɛkˌsklu:ˈsɪvəti/ noun [noncount] : the quality or state of being exclusive : the quality of being limited to people of wealth or high social class ▪ The private school's exclusivity [=exclusiveness] was part of its appeal for many parents. ▪ a symbol of wealth and exclusivity

ex•com•mu•ni•cate /ˌɛkskəˈmju:nəˌkeɪt/ verb -cates; -cat•ed; -cat•ing [+ obj] : to not allow (someone) to continue being a member of the Roman Catholic church ▪ He was excommunicated (from the church) for his radical practices.

– ex•com•mu•ni•ca•tion /ˌɛkskəˌmju:nəˈkeɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count, noncount]

ex•co•ri•ate /ɛkˈskoriˌeɪt/ verb -ates; -at•ed; -at•ing [+ obj] formal : to criticize (someone or something) very harshly ▪ He was excoriated as a racist. ▪ The candidates have publicly excoriated each other throughout the campaign.

– ex•co•ri•a•tion /ɛkˌskoriˈeɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count, noncount]

ex•cre•ment /ˈɛkskrəmənt/ noun [noncount] formal : solid waste passed out of the body : FECES

ex•crete /ɪkˈskri:t/ verb -cretes; -cret•ed; -cret•ing [+ obj] formal : to pass (waste matter) from the body or from an organ in the body ▪ excrete sweat ▪ The kidneys excrete toxins.

ex•cre•tion /ɪkˈskri:ʃən/ noun, pl -tions formal

1 [noncount] : the act or process of passing waste from the body : the process of excreting waste ▪ The kidneys are organs of excretion. ▪ excretion of sweat

2 [count] : waste passed from the body : excreted matter ▪ bodily excretions

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 46 SESS: 19 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:32:28 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−e

ex•cre•to•ry /ˈɛkskrəˌtori/ adj, formal : of or relating to excretion ▪ excretory organs ▪ excretory functions ex•cru•ci•at•ing /ɪkˈskruːʃiˌeɪtɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : very painful : causing great mental or physical pain ▪ I have an excruciating headache. ▪ an excruciating moment of embarrassment
2 a : very severe ▪ excruciating shyness b : extreme or excessive ▪ They described their vacation in excruciating detail.
– ex•cru•ci•at•ing•ly adv ▪ an excruciatingly painful condition ▪ The speech was excruciatingly long. ▪ excruciatingly slow ex•cul•pate /ˈɛkˌskʌlˌpeɪt/ verb -pates; -pat•ed; -pat•ing [+ obj] formal : to prove that someone is not guilty of doing something wrong ▪ The court exculpated him after a thorough investigation.

– ex•cul•pa•tion /ˌɛkˌskʌlˈpeɪʃən/ noun [noncount] – ex•cul•pa•to•ry /ɛkˈskʌlpəˌtori, Brit ɛkˈskʌlpətri/ adj ▪ exculpatory evidence

ex•cur•sion /ɪkˈskəʒən/ noun, pl -sions [count] : a short trip especially for pleasure ▪ a fishing excursion ▪ They went on a brief excursion to the coast. — often used figuratively ▪ Her brief excursion into politics [=her brief political career] ended badly.

[1]ex•cuse /ɪkˈskjuːz/ verb -cus•es; -cused; -cus•ing [+ obj]
1 : to forgive someone for making a mistake, doing something wrong, etc., ▪ Please excuse [=pardon] my clumsiness. ▪ His boss excused the mistake but told him to be more careful next time. ▪ Please excuse me for not calling sooner.
2 a : to say that (someone) is not required to do something ▪ I was excused from jury duty. ▪ The teacher excused the class from homework that day. b : to allow (someone, such as a child) to leave ▪ I've finished my dinner. May I (please) be excused? [=allowed to leave the dinner table]
3 : to be an acceptable reason for (something) : JUSTIFY ▪ Nothing can excuse that kind of rudeness. ▪ Her father's illness excused her absence.
excuse me ✧ Excuse me is used as a polite way of starting to say something. It can be used when you are interrupting someone, trying to get someone's attention, or disagreeing with someone. ▪ Excuse me, but may I say something? ▪ Excuse me, but do you mind if I shut the window? ▪ Excuse me, do you know where I can find Maple Street? ▪ Excuse me, but I don't think those figures are entirely accurate. It is also used as a polite apology for a minor fault or offense, such as laughing, coughing, or burping, and, in U.S. English, for getting in someone's way or bumping into someone. ▪ Oh, excuse me. [=pardon me, I beg your pardon] I didn't notice you standing there. The phrase is also used, especially in U.S. English, as a polite way of asking someone to repeat something. ▪ Excuse me? [=pardon me?; I beg your pardon?] I didn't hear the last part of what you were saying. In informal use, excuse me is often used in an annoyed way when someone has suggested that you have done something wrong and you do not feel that you have. ▪ "You were supposed to be home an hour ago." "Well, excuse me! I had to fix a flat tire."
excuse yourself : to say politely that you have to leave ▪ Excusing himself, he quickly rose from the table and left the room.
– ex•cus•able /ɪkˈskjuːzəbəl/ adj ▪ Such minor errors are excusable.

[2]ex•cuse /ɪkˈskjuːs/ noun, pl -cus•es
1 a [count] : a reason that you give to explain a mistake, bad behavior, etc. ▪ What's your excuse for being so late? ▪ She had no valid excuse for not finishing her homework. ▪ He's always making excuses for himself. ▪ a lame/flimsy excuse b excuses [plural] : reasons that you give to explain politely why you cannot do something, why you have to leave, etc. ▪ I won't be able to come to the wedding. Please give my excuses to your cousin. [=please tell your cousin that I'm sorry I won't be able to come] ▪ I made my excuses and left.
2 [count] : something (such as a condition or set of conditions) that explains improper behavior and makes it acceptable — usually used in negative statements ▪ There is no excuse for child abuse. ▪ His youth is no excuse for his irresponsible behavior.
3 [count] : a reason for doing something ▪ His birthday gives us a good excuse for a party. ▪ She'll use any excuse [=pretext] to wallow in self-pity.
4 [count] : a poor example — + for ▪ He's a poor/sad excuse for a father. [=he's a bad father] ▪ That pile of junk is a sorry excuse for a car!

ex–di•rec•to•ry /ˌɛksdəˈrɛktəri Brit ˌɛksdaɪˈrɛktri/ adj, Brit, of a telephone number : not shown in a telephone directory : UNLISTED ▪ an ex-directory number – ex–directory adv ▪ He went ex-directory after becoming famous.

ex•e•cra•ble /ˈɛksɪkrəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : very bad ▪ Living conditions in the slums were execrable. ▪ execrable taste
– ex•e•cra•bly /ˈɛksɪkrəbli/ adv ▪ an execrably written novel

ex•e•crate /ˈɛksəˌkreɪt/ verb -crates; -crat•ed; -crat•ing [+ obj] formal : to dislike and criticize (someone or something) very strongly ▪ She came to execrate the hypocritical values of her upper-class upbringing.
– ex•e•cra•tion /ˌɛksəˈkreɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count, noncount]

ex•e•cute /ˈɛksɪˌkjuːt/ verb -cutes; -cut•ed; -cut•ing [+ obj]
1 : to kill (someone) especially as punishment for a crime ▪ He was captured, tried, and executed for murder.
2 a : to do (something that you have planned to do or been told to do) : CARRY OUT ▪ They carefully executed the plan. ▪ execute an order b : to do or perform (an action or movement that requires skill) ▪ The pilot executed an emergency landing. ▪ The quarterback executed the play perfectly.
3 law : to do what is required by (a legal document or command) ▪ execute a decree ▪ execute the provisions of the will 4 : to make or produce (a work of art) ▪ a statue executed in bronze ▪ a painting executed in bright colors

ex•e•cu•tion /ˌɛksɪˈkjuːʃən/ noun, pl -tions
1 : the act of killing someone especially as punishment for a crime [noncount] execution by lethal injection ▪ He is in prison awaiting execution. [count] gangland executions [=murders done by gangsters]
2 [noncount] : the act of doing or performing something ▪ We put the plan into execution. [=we executed the plan] ▪ The quarterback's execution of the play was perfect. ▪ Her ideas were brilliant, but her execution (of them) was sloppy. ▪ skillful execution of the dance steps ▪ (law) the execution of a will [=the act of doing the things that are required by a will]

ex•e•cu•tion•er /ˌɛksɪˈkjuːʃənə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a person who performs executions : a person who executes people who have been sentenced to death

[1]ex•ec•u•tive /ɪgˈzɛkjətɪv/ noun, pl -tives
1 [count] : a person who manages or directs other people in a company or organization ▪ a sales executive ▪ The television network's executives decided not to air the controversial show. ▪ a phone company executive ▪ The President is the chief executive of the U.S.
2 the executive : the executive branch of a government ▪ matters of policy controlled by the executive

[2]executive adj, always used before a noun
1 a : relating to the job of managing or directing other people in a company or organizaton ▪ She has good executive skills. ▪ He has an executive position in the company. b : of, relating to, or used by the people who manage or direct a company or organization ▪ the executive committee ▪ the executive dining room ▪ executive offices ▪ an executive jet [=a private jet airplane used by important executives]
2 : responsible for making sure laws are carried out and for managing the affairs of a nation ▪ In the U.S., the President is the head of the executive branch of government. — compare JUDICIAL, LEGISLATIVE executive order noun, pl ~ -ders [count] : an order that comes from the U.S. President or a government agency and must be obeyed like a law ex•ec•u•tor /ɪgˈzɛkjətə/ noun, pl -tors [count] : someone who is named in a will as the person who will make sure that the instructions in the will are properly followed ▪ He named his daughter as his executor.

ex•em•plar /ɪgˈzɛmˌplɑə/ noun, pl -plars [count] formal
1 : an admired person or thing that is considered an example that deserves to be copied ▪ cited Joan of Arc as the exemplar of courage
2 : a typical example ▪ He is an exemplar of this new breed of politician.

ex•em•pla•ry /ɪgˈzɛmpləri/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : extremely good and deserving to be admired and copied ▪ We congratulated him on his exemplary [=outstanding, excellent] work. ▪ an exemplary school ▪ an exemplary citizen
2 formal : serving as an example of something — + of ▪ a style exemplary of romanticism

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 47 SESS: 53 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:32:29 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-e

ex•em•pli•fy /ɪgˈzɛmpləˌfaɪ/ verb -fies; -fied; -fy•ing [+ obj] : to be a very good example of (something) : to show (something) very clearly ▪ His works exemplify the taste of the period. ▪ a style exemplifying romanticism ▪ The city's economic growth is exemplified by the many new buildings that are currently under construction.
– ex•em•pli•fi•ca•tion /ɪgˌzɛmpləfəˈkeɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count, noncount]

[1]ex•empt /ɪgˈzɛmpt/ adj : not required to do something that others are required to do — usually + from ▪ He was exempt from military service. ▪ She was exempt from physical education requirements because of her health problems. — see also TAX-EXEMPT

[2]exempt verb -empts; -empt•ed; -empt•ing [+ obj] : to say that (someone or something) does not have to do something that others are required to do : to make (someone or something) exempt — usually + from ▪ He was exempted from military service because of his heart condition.

ex•emp•tion /ɪgˈzɛmpʃən/ noun, pl -tions
1 : freedom from being required to do something that others are required to do — usually + from [noncount] They were granted exemption from military service [=they were not required to join the military] because of their religious beliefs. [count] They were granted exemptions from military service.
2 [count] : a source or amount of income that is not taxed ▪ You can claim a tax exemption for each of your dependents.

[1]ex•er•cise /ˈɛksəˌsaɪz/ noun, pl -cis•es
1 a [noncount] : physical activity that is done in order to become stronger and healthier ▪ Get plenty of fresh air and exercise. ▪ Swimming is my favorite kind of exercise. ▪ I need to get more exercise. [=I need to exercise more frequently] ▪ She plays tennis chiefly for (the) exercise. — often used before another noun ▪ an exercise class/video/machine ▪ exercise balls/mats b [count] : a particular movement or series of movements done to become stronger and healthier ▪ knee exercises ▪ She did stretching exercises before her daily run.
2 [count] : something that is done or practiced to develop a particular skill ▪ arithmetic exercises ▪ vocal exercises ▪ Do the writing exercise at the end of each chapter.
3 [count] : an activity that has a specified quality or result ▪ The negotiations have gotten nowhere, and I see no reason to continue with this pointless exercise. — usually + in ▪ Waiting for the letter to come was an exercise in patience. ▪ an exercise in public relations ▪ The negotiations turned out to be an exercise in futility. [=the negotiations were not successful or worthwhile]
4 exercises [plural] a chiefly US : a ceremony for students who have graduated from a school ▪ graduation/commencement exercises b : military activities done for training ▪ conducting naval exercises in the Mediterranean
5 [noncount] somewhat formal : the use of an ability or power that you have ▪ We can avoid these problems by the exercise of a little common sense. [=by using a little common sense] ▪ the exercise of self-control

[2]exercise verb -cis•es; -cised; -cis•ing
1 [no obj] : to do physical activities in order to make yourself stronger and healthier ▪ It's important to exercise every day. ▪ He eats right and exercises regularly.
2 [+ obj] a : to use (a body part) again and again in order to make it stronger ▪ exercise a muscle ▪ Bicycle riding exercises the leg muscles. b : to cause (an animal) to walk, run, etc., : to give exercise to (an animal) ▪ The stable boys exercise the horses every morning.
3 [+ obj] : to use (an ability, power, etc.) ▪ He didn't exercise good judgment. ▪ We just need to exercise common sense. ▪ She has been reluctant to exercise her authority. ▪ Exercise caution when using these chemicals.

exercise bike noun, pl ∼ bikes [count] : STATIONARY BIKE — called also exercise bicycle

ex•ert /ɪgˈzɚt/ verb -erts; -ert•ed; -ert•ing [+ obj]
1 : to use (strength, ability, etc.) ▪ He had to exert all of his strength to move the stone. ▪ She hasn't been reluctant to exert [=exercise] her authority.
2 : to cause (force, effort, etc.) to have an effect or to be felt ▪ The company exerted [=put] pressure on local politicians. ▪ He exerts a lot of influence on the other members of the committee. ▪ the force exerted by the machine exert yourself : to make an effort to do something ▪ Don't exert yourself too much. ▪ She's always willing to exert herself to help other people.

ex•er•tion /ɪgˈzɚʃən/ noun, pl -tions : physical or mental effort [noncount] He was panting from the exertion of climbing the stairs. ▪ an easy sport that requires little physical exertion [count] Their exertions [=efforts] were rewarded when they won the championship.

ex gra•tia /ˌɛksˈgreɪʃijə/ adj or adv, chiefly Brit — used to describe something that is done or given freely rather than because it is required by a law ▪ They made an ex gratia payment to the accident victim.

ex•hale /ɛksˈheɪl/ verb -hales; -haled; -hal•ing : to breathe out [no obj] She inhaled deeply and exhaled slowly, trying to relax. [+ obj] He exhaled a sigh. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ The pipe exhaled a cloud of smoke. — opposite INHALE
– ex•ha•la•tion /ˌɛkshəˈleɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count, noncount] ▪ (an) exhalation of breath

[1]ex•haust /ɪgˈzɑːst/ verb -hausts; -haust•ed; -haust•ing [+ obj]
1 : to use all of someone's mental or physical energy : to tire out or wear out (someone) completely ▪ If you keep working these long hours, you're just going to exhaust yourself. = Working these long hours will just exhaust you.
2 a : to completely use up (something, such as supplies or money) ▪ If they keep spending this way, they'll exhaust their savings. b : to try all of (something) ▪ They've exhausted (all) the possibilities. [=they've tried everything they can]
3 : to consider or talk about (a subject) thoroughly or completely ▪ He can talk about baseball for hours and still feel that he hasn't exhausted the subject/topic.
– exhausted adj [more ∼; most ∼] ▪ The children were exhausted after their day at the beach. ▪ She collapsed on her bed, totally exhausted. – exhausting adj [more ∼; most ∼] ▪ It was an exhausting day at the beach. ▪ We have an exhausting amount of work to do. – ex•haust•ing•ly adv ▪ They worked exhaustingly long hours.

[2]exhaust noun, pl -hausts
1 [noncount] : the mixture of gases produced by an engine ▪ diesel exhaust from passing trucks ▪ exhaust fumes ▪ smog from automobile exhaust
2 [count] : a pipe or system of pipes through which exhaust is released ▪ There's a problem with the car's exhaust. — called also exhaust pipe, (chiefly US) tailpipe

ex•haus•tion /ɪgˈzɑːstʃən/ noun [noncount]
1 : the state of being extremely tired : the state of being exhausted ▪ physical/nervous exhaustion ▪ She collapsed in exhaustion. ▪ He worked to the point of complete/total exhaustion. — see also HEAT EXHAUSTION
2 : the act of using all of something : the act of exhausting something ▪ the exhaustion of our natural resources ex•haus•tive /ɪgˈzɑːstɪv/ adj [more ∼; most ∼] : including all possibilities : very thorough ▪ exhaustive research ▪ an exhaustive study/search ▪ The list was long but not exhaustive.

– ex•haus•tive•ly adv ▪ an exhaustively researched report – ex•haus•tive•ness noun [noncount]

[1]ex•hib•it /ɪgˈzɪbət/ verb -its; -it•ed; -it•ing [+ obj]
1 : to make (a painting, sculpture, etc.) available for people to see ▪ They will be exhibiting a collection of paintings. ▪ He proudly exhibited his trophy.
2 somewhat formal : to show or reveal (something) ▪ He first exhibited an interest in music when he was very young. ▪ The patient exhibited signs of the disease. ▪ She exhibited no fear.
– ex•hib•i•tor /ɪgˈzɪbətə/ noun, pl -tors [count] ▪ The craft show attracts exhibitors from around the country.

[2]exhibit noun, pl -its [count]
1 a : an object or a collection of objects that have been put out in a public space for people to look at : something shown in an exhibition ▪ The show includes dozens of interesting exhibits. b chiefly US : EXHIBITION 2a ▪ Have you seen the new photography exhibit? ▪ a school art exhibit
2 : an object that is used as evidence in a court of law ▪ introduced the weapons into evidence as exhibits A and B ✧ The phrase exhibit A is sometimes used to refer to someone or something that is being mentioned as evidence or proof of something, as if in a court of law. ▪ He says that the new regulations have hurt small businesses, and he offers his own company as exhibit A.
on exhibit : being publicly shown in an exhibition ▪ The photographs are on exhibit in the museum's west wing. ▪ The painting went on exhibit last week. ▪ The painting was put on exhibit.

ex•hi•bi•tion /ˌɛksəˈbɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions
1 [singular] : an act of showing some quality or trait — + of ▪ a notable exhibition of courage ▪ give/provide an exhibition of bad manners

E

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 48 SESS: 54 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:32:30 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-e

2 a [count] : an event at which objects (such as works of art) are put out in a public space for people to look at : a public show of something ▪ There were several famous paintings at the exhibition. ▪ an exhibition of early American crafts b [noncount] : the act of showing something in public ▪ helping to promote artists by exhibition of their paintings

3 [count] : a public display of athletic skill ▪ a fencing exhibition ▪ an exhibition baseball game [=an unofficial game that does not count in the standings]

make an exhibition of yourself : to behave in a foolish or embarrassing way in public ▪ He got drunk at the wedding and made an exhibition of himself in front of everyone.

on exhibition : being publicly shown in an exhibition ▪ The coin collection will be (placed/put) on exhibition [=on exhibit] next week.

ex•hi•bi•tion•ism /ˌɛksəˈbɪʃəˌnɪzəm/ noun [noncount] disapproving : behavior that is meant to attract attention to yourself ▪ shameless exhibitionism

– ex•hi•bi•tion•ist /ˌɛksəˈbɪʃənɪst/ noun, pl -ists [count]

– exhibitionist or ex•hi•bi•tion•ist•ic /ˌɛksəˌbɪʃəˈnɪstɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ exhibitionist behavior

ex•hil•a•rate /ɪgˈzɪləˌreɪt/ verb -rates; -rat•ed; -rat•ing [+ obj] : to cause (someone) to feel very happy and excited — usually used as (be) exhilarated ▪ We were exhilarated by the news of his success.

– exhilarated adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ I feel exhilarated!

– exhilarating adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ an exhilarating ski trip ▪ exhilarating news

ex•hil•a•ra•tion /ɪgˌzɪləˈreɪʃən/ noun [noncount] : a feeling of great happiness and excitement ▪ I felt a kind of exhilaration when I reached the top of the mountain.

ex•hort /ɪgˈzoət/ verb -horts; -hort•ed; -hort•ing [+ obj] formal : to try to influence (someone) by words or advice : to strongly urge (someone) to do something ▪ He exhorted his people to take back their land. ▪ She exhorted her listeners to support the proposition.

– ex•hor•ta•tion /ˌɛkˌsoəˈteɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count, noncount]

ex•hume /ɪgˈzuːm, Brit ɪgˈzjuːm/ verb -humes; -humed; -hum•ing [+ obj] formal : to remove (a body) from the place where it is buried ▪ The victim's body will be exhumed [=disinterred] so that a new autopsy can be performed.

– ex•hu•ma•tion /ˌɛkshjuˈmeɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count, noncount]

ex•i•gen•cy /ˈɛksəʤənsi/ noun, pl -cies formal : something that is necessary in a particular situation [count] — usually plural ▪ Administrative exigencies [=needs] have led to some changes in the structure of the committee. ▪ the exigencies of war [noncount] They are motivated by political exigency [=necessity] rather than by principal.

ex•i•gent /ˈɛksəʤənt/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal

1 : requiring immediate attention : needing to be dealt with immediately ▪ exigent circumstances

2 : expecting much time, attention, effort, etc., from other people : DEMANDING ▪ exigent bosses/clients

[1]ex•ile /ˈɛgˌzajəl, ˈɛkˌsajəl/ noun, pl -iles

1 a [noncount] : a situation in which you are forced to leave your country or home and go to live in a foreign country ▪ They hoped that his exile would be temporary. — often used after in or into ▪ forced into exile ▪ He went into exile to avoid capture and execution by the government. ▪ He now lives in exile in the United States. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ She went into political exile [=she stopped being involved in politics] after the last election. b [count] : a period of time during which someone has lived in exile ▪ a five-year exile

2 [count] : a person who has been forced to live in a foreign country : a person who is in exile ▪ Many chose to live as exiles rather than face persecution. — see also TAX EXILE

[2]exile verb -iles; -iled; -il•ing [+ obj] : to force (someone) to go to live in a distant place or foreign country : to force (someone) into exile — usually used as (be) exiled ▪ The President was exiled by military rulers soon after the coup. ▪ an exiled writer ▪ dissidents exiled to Siberia

ex•ist /ɪgˈzɪst/ verb -ists; -ist•ed; -ist•ing [no obj]

1 : to have actual being : to be real ▪ She believes that ghosts really do exist. ▪ It's the largest galaxy known to exist. ▪ Does life exist on Mars? ▪ The Internet didn't exist then. ▪ Those ideas only exist in your mind. [=they are only in your mind] ▪ We shouldn't ignore the problems that exist in our own community.

2 : to continue to be or to live ▪ as long as doubt exists [=persists] ▪ Racism still exists in our society. ▪ The organization may soon cease to exist if more funding isn't provided. ▪ We cannot exist [=live] without oxygen. ▪ They exist [=survive, subsist] on a diet of fruit, nuts, and leaves.

– existing adj ▪ ignore existing problems ▪ making changes to the existing structure [=the structure that is there now]

ex•ist•ence /ɪgˈzɪstəns/ noun, pl -enc•es

1 [noncount] : the state of existing: such as a : the fact of having actual being : the state of being real ▪ the existence of ghosts ▪ She began to doubt the existence of God. ▪ the largest animal/building in existence [=the largest animal/building that exists] ▪ We shouldn't deny the existence of these problems. [=we shouldn't deny that these problems are present or real] ▪ long before the country had come into existence [=begun to exist; come to have actual being] ▪ The company has since gone out of existence. [=it no longer exists] b : the state of continuing to be or to live ▪ The organization is engaged in a struggle for (its) existence. ▪ I owe my very existence [=life] to their courage. [=I am alive because of their courage]

2 [count] : a particular way of living — usually singular ▪ They enjoyed a comfortable existence. ▪ They pursued their meager existence in a poor rural area.

ex•ist•ent /ɪgˈzɪstənt/ adj, formal : having existence : present or real ▪ The resort is no longer existent. [=it doesn't exist anymore] : existing now ▪ I think we should improve existent parks rather than create new ones. — opposite NONEXISTENT

[1]exit /ˈɛgzət, ˈɛksət/ noun, pl exits [count]

1 : something (such as a door) that is used as a way to go out of a place ▪ Use the emergency exit in case of fire. ▪ There are 12 exits in the building. ▪ We can't get out this way: the sign says "No Exit." ▪ the exit door — sometimes used figuratively ▪ The deal provides an exit for the company. [=a way for the company to stop being involved in something] — compare [1]ENTRANCE 2 ✧ In U.S. English a door or passage that leads outside or to an exit door is marked Exit, while in British English it is often marked Way Out.

2 a : the act of going out or away from something ▪ Her exit [=departure] was not noticed at the time. ▪ He made a quick exit. [=he left quickly] ▪ We made an early exit from the show. [=we left the show early] b : the act of leaving a situation, competition, etc. ▪ Most fans were surprised by the team's early exit from the tournament. [=surprised that the team lost and was out of the tournament at an early stage] ▪ The company needs to have an exit strategy. [=a plan for ending its involvement when it wants or needs to end it]

3 : a special road by which vehicles leave a highway ▪ Take the first exit. ▪ exit ramps

[2]exit verb exits; exit•ed; exit•ing

1 : to go out of a place or situation : to make an exit [no obj] We can exit (out) through the back door. [+ obj] exit a building ▪ exit the parking lot ▪ The team exited the tournament early. — opposite ENTER

2 [+ obj] : to cause (a computer program) to stop when you have finished using it ▪ Save your work and then exit the program.

exit poll noun, pl ~ polls [count] : a method of predicting the result of an election by asking people who they voted for as they leave the place where they voted ex•o•dus /ˈɛksədəs/ noun, pl -dus•es [count] : a situation in which many people leave a place at the same time — usually singular ▪ The war caused a mass exodus of refugees.

ex of• •cio /ˌɛksəˈfɪʃiˌoʊ/ adv, formal : because of your job, office, or position ▪ The Vice President serves ex officio as president of the Senate. [=being vice president means that you are also the president of the Senate]

– ex officio adj ▪ ex officio members of the council

ex•on•er•ate /ɪgˈzɑːnəˌreɪt/ verb -ates; -at•ed; -at•ing [+ obj] formal : to prove that someone is not guilty of a crime or responsible for a problem, bad situation, etc. ▪ Her attorney claims that this new evidence will exonerate [=clear] the defendant completely. — sometimes + of or from ▪ evidence that will exonerate her of/from the charges

– ex•on•er•a•tion /ɪgˌzɑːnəˈreɪʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ A review of the evidence led to her complete exoneration.

ex•or•bi•tant /ɪgˈzoəbətənt/ adj [more ~; most ~] : going far beyond what is fair, reasonable, or expected : too high, expensive, etc. ▪ exorbitant fees/costs/prices/expenses ▪ They were charged exorbitant rates for phone calls.

– ex•or•bi•tant•ly adv ▪ exorbitantly expensive meals ▪ exorbitantly high prices

ex•or•cise also ex•or•cize /ˈɛksəˌsaɪz/ verb -cis•es also

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 49 SESS: 63 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:32:30 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-e

-ciz•es; -cised also -cized; -cis•ing also -ciz•ing [+ obj] : to force (an evil spirit) to leave ▪ The movie is about a priest who tries to exorcise demons from a young girl. — often used figuratively ▪ She tried hard to exorcise her feelings of guilt. ▪ His charitable works seem to be an effort to exorcise the ghosts/demons of his past. [=to make up for the bad things he did in the past]
– ex•or•cism /ˈɛksɔrˌsɪzəm/ noun, pl -cisms [noncount] the exorcism of demons [count] a priest performing exorcisms – ex•or•cist /ˈɛksɔrˌsɪst/ noun, pl -cists [count]

[1]ex•ot•ic /ɪgˈzɑːtɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : very different, strange, or unusual ▪ exotic colors/flavors ▪ an exotic locale ▪ She's known for her exotic tastes.
2 of a plant or animal : not living or growing naturally in a particular area : from another part of the world ▪ exotic plants ▪ exotic fish/birds
– ex•ot•i•cal•ly /ɪgˈzɑːtɪkli/ adv ▪ exotically flavored teas – ex•ot•i•cism /ɪgˈzɑːtəˌsɪzəm/ noun [noncount] – ex•ot•ic•ness /ɪgˈzɑːtɪknəs/ noun [noncount]

[2]exotic noun, pl -ics [count] : a plant or animal that does not live or grow naturally in a particular area ▪ Some native species are being crowded out by exotics.

ex•pand /ɪkˈspænd/ verb -pands; -pand•ed; -pand•ing
1 a [no obj] : to increase in size, range, or amount : to become bigger ▪ The liquid expands and contracts with changes in temperature. ▪ the expanding universe ▪ His business has expanded to serve the entire state. ▪ The coffee shop may expand into a full restaurant. b [+ obj] : to cause (something) to increase in size, range, or amount : to make (something) bigger ▪ He has expanded his business to serve the entire state. ▪ There are plans to expand the airport. ▪ The police have decided to expand their investigation. ▪ She plans to expand the lecture series into a book. ▪ This trip will give you an opportunity to expand [=broaden] your horizons. [=to learn more about the world] ▪ expand your knowledge
2 [+ obj] : to write (something) in full form ▪ Expand the abbreviation "deg." to "degree."
expand on/upon [phrasal verb] expand on/upon (something) : to speak or write about (something) in a more complete or detailed way ▪ She declined to expand on her earlier statement. ▪ Please expand [=elaborate] on that idea. ▪ Researchers will expand upon their data in a new study.
– ex•pand•able /ɪkˈspændəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ expandable computer memory [=computer memory that can be easily increased]

ex•panse /ɪkˈspæns/ noun, pl -pans•es [count] : a large and usually flat open space or area ▪ The explorer gazed across the vast Arctic expanse. — usually + of ▪ the vast/broad expanse of the ocean ▪ an expanse of desert ▪ great expanses of pavement

ex•pan•sion /ɪkˈspænʃən/ noun, pl -sions
1 [noncount] : the act of becoming bigger or of making something bigger : the act of expanding ▪ territorial expansion ▪ The league is undergoing expansion. ▪ economic expansion ▪ the expansion of a lecture series into a book
2 [count] : a more complete and detailed written work or set of comments based on something shorter ▪ This book is an expansion of a lecture series. — often + on or upon ▪ Her remarks today were an expansion on her earlier comments regarding the budget.

ex•pan•sion•ism /ɪkˈspænʃəˌnɪzəm/ noun [noncount] : the belief that a country should grow larger : a policy of increasing a country's size by expanding its territory
– ex•pan•sion•ist /ɪkˈspænʃənɪst/ adj ▪ expansionist policies – expansionist noun, pl -ists [count]

ex•pan•sive /ɪkˈspænsɪv/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 formal : talking a lot ▪ He was unusually expansive at the press conference. ▪ She was in an expansive mood.
2 a : covering or including many things : very broad or wide ▪ The law was expansive in its scope. ▪ a more expansive treatment of the topic b : covering a large space or area ▪ the hotel's expansive dining room ▪ The house has expansive views of the valley. ▪ an expansive gesture [=a broad gesture]
3 : growing quickly or steadily : marked by expansion ▪ an expansive economy
– ex•pan•sive•ly adv – ex•pan•sive•ness noun [noncount]

ex•pat /ˈɛksˌpæt/ noun, pl -pats [count] informal : EXPATRIATE

ex•pa•ti•ate /ɛkˈspeɪʃiˌeɪt/ verb -ates; -at•ed; -at•ing [no obj] formal : to speak or write about something in a way that includes a lot of details or uses many words — usually + on or upon ▪ an essay expatiating on/upon the legislative process

ex•pa•tri•ate /ɛkˈspeɪtrijət, Brit ɛkˈspætriət/ noun, pl -ates [count] : a person who lives in a foreign country ▪ American expatriates living in Paris – expatriate adj, always used before a noun ▪ expatriate writers

ex•pect /ɪkˈspɛkt/ verb -pects; -pect•ed; -pect•ing
1 [+ obj] : to think that something will probably or certainly happen ▪ We expect (that) the economy will improve. = We expect the economy to improve. ▪ As expected, the election was very close. ▪ Costs have been higher than expected. = Costs have been higher than they were expected to be. ▪ It's expected that the new products will be available next month. ▪ Prices are expected to rise. ▪ He's opposed to the new law, as you might expect. ▪ I expect (that) she won't like the news. ▪ We were half/fully expecting [=we thought there was a reasonable/good chance] that the game would be canceled. ▪ Good things sometimes happen when you least expect them. — often followed by to + verb ▪ She expects to go to college. ▪ I expect to do well on the exam. ▪ Who do you expect to win? = Who do you expect will win?
2 [+ obj] : to think that (someone or something) will arrive or that (something) will happen ▪ We expect them (to arrive) any minute now. ▪ We expect rain tomorrow. = We expect it to rain tomorrow. ▪ I'll expect your letter (to arrive) next week. ▪ I'm expecting a phone call. ▪ The expected delivery date is next month.
3 [+ obj] : to consider (something) to be reasonable, required, or necessary ▪ He's a teacher who expects hard work from his students. ▪ Her latest film lacks the quality that we've come to expect (from her). ▪ We expected more from/of you. ▪ This is not the kind of behavior I expected of you. ▪ He expects a great deal from/of himself and from/of other people. ▪ I don't think it's too much to expect that you should get to work on time. ▪ The supplier expects to be paid on time. ▪ We expect you to pay your debts. ▪ "England expects every man to do his duty." —Lord Nelson (1805)
4 always used in progressive tenses [no obj] : to be pregnant ▪ She's expecting. : to be due to give birth ▪ She's expecting next month. [=she will probably give birth next month; her baby will probably be born next month]
5 [+ obj] informal : to suppose or think — usually used after I ▪ I expect [=guess] that these problems occur in other places too. ▪ She feels the same way, I expect. ▪ "Does she feel the same way?" "I expect so/not."
– ex•pect•able /ɪkˈspɛktəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ an expectable [=predictable] reaction

ex•pect•an•cy /ɪkˈspɛktənsi/ noun [noncount] : a feeling that something is going to happen : the feeling that you have when you are expecting something ▪ We were all in a state of (nervous) expectancy, awaiting the results of the vote. ▪ an air of expectancy — see also LIFE EXPECTANCY

ex•pect•ant /ɪkˈspɛktənt/ adj
1 [more ~; most ~] : feeling or thinking that something will happen : expecting something ▪ An expectant crowd waited for her arrival.
2 always used before a noun : expecting the birth of a child : soon to become a parent ▪ expectant parents ▪ an expectant mother – ex•pect•ant•ly adv ▪ The crowd waited expectantly for her arrival.

ex•pec•ta•tion /ˌɛkˌspɛkˈteɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions
1 : a belief that something will happen or is likely to happen [count] Their expectation was [=they expected] that the plan would succeed. ▪ The company has expectations of making a profit next year. [noncount] I saved the files in the expectation that they would be useful in the future. ▪ There is widespread expectation that the strike will be settled soon. ▪ The crowd waited in expectation of her arrival. ✧ To have every expectation of something is to feel very sure that it will happen. ▪ They have every expectation of success. [=they believe they will succeed]
2 [count] : a feeling or belief about how successful, good, etc., someone or something will be — usually plural ▪ Expectations for the team were high. [=people expected the team to do very well] ▪ We've had to lower our expectations for the festival. [=to expect that the festival will not be as successful, big, etc., as we originally thought it would be] ▪ We need to have more realistic expectations about when the house will be finished. [=to accept that the house will not be finished as soon as we thought it would be] ▪ We're living in a time of diminished/rising expectations. ▪ He found it hard to live up to

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 50 SESS: 63 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:32:31 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-e

their expectations. [=to do as well as they expected him to do] ▪ The company failed to match/meet expectations. [=to be as successful as people thought it would be] ▪ The restaurant has succeeded beyond (all) expectations. = The restaurant has exceeded expectations. [=it is more successful than people thought it would be] ▪ Company earnings were not up to expectations. = Earnings fell short of expectations. [=the company did not earn as much money as people thought it would earn] ▪ Contrary to expectations, all of the birds survived. = Against (all) expectations, the birds survived. [=the birds survived although people did not think they would]

[1]ex•pe•di•ent /ɪkˈspi:dijənt/ adj [more ~; most ~] often disapproving : providing an easy and quick way to solve a problem or do something ▪ They found it expedient to negotiate with the terrorists. ▪ a politically expedient solution ▪ Do the right thing, not the expedient thing.
– ex•pe•di•ent•ly adv ▪ We want to resolve this issue as expediently [=quickly] as possible. – ex•pe•di•ence /ɪkˈspi:dijəns/ or ex•pe•di•en•cy /ɪkˈspi:dijənsi/ noun [noncount] ▪ political expedience/expediency ▪ for reasons of expediency

[2]expedient noun, pl -ents [count] : an easy and quick way to solve a problem or do something : an expedient solution ▪ The government chose short-term/temporary expedients instead of a real economic policy. ▪ We can solve this problem by the simple expedient of taking out another loan.

ex•pe•dite /ˈɛkspəˌdaɪt/ verb -dites; -dit•ed; -dit•ing [+ obj] formal : to cause (something) to happen faster ▪ They've asked the judge to expedite the lawsuits. ▪ We'll do what we can to expedite the processing of your insurance claim. — compare EXPEDITIOUS

ex•pe•di•tion /ˌɛkspəˈdɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count]
1 : a journey especially by a group of people for a specific purpose (such as to explore a distant place or to do research) ▪ organize/mount/launch a mountain-climbing expedition ▪ a scientific expedition to Antarctica — also used in a playful way to refer to a short trip for a specific purpose ▪ a shopping expedition ▪ fishing expeditions ✧ The phrase fishing expedition is sometimes used in a disapproving way, especially in U.S. English, to describe a situation in which a person or group looks for evidence that someone has done something wrong without having a good reason to believe the evidence exists. ▪ Critics charge that the government investigation is a politically motivated fishing expedition.
2 : a group of people who travel together to a distant place : a group of people who go on an expedition ▪ The (members of the) expedition discovered an ancient burial site.

ex•pe•di•tion•ary /ˌɛkspəˈdɪʃəˌneri, Brit ˌɛkspəˈdɪʃənri/ adj
1 : relating to an expedition ▪ expeditionary missions
2 : sent to fight in a foreign country ▪ an expeditionary force

ex•pe•di•tious /ˌɛkspəˈdɪʃəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : acting or done in a quick and efficient way ▪ Both sides hoped for an expeditious [=prompt] resolution of the dispute.
– ex•pe•di•tious•ly adv ▪ The insurer handled the claim expeditiously. [=promptly]

ex•pel /ɪkˈspɛl/ verb -pels; -pelled; -pel•ling [+ obj]
1 : to officially force (someone) to leave a place or organization ▪ The club may expel members who do not follow the rules. ▪ She was expelled from school for bad behavior.
2 : to push or force (something) out ▪ expel air from the lungs

ex•pend /ɪkˈspɛnd/ verb -pends; -pend•ed; -pend•ing [+ obj] formal
1 : to use or spend (something) ▪ You can only lose weight by expending [=using, using up] more calories than you take in. ▪ expend [=spend] funds
2 : to use (time, energy, effort, etc.) for a particular purpose ▪ Are we willing to expend the time and resources required to solve the problem? — often + on ▪ We need to expend more time and resources on solving the problem. — sometimes followed by in + -ing verb ▪ We need to expend more time and resources in finding a solution to the problem.

ex•pend•able /ɪkˈspɛndəbəl/ adj : easily replaced : not worth saving ▪ employees whose jobs are considered expendable : not meant to be saved : meant to be used and thrown away ▪ an expendable rocket ▪ expendable [=disposable] supplies

ex•pen•di•ture /ɪkˈspɛndɪʧɚ/ noun, pl -tures formal
1 a : an amount of money that is spent on something [count] Your income should exceed your expenditures. [=you should earn more money than you spend] ▪ an increase in military expenditures [noncount] an increase in military expenditure b : an amount of time, energy, effort, etc., that is used to do something [count] vast expenditures of time and effort [noncount] The energy expenditure was significant.
2 a [noncount] : the act of spending money ▪ the expenditure of funds for the new school b : the act of using something (such as time or effort) for a particular purpose [noncount] greater expenditure of effort [count] The project will require an expenditure of effort on everyone's part.

ex•pense /ɪkˈspɛns/ noun, pl -pens•es
1 [noncount] : the amount of money that is needed to pay for or buy something ▪ I'd like to save the time and expense [=cost] of redoing the whole thing. ▪ I don't think a first-class ticket is worth the added/extra expense. — often used after at ▪ These items were imported at great/considerable/enormous expense. [=it cost a lot to import them] ▪ We were able to fix the problem at very little expense. [=for very little money] ▪ The repairs were made at no expense to us. [=without costing us anything] — see also AT SOMEONE'S EXPENSE (below) ✧ If you spare no expense, you spend as much money as you need to in order to make something as good as possible. ▪ When they go on vacation, they spare no expense. ▪ They spared no expense in building the house.
2 [count] : an amount of money that must be spent especially regularly to pay for something ▪ The annual fee is simply an expense of doing business. — usually plural ▪ Their expenses [=expenditures] were getting far ahead of their income. ▪ We need to find a way to control expenses. ▪ cutting back on expenses ▪ legal/medical/household expenses [=costs] ▪ I'm concerned about the project's hidden expenses. ▪ You'll have to pay your own travel/traveling expenses. ▪ an all-expenses paid trip [=a journey for which all costs are already paid]
3 [count] : something on which money is spent ▪ A new car is a major expense. ▪ My new computer was a business expense. [=something I had to buy in order to do business] at someone's expense 1 : paid for by someone ▪ a fancy dinner at my parents' expense ▪ a stadium built at the taxpayers' expense = a stadium built at taxpayer expense [=with money from taxes] ▪ The tour is free, but all meals are at your own expense. [=you must pay for your meals]
2 ✧ If someone makes a joke about you or laughs at you, the joke or laughter is said to be at your expense. ▪ Everyone had a good laugh at my expense.
at the expense of : in a way that harms (something or someone) ▪ Malls flourished at the expense of small stores downtown. ▪ She acquired power at the expense of friendships. ▪ He argues that the tax cut will benefit the rich at the expense of the poor.
go to (the) expense : to spend money on something ▪ Why go to the expense of installing something you'll never use? ▪ She went to great expense to have this party.

expense account noun, pl ~ accounts [count] : an arrangement that allows an employee (such as someone who is traveling for business) to pay for things using the company's money instead of the employee's money ▪ He charged dinner to his expense account. ▪ She put the tickets on her expense account.

ex•pen•sive /ɪkˈspɛnsɪv/ adj [more ~; most ~] : costing a lot of money ▪ an expensive hobby ▪ an expensive car ▪ expensive clothes ▪ The lights were expensive to install. ▪ They live in an expensive neighborhood. [=a neighborhood in which houses, apartments, etc., cost a lot to buy or rent] ▪ Her decision to leave the company proved to be an expensive mistake. [=a mistake that caused her to lose a lot of money] ▪ an expensive shop [=a shop that sells expensive things] ▪ He has expensive tastes. [=he likes expensive things]
– ex•pen•sive•ly adv ▪ He dresses expensively.

[1]ex•pe•ri•ence /ɪkˈspirijəns/ noun, pl -enc•es
1 [noncount] : the process of doing and seeing things and of having things happen to you ▪ The best way to learn is by experience. ▪ the experience of pain/love
2 [noncount] a : skill or knowledge that you get by doing something ▪ We need someone with experience. ▪ She gained/acquired a lot of experience at that job. ▪ I know that from personal/firsthand experience. ▪ Do you have experience doing this kind of work? [=have you done this kind of work?] ▪ I have little experience (dealing) with these kinds of issues. b : the length of time that you have spent doing something (such as a particular job) ▪ She has five years' experience as a computer programmer.
3 [count] : something that you have done or that has happened to you ▪ He wrote about his experiences as a pilot. ▪

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 51 SESS: 19 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:32:31 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−e

That experience is one I'd rather forget! ▪ She had a frightening experience.

[2]experience verb -enc·es; -enced; -enc·ing [+ obj] : to do or see (something) or have (something) happen to you ▪ Have you ever experienced [=suffered] the loss of a pet? ▪ That was one of the worst days I've ever experienced. : to feel or be affected by (something) ▪ The patient has been experiencing pain in her left shoulder.

experienced /ɪkˈspirijənst/ adj [more ~; most ~] : having skill or knowledge from doing something : having experience ▪ an experienced driver ▪ The job calls for someone who is more experienced. ▪ experienced at/in teaching

[1]ex·per·i·ment /ɪkˈsperəmənt/ noun, pl -ments
1 : a scientific test in which you perform a series of actions and carefully observe their effects in order to learn about something [count] Students will carry out simple laboratory experiments. ▪ perform/conduct/do/run an experiment ▪ a failed experiment ▪ They did some experiments with magnets. ▪ a series of experiments on rats [=done to rats] [noncount] These theories have not yet been confirmed by experiment.
2 [count] : something that is done as a test : something that you do to see how well or how badly it works ▪ I'd like to paint the room a different color, just as an experiment. [=to see if it looks good or not] ▪ an experiment in living more frugally ▪ the city's experiment with a longer school year

[2]ex·per·i·ment /ɪkˈsperəˌmɛnt/ verb -ments; -ment·ed; -ment·ing [no obj] : to make or do an experiment: such as a : to do a scientific test in which you perform a series of actions and carefully observe their effects ▪ They experimented with magnets. ▪ researchers experimenting on rats b : to try a new activity or a new way of doing or thinking about something ▪ an artist who's always experimenting [=trying new things] — usually + with ▪ He's been experimenting with various materials. ▪ She experimented with different kinds of weaving. ▪ The school is experimenting with a longer school year. ▪ teenagers experimenting with drugs [=using illegal drugs to find out if they like them]
– ex·per·i·men·ta·tion /ɪkˌsperəmənˈteɪʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ scientific experimentation with/on rats ▪ artistic experimentation – ex·per·i·ment·er /ɪkˈsperəˌmɛntə/ noun, pl -ers [count]

ex·per·i·men·tal /ɪkˌsperəˈmɛntl/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : relating to a scientific experiment or to scientific experiments in general ▪ experimental data/evidence ▪ experimental approaches/conditions ▪ experimental animals [=animals that are used in experiments]
2 : made or done in order to see how well something works ▪ an experimental treatment ▪ experimental drugs/techniques ▪ Plans for new city bus routes are still in the experimental stage. [=they are not final yet; they are being tested] ▪ The fuel is being used on an experimental basis.
3 : using a new way of doing or thinking about something ▪ experimental art/films
– ex·per·i·men·tal·ly adv ▪ The theory was only recently experimentally confirmed. [=confirmed in an experiment] ▪ The technique/fuel is being used experimentally.

[1]ex·pert /ˈɛkˌspɚt/ noun, pl -perts [count] : a person who has special skill or knowledge relating to a particular subject ▪ a computer expert ▪ She was an acknowledged expert on/in child development. ▪ an expert at planning dinner parties

[2]expert adj [more ~; most ~] : having or showing special skill or knowledge because of what you have been taught or what you have experienced ▪ We received some expert advice. ▪ an expert poker player ▪ an expert opinion ▪ The company has become expert at/in adapting its products for new clients. ▪ expert testimony ▪ an expert witness [=a witness in a court of law who is an expert on a particular subject]
– ex·pert·ly adv ▪ The furniture was expertly constructed. – ex·pert·ness noun [noncount]

ex·per·tise /ˌɛkspɚˈtiːz/ noun [noncount] : special skill or knowledge : the skill or knowledge an expert has ▪ His expertise on defense will help the team. ▪ her expertise in legal matters ▪ The company has no environmental expertise. [=the company does not have experience with environmental problems, matters, etc.] ▪ This question falls outside my area of expertise. [=the subject area I know a lot about]

ex·pi·ate /ˈɛkspiˌeɪt/ verb -ates; -at·ed; -at·ing [+ obj] formal : to do something as a way to show that you are sorry about doing something bad ▪ trying to find a way to expiate [=atone for] his guilt/sin
– ex·pi·a·tion /ˌɛkspiˈeɪʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ expiation of his guilt/sin

ex·pi·ra·tion /ˌɛkspəˈreɪʃən/ noun [noncount]
1 : the fact of coming to an end or no longer being valid after a period of time : the fact of expiring ▪ the patent's expiration ▪ one month after the expiration of the contract
2 medical : the act of breathing out ▪ inhalation and expiration [=exhalation]

expiration date noun, pl ~ dates [count]
1 : the date when something (such as a credit card or driver's license) can no longer legally or officially be used ▪ What is the expiration date on your credit card? [=when does your credit card expire?] — called also (Brit) expiry date
2 : the date when something (such as milk or medicine) can no longer be sold because it may no longer be good or effective ▪ Check the expiration date on the bottle to make sure the medicine is still good. — called also (Brit) expiry date

ex·pire /ɪkˈspajɚ/ verb -pires; -pired; -pir·ing
1 [no obj] : to end : to no longer be valid after a period of time ▪ This offer expires (on) March 1. ▪ My driver's license has expired.
2 [no obj] formal : to die ▪ She expired after a long illness.
3 /ɛkˈspajɚ/ [+ obj] medical : to breathe out (air) : EXHALE ▪ measuring the volume of air expired from the lungs time expires ✧ When time expires in a game, the clock shows that there is no more time and play stops. ▪ They scored seconds before time expired.

ex·pi·ry /ɪkˈspajərɪ/ noun [noncount] chiefly Brit : the fact of expiring : EXPIRATION ▪ the expiry of the waiting period

expiry date noun, pl ~ dates [count] Brit : EXPIRATION DATE

ex·plain /ɪkˈspleɪn/ verb -plains; -plained; -plain·ing
1 [+ obj] : to make (something) clear or easy to understand ▪ I need a lawyer to explain this contract to me. ▪ The professor explained the poem to the class. ▪ She explained how the machine worked. ▪ I explained to them that I would be available by phone.
2 : to tell, show, or be the reason for or cause of something [+ obj] Scientists could not explain the strange lights in the sky. ▪ I don't know how to explain the dog's strange behavior. ▪ "I need to rest," I explained to them. = I explained to them that I needed to rest. ▪ We asked him to explain his reasons to us. ▪ Can you explain why no one was informed earlier? ▪ Well, that explains it! ▪ That explains why we we're so far behind schedule. [no obj] Give me a chance to explain.
explain away [phrasal verb] explain away (something) or explain (something) away 1 : to make (something) seem less important by telling how it happened, what caused it, etc. ▪ It will be hard for his lawyers to explain away this new evidence. ▪ She tried to explain her symptoms away by insisting she was just overtired. 2 : to give a reason for (a fault, a mistake, etc.) so that you will not be blamed for it ▪ They've tried to explain away the delays, citing computer problems.
explain yourself 1 : to give a reason for your behavior ▪ She had a hard time explaining herself after the theft was revealed. ▪ I don't think that I should have to explain myself to you. 2 : to say something clearly so that it can be understood ▪ Let me try to explain myself more clearly.
hasten to explain see HASTEN
– ex·plain·able /ɪkˈspleɪnəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ He thought all behavior was explainable in terms of genetics.

ex·pla·na·tion /ˌɛkspləˈneɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions
1 [noncount] : the act or process of making something clear or easy to understand ▪ Some of the more technical terms need/require explanation. [=there need to be explained] : the act or process of telling, showing, or being the reason for or cause of something ▪ She declined the offer without (further) explanation. ▪ Some of his actions defy explanation. [=cannot be explained] ▪ The company offered little by way of explanation for the delays. [=as a way of explaining why there were delays]
2 [count] : something (such as a statement or fact) that explains something ▪ The professor's explanation was that the poem is really a parody. — often + for or of ▪ Did the company offer an explanation for the delays? ▪ There are several possible explanations for the current oil shortage. ▪ a likely/probable/possible/plausible explanation of how the accident occurred

ex·plan·a·to·ry /ɪkˈsplænəˌtorɪ, Brit ɪkˈsplænətrɪ/ adj : made or included in order to explain something ▪ There are explanatory notes at the front of the book. — compare SELF-EXPLANATORY

ex·ple·tive /ˈɛksplətɪv, Brit ɪkˈspliːtɪv/ noun, pl -tives

E

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 52 SESS: 19 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:32:32 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−e

[count] : a word or phrase (such as "Damn it!") that people sometimes say when they are angry or in pain; especially : one that is offensive ▪ Angry expletives filled the air. ▪ Expletives were deleted from the transcript of their conversation.

ex•pli•ca•ble /ɛkˈsplɪkəbəl, ˈɛksplɪkəbəl/ adj, formal : possible to explain : EXPLAINABLE ▪ phenomena explicable by the laws of physics ▪ his least explicable mistake — opposite INEXPLICABLE

ex•pli•cate /ˈɛksplə,keɪt/ verb -cates; -cat•ed; -cat•ing [+ obj] formal : to explain or analyze (something, such as an idea or work of literature) ▪ an essay explicating a theory ▪ explicate a poem
– ex•pli•ca•tion /ˌɛksplə'keɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count, noncount]

E

ex•plic•it /ɪkˈsplɪsət/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : very clear and complete : leaving no doubt about the meaning ▪ They were given explicit instructions. ▪ Changes to the property can't be done without their explicit consent. ▪ The law is very explicit about how these measures should be enacted. — opposite IMPLICIT
2 a : showing or referring very openly to nudity, violence, or sexual activity ▪ explicit photographs ▪ They're concerned about exposing children to (sexually) explicit films. ▪ a song with explicit lyrics b : openly shown ▪ The movie contains scenes of explicit violence. ▪ two people engaging in explicit sex ▪ sexually explicit conduct
– ex•plic•it•ly adv ▪ We explicitly asked for a room with a view. ▪ The building was explicitly restricted to official personnel. – ex•plic•it•ness noun [noncount] ▪ sexual explicitness

ex•plode /ɪkˈsploʊd/ verb -plodes; -plod•ed; -plod•ing
1 : to suddenly break apart in a violent way with parts flying outward [no obj] The bomb could explode [=blow up, detonate] at any minute. ▪ One of the shells failed to explode. ▪ an exploding volcano [+ obj] explode [=blow up, detonate] a bomb — compare IMPLODE
2 [no obj] a : to change in a very sudden and violent way ▪ These occasional skirmishes may soon explode into all-out war. b : to move with sudden speed and force ▪ The horses exploded [=burst] out of the starting gate. ▪ The birds suddenly exploded into flight. ▪ We exploded [=burst] into action. c : to be affected by something very suddenly ▪ The building exploded in/into flames/fire. ▪ The audience exploded with/in/into laughter. [=everyone burst out laughing]
3 a [no obj] : to express emotion in a sudden and violent way ▪ She looked like she was ready to explode with anger. b [+ obj] : to say (something) in a sudden and angry way ▪ "Damn you!" she exploded.
4 [+ obj] : to show that (something, such as a belief or theory) is false ▪ Science has exploded many old theories. ▪ The book explodes a number of myths/legends about his youth.
5 [no obj] : to increase very quickly ▪ The deer population has recently exploded. ▪ the exploding [=soaring, rising] costs of childcare ▪ The book has exploded in popularity.

exploded adj, technical : showing the parts of something separately but in correct relationship to each other ▪ an exploded view/diagram of an engine

[1]ex•ploit /ˈɛkˌsplɔɪt/ noun, pl -ploits [count] : an exciting act or action — usually plural ▪ performing heroic exploits [=feats] ▪ He enjoys talking about his youthful exploits. [=adventures] ▪ a book about his sexual exploits

[2]ex•ploit /ɪkˈsplɔɪt/ verb -ploits; -ploit•ed; -ploit•ing [+ obj]
1 : to get value or use from (something) ▪ He has never fully exploited his talents. ▪ Top athletes are able to exploit their opponents' weaknesses. ▪ We need to exploit [=take advantage of] this opportunity/situation. ▪ exploit natural resources
2 : to use (someone or something) in a way that helps you unfairly ▪ They were accused of exploiting [=taking advantage of] migrant workers. ▪ She said the tragedy had been exploited by the media.
– ex•ploit•able /ɪkˈsplɔɪtəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ exploitable resources – ex•ploi•ta•tion /ˌɛkˌsplɔɪˈteɪʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ a victim of exploitation – ex•ploit•er noun, pl -ers [count]

ex•plo•ra•tion /ˌɛksplə'reɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions : the act of exploring something [noncount] space exploration ▪ a topic for scholarly exploration ▪ the early exploration of the West [count] early explorations of the West

ex•plor•a•to•ry /ɪkˈsplorəˌtori, Brit ɪkˈsplɒrətri/ adj [more ~; most ~] : done or created to find something or to learn more about something ▪ exploratory drilling for oil ▪ an exploratory committee ▪ He underwent exploratory surgery. [=surgery done to find and identify a problem]

ex•plore /ɪkˈsploə/ verb -plores; -plored; -plor•ing
1 [+ obj] a : to look at (something) in a careful way to learn more about it : to study or analyze (something) ▪ Researchers are exploring how language is acquired by children. b : to talk or think about (something) in a thoughtful and detailed way ▪ The book explores a number of controversial issues. ▪ You need to explore your feelings on this subject more carefully. ▪ We explored various options/alternatives/possibilities. c : to learn about (something) by trying it ▪ an opportunity to explore different activities ▪ The children were encouraged to explore mathematics.
2 [+ obj] : to travel over or through (a place) in order to learn more about it or to find something ▪ I decided to go out and explore the town. ▪ They were sent to explore unknown regions of Africa.
3 [no obj] : to make a careful search for something by traveling to different places ▪ companies exploring for oil
4 [+ obj] : to touch (something) to learn more about it ▪ The doctor explored the wound.
– ex•plor•er noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ Arctic explorers

ex•plo•sion /ɪkˈsploʊʒən/ noun, pl -sions [count]
1 : the sudden, loud, and violent release of energy that happens when something (such as a bomb) breaks apart in a way that sends parts flying outward ▪ The filmmakers staged the car's explosion. ▪ The island was rocked by a series of volcanic explosions. ▪ set off an explosion
2 a : a sudden and very fast increase ▪ The region has experienced a population explosion. ▪ an explosion of interest b : a sudden expression of some strong emotion ▪ an explosion of anger c : a sudden occurrence of laughter ▪ His comments prompted an explosion of laughter from the crowd.

[1]ex•plo•sive /ɪkˈsploʊsɪv/ adj
1 a [more ~; most ~] : able to cause an explosion ▪ a highly explosive substance : used for exploding something ▪ an explosive charge ▪ explosive devices b : relating to an explosion or caused by an explosion ▪ the bomb's explosive force
2 [more ~; most ~] a : tending to get angry very easily ▪ an explosive personality ▪ He has an explosive temper. b : likely to become violent very suddenly ▪ The police are trying to defuse a very explosive [=volatile] situation. c : happening suddenly and quickly ▪ The region has experienced explosive [=rapid] population growth.

[2]explosive noun, pl -sives [count] : a substance (such as dynamite) that is used to cause an explosion : an explosive substance ▪ the danger of working with high explosives [=very powerful explosives]

ex•po•nent /ɪkˈspoʊnənt, ˈɛkˌspoʊnənt/ noun, pl -nents [count]
1 a : someone who supports a particular cause, belief, etc. ▪ He was a leading exponent [=supporter, proponent] of the civil rights movement. b : someone who is known for a particular method, style, etc. ▪ She has become one of America's foremost exponents of the romantic style in interior design.
2 mathematics : a symbol that is written above and to the right of a number to show how many times the number is to be multiplied by itself ▪ The exponent 3 in 10^3 indicates 10 x 10 x 10.

ex•po•nen•tial /ˌɛkspəˈnɛnʧəl/ adj
1 [more ~; most ~] : very fast : increasingly rapid ▪ The business has experienced several years of exponential growth. ▪ Prices have increased at an exponential rate. ✧ Exponential growth is literally growth that becomes faster and faster as it continues. In ordinary use, however, exponential is understood to mean simply "very fast" when it is used with words like growth and increase.
2 mathematics : including or using an exponent ▪ 10^3 is an exponential expression.
– ex•po•nen•tial•ly /ˌɛkspəˈnɛnʧəli/ adv ▪ Prices have increased exponentially. ▪ exponentially rapid growth

[1]ex•port /ɛkˈspoət/ verb -ports; -port•ed; -port•ing [+ obj] : to send a product to be sold in another country ▪ countries that export oil to the U.S. — opposite IMPORT
– ex•port•able /ɛkˈspoətəbəl/ adj ▪ exportable goods – ex•por•ta•tion /ˌɛkˌspoəˈteɪʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ the exportation [=export] of oil – ex•port•er /ɛkˈspoətə/ noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ a leading exporter of soybeans

[2]ex•port /ˈɛkˌspoət/ noun, pl -ports
1 [count] : something that is exported : a product that is sent to another country to be sold there ▪ Exports to China have risen this year.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 53 SESS: 63 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:32:32 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−e

2 [noncount] : the act of exporting something ▪ goods for export [=exportation] ▪ the export of wines – export adj, always used before a noun ▪ the export market ▪ export crops

ex•pose /ɪkˈspoʊz/ verb -pos•es; -posed; -pos•ing [+ obj]
1 : to leave (something) without covering or protection ▪ The shingles had fallen off, exposing the wood underneath. — often + to ▪ The colors will fade if they are exposed to sunlight.
2 : to cause (someone) to experience something or to be influenced or affected by something — + to ▪ He wants to expose his students to great works of literature. ▪ The workers were exposed to dangerous chemicals. [=they were placed in conditions that left them unprotected from dangerous chemicals] ▪ She hasn't yet been exposed to measles. ▪ Children are being exposed to violence on television. ▪ His mistakes have exposed him to ridicule. [=he has been ridiculed because of his mistakes]
3 a : to reveal (something hidden, dishonest, etc.) ▪ Undercover investigators exposed the scam. b : to reveal the crimes or faults of (someone) ▪ They threatened to expose him. — often + as ▪ They exposed him as a fraud.
4 : to let light fall on (film in a camera) in order to create a photograph ▪ The film had not been properly exposed. — compare OVEREXPOSE, UNDEREXPOSE expose yourself : to show your sexual organs in public ▪ He was arrested for exposing himself (to women) in the park.

ex•po•sé /ˌɛkspoʊˈzeɪ, Brit ɛkˈspəʊzeɪ/ noun, pl -sés [count] : a news report or broadcast that reveals something illegal or dishonest to the public ▪ a newspaper exposé of government corruption ▪ The show aired an exposé on the candidate's financial indiscretions.

exposed /ɪkˈspoʊzd/ adj : not protected or covered ▪ an exposed hillside ▪ exposed wiring ▪ an exposed beam

ex•po•si•tion /ˌɛkspəˈzɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions
1 formal : the act of explaining something : clear explanation [noncount] The subject requires some exposition. [count] a clear exposition of his ideas
2 [count] : a public show or exhibition ▪ the great Paris Exposition of 1899 ▪ have/hold/mount an international exposition

ex•pos•i•to•ry /ɪkˈspɑːzəˌtori, Brit ɪkˈspɒzətri/ adj, chiefly US, somewhat formal — used to describe writing that is done to explain something ▪ expository prose ▪ I'm taking an expository writing class this semester.

ex•pos•tu•late /ɪkˈspɑːstʃəˌleɪt/ verb -lates; -lat•ed; -lat•ing [no obj] formal : to disagree with something or argue against it ▪ She expostulated (with us) at length on/about/concerning the proposed law.
– ex•pos•tu•la•tion /ɪkˌspɑːstʃəˈleɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count, noncount]

ex•po•sure /ɪkˈspoʊʒə/ noun, pl -sures
1 [noncount] : the fact or condition of being affected by something or experiencing something : the condition of being exposed to something ▪ exposure to heat/cold ▪ exposure to infection/danger ▪ children's exposure to violence on television ▪ He risks exposure to ridicule by saying such things in public.
2 [noncount] : the act of revealing secrets about someone or something ▪ They threatened him with (public) exposure. — often + of ▪ exposure of his criminal past.
3 [noncount] : public attention and notice ▪ The candidates are competing for television/media exposure.
4 [count] photography a : the amount of time during which light is allowed to enter a camera in order to produce a photograph ▪ a three-second exposure b : a section of a film used for a single photograph ▪ This roll of film has 24 exposures.
5 [noncount] medical : a condition that results from being outside in cold weather for a long time ▪ The climbers nearly died of exposure.
6 [count] : a position that provides a view in a specified direction ▪ The room has a southern exposure.
– see also INDECENT EXPOSURE

ex•pound /ɪkˈspaʊnd/ verb -pounds; -pound•ed; -pound•ing formal : to explain or state (something) : to give details about (something) [+ obj] The article expounds the virtues of a healthy diet. [no obj] When asked to expound, he had no comment. — often + on ▪ The article expounds on the virtues of a healthy diet.

[1]ex•press /ɪkˈsprɛs/ verb -press•es; -pressed; -press•ing [+ obj]
1 a : to talk or write about (something that you are thinking or feeling) ▪ He expressed an interest in meeting her. ▪ We expressed (to them) our thoughts/feelings/views on the subject. ▪ She expressed surprise at his rude behavior. b : to make (your thoughts and feelings) known by doing something other than talking or writing ▪ Her love of nature is expressed [=shown, reflected] in her paintings/music. ▪ Words can't (even begin to) express how grateful I am.
2 : to show (an amount, quantity, etc.) by a sign or a symbol ▪ The results can be expressed as a percentage. ▪ The length, expressed in centimeters, is 29.
3 chiefly US : to send (a package, letter, etc.) so that it will be delivered more quickly than usual : to send (something) by express ▪ They expressed the package to us.
4 : to cause (something) to come out by squeezing or pressing ▪ a room where nursing mothers can express [=pump] milk for their babies express itself/themselves of feelings : to become known or seen as the result of a particular action ▪ His rage and frustration expressed [=showed, manifested] themselves as/in/through temper tantrums.
express yourself : to say or show your thoughts and feelings ▪ He has a hard time expressing himself. ▪ She felt that she hadn't expressed herself correctly. ▪ He expressed himself in song.
– ex•press•ible /ɪkˈsprɛsəbəl/ adj ▪ The depth of my gratitude is not expressible in words.

[2]express adj, always used before a noun
1 : said or given in a clear way ▪ My express [=explicit] orders were for you to go directly home.
2 : of a particular kind ▪ I came for that express [=specific] purpose.
3 a : traveling at high speed with few stops ▪ an express train/bus/elevator — compare [1]LOCAL 2 b : delivered faster than usual ▪ an express shipment c : designed or intended to be used for fast movement or travel ▪ express roads ▪ the express lane at the grocery store
– ex•press•ly adv ▪ Smoking is expressly [=explicitly] forbidden.

[3]express noun, pl -presses
1 [noncount] : a system for delivering things (such as letters and packages) quickly ▪ He sent the package to us by express.
2 [count] : a train or bus that travels quickly with few stops ▪ He takes the express to work. — compare [2]LOCAL 1

[4]express adv : by a system that delivers letters and packages quickly : by express ▪ They sent the package express.

ex•pres•sion /ɪkˈsprɛʃən/ noun, pl -sions
1 : the act of making your thoughts, feelings, etc., known by speech, writing, or some other method : the act of expressing something [noncount] freedom of expression [=freedom to say and show what you feel and believe] ▪ Dance is a form of artistic/creative expression. ▪ She is always looking for new ways to give expression to [=to express] her ideas. ▪ Her competitive spirit found expression [=was expressed] in sports. [count] an expression of affection ▪ expressions of anger — see also SELF-EXPRESSION
2 [count] : a word or phrase ▪ a slang expression ▪ He uses some very odd expressions. ▪ The expression "to make fun of" means "to ridicule." ✧ People say excuse/pardon/forgive the expression when they are using a word or phrase that might offend or annoy someone. ▪ When you first told me your plan, I thought you were, pardon the expression, crazy. ▪ I'm so glad that you've decided to join us. In fact, I'm tickled pink, (if you'll) excuse the expression.
3 [count] : the way someone's face looks that shows emotions and feelings ▪ Judging from her expression, I think the gift was a complete surprise. ▪ We saw his expression change from angry/anger to sad/sadness. ▪ facial expressions ▪ She wore/had a smug expression.
4 [noncount] : a way of doing something (such as speaking or singing) that shows emotions and feelings ▪ I told him to read the poem with more expression.
5 [count] mathematics : a symbol or a combination of symbols and signs representing a quantity or process ▪ 10^3 is an exponential expression.
– ex•pres•sion•less /ɪkˈsprɛʃənləs/ adj ▪ an expressionless face – ex•pres•sion•less•ly adv ▪ staring expressionlessly at the camera – ex•pres•sion•less•ness noun [noncount]

ex•pres•sive /ɪkˈsprɛsɪv/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : showing emotions and feelings clearly and openly ▪ an expressive performance ▪ She has very expressive features. [=her feelings are shown very clearly on her face] ▪ an expressive silence/gesture

E

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 54 SESS: 19 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:32:33 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−e

2 : showing or expressing something — + of ▪ His work is expressive of his personality. [=his work epxresses his personality]
3 : of or relating to expression ▪ the expressive function of language
– ex•pres•sive•ly adv ▪ singing expressively – ex•pres•sive•ness noun [noncount] ▪ the expressiveness of her features

ex•press•way /ɪkˈsprɛsˌweɪ/ noun, pl -ways [count] US : a large highway that may be entered and left only at certain places

ex•pro•pri•ate /ɪkˈsproʊpriˌeɪt/ verb -ates; -at•ed; -at•ing [+ obj] formal : to take (someone's property) — used especially when a government takes property for public use ▪ The land was expropriated by the state.
– ex•pro•pri•a•tion /ɪkˌsproʊpriˈeɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count, noncount]

ex•pul•sion /ɪkˈspʌlʃən/ noun, pl -sions
1 : the act of forcing someone to leave a place (such as a country or a school) : the act of expelling someone [count] The government engaged in mass expulsions. [noncount] He was threatened with expulsion (from the school) if his grades didn't improve.
2 [noncount] : the act of forcing something out : the act of expelling something ▪ the expulsion of air from the lungs

ex•punge /ɪkˈspʌnʤ/ verb -punges; -punged; -punging [+ obj] formal : to remove (something) completely ▪ The criminal charges were expunged [=deleted, erased] from his record. ▪ They hoped to expunge [=erase] the memory of that tragic event.

ex•pur•gate /ˈɛkspəˌgeɪt/ verb -gates; -gat•ed; -gat•ing [+ obj] formal : to change (a written work) by removing parts that might offend people ▪ They felt it was necessary to expurgate his letters before publishing them.
– expurgated adj ▪ an expurgated edition of his letters – ex•pur•ga•tion /ˌɛkspəˈgeɪʃən/ noun [count, noncount]

ex•quis•ite /ɛkˈskwɪzət, ˈɛkskwɪzət/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : finely done or made ▪ exquisite workmanship ▪ a move executed with exquisite precision : very beautiful or delicate ▪ exquisite flowers ▪ Her singing voice is truly exquisite.
2 : very sensitive or fine ▪ They have exquisite [=excellent] taste in furniture. ▪ The scenes are described in exquisite detail. [=with a lot of very fine details]
3 : extreme or intense ▪ exquisite pain/agony ▪ He chose his words with exquisite care.
– ex•quis•ite•ly adv ▪ an exquisitely prepared meal – ex•quis•ite•ness noun [noncount]

ex•tant /ˈɛkstənt, Brit ɛkˈstænt/ adj, formal : in existence : still existing ▪ extant bird species : not destroyed or lost ▪ There are few extant records from that period. ▪ one of the oldest buildings still extant

ex•tem•po•ra•ne•ous /ɛkˌstɛmpəˈreɪnijəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] : made up or done without special preparation — usually used to describe public speaking ▪ He made an extemporaneous speech. ▪ extemporaneous remarks
– ex•tem•po•ra•ne•ous•ly adv ▪ speaking extemporaneously

ex•tend /ɪkˈstɛnd/ verb -tends; -tend•ed; -tend•ing
1 a [+ obj] : to cause (something, such as your arm or leg) to straighten out or to stretch out ▪ Extend your arms (out) in front of you. ▪ He extended a hand in greeting. ▪ sitting with both legs fully extended ▪ The table measures eight feet long when it is fully extended. b [no obj] : to become longer or to be able to become longer ▪ The table extends to eight feet in length. ▪ The table extends easily.
2 [no obj] : to continue in a specified direction or over a specified distance, space, or time ▪ Their jurisdiction extended over the whole area. [=included the whole area] ▪ The woods extend for miles to the west. ▪ Their knowledge of the family's history extends back to colonial times. ▪ Their influence extends well beyond their immediate circle of friends. ▪ The organization soon extended [=reached] across the country. ▪ His popularity extends from coast to coast.
3 [no obj] : to involve or include a specified person or thing — + to ▪ His interests extend to art and literature. ▪ The offer doesn't extend to nonmembers.
4 [+ obj] : to make (something) longer or greater ▪ She extended her visit by a couple of weeks. ▪ measures that might extend [=prolong] the patient's life ▪ They scored twice in the third inning to extend [=increase] their lead to 6–0.
5 [+ obj] a : to offer (something, such as an apology) to someone ▪ extend an invitation — usually + to ▪ I'd like to extend my apologies [=I'd like to apologize] to everyone here. ▪ They extended a warm welcome to us. [=they welcomed us warmly] b : to make (something) available — usually + to ▪ The store extends credit only to its regular customers. ▪ It was many years before these rights were extended to women. ▪ They plan to extend the service to people in rural areas.
extend yourself : to work hard : to do things that require effort ▪ She's always willing to extend herself for others. ▪ an actor who extends himself by choosing difficult roles
– ex•tend•able or ex•tend•ible /ɪkˈstɛndəbəl/ adj ▪ a two-year contract, extendable to five years ▪ a chair with extendable legs – ex•tend•er /ɪkˈstɛndɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count]

ex•tend•ed /ɪkˈstɛndəd/ adj, always used before a noun
1 : longer than usual or typical : unusually long ▪ We went on an extended [=lengthy] vacation. ▪ a period of extended hospitalization = an extended period of hospitalization
2 : going beyond the usual, original, or basic version of something ▪ Do you want the extended service warranty? [=a warranty that covers more things or lasts for a longer period of time] ▪ The word has developed several extended [=additional] meanings/senses.

extended family noun, pl ~ -lies [count] : a family that includes not only parents and children but also other relatives (such as grandparents, aunts, or uncles) — compare NUCLEAR FAMILY

ex•ten•sion /ɪkˈstɛnʃən/ noun, pl -sions
1 : the act of extending something: such as a : the act of making something longer or greater [noncount] extension of the patient's life [count] He's asking for a contract extension. b : the act of straightening or stretching something (such as an arm or a leg) [count] He did some leg extensions. [=exercises in which you extend your legs] [noncount] Make sure that the muscles get the proper amount of extension.
2 [count] : extra time allowed for doing something ▪ I missed the deadline but was granted an extension.
3 [count] : something (such as an interest or activity) that develops from something else — + of ▪ Writing screenplays was a natural/logical extension of his career as a novelist and his longtime interest in film. ✧ The phrase by extension is used to say that what follows comes from or is connected with something that has already been mentioned. ▪ The new measures benefit taxpayers and, by extension, the economy. ▪ He disliked authority and, by extension, all government officials.
4 [count] a : a part that is added on to something to make it larger or longer ▪ They built an extension on their house. ▪ a road extension b : EXTENSION CORD
5 [count] : an extra telephone that is connected to the main line ▪ We've added another extension in our daughter's bedroom.; also : a telephone number that connects to a particular extension ▪ I dialed her extension, but she wasn't at her desk. ▪ Extension 365, please.

extension cord noun, pl ~ cords [count] US : an electric cord that is used to make another electric cord reach farther — called also extension, (Brit) extension lead

ex•ten•sive /ɪkˈstɛnsɪv/ adj [more ~; most ~] : large in size or amount : very full or complete ▪ an extensive [=comprehensive] reading list ▪ He's had extensive [=considerable] training in this area. ▪ The storm caused extensive damage. ▪ extensive repairs ▪ an extensive series of tests
– ex•ten•sive•ly adv ▪ She has written extensively on this subject. – ex•ten•sive•ness noun [noncount]

ex•tent /ɪkˈstɛnt/ noun [noncount]
1 : the range, distance, or space that is covered or affected by something or included in something ▪ She tried to determine the extent of the damage. ▪ the full extent of human knowledge ▪ They underestimated the extent [=size] of the problem. ▪ He questions the extent to which these remedies are needed.
2 : the point or limit to which something extends or reaches ▪ We reached the southernmost extent [=end] of the peninsula. ▪ He swore to prosecute them to the fullest extent of the law. [=as fully as the law allows] ▪ To what extent [=how far, how much] can they be trusted?
3 — used to indicate the degree to which something exists, happens, or is true ✧ If you say that something is true to an extent, to some extent, or to a certain extent, you mean that it is partly but not completely true. ▪ To an extent, they're both right. ▪ Some critics claim that the government is at fault, and, to a certain extent, that's true. Something that is true to a large extent or to a great extent is mostly true. ▪ These traits are to a large extent inherited. [=these traits are mostly inherited] The phrases to the extent that, to that extent, and to a greater/lesser extent are often used to describe the effect or importance of something in relation to something else. ▪ To the extent that he encouraged their bad behavior, he's to blame for it. [=he's partly to blame for their bad behavior because he encouraged it] ▪ He encouraged their bad behavior, and to that extent he's to blame for it. ▪ He studied only to the extent that was required to pass the exam. [=he studied just enough to pass the exam] ▪ This new tax affects the middle class and, to a lesser extent, the rich. ▪ This new tax affects everyone to a greater or lesser extent. [=it affects some people more than it does other people] To the extent that or to such an extent that can also be used to say that something is true to a very extreme degree. ▪ He was fearful to the extent that he refused to leave his house. [=he was so fearful that he refused to leave his house] ▪ She has changed to such an extent that you wouldn't recognize her.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 55 SESS: 19 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:32:34 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−e

ex•ten•u•at•ing /ɪkˈstɛnjəˌweɪtɪŋ/ adj — used to describe something (such as an unusual situation) that makes something (such as a crime or a mistake) seem less serious or deserving of blame; usually used in the phrase extenuating circumstances ▪ The company claims that its failure to deliver the materials on time is due to bad weather and other extenuating circumstances.

[1]ex•te•ri•or /ɛkˈstirijə/ adj
1 a : located on the outside of something ▪ an exterior [=outer] surface ▪ exterior walls b : suited for use on outside surfaces ▪ exterior paint ▪ exterior lights
2 : shown on the outside or surface ▪ They're more concerned with exterior [=external] beauty than interior/inner strength. — opposite [1]INTERIOR

[2]exterior noun, pl -ors [count]
1 : an outer part or surface ▪ The building has a rather plain exterior. — opposite [2]INTERIOR
2 : the way someone looks or seems to other people : a person's outward appearance — usually singular ▪ Although she was nervous, she maintained a calm exterior. [=she looked calm] ▪ Underneath that tough exterior, he's really very sentimental.

ex•ter•mi•nate /ɪkˌstəməˌneɪt/ verb -nates; -nat•ed; -nat•ing [+ obj] : to destroy or kill (a group of animals, people, etc.) completely ▪ We made arrangements to have the termites exterminated. ▪ The invaders nearly exterminated the native people.
– ex•ter•mi•na•tion /ɪkˌstəməˈneɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count, noncount] ▪ extermination of household pests – ex•ter•mi•na•tor /ɪkˈstəməˌneɪtə/ noun, pl -tors [count] ▪ We hired an exterminator to get rid of the termites.

ex•ter•nal /ɪkˈstənl/ adj
1 : located, seen, or used on the outside or surface of something ▪ the external features of the building ▪ the external signs of the disease ▪ This medication is intended only for external use. [=for use on the skin] — opposite INTERNAL 2 : coming from outside ▪ external pressures ▪ external stimuli — opposite INTERNAL 3 : existing or occurring outside your mind ▪ external reality — opposite INTERNAL 4 : concerning relationships with foreign countries ▪ external [=foreign, international] affairs — opposite INTERNAL – ex•ter•nal•ly adv

ex•ter•nals /ɪkˈstənlz/ noun [plural] formal : the way something looks on the surface or from the outside : external appearances ▪ We should not judge them solely on the basis of externals.

ex•tinct /ɪkˈstɪŋkt/ adj
1 : no longer existing ▪ an extinct (species of) animal ▪ Many of these old traditions have since become extinct.
2 : no longer active ▪ an extinct volcano

ex•tinc•tion /ɪkˈstɪŋkʃən/ noun, pl -tions : the state or situation that results when something (such as a plant or animal species) has died out completely [noncount] the extinction of all life in the region ▪ Several bird species are threatened with extinction. = Several bird species are on the brink of extinction. ▪ the extinction of many old traditions [count] Mass extinctions of prehistoric animals are known to have occurred.

ex•tin•guish /ɪkˈstɪŋgwɪʃ/ verb -guish•es; -guished; -guish•ing [+ obj]
1 : to cause (something) to stop burning ▪ The fire department was called in to extinguish the blaze. ▪ He extinguished his cigarette in the ashtray.
2 : to cause the end or death of (something) ▪ They ruthlessly extinguished all resistance. ▪ News of the conflict extinguished our hopes for a peaceful resolution.
– ex•tin•guish•er noun, pl -ers [count] — see also FIRE EXTINGUISHER

ex•tir•pate /ˈɛkstəˌpeɪt/ verb -pates; -pat•ed; -pat•ing [+ obj] formal : to destroy or remove (something) completely ▪ Such ingrained behavior can never be completely extirpated. [=eradicated]
– ex•tir•pa•tion /ˌɛkstəˈpeɪʃən/ noun [noncount]

ex•tol also US ex•toll /ɪkˈstoʊl/ verb -tols also US -tolls; -tolled; -tol•ling [+ obj] : to praise (someone or something) highly ▪ They extolled [=lauded] the virtues of education. ▪ The health benefits of exercise are widely extolled.

ex•tort /ɪkˈstoət/ verb -torts; -tort•ed; -tort•ing [+ obj] : to get (something, such as money) from a person by the use of force or threats ▪ The criminals extorted large sums of money from their victims. ▪ He was arrested for extorting bribes. ▪ He claimed that the confession had been extorted (from him) by the police.
– ex•tort•er noun, pl -ers [count]

ex•tor•tion /ɪkˈstoəʃən/ noun [noncount] : the crime of getting money from someone by the use of force or threats ▪ He was arrested and charged with extortion. ▪ committing/practicing extortion
– ex•tor•tion•ist /ɪkˈstoəʃənɪst/ noun, pl -ists [count]

[1]ex•tra /ˈɛkstrə/ adj
1 always used before a noun : more than is usual or necessary : ADDITIONAL ▪ a sandwich with extra mayonnaise ▪ She got a part-time job to earn some extra money. ▪ He gave us an extra week to finish the job. ▪ There's no extra charge for breakfast. ▪ Room service is/costs an extra $5. = You have to pay an extra $5 for room service.
2 : costing more : requiring additional payment ▪ Breakfast is included in the price, but room service is extra. [=you have to pay more for room service]
go the extra mile see MILE

[2]extra adv
1 : beyond the usual size or amount ▪ extra long ▪ extra large eggs ▪ You have to pay $5 extra for room service.
2 somewhat informal : very or unusually ▪ The food was extra good. ▪ The roads are slippery, so be extra careful. ▪ This is an extra special occasion. ▪ She tried extra hard.

[3]extra noun, pl -tras [count]
1 : something that is added especially to make a product, service, etc., more appealing ▪ The package deal includes some nice extras. ▪ The bill doesn't include any hidden extras. [=extra costs]
2 : a person hired to act in a group scene in a movie ▪ Thousands of extras were hired for the battle scene.

extra- prefix : outside or beyond ▪ an *extra*marital affair — opposite INTRA-extra–base hit noun, pl ~ hits [count] baseball : a double, triple, or home run

[1]ex•tract /ɪkˈstrækt/ verb -tracts; -tract•ed; -tract•ing [+ obj]
1 : to remove (something) by pulling it out or cutting it out ▪ He extracted a credit card from his wallet. ▪ I had to have a tooth extracted. ▪ The tumor was surgically extracted.
2 a : to get (information, a response, etc.) from someone who does not want to give it ▪ We finally extracted a confession from him. ▪ extract a promise b : to get (something, such as information) from something ▪ Investigators were able to extract useful information from the company's financial records. ▪ They are hoping to extract new insights from the test results.
3 : to get (a substance) from something by the use of a machine or chemicals ▪ The machines extract the juice from the apples. ▪ oil extracted from sunflower seeds ▪ venom extracted from poisonous snakes
4 : to choose and take out (parts of a written work) for a separate use ▪ He extracted [=excerpted] a few lines from a favorite poem for use in his speech.
extract yourself : to remove yourself from a difficult situation ▪ He has been unable to extract himself from his legal difficulties.
– ex•tract•able /ɪkˈstræktəbəl/ adj – ex•trac•tor /ɪkˈstræktə/ noun, pl -tors [count] ▪ a tooth extractor ▪ a juice extractor

[2]ex•tract /ˈɛkˌstrækt/ noun, pl -tracts
1 : a substance that you get from something by using a machine or chemicals [noncount] The recipe calls for a tablespoon of vanilla extract. [count] herbal extracts
2 [count] : a short piece of writing that is taken from a longer

E

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 56 SESS: 19 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:32:35 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-e

work (such as a book) ▪ The anthology includes extracts [=excerpts] from the works of several well-known authors.

ex•trac•tion /ɪkˈstrækʃən/ noun, pl -tions
1 : the act or process of getting something by pulling it out, forcing it out, etc. : the act of extracting something [count] tooth extractions and other dental procedures [noncount] the extraction of teeth by dentists ▪ the extraction of juices from plant matter
2 [noncount] — used after of to describe the origin of a person or family ▪ a family of Italian extraction [=a family whose ancestors came to another country from Italy]

ex•tra•cur•ric•u•lar /ˌɛkstrəkəˈrɪkjələ/ adj — used to describe extra activities (such as sports) that can be done by the students in a school but that are not part of the regular schedule of classes ▪ extracurricular activities – extracurricular noun, pl -lars [count] ▪ The school offers a variety of extracurriculars. [=extracurricular activities]

ex•tra•dite /ˈɛkstrəˌdaɪt/ verb -dites; -dit•ed; -dit•ing [+ obj] law : to send (a person who has been accused of a crime) to another state or country for trial ▪ He will be extradited from the U.S. to Canada to face criminal charges there. ▪ The prisoner was extradited across state lines.
– ex•tra•di•tion /ˌɛkstrəˈdɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [noncount] The accused terrorists are awaiting extradition. [count] The government has agreed to the extraditions of the accused terrorists.

ex•tra•mar•i•tal /ˌɛkstrəˈmerətl/ adj : happening outside of a marriage — used to describe sexual relations between a married person and someone who is not that person's husband or wife ▪ an extramarital [=adulterous] affair

ex•tra•ne•ous /ɛkˈstreɪnijəs/ adj : not forming a necessary part of something ▪ She sped up the process by eliminating all extraneous steps. : not important ▪ extraneous [=irrelevant] information/details

ex•traor•di•nary /ɪkˈstroədəˌneri, Brit ɪkˈstrɔːdənri/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : very unusual : very different from what is normal or ordinary ▪ The researchers made an extraordinary discovery. ▪ It's an extraordinary situation. ▪ extraordinary rudeness/insensitivity ▪ The race is an extraordinary event. ▪ They convened an extraordinary [=special] meeting of the Security Council.
2 : extremely good or impressive ▪ She was a woman of extraordinary [=great, remarkable] intelligence. ▪ The child has extraordinary [=exceptional] abilities. ▪ The food was extraordinary.
– ex•traor•di•nar•i•ly /ɪkˌstroədəˈnerəli, Brit ɪkˈstrɔːdənrəli/ adv ▪ an extraordinarily intelligent person ▪ extraordinarily good/bad weather

extra point noun, pl ~ points [count] American football : a point scored after a touchdown by kicking the ball between the goalposts or by carrying or throwing it a short distance into the end zone

ex•trap•o•late /ɪkˈstræpəˌleɪt/ verb -lates; -lat•ed; -lat•ing formal : to form an opinion or to make an estimate about something from known facts [+ obj] We can extrapolate the number of new students entering next year by looking at how many entered in previous years. — often + from ▪ They extrapolated these results from their research. [no obj] With such a small study it is impossible to extrapolate accurately. — often + from ▪ She extrapolated from last year's data to arrive at her estimate.
– ex•trap•o•la•tion /ɪkˌstræpəˈleɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count, noncount]

ex•tra•sen•so•ry perception /ˌɛkstrəˈsɛnsəri-/ noun [singular] : the ability to know things (such as what another person is thinking or what will happen in the future) that cannot be known by normal use of the senses — called also ESP

ex•tra•ter•res•tri•al /ˌɛkstrətəˈrɛstrijəl/ adj : coming from or existing outside the planet Earth ▪ extraterrestrial life ▪ extraterrestrial beings/intelligence – extraterrestrial noun, pl -als [count] ▪ a movie about an extraterrestrial [=an extraterrestrial being]

ex•trav•a•gance /ɪkˈstrævɪgəns/ noun, pl -ganc•es
1 [noncount] : the act or practice of spending a lot of money : wasteful or careless spending ▪ The reorganization of the department was aimed at reducing extravagance. ▪ his extravagance with money
2 [count] : a special purchase that costs more than you usually spend ▪ That coat is an extravagance that you can't afford. ▪ Going to the play will be our one extravagance for this vacation.
3 [noncount] : the quality of something that is very expensive or fancy : an extravagant quality ▪ I was shocked by the extravagance of their lifestyle. ▪ The church is known for the extravagance of its architecture.

ex•trav•a•gant /ɪkˈstrævɪgənt/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 a : more than is usual, necessary, or proper ▪ He went to extravagant [=elaborate, extreme] lengths to impress his boss. ▪ The brunch featured an extravagant [=lavish] assortment of entrees. ▪ extravagant praise ▪ The company has been making extravagant claims/promises about the drug's effectiveness. b : very fancy ▪ an extravagant display ▪ The film is notable for its extravagant settings and special effects.
2 a : very expensive and not necessary ▪ an extravagant purchase ▪ We're going on a less extravagant vacation this year. b : spending a lot of money ▪ On my income, I can't afford to be extravagant. [=I can't afford to buy expensive things that I don't need] ▪ Her extravagant spending has to stop.
– ex•trav•a•gant•ly adv ▪ Her work was praised extravagantly. ▪ an extravagantly expensive wedding

ex•trav•a•gan•za /ɪkˌstrævəˈgænzə/ noun, pl -zas [count] : a very large and exciting show or event ▪ a musical extravaganza

extravert variant spelling of EXTROVERT

[1]ex•treme /ɪkˈstriːm/ adj
1 : very great in degree ▪ The plant is sensitive to extreme heat and cold. ▪ They are living in extreme poverty. ▪ If you have to go out in the storm, use extreme caution. [=be very careful] ▪ Extreme accuracy is required. ▪ extreme old age
2 [more ~; most ~] : very serious or severe ▪ She went on an extreme diet. ▪ Many thought that the punishment was too extreme for the crime. ▪ extreme weather conditions ▪ This situation calls for extreme [=drastic] measures. ▪ The plan was rejected as too extreme. ▪ This is an extreme example of what can happen when a company grows too quickly.
3 [more ~; most ~] : very far from agreeing with the opinions of most people : not moderate ▪ He has extreme opinions when it comes to politics. ▪ Members of the extreme right/left opposed the legislation.
4 always used before a noun : in the farthest possible position ▪ In the photo, she is at/on the extreme right/left. [=she is in the position that is farthest to the right/left] ▪ The city is in the extreme northern part of the state.
5 sports a : unusual and dangerous ▪ extreme sports ▪ He is a fan of extreme skiing/snowboarding. b always used before a noun, US : involved in an unusually dangerous sport : competing in an extreme sport ▪ an extreme athlete ▪ He is an extreme snowboarder/skier.
go to extreme lengths see LENGTH
– ex•treme•ly adv ▪ It is extremely [=very] hot/cold in here. ▪ She is extremely generous. ▪ The story has an extremely complicated plot. ▪ It is extremely [=highly, very] unlikely that we will know anyone there.

[2]extreme noun, pl ex•tremes [count]
1 : either one of two opposite conditions, feelings, positions, etc., that are thought of as being far from what is normal or reasonable ▪ After spending lavishly for years, the company has now gone to the opposite/other extreme and has cut expenses drastically. ▪ His mood changed/swung from one extreme to the other. — often plural ▪ experiencing extremes of emotion ▪ The temperature in the desert ranges between extremes of heat and cold. ▪ Their political views represent the extremes within the party. ▪ There are people at both extremes within the party.
2 : an amount or degree that is far beyond what is normal or reasonable ▪ The movie changes the story to such an extreme [=changes it so much] that it's hardly recognizable. ▪ They are being pushed/driven to ridiculous extremes. [=being forced to do much more than seems reasonable] ✧ If you carry/take (something) to extremes or go to extremes, you do much more than most people would consider reasonable or normal. ▪ The problems in our school system can be solved without going to (such) extremes. ▪ Problems can occur when people carry/take dieting to extremes.
in the extreme formal : to the greatest possible degree — used to make a statement more forceful ▪ I'm finding it difficult in the extreme [=very/extremely difficult] to deal with this situation.

ex•trem•ism /ɪkˈstriːˌmɪzəm/ noun [noncount] : belief in and support for ideas that are very far from what most people consider correct or reasonable ▪ political extremism

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 57 SESS: 67 OUTPUT: Wed Dec 3 11:58:58 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-e

ex•trem•ist /ɪkˈstri:mɪst/ noun, pl -ists [count] : someone who has extreme ideas about politics, religion, etc. ▪ Extremists in the party view him as too conservative. ▪ A group of extremists took several hostages.
– extremist adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ extremist tendencies/beliefs

ex•trem•i•ty /ɪkˈstrɛməti/ noun, pl -ties
1 [count] : a hand or foot — usually plural ▪ You will feel the effects of the cold in your extremities. [=hands and feet]
2 [count] : the farthest limit, point, or part of something ▪ We lived on the island's westernmost extremity. [=the part of the island that is farthest to the west]
3 formal : a very great or extreme degree or amount of something (such as emotion or pain) [noncount] The extremity of her grief is impossible to imagine. [count] They endured extremities of suffering. [=they endured extreme suffering]

ex•tri•cate /ˈɛkstrəˌkeɪt/ verb -cates; -cat•ed; -cat•ing [+ obj] : to free or remove (someone or something) from something (such as a trap or a difficult situation) ▪ Several survivors were extricated from the wreckage. ▪ They extricated the tractor from the mud. ▪ She hasn't been able to extricate herself from her legal problems.

ex•trin•sic /ɛkˈstrɪnzɪk/ adj, formal : not part of something : coming from the outside of something ▪ You have to consider any extrinsic factors in the success of the business. ▪ extrinsic circumstances — opposite INTRINSIC

ex•tro•vert also ex•tra•vert /ˈɛkstrəˌvət/ noun, pl -verts [count] : a friendly person who likes being with and talking to other people : an outgoing person — opposite INTROVERT
– ex•tro•vert•ed also ex•tra•vert•ed /ˈɛkstrəˌvətəd/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ He is the most extroverted [=outgoing] member of the family.

ex•trude /ɪkˈstru:d/ verb ex•trudes; ex•trud•ed; ex•trud•ing [+ obj] technical
1 : to force, press, or push (something) out ▪ The machine extrudes enough molten glass to fill the mold.
2 : to shape (something) by forcing it through a hole ▪ The plastic is extruded as a strong, continuous sheet. ▪ a toy made from extruded plastic ex•u•ber•ant /ɪgˈzu:bərənt, Brit ɪgˈzju:bərənt/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : very lively, happy, or energetic : filled with energy and enthusiasm ▪ His exuberant personality makes him fun to be around. ▪ exuberant music
2 : existing in large amounts : very plentiful ▪ exuberant blossoms – ex•u•ber•ance /ɪgˈzu:bərəns, Brit ɪgˈzju:bərəns/ noun [noncount] ▪ youthful exuberance – ex•u•ber•ant•ly adv ▪ an exuberantly joyful performance

ex•ude /ɪgˈzu:d/ verb exudes; ex•ud•ed; ex•ud•ing
1 a [+ obj] : to produce a liquid or smell that flows out slowly ▪ Pine trees exude a sticky substance. ▪ The flowers exuded a sweet fragrance. b [no obj] : to flow out slowly — usually + from ▪ Moisture exuded from the walls of the cave. ▪ A sticky substance exuded [=oozed] from the pine tree.
2 [+ obj] : to show (a quality, emotion, etc.) very clearly or strongly ▪ She exudes authority/charm. [=she has a great deal of authority/charm] ▪ They exuded elegance/confidence.

ex•ult /ɪgˈzʌlt/ verb -ults; -ulted; -ulting
1 [no obj] : to feel or show great happiness — often + at, in, or over ▪ The team exulted in their victory. ▪ She exulted over her students' test scores.
2 [+ obj] : to say (something) in a very excited and happy way ▪ "That was the best meal I've ever had!" he exulted.

Do not confuse exult with exalt.

ex•ult•ant /ɪgˈzʌltənt/ adj [more ~; most ~] : very happy and excited ▪ The crowd let out an exultant cheer. ▪ Researchers are exultant over/about the new discovery.
– ex•ult•ant•ly adv

ex•ul•ta•tion /ˌɛkˌsʌlˈteɪʃən, ˌɛgˌzʌlˈteɪʃən/ noun [noncount] : a feeling of great happiness and excitement : an exultant feeling ▪ The crowd cheered in exultation.

-ey see -Y

[1]eye /ˈaɪ/ noun, pl eyes
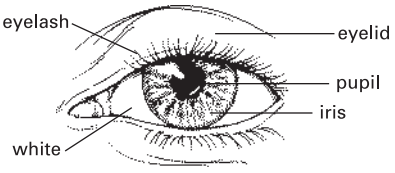
1 [count] : the part of the body that you see with ▪ Her eyes slowly became accustomed to the dark. ▪ He wears a patch over one eye. ▪ I have something in my eye. ▪ He has (a pair of) bright blue eyes. ▪ bright/sad/sleepy eyes ▪ She has good/strong/bad/weak eyes. [=eyesight] ▪ Her eyes lit up [=she looked excited and happy] when he showed her the ring. ▪ His eyes were popping out of his head with astonishment [=he looked very astonished] when he saw how big it was! ▪ He punched him right between the eyes. [=punched him hard in the face] ▪ She looked me (right) in the eye [=she looked directly at me] and told me I was fired. ▪ The garden is a feast for the eyes. [=the garden is very beautiful] ▪ The display was very pleasing to the eye. [=pleasing to look at] ▪ I measured the distance by eye. = I measured the distance with my eye. [=by looking at it to get a rough idea of its size] ▪ Their daughter came home from school with tears in her eyes. [=she was crying] ▪ Seeing her again brought tears to my eyes. = Seeing her again brought a tear to my eye. [=made me shed tears] ▪ He had/kept half an eye on [=he occasionally looked at] the TV while he read the paper.



eye

2 [singular] a : an ability to understand and appreciate something seen ▪ Only a trained eye can tell the difference between the original painting and a good copy. ▪ For decorating, they rely on her discerning/discriminating/expert eye. ▪ He has an artist's eye for color. ✧ If you have an eye for something or a good/keen/sharp eye for something, you have a special ability to recognize a particular thing or quality. ▪ He has a keen eye for detail. ▪ He has a good eye for quality. b — used to describe the way something looks to you ▪ It looks a little awkward to my eye. [=it looks awkward to me] c : a way of looking at or judging something ▪ He reviewed the proposal with a jaundiced/critical eye. ▪ The biographer cast a cold/critical/skeptical eye on the artist's life.
3 [count] — used to describe where someone is looking ▪ Her eye was attracted to the bright colors in the painting. ▪ She dropped her eyes [=she looked down] when he looked at her. = Her eyes fell when he looked at her. ▪ He averted his eyes [=he looked away] when she approached him. ▪ I saw something moving out of the corner of my eye. [=to the side of where I was looking] ▪ Her eyes fell on [=she noticed] a piece of evidence no one had noticed before. ▪ All eyes were on her [=everyone was looking at her] as she entered the room. ▪ She fixed her eyes on me [=she kept looking or staring at me] for a long time before answering.
4 [count] : a way of looking at or thinking about something ▪ We need to look at this problem with a fresh eye. [=to look at the problem in a new way] ▪ Beauty is in the eye of the beholder. [=different people have different ideas about what is beautiful] — often plural ▪ He was guilty in the eyes of the police. [=the police considered him guilty] ▪ He was handsome in her eyes. [=she thought he was handsome] ▪ In the eyes [=opinion] of many, he is the best person for the job.
5 [count] : the hole through the top of a needle ▪ the eye of a needle
6 [count] : a loop that a hook fits into to fasten or attach something
7 [count] : an area on a potato from which a new plant can grow : a bud on a potato
8 [count] : the center of a storm (such as a hurricane) where there is little wind or rain and sometimes there is clear sky ▪ The eye of the storm should reach the coast by morning.

all eyes : watching something or someone closely : very attentive ▪ She was all eyes as I opened the box.
an eye for an eye or an eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth — used to say that a person who has committed a crime should be given punishment that is the same as or as serious as the crime ▪ The ancient code of law called for punishment in the form of an eye for an eye.
as far as the eye could see : as far as could be seen ▪ The crowd stretched away as far as the eye could see.
a sight for sore eyes see [1]SIGHT a twinkle in your eye see [1]TWINKLE bawl your eyes out see BAWL before your eyes or in front of your eyes ✧ If something happens (right) before your eyes or in front of your (very) eyes, it happens in a very open and visible way so that you can see it very clearly. ▪ Technology is changing right before our eyes. ▪ We were watching a disaster take place in front of our very eyes.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 58 SESS: 67 OUTPUT: Wed Dec 3 11:59:01 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-e

can't believe your eyes see BELIEVE cast/run your eye over : to read it or look at (something) quickly. ▪ Please run your eye over this and let me know what you think. ▪ She cast her eye over the apartment, appalled by the mess.

catch your eye see [1]CATCH close/shut your eyes to : to refuse to notice or accept the truth or existence of (something) : to ignore (something) ▪ Our legislators have closed their eyes to the poverty that surrounds them.

cock an/your eye see [2]COCK cry your eyes out see [1]CRY

easy on the eyes see [1]EASY

eyes in the back of your head ✧ When people are surprised that you have seen or noticed something that is behind you, they may say that you have eyes in the back of your head. ▪ How did you know we were here? You must have eyes in the back of your head!

feast your eyes on see [2]FEAST for your eyes only : intended to be seen only by you ▪ This memo is for your eyes only.

give (someone) the eye informal : to look at (someone) in a way that shows sexual attraction ▪ Several men were giving her the eye across the bar.

have/keep an/your eye out for : to be looking for (someone or something) : to hope to see or find (someone or something) ▪ I'm keeping my eye out for a good cheap used car. ▪ He'll be here soon, so keep your eye out for him.

have an eye to/toward : to have (something) in your thoughts as a goal or purpose ▪ She has an eye to attending graduate school. [=she hopes to attend graduate school]

(have) stars in your eyes see [1]STAR

have your eye on 1 : to watch (someone or something) closely ▪ I'll have my eye on the kids while they're swimming. 2 : to be thinking about buying (something) ▪ I have my eye on a new car. ▪ She's had her eye on that house for a long time.

in a pig's eye US slang — used to express strong disagreement ▪ You want me to apologize to him? In a pig's eye! [=Never!]

in the blink of an eye see [2]BLINK

in the public eye : in a position that receives a lot of public notice and attention ▪ The job requires someone who is comfortable being in the public eye.

in the twinkle/twinkling of an eye : in a very short time : very quickly ▪ He was back in the twinkle/twinkling of an eye.

in your mind's eye ✧ If you see something in your mind's eye, you imagine or remember how it looks. ▪ I can still see the old playground in my mind's eye.

keep an/your eye on : to watch or take care of (someone or something) ▪ Will you keep an eye on my suitcase (for me) while I get something to eat?

keep your eye on the ball see [1]BALL

keep your eyes glued to informal : to watch (something) very closely for a long time ▪ They kept their eyes glued to the television, waiting for more news about the accident.

keep your eyes open or keep your eyes peeled or Brit keep your eyes skinned informal : to look or watch closely in order to see or find (something) ▪ We kept our eyes peeled for a sign that would tell us where to turn.

lay/set eyes on or Brit clap eyes on : to see or look at (someone or something) ▪ I hope never to lay eyes on him again! ▪ We liked the house from the moment we set eyes on it. [=the moment when we first saw it] make eyes at informal : to look at (someone) in a way that shows sexual attraction ▪ Some guy was making eyes at her from across the room.

more than meets the eye ✧ If something is more than meets the eye or there is more to something than meets the eye, there is more to it than there appears to be at first. ▪ There is more to this proposal than meets the eye.

my eye informal — used to express surprise or mild disagreement ▪ A diamond, my eye! That's glass!

not bat an eye see [4]BAT

only have eyes for : to only be attracted to (a particular person) : to only feel love for (someone) ▪ He only has eyes for you.

open someone's eyes : to cause someone to notice or be aware of something important ▪ The experience really opened his eyes and changed the way he felt about his life. — often + to ▪ It's time they opened their eyes to the truth. ▪ His film helped open people's eyes to the problem.

open your eyes : to begin to notice or be aware of something important ▪ You need to open your eyes and face the truth. — often + to ▪ We have to open our eyes to these problems and stop ignoring them.

pull the wool over someone's eyes see WOOL

roving eye see ROVING

run your eye down : to quickly read or look at (something, such as a list) ▪ She ran her eye down the list looking for her name.

see eye to eye : to have the same opinion : AGREE — usually used in negative statements ▪ They don't see eye to eye (with each other) on this issue.

take your eyes off : to stop looking at (someone or something) ▪ I took my eyes off the road for one second. ▪ She was so beautiful, he couldn't take his eyes off her.

the apple of someone's eye see APPLE turn a blind eye see [1]BLIND

under the eye of : while being watched by (someone) ▪ The students did their work under the watchful/vigilant eye of their teacher.

up to your eyes : deeply involved in or affected by something ▪ We're up to our eyes in work. [=we are very busy] ▪ They're up to their eyes in debt.

with an eye to/toward : with (something) in your thoughts as a goal or purpose ▪ They hired him with an eye toward increased sales. ▪ They bought the house with an eye toward its restoration. ▪ He took the job with an eye to the future. [=he took the job because he felt it would help him in the future] with your/both eyes open : fully aware of what could happen ▪ I went into the job with my eyes (wide) open. ▪ If you do this, you need to do it with both eyes open.

with your eyes shut/closed informal : with little or no effort : very easily ▪ She could run that company with her eyes shut.

your eyes are bigger than your stomach ✧ If your eyes are bigger than your stomach, you have taken more food than you can possibly eat. ▪ I can't finish my meal—I guess my eyes were bigger than my stomach!

– see also BLACK EYE, EVIL EYE, RIB EYE, SEEING EYE

[2]eye verb eyes; eyed; eye•ing or ey•ing [+ obj] : to watch or look at (someone or something) in a very close or careful way ▪ I saw someone eyeing me from across the street. ▪ The manager eyed us (up and down) as we walked into the restaurant.

[1]eye•ball /ˈaɪˌbɑːl/ noun, pl -balls [count] : the entire round part of the eye

up to your eyeballs informal : deeply involved in something ▪ We're up to our eyeballs in work. [=we are very busy]

[2]eyeball verb -balls; -balled; -ball•ing [+ obj] informal : to look at or stare at (someone or something) ▪ The police eyeballed [=eyed] the suspects. ▪ The children were eyeballing the desserts.

eye•brow /ˈaɪˌbraʊ/ noun, pl -brows [count] : the line of hair that grows over your eye — see picture at FACE ✧ To raise an/your eyebrow is to move your eyebrow up in a way that shows surprise or mild disapproval. To raise eyebrows is to cause other people to react in this way. These phrases are often used figuratively. ▪ No one raised an eyebrow [=no one expressed surprise] when he announced that he was planning to run for governor. ▪ His recent public statements have raised (a few) eyebrows. [=people have reacted with surprise and disapproval to his recent public statements] eye candy noun [noncount] informal : someone or something that is attractive but is not serious or interesting ▪ A lot of the material on their Web site is just eye candy.

eye–catch•ing /ˈaɪˌkætʃɪŋ, ˈaɪˌkɛtʃɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~] : very noticeable because of being unusual or attractive ▪ The movie features eye-catching special effects. ▪ an eye-catching advertisement ▪ eye-catching colors/styles — see also catch your eye at [1]CATCH

– eye–catch•ing•ly adv

eye chart noun, pl ~ charts [count] : a chart that has numbers and letters of different sizes and that is used for testing someone's vision eye contact noun [noncount] : a situation in which two people are looking directly into each other's eyes ▪ He maintained eye contact with me throughout the conversation. ▪

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 59 SESS: 20 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:32:36 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−e

The speaker made eye contact with audience members. ▪ The jury avoided eye contact with the defendant as the verdict was read.

eyed /ˈaɪd/ adj : having an eye or eyes of a specified kind or number — used in combination ▪ a brown-eyed boy ▪ one-eyed eye•drop•per /ˈaɪˌdrɑːpə/ noun, pl -pers [count] : a small tube that is used to measure out drops of liquid : DROPPER eye•ful /ˈaɪˌfʊl/ noun [singular] informal

1 : something that is very surprising, attractive, etc., to look at ▪ The view of the mountains is an eyeful.
2 : an attractive person : a beautiful woman ▪ She's a real eyeful!
get/have an eyeful ✧ If you get/have an eyeful of something or if someone gives you an eyeful of something, you see it very clearly or you see a lot of it or too much of it. ▪ They wanted to see nature and got an eyeful during the camping trip. These phrases often refer to seeing something shocking, such as a person who is naked. ▪ I opened the door to the locker room and got quite an eyeful.

eye•glass /ˈaɪˌglæs, Brit ˈaɪˌglɑːs/ noun, pl -glass•es
1 [count] old-fashioned : a single lens that is worn over your eye to help you see : MONOCLE
2 eyeglasses [plural] chiefly US : a pair of lenses set into a frame and worn over your eyes to help you see : GLASSES ▪ She left her eyeglasses at work.

eye•lash /ˈaɪˌlæʃ/ noun, pl -lash•es [count] : any one of the hairs that grow along the top of the eyelid ▪ She has beautiful dark eyelashes. [=lashes] ▪ false eyelashes — see picture at EYE not bat an eyelash see [4]BAT eye•let /ˈaɪlət/ noun, pl -lets [count] : a small hole or opening in a material (such as cloth or leather) for a string or rope to pass through; also : a metal or plastic ring that strengthens such an opening eye level noun [singular] : a level that is as high as a person's eyes ▪ He hung the picture at eye level. ▪ The hook is just above eye level.

eye•lid /ˈaɪˌlɪd/ noun, pl -lids [count] : either one of the two movable pieces of skin that cover your eye when it is closed ▪ the upper/lower eyelid of the left eye — see picture at EYE not bat an eyelid see [4]BAT eye•lin•er /ˈaɪˌlaɪnə/ noun, pl -ers [count, noncount] : a type of makeup used to put a dark line around the eyes

eye–open•er /ˈaɪˌoʊpənə/ noun, pl -ers [count] informal : something that shows or teaches you something in a surprising way ▪ Traveling abroad can be a real eye-opener to many people. ▪ They say her biography is quite an eye-opener. ▪ The speech was an eye-opener for us. — see also open your eyes at [2]OPEN – eye–open•ing /ˈaɪˌoʊpənɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ Traveling abroad was an eye-opening experience. ▪ The movie has some eye-opening special effects.

eye•piece /ˈaɪˌpiːs/ noun, pl -piec•es [count] : the part of a telescope or microscope that you look through eye shadow noun, pl ~ -ows [count, noncount] : a type of colored makeup that is put on the eyelids — see picture at GROOMING eye•sight /ˈaɪˌsaɪt/ noun [noncount] : the ability to see : sight or vision ▪ He wears glasses because his eyesight is not good. ▪ failing eyesight ▪ keen eyesight

eye socket noun, pl ~ -ets [count] : either one of the hollow places in the skull that hold the eyeballs eye•sore /ˈaɪˌsoə/ noun, pl -sores [count] : an ugly object or building ▪ The shack is a real eyesore.

eye•strain /ˈaɪˌstreɪn/ noun [noncount] : a tired and unpleasant feeling in your eyes ▪ After looking at the computer screen all day she had eyestrain and a stiff neck.

eye•tooth /ˈaɪˈtuːθ/ noun, pl -teeth /-ˈtiːθ/ [count] : a pointed tooth : CANINE ✧ If you say you would give your eyeteeth for something, it means that you want to do or have it very much. ▪ Many journalists would give their eyeteeth for an opportunity like this.

eye•wash /ˈaɪˌwɑːʃ/ noun [noncount]
1 : a liquid used for washing the eyes
2 informal + old-fashioned : foolish words : NONSENSE ▪ He says he'll quit his job, but we know that's just eyewash.

eyewear noun [noncount] : glasses, sunglasses, etc. ▪ protective eyewear ▪ a shop that specialilzed in fashionable eyewear eye•wit•ness /ˈaɪˈwɪtnəs/ noun, pl -ness•es [count] : a person who sees something happen and is able to describe it ▪ The police are hoping to locate an eyewitness to the shooting. ▪ He was able to give an eyewitness account of the shooting.

eyrie chiefly Brit spelling of AERIE

e–zine /ˈiːˌziːn/ noun, pl -zines [count] : an electronic magazine : a magazine that is on the Internet

F

[1]f or F /ˈɛf/ noun, pl f's or fs or F's or Fs /ˈɛfs/
1 : the sixth letter of the English alphabet [count] The word "foot" begins with an f. [noncount] The word "foot" begins with f.
2 : a musical note or key referred to by the letter F : the fourth tone of a C-major scale [count] play/sing an F [noncount] the key of F
3 [count] : a grade that is given to a student who is doing very poor work ▪ I got an F on the test.

[2]f abbr 1 female 2 feminine 3 forte — used in music

F abbr Fahrenheit ▪ Water freezes at 32 degrees F.

fa or chiefly Brit fah /ˈfɑː/ noun [noncount] music : the fourth note of a musical scale ▪ do, re, mi, fa, sol, la, ti

FAA abbr Federal Aviation Administration ▪ a ruling by the FAA ▪ an FAA official ✧ The Federal Aviation Administration is a part of the U.S. federal government that is responsible for controlling the use of aircraft.

fab /ˈfæb/ adj, informal + old-fashioned : extremely good : FABULOUS ▪ We had a fab time.

fa•ble /ˈfeɪbəl/ noun, pl fa•bles
1 [count] : a short story that usually is about animals and that is intended to teach a lesson ▪ Aesop's fables ▪ a fable about busy ants
2 : a story or statement that is not true [count] The story that he won the battle single-handedly is a mere fable. [noncount] He combines fact and fable to make a more interesting story.

fa•bled /ˈfeɪbəld/ adj
1 : told about in old stories ▪ a fabled [=legendary] underwater city
2 [more ~; most ~] : widely known : FAMOUS ▪ She served us some of her fabled cherry pie.

fab•ric /ˈfæbrɪk/ noun, pl -rics
1 : woven or knitted material : CLOTH [noncount] The curtains are made of expensive fabric. ▪ a fabric store [count] scarves made of woven fabrics
2 [singular] : the basic structure of something ▪ the fabric of society ▪ the fabric of the community

fab•ri•cate /ˈfæbrɪˌkeɪt/ verb -cates; -cat•ed; -cat•ing [+ obj]
1 : to make or build (something) ▪ Only the largest parts were fabricated at the factory. ▪ Their plan is to fabricate the house out of synthetic materials.
2 : to create or make up (something, such as a story) in order to trick people ▪ a story fabricated to sell magazines ▪ She was accused of fabricating data. ▪ fabricated evidence – fab•ri•ca•tion /ˌfæbrɪˈkeɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [noncount] the fabrication of parts ▪ the fabrication of evidence [count] his fabrications [=lies] about his military service ▪ The story was a total/complete fabrication. – fab•ri•ca•tor /ˈfæbrɪˌkeɪtə/ noun, pl -tors [count]

fabric softener noun, pl ~ -ers [count, noncount] : a product that is used to make clothes softer when they are washed or dried in a machine — called also (Brit) conditioner

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 1 SESS: 13 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:33:06 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−f

fab•u•lous /ˈfæbjələs/ adj
1 [more ~; most ~] a : very good ▪ I had a fabulous time. ▪ The weather has been fabulous. b : very large in amount or size ▪ fabulous wealth/riches ▪ He is making fabulous amounts of money.
2 literary : not real ▪ fabulous beasts : told about in a story ▪ a fabulous [=mythical] creature
– fab•u•lous•ly adv ▪ fabulously rich ▪ a fabulously successful executive – fab•u•lous•ness noun [noncount]

fa•cade or fa•çade /fəˈsɑːd/ noun, pl -cades or -çades [count]
1 : the front of a building ▪ the facade of the bank ▪ the windowless façade of the skyscraper ▪ a brick facade
2 : a way of behaving or appearing that gives other people a false idea of your true feelings or situation ▪ They were trying to preserve the facade of a happy marriage. ▪ I could sense the hostility lurking behind her polite facade.

F

[1]face /ˈfeɪs/ noun, pl faces [count]
1 : the front part of the head that has the eyes, nose, and mouth on it ▪ He has a round face. ▪ He punched me (right) in the face. ▪ His face is familiar but I can't remember his name. ▪ I'll never forget the look on her face. ▪ She slapped him in the face. = She slapped his face. ▪ He fell flat on his face. ▪ a bearded/freckled/tanned face ▪ a fresh/youthful face ▪ face cream ▪ face powder ▪ Her face lit up [=she looked pleased and happy] when she saw him. ▪ Her face fell [=she looked unhappy] when I told her the bad news. ▪ I don't know how he can show his face around here. [=how he can stand being seen here] ▪ Why the long face? [=why do you look so unhappy?] ▪ He was wearing a silly grin/smile on his face. [=he was grinning/smiling in a silly way] ▪ She angrily told him to wipe that smile off his face. [=to stop smiling] ▪ Her guilt was written all over her face. [=the expression on her face showed her guilt very clearly] ▪ The answer to the problem was staring me in the face all along. [=the answer was obvious but I did not see it]
2 : a facial expression ▪ a happy/sad face ▪ a friendly/smiling face ▪ She tried to put on a brave face [=she tried to appear brave or calm] despite the pain of the injury. ▪ It was hard to keep a straight face. [=it was hard not to laugh] ▪ You should have seen his face when we shouted "Surprise!" [=he had a shocked, surprised, etc., look on his face] — see also POKER FACE
3 : PERSON ▪ I didn't recognize any of the faces around the table. ▪ There are lots of new faces around the office. ▪ It's good to see a familiar face. [=a person that I know]
4 a : the way something appears when it is first seen or thought about — usually singular ▪ On the face of it, her proposal seems ridiculous. [=when you first hear about her proposal it seems ridiculous, although it may not be ridiculous when you learn more about it] ▪ Her proposal seems ridiculous on its face. b : the way something is seen or thought of by people — usually singular ▪ If she wins the election it will change the face of American politics. ✧ To put a brave/good/positive face on something or to put the best face on something is to talk about it or describe it in a way that makes it seem as good as possible. ▪ She can put a positive face on the worst situations. ▪ He was disappointed by the results of the election, but tried to put the best face on the situation by saying he had come closer to winning than people expected.
5 a : a front or outer surface of something ▪ the face of a cliff = a cliff face ▪ the face of a building ▪ the face of a golf club ▪ a species that has vanished from the face of the earth [=a species that is no longer found anywhere in the world] ▪ If you ask me, he's the biggest fool on the face of the earth. [=in the world] b : a surface or side that is marked or prepared in some way ▪ the face of a document c : a side of a coin ▪ Which face will the coin land on—heads or tails? d : the part of a clock or watch that shows the time ▪ a clock face e mathematics : any one of the flat surfaces of a solid shape ▪ A cube is a solid with six square faces.
a slap in the face see [2]SLAP as plain as the nose on your face see [1]NOSE blue in the face see [1]BLUE cross someone's face see [2]CROSS cut off your nose to spite your face see [1]NOSE egg on your face see [1]EGG face to face 1 — used to describe a situation in which two people are together and looking at each other ▪ They were sitting face to face. ▪ I've spoken with him on the phone but I've never met him face to face. [=I've never met him] ▪ We've never had a face-to-face meeting. — often + with ▪ I've never been face to face with him before. 2 : very close to something dangerous, difficult, etc. — + with ▪ The actors were face to face with real flames. ▪ She came face to face with death. [=she nearly died] ▪ When she visited the school she was brought face to face with the problems encountered by teachers every day.
y in the face of see [1]FLY game face ✧ In informal U.S. English, if you are wearing your game face or have your game face on, you have a serious look on your face which shows that you are ready to compete in a game, sport, competition, etc. ▪ He was wearing his game face in the finals.
get out of someone's face US, informal : to go away and stop bothering someone : to leave someone alone ▪ Get out of my face! ▪ Hey, get out of your sister's face and go play somewhere else!
in someone's face 1 : in a direct way that shows anger or disrespect for someone ▪ She laughed in his face. ▪ He slammed the door in my face. 2 ✧ In informal U.S. English, if you are/get in someone's face, you are criticizing or shouting at someone in a very direct and angry way. ▪ The coach got in my face because I was late for practice. — see also IN-YOUR-FACE in the face of : while in a situation in which you have to deal with (something or someone that is dangerous, difficult, etc.) ▪ Their defeat seemed certain in the face of such a powerful opponent. ▪ She showed great courage in the face of danger. [=she showed great courage when she was faced with danger] ▪ She succeeded in the face of [=despite] great difficulties.
just another face in the crowd see [2]CROWD laugh on the other side of your face see [1]LAUGH lose face : to cause other people to have less respect for you : to lose other people's respect ▪ She was afraid that she would lose face if she admitted her mistake.
make a face or chiefly Brit pull a face 1 : to make a facial expression that shows dislike or disgust ▪ He made a face when I mentioned her name. 2 : to make a silly or amusing facial expression ▪ She tried to get me to laugh by making a face when I looked at her. ▪ He was entertaining the children by making (funny) faces.
pretty face see [1]PRETTY put a human face on see [1]HUMAN save face : to avoid having other people lose respect for you ▪ He tried to save face by working overtime.
shut your face see [1]SHUT stare (someone) in the face see [1]STARE stuff your face see [2]STUFF to someone's face : directly to someone ▪ If you have something to say about me, you should say it to my face. [=say it directly to me rather than to someone else]

[2]face verb fac•es; faced; fac•ing
1 a : to stand or sit with your face and body turned toward (something or someone) [+ obj] The teacher faced the class. ▪ She turned around to face the window. ▪ He sat facing the wall. [no obj] Turn and face to the east. b : to have the front part toward (something) [+ obj] The house faces the park. ▪ The living room faces the afternoon sun. [no obj] My shoe was lying in the corner with its sole facing upward. ▪ The flower opens facing skyward. c : to be on the page that is opposite to (another page) [+ obj] Look at the illustration that faces page 132. = Look at the illustration facing page

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 2 SESS: 7 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:33:07 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−f

132. [no obj] Look at the illustration on the facing page.
2 [+ obj] a : to deal with (something bad or unpleasant) in a direct way ▪ Only by facing your problems can you hope to overcome them. ▪ You must stand and face the danger. ▪ He'll have to face the consequences of his decision. b : to admit that (something) is true or real ▪ It was time to face the truth. ▪ We have to face the possibility that the economy will get worse before it gets better. ▪ We have to face reality.
3 [+ obj] a : to have (something bad or unpleasant) as a problem or possibility : to be confronted by (something) ▪ This is not the first time she has faced adversity. ▪ Because of the drought, thousands of people are now facing starvation. ▪ He finds himself facing criminal charges for his role in the conspiracy. ▪ She faced a difficult choice. [=she had to make a difficult choice] b : to be a problem for (someone) : to require the attention of (someone) ▪ There were many important questions facing them. ▪ We can't ignore the problems that face us. c : to force (someone) to see and deal with something in a direct way ▪ He couldn't deny his involvement when the police faced [=confronted] him with the evidence. — usually used as (be) faced ▪ He was faced with the evidence. ▪ We are faced with two unpleasant options. ▪ We can't ignore the problems that we are faced with.
4 [+ obj] a : to meet with (someone) despite shame, fear, or embarrassment ▪ I don't know if I can face him again after treating him so badly. b : to meet (someone) in a competition : to compete or fight against (someone) ▪ The team has to face a tough opponent in its next game. ▪ It was the first time that these two fighters had faced each other in the ring. ▪ The pitcher struck out the first three batters he faced.
5 [+ obj] : to cover the front or the surface of (something) ▪ They faced the building with marble. ▪ a chimney faced with red brick ▪ a brick-faced chimney face facts or face the fact(s) : to admit that something is true ▪ The time has come to face the fact that the government's policies aren't working. ▪ The time has come to face the facts and admit that the government's policies aren't working. ▪ Let's face facts—our plan isn't working.
face off [phrasal verb] chiefly US : to be involved or become involved in a conflict, dispute, or competition ▪ The protesters were facing off with/against the police. ▪ They faced off in a nationally televised debate. ▪ two teams that faced off in the play-offs last year — see also FACE-OFF face the music : to accept and deal with the unpleasant result of something you have said or done ▪ He knows that he'll be criticized for making a bad decision, and he's ready to face the music.
face up to [phrasal verb] face up to (something) : to deal with (something bad or unpleasant) in a direct way ▪ She has to face up to [=face] her problems now, or else they'll only get worse. ▪ We need to face up to our fears.
(let's) face it — used to say that something is true and cannot be denied ▪ Face it, a lot of people don't even bother to vote. ▪ Let's face it, most of us don't get enough exercise.

face card noun, pl ~ cards [count] : a king, queen, or jack in a deck of cards — called also (chiefly Brit) court card, (Brit) picture card

face•cloth /ˈfeɪsˌklɑːθ/ noun, pl -cloths [count] : WASHCLOTH

-faced /ˌfeɪst/ combining form
1 : having a particular kind of face ▪ a fresh-faced girl ▪ freckle-faced [=having a face with many freckles]
2 : having a particular kind of surface or front ▪ a brick-faced house face•down /ˌfeɪsˈdaʊn/ adv : with the face down ▪ The cards were dealt facedown. ▪ lying/floating facedown ▪ He fell facedown in the sand.

face•less /ˈfeɪsləs/ adj, usually disapproving
1 : not having any unusual and interesting qualities ▪ the faceless masses ▪ a faceless corporation
2 : not identified : ANONYMOUS ▪ a decision made by faceless bureaucrats ▪ a faceless accuser face–lift /ˈfeɪsˌlɪft/ noun, pl -lifts [count]

1 : surgery to make a person's face look younger (such as by removing wrinkles) ▪ She's planning to get a face-lift.
2 : changes made to something to make it more attractive or modern ▪ The hotel was given a million-dollar face-lift. ▪ The new landscaping has given the park a much-needed face-lift.

face mask noun, pl ~ masks [count] : a mask or protective covering that goes over your face or part of your face ▪ gas delivered to the patient via face mask ▪ (American football) The lineman grabbed the running back's face mask.

face–off /ˈfeɪsˌɑːf/ noun, pl -offs [count]
1 ice hockey : a method of beginning play by dropping the puck between two players ▪ a face-off at center ice
2 chiefly US : a meeting of opponents : a conflict or fight ▪ a legal face-off ▪ a diplomatic face-off between Communist and non-Communist nations — see also face off at ²FACE face–sav•ing /ˈfeɪsˌseɪvɪŋ/ adj, always used before a noun : done to keep someone from looking foolish ▪ a face-saving gesture ▪ They needed a face-saving way out of the confrontation. — see also save face at ¹FACE fac•et /ˈfæsət/ noun, pl -ets [count]

1 : a part or element of something ▪ Each facet of the problem requires careful attention. ▪ the different facets of our culture ▪ Which facet of his character is most appealing?
2 : a small, flat surface on a jewel ▪ the facets of a diamond – fac•et•ed /ˈfæsətəd/ adj ▪ a faceted jewel — see also MULTIFACETED face time noun [noncount] US, informal

1 : time spent meeting with someone ▪ He hoped to get more face time with the president.
2 : time spent at the place where you work especially before or after normal working hours ▪ Some bosses think lots of face time is a sign of loyalty to the company.
3 : the amount of time someone spends appearing on television ▪ a celebrity who has been getting a lot of face time

fa•ce•tious /fəˈsiːʃəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] — used to describe speech that is meant to be funny but that is usually regarded as annoying, silly, or not proper ▪ I was just being facetious. ▪ a facetious remark – fa•ce•tious•ly adv ▪ She was speaking facetiously. – fa•ce•tious•ness noun [noncount]

face•up /ˈfeɪsˈʌp/ adv : with the face up ▪ The cards were dealt faceup. ▪ lying/floating faceup

face value noun, pl ~ values [count] : the value that is printed or shown on something (such as a coin or bill) ▪ We paid $100 for tickets that had a face value of $50.
at face value 1 : for the price that is printed on something ▪ We bought the tickets at face value. 2 ✧ Something that is taken/accepted at face value is regarded as true or genuine without being questioned or doubted. ▪ After all his lying, nothing he says now should be taken at face value. [=accepted as true]

facia variant spelling of FASCIA 3

¹fa•cial /ˈfeɪʃəl/ adj : of or relating to a person's face ▪ facial expressions ▪ facial features ▪ facial hair

²facial noun, pl -cials [count] : a beauty treatment to make a person's face look and feel better ▪ a deep-cleaning facial

facie see PRIMA FACIE

fac•ile /ˈfæsəl, Brit ˈfæsaɪl/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal 1 disapproving : too simple : not showing enough thought or effort ▪ a facile explanation ▪ This problem needs more than just a facile solution.
2 always used before a noun, disapproving : done or achieved in a way that is too easy ▪ a facile [=effortless] victory
3 always used before a noun, chiefly US, approving : working, moving, or performing well and very easily ▪ He is a wonderfully facile writer.
– fac•ile•ly adv

fa•cil•i•tate /fəˈsɪləˌteɪt/ verb -tates; -tat•ed; -tat•ing [+ obj] formal 1 : to make (something) easier : to help cause (something) ▪ Cutting taxes may facilitate economic recovery. ▪ Her rise to power was facilitated by her influential friends.
2 : to help (something) run more smoothly and effectively ▪ The moderator's role is to facilitate the discussion by asking appropriate questions.
– fa•cil•i•ta•tion /fəˌsɪləˈteɪʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ the facilitation of discussion – fa•cil•i•ta•tor /fəˈsɪləˌteɪtə/ noun, pl -tors [count] ▪ the facilitator of a discussion

fa•cil•i•ty /fəˈsɪləti/ noun, pl -ties
1 a [count] : something (such as a building or large piece of equipment) that is built for a specific purpose ▪ a large manufacturing facility ▪ a new sewage-treatment facility ▪ The injured child was rushed to a medical facility. [=a hospital] ▪ a correctional facility [=a prison] b [count] : something that makes an action, operation, or activity easier — usually plural ▪ The resort offers a wide range of facilities for young and old alike. c *facilities [plural] informal : BATHROOM ▪ The facilities are at the end of the corridor.
2 : skill and ease in doing something [singular] He had a great facility for writing. [noncount] He had great facility with words. ▪ She handled the crisis with facility.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 3 SESS: 63 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:33:07 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−f

fac•ing /ˈfeɪsɪŋ/ noun, pl -ings : a layer of material that is placed on the surface or front of something to improve its appearance [noncount] a house with brick facing [count] ornamental window facings ▪ a suit with red facings at the collar and the cuffs fac•sim•i•le /fækˈsɪməli/ noun, pl -les [count]

1 : an exact copy ▪ A facsimile of the world's first computer was exhibited in the museum.
2 formal : [1]FAX 1 reasonable facsimile ✧ A reasonable facsimile is a copy that is not exact but is fairly close. ▪ The house is a reasonable facsimile of his original home. This phrase is sometimes used in a joking way. ▪ I can speak French, or at least a reasonable facsimile of French. [=I can speak French but not very well]

fact /ˈfækt/ noun, pl facts
1 [count] : something that truly exists or happens : something that has actual existence ▪ Rapid electronic communication is now a fact. — often used in the phrase the fact that ▪ It's hard to accept the fact that she's gone. [=it's hard to accept that she's gone] ▪ What they're proposing is impractical, apart from the fact that it's also illegal. ▪ In spite of the fact that he was sick [=although he was sick], I went to visit him.
2 : a true piece of information [count] The book is filled with interesting facts and figures. ▪ Those are the (cold) hard facts of the case. ▪ I know for a fact that he did it. [=I am sure that he did it] ▪ He did it, and that's a fact. ▪ There's no doubt that he did it. The facts speak for themselves. [=the facts make it clear that he did it] [noncount] It can sometimes be hard to separate fact from fiction. [=to know what is true and what is false]
after the fact 1 law : after a crime has been committed ▪ She was charged with being an accessory after the fact. [=she was charged with helping someone who had committed a crime after the crime was committed] 2 : after something has happened : AFTERWARD ▪ They informed me of their decision only after the fact. [=after they had already made their decision] as a matter of fact — used to stress the truth of a statement ▪ "Do you know her personally?" "As a matter of fact, I do."
bend (the) facts see [1]BEND in fact 1 : in truth — used to stress that a statement is true although it may be surprising or unlikely ▪ painters who are in fact anything but unsophisticated ▪ He looks younger, but he is in (actual) fact almost 60 years old. ▪ They know each other; in fact, they're close friends. = They know each other; they're close friends, in fact. 2 also in point of fact — used to introduce a true statement which shows that another statement is not true or accurate ▪ He claims that he supported the bill, but in fact he voted against it. [=the truth is that he voted against it] ▪ She says that she doesn't know him, but in point of fact they have been seen together many times.
is that a fact? — used to respond to a statement that is thought to be surprising or unlikely ▪ "He looks much younger, but he's actually almost 60 years old." "Is that a fact?" [=I am surprised he is 60 years old] ▪ "A lot of people agree with me." "Is that a fact?" [=I doubt that a lot of people agree with you] the fact is/remains — used to stress that a statement is true and that its truth is not affected or changed by a previous statement ▪ He may not have meant it, but the fact remains that he committed a crime. ▪ The company has struggled recently, but the fact is that they are still making a profit.
the fact of the matter see [1]MATTER fact– nding adj, always used before a noun : done or created in order to learn the facts that relate to a particular situation or event ▪ a fact-finding mission ▪ a fact-finding panel fac•tion /ˈfækʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count] : a group within a larger group that has different ideas and opinions than the rest of the group ▪ The committee soon split into factions. ▪ warring factions

– fac•tion•al /ˈfækʃənl/ adj ▪ factional strife/violence/maneuvering – fac•tion•al•ism /ˈfækʃənəˌlɪzəm/ noun [noncount] ▪ a political party split by factionalism and infighting fact of life noun, pl facts of life

1 [count] : something that exists and that cannot be changed or ignored ▪ For new parents, lack of sleep is just a fact of life.
2 the facts of life : the facts about sex that are told to children ▪ He explained the facts of life to his son.

fac•toid /ˈfækˌtoɪd/ noun, pl -toids [count] : a brief and usually unimportant fact ▪ The book is really just a collection of interesting factoids.

[1]fac•tor /ˈfæktə/ noun, pl -tors [count]
1 : something that helps produce or influence a result : one of the things that cause something to happen ▪ There were several factors contributing to their recent decline. ▪ Poor planning was a major factor in the company's failure. ▪ Cost was the decisive/deciding/determining factor in their decision. [=the most important reason for their decision]
2 a mathematics : a number that evenly divides a larger number ▪ 6, 4, 3, and 2 are factors of 12. b : an amount by which another amount is multiplied or divided ▪ Costs increased/decreased by a factor of 10. [=costs were 10 times higher/lower than they had been]
– see also RH FACTOR, RISK FACTOR

[2]factor verb -tors; -tored; -tor•ing [+ obj]
1 : to consider or include (something) in making a judgment or calculation — + in or into ▪ In doing our calculations we need to factor in inflation. ▪ We need to factor inflation into our calculations.
2 : to not consider or include (something) in making a judgment or calculation — + out ▪ Even after factoring out inflation, the costs have increased greatly.

fac•to•ry /ˈfæktəri/ noun, pl -ries [count] : a building or group of buildings where products are made ▪ an automobile factory ▪ She got a job in/at the factory. — often used before another noun ▪ factory workers/gates — often used figuratively ▪ The college was well-known as a football factory. [=a school known more for its football teams and players than for its students and teachers] ▪ the Hollywood studios that were the dream factories of the American film industry factory oor noun

the factory oor : the part of a factory where products are made ▪ There's talk on the factory oor [=among the ordinary workers in the factory] about a possible strike.

fac•to•tum /fækˈtoʊtəm/ noun, pl -tums [count] formal : a person whose job involves doing many different types of work ▪ He was the office factotum.

fac•tu•al /ˈfækʧəwəl/ adj
1 [more ~; most ~] : limited to, involving, or based on facts ▪ factual knowledge/information ▪ She tried to separate what is factual [=true, real] from what is not. ▪ That statement is not factual. ▪ a report filled with factual errors
2 : of or relating to facts ▪ the factual aspects of the case – fac•tu•al•ly adv ▪ a factually incorrect statement

fac•ul•ty /ˈfækəlti/ noun, pl -ties
1 a [noncount] : the group of teachers in a school or college ▪ She's a member of the Harvard faculty. — often used before another noun ▪ faculty members ▪ a faculty meeting b faculty [plural] US : faculty members or teachers ▪ The school hired more faculty. ▪ a meeting with students and faculty
2 a [count] : one of the powers of your mind or body ▪ the faculty of hearing/speech ▪ It was sad to see that his mental faculties [=his ability to think clearly] had begun to fail. ▪ She needs to learn to develop her critical faculties. [=her ability to make judgments about what is good or true] b [singular] : a natural talent for doing something ▪ She has a faculty for making friends.
3 [count] : a department in a college or university ▪ The Faculty of Arts and Sciences ▪ the Faculty of Law fad /ˈfæd/ noun, pl fads [count] : something (such as an interest or fashion) that is very popular for a short time ▪ She's always interested in the latest fads. ▪ a fad diet – fad•dish /ˈfædɪʃ/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ a faddish psychological treatment

fad•dist /ˈfædɪst/ noun, pl -dists [count] : a person who becomes very interested or enthusiastic about different things for a short time : a person who becomes involved in fads ▪ a food faddist [=someone who becomes very enthusiastic about different types of food as they become popular]

[1]fade /ˈfeɪd/ verb fades; fad•ed; fad•ing
1 [no obj] a : to lose strength or freshness ▪ The flowers were fading in the vase. : to become weaker ▪ the fading light of late afternoon ▪ She was fading fast from the effects of the pneumonia. ▪ Her hearing gradually faded (away) as she grew older. ▪ His voice faded off into a whisper. = His voice faded to a whisper. b : to disappear gradually ▪ We watched the ship gradually fade from view as it sailed away. ▪ The smile faded from his face. ▪ Hopes for a quick end of the crisis are fading fast. ▪ Their reasons for leaving have faded from memory. ▪ He's trying to recapture the faded glory of his youth. ▪ The band's popularity has faded in recent years.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 4 SESS: 63 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:33:08 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−f

2 : to become less bright : to lose color [no obj] The fabric will fade unless you protect it from the sunlight. ▪ The colors of the photograph have faded with time. [+ obj] Exposure to the elements has faded the car's finish. ▪ blue jeans faded by wear ▪ She was wearing faded blue jeans.

3 [no obj] : to change gradually in loudness, strength, or appearance — used to describe a radio signal, a picture in a movie, etc. ▪ As the hero rides into the sunset, the screen fades to black. [=the image gradually changes until the screen is completely black] — often + in or out ▪ One scene fades out as the next fades in. ▪ The radio signal faded out as we got further from the station. ▪ The sound of her voice gradually faded out.

[2]fade noun, pl fades [count] : a gradual change from one picture to another in a movie or television program ▪ The movie ends with a fade to black.

fade–in /ˈfeɪdˌɪn/ noun, pl -ins [count] : the gradual appearance of an image at the beginning of a scene in a movie or television program ▪ The film begins with a fade-in of a girl's head on a pillow.

fade–out /ˈfeɪdˌaʊt/ noun, pl -outs [count] : the gradual disappearance of an image at the end of a scene in a movie or television program ▪ The movie ends with a slow fade-out to a black screen.

fae•ces chiefly Brit spelling of FECES

[1]fag /ˈfæg/ noun, pl fags [count] US, informal + offensive : a homosexual man — compare [2]FAG

[2]fag noun, pl fags [count] Brit, informal : CIGARETTE — compare [1]FAG

fag end noun, pl ~ ends [count] Brit, informal : the last and usually least appealing or interesting part of something ▪ He came in right at the fag end [=tail end] of the meeting.

fagged /ˈfægd/ adj [more ~; most ~] Brit, informal : very tired ▪ He was too fagged [=exhausted] even to eat.

fag•got /ˈfægət/ noun, pl -gots [count] US, informal + offensive : a homosexual man

fah chiefly Brit spelling of FA

Fahr•en•heit /ˈferənˌhaɪt/ adj : relating to or having a scale for measuring temperature on which the boiling point of water is at 212 degrees above zero and the freezing point is at 32 degrees above zero ▪ the Fahrenheit scale ▪ It was 70 degrees Fahrenheit outside. — abbr. F; compare CELSIUS

[1]fail /ˈfeɪl/ verb fails; failed; fail•ing

1 a : to not succeed : to end without success [no obj] He failed in his first attempt but succeeded in his second attempt. ▪ The rebellion failed completely. ▪ an experiment that failed = a failed experiment ▪ a marriage that is failing = a failing marriage ▪ The drought caused the crops to fail. [=the crops did not grow successfully because of the drought] ▪ He only bothers to read the directions if/when all else fails. [=if/when everything else he has attempted has failed] [+ obj] — followed by to + verb ▪ She failed to finish the race. ▪ He failed to achieve all that he hoped to achieve. b [no obj] : to not succeed as a business : to become bankrupt ▪ His first company failed, but his second company succeeded. ▪ The bank failed. ▪ a failed bank

2 a [+ obj] : to not do (something that you should do or are expected to do) — followed by to + verb ▪ He failed to act on the advice of his staff. [=he should have acted on their advice but he didn't] ▪ He failed to mention his new girlfriend when he spoke to his parents. b : to not do something [+ obj] — followed by to + verb ▪ I turned on the switch but the light failed to go on. ▪ It never fails to surprise me that people can be so gullible. [=I am always surprised that people can be so gullible] ▪ Her public appearances rarely fail to attract huge crowds. [=her public appearances almost always attract huge crowds] ▪ It never fails to rain [=it always rains] when I plan to take a day off. ▪ I fail to see/understand [=I don't see/understand] why we need to change the current system. [=I don't think we need to change it] [no obj] It never fails: I plan to take a day off, and it rains. [=whenever I plan to take a day off, it rains]

3 [+ obj] : to not do or provide something that is needed by (someone) ▪ He felt that he had failed her when she needed him most. ▪ The government has failed the voters. ▪ In the face of continued threats, his courage failed him. [=he lost courage, he became afraid] ▪ He wanted to express his appreciation for all they had done, but words failed him. [=he did not know what to say]

4 a : to be unsuccessful in passing (an examination, a course of study, etc.) [+ obj] He failed the test/exam. ▪ He failed chemistry. [no obj] He failed in chemistry. ▪ Failing students must repeat the course. b [+ obj] : to decide that (someone) has not passed an examination or course of study ▪ The teacher failed several students. ▪ He received a failing grade/mark in chemistry. [=his teacher gave him a grade/mark that showed he failed chemistry]

5 [no obj] a : to stop working ▪ The power failed. ▪ The plane's engine failed, forcing an emergency landing. ▪ His kidneys failed. b : to lose strength : to become weak or weaker ▪ Her health/eyesight is starting to fail. ▪ Her children are concerned about her failing health/eyesight.

[2]fail noun

without fail 1 — used to stress that something always happens ▪ Every day, without fail, he has toast and coffee for breakfast. 2 — used to stress that something will definitely happen ▪ She promised that she would be there without fail. [=she would definitely be there]

[1]fail•ing /ˈfeɪlɪŋ/ noun, pl -ings [count] : a weakness or problem in a person's character, behavior, or ability ▪ He has some minor failings.

[2]failing prep, formal : in the absence of (something) : WITHOUT ▪ Failing progress in the peace process, war seems likely. ▪ We could try to persuade them by arguing or, failing that [=if that does not happen or succeed], we could threaten to cancel the deal.

fail–safe /ˈfeɪlˌseɪf/ adj [more ~; most ~] : certain not to fail ▪ Of course, no system is entirely fail-safe. ▪ He was looking for a fail-safe source of money. ▪ a fail-safe device/mechanism [=a device/mechanism that will not break]

fail•ure /ˈfeɪljɚ/ noun, pl -ures

1 : the act or result of failing: such as a : a lack of success in some effort [count] He became discouraged by his repeated failures in business. [noncount] He was often crippled by his fear of failure. ▪ He was trying to rescue the business from failure. [=bankruptcy] — opposite SUCCESS b : a situation or occurrence in which something does not work as it should [count] The storm caused power failures [=outages] in many parts of the city. ▪ a failure [=lapse] of memory [noncount] The accident was caused by engine failure. ▪ The patient was suffering from heart/kidney failure. c : an occurrence in which someone does not do something that should be done — followed by to + verb [count] The accident was caused by a failure to use proper procedures. [noncount] She was criticized for failure to follow directions. d : an occurrence in which crops do not grow and produce food in the normal way [noncount] The drought caused crop failure. [count] a serious crop failure

2 [count] : a person or thing that has failed ▪ He felt like a failure when he wasn't accepted into law school. ▪ The scheme was a complete failure. — opposite SUCCESS

[1]faint /ˈfeɪnt/ adj faint•er; -est

1 : not clearly seen, heard, tasted, felt, etc. ▪ We heard a faint noise. ▪ a faint smell/odor/aroma ▪ the faint glow of a distant light ▪ There was a faint smile on her lips. ▪ a faint [=weak] radio signal

2 : very slight or small ▪ There's just a faint chance/possibility that the weather will improve by tomorrow. ▪ a faint hope ▪ a faint reminder of their former greatness ▪ He didn't have the faintest idea/notion what she was talking about. [=he did not know what she was talking about] ▪ She showed not the faintest interest in him. [=she showed no interest at all in him]

3 not used before a noun : weak and dizzy ▪ I'd better lie down; I feel faint. ▪ She felt faint from/with hunger.

damn with faint praise see [2]DAMN

faint of heart : lacking the courage to face something difficult or dangerous — usually used in the phrase not for the faint of heart ▪ This is a difficult climb that is not for the faint of heart. — see also FAINTHEARTED

– faint•ly adv ▪ He was smiling faintly. ▪ The room still smelled faintly of perfume. ▪ She looked faintly [=somewhat, slightly] familiar. ▪ He was faintly [=barely] aware of her presence. – faint•ness noun [noncount] ▪ the faintness of distant stars

[2]faint verb faints; faint•ed; faint•ing [no obj] : to suddenly become unconscious ▪ He always faints at the sight of blood. ▪ She almost fainted from the pain. ▪ She suffers from fainting spells.

faint•heart•ed /ˈfeɪntˈhɑɚtəd/ adj [more ~; most ~] : feeling or showing a lack of courage ▪ fainthearted people ▪ She gave him a fainthearted response. — usually used in the phrase not for the fainthearted ▪ a dangerous job that is not for the fainthearted ▪ a frightening movie that is not for the

F

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 5 SESS: 63 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:33:08 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-f

F

fainthearted — see also faint of heart at [1]FAINT
– faint•heart•ed•ly adv

[1]fair /ˈfeɚ/ adj fair•er; -est
1 : agreeing with what is thought to be right or acceptable ▪ We received fair treatment. ▪ fair elections ▪ a fair fight ▪ a fair bargain/deal/trade ▪ I'm just trying to get a fair price for the house. [=I'm not trying to get more money for the house than most people think is right] ▪ That's a fair question, and it deserves an honest reply. ▪ The workers claim that they are not being paid fair wages. [=they are being paid less than they should be paid] ▪ It's only fair [=it is the right thing] to tell him the truth. ▪ I washed the dishes yesterday, so it's only fair (that) you to do them today. ▪ He gets his fair share of attention too. [=he gets a reasonable amount of attention] ▪ She's had more than her fair share of trouble. [=she has had a lot of trouble]
2 : treating people in a way that does not favor some over others ▪ He is known as a very fair man. ▪ I try to be fair to/with my children. ▪ He claims that the competition wasn't fair. ▪ It's not fair that she gets to leave early and I don't. ▪ Sometimes life isn't fair. ▪ a fair and impartial jury ▪ a bargain/deal/trade that is fair to/for everyone ▪ All she wants is a fair chance. [=the same chance everyone else gets]
3 : not too harsh or critical ▪ "What a bad movie!" "Be fair! Parts of it are actually pretty funny." ▪ I can't say I liked the movie, but, to be fair, parts of it are pretty funny. ▪ She did poorly on the test, but, to be fair, so did a lot of other people.
4 a : not very good or very bad : of average or acceptable quality ▪ Her work has been fair to good. ▪ The quality of her work has been only fair. ▪ I think our waiter did a fair job. ▪ The patient has been upgraded from serious to fair condition. ▪ The food was fair to middling. [=just average; not especially good] b approving : reasonably good : good although usually not excellent ▪ The team has a fair [=pretty good] chance of winning the championship this year. ▪ He does a pretty fair [=good] imitation of the President. ▪ He was able to give us a fair idea of the problems involved. ▪ It's a fair bet that the weather will improve soon. ▪ "I'm guessing that he's about 50 years old." "That's a fair guess, but he's actually almost 60." c always used before a noun : reasonably large — used to describe an amount or size that is not small although it is also not extremely large ▪ There were a fair number of new participants at the convention. ▪ Researchers now know a fair amount about the earliest humans. ▪ He lives a fair distance from here.
5 : not stormy or cloudy ▪ fair skies ▪ fair weather
6 of a person's hair, skin, etc. : having a light color ▪ fair hair/skin ▪ a person of fair complexion ▪ a fair-skinned person — opposite DARK
7 literary + old-fashioned : attractive or pleasing to look at ▪ We're happy to welcome you to our fair [=lovely] city. ▪ a fair maid/maiden ▪ Who's the fairest of them all?
8 baseball : in the area between the foul lines ▪ The ball was caught in fair territory. ✧ A fair ball is a batted ball that lands in the area between the foul lines. — compare FOUL a fair bit see [1]BIT
a fair shake see [2]SHAKE all's fair in love and war — used to describe a situation in which people do not follow the usual rules of behavior and do things that are normally considered unfair ▪ Sure, it was underhanded to steal his customers, but all's fair in love and war.
bid fair see [1]BID fair and square : in an honest and fair manner ▪ He won the election fair and square.
fair crack of the whip see [2]CRACK fair enough informal — used to say that something is reasonable or fair ▪ "I'll wash the dishes today, and you can wash them tomorrow." "Fair enough." ▪ "He needs more time." "Fair enough, but we can't wait too much longer."
fair's fair informal — used to say that something was done or should be done because it is fair ▪ Fair's fair: I washed the dishes yesterday, so it's your turn to do them today.
fair to say ✧ A comment that is fair to say is reasonable and is not expected to cause argument. ▪ The key concept in this book, I think it is fair to say, is freedom. ▪ She's not entirely to blame, but it's (only) fair to say that she handled the situation badly.
fair warning : enough warning to be able to avoid something bad ▪ I'm giving you fair warning that you had better not discuss politics at dinner tonight.
it's a fair cop see [1]COP
– fair adv ▪ He claims that his opponent wasn't playing fair. [=wasn't playing according to the rules] – fair•ness noun [noncount] ▪ She questioned the fairness of the decision. ▪ In the interest of fairness, let's not mention any names. ▪ She did poorly, but in all fairness [=to be fair to her], she was tired.

[2]fair noun, pl fairs [count]
1 : a large public event at which there are various kinds of competitions, games, rides, and entertainment; especially, US : such an event at which farm products and farm animals are shown and judged ▪ She showed her horse at the annual county/state fair.
2 : an event at which many people gather to buy things or to get information about a product or activity ▪ a book fair ▪ a craft fair ▪ a job fair [=an event where employers offer information about their companies to people who are looking for jobs]
3 : an event at which different things (such as crafts or food) are sold usually for charity ▪ The church is having a fair to raise money for the new school.

fair game noun [noncount] : someone or something that can be chased, attacked, or criticized ▪ Celebrities are fair game for the tabloids. ▪ The tourists were fair game for the pickpockets. ▪ Even her retirement savings were fair game for her creditors.

fair•ground /ˈfeɚˌgraʊnd/ noun, pl -grounds [count] : an outdoor area where fairs, circuses, and exhibitions are held fair–haired /ˈfeɚˈheɚd/ adj

1 : having light or blond hair ▪ a fair-haired child
2 chiefly US : especially well-liked or admired — usually used in the phrase fair-haired boy ▪ an athlete who was once the fans' fair-haired boy

fair•ly /ˈfeɚli/ adv [more ~; most ~]
1 : to some degree or extent but not very or extremely : to a reasonable or moderate extent ▪ a fairly easy job ▪ It's still fairly early. ▪ a fairly simple procedure ▪ It's a fairly common disease.
2 : in a way that is right or proper : in a fair way ▪ She treats everyone fairly. ▪ I told the story as fairly as possible. ▪ He reports fairly on the issues. ▪ He beat me fairly and squarely.
3 — used for emphasis before a verb that is being used figuratively ▪ The situation fairly screamed for someone to intervene.
4 literary + old-fashioned : in a favorable or pleasing way ▪ a town fairly situated on a hill fair–mind•ed /ˈfeɚˌmaɪndəd/ adj [more ~; most ~] : having or showing an honest and fair way of thinking ▪ a fair-minded man ▪ fair-minded reporting – fair–mind•ed•ness noun [noncount]

fair play noun [noncount] : a way of behaving or of treating other people that is honest and fair ▪ The court's decision goes against my sense of fair play. [=the court's decision does not seem fair to me] — see also turnabout is fair play at TURNABOUT fair sex noun

the fair sex also the fairer sex old-fashioned — used to refer to all women as a group ▪ a member of the fair sex

fair•way /ˈfeɚˌweɪ/ noun, pl -ways [count] : the part of a golf course that has short grass and that lies between a tee and a green ▪ Her shot landed at the left side of the fairway. — compare ROUGH fair–weath•er /ˈfeɚˌweðɚ/ adj, always used before a noun, disapproving : loyal or helpful only during times of success and happiness ▪ They are fair-weather friends. [=they are friends when you are successful but not when you fail] ▪ fair-weather fans fairy /ˈferi/ noun, pl fair•ies [count]

1 in stories : a creature that looks like a very small human being, has magic powers, and sometimes has wings ▪ a good fairy ▪ a fairy princess — see also TOOTH FAIRY
2 informal + offensive : a homosexual man – fairy•like /ˈferiˌlaɪk/ adj

fairy cake noun, pl ~ cakes [count] Brit : CUPCAKE fairy godmother noun, pl ~ -thers [count] in stories : a woman with magic powers who saves a person from trouble fairy•land /ˈferiˌlænd/ noun, pl -lands [count]

1 in stories : a place where fairies live
2 : a beautiful or magical place ▪ a winter fairyland of snow-covered trees

fairy tale noun, pl ~ tales [count]
1 : a simple children's story about magical creatures ▪ the fairy tale about the sleeping princess — sometimes used figuratively ▪ Their marriage is a real-life fairy tale. [=they have a

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 6 SESS: 15 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:33:09 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−f

very happy marriage] ▪ a fairy-tale romance — called also fairy story 2 : a false story that is meant to trick people ▪ Everything he told us about his happy marriage was just a fairy tale.

fait ac•com•pli /ˈfeɪtəˌkɑːmˈpliː/ noun, pl faits ac•com•plis /ˈfeɪtəˌkɑːmˈpliː/ [count] formal : something that has been done and cannot be changed ▪ By the time we learned about the decision, it was already a fait accompli.

faith /ˈfeɪθ/ noun, pl faiths
1 [noncount] : strong belief or trust in someone or something ▪ His supporters have accepted his claims with blind/unquestioning faith. ▪ Our faith in the government has been badly shaken by the recent scandals. ▪ His parents have always had faith in him. = His parents have never lost faith in him. [=his parents have always believed that he is a person who deserves to be trusted and who will succeed] ▪ I have no faith in politicians. = I put/have little faith in politicians. [=I do not trust politicians] ▪ Lending him the money to start his own business was an act of faith. ▪ It requires a giant leap of faith for us to believe that she is telling the truth. — see also BAD FAITH, GOOD FAITH
2 a [noncount] : belief in the existence of God : strong religious feelings or beliefs ▪ religious faith ▪ Nothing is more important to her than her faith in God. ▪ She says that her faith has given her the courage to deal with this tragedy. ▪ He says he has found faith. [=he has begun to believe in God or has developed strong religious beliefs] b [count] : a system of religious beliefs : RELIGION ▪ people of all faiths ▪ the Christian/Jewish/Muslim faith accept/take (something) on faith : to accept (something) as true without proof or evidence that it is true ▪ I'm not willing to take her statements on faith. ▪ I'll accept it on faith that he knows the truth.
an article of faith : something that is believed without being questioned or doubted ▪ For many it is an article of faith that the economy will begin to improve soon.
break faith with : to stop supporting or being loyal to (someone) : to betray (someone) ▪ He has accused the government of breaking faith with its supporters.
keep faith with : to continue supporting or being loyal to (someone) ▪ He has kept faith with his old political allies.
keep the faith : to continue to believe in, trust, or support someone or something when it is difficult to do so ▪ The team has been playing poorly, but its devoted fans have kept the faith. [=they have continued to support the team]

faith•ful /ˈfeɪθfəl/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : having or showing true and constant support or loyalty ▪ a faithful friend/companion ▪ faithful friendship ▪ the team's faithful fans ▪ a faithful dog — often + to ▪ Despite his problems, his friends have remained faithful to him. ▪ She has always remained faithful to the values she learned as a child.
2 : deserving trust : keeping your promises or doing what you are supposed to do ▪ a faithful worker/servant ▪ She has provided the company with many years of faithful service. — often + to ▪ He began to keep a journal and was faithful to it for years. [=he continued to write in his journal for many years] ▪ He was not faithful to his word. [=he did not do what he said he would]
3 : not having sex with someone who is not your wife, husband, girlfriend, or boyfriend ▪ a faithful husband/wife ▪ He insists that he has always been faithful to his wife.
4 : exact and accurate ▪ The movie was a faithful adaptation of the book. ▪ a faithful copy — often + to ▪ The movie is faithful to the book. [=the story told in the movie closely matches the story told in the book]
the faithful 1 : the people who believe or participate in a religion ▪ The faithful gather here each year to celebrate together. 2 : the people who are loyal members or supporters of a group or organization ▪ The faithful come out and cheer for the team every year. ▪ The convention was packed with the Republican/Democratic faithful.
– faith•ful•ly /ˈfeɪθfəli/ adv ▪ My friends have supported me faithfully. ▪ He faithfully submitted all the proper forms. ▪ The model faithfully [=accurately] reproduces the original building. – faith•ful•ness noun [noncount] faith healing noun [noncount] : a way of treating diseases by using prayer and religious faith – faith healer noun, pl ~ -ers [count] faith•less /ˈfeɪθləs/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not able to be trusted ▪ a faithless friend/employee/servant

– faith•less•ly adv – faith•less•ness noun [noncount]

fa•ji•ta /fəˈhiːtə/ noun, pl -tas [count] : a Mexican food that consists of cooked strips of meat served with a flour tortilla and fillings (such as tomatoes, onions, and peppers) — usually plural ▪ steak fajitas

[1]fake /ˈfeɪk/ adj : not true or real ▪ fake emotions ▪ She's a fake friend. : meant to look real or genuine but not real or genuine ▪ That blood is clearly fake. ▪ fake fur/leather ▪ He was wearing a fake mustache.

[2]fake noun, pl fakes [count]
1 : a copy of something that is meant to look like the real thing in order to trick people ▪ Experts says that the antique/painting/signature is a fake.
2 : a person who pretends to have some special knowledge or ability or pretends to be someone else ▪ He told everyone he was a lawyer, but he was just a fake.
3 US, sports : a movement (such as a pretended kick, pass, or step) that is meant to trick an opponent ▪ The runner made a fake to the left and then cut to the right.

[3]fake verb fakes; faked fak•ing
1 [+ obj] a : to make (something) seem real or true in order to trick someone ▪ He faked a heart attack. ▪ fake an emotion ▪ She faked her own death. [=she tricked people into thinking that she had died] b : to change (something) in order to trick people ▪ He faked the test results. c : to make a copy of (something) in order to trick people ▪ She faked her father's signature. ▪ He faked a rare first edition.
2 US, sports a [+ obj] : to pretend to do (something) in order to trick an opponent ▪ The quarterback faked a handoff and then threw a pass downfield. b [+ obj] : to trick (an opponent) by pretending to do something ▪ The runner faked the defender by stepping to his left and then cutting to the right. — often + out ▪ He faked out the defender. c [no obj] : to make a false movement in order to deceive an opponent ▪ The runner faked left and then cut to the right.
3 [+ obj] : to pretend to know or to be able to do (something) ▪ He didn't know the words to the song, so he had to fake them.
fake it informal : to pretend to be something that you are not or to have some knowledge or ability that you do not really have ▪ He acts like he's my friend, but I can tell that he's just faking it. ▪ He didn't know the words to the song, so he had to fake it.
fake out [phrasal verb] fake (someone) out or fake out (someone) chiefly US, informal : to deliberately deceive (someone) : FOOL ▪ Don't believe him when he says he'll help you. He's just trying to fake you out. — see also [3]FAKE 2b (above) – fak•er noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ You're not hurt, you faker.

fal•con /ˈfælkən, ˈfɑːlkən/ noun, pl -cons [count] : a type of hawk that can fly very fast and is sometimes trained to hunt

fal•con•er /ˈfælkənɚ, ˈfɑːlkənɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a person who hunts with hawks or trains hawks for hunting fal•con•ry /ˈfæːlkənri, ˈfɑːlkənri/ noun [noncount] : the sport of hunting with hawks

[1]fall /ˈfɑːl/ verb falls; fell /ˈfɛl/; fall•en /ˈfɑːlən/; fall•ing [no obj]
1 a : to come or go down quickly from a high place or position ▪ An apple fell from the tree. ▪ A vase fell off the shelf. ▪ Rain fell from the sky. ▪ the sound of the falling rain b : to come or go down suddenly from a standing position ▪ She slipped and fell on the ice. ▪ He fell flat on his face. ▪ She was afraid that I would trip and fall. ▪ He fell down the stairs. ▪ One of the sailors had fallen overboard. ▪ a fallen tree — often + down or over ▪ She fell down and hurt herself. ▪ The tree fell over during the storm. c : to let yourself come or go down to a lower position ▪ He fell [=dropped, sank] to his knees and asked for forgiveness. ▪ He fell back/forward onto the bed.
2 a : to come down at a particular place after moving through the air ▪ The shot fell a great distance from its target. — often + on ▪ A ray of light fell on the table. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ music falling on the ear b : to slope downward — usually + away ▪ The ground falls away to the east. ▪ The sides of the ridge fall away steeply. c : to hang down ▪ Her hair fell loosely over her shoulders.
3 a : to become lower ▪ The tide rose and fell. ▪ The temperature fell after dark. ▪ His heart rate fell (off) dramatically. ▪ The value of the stock has fallen drastically. b : to become less ▪ Participation in the group has fallen. [=declined] — often + off ▪ Participation in the group has fallen off. ▪ Factory production has fallen off. c : to lose value : to suffer a decline in prices ▪ Stocks fell several points in early trading today. ▪ The market is continuing to fall. d : to become less

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 7 SESS: 15 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:33:09 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-f

loud ▪ His voice fell (to a whisper). ▪ The music rose and fell.
4 a of a glance or the eyes : to become lowered ▪ Her eyes fell. [=she looked down] b of the face : to begin to look ashamed or disappointed ▪ His face fell [=he looked disappointed] when he heard the news.
5 of night or darkness : to arrive or begin ▪ Darkness falls early in the winter. ▪ Night has fallen.
6 a : to be wounded or killed in battle ▪ Many men fell on the battlefield that day. b : to be captured or defeated ▪ The fortress fell on the third day of the siege. c : to experience ruin or failure ▪ A great civilization fell in less than a century. ▪ a fallen [=disgraced] leader ▪ We will stand or fall together. ▪ a politician who has fallen from power ▪ The coalition government fell after only six months in office.
7 a : to happen at a specified time ▪ Christmas falls on a Friday this year. ▪ The worst weather of the year fell during his vacation. b — used when something (such as a responsibility) comes or passes to someone in a way that does not involve choice ▪ It fell to me [=it was my responsibility] to tell them about the car accident. ▪ Responsibility for the damage falls with the other driver. ▪ The estate fell to his brother. [=his brother inherited the estate] c : to have a specified proper place ▪ The accent falls on the second syllable. ▪ The comma falls inside the quotation mark.
8 : to belong in a particular category or range ▪ This word falls within the class of verbs. ▪ Her political views fall somewhere between liberal and conservative. ▪ His creative output falls into three distinct categories.
9 a — used when someone's body or mind passes from one condition or state to another ▪ She fell ill/sick. ▪ He fell asleep. b — used when something passes to a different and usually a less active or less desirable state or condition ▪ The crowd fell silent. ▪ This word has fallen [=gone] out of use. = This word has fallen into disuse. [=this word is no longer used] ▪ His theories have now fallen into disrepute/disfavor. ▪ The machinery has fallen into disrepair.
10 : to start doing something in a very active and energetic way — + to ▪ She came in and fell immediately to work.
(as) easy as falling off a log see [1]EASY fall afoul of see AFOUL OF fall (all) over yourself : to be very eager or too eager ▪ Fans were falling over themselves trying to meet the basketball star. ▪ Reviewers are falling all over themselves to praise her latest novel.
fall apart [phrasal verb] 1 : to break into parts in usually a sudden and unexpected way ▪ The pie was falling apart as I tried to serve it. — often used figuratively ▪ I feel as if my family is falling apart. ✧ Something that is falling apart is in very bad condition. ▪ My old car is falling apart. ▪ The house was falling apart when we bought it. 2 : to become unable to live in a normal way because you are experiencing a lot of confusion or emotional pain ▪ She began to fall apart when her son was imprisoned.
fall away [phrasal verb] : to become gradually less : to disappear gradually ▪ The sound of the parade fell away in the distance.
fall back [phrasal verb] 1 : to move back away from something dangerous or threatening : RETREAT ▪ The crowd fell back when the police arrived. ▪ The guerrillas fell back across the border after a brief battle with the army. 2 *fall back on (something) also fall back upon (something) : to use (something) for help or protection when you are in a bad situation ▪ When her health insurance was canceled she had nothing to fall back on. ▪ They had to fall back on their emergency supplies when the snow storm blocked the road to town.
fall behind [phrasal verb] 1 : to fail to move or go forward as quickly as others ▪ We had to stop several times so that the slower hikers wouldn't fall (too far) behind. 2 : to fail to do something as quickly as planned or required — often + with ▪ We've been falling further behind with our work. — often + on ▪ I am falling behind on my homework. ▪ We fell behind on our car payments.
fall down on the job : to do a job badly ▪ The people who are supposed to be keeping the city clean have been falling down on the job.
fall flat : to produce no response or result ▪ All of his jokes fell flat. [=no one laughed at his jokes] fall for [phrasal verb] 1 *fall for (someone) : to feel a strong attraction for (someone) : to fall in love with (someone) ▪ He fell for her the moment he saw her. ▪ He fell for her hard. = He fell hard for her. = He fell for her like a ton of bricks. [=he became deeply in love with her] 2 *fall for (something) : to be fooled by (something, such as a trick) ▪ I can't believe you fell for that old trick.
fall foul of see [1]FOUL fall from grace see [1]GRACE
fall in [phrasal verb] 1 : to break apart and fall down in an inward direction ▪ The roof fell in. 2 : to take your place in a military formation ▪ The troops were ordered to fall in. — compare FALL OUT (below) fall in/into line : to start to do what you are told or required to do ▪ Several of the older companies have refused to fall in line (with the new regulations). ▪ It was weeks before the new prisoner fell into line.
fall in love, fall out of love see [1]LOVE fall into [phrasal verb] 1 : to be caught in (a trap) ▪ We fell into a trap. 2 : to begin to do or experience (something) or to be affected by (something) without wanting or trying to ▪ He fell deeply into debt. ▪ She fell into her career almost accidentally. ▪ She fell into the habit of going out for ice cream every night.
fall into place : to fit together : to make sense ▪ The pieces of the puzzle/mystery are finally starting to fall into place.
fall into step see [1]STEP fall into the hands of : to come to be held or possessed by (someone) ▪ Officials are concerned that the stolen weapons may fall into the hands of terrorists. [=that terrorists may get/obtain the stolen weapons] fall into the wrong hands : to come to be held or possessed by the wrong person or group ▪ There could be a disaster if the weapons fell into the wrong hands.
fall into your lap see [1]LAP fall in with [phrasal verb] 1 *fall in with (someone) : to begin to spend time with (someone) ▪ Their daughter fell in with a bad crowd. 2 *fall in with (something) : to accept and act in agreement with (something) ▪ They readily fell in with our plans.
fall off [phrasal verb] : to stop being attached to something ▪ The handle was so loose that it almost fell off. — see also [1]FALL 3b (above) fall on/upon [phrasal verb] 1 fall on/upon (something) a : to begin to experience (something) : to meet with (an experience) ▪ We fell on hard times after I lost my job. ▪ The company fell upon some unexpected competition. b : to notice (something) especially without wanting or trying to ▪ Her eyes/glance fell on the letter on his desk. 2 *fall on/upon (someone) : to attack (someone) suddenly ▪ They fell on the enemy soldiers and killed every one of them.
fall on deaf ears see [1]EAR fall on your feet see [1]FOOT fall out [phrasal verb] 1 of a tooth or hair : to stop being attached to the body ▪ The cancer treatments made her hair fall out. 2 : to have an argument ▪ They fell out [=fought, argued] over money. ▪ He had fallen out [=quarreled] with his neighbor. — see also FALLING-OUT 3 : to leave your place in a military formation ▪ The soldiers were ordered to fall out. — compare FALL IN (above) fall over backward see [1]BACKWARD fall prey to see [1]PREY fall short 1 : to fail to be as good or successful as expected or hoped for ▪ In comparison to her previous novel, this one falls short. [=this one is not as good] — often + of ▪ Her current book falls short of her previous novel. ▪ The cruise fell short of our expectations. [=the cruise was not as good as we expected it to be] 2 : to fail to reach a goal ▪ Their efforts fell short. — often + of ▪ Their efforts fell (far) short of (achieving) their goal.
fall through [phrasal verb] : to fail or stop in a sudden or final way ▪ Contract negotiations have fallen through. ▪ Our vacation plans have fallen through.
fall through/between the cracks see [2]CRACK fall through the net see [1]NET fall to pieces see [1]PIECE fall under [phrasal verb] fall under (something) : to be influenced or affected by (something) ▪ He fell under her influence. ▪ fall under a spell ▪ He has fallen under suspicion. [=people have begun to suspect him of doing something] fall victim to see VICTIM let the chips fall where they may see [1]CHIP

[2]fall noun, pl falls
1 [count] : the act of falling: such as a : the act of coming or going down from a high position or from a standing position ▪ a fall from a horse ▪ She's had/suffered several bad falls in recent years. ▪ a fall of three feet ▪ He slipped on the ice and hurt his hand when he tried to break his fall. [=to stop him-

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 8 SESS: 15 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:33:10 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−f

self from falling] b : the act of becoming lower ▪ the rise and fall of the tide
2 US : the season between summer and winter : the season when leaves fall from trees : AUTUMN [count] She went off to college in the fall. ▪ an unusually warm fall [noncount] in early/late fall ▪ Several weeks of fall remain before winter begins. ▪ When fall came he planted grass. — often used before another noun ▪ our fall catalog ▪ a new fall coat ▪ fall colors/foliage ▪ the fall harvest
3 [count] : a decrease in the size, amount, degree, activity, or value of something ▪ a fall in the price of oil
4 a [singular] : loss of power or greatness ▪ the rise and fall [=collapse] of an empire b [singular] : the surrender or capture of a place that is being attacked ▪ the fall of Troy ▪ The fall of the fort caused the local civilians to flee. c [singular] : loss of innocence or goodness ▪ a fall from virtue d the Fall : the event in the Bible when Adam and Eve are forced to leave the Garden of Eden because they have sinned against God ▪ after the Fall
5 [count] : an area on a river or stream where water runs steeply downward — usually plural ▪ Bears hunted for fish in the rocky falls. [=waterfall] ▪ Niagara Falls be riding for a fall see [1]RIDE
fall from grace see [1]GRACE
– see also FREE FALL, WINDFALL

fal•la•cious /fə'leɪʃəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : containing a mistake : not true or accurate ▪ a fallacious [=false] set of assumptions ▪ fallacious [=misleading] arguments
– fal•la•cious•ly adv – fal•la•cious•ness noun [noncount]

fal•la•cy /'fæləsi/ noun, pl -cies
1 [count] : a wrong belief : a false or mistaken idea ▪ popular fallacies about medicine ▪ It's a fallacy (to believe) that the Earth is flat.
2 [noncount] : the quality of being false or wrong ▪ The fallacy of their ideas about medicine soon became apparent.

fall guy noun, pl ~ guys [count] informal : a person who is blamed for something done by others : SCAPEGOAT ▪ His lawyers will argue that he was set up as a/the fall guy for crimes he had no part in.

fal•li•ble /'fæləbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : capable of making mistakes or being wrong ▪ fallible human beings — opposite INFALLIBLE
– fal•li•bil•i•ty /ˌfælə'bɪləti/ noun [noncount] ▪ She acknowledged her fallibility. ▪ scientific fallibility

fall•ing–out /ˌfɑːlɪŋ'aʊt/ noun, pl fall•ings–out [count] : a serious argument or disagreement ▪ The two actors barely spoke after their bitter falling-out. ▪ He had a falling-out with his parents over money. — see also fall out at [1]FALL falling star noun, pl ~ stars [count] : METEOR

fall•out /'fɑːlˌaʊt/ noun [noncount]
1 : the radioactive particles that are produced by a nuclear explosion and that fall through the atmosphere ▪ radioactive fallout ▪ a fallout shelter [=a shelter built underground to protect people from radioactive fallout]
2 : a bad effect or result of something ▪ concerned about the possible political fallout from the scandal

fal•low /'fæloʊ/ adj
1 : not used for growing crops : not planted ▪ fallow land/fields ▪ allowing several fields to lie fallow
2 : not active or productive ▪ a writer who has been going through a fallow period [=a period in which he has done no writing] ▪ There were too many promising ideas lying fallow [=not being used] at the company.

false /'fɑːls/ adj
1 : not real or genuine — used to say that something is not really what it seems to be ▪ false documents ▪ false teeth/hair/eyelashes ▪ a trunk with a false bottom
2 : not true or accurate ▪ Indicate whether each of the following statements is true or false.; especially : deliberately untrue : done or said to fool or deceive someone ▪ false testimony ▪ false accusations/statements ▪ a false promise ▪ false advertising ▪ He registered at the hotel under a false name. ▪ The loan was obtained on/under false pretenses. [=by pretending that a certain condition or circumstance was true]
3 : based on mistaken ideas ▪ Your conclusion is based on false [=incorrect] assumptions. ▪ false confidence/pride ▪ false expectations/hopes ▪ The dog gave her a false sense of security. [=made her feel safe when she was not really safe]
4 a : not faithful or loyal ▪ a false friend b : not sincere ▪ false modesty ▪ false sympathy
5 : sudden or deceptive in a threatening way ▪ The police warned him not to make any false moves/movements. [=movements that are not expected and that may be threatening or dangerous]
– false•ly adv ▪ He was falsely accused of stealing. ▪ The suspect stated falsely that she was working that day. – false•ness noun [noncount]

false alarm noun, pl ~ alarms [count]
1 : an alarm (such as a fire alarm) that is set off when it is not needed ▪ A false alarm drew firefighters to the school.
2 : something that causes people to wrongly believe that something bad or dangerous is going to happen ▪ The report that the factory would be closing was a false alarm. ▪ He thought he might be having a heart attack, but his chest pains were just a false alarm.

false arrest noun, pl ~ -rests [count, noncount] : an arrest that is not legally justified ▪ He's suing the police for false arrest.

false•hood /'fɑːlsˌhʊd/ noun, pl -hoods
1 [count] : an untrue statement : LIE ▪ a politician accused of spreading (malicious) falsehoods about his opponent
2 [noncount] : the quality of not being true or accurate : false quality ▪ the falsehood [=(more commonly) falseness, falsity] of these accusations ▪ the line between truth and falsehood

false start noun, pl ~ starts [count]
1 : the mistake of starting too soon in a race ▪ If someone makes/commits a false start, the race is immediately stopped and the runners have to start again.
2 : an unsuccessful attempt to begin something (such as a career or a project) ▪ After several false starts, the researchers were finally able to identify the virus causing the epidemic.

fal•set•to /fɑl'sɛtoʊ/ noun, pl -tos [count, noncount] : a very high voice used by a man (such as a male singer) ▪ He sang in (a) falsetto. ▪ a falsetto voice
– falsetto adv ▪ singing falsetto

fals•ie /'fɑːlsi/ noun, pl -sies [count] informal
1 : a piece of material (such as rubber) that is worn under a bra to make the breast appear larger — usually plural ▪ a woman wearing falsies
2 : false eyelashes — usually plural ▪ Instead of mascara, she wore falsies.

fal•si•fy /'fɑːlsəˌfaɪ/ verb - es ; - ed ; -fy•ing [+ obj] : to make (something) false : to change (something) in order to make people believe something that is not true ▪ He was caught falsifying financial accounts.
– fal•si• •ca•tion /ˌfɑːlsəfə'keɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count, noncount]

fal•si•ty /'fɑːlsəti/ noun, pl -ties formal
1 [noncount] : the quality of not being true or accurate : the quality of being false ▪ The army would not comment on the truth or falsity [=falseness] of the report.
2 [count] : an untrue statement ▪ spreading falsities [=(more commonly) falsehoods, lies] over the Internet

fal•ter /'fɑːltə/ verb -ters; -tered; -ter•ing [no obj]
1 : to stop being strong or successful : to begin to fail or weaken ▪ The business was faltering due to poor management. ▪ Their initial optimism has faltered. ▪ signs that the economy is faltering
2 : to begin to walk or move in an unsteady way ▪ Her steps began to falter.
3 : to feel doubt about doing something ▪ He never faltered [=wavered] in his determination to go to college.
4 ✧ If your voice falters, you are unable to speak normally because you are unsure about what to say or because you are feeling strong emotions. ▪ Her voice faltered when she spoke about her parents.
– faltering adj ▪ a faltering economy ▪ They are trying to save their faltering [=failing] marriage. ▪ He was only able to take a few faltering steps.

fame /feɪm/ noun [noncount] : the condition of being known or recognized by many people ▪ He died at the height of his fame. ▪ The book tells the story of her sudden rise to fame. ▪ He gained/found fame as an actor. ▪ The house was once occupied by Noah Webster of dictionary fame. [=Noah Webster, who was famous for his dictionary] ▪ achieving/earning/winning international/worldwide fame ▪ She went to Hollywood seeking fame and fortune. — see also HALL OF FAME claim to fame see [2]CLAIM famed /feɪmd/ adj : known and usually liked by many people : FAMOUS ▪ a famed writer ▪ a bowl of the restaurant's famed chili — often + for ▪ a restaurant famed for its chili

F

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 9 SESS: 16 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:33:10 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−f

fa•mil•ial /fəˈmɪljəl/ adj
1 : of or relating to a family ▪ familial relationships : suggesting a family ▪ The company has created a familial atmosphere in its offices.
2 medical : tending to affect members of the same family ▪ a familial disease fa•mil•iar /fəˈmɪljɚ/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 a : frequently seen, heard, or experienced ▪ a familiar joke/sight ▪ familiar surroundings ▪ The essay covers familiar ground/territory. ▪ It's a sad but (all too) familiar story. ▪ She has become a familiar figure in the world of politics. — often + to ▪ surroundings that are more familiar to us ▪ foods that are already familiar to most Americans b — used to say that something is easy for you to recognize because you have seen, heard, or experienced it many times in the past ▪ He spotted a familiar face in the crowd. ▪ a familiar voice c : possibly known but not clearly remembered ▪ He looked familiar [=he looked like someone I had seen before] but I couldn't remember his name. ▪ Her name is/sounds/seems (vaguely) familiar.
2 a : relaxed and informal ▪ She spoke in a familiar way about her past. ▪ an essay written in a familiar style b : appropriate for use with people you know well ▪ a familiar way of addressing someone c : too friendly ▪ They felt the waiter was being overly familiar. — often + with ▪ He avoids being overly/too familiar with his employees.
familiar with : having some knowledge about (something) ▪ We are familiar with the situation. [=we know about the situation] ▪ I'm not very familiar with that area.
– fa•mil•iar•ly adv ▪ The coach patted him familiarly on the back. ▪ Locals refer to the Maple Leaf restaurant familiarly [=informally] as 'The Leaf.'

fa•mil•iar•i•ty /fəˌmɪliˈerəti/ noun [noncount]
1 : the state of being familiar with something : the state of having knowledge about something — usually + with ▪ His familiarity with local issues helped him during the campaign. ▪ The job requires familiarity with current software. ✧ The expression familiarity breeds contempt means that knowing a lot about someone or something can cause you to like that person or thing less.
2 : a friendly and informal way of acting or talking ▪ He spoke to everyone with the easy/relaxed familiarity of an old friend.

fa•mil•iar•ize also Brit fa•mil•iar•ise /fəˈmɪljəˌraɪz/ verb -iz•es; -ized; -iz•ing [+ obj] : to give (someone) knowledge about something : to make (someone) familiar with something ▪ The visit was meant to familiarize [=acquaint] students with the library. ▪ I've been slowly familiarizing myself with the neighborhood.
– fa•mil•iar•i•za•tion also Brit fa•mil•iar•i•sa•tion /fəˌmɪljərəˈzeɪʃən, Brit fəˌmɪljəˌraɪˈzeɪʃən/ noun [noncount]

[1]fam•i•ly /ˈfæmli/ noun, pl -lies
1 a : a group of people who are related to each other ✧ This sense of family can refer to a group that consists of parents and their children or it can refer to a bigger group of related people including grandparents, aunts, uncles, cousins, etc. It is often used specifically of a group of related people who live together in one house. [count] There were a lot of families at the circus. ▪ a close/close-knit family ▪ The show is fun for the whole/entire family. ▪ the royal family ▪ a single-parent family ▪ a death in the family ▪ There are several doctors on his mother's side of the family. ▪ She wants to spend more time with her family. ▪ my sister and other members of my immediate family [=the group that includes my parents, my brothers and sisters, and me] ▪ After his father's death he became the head of the family. ▪ She's a friend of the family. ▪ a two-family house/dwelling [=a house that has separate areas for two families to live in] [noncount] He spent a quiet evening at home with family. ▪ trying to find a balance between work and family ▪ She was surrounded by friends and family. [=family members] ▪ He has family in California. [=he has relatives who live in California] ✧ To be treated like one of the family or like family is to be treated in a very warm and kind way, like a member of someone's family. ▪ They treat their guests like family. ✧ You can informally describe someone as a member of your family by saying that he or she is family. ▪ You're always welcome here because you're family. ▪ My brother has a lot of faults, but we forgive him because he's family. ✧ If something runs in the family or runs in someone's family, it occurs in all or many members of a family. ▪ Musical talent runs in her family. [=many or all of the people in her family have musical talent] — see also EXTENDED FAMILY, NUCLEAR FAMILY b [count] : a person's children ▪ He's devoted to his wife and family. ▪ My sister and her husband want to have a big/large family. [=to have many children] ▪ They want to raise a family. [=to have children] ▪ They want to start a family [=to begin having children] soon. c [count] : a group of related people including people who lived in the past ▪ My family came to America from Italy. ▪ Their family has lived here for many generations.

usage In U.S. English, family is used with a singular verb. ▪ His family has always supported him. In British English, family can also be used with a plural verb. ▪ His family have always supported him.

2 [count] : a group of people who resemble a family in some way ▪ We like to think that the people who work here are all one big, happy family.
3 [count] : a group of things that are alike in some way ▪ a family of languages/instruments
4 [count] : a group of related plants or animals ▪ Peaches, apples, and roses belong to one family. ▪ a plant that belongs to the cabbage family ▪ Despite their large size, crows are members of the songbird family.
5 [count] : a group of criminals who work together in an organized way ▪ the suspected head of a crime family

[2]family adj, always used before a noun
1 : of or relating to a family ▪ family members ▪ a family picnic ▪ the family business/car ▪ He enjoys family life. [=he enjoys spending time with his wife and children] ▪ an old family friend [=friend of the family]
2 : designed or suitable for both children and adults ▪ a family restaurant ▪ family entertainment ▪ family [=wholesome] values the family jewels see JEWEL family doctor noun, pl ~ -tors [count] : a doctor who treats the members of a family : a doctor who provides general medical care for people of all ages — called also family practitioner family leave noun [noncount] : a period of time when an employee has permission to be away from a job in order to deal with family matters (such as caring for a baby or a sick family member) family man noun, pl ~ men [count] : a man who has a wife and children; especially : a man who enjoys spending a lot of time with his wife and children family name noun, pl ~ names [count] : the name shared by the people in a family : SURNAME ▪ Her family name is Smith.

family planning noun [noncount] : the use of birth control to determine the number of children there will be in a family and when those children will be born family practice noun [noncount] : the work of providing general medical care for people of all ages ▪ She plans to enter family practice when she graduates from med school. — called also family medicine family practitioner noun, pl ~ -ers [count] : FAMILY DOCTOR family room noun, pl ~ rooms [count]

1 US : a large, informal room in a family's house that is designed as a place for children and parents to spend time playing and relaxing
2 Brit : a room in a pub in which children are allowed family tree noun, pl ~ trees [count] : a drawing or chart that shows how the different members of a family are related to each other ▪ A framed family tree hung on the wall.

fam•ine /ˈfæmən/ noun, pl -ines : a situation in which many people do not have enough food to eat [count] The famine affected half the continent. [noncount] millions killed by war, drought, and famine fam•ished /ˈfæmɪʃt/ adj [more ~; most ~] informal : very hungry ▪ What's for supper? I'm famished.

fa•mous /ˈfeɪməs/ adj [more ~; most ~] : known or recognized by very many people : having fame ▪ an internationally famous hotel ▪ a famous entertainer/explorer/athlete/politician — often + for or as ▪ The hotel is (justly) famous for its luxury. ▪ The hotel is famous as the place where the treaty was signed. — see also WORLD-FAMOUS

fa•mous•ly /ˈfeɪməsli/ adv
1 : in a way that is known by many people : in a famous manner ▪ The executive famously insisted on riding the bus to work every day. ▪ the team's famously passionate fans [=fans who are famous for being passionate]
2 ✧ People who get on/along famously like each other and

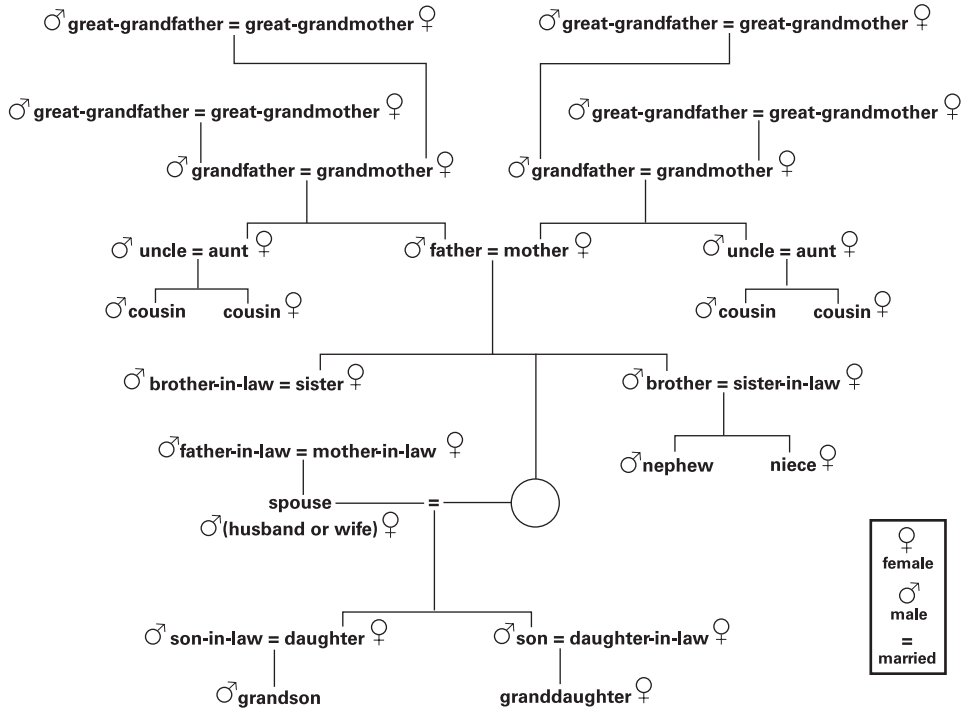
JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 10 SESS: 8 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:33:11 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−f

family



F

enjoy each other's company very much. ▪ They've always gotten along famously (together).

[1]fan /ˈfæn/ noun, pl fans [count] : a machine or device that is used to move the air and make people or things cooler: such as a : a flat device that is held in your hand and waved back and forth in front of your face b : an electrical machine that has turning blades ▪ The engine was cooled by an electric fan. — see picture at CAR hit the fan informal : to cause a lot of anger and trouble — used especially to describe what happens when people find out about something that makes them very angry ▪ I don't want to be there when it hits the fan. — often used in the impolite phrase when the shit hits the fan

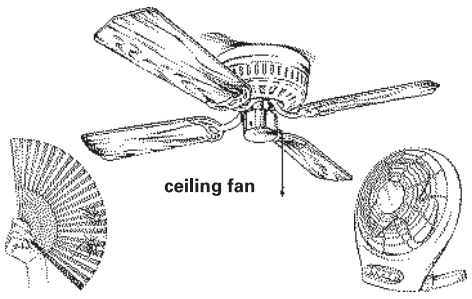
– compare [3]FAN



fan fan, electric fan

[2]fan verb fans; fanned; fan•ning

1 [+ obj] : to move air on or toward (someone or something) with a fan ▪ He fanned himself with a newspaper while he waited for the bus. ✧ To fan a fire is literally to blow air onto a fire so that it will burn more strongly. In figurative use the phrase fan the fires/flames means to make an emotional situation more dangerous, so that people become angrier and more likely to act in a violent way. ▪ They are fanning the flames of hate. ▪ The rebels did all they could to fan the fires of revolution. [=to encourage revolution]

2 baseball, informal : to strike out [+ obj] The pitcher has fanned six batters in the first three innings. [no obj] The batter fanned on a curveball.

fan out [phrasal verb] fan out or fan out (something) or fan (something) out : to spread apart or to cause (something) to spread apart ▪ The police fanned out across the park in search of the suspect. ▪ He fanned out his fingers.

[3]fan noun, pl fans [count] : a person who likes and admires someone (such as a famous person) or something (such as a sport or a sports team) in a very enthusiastic way ▪ I am a huge baseball fan. ▪ sports fans ▪ He's her biggest/greatest fan. ▪ He is not a fan of insurance companies. [=he doesn't like insurance companies] — compare [1]FAN

fa•nat•ic /fəˈnætɪk/ noun, pl -ics [count]

1 : a person who is very enthusiastic about something ▪ I became a boating fanatic.

2 disapproving : someone who has extreme ideas about politics, religion, etc. ▪ a religious fanatic [=extremist]

– fanatic or fa•nat•i•cal /fəˈnætɪkəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ a fanatic supporter ▪ fanatical zeal/devotion/loyalty — often + about ▪ She's fanatical about her job. ▪ He is fanatical about boating. – fa•nat•i•cal•ly /fəˈnætɪkli/ adv ▪ She was fanatically devoted to her job. – fa•nat•i•cism /fəˈnætəˌsɪzəm/ noun [noncount] ▪ religious fanaticism fan belt noun, pl ~ belts [count] : a band of material (such as rubber) that moves to provide power to the fan that cools the engine in a car fan•ci•er /ˈfænsijə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a person who likes something or has an interest in something ▪ a cat fancier [=a person who fancies/likes cats] ▪ a wine fancier fan•ci•ful /ˈfænsɪfəl/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : coming from the imagination ▪ a fanciful tale of a monster in the woods

2 : showing imagination : unusual and appealing ▪ They gave all their children fanciful names. ▪ fanciful architecture

– fan•ci•ful•ly /ˈfænsɪfli/ adv ▪ fancifully [=imaginatively] named children fan club noun, pl ~ clubs [count] : an organization for people who admire a famous person, group, etc. ▪ members of the singer's fan club

[1]fan•cy /ˈfænsi/ adj fan•ci•er; -est

1 : not plain or ordinary ▪ a fancy dress ▪ a fancy hairdo ▪ fancy decorations

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 11 SESS: 8 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:33:11 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−f

2 : very expensive and fashionable ▪ a fancy restaurant ▪ He drives a big, fancy car.
3 : done with great skill and grace ▪ fancy footwork ▪ fancy diving
4 US, of food : of the highest grade or quality ▪ fancy tuna – fan•ci•ly /ˈfænsəli/ adv ▪ a fancily carved ornament

[2]fancy noun, pl -cies
1 [singular] : the feeling of liking someone or something ▪ Something about the movie really struck/caught/tickled/took their fancy. [=something about the movie appealed to them very much] ▪ She took a fancy to the stray dog. [=she formed a liking for the stray dog] ▪ a passing fancy [=a liking that lasts only a short time]
2 a [noncount] : the power of the mind to imagine things : IMAGINATION ▪ His plans to build a new stadium are the product of pure fancy. b : something imagined : FANTASY [noncount] Critics have dismissed his plan as mere fancy. [count] a mere fancy — see also flight of fancy at FLIGHT

[3]fancy verb -cies; -cied; -cy•ing [+ obj]
1 informal : to take pleasure in (something) ▪ She has never fancied [=liked, enjoyed] large dinner parties.
2 chiefly Brit, informal : to consider (someone or something) likely to win or succeed ▪ Do you fancy [=like] their chances? ▪ Which horse do you fancy in the Derby?
3 chiefly Brit, informal : to want to have or do (something) ▪ Do you fancy (having) another drink? [=would you like to have another drink?]
4 Brit, informal : to feel sexually attracted to (someone) ▪ He's all right, I suppose, but I can't say I fancy him.
5 Brit : to imagine (something) ▪ I have a hard time fancying you as a father. — often used to express surprise ▪ Fancy [=imagine] our embarrassment when the police showed up at the door. ▪ "The baby she brought home was the wrong one." "Fancy that!" [=imagine that]
6 : to think or believe (something) without being certain that you are right ▪ I fancy (that) I've met him before.
fancy yourself chiefly Brit, informal : to think that you look good or that you are very special or important ▪ They really fancy themselves after only one hit song! ▪ I never thought I'd fancy myself in a kilt.

fancy dress noun [noncount] chiefly Brit : special clothes that you wear to a party where people are dressed to look like famous people, characters, etc. ▪ Everyone wore fancy dress for the ball. ▪ a fancy-dress ball/party [=a costume ball/party] fan•cy–free /ˌfænsiˈfri:/ adj : having no responsibilities : not held back by ties to other people — usually used in the phrase footloose and fancy–free ▪ He felt footloose and fancy-free after he left college.

fan•dan•go /fænˈdæŋgoʊ/ noun, pl -gos [count] : a fast Spanish dance fan•fare /ˈfænˌfeɚ/ noun, pl -fares

1 [noncount] : a lot of talk or activity showing that people are excited about something ▪ The new jet was introduced with great fanfare.
2 [count] : a short piece of music played loudly with trumpets especially to announce that someone is arriving fang /ˈfæŋ/ noun, pl fangs [count] : a long, sharp tooth ▪ the fangs of a rattlesnake ▪ a tiger baring/showing its fangs

– fanged /ˈfæŋd/ adj ▪ a fanged monster [=a monster that has fangs] fan letter noun, pl ~ -ters [count] : a letter sent to a famous person by a fan ▪ She sent a fan letter to her favorite star.

fan light noun, pl ~ lights [count]
1 US : a window in the shape of a half circle that is placed over a door or another window fan mail noun [noncount] : letters that are sent to a famous person by fans : fan letters ▪ The band gets a lot of fan mail.
2 Brit : TRANSOM 2

fan•ny /ˈfæni/ noun, pl -nies [count] informal
1 US : the part of the body that you sit on : BUTTOCKS ▪ I'd like to give him a good kick in the fanny!
2 Brit, offensive : a woman's sexual organs

fanny pack noun, pl ~ packs [count] US : a small bag for carrying things that is worn with a strap which goes around a person's waist fan•ta•size also Brit fan•ta•sise /ˈfæntəˌsaɪz/ verb -siz•es; -sized; -siz•ing : to imagine doing things that you are very unlikely to do : to have fantasies [no obj] — often + about ▪ He fantasized about quitting his job and becoming a painter. [+ obj] She fantasized that she had won a million dollars.

fan•tas•tic /fænˈtæstɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : extremely good ▪ That meal was fantastic! [=excellent, terrific] ▪ We had a fantastic [=great, wonderful] time!
2 : extremely high or great ▪ The train runs at fantastic speeds.
3 also fan•tas•ti•cal /fænˈtæstɪkəl/ : very strange, unusual, or unlikely ▪ He concocted a fantastic [=wild, outlandish] scheme to rob the casino. ▪ fantastic creatures trip the light fantastic see [2]TRIP – fan•tas•ti•cal•ly /fænˈtæstɪkli/ adv ▪ fantastically high speeds ▪ My sister buys fantastically expensive clothes.

fan•ta•sy /ˈfæntəsi/ noun, pl -sies
1 : something that is produced by the imagination : an idea about doing something that is far removed from normal reality [noncount] His plans are pure fantasy. ▪ He can hardly tell the difference between fantasy and reality. [count] His plans are just fantasies. ▪ Her fantasy is to be a film star. ▪ romantic/sexual fantasies ▪ She's living in a fantasy world. [=her ideas or plans are not realistic]
2 [noncount] : the act of imagining something : IMAGINATION ▪ His plans are the product of pure fantasy.
3 : a book, movie, etc., that tells a story about things that happen in an imaginary world [count] I spent my summer reading fantasies. [noncount] I spent my summer reading fantasy (books).

fan•zine /ˈfænˌzi:n/ noun, pl -zines [count] : a magazine that is written by and for people who are fans of a particular person, group, etc. ▪ a musician with her own fanzine

FAQ /ˈfæk, ˌɛfˌeɪˈkju:/ abbr frequently asked question, frequently asked questions — used to refer to a list of questions and answers that is shown on a Web site to provide basic information to the people who use the site

[1]far /ˈfɑɚ/ adv far•ther /ˈfɑəðɚ/ or fur•ther /ˈfɚðɚ/; far•thest /ˈfɑəðəst/ or fur•thest /ˈfɚðəst/
1 : at or to a great distance in space or time ▪ The dog wandered far from home. ▪ These new discoveries will allow us to see far into the past. ▪ She lives far out in the country. ▪ the far distant future ▪ The house is set far back from the road. ▪ The deadline is not far off/away. ▪ regions far to the north ▪ a town not far from Chicago ▪ "Where's the park?" "It's not far (from here)." ▪ He still lives not far from where he was born. ▪ She doesn't like being so far (away) from home.
2 : to a great extent ▪ It's far [=much, a lot] easier to deal with these problems now. ▪ a far better choice ▪ The car is far too expensive. ▪ The two sides are still far apart. [=a long way apart] ▪ His policies are far different from those of his predecessor. ▪ People are now living far longer. ▪ "It is a far, far better thing that I do than I have ever done . . . " —Charles Dickens, A Tale of Two Cities (1859)
3 : to or at a particular distance, point, or degree ▪ Those birds aren't usually seen this far north. ▪ They have offices as far west as Ohio. ▪ People come to this museum from as far away as California. ▪ The word was used as far back as the 17th century. ▪ The hills extend as far as the eye can see.
4 : to an advanced point or extent ▪ These reforms don't go far enough. ▪ They've gone about as far as they can. ▪ He drove the tent stake far [=deep] into the ground. ▪ We've come too far to quit now. ▪ We've accomplished a lot, but we still have far [=a long way] to go. ▪ She has a lot of talent. If she works hard, she should go far. [=she should be very successful] as far as 1 also so far as a — used in expressions like as/so far as I know to say that you think a statement is true but that there may be something you do not know which makes it untrue ▪ It's safe, as far as I know. [=based on what I know, I think it's safe, although it is possible that it is not safe] ▪ The investigation isn't making much progress, as far as I can see/tell/judge. b — used in expressions like as/so far as (something) goes and as/so far as (something) is concerned to mean "about (something)" or "with regard to (something)" ▪ He has no worries as far as money is concerned. [=he has no worries about money] ▪ As far as the weather is concerned, we've been having nothing but rain for the past week. c — used in expressions like as/so far as (someone) is concerned to mean "in someone's opinion" ▪ As far as I'm concerned [=in my opinion], everything he says is a lie. ▪ As far as she's concerned, he's perfect. 2 informal : with regard to (something or someone) ▪ He's here. As far as [=as for] the others, they'll arrive later. [=the others will arrive later] by far : by a great extent or degree ▪ Frank was by far the best runner. = Frank was the best runner by far.
far and away : by a great extent or degree : by far ▪ The college is far and away the best one in the area. ▪ Frank was far and away the best runner.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 12 SESS: 8 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:33:12 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−f

far and wide 1 : in every direction ▪ We searched far and wide [=everywhere] for the lost cat. : in many different places : very widely ▪ He's known far and wide for his skill as a cook. 2 : distant places ▪ People came from far and wide to attend the fair.

far be it from me : it would not be correct or appropriate for me — followed by to + verb ▪ Far be it from me to tell you how to do your job. [=I should not tell you how to do your job] — often used when you are about to give advice or criticism and you know that you have no real right to say what you are going to say ▪ Far be it from me to interfere, but I don't know why you keep dating that guy.

far from : certainly not : not at all ▪ The trip was far from a failure. [=the trip was not a failure at all] ▪ He was far from (being) friendly. [=he was not at all friendly] ▪ It is far from certain that the strike will be settled soon. ▪ The investigation is far from complete. ▪ She argues that the new law, far from being an aid to small businesses, will actually hurt them. ▪ "Was the movie disappointing?" "Far from it! We had a great time!"

far gone informal : in a very bad, weak, or confused condition because of being sick, tired, drunk, etc. ▪ He had been drinking for a couple of hours, so he was pretty far gone by then. ▪ She was too far gone to understand what we were asking her.

far off : very wrong : very far from being correct ▪ He was not far off in his predictions.

few and far between see [1]FEW from far and near or from near and far : from distant places and from near places : from many different places ▪ people came from far and near

how far 1 : to what extent or degree ▪ She didn't know how far to trust him. [=she didn't know how much she could trust him] 2 — used to ask about the distance between places ▪ How far is it (from here) to the station, please?

in so far as see INSOFAR AS so far 1 : until the present time : to this point ▪ He has written only two books so far. ✧ The phrase so far, so good is used to say that something (such as a project or an activity) has proceeded well or without problems until now. ▪ "How's the work on your house going?" "There's a lot more to do, but so far, so good." 2 : to a certain point, degree, or distance ▪ Intelligence will only take you so far without effort. [=intelligence by itself is not enough for success; effort is also needed]

so far as see AS FAR AS 1 (above)

thus far : until the present time : so far ▪ Thus far the results have been disappointing.

[2]far adj, always used before a noun farther or further; farthest or furthest
1 : very distant in space or time ▪ the far corners of the world ▪ the far horizon ▪ the far reaches of outer space ▪ the far past 2 — used to refer to the side, end, etc., that is more distant ▪ There is a fishing camp on the far side of the lake, but nothing on the near side. ▪ the far bank of the river ▪ a table at the far end of the room

a far cry from see [2]CRY

the far left : the group of people whose political views are the most liberal ▪ His nomination is opposed by members of the far left.

the far right : the group of people whose political views are the most conservative ▪ His nomination is opposed by members of the far right.

far•away /ˈfɑrəˌweɪ/ adj : very distant ▪ My grandfather told us tales of faraway lands. ✧ If you have a faraway look in your eyes, you are not paying attention to what is happening around you; you appear to be thinking about something that is far away. ▪ Don't bother talking to her when she gets that faraway look in her eyes.

farce /ˈfɑəs/ noun, pl farc•es
1 a [count] : a funny play or movie about ridiculous situations and events b [noncount] : the style of humor that occurs in a farce ▪ an actor with a talent for farce
2 [count] disapproving : something that is so bad that it is seen as ridiculous ▪ This trial is a farce. [=travesty] ▪ The election turned out to be a complete/utter farce. [=fiasco]
– far•ci•cal /ˈfɑəsɪkəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ a farcical [=ludicrous, ridiculous] situation

[1]fare /ˈfeə/ verb fares; fared; far•ing [no obj] : to do something well or badly ▪ How did you fare [=do] on your exam? ▪ The team hasn't fared [=done] well in recent weeks.

[2]fare noun, pl fares
1 [count] : the money a person pays to travel on a bus, train, boat, or airplane or in a taxi ▪ I need some coins for the bus fare. — see also AIRFARE, CARFARE
2 [count] : a passenger who pays a fare ▪ The taxi driver picked up his fares at the airport.
3 [noncount] : a specified kind of food ▪ Less expensive fare is available at the restaurant across the street. — sometimes used figuratively to refer to things shown on television, in movies, etc. ▪ Many parents dislike the violent fare [=the violent programs/material] on television.

Far East noun
the Far East : the countries of eastern and southeastern Asia (such as China, Japan, North Korea, South Korea, and Vietnam) — compare MIDDLE EAST, NEAR EAST

[1]fare•well /feəˈwɛl/ interj, formal + literary : [1]GOODBYE ▪ Farewell, good friend, until we meet again.

[2]farewell noun, pl -wells [count] formal + literary
1 : something that you say to a person who is leaving : GOODBYE ▪ She bid/wished me farewell. ▪ They said their farewells and headed home. ▪ a fond farewell
2 : an act of leaving ▪ I will take my farewell of this place tomorrow. [=I will leave this place tomorrow]

[3]farewell /ˈfeəˌwɛl/ adj, always used before a noun : done when someone is leaving, ending a career, etc. ▪ The band gave a farewell concert. ▪ a farewell party/speech/performance

[4]farewell /feəˈwɛl/ verb -wells; -welled; -well•ing [+ obj] chiefly Australia + New Zealand : to bid farewell to (someone who is leaving) ▪ The retiring teacher was farewelled by the whole school at a special assembly.

far–fetched /ˈfɑəˈfɛʧt/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not likely to happen or be true ▪ The movie features a far-fetched plot to kidnap the President.

far– ung /ˈfɑəˈflʌŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : covering a very large area ▪ a far-flung [=vast] media empire
2 : located in a very distant place ▪ a far-flung trading post in the Arctic

[1]farm /ˈfɑəm/ noun, pl farms [count]
1 : a piece of land used for growing crops or raising animals ▪ She grew up on a dairy farm. ▪ Running a farm is hard work. ▪ a vegetable farm
2 : an area of water where fish, oysters, etc., are raised ▪ a fish farm ▪ an oyster farm
buy the farm see [1]BUY

[2]farm verb farms; farmed; farm•ing : to use land for growing food or raising animals [+ obj] My uncle has been farming this land for 60 years. ▪ farm 200 acres [no obj] My uncle has been farming on this land for 60 years.
farm out [phrasal verb] farm (something) out or farm out (something) : to send out (work) to be done by others ▪ The company decided to farm out the job of upgrading their Web site.

farm•er /ˈfɑəmə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a person who runs a farm ▪ My uncle has been a farmer for 60 years. ▪ hog farmers ▪ a cotton farmer

farm•hand /ˈfɑəmˌhænd/ noun, pl -hands [count] : a person who is hired to work on a farm farm•house /ˈfɑəmˌhaʊs/ noun, pl -hous•es [count] : a house on a farm farming noun [noncount] : the job or business of running a farm farm•land /ˈfɑəmˌlænd/ noun [noncount] : land used or suitable for farming ▪ 50 acres of rich farmland farm•stead /ˈfɑəmˌstɛd/ noun, pl -steads [count] : a farm with its buildings farm team noun, pl ~ teams [count] baseball : a minor-league baseball team that is associated with a major-league team

farm•yard /ˈfɑəmˌjɑəd/ noun, pl -yards [count] : BARNYARD far–off /ˈfɑəˌɑːf/ adj : very far away in time or space ▪ tales of far-off lands ▪ Some far-off day you will thank me.

far–out /ˈfɑəˌaʊt/ adj [more ~; most ~] informal : very strange or unusual ▪ My sister wears some pretty far-out clothes.

far–reach•ing /ˈfɑəˌriːʧɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~] : affecting many people or things : having a wide range or influence ▪ The court issued a far-reaching decision. ▪ The theory has far-reaching implications for the future of the planet.

F

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 13 SESS: 64 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:33:13 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−f

far•sight•ed /ˈfɑɚˌsaɪtəd/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 chiefly US : able to see things that are far away more clearly than things that are near ▪ He wears glasses because he is farsighted. [=(Brit) longsighted] — compare NEARSIGHTED
2 a : able to predict what will or might happen in the future ▪ plans made by farsighted city leaders b : made or done while thinking about what will happen in the future ▪ farsighted investments ▪ a farsighted plan/approach — opposite SHORTSIGHTED
– far•sight•ed•ly adv – far•sight•ed•ness noun [noncount] ▪ She had her eyes tested for farsightedness. ▪ the farsightedness of city leaders

[1]fart /ˈfɑɚt/ verb farts; fart•ed; fart•ing [no obj] informal + impolite : to release gas from the anus fart around informal + impolite : to waste time : to spend time doing activities that have no serious purpose ▪ Quit farting around [=messing around, fooling around] and finish your work!

[2]fart noun, pl farts [count] informal + impolite
1 : a release of gas from the anus
2 : an annoying or unpleasant person ▪ a cranky old fart

[1]far•ther /ˈfɑəðəɹ/ adv : to or at or to a more distant place or time or a more advanced point : FURTHER ▪ drive farther north ▪ It's farther away than I'd thought. ▪ I tried to read the book, but I got no farther [=further] than the first chapter. ▪ You think I don't like you? Nothing could be farther from the truth. [=it is completely untrue that I don't like you; I like you very much]

[2]farther adj, always used before a noun : more distant : FURTHER ▪ the farther side of town

[1]far•thest /ˈfɑəðəst/ adv
1 : to or at the greatest distance in space or time : FURTHEST ▪ He chose the seat farthest from the door. ▪ We had a contest to see who could hit a golf ball the farthest.
2 : to the most advanced point : FURTHEST ▪ This plan goes farthest toward achieving our goal.
3 chiefly US : by the greatest degree or extent : MOST, FURTHEST ▪ Of all the paintings, this one is the farthest removed from reality.

[2]farthest adj, always used before a noun : most distant in space or time : FURTHEST ▪ the farthest frontier ▪ the farthest reaches of space — often used figuratively ▪ Food is the farthest thing from my mind right now. [=I am not thinking about food at all]

far•thing /ˈfɑəðɪŋ/ noun, pl -things [count] : a former British coin that had a value equal to ¼ of a penny

fas•cia /ˈfeɪʃijə/ noun, pl -cias [count]
1 technical : a long, thin board that covers the area where a wall joins a roof — called also fascia board
2 /ˈfæʃijə/ medical : a sheet of tissue that covers or connects parts inside the body (such as muscles)
3 also fa•cia /ˈfeɪʃə/ Brit : DASHBOARD

fas•ci•nate /ˈfæsəˌneɪt/ verb -nates; -nat•ed; -nat•ing : to cause (someone) to be very interested in something or someone [+ obj] His strange behavior fascinated the children. = He fascinated the children with his strange behavior. ▪ Her paintings fascinate me. = I'm fascinated by/with her paintings. ▪ a question that fascinates both biologists and anthropologists [no obj] Her paintings never fail to fascinate.
– fas•ci•na•tion /ˌfæsəˈneɪʃən/ noun [noncount] the children's growing fascination with his strange behavior [=their increasing strong interest in his behavior] ▪ I've studied her paintings with fascination. [=a strong desire to look at and think about them] [singular] Her paintings have/hold a real fascination for me. [=they interest me deeply] fas•ci•nat•ing /ˈfæsəˌneɪtɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~] : very interesting or appealing ▪ a fascinating book ▪ Her paintings are fascinating. ▪ It's fascinating (to watch) how a child's language skills develop.

– fas•ci•nat•ing•ly adv

fas•cism /ˈfæˌʃɪzəm/ noun [noncount]
1 or Fas•cism : a way of organizing a society in which a government ruled by a dictator controls the lives of the people and in which people are not allowed to disagree with the government ▪ the rise of Fascism in Europe before World War II
2 : very harsh control or authority ▪ corporate fascism
– fas•cist or Fas•cist /ˈfæʃɪst/ noun, pl -cists [count] ▪ notorious fascists – fascist or Fascist adj ▪ a Fascist state – fas•cist•ic or Fas•cist•ic /fæˈʃɪstɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ a fascistic organization

[1]fash•ion /ˈfæʃən/ noun, pl -ions
1 a : a popular way of dressing during a particular time or among a particular group of people [count] Jewelry and clothing fashions vary with the season. [noncount] Long, full skirts were (all/very much) the fashion in those days. ▪ fashion-conscious shoppers [=shoppers who know what styles are popular] ▪ Short skirts are currently in fashion. [=are currently popular] ▪ Short skirts have come back into fashion. ▪ Those ruffled blouses went out of fashion years ago. b [noncount] : the business of creating and selling clothes in new styles ▪ the world of fashion — often used before another noun ▪ the fashion industry ▪ She reads all the fashion magazines. [=magazines about the newest fashions] ▪ We attended a fashion show. [=a show at which people who design clothes show their new designs] — see also HIGH FASHION c fashions [plural] : clothes that are popular ▪ She always wears the latest fashions.
2 : a style, way of behaving, etc., that is popular in a particular time and place [count] Literary fashions have changed in recent years. [noncount] Action movies are (all) the fashion in Hollywood these days. = Action movies are in fashion in Hollywood these days. ▪ Her theories have fallen/gone out of fashion. [=are no longer popular]
3 : a specified way of acting or behaving — usually used after in [singular] His friends noticed that he was behaving in a strange fashion. [=behaving strangely] ▪ We started the meeting in an orderly fashion. [noncount] We all lined up in orderly fashion.
after a fashion : to a slight or minor degree : SOMEWHAT ▪ I can play the piano after a fashion, but I can't play anything difficult.

[2]fashion verb -ions; -ioned; -ion•ing [+ obj] : to form (something) into something else ▪ Students fashioned the clay into small figures. : to make (something) from something else ▪ figures fashioned [=formed] from clay ▪ She used the scraps of fabric to fashion a little doll's dress. ▪ a table fashioned out of an old door

fash•ion•able /ˈfæʃənəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : currently popular ▪ fashionable clothes [=clothes that are popular; clothes that are in fashion] ▪ She wore a sleek black dress and fashionable [=stylish] shoes. ▪ fashionable cars ▪ a fashionable café ▪ It isn't fashionable to express such an opinion these days.
2 : dressing and acting in a way that is currently popular ▪ fashionable people who know all the right restaurants
– fash•ion•ably /ˈfæʃənəbli/ adv ▪ She was fashionably dressed, as usual. ▪ He arrived at the party fashionably late. [=he arrived at the party slightly late, which is the fashionable thing to do]

fash•ion•is•ta /ˌfæʃəˈniːstə/ noun, pl -tas [count] informal : a person who designs, sells, or is very interested in clothing fashions fashion plate noun, pl ~ plates [count] : a person who dresses in the current fashions : a fashionable person ✧ The term fashion plate is often used in a disapproving way to describe someone who cares too much about fashion.

[1]fast /ˈfæst, Brit ˈfɑːst/ adj fast•er; -est
1 [more ~; most ~] a : moving or able to move quickly ▪ She's a very fast runner. ▪ a fast car ▪ a fast pitch ▪ maintaining a fast [=quick] pace ▪ blazingly/blindingly fast b : happening quickly : taking a short amount of time ▪ a fast race ▪ We're off to a fast start. ▪ We're now experiencing a faster rate of inflation. ▪ I'd like to take a fast [=(more commonly) quick] look at my records. c : operating quickly ▪ a fast computer d : doing something or able to do something quickly ▪ a fast learner e : allowing movement at a great speed ▪ a fast road ▪ We took the faster route. — see also FAST LANE, FAST TRACK
2 of a clock or watch : showing a time that is later than the correct time ▪ My watch is (ten minutes) fast.
3 photography : allowing photographs to be taken very quickly or when there is very little light ▪ fast film
4 informal a : tricky and unfair ▪ Be careful that he doesn't pull a fast one on you. [=that he doesn't trick or deceive you] b : earned or gotten quickly and often in a dishonest way ▪ She's always looking to make a fast buck. ▪ fast money c : quick and not safe to trust ▪ He gave us a lot of fast talk about how he was going to solve all our problems. — see also FAST-TALK
5 old-fashioned + humorous a : actively seeking excitement or pleasure : WILD ▪ He runs with a pretty fast crowd. ▪ fast living b of women : very willing to have sex ▪ a typical Western filled with outlaws, gamblers, and fast women

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 14 SESS: 18 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:33:13 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−f

6 a : placed, tied, or attached in a way that is not easily moved ▪ Make the rope fast [=tie the rope securely] to the anchor. b : closed tightly ▪ Make sure the door is fast. [=(more commonly) shut fast] c : impossible to change — used in the phrase hard and fast ▪ There are no hard and fast rules to be followed when you plan a vacation. [=there are many ways to plan a vacation] d : not likely to fade ▪ fast colors
7 : very loyal or faithful ▪ They became fast friends.
fast and furious : in a very fast and forceful way : with one thing following another very quickly ✧ The phrase fast and furious is used both as an adjective and as an adverb. ▪ The action was fast and furious. ▪ The questions were coming at me fast and furious. ▪ The jokes were flying fast and furious.
play fast and loose see [1]PLAY

[2]fast adv faster; -est
1 : with great speed ▪ The boss expects this to be done this afternoon, so you'd better work fast. ▪ You're driving too fast! ▪ He ran as fast as he could. ▪ a fast-paced story : in a very short time : very quickly ▪ This is fast becoming a national problem. ▪ You need to act fast to take advantage of this offer. ▪ species that are fast disappearing = species that are disappearing fast ▪ I don't know what caused the accident. It all happened so fast. — opposite SLOW, SLOWLY
2 a : in a quick and intelligent way ▪ She's a woman who can think fast in a crisis. ▪ You catch on fast. b : quickly and in a way that is meant to deceive or persuade someone ▪ He's going to have to talk fast to get himself out of this mess. — see also FAST-TALK
3 : in a way that is not easily moved or changed ▪ The window was stuck fast. ▪ She held fast to her belief in justice. ▪ We must stand fast and not surrender!
fast and furious see [1]FAST fast asleep see ASLEEP going/getting nowhere fast informal ✧ To be going/getting nowhere fast is to be failing to make progress or to produce a desired result. ▪ The plan for a new stadium is going nowhere fast.
not so fast informal — used in speech to say that you disagree with what someone has said or to tell someone to stop or slow down ▪ "This proves they're wrong." "Not so fast. There's other evidence to consider." ▪ "The discussion is closed." "Not so fast. I have a few more things to say."

[3]fast verb fasts; fast•ed; fast•ing [no obj] : to eat no food for a period of time ▪ She always fasts on Yom Kippur. ▪ Patients must fast for six hours before having the procedure.
– fasting noun [noncount] ▪ periods of fasting ▪ a time of fasting and prayer

[4]fast noun, pl fasts [count] : a period of time when you do not eat any food : a time of fasting ▪ He went on a fast [=he ate nothing] for several days. ▪ We broke our fast just after sunset. ▪ observing a fast day [=a day on which people do not eat any food because of their religion]

fast•ball /ˈfæstˌbɑːl, Brit ˈfɑːstˌbɑːl/ noun, pl -balls [count] baseball : a pitch that is thrown at full speed : a very fast pitch ▪ He struck him out with a fastball.

fast break noun, pl ∼ breaks [count] basketball : a quick movement toward the net in an attempt to score before the opposing players can reach their defensive positions

fas•ten /ˈfæsn, Brit ˈfɑːsn/ verb fas•tens; fas•tened; fas•ten•ing
1 a [+ obj] : to attach (something) or join (two things or two parts of something) especially by using a pin, nail, etc. ▪ fastening clothes on/onto a clothesline ▪ He fastened the dog's leash to a post and went into the store. ▪ two boards fastened together by/with nails ▪ a decorative clasp that could be used to fasten a cape or cloak b [no obj] of parts of something : to become attached or joined ▪ a shoe that fastens with a buckle ▪ This dress fastens in the back.
2 a [+ obj] : to put something in a position or location in such a way that it will not move ▪ Fasten your seat belt. ▪ She twisted her hair into a bun and fastened it with bobby pins. ▪ Make sure the lid is tightly fastened. b : to close and lock (something, such as a window or door) [+ obj] Make sure that the doors and windows are all (securely) fastened. [no obj] The lock was so damaged it wouldn't fasten.
3 : to grip and hold something with (your hand, teeth, etc.) [+ obj] He fastened his hands on/around my arm and wouldn't let go. ▪ The dog fastened its teeth on my sleeve. [no obj] His hands fastened on/around my arm.
fasten on [phrasal verb] fasten (something) on (something) or fasten on (something) : to direct (something, such as your eyes or attention) to (something) ▪ They fastened their eyes on the distant ship. [=they looked at it steadily] ▪ She fastened her attention on the problem. [=she gave all her attention to the problem] ▪ They had fastened the blame on the wrong man. [=they had blamed the wrong man] ▪ She fastened [=pinned] (all) her hopes on getting the job.
fasten onto [phrasal verb] fasten onto (something) : to grip and tightly hold (something) ▪ The stranger fastened onto my arm and wouldn't let go. — often used figuratively ▪ Once he fastens onto a subject he just won't let it drop.
– fas•ten•er /ˈfæsnə, Brit ˈfɑsnə/ noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ windows held shut by rusty fasteners

fas•ten•ing /ˈfæsnɪŋ, Brit ˈfɑsnɪŋ/ noun, pl -ings [count] : something that fastens one thing to another thing ▪ a coat with button and loop fastenings fast food noun, pl ∼ foods : food that is prepared and served quickly : food from a restaurant that makes and serves food very quickly [noncount] They eat a lot of fast food. [count] Most fast foods are high in calories.

– fast–food adj, always used before a noun ▪ a fast-food restaurant

[1]fast–for•ward /ˌfæstˈfɔrwəd, Brit ˌfɑːstˈfɔːwəd/ noun [noncount]
1 : a function that causes a recording (such as a videotape) to go forward at a speed that is faster than normal ▪ Hit the fast-forward button. — opposite [2]REWIND
2 : a state in which something is quickly developing or progressing ▪ Taking those classes put her career in fast-forward.

[2]fast–forward verb -wards; -ward•ed; -ward•ing
1 [+ obj] : to cause (a recording) to go forward at a speed that is faster than normal ▪ We fast-forwarded the tape to get to the last song. — opposite [1]REWIND
2 [no obj] : to move forward through time quickly ▪ He wished he could fast-forward to the future, when he would no longer be a student.

fas•tid•i•ous /fæˈstɪdijəs/ adj [more ∼; most ∼]
1 : very careful about how you do something ▪ He is fastidious about keeping the house clean. ▪ a fastidious dresser/scholar
2 : liking few things : hard to please ▪ a fastidious eater/diner
3 : wanting to always be clean, neat, etc. ▪ She was too fastidious to do anything that might get her dirty.
– fas•tid•i•ous•ly adv ▪ a fastidiously researched book ▪ fastidiously dressed – fas•tid•i•ous•ness noun [noncount] ▪ She's known for her fastidiousness as a scholar.

fast lane noun, pl ∼ lanes
1 [count] : a section of a highway for cars that are traveling at high speeds ▪ I pulled into the fast lane to pass the truck.
2 [singular] : a way of living that makes you very busy or that is full of excitement and often danger — usually used in the phrase life in the fast lane ▪ He likes to live life in the fast lane, going from one wild party to the next.

fast•ness /ˈfæstnəs, Brit ˈfɑːstnəs/ noun, pl -ness•es [count] literary : a place that is difficult to get to or that can be easily defended if it is attacked ▪ a remote mountain fastness [=stronghold, fortress] fast–talk /ˈfæstˌtɑːk, Brit ˈfɑːstˌtɔːk/ verb -talks; -talked; -talk•ing [+ obj] informal : to influence or persuade (someone) by talking quickly in a confident and often dishonest way ▪ The salesperson fast-talked him into buying the car for more than it was worth. ▪ He fast-talked the old woman out of a large piece of her property. — see also [1]FAST 4c – fast–talk•er noun, pl -ers [count] – fast–talking adj ▪ a fast-talking salesperson fast track noun [singular] : a process or way of proceeding that produces a desired result quickly ▪ The proposed law is on a fast track to/for approval. [=it is being given special treatment so that it will be approved quickly] ▪ She hoped that her college degree would put her on the fast track to success in the business world. [=would make it possible for her to succeed quickly in the business world]

– fast–track /ˈfæstˌtræk, Brit ˈfɑːstˌtræk/ verb -tracks; -tracked; -track•ing [+ obj] ▪ The proposed new law is being fast-tracked for approval. – fast–track adj, always used before a noun ▪ fast-track approval ▪ fast-track careers

[1]fat /ˈfæt/ adj fat•ter; fat•test
1 : having a lot of extra flesh on your body : having a lot of body fat ▪ The dog is getting fat because you feed him too much. ▪ a cute, fat baby ▪ I can't believe I've let myself get so fat. ▪ a movie that has a lot of fat jokes [=jokes about fat people] ✧ Fat can be an insulting word when it is used to de-

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 15 SESS: 19 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:33:14 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-f

F

scribe a person. ▪ She called him a big, fat slob. ▪ She's gotten really fat. [=(more politely) big, heavy] — opposite [1]THIN
2 : having a full, rounded form ▪ a fat belly ▪ a fat, juicy peach ✧ A fat lip is a lip that is swollen because of injury, especially from being punched. ▪ He threatened to give me a fat lip. [=he threatened to punch me]
3 : unusually wide or thick ▪ a fat book of poems ▪ a fat envelope ▪ a truck with fat tires
4 informal : containing, providing, or costing a large amount of money ▪ a fat bank account ▪ He signed a fat contract. ▪ The company offered her a fat salary. ▪ a fat check [=a check for a large amount of money] ▪ He had to pay a fat [=big] fine.
5 informal + disapproving : successful or wealthy ▪ The company grew fat on profits during the war.
6 baseball : easy to hit ▪ a fat pitch right down the middle of the plate big fat — used for emphasis ▪ That's a big fat lie! ▪ Come here and give me a big fat kiss. ▪ He came home with a big fat F [=a failing grade] on his report card.
fat chance see [1]CHANCE it ain't over until/till the fat lady sings see LADY – fat•ness noun [noncount] ▪ body fatness

[2]fat noun, pl fats
1 [noncount] : the soft flesh on the bodies of people and animals that helps keep the body warm and is used to store energy ▪ people with excess body fat ▪ a diet and exercise program to help you gain muscle and lose fat ▪ exercises that burn fat = fat-burning exercises [=exercises that make your body use the fat it has stored] — see also BABY FAT
2 : an oily solid or liquid substance in food [noncount] Nuts contain a lot of fat. ▪ milk/bacon fat ▪ Trim the fat from the meat before you cook it. ▪ foods that are high in fat = foods with a high fat content ▪ reducing dietary fat ▪ a diet low in fat [=a low-fat diet] [count] a diet low in fats ▪ saturated fats ▪ fats like butter and olive oil — see also DEEP FAT
3 [noncount] : an amount that is more than what is usual or needed : EXCESS ▪ trim the fat off/from the budget chew the fat see [1]CHEW live off/on the fat of the land ✧ To live off/on the fat of the land is to live very well, enjoying the best things that are available without having to work hard to get those things. ▪ They retired several years ago and have been living on the fat of the land ever since.

fa•tal /ˈfeɪtl/ adj [more ~; most ~] 1 : causing death ▪ a fatal accident ▪ a disease that is often fatal ▪ a fatal blow ▪ a chemical that can be fatal to birds synonyms see [1]DEADLY 2 : causing ruin or failure ▪ She made a fatal mistake/error. ▪ The plan contained a fatal flaw. [=a flaw that would cause it to fail] ▪ a fatal weakness
– fa•tal•ly adv ▪ fatally shot/wounded

fa•tal•ism /ˈfeɪtəˌlɪzəm/ noun [noncount] : the belief that what will happen has already been decided and cannot be changed ▪ Many people seem to have developed a sense of fatalism about the war.
– fa•tal•ist /ˈfeɪtəlɪst/ noun, pl -ists [count] ▪ He's a fatalist about the future. – fa•tal•is•tic /ˌfeɪtəˈlɪstɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ a fatalistic attitude/philosophy – fa•tal•is•ti•cal•ly /ˌfeɪtəˈlɪstɪkli/ adv

fa•tal•i•ty /feɪˈtæləti/ noun, pl -ties
1 [count] : a death that results from a disaster, accident, etc. ▪ The car crash caused one fatality and several serious injuries. ▪ war fatalities
2 [noncount] : a tendency to result in death ▪ a disease with a high fatality rate [=a disease that frequently causes death] fat cat noun, pl ~ cats [count] informal + disapproving : an important, wealthy, or powerful person ▪ The best seats in the theater were reserved for the fat cats. ▪ political fat cats

– fat–cat adj, always used before a noun ▪ fat-cat business executives fat city noun [noncount] US slang : a very comfortable condition or situation in life ▪ He thinks he's going to win the lottery, and then he'll be in fat city.

fate /feɪt/ noun, pl fates
1 [noncount] : a power that is believed to control what happens in the future ▪ They thought they would never see each other again, but fate brought them back together. ▪ a surprising turn/twist/quirk of fate
2 [count] : the things that will happen to a person or thing : the future that someone or something will have ▪ The boy disappeared, and his fate was unknown [=no one knew what happened to him] for many years. ▪ Exile was his fate. = It was his fate to be exiled. [=he was exiled] ▪ The two companies suffered a common fate. [=the same thing happened to both companies] ▪ One company went bankrupt, and a similar fate befell the other. ▪ her sad/unhappy/tragic fate ▪ Congress will decide the bill's fate tomorrow. [=will vote to accept or reject the bill tomorrow] ▪ Her fate was sealed by the marriage arrangement made in her youth. ▪ She regarded poverty as a fate worse than death. [=as worse than dying] ▪ Like his father, he met his fate [=he died] on the battlefield.
synonyms see DESTINY
tempt fate see TEMPT

fat•ed /ˈfeɪtəd/ adj : certain to do or be something ▪ The two of them seemed fated [=destined] for each other. ▪ He felt he was fated to be famous.; especially : certain to die or suffer in a particular way ▪ a kingdom fated [=doomed] to collapse ▪ a character fated to die young — see also ILL-FATED fat farm noun, pl ~ farms [count] chiefly US, informal : a place where people go to lose weight by eating a special diet, exercising, etc.

fate•ful /ˈfeɪtfəl/ adj : having important results ▪ She made the fateful [=momentous] decision to go back home to face her mother. ▪ His life changed on that fateful November evening. : producing a serious and usually bad result ▪ Hundreds perished on that fateful day. ▪ Her campaign took a fateful turn.
– fate•ful•ly adv

fat–free adj : containing no fat ▪ The cereal is fat-free. ▪ fat-free milk fat•head /ˈfætˌhɛd/ noun, pl -heads [count] informal : a stupid person ▪ Don't be such a fathead!

– fat•head•ed /ˈfætˈhɛdəd/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ a *fathead*ed [=stupid] idea/person – fat•head•ed•ness noun [noncount]

[1]fa•ther /ˈfɑːðɚ/ noun, pl -thers [count]
1 : a male parent ▪ He became a father when he was 30. ▪ He's the father of three small children. ▪ He has been like a father to me. ▪ the foal's father ▪ He's a single father. [=a father who does not have a wife or partner] ✧ The expression like father, like son means that a son is like his father in character, behavior, etc. ▪ "He's very stubborn." "Well, like father, like son." [=his father is also stubborn] — see also BIRTH FATHER, GRANDFATHER, STEPFATHER
2 : a man who is thought of as being like a father ▪ He was a father to me after my own father died.
3 Father : GOD 1 ▪ heavenly Father — see also OUR FATHER
4 formal : a person who was in someone's family in past times : ANCESTOR, FOREFATHER — usually plural ▪ She inherited the land on which her fathers toiled. ▪ the faith of his fathers
5 : a man who invents or begins something — usually singular ▪ the father of modern science ▪ George Washington is the father of our country. — see also FOUNDING FATHER
6 old-fashioned : an older man who is one of the leaders of a city, town, etc. — usually plural ▪ Will the city fathers agree to it?
7 : a priest especially in the Roman Catholic Church or the Orthodox Church — used especially as a title or as a form of address ▪ Father Fitzgerald ▪ Good morning, Father. — see also HOLY FATHER
– fa•ther•hood /ˈfɑːðɚˌhʊd/ noun [noncount] ▪ a young man who didn't yet seem ready for fatherhood – fa•ther•less /ˈfɑːðɚləs/ adj ▪ a fatherless child

[2]father verb -thers; -thered; -ther•ing [+ obj]
1 : to become the father of (a child) : to make a woman pregnant so that she gives birth to (a child) ▪ He fathered three children.
2 of a man : to invent, create, or produce (something) ▪ He was praised for fathering a plan to improve the city's schools.

Father Christmas noun [singular] Brit : SANTA CLAUS

father figure noun, pl ~ -ures [count] : an older man who is respected and admired like a father ▪ The coach was a stern, wise father figure to his players.

fa•ther–in–law /ˈfɑːðɚənˌlɑː/ noun, pl fa•thers–in–law /ˈfɑːðɚzənˌlɑː/ [count] : the father of your husband or wife

fa•ther•land /ˈfɑːðɚˌlænd/ noun, pl -lands [count] : the country where you were born or where your family came from — usually singular ▪ He fought to protect his fatherland. — often used with the ▪ Her grandmother told them stories of the fatherland. ✧ Fatherland can refer to any country, but it is often associated especially with Germany. — compare MOTHERLAND

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 16 SESS: 20 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:33:14 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−f

fa•ther•ly /ˈfɑːðəli/ adj [more ~; most ~] : of a father ▪ fatherly [=paternal] responsibilities : resembling a father ▪ a fatherly old man : showing the affection or concern of a father ▪ fatherly advice ▪ He took a fatherly interest in the careers of younger writers.

Father's Day noun, pl ~ Days [count, noncount] : the third Sunday in June treated as a special day for honoring fathers

[1]fath•om /ˈfæðəm/ noun, pl -oms [count] : a unit of length equal to six feet (about 1.8 meters) used especially for measuring the depth of water ▪ The water here is five fathoms deep.

[2]fathom verb -oms; -omed; -om•ing [+ obj] : to understand the reason for (something) ▪ I couldn't fathom why she made such a foolish decision. = I couldn't fathom her reasons for making such a foolish decision. ▪ (Brit) I couldn't fathom out her reasons. — see also UNFATHOMABLE

[1]fa•tigue /fəˈtiːg/ noun, pl -tigues
1 [noncount] : the state of being very tired : extreme weariness ▪ We were overcome by fatigue after the long journey. ▪ The drug's side effects include headache and fatigue.
2 fatigues [plural] : the uniform that soldiers wear when they are doing physical work ▪ soldiers wearing combat boots and fatigues ▪ army/military fatigues
3 [noncount] technical : the tendency of a material (such as metal) to break after being bent or moved many times ▪ The cracks in the engine were caused by metal fatigue.

[2]fatigue verb -tigues; -tigued; -tigu•ing [+ obj] : to make (someone) tired — usually used as (be) fatigued ▪ We were fatigued by the long journey.
– fatigued adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ He always left work feeling somewhat fatigued. [=tired] ▪ mentally fatigued
– fatiguing adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ a very fatiguing [=tiring] journey ▪ an emotionally fatiguing experience fat•so /ˈfætsoʊ/ noun, pl -soes [count] informal + offensive : a fat person fat•ten /ˈfætn/ verb -tens; -tened; -ten•ing /ˈfætnɪŋ/

1 [+ obj] : to make (someone or something) fat ▪ fatten (up) pigs for slaughter
2 [no obj] : to become fat — usually + up ▪ Bears need to fatten up for the winter.
– fattening adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ Sauces made with cream are very fattening. [=they are very likely to make people fat] ▪ I'm trying to avoid fattening foods.

[1]fat•ty /ˈfæti/ adj fat•ti•er; -est [more ~; most ~] : containing fat and especially a large amount of fat ▪ a rather fatty steak ▪ fatty tissue ▪ I try to avoid fatty foods.
– fat•ti•ness noun [noncount]

[2]fatty noun, pl -ties [count] informal + offensive : a fat person fatty acid noun, pl ~ acids [count] : an acid that is naturally in fats and various oils

Fat Tuesday noun [noncount] US : SHROVE TUESDAY

fa•tu•ity /fəˈtuːəti, Brit fəˈtjuːəti/ noun, pl -it•ies formal
1 [noncount] : a foolish or stupid quality : a fatuous quality ▪ the fatuity of these policies
2 [count] : something foolish or stupid : a fatuous remark ▪ politicians exchanging fatuities about the need for campaign reform fat•u•ous /ˈfætʃuwəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] : foolish or stupid ▪ fatuous remarks ▪ fatuous notions – fat•u•ous•ly adv – fat•u•ous•ness noun [noncount] ▪ the fatuousness of the remarks

fau•cet /ˈfɑːsət/ noun, pl -cets [count] US : a device that is used to control the flow of water from a pipe ▪ turn on/off the faucet [=tap] — see pictures at BATHROOM, KITCHEN

[1]fault /ˈfɑːlt/ noun, pl faults
1 [count] a : a bad quality or part of someone's character : a weakness in character ▪ He loved her despite her many faults. [=failings] ▪ Lack of courage is his worst fault. ▪ In spite of her faults, she's a loyal friend. = For all her faults, she's a loyal friend. b : a problem or bad part that prevents something from being perfect : a flaw or defect ▪ We discussed the book's strengths and faults. [=weaknesses] ▪ If the book has a fault, it's that it's too long.
2 [noncount] : responsibility for a problem, mistake, bad situation, etc. ▪ The accident was not her fault. [=she did not cause the accident; she should not be blamed for the accident] ▪ It's all my fault. [=I am responsible] ▪ It's your own fault you missed that bus. ▪ Through no fault of his own, he won't be able to attend the meeting.
3 [count] tennis : a mistake that results in a bad serve ▪ She committed too many faults to win the match. — see also DOUBLE FAULT
4 [count] geology : a break in the Earth's crust ▪ Frequent earthquakes have occurred along the San Andreas Fault.
at fault : deserving blame for something bad : RESPONSIBLE ▪ She's not at fault for the accident. ▪ It will be difficult to determine who's really at fault.
find fault see [1]FIND to a fault : to a great or excessive degree ▪ generous to a fault [=very generous or too generous] ▪ honest to a fault
– fault•less /ˈfɑːltləs/ adj ▪ a faultless [=perfect, flawless] performance – fault•less•ly adv ▪ She performed faultlessly. – fault•less•ness noun [noncount]

[2]fault verb faults; fault•ed; fault•ing [+ obj]
1 : to criticize (something) ▪ One critic faulted the book as (being) too long.
2 : to blame or criticize (someone) ▪ The truck driver was faulted for the accident. ▪ Many have faulted her for not acting sooner. ▪ I can't fault him for trying to protect his family.

fault• nd•er /ˈfɑːlt,faɪndə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a person who criticizes someone or something often in a way that is not fair or reasonable ▪ Faultfinders were quick to point out inconsistencies in the study. — see also find fault at [1]FIND – fault• nd•ing /ˈfɑːlt,faɪndɪŋ/ noun [noncount] ▪ constant faultfinding – fault• nd•ing adj ▪ a faultfinding analysis

faulty /ˈfɑːlti/ adj fault•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~] : having a mistake, fault, or weakness : IMPERFECT ▪ a faulty argument ▪ a faulty design ▪ The report is based on faulty [=inaccurate] statistics.
– fault•i•ly /ˈfɑːltəli/ adv ▪ faultily designed parts – fault•i•ness /ˈfɑːltinəs/ noun [noncount] ▪ the faultiness of the design

faun /ˈfɑːn/ noun, pl fauns [count] : a creature in Roman mythology that is part human and part goat

fau•na /ˈfɑːnə/ noun, pl fau•nas also fau•nae /ˈfɑː,niː/ biology : all the animals that live in a particular area, time period, or environment [noncount] studying the diverse fauna of the island ▪ aquatic fauna ▪ prehistoric fauna [count] studying the faunas of different islands — compare FLORA
– fau•nal /ˈfɑːnl/ adj ▪ faunal diversity

faux pas /ˈfoʊˌpɑː/ noun, pl faux pas /ˈfoʊˌpɑːz/ [count] : an embarrassing social mistake ▪ Arriving too early would be a serious/major faux pas. ▪ making/committing a faux pas

fa•va bean /ˈfɑːvə-/ noun, pl ~ beans [count] chiefly US : a large, flat, pale green seed that is eaten as a vegetable — called also (chiefly Brit) broad bean fave /ˈfeɪv/ noun, pl faves [count] informal : FAVORITE 1 ▪ I like all the actors on the show, but he's my fave.

– fave adj, always used before a noun ▪ my fave actor

[1]fa•vor (US) or Brit fa•vour /ˈfeɪvə/ noun, pl -vors
1 [count] : a kind or helpful act that you do for someone ▪ do/grant a friend a favor = do a favor for a friend = grant a favor to a friend ▪ Can I ask you (for) a favor? ▪ I drove her to the airport because I owed her a favor. ▪ She's willing to help you but only as a favor to me. ▪ I'm here as a (special) favor to my sister. ▪ Don't do me any favors. I don't need your help. ▪ I've learned to be grateful for small favors. ▪ He treats them well, and they return the favor. [=they also treat him well] ▪ Do me a favor [=do what I want you to do; do what you should do] and get home on time for once. ▪ You can do yourself a favor [=you can make things easier for yourself] by arriving early at the airport. ▪ The company made campaign donations in exchange/return for political favors. [=political acts/decisions that helped the company] ▪ He was arrested for soliciting sexual favors [=sex acts done in exchange for something, such as money] from a prostitute.
2 [noncount] a : approval, support, or popularity ▪ Her ideas have found/gained favor with many young people. [=many young people like/support her ideas] ▪ He's trying to earn the boss's favor by working late. ▪ Her theories have lost favor. = Her theories have fallen from favor. = Her theories are no longer in favor. = Her theories are now out of favor. [=they are no longer popular] ▪ a style that has come into favor [=become popular] ▪ The committee looks with favor on the project. [=the committee regards the project favorably; the committee likes and approves of the project] b : preference for one person, group, etc., over another ▪ The judge showed favor for/toward the defendant. ▪ The students naturally showed favor toward their own school's team.
3 [count] US : a small gift given to the people who come to a party : PARTY FAVOR ▪ Small boxes of candy were given out as favors at the wedding.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 17 SESS: 8 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:33:15 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-f court someone's favor or court favor with someone see [2]COURT

curry favor see [2]CURRY

in favor of 1 : wanting or approving of (something) ▪ All in favor of (having) a party [=everyone who wants to have a party], raise your hands. ▪ Not surprisingly, most voters are in favor of the tax cuts. ▪ a politician who is in favor of the death penalty 2 : in a way that tries to persuade people to support (something) ▪ He argued in favor of the tax cuts. [=he argued for the tax cuts] 3 : choosing (something) instead of something else : preferring (something) ▪ She turned down the scholarship in favor of a pro career. ▪ The original proposal was rejected in favor of a new design. 4 : in support of (someone) : in a way that helps or benefits (someone) ▪ The judge ruled in favor of the defendant.

in someone's favor 1 : in support of (someone) : in a way that helps or benefits (someone) ▪ We hope the final decision will be in our favor. ▪ The judge ruled in our favor. 2 : in a state of being liked or approved of by (someone) ▪ She did extra work to get back in the teacher's favor.

odds are in favor ✧ If the odds are in your favor, you are likely to win or succeed. ▪ We don't know what the decision will be, but we think the odds are in our favor. ✧ If the odds are in favor of something, that thing is likely to happen. ▪ The odds are in favor of a major storm this weekend.

[2]favor (US) or Brit favour verb -vors; -vored; -vor·ing [+ obj]

1 a : to prefer (someone) especially in an unfair way : to show that you like or approve of (someone) more than others ▪ The teacher clearly favors you. ▪ He claims that his parents favor his sister (over him). b : to approve of or support (something) ▪ Most voters favor these tax cuts. ▪ Her father favored the idea of her going to law school. c : to regard (someone or something) as most likely to succeed or win ▪ They won the championship last year, and most forecasters favor them to win again this year.

2 formal : to give something to (someone) : to present (someone) with something ▪ The author favored us with a copy [=gave us a copy] of his latest book. ▪ She will now favor us with a song. [=she will now sing or play a song for us] ▪ He did not favor us with a reply. [=he did not reply to us]

3 : to treat (an injured leg, foot, etc.) gently or carefully ▪ It was obvious that she was favoring her left leg. [=she was walking carefully in a way that showed that her left leg was injured]

4 formal : to make (something) possible or easy : to help (something) to succeed ▪ Darkness favored the attack. ▪ The weather favored our plans for a picnic.

5 : to look like (a parent or other relative) ▪ He favors [=resembles] his mother.

fa·vor·able (US) or Brit fa·vour·able /ˈfeɪvərəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 a : showing approval ▪ The new play got many favorable reviews. ▪ He was given a favorable recommendation. b : expressing approval : giving or providing what is desired ▪ They gave a favorable answer to our request. [=they said they would grant our request] c : giving a result that helps, benefits, or shows approval of someone ▪ a favorable comparison = a comparison favorable to someone

2 : producing feelings of approval ▪ She made a very favorable [=good] impression on her future colleagues.

3 a : tending to help : tending to produce a desired result ▪ a favorable wind ▪ The plants grow rapidly under favorable [=advantageous] conditions. b : showing that a desired result is likely ▪ Early test results were favorable.

– fa·vor·ably (US) or Brit fa·vour·ably /ˈfeɪvərəbli/ adv ▪ The play was favorably reviewed. ▪ I was very favorably impressed by the candidate. ▪ They responded favorably to our request. ▪ The wine compares favorably with some that are far more expensive. ▪ The patient responded favorably [=well] to the medicine.

fa·vored (US) or Brit fa·voured /ˈfeɪvəd/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : given special advantages over others ▪ She enjoys a favored position in the company. : preferred over others ▪ a favored location

2 : considered most likely to win ▪ The team is heavily favored to win the championship.

[1]fa·vor·ite (US) or Brit fa·vour·ite /ˈfeɪvrət/ adj, always used before a noun : most liked ▪ Red is my favorite color. [=red is the color I like most] ▪ What's your favorite movie?

[2]favorite (US) or Brit favourite noun, pl -ites [count]

1 : a person or a thing that is liked more than others : a favorite person or thing ▪ Of all his books, do you have a favorite? ▪ She's always been the teacher's favorite. [=pet] ▪ That movie is my favorite. ▪ That movie is a great favorite with audiences everywhere.

2 : a person, team, etc., that is considered most likely to win ▪ He's the (heavy/clear) favorite in the election. = He's the (heavy/clear) favorite to win the election. ▪ She always bets (on) the favorite [=bets for the horse that is favored to win] when she goes to the races.

favorite son noun, pl ~ sons [count] : a well-known man (such as a political candidate or a celebrity) who is very popular in the area where he lives now or where he lived as a child ▪ an athlete who is one of New York's favorite sons

fa·vor·it·ism (US) or Brit fa·vour·it·ism /ˈfeɪvrəˌtɪzəm/ noun [noncount] : the unfair practice of treating some people better than others ▪ He accused the teacher of showing favoritism in assigning grades. ▪ political favoritism

[1]fawn /ˈfɑːn/ verb fawns; fawned; fawn·ing [no obj] disapproving : to try to get the approval of an important or powerful person by giving that person praise, special attention, etc. ▪ a sports star surrounded by fawning fans — usually + over or on ▪ The waiters were fawning (all) over the celebrity. ▪ She doesn't seem to mind being fawned on by her fans.

[2]fawn noun, pl fawns

1 [count] : a young deer; especially : a deer that is less than a year old

2 [noncount] : a light brown color : TAN

[1]fax /ˈfæks/ noun, pl fax·es

1 a [noncount] : a system for sending and receiving printed materials (such as documents and drawings) and photographs using telephone lines ▪ She sent me a copy of her report by fax. b [count] : a machine used in this system — called also fax machine; see picture at OFFICE

2 [count] : something (such as a document or a photograph) that is sent or received by fax ▪ She sent me a fax of her report. ▪ I received your faxes.

[2]fax verb faxes; faxed; fax·ing [+ obj] : to send (something, such as a document or photograph) by fax to someone ▪ She faxed me a copy of her report. = She faxed a copy of her report to me.

faze /ˈfeɪz/ verb faz·es; fazed; faz·ing [+ obj] : to cause (someone) to feel afraid or uncertain ▪ Nothing fazes [=daunts] her. ▪ You'll never succeed as a writer if you let a little bit of criticism faze you.

Do not confuse faze with phase.

FBI abbr Federal Bureau of Investigation ▪ The crime is being investigated by the FBI. — often used before another noun ▪ an FBI agent ▪ an FBI laboratory ✧ The Federal Bureau of Investigation is a part of the U.S. federal government that is responsible for investigating crimes.

FCC abbr Federal Communications Commission ▪ the chairman of the FCC ✧ The Federal Communications Commission is a part of the U.S. federal government that controls radio and television broadcasting.

FDA abbr Food and Drug Administration ▪ a new medicine that has not yet been approved by the FDA ✧ The Food and Drug Administration is a part of the U.S. federal government that tests, approves, and sets standards for foods, drugs, chemicals, and household products.

FDIC abbr Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation ▪ payments made by the FDIC ✧ The Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation is a part of the U.S. federal government that provides insurance against loss of money that people have deposited in banks.

fe·al·ty /ˈfiːjəlti/ noun, pl -ties [count] old-fashioned + literary : loyalty to a person, group, etc. ▪ He swore/pledged fealty to the king.

[1]fear /ˈfiə/ noun, pl fears

1 : an unpleasant emotion caused by being aware of danger : a feeling of being afraid [noncount] He was trembling with fear. ▪ an old story that still has the power to inspire fear [=to make people feel afraid] ▪ unable to walk the streets without fear of being mugged ▪ They regarded their enemies with fear and hatred/loathing. ▪ I've been trying to overcome my fear of flying. ▪ He won't say anything for fear of losing his job. [=because he is afraid of losing his job] ▪ She lived in fear of being caught. = She lived in fear that she would be caught. [=she was always afraid that she would be caught] ▪ They lived in (constant) fear of air raids during the war. ▪ an accident that struck fear into the hearts of [=frightened] skiers

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 18 SESS: 8 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:33:15 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−f

everywhere [count] The doctor's diagnosis confirmed our worst fears. ▪ The government is trying to allay/alleviate/ease fears of a recession. ▪ Employees expressed fears that the company would go out of business. ▪ He told us about all his hopes and fears. ▪ She has a morbid fear of cats. ✧ If you are in fear of your life or (US) in fear for your life, you are afraid of being killed. ▪ She claimed that she shot the burglar because she was in fear for her life.

2 [noncount] : a feeling of respect and wonder for something very powerful ▪ fear of God ✧ To put the fear of God into someone is to frighten someone very badly. ▪ The bad economic news has put the fear of God into investors.

no fear Brit, informal — used in speech to say that there is no reason to be afraid or worried ▪ "Are you going to tell her the truth?" "No fear [=never fear, fear not], mate: she won't hear a thing from me!"

synonyms FEAR, DREAD, ALARM, and FRIGHT mean painful emotion felt because of danger. FEAR is the most general word and suggests a continuing emotional state. ▪ people living in fear of violent crimes DREAD suggests a strong feeling of not wanting to accept or deal with something bad or unpleasant. ▪ the dread felt by people awaiting bad news ALARM may suggest a strong emotion caused by an unexpected or immediate danger. ▪ They view the worsening food shortage with alarm. FRIGHT suggests a feeling caused by something unexpected and often suggests a brief emotion. ▪ The creaking door gave them a fright.

[2]fear verb fears; feared; fear•ing

1 [+ obj] : to be afraid of (something or someone) ▪ She fears [=(more commonly) is afraid of] the water. ▪ He was a cruel king who was feared and hated by his subjects. ▪ " . . . the only thing we have to fear is fear itself" —Franklin D. Roosevelt, Inaugural Address (1933) — sometimes followed by to + verb ▪ Many people feared to go out at night.

2 [+ obj] : to expect or worry about (something bad or unpleasant) ▪ His parents feared (that) he would drop out of school. ▪ She went to her doctor, fearing (that) she might have cancer. ▪ The questions weren't as difficult as he had feared (they might be). ▪ When we heard there had been an accident, we feared the worst. [=we feared that the worst possible thing had happened] ✧ The formal phrase I fear is used when you are worried that something bad or unpleasant has happened or is true. ▪ I fear that we're already too late. ▪ These problems have no easy solution, I fear.

3 [no obj] : to be afraid and worried ▪ There's no need to fear. ▪ Having problems with your computer? Never fear [=don't worry]—help is readily available. ▪ Fear not [=don't be afraid]—I'll protect you.

4 [+ obj] : to feel respect and wonder for something very powerful ▪ fear God fear for [phrasal verb] fear for (something or someone) : to feel concern for (something or someone) : to worry about (something or someone) ▪ They feared for their lives [=they were afraid that they might be killed] as they felt the first trembles of the earthquake. ▪ She feared for her husband's safety. [=she worried that her husband might not be safe]

fear•ful /ˈfiɚfəl/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : feeling fear ▪ He plays the role of a timid and fearful clerk. — often + of ▪ fearful [=afraid] of danger ▪ He was fearful of being left behind. = He was fearful that he would be left behind. — sometimes + for ▪ She was fearful for their safety. [=she was afraid that they were not safe]

2 : showing or caused by fear ▪ a fearful glance

3 : very bad or extreme ▪ a fearful waste ▪ fearful cold ▪ They won the war but at a fearful cost.

4 : causing fear ▪ I spent a fearful night alone in the woods.

– fear•ful•ly adv ▪ fearfully cold ▪ She glanced fearfully out the window. – fear•ful•ness noun [noncount] fear•less /ˈfiɚləs/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not afraid : very brave ▪ a fearless warrior

– fear•less•ly adv ▪ They ventured fearlessly into unknown lands. ▪ The actor strode fearlessly across the stage. – fear•less•ness noun [noncount] ▪ fearlessness in the face of danger fear•some /ˈfiɚsəm/ adj [more ~; most ~] : causing fear : very frightening ▪ tales of a fearsome [=scary] monster ▪ a fearsome opponent

– fear•some•ly adv ▪ growling fearsomely ▪ fearsomely [=very, extremely] ambitious ▪ a fearsomely difficult problem – fear•some•ness noun [noncount]

fea•si•ble /ˈfiːzəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : possible to do ▪ This plan for a new town library is not economically feasible. [=it costs too much money] ▪ looking for a feasible way to create new jobs ▪ a feasible goal

– fea•si•bil•i•ty /ˌfiːzəˈbɪləti/ noun [noncount] ▪ She questions the feasibility of the plan. ▪ a feasibility study [=a study to show if something can be done] – fea•si•bly /ˈfiːzəbli/ adv

[1]feast /ˈfiːst/ noun, pl feasts [count]

1 : a special meal with large amounts of food and drink ▪ give/have the annual Thanksgiving feast ▪ Every guest brought a different dish to the party, and we had quite a feast. : a large formal dinner ▪ There were hundreds of guests at the royal wedding feast. — often used figuratively ▪ a feast of colors ▪ The carnival provided a veritable feast of sights and sounds. ▪ The garden is a feast for the eyes. [=the garden is very beautiful]

2 : a religious festival ▪ the feast of the Nativity ▪ a movable feast [=a religious festival that is on a different date each year]

[2]feast verb feasts; feast•ed; feast•ing [no obj] : to eat large amounts of food — usually + on ▪ We feasted on steak and potatoes.

feast your eyes on : to look at (something or someone) with great pleasure ▪ We feasted our eyes on the colors of the autumn landscape.

feat /ˈfiːt/ noun, pl feats [count] : an act or achievement that shows courage, strength, or skill ▪ a performer known for her astonishing acrobatic feats ▪ feats of strength ▪ an exceptional feat of the human intellect ▪ Writing that whole report in one night was quite a feat. ▪ It was no mean/small/easy feat.

[1]feath•er /ˈfɛðɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] : any one of the light growths that make up the outer covering of the body of a bird ▪ duck feathers ▪ tail/wing feathers ▪ downy feathers ▪ a tuft of feathers ▪ a feather pillow = a pillow filled with feathers ▪ Her suitcase felt as light as a feather. [=extremely light] ▪ When I found out I had won, you could have knocked me over with a feather. [=I was extremely surprised or astonished]

a feather in your cap : an achievement or honor that you can be proud of ▪ The promotion was a feather in his cap.

of a feather : of the same kind or nature — usually used in the phrase birds of a feather ▪ Those two guys are birds of a feather. [=they are very much alike] ✧ The expression birds of a feather flock together means that people who are alike tend to do things together.

ruffle feathers see [1]RUFFLE

– feath•ered /ˈfɛðɚd/ adj ▪ She likes to refer to birds as "our feathered friends." ▪ a feathered hat – feath•er•less adj ▪ a bird with featherless legs

[2]feather verb -ers; -ered; -er•ing [+ obj] : to put a feather in or on (something) ▪ feather an arrow feather your (own) nest : to make yourself richer in a dishonest or improper way : to do things to increase your own wealth, comfort, etc. ▪ She was accused of feathering her own nest with the company's money.

tar and feather see [2]TAR feather bed noun, pl ~ beds [count] : a bed with a mattress that is filled with feathers

feath•er•brained /ˈfɛðɚˌbreɪnd/ adj [more ~; most ~] informal : very foolish or silly ▪ a featherbrained idea ▪ a featherbrained fool

[1]feath•er•weight /ˈfɛðɚˌweɪt/ noun, pl -weights [count] : someone or something that weighs very little; especially : a boxer who weighs more than 118 pounds (53.5 kilograms) but less than 126 pounds (57 kilograms)

[2]featherweight adj, always used before a noun : weighing very little : very light ▪ a featherweight fabric ▪ featherweight aircraft

fea•thery /ˈfɛðɚi/ adj [more ~; most ~] : extremely light and soft or delicate : like a feather ▪ a plant with feathery leaves ▪ a feathery brushstroke

[1]fea•ture /ˈfiːʧɚ/ noun, pl -tures [count]

1 : an interesting or important part, quality, ability, etc. ▪ This year's models include several new safety features. ▪ This camera has several features that make it easy to use. ▪ The car has some interesting new design features. ▪ His plan combines the best features of the earlier proposals.

2 : a part of the face (such as the eyes, nose, or mouth) ▪ Her eyes are her best feature. — usually plural ▪ attractive facial features ▪ He has handsome features. [=he has a handsome face] ▪ She has striking/delicate/refined features.

3 : a movie that is made to be shown in a theater for entertainment : a full-length movie ▪ Tonight's feature is a new ro-

F

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 19 SESS: 8 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:33:16 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-f

mantic comedy. ▪ He starred in his first feature film a year ago. ▪ a feature-length motion picture [=a movie that is about two hours long] — see also DOUBLE FEATURE

4 : a special story or section in a newspaper or magazine ▪ The paper ran a feature on/about urban violence. ▪ a feature writer/editor = (chiefly US) a features writer/editor

– fea•ture•less /ˈfi:ʧələs/ adj ▪ a featureless plain ▪ a featureless expanse of rocks and sand

²feature verb -tures; -tured; -tur•ing [+ obj]

1 : to have or include (someone or something) as an important part ▪ The building features a state-of-the-art security system. ▪ The new menu features several low-fat entrees. ▪ The show now features a new singer.

2 : to discuss or mention (something or someone) in a noticeable way : to give particular attention to (someone or something important) ▪ The evening news report featured the story of the murder. ▪ The newspaper featured health care on its front page. — often used as (be) featured ▪ She was featured in an article on local businesswomen.

feature in [phrasal verb] feature in (something) : to be a part of (something) ▪ Health care features prominently in the new bill. ▪ a character who features in many of his novels

– featured adj ▪ He'll be appearing as the featured speaker [=the main speaker] at the conference. ▪ She had a featured role [=an important role] in the movie. ▪ The featured software is on sale through next month.

Feb. abbr February

fe•brile /ˈfɛˌbrajəl, Brit ˈfi:ˌbraɪl/ adj [more ~; most ~] medical : including or caused by fever : FEVERISH ▪ a febrile illness — often used figuratively ▪ a writer with a febrile [=very active] imagination

Feb•ru•ary /ˈfɛbjəˌweri, ˈfɛbrəˌweri/ noun, pl -ar•ies or -arys : the second month of the year [noncount] in (early/middle/mid-/late) February ▪ early/late in February ▪ We arrived on February the fourth. = (US) We arrived on February fourth. = We arrived on the fourth of February. [count] Sales are up (for) this February in comparison with the previous two Februaries. — abbr. Feb.

fe•ces (US) or Brit fae•ces /ˈfi:ˌsi:z/ noun [plural] : solid waste that is released from the body : EXCREMENT

– fe•cal (US) or Brit fae•cal /ˈfi:kəl/ adj ▪ fecal matter

feck•less /ˈfɛkləs/ adj [more ~; most ~] : having or resulting from a weak character or nature ▪ She can't rely on her feckless son. ▪ feckless behavior

– feck•less•ness noun [noncount]

fe•cund /ˈfɛkənd/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : producing or able to produce many babies, young animals, or plants : FERTILE ▪ fecund fields ▪ a fecund breed of cattle — sometimes used figuratively ▪ She has a fecund [=(more commonly) fertile] imagination. ▪ a fecund source of ideas – fe•cun•di•ty /fɪˈkʌndəti/ noun [noncount]

¹fed past tense and past participle of ¹FEED

²fed or Fed /ˈfɛd/ noun, pl feds or Feds [count] US, informal : an official who works for a branch of the U.S. government : a federal agent, officer, or official — usually plural ▪ He got into trouble with the feds. ▪ was investigated by the Feds

the Fed US, informal : the group of officials (the Federal Reserve Board) who control the U.S. government's central banking system (the Federal Reserve System). ▪ The Fed has decided to cut interest rates.

fed•er•al /ˈfɛdərəl/ adj

1 a : of or relating to a form of government in which power is shared between a central government and individual states, provinces, etc. ▪ a federal government/system b : of or relating to the central government ▪ federal laws/funds/employees ▪ a federal district ▪ We pay federal, state, and local taxes. ▪ The ruling was overturned by a federal appeals court.

2 or Federal : of, relating to, or loyal to the federal government during the American Civil War ▪ Federal soldiers ▪ a Federal stronghold — compare CONFEDERATE, UNION

3 Federal US : of or popular during the early years of the U.S. government ▪ the Federal period ▪ furniture made in the Federal style

– fed•er•al•ly adv

Federal noun, pl -als [count] US

1 : a supporter of the government of the U.S. in the American Civil War; especially : a soldier in the federal armies — compare CONFEDERATE

2 formal : a federal agent or officer — usually plural ▪ Local police sought help from the federals. [=(less formally) feds]

federal case noun, pl ~ cases [count] US, law : a legal case that will be decided in a U.S. federal court make a federal case out of US, informal : to become very upset or angry about (something that is not important) ▪ I agree that he shouldn't have said that, but there's no reason to make a federal case out of it. [=make a big deal about it] ▪ Do you have to make a federal case out of it every time I come home late?

fed•er•al•ist /ˈfɛdərəlɪst/ noun, pl -ists [count]

1 or Federalist : a supporter of federal government; especially, US : a supporter of the U.S. Constitution

2 Federalist US : a member of a major political party in the early years of the U.S. that wanted a strong central government

– fed•er•al•ism or Federalism /ˈfɛdərəˌlɪzəm/ noun [noncount] – federalist or Federalist adj ▪ the Federalist period fed•er•al•ize also Brit fed•er•al•ise /ˈfɛdərəˌlaɪz/ verb -iz•es; -ized; -iz•ing [+ obj] chiefly US

1 : to join (states, nations, etc.) together in or under a federal system of government ▪ a federalized government

2 : to cause (something) to be under the control of a federal government ▪ The measure federalizes several state programs. ▪ newly federalized crimes

– fed•er•al•i•za•tion also Brit fed•er•al•i•sa•tion /ˌfɛdərələˈzeɪʃən, Brit ˌfɛdərəˌlaɪˈzeɪʃən/ noun [noncount] fed•er•ate /ˈfɛdəˌreɪt/ verb -ates; -at•ed; -at•ing [+ obj] : to join (organizations, states, etc.) in a federation ▪ The independent provinces were federated to form a nation. ▪ a federated state fed•er•a•tion /ˌfɛdəˈreɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions

1 [count] a : a country formed by separate states that have given certain powers to a central government while keeping control over local matters b : an organization that is made by loosely joining together smaller organizations ▪ a federation of labor unions ▪ a federation of women's clubs

2 [noncount] : the act of joining together separate organizations or states ▪ the federation of the states

fe•do•ra /fɪˈdorə/ noun, pl -ras [count] : a type of soft hat for men that has a wide brim — see picture at HAT

fed up adj [more ~; most ~] informal : very tired of something : angry about something that has continued for a long time ▪ We've had one delay after another, and I'm starting to feel/get pretty fed up. — usually + with ▪ I'm fed up with all these delays. ▪ Consumers are fed up with rising gas prices. — sometimes + of in British English ▪ I'm fed up of all these delays.

fee /ˈfi:/ noun, pl fees [count]

1 : an amount of money that must be paid ▪ The admission/entrance fee is $10. ▪ a credit card with no annual fee ▪ The tuition fees went up this year. ▪ We returned the library book late and had to pay a late fee. synonyms see ¹PRICE

2 : an amount that is paid for work done by a doctor, lawyer, etc. ▪ His insurance covers the doctor's fee. ▪ They paid a fortune in legal fees.

fee•ble /ˈfi:bəl/ adj fee•bler /ˈfi:bələ/; -blest /ˈfi:bələst/ [also more ~; most ~]

1 : very weak ▪ a feeble old man ▪ She's still feeble from her long illness. ▪ We heard a feeble cry for help. ▪ Business is suffering because of the feeble economy. synonyms see WEAK

2 : not good enough : not successful or effective ▪ a feeble joke ▪ He made a feeble attempt/effort to explain his behavior. ▪ He offered a feeble excuse for his behavior. ▪ "Dislike" is too feeble a word for how she feels about him.

– fee•ble•ness /ˈfi:bəlnəs/ noun [noncount] ▪ the feebleness of his excuse – fee•bly /ˈfi:bli/ adv ▪ She smiled feebly. ▪ He feebly attempted to explain his behavior.

fee•ble•mind•ed /ˌfi:bəlˈmaɪndəd/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 often offensive : having less than normal intelligence ▪ a feebleminded person

2 : foolish or stupid : not sensible ▪ a feebleminded approach/solution

– fee•ble•mind•ed•ness noun [noncount]

¹feed /ˈfi:d/ verb feeds; fed /ˈfɛd/; feed•ing

1 a [+ obj] : to give food to (someone or something) ▪ Don't feed the animals. ▪ He was too weak to feed himself. ▪ We feed the plants with a special fertilizer twice a week. ▪ We fed the horses with/on apples, oats, and hay. b [+ obj] : to give (something) as food to someone or something ▪ They fed [=gave, served] us breakfast before we left. = They fed breakfast to us before we left. ▪ The children fed apples to the horses. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ He was feeding information to the enemy. [=he was secretly giving information to the enemy] c [+ obj] : to produce or provide food for

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 20 SESS: 64 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:33:16 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−f

(someone or something) ▪ These supplies could feed a small army for a week. ▪ He doesn't earn enough to feed a family of four. ▪ helping to feed and clothe poor children d [no obj] : EAT — usually used of animals ▪ We spotted some ducks feeding in a nearby pond. ▪ They are studying the feeding habits of sharks. ▪ a favorite feeding ground [=an area where animals feed]

2 [+ obj] a : to provide what is needed for the continued growth, operation, or existence of (something) ▪ They used the wood to feed the fire. ▪ The streams feed the creek. ▪ The motor is fed by an electrical current. b : to supply (material to be used) to a machine ▪ The logs are fed into the mill for processing. ▪ She fed the data into the computer. ▪ The camera feeds the images to a monitor.

3 [+ obj] : to give support or strength to (something, such as a feeling) ▪ He fed their hopes with false promises. ▪ fears fed by ignorance ▪ Her early success only served to feed her ambition.

4 [+ obj] : to make (something) move through an opening ▪ The procedure involves feeding a tube down the patient's throat. ▪ She fed more coins into the slot.

5 [+ obj] sports : to pass a ball or puck to (a team member) especially for a shot at the goal ▪ He fed the ball to a teammate for an easy basket.

bite the hand that feeds you see [1]BITE feed back [phrasal verb] feed back or feed back (something) or feed (something) back Brit : to give helpful information or criticism to someone about a performance, product, etc. : to provide feedback — usually + to or into ▪ My music feeds back into my work. ▪ Decide how your staff should feed back to you. ▪ Computer users can feed their views back to the software companies.

feed off [phrasal verb] feed off (something) : to gain strength, energy, or support from (something) ▪ She fed off the crowd's enthusiasm. ▪ His anger fed off his jealousy. ▪ We are able to feed off each other's ideas.

feed on/upon [phrasal verb] feed on/upon (something) : to eat (something) as food — usually used of animals ▪ Owls feed on insects, birds, and small mammals.

feed (someone) a line informal : to tell (someone) a story or an explanation that is not true ▪ He fed me a line about how he was late because his car broke down.

feed up [phrasal verb] feed (someone) up Brit, informal : to make (someone) stronger or less thin by giving them large meals ▪ His mother fed him up after his illness. — see also FED UP feed your face slang : to eat a lot of food ▪ He sat there for an hour, just feeding his face.

[2]feed noun, pl feeds

1 a [noncount] : food for animals ▪ cattle feed b [count] informal : a large meal ▪ a good feed c [count] Brit : FEEDING ▪ the baby's last feed

2 [count] : a part of a machine or system that sends material or electricity to other parts ▪ There's a jam in the paper feed. ▪ We had to cut off the main power feed.

3 [count] : a television program that is sent to a station for broadcasting ▪ They're showing a live satellite feed of the event.

4 [count] sports : the action of passing a ball or puck to a team member who is in position to score ▪ He scored off/on a feed from the left wing.

– see also CHICKEN FEED

feed•back /ˈfiːdˌbæk/ noun [noncount]

1 : helpful information or criticism that is given to someone to say what can be done to improve a performance, product, etc. ▪ The company uses customer feedback to improve its products. ▪ He asked for some feedback from his boss.

2 technical a : something (such as information or electricity) that is returned to a machine, system, or process ▪ The computer makes adjustments based on feedback from the sensors. b : an annoying and unwanted sound caused by signals being returned to an electronic sound system ▪ We were getting some feedback from the microphone.

feed•bag /ˈfiːdˌbæg/ noun, pl -bags [count] US : a bag that is used for feeding an animal — called also (Brit) nose bag put/tie/strap on the feedbag US, informal : to begin eating ▪ He's always ready to strap on the feedbag when it's time for dinner.

feed•er /ˈfiːdɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count]

1 a : a device for supplying food to animals ▪ a wooden bird feeder b : a person who supplies food for animals ▪ a pigeon feeder holding a bag of stale bread

2 : a road, railway, etc., that connects to a larger road, railway, etc. — often used before another noun ▪ a feeder road/route/line

3 : a part that sends materials into a machine or system

4 : a person or thing that eats or feeds in a specified way ▪ a messy feeder ▪ a gluttonous feeder ▪ plants that are heavy feeders; also : an animal that eats a specified kind of food ▪ This species is a carrion feeder. — see also BOTTOM FEEDER feeding noun, pl -ings [count] US : the act of giving food to a person (such as a baby) or an animal ▪ When was the baby's last feeding? [=(Brit) feed] feeding frenzy noun, pl ~ -zies [count] : a state of wild activity in which the animals in a group are all trying to eat something ▪ sharks in a feeding frenzy — often used figuratively ▪ There has been a feeding frenzy among publishers to obtain the rights to her story.

[1]feel /ˈfiːl/ verb feels; felt /ˈfɛlt/; feel•ing

1 [+ obj] : to be aware of (something that affects you physically, such as pain, heat, or an object touching your body) ▪ He felt a sudden pain in his leg. ▪ I could feel the warmth of the sun. ▪ I felt someone tap my shoulder. ▪ I could feel him pulling my hair. [=I could feel that he was pulling my hair] ▪ Do you feel a draft? ▪ I'm the kind of person who really feels the heat/cold. [=hot/cold weather bothers me more than it bothers most people]

2 [linking verb] — used to describe or ask about someone's physical or mental state ▪ I feel dizzy/faint. ▪ How are you feeling today? = How do you feel today? ▪ I feel bad/good/sick/well/fine. ▪ I hope you feel better soon. [=I hope you will stop feeling ill soon] ▪ He's been feeling a little depressed lately. ▪ You can feel proud of what you've accomplished. ▪ I feel responsible for the accident. [=I feel that I was responsible for the accident; I feel that the accident was my fault] ▪ I feel confident that we'll win. ▪ You may feel different tomorrow. [=your mood/thinking may change tomorrow] ▪ She felt hurt by their indifference. ▪ I feel certain/sure that we can solve these problems. ▪ I feel like a fool. = (chiefly Brit) I feel a fool. ▪ I didn't feel like myself yesterday. = I didn't feel myself yesterday. [=I didn't feel well yesterday] ▪ I feel as if/though I'm falling. = (informal) I feel like I'm falling. ▪ (You can) Feel free to leave whenever you like. [=you are free to leave whenever you like] ✧ If you feel like doing something, you want to do it. ▪ Do you feel like (taking) a walk? ▪ I feel like crying. ▪ "Why won't you come?" "Because I don't feel like it." ▪ He does whatever he feels like (doing). ▪ I don't feel like talking about it. [=I don't want to talk about it]

3 a [+ obj] : to touch (something) with your fingers to see what it is like ▪ She felt the fabric to see if it was wool. b [+ obj] : to find (something) by touching with your fingers ▪ Your ribs are bruised, but I don't feel any broken bones. c [no obj] : to search for something by reaching or touching usually with your fingers — often + for ▪ The doctor felt for any possible fractures in the patient's bruised ribs. ▪ He felt for the switch. — often + around or (Brit) about ▪ He felt around in the dark for the light switch. ▪ He felt around under the table with his foot. d not used in progressive tenses [linking verb] — used to describe the qualilty that something has when it is touched ▪ This feels like wool (to me)—but it may not be. ▪ The silk feels smooth (to me).

4 [+ obj] : to believe or think (something) ▪ He feels that they behaved badly. ▪ They felt (that) it would be foolish to continue. ▪ I feel (that) I really ought to say something. ▪ He felt it necessary to say something. = He felt that it was necessary to say something.

5 [no obj] : to have an opinion ▪ How do you feel about this proposal? [=what do you think of this proposal; what is your opinion of this proposal?] ▪ Their votes reflect how they feel toward poor people. ✧ If you feel strongly, you have a strong or definite opinion about something. ▪ We feel (very) strongly that they've been treated unfairly. ▪ If you feel that strongly (about it), we won't go.

6 [+ obj] : to be aware of (something) in your mind or emotions ▪ He felt his son's ingratitude, and he resented it. ▪ She could feel [=sense] the presence of an intruder in the house. ▪ I feel the urge to speak. ▪ I feel the need to try again. [=I think I/we should try again] ▪ I feel your pain. [=I am aware of how (much) you must have suffered]

7 [+ obj] a : to experience the effect of (something) ▪ He felt the medicine starting to work. ▪ I'm really feeling my age lately. [=I am feeling the effects of growing older] b : to experience (something) ▪ Many people will feel the impact of this decision. [=many people will be affected by this decision] ▪ I felt pleasure in her company. [=I enjoyed being with her] ▪ He felt no remorse for what he had done. ▪ She feels con-

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 21 SESS: 64 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:33:17 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-f

F

tempt for her political enemies. c : to be hurt by (something) ▪ They felt the insult deeply. [=they were deeply hurt by the insult] ▪ She felt the loss/death of her mother.

8 not used in progressive tenses [linking verb] a — used to describe the quality that something has or the feeling that something causes ▪ It just doesn't feel [=seem] right to be doing this. ▪ It feels like spring today. ▪ It feels strange that I'm here again. = It feels strange to be here again. ▪ This place really feels like home. ▪ It feels as if it's going to rain. = (chiefly US) It feels like rain. b : to have a specified physical quality ▪ My eyes feel dry. ▪ His hands felt cool.

feel for [phrasal verb] feel for (someone) : to have sympathy or pity for (someone) ▪ I feel (deeply) for you, but there's nothing I can do to help. — see also [1]FEEL 3c (above)

feel no pain chiefly US, informal : to be drunk ▪ He had been at the bar for several hours and he was clearly feeling no pain. [=he was very drunk]

feel out [phrasal verb] feel (someone) out : to talk to or question (someone) in an indirect way in order to find out if something you want to do or get will be possible ▪ He tried to feel us out to see if we'd loan him more money.

feel up [phrasal verb] feel (someone) up or feel up (someone) informal : to touch (someone who does not want to be touched) for sexual pleasure ▪ She says he felt her up.

feel your best see [3]BEST feel your oats see OAT

feel your way 1 : to move forward carefully by putting your hands in front of you so that you can feel anything that blocks you ▪ He felt his way through the darkened room. 2 : to move toward a goal very slowly and carefully ▪ In the early days of the project they were just feeling their way (along), trying not to make mistakes.

[2]feel noun [singular]

1 a : the quality of a thing that is experienced by touching it ▪ It had a greasy feel. [=it felt greasy] ▪ the feel of old leather b : a particular quality ▪ The restaurant's decor has an Asian feel (to/about it). ▪ Although the table is brand-new, it has the look and feel of an antique.

2 a : an understanding of something ▪ We walked around to get the feel of the town. [=to find out what the town was like] — usually + for ▪ We walked around to get a feel for the town. ▪ After living in France for 20 years, she has a feel for the way the French think. ▪ We're trying to get a feel for what's needed. b : an ability to use something or do something in a skillful way — usually + for ▪ He's been practicing for several weeks and he's starting to get a feel for the instrument. ▪ She has a feel for language.

3 : a feeling or sensation ▪ He liked the feel of the sun on his face.

4 Brit : an act of feeling or touching something ▪ They had a feel of the old leather. [=they felt the old leather]

by feel 1 : by feeling with your hands when you cannot see ▪ It was too dark too see anything, so she had to find the door knob by feel. 2 : by being guided by your physical feelings, your senses, etc., instead of by rules or directions ▪ an athlete who plays by feel

cop a feel see [2]COP

feel•er /ˈfi:lə/ noun, pl -ers [count]

1 : a movable part (such as an antenna) of an animal or insect that is used for touching things

2 : a suggestion or question to find out the thoughts or opinions of other people ▪ I haven't had a definite job offer yet, but I've received a few feelers. [=I've been asked if I am interested in a new job] — usually plural ▪ The companies have been putting out feelers about a merger. [=the companies have been quietly asking about the possibility of a merger]

feel–good /ˈfi:lˌgʊd/ adj, always used before a noun : producing good or happy feelings ▪ a feel-good movie feel•ing /ˈfi:lɪŋ/ noun, pl -ings

1 : an awareness by your body of something in it or on it : SENSATION [count] a feeling of pain/nausea ▪ I noticed tingling feelings in my fingers. ▪ She had a queasy feeling in her stomach. ▪ I had the feeling of something crawling across my foot. ▪ We enjoyed the feeling of walking barefoot in the sand. [noncount] He had no feeling in his right leg.

2 a : an emotional state or reaction [count] feelings of joy/sorrow/anger/love ▪ He's been troubled by feelings of guilt. ▪ There's no point in trying to hide your feelings. ▪ She's always had a kindly feeling towards them. = She always had kindly feelings towards them. ▪ I hope this decision won't cause any bad/ill feelings. [=cause any feelings of anger, dislike, etc.] ▪ I have a good feeling about this project. [=I expect this project to go well] ▪ He has ambivalent/mixed feelings about his new job [=he has both good and bad feelings about his new job] ▪ warm feelings [=good, pleasant, or friendly feelings] ▪ "I could really use a vacation." "I know the feeling." [=I know how you feel] ▪ The new security patrols gave residents a feeling of safety. [=the patrols made them feel safe] ▪ a feeling of comfort ▪ I didn't mean to insult you—no hard feelings, right? [=you're not angry, are you?] ▪ You hurt my feelings. [=you upset me; you made me feel bad] ▪ We pretended to like his artwork in order to spare his feelings. [=to avoid hurting his feelings] [noncount] They complained with feeling [=in a way that showed they were feeling strong emotion] about her decision. ▪ He spoke with feeling about the injustice he had seen. b [noncount] : thoughts of wanting to help someone who is sick, hungry, in trouble, etc. : SYMPATHY ▪ Have you no feeling for the plight of the homeless? — see also FELLOW FEELING

3 a [count] : an opinion or belief ▪ What's your feeling on/about this subject? = What are your feelings on/about this subject? ▪ I can see that you have strong feelings about this subject. ▪ I get the feeling [=impression] that you think I don't know what I'm doing. ▪ My feeling is that we need to hire more people. ▪ She shared her feelings with us on a variety of subjects. [=told us her opinions about a variety of subjects] ✧ If you have a/the feeling that something might happen or be true, you think it might happen or be true even though you have no definite reason to think so. ▪ He had the feeling (that) he was being watched, although he didn't see anyone. ▪ I had a feeling you'd say that. ▪ I have a nagging/funny feeling that I've forgotten something. ▪ I have a sneaky/sneaking feeling that my guess was wrong. ▪ Do you ever have the feeling [=have the sense, have the impression] (that) you're being watched? b [noncount] : an opinion or a way of thinking that is shared by many people ▪ Anti-war feeling has reached an all-time high. = There is strong feeling against the war. [=many people are opposed to the war]

4 [singular] : the general quality or character of a place or thing ▪ The story has an eerie feeling. [=feel, quality] ▪ a big city with a small-town feeling [=feel, atmosphere]

5 [noncount] : the quality of a work of art or performance that shows the emotion of the artist or performer ▪ You need to play this passage with more feeling. [=expression]

6 [singular] : an ability to understand the nature of something : [2]FEEL 2 ▪ a painter with a good feeling for color have feelings for : to feel love or affection for (someone) ▪ Even though they're divorced, it's obvious that they still have (tender) feelings for each other.

feel•ing•ly /ˈfi:lɪŋli/ adv [more ~; most ~] : in an emotional manner ▪ She wrote feelingly about the tragedy.

feet plural of [1]FOOT feet• rst /ˌfi:tˈfəst/ adv : with the feet leading ▪ She jumped into the pool feetfirst. — compare HEADFIRST

feign /ˈfeɪn/ verb feigns; feigned; feign•ing [+ obj] : to pretend to feel or be affected by (something) ▪ He would often feign [=fake] illness to get out of class. ▪ He feigned being ill. ▪ feign death/surprise/madness/sleep/ignorance – feigned adj ▪ She greeted him with feigned nonchalance.

[1]feint /ˈfeɪnt/ noun, pl feints [count] sports : a quick movement that you make to trick an opponent ▪ The boxer made a feint with his right, then followed with a left hook.

[2]feint verb feints; feint•ed; feint•ing [no obj] sports : to pretend to make an attack as a trick to fool your opponent : to make a feint ▪ He feinted with his right, then followed with a left hook.

feisty /ˈfaɪsti/ adj feist•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~] : not afraid to fight or argue : very lively and aggressive ▪ The novel features a feisty heroine. ▪ Even her opponents admire her feisty spirit. – feist•i•ness noun [noncount] ▪ They admire her feistiness.

feld•spar /ˈfɛldˌspɑə/ noun [noncount] : a very common type of mineral fe•lic•i•ta•tion /fɪˌlɪsəˈteɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions formal : CONGRATULATION 2 [noncount] a message of felicitation [plural] They offered their heartfelt felicitations. ▪ Felicitations to you and your family on this happy occasion.

fe•lic•i•tous /fɪˈlɪsətəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : very well suited for some purpose or situation : APPROPRIATE ▪ a felicitous combination of flavors ▪ a felicitous phrase – fe•lic•i•tous•ly adv ▪ expressing himself felicitously – fe•lic•i•tous•ness noun [noncount] fe•lic•i•ty /fɪˈlɪsəti/ noun, pl -ties formal

1 [noncount] : great happiness ▪ domestic/marital felicity

2 [count] : something that is pleasing and well chosen —

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 22 SESS: 22 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:33:17 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−f

usually plural ▪ He admired the movie for its stylistic felicities. ▪ felicities of phrasing
3 [noncount] : a talent for speaking or writing in a very effective way ▪ I've always admired his felicity with words.

[1]fe•line /'fi:ˌlaɪn/ adj
1 : of or relating to the cat family ▪ a feline species ▪ feline diseases
2 [more ~; most ~] : resembling a cat : like a cat's ▪ feline eyes ▪ They move with feline agility/grace.

[2]feline noun, pl -lines [count] formal : a feline animal : CAT ▪ domesticated felines

[1]fell past tense of [1]FALL

[2]fell /'fɛl/ verb fells; felled; fell•ing [+ obj]
1 : to cut down (a tree) ▪ using an ax to fell a tree
2 : to beat or knock down (someone or something) ▪ He's strong enough to fell an ox. — often used figuratively ▪ Their father was felled [=killed] by a heart attack at age 55.

[3]fell adj, formal + literary : very fierce or cruel ▪ a fell enemy/purpose in one fell swoop also at one fell swoop : with a single, quick action or effort ▪ The court has dismissed all of the charges against him in one fell swoop.

[4]fell noun, pl fells [count] Brit
1 : a hill in the north of England
2 : a high field or moor in the north of England

fel•la /'fɛlə/ noun, pl -las [count] informal 1 : a male person : FELLOW ▪ He's not a bad fella.
2 : BOYFRIEND ▪ She has a new fella.

fel•la•tio /fə'leɪʃiˌoʊ/ noun [noncount] : the act of stimulating a man's penis with the mouth for sexual pleasure

[1]fel•low /'fɛloʊ/ noun, pl -lows [count]
1 informal + somewhat old-fashioned a : a male person : a boy or man ▪ fellows and girls at a party ▪ He seems like an amiable fellow. [=guy] ▪ a fine fellow ▪ a young fellow like you ▪ Your son's a bright little fellow. b : a male companion of a girl or woman : BOYFRIEND ▪ She's found herself a new fellow.
2 old-fashioned : a member of a group of people who have shared interests, activities, etc. — usually plural ▪ He's eager to rejoin his fellows. ▪ She wants to protect the good reputation she enjoys among her fellows.
3 or Fellow a : a member of a literary, artistic, or scientific organization ▪ a fellow of the American College of Surgeons ▪ a Fellow of the Royal Society/Academy b : a senior member of some British colleges and universities
4 chiefly US : an advanced student at a university who is given money to pay for food, housing, etc. : a graduate student who has been granted a fellowship ▪ a postdoctoral fellow ▪ a teaching/research fellow [=a graduate student who gets money in exchange for teaching/research] ▪ a medical fellow

[2]fellow adj, always used before a noun — used to describe people who belong to the same group or class or who share a situation, experience, etc. ▪ He attended the concert with a fellow student. [=someone who is a student, as he is] ▪ her fellow employees/citizens — see also FELLOW MAN, FELLOW TRAVELER fellow feeling noun [noncount] : a feeling of shared interest or understanding ▪ There's a sense of sympathy and fellow feeling among members of the group.

fellow man noun, pl ~ men [count] : a person other than yourself : a fellow human being — usually used with my, our, his, her, etc., to refer to other people in general ▪ He has always tried to be of service to his fellow man. [=to other people] ▪ We have to learn to love our fellow man.

fel•low•ship /'fɛləˌʃɪp/ noun, pl -ships
1 [noncount] : a friendly relationship among people ▪ People came to the community dinner to share good food and good fellowship. [=company, companionship]
2 [noncount] : the relationship of people who share interests or feelings ▪ traditions that bind us together in fellowship
3 [count] : a group of people who have similar interests ▪ a youth fellowship ▪ a fellowship of writers
4 [count] a : an amount of money to pay for food, housing, etc., that is given to a graduate student who teaches or does research at a university ▪ She applied for a research fellowship in physics. ▪ He came to the university on a teaching fellowship. b : the position of a fellow at a university or college ▪ He holds a fellowship at the university.

fellow traveler (US) or Brit fellow traveller noun, pl ~ -ers [count]
1 : someone who is traveling in the same group or on the same train, airplane, etc., as you ▪ I struck up a conversation with one of my fellow travelers.
2 : someone who shares the opinions and beliefs of the people in a group or organization (especially the Communist Party) but does not belong to that group or organization ▪ He was not a member of the Communist Party or even a fellow traveler.

fel•on /'fɛlən/ noun, pl -ons [count] : a criminal who has committed a serious crime (called a felony) ▪ a convicted felon

fel•o•ny /'fɛləni/ noun, pl -nies [count] law : a serious crime (such as murder or rape) ▪ The crime is considered a felony under state law. ▪ He received a felony conviction. = He was convicted of committing a felony. ▪ He was convicted of felony murder/theft. — compare MISDEMEANOR – fe•lo•ni•ous /fɛ'loʊniəs/ adj ▪ felonious assault – fe•lo•ni•ous•ly adv ▪ charged with feloniously assaulting a police officer

[1]felt past tense and past participle of [1]FEEL

[2]felt /'fɛlt/ noun [noncount] : a soft, heavy cloth made by pressing together fibers of wool, cotton, or other materials ▪ She made her son's costume from scraps of felt. ▪ a felt hat felt–tip /'fɛltˌtɪp/ noun, pl -tips [count] : a pen that has a writing point made of felt — called also felt-tip pen; see picture at OFFICE

fem abbr female; feminine

[1]fe•male /'fi:ˌmeɪl/ adj
1 a : of or relating to the sex that can produce young or lay eggs ▪ a female bird/mammal/insect ▪ female [=women] athletes ▪ a study of female [=women's] sexuality b [more ~; most ~] : characteristic of girls or women ▪ a female [=feminine] voice/name c : having members who are all girls or women ▪ a female choir
2 of a plant : having only seed-producing flowers ▪ a female holly
3 technical : having a hole that another part (called a male part) fits into ▪ Most extension cords have a male plug on one end and a female plug on the other.
– fe•male•ness noun [noncount]

[2]female noun, pl -males [count]
1 : a woman or a girl : a female person ▪ She attended a school where there were more males than females.

> usage The use of female to mean "woman" or "girl" now occurs most commonly in scientific or technical language. ▪ According to the study, males scored about the same as females. ▪ The suspect was described as a white female aged about 30. In other contexts, it is often seen as a humorous or mildly insulting word. ▪ The shopping mall was mobbed by herds of adolescent females. ▪ He referred to his angry coworkers as "a bunch of spiteful females."

2 : an animal that can produce young or lay eggs : a female animal ▪ Females of this species weigh 8 to 10 pounds.
3 : a plant that can produce seed or fruit : a female plant

[1]fem•i•nine /'fɛmənən/ adj
1 [more ~; most ~] : of, relating to, or suited to women or girls ▪ a feminine look/appearance ▪ feminine beauty/mystique ▪ the feminine [=female] figure ▪ feminine hygiene ▪ The book examines the subject from a feminine perspective. ▪ They've added some feminine touches to the decor. ▪ He has a rather feminine [=effeminate] voice. — compare [1]MASCULINE
2 grammar, in some languages : of or belonging to the class of words (called a gender) that ordinarily includes most of the words referring to females ▪ a feminine noun ▪ the feminine gender ▪ The feminine form of the Spanish adjective "lindo" is "linda." — compare [1]MASCULINE, [1]NEUTER
– fem•i•nin•i•ty /ˌfɛmə'nɪnəti/ noun [noncount] ▪ old-fashioned notions about masculinity and femininity

[2]feminine noun, pl -nines [count] grammar, in some languages : a word or form of the feminine gender ▪ The feminine of the Spanish adjective "lindo" is "linda."

fem•i•nism /'fɛməˌnɪzəm/ noun [noncount]
1 : the belief that men and women should have equal rights and opportunities
2 : organized activity in support of women's rights and interests
– fem•i•nist /'fɛmənɪst/ noun, pl -nists [count] ▪ liberal feminists – feminist adj ▪ the feminist movement ▪ feminist theory

femme fa•tale /ˌfɛmfə'tæl/ noun, pl femmes fa•tales /ˌfɛmfə'tælz/ [count] : a very attractive woman who causes

F

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 23 SESS: 23 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:33:18 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-f

trouble or unhappiness for the men who become involved with her fe•mur /ˈfiːmə/ noun, pl fe•murs also fem•o•ra /ˈfɛmərə/ [count] medical : the long bone in the upper part of the leg — called also thighbone; see picture at HUMAN – fem•o•ral /ˈfɛmərəl/ adj, always used before a noun ▪ the femoral artery [=an artery that lies near the femur]

fen /ˈfɛn/ noun, pl fens [count] : low land that is completely or partly covered by water ▪ bogs and fens

[1]fence /ˈfɛns/ noun, pl fenc•es [count]
1 : a structure like a wall built outdoors usually of wood or metal that separates two areas or prevents people or animals from entering or leaving ▪ We put up a fence around our yard. — see picture at HOUSE; see also CHAIN-LINK FENCE
2 informal : a person who buys stolen property from thieves and sells it mend fences see [1]MEND on the fence : unable to decide about something ▪ He tried to persuade those still (sitting) on the fence to vote in his favor.
the grass is always greener on the other side (of the fence) see [1]GRASS – fence•less adj

[2]fence verb fences; fenced; fenc•ing
1 [+ obj] a : to put a fence around (a place or area) ▪ They've decided to fence (in) the yard. ▪ She fenced (off) a corner of the property to use as a garden. ▪ a house with a fenced-in yard b : to keep (something or someone) in or out with a fence ▪ He fenced (in) the sheep so they wouldn't wander too far.
2 [no obj] : to fight with swords : to practice the art or sport of fencing ▪ Do you fence? — sometimes used figuratively ▪ candidates fencing with each other in their televised debates
3 [+ obj] informal : to sell (stolen property) to someone who buys and sells stolen property as an illegal business : to sell (stolen property) to a fence ▪ He stole watches and fenced them on the street.
– fenc•er noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ A skilled fencer advances as his opponent retreats.

fencing noun [noncount]
1 : the art or sport of fighting with swords
2 : material that is used for making fences ▪ barbed-wire fencing

fend /ˈfɛnd/ verb fends; fend•ed; fend•ing fend for yourself : to do things without help : to do basic activities by yourself ▪ They had to fend for themselves while their mother was away. ▪ He's been fending for himself since his wife died.
fend off [phrasal verb] fend off (someone or something) or fend (someone or something) off : to defend yourself against (someone or something) ▪ They succeeded in fending off the attack/attackers. ▪ They have had to fend off allegations of voter fraud.

fend•er /ˈfɛndə/ noun, pl -ers [count]
1 US : a part of a vehicle that covers a wheel — called also (Brit) wing; see picture at CAR
2 US : a curved piece of metal that covers a wheel of a motorcycle or bicycle — called also (Brit) mudguard
3 : a low metal frame or screen placed in front of an open fireplace fender bender noun, pl ~ -ers [count] US, informal : a minor car accident ▪ She had a fender bender. = She was in a fender bender.

feng shui /ˈfʌŋˈʃwiː/ noun [noncount] : a Chinese system for positioning a building and the objects within a building in a way that is thought to agree with spiritual forces and to bring health and happiness

fen•nel /ˈfɛnl/ noun [noncount] : a garden plant that is grown for its seeds, stems, and leaves

fe•ral /ˈferəl/ adj
1 : of, relating to, or resembling a wild beast ▪ feral instincts ▪ They led a feral existence.
2 — used to describe an animal (such as a cat or dog) that has escaped and become wild ▪ feral cats

[1]fer•ment /fəˈmɛnt/ verb -ments; -ment•ed; -men•ting : to go through a chemical change that results in the production of alcohol [no obj] The wine ferments in oak barrels. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ He let the plan ferment [=develop] in his mind. [+ obj] Yeast ferments the sugar in the juice.
– fer•men•ta•tion /ˌfəmənˈteɪʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ Grape juice becomes wine through fermentation. ▪ the process of fermentation

[2]fer•ment /ˈfəˌmɛnt/ noun [noncount] : a situation in which there is much excitement and confusion caused by change ▪ The city was in a state of ferment after the election.

fern /ˈfən/ noun, pl ferns [count] : a type of plant that has large, delicate leaves and no flowers – fern•like /ˈfənˌlaɪk/ adj – ferny /ˈfəni/ adj ▪ a plant with ferny foliage ▪ a ferny courtyard fern

fe•ro•cious /fəˈroʊʃəs/ adv [more ~; most ~]
1 : very fierce or violent ▪ ferocious animals ▪ A ferocious wind swept the beach. ▪ He had a ferocious [=savage] look in his eye.
2 : very great or extreme ▪ The competition among the students was ferocious. ▪ ferocious heat ▪ a ferocious appetite – fe•ro•cious•ly adv ▪ ferociously strong winds ▪ a ferociously hot day – fe•ro•cious•ness noun [noncount] fe•roc•i•ty /fəˈrɑːsəti/ noun [noncount] : a very fierce or violent quality : the quality or state of being ferocious ▪ the ferocity of the lion's attack ▪ We were stunned by the ferocity of the storm.

[1]fer•ret /ˈferət/ noun, pl -rets [count] : a small animal that is related to the weasel and is used for hunting rodents

ferret

[2]ferret verb -rets; -ret•ed; -ret•ing
ferret out [phrasal verb] ferret out (something) or ferret (something) out : to find (something, such as information) by careful searching ▪ He's good at ferreting out the facts. ▪ ferret out answers/problems

Fer•ris wheel /ˈferəs-/ noun, pl ~ wheels [count] chiefly US : a very large upright wheel that has seats around its edge where people sit while the wheel turns ✧ Ferris wheels are rides that are found at amusement parks. — called also (Brit) big wheel

Ferris wheel

fer•rous /ˈferəs/ adj, technical : of, relating to, or containing iron ▪ ferrous metal/materials

fer•rule /ˈferəl/ noun, pl -rules [count] : a usually metal ring or cap that is placed around the end of a wooden stick or handle to strengthen it

[1]fer•ry /ˈferi/ verb -ries; -ried; -ry•ing [+ obj] : to carry or move (someone or something) on a vehicle (such as a boat or a car) usually for a short distance between two places ▪ The cars were ferried across the river. ▪ They ferry supplies to the island. ▪ A bus ferries visitors from the parking lot to the entrance gate. = A bus ferries visitors between the parking lot and the entrance gate.

[2]ferry noun, pl -ries [count]
1 : FERRYBOAT ▪ Ferries to both islands depart daily. ▪ You can get there by ferry. ▪ a ferry service/ride
2 : a place where a ferryboat operates ▪ We'll meet you at the ferry.

fer•ry•boat /ˈferiˌboʊt/ noun, pl -boats [count] : a boat that is used to carry people and things for a short distance between two places : a boat that ferries people and things fer•ry•man /ˈferimən/ noun, pl -men /-mən/ [count] : a person (especially a man) who operates a ferry

fer•tile /ˈfətl/ adj
1 [more ~; most ~] : producing many plants or crops : able to support the growth of many plants ▪ fertile [=rich] farmland/soil
2 [more ~; most ~] a : producing a large amount of something ▪ an area that is a fertile breeding ground for political extremism ▪ This subject remains a fertile field for additional

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 24 SESS: 8 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:33:19 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−f

investigation. b : producing many ideas ▪ He has a fertile mind. ▪ her fertile imagination 3 a : able to produce children, young animals, etc. ▪ healthy, fertile women/men ▪ a fertile cow/bull b : able to grow or develop ▪ a fertile egg

fer•til•i•ty /fə'tɪlətɪ/ noun [noncount] : the state or condition of being fertile: such as a : the ability to produce young ▪ She studied the effects of pollution on the fertility of the local fish population. ▪ The doctor ordered a test of his/her fertility. — often used before another noun ▪ a fertility test/drug ▪ a fertility god/idol b : the ability to support the growth of many plants ▪ The area is known for its soil fertility. c : the ability to produce many ideas ▪ the fertility of his imagination

fer•til•ize also Brit fer•til•ise /'fətə,laɪz/ verb -iz•es; -ized; -iz•ing
1 [+ obj] a : to make (an egg) able to grow and develop ▪ A single sperm fertilizes an egg. b : to make (a plant or flower) able to produce seeds ▪ Bees fertilize plants as they collect nectar from flowers.
2 : to make (soil, land, etc.) richer and better able to support plant growth by adding chemicals or a natural substance (such as manure) [+ obj] He fertilizes the lawn every year. [no obj] The soil is so rich there is no need to fertilize.
– fer•til•i•za•tion also Brit fer•til•i•sa•tion /,fətələ'zeɪʃən/ noun [noncount]

fer•til•iz•er also Brit fer•til•is•er /'fətə,laɪzə/ noun, pl -ers : a substance (such as manure or a special chemical) that is added to soil to help the growth of plants [noncount] We only use organic fertilizer in our gardens. [count] They use chemical fertilizers on their lawn.

fer•vent /'fəvənt/ adj [more ~; most ~] : felt very strongly ▪ He is known for his fervent [=passionate, zealous] nationalism. : having or showing very strong feelings ▪ They entered a fervent [=heated] debate over the death penalty. ▪ a fervent admirer/supporter/opponent
– fer•vent•ly adv ▪ fervently enthusiastic supporters

fer•vid /'fəvəd/ adj [more ~; most ~] somewhat formal : having or showing feelings that are very strong or too strong ▪ fervid fans
– fer•vid•ly adv

fer•vor (US) or Brit fer•vour /'fəvə/ noun [noncount] : a strong feeling of excitement and enthusiasm ▪ The fervor surrounding her campaign continued right through election day. ▪ The novel captures the revolutionary fervor of the period. ▪ religious fervor

fess /'fɛs/ verb fess•es; fessed; fess•ing
fess up [phrasal verb] chiefly US, informal : to admit that you have done something wrong : CONFESS ▪ At first he denied everything, but eventually he fessed up. ▪ He finally fessed up about his involvement. = He finally fessed up to being involved.

fes•ter /'fɛstə/ verb -ters; -tered; -ter•ing [no obj]
1 : to become painful and infected ▪ His wounds festered for days before he got medical attention. ▪ a festering sore
2 : to become worse as time passes ▪ His feelings of resentment have festered for years. ▪ We should deal with these problems now instead of allowing them to fester.

fes•ti•val /'fɛstəvəl/ noun, pl -vals [count]
1 : a special time or event when people gather to celebrate something ▪ Each year, a festival was held to celebrate the harvest. ▪ The town has a summer festival in the park.
2 : an organized series of performances ▪ a film/jazz festival

fes•tive /'fɛstɪv/ adj
1 [more ~; most ~] : cheerful and exciting : suited to a celebration or holiday ▪ The house looks very festive during the holidays. ▪ She was in a festive mood. ▪ The reunion will be a festive occasion.
2 Brit : of or relating to Christmas ▪ the festive season

fes•tiv•i•ty /'fɛ'stɪvətɪ/ noun, pl -ties
1 [noncount] : celebration and enjoyment ▪ The decorations give the hall an air of festivity.
2 festivities [plural] : enjoyable activities at the time of a holiday or other special occasion : festive activities ▪ The festivities will include a parade, a concert, and games for children. ▪ We enjoyed the New Year's Eve festivities.

[1]fes•toon /fɛ'stu:n/ verb -toons; -tooned; -toon•ing [+ obj] : to cover or decorate (something) with many small objects, pieces of paper, etc. ▪ We festooned the halls with leaves and white lights. ▪ The balcony is festooned in/with ivy. ▪ His office is festooned with newspaper clippings.

[2]festoon noun, pl -toons [count] : a long chain or strip of something (such as flowers or cloth) that is hung as a decoration — usually plural ▪ walls covered with festoons of flowers fe•ta /'fɛtə/ noun [noncount] : a type of white Greek cheese that is made from sheep's or goat's milk ▪ feta cheese fe•tal (US) or Brit foe•tal /'fi:tl/ adj : of or relating to a developing animal or human being that is not yet born : of or relating to a fetus ▪ a fetal heartbeat ▪ a fetal pig fetal position (US) or Brit foetal position noun [singular] : a position in which you lie on your side with both legs and both arms bent and pulled up to your chest and with your head bowed forward fetch /'fɛʧ/ verb fetch•es; fetched; fetch•ing

1 : to go after and bring back (someone or something) [+ obj] Wait here while I fetch [=get] the doctor. ▪ Please fetch me a drink. = Please fetch a drink for me. ▪ If you throw the ball the dog will fetch it. [no obj] Hunting dogs are trained to fetch.
2 [+ obj] : to be sold for (an amount of money) ▪ This table should fetch quite a bit at auction. ▪ The house fetched more than we expected.
fetch and carry : to do the kind of jobs that servants do for someone ▪ I won't fetch and carry for you all day.
fetch up [phrasal verb] chiefly Brit, informal : to reach or come to a place, condition, or situation that was not planned or expected ▪ She traveled throughout Europe and eventually fetched up [=ended up] in Italy.

fetching /'fɛʧɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~] somewhat old-fashioned : attractive or pleasing ▪ a fetching smile ▪ You look very fetching in that outfit.
– fetch•ing•ly adv ▪ fetchingly dressed

[1]fete or fête /'feɪt, 'fɛt/ noun, pl fetes [count]
1 US : a large party or celebration
2 Brit : an outdoor event for raising money that usually includes competitions and things for sale ▪ won a prize at the church/village fete

[2]fete or fête verb fetes or fêtes; fet•ed or fêt•ed; fet•ing or fêt•ing [+ obj] : to honor (a person) or celebrate (something) with a large party or public celebration ▪ They feted the winning team with banquets and parades. — often used as (be) feted ▪ She was feted for her contributions to science.

fet•id /'fɛtəd/ adj [more ~; most ~] : having a strong, unpleasant smell ▪ a fetid pool of water ▪ the fetid odor of rotting vegetables fe•tish /'fɛtɪʃ/ noun, pl -tish•es [count]

1 : a strong and unusual need or desire for something ▪ He has a fetish for secrecy.
2 : a need or desire for an object, body part, or activity for sexual excitement ▪ a shoe/foot/leather fetish
3 : an object that is believed to have magical powers ▪ He wore a fetish to ward off evil spirits.
– fe•tish•ism /'fɛtɪʃ,ɪzəm/ noun [noncount] ▪ sexual fetishism – fe•tish•ist /'fɛtɪʃɪst/ noun, pl -ists [count] ▪ a foot fetishist [=a person who has a foot fetish]

fet•lock /'fɛt,lɑ:k/ noun, pl -locks [count] : a part at the back of a horse's leg above the hoof fet•ter /'fɛtə/ verb -ters; -tered; -ter•ing [+ obj]

1 formal : to prevent (someone or something) from moving or acting freely ▪ He found himself fettered by responsibilities. ▪ restrictions that fetter [=hinder] creativity
2 old-fashioned : to put chains around someone's feet to prevent motion ▪ fetter [=shackle] a prisoner

fet•ters /'fɛtəz/ noun [plural]
1 formal : something that prevents someone or something from moving or acting freely ▪ She longs to be free of the fetters [=constraints] of family obligations.
2 : chains placed around a person's feet to restrict motion ▪ a prisoner in fetters [=shackles] fet•tle /'fɛtl/ noun [singular] informal : a person's physical state or condition — usually used in the phrase in fine fettle ▪ He seems to be in fine fettle this morning. [=he seems to be feeling very well; he seems very fit and cheerful] fet•tuc•ci•ne or fet•tuc•ci•ni or fet•tu•ci•ne or fet•tu•ci•ni /,fɛtə'ʧi:ni/ noun [noncount] : a type of pasta that is shaped like long, thin ribbons fe•tus or chiefly Brit foe•tus /'fi:təs/ noun, pl -tus•es [count] : a human being or animal in the later stages of development before it is born — compare EMBRYO feud /'fju:d/ noun, pl feuds [count] : a long and angry fight or quarrel between two people or two groups ▪ The workers' feud with management concerns health benefits and pay increases. ▪ Because of a family feud, they did not see each other for a decade. — see also BLOOD FEUD – feud verb feuds; feud•ed; feud•ing [no obj] ▪ They

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 25 SESS: 24 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:33:19 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-f

F

feuded (with each other) for years. ▪ The estate is not settled because the family is still feuding over the will.

feu•dal /ˈfju:dl/ adj : of or relating to feudalism ▪ the feudal system ▪ a feudal law/lord

feu•dal•ism /ˈfju:dəˌlɪzəm/ noun [noncount] : a social system that existed in Europe during the Middle Ages in which people worked and fought for nobles who gave them protection and the use of land in return fe•ver /ˈfi:vɚ/ noun, pl -vers

1 a : a body temperature that is higher than normal [count] He has had a fever for two days. = He has been running a fever for two days. [noncount] The symptoms of the disease include headache and fever. b [count] : a disease that causes an increase in body temperature ▪ She caught a fever. — see also HAY FEVER, RHEUMATIC FEVER, SCARLET FEVER, YELLOW FEVER

2 [singular] a : a state of excited emotion or activity ▪ We waited in a fever of anticipation. ▪ He had us all in a fever with worry. — see also CABIN FEVER, SPRING FEVER b : a state of great enthusiasm or interest ▪ Every fall the town develops football fever. [=the town becomes very excited about football]

fever blister noun, pl ~ -ters [count] US : COLD SORE fe•vered /ˈfi:vɚd/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : having or affected by a fever — usually used in the phrase fevered brow ▪ She wiped the sweat from his fevered brow.

2 : very excited or active ▪ fevered activity/experimentation ▪ a fevered imagination fe•ver•ish /ˈfi:vərɪʃ/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 a : having a fever : suffering from a higher than normal body temperature caused by illness ▪ She was feeling tired and feverish. b : of or relating to a fever ▪ a feverish nightmare ▪ He had a feverish appearance.

2 : involving intense emotion or activity : feeling or showing great or extreme excitement ▪ We waited for the announcement with feverish [=eager] anticipation. ▪ feverish [=hectic] activity fever pitch noun : a state of extreme excitement or activity [singular] I worked myself up to/into a fever pitch of enthusiasm. ▪ New allegations brought interest in the scandal to a fever pitch. [noncount] Demand for the new car soon reached fever pitch.

– fe•ver•ish•ly adv ▪ We worked feverishly to prepare for the party.

[1]few /ˈfju:/ adj few•er; -est

1 : not many ▪ Few people came. ▪ the next/last/past few weeks ▪ I know (very) few people in the class. ▪ Music is one of my (very) few pleasures. ▪ He caught fewer fish than the rest of us. ▪ There are fewer children at the school this year. ▪ Not many people came, but the few people who did enjoyed themselves. ▪ Few (if any) people understand me.

2 : not many but some — used in the phrase a few ▪ Only/Just a few people came. ▪ We went out for a few drinks after work. ▪ I know a few people in the class. ▪ The train leaves in a few minutes. ✧ The phrases quite a few and, less commonly, not a few or (chiefly Brit) a good few all mean "fairly many." ▪ Quite a few students from our high school go on to college.

as few as — used to suggest that a number or amount is surprisingly small ▪ The procedure is recommended by as few as [=only] one out of five doctors. ▪ As few as half the students passed the test.

few and far between : not common or frequent ▪ Really good movies are few and far between. [=there are not many really good movies] ▪ Opportunities like that are few and far between.

no fewer than : at least — used to suggest that a number or amount is surprisingly large ▪ No fewer than 1,000 people attended the meeting. ▪ No fewer than 80 percent of registered voters turned out for the primary.

of few words ✧ A person of few words is someone who does not talk very much. ▪ a man/woman of few words

[2]few pronoun

1 : not many people or things ▪ (Very) Few came. ▪ His stories may be entertaining, but few (if any) are true. = They may be entertaining, but few (if any) of his stories are true. ▪ There are many students in the class, but I know very few (of them). ▪ "Never . . . was so much owed by so many to so few." —Sir Winston Churchill, Speech (August, 1940)

2 : some people or things — used in the phrase a few ▪ A few came. ▪ I bought several magazines and I read a few (of them). ▪ Unfortunately, a few of the people who came failed to enjoy themselves. ▪ We gave away most of the photographs but we kept a few (of them). ▪ They sold a few of the books. ▪ She met a few of my relatives. ✧ The phrases quite a few and, less commonly, not a few or (chiefly Brit) a good few all mean "fairly many." ▪ Not all our students go on to college, but quite a few (of them) do. [=a large number of our students do] have a few or have a few too many informal : to have too many alcoholic drinks ▪ We could tell from his slurred speech that he'd had a few. ▪ It looks like she had a few too many.

3 : a small number of people or things that are chosen or regarded as special or unusual in some way ▪ A select few will receive advance tickets. ▪ A sophisticated movie like this only appeals to the discriminating few.

[1]few•er /ˈfju:wɚ/ adj : not so many : a smaller number of ▪ I take fewer (and fewer) vacations every year. ▪ He teaches (many) fewer classes than I do. usage see [1]LESS

[2]fewer pronoun : a smaller number of people or things ▪ Fewer came than were expected. ▪ Few know and (even) fewer care about local history. ▪ Fewer than 50 percent of registered voters turned out for the primary.

fez /ˈfɛz/ noun, pl fez•zes [count] : a type of round red hat that has a flat top and no brim ✧ Fezzes are worn by men in some Middle Eastern countries.

fez

•an•cé /ˌfi:ˌɑ:nˈseɪ, fiˈɑ:nˌseɪ/ noun, pl -cés [count] : a man that a woman is engaged to be married to ▪ Let me introduce my fiancé.

•an•cée /ˌfi:ˌɑ:nˈseɪ, fiˈɑ:nˌseɪ/ noun, pl -cées [count] : a woman that a man is engaged to be married to ▪ My fiancée and I will be married in June.

•as•co /fiˈæskoʊ/ noun, pl -coes [count] : a complete failure or disaster ▪ The party turned into a complete/utter fiasco. ▪ a political fiasco

•at /ˈfi:ət, ˈfaɪˌæt/ noun, pl -ats formal : an official order given by someone who has power : an order that must be followed [count] a judicial fiat [noncount] He runs the company by fiat. ▪ government by fiat

[1] b /ˈfɪb/ noun, pl bs [count] informal : an untrue statement about something minor or unimportant ▪ I have to admit that I told a fib when I said I enjoyed the movie. ▪ Is she telling fibs again?

[2] b verb bs ; bbed ; b•bing [no obj] informal : to tell a fib : to make an untrue statement about something minor or unimportant ▪ I fibbed when I said that I enjoyed the movie. ▪ He fibbed about his weight.

•ber (US) or Brit •bre /ˈfaɪbɚ/ noun, pl -bers

1 [noncount] : plant material that cannot be digested but that helps you to digest other food ▪ It's important to get enough fiber in your diet. ▪ dietary fiber ▪ What foods do you recommend as good sources of fiber? ▪ foods that are high in fiber

2 a : a thin thread of natural or artificial material that can be used to make cloth, paper, etc. [count] The fabric is made from a mix of synthetic fibers. ▪ The natural fibers allow the fabric to breathe. [noncount] The paper is made from both cotton and wood fiber. b : material (such as cloth) that is made from thin threads : something made of fibers [count] Nylon is a very strong man-made fiber. [noncount] The police examined hair and bits of fiber found in the victim's car.

3 [count] : a long, thin piece of material that forms a type of tissue in your body ▪ muscle/nerve fibers

4 [noncount] formal : strength or toughness of character ▪ cultural changes that have weakened the moral fiber of our nation's youth with every fiber of your being : with all of your effort or desire ▪ She wanted to be a doctor with every fiber of her being. ▪ He fought with every fiber of his being for freedom.

•ber•board (US) or Brit •bre•board /ˈfaɪbɚˌboɚd/ noun [noncount] : a type of board made by pressing fibers of wood into stiff sheets

•ber•glass (US) or Brit •bre•glass /ˈfaɪbɚˌglæs, Brit ˈfaɪbəˌglɑ:s/ noun [noncount] : a light and strong material that is made from thin threads of glass and that is used in making various products — often used before another noun ▪ a fiberglass boat

ber optics (US) or Brit bre optics noun [noncount] technical : the use of thin threads of glass or plastic to carry

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 26 SESS: 24 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:33:20 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-f

very large amounts of information in the form of light signals
– •ber–op•tic (US) or Brit •bre–op •tic /ˈfaɪbəˌɑːptɪk/ adj, technical ▪ a fiber-optic cable/network

•brous /ˈfaɪbrəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] : containing, made of, or resembling fibers ▪ He had surgery to remove fibrous scar tissue in his knee. ▪ The vegetable has a fibrous [=stringy, tough] texture.

b•u•la /ˈfɪbjələ/ noun, pl -lae /-li/ or -las [count] medical : the outer one of the two bones below the knee in a person's leg — see picture at HUMAN ck•le /ˈfɪkəl/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : changing often ▪ fickle weather
2 disapproving : changing opinions often ▪ fickle friends/supporters ▪ He blames poor sales on fickle consumers.
– ck •le•ness noun [noncount] ▪ the fickleness of the weather

c•tion /ˈfɪkʃən/ noun, pl -tions
1 [noncount] : written stories about people and events that are not real : literature that tells stories which are imagined by the writer ▪ She mainly writes fiction. ▪ great works of fiction — compare NONFICTION; see also SCIENCE FICTION
2 : something that is not true [noncount] His explanation of what happened was pure fiction. [=was completely untrue] [count] She believes the fiction that crime rates are up.
– c •tion•al /ˈfɪkʃənl/ adj ▪ a fictional character/place ▪ She wrote a fictional account of a family living during the war.

c•tion•al•ize also Brit c•tion•al•ise /ˈfɪkʃənəˌlaɪz/ verb -iz•es; -ized; -iz•ing [+ obj] : to change (a true story) into fiction by changing or adding details ▪ The book is a fictionalized account of their travels. ▪ Her books are based in fact, but she fictionalizes many of the events.
– c •tion•al•i•za•tion also Brit c•tion•al•i•sa•tion /ˌfɪkʃənələˈzeɪʃən, Brit ˌfɪkʃənəˌlaɪˈzeɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count, noncount] ▪ the fictionalization of a true story

c•ti•tious /fɪkˈtɪʃəs/ adj : not true or real ▪ a fictitious story ▪ The characters in the book are all fictitious. ▪ She gave a fictitious address on the application.

[1] d•dle /ˈfɪdl/ noun, pl d•dles [count] informal
1 : VIOLIN ▪ an expert with/on the fiddle
2 Brit : a dishonest way of getting money : SWINDLE, SCAM ▪ arrested for a tax fiddle fit as a fiddle see [1]FIT play second fiddle : to have a less important position or status than someone or something else : to be regarded or treated as less important ▪ a former star athlete who is not happy to play second fiddle as he nears the end of his career — often + to ▪ He's not happy to play second fiddle to the younger players on the team.

[2] ddle verb d•dles ; d•dled ; d•dling /ˈfɪdlɪŋ/
1 [no obj] informal : to play a violin ▪ Nero fiddled while Rome burned. — used especially to describe playing folk music, country music, etc., on a violin ▪ a fiddling competition
2 [+ obj] chiefly Brit, informal : to secretly change (something, such as information) in a harmful or dishonest way ▪ fiddle [=fudge] the accounts/books fiddle around or chiefly Brit fiddle about [phrasal verb] : to spend time in activity that does not have a real purpose ▪ They spent hours just fiddling [=fooling] around when they should have been working.
fiddle with [phrasal verb] fiddle with (something) 1 : to move or handle (something) with your hands or fingers in a nervous way ▪ She was nervously fiddling with her pen as she waited for the test to start. 2 : to change or handle (something, such as the controls of a machine) in a way that shows you are not sure what to do ▪ He was fiddling [=tinkering] with the controls of the television, trying to get it to work. 3 : to change (something) in a harmful or foolish way ▪ It became clear that someone had fiddled [=tampered] with the equipment.
– d •dler /ˈfɪdlə/ noun, pl d•dlers [count] ▪ an expert/champion fiddler ▪ (Brit) tax fiddlers [=people who lie to avoid paying taxes]

d•dle•sticks /ˈfɪdlˌstɪks/ interj, informal + old-fashioned — used to express mild anger or disagreement ▪ "I had nothing to do with it." "Oh, fiddlesticks! I know you did."

d•dly /ˈfɪdli/ adj d•dli•er ; -dli•est [or more ~; most ~] chiefly Brit, informal : awkward or difficult to handle because of many small parts or details ▪ connecting up all the wires and the other fiddly bits

•del•i•ty /fəˈdɛləti/ noun [noncount]
1 a : the quality of being faithful to your husband, wife, or sexual partner ▪ She began to doubt her husband's fidelity. [=to wonder if he was having an affair with another woman] ▪ sexual fidelity — often + to ▪ his fidelity to his wife — opposite INFIDELITY b : the quality of being faithful or loyal to a country, organization, etc. — usually + to ▪ No one can doubt his fidelity [=devotion] to his country.
2 : the degree to which something matches or copies something else — + to ▪ The movie's director insisted on total fidelity to the book. [=insisted that the story told in the movie should accurately copy the story told in the book]
3 : the degree to which a device (such as a CD player, radio, or television) correctly reproduces sounds, pictures, etc. ▪ music with much higher fidelity than on cassettes ▪ a printer with outstanding color fidelity [=a printer that produces very accurate colors] — see also HIGH FIDELITY dg•et /ˈfɪʤət/ verb -ets; -et•ed; -et•ing [no obj] : to make a lot of small movements because you are nervous, bored, etc. : to move or act in a nervous or restless way ▪ He was constantly fidgeting in his chair.

fidget with [phrasal verb] fidget with (something) : to move or handle (something) with your hands and fingers in a nervous way ▪ He was fidgeting [=fiddling] with his tie before the presentation.

dg•ety /ˈfɪʤəti/ adj [more ~; most ~] : moving a lot because of nervousnees, boredom, etc. : tending to fidget ▪ He grew more fidgety with each passing hour. ▪ Coffee makes me fidgety. [=jumpy, restless]

•du•ci•ary /fəˈduːʃiˌeri, Brit fɪˈdjuːʃiəri/ adj, formal : relating to or involving trust (such as the trust between a customer and a professional) ▪ a fiduciary capacity/duty ▪ a bank's fiduciary obligations

ef /ˈfiːf/ noun, pl efs [count] : a large area of land that was ruled over by a lord in medieval times : a feudal estate — sometimes used figuratively ▪ a politician's fief [=fiefdom]

ef•dom /ˈfiːfdəm/ noun, pl -doms [count] : an area over which a person has control ▪ The coaches viewed their school districts as personal fiefdoms.

[1] eld /ˈfiːld/ noun, pl elds [count]
1 a : an open area of land without trees or buildings ▪ He gazed out across the fields. ▪ a grassy/muddy field ▪ green fields ▪ an open field — see also ICE FIELD b : an area of land that has a special use ▪ farm fields ▪ a field of wheat = a wheat field ▪ cotton/tobacco fields — see color picture on page C7; see also OIL FIELD
2 : an area of work, study, etc. ▪ She hopes to find work in the health field. ▪ She is a pioneer/leader in the field of genetic research. ▪ a lawyer who is eminent in his field ▪ working in his chosen field ▪ fields of learning/interest/study ▪ a fascinating field of endeavor
3 a : an area of land that is used for sports ▪ football/athletic/baseball/soccer fields ▪ a ball field ▪ The home team took the field. [=ran out onto the field to begin play] ▪ Spectators are not allowed on the field of play. [=playing field] ▪ The team has been tough to beat on its home field. [=its own field where it plays in front of its fans] ✧ In a baseball or cricket game, when one team is batting the other team is in the field. — see also CENTER FIELD, FIELD EVENT, LEFT FIELD, PLAYING FIELD, RIGHT FIELD, TRACK AND FIELD b ✧ In basketball a shot taken from the field is a shot taken during ordinary play rather than a free throw. ▪ They shot well from the field but they missed too many free throws.
4 : the area where work is done away from a laboratory, office, etc. ▪ archaeologists/salesmen working in the field — often used before another noun ▪ She will be doing field research in South America. ▪ field studies ▪ The product has been tested under field conditions of actual use. ▪ field workers — see also FIELD-TEST, FIELDWORK
5 : the group of people, horses, teams, etc., that are in a race or other competition ▪ a race with a large field of runners ▪ The presidential election has attracted a large field of candidates. ▪ She was leading/trailing the field by a wide margin. — often used figuratively ▪ The company is working hard to stay/keep ahead of the field. [=to continue to be more successful than its competitors]
6 : a place where battles and other military activities happen ▪ the field of battle ▪ soldiers in the field — see also BATTLEFIELD, LANDING FIELD, MINEFIELD
7 : a region or space in which an effect or force (such as gravity, electricity, or magnetism) exists ▪ an electric/magnetic field
8 : an area in which a particular type of information is

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 27 SESS: 8 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:33:20 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-f

placed ▪ You must complete all fields before submitting the form. ▪ (computers) The database is separated into several different fields.

9 : FIELD OF VISION ▪ Nothing moved within his visual field. — see also FIELD OF VIEW

play the field see [1]PLAY

[2]field verb fields; field•ed; field•ing [+ obj]

1 baseball or cricket : to catch or stop and throw a ball ▪ The shortstop fielded the ground ball. ▪ a fielding error; also : to play (a position) on a baseball team ▪ a shortstop who fields his position flawlessly

2 a : to deal with or respond to (something, such as a telephone call or a request) ▪ Last week she fielded two offers on her house. ▪ His secretary will field requests for more information. b : to give an answer to (a question) ▪ The senator fielded the reporters' questions.

3 : to put (a team, army, etc.) into the field to compete or fight ▪ They expect to field a strong team this year. ▪ the greatest fighting force that any nation has ever fielded field day noun, pl ~ days [count] : a day of outdoor sports and athletic competition for school children ▪ the fifth grade's annual field day have a field day : to get a lot of pleasure and enjoyment from doing something — used especially to describe getting enjoyment from criticizing someone, making fun of someone, etc. ▪ If word of his involvement in this scandal ever leaks out, the newspapers are going to have a field day. ▪ Journalists have had a field day with this scandal.

field•er /ˈfi:ldə/ noun, pl -ers [count] baseball or cricket : a player who is in the field while the opposing team is batting field event noun, pl ~ events [count] : an event in a track meet that is not a race ▪ a discus thrower who excelled at all the field events

field glasses noun [plural] : BINOCULARS field goal noun, pl ~ goals [count]

1 American football : a score of three points made by kicking the ball between the goalposts ▪ He kicked a 20-yard field goal. ▪ They've won three games by less than a field goal. [=by fewer than three points]

2 basketball : BASKET 2b ▪ a three-point field goal field guide noun, pl ~ guides [count] : a book that helps you to identify birds, plants, animals, rocks, etc. ▪ a field guide to the birds field hand noun, pl ~ hands [count] US : a person who is hired to work on a farm : FARMHAND field hockey noun [noncount] US + Canada : a game that is played on a field in which each team uses curved sticks to try to hit the ball into the opponent's goal — called also (chiefly Brit) hockey; compare ICE HOCKEY field house noun, pl ~ houses [count] US : a large building that is used for athletic events and that usually has seats for spectators field marshal noun, pl ~ -shals [count] : the highest ranking military officer in the British Army field mouse noun, pl ~ mice [count] : a type of mouse that lives in open fields field of view noun, pl fields of view [count]

1 : the area that can be seen when you look through a telescope, a pair of binoculars, etc. ▪ the telescope's field of view

2 : FIELD OF VISION

field of vision noun, pl fields of vision [count] : the area that you can see without moving your eyes ▪ He ran right through my field of vision. ▪ She has a blind spot in the middle of her field of vision.

field•stone /ˈfi:ldˌstoʊn/ noun, pl -stones [count] : a stone that is taken from a field and used in its natural form ▪ They used plain fieldstones as grave markers. — often used before another noun ▪ a fieldstone fireplace field–test /ˈfi:ldˌtɛst/ verb -tests; -test•ed; -test•ing [+ obj] : to test (something, such as a product) by using it in the actual conditions it was designed for ▪ These products need to be thoroughly field-tested before we can begin using them.

– field test noun, pl ~ tests [count] ▪ doing a field test of the prototype field trip noun, pl ~ trips [count] : a visit to a place (such as a museum or zoo) that is made by students to learn about something ▪ We took a class field trip to the power plant. ▪ We went on a field trip.

field•work /ˈfi:ldˌwəːk/ noun [noncount] : the work of gathering information by going into the field (sense 4) ▪ an anthropologist who has done fieldwork in the South Pacific

fiend /ˈfi:nd/ noun, pl fiends [count]

1 a : an evil spirit : a demon or devil b : a very evil or cruel person ▪ a murderous fiend ▪ a fiend in human form

2 informal a : a person who is very enthusiastic about something : FANATIC ▪ He's a real golf fiend. ▪ a fresh air fiend ▪ He's a fiend for physical fitness. [=he is very devoted to physical fitness] b : a person who is addicted to a drug or to a kind of behavior ▪ a dope/drug fiend [=addict] ▪ a sex fiend like a fiend chiefly US, informal — used to say that someone does a lot of something ▪ She's been working like a fiend. [=working very hard] ▪ He smokes like a fiend.

fiend•ish /ˈfi:ndɪʃ/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : very evil or cruel ▪ a fiendish murderer ▪ He takes a fiendish delight in hurting people. ▪ a fiendish contraption ▪ a fiendish [=diabolical] plot to destroy the world

2 : extremely bad, unpleasant, or difficult ▪ fiendish weather ▪ a fiendish problem

– fiend•ish•ly adv ▪ a fiendishly clever plot ▪ a fiendishly hot sun ▪ a fiendishly coldhearted murderer ▪ fiendishly complex tools and machinery – fiend•ish•ness noun [noncount] ▪ a plot of incredible fiendishness

fierce /ˈfirs/ adj fierc•er; -est

1 a : very violent ▪ He was killed in a fierce battle. ▪ a fierce assault/attack ▪ fierce combat/fighting b : eager to fight or kill ▪ a fierce tiger/warrior ▪ a fierce fighter

2 : having or showing a lot of strong emotion : very strong or intense ▪ a fierce argument/struggle ▪ The proposal has faced fierce opposition. ▪ The two teams have had a fierce rivalry for many years. ▪ fierce enthusiasm ▪ He's admired for his fierce independence. ▪ She's a fierce competitor. ▪ You could see the fierce determination in her eyes.

3 : very harsh or powerful ▪ a fierce desert wind ▪ a fierce heat wave ▪ a fierce storm/squall ▪ She was suffering through fierce [=excruciating] pain.

something fierce US, informal : very badly or very much ▪ I miss her something fierce. [=tremendously] ▪ I need a vacation something fierce.

– fierce•ly adv [more ~; most ~] ▪ He has been fiercely denounced by his former associates. ▪ a fiercely partisan/independent voter ▪ the fiercely hot sun ▪ fiercely protective/loyal – fierce•ness noun [noncount] fi•ery /ˈfajəri/ adj fi•er•i•er; -est [or more ~; most ~]

1 : having or producing fire ▪ the fiery [=blazing] interior of the furnace ▪ He was killed in a fiery crash/explosion. ▪ a fiery volcano

2 of food : tasting very hot and spicy ▪ fiery chili peppers ▪ a fiery sauce

3 a : having or showing a lot of strong and angry emotion ▪ a fiery speech/sermon ▪ a fiery young politician ▪ fiery determination b : easily made angry ▪ He has a fiery temper. [=he becomes angry very easily]

4 : having the color of fire ▪ a fiery sunset ▪ a fiery red/orange color

– fi•er•i•ness noun [noncount]

fi•es•ta /fiˈɛstə/ noun, pl -tas [count] : a public celebration in Spain and Latin America with parades and dances in honor of a saint fife /ˈfaɪf/ noun, pl fifes [count] : a musical instrument that looks like a small flute

fif•teen /ˌfɪfˈti:n/ noun, pl -teens [count] : the number 15

– fifteen adj ▪ fifteen dollars – fifteen pronoun ▪ Only fifteen (of them) showed up on time. – fif•teenth /ˌfɪfˈti:nθ/ noun, pl -teenths [count] ▪ the fifteenth of September ▪ one fifteenth of the total – fifteenth adj ▪ the fifteenth day – fifteenth adv ▪ Their boat finished fifteenth.

[1]fifth /ˈfɪθ, ˈfɪfθ/ noun, pl fifths

1 [singular] : number five in a series ▪ The bill is due on the fifth of each month.

2 [count] : one of five equal parts of something ▪ She donated a fifth of her income to charity.

3 [count] : a unit of measure for alcoholic liquor that is equal to one fifth of a U.S. gallon (approximately 750 ml); also : a bottle that holds this amount of liquor ▪ bought a fifth of whiskey take/plead the Fifth chiefly US : to refuse to answer questions in a court of law because your answers might be harmful to you or might show that you have committed a crime ▪ When called to testify, he took the Fifth. — often used figuratively ▪ He took the Fifth [=he refused to answer] when his wife asked him where he'd spent the night. ✧ The phrase take/plead the Fifth refers to the Fifth Amendment of the U.S. Constitution, which says that citizens of the U.S. cannot be required to give testimony that could be used against them in a court of law.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 28 SESS: 24 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:33:21 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−f

[2]fifth adj : occupying the number five position in a series ▪ the fifth dancer in the line ▪ the fifth annual awards banquet
– fifth adv ▪ the nation's fifth largest city ▪ She finished fifth in the race.

fifth wheel noun, pl ~ wheels [count] informal : an extra person who is not needed in a group ▪ He felt more and more like a fifth wheel at the office.

fif•ty /ˈfɪfti/ noun, pl -ties
1 [count] : the number 50
2 fifties [plural] a : the numbers ranging from 50 to 59 b : a set of years ending in digits ranging from 50 to 59 ▪ She is in her fifties. ▪ He fondly remembers growing up in the fifties. [=1950–1959]
3 [count] US : a fifty-dollar bill ▪ The bill for dinner came to $43, and she gave him a fifty.
– fif•ti•eth /ˈfɪftiəθ/ adj ▪ their fiftieth wedding anniversary – fiftieth noun, pl -eths [count] ▪ one fiftieth of the total
– fifty adj ▪ fifty cars in the parking lot – fifty pronoun ▪ Fifty (of them) were wounded in battle. – fif•ty•ish /ˈfɪftiɪʃ/ adj ▪ He looked fiftyish. [=about 50 years old]

fif•ty–fif•ty /ˌfɪftiˈfɪfti/ adj
1 : shared equally ▪ a fifty-fifty split [=an equal split] ▪ a fifty-fifty blend of cotton and polyester
2 : equally good and bad ▪ We have a fifty-fifty chance of succeeding. [=we are as likely to succeed as we are to fail] – fifty–fifty adv ▪ They divided/split the expenses fifty-fifty. [=equally]

fig /ˈfɪg/ noun, pl figs [count]
1 : a sweet fruit that grows on a tree and that is usually eaten dry — see color picture on page C5
2 informal + old-fashioned : anything at all — usually used in negative statements ▪ He doesn't care a fig [=doesn't care at all] about what others think. ▪ I don't give a fig whether he comes or goes.

fig. abbr figure

[1]fight /ˈfaɪt/ verb fights; fought /ˈfɑːt/; fight•ing
1 a : to use weapons or physical force to try to hurt someone, to defeat an enemy, etc. : to struggle in battle or physical combat [no obj] The soldiers fought bravely. ▪ When he was young he was always fighting. ▪ He fought like a tiger. ▪ The U.S. and Germany fought in World Wars I and II. — often + against ▪ The U.S. fought against Germany in World Wars I and II. [+ obj] They vowed to fight the invaders of their homeland. ▪ The U.S. fought Germany in World Wars I and II. b [+ obj] : to be involved in (a battle, struggle, etc.) ▪ fight [=wage] a war/battle for independence ▪ fighting a duel ▪ I think we're fighting a losing battle. [=we are trying to do something that we will not be able to do]
2 [no obj] : to argue in an angry way ▪ He and his wife are always fighting over/about money. ▪ They fight (with each other) all the time.
3 [no obj] : to try hard to do something that is difficult ▪ They were fighting [=struggling] to stay awake/alive. ▪ We were fighting to protect our jobs.
4 a : to work hard to defeat, end, or prevent something [no obj] fighting against poverty ▪ fighting against AIDS/cancer/crime [+ obj] fighting poverty ▪ The company fought the takeover attempt. ▪ His lawyers have vowed that they will fight the court's decision. ▪ fight a fire ▪ fight crime b [+ obj] : to struggle against (something) ▪ I've been fighting a cold all week. ▪ We had to fight traffic [=to drive through a lot of traffic] all the way home.
5 [+ obj] : to try not to be affected by (a feeling, urge, etc.) ▪ He was fighting the urge/impulse to laugh. [=he was trying not to laugh]
6 : to participate in the sport of boxing [no obj] He will fight for the heavyweight title next month. [+ obj] He has fought several worthy opponents. ▪ He fought several difficult matches on his way to the title.
fight back [phrasal verb] 1 : to attack or try to defeat someone who is attacking or trying to defeat you ▪ We can't just let them make these accusations against us. We need to fight back! 2 : to make a new effort against an opponent ▪ They fell behind early in the game, but they were able to fight back and tie the score in the second half. — see also FIGHTBACK 3 ✧ Someone who is fighting back tears is trying very hard not to cry. ▪ He was fighting back tears as he announced his resignation.
fight fire with fire : to fight against an opponent by using the same methods or weapons that the opponent uses fight for [phrasal verb] fight for (something) 1 : to fight in support of (something) ▪ young soldiers fighting for their country ▪ This is a cause that's worth fighting for. 2 : to fight or struggle to get, keep, or achieve (something) ▪ The team is fighting for a spot in the play-offs. ▪ The two armies fought all night for control of the fort. ▪ We are fighting for our rights as citizens. ▪ They had to fight for survival. ▪ When they brought him to the hospital, he was fighting for breath. [=he was struggling to breathe] ▪ Her condition is very serious. She's fighting for her life. [=she is struggling to survive; she is in danger of dying] fight it out 1 : to be in a fight ▪ People were fighting it out over parking spaces. 2 : to end a dispute by fighting or arguing ▪ This matter won't be settled until the lawyers fight it out in court.
fight like cats and dogs (chiefly US) or Brit fight like cat and dog informal : to fight or argue a lot or in a very forceful and angry way ▪ a married couple who are always fighting like cats and dogs fight off [phrasal verb] fight (someone or something) off or fight off (someone or something) : to defend yourself against (someone or something) by fighting or struggling : to avoid being harmed or overcome by (someone or something) by fighting or struggling ▪ They fought off the attack/attackers. ▪ I'm trying to fight off a cold.
fight on [phrasal verb] : to continue fighting ▪ He vowed that he would fight on alone.
fight shy of see [1]SHY fight the good fight : to try very hard to do what is right ▪ He has always fought the good fight against oppression.
fight with [phrasal verb] fight with (someone or something) 1 : to fight against (someone or something) ▪ He fought with his wife over/about money. ▪ The U.S. fought with Germany in World Wars I and II. ▪ He fought with several worthy opponents. 2 : to fight on the same side as (someone or something) ▪ The U.S. fought (together) with the Soviet Union in World War II. 3 : to fight by using (something, such as a weapon) ▪ They were fighting with knives. ▪ They fought with their fists.
fight your way : to move forward or make progress by pushing, fighting, or struggling ▪ He fought his way through the crowd. ▪ They've had to fight their way through a lot of red tape to get the project approved.
– fighting adj ▪ a powerful fighting force ▪ a fighting ship ▪ They admired his fighting [=aggressive] spirit. — see also fighting chance at [1]CHANCE ✧ Fighting words are angry or insulting words that are likely to cause a fight. ✧ In U.S. English, someone who is fighting mad is angry enough to fight. ▪ Some voters are fighting mad about the outcome of the election. – fighting noun [noncount] ▪ Fighting has broken out along the border. ▪ There are reports of (heavy) fighting between rival factions.

[2]fight noun, pl fights
1 [count] : a violent physical struggle between opponents ▪ A fight broke out in the bar. ▪ a bar fight ▪ a street fight ▪ a knife fight [=a fight using knives] ▪ When he was young he was always getting into fights. ▪ It would be foolish to pick a fight [=start a fight] with that guy. ▪ a pillow fight [=a playful fight using pillows as weapons] ▪ a food fight [=a playful fight in which people throw food at each other] ▪ a snowball fight — see also BULLFIGHT, DOGFIGHT, FIREFIGHT, FISTFIGHT, GUNFIGHT
2 [count] : an argument or quarrel ▪ He got into another fight with his wife about money.
3 [count] : a boxing match ▪ a fight for the heavyweight title — see also PRIZEFIGHT
4 [count] : a struggle to achieve a goal or to defeat something or someone ▪ We didn't win, but at least we put up a good fight. ▪ They are leading/joining the fight against cancer. ▪ the fight to defeat cancer ▪ He's in the fight of his political life in this election. ▪ She's in a fight for her life. [=she is struggling to stay alive]
5 [noncount] : a willingness to fight ▪ full of fight fight•back /ˈfaɪtˌbæk/ noun, pl -backs [count] Brit : a new effort to win or succeed after being close to defeat or failure : COMEBACK ▪ The team staged a fightback in the second half. — see also fight back at [1]FIGHT fight•er /ˈfaɪtɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] : someone or something that fights: such as a : a warrior or soldier ▪ nationalist fighters — see also FREEDOM FIGHTER b : BOXER 1 ▪ a championship fighter c : someone who does not give up : someone who continues fighting or trying ▪ Despite everything, you'll survive because you're a (real) fighter! d : a fast airplane that has weapons for destroying enemy aircraft ▪ a jet fighter ▪ a fighter plane ▪ a fighter pilot

F

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 29 SESS: 8 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:33:21 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−f

fig leaf noun, pl ~ leaves [count]
1 : the leaf of a fig tree ✧ In works of art, such as paintings and sculptures, naked people have sometimes been shown with a fig leaf covering their sexual organs.
2 : something that prevents embarrassment or criticism by covering or hiding something ▪ Opponents claim that the humanitarian goals of the project are just a fig leaf, and that its real purpose is to make money.

fig•ment /ˈfɪgmənt/ noun, pl -ments [count] : something produced by the imagination : something that does not really exist — usually used in the phrase figment of your imagination ▪ I thought I heard her voice, but I guess it was just a figment of my imagination.

fig•u•ra•tive /ˈfɪgjərətɪv/ adj
1 of words, language, etc. : used with a meaning that is different from the basic meaning and that expresses an idea in an interesting way by using language that usually describes something else : not literal ▪ The phrase "know your ropes" means literally "to know a lot about ropes," while its figurative meaning is "to know a lot about how to do something." ▪ figurative language
2 : showing people and things in a way that resembles how they really look : not abstract ▪ figurative art

fig•u•ra•tive•ly /ˈfɪgjərətɪvli/ adv : in a figurative way : with a meaning that is different from the basic or literal meaning and that expresses an idea by using language that usually describes something else ▪ He's a sailor who knows his ropes, literally and figuratively. ▪ In the phrase "know your ropes," the word "ropes" is being used figuratively.

[1]fig•ure /ˈfɪgjɚ, Brit ˈfɪgə/ noun, pl -ures [count]
1 a : a symbol that represents a number : DIGIT ▪ He has a six-figure salary. [=he has a salary of at least $100,000] b : a value that is expressed in numbers ▪ Are you sure of your figures? ▪ I came up with a very different figure. ▪ No precise/exact/official figures are available yet. ▪ The company had yearly sales figures of half a million units. ✧ If you have a good head for figures, you are good at making calculations with numbers. If you have no head for figures, you are bad at making calculations with numbers. ▪ She has a good head for figures, so I'm not surprised that she became an accountant.
2 a : a person or animal that can be seen only as a shape or outline ▪ We could barely make out some figures moving in the mist. b : the shape or form of a person's body ▪ the human figure ▪ the male/female figure ✧ Figure in this sense usually refers to women rather than men. ▪ She has a very shapely figure. [=body] ▪ a full figure ▪ a slim, youthful figure ▪ She likes to wear clothes that show off her figure. c ✧ The phrases a fine figure of a man and (less commonly) a fine figure of a woman describe someone who is tall and has a strong and well-formed body. ▪ The football coach is a fine figure of a man.
3 : a drawing, scupture, etc., that represents the form of a person or animal ▪ The vase is decorated with figures of birds and fish. ▪ The walls of the cave are covered with drawings of human and animal figures. ▪ a male/female figure ▪ a collection of bronze/carved figures ▪ a cardboard figure ▪ a cartoon figure — see also STICK FIGURE
4 : a person who has a specified status or who is regarded in a specified way ▪ a noted/familiar/popular/prominent sports figure ▪ He began by writing letters to well-known figures in journalism. ▪ a mysterious/shadowy figure ▪ She's a key figure in the organization. ▪ He has become a figure of contempt. [=someone who is regarded with contempt] ▪ a figure of fun/ridicule [=someone who is laughed at or ridiculed] ▪ a figure of authority = an authority figure [=a person who has authority over other people] — see also ACTION FIGURE, FATHER FIGURE, MOTHER FIGURE
5 a : a diagram or picture ▪ Turn your attention to the figure on page 15. — abbr. fig. b mathematics : a combination of points, lines, or surfaces in geometry ▪ A circle is a closed plane figure. ▪ geometric figures

[2]figure verb -ures; -ured; -ur•ing
1 [+ obj] : to expect or think (something) ▪ I figured (that) they would lose. [=I expected them to lose] ▪ I figured [=thought] he'd get tired of it in a few days. ▪ The media figured that she would be the appointee. = The media figured her to be the appointee. ▪ "They lost." "I figured as much." ▪ (US) He figured [=expected] to lose money in the deal.
2 US, informal a [+ obj] : to understand or find (something, such as a reason) by thinking ▪ Their reasons for doing this are hard to figure. [=figure out] ▪ I've finally figured [=figured out] a way to manage my time better. ▪ We've got to figure [=find] a way out of this mess. b [no obj] : to appear likely to do something ▪ She figures to finish by noon. ▪ He doesn't figure to win. [=he probably won't win]
3 [no obj] : to be or appear important : to have an important part in something ▪ The debate over tax rates figured prominently in the last election.
4 [+ obj] : to calculate (an amount, cost, etc.) ▪ He figured the cost at about $10,000. ▪ The cost in dollars is easily figured.
5 [no obj] chiefly US, informal : to seem reasonable, normal, or expected ▪ His explanation just doesn't figure. [=add up, make sense] ▪ It figures [=it is not surprising] that he would be late today. ▪ "He's late." "Well, it figures." ▪ That figures. [=that doesn't surprise me]

figure in [phrasal verb] 1 figure (something) in or figure in (something) US : to include (something) while making calculations ▪ When they were preparing a budget, they forgot to figure in [=factor in] occasional travel expenses. 2 figure in (something) : to be involved in (something, such as an activity) ▪ persons who figured in the robbery

figure into [phrasal verb] figure into (something) US : to be included as a part of (something) ▪ Age may figure into the equation.

figure on [phrasal verb] figure on (something) US, informal 1 : to expect to get or have (something) ▪ They weren't figuring on the extra income. 2 : to plan to do (something) ▪ I figure on going [=I plan to go] downtown later today.

figure out [phrasal verb] 1 figure out (something) or figure (something) out a : to understand or find (something, such as a reason or a solution) by thinking ▪ I'm trying to figure out a way to do it. ▪ He claims he has it all figured out. ▪ I finally figured it out. ▪ I can't figure out why he does these crazy things. b : to find an answer or solution for (something, such as a problem) ▪ figure out [=solve] a math problem 2 figure (someone) out or figure out (someone) : to understand the behavior of (someone) ▪ He does these crazy things, and I just can't figure him out.

go figure US, informal — used to say that something is surprising or hard to understand ▪ After losing their first six games, they won the next ten. Go figure.

figure eight noun, pl ~ eights [count] US : something that is shaped like the numeral 8 ▪ The skater traced a figure eight on the ice. — called also (Brit) figure-of-eight

fig•ure•head /ˈfɪgjɚˌhɛd, Brit ˈfɪgəˌhɛd/ noun, pl -heads [count]
1 : a carved figure (as of a woman) on a ship's bow ▪ an elaborately carved figurehead
2 : a person who is called the head or chief of something but who has no real power ▪ The king is merely a figurehead; the government is really run by elected officials.

figure–of–eight noun, pl figures–of–eight [count] Brit : FIGURE EIGHT

figure of speech noun, pl figures of speech [count] : a phrase or expression that uses words in a figurative way rather than in a plain or literal way ▪ "You are the apple of my eye" is a figure of speech.

figure skate noun, pl ~ skates [count] : a special skate that is used for figure skating — see picture at SKATE

figure skating noun [noncount] : ice-skating in which the skaters perform various jumps, spins, and dance movements
– figure skater noun, pl ~ -ers [count] ▪ a champion figure skater

fig•u•rine /ˌfɪgjəˈriːn/ noun, pl -rines [count] : a small figure or model of a person made of wood, plastic, etc.

fil•a•ment /ˈfɪləmənt/ noun, pl -ments [count]
1 : a thin thread or hair ▪ a slender filament ▪ algae covered with tiny filaments
2 : a thin wire in a light bulb that glows when electricity passes through it – fil•a•men•tous /ˌfɪləˈmɛntəs/ adj, technical ▪ filamentous algae fil•bert /ˈfɪlbət/ noun, pl -berts [count] chiefly US : HAZELNUT

filch /ˈfɪlʧ/ verb filch•es; filched; filch•ing [+ obj] informal : to steal (something that is small or that has little value) ▪ He filched a pack of gum when no one was looking.

[1]file /ˈfajəl/ noun, pl files [count]
1 a : a device (such as a box, folder, or cabinet) in which documents that you want to keep are stored so that they can be found easily ▪ He put each memo in its proper file. b : a collection of documents that have information you want to keep and that are stored so that they can be found easily ▪ The FBI has a large file on his activities. ▪ She noticed that two employees' files were missing from the cabinet. ✧ Something that is on file is stored in a file. ▪ We'll keep your resume on file in case a suitable job becomes available. ▪ The company has several thousand customers on file.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 30 SESS: 25 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:33:22 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-f

2 : a collection of computer data that forms a single unit and that is given a particular name ▪ You should save the file frequently as you do your work. ▪ a word-processing file ▪ He accidentally deleted some important files.

– compare [3]FILE, [5]FILE

[2] le verb les ; led ; ling

1 [+ obj] : to put (a document) in a place where it can be found easily : to place (something) in a file ▪ He filed each recipe for future reference. ▪ I'm not sure what name this letter should be filed under. — often + away ▪ She filed away each of his letters.

2 : to give (something, such as an official form or a legal document) to someone in authority so that it can be considered, dealt with, approved, etc. [+ obj] She had to file [=submit] dozens of forms to get a loan. ▪ file a lawsuit ▪ file a tax return ▪ The policeman filed his report. [no obj] + for ▪ She has filed for divorce/bankruptcy.

3 [+ obj] : to send (a story or report) to a newspaper ▪ He filed a story incorrectly indicating that the strike was over.

– compare [4]FILE, [6]FILE

– l ·er /ˈfaɪlə/ noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ tax filers claiming deductions ▪ typists and filers

[3] le noun, pl les [count] : a metal tool that has sharp ridges and that is used to make rough surfaces smooth — see picture at CARPENTRY; see also NAIL FILE — compare [1]FILE, [5]FILE

[4] le verb les ; led ; l·ing [+ obj] : to make something smooth by using a file ▪ He filed away/down the rough edges. ▪ She filed the rough edges off her nails with a nail file. ▪ She filed her nails. — compare [2]FILE, [6]FILE

[5] le noun, pl les [count] : a row of people, animals, or things that form a line ▪ a file of soldiers ▪ soldiers marching in file — compare [1]RANK; see also RANK AND FILE, SINGLE FILE — compare [1]FILE, [3]FILE

[6] le verb les ; led ; ling [no obj] : to walk in a line ▪ The inmates filed past on their way to the mess hall. ▪ The customers filed out at closing time. — compare [2]FILE, [4]FILE

le cabinet noun, pl ~ -nets [count] US : a piece of furniture that is used for storing documents so that they can be found easily — called also filing cabinet; see picture at OFFICE

l·i·al /ˈfɪlijəl/ adj, formal : of or relating to a son or daughter ▪ filial duties : appropriate for a son or daughter ▪ filial obedience/devotion

l·i·bus·ter /ˈfɪləˌbʌstə/ noun, pl -ters [count] chiefly US : an effort to prevent action in a legislature (such as the U.S. Senate or House of Representatives) by making a long speech or series of speeches ▪ They engaged in a filibuster that lasted for over a week.

– libuster /ˈfɪləˌbʌstə/ verb -ters; -tered; -ter·ing [no obj] They are filibustering to delay the vote. [+ obj] They filibustered the bill for over a week.

l·i·gree /ˈfɪləˌgri:/ noun [noncount] : decoration that consists of delicate and complicated designs made of fine gold or silver wire ▪ a surface decorated with filigree and pearls

– l ·i·greed /ˈfɪləˌgri:d/ adj ▪ filigreed ornaments/balconies/tableware

[1] l·ing /ˈfaɪlɪŋ/ noun, pl -ings [count] : a small piece that is removed when something is smoothed or rubbed with a file — usually plural ▪ iron filings — compare [2]FILING

[2] ling noun, pl -ings

1 [count] : the act of giving an official form or document to someone in authority in order to begin a legal process ▪ Filings for bankruptcy are declining.

2 [noncount] : the job or activity of storing documents in a file ▪ She does all the typing and filing in our office. — sometimes used before another noun ▪ a filing clerk

– compare [1]FILING

ling cabinet noun, pl ~ -nets [count] : FILE CABINET

[1] ll /ˈfɪl/ verb lls ; lled ; ll·ing

1 a [+ obj] : to make (something) full ▪ May I fill your glass for you? ▪ fill (up) a glass with water ▪ He told the gas station attendant to fill it/her up. [=to fill the tank of his car with gasoline] ▪ Clothes filled the closet. ▪ She filled her house with antiques. ▪ His massive body filled the doorway. ▪ He has enough books to fill a library. ▪ Two hundred people filled the room. ▪ fill a sheet of paper with writing ▪ Tears filled her eyes. [=she began to cry] ▪ Joy filled her heart. [=she became very joyful] ▪ He filled her head with lies [=he told her many lies] about his military service. ▪ pastries filled with meat = meat-filled pastries ▪ a vase filled with flowers ▪ stadiums filled with cheering fans ▪ The theater was filled to capacity. [=completely full] ✧ If something fills you or fills your heart with an emotion, it makes you feel that emotion very strongly. ▪ The thought of leaving fills me with sadness. [=makes me very sad] ▪ I'm filled with shame [=I'm very ashamed] when I think of how I treated her. ▪ The news filled their hearts with hope. [=made them very hopeful] b [no obj] : to become full ▪ Her eyes filled with tears. [=she began to cry] ▪ Her heart filled with joy. [=she became very joyful] ▪ The rivers have filled and are close to flooding. ▪ The stadium filled more than an hour before the game.

2 [+ obj] : to spread all through (an area, the air, etc.) ▪ Smoke filled the room. ▪ Laughter filled the air. ▪ The smell of fried onions filled the house. ▪ Tension filled the air as we waited for further news.

3 [+ obj] : to spend or use (time) ▪ She likes to fill (up) her day with small chores. ▪ Since he retired he doesn't know how to fill his time. ▪ a fun-filled afternoon [=an afternoon filled with fun; a very enjoyable afternoon]

4 : to make (someone) full with food and drink — usually + up [+ obj] foods that won't fill you up [no obj] We filled up on sandwiches before leaving for the game.

5 [+ obj] : to place material inside of (a hole, crack, etc.) in order to repair a surface ▪ fill a crack with putty ▪ workers filling potholes ▪ fill a cavity in a tooth = fill a tooth [=put filling in a cavity/tooth] — often used figuratively ▪ He's trying to fill the gaps in his record collection. [=trying to get the records he needs to make his collection complete] ▪ These new discoveries will help to fill a gap in our knowledge of how the human body ages. ▪ Some other player will have to fill the void left by his retirement.

6 [+ obj] : to do or provide what is needed for (something) ▪ fill [=fulfill] all requirements ▪ fill a need

7 [+ obj] a : to perform the work of (an office, position, etc.) ▪ fill [=hold, occupy] the office of president ▪ A new representative will be appointed to fill his vacated seat. b : to hire a person for a job that has become available ▪ The company hopes to fill several vacancies in its marketing department. ▪ fill a job opening

8 [+ obj] : to provide the things that are asked for in (something, such as an order) ▪ fill an order ▪ (US) fill a prescription [=(Brit) make up a prescription]

fill in [phrasal verb] 1 fill (something) in or fill in (something) a : to complete (a document) by providing necessary information ▪ fill in an application ▪ fill in an order form ▪ Please fill in the blanks. [=put information in the blank spaces] — sometimes used figuratively ▪ At the end of the movie, the narrator goes back and fills in (all) the blanks. [=the narrator provides missing information about the movie's plot] b : to provide (more information) ▪ Just tell me the most important parts—you can fill in the details later. 2 fill (someone) in or fill in (someone) : to provide information to (someone) ▪ I missed the meeting so I need someone to fill me in (on what happened). ▪ She filled us in on the details. 3 fill in : to take the place of (someone who is away for a time) ▪ He can't be here today, so he asked me to fill in. — often + for ▪ He asked me to fill in for him. — see also FILL-IN fill out [phrasal verb] 1 : to increase in size : to become larger and heavier ▪ The tree looks weak now but should begin to fill out in a few years. ▪ It was easier to find clothes that fit him once he began to fill out. 2 fill (something) out or fill out (something) chiefly US : to complete (something, such as a form) by providing necessary information ▪ fill out [=fill in] a form ▪ fill out an application fill someone's shoes : to take someone's place or position ▪ No one will be able to fill her shoes after she retires.

fill the bill see [1]BILL

[2] ll noun [noncount]

1 : a full amount : all that someone wants or needs ✧ If you have eaten/drunk your fill, you have eaten/drunk all that you want. ▪ I'm going to eat my fill. ✧ If you have had your fill of something, you do not want to do or have any more of it. ▪ We've had our fill of dance music for one night.

2 : material that is used to fill something ▪ They delivered a truckload of fill for the trench.

ll·er /ˈfɪlə/ noun, pl -ers

1 [noncount] a : a substance that is added to a product to

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 31 SESS: 64 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:33:22 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-f

F

increase its size or weight b : material that is used to fill holes and cracks in a surface c : extra material that is added to something (such as a newspaper page or a recording) to fill space that would otherwise be empty ▪ Those extra songs were just filler to make the CD longer.
2 [count] : a sound, word, or phrase (such as "um" or "you know?") that people say during a pause when they are speaking

[1]fil•let also US fi•let /ˈfɪlət, fɪˈleɪ/ noun, pl -lets [count] : a piece or slice of boneless meat or fish ▪ catfish fillets ▪ a juicy fillet of beef

[2]fillet verb fil•lets; fil•leted /ˈfɪlətəd, fɪˈleɪd/; fil•let•ing [+ obj] : to cut (meat or fish) into fillets ▪ He carefully filleted the fish with a sharp knife. ▪ slices of filleted pork

fill–in /ˈfɪlˌɪn/ noun, pl -ins [count] : someone who takes the place of another person who is away for a short time : someone who fills in for someone else ▪ She performed well as the emergency fill-in. [=replacement, substitute]

[1]fill•ing /ˈfɪlɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~] of food : causing you to feel full ▪ a very filling meal ▪ filling foods

[2]filling noun, pl -ings
1 [count] : material that is used to fill something ▪ a filling for a tooth
2 : a food mixture that is used to fill something (such as pastry or a sandwich) [count] pies with fruit fillings [noncount] pies that need more filling

filling station noun, pl ~ -tions [count] : GAS STATION fil•lip /ˈfɪləp/ noun, pl -lips [count] : an added part or feature that makes something more interesting or exciting ▪ a structural fillip that will add much to the appearance of the building ▪ lent a fillip of danger to the sport fil•ly /ˈfɪli/ noun, pl -lies [count] : a young female horse — compare COLT, FOAL

[1]film /ˈfɪlm/ noun, pl films
1 [noncount] : a special material that is used for taking photographs ▪ Have you bought any film for the camera? ▪ We haven't had the film developed yet. ▪ We shot four rolls of film on our trip. [=we filled four rolls of film with pictures]
2 a : MOVIE [count] He's interested in making films about war. ▪ film critics/reviewers/criticism ▪ We'll start the film at 10:00. [noncount] The accident was captured on film. [=was recorded by a movie or video camera] b [noncount] : the process, art, or business of making movies ▪ He studied film in college. ▪ her career in film
3 [count] : a thin layer on or over the surface of something ▪ the protective film over a shark's eye ▪ A film of ice covered the sidewalk.

[2]film verb films; filmed; film•ing
1 [+ obj] : to make a movie of (something) : to photograph (an event, scene, etc.) with a movie or video camera ▪ Television news crew members came to film the interview. ▪ She filmed the children playing.
2 [no obj] : to make a movie ▪ We'll begin filming [=shooting] next week.
– filming noun [noncount] ▪ Filming will begin next week. ▪ two weeks of filming film•go•er /ˈfɪlmˌgowə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a person who often goes to movies or who is at a particular movie : MOVIEGOER film•mak•er /ˈfɪlmˌmeɪkə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a person (such as a director or producer) who makes movies ▪ a major filmmaker

film noir /-ˈnwɑə/ noun, pl films noir /ˌfɪlmzˈnwɑə/ [count] : a movie about crime that uses dark shadows and lighting to show the complicated moral nature of the subject; also [noncount] : this style of film film•strip /ˈfɪlmˌstrɪp/ noun, pl -strips [count] : a long piece of film used for showing a series of pictures on a screen individually and not as a movie filmy /ˈfɪlmi/ adj film•i•er; -est : very thin and light ▪ filmy curtains ▪ filmy fabric

filo variant spelling of PHYLLO

[1]fil•ter /ˈfɪltə/ noun, pl -ters [count]
1 : a device that is used to remove something unwanted from a liquid or gas that passes through it ▪ She smokes cigarettes with filters. ▪ a water filter
2 : a device that prevents some kinds of light, sound, electronic noises, etc., from passing through ▪ He placed a red filter on the camera lens. ▪ digital filters that stop high-frequency sounds
3 computers : software that prevents someone from looking at or receiving particular kinds of material through the Internet ▪ a spam filter [=a program that keeps you from seeing spam or unwanted e-mail]

[2]filter verb -ters; -tered; -ter•ing
1 [+ obj] a : to pass (something, such as a gas or liquid) through a filter to remove something unwanted ▪ They've begun filtering their water to remove impurities. b : to remove (something unwanted) by using a filter ▪ a device that filters impurities from water ▪ sunglasses that filter ultraviolet light — often + out ▪ sunglasses that filter out ultraviolet light — often used figuratively ▪ The purpose of the first interview is to filter out people who are not good candidates for the job.
2 always followed by an adverb or preposition [no obj] a : to move through or into something in small amounts or in a gradual way ▪ Sunlight filtered through the leaves. ▪ His ideas have filtered down to his children. b : to come or go slowly in small groups or amounts ▪ The crowd filtered into the arena. ▪ The crowd filtered out (of the arena). ▪ Early election returns have begun to filter in.

filth /ˈfɪlθ/ noun [noncount]
1 : a large and very unpleasant amount of dirt ▪ He emerged from the cellar covered in filth. : very dirty conditions ▪ the filth of the slaughterhouse ▪ living in filth and squalor
2 : something that is very offensive or disgusting and often is about sex ▪ magazines full of filth

[1]filthy /ˈfɪlθi/ adj filth•i•er; -est
1 : very dirty ▪ filthy clothes ▪ filthy streets
2 a : very offensive or disgusting and usually about sex ▪ a filthy movie/joke ▪ He has a filthy mouth. [=he uses language that is very offensive] b : very evil : morally wrong ▪ filthy tactics ▪ That's a filthy lie! c : very bad ▪ He has a filthy temper. [=he gets angry very easily] ▪ She's in a filthy mood. ▪ (chiefly Brit) We've been having filthy weather.
– filth•i•ness /ˈfɪlθinəs/ noun [noncount] ▪ the filthiness of the streets

[2]filthy adv, informal : VERY ▪ He's filthy rich. [=he's extremely rich; he has so much money that his wealth is disgusting or offensive] ▪ Her clothes were filthy dirty. [=extremely dirty] fil•tra•tion /fɪlˈtreɪʃən/ noun [noncount] technical : the act or process of removing something unwanted from a liquid, gas, etc., by using a filter ▪ water filtration

fin /ˈfɪn/ noun, pl fins [count]
1 : a thin flat part that sticks out from the body of a fish and is used in moving or guiding the fish through water ▪ a fish with blue scales and spiny fins ▪ a shark fin
2 : a part on a machine (such as a car or airplane) that is shaped like a fish's fin ▪ a car from the 1950s with fins on the back — see also TAIL FIN
– finned /ˈfɪnd/ adj ▪ a finned creature [=a fish]

fi•na•gle /fəˈneɪgəl/ verb -na•gles; -na•gled; -na•gling [+ obj] informal
1 : to get (something) in a clever or dishonest way ▪ He finagled an invitation to the conference by claiming to be a reporter. = He finagled his way into the conference by claiming to be a reporter.
2 : to trick (someone) in order to get something ▪ A con man finagled my neighbor out of four hundred dollars.
– fi•na•gler /fəˈneɪglə/ noun, pl -glers [count]

[1]fi•nal /ˈfaɪnl/ adj
1 always used before a noun a : happening or coming at the end ▪ the final act of the play ▪ They won their final four games. ▪ in the final minutes/moments/seconds of the game ▪ Our last/previous stop was Bangkok, but our final destination is Tokyo. ▪ The plans are undergoing final review. ▪ final exams [=exams at the end of a class or term] ▪ I'd like to add one final note. [=make one last statement] b : happening as a result : happening at the end of a process ▪ What was the final score? ▪ The final product was not what we had expected. ▪ the final results
2 — used to say that something will not to be changed or done again ▪ This is my final offer. ▪ You can't come with us, and that's final! ▪ All sales are final. ▪ Is that your final answer?
in the final analysis see ANALYSIS the final straw see STRAW
the final word see [1]WORD

[2]final noun, pl -nals
1 [count] : the last competition (such as a game or race) or set of competitions in a series ▪ He was defeated in the (men's) final. — usually plural ▪ He won in the quarterfinals and semifinals but was defeated in the finals.
2 a finals [plural] : the examinations that happen at the end of a class, term, or course of study ▪ He passed his finals. ▪ He failed his history finals. b [count] US : an examination at the end of a class ▪ He failed his history final.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 32 SESS: 27 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:33:23 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−f

fi•na•le /fəˈnæli, fəˈnɑːli/ noun, pl -les [count] : the last part of something (such as a musical performance, play, etc.) ▪ She sung a very difficult song for the finale. ▪ the TV show's season finale [=the last program of the season] — see also GRAND FINALE

fi•nal•ist /ˈfaɪnəlɪst/ noun, pl -ists [count] : a person who competes in the last part of a competition ▪ They interviewed all of the finalists before making a decision. ▪ a finalist in the tennis tournament fi•nal•i•ty /faɪˈnæləti/ noun [noncount] : the quality or state of being final or finished and not able to be changed ▪ the finality of death ▪ "It won't work," he said, with an air of finality.

fi•nal•ize also Brit fi•nal•ise /ˈfaɪnəˌlaɪz/ verb -iz•es; -ized; -iz•ing [+ obj] : to put (something, such as a plan or an agreement) in a final or finished form ▪ They are finalizing their divorce this week. ▪ We bought our tickets and finalized our vacation plans.
– fi•nal•i•za•tion also Brit fi•nal•i•sa•tion /ˌfaɪnələˈzeɪʃən, Brit ˌfaɪnəˌlaɪˈzeɪʃən/ noun [noncount]

fi•nal•ly /ˈfaɪnli/ adv
1 : at the end of a period of time ▪ He won't rest until the killer is finally found. : after a long time ▪ After years of arguing, the two brothers finally made up. ▪ I finally found my wallet. ▪ They're finally here. ▪ "They're here." "Finally!" ▪ We're finally starting to see some results.
2 a — used to describe the last action or event in a series of actions or events ▪ He slowly stood up, cleared his throat, and finally began to speak. b — used to introduce a final statement or series of statements ▪ Finally [=in conclusion, lastly], I'd like to thank all who cooperated in this project.
3 : in a final manner : in a way that cannot be changed ▪ The dispute has not yet been finally settled.

[1]fi•nance /ˈfaɪˌnæns, fəˈnæns/ noun, pl -nanc•es
1 [noncount] : the way in which money is used and handled ▪ She's taking a course on personal finance.; especially : the way in which large amounts of money are used and handled by governments and companies ▪ an expert in finance who predicts global economic disaster ▪ corporate finance — see also HIGH FINANCE
2 finances [plural] a : money available to a government, business, or person ▪ The library closed due to a lack of finances. b : matters relating to money and how it is spent or saved ▪ His finances were in bad shape. [=he did not have enough money] ▪ Her health problems have put a serious strain on her finances. [=she lacks money because of an unusual number of health expenses]

[2]fi•nance /fəˈnæns, ˈfaɪˌnæns/ verb -nanc•es; -nanced; -nanc•ing [+ obj]
1 : to provide money for (something or someone) ▪ His parents financed his college education. ▪ The study was financed by a government grant. ▪ They financed him to study abroad.
2 : to buy (something) by borrowing money that will be paid back over a period of time ▪ finance a new car – financing noun [noncount] ▪ Public financing paid for the new stadium. ▪ The car dealer offers financing. [=you can get a loan through the car dealer to pay for a car that you buy there]

finance company noun, pl ~ -nies [count] : a company that makes small loans to people — called also (Brit) finance house

fi•nan•cial /fəˈnænʃəl/ adj : relating to money ▪ The company is headed for financial disaster. ▪ a family struggling with financial problems ▪ I would like some financial advice before I buy this house. ▪ You can get a loan at a financial institution. [=a company that deals with money; a bank]
– fi•nan•cial•ly adv ▪ He has made some smart investments, so he's doing very well financially. ▪ a financially stable organization financial aid noun [noncount] US : money that is given or lent to students in order to help pay for their education ▪ She needed financial aid.

financial year noun, pl ~ years [count] Brit : FISCAL YEAR

fin•an•cier /ˌfɪnənˈsiə, Brit fəˈnænsɪə/ noun, pl -ciers [count] : a person who controls the use and lending of large amounts of money ▪ A group of powerful financiers bought out the company.

finch /ˈfɪntʃ/ noun, pl finch•es [count] : a small bird with a short, thick beak

[1]find /ˈfaɪnd/ verb finds; found /ˈfaʊnd/; find•ing
1 [+ obj] a : to discover (something or someone) without planning or trying to : to discover (something or someone) by chance ▪ He found a dollar on the ground. ▪ The well diggers found a number of Native American artifacts. ▪ She finds [=meets] interesting people wherever she goes. b ✧ Something or someone that is found in a specified place exists there or lives there. ▪ Many artifacts can be found in this area. [=there are many artifacts in this area] ▪ Polar bears are found in the Northern Hemisphere.
2 [+ obj] : to get or discover (something or someone that you are looking for) ▪ After an hour of searching, I finally found my glasses. ▪ find a missing person ▪ We need to find a suitable person for the job. ▪ I found a job for him. = I found him a job. ▪ My glasses are nowhere to be found. = I can't find my glasses.
3 [+ obj] a : to discover or learn (something) by studying about it ▪ She found the answer at last. ▪ They claim to have found a more efficient way to run the business. ▪ researchers trying to find a cure for cancer b : to get (something needed or wanted) by effort ▪ You must find time to do it. ▪ I found a way to pay for college without taking out any loans. ▪ She found the courage to address the crowd. ▪ I hope you can find it in your heart to forgive me. = I hope you can find it in yourself to forgive me. [=I hope you can forgive me]
4 [+ obj] a : to regard (someone or something you have met, seen, experienced, etc.) in a specified way ▪ I found him (to be) a very sensible man. = I found him very sensible. ▪ Students often find this book (to be) useful. ▪ I find it hard to concentrate [=it is hard for me to concentrate] with that music playing. ▪ The travel arrangements were found wanting. [=the travel arrangements were criticized] b : to be affected by (something) in a specified way ▪ He finds laughing/laughter painful. = He finds it painful to laugh. c : to feel (a pleasing emotion) ▪ He finds pleasure in her company. ▪ They didn't win, but the team found some satisfaction in having played so well.
5 [+ obj] a : to discover (someone) in a specified state ▪ He found them waiting for him. ▪ I found her relaxing by the pool. ▪ He was found dead the next morning. ▪ The crisis found them unprepared. [=they were unprepared when the crisis occurred] b : to become aware that you are doing something or that you are in a particular place or situation ▪ I often find myself thinking about her. ▪ When he awoke, he found himself in an unfamiliar room. [=he saw that he was in an unfamiliar room] ▪ I found myself agreeing with him. [=I found that I agreed with him]
6 [+ obj] : to begin to have (something) ▪ The new product found few buyers. [=few people bought it] ▪ It took a while before his unusual brand of comedy found an audience. ▪ These ideas have found approval/favor [=been accepted; become well-liked] among many young people. ▪ His doctrines found acceptance [=were accepted] among scholars.
7 law a [+ obj] : to make a decision about the guilt or innocence of (someone) ▪ The jury found her guilty. ▪ She was found innocent. b : to decide the result of a court case [+ obj] The jury found a verdict of guilty. [no obj] The jury found for the defendant. [=the jury's decision was in favor of the defendant] ▪ The jury found against her.
find common cause see [1]CAUSE find fault : to criticize someone or something ▪ No matter what she did, her husband was always finding fault. — usually + with ▪ Her husband found fault with everything she did. — see also FAULTFINDER find its mark/target : to hit a target that was aimed for ▪ The bullet found its mark. — often used figuratively ▪ Her angry reaction showed that his criticisms had found their mark.
find out [phrasal verb] 1 find out (something) : to learn (something) by making an effort ▪ I'd like to find out more about the school's psychology program. ▪ We need to find out where the meeting is being held. ▪ I don't know when the game starts, but I'll find out. 2 find out about (something) : to become aware of (something) ▪ Her mother found out about her smoking habit. 3 find (someone) out : to learn the unpleasant truth about (someone) ▪ He pretended to be a respectable citizen, but we found him out at last. ▪ Luckily, he was found out before he could do any harm.
find your bearings see BEARING find yourself : to learn what you truly value and want in life

F

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 33 SESS: 27 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:33:23 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-f

F

▪ He left school and traveled to Europe, saying that he wanted to find himself.

find your voice : to begin speaking or expressing your thoughts : to be able to speak or to express yourself as a writer ▪ I couldn't speak for a moment, but then I found my voice. ▪ a young novelist who has found her voice find your way 1 : to look for and find where you need to go in order to get somewhere ▪ I found my way home without any problems. ▪ She got lost trying to find her way back to the hotel. — often used figuratively ▪ He's still finding his way as an actor. [=he's still learning what he needs to do to succeed as an actor] 2 : to go or arrive somewhere by chance or after a time of wandering ▪ The settlers eventually found their way to California.

[2]find noun, pl finds [count] : something or someone that has been found; especially : a valuable person or thing that has been found or discovered ▪ That antique she bought at the flea market was a real find. ▪ That new secretary of yours is a real find!

find•er /ˈfaɪndɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a person who finds something that was lost finders keepers (losers weepers) — used especially in children's speech to say that you can keep what you have found and do not need to give it back to the person who has lost it

find•ing /ˈfaɪndɪŋ/ noun, pl -ings [count]

1 : a legal decision : VERDICT ▪ The Supreme Court overturned the lower court's finding.

2 : the results of an investigation — usually plural ▪ He published his findings in a medical journal.

[1]fine /ˈfaɪn/ adj fin•er; -est

1 a not used before a noun : good, acceptable, or satisfactory : OK ▪ That's fine with me. ▪ "Is there anything wrong?" "No, everything's fine." ▪ The house looks fine to me. ▪ "Would you like more coffee?" "No, I'm fine, thanks." [=I am happy with the amount of coffee I have now] ▪ "Would you like more coffee?" "No, this is fine, thanks." [=no, this is as much as I want] ▪ That's just fine and dandy with me. [=that is fine with me; I approve of that] ✧ Fine is often used as a response to show acceptance or approval. ▪ "I have to leave early, all right?" "Fine." b — used in an ironic way to refer to things that are not good or acceptable ▪ This is a fine mess we're in. ▪ "Those kids are no good." "You're a fine one to talk, considering all the trouble you caused when you were young." [=you should not say bad things about others because those same things could be said about you]

2 a always used before a noun : very good ▪ I think that's a fine idea. ▪ You did a fine job. ▪ The house is in fine shape. ▪ This is a fine example of what can go wrong when one person is given too much power. ▪ They make a fine pair. [=they are well suited to each other] ▪ She has a fine grasp of the problem. [=she understands the problem very well] ▪ He was in fine form. [=he performed very well] b always used before a noun : deserving praise, admiration, or respect ▪ He's a fine young man. ▪ a fine musician ▪ a fine mind

3 not used before a noun : well or healthy : not sick or injured ▪ I feel fine. ▪ "Did you hurt yourself?" "No, I'm fine."

4 of weather : sunny and pleasant ▪ a fine spring day ▪ The weather has been fine lately.

5 a : very thin ▪ fine thread/wire/yarn ▪ Her head was covered with fine, silky hair. b : very sharp or narrow ▪ a knife with a fine edge ▪ a pen/brush with a fine tip : having a sharp point ▪ a fine pen/brush c : made up of very small pieces, drops, etc. ▪ fine sand/dust/powder ▪ fine gravel ▪ a fine mist/spray d : very small ▪ The print was so fine that I could barely read it. ▪ very fine details on the sculpture — see also FINE PRINT e : having very small holes ▪ a fine mesh f : small and delicate ▪ She has fine features. [=her eyes, nose, and mouth are small and delicate]

6 a : small and done with a lot of care and accuracy ▪ fine measurements ▪ fine movements b : small and difficult to see or understand : SUBTLE ▪ a fine distinction ▪ He's still learning the finer points of the job. ▪ Some very fine legal points were involved. ▪ There's a fine line [=a very small difference] between being helpful and being intrusive.

7 a always used before a noun : expensive and of high quality ▪ fine dining ▪ fine china b : formal and graceful ▪ fine handwriting ▪ His manners are very fine. [=refined]

a fine figure of a man/woman see [1]FIGURE chance would be a fine thing see [1]CHANCE finest hour see HOUR

not to put too fine a point on it — used in an ironic way to introduce a very strong and usually critical statement ▪ Not to put too fine a point on it, (but) his suggestions have been worthless.

– fine•ly /ˈfaɪnli/ adv ▪ The onions should be finely chopped. [=should be chopped in small pieces] ▪ a finely judged response that was just right ▪ a finely balanced election that could go either way – fine•ness /ˈfaɪnnəs/ noun [noncount] ▪ the fineness of the thread ▪ fineness of detail

[2]fine adv, somewhat informal

1 : not badly or poorly : well enough ▪ She did fine on the test. ▪ My mother is doing fine, thank you. ▪ Everything was going fine. ▪ That suits me fine. ▪ This'll do fine for now.

2 : in an elegant and graceful way ▪ She talks and walks so fine, just like a great lady.

3 used after a verb : in small pieces ▪ The onions should be chopped fine. [=finely]

[3]fine noun, pl fines [count] : an amount of money that you pay as a punishment for breaking a law or rule ▪ He had to pay a heavy fine for speeding. ▪ a fine of $500 ▪ The judge imposed a fine on him.

[4]fine verb fines; fined; fin•ing [+ obj] : to require (someone) to pay a fine as a punishment ▪ He was fined for speeding. ▪ The judge fined him $35.

fine art noun, pl ~ arts

1 : a type of art (such as painting, sculpture, or music) that is done to create beautiful things [noncount] a collector of fine art [plural] She studies painting in the department of fine arts. ▪ We saw the sculpture at the Museum of Fine Arts.

2 [singular] : an activity that requires skill and care ▪ the fine art of gourmet cooking — often used in a humorous or ironic way ▪ He has mastered the fine art of flattery.

fine print noun [noncount] : the part of an agreement or document that contains important details and that is sometimes written in small letters ▪ Read the fine print before you sign the contract. — see also [1]FINE 5d fin•ery /ˈfaɪnəri/ noun [noncount] somewhat formal : clothes, jewels, etc., that are expensive and beautiful ▪ wedding finery ▪ She was proud to show off her new evening finery.

[1]fi•nesse /fəˈnɛs/ noun [noncount] : skill and cleverness that is shown in the way someone deals with a situation, problem, etc. ▪ She handled the interview questions with finesse.

[2]finesse verb -ness•es; -nessed; -ness•ing [+ obj] : to handle, deal with, or do (something) in an indirect and skillful or clever way ▪ He managed to finesse a deal through bargaining. ▪ She is just trying to finesse the issue.

fin•est /ˈfaɪnəst/ noun [plural] US, informal : the police officers of a specified city or area ▪ He's a member of New York's finest. [=he's a police officer in New York]

fine–tooth comb /ˈfaɪnˌtuːθ-/ noun, pl ~ combs [count] : a comb with many small teeth go over/through (something) with a fine-tooth comb : to examine something very closely ▪ The police are going over the evidence with a fine-tooth comb.

fine–tune /ˈfaɪnˈtuːn/ verb -tunes; -tuned; -tun•ing [+ obj] : to make small changes to (something) in order to improve the way it works or to make it exactly right ▪ fine-tune a TV set ▪ fine-tune the temperature of the room ▪ They're fine-tuning interest rates to achieve economic growth without inflation.

[1]fin•ger /ˈfɪŋgɚ/ noun, pl -gers

1 [count] : one of the five long parts of the hand that are used for holding things; especially : one of the four that are not the thumb ▪ Don't stick your fingers in the cookie batter! ▪ He slipped the ring onto her finger. ▪ The baby held onto my thumb with her tiny fingers. ▪ She ran her fingers through his hair. ▪ He drummed his fingers on the table impatiently. — see also FOREFINGER, INDEX FINGER, LITTLE FINGER, MIDDLE FINGER, RING FINGER

2 [count] a : something that is long and thin and looks like a finger ▪ a finger of land extending into the sea ▪ a finger of flame b : the part of a glove into which a finger is placed

3 the finger US, informal : an obscene gesture made by pointing the middle finger up, keeping the other fingers down, and turning the palm towards you ▪ She was so mad, she gave him the finger. ▪ Some angry driver flipped me the finger on the highway this morning.

all fingers and thumbs informal : very clumsy ▪ Sorry I dropped the vase; I'm all fingers and thumbs today.

cross your fingers see [2]CROSS finger on the pulse ✧ If you have/keep your finger on the pulse of something, you know about the latest things that are happening. ▪ He claims that he has/keeps his finger on the pulse of the computer industry. [=that he is very aware

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 34 SESS: 28 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:33:24 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-f

what is happening in the computer industry]

have a finger in a/the pie : to have an interest or share in something ▪ a sharp talent agent who has a finger in nearly every pie in show business

itchy finger see ITCHY

keep your fingers crossed see [2]CROSS

lay a finger on informal : to touch or hit (someone) — usually used in negative statements ▪ I don't know what he's complaining about. I never laid a finger on him.

lift a finger : to make an effort to do something — usually used in negative statements ▪ I have so many chores to do, and my sister won't lift a finger to help me. ▪ He never lifted a finger to try to improve his failing grades.

point an accusing finger at or point a/the finger at : to accuse or blame (someone) ▪ He was quick to point an accusing finger at his coworkers. ▪ Let's stop pointing fingers at each other and just solve the problem!

put/stick two fingers up at someone Brit, informal : to make an obscene gesture by holding up the index finger and the middle finger of one hand in the shape of a V while keeping the palm turned inward put your finger on : to find out the exact nature of (something) : IDENTIFY ▪ I feel that something is wrong but I can't quite put my finger on the problem.

the finger of blame/suspicion — used to say that someone is being blamed or suspected ▪ He was shocked to realize that the finger of suspicion was now pointed at him. [=that he was now suspected] work your fingers to the bone : to work very hard ▪ She had to work her fingers to the bone to make enough money to raise her kids.

wrap (someone) around your (little) finger see [1]WRAP

– n ·gered /ˈfɪŋgəd/ adj — used in combination ▪ three-fingered – n ·ger·like /ˈfɪŋgəˌlaɪk/ adj

[2]nger verb -gers; -gered; -ger·ing [+ obj]

1 : to touch (something) with your fingers ▪ She fingered the silk. ▪ She fingered her necklace.

2 chiefly US, informal : to identify (someone) as the person who has committed a crime ▪ He was fingered as a suspect.

nger food noun, pl ~ foods [count, noncount] US : a piece of food that is meant to be picked up with the fingers and eaten

n·ger·ing /ˈfɪŋgərɪŋ/ noun [noncount] : the way in which the fingers are used and positioned in order to play a musical instrument

n·ger·nail /ˈfɪŋgəˌneɪl/ noun, pl -nails [count] : the hard covering at the end of your fingers ▪ I trimmed and filed my fingernails. ▪ He had dirt under his fingernails. ▪ Quit biting/chewing your fingernails. — see picture at HAND

nger paint verb ~ paints; ~ painted; ~ painting [no obj] chiefly US : to paint a picture using only your hands or fingers instead of a brush ▪ The kids will finger paint today.

– nger paint noun, pl ~ paints [count] ▪ I have to buy some finger paints for my classroom. – nger painting noun [noncount] ▪ Today's activity is finger painting.

nger–pointing noun [noncount] : the act of blaming someone for a problem instead of trying to fix or solve it ▪ This administration refuses to engage in finger-pointing.

[1]n·ger·print /ˈfɪŋgəˌprɪnt/ noun, pl -prints [count]

1 a : the mark that is made by pressing the tip of a finger on a surface ▪ Detectives found his fingerprints all over the gun. ▪ Everyone has a unique fingerprint. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ This project has his fingerprints all over it. [=it is obvious that he was very involved in this project] b : a mark of this kind made in ink for the purpose of identifying a person — usually plural ▪ The police took her fingerprints for their files. — called also print

2 : something (such as genetic material) that can be used to identify a person ▪ a DNA fingerprint

[2]ngerprint verb -prints; -print·ed; -print·ing [+ obj] : to take the fingerprints of (someone, such as a criminal) for the purpose of identification ▪ He was arrested, taken to the police station, and fingerprinted.

– ngerprinting noun [noncount] ▪ He was arrested and taken to the police station for fingerprinting.

n·ger·tip /ˈfɪŋgəˌtɪp/ noun, pl -tips [count] : the very end of a finger — usually plural ▪ He tapped on the tabletop with his fingertips.

at your fingertips : easily available : easy to find or use ▪ The librarian has all the information at his fingertips.

to your fingertips chiefly Brit : in every way ▪ He is a gentleman to his fingertips.

n·icky /ˈfɪnɪki/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : very hard to please ▪ a finicky eater ▪ My teacher is finicky about grammar.

2 : requiring a lot of care or attention ▪ a complicated and finicky recipe

[1]n·ish /ˈfɪnɪʃ/ verb -ish·es; -ished; -ish·ing

1 a : to reach the end of (something) : to stop doing (something) because it is completed [+ obj] He finished (giving) his speech and sat down. ▪ He hasn't finished his work yet. = He hasn't finished working yet. ▪ You can't watch TV until you finish your homework. [no obj] He started his homework two hours ago and he still hasn't finished. ▪ I'll wait here until you finish. = I'll wait here until you have finished. — compare FINISHED 1a b : to be done with building or creating (something) [+ obj] They hope to finish their new home by winter. [no obj] They're building a new home and they hope to finish by winter. — compare FINISHED 1b c : to cause something to end or stop : to reach the end of something [+ obj] The chairman finished the meeting at noon. [no obj] The meeting finished [=ended] at noon. ▪ The meeting finished on a positive note.

2 [+ obj] a : to cause the ruin or failure of (someone or something) ▪ These allegations could finish his career as a politician. = These allegations could finish him as a politician. — compare FINISHED 2b b : to kill (someone or something already wounded) — usually + off ▪ The crowd in the arena shouted for the gladiator to finish off his opponent. c : to defeat or exhaust (someone) completely — usually + off ▪ Climbing so many stairs just about finished me off.

3 [+ obj] : to use, eat, or drink all that is left of (something) ▪ They finished (off/up) the pie before I got a chance to have a slice. ▪ I've had enough wine. You can finish (off) the rest of the bottle.

4 : to end a race, competition, etc., in a specified position or manner [no obj] The horse I bet on finished third. ▪ The horse finished in third place. ▪ Our team started poorly but finished well. [+ obj] The horse I bet on finished the race in third place. ▪ Our team finished the season in first place.

5 [+ obj] : to put a final coat or surface on (something) ▪ He finished the table with varnish.

finishing touch : one of the last things done to make something complete — usually plural ▪ They're putting the finishing touches on their new home. ▪ He's putting the finishing touches on his latest novel.

finish with [phrasal verb] 1 finish with (something) : to have no further need for (something) : to stop using (something) ▪ Could I see the newspaper when you finish with it? 2 finish with (someone) : to stop being involved with (someone) : to end a romantic relationship with (someone) ▪ She and her boyfriend had another fight, and now she says she's going to finish with him once and for all. — compare FINISHED 2a 3 finish with (someone or something) : to stop dealing with, working on, or punishing (someone or something) ▪ When I finish with him he'll be sorry! ▪ I haven't finished with you yet! — see also FINISHED

[2]nish noun, pl -ish·es

1 [singular] : the last part of something : END, CONCLUSION ▪ a suspense film with a perfect surprise finish ▪ The race was close from start to finish. [=from the beginning to the end] ▪ The race had a close/tight finish. [=the winner of the race won by a very small amount] ▪ It was a fight to the finish. [=the fight went on until one side was completely defeated] — see also PHOTO FINISH

2 [count] : the final coating on a surface or the appearance produced by such a coating ▪ The table had a shiny finish. ▪ I need to put one more coat of finish on the chair.

– n ·ish·er noun, pl -ers [count]

nished adj

1 a not used before a noun : having reached the end of an activity, job, etc. ▪ He started his homework two hours ago and he still isn't finished. ▪ I'll wait here until you're finished. — compare [1]FINISH 1a b : not requiring more work : entirely done or completed ▪ The job is finally finished. ▪ We were pleased with the finished product. ▪ The house has a finished basement/attic. [=a basement/attic that has floors, ceilings, and walls like the rooms in the main part of the house] — compare [1]FINISH 1b

2 not used before a noun a : having reached the end of a romantic relationship ▪ We're finished! I never want to see you again! ▪ She says she's finished with that guy. b : no longer able to continue : completely ruined or defeated ▪ This scan-

F

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 35 SESS: 29 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:33:24 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-f

dal means that his career is finished. — compare [1]FINISH 2a finishing line noun, pl ~ lines [count] Brit : FINISH LINE finishing school noun, pl ~ schools [count] : a private school where girls from wealthy families are taught proper behavior and manners finish line noun, pl ~ lines [count] US : a line that marks the end of a race — called also (Brit) finishing line

fi•nite /'faɪˌnaɪt/ adj
1 : having limits ▪ a finite number of possibilities : having a limited nature ▪ the earth's finite supply of natural resources ▪ the finite human life span
2 grammar : of or relating to a verb form that shows action that takes place at a particular time (such as the past) ▪ a finite verb such as "is" or "are" — opposite NONFINITE
– fi•nite•ly adv

[1]fink /'fɪŋk/ noun, pl finks [count] chiefly US, informal
1 : a person who is strongly disliked ▪ She says her boss is a rotten fink.
2 : a person who gives information to the police or to some other authority about the bad behavior or criminal activity of someone else

[2]fink verb finks; finked; fink•ing
fink on [phrasal verb] fink on (someone) US, informal : to tell someone about the bad behavior or criminal activity of (another person) ▪ The other gang members will kill him if they find out that he finked on them (to the police).

Finn /'fɪn/ noun, pl Finns [count] : a person born, raised, or living in Finland

[1]Finn•ish /'fɪnɪʃ/ adj : of or relating to Finland, its people, or the Finnish language ▪ Finnish lakes/customs/grammar

[2]Finnish noun [noncount] : the chief language of the people of Finland

fiord variant spelling of FJORD fir /'fɚ/ noun, pl firs

1 [count] : a tall evergreen tree
2 [noncount] : the wood of a fir tree

[1]fire /'fajɚ/ noun, pl fires
1 [noncount] : the light and heat and especially the flame produced by burning ▪ Stay away from the fire.
2 : an occurrence in which something burns : the destruction of something (such as a building or a forest) by fire [count] The shack was destroyed by a fire. ▪ Two people died in that terrible fire. ▪ How did the fire start? ▪ Police think he set a fire [=deliberately started a fire] in the bedroom. ▪ Firefighters put the fire out. = Firefighters put out the fire. [=firefighters stopped the fire from burning] [noncount] The shack caught (on) fire [=began to burn] when it was struck by lightning. ▪ Someone set fire to the shack. [=deliberately caused the shack to burn]
3 [count] : a controlled occurrence of fire created by burning something (such as wood or gas) in a special area (such as in a fireplace or stove) ▪ We warmed our hands over the fire. ▪ She built a fire in the fireplace. ▪ The fire went out and he had to light it again. — see also CAMPFIRE
4 [noncount] : the shooting of weapons ▪ We heard heavy rifle fire in the distance. ▪ He shot at the police officer and the police officer returned his fire. [=the police officer shot back at him] ▪ He and the police officer exchanged fire. [=shot at each other] ▪ He was caught in the line of fire and killed. ▪ The troops opened fire on [=began shooting at] the enemy. ▪ Hold your fire! [=don't shoot] ▪ Cease fire! [=stop shooting] ▪ Several soldiers were killed by friendly fire. [=they were accidentally killed by weapons fired from their own side]
5 [noncount] : very heavy or harsh criticism ▪ The company has drawn/taken (heavy) fire for its use of child labor overseas.
6 [noncount] : strong emotion, anger, enthusiasm, etc. ▪ I admire her fire for teaching and helping children. ▪ young lovers with their hearts full of fire [=passion]
7 [count] Brit : a small device that uses gas or electricity to heat a room ▪ Turn on/off the fire.
baptism of/by fire see BAPTISM fan a fire, fan the fire see [2]FAN fight fire with fire see [1]FIGHT from/out of the frying pan (and) into the fire see FRYING PAN hang fire see [1]HANG irons in the fire see [1]IRON light a fire under see [3]LIGHT like a house on fire see [1]HOUSE on fire 1 : in the process of burning ▪ The house was on fire. 2 : feeling very strong enthusiasm, love, etc. ▪ He was on fire with enthusiasm. ▪ young lovers with their hearts on fire 3 : very successful ▪ The team has been on fire, winning 10 of its last 11 games. — see also set the world on fire at [1]WORLD play with fire see [1]PLAY under fire 1 : being shot at by the enemy ▪ The civilians panicked when they realized they were under fire. ▪ As a soldier he showed extraordinary skill and courage under fire. 2 : exposed to criticism : being criticized ▪ He is under fire from his political opponents. ▪ The company has come under fire [=has been criticized] for using child labor overseas.
where there's smoke, there's fire or there's no smoke without fire see [1]SMOKE

[2]fire verb fires; fired; fir•ing
1 a : to shoot a weapon [+ obj] fire a bullet ▪ She fired the arrow at the target. ▪ He fired the gun. ▪ He fired several shots at the police. [no obj] He fired at the police. ▪ The gun failed to fire. ▪ The soldiers fired on/at the enemy. ▪ The officers were told to fire at will. [=to shoot when they felt that they should] — often used figuratively ▪ Reporters fired questions at her. [=they asked her many questions in a quick and forceful way] b [+ obj] : to throw (something) with speed and force ▪ The shortstop fired the ball to first base. ▪ The angry mob fired rocks at him. ▪ The boxer fired a left jab at his opponent's chin.
2 [+ obj] : to give life or energy to (something or someone) ▪ The story fired his imagination.
3 [+ obj] : to dismiss (someone) from a job ▪ She had to fire several workers. — usually used as (be/get) fired ▪ He got/was fired (from his job) after missing work.
4 [no obj] : to begin working ▪ The engine/cylinders failed to fire. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ The team got off to a slow start, but now it's firing on all cylinders. [=it's now playing very well]
5 [+ obj] technical : to heat (a clay pot, dish, etc.) in an oven in order to make it very hard ▪ She will fire the pots later today.
fire away informal — used in speech to tell someone to begin asking you questions ▪ "We have some questions we'd like to ask you." "OK. Fire away."
fire back [phrasal verb] : to answer someone quickly and usually angrily ▪ After his statement, his opponent fired back. — often + at ▪ He fired back at his critics.
fire off [phrasal verb] fire (something) off or fire off (something) : to write and send (something, such as a letter or memo) in a quick and often angry way ▪ He fired off a letter of complaint. ▪ She fired an e-mail off to her lawyer.
fire up [phrasal verb] 1 fire (something) up or fire up (something) a : to start (something) by lighting a fire ▪ We fired up the grill for the barbecue. b : to cause (something) to start working ▪ I fired up my computer and got down to work. ▪ Before we start working let's fire up the coffeemaker. 2 fire (someone) up or fire up (someone) : to fill (someone) with energy or enthusiasm ▪ The coach fired up the players with a pep talk. — usually used as (be/get) fired up ▪ We were fired up for the concert.
– firing noun, pl firings [count, noncount] ▪ the hiring and firing of employees ▪ The pot must cool before its second firing.

fire alarm noun, pl ~ alarms [count] : a device that makes a loud sound to warn people when there is a fire ▪ Someone set off the fire alarm.

fire ant noun, pl ~ ants [count] : a type of ant that gives a very painful bite fire•arm /'fajɚˌɑɚm/ noun, pl -arms [count] : a small gun ▪ revolvers, rifles, and other firearms

fire•ball /'fajɚˌbɑ:l/ noun, pl -balls [count] : a huge mass of fire ▪ The house erupted into a fireball. ▪ a nuclear fireball

fire•bomb /'fajɚˌbɑ:m/ noun, pl -bombs [count] : a bomb that causes a fire when it explodes – firebomb verb -bombs; -bombed; -bomb•ing [+ obj] ▪ Rioters firebombed the courthouse.

fire•brand /'fajɚˌbrænd/ noun, pl -brands [count] : a person who tries to get people to become angry and to do things for a political or social cause ▪ a political firebrand fire•break /'fajɚˌbreɪk/ noun, pl -breaks [count] : an area of land that has had plants and trees removed to stop the spread of a fire fire–breath•ing /'fajɚˌbri:ðɪŋ/ adj, always used before a noun

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 36 SESS: 30 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:33:25 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-f

1 : able to produce a stream of fire from the mouth ▪ a story about a fire-breathing dragon
2 : very angry and emotional in speech, manner, or behavior ▪ a fire-breathing politician ▪ a fire-breathing orator fire brigade noun, pl ~ -gades [count]

1 US : a group of people who work to put out a fire
2 Brit : FIRE DEPARTMENT

fire•bug /ˈfajəˌbʌg/ noun, pl -bugs [count] US, informal : a person who starts destructive fires fire•cracker /ˈfajəˌkrækəɹ/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a small paper cylinder that is filled with an explosive and that produces a loud noise when it explodes ▪ boys setting off firecrackers

-fired /ˌfajəd/ combining form : using a particular kind of fuel ▪ a gas-fired furnace ▪ a coal-fired power plant

fire department noun, pl ~ -ments [count] US : an organization for preventing and putting out fires — called also (Brit) fire brigade

fire drill noun, pl ~ drills [count] : an activity in which people practice leaving a place quickly so that they will know what to do if there is a fire fire–eat•er /ˈfajəˌi:tə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a performer who pretends to eat fire fire engine noun, pl ~ -gines [count] : a truck that has equipment for putting out fires — called also (US) fire truck

fire engine

fire escape noun, pl ~ -capes [count] : a stairway or ladder that can be used to escape from a burning building fire extinguisher noun, pl ~ -ers [count] : a metal container filled with chemicals that is used to put out a fire fire extinguisher

fire•fight /ˈfajəˌfaɪt/ noun, pl -fights [count] : a battle in which people shoot guns ▪ a firefight between police and bank robbers; especially : a usually short and fast gunfight between opposing military units

fire•fight•er /ˈfajəˌfaɪtə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a member of a group that works to put out fires – fire•fight•ing noun [noncount] ▪ firefighting equipment fire•fly /ˈfajəˌflaɪ/ noun, pl -flies [count] : a small flying insect that produces a soft light — called also (US) lightning bug

fire•house /ˈfajəˌhaʊs/ noun, pl -houses [count] US : FIRE STATION fire hydrant noun, pl ~ -drants [count] : a pipe usually in the street that provides water especially for putting out fires — called also hydrant, (US) fireplug

fire hydrant

fire•light /ˈfajəˌlaɪt/ noun [noncount] : the light produced by a fire in a fireplace, stove, etc. ▪ The firelight gave the room a warm glow. ▪ At night, he read by firelight.

fire•man /ˈfajəmən/ noun, pl -men /-mən/ [count] : a man who is a member of group that works to put out fires fire•place /ˈfajəˌpleɪs/ noun, pl -plac•es [count] : a specially built place in a room where a fire can be built ▪ a stone/brick fireplace — see picture at LIVING ROOM

fire•plug /ˈfajəˌplʌg/ noun, pl -plugs [count] US : FIRE HYDRANT fire•pow•er /ˈfajəˌpawəɹ/ noun [noncount]

1 : the amount or strength of military weapons that can be used against an enemy ▪ The army didn't have the firepower to defeat the invaders. ▪ They had enough firepower.
2 : effective power or force ▪ intellectual firepower

[1]fire•proof /ˈfajəˌpru:f/ adj : not easily burned : not able to catch fire ▪ firefighters in fireproof suits

[2]fireproof verb -proofs; -proofed; -proof•ing [+ obj] : to make (something) safe from fire ▪ The building was not fireproofed.

fire sale noun, pl ~ sales [count]
1 : a sale of products that have been damaged by fire
2 : a sale at very low prices ▪ The company is having a fire sale of its old office equipment.

fire screen noun, pl ~ screens [count] US : a metal screen that is placed in front of a fireplace

[1]fire•side /ˈfajəˌsaɪd/ noun, pl -sides [count] : a place next to a fire : an area close to a fireplace, campfire, etc. ▪ We sat chatting at the fireside.

[2]fireside adj, always used before a noun : having an informal or friendly quality ▪ a fireside chat fire station noun, pl ~ -tions [count] : a building in which the members of a fire department and the equipment used to put out fires are located — called also (US) firehouse fire•storm /ˈfajəˌstoəm/ noun, pl -storms [count]

1 : a very large fire that destroys everything in its path and produces powerful winds ▪ The bombing left the city engulfed in a firestorm.
2 : a large amount of anger and criticism ▪ His proposal set off a political firestorm. ▪ a firestorm of public protest fire•trap /ˈfajəˌtræp/ noun, pl -traps [count] : a building that is difficult to get out of and is likely to have a deadly fire ▪ The factory was a firetrap and dozens of workers died before rescuers could reach them.

fire truck noun, pl ~ trucks [count] US : FIRE ENGINE fire wall noun, pl ~ walls [count]

1 : a very thick wall that keeps fire from spreading
2 usually firewall : a computer program or piece of equipment that keeps people from using or connecting to a computer or a computer network without permission fire•wood /ˈfajəˌwʊd/ noun [noncount] : wood used to make a fire : wood used as fuel ▪ They chopped enough firewood to last the winter.

fire•work /ˈfajəˌwəːk/ noun, pl -works
1 a [count] : a small device that explodes to make a display of light and noise — usually plural ▪ setting off some fireworks b fireworks [plural] : a display where fireworks are exploded ▪ Are you going to stay for the fireworks? ▪ a fireworks display
2 fireworks [plural] : a display of anger ▪ We expect a few fireworks during the presidential debate.

firing line noun, pl ~ lines
1 [count] : a line of soldiers who are shooting at an enemy ▪ a brave soldier who was never far behind the firing line
2 [singular] : a place or position in which someone is not protected from attack or criticism — used especially in the phrase (US) on the firing line or Brit in the firing line ▪ School administrators are not on the firing line every day like the teachers are.

firing squad noun, pl ~ squads [count, noncount] : a group of soldiers whose job is to shoot a prisoner who has been sentenced to death ▪ The traitor was executed by (a) firing squad.

[1]firm /fəm/ adj firm•er; -est
1 : fairly hard or solid : not soft ▪ firm flesh ▪ firm muscles ▪ a firm mattress ▪ a firm stomach ▪ a firm cheese
2 : set, placed, or attached in a way that is not easily moved ▪ a firm base/foundation — often used figuratively ▪ He believes that his argument is on firm ground/footing. [=that he has good support, evidence, etc., for his argument]
3 : not weak or uncertain ▪ a firm [=strong] handshake/grip ▪ She has a firm grasp of the basic principles. ▪ They insist on maintaining firm control over the project. ▪ He spoke to her in a soft but firm voice. ▪ The time has come for us to take a firm stand. ▪ The children need gentle but firm handling.
4 a : not likely to change or be changed ▪ We've made firm [=definite] plans for next weekend. ▪ a firm price/estimate/offer ▪ The dollar remained firm against the euro. ▪ reaching a firm conclusion/decision ▪ They haven't set a firm date for their wedding. ▪ The campaign has taken a firm hold on the public's imagination. b : having or showing true and constant support for something or someone ▪ I'm a firm [=strong] believer in the value of exercise. = I have a firm belief in the value of exercise. ▪ Those two are firm friends. [=they are very close friends] hold firm see [1]HOLD stand firm see [1]STAND – firm•ly adv ▪ They stood firmly [=steadfastly, solidly] behind their boss. ▪ He pulled the hat down firmly over his ears. ▪ I firmly [=strongly] believe in the value of exercise. ▪ She's got her feet firmly (planted) on the ground. [=she is a practical and sensible person] – firm•ness noun [noncount] ▪ the firmness of the mattress ▪ the firmness of the price/estimate/offer

F

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 37 SESS: 62 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:33:25 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-f

F

[2]firm verb firms; firmed; firm•ing
1 [+ obj] : to put (something, such as a plan) into a final form — usually + up ▪ We still need to firm up our vacation plans.
2 [+ obj] : to make (something) harder or more solid : to make (something) less loose ▪ I've been doing exercises to firm (up) and strengthen my stomach muscles. ▪ She firmed [=tightened] her grip on the racket.
3 [+ obj] : to make (something) stronger ▪ Her early failures only firmed [=strengthened] her resolve (to succeed).
4 [no obj] : to become less likely to change or become weaker ▪ The market is firming. — often + up ▪ The market is firming up. ▪ Imports are rising and prices are firming up.
– firming adj ▪ a firming cream [=a cream that makes your skin less loose]

[3]firm noun, pl firms [count] : a business organization ▪ a law firm ▪ a consulting firm [=company]

fir•ma•ment /ˈfɚməmənt/ noun [noncount] formal + literary : the sky ▪ meteors flashing across the firmament — sometimes used figuratively to refer to an area of interest or activity ▪ He was once the brightest star in the literary firmament.

firm•ware /ˈfɚmˌweɚ/ noun [noncount] computers : computer programs that are contained permanently in a device

[1]first /ˈfɚst/ adj
1 : coming before all others in time, order, or importance ▪ She won first prize. ▪ We sat in the first row. ▪ his first wife ▪ her first book/child ▪ in the first century ▪ his first offense ▪ her first kiss ▪ She succeeded on her first attempt/try. ▪ He was (the) first in line. ▪ We will correct these errors at the first opportunity. [=as soon as it is possible to do so] ▪ English is not my first [=native] language. [=it is not the language I learned first; I learned to speak another language before I learned to speak English] ▪ She's in first grade. [=the first level in school after kindergarten] ▪ I still remember the first time I saw her. ▪ You should leave at the first [=earliest] hint of trouble. ▪ My first [=initial] impulse was to say no. ▪ This is a matter of the first [=highest] importance. ▪ Your first [=main] concern should be to get well. ▪ the captain and the first mate [=the officer on a ship who is most important after the captain] ▪ She was accused of murder in the first degree. [=first-degree murder; the most serious kind of murder]
2 — used to refer to the lowest forward gear or speed of a vehicle ▪ I couldn't get the car out of first gear.
3 : having or playing the main part in a group of instruments ▪ first violin at first blush or at first glance also at first sight : when first seen or considered ▪ At first blush, the proposal seems ridiculous. ▪ It appears at first glance/sight to be a simple matter of hiring more people.
at first hand : in a direct way : FIRSTHAND ▪ I had a chance to verify his claims at first hand.
first among equals ✧ A person who is first among equals is the leader of a group of people but is officially considered equal in rights and status to the other members of the group. ▪ As a director, he encourages collaboration and considers himself only (the) first among equals.
first thing 1 the first thing : anything at all — used in negative statements ▪ He doesn't know/understand the first thing about the problems we've been having. 2 : before anything else : right away : very early ▪ I'll be back first thing (on) Monday morning. ▪ She promised to call first thing in the morning.
first things first — used to say that you should do the things that are most important before doing other things ▪ I know you're eager to start shopping for a car, but first things first—you need to find out how much you can afford to spend. ▪ You must set priorities and learn how to put first things first.
in the first flush of see [1]FLUSH in the first instance see INSTANCE in the first place see [1]PLACE love at first sight see [1]LOVE

[2]first adv
1 a : before any other in time, order, or importance ▪ I have to pay him first. ▪ She finished first in the race. = She came in first in the race. = (Brit) She came first in the race. ▪ You go first. ▪ He said it first. ▪ These problems are not as simple as they first appear. b : for the first time ▪ I loved her when I first saw her. ▪ We met first at a party. = We first met at a party. ▪ This word was first recorded in the 19th century. c : before doing other things ▪ We'll get started soon, but first we have to make sure everyone is here.
2 — used to introduce a statement that is the first in a series of statements ▪ First, let me explain my reasons for calling this meeting. ▪ I want to talk about several things in this meeting. First, the schedule. Second, . . . — often used in the phrases first of all and first off ▪ Let me explain, first of all, why I called this meeting. ▪ First off, there's some confusion we have to clear up.
come first : to be more important than other things ▪ My career is important, but my family comes first.
first and foremost : at the most basic level ▪ He is first and foremost [=primarily, fundamentally] a teacher.
first and last : at the most basic level : in all respects ▪ This is first and last a matter of national security.
first come, first served or first come, first serve — used to say that the people who arrive earliest get served or treated before the people who arrive later ▪ The campsites are first come, first served, so we'd better get there early. = The campsites are assigned on a first-come-first-serve basis, so we'd better get there early. ▪ "Aren't there any cookies left?" "Sorry—first come, first served."
– see also FEETFIRST, HEADFIRST

[3]first noun, pl firsts
1 : something that is first: such as a [count] : an occurrence, achievement, etc., that happens or exists before any other of that kind ▪ Her solo flight across the Atlantic was a remarkable first. ▪ They were responsible for several engineering firsts. b [noncount] : the position of the winner in a competition or contest ▪ He took first [=finished in first place] in the pie-eating contest. c [noncount] : the lowest forward gear or speed of a car, truck, etc. ▪ I couldn't get the car out of first. d [count] : a degree of the highest level from a British university ▪ take/get a first in English
2 [noncount] baseball : FIRST BASE ▪ a runner on first ▪ Who's playing first?
at first : when something first happens or begins to happen : when you first notice or consider something ▪ We didn't like each other at first. [=when we met] ▪ At first I thought she was crying, but then I realized she was actually laughing. ▪ The book bored me at first. [=initially] from the first : from the beginning ▪ I've loved her from the first.

[4]first pronoun
1 : the first one or ones ▪ They were among the first in line. ▪ It was the first of many delays. ▪ I'll be the first to admit when I've done something wrong. ▪ He was the first to arrive. ▪ She was born on the first of May. [=on May 1] ▪ The son of King Charles the First became King Charles the Second.
2 : the first time ▪ She's not coming? Well, that's the first I've heard of it! [=I did not know that before now]

first aid noun [noncount] : emergency treatment given to a sick or injured person ▪ She gave him first aid for his sprained ankle. ✧ A first aid kit is a set of materials and tools used for giving first aid.

first base noun [singular] baseball : the base that must be touched first by a base runner ▪ a runner on first base; also : the position of the player who defends the area around first base ▪ She hit a ground ball to first base. ▪ He used to be a catcher, but now he plays first base. — compare HOME PLATE, SECOND BASE, THIRD BASE get to first base chiefly US, informal : to make the first step in a course or process that you hope will lead further — usually used in negative statements ▪ Her proposal to change the tax laws never got to first base. [=never had any success at all] ▪ He kept asking her out, but he couldn't even get to first base. [=she would not agree to go on even one date with him]

first base•man /-ˈbeɪsmən/ noun, pl ~ -men /-ˌmɛn/ [count] baseball : the player who defends the area around first base ▪ an all-star first baseman

first•born /ˈfɚstˈboɚn/ adj : born first ▪ their firstborn [=eldest, oldest] child – firstborn noun, pl -borns [count] ▪ Parents often spoil their firstborns.

first class noun [noncount] : the best or highest group or class: such as a : the best of usually three kinds of service you can have when you travel ▪ flying in first class b : a class of mail in the U.S. that includes letters and postcards c : a class of mail in the U.K. that includes letters and packages which are delivered sooner than ordinary second-class mail but cost more to send

first–class /ˈfɚstˈklæs, Brit ˈfɜːstˈklɑːs/ adj
1 : of or relating to first class ▪ passengers in the first-class

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 38 SESS: 65 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:33:26 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-f

cabin ▪ raising the rates for first-class mail 2 : of the best quality : of the highest excellence ▪ a first-class telescope/meal ▪ first-class [=excellent, superior] work
– rst–class adv ▪ They insist on flying first-class. ▪ I'd like to send this package first-class.

rst cousin noun, pl ~ -ins [count] : a child of your aunt or uncle : COUSIN 1a ▪ He's her first cousin. = He and she are first cousins. — compare SECOND COUSIN

rst–de •gree /ˈfɚstdɪˈgri:/ adj, always used before a noun
1 US : of the most serious type : deserving the harshest punishment ▪ first-degree murder/theft/arson
2 : of the least harmful or mildest type ▪ He suffered a first-degree burn. — compare SECOND-DEGREE, THIRD-DEGREE

rst down noun, pl ~ downs [noncount] American football : the first of a series of usually four downs in which a team must gain 10 yards to keep the ball ▪ They have first down on the 20-yard line.; also [count] : the right to start a new series of downs after a gain of 10 or more yards ▪ The pass was completed for a first down.

rst edition noun, pl ~ -tions [singular] : the first set of printed copies of a book ▪ There were many errors in the book's first edition.; also [count] : a single copy from such a set ▪ She owns a valuable first edition of Huckleberry Finn.

rst family noun, pl ~ -lies [count]
1 or First Family : the family of the U.S. president ▪ The First Family will be vacationing on a ranch this year.
2 : a family that has great importance, influence, or success in a specified activity or profession ▪ He and his sons are considered the first family of jazz.

rst oor noun, pl ~ oors [count]
1 US : the floor of a building that is at ground level : GROUND FLOOR
2 Brit : the floor of a building that is immediately above the ground floor

rst•hand /ˈfɚstˈhænd/ adj : coming directly from actually experiencing or seeing something ▪ He gave a firsthand account of the battle. ▪ She draws on firsthand experiences for her novel. — compare SECONDHAND; see also at first hand at ¹FIRST – rsthand adv ▪ He knows firsthand how difficult school can be.

rst lady noun, pl ~ ladies [count]
1 or First Lady : the wife of the U.S. president ▪ The President and the First Lady attended the concert.
2 : a woman who has great importance, influence, or success in a specified activity or profession ▪ the first lady of American dance rst lieutenant noun, pl ~ -ants [count]

1 : an officer in the U.S. Army, Air Force, or Marine Corps who ranks below a captain
2 : a naval officer who is responsible for keeping a ship in good condition

rst light noun [noncount] : the time when light is first seen in the morning : DAWN ▪ She was up at first light.

rst–line /ˈfɚstˈlaɪn/ adj, always used before a noun, chiefly US
1 : used or chosen first ▪ first-line treatment/therapy
2 : available to be used immediately ▪ first-line troops

rst•ly /ˈfɚstli/ adv — used to introduce a statement that is the first in a series of statements ▪ Firstly, we need to consider the issue of providing people with affordable health care. ✧ Firstly is chiefly used to begin lists and is usually followed by secondly, thirdly, etc. ▪ I have several concerns. Firstly, the lack of funding. Secondly, . . . ✧ In U.S. English, first is more common than firstly in this use. ▪ I have several concerns. First, the lack of funding. Second, . . . — compare LASTLY, SECONDLY, THIRDLY

rst name noun, pl ~ names [count] : the name that comes first in someone's full name ▪ Children at the school call their teachers by their first names. — compare LAST NAME, MIDDLE NAME, SURNAME
– rst–name adj ✧ People who are on a first-name basis (US) or on first-name terms (Brit) know each other well and address each other by their first names. ▪ He was on a first-name basis with his boss. ▪ They know most of the officials on a first-name basis. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ She was on a first-name basis with adversity. [=she experienced a lot of adversity]

rst offender noun, pl ~ -ers [count] law : a person who is convicted for the first time of committing a crime ▪ Because he was a first offender, he was put on probation rather than sentenced to jail.

rst person noun [noncount]
1 : a set of words or word forms (such as pronouns or verb forms) that refer to the person who is speaking or writing — often used before another noun ▪ Me is the objective case of the first person singular pronoun I, and us is the objective case of the first person plural pronoun we.
2 : a writing style that uses first person pronouns and verbs ▪ She always wrote in the first person. ▪ The sentence "I was born in Maine" is written in the first person. — compare SECOND PERSON, THIRD PERSON

rst–rate /ˈfɚstˈreɪt/ adj : of the best quality : EXCELLENT ▪ a first-rate chef/book/education ▪ The service was first-rate.

rst–run /ˈfɚstˈrʌn/ adj, always used before a noun : available for the public to see for the first time ▪ first-run movies

rst strike noun, pl ~ strikes [count] : a nuclear attack against an enemy before the enemy can attack ▪ launch a first strike
– rst–strike adj, always used before a noun ▪ a first-strike capability/threat rst–string /ˈfɚstˈstrɪŋ/ adj, US, sports : most skillful ▪ the first-string quarterback/catcher ✧ The first-string players on a team play first in the game because they are considered the best players. This term is also sometimes used figuratively. ▪ The newspaper sent its first-string [=best] critic to review the play. — compare SECOND-STRING

rst–time adj, always used before a noun
1 : doing something for the first time ▪ first-time home buyers [=people who are buying a home for the first time] ▪ a first-time visitor ▪ a first-time author [=a person who has written a book for the first time]
2 : done for the first time ▪ The punishment for a first-time offense of this kind is a fine.

rst world or First World noun [singular] : the countries of the world that have many industries and relatively few poor people : the rich nations of the world — compare THIRD WORLD

s•cal /ˈfɪskəl/ adj : of or relating to money and especially to the money a government, business, or organization earns, spends, and owes ▪ fiscal policy/responsibility ▪ a fiscal crisis ▪ a fiscal conservative ▪ the fiscal health of the university/orchestra
– s •cal•ly adv ▪ fiscally sound policies ▪ fiscally conservative

scal year noun, pl ~ years [count] chiefly US : a 12-month period used by a government, business, or organization to calculate how much money is being earned, spent, etc. ▪ Sales were up in the last fiscal year. ▪ Our fiscal year runs from October 1 to September 30. — called also (Brit) financial year; compare CALENDAR YEAR

¹sh /ˈfɪʃ/ noun, pl sh or sh•es
1 [count] : a cold-blooded animal that lives in water, breathes with gills, and usually has fins and scales ▪ a small fish ▪ an ocean/river fish [=a kind of fish that lives in an ocean/river] — see color picture on page C8 > usage When you are talking about more than one fish, the plural fish is more commonly used than fishes. ▪ We caught several fish. When you are talking about more than one kind or species of fish, both fishes and fish are used. ▪ varieties of tropical fish ▪ all the fishes of the sea

2 [noncount] : the meat of a fish eaten as food ▪ We're having fish for dinner.
a big fish in a small pond (chiefly US) or Brit a big fish in a little pond : a person who is very well known or important in a small group of people but who is not known or important outside that group ▪ In school he was a big fish in a small pond, but once he moved to the city he was just another struggling actor.
a fish out of water : a person who is in a place or situation that seems unnatural or uncomfortable ▪ He's a small-town boy who feels like a fish out of water here in the big city.
drink like a fish see ¹DRINK fish in the sea informal — used to say that there are many more people available for a romantic relationship ▪ "I know you're sad because you and your boyfriend broke up, but he's not the only fish in the sea." "You're right. There are many/plenty more fish in the sea."
fish to fry informal : things to do or deal with ▪ We'll have to address that problem tomorrow. Right now we've got other/bigger fish to fry. [=we've got other/bigger problems that we need to give our attention to] neither fish nor fowl : a person or thing that does not be-

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 39 SESS: 33 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:33:26 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−f

long to a particular class or category ▪ The movie is neither fish nor fowl—it's not really a comedy, but it's too lighthearted to be called a drama.

odd/queer fish Brit, informal : a strange or unusual person ▪ She's really quite an odd fish.

– see also COLD FISH, kettle of fish at KETTLE

– sh•less /ˈfɪʃləs/ adj ▪ a fishless lake – sh•like /ˈfɪʃˌlaɪk/ adj ▪ a fishlike tail

[2] sh verb sh•es ; shed ; sh•ing

1 a [no obj] : to catch or try to catch fish ▪ I love to fish. ▪ We spent the afternoon fishing for trout. b [+ obj] : to catch or try to catch fish in (a river, stream, etc.) ▪ They fished the stream all morning.

2 [no obj] : to search for something by feeling : to use your hand to try to find something ▪ She was fishing around in her purse for her keys.

fish for [phrasal verb] fish for (something) : to ask for or try to get (something, such as praise or attention) in an indirect way ▪ I think he offers apologies for his cooking as a way of fishing for compliments. [=as a way of getting people to say that they like the food he cooks] ▪ fishing for answers fish or cut bait US, informal : to stop hesitating and choose to do or not do something ▪ It's time for the company to fish or cut bait. We either take the job or turn it down.

fish out [phrasal verb] fish (something) out or fish out (something) 1 : to pull (something) out of water or some other liquid ▪ The police fished the car out of the harbor. ▪ She fished the sugar packet out of her iced tea. 2 : to pull (something) out from a container, bag, etc. ▪ She reached into her purse and fished out her keys.

sh and chips noun : a meal that consists of fried fish and french-fried potatoes — used with both singular and plural verbs ▪ The restaurant's fish and chips is/are delicious.

sh•bowl /ˈfɪʃˌboʊl/ noun, pl -bowls [count]

1 : a bowl used for keeping live fish

2 chiefly US : a place or condition in which there is no privacy ▪ Being a politician these days means living in a fishbowl—every part of your life is open to public view.

sh cake noun, pl ~ cakes [count] : a round fried cake made of a mixture of fish and mashed potatoes sh•er•man /ˈfɪʃɚmən/ noun, pl -men /-mən/ [count] : a person (especially a man) who catches fish sh•er•wom•an /ˈfɪʃɚˌwʊmən/ noun, pl -wom•en /-ˌwɪmən/ [count] : a woman who catches fish

sh•ery /ˈfɪʃəri/ noun, pl -er•ies [count]

1 : a part of the ocean where fish and other sea creatures are caught ▪ an oyster fishery ▪ a salmon fishery ▪ coastal fisheries

2 : a business that catches and sells fish ▪ small commercial fisheries

sh–eye lens noun, pl ~ lenses [count] photography : a camera lens that shows an extremely wide area with curved edges sh farm noun, pl ~ farms [count] : a place where fish are raised for food

sh nger noun, pl ~ -gers [count] Brit : FISH STICK sh fry noun, pl ~ fries [count] US : a meal or event at which the main food served is fried fish ▪ a community fish fry

sh•hook noun, pl -hooks [count] : a small curved piece of metal that is attached to the end of a piece of fishing line and used to catch fish — see picture at HOOK

shing noun [noncount] : the sport or business of catching fish ▪ The fishing was pretty good today. ▪ I'm going fishing this weekend. — often used before another noun ▪ I bought a fishing pole/rod and some fishing line. ▪ a store that sells fishing gear — see also FLY-FISHING, fishing expedition at EXPEDITION sh•mong•er /ˈfɪʃˌmɑːŋgɚ, ˈfɪʃˌmʌŋgɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] chiefly Brit : a person or shop that sells fish ▪ You can get fresh cod at the fishmonger's.

sh•net /ˈfɪʃˌnɛt/ noun, pl -nets

1 [count] : a net for catching fish

2 [noncount] : a type of fabric that has many small holes like a net — usually used before another noun ▪ fishnet stockings ▪ a fishnet shirt

sh slice noun, pl ~ slices [count] Brit : SPATULA

sh stick noun, pl ~ sticks [count] US : a long and thin piece of fish that is breaded and cooked sh story noun, pl ~ stories [count] US : an exaggerated story : a story that is so strange or surprising that it seems very unlikely to be true ▪ He told a ridiculous fish story about a swarm of giant mosquitoes.

sh•tail /ˈfɪʃˌteɪl/ verb -tails; -tailed; -tail•ing [no obj] chiefly US, of a car, truck, etc. : to slide in an uncontrolled way with the rear end going from side to side ▪ The car fishtailed on the icy curve.

sh•wife /ˈfɪʃˌwaɪf/ noun, pl -wives /-ˌwaɪvz/ [count] old-fashioned

1 : a woman who sells fish

2 : a rude and rough woman shy /ˈfɪʃi/ adj sh•i•er ; -est

1 : of or relating to fish; especially : tasting or smelling like a fish ▪ a fishy odor/taste

2 informal : causing doubt or suspicion : likely to be bad, untrue, dishonest, etc. ▪ That story sounds/smells fishy [=suspicious, dubious] to me. ▪ There's something fishy about that guy.

s•sion /ˈfɪʃn/ noun [noncount]

1 physics : a process in which the nucleus of a heavy atom is split apart ✧ A large amount of energy is released when fission occurs. — called also nuclear fission; compare FUSION

2 biology : a kind of reproduction in which a cell or body divides into two or more parts and each part grows into a whole new individual s•sure /ˈfɪʃɚ/ noun, pl -sures [count] : a narrow opening or crack ▪ rock fissures ▪ a fissure in the Earth's crust ▪ a deep fissure in the ice — sometimes used figuratively ▪ ideological fissures in a political party

– s •sured /ˈfɪʃɚd/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ a heavily fissured rock face st /ˈfɪst/ noun, pl sts [count] : the hand with its fingers bent down into the palm ▪ He pounded his fist on the table in anger. ▪ She pounded on the door with both fists. ▪ a clenched fist ▪ make a fist ▪ He defiantly shook his fist at the policeman.

hand over fist see [1]HAND make a good fist of Brit, informal : to do (something) well ▪ Despite her inexperience, she made a remarkably good fist of chairing the meeting.

make a poor fist of Brit, informal : to do (something) badly ▪ He made a poor fist of explaining his reasons.

rule with an iron fist see [2]RULE

st• ght /ˈfɪstˌfaɪt/ noun, pl - ghts [count] : a fight in which people hit each other with their fists ▪ A fistfight broke out in the stands. ▪ He often gets into fistfights.

st•ful /ˈfɪstˌfʊl/ noun, pl -fuls [count]

1 : an amount that can be held in one hand : HANDFUL ▪ a fistful of coins

2 : a somewhat large number or amount ▪ She has won a fistful of awards.

st•i•cuffs /ˈfɪstɪˌkʌfs/ noun [plural] old-fashioned : a fight with fists ▪ engaging in fisticuffs ▪ It was a loud debate that

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 40 SESS: 9 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:33:27 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-f

ended in fisticuffs. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ legal fisticuffs

[1]fit /ˈfɪt/ adj fit•ter; -test

1 a : proper or acceptable : morally or socially correct — often + for ▪ a movie fit [=suitable] for the whole family ▪ This is not a fit subject for discussion with children. ▪ a subject not fit for discussion — often followed by to + verb ▪ a subject not fit to be discussed b : suitable for a specified purpose — often + for ▪ This water is not fit for drinking. ▪ The building is no longer fit for human habitation. — often followed by to + verb ▪ This water is not fit to drink. ▪ The building is no longer fit for people to live in.

2 a : physically healthy and strong ▪ physically fit ▪ He felt overmatched against fitter [=healthier], stronger players. ▪ Patients are encouraged to get/keep fit. ▪ Are you fit enough to walk there? b Brit slang : sexually attractive : SEXY

3 : having the necessary skills — usually + for ▪ I just don't think he's fit [=qualified] for this job.

4 : made ready : put in a suitable state — usually + for ▪ get the ship fit [=prepared] for sea fit as a fiddle also Brit fit as a flea informal : in good physical condition : very healthy and strong ▪ I feel (as) fit as a fiddle this morning.

fit for a king : good enough even for a king : very good ▪ a meal (that is) fit for a king fit to be tied informal : very angry or upset ▪ Dad was fit to be tied when my sister came home late last night.

fit to burst chiefly Brit, informal : very much ▪ laugh/shout fit to burst fit to kill US, informal : in an impressive way that attracts attention ▪ He was dressed fit to kill.

see/think fit ✧ To see fit or think fit to do something is to choose to do it because you think it is right or appropriate. ▪ She can spend her money as she sees fit. [=she can spend her money as she chooses] ▪ She let him do his job as he thought fit. ▪ They might see fit [=choose, decide] to make some adjustments.

– fit•ness noun [noncount] ▪ No one questioned her fitness for the job. ▪ The program promotes healthy eating and physical fitness. [=being healthy through exercise]

[2]fit verb fits; fit•ted or chiefly US fit; fit•ting

1 not used in progressive tenses : to be the right size and shape for (someone or something) [+ obj] The suit fits him perfectly. ▪ I hope this key fits the lock. ▪ The two pieces fit each other perfectly. [no obj] These shoes fit perfectly. ▪ This calculator will fit nicely/neatly in your shirt pocket. ▪ pants that fit tightly/loosely = tight-fitting/loose-fitting pants ▪ The two pieces fit together perfectly. ✧ Something that fits (you) like a glove fits (you) very well. ▪ That suit fits him like a glove. ✧ The phrase one size fits all describes a hat, piece of clothing, etc., that is made in a size that is supposed to fit everyone. This phrase is commonly used figuratively. ▪ The school recognizes that a one size fits all approach won't work for these children. [=these children need to be taught in a way that considers the needs and abilities of each child]

2 not used in progressive tenses a [no obj] : to go into or through a particular space ▪ All these groceries won't fit in the trunk of my car. = These groceries won't all fit in the trunk of my car. ▪ How many people can fit in a phone booth? ▪ The box was too large to fit through the door. b [+ obj] : to cause (something) to go into or through a particular space ▪ I can't fit all these groceries into the trunk of my car. ▪ We weren't able to fit the box through the door.

3 past tense and past participle fitted [+ obj] a : to measure (someone) in order to choose clothes that are the right size and shape for that person — usually used as (be) fitted ▪ I'm being fitted [=measured] for a new suit tomorrow. b : to change the shape or form of (a piece of clothing) for a particular person ▪ fitting the jacket to the customer

4 [+ obj] : to find time to meet with (someone) or do (something) — usually + in or into ▪ I'll try to fit you into my schedule. ▪ The doctor can fit you in this afternoon. [=the doctor can meet with you this afternoon] ▪ She's got a lot of meetings to fit in this morning.

5 [no obj] : to belong in a particular situation, place, or group ▪ It's a good school, but I feel like I just don't fit here. — usually + in ▪ I was looking for a group that I could fit in with. ▪ No matter how hard she tried, she just didn't fit in. ▪ He fit right in at school. ▪ That chair fits in well with the rest of the office.

6 not used in progressive tenses [+ obj] a : to be suitable or appropriate for (someone or something) ▪ The nickname fits [=suits] him very well. ▪ The punishment should fit the crime. b : to make (someone or something) suitable or appropriate for or to something ▪ Her previous experience fitted [=qualified] her for the job. ▪ Let us fit the punishment to the crime.

7 not used in progressive tenses [+ obj] : to be in agreement with (something or someone) ▪ Their story doesn't fit the facts. ▪ He fits [=matches] the description perfectly. = The description fits him perfectly.

8 past tense and past participle fitted [+ obj] : to supply equipment for (something) ▪ a lab fitted with the latest equipment ▪ The camera can be fitted with many different lenses. — often + out or up ▪ fit out an expedition ▪ an old ocean liner fitted up as a hospital ship fit the bill see [1]BILL

if the cap fits see [1]CAP

if the shoe fits see [1]SHOE

– fit•ter /ˈfɪɾɚ/ noun, pl -ters [count] ▪ a shoe/boot fitter [=a person whose job is to help you find a shoe/boot that fits] — see also PIPE FITTER

[3]fit noun, pl fits [count] : the way something fits : the way something suits the size and shape of your body or goes into or through a particular space ▪ The fit of this shirt is a bit tight. ▪ a loose/snug fit ▪ It's a tight fit but I think we can get the box through the door. ▪ a comfortable fit ▪ That dress is a good fit for you. [=that dress fits you well; it is the right size and shape for your body] — compare [4]FIT

[4]fit noun, pl fits [count]

1 : an uncontrolled expression of strong emotion ▪ He threw a fit [=he became very angry and upset] when they accused him of cheating. ▪ She has/throws a fit [=tantrum] when she doesn't get what she wants.

2 : a sudden occurrence of some activity, emotion, etc. ▪ a fit of anger ▪ a fit of coughing = a coughing fit ▪ He apologized profusely in a fit of remorse. ▪ The joke sent the audience into fits of laughter. [=it made the people in the audience laugh a lot]

3 : an abnormal state in which you become unconscious and your body moves in an uncontrolled and violent way ▪ an epileptic fit [=(more commonly) seizure]

by fits and starts or in fits and starts : by stopping and starting again : in a way that is not constant or steady ▪ Their courtship was gradual, proceeding by fits and starts. ▪ Progress came only in fits and starts.

in fits Brit, informal : laughing very much : in fits of laughter ▪ The audience was in fits. [=in stitches]

– compare [3]FIT

fit•ful /ˈfɪtfəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not regular or steady ▪ He had a few fitful hours of sleep. ▪ Several fitful attempts at negotiation have failed. ▪ making slow, fitful progress

– fit•ful•ly adv ▪ progressing fitfully ▪ He slept fitfully [=restlessly] for a few hours. – fit•ful•ness noun [noncount]

fit•ted /ˈfɪɾəd/ adj : shaped for a precise fit ▪ a fitted sheet; especially : designed to match the shape of a person's body ▪ He was wearing a fitted shirt.

[1]fit•ting /ˈfɪɾɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~] : of a kind that is appropriate for the situation or purpose ▪ It was a fitting end to their rivalry. ▪ It seemed only fitting [=proper, right] that she should win her final tournament. ▪ a fitting memorial/tribute – fit•ting•ly adv ▪ Fittingly [=appropriately], she won her final tournament.

[2]fitting noun, pl -tings [count]

1 : the act of putting on clothes to see if they fit properly ▪ I have a fitting for my wedding dress this afternoon.

2 : a small part ▪ a pipe fitting ▪ brass/electrical fittings

3 Brit : something (such as a refrigerator or a bookcase) that is in a house or building but can be removed if the house or building is sold — usually plural ▪ pay extra for fixtures and fittings fitting room noun, pl ~ rooms [count] : a room in a store in which customers can put on a piece of clothing to see if it fits before they buy it — called also dressing room

five /ˈfaɪv/ noun, pl fives

1 [count] : the number 5

2 [count] : the fifth in a set or series ▪ the five of clubs ▪ page five

3 [noncount] : five o'clock ▪ I get off work at five. ▪ The store is open until five.

4 [count] a US : a five-dollar bill ▪ The total cost was $3.83 and she gave him a five. b Brit : a five-pound note : FIVER

– five adj ▪ five years – five pronoun ▪ Five (of them) are missing.

five–and–dime /ˌfaɪvənˈdaɪm/ noun, pl -dimes [count] US, old-fashioned : a store that sells inexpensive things ▪ the

F

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 41 SESS: 9 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:33:27 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-f

local five-and-dime — called also dime store, five-and-ten /-ˈtɛn/five•fold /ˈfaɪvˌfoʊld/ adj : five times as great or as many ▪ There has been a fivefold increase in membership this year.

– five•fold /ˈfaɪvˈfoʊld/ adv ▪ Membership has increased fivefold.

five–o'clock shadow noun, pl ~ -ows [count] : the beginning of a beard that you can see late in the afternoon on the face of a man who has not shaved since morning

fiv•er /ˈfaɪvə/ noun, pl -ers [count] Brit, informal : a five-pound note five–spice powder noun [noncount] : a mixture of spices that is used in Chinese cooking five–star /ˈfaɪvˈstɑə/ adj, always used before a noun : of the best quality ▪ a five-star hotel

[1]fix /ˈfɪks/ verb fix•es; fixed; fix•ing [+ obj]
1 a : to make (something) whole or able to work properly again : to repair (something) ▪ He fixed the fence last weekend. ▪ I need to fix this dent in my car. ▪ fix a leaky faucet b : to deal with or correct (a problem) ▪ Your proposals won't fix [=solve] anything. ▪ People expect the schools to fix whatever is wrong with their kids.
2 : to attach (something) in such a way that it will not move ▪ All tables on the ship will be fixed to the floor. : to connect or join (things) physically ▪ fix [=attach, fasten] this sign to your door ▪ The table was fixed firmly to the floor. ▪ The scarf was fixed in place with a pin. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ I want to fix this moment in my mind forever. [=I want to remember this moment forever]
3 a : to set or place (something) definitely ▪ They haven't yet fixed the date of their wedding. ▪ They fixed the price at $10. ▪ illegal price fixing b : to find out (something) with certainty ▪ Investigators are still attempting to fix the exact time of the accident. ▪ We're trying to fix [=get a fix on] the ship's location. c : to arrange the details of something ▪ My lawyer fixed it [=made arrangements] so I wouldn't have to go to court.
4 chiefly US a : to make (something, such as a meal) ready ▪ fix [=prepare, make] dinner ▪ Can I fix [=make] you a drink? = Can I fix a drink for you? b informal : to make (someone's hair, makeup, etc.) neat or attractive ▪ We had to wait 10 minutes while she fixed her hair. ▪ fixing her lipstick/makeup
5 : to control or affect (something, such as a game or election) in a dishonest way ▪ They were accused of fixing games in college. ▪ The election was fixed. ▪ fix a parking ticket [=arrange for someone to not have to pay a fine for parking illegally]
6 : to change the appearance of (someone's face, nose, etc.) through surgery ▪ She wants to get her nose fixed.
7 informal : to do something to punish (someone who has treated you badly or unfairly) ▪ They thought they could cheat me, but I fixed them good. ▪ I'll fix you!
8 US : to make (an animal) unable to reproduce : to neuter or spay (an animal) ▪ You should have your dog/cat fixed.
9 US, informal + old-fashioned : to be or get ready to do something ▪ They were fixing to leave. ▪ It looks like it's fixing to rain. [=it's about to rain] ✧ This sense of fix is sometimes used humorously to suggest the speech of cowboys in western movies.
10 technical : to change (nitrogen) into a stable or useful form ▪ bacteria that fix nitrogen fix on/upon [phrasal verb] fix on/upon (something) 1 : to direct your attention or thoughts toward (something) : to focus on (something) ▪ He has fixed on/upon the idea of going back to school. ▪ All eyes fixed on her as she entered the room. [=everyone looked at her as she entered the room]
2 : to make a decision about or choose (something) ▪ After weeks of discussion, they've finally fixed on a solution.
fix (someone) with a stare/look (etc.) : to look directly at (someone) usually in an angry way ▪ She fixed him with an angry stare. [=she stared at him angrily] fix up [phrasal verb] 1 fix up (something) or fix (something) up : to improve the appearance or condition of (something, such as a building) by repairing it, making changes to it, etc. ▪ We spent thousands of dollars fixing up our house. — see also FIXER-UPPER 2 fix (someone or something) up chiefly US : to make (someone or something) more attractive or fancy ▪ I need a few minutes to fix myself up before we leave. ▪ She got herself all fixed up [=dressed up, spruced up] for the party. 3 fix (someone) up a : to provide (someone) with something that is needed or wanted ▪ They can fix you up with a rental car at the airport. b : to provide a possible boyfriend or girlfriend for (someone) : to arrange a date for (someone) ▪ My mother tried to fix me up with one of her friends' sons.
fix your eyes/gaze (etc.) on/upon : to look at (someone or something) steadily ▪ Everyone fixed their eyes on her as she entered the room.
fix your hopes/sights (etc.) on/upon : to direct your hopes, efforts, etc., toward (something) ▪ They fixed their sights on winning the championship. ▪ She has her hopes fixed on a career in journalism. [=she hopes/wants to have a career in journalism]
if it ain't broke, don't fix it see [2]BROKE – fix•able /ˈfɪksəbəl/ adj ▪ All the car's problems are fixable.
– fix•er /ˈfɪksə/ noun, pl -ers [count]

[2]fix noun, pl fix•es [count]
1 : a difficult or embarrassing situation ▪ I found myself in an awful fix. [=mess, predicament]
2 : something that solves a problem : SOLUTION ▪ There's no easy fix to this problem. ▪ a quick fix
3 : the act of dishonestly controlling or affecting something (such as a game or election) ▪ The result was unexpected, and some people suspect a fix. ▪ (US) It was obvious early in the game that the fix was in. [=the outcome of the game was being controlled or affected in a dishonest way]
4 : an amount of an illegal drug that someone wants or needs to have ▪ He was desperately in search of his next fix. — often used figuratively ▪ I got my nostalgia fix at my class reunion. ▪ an ice-cream fix
5 a : the exact position of something (such as a ship or an airplane) ▪ an accurate fix ▪ We're trying to get a fix on the ship's location. [=trying to find or determine the ship's exact location] b : an accurate understanding of something ▪ Voters are still trying to get a fix on her character. ▪ Analysts are reading reports to get a fix on how the market will perform.

fix•ate /ˈfɪkˌseɪt/ verb -ates; -at•ed; -at•ing [no obj] : to look at or think about something constantly : to give all of your attention to something — usually + on or upon ▪ Why do journalists fixate on scandals?
– fixated adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ Why are journalists are so fixated on scandals? – fix•a•tion /fɪkˈseɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count] ▪ The band is my latest music fixation. [=the music I am thinking about constantly most recently] ▪ the media's fixation on scandals ▪ society's fixation on [=obsession with] race

fixed /ˈfɪkst/ adj
1 a — used to describe something that does not change ▪ a fixed interest rate ▪ They are trying to live on a fixed income. ▪ They have no fixed schedule. ▪ Each contestant is allowed a fixed amount of time. ▪ fixed costs/fees/prices ▪ a fixed stare/expression/smile ▪ fixed ideas about right and wrong b : placed or attached in a way that does not move easily ▪ a small mirror fixed to the wall ▪ That day remains fixed in my memory. ▪ All eyes were fixed on her as she entered the room. [=everyone looked at her as she entered the room]
2 informal : having something needed ▪ They were well fixed for food. [=they had a good supply of food] ▪ How are you fixed for money? [=do you have enough money?] ▪ He's fixed for life. [=he has enough money to live comfortably for the rest of his life]
– fix•ed•ly /ˈfɪksədli/ adv ▪ They stared fixedly at me.

fix•er–up•per /ˈfɪksəˌʌpə/ noun, pl -pers [count] US, informal : a house, apartment, etc., that is in bad condition and needs to be repaired ▪ Their first house was a one-bedroom fixer-upper. — see also fix up at [1]FIX fix•ings /ˈfɪksɪnz/ noun [plural] US, informal : foods that are traditionally served with the main dish of a particular meal ▪ For Thanksgiving dinner my mother always made turkey with all the fixings. [=potatoes, vegetables, etc.]

fix•i•ty /ˈfɪksəti/ noun, formal : the state or quality of not changing [noncount] looking for safety and fixity [=stability] in the ever-changing world [singular] a fixity of purpose fix•ture /ˈfɪkstʃə/ noun, pl -tures [count]

1 : something (such as a light, toilet, sink, etc.) that is attached to a house or building and that is not removed when the house or building is sold — usually plural ▪ bathroom fixtures ▪ lighting fixtures — compare [2]FITTING 3
2 : a person or thing that has been part of something or involved in something for a long time ▪ He's been a fixture in the parade for many years. ▪ She hopes the new educational program will become a permanent fixture at the zoo.
3 Brit, sports : a game played at a particular time and place ▪

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 42 SESS: 66 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:33:28 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−f

I attended all their home fixtures [=(US) games] last year.

[1]fizz /ˈfɪz/ verb fizz•es; fizzed; fizz•ing [no obj] : to make a sound like many small bubbles popping ▪ The soda fizzed.

[2]fizz noun, pl fizz•es
1 [noncount] : a sound like many small bubbles popping ▪ the characteristic fizz of champagne
2 [noncount] : energy and liveliness ▪ All the fizz was gone from their relationship.
3 a [count] : a drink with many small bubbles ▪ a gin fizz b [noncount] Brit, informal : CHAMPAGNE ▪ a glass of fizz
– fizzy /ˈfɪzi/ adj fizz•i•er; -est ▪ a fizzy [=bubbly, carbonated] soft drink ▪ fizzy enthusiasm fiz•zle /ˈfɪzəl/ verb fiz•zles; fiz•zled; fiz•zling [no obj] informal : to gradually fail or end > usage In U.S. English fizzle can be used by itself or with out. ▪ The project ended up fizzling. ▪ He had a great rookie season and then just fizzled out. In British English, fizzle is almost always followed by out. ▪ Dance crazes tend to fizzle out quickly.

– fizzle noun, pl fizzles [count] ▪ She felt responsible for her team's recent fizzle. [=failure, flop]

fjord also fiord /fiˈoɚd/ noun, pl fjords also fiords [count] : a narrow part of the ocean between cliffs or steep hills or mountains ▪ the fjords of Norway

FL abbr Florida

Fla abbr Florida

flab /ˈflæb/ noun [noncount] informal : extra soft flesh on a person's body : excess body fat ▪ stomach/arm flab — sometimes used figuratively ▪ cutting jobs to eliminate corporate flab
– flab•by /ˈflæbi/ adj flab•bi•er; -est ▪ flabby arms ▪ flabby [=soft] muscles ▪ She writes in a flabby [=loose] style that ruins the narrative. – flab•bi•ness /ˈflæbinəs/ noun [noncount] ▪ the flabbiness of his muscles ▪ moral/intellectual flabbiness

flab•ber•gast /ˈflæbəˌgæst, Brit ˈflæbəˌgɑːst/ verb -gasts; -gast•ed; -gast•ing [+ obj] : to shock or surprise (someone) very much ▪ It flabbergasts me to see how many people still support them. — often used as (be) flabbergasted ▪ We were flabbergasted by/at the news that he'd won the game.
– flabbergasting adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ flabbergasting news flac•cid /ˈflæsəd/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : not firm : not hard or solid ▪ flaccid muscles/tissue ▪ a flaccid handshake
2 : lacking strength or force : WEAK ▪ flaccid leadership ▪ a flaccid response

[1]flack /ˈflæk/ noun, pl flacks [count] US, informal + disapproving : a person whose job is to make people like or be interested in someone or something ▪ a public relations flack ▪ campaign flacks [=publicists, press agents]

[2]flack variant spelling of FLAK

[1]flag /ˈflæg/ noun, pl flags [count]
1 : a piece of cloth with a special design that is used as a symbol of a nation or group ▪ raise/lower the American flag ▪ The flag was flying [=the flag was raised up on a pole] over the fort. ✧ To fly/show/wave the flag is to display the flag of your country as a sign of patriotism.
2 : a piece of cloth used as a signal or to attract attention ▪ waving a flag of surrender/truce ▪ a checkered flag ▪ The referee threw a penalty flag. — see also RED FLAG, WHITE FLAG
– compare [4]FLAG

[2]flag verb flags; flagged; flag•ging [+ obj]
1 : to signal (someone or something that is moving past you) to stop especially by raising or waving your hand ▪ flag a taxi ▪ I flagged the waiter for the check. — often + down ▪ We should flag someone down and ask for directions.
2 : to mark (something, such as a page or section of a book) so that it can be easily seen or found ▪ She flagged several pages for me to review.
3 American football : to signal that you are giving a penalty to (a player) by throwing a penalty flag ▪ He was flagged for holding.
– compare [3]FLAG

[3]flag verb flags; flagged; flag•ging [no obj]
1 : to become weak ▪ Our interest flagged as the speaker droned on. ▪ The good news boosted my flagging spirits. ▪ Her energy shows no sign of flagging after all these years.
2 : to become less interesting, attractive, or valuable ▪ He's trying to revive his flagging career. ▪ flagging stock prices
– compare [2]FLAG

[4]flag noun, pl flags [count] : FLAGSTONE — compare [1]FLAG

Flag Day noun [singular] : June 14 observed in the U.S. as the anniversary of the day the American flag was officially accepted in 1777

flag•el•late /ˈflædʒəˌleɪt/ verb -lates; -lat•ed; -lat•ing [+ obj] formal : to hit (yourself or another person) with a whip as punishment or as part of a religious ritual — sometimes used figuratively ▪ He flagellated [=severely criticized] himself for years for allowing the business to fail. — see also SELF-FLAGELLATION
– flag•el•la•tion /ˌflædʒəˈleɪʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ ritual flagellation

flag football noun [noncount] : a form of American football in which the player with the ball is not tackled but instead must stop when another player removes a piece of cloth that is attached to the player's waist flag•on /ˈflægən/ noun, pl -ons [count] old-fashioned : a container for liquids that usually has a handle, spout, and lid ▪ a pewter flagon; also : the amount in a flagon ▪ We drank a whole flagon of wine.

flag•pole /ˈflægˌpoʊl/ noun, pl -poles [count] : a tall pole from which a flag hangs : a pole used to display a flag fla•grant /ˈfleɪgrənt/ adj [more ~; most ~] : very bad : too bad to be ignored ▪ a flagrant violation ▪ flagrant abuse of the law ▪ her flagrant disregard for other people's rights ▪ a flagrant error – fla•grant•ly adv ▪ flagrantly violating our rights

flag•ship /ˈflægˌʃɪp/ noun, pl -ships [count]
1 : the ship that carries the commander of a group of ships ▪ the flagship of the Atlantic fleet
2 : the best, largest, or most important one of a group of things (such as products, stores, etc.) — often used before another noun ▪ the company's flagship store ▪ The next game will be broadcast on our flagship station.

flag•staff /ˈflægˌstæf, Brit ˈflægˌstɑːf/ noun, pl -staffs [count] : FLAGPOLE

flag•stone /ˈflægˌstoʊn/ noun, pl -stones [count] : a hard, flat piece of stone that is used for making paths ▪ a walkway paved with flagstones — often used before another noun ▪ a flagstone path

flag–wav•ing /ˈflægˌweɪvɪŋ/ noun [noncount] usually disapproving : words and actions that show very strong support for your government usually in a way that seems foolish or excessive ▪ The essay is little more than flag-waving. — sometimes used before another noun ▪ flag-waving rhetoric/patriotism
– flag–wav•er /ˈflægˌweɪvɚ/ noun, pl -wav•ers [count]

[1]flail /ˈfleɪl/ verb flails; flailed; flail•ing
1 : to move or swing your arms or legs in a wild and uncontrolled way [+ obj] They were flailing their arms to drive away the insects. [no obj] The wounded animal lay on the ground, flailing helplessly. ▪ He was wildly flailing about/around on the dance floor. ▪ He flailed away at the ball. [=he swung wildly at the ball]
2 [+ obj] : to strike or hit (something or someone) in a wild and uncontrolled way ▪ The bird's wings flailed the water.

[2]flail noun, pl flails [count] : a long-handled tool that was used in the past for beating wheat so that the grain would become separated from the wheat

flair /ˈfleɚ/ noun [singular]
1 : a natural ability to do something — usually + for ▪ He has a flair for storytelling. ▪ She has a flair for the dramatic. [=she tends to behave or talk in a very dramatic way]
2 : an unusual and appealing quality or style ▪ a restaurant with a European flair

flak also flack /ˈflæk/ noun [noncount]
1 : exploding shells that are shot at enemy aircraft from guns on the ground
2 informal : harsh criticism ▪ He caught/drew heavy flak for his decision to oppose the new school. ▪ He took a lot of flak from the other kids for his unusual appearance.

[1]flake /ˈfleɪk/ noun, pl flakes [count]
1 : a small, thin piece of something ▪ delicate flakes of snow ▪ white flakes of dandruff ▪ soap flakes — see also CORNFLAKES, SNOWFLAKE
2 chiefly US, informal : a strange or unusual person : ODDBALL ▪ He's a nice guy but he's a bit of a flake.

[2]flake verb flakes; flaked; flak•ing [no obj]
1 : to break apart into small, thin pieces ▪ Bake the fish until it flakes easily when tested with a fork.

F

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 43 SESS: 34 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:33:28 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−f

2 : to form loose, thin pieces that fall off ▪ The old fence was falling apart, and its paint was flaking (off).

flak jacket noun, pl ~ -ets [count] : a special jacket that is worn by soldiers, police officers, etc., for protection against flak or bullets — called also flak vest

flaky /ˈfleɪki/ adj flak•i•er; -est
1 : tending to form or break apart into thin pieces ▪ pie with a crisp, flaky crust : consisting of flakes ▪ flaky snow
2 chiefly US, informal : unusual or strange ▪ a flaky idea ▪ He's a nice guy but he's a little flaky.
– flak•i•ness noun [noncount]

flam•bé /flɑmˈbeɪ/ verb -bés; -béed; -bé•ing [+ obj] : to pour an alcoholic liquid on (a food) and light it so that flames are produced ▪ The crepes were flambéed with brandy.
– flambé adj — used after a noun ▪ trout flambé

flam•boy•ant /flæmˈbojənt/ adj [more ~; most ~] : having a very noticeable quality that attracts a lot of attention ▪ a flamboyant performer ▪ the flamboyant gestures of the conductor ▪ wearing flamboyant clothes ▪ flamboyant colors
– flam•boy•ance /flæmˈbojəns/ noun [noncount] ▪ youthful flamboyance ▪ the flamboyance of her clothes – flam•boy•ant•ly adv ▪ flamboyantly dressed

[1]flame /fleɪm/ noun, pl flames
1 [count] : the hot, glowing gas that can be seen when a fire is burning ▪ the flame of a candle ▪ We built a fire and roasted marshmallows over the flames. ▪ They tried to put out the fire, but the flames grew higher.
2 : a state of burning brightly [count] The engine suddenly burst/exploded into flames. [=the engine suddenly began burning] ▪ The entire building was in flames. [=was on fire; was burning] ▪ The curtains caught on fire and the cabin went up in flames. [=was destroyed by fire] [noncount] The engine burst/exploded into flame.
3 [count] : strongly felt emotion — usually plural ▪ the flames of passion
4 [count] informal : a person you have a romantic relationship with : SWEETHEART ▪ She refuses to answer questions about her current flame. ▪ He's an old flame from her high-school days. ▪ a former flame
5 [count] : an angry or insulting e-mail message fan the flames see [2]FAN

[2]flame verb flames; flamed; flam•ing
1 [no obj] : to burn with a flame : to produce a flame ▪ A fire flamed in the oven. — often + up ▪ The overheated pan flamed up suddenly.
2 [no obj] literary : to feel or express strong or angry emotion ▪ He flamed with indignation.
3 [no obj] literary : to shine brightly : GLOW ▪ The sun flamed through the clouds. ▪ color flaming in her cheeks
4 [+ obj] : to send an angry or insulting e-mail message to (someone) ▪ He got/was flamed for expressing a controversial political opinion on the Internet.
flame out [phrasal verb] 1 of a jet engine : to stop working suddenly ▪ The plane nearly crashed when one of its engines flamed out shortly after takeoff. 2 US, informal : to fail or end in a very sudden way ▪ His career flamed out after the failure of his last movie. — see also FLAMEOUT fla•men•co /fləˈmɛŋkoʊ/ noun [count, noncount] : a fast and lively Spanish dance; also : music that is played for this type of dance flame•out /ˈfleɪmˌaʊt/ noun, pl -outs [count]

1 : a sudden stopping of a jet engine
2 US, informal : a very sudden and complete failure ▪ Fans were disappointed by the team's flameout in the play-offs.
– see also flame out at [2]FLAME flame•proof /ˈfleɪmˌpruːf/ adj : not easily damaged by flames : FIREPROOF ▪ flameproof clothing flame•throw•er /ˈfleɪmˌθrowə/ noun, pl -ers [count]

1 : a weapon that shoots a stream of burning liquid
2 baseball, informal : a pitcher who throws the ball very fast : a fastball pitcher

flam•ing /ˈfleɪmɪŋ/ adj
1 : having a bright or glowing red or orange color ▪ the flaming sunset sky ▪ flaming red hair
2 : burning with bright flames ▪ a flaming torch
3 : very intense or strongly felt ▪ flaming passion
4 informal — used to make an angry or critical statement more forceful ▪ They're a couple of flaming idiots.

fla•min•go /fləˈmɪŋgoʊ/ noun, pl -gos also -goes [count] : a large tropical bird that has pink or red wings and a very long neck and legs — see color picture on page C9

flam•ma•ble /ˈflæməbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : capable of being set on fire and of burning quickly ▪ a flammable liquid ▪ a highly flammable fabric
– flam•ma•bil•i•ty /ˌflæməˈbɪləti/ noun [noncount] flan /ˈflæn/ noun, pl flans [count, noncount]

1 chiefly US : a type of sweet dessert made of a smooth, thick custard covered with caramel
2 : an open pie containing any of various fillings ▪ a mushroom flan

flange /ˈflænʤ/ noun, pl flang•es [count] : an edge that sticks out from something (such as a wheel) and is used for strength, for guiding, or for attachment to another object
– flanged /ˈflænʤd/ adj ▪ a flanged wheel

[1]flank /ˈflæŋk/ noun, pl flanks [count]
1 : the area on the side of an animal (such as a horse) between the ribs and the hip ▪ She gently patted the horse's flank. — see picture at HORSE
2 : the right or left side of a military formation ▪ They attacked the enemy on both flanks.
3 : the side of something ▪ the eastern flank of a volcano

[2]flank verb flanks; flanked; flank•ing [+ obj] : to be located on both sides of (something or someone) ▪ Guards flanked the entrance. — usually used as (be) flanked ▪ The bed was flanked by two small tables. ▪ a celebrity flanked by muscular bodyguards — see also OUTFLANK flank•er /ˈflæŋkə/ noun, pl -ers [count] American football : a player on the offensive team whose position is toward the side and behind the line of scrimmage

flan•nel /ˈflænl/ noun
1 [noncount] : a soft cloth made of wool or cotton ▪ shirts made of bright-colored flannel — often used before another noun ▪ a flannel shirt ▪ a flannel suit ▪ flannel pajamas
2 flannels [plural] : pants made of flannel ▪ He wore a dark blazer and gray flannels.
3 [count] Brit : WASHCLOTH
4 [noncount] Brit, informal : foolish or meaningless words ▪ Cut out all that flannel and tell us what really happened!

flan•nel•ette /ˌflænəˈlɛt/ noun [noncount] Brit : a light and soft cotton cloth

[1]flap /ˈflæp/ noun, pl flaps [count]
1 : a flat piece of material that is attached to something on one side and that can be easily moved ▪ She opened the tent flap and crawled outside. ▪ the inside flap of a book's cover ▪ a loose flap of skin
2 : the movement or sound of something that is moving up and down or back and forth ▪ the soft flap [=flapping] of the flag in the breeze ▪ the steady flap [=beat] of the bird's wings
3 informal a : a state or situation in which many people are excited or upset ▪ He was widely criticized during the recent flap [=uproar] about his controversial new book. b chiefly Brit : a state in which someone is very upset ▪ He got in a flap [=he became upset] over the delays in the schedule.
4 : a movable part of an airplane wing that can be raised or lowered and that is used to increase lift

[2]flap verb flaps; flapped; flap•ping : to move (something) up and down or back and forth [+ obj] birds flapping their wings ▪ The breeze flapped the sails. [no obj] The flag flapped in the breeze. ▪ The bird's wings were flapping.

flap•doo•dle /ˈflæpˌduːdl/ noun [noncount] chiefly US, informal : foolish words : NONSENSE ▪ The speech was a lot of flapdoodle about the economy.

flap•jack /ˈflæpˌʤæk/ noun, pl -jacks [count]
1 US : PANCAKE
2 Brit : a thick, sweet cake made of oatmeal usually with molasses or honey flap•per /ˈflæpə/ noun, pl -pers [count] : a young woman in the 1920s who dressed and behaved in a way that was considered very modern

[1]flare /ˈfleə/ verb flares; flared; flar•ing
1 [no obj] : to shine or burn suddenly and briefly ▪ A match flared (up) in the darkness.
2 [no obj] : to become suddenly excited, angry, or active ▪ Tempers flared [=people became angry] during the debate. — often + up ▪ The fighting flared up again after a two-week lull. ▪ She flared up [=became very angry] at her brother. ▪ Her asthma has flared up again. [=her asthma has become suddenly active or worse again]
3 : to open or spread outward [no obj] pants that flare at the bottom ▪ the bull's flaring nostrils — often + out ▪ The skirt flares out at the knee. [+ obj] The bull flared its nostrils.

[2]flare noun, pl flares
1 [count] : a light that shines brightly and briefly ▪ the sudden flare of the match

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 44 SESS: 9 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:33:29 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-f

2 [count] : a very bright light that is used to give a signal, to light up something, or to attract attention ▪ When the crew saw flares, they knew the other ship was in trouble.; also : a device that produces such a light
3 [count] : a sudden expression of anger : FLARE-UP ▪ a flare of temper
4 [count] : a shape or part that spreads outward ▪ the flare at the bottom of the vase
5 flares [plural] : pants with legs that become wider at the bottom : BELL-BOTTOMS flare–up /ˈfleəˌʌp/ noun, pl -ups [count]

1 : a sudden occurrence of flame ▪ The fire is smoldering and there is still a danger of flare-ups.
2 : a sudden occurrence or expression of anger ▪ a flare-up of temper during the debate ▪ a moody teenager prone to emotional flare-ups
3 : an occurrence in which something (such as violence or a disease) suddenly begins or becomes worse ▪ She had another flare-up of her asthma. ▪ There has been a flare-up of violence along the border.

[1]flash /ˈflæʃ/ verb flash•es; flashed; flash•ing
1 : to shine or give off bright light suddenly or in repeated bursts [no obj] Thunder rumbled and lightning flashed. ▪ Cameras flashed as the celebrities passed. ▪ A car was sitting on the side of the road with its lights flashing. [+ obj] She flashed her car's headlights (at us) and honked her horn.
2 a : to appear quickly or suddenly [no obj] A message flashed on the screen. [+ obj] The screen flashed a message in black letters. b [no obj] : to move or pass very quickly ▪ A car flashed by. ▪ An idea flashed into/through his mind. [=he suddenly had an idea]
3 [no obj] of the eyes : to show strong emotion ▪ Her eyes flashed with anger.
4 [+ obj] : to show (something) briefly ▪ The mugger flashed a knife and demanded their wallets. ▪ The officer flashed his badge. ▪ She flashed a shy smile.
5 informal : to show your sexual organs to (someone) suddenly and briefly in public [+ obj] A strange man flashed her on the subway. [no obj] He was arrested for flashing. — see also FLASHER

[2]flash noun, pl flashes
1 [count] : a sudden bright light ▪ A brilliant/blinding flash lit up the sky. ▪ a flash of lightning = a lightning flash
2 [count] : a sudden appearance or occurrence of something ▪ a flash of insight ▪ a flash of color ▪ a flash of wit ▪ a flash of anger ▪ The idea for the movie came to her in a flash of inspiration. — see also HOT FLASH
3 [noncount] usually disapproving : a fancy or exciting quality or appearance that is meant to attract attention to something that is usually not very good or interesting ▪ They relied on gimmicks and flash to get people's attention. ▪ a show with a lot of flash but little substance
4 : a device that is used to produce a brief and very bright flash of light for taking photographs [count] a camera with a flash ▪ Use the flash when you're taking pictures indoors. [noncount] a picture taken using flash ▪ flash photography [=photography that is done with a flash] — see picture at CAMERA; compare FLASHBULB
5 [count] : NEWSFLASH
(as) quick as a flash informal : very quickly ▪ The waitress brought our order as quick as a flash.
flash in the pan : a person or thing that fails after being very popular or successful for a brief time ▪ He was a flash in the pan whose second album didn't sell very well.
in a flash informal : very quickly or suddenly ▪ I'll be back in a flash. ▪ The idea came to me in a flash.

[3]flash adj
1 always used before a noun : beginning suddenly and lasting only a short time ▪ a flash fire ▪ a flash flood [=a sudden flood that is caused by heavy rain and that lasts a short time]
2 always used before a noun, US, informal : very talented ▪ a flash athlete 3 [more ~; most ~] Brit, informal + disapproving : FLASHY, SHOWY ▪ a flash car flash•back /ˈflæʃˌbæk/ noun, pl -backs

1 : a part of a story or movie that describes or shows something that happened in the past [count] The character's childhood was described in a series of flashbacks. [noncount] events shown in flashback
2 [count] : a strong memory of a past event that comes suddenly into a person's mind ▪ He's having flashbacks of/to his days in the war.

flash•bulb /ˈflæʃˌbʌlb/ noun, pl -bulbs [count] : an electric bulb that produces a very bright flash of light for taking photographs — compare [2]FLASH 5

flash card noun, pl ~ cards [count] : a card that has words, numbers, or pictures on it and that is used to help students learn about a subject flash•er /ˈflæʃə/ noun, pl -ers [count]

1 : a light that shines briefly and repeatedly : ▪ emergency flashers ▪ We noticed a car at the side of the road with its flashers on.
2 informal : a man who shows his sexual organs in public flash•light /ˈflæʃˌlaɪt/ noun, pl -lights [count] US : a small electric light that can be carried in your hand and that runs on batteries — called also (Brit) torch

flashlight

flash point noun, pl ~ points [count] : a point, place, or situation in which sudden anger or violence could happen ▪ The city became a flash point as political tensions grew. ▪ The situation reached a flash point when union leaders urged the workers to protest.

flashy /ˈflæʃi/ adj flash•i•er; -est usually disapproving : bright or fancy in a way that is meant to attract attention : GAUDY ▪ rich young men who drive flashy cars ▪ flashy glamour ▪ flashy colors/clothes ▪ a flashy dresser ▪ flashy ads – flash•i•ly /ˈflæʃəli/ adv ▪ flashily dressed – flash•i•ness /ˈflæʃinəs/ noun [noncount]

flask /ˈflæsk, Brit ˈflɑːsk/ noun, pl flasks [count]
1 : a container that is shaped like a flattened bottle and that is used to carry alcohol ▪ a flask of whiskey — called also hip flask
2 : a glass bottle used in scientific laboratories
3 Brit : THERMOS

[1]flat /ˈflæt/ adj flat•ter; flat•test
1 : having a smooth, level, or even surface : not having curves or bumps ▪ flat ground ▪ the flat top of the table ▪ the flat landscape of the prairie ▪ a flat stomach ▪ a flat wall
2 : having a wide, smooth surface and little thickness ▪ Coins are usually round and flat. ▪ small, flat computer disks ▪ a flat piece of wood
3 of a shoe heel : very low and wide ▪ flat heels; also, of a shoe : having a flat heel or no heel ▪ wearing flat shoes
4 : spread out on or along a surface ▪ The soldiers were lying flat on the ground. ▪ He was (lying) flat on his back.
5 : very clear and definite : ABSOLUTE ▪ a flat refusal ▪ His comments were a flat contradiction of his sister's statement. ✧ In British English the expression and that's flat! is used to stress that a statement or decision is definite and will not be changed. ▪ I'm not going to do it and that's flat! [=and that's that]
6 a : not changing in amount ▪ They charged a flat rate for their services. ▪ a flat [=fixed] fee ▪ Ticket sales have been/remained flat. [=have not increased or decreased] ▪ flat profits ▪ a flat tax [=a tax that is paid at the same rate by everyone] b : not having much business activity ▪ The market is very flat for this time of year.
7 : not having much interest or energy : DULL ▪ flat writing ▪ a flat performance ▪ He spoke in a flat, tired voice.
8 of a drink : no longer having bubbles ▪ This beer is flat. = This beer has gone flat. ▪ flat ginger ale ▪ flat champagne
9 of a tire : not having enough air ▪ I got a flat tire from a nail in the street. ▪ The tire was (slightly) flat.
10 music a : lower than the true pitch ▪ Her singing was slightly flat. b : lower than a specified note by a semitone ▪ B flat [=a note that is a semitone lower than B] — compare [1]NATURAL 8, [1]SHARP 13
11 of lighting conditions : not producing strong shadows ▪ a portrait taken in flat lighting
12 : not shiny ▪ flat paint
13 Brit, of a battery : no longer producing electricity : DEAD ▪ The battery has gone flat. [=(US) the battery is dead; the battery has died]
(as) flat as a pancake informal : very flat ▪ The land there is as flat as a pancake. ▪ The tire was flat as a pancake.
– flat•ly adv ▪ He flatly refuses to talk about it. ▪ Lay the map flatly on the desk. ▪ She has flatly denied the accusations. – flat•ness noun [noncount]

[2]flat noun, pl flats [count]

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 45 SESS: 9 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:33:29 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-f

1 : a level area of land — usually plural ▪ salt flats ▪ tidal flats
2 : a flat part or surface ▪ the flat of your hand ▪ the flat of a sword
3 a : a musical note that is one semitone lower than a specified note ▪ B flat b : a written symbol ♭ that is placed before a note to show that it should be played a semitone lower — compare [2]NATURAL, [3]SHARP
4 US : a shallow box in which young plants are grown
5 chiefly US : a shoe or slipper that has a flat heel or no heel — usually plural ▪ She wore a casual dress and flats to the show.
6 chiefly Brit : an apartment typically on one floor ▪ They moved out of their old flat. — compare APARTMENT
7 : a tire that does not have enough air ▪ I drove over a nail and got a flat. ▪ fix a flat

[3]flat adv
1 a : on or against a flat surface ▪ Lay the map flat on the desk. b : in the position of someone or something that is lying spread out on the ground or another surface ▪ He slipped and landed/fell flat on his back/face.
2 : exactly or precisely — used to describe something that happens quickly ▪ He got there in two minutes flat. ▪ in 10 seconds flat ▪ She finished her homework in nothing flat. [=in no time at all; very quickly]
3 informal : completely or absolutely ▪ We asked for more time but they turned us down flat. ▪ (US) If you ask me, what they're doing is flat wrong. ▪ I'm flat broke. [=I have no money] — see also FLAT OUT
4 : below the correct musical pitch ▪ He sang slightly flat. — compare [2]SHARP 2 fall flat see [1]FALL

[1]flat•bed /ˈflætˌbɛd/ adj, always used before a noun : having a flat surface on which work is placed ▪ a flatbed scanner ▪ a flatbed printing press

[2]flatbed noun, pl -beds [count] chiefly US : a truck or trailer that has a body which is shaped like a platform or shallow box

flat•car /ˈflætˌkɑə/ noun, pl -cars [count] chiefly US : a railroad car without sides or a roof that is used for carrying goods flat•fish /ˈflætˌfɪʃ/ noun, pl -fish [count] : a fish (such as a halibut, flounder, or sole) that has a flat body and swims on its side with both eyes on the upper side

flat foot noun [count]
1 pl ~ feet : a foot that is flat on the bottom so the entire sole rests upon the ground — usually plural ▪ He has flat feet.
2 usually flat•foot /ˈflætˌfʊt/ pl -foots US slang, old-fashioned : POLICE OFFICER flat–foot•ed /ˈflætˌfʊtəd/ adj

1 a : having flat feet ▪ a flat-footed man b : walking or moving in a slow and awkward way ▪ a clumsy, flat-footed new recruit
2 chiefly US, informal : not ready or prepared — usually used in the phrase catch flat-footed ▪ The surprise announcement of his candidacy caught his opponents flat-footed. [=his opponents were not prepared for his announcement]

flat•mate /ˈflætˌmeɪt/ noun, pl -mates [count] chiefly Brit : a person who shares a flat (sense 6) with someone : ROOMMATE flat out adv, informal

1 chiefly US : in a very clear and direct way ▪ I told him flat out that I have no intention of marrying him. ▪ We asked for more time but they refused us flat out.
2 : at the fastest possible speed ▪ The car does 180 mph flat out. ▪ We've been working flat out. [=as hard as possible] ▪ He was running flat out. [=as fast as possible]
3 usually flat-out US, informal — used to make a statement more forceful ▪ This class is just flat-out confusing. ▪ The movie was flat-out lousy. ▪ She flat-out [=completely] missed the target.

flat–out /ˈflætˌaʊt/ adj, always used before a noun, informal
1 chiefly US : absolute and complete ▪ It was a flat-out lie. ▪ a flat-out refusal
2 : greatest possible : MAXIMUM ▪ a flat-out effort flat–pan•el /ˈflætˈpænl/ adj, always used before a noun : FLAT-SCREEN ▪ a computer with a flat-panel display ▪ a flat-panel monitor ▪ flat-panel TVs flat–screen /ˈflætˌskri:n/ adj, always used before a noun — used to describe a television, computer monitor, etc., that has a thin and flat screen ▪ We bought a new flat-screen TV.

flat•ten /ˈflætn/ verb -tens; -tened; -ten•ing
1 a [+ obj] : to make (something) flat or flatter ▪ He opened the map and flattened it (out) against the tabletop. ▪ He flattened himself against the wall. [=he pressed himself against the wall so that he was as close to it as possible] b [no obj] : to become flat or flatter ▪ The dough flattened smoothly/easily. ▪ The land flattens (out) as you approach the coast.
2 [+ obj] a : to knock down (something or someone) ▪ Dozens of houses were flattened by the tornado. ▪ The boxer was flattened in the seventh round. b informal : to defeat (a competitor) easily or completely ▪ The team got flattened in the first round of the play-offs.
3 [no obj] : to go to and stay at a lower level ▪ Prices are expected to flatten after the holiday shopping season. — often + out ▪ Student performance flattened out after the second month of the school year.

flat•ter /ˈflætə/ verb -ters; -tered; -ter•ing [+ obj]
1 : to praise (someone) in a way that is not sincere ▪ He flattered her with comments about her youthful appearance. ▪ His comments flattered her. ▪ You're just flattering me.
2 : to cause (someone) to feel pleased by showing respect, affection, or admiration ▪ It flattered her to be asked to sing at their wedding. — usually used as (be) flattered ▪ She was flattered when they asked her to sing. ▪ I'm flattered that he asked me out, but he isn't my type.
3 a : to show or describe (someone or something) in a way that is very favorable or too favorable ▪ That portrait flatters him. [=that portrait makes him look better than he really does] b : to cause (someone or something) to look as attractive as possible ▪ That dress really flatters your figure.
flatter yourself : to believe something about yourself that makes you feel pleased or proud ▪ Don't flatter yourself—you don't sing any better than we do. ▪ I flatter myself on my skill in dancing. = I flatter myself that I'm a good dancer.
– flat•ter•er /ˈflætərə/ noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ an insincere flatterer – flattering adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ She wasn't fooled by his flattering comments. ▪ a very flattering portrait ▪ a flattering dress – flat•ter•ing•ly /ˈflætərɪŋli/ adv ▪ a flatteringly favorable portrait flat•tery /ˈflætəri/ noun [noncount] : praise that is not sincere ▪ He tried to win his teacher's favor with flattery. ▪ Flattery will get you nowhere. [=you will not succeed by flattering me]

flat•top /ˈflætˌtɑ:p/ noun, pl -tops [count]
1 US : AIRCRAFT CARRIER
2 : a haircut in which the hair is very short on the sides and flat and evenly cut on top flat•u•lence /ˈflætʃələns, Brit ˈflætjələns/ noun [noncount] : the presence of too much gas or air in the stomach or intestines ▪ symptoms include nausea, flatulence, and cramps – flat•u•lent /ˈflætʃələnt, Brit ˈflætjələnt/ adj [more ~; most ~] flat•ware /ˈflætˌweə/ noun [noncount] US : forks, spoons, and knives used for serving and eating food : SILVERWARE

flaunt /ˈflɑ:nt/ verb flaunts; flaunt•ed; flaunt•ing [+ obj]
1 : to show (something) in a very open way so that other people will notice ▪ She liked to flaunt her wealth by wearing furs and jewelry. ▪ Their motto seems to be, "If you've got it, flaunt it!" [=you should not be afraid to show your good features and talents]
2 : to show a lack of respect for (something, such as a rule) : FLOUT ▪ They openly flaunted the rules.

> usage The use of flaunt to mean "flout" is common, but it is considered by many people to be incorrect.

flau•tist /ˈflɑ:tɪst/ noun, pl -tists [count] : a person who plays a flute : FLUTIST

[1]fla•vor (US) or Brit fla•vour /ˈfleɪvə/ noun, pl -vors
1 a : the quality of something that you can taste [count] This dish has an unusual flavor. ▪ the hot, spicy flavors of Mexican food [noncount] a dish with unusual flavor b [count] : a particular type of taste ▪ They sell 20 different flavors of ice cream. ▪ Grape is my favorite bubble gum flavor. c [noncount] : a good or appealing taste ▪ The dish lacks flavor. ▪ The stew is full of flavor.
2 chiefly US : a substance that is added to food or drink to give it a desired taste : FLAVORING [count] artificial flavors [noncount] She added vanilla flavor to the custard.
3 a [count] : a particular quality that something has ▪ I like the Italian flavor of the neighborhood. ▪ The film has an avant-garde flavor. b [noncount] : an appealing quality ▪ Her performance adds flavor to the show.
4 [count] informal : a type or version of something ▪ different

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 46 SESS: 70 OUTPUT: Wed Dec 3 11:59:34 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-f

flavors of software ✧ The flavor of the month is someone or something that is popular and gets a lot of attention for a brief time. ▪ Education reform seems to have become the flavor of the month among politicians.

– a •vor•ful (US) or Brit a•vour •ful /ˈfleɪvəfəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ food that is flavorful as well as nutritious ▪ flavorful recipes – a •vor•less (US) or Brit a•vour •less /ˈfleɪvələs/ adj ▪ flavorless food – a •vor•some (US) or Brit a•vour •some /ˈfleɪvəsəm/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ flavorsome [=flavorful] recipes

[2] avor (US) or Brit avour verb -vors; -vored; -vor•ing [+ obj] : to give or add flavor to (something) ▪ We flavored the cookies with cinnamon. ▪ I flavored the salad with herbs.

– avored (US) or Brit a•voured adj ▪ flavored coffee ▪ cherry-flavored candies

a•vor•ing (US) or Brit a•vour •ing /ˈfleɪvərɪŋ/ noun, pl -ings : a substance that is added to a food or drink to give it a desired taste [count] We used ginger and other natural flavorings. ▪ add more flavorings [noncount] add more flavoring

aw /ˈflɑː/ noun, pl aws [count]
1 : a small physical problem (such as a crack) that makes something less valuable : DEFECT ▪ There was a flaw in the vase. ▪ He inspected the fabric for flaws.
2 : a small fault or weakness ▪ Several critics pointed out the flaws in the book's plot. ▪ Vanity was the one flaw in his character. ▪ There are a few flaws in your argument.

– aw •less /ˈflɑːləs/ adj ▪ an attractive woman with flawless skin ▪ a flawless [=perfect] performance – aw •less•ly adv ▪ She performed flawlessly. – aw •less•ness noun [noncount]

awed /ˈflɑːd/ adj [more ~; most ~] : having a mistake, fault, or weakness ▪ a flawed but decent man ▪ fatally/badly flawed reasoning ▪ a flawed but powerful performance ax /ˈflæks/ noun [noncount]

1 : a plant that has blue flowers and that is grown for its fiber and its seed ✧ The fiber of flax is used to make linen and the seed is used to make linseed oil.
2 : the fiber of the flax plant ax•en /ˈflæksən/ adj, literary : having a pale yellow color ▪ flaxen hair

ay /ˈfleɪ/ verb ays ; ayed ; ay•ing [+ obj] : to beat or whip (someone or something) in a very violent and severe way — usually used figuratively ▪ He was flayed [=severely criticized] by the media for his thoughtless comments.

ea /ˈfliː/ noun, pl eas [count] : a very small insect that lives on animals and that has strong legs used for jumping ▪ The dog has fleas. ▪ a flea bite fit as a flea see [1]FIT

ea•bag /ˈfliːˌbæg/ noun, pl -bags [count] US, informal : a cheap and dirty hotel — usually used before another noun ▪ a fleabag hotel ea collar noun, pl ~ -lars [count] : a collar for dogs and cats that contains a substance which kills fleas ea market noun, pl ~ -kets [count] : a usually outdoor market in which old and used goods are sold

[1] eck /ˈflɛk/ noun, pl ecks [count] : a small spot or mark ▪ a brown cloth with flecks of yellow ▪ The police found flecks of blood on his clothes.

[2] eck verb ecks ; ecked ; ecking [+ obj] : to put a small spots or marks of something on different parts of (a surface) ▪ She flecked the canvas with blue paint. — usually used as (be) flecked ▪ a brown beard flecked with gray [=a brown beard that has many small areas or spots of gray] ▪ snow flecked with mud = mud-flecked snow

ed past tense and past participle of FLEE edge /ˈflɛʤ/ verb edg •es; edged ; edg •ing [no obj] of a bird : to develop the feathers necessary for flying ▪ The young birds haven't yet fledged.

edg •ling /ˈflɛʤlɪŋ/ noun, pl -lings [count]
1 : a young bird that has just become able to fly ▪ a female bird feeding her fledglings ▪ a fledgling robin
2 : someone or something that is getting started in a new activity — usually used before another noun ▪ a fledgling company with only four employees ▪ a fledgling novelist

ee /ˈfliː/ verb ees ; ed /ˈflɛd/; ee•ing
1 [no obj] : to run away from danger ▪ They fled for their lives. [=they fled to save their lives] ▪ The family fled from Nazi Germany to Britain in 1936.
2 [+ obj] : to run away from (a place) ▪ He was accused of trying to flee the scene of the accident. ▪ Many people fled the city to escape the fighting. ▪ He was forced to flee the country.

[1] eece /ˈfliːs/ noun, pl eec •es
1 [count] : the woolly coat of a sheep
2 a [noncount] : a soft cloth that is used to make warm clothes ▪ warm fleece jackets b [count] chiefly Brit : a jacket made from this cloth

– eecy /ˈfliːsi/ adj eec •i•er; -est ▪ fleecy white clouds ▪ soft, fleecy fabric

[2] eece verb eeces ; eeced ; eec •ing [+ obj] informal : to deceive and take money from (someone) : CHEAT ▪ Don't let that salesman fleece you. ▪ an unsuspecting tourist fleeced by a scam artist

[1] eet /ˈfliːt/ noun, pl eets [count]
1 a : a group of military ships that are controlled by one leader ▪ He was the commander of the Pacific fleet. b : all of a country's military ships ▪ the British fleet
2 : a group of ships or vehicles that move or work together or that are controlled or owned by one company ▪ a fishing fleet ▪ The company has a large fleet of delivery trucks. ▪ a fleet of taxis

[2] eet adj eet •er; -est literary : very fast ▪ a fleet runner ▪ She is very fleet of foot. [=she is able to run very fast]

– eet •ly adv ▪ running fleetly – eet •ness noun [noncount] ▪ fleetness of foot eet–foot •ed /ˈfliːtˌfʊtəd/ adj [more ~; most ~] : able to run fast ▪ a fleet-footed runner eet •ing /ˈfliːtɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not lasting : lasting for only a short time ▪ autumn's fleeting beauty ▪ I caught a fleeting glimpse of the comet. ▪ Her fame was fleeting.

Fleet Street /ˈfliːt-/ noun [singular] — used as a name for London newspapers and journalists ▪ Fleet Street is speculating about his political future following the scandal. ✧ The term Fleet Street comes from the name of a street in London where many newspapers were once located.

Flem•ish /ˈflɛmɪʃ/ noun [noncount] : the Germanic language that is spoken by people in northern Belgium and that is now officially called Dutch

– Flemish adj

[1] esh /ˈflɛʃ/ noun [noncount]
1 : the soft parts of the body of an animal or person ▪ the flabby white flesh of his belly
2 : the skin of a person ▪ a disease that causes sores on the flesh ▪ sun-tanned flesh ▪ flesh-colored [=having the color of a white person's skin] ▪ The memory of all that blood was enough to make my flesh crawl/creep. [=to make me feel disgusted, afraid, etc.]
3 : parts of an animal used as food : MEAT ▪ cooked rabbit flesh ▪ flesh-eating mammals
4 : the soft part of a fruit that is eaten ▪ the soft, sweet flesh of a peach
5 : the physical nature of a person rather than the mind or spirit ▪ pleasures of the flesh [=physical pleasures, such as eating, drinking, and having sex] ▪ sins of the flesh ▪ "The spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak." —Matthew 26:41 (KJV) — see also the spirit is willing but the flesh is weak at [1]SPIRIT
a thorn in the/your flesh see THORN flesh and blood 1 : a human being — often used when talking about human weakness ▪ There's a limit to what I can do—I'm only flesh and blood. ▪ It was more than flesh and blood can bear. 2 : someone who is closely related to you : a person in your family — usually used in the phrase your own flesh and blood ▪ How could you do something so cruel to your own flesh and blood?
go the way of all flesh literary : to die in the flesh ✧ If you see someone in the flesh you see that person directly rather than in a picture, on television, etc. ▪ I saw him in the flesh just three days ago. ▪ She was excited to see the President in the flesh.
pound of flesh see [1]POUND press the flesh see [2]PRESS

[2] esh verb esh •es; eshed ; esh •ing flesh out [phrasal verb] flesh (something) out or flesh out (something) : to provide more information about (something) : to make (something) more complete by adding details ▪ You need to flesh out your plan with more details. ▪ She fleshes out the characters in her novels very well.

esh •pot /ˈflɛʃˌpɑːt/ noun, pl -pots [count] informal + humorous : a place where people are entertained in ways that relate to physical pleasures (such as drinking and sex) — usually plural ▪ visiting the fleshpots of the city

F

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 47 SESS: 37 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:33:30 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-f

flesh wound noun, pl ~ wounds [count] : a wound that injures the skin and flesh but does not go deep into the body

fleshy /ˈflɛʃi/ adj flesh•i•er; -est
1 : having a large amount of flesh ▪ a large, fleshy nose ▪ the fleshy part of the thigh ▪ a fleshy face ▪ fleshy arms
2 : soft and thick ▪ the fleshy texture of the melon ▪ fleshy fruit ▪ a plant with fleshy leaves – flesh•i•ness noun [noncount]

flew past tense of [1]FLY

[1]flex /ˈflɛks/ verb flex•es; flexed; flex•ing
1 [+ obj] a : to bend (a body part) ▪ flexing a leg ▪ flex your fingers b : to move or tighten (a muscle) ▪ He flexed the muscles of his right arm.
2 [no obj] : BEND ▪ a material that flexes easily flex your muscles : to show your strength or power ▪ The election will give us a chance to flex our political muscles.

[2]flex noun, pl flexes [count] Brit : [1]CORD 2 ▪ buy a new flex for the toaster flex•i•ble /ˈflɛksəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : capable of bending or being bent ▪ flexible branches swaying in the breeze ▪ a material that is both strong and flexible ▪ She's been doing exercises to become stronger and more flexible.
2 a : easily changed ▪ Our schedule for the weekend is very flexible. : able to change or to do different things ▪ This computer program has to be flexible to meet all our needs. b : willing to change or to try different things ▪ Whatever you want to do is fine with me. I'm flexible. — opposite INFLEXIBLE
– flex•i•bil•i•ty /ˌflɛksəˈbɪləti/ noun [noncount] ▪ She's been exercising to improve her flexibility. ▪ He shows remarkable flexibility as an actor. [=he can play a wide range of roles] – flex•i•bly /ˈflɛksəbli/ adv

flex•time (US) /ˈflɛksˌtaɪm/ or chiefly Brit flexi•time /ˈflɛksɪˌtaɪm/ noun [noncount] : a system in which employees are required to work a certain number of hours but are allowed to choose their own times for starting and finishing work

[1]flick /ˈflɪk/ noun, pl flicks [count] : a short, quick movement ▪ with a flick of his thumb ▪ a flick of the wrist ▪ She turned on the light with a flick [=flip] of a switch. — compare [3]FLICK

[2]flick verb flicks; flicked; flick•ing
1 a : to move (something) with a short, quick movement [+ obj] flick a switch ▪ The snake flicked its tongue in and out. ▪ a cow flicking its tail back and forth ▪ She flicked her hair back over her shoulder. [no obj] The snake's tongue flicked in and out. b [+ obj] : to cause (something) to fly through the air by making a quick movement with your hand, finger, or thumb ▪ She flicked an ash into the ashtray. ▪ He flicked his cigarette butt out the window.
2 [+ obj] : to turn (something) on or off with a switch ▪ flick on the TV ▪ flick off the lights
3 [+ obj] : to hit (someone or something) with a short quick movement ▪ The boys were flicking each other with towels.

[3]flick noun, pl flicks [count] informal : MOVIE ▪ the new action flick ▪ a skin flick [=a movie featuring nude people] ▪ (Brit) go to the flicks [=go to a movie theater; (US) go to the movies] — compare [1]FLICK

[1]flick•er /ˈflɪkɚ/ verb -ers; -ered; -er•ing [no obj]
1 : to burn or glow in an unsteady way : to produce an unsteady light ▪ A TV was flickering in the background. ▪ The overhead light kept flickering off and on. ▪ a flickering candle/flame
2 : to appear or pass briefly or quickly ▪ Thoughts flickered through his mind. ▪ A smile flickered across her face.

[2]flicker noun, pl -ers [count]
1 : a quick and unsteady movement of light ▪ the flicker of candlelight
2 : a sudden quick movement ▪ the flicker of an eyelash
3 : a very small amount of something : a slight hint or suggestion of something (such as an emotion or quality) ▪ a flicker of interest ▪ His writing doesn't show the faintest flicker of imagination or originality. ▪ There was a faint flicker of a smile on her face. ▪ a flicker of recognition/hope flick–knife /ˈflɪkˌnaɪf/ noun, pl -knives [count] Brit : SWITCHBLADE

fli•er or fly•er /ˈflajɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count]
1 : a person or animal that flies ▪ These birds are graceful fliers. ▪ Charles Lindbergh was the first flier [=pilot] to fly solo across the Atlantic. ▪ a fearful/nervous flier [=airplane passenger] ▪ a frequent flier [=a person who flies often on a particular airline] ✧ The usual spelling of this sense in U.S. English is flier. The usual British spelling is flyer.
2 usually flyer : a piece of paper that has something printed on it (such as an advertisement or an announcement) and that is given to many people ▪ They distributed flyers announcing the concert throughout the city.
take a flier US, informal : to do something that could have either good or bad results : to do something risky ▪ He took a flier in politics soon after getting his degree. — often + on ▪ Investors have been unwilling to take a flier on [=to invest money in] such a small and unproven company.

flight /ˈflaɪt/ noun, pl flights
1 [noncount] a : the act of flying : the act of moving through the air by the use of wings ▪ the flight of a bee ▪ a bird in flight [=a bird that is flying] b : the act of moving through the air or through outer space ▪ the flight of a bullet/baseball ▪ the flight of a rocket to the moon
2 [count, noncount] : the act of running away in order to escape from danger ▪ the flight of refugees
3 [count] a : a journey on an airplane ▪ an overnight flight ▪ a transatlantic flight ▪ a direct/nonstop flight b : the airplane that is making a journey ▪ Our flight leaves at noon. ▪ They boarded Flight 101.
4 [count] : a group of similar birds, airplanes, etc., that are flying through the air together ▪ a flight of geese
5 [count] : a series of stairs going from one level or floor to another ▪ Her apartment is five flights up. ▪ He fell down a flight of stairs.
flight of fancy also flight of imagination/fantasy : an idea, story, etc., that shows great imagination but is very unlikely to be true or practical ▪ The book is filled with flights of fancy about the future of the computer industry.
put (someone) to flight formal + old-fashioned : to cause (someone) to leave or run away ▪ The rebels were put to flight by the advancing army.
take flight 1 : to leave or run away from danger ▪ Fearing arrest, they took flight and hid in the mountains. 2 US : to begin flying ▪ The bird took flight [=took wing] when we tried to approach it. 3 US : to begin a period of rapid activity, development, or growth ▪ The idea really took flight [=took off] and soon it seemed everyone was copying it.

flight attendant noun, pl ~ -dants [count] : a person whose job is to help passengers who are traveling in an airplane — compare STEWARD, STEWARDESS flight deck noun, pl ~ decks [count]

1 : the top deck of an aircraft carrier
2 : the area where the pilots sit in a large airplane ▪ The captain spoke to the passengers from the flight deck. [=cockpit]

flight•less /ˈflaɪtləs/ adj : unable to fly ▪ flightless birds flight lieutenant noun, pl ~ -nants [count] : an officer in the British Air Force flight path noun, pl ~ paths [count] : the route that an airplane, spaceship, etc., travels along through the air or space ▪ No other planes were on their flight path. ▪ a missile's flight path flight plan noun, pl ~ plans [count] : a written statement that tells when and where an aircraft will fly ▪ The pilot filed a flight plan before taking off.

flight recorder noun, pl ~ -ers [count] : a device on an aircraft that records information (such as airspeed and altitude) about a flight ✧ If an aircraft crashes, its flight recorder can be used to help find out what caused it to crash. — called also flight data recorder

flighty /ˈflaɪti/ adj flight•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]
1 : not serious or dependable : likely to forget things or to change opinions, plans, etc., without reason ▪ an actress who specializes in playing silly, flighty women
2 : easily excited or frightened ▪ flighty [=skittish] racehorses ▪ flighty investors – flight•i•ness /ˈflaɪtinəs/ noun [noncount]

[1]flim•flam /ˈflɪmˌflæm/ noun [noncount] informal
1 : dishonest behavior meant to take money or property from someone — usually used before another noun ▪ He lost all his money to a flimflam artist/man. [=a criminal who steals money from people by tricking them; a con man]
2 : foolish or deceptive words : NONSENSE ▪ The report is just a lot of corporate flimflam.

[2]flimflam verb -flams; -flammed; -flamm•ing [+ obj] informal : to trick (someone) in order to steal money ▪ Investors now realize that they have been flimflammed. [=conned]

flim•sy /ˈflɪmzi/ adj flim•si•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]
1 : easily broken, torn, etc. : not strong or solid ▪ a flimsy building ▪ flimsy construction ▪ a flimsy piece of material

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 48 SESS: 38 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:33:31 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-f

2 : not likely to be true or to be believed ▪ a flimsy [=weak] excuse ▪ They have only the flimsiest of evidence against him. ▪ a movie with a flimsy plot

– im ·si·ly /ˈflɪmzəli/ adv [more ~; most ~] ▪ flimsily [=weakly] constructed – im ·si·ness /ˈflɪmzinəs/ noun [noncount]

inch /ˈflɪntʃ/ verb inch ·es; inched ; inch ·ing [no obj]

1 : to move suddenly because you are afraid of being hit or hurt ▪ He flinched when I tapped him on the shoulder.

2 : to show fear : to hesitate from doing something unpleasant or dangerous ▪ She met danger without flinching. ▪ The bill was much higher than expected, but he paid it without flinching. — often + at or from ▪ He didn't flinch at paying the bill. ▪ She never flinched from danger.

– inch noun [singular] ▪ She met danger without a flinch.

[1] ing /ˈflɪŋ/ verb ings ; ung /ˈflʌŋ/; ing ·ing [+ obj]

1 : to throw or push (something) in a sudden and forceful way ▪ He flung his shoe across the room. ▪ She flung the door open and stormed into the room. ▪ fling open a window ▪ They flung their hats into the air. — often used figuratively ▪ They were flinging abuse at each other. [=they were angrily shouting insults at each other] ▪ They flung him into prison. [=put him in prison] ▪ The crowd was flung into confusion. [=the crowd suddenly became very confused]

2 : to forcefully move (yourself or a part of your body) in a specified way ▪ She flung herself into his arms. ▪ He flung his arms around her. ▪ I flung back my head and laughed. ▪ He leaned back and flung his leg over the arm of the chair. ▪ She flung herself onto the couch.

fling caution to the wind see [1]CAUTION

fling yourself into : to begin doing or working on (something) with great energy and enthusiasm ▪ He flung himself into (composing/performing) his music.

[2] ing noun, pl ings [count]

1 : a brief sexual relationship ▪ She had a fling with her boss.

2 : a short period of time spent doing enjoyable and exciting things ▪ They had time for one last fling before going back to school.

give (something) a fling or have a fling at (something) : to try something without being very serious about it or without worrying about whether or not you will succeed ▪ He had always thought about starting his own business, and he decided to give it a fling. ▪ He had a brief fling at starting his own business.

int /ˈflɪnt/ noun, pl ints

1 a [noncount] : a hard type of rock that produces a small piece of burning material (called a spark) when it is hit by steel b [count] : a piece of flint

2 [count] : a piece of metal used for producing a spark ▪ the flint in a cigarette lighter

inty /ˈflɪnti/ adj int·i·er ; -est : not soft or gentle in manner or appearance : having a very serious quality or manner ▪ a flinty and determined hero ▪ flinty determination ▪ flinty eyes ▪ a flinty-eyed bureaucrat

– int ·i·ness noun [noncount]

[1] ip /ˈflɪp/ verb ips ; ipped ; ip·ping

1 [+ obj] : to turn (something) over by throwing it up in the air with a quick movement ▪ flip a coin

2 : to cause (something) to turn or turn over quickly [+ obj] She was sitting in the waiting room, flipping the pages of a magazine. ▪ He flipped his car (over) on the interstate. ▪ They flipped the turtle (over) onto its back. ▪ flip a pancake ▪ (informal) He got a job flipping burgers. [=working as a cook in a fast-food restaurant] [no obj] His car flipped over on the interstate. ▪ She was sitting in the waiting room, flipping [=leafing] through magazines.

3 [+ obj] a : to move (something) with a quick light movement : FLICK ▪ flip a switch b : to turn (something) on or off with a switch ▪ flip on the radio/TV

4 [+ obj] : to throw (something) with a quick movement ▪ Flip me the ball. = Flip the ball to me.

5 [no obj] informal : to become very excited or angry ▪ You'll flip when you hear this! ▪ Take the trash out before your father flips. — see also FLIP OUT (below)

6 : to change or move through (channels, stations, etc.) quickly [+ obj] He flipped the channel back to the golf tournament. ▪ I spent the afternoon flipping channels. [no obj] He kept flipping [=switching] to another channel.

flip open [phrasal verb] flip open or flip open (something) or flip (something) open : to open or to cause (something) to open with a quick movement ▪ Her notebook flipped open. ▪ She flipped open her notebook.

flip out [phrasal verb] informal : to become crazy or very excited or angry ▪ I flipped out when I saw how they had changed my work. ▪ She's going to flip out when she sees the great present I got her. — see also [1]FLIP 5 (above)

flip someone off or flip someone the bird US slang : to make an offensive gesture at someone by pointing the middle finger upward while keeping the other fingers folded down ▪ angry drivers flipping each other the bird [=giving each other the bird/finger] flip your lid also chiefly US flip your wig informal : to become crazy or very angry ▪ His mother flipped her lid when she saw what a mess he'd made.

[2] ip noun, pl ips [count]

1 : the act of flipping something : a quick turn, toss, or movement ▪ the flip of a coin ▪ She turned on the lights with the flip of a switch.

2 : an athletic movement in which someone jumps in the air and rolls forward or backward : a somersault in the air ▪ a back flip

[3] ip adj ip·per ; ip·pest [or more ~; most ~] informal : not serious : FLIPPANT ▪ a flip answer/attitude ip chart noun, pl ~ charts [count] : a chart that consists of a series of large pieces of paper which are attached at the top and which are used to present information to an audience by turning over one piece of paper at a time

[1] ip– op /ˈflɪpˌflɑːp/ noun, pl - ops [count]

1 : a type of loose rubber sandal ▪ She wore flip-flops to the beach. — see picture at SHOE

2 chiefly US, informal : a sudden change of opinion ▪ a politician accused of doing flip-flops on important social issues

[2] ip– op verb - ops ; - opped ; - op ·ping [no obj] chiefly US, informal : to suddenly or frequently change your opinion ▪ a politician accused of flip-flopping on social issues ip·pant /ˈflɪpənt/ adj [more ~; most ~] : lacking proper respect or seriousness ▪ He made/gave a flippant response to a serious question.

– ip ·pan·cy /ˈflɪpənsi/ noun [noncount] ▪ Many people were offended by the flippancy of his responses. – ip·pant·ly adv ▪ He responded flippantly.

ip·per /ˈflɪpɚ/ noun, pl -pers [count]

1 : one of two flat body parts that stick out from the side of a seal, whale, etc., and are used by the animal for swimming

2 : a flat rubber shoe that has a very wide front and that is used for swimming — see picture at SCUBA DIVING

ip side noun, pl ~ sides [count]

1 : the side of a record that has a song which is not as popular and well known as the one on the other side ▪ That song was on the flip side of their first single.

2 : the bad or unpleasant part or result of something ▪ Loss of privacy is the flip side of fame.

the flip side of the coin see [1]COIN

[1] irt /ˈflɚt/ verb irts ; irt·ed ; irt·ing [no obj]

1 : to behave in a way that shows a sexual attraction for someone but is not meant to be taken seriously ▪ He likes to flirt. ▪ They were flirting all night. — usually + with ▪ He flirts with every attractive woman he meets. ▪ He was flirting with her. ▪ They were flirting with each other.

2 : to think about something or become involved in something in a way that is usually not very serious — + with ▪ She's been flirting [=toying] with the idea of going back to school. ▪ He flirted with communism when he was young.

3 : to come close to reaching or experiencing something — + with ▪ The temperature flirted with [=approached] 100 yesterday. ▪ They were flirting with [=risking] death/disaster. ▪ The company has been flirting with bankruptcy. [=the company has been close to going bankrupt]

– ir ·ta·tion /ˌflɚˈteɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count] ▪ They had a brief flirtation. — often + with ▪ He had a casual flirtation with her. ▪ his youthful flirtation with communism

[2] irt noun, pl irts [count] : a person who enjoys flirting with other people : a flirtatious person ▪ He admits that he's a terrible flirt. [=that he flirts a lot] ir·ta·tious /ˌflɚˈteɪʃəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] : feeling or showing a sexual attraction for someone that is usually not meant to be taken seriously ▪ feeling flirtatious ▪ a flirtatious smile ▪ a flirtatious mood

– ir ·ta·tious·ly adv ▪ smiling flirtatiously – ir ·ta·tious·ness noun [noncount] ▪ the flirtatiousness of her smile

[1] it /ˈflɪt/ verb its ; it·ted ; it·ting [no obj] : to move or fly quickly from one place or thing to another ▪ butterflies flitting around the garden ▪ The hummingbird flitted from flower to flower. ▪ She was always flitting around the kitchen. ▪

F

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 49 SESS: 40 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:33:31 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-f

writers who flit [=bounce] from topic to topic

[2]flit noun — do a moonlight flit see [1]MOONLIGHT

[1]float /ˈfloʊt/ verb floats; float•ed; float•ing
1 [no obj] a : to rest on top of a liquid ▪ She was floating on her back. ▪ ice floating in the river ▪ Will this material sink or float? b : to be carried along by moving water or air ▪ The raft floated downstream. ▪ dust floating through the air
2 [+ obj] a : to cause (something) to rest on top of a liquid : to cause (something) to float ▪ The incoming tide will eventually float the ship off the reef. b : to cause or allow (something) to be carried or moved by moving water ▪ They floated the logs down the river.
3 [no obj] : to move or go in a gentle, graceful, or quiet way ▪ She floated gracefully across the stage. ▪ His voice floated to the back of the room. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ She floated off to sleep.
4 [no obj] : to live without having any serious purpose or goal ▪ He floated through life without ever settling down.
5 [+ obj] : to suggest (an idea, plan, etc.) for acceptance ▪ Someone floated this idea for a new book.
6 [+ obj] US : to make arrangements for (a loan) ▪ They may have to float a loan to raise the money for renovations. ▪ Could you float me a loan? [=could you lend money to me?]
7 [+ obj] finance : to sell (shares in a company) in the market ▪ The company has announced plans to raise capital by floating a new issue of securities next month.
8 of a government : to allow the value of a currency when it is exchanged for other types of currency to change freely [+ obj] float a currency [no obj] allow a currency to float
floating on air see [1]AIR

[2]float noun, pl floats [count]
1 : something that floats: such as a : a light object that is attached to a fishing line b : a floating platform near a shore for use by swimmers or boats c : a structure that holds up an airplane on water
2 : a vehicle with a platform used to carry an exhibit in a parade ▪ We are building a float for the homecoming parade.
3 US : a soft drink with ice cream floating in it ▪ a root beer float
4 Brit : an amount of money that is kept available for making change in a shop
– see also MILK FLOAT

floating adj
1 : continually moving or changing position ▪ the floating population
2 : having no fixed value or rate ▪ floating currencies ▪ floating interest rates
3 Brit : not associated with a particular political party : not certain to vote for a particular candidate or party in an election ▪ floating voters

[1]flock /ˈflɑːk/ noun, pl flocks [count]
1 : a group of birds or animals (such as sheep) ▪ a flock of birds/sheep
2 : a large number of people ▪ a flock of tourists
3 : the members of a church ▪ a priest caring for his flock

[2]flock verb flocks; flocked; flock•ing [no obj] : to gather or move in a crowd ▪ Thousands of people flocked to the beach each weekend.
birds of a feather flock together see [1]FEATHER

floe /ˈfloʊ/ noun, pl floes [count] : a sheet or mass of floating ice : ICE FLOE flog /ˈflɑːg/ verb flogs; flogged; flog•ging [+ obj] : to beat or whip (someone) severely ▪ The sailors were flogged for attempting a mutiny. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ He is being flogged [=harshly criticized] in the press for his failure to take action.

flog a dead horse see [1]HORSE
– flogging /ˈflɑːgɪŋ/ noun, pl -gings [noncount] Flogging was a common form of punishment in those days. [count] They gave him a good flogging. [=they beat/whipped him severely]

[1]flood /ˈflʌd/ noun, pl floods
1 [count] : a large amount of water covering an area of land that is usually dry ▪ A flood inundated the whole area. ▪ the devastating flood of 1936 ▪ The water has risen to flood level.
2 the Flood : a flood described in the Bible as covering the earth in the time of Noah
3 [singular] : a large amount of things that come or happen at the same time ▪ We've received a flood of mail. ▪ a flood of phone calls ▪ a flood of criticism ▪ a flood of tears ▪ Seeing her again brought back a flood of memories.
in flood ✧ A river that is in flood has so much water in it that it may flow over its banks and flood the land next to it. ▪ After a week of rain, the river is in (full) flood. The phrase in full flood is sometimes used figuratively to describe the time when something is most active, successful, etc. ▪ a political movement that was in full flood in the 1980s

[2]flood verb floods; flood•ed; flood•ing
1 a : to cover (land) with a flood [+ obj] Heavy rains flooded the valley. [no obj] The rivers are close to flooding. b [no obj] : to become filled or covered by a flood ▪ The valley flooded after the heavy rains. ▪ The plain floods every spring.
2 [+ obj] a : to fill (something) completely ▪ Light flooded the room. ▪ The room was flooded with light. b : to cause (something) to receive or take in a large amount of things at the same time ▪ The company plans to flood the market with this product. ▪ The office has been flooded with phone calls.
3 [no obj] : to go or come in large numbers or as a large amount ▪ The phone calls have been flooding in. ▪ Refugees flooded into the camp. ▪ Light flooded into the room. ▪ Memories came flooding into my mind.
4 : to cause too much fuel to go into (an engine) [+ obj] He wasn't able to start the car because he had flooded the engine. [no obj] The car's engine flooded.

flood•gate /ˈflʌdˌgeɪt/ noun, pl -gates [count] : a gate for controlling the flow of water from a lake, river, reservoir, etc. — often used figuratively ▪ Many people fear that the court's latest ruling will open the floodgates for/to a host of new lawsuits. [=will cause/allow a large number of new lawsuits] ▪ Once the floodgates have opened, there will be no way to stop all the lawsuits.

flood•light /ˈflʌdˌlaɪt/ noun, pl -lights [count] : a light that shines brightly over a wide area ▪ The yard was lit by floodlights. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ The company has been exposed to the floodlight of publicity.
– flood•lit /ˈflʌdˌlɪt/ adj ▪ a floodlit stadium flood•plain /ˈflʌdˌpleɪn/ noun, pl -plains [count]

1 : an area of low, flat land along a stream or river that may flood 2 : an area of land built up from soil left by floods flood tide noun, pl ~ tides [count]

1 : a rising tide
2 : a very large amount of something ▪ The company has been subjected to a flood tide [=flood] of criticism for its hiring policies.

flood•wa•ter /ˈflʌdˌwɑːtɚ/ noun, pl -ters [count] : the water of a flood — usually plural ▪ The floodwaters have at last started to recede.

[1]floor /ˈflɔɚ/ noun, pl floors
1 [count] : the part of a room on which you stand ▪ Keep your feet on the floor. ▪ washing the kitchen floor ▪ a marble/tile/hardwood floor
2 [count] a : the lower inside surface of something (such as a vehicle) ▪ the floor of a car b : the area of ground at the bottom of something — usually singular ▪ the ocean floor ▪ the forest floor
3 [count] : a level in a building ▪ She lives on the second floor of a five-story building. ▪ His office is located on the fourth floor. — see also FIRST FLOOR, GROUND FLOOR
4 [count] : a large indoor space where people gather for some activity — usually singular ▪ the floor of the convention/legislature ▪ the factory floor ▪ the dance floor ▪ buying and selling shares on the floor of the exchange
5 [singular] : the people who are gathered in a place for a public meeting ▪ He will now take questions from the floor.
6 [count] : a lower limit — usually singular ▪ establishing a floor for wages and prices ▪ The value of the stock has dropped/gone/fallen through the floor. [=to a very low level] — opposite CEILING have the floor : to have the right to speak at a public meeting ▪ May I have the floor?
hold the floor : to be the person who is speaking at a public meeting ▪ The senator held the floor for several hours.
on the cutting-room floor see CUTTING ROOM take the floor 1 : to begin speaking at a public meeting ▪ After Senator Smith was finished addressing the assembly, Senator White took the floor. 2 : to go out onto a dance floor to begin dancing ▪ Several couples took the floor.
wipe the floor with see [1]WIPE

[2]floor verb floors; floored; floor•ing [+ obj]
1 : to cover (a surface) with material to make a floor — usually used as (be) floored ▪ The lobby is floored with marble.
2 a : to knock (someone) to the floor or ground ▪ He floored

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 50 SESS: 66 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:33:32 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-f

me with his first punch. b informal : to surprise, shock or amaze (someone) very much ▪ The news just floored me. — often used as (be) floored ▪ I was floored by the news. ▪ She was floored by his knowledge of the subject.
3 US, informal : to press (the accelerator of a vehicle) to the floor — usually used in the phrase floor it ▪ When the light turned green, he floored it. [=he pressed the accelerator all the way down and sped away]

floor•board /ˈflɔəˌbɔəd/ noun, pl -boards [count]
1 : a board in a floor — usually plural ▪ creaky floorboards ▪ wide pine floorboards
2 US : the floor of a vehicle floor•ing /ˈflɔrɪŋ/ noun [noncount] : material used for floors ▪ marble/tile/hardwood flooring

floor lamp noun, pl ~ lamps [count] : a tall lamp that stands on the floor — called also (Brit) standard lamp; see picture at LIGHTING floor–length adj : reaching to the floor ▪ a floor-length gown/mirror floor plan noun, pl ~ plans [count] : a plan that shows the position of the rooms in a building ▪ Before construction began, we adjusted the building's floor plan to take advantage of the view. ▪ a house with an unusual floor plan — called also ground plan

floor show noun, pl ~ shows [count] : a series of acts by performers in a nightclub floo•zy or floo•zie /ˈfluːzi/ noun, pl -zies [count] informal + old-fashioned : a usually young woman whose behavior is not morally correct or proper ▪ chasing some floozy around ✧ Floozy is an insulting word. In U.S. English, floozy is the more common spelling; in British English, floozie is more common.

[1]flop /flɑːp/ verb flops; flopped; flop•ping [no obj]
1 : to fall, lie, or sit down in a sudden, awkward, or relaxed way ▪ He flopped down onto the bed. ▪ She flopped into the chair with a sigh.
2 informal : to fail completely ▪ The play flopped. [=(US) bombed] ▪ All of their attempts have flopped miserably.
3 : to swing or move in a loose, awkward, or uncontrolled way ▪ The curtains were flopping around in the breeze.
– see also FLIP-FLOP

[2]flop noun, pl flops [count]
1 informal : a complete failure ▪ The movie was a total flop.
2 : the sound made when someone or something suddenly falls, lies, or sits down ▪ It fell to the ground with a flop.
– see also BELLY FLOP

flop•house /ˈflɑːpˌhaʊs/ noun, pl -hous•es [count] chiefly US, informal : a very inexpensive hotel for poor people who do not have anywhere else to live ▪ a crowded flophouse — called also (chiefly Brit) doss-house

[1]flop•py /ˈflɑːpi/ adj flop•pi•er; -est : soft and flexible ▪ a floppy hat

[2]floppy noun, pl -pies [count] : FLOPPY DISK floppy disk noun, pl ~ disks [count] : a small, thin, square case with a flexible disk inside on which data for a computer can be stored — compare HARD DISK

flo•ra /ˈflorə/ noun, pl -ras biology : all the plants that live in a particular area, time, period, or environment [noncount] an amazing variety of coastal flora ▪ aquatic flora [count] the floras of different coastal regions — compare FAUNA

flo•ral /ˈflorəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : of or relating to flowers ▪ a floral display/design [=a display/design that has pictures of flowers] ▪ a floral pattern in wallpaper ▪ The wine has a floral aroma. ▪ a floral arrangement — see color picture on page C12
– floral noun, pl -rals [count] ▪ Her most famous paintings are her florals. [=paintings in which flowers are the main subject]

flo•ret /ˈflorət/ noun, pl -rets [count] : a group of flower buds that are part of a vegetable ▪ broccoli/cauliflower florets — see color picture on page C4 flor•id /ˈflorəd/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : very fancy or too fancy ▪ florid writing
2 : having a red or reddish color ▪ a florid [=ruddy] complexion ▪ a florid face – flor•id•ly adv ▪ floridly written flo•rist /ˈflorɪst/ noun, pl -rists [count] : a person whose job or business is to sell flowers and plants

[1]floss /flɑːs/ noun [noncount]
1 : DENTAL FLOSS
2 : soft silk or cotton thread used for sewing

[2]floss verb floss•es; flossed; floss•ing : to use dental floss to clean your teeth [no obj] My dentist told me I should floss more often. [+ obj] floss your teeth

flo•ta•tion /floʊˈteɪʃən/ noun [noncount] : the act, process, or state of floating or of causing or allowing something to float ▪ fills the tanks with air for flotation ▪ the flotation of a currency ▪ (Brit) the flotation of a company [=the act or process of selling shares in a company to the public] ▪ a (personal) flotation device [=a life preserver]

flo•til•la /floʊˈtɪlə/ noun, pl -las [count] : a group of small ships

flot•sam /ˈflɑːtsəm/ noun [noncount] : floating pieces, parts, etc., from a ship that has been wrecked ▪ flotsam washed up on the shore — often used figuratively ▪ bits of flotsam gathered from yard sales ▪ human flotsam [=people who have no home or who have been forced to leave their homes] — often used in the phrase flotsam and jetsam ▪ He spends a lot of time sorting through the flotsam and jetsam that come(s) across his desk each day. — compare JETSAM

[1]flounce /ˈflaʊns/ verb flounc•es; flounced; flounc•ing [no obj]
1 : to move with exaggerated motions ▪ an actress flouncing around on the stage ▪ a flouncing walk
2 chiefly Brit : to walk or move quickly in a way that shows anger or annoyance ▪ He flounced out of the room and slammed the door behind him.

[2]flounce noun, pl flounces [count] chiefly Brit : a quick way of walking or moving that shows anger or annoyance — usually singular ▪ leave the room with a flounce — compare [3]FLOUNCE

[3]flounce noun, pl flounces [count] : a strip of cloth that is attached to a piece of clothing by one edge — compare [2]FLOUNCE
– flounced adj ▪ flounced blouses ▪ a flounced skirt
– flouncy /ˈflaʊnsi/ adj flounc•i•er; -est ▪ a flouncy skirt

[1]floun•der /ˈflaʊndə/ noun, pl flounder or floun•ders [count] : a type of fish that has a flat body and that is eaten as food — see color picture on page C8

[2]flounder verb -ders; -dered; -der•ing [no obj]
1 : to move in an awkward way with a lot of difficulty and effort : STRUGGLE ▪ The horses were floundering through the deep snow. ▪ He was floundering around in the pool like an amateur.
2 a : to be unsure about what to do or say ▪ After watching me flounder for a few minutes, my instructor took over. b : to have a lot of problems and difficulties ▪ The team has been floundering [=struggling] since the start of the season.

[1]flour /ˈflawə/ noun, pl flours : powder made from a grain (especially wheat) that is used in cooking for making bread, cakes, etc. [noncount] a five-pound bag of flour [count] mix the two flours together
– flour•less /ˈflaʊələs/ adj ▪ a flourless cake

[2]flour verb flours; floured; flour•ing [+ obj] : to cover (something) with flour ▪ a floured board ▪ The fish should be lightly floured before it's fried.

[1]flour•ish /ˈflərɪʃ/ verb -ish•es; -ished; -ish•ing
1 [no obj] : to grow well : to be healthy ▪ plants and animals that flourished here thousands of years ago
2 [no obj] : to be very successful : to do very well ▪ Regional markets have flourished in recent years. ▪ a decorative style that flourished in the 1920s ▪ a flourishing business
3 [+ obj] : to hold up and show (something) in an excited or proud way ▪ Dressed as a pirate, he entered the stage flourishing his sword.

[2]flourish noun, pl -ishes [count]
1 : something that is added as a detail or decoration ▪ the floral flourishes in the living room ▪ a house with many clever little flourishes ▪ Her writing style is simple and clear, without unnecessary flourishes.
2 a : a dramatic or fancy way of doing something ▪ Dinner was served with a flourish. b : a sudden smooth movement that is likely to be noticed ▪ He waved his sword with a flourish. ▪ She opened the door with a flourish. ▪ With a flourish of her pen, she signed the bill into law.
3 : a short and exciting piece of music played by trumpets : FANFARE ▪ a flourish of trumpets floury /ˈflawəri/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : of or resembling flour ▪ a floury coating
2 : covered with flour ▪ He wiped his floury hands on his pants.

flout /flaʊt/ verb flouts; flout•ed; flout•ing [+ obj] : to break or ignore (a law, rule, etc.) without hiding what you

F

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 51 SESS: 66 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:33:32 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-f

F

are doing or showing fear or shame ▪ Despite repeated warnings, they have continued to flout the law. ▪ flouting authority ▪ flouting convention — compare FLAUNT

[1]flow /ˈflo͡ʊ/ verb flows; flowed; flow•ing [no obj]
1 of liquid, gas, or electricity : to move in a steady and continuous way ▪ rivers flowing into the sea ▪ a gently flowing [=running] stream ▪ She opened the faucet and the water began to flow freely. ▪ a device that measures the amount of electricity flowing through a circuit — often used figuratively ▪ Excitement was flowing through the crowd.
2 a : to move in a continuous and smooth way ▪ Traffic has been flowing smoothly/steadily from east to west. ▪ The grain flowed smoothly down the elevator chute. b : to move, come, or go continuously in one direction ▪ Requests have flowed into the office. ▪ Money has continued to flow in.
3 a : to proceed in a smooth and easy way ▪ Conversation flowed freely. b of a drink : to be drunk freely ▪ The wine flowed freely throughout the evening. [=people drank wine throughout the evening]
4 : to hang down in a loose and graceful way ▪ Her long hair flowed down over her shoulders.
5 : to be caused or produced by something : to come from something ▪ the wealth that flows from trade
6 of a tide : to move in toward the land : RISE ▪ The tide ebbs and flows twice every 24 hours.
– flowing adj ▪ a long, flowing dress ▪ her flowing hair

[2]flow noun, pl flows
1 [singular] : an act of flowing ▪ a sudden flow of tears : the movement of something that is flowing ▪ a steady/smooth flow of traffic ▪ The doctor was trying to stop/staunch the flow of blood. ▪ We want to encourage the free flow of ideas. ▪ the westward flow of settlers ▪ We've been receiving a constant flow of phone calls.
2 [count] : a large area of mud or some other material that is flowing or that was formed by flowing ▪ a mud flow ▪ an ancient lava flow [=an area of rock that was created by flowing lava]
3 [noncount] : the amount of something that flows in a certain time ▪ measuring blood flow to the brain — see also CASH FLOW ebb and flow see [1]EBB go against the flow : to do things that do not agree with what most other people are doing ▪ She has her own way of thinking and she's not afraid to go against the flow.
go with the flow : to relax and accept what is happening without trying to change things or do something different or difficult ▪ When I'm on vacation, I just like to take it easy and go with the flow.
in full flow chiefly Brit 1 — used to describe someone who is talking continuously in a very enthusiastic way ▪ He can talk for hours when he's in full flow. 2 — used to describe the time when something is most active, successful, etc. ▪ When we arrived the party was already in full flow.

flow chart noun, pl ~ charts [count] : a chart that shows each step of a process using special symbols that are connected by lines

[1]flow•er /ˈflawə/ noun, pl -ers
1 [count] a : the part of a plant that is often brightly colored, that usually lasts a short time, and from which the seed or fruit develops ▪ The plant is known for its large white flowers. [=blossoms] ▪ The tree came into flower early this year. [=the flowers on the tree bloomed early this year] ▪ The bushes should be in flower soon. [=the flowers should be blooming soon] ▪ These plants are very fragrant when they are in (full) flower. — sometimes used figuratively. ▪ His interest in history came into flower [=developed] while he was just a boy. ▪ She entered the movement after it was in full flower. [=after it was fully developed] — see color picture on page C6 b : a small plant that is grown for its beautiful flowers ▪ We planted flowers in the garden. ▪ Flowers line the walkway. ▪ a flower garden c : a cut stem of a plant with its flower ▪ He sent her a bouquet of flowers. ▪ He wore a single flower in his lapel.
2 [singular] literary : the best part of something — used in the phrase the flower of ▪ The flower of a generation was lost in that war. [=the best members of a generation died in that war] ▪ He wrote his best works while in the flower of his youth. [=when he was young]

[2]flower verb -ers; -ered; -er•ing [no obj]
1 : to produce flowers : BLOOM, BLOSSOM ▪ This tree flowers in early spring. ▪ The plant will flower every other year.
2 : to develop or grow in a successful way ▪ His genius flowered at the university. ▪ a political movement that began to flower during the 1960s flower bed noun, pl ~ beds [count] : an area where flowers are planted flower child noun, pl ~ children [count] : a young person in the 1960s and 1970s who rejected the traditional values of society : HIPPIE flow•ered /ˈflawəd/ adj : decorated with flowers or with pictures of flowers ▪ flowered silk ▪ flowered wallpaper ▪ a flowered dress flower girl noun, pl ~ girls [count] US : a young girl who carries flowers at a wedding

[1]flowering adj : having or producing many flowers ▪ a flowering branch ▪ flowering plants/shrubs/trees

[2]flowering noun [singular] : the development of something ▪ We witnessed the gradual flowering of his talent. [=we saw his talent gradually develop] ▪ a period that saw the flowering of the civil rights movement flow•er•pot /ˈflawəˌpɑːt/ noun, pl -pots [count] : a container (such as a clay or plastic pot) in which plants are grown flower power noun [noncount] : the belief that war is wrong and that people should love each other and lead peaceful lives — used especially to refer to the beliefs and culture of young people (called hippies) in the 1960s and 1970s flow•ery /ˈflawəri/ adj flow•er•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]

1 a : filled with flowers ▪ flowery fields b : decorated with pictures of flowers ▪ We put two flowery prints in the dining room. ▪ a flowery dress c : smelling like a flower : having a sweet smell like a flower ▪ flowery perfume/wine
2 of language : very fancy or too fancy or elaborate ▪ He gave a long, flowery speech. ▪ flowery prose flown past participle of [1]FLY

fl. oz. abbr fluid ounce; fluid ounces flu /ˈfluː/ noun [noncount] : a common disease that is caused by a virus and that causes fever, weakness, body aches, and breathing problems : INFLUENZA ▪ He came down with a bad bout/attack/case of the flu. ▪ catch/get the flu ▪ She has the flu. = (Brit) She has flu. — often used before another noun ▪ the flu season ▪ a flu shot ▪ a flu epidemic

flub /ˈflʌb/ verb flubs; flubbed; flub•bing [+ obj] US, informal : to fail to do (something) correctly : BOTCH ▪ The ball went right to him but he flubbed the catch. ▪ The actress flubbed several lines.
– flub noun, pl flubs [count] ▪ a politician known for his verbal flubs [=mistakes, blunders] fluc•tu•ate /ˈflʌkʧəˌweɪt/ verb -ates; -at•ed; -at•ing [no obj] : to change level, strength, or value frequently ▪ Oil prices fluctuated [=became higher, lower, etc.] throughout the year. ▪ fluctuating prices ▪ His popularity has fluctuated during his term in office. ▪ In the desert, the temperature fluctuates dramatically.

– fluc•tu•a•tion /ˌflʌkʧəˈweɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count] Small fluctuations in prices are to be expected. [noncount] He reported some fluctuation in/of real estate values.

flue /ˈfluː/ noun, pl flues [count] : a channel or pipe in a chimney for carrying flame and smoke to the outer air flu•en•cy /ˈfluːwənsi/ noun [noncount]

1 : the ability to speak easily and smoothly ▪ She speaks with great fluency.; especially : the ability to speak a foreign language easily and effectively ▪ Students must demonstrate fluency in a foreign language to earn a degree.
2 : the ability to do something in a way that seems very easy ▪ a dancer known for her fluency and grace ▪ He plays the piano with speed and fluency.

flu•ent /ˈfluːwənt/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 a : able to speak a language easily and very well ▪ a fluent speaker ▪ a fluent speaker of Chinese — often + in ▪ He is fluent in Chinese. b ✧ Language that is fluent is language that is spoken easily and very well. ▪ She speaks fluent Spanish and a little French.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 52 SESS: 42 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:33:33 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-f

2 : done in a smooth and easy way ▪ We admired their fluent [=fluid] movement across the dance floor. ▪ a fluent performance

– u •ent•ly adv ▪ He speaks seven languages fluently.

[1] uff /ˈflʌf/ noun [noncount]

1 : something light and soft: such as a : small balls or pieces of thread, fiber, or dust ▪ Her sweater was covered with fluff. b : soft fur or feathers

2 chiefly US, informal : something that has little importance or interest ▪ The movie was pure fluff. ▪ Her latest article has the usual fluff about movie stars and gossip.

[2] uff verb uffs ; uffed ; uff •ing [+ obj]

1 : to shake or move (something, such as a pillow) so that it is fuller, lighter, or softer ▪ Would you like me to fluff (up) your pillows? ▪ The wind fluffed his hair. ▪ The bird spread its wings and fluffed (up) its feathers.

2 informal : to do (something) badly : FLUB ▪ The golfer fluffed another shot. ▪ The actor kept fluffing the same line.

uffy /ˈflʌfi/ adj uff •i•er; -est

1 : covered with soft material ▪ the fluffy fur of a kitten ▪ fluffy young chicks ▪ a fluffy wool blanket

2 : light and soft or airy ▪ Beat the egg whites until they are fluffy. ▪ furniture with big fluffy cushions ▪ a favorite fluffy sweater : having a light and soft appearance ▪ a fluffy white cloud

[1] u•id /ˈflu:wəd/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : capable of flowing freely like water ▪ fluid lava ▪ a substance in a fluid state

2 — used to describe something that can change easily or that changes often ▪ Boundaries between the farms were very fluid. ▪ a fluid situation

3 : having or showing a smooth and easy style : GRACEFUL ▪ a dancer's fluid movements ▪ the sculpture's fluid lines

– u •id•i•ty /fluˈɪdəti/ noun [noncount] ▪ The extreme fluidity of the situation has made it impossible to predict the outcome. ▪ She plays the violin with great fluidity. – u •id•ly adv ▪ moving fluidly

[2] uid noun, pl -ids : a substance that is able to flow freely : a liquid substance [count] Please check the fluids in the car's engine. ▪ She needs to drink plenty of fluids. [noncount] Fluid leaked from the car's engine. ▪ a bottle of yellow fluid

uid ounce noun, pl ~ ounces [count]

1 US : a unit of liquid measurement equal to 1/16 of a U.S. pint or about 29.6 milliliters

2 Brit : a unit of liquid measurement equal to 1/20 of a British pint or about 28.4 milliliters uke /ˈflu:k/ noun, pl ukes [count] informal : something that happens because of luck : an unexpected or unusual thing that happens by accident ▪ Her second championship shows that the first one was no mere fluke. ▪ By some strange fluke we ended up working for the same company.

ung past tense and past participle of [1]FLING unk /ˈflʌŋk/ verb unks ; unked ; unk •ing US, informal

1 : to get a failing grade in (something, such as an examination or course) : FAIL [+ obj] If I flunk this class, I have to take it over again. ▪ flunk a test [no obj] If I flunk, I have to take this class over again.

2 [+ obj] : to give a failing grade to (someone) : FAIL ▪ The teacher had to flunk two students.

flunk out [phrasal verb] US, informal : to be required to leave a school because you have failed your courses ▪ He tried going to college, but he flunked out after one year. — often + of ▪ He flunked out of college.

un•ky or un•key /ˈflʌŋki/ noun, pl -kies or -keys [count] informal + disapproving : a person who does small jobs for someone powerful or important ▪ If he can't go himself, he'll send one of his flunkies.

u•o•res•cent /fluˈrɛsnt/ adj

1 : producing light when electricity flows through a tube that is filled with a type of gas ▪ a fluorescent light/lamp

2 : very bright ▪ fluorescent colors/clothing ▪ fluorescent tape/paint

– u •o•res•cence /fluˈrɛsns/ noun [noncount]

u•o•ri•date /ˈflurəˌdeɪt/ verb -dates; -dat•ed; -dat•ing : to add fluoride to (water or toothpaste) — often used as (be) fluoridated ▪ The drinking water here is fluoridated. ▪ fluoridated toothpaste

– u •o•ri•da•tion /ˌflurəˈdeɪʃən/ noun [noncount]

u•o•ride /ˈfloəˌraɪd/ noun [noncount] : a chemical that is sometimes added to drinking water and toothpaste to help keep teeth healthy

ur•ry /ˈflərri/ noun, pl -ries [count]

1 : a brief and light snowfall ▪ We had a few flurries yesterday. ▪ a snow flurry

2 a : a brief period of excitement or activity — + of ▪ There was a flurry of trading in the stock exchange. ▪ The incident could create a flurry of interest in safety issues. b : a large amount of something that happens or comes suddenly — + of ▪ a flurry [=barrage] of publicity ▪ There was a flurry of requests for more information.

[1] ush /ˈflʌʃ/ noun, pl ush •es [count]

1 : redness on a person's face because of emotion, heat, etc. ▪ A flush spread over her face at the mention of his name. — see also HOT FLUSH

2 : the act of cleaning a toilet with a flow of water : the act of flushing a toilet ▪ We could hear the flush of a toilet somewhere in the building. ▪ give the toilet a flush

3 : a sudden feeling or strong emotion — + of ▪ a flush of grief/pleasure ▪ He felt a flush of pride in his son's victory.

in the (first) flush of : in the early and exciting time of (something) ▪ She published her first novel while still in the flush of youth. [=while still young] ▪ Everyone felt hopeful in the first flush of victory.

– compare [6]FLUSH

[2] ush verb ushes ; ushed ; ush •ing

1 : to cause a strong flow of water to clean (a toilet) [+ obj] flush the toilet [no obj] The toilet flushes automatically. ✧ If you flush something down the toilet you get rid of it by putting it in the toilet bowl and flushing the toilet. ▪ Police suspect that the drugs were flushed down the toilet.

2 [+ obj] a : to clean (something) with a flow of water or some other liquid ▪ Flush the wound immediately with water. ▪ The doctor flushed her eye with a special solution. — often + out ▪ He flushed out the car's radiator. ▪ flush out the system b : to remove (something) with a flow of liquid ▪ They flushed impurities from the system. = They flushed impurities out of the system. ▪ He used a hose to flush the leaves from the gutters.

3 [no obj] : to become red in the face because of heat, emotion, etc. ▪ She flushed with anger/embarrassment. ▪ Her face flushed at the mention of his name.

– compare [3]FLUSH

[3] ush verb ushes ; ushed ; ushing [+ obj] : to cause or force (someone or something) to leave a hiding place ▪ The police flushed the suspects from the building. — usually + out ▪ The police flushed out the suspects. ▪ The birds were flushed out of the tree. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ The committee succeeded in flushing out [=finding] several good candidates. ▪ The agency flushed out a surprising number of tax evaders. — compare [2]FLUSH

[4] ush adj, not used before a noun

1 : even or level with another surface ▪ The paneling and the wall should be flush (with each other).

2 informal : having a large amount of money ▪ He just got paid and he was feeling flush. — often + with ▪ Right now the town is flush with money. [=the town has more money than usual]

[5] ush adv

1 : in order to be level or even with another surface — + with ▪ He arranged the books flush with the edge of the shelf.

2 : in a very forceful way : in a way that makes very solid contact ▪ He landed a punch flush [=squarely] on my chin. ▪ She placed her hands flush against the door and pushed with all her might. ▪ He hit the ball flush.

[6] ush noun, pl ushes [count] : a set of cards that a player has in a card game (such as poker) that are all of the same suit (such as diamonds) ▪ She won the pot with a flush. — see also ROYAL FLUSH — compare [1]FLUSH ushed adj : red because of heat or emotion ▪ a flushed face ▪ flushed cheeks ✧ If you are flushed with some emotion, such as pride or excitement, you feel that emotion very strongly. ▪ He was flushed with pride at his daughter's graduation. ✧ If you are flushed with success, you are very happy and excited because you have succeeded in doing something. ▪ Flushed with success after winning the election, she made plans for some dramatic new programs in the coming year.

us•ter /ˈflʌstə/ verb -ters; -tered; -ter•ing : to make (someone) nervous and confused [+ obj] The interruption flustered the speaker. ▪ Nothing flusters her. [no obj] Some speakers fluster more easily than others.

ustered adj [more ~; most ~] : upset or nervous ▪ She seemed flustered when he asked about her past. ▪ Don't do anything to get him flustered. ▪ He was too flustered to speak.

F

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 53 SESS: 43 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:33:33 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-f

flute /ˈflu:t/ noun, pl flutes [count]
1 : a musical instrument that is shaped like a thin pipe and that is played by blowing across a hole near one end — see picture at WOODWIND
2 : a tall, thin glass that is used for drinking champagne flut•ed /ˈflu:təd/ adj : decorated with a series of long, rounded lines that are cut into the surface ▪ The mansion has six fluted columns across the porch.

– flut•ing /ˈflu:tɪŋ/ noun [noncount] ▪ columns with fluting

flut•ist /ˈflu:tɪst/ noun, pl -ists [count] US : a flute player : FLAUTIST

[1]flut•ter /ˈflʌtɚ/ verb -ters; -tered; -ter•ing
1 of a bird or insect a : to move or flap the wings quickly without flying [+ obj] The bird was fluttering its wings. [no obj] The bird's wings were fluttering. b [no obj] : to fly lightly with quick beats of the wings ▪ We watched the butterflies fluttering in the garden.
2 : to move with quick, light movements [no obj] Leaves fluttered to the ground. ▪ The breeze made the curtains flutter. [+ obj] The breeze fluttered the curtains. ▪ She fluttered her eyelashes at him.
3 [no obj] : to move or behave in a nervous and excited way ▪ She nervously fluttered around the office. ✧ If your heart/stomach flutters, you become very nervous or excited. ▪ Her heart fluttered when she saw the letter in the mail. ▪ Just the mention of his name makes my stomach flutter.

[2]flutter noun, pl -ters
1 [count] : a quick, light movement ▪ With a flutter of wings, the birds settled into the nest. ▪ The flutter of the flame cast shadows on the ceiling.
2 [singular] : a state of excitement or confusion ▪ He was in a flutter until he found his keys. ▪ The news of her resignation caused quite a flutter. ▪ a flutter of excitement
3 [count] Brit, informal : a small bet ▪ have a flutter on a horse in the second race
4 [noncount] technical : quick changes in the pitch of recorded sound ▪ The stereo is designed to minimize flutter.

flux /ˈflʌks/ noun [noncount]
1 : a series of changes : continuous change ▪ Language is in a state of constant flux. = Language is constantly in a state of flux. [=language is changing constantly]
2 technical : a substance used for helping to melt or join metals

[1]fly /ˈflaɪ/ verb flies; flew /ˈflu:/; flown /ˈfloʊn/; fly•ing
1 [no obj] : to move through the air with wings ▪ A bird flew in through the open window. ▪ insects flying over the water
2 [no obj] : to move through the air especially at a high speed ▪ We watched as clouds flew across the sky. ▪ Waves crashed on the rocks and spray flew up into the air. ▪ Bullets were flying in all directions. ▪ He tripped and went flying (through the air). — often used figuratively ▪ Rumors are flying [=there are a lot of rumors] that he'll be announcing his candidacy soon. ▪ Accusations are flying. [=people are making a lot of accusations]
3 a : to control an airplane, helicopter, etc., as it moves through the air : to be the pilot of an aircraft [+ obj] fly a plane ▪ He flies jets. [no obj] He learned to fly while he was in the Air Force. ▪ She flies for a major airline. ▪ She's taking flying lessons. b [+ obj] : to journey over (something, such as an ocean) by flying an airplane ▪ Charles Lindbergh was the first person to fly the Atlantic solo.
4 a [no obj] : to travel in an aircraft or spacecraft ▪ They flew to California for vacation. ▪ I'm flying to Canada to visit my family. ▪ He insists on flying first-class. ▪ A doctor flew in from the mainland. ▪ She flew on a shuttle mission last year. b [+ obj] : to travel by flying on (a particular airline) ▪ He always flies the same airline. [=he always flies on the same airline] c [+ obj] : to carry (someone or something) to a place in an aircraft ▪ Supplies were flown to the disaster area. ▪ They fly cargo around the world. ▪ A doctor was flown in from the mainland.
5 a : to show (something, such as a flag) by putting it in a high place [+ obj] We flew a banner across the entrance. [no obj] A flag flies in front of the building. = There is a flag flying in front of the building. — see also fly the flag at [1]FLAG b [+ obj] : to cause (something, such as a kite) to fly in the air ▪ Children were flying kites in the park. — see also go fly a kite at KITE
6 [no obj] : to move or go quickly ▪ She flew to the window when she heard the car. ▪ The door flew open and he rushed into the room. ▪ I flew up the stairs to answer the phone. ▪ I must fly or I'll be late for my appointment. ▪ That horse really flies. ▪ Cars were flying past us on the highway.
7 [no obj] : to move freely ▪ As she ran, her hair flew in every direction.
8 [no obj] : to pass very quickly ▪ Time flies. ▪ Our vacation flew by before we knew it.
9 [no obj] chiefly US, informal : to be approved or accepted — usually used in negative statements ▪ This plan will never fly. ▪ His budget proposals didn't fly with voters. [=voters didn't like his proposals]
as the crow flies see [1]CROW fly at [phrasal verb] fly at (someone) : to attack (someone) with sudden violence ▪ He flew at me in a rage.
fly high informal 1 : to be very happy and excited ▪ She was flying high after her excellent exam results. 2 : to be very successful ▪ After some difficult years, the company is flying high again.
fly in the face of also US fly in the teeth of : to fail completely to agree with (something) : to oppose or contradict (something) directly ▪ His explanation flies in the face of the evidence. [=his explanation is not supported at all by the evidence] ▪ a theory that flies in the face of logic [=a theory that is not logical at all] ▪ a policy that flies in the face of reason [=a policy that is extremely unreasonable] fly into [phrasal verb] fly into (something) : to be overcome by (sudden extreme emotion) ▪ He flew into a rage. [=he suddenly became very angry] ▪ They flew into a panic. [=they suddenly panicked] fly off the handle informal : to lose control of your emotions : to become very angry ▪ He tends to fly off the handle when people disagree with him.
fly the coop informal : to leave suddenly or secretly : to escape or go away ▪ In the morning the suspect had flown the coop. ▪ All their children have flown the coop. [=have moved away from home]
let fly or let fly with informal : to throw (something) in a forceful way ▪ The quarterback let fly (with) a long pass. — often used figuratively ▪ She let fly (with) a few angry words. [=she shouted a few angry words]
– compare [2]FLY

[2]fly verb flies; flied; fly•ing [no obj] baseball : to hit a fly ball ▪ The batter flied to left field. ▪ He flied out to left field. [=he made an out by hitting a fly ball that was caught by the left fielder] — compare [1]FLY

[3]fly noun, pl flies [count]
1 : a small insect that has two wings ▪ swat a fly ▪ the buzz of a fly
2 : a hook that is designed to look like an insect and that is used for catching fish ▪ an artificial fly — see also FLY-FISHING drop like flies also die like flies informal ✧ If people or animals are dropping/dying like flies, they are dropping or dying very quickly in large numbers. ▪ The heat was so intense that people were dropping like flies. [=many people were fainting from the heat] ▪ Horses and cattle dropped/died like flies during the drought. These phrases are often used figuratively. ▪ Candidates were dropping like flies during the early part of the campaign.
fly in the ointment : someone or something that causes problems ▪ We're almost ready to start work. Getting the permit is the only fly in the ointment.
fly on the wall : someone who secretly watches or listens to other people ▪ I would like to be a fly on the wall during the negotiations. [=I would like to be able to hear what is being said during the negotations] no flies on chiefly Brit, informal ✧ If there are no flies on you, you are a smart person who is quick to undertand things and not easily fooled.
wouldn't hurt a fly ✧ Someone who wouldn't hurt a fly is too gentle to want to hurt anyone. ▪ He looks big and dangerous, but he wouldn't hurt a fly.
– compare [4]FLY

[4]fly noun, pl flies [count]
1 : an opening in a piece of clothing (such as a pair of trousers, shorts, or a skirt) that is hidden by a fold of cloth and that is closed by a zipper or a row of buttons ▪ He zipped/buttoned his fly. — sometimes plural in British English ▪ He zipped his flies. — see color picture on page C16
2 baseball : FLY BALL ▪ He hit a fly to the left fielder.
on the fly 1 : quickly and often without preparation ▪ You'll have to make decisions on the fly. 2 : through the air : without hitting the ground ▪ The home run went 450 feet on the fly. 3 : while something else is also being done

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 54 SESS: 44 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:33:34 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-f

on a computer ▪ software that handles formatting on the fly – compare [3]FLY

y•away /'flajə,weɪ/ adj, of hair : very thin and light : difficult to keep tidy ▪ flyaway hair

y ball noun, pl ~ balls [count] baseball : a baseball that is hit high into the air ▪ He hit a long fly ball to left field. — compare GROUND BALL

y•blown /'flaɪ,bloʊn/ adj, chiefly Brit : in poor and dirty condition ▪ a flyblown old building : made dirty by flies : not suitable for eating ▪ flyblown food

y•boy /'flaɪ,boɪ/ noun, pl -boys [count] US, informal + old-fashioned : a man who is a pilot in the Air Force

y•by /'flaɪ,baɪ/ noun, pl -bys [count]
1 US : a usually low flight past a group of people at an air show, during a parade, etc., by an aircraft or group of aircraft — called also flyover, (Brit) fly-past
2 : a flight of a spacecraft past a planet, moon, etc.

y–by–night /'flaɪbaɪ,naɪt/ adj, always used before a noun, informal : trying to make money quickly by using dishonest or illegal methods ▪ a fly-by-night insurance company

y•catch •er /'flaɪ,kætʃ, 'flaɪ,kɛtʃ/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a type of bird that catches and eats flying insects

yer variant spelling of FLIER

y– sh •ing /'flaɪ,fɪʃɪŋ/ noun [noncount] : the activity of catching fish by using artificial flies ▪ do some fly-fishing ▪ He plans to go fly-fishing this weekend.

[1]y•ing /'flajɪŋ/ adj : moving or able to move in the air ▪ flying insects ▪ flying clouds ▪ a story about a flying car with flying colors : with complete or great success ▪ She passed the exam with flying colors. ▪ They came through the ordeal with flying colors.

[2]ying noun [noncount] : the activity of traveling in an aircraft ▪ She doesn't enjoy flying.

ying buttress noun, pl ~ -tresses [count] : a structure that supports a wall or building from the outside ying sh noun, pl ~ sh or ~ shes [count] : a type of fish that has long fins which look like wings and that is able to jump out of the water and glide through the air

ying machine noun, pl ~ -chines [count] : a machine that is able to fly; especially : an airplane from the time when airplanes had recently been invented

ying officer noun, pl ~ -cers [count] : an officer in the British Air Force

ying saucer noun, pl ~ -cers [count] : a flying object that people say they have seen in the sky, that is usually round like a saucer or disc, and that is believed by some people to be a spaceship from another world : UFO

ying start noun, pl ~ starts [singular] : a good or fast start ▪ The meeting got off to a flying start. ▪ The restaurant made a flying start by filling up on opening night.

y•leaf /'flaɪ,li:f/ noun, pl -leaves /-,li:vz/ [count] : an empty page at the beginning or end of a book

y•over /'flaɪ,oʊvɚ/ noun, pl -overs [count]
1 US : FLYBY 1
2 Brit : OVERPASS

y•pa•per /'flaɪ,peɪpɚ/ noun [noncount] : a long piece of sticky paper that is used for catching and killing flies

y–past /'flaɪ,pæst, Brit 'flaɪ,pɑ:st/ noun, pl -pasts [count] Brit : FLYBY 1

y•speck /'flaɪ,spɛk/ noun, pl -specks [count]
1 : a very small piece of waste matter from a fly
2 informal : something that is very small ▪ She grew up in a flyspeck of a town.

y•swat •ter /'flaɪ,swɑ:tɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a device used for killing flies and other insects that consists of a flat piece of plastic or other material attached to a handle

y•weight /'flaɪ,weɪt/ noun, pl -weights [count] : a fighter in a class of boxers who dos not weigh more than 112 pounds (51 kilograms)

y•wheel /'flaɪ,wi:l/ noun, pl -wheels [count] : a heavy wheel that is part of a machine and that controls the speed of machinery

FM /'ɛf,ɛm/ noun [noncount] : a system for sending radio signals in which the number of radio waves per second is changed in order to send information in the form of sound ✧ FM is an abbreviation of "frequency modulation." — compare AM – FM adj ▪ an FM radio/station ▪ This station is FM only.

[1]foal /'foʊl/ noun, pl foals [count] : a young horse; especially : a horse that is less than one year old — compare COLT, FILLY

[2]foal verb foals; foaled; foal•ing [no obj] : to give birth to a foal ▪ The mare will foal in June.

[1]foam /'foʊm/ noun [noncount]
1 : a mass of small bubbles that are formed in or on a liquid ▪ As I poured the beer, foam bubbled up in the glass.
2 : a substance that is like a thick liquid made of many small bubbles ▪ The fire extinguisher is filled with foam. ▪ a can of shaving foam
3 : a soft material that is used to make many products : FOAM RUBBER — often used before another noun ▪ a foam mattress/pillow
– foam•i•ness /'foʊminəs/ noun [noncount] – foamy /'foʊmi/ adj foam•i•er; -est ▪ a foamy glass of beer

[2]foam verb foams; foamed; foam•ing [no obj] : to produce foam ▪ The soda foamed in the glass. ▪ The mixture will bubble and foam when you add the yeast.
foam at the mouth 1 : to produce foam from the mouth because of illness or excitement ▪ The dog was foaming at the mouth. 2 informal : to be very angry about something ▪ He was foaming at the mouth with rage.

foam rubber noun [noncount] : a soft and light rubber material that has many small holes throughout it and is used to make various products ▪ The mattress/pad is (made of) foam rubber. — often used before another noun ▪ a foam-rubber mattress/pad

[1]fob /'fɑ:b/ noun, pl fobs [count]
1 : a short chain attached especially to a pocket watch
2 : a small object that is a decoration on a watch chain or a key ring

[2]fob verb fobs; fobbed; fob•bing fob off [phrasal verb] fob (someone or something) off or fob off (someone or something) informal 1 : to cause (someone) to accept something that is false, badly made, etc., instead of what is wanted — + with ▪ He thought he could fob me off with some weak excuse about being too busy to talk. 2 : to present or offer (something fake or false) as genuine or true ▪ They're trying to fob off science fiction as truth. [=trying to make people believe that something that is science fiction is true] 3 US : to give (someone or something not wanted) to someone else : to palm off (someone or something) — often + on ▪ The child's father was always fobbing her off on relatives and babysitters.

fo•cal /'foʊkəl/ adj, always used before a noun : having central or great importance ▪ a focal figure in the movement focal length noun, pl ~ lengths [count] technical : the distance from the surface of a lens to the point of focus (sense 3)

focal point noun, pl ~ points [count]
1 : a center of activity, interest, or attention ▪ This port was the focal point of trade two centuries ago. ▪ The new school curriculum was the focal point [=focus] of the debate.
2 technical : [1]FOCUS 3

[1]fo•cus /'foʊkəs/ noun, pl fo•ci /'foʊ,saɪ/ also fo•cus•es
1 [count] : a subject that is being discussed or studied : the subject on which people's attention is focused — usually singular ▪ The focus of our discussion/debate/attention will be drug abuse. ▪ The scandal became the primary focus of the day's news coverage. ▪ The study's main focus is adults with sleep disorders.
2 : a main purpose or interest [noncount] He's successful, but he feels that his life lacks focus. [singular] His life lacks a focus.
3 [count] technical : a point at which rays of light, heat, or sound meet or from which they move apart or appear to move apart; especially : the point at which an image is formed by a mirror, a lens, etc.
4 [noncount] a : a state in which something (such as a camera, a telescope, or a person's eyes) produces a clear picture or image ▪ bringing the binoculars into focus [=focusing the binoculars; adjusting the binoculars so that the image seen through them is clear and sharp] ▪ It took him a few seconds after he woke up to bring his eyes into focus. [=to focus his eyes] ▪ The binoculars were not in focus. = The binoculars were out of focus. [=the binoculars were not focused] b : a state in which the small details of a picture or image can be clearly seen ▪ It was a nice picture—the family was in focus and everyone was smiling. ▪ Unfortunately, several of the pictures were out of focus. — see also SOFT FOCUS c : a state or condition in which something can be clearly understood ▪ She tried to bring the important issues into focus. [=she tried to say clearly what the important issues were]

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 55 SESS: 45 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:33:34 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-f

F

[2]focus verb -cuses also -cus•ses; -cused also -cussed; -cus•ing also -cus•sing
1 [+ obj] : to cause (something, such as attention) to be directed at something specific — + on ▪ The crime has focused public attention on the problem of parole. ▪ We need to focus our efforts on getting the work done.
2 [no obj] : to direct your attention or effort at something specific ▪ She has an amazing ability to focus for hours at a time. — often + on ▪ We need to focus on getting the work done. ▪ The day's news coverage focused primarily/mainly on the scandal.
3 : to adjust (something, such as a lens or a camera) to make an image clear [+ obj] focus a telescope ▪ I wasn't able to focus the camera. ▪ He focused his binoculars on a distant ship. [=he looked through his binoculars at a distant ship] [no obj] I wasn't able to get the camera to focus. ✧ If you focus your eyes on something or if your eyes focus on something, you look at that thing so that you can see it clearly. ▪ Everyone focused their eyes on her [=everyone looked at her] when she entered the room. ▪ His eyes were focused on the road. = He kept his eyes focused on the road.
4 technical : to cause (light) to come together at a point [+ obj] focus rays of light [no obj] laser beams that focus at a single point focused also focussed adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : giving attention and effort to a specific task or goal ▪ They are making a focused effort to win support for the proposal.
2 : having very clear and definite goals and ambitions ▪ She's a very focused and determined young woman.

focus group noun, pl ~ groups [count] : a small group of people whose opinions about something (such as a politician or a new product) are studied to learn the opinions that can be expected from a larger group

fod•der /ˈfɑːdɚ/ noun [noncount]
1 : food given to horses, cows, etc. ▪ grain used for fodder
2 : material that is used for a particular purpose ▪ His antics always make good fodder for the gossip columnists. ▪ She often used her friends' problems as fodder for her novels. — see also CANNON FODDER foe /ˈfoʊ/ noun, pl foes [count] : an enemy ▪ political foes ▪ Many considered him a foe of democracy. ▪ Her ability was acknowledged by friend and foe alike.

foetal, foetus chiefly Brit spellings of FETAL, FETUS

[1]fog /ˈfɑːg/ noun
1 : many small drops of water floating in the air above the ground, the sea, etc. [noncount] Heavy fog made it difficult to see the road. ▪ a patch/blanket of fog ▪ ocean fog [count] a climate marked by heavy fogs ▪ The fog reduced visibility to a quarter of a mile.
2 [singular] : a state of mental confusion ▪ This problem has me in a fog. ▪ an alcohol-induced fog

[2]fog verb fogs; fogged; fog•ging
1 a [+ obj] : to cover or fill (something) with small drops of water : to make (something) foggy ▪ The steam from the pot was fogging the window near the stove. ▪ The cold air fogged (up) his glasses. ▪ The bathroom was all fogged up after my shower. b [no obj] : to become foggy ▪ His glasses were fogging. — often + up ▪ His glasses were fogging up. ▪ The weather is fogging up.
2 [+ obj] : to make (someone or something) confused ▪ politicians who try to fog the issue instead of taking a stand ▪ drugs that fog [=cloud] your mind/judgment fog•bound /ˈfɑːgˌbaʊnd/ adj

1 : unable to move or travel because of fog ▪ a fogbound ship ▪ fogbound travelers
2 : covered by fog ▪ a fogbound coast

fogey chiefly Brit spelling of FOGY fog•gy /ˈfɑːgi/ adj fog•gi•er; -est

1 a : having or filled with fog ▪ a gray, foggy morning ▪ foggy weather ▪ a foggy valley b : covered with small drops of water ▪ a foggy mirror ▪ foggy glasses
2 : not clear : vague or confused ▪ I don't remember what her name was—my memory is a little foggy. ▪ I haven't the foggiest [=faintest] idea what she's talking about. [=I don't understand what she is talking about at all] ▪ "Where did I put my keys?" "I haven't the foggiest." [=I have no idea; I don't know]
– fog•gi•ly /ˈfɑːgəli/ adv – fog•gi•ness /ˈfɑːginəs/ noun [noncount]

Foggy Bottom noun [singular] informal : the U.S. Department of State fog•horn /ˈfɑːgˌhoɚn/ noun, pl -horns [count] : a horn on a boat, ship, etc., that makes a loud, deep sound and is used in foggy weather to warn nearby ships — often used figuratively to describe someone with a very loud voice ▪ He has a foghorn voice. [=a voice like a foghorn]

fog lamp noun, pl ~ lamps [count] : a very bright light on the front of a vehicle that is used to help the driver see better in fog — called also fog light

fo•gy (chiefly US) or chiefly Brit fo•gey /ˈfoʊgi/ noun, pl fo•gies [count] : a person with old-fashioned ideas — usually used with old ▪ Maybe I'm just an old fogy, but I don't think this kind of music is appropriate for children.
– fo•gy•ish (chiefly US) or chiefly Brit fo•gey•ish /ˈfoʊgiɪʃ/ adj ▪ a fogyish old man foi•ble /ˈfɔɪbəl/ noun, pl foi•bles [count] : a minor fault in someone's character or behavior — usually plural ▪ We all have our little foibles. ▪ He was amused by the foibles of his eccentric neighbor.

foie gras /ˈfwɑːˈgrɑː/ noun [noncount] : a food made from the liver of a goose : PÂTÉ DE FOIE GRAS

[1]foil /ˈfojəl/ verb foils; foiled; foil•ing [+ obj]
1 : to prevent (someone) from doing something or achieving a goal : DEFEAT ▪ Police managed to foil the burglars. — often used as (be) foiled ▪ He was foiled by his opponents once again. ▪ She was foiled by her own indecision.
2 : to prevent (something) from happening or being successful ▪ Police foiled an attempted robbery. ▪ Her accident foiled her dreams of becoming a dancer.

[2]foil noun, pl foils
1 [noncount] : a very thin and light sheet of metal ▪ Cover the dish with aluminum foil. ▪ kitchen foil [=foil used to wrap or cover food] ▪ candy wrapped in foil — see also SILVER FOIL, TINFOIL
2 [count] : someone or something that is different from another person or thing in a useful or appealing way — usually + for or to ▪ He acted as a foil for the comedian. [=he acted very serious to make the comedian seem funnier] ▪ That dark blue dress is good foil for her blonde hair. ▪ His reserved manner was a perfect foil for/to her bubbly personality.
3 [count] : a sword that has a light, thin blade and that is used in the sport of fencing

foist /ˈfoɪst/ verb foists; foist•ed; foist•ing [+ obj] : to force someone to accept (something that is not good or not wanted) — usually + on or upon ▪ scams that foist high funeral expenses on grieving customers ▪ He foisted his prejudices upon his young students. ▪ phony paintings foisted (off) on naïve buyers

[1]fold /ˈfoʊld/ verb folds; fold•ed; fold•ing
1 : to bend one part of (something) over or against another part [+ obj] He folded the paper in half and then unfolded it again. ▪ Fold the flaps open/shut. ▪ He folded the blanket and laid it at the foot of the bed. ▪ She folded over the edge of the fabric to make a hem. ▪ a piece of paper folded into the shape of a bird [no obj] The paper folded easily. ▪ The map folds neatly/flat so you can fit it in a pocket.
2 : to reduce the length or size of something (such as a piece of furniture) by moving parts of it so that they lie close together [+ obj] We folded (up) the lawn chair and put it in the trunk. [no obj] The lawn chair folded (up) easily. ▪ The bed folds (away) into a space in the wall.
3 [+ obj] a : to put your arm or hand over your other arm or hand in a way that keeps them together ▪ She folded [=crossed] her arms across her chest. ▪ She folded her hands on her lap. ▪ He folded his arms around her. ▪ hands folded in prayer b : to bend (a leg, a knee, an elbow, etc.) ▪ He sat with his legs folded under him.
4 [+ obj] literary : to put your arms around (someone) : EMBRACE ▪ She folded him in her arms.
5 [+ obj] : to add (a food ingredient) to a mixture by gently and repeatedly lifting one part over another ▪ Fold the egg whites into the chocolate mixture.
6 [no obj] : to fail completely : COLLAPSE ▪ The business folded.
7 [no obj] : to accept defeat in a card game (such as poker) by removing your cards from the game ▪ Realizing that she probably wasn't bluffing, he decided to fold.

[2]fold noun, pl folds [count]
1 : a line or mark made by bending one part of something over another part and pressing at the bent edge : a line or mark made by folding something : CREASE ▪ the fold in a newspaper
2 : a part of something (such as cloth or skin) that lies or

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 56 SESS: 46 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:33:35 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-f

hangs over another part ▪ hidden in the folds of the curtain ▪ the folds of her dress ▪ He had folds of flab around his middle.
3 : the act of folding something ▪ She made a paper airplane by using a simple series of folds.
4 technical : a bend produced in a rock layer by pressure
– compare [3]FOLD

[3]fold noun, pl folds
1 [count] : an enclosed area for sheep
2 the fold : a group of people who have a shared faith or interest ▪ His former colleagues would be glad to welcome him back into the fold.
– compare [2]FOLD

-fold /ˌfoʊld/ suffix
1 : multiplied by (a specified number) : times ▪ a twelve*fold* increase ▪ It will repay you ten*fold*.
2 : having (so many) parts ▪ a three*fold* problem fold•a•way /ˈfoʊldəˌweɪ/ adj, always used before a noun : designed to be folded for storage : FOLDING ▪ a foldaway bed/table fold•er /ˈfoʊldə/ noun, pl -ers [count]

1 : a folded cover or large envelope for holding documents — see picture at OFFICE
2 : a collection of files or documents that are stored together on a computer fol•de•rol /ˈfɑːldəˌrɑːl/ noun [noncount] chiefly US, informal + old-fashioned : foolish language, behavior, or ideas : NONSENSE ▪ I wish we could just discuss these questions without having to go through all the folderol of a formal meeting.

fold•ing /ˈfoʊldɪŋ/ adj, always used before a noun : able to be folded into a smaller shape : designed to be folded ▪ folding chairs ▪ a folding door folding money noun [noncount] informal : PAPER MONEY ▪ He always carries a lot of folding money.

fold•out /ˈfoʊldˌaʊt/ noun, pl -outs [count] : a large folded page in a book or magazine ▪ The book includes special maps in the form of foldouts. ▪ The book includes foldout maps.

fo•liage /ˈfoʊlijɪʤ/ noun [noncount] : the leaves of a plant or of many plants ▪ a tree with pretty foliage ▪ the thick green foliage of the jungle ▪ colorful autumn foliage

[1]folk /ˈfoʊk/ noun
1 folks [plural] a chiefly US, informal : people in general ▪ Folks say that house is haunted. ▪ Some folks think the law should be changed. b — used to talk to a group of people in a friendly and informal way ▪ Do you folks need any help? ▪ That's all for today, folks—see you tomorrow!
2 or chiefly US folks [plural] informal : a certain kind of people ▪ a home for old folks ▪ He doesn't much care for city folk. [=people who live in a city] ▪ country folk ▪ the distinctive speech of folks from the South
3 folks [plural] chiefly US, informal : family members ▪ I'll be spending the holidays with my folks.; especially : PARENTS ▪ His folks gave him everything a kid could want.
4 [noncount] : FOLK MUSIC ▪ My favorite kind of music is folk.

[2]folk adj, always used before a noun : of or relating to the common people of a country or region ▪ folk customs ▪ folk art ▪ a folk dance ▪ a folk remedy folk hero noun, pl ~ -roes [count] : a person who is greatly admired by many people of a particular kind or in a particular place ▪ He has become a folk hero in his home state because of the work he has done to help poor children.

folk•lore /ˈfoʊkˌlɔə/ noun [noncount]
1 : traditional customs, beliefs, stories, and sayings ▪ The coyote appears in a great deal of Native American folklore. ▪ the rich folklore of Louisiana
2 : ideas or stories that are not true but that many people have heard or read ▪ He can't tell the difference between fact and folklore.
– folk•lor•ist /ˈfoʊkˌlɔrɪst/ noun, pl -ists [count] ▪ a folklorist who has collected many folktales folk music noun [noncount] : the traditional music of the people in a country or region ▪ Irish folk music; also : a type of popular music that is based on traditional music and that does not use electric instruments folk•sing•er /ˈfoʊkˌsɪŋə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a person who sings folk songs folk song noun, pl ~ songs [count] : a song created by the people of a country or region : a song sung in folk music folksy /ˈfoʊksi/ adj folks•i•er; -est informal : friendly or informal in manner or style ▪ a folksy politician ▪ an entertainer with a folksy manner ▪ folksy charm – folks•i•ness /ˈfoʊksinəs/ noun [noncount]

folk•tale /ˈfoʊkˌteɪl/ noun, pl -tales [count] : a traditional story ▪ West African folktales that continue to be passed from generation to generation through storytelling fol•li•cle /ˈfɑːlɪkəl/ noun, pl -li•cles [count] : a tiny hole in the skin from which a hair grows fol•low /ˈfɑːloʊ/ verb -lows; -lowed; -low•ing

1 a : to go or come after or behind (someone or something) [+ obj] She followed us into the kitchen. ▪ The dog followed the children home. ▪ The exit is right this way. Just follow me. [no obj] The children went home and the dog followed behind. ▪ If one sheep goes through the gate, the rest will follow. b [+ obj] : to go after or behind (someone) secretly and watch to find out what happens ▪ He hired a private detective to follow his wife everywhere. [=to secretly find out where she went and what she did] ▪ follow a suspect ▪ I think that someone is following us. = I think we're being followed.
2 a : to come after (something) in time or place or as part of a series [+ obj] Spring follows winter. = Winter is followed by spring. ▪ The number 15 follows 14. ▪ Her accident was followed by a long period of recovery. [no obj] First came the student speeches, and the presentation of awards followed. ▪ (formal) The war ended. There followed [=then came; then there was] a long period of rebuilding. b [+ obj] : to have or do something after (something else) — + with ▪ I followed my dinner with a liqueur. [=I had a liqueur after dinner] ▪ The actor followed his success as Othello with a triumph as Macbeth.
3 a : to happen after and as a result of (something) [+ obj] Rioting followed the unjust verdict. [no obj] If you work hard, success will/must surely follow. b [no obj] : to be true or seem to be true because of something ▪ From the evidence given, several conclusions follow. = Several conclusions follow from the evidence given. [=we can make several conclusions based on the evidence given] — often + that ▪ From the evidence given, it follows that the accused is guilty. ▪ Just because he's done some bad things, does/must it follow that he's a bad person? [=does it mean that he is a bad person?]
4 [+ obj] a : to be guided by (something) ▪ You should follow [=obey] your conscience. ▪ follow your instincts ▪ follow my advice ▪ She must learn to follow instructions. ▪ We must follow the evidence wherever it leads. ▪ You should follow her example. = You should follow the example she set. [=you should do what she did] b : to do the same thing as (someone) ▪ She followed her father (by going) into medicine. = She followed her father by becoming a doctor.
5 [+ obj] : to move forward on (a road, a path, etc.) ▪ Follow that path, and you will come to a log cabin. ▪ You should follow the main highway until you see signs for the stadium. — often used figuratively ▪ His friends all went to college, but he chose to follow a different path. [=to do something different] ▪ Do recessions follow a predictable cycle/pattern?
6 [+ obj] of a road, path, etc. : to be on or next to (something) for a distance ▪ The path follows the river pretty closely. ▪ The road follows the curve of the hill.
7 [+ obj] a : to keep your eyes or attention on (something) ▪ Follow the bouncing ball. b : to give close attention to what happens in (something) ▪ He followed her career with interest. ▪ follow football ▪ The book follows his political career from its humble beginnings to his election as president. c Brit : to be a fan of (a team) : SUPPORT ▪ He follows Manchester United.
8 : to understand the sense or logic of (something or someone) [+ obj] I found it hard to follow the twists and turns of the movie's complicated plot. ▪ I'm sorry—I don't follow your argument/reasoning. = I'm sorry—I don't follow you. [=I don't understand you] [no obj] I'm sorry—I don't follow. [=I don't understand] a hard/tough act to follow : someone or something that has been so successful that it is very difficult for the person or thing coming next to be as good ▪ Yesterday's thrilling victory will be a tough act to follow.

as follows — used to introduce a list, a statement, instructions, etc. ▪ The names of the finalists are as follows: Mary, James, and George. ▪ Proceed as follows: go straight ahead to Martin Street and then turn left.

follow around or Brit follow about [phrasal verb] follow (someone) around/about : to go wherever (someone) goes ▪ The little boy followed his mother around all day.

follow in someone's footsteps see FOOTSTEP

follow someone's lead see [2]LEAD

follow suit 1 in card games : to play a card of the same suit

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 57 SESS: 46 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:33:35 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-f

(such as hearts or spades) as the card that was played just before ▪ Jane played a spade, and Roger followed suit. 2 : to do the same thing that someone else has just done ▪ His brother went to medical school, and he followed suit. ▪ After one airline lowers their fares, the other airlines usually follow suit.

follow the path/line of least resistance see RESISTANCE follow through [phrasal verb] 1 follow through or *follow (something) through : to complete an activity or process that has been started ▪ He always starts the school year off studying and working hard, but he doesn't follow through. [=he doesn't continue to study and work hard] ▪ He doesn't follow his good intentions through. [=although he makes plans to do things, he doesn't actually do them] — often + on or with ▪ He doesn't follow through on his good intentions. ▪ We feared they would follow through on/with their threat. [=we feared that they would do what they threatened to do] 2 sports : to keep your arms, legs, etc., moving after you hit or kick a ball : to complete a stroke or swing ▪ You should follow through on your backhand. ▪ Don't forget to follow through when you putt. — see also FOLLOW-THROUGH follow up [phrasal verb] 1 follow up (something) or follow (something) up or *follow up : to follow (something) with something similar, related, or additional — + with or by ▪ He followed up his early findings with another study. ▪ After you submit your job application, you should follow it up by making a phone call. ▪ Her first book was a big success, and she followed up with another best seller. 2 *follow up (something) or follow (something) up or follow up or chiefly US follow up on (something) a : to try to get more information about (something) ▪ The police followed up (on) the leads. ▪ The references in the book were too vague to follow up. b : to do something in response to (something) : to take appropriate action about (something) ▪ Police followed up the complaints with several arrests. ▪ He complained several times, but the police never followed up. ▪ He says that the police failed to follow up on his complaints. — see also FOLLOW-UP follow your nose informal 1 : to go in a straight or obvious course ▪ Just follow your nose until you get there; you can't miss it. 2 : to proceed without a definite plan : to do what seems right or best without careful planning ▪ You don't need my advice—just follow your nose. 3 : to go toward the place where a smell is coming from ▪ I followed my nose to the kitchen, where dinner was cooking.

fol•low•er /ˈfɑːloəwə/ noun, pl -ers [count]
1 a : someone who supports and is guided by another person or by a group, religion, etc. ▪ the candidate's loyal/faithful followers ▪ The party drew most of its followers from among young people. ▪ followers of Christianity/Islam b : a person who likes and admires (someone or something) very much : FAN ▪ The band has a large group of followers.
2 : someone who does what other people say to do ▪ He had a reputation of being a follower, not a leader.

[1]fol•low•ing /ˈfɑːləwɪŋ/ adj
1 : coming next ▪ She found a good job, and moved into a new house the following year. ▪ We met again the following day. — opposite PRECEDING, PREVIOUS
2 : listed or shown next ▪ Trains will leave at the following times: 2 p.m., 4 p.m., and 8 p.m. ▪ If you have questions or comments, please write to us at the following address: P.O. Box 234, . . .

[2]following noun, pl -ings [count] : a group of followers or fans ▪ The band has a large and devoted following in Japan. ▪ The movement quickly gained/attracted/built a following among young people.

[3]following prep : immediately after (something) ▪ Following the lecture, refreshments were served. ▪ We were tired for a few days following our trip.

[4]following pronoun
the following : the following one or ones — used to introduce a list, a quotation, etc. ▪ The finalists are the following: Mary, James, and George. = The following are the finalists: Mary, James, and George. ▪ Our address is the following [=as follows]: P.O. Box 234, . . . ▪ The following are the times of departing trains: 2 p.m., 4 p.m., and 8 p.m.

fol•low–on /ˈfɑːloʊˌɑːn/ noun, pl -ons [count] : something that happens or is done to continue or add to something previous — usually singular ▪ The new project is a natural follow-on to last year's success.
– follow–on adj, always used before a noun ▪ a follow-on product follow–the–leader (US) or Brit follow–my–leader noun [noncount] : a children's game in which everyone follows and does what the child who is chosen to be the leader does fol•low–through /ˈfɑːloʊˌθruː/ noun, pl -throughs

1 [count] sports : the part of a stroke, swing, or kick that happens after a ball is hit ▪ He has a good backswing, but he's a little weak on the follow-through.
2 [singular] : the act of completing an action or process ▪ He makes a lot of promises, but there's no follow-through. [=he does not do what he promises to do] — see also follow through at FOLLOW

fol•low–up /ˈfɑːloʊˌʌp/ noun, pl -ups [count] : something that continues or completes a process or activity ▪ A week after the story broke, the newspaper printed a follow-up. ▪ As a follow-up to last week's show, tonight we'll show the other side of the story. — see also follow up at FOLLOW
– follow–up adj, always used before a noun ▪ After you submit your job application, you should make a follow-up phone call. ▪ He had a follow-up appointment a week after his surgery.

fol•ly /ˈfɑːli/ noun, pl -lies
1 [noncount] a : the lack of good sense or judgment : FOOLISHNESS ▪ the folly of driving fast on steep, winding roads ▪ his folly in thinking that he would not be noticed ▪ The folly of such an action should be apparent to everyone. b : a foolish act or idea : foolish behavior [noncount] Their pranks were just youthful folly. [=the kinds of foolish things that young people often do] [count] engaging in youthful follies ▪ the follies of the modern world
2 [count] : a very unusual or fancy building that was built in a garden for decoration or amusement in the past
3 follies [plural] chiefly US : a large public show or entertainment with many performers ▪ the famous Ziegfeld Follies of the 1920s ▪ ice follies [=a show with ice-skaters skating to music] fo•ment /ˈfoʊˌmɛnt/ verb -ments; -ment•ed; -ment•ing [+ obj] formal : to cause or try to cause the growth or development of (something bad or harmful) : INCITE ▪ foment rebellion/war/revolution ▪ He was accused of fomenting violence.

– fo•ment•er noun, pl -ers [count]

fond /ˈfɑːnd/ adj fond•er; -est
1 : feeling or showing love or friendship : AFFECTIONATE ▪ a fond admirer ▪ She still has fond feelings for him. ▪ She has fond [=cherished, warm] memories of their time together. ▪ a fond smile ▪ Absence makes the heart grow fonder. ▪ He wished them a fond farewell.
2 : strongly felt ▪ their fondest wishes ▪ the fond hope that the situation would change fond of : having a liking for or love of (someone or something) ▪ She is still fond of him. [=she still likes/loves him] ▪ She grew quite fond of him. ▪ I'm fond of skiing. [=I like to ski; I enjoy skiing] ▪ She's fond of asking silly questions. [=she asks a lot of silly questions]
– fond•ness /ˈfɑːndnəs/ noun [noncount] his parents' fondness [=affection] for each other [singular] a fondness [=liking] for fine wine

fon•dle /ˈfɑːndl/ verb fon•dles; fon•dled; fon•dling [+ obj]
1 : to touch or handle (something) in a gentle way ▪ fondle a coin ▪ She fondled [=caressed] the dog's ear.
2 : to touch (someone) in a sexual way ▪ She claims that her boss tried to fondle her at the office Christmas party.

fond•ly /ˈfɑːndli/ adv
1 : in a loving way ▪ She speaks fondly [=affectionately] of you. ▪ She remembers their time together fondly.
2 : in a hopeful but not reasonable way ▪ He fondly [=foolishly] imagines that his plan will be a success.

fon•due /fɑnˈduː, Brit ˈfɒnˌdjuː/ noun, pl -dues : a dish that people prepare for themselves at the table by putting small pieces of food (such as bread, meat, or fruit) in a hot liquid (such as melted and flavored cheese or melted chocolate) [noncount] dipped his bread into the (cheese) fondue [count] dip fruit in melted chocolate to have a chocolate fondue

[1]font /ˈfɑːnt/ noun, pl fonts [count]
1 religion : a container that holds the water which is used for baptizing a child
2 US : a source from which something comes : FOUNT ▪ a font of knowledge/wisdom
– compare [2]FONT

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 58 SESS: 10 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:33:36 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−f

font

[2]font noun, pl fonts [count] technical : a set of letters, numbers, and punctuation marks that are all one size and style ▪ The book's small font was difficult to read. ▪ a boldface font — called also (Brit) fount — compare [1]FONT

food /ˈfu:d/ noun, pl foods

1 a [noncount] : the things that people and animals eat ▪ a farmer who grows his own food ▪ drought victims who don't have enough food to eat ▪ She gave food and drink to the hungry travelers. ▪ good/great/delicious food b : a particular kind of food [noncount] Italian food ▪ cat food ▪ frozen food ▪ What is your favorite food? [count] an important food ▪ fruits, vegetables, and other healthy foods ▪ frozen foods — see also FAST FOOD, HEALTH FOOD, JUNK FOOD, WHOLE FOOD

2 [noncount] : substances taken in by plants and used for growth ▪ plant food food for thought : something that should be thought about or considered carefully ▪ The unexpected test results have given us food for thought.

food bank noun, pl ∼ banks [count] US : a place like a store that has free food for poor people food chain noun, pl ∼ chains [count] : a series of types of living things in which each one uses the next lower member of the series as a source of food — usually used with the ▪ Sharks eat fish that are lower in the food chain. ▪ animals that are at the top/bottom of the food chain — often used figuratively ▪ directors and producers at the top of the Hollywood food chain [=very powerful and successful directors and producers] ▪ the corporate food chain

food court noun, pl ∼ courts [count] : an area within a building (such as a shopping mall) where there are many small restaurants that share a large area of tables for their customers food•ie /ˈfu:di/ noun, pl -ies [count] informal : a person who enjoys and cares about food very much ▪ The restaurant is very popular among foodies.

food poisoning noun [noncount] : sickness caused by bacteria or chemicals in food food processor noun, pl ∼ -sors [count] : an electric kitchen device that is used for cutting and mixing food — see picture at KITCHEN food stamp noun, pl ∼ stamps [count] US : a small document that is given by the government to poor people and that can be used to buy food food•stuff /ˈfu:dˌstʌf/ noun, pl -stuffs [count] technical : a substance that is used as food ▪ grain and other foodstuffs [=foods]

[1]fool /ˈfu:l/ noun, pl fools [count]

1 : a person who lacks good sense or judgment : a stupid or silly person ▪ those fools who ride motorcycles without wearing helmets ▪ Only a fool would ask such a silly question. ▪ You'd be a fool to believe what he tells you. ▪ You're making yourself look like a fool. ▪ A fool and his money are soon parted. [=a foolish person spends money too quickly on unimportant things] ▪ Any fool can see [=anyone can see] that he's lying. ▪ I never thought you'd be fool enough to believe him. = I never thought you'd be enough of a fool to believe him. ▪ (informal) Only that fool of a brother [=that foolish brother] of yours would ask such a silly question! ▪ (informal) Some (damn/damned) fool of a driver kept trying to pass me! ▪ Fools rush in (where angels fear to tread). [=it is foolish to take action if you do not know much about what you are doing] ▪ (Brit, informal) (The) more fool you if you believe him. = (The) more fool you for believing him. [=you would be a fool to believe him] ▪ (Brit, informal) More fool him for trusting her. ▪ There's no fool like an old fool. [=a foolish old person is especially foolish because an old person should have learned from experience not to make the kind of mistakes a young person makes] ✧ A smart or clever person can be described as no fool or as nobody's fool. ▪ He may not look very smart, but he's no fool. ▪ Don't try to trick her—she's nobody's fool.

2 US, informal : a person who enjoys something very much ▪ He's a dancing fool. [=he loves to dance] ▪ He's a fool for candy. [=he loves to eat candy]

3 chiefly Brit : a dessert made with cooked fruit and cream or a thick sauce ▪ a strawberry fool

4 : JESTER

act/play the fool : to behave in a silly or foolish way ▪ If you keep playing the fool by asking silly questions, people won't take you seriously.

make a fool of yourself : to behave in a very foolish or silly way ▪ He got drunk at the party and made a fool of himself. ▪ He's making a fool of himself over that woman.

make a fool (out) of : to cause (someone) to look stupid or foolish ▪ She made a fool of me by insulting me in front of my friends.

– see also APRIL FOOLS' DAY

[2]fool verb fools; fooled; fool•ing

1 [no obj] : to speak or act in a way that is not serious : JOKE, KID ▪ I was only fooling. ▪ When she first told us that she was getting married, we thought she was fooling.

2 [+ obj] : to make (someone) believe something that is not true : to trick (someone) ▪ His disguise didn't fool anybody. ▪ "He's an expert in his field." "Well, you sure could have fooled me!" [=I doubt that he is really an expert in his field] ▪ He really had me fooled. ▪ Stop fooling yourself—she doesn't really love you. — often + into ▪ He fooled me into thinking I could trust him. ▪ We were fooled into thinking there was no danger. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ fool the eye into seeing colors that aren't there fool around also Brit fool about [phrasal verb] informal 1 : to do things that are not useful or serious : to waste time ▪ We fooled around [=messed around] outdoors for a while, but then went inside to get some work done. ▪ He decided it was time to stop fooling around and settle down and get married. ▪ Wow, he's already done everything he promised. He doesn't fool around, does he? [=he gets things done quickly] 2 : to have sex with someone who is not your husband, wife, or regular partner ▪ His wife discovered that he was fooling around (on her). [=that he was having sex with another woman] — often + with ▪ His wife discovered that he was fooling around with his secretary. 3 fool around/about with (something) a : to use or do (something) in a way that is not very serious ▪ I'm not really a painter; I just like to fool around with paints. b : to handle or play with (something) in a careless or foolish way ▪ Stop fooling [=fiddling, messing] around with the stereo. ▪ Don't fool around with that gun.

fool with [phrasal verb] informal 1 fool with (something) a : to handle or play with (something) in a careless way : to fool around with (something) ▪ Don't fool with [=mess with] that gun. b : to deal with or be involved with (something that causes or that could cause trouble) ▪ The company doesn't want to fool with [=mess with, be bothered with] small distributors. 2 fool with (someone) : to deal with (someone) in a way that may cause anger or violence ▪ I wouldn't want to fool with [=mess with] that guy.

[3]fool adj, always used before a noun, US, informal : FOOLISH ▪ The dog was barking its fool head off. ▪ Some fool driver kept trying to pass me!

fool•ery /ˈfu:ləri/ noun [noncount] old-fashioned : foolish or silly behavior ▪ an amusing bit of foolery

fool•har•dy /ˈfu:lˌhɑədi/ adj [more ∼; most ∼] : foolishly doing things that are too dangerous or risky ▪ a foolhardy explorer ▪ foolhardy investors

– fool•har•di•ness /ˈfu:lˌhɑədinəs/ noun [noncount]

fool•ish /ˈfu:lɪʃ/ adj [more ∼; most ∼] : having or showing a lack of good sense or judgment : STUPID, SILLY ▪ a foolish decision/mistake ▪ He was wearing a foolish grin. ▪ She's been taking foolish risks. ▪ Those flashy clothes make her look foolish. ▪ She must feel foolish wearing those flashy clothes. ▪ I never thought you'd be foolish enough to believe him.

– fool•ish•ly adv ▪ He foolishly ignored his parents' advice.

– fool•ish•ness noun [noncount]

fool•proof /ˈfu:lˌpru:f/ adj [more ∼; most ∼] : done, made, or planned so well that nothing can go wrong ▪ foolproof directions ▪ a foolproof plan ▪ DNA fingerprinting gives police a virtually foolproof way to link a suspect to a crime scene.

fool's gold noun [noncount] : a mineral that looks like gold fool's paradise noun [singular] : a state of happiness that is based on mistaken beliefs or false ideas ▪ We are headed

F

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 59 SESS: 47 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:33:36 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−f

for economic trouble, and anyone who thinks otherwise is living in a fool's paradise.

foos•ball /ˈfu:zˌbɑ:l/ noun [noncount] : a table game resembling soccer in which the ball is moved by turning rods to which small figures of players are attached — called also (US) table soccer, (Brit) table football

[1]foot /ˈfʊt/ noun, pl feet /ˈfi:t/

1 [count] : the part of the leg on which an animal or person stands and moves : the part of the leg below the ankle ▪ He was wearing boots on his feet. ▪ tracks made by the feet of a bird ▪ standing on one foot ▪ The people in the crowd began to stamp their feet. ▪ She was walking around the house in (her) bare feet. [=she was not wearing any shoes or socks] ▪ She was in her stockinged/stocking feet. [=she was wearing socks but no shoes] ▪ It's a long hike, but we'll get there if we just keep putting one foot in front of the other. [=if we just keep walking] ▪ Wipe your feet [=rub the bottoms of your shoes on the doormat] when you come in. — often used before another noun ▪ a foot pump [=a pump that is operated by being pressed with the foot] ▪ a foot brake ▪ an area that gets a lot of foot traffic [=an area where many people walk] — see also ATHLETE'S FOOT, CLUBFOOT, COLD FEET, FLAT FOOT

2 pl also foot [count] : a unit of measurement equal to ⅓ yard (0.3048 meter) or 12 inches ▪ a 10-foot pole = a pole 10 feet long ▪ He's six feet tall. ▪ He's six feet, three inches tall. = He's six foot three. ▪ a plant that grows three feet tall = a three-foot-tall plant

3 [singular] a : the lowest part of something : BOTTOM ▪ They camped at the foot of the mountain. ▪ at the foot of the stairs b : the end of something that is opposite to the end that is called the head ▪ the foot of the bed [=the end where your feet are when you are lying on the bed] ▪ the foot of the table

4 [count] : a basic unit of rhythm in a line of poetry made up of a group of syllables that are accented in a certain way ▪ Each line of the poem has five feet.

at someone's feet : close to someone's feet ▪ His dog was lying at his feet. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ He was young and fearless, and he felt the world was at his feet. [=felt that he could do great things in the world] ▪ She claimed that men fell at her feet. [=that men often fell in love with her] be run/rushed off your feet Brit : to be very busy ▪ We are run off our feet trying to fill orders.

drag your feet see [1]DRAG feet of clay ✧ A person who was admired in the past but who has serious faults or flaws can be described as having feet of clay. ▪ a former political leader who turned out to have feet of clay find your feet : to start to be comfortable in a new situation : to begin to be confident or successful ▪ They quickly found their feet in their adopted country. ▪ I was away for a long time, so it will take me a while to find my feet again.

get/start off on the right foot : to begin a relationship well ▪ I want to get off on the right foot with your parents.

get/start off on the wrong foot : to begin a relationship badly ▪ They got off on the wrong foot when they first met and they've disliked each other ever since.

get your feet wet see [1]WET get your foot in the door : to make the first step toward a goal by gaining entry into an organization, a career, etc. ▪ He took a job as a secretary to get his foot in the door.

hand and foot see [1]HAND have one foot in the grave : to be close to dying because of old age or illness have/keep your feet on the ground : to be a sensible and practical person ▪ Even after she became famous, she always kept her feet on the ground.

let the grass grow under your feet see [1]GRASS light on your feet see [4]LIGHT

my foot informal + somewhat old-fashioned — used to express surprise or disagreement ▪ Fair, my foot! That contest wasn't fair!

off your feet : not in a standing position : in or into a sitting or lying position ▪ The blow knocked me off my feet. ▪ The doctor suggested that he stay off his feet [=that he avoid standing and walking] as much as possible.

on foot : by walking ▪ The refugees traveled on foot.

on your feet 1 : in a standing position ▪ I've been on my feet all day. ▪ He jumped over the wall and landed on his feet. ▪ They say that no matter how a cat falls, it always manages to land on its feet. ▪ By the end of the day the workers were dead on their feet. [=very tired but still standing, working, etc.] ✧ In figurative use, to land on your feet or Brit fall on your feet is to be lucky and be in good condition or in a good situation after having a bad or difficult experience. ▪ He lost his job but landed on his feet when he was hired by another company just a few days later. 2 : in a good position or condition ▪ The business is finally/back on its feet. 3 : in a healthy condition after an illness or injury ▪ She should be out of the hospital and (back) on her feet again in a couple of weeks. 4 : quickly and while actively doing something ▪ Good debaters can think on their feet.

put a foot wrong : to make a mistake ▪ He never put a foot wrong during the campaign.

put your best foot forward 1 US : to behave very well so that someone will like you and approve of you ▪ When I visited my girlfriend's parents I tried to be very polite and put my best foot forward. 2 Brit : to try as hard as possible to do something difficult ▪ I've got to put my best foot forward [=do my best] to meet this deadline.

put your feet up informal : to sit and relax : to not work or be active ▪ I'm going to go home and put my feet up.

put your foot down 1 : to deal with someone in a harsh or strict way ▪ When my son broke his curfew for the third time, I knew it was time to put my foot down. 2 Brit : to make a car go faster put your foot in your mouth (chiefly US) or put your foot in it informal : to say something that causes someone to be embarrassed, upset, or hurt especially when you did not expect that reaction ▪ I really put my foot in it when I asked her about her job. I didn't know she'd just been fired.

set foot in : to enter (a place) ▪ That was the last time she ever set foot in this house.

set foot on : to walk on (something) ▪ Neil Armstrong was the first man to set foot on the surface of the moon.

shoot yourself in the foot see [1]SHOOT stand on your own two feet : to support yourself without help from other people ▪ You can't live with your parents forever. It's time to get a place of your own and learn to stand on your own two feet.

sweep (someone) off his/her feet see [1]SWEEP

the shoe is on the other foot or Brit the boot is on the other foot — used to say that a situation has changed to the opposite of what it was before ▪ I used to boss my little sister around. Now the shoe is on the other foot. [=now she bosses me around] ▪ The shoe is on the other foot and he is the one asking for help this time.

to your feet : to a standing position ▪ I got/rose to my feet [=I stood up] and left. ▪ His inspirational speech brought the crowd to its feet. ▪ Everyone in the courtroom came to their feet when the judge entered.

two left feet ✧ A person who dances badly can be described as having two left feet. ▪ My wife is a good dancer, but I've got two left feet.

under your feet chiefly Brit : in the way : UNDERFOOT ▪ I can't get any work done with those kids under my feet.

vote with your feet see [1]VOTE

[2]foot verb foots; foot•ed; foot•ing foot the bill : to pay for something ▪ His parents footed the bill for his college education. ▪ It was a business lunch, so the company is footing the bill.

foot•age /ˈfʊtɪʤ/ noun [noncount]

1 : scenes or action recorded on film or video ▪ Some disturbing footage of the war was shown on the evening news.

2 : the size of something measured in feet ▪ calculating the square footage of the room [=calculating the size of the room in square feet]

foot–and–mouth disease noun [noncount] : a serious

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 60 SESS: 10 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:33:37 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-f

and often deadly disease of animals (such as cows and sheep)

foot•ball /ˈfʊtˌbɑːl/ noun, pl -balls
1 [noncount] : any one of several games in which two teams try to get a ball to the goals at each end of a large field: such as a US : an American game that is played between two teams of 11 players each and in which the ball is moved forward by running or passing ▪ He played a lot of football in high school and college. b : a similar Canadian game between two teams of 12 players each c Brit : SOCCER d Brit : RUGBY
2 [count] : a ball filled with air that is used in the game of football — see picture at BALL political football : an issue that politicians argue about and try to use for their advantage ▪ This issue is too important to be treated as a political football.

foot•ball•er /ˈfʊtˌbɑːlə/ noun, pl -ers [count] chiefly Brit : a person who plays soccer ✧ In U.S. English, a person who plays soccer is usually called a soccer player. A person who plays American football is called a football player.

footboard /ˈfʊtˌboəd/ noun, pl -boards [count] : an upright board at the foot of a bed foot•bridge /ˈfʊtˌbrɪʤ/ noun, pl -bridg•es [count] : a bridge for people who are walking ▪ We built a wooden footbridge over the creek.

foot–drag•ging /ˈfʊtˌdrægɪŋ/ noun [noncount] : failure to do something quickly because you do not want to do it ▪ bureaucrats criticized for foot-dragging on important issues foot•ed /ˈfʊtəd/ adj : having a foot or feet of a specified kind or number — usually used in combination ▪ a four-footed animal ▪ flat-footed ▪ fleet-footed — see also SUREFOOTED foot•er /ˈfʊtə/ noun, pl -ers [count]

1 : someone or something that is a specified number of feet tall or long — usually used in combination ▪ two players on the team who are seven-footers ▪ The putt was a six-footer. [=a six-foot putt]
2 : a word, phrase, etc., that is placed at the bottom of every page of a document — compare HEADER foot•fall /ˈfʊtˌfɑːl/ noun, pl -falls [count] literary : the sound of a footstep ▪ She heard footfalls echoing in the hall.

foot fault noun, pl ~ faults [count] tennis : the mistake of not keeping your feet behind the baseline when you serve foot•gear /ˈfʊtˌgɪə/ noun [noncount] : FOOTWEAR ▪ Hikers need to wear appropriate footgear.

foot•hill /ˈfʊtˌhɪl/ noun, pl -hills [count] : a hill next to a higher mountain or group of mountains — usually plural ▪ the foothills of the Rockies foot•hold /ˈfʊtˌhoʊld/ noun, pl -holds [count]

1 : a place where your foot may be placed when you are climbing a cliff, a mountain, etc. — compare TOEHOLD 1 2 : a position that makes it possible to begin an activity or effort ▪ The army gained a foothold on the island. ▪ The company has secured a foothold in the market.

foot•ie (Brit) or Australia footy /ˈfʊti/ noun [noncount] informal : SOCCER

foot•ing /ˈfʊtɪŋ/ noun
1 [singular] a : the ability of your feet to stay where you put them as you walk, run, etc. ▪ The loose stones made it difficult for me to maintain/keep my footing. [=to avoid slipping or falling] ▪ He lost his footing and fell down the slope. b : the condition of the ground that makes it easy or hard for your feet to stay where you put them as you walk or run ▪ Be careful. The footing is slippery there.
2 [singular] a — used to describe the kind of relationship that exists between people, countries, etc.; usually used with on ▪ a nation that is on a friendly footing with its neighbors [=a nation that has friendly relations with its neighbors] ▪ They all started on an equal footing (with one another). = They all started on the same footing. [=none of them had an advantage when they started] b : the base or foundation on which something is established : BASIS — usually used with on ▪ put the business on a firm financial footing
3 [count] : the base or foundation on which a structure is built — usually plural ▪ the footings of a building/bridge ▪ pour concrete footings for a garage

foot•lights /ˈfʊtˌlaɪts/ noun [plural] : a row of lights across the front of a stage floor that shine on the performers foot•lock•er /ˈfʊtˌlɑːkə/ noun, pl -ers [count] US : a strong box that is kept at the foot of a soldier's bed and that is used for storing personal property foot•loose /ˈfʊtˌluːs/ adj [more ~; most ~] : able to act or move freely : not held back by ties to other people ▪ footloose bachelors ▪ When she was 20, she was footloose and fancy-free, with no family or serious career to tie her down.

foot•man /ˈfʊtmən/ noun, pl -men /-mən/ [count] : a male servant who lets visitors into a house and serves food at the dinner table foot•note /ˈfʊtˌnoʊt/ noun, pl -notes [count]

1 : a note with added information that is placed below the text on a printed page
2 : someone or something that is remembered or regarded as a minor or unimportant part of an event, work, etc. ▪ a movement now regarded as a footnote to history – foot•not•ed /ˈfʊtˌnoʊtəd/ adj ▪ The book is heavily footnoted. [=the book includes many footnotes]

foot•path /ˈfʊtˌpæθ, Brit ˈfʊtˌpɑːθ/ noun, pl -paths [count]
1 : a narrow path that people walk on ▪ a footpath winding through the garden
2 Brit : SIDEWALK

foot•print /ˈfʊtˌprɪnt/ noun, pl -prints [count]
1 : a track or mark left by a foot or shoe ▪ The child left her tiny footprints in the snow. ▪ He walked into the kitchen with his boots on, making/leaving muddy footprints on the floor.
2 : the amount of space that is covered on a surface by something (such as a computer) ▪ The new model has a smaller footprint than the older model.

foot•race /ˈfʊtˌreɪs/ noun, pl -rac•es [count] : a running race foot•rest /ˈfʊtˌrɛst/ noun, pl -rests [count] : something that you put your feet on to raise them off the floor or ground when you are sitting ▪ a recliner chair with a padded footrest attached foot•sie also US foot•sy /ˈfʊtsi/ noun play footsie informal 1 : to secretly touch another person's foot with your own foot as a way of showing sexual attraction ▪ He was playing footsie with her under the dining room table. 2 : to secretly work with or help someone in a way that is dishonest or wrong ▪ world leaders playing footsie with terrorists foot soldier noun, pl ~ -diers [count]

1 : a soldier who marches and fights on foot : INFANTRYMAN
2 : a person who does active and difficult work for an organization or cause ▪ foot soldiers in the war against drugs foot•sore /ˈfʊtˌsoə/ adj [more ~; most ~] : having feet that are sore from walking ▪ tired and footsore soldiers foot•step /ˈfʊtˌstɛp/ noun, pl -steps [count]

1 : a movement made by your foot as you walk or run : STEP ▪ She slowly took one footstep toward the frightened animal.
2 : the distance covered by a step : PACE ▪ It's five footsteps from the bedroom to the bathroom.
3 : the sound of a foot making a step — usually plural ▪ We could hear the approaching footsteps.
follow in someone's footsteps : to do the same things that another person has done before ▪ She followed in her father's footsteps by becoming a doctor.

foot•stool /ˈfʊtˌstuːl/ noun, pl -stools [count] : a low, small piece of furniture that you can put your feet on when you are sitting

footsy variant spelling of FOOTSIE foot•wear /ˈfʊtˌweə/ noun [noncount] : things (such as shoes and boots) that are worn on your feet ▪ sneakers, loafers, and other casual footwear foot•work /ˈfʊtˌwəːk/ noun [noncount]

1 : the activity of moving or walking from place to place ▪ The investigation required a lot of footwork.
2 : movement of the feet in a sport, dance, etc. ▪ He used quick footwork to dodge his opponent. ▪ The tango involves some fancy footwork.
3 : active and skillful movement or activity to achieve a goal ▪ He knows that getting enough votes for the proposal is going to require some fancy political footwork.

footy Australia spelling of FOOTIE

fop /ˈfɑːp/ noun, pl fops [count] old-fashioned + disapproving : a man who cares too much about how he looks or dresses ▪ He's an eccentric fop.
– fop•pish /ˈfɑːpɪʃ/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ foppish fashions

[1]for /ˈfoə, fə/ prep
1 a — used to indicate the place someone or something is going to or toward ▪ He just left for the office. ▪ We're heading for home. ▪ When's the next train for [=to] London? b — used to indicate the person or thing that something is sent or

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 61 SESS: 10 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:33:37 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-f

F

given to ▪ Are there any letters for me? ▪ This present is for you. ▪ She baked a cake for me.
2 a — used to indicate the thing that something is meant to be used with ▪ There's a separate slot for out-of-town mail. ▪ Are these the tires for this car? ▪ The scenery for the play is beautiful. ▪ This food is for the party. b — used to indicate the person or type of person who should use or have something ▪ The store sells suits for tall men. ▪ This is just right for me. ▪ That job is not for me. [=that job would not suit me] ▪ Who's the best/right person for the job?
3 a — used to indicate the use of something ▪ an instrument for measuring speed b — used to indicate why something is done ▪ She's dressing for dinner. ▪ Squirrels were storing nuts for the winter. ▪ He's making plans for retirement. ▪ studying for examinations ▪ They shouted the news for all to hear. [=so that all could hear it]
4 — used to indicate the person that a statement refers to ▪ Seeing her again must be difficult for him. — often followed by to + verb ▪ It's time for us to get busy. ▪ For him to confess would be painful. ▪ That's too heavy for you to carry. ▪ (chiefly US) I'd hate for you to miss the show. [=I'd hate it if you missed the show]
5 a : in order to help or cause (something) ▪ We are working for the good of humanity. ▪ This is for your own good. [=to help you] ▪ They believe that they are acting for the best. [=they are doing what is best] b : in order to get (something) ▪ For more information, call our main office. ▪ Everybody ran for safety/shelter when the shooting started.
6 : in favor of (someone or something) ▪ Which candidate are you for? ▪ You're either for [=with] me or you're against me. ▪ the case for and the case against disarmament ▪ I am all for [=completely in favor of] freedom of speech.
7 : because of (something) ▪ He shouted for joy. ▪ He wept for sorrow. ▪ He was decorated for bravery.
8 — used to indicate the person or thing toward which feelings, thoughts, etc., are directed ▪ He was hungry for praise. ▪ They are longing for home. ▪ I can't help feeling sorry for him. ▪ She has a taste for spicy food. [=she enjoys spicy food]
9 a — used to indicate an amount of time or space ▪ You can see for miles from the top of the hill. ▪ She won't be here for long. ▪ She won't get here for hours (yet). ▪ We're staying there for the summer. b — used to indicate the time when something happens or will happen ▪ The wedding is planned for next April. ▪ We've invited her for 8 p.m. c — used to indicate the time that a statement refers to ▪ That's all for now/today.
10 a : in place of (someone or something else) : instead of (someone or something else) ▪ Would you go to the store for me? ▪ Johnson is now batting for Smith. b : as a representative of (someone) ▪ His lawyer will act for him in this affair. ▪ I'm sure I speak for everyone here when I say "Well Done!" c : in order to help or serve (someone or something) ▪ What else can I do for you? ▪ Let me carry that for you. ▪ They fought and died for their country.
11 : in order to cure or treat (an illness, injury, disease, etc.) ▪ You should take something for that cough.
12 — used to indicate the amount or value of something ▪ a check for $100
13 — used to indicate the meaning of a word ▪ The French word for "good" is "bon."
14 — used to indicate the food that is eaten at a meal ▪ I ordered eggs for breakfast. ▪ What did you have for dinner?
15 : as an employee, member, player, etc., of (something) ▪ She works for the government. ▪ He plays for Denver.
16 chiefly US : with the name of (someone) ▪ He was named for [=after] his grandfather. [=he was given the same name as his grandfather]
17 — used to indicate the parts of a list or series ▪ For one thing, we have no money; for another, we have no time. ▪ People don't buy it because, for one thing, the price is too high.
18 — used to refer to something that is surprising or unexpected when compared to something else ▪ He's tall for his age. [=he is taller than you would expect someone his age to be] ▪ It's been very cool for May. ▪ That was a good score for him. = For him, that was a good score.
19 — used to indicate the relationship between numbers or amounts that are being compared ▪ For every good writer there are a dozen bad ones.
20 — used in various emphatic phrases ▪ I for one will vote for him. [=I will definitely vote for him] ▪ For the last time, will you stop that noise! ▪ I wish you'd be sensible for once.
for all 1 : in spite of (something) ▪ You don't convince me for all your clever arguments. ▪ For all his education, he's pretty dumb when it comes to home repair. 2 — used in phrases like for all someone knows and for all someone cares to say that someone does not know, care, etc., about something ▪ For all I know, she's still there. [=she may still be there, but I don't know] ▪ For all he cares, we might as well be dead! [=he doesn't care if we're dead or not] for ever (and ever) see EVER for real see [1]REAL if not for see [1]IF in for informal : certain to experience (something) ▪ She's in for a big surprise.
in for it or Brit for it informal : certain to be punished ▪ If his parents find out what he's done, he'll be in for it.
in order for see [1]ORDER not for (someone) to do something : not the right or duty of (someone) to do something ▪ It is not for you to say that she can't go. [=it is not appropriate for you to say she can't go; you cannot decide that she cannot go] once and for all see [1]ONCE that's/there's . . . for you informal — used say that something is very good, very disappointing, or very common ▪ They brought me the package on Christmas Day! Now that's real service for you! [=bringing the package on Christmas Day was excellent service] ▪ They didn't even send me a Christmas card! There's gratitude for you! [=they were very ungrateful not to send me a Christmas card] ▪ He stays up late, playing video games and listening to music. That's a teenager for you. [=that's how a typical teenager behaves]

[2]for conj, formal + literary : BECAUSE — used to introduce a statement that explains why a preceding statement is true ▪ They were certainly there, for I saw them.

fora plural of FORUM

[1]for•age /ˈfɔrɪʤ/ verb -ag•es; -aged; -ag•ing [no obj]
1 of an animal : to eat growing grass or other plants : GRAZE ▪ The cows were foraging in the pasture.
2 : to search for something (such as food or supplies) ▪ He had to forage for firewood. ▪ squirrels foraging for acorns – for•ag•er noun, pl -ers [count]

[2]forage noun [noncount] : grasses and other plants that are eaten by animals (such as cows) ▪ The grass serves as forage for livestock. ▪ a good forage crop for•ay /ˈfɔəˌeɪ/ noun, pl -ays [count]

1 : a sudden invasion or attack : RAID ▪ a foray into enemy territory
2 : an attempt to do something especially for the first time ▪ This book marks the novelist's first foray into nonfiction. [=his first attempt at writing nonfiction]
3 : a short journey ▪ We made a quick foray into town for some supplies.

[1]for•bear /fɔəˈbeə/ verb -bears; -bore /-ˈbɔə/; -borne /-ˈbɔən/; -bear•ing formal : to choose not to do (something that you could do) : to avoid doing or saying (something) [+ obj] He carefully forbore any mention of her name for fear of upsetting them. ▪ We decided to forbear provoking him any further. [no obj] We decided to forbear from provoking him any further. ▪ He forebore to mention her name.
– forbearing adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ He was very forbearing toward them. [=he treated them in a very patient way] for•bear•ance /fɔəˈberəns/ noun [noncount] formal : the quality of someone who is patient and able to deal with a difficult person or situation without becoming angry ▪ He showed great forbearance in his dealings with them.

[2]forbear variant spelling of FOREBEAR

for•bid /fəˈbɪd/ verb -bids; -bade /-ˈbæd, -ˈbeɪd/ or -bad /-ˈbæd/; -bid•den /-ˈbɪdn̩/; -bid•ding [+ obj]
1 : to order (someone) not to do something ▪ I forbid you to go! ▪ She was forbidden by her parents to marry him. ▪ She was forbidden from marrying him.
2 formal : to say that (something) is not allowed ▪ The museum forbids flash photography. ▪ The company's rules forbid dating among employees.
God/heaven forbid — used in speech to say that you hope a bad thing will not happen ▪ This is the number you should call if, God forbid, you should get into an accident. ▪ Heaven forbid that something bad should happen.

forbidden adj : not permitted or allowed ▪ Smoking is forbidden. ▪ forbidden foods ▪ a forbidden pleasure forbidden fruit noun, pl ~ fruits [count] : something that is attractive because it is not allowed ▪ For dieters, dessert becomes a/the forbidden fruit.

forbidding adj [more ~; most ~] : not friendly or appealing

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 62 SESS: 10 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:33:38 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-f

: having a frightening or threatening appearance ▪ a harsh and forbidding landscape ▪ a forbidding scowl – for•bid•ding•ly adv ▪ a forbiddingly harsh landscape ▪ He scowled forbiddingly.

[1]force /ˈfoəs/ noun, pl forc•es
1 [noncount] : physical strength, power, or effect ▪ The front of the car took the full force of the collision. ▪ instruments used to measure the force of the wind
2 [noncount] : power or violence used on a person or thing ▪ The police were accused of using excessive force when they made the arrest. ▪ We discourage the use of force. ▪ a show of force ▪ He used brute force to open the door. ▪ He took the purse from her by force. [=he used physical power to take her purse] ▪ He feels that this conflict can only be resolved by force of arms. [=by using weapons; by military action]
3 [noncount] : strength or power that is not physical ▪ I was impressed by the force of her personality. ▪ lending force to his arguments [=making his arguments more effective/persuasive] ▪ These regulations do not have the force of law. [=they do not have the power that laws have] ▪ She succeeded by/through sheer force of will. [=because she was so determined to succeed] ▪ Through/By force of circumstance(s) [=because of conditions that cannot be controlled], the company has had to lay off several hundred workers. ▪ Even after he retired, he still woke up early every day by/from force of habit. [=he woke up early every day because he was in the habit of doing so]
4 technical : a natural power or effect that is able to change the speed or direction of something [noncount] the force of gravity [count] gravitational/electromagnetic forces — see also CENTRIFUGAL FORCE
5 [count] : something (such as rain or wind) that occurs in nature and that can be very powerful — usually plural ▪ The cliff was gradually eroded by the forces of nature. ▪ natural forces — sometimes used figuratively ▪ She gets people to do whatever she wants: she's a force of nature. [=she's a very powerful person who cannot be easily controlled]
6 [count] a : a group of soldiers trained to fight in a war ▪ a force of 20,000 soldiers ▪ He belonged to an elite fighting force. ▪ The enemy forces had us surrounded. ▪ ground forces ▪ allied/rebel forces — see also AIR FORCE b [count] : a group of people who do a particular job or are available for a particular purpose ▪ our country's labor/work force ▪ The company has a very large sales force. ▪ security forces — see also TASK FORCE c the Force informal : POLICE FORCE ▪ After graduating from high school, he joined the Force. d the forces Brit : ARMED FORCES ▪ Will the new defense policy weaken the forces?
7 [count] : a person or group that has the power to do something or make something happen ▪ The organization has been a strong force for good. [=has done a lot of good things] ▪ He has been the driving/motivating force behind these changes. [=he has been the person who has caused these changes to occur] ▪ He has become a force to be reckoned with [=a person who has power and influence] in politics.
8 — used to describe the strength of a wind ▪ damage caused by a force 9 gale ▪ The house was flattened by hurricane-force winds. ▪ Storm-force winds [=very strong winds] are expected tonight.
9 [count] baseball : FORCE-OUT ▪ a force at second base in force 1 : in large numbers ▪ Picnickers were out in force today. [=there were many picnickers out today] 2 of a law, rule, etc. : actually working or operating ▪ The ban remains in force. [=in effect] ▪ The resolution remains in full force.
into force : into the condition of actually working or operating ▪ The law came/went into force [=into effect] last year. ▪ The regulations have not yet been put/brought into force.
join forces also combine forces : to begin working together in order to achieve something ▪ We must all join forces to prevent violence. — often + with ▪ The company has joined forces with local environmental groups.
moving force see MOVING
– see also TOUR DE FORCE

[2]force verb forces; forced; forc•ing [+ obj]
1 : to make (someone) do something that he or she does not want to do ▪ They forced us to work long hours without pay. ▪ He was forced to resign from office. = He was forced out of office. ▪ I really have to force myself [=to make a great effort] to get up and go to work these days.
2 a : to make it necessary for (someone) to do something ▪ The flooding forced hundreds of residents to flee their homes. ▪ After seeing the evidence, I was forced to admit my error. ▪ I am forced to conclude that more funding will be necessary. ▪ The pilot was forced to land when one of the plane's engines caught fire. b : to make (something) necessary ▪ The scandal forced his resignation. ▪ Lack of time may eventually force a compromise. c : to cause the occurrence of (something that other people do not want to happen) ▪ They are trying to force a vote on this issue.
3 a : to move (someone or something) by physical effort ▪ The runner was forced out of bounds. ▪ Their car was forced off the road. ▪ After hours of fighting, they were able to force back the enemy. ▪ The pressure forces the water to the surface. ▪ A pump forces air into the chamber. ▪ The medicine tasted awful, but I managed to force it down. [=to swallow it by making an effort] ▪ If the key doesn't fit the lock, don't force it. [=don't use too much physical strength to make the key go into the lock] b : to cause (something) to open by using physical effort or violence ▪ They forced (open) the door. ▪ It was clear that the door/lock had been forced.
4 : to produce (something, such as a smile) by making an effort ▪ She forced a smile.
5 baseball : to cause (a runner) to be put out by means of a force-out ▪ He was forced (out) at second base.
force on/upon [phrasal verb] force (someone or something) on/upon (someone) : to cause (someone or something that is not wanted) to be accepted by (someone) ▪ They resent having these decisions forced on them. ▪ I don't like the way he keeps forcing himself on us. [=the way he keeps coming to be with us when we do not want to be with him] force someone's hand : to make it necessary for someone to do something ▪ She'd intended to postpone her decision, but events forced her hand.
force (something) down someone's throat see THROAT force the issue see [1]ISSUE force your way : to move ahead by pushing and making people move out of your way ▪ They forced their way into the room. ▪ He forced his way through the crowd.

forced /ˈfoəst/ adj
1 a : caused by necessity ▪ The plane had engine problems and had to make a forced landing in a field. [=the plane was forced to land in a field] b : obtained by using power or force ▪ a forced confession
2 : done with effort : not natural or sincere ▪ forced laughter forced labor noun [noncount]

1 : very hard physical work that someone is forced to do ▪ The prisoners endured years of forced labor.
2 : a group of people who are made to work very hard for no money; also : a system that allows this ▪ The railroad was built with/by forced labor.

force–feed verb -feeds; -fed; -feed•ing [+ obj]
1 : to make (a person or animal) eat by physically putting food down the throat
2 : to force (someone) to read, listen to, or learn (something) ▪ force-feed students the classics = force-feed the classics to students force field noun, pl ~ fields [count] chiefly US : an area in which a particular force (such as magnetism) exists and can be felt — often used figuratively ▪ No one could break through the protective force field legislators put up around the proposed bill.

force•ful /ˈfoəsfəl/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : having a strong and confident quality ▪ He has a very forceful personality. ▪ She's a confident and forceful leader.
2 : expressed in a way that is effective and that influences people's thoughts and ideas ▪ They have made a forceful argument in favor of changing the system.
3 : done with military or physical force ▪ The government has threatened to use more forceful measures if necessary.
– force•ful•ly adv ▪ speaking forcefully – force•ful•ness noun [noncount] ▪ the forcefulness of her argument/personality force–out /ˈfoəsˌaʊt/ noun, pl -outs [count] baseball : a play in which a runner who is forced to run to the next base is put out when the player who has the ball touches the base ▪ a force-out at second base — called also force, force play

for•ceps /ˈfoəˌsɛps/ noun, pl forceps [count] : a medical tool that is used for grasping or holding things ▪ He removed the splinter with a (pair of) forceps. — usually plural ▪ He removed the splinter with forceps. ▪ a forceps delivery/birth [=a birth/delivery in which forceps are used to help deliver the baby]

forc•i•ble /ˈfoəsəbəl/ adj : made or done by physical force or violence ▪ the forcible removal of the rioters ▪ (chiefly US)

F

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 63 SESS: 48 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:33:38 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-f

The door showed signs of forcible entry. [=the door looked as if someone had forced it open]
– forc•i•bly /ˈfoəsəbli/ adv ▪ The rioters were forcibly removed from the scene.

[1]ford /ˈfoəd/ verb fords; ford•ed; ford•ing [+ obj] : to cross (an area of water) by walking or riding across a shallow part ▪ ford a river/stream
– ford•able /ˈfoədəbəl/ adj ▪ a fordable river

[2]ford noun, pl fords [count] : a shallow part of a river, stream, etc., that may be crossed by walking or driving across it

[1]fore /ˈfoə/ noun
to the fore : in or into a place of importance ▪ The recent publicity has brought the issue to the fore. [=has brought a great deal of attention to the issue] ▪ The issue has come to the fore.

[2]fore adv : toward or at the front part of a boat, ship, or airplane ▪ The plane's exits are located fore and aft. — compare [1]AFT

[3]fore adj : located at the front of a boat, ship, or airplane ▪ the fore and aft cabins/exits

fore- combining form
1 : earlier ▪ *fore*see
2 a : located at the front ▪ the dog's *fore*leg b : front or lower part of (something specified) ▪ She bruised her *fore*arm.

[1]fore•arm /ˈfoəˌɑəm/ noun, pl -arms [count] : the part of the arm between the elbow and the wrist — see picture at HUMAN

[2]forearm /foəˈɑəm/ verb -arms; -armed; -arm•ing forewarned is forearmed see FOREWARN

fore•bear also for•bear /ˈfoəˌbeə/ noun, pl -bears [count] formal : a member of your family in the past : ANCESTOR ▪ His forebears fought in the American Civil War.

fore•bod•ing /foəˈboʊdɪŋ/ noun, pl -ings : a feeling that something bad is going to happen [noncount] She was filled with a sense of foreboding. [count] It seems that her forebodings were justified.

[1]fore•cast /ˈfoəˌkæst, Brit ˈfɔːˌkɑːst/ verb -casts; -cast also -cast•ed; -cast•ing [+ obj] : to say that (something) will happen in the future : to predict (something, such as weather) after looking at the information that is available ▪ They're forecasting rain for this weekend. ▪ The company is forecasting reduced profits. ▪ Experts forecast that the economy will slow in the coming months.
– fore•cast•er noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ weather forecasters ▪ economic forecasters

[2]forecast noun, pl -casts [count] : a statement about what you think is going to happen in the future ▪ weather forecasts ▪ economic forecasts

fore•cas•tle /ˈfoʊksəl/ noun, pl -cas•tles [count] technical : the front part of the upper deck of a ship where the sailors usually live fore•close /foəˈkloʊz/ verb -clos•es; -closed; -clos•ing : to take back property because the money owed for the property has not been paid [no obj] They've been unable to make their mortgage payments, and the bank has threatened to foreclose. — often + on ▪ The bank has threatened to foreclose on their property/mortgage. [+ obj] The bank has threatened to foreclose their mortgage.

– fore•clo•sure /foəˈkloʊʒə/ noun, pl -sures [count, noncount]

fore•court /ˈfoəˌkoət/ noun, pl -courts [count]
1 : the area near the net in tennis
2 chiefly Brit : a large, flat, open area in front of a building fore•doomed /foəˈduːmd/ adj, formal : certain to fail ▪ Their efforts were foredoomed to failure.

fore•fa•ther /ˈfoəˌfɑːðə/ noun, pl -thers [count]
1 : a person (especially a man) who was in your family in past times : ANCESTOR — usually plural ▪ The town is named after one of his forefathers.
2 : a person (especially a man) from an earlier time who helped to create or start something modern or important — usually plural ▪ our country's forefathers

fore• n•ger /ˈfoəˌfɪŋgə/ noun, pl -gers [count] : the finger that is next to the thumb — called also index finger; see picture at HUMAN fore•foot /ˈfoəˌfʊt/ noun, pl -feet /-ˌfiːt/ [count] : either one of the front feet of a four-footed animal fore•front /ˈfoəˌfrʌnt/ noun, pl -fronts [count] : the most important part or position — usually singular ▪ Their company is at/in the forefront of research in this area. [=their company is a leader in research in this area] ▪ The discussion has brought the issue of health care to the forefront. [=has made the issue very important or well-known]

foregather variant spelling of FORGATHER

forego variant spelling of FORGO

fore•go•ing /foəˈgowɪŋ/ adj, formal : already mentioned ▪ The foregoing [=preceding, above] examples illustrate my point.
the foregoing formal : the things that have just been mentioned ▪ It should be clear from the foregoing that a new system is needed.

fore•gone /ˈfoəˌgɑːn/ adj
a foregone conclusion : something in the future that is certain to happen or be true ▪ It was a foregone conclusion that he would take over the business after his father retired. ▪ Most people felt that the outcome of the trial was a foregone conclusion. [=they felt sure that the trial would end in a certain way]

[1]fore•ground /ˈfoəˌgraʊnd/ noun, pl -grounds
1 [count] : the part of a scene or picture that is nearest to and in front of the viewer — usually singular ▪ Objects in the foreground seem larger than those in the background.
2 [singular] : an important position ▪ We want the issue to be in the foreground.

[2]fore•ground verb -grounds; -ground•ed; -ground•ing [+ obj] : to make (something) more important ▪ Public discussion has foregrounded the issue of health care.

fore•hand /ˈfoəˌhænd/ noun, pl -hands [count] sports : a way of hitting a ball in tennis and similar games in which the palm of the hand holding the racket is turned in the direction of the ball ▪ She hit a forehand across the court. — often used before another noun ▪ a forehand stroke/shot — compare BACKHAND fore•head /ˈfoəˌhɛd, ˈfɑrəd/ noun, pl -heads [count] : the part of the face above the eyes — see picture at FACE

for•eign /ˈforən/ adj
1 : located outside a particular place or country and especially outside your own country ▪ They've visited several foreign countries. ▪ a foreign correspondent [=a journalist who reports from a foreign country]
2 : coming from or belonging to a different place or country ▪ We don't get many foreign visitors. ▪ Have you studied any foreign languages? ▪ She has a foreign accent. ▪ a foreign-born resident [=a resident who was born in a foreign country]
3 : relating to or dealing with other nations ▪ matters of foreign policy ▪ the ministry of foreign affairs ▪ foreign aid/trade — see also FOREIGN OFFICE
4 : coming from outside : not normally found in the place or part where it is located ▪ Dust and other foreign bodies can irritate the eyes. ▪ The sample contained a foreign object.
5 [more ~; most ~] : not known or familiar ▪ a foreign concept — often + to ▪ That concept is completely foreign to me. ▪ That is foreign to my experience.
– for•eign•ness /ˈforənnəs/ noun [noncount] ▪ the foreignness of this concept for•eign•er /ˈforənə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a person who is from a country that is not your own foreign exchange noun [noncount] finance

1 : the process by which people in different countries pay each other by exchanging different types of money
2 : money from foreign countries ▪ Our country has to export more in order to earn more foreign exchange.

Foreign Legion noun
the Foreign Legion : a part of the French Army that is made up of soldiers who are not French

Foreign Office noun
the Foreign Office : a government department especially in Great Britain that deals with foreign affairs ✧ The official name of the British Foreign Office is now the Foreign and Commonwealth Office.

Foreign Secretary noun, pl ~ -taries [count] Brit : the official in Great Britain and other countries who is in charge of how the country relates to and deals with foreign countries

Foreign Service noun
the Foreign Service : a part of the U.S. State Department that hires people (such as diplomats) to represent the government in foreign countries fore•know•ledge /ˌfoəˈnɑːlɪʤ/ noun [noncount] formal : knowledge of something before it happens or exists ▪ He denied any foreknowledge of the crime.

fore•leg /ˈfoəˌleg/ noun, pl -legs [count] : a front leg of an animal

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 64 SESS: 49 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:33:39 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-f

fore•lock /ˈfoəˌlɑːk/ noun, pl -locks [count] : a piece of hair growing from the front of the head tug/touch your forelock Brit, disapproving : to be too concerned with pleasing someone who you think is powerful or important fore•man /ˈfoəmən/ noun, pl -men /-mən/ [count]

1 : the member of a jury who is in charge of a group of workers ✧ Foreman can refer to women as well as men, but it is more commonly used for men.

[1]fore•most /ˈfoəˌmoʊst/ adj : most important ▪ He is the foremost [=leading] authority/scholar on the American Civil War period. ▪ Safety is their foremost [=primary] concern.

[2]foremost adv
1 : in the first or most important position ▪ The building's designers put safety foremost. [=(more commonly) first]
2 : at the most basic or important level ▪ Though he has many other interests, he is foremost [=primarily] an authority on the American Civil War period.
first and foremost see [2]FIRST fore•name /ˈfoəˌneɪm/ noun, pl -names [count] chiefly Brit, formal : FIRST NAME fo•ren•sic /fəˈrɛnsɪk/ adj, law

1 : relating to the use of scientific knowledge or methods in solving crimes ▪ forensic medicine ▪ forensic science/experts
2 somewhat formal : relating to, used in, or suitable to a court of law ▪ a lawyer's forensic skills [=a lawyer's skills at arguing a case in a court of law]

fo•ren•sics /fəˈrɛnsɪks/ noun [noncount]
1 : the study or science of solving crimes by using scientific knowledge or methods ▪ a career in forensics
2 : the results of a scientific test done to help solve a crime ▪ The forensics showed he was at the scene of the crime.

fore•play /ˈfoəˌpleɪ/ noun [noncount] : sexual actions (such as kissing and touching) that people do with each other before they have sex fore•run•ner /ˈfoəˌrʌnə/ noun, pl -ners [count]

1 : someone or something that comes before another ▪ a simple machine that was the forerunner of today's computers
2 : a sign of something that is going to happen ▪ I had that strange feeling that's the forerunner of a cold.

fore•see /foəˈsiː/ verb -sees; -saw /-ˈsɑː/; -seen /-ˈsiːn/; -see•ing [+ obj] somewhat formal : to see or become aware of (something that has not yet happened) ▪ We couldn't have foreseen the consequences of our actions. ▪ He foresees a day when all war will cease. ▪ She foresaw the company's potential and invested early on.
– fore•see•able /foəˈsiːjəbəl/ adj ▪ a foreseeable consequence ▪ We have no plans to sell our house in/for the foreseeable future. [=soon] fore•shad•ow /foəˈʃædoʊ/ verb -shad•ows; -shad•owed; -shad•ow•ing [+ obj] : to give a suggestion of (something that has not yet happened) ▪ Her early interest in airplanes foreshadowed her later career as a pilot. ▪ The hero's predicament is foreshadowed in the first chapter.

– foreshadowing noun, pl -ings [count, noncount] ▪ The first chapter contains foreshadowings of what will happen later.

fore•short•en /foəˈʃoətn̩/ verb -ens; -ened; -en•ing [+ obj]
1 : to cause (something) to appear shorter than it really is because it is in the foreground of a drawing, painting, etc. ▪ The parts that extend towards the viewer are foreshortened.
2 somewhat formal : to make (something) shorter ▪ His athletic career was foreshortened [=(more commonly) shortened, cut short] by a knee injury.

fore•sight /ˈfoəˌsaɪt/ noun [noncount] : the ability to see what will or might happen in the future ▪ They had the foresight to invest the money wisely. ▪ His career choice shows a lack of foresight.
– fore•sight•ed /ˈfoəˌsaɪtəd/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ foresighted investors/investments – fore•sight•ed•ness noun [noncount]

fore•skin /ˈfoəˌskɪn/ noun, pl -skins [count] : a fold of skin that covers the end of the penis

for•est /ˈforəst/ noun, pl -ests : a thick growth of trees and bushes that covers a large area [count] a vast forest [noncount] Fires destroyed acres of forest. — often used before another noun ▪ forest fires ▪ the forest floor — often used figuratively ▪ The candidate was surrounded by a forest of microphones. — see color picture on page C7; see also RAIN FOREST not see the forest for the trees see TREE

fore•stall /foəˈstɑːl/ verb -stalls; -stalled; -stall•ing [+ obj]
1 : to stop (something) from happening or to cause (something) to happen at a later time ▪ Negotiations failed to forestall the conflict. ▪ His comments were meant to forestall criticism of his proposal.
2 : to act before (someone else) in order to prevent something ▪ He forestalled critics by offering a defense of the project.

for•est•ed /ˈforəstəd/ adj [more ~; most ~] : covered or filled with trees ▪ a heavily forested [=wooded] area for•est•er /ˈforəstə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a person whose job is to take care of forests by planting trees, cutting down trees, etc.

forest green noun [noncount] chiefly US : a dark green — see color picture on page C2

forest ranger noun, pl ~ -ers [count] US : RANGER 1

for•est•ry /ˈforəstri/ noun [noncount] : the science and practice of caring for forests ▪ She studied forestry in college.

fore•taste /ˈfoəˌteɪst/ noun, pl -tastes [count] somewhat formal : a small or short experience of something that will not be fully experienced until later ▪ The sudden cold snap gave us a foretaste [=taste] of winter. ▪ These layoffs are only a foretaste of what's to come.

fore•tell /foəˈtɛl/ verb -tells; -told /-ˈtoʊld/; -tell•ing [+ obj] formal + literary : to describe (something) before it happens : PREDICT ▪ We cannot foretell the future. ▪ Economists foretold impending disaster.

fore•thought /ˈfoəˌθɑːt/ noun [noncount] : careful thinking or planning about the future ▪ Her decision showed a lack of forethought. ▪ With a little forethought, you can save yourself a lot of work later on.

[1]for•ev•er /fəˈrɛvə/ adv
1 a : for an endless time : for all time ▪ He promised he'd love her forever. [=eternally] ▪ She was convinced that she would live forever. b : for a very long time ▪ I've been waiting forever for the doctor.
2 : at all times : CONSTANTLY ▪ a dog that was forever chasing cars ▪ He's forever asking silly questions.
for ever (and ever) see EVER

[2]forever noun [noncount] : an extremely long time : a time that seems to last forever ▪ After what seemed like forever, I was able to see the doctor. ▪ It took forever to find his keys.

fore•warn /foəˈwoən/ verb -warns; -warned; -warn•ing [+ obj] : to warn (someone) before something happens — usually used as (be) forewarned ▪ They had been forewarned of the danger. ▪ Be forewarned: there will be a test on Monday. ✧ The expression forewarned is forearmed means that when you are warned about something, you are prepared to deal with it.

fore•wo•man /ˈfoəˌwʊmən/ noun, pl -wo•men /-ˌwɪmən/ [count] : a woman who is the leader of a jury

fore•word /ˈfoəˌwəd/ noun, pl -words [count] : a section at the beginning of a book that introduces the book and is usually written by someone other than the book's author

[1]for•feit /ˈfoəfət/ verb -feits; -feit•ed; -feit•ing : to lose or give up (something) as a punishment or because of a rule or law [+ obj] He forfeited his right to a trial by jury. ▪ If the money is not claimed within six months, it will be forfeited to the town. [=the owner of the money will lose any right to it] ▪ They didn't have enough players, so they ended up having to forfeit the game (to the other team). [no obj] They didn't have enough players, so they ended up having to forfeit.

[2]forfeit noun, pl -feits : something that is lost or given up as punishment or because of a rule or law [count] — usually singular ▪ The judge declared the property a forfeit. ▪ They were required to pay a forfeit. [noncount] We won the game by forfeit. [=we won because the other team forfeited the game]

[3]forfeit adj, not used before a noun, formal : given up or taken away as a punishment or because of a rule or law ▪ If the money is not claimed within six months, it will be forfeit to the town. [=the owner of the money will lose any right to it, and it will be given to the town]

for•fei•ture /ˈfoəfəʧə/ noun, pl -tures [count, noncount] law : the act of giving up something as punishment or because of a rule or law : the act of forfeiting something ▪ forfeiture of assets ▪ money subject to forfeiture for•gath•er or fore•gath•er /foəˈgæðə/ verb -ers; -ered; -ering [no obj] formal : to come together as a group : GATH-

F

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 65 SESS: 10 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:33:39 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-f

ER ▪ Members of the organization are planning to forgather in the city for their annual meeting.

forgave past tense of FORGIVE

[1]forge /ˈfoəʤ/ verb forg•es; forged; forg•ing [+ obj]
1 : to form something by heating and shaping metal ▪ forging hooks out of pieces of iron = forging pieces of iron into hooks
2 : to form or create (something, such as an agreement or relationship) through great effort ▪ The two countries have forged a strong alliance. ▪ They were able to forge a peaceful relationship.
3 : to make or copy (something, such as a document or signature) falsely in order to deceive someone ▪ forge a check ▪ forge a signature ▪ a forged passport
– compare [3]FORGE
– forg•er noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ a check forger ▪ a professional art forger

[2]forge noun, pl forges [count] : a place where objects are made by heating and shaping metal

[3]forge verb forges; forged; forg•ing [no obj]
1 : to move forward slowly and steadily ▪ The hikers forged through the snow. — usually + ahead ▪ The ship forged ahead through heavy seas.
2 : to move with a sudden increase of speed and power ▪ On the last lap, he forged into the lead. — often + ahead ▪ The company has forged ahead of its competitors.
– compare [1]FORGE

forg•ery /ˈfoəʤəri/ noun, pl -er•ies
1 [noncount] : the crime of falsely making or copying a document in order to deceive people ▪ check forgery
2 [count] : something that is falsely made or copied in order to deceive people : something that is forged ▪ These paintings are forgeries. [=fakes]

for•get /fəˈgɛt/ verb -gets; -got /-ˈgɑːt/; -got•ten /-ˈgɑːtn̩/ or -got; -get•ting
1 : to be unable to think of or remember (something) [+ obj] He forgot the address. ▪ I keep forgetting her name. ▪ The pain and misery are impossible to forget. ▪ She forgot how to set up the tent. ▪ I'll never forget the first time we met. ▪ Don't forget that you have to turn off the light when you leave. — often followed by to + verb ▪ I forgot to pay the bill. [no obj] "Did you pay the bill?" "I forgot." — often + about ▪ I forgot (all) about paying the bill.
2 [+ obj] : to fail to remember to bring or take (something) ▪ When he got to the restaurant he realized that he had forgotten his wallet. [=he had left his wallet at home]
3 a or forget about [+ obj] : to stop thinking or caring about (someone) ▪ He was once a famous actor, but now most people have forgotten (about) him. ▪ You shouldn't forget (about) your old friends. ▪ He's now a forgotten hero. ▪ He's a forgotten man in the world of politics. b or forget about [+ obj] : to stop thinking or caring about (something) on purpose ▪ We need to forget (about) our differences and learn to get along. ▪ "I'm sorry I'm late." "That's OK. Forget (about) it." [=don't worry about it] ▪ If you're hoping to hear from him soon, forget it, it's not going to happen. ▪ Forget about finding a way to escape—there's no way out of here. ▪ "Have you seen my keys?" "No. Did you leave them in your other jacket?" "No, I thought . . . Oh, forget it, here they are." c [no obj] : to stop remembering or caring about something ▪ We've had our differences in the past, but now it's time to forgive and forget.
forget yourself : to lose control of your emotions because of anger, excitement, etc. : to behave in a way that is not proper or acceptable ▪ She forgot herself and said some things that she later regretted.

for•get•ful /fəˈgɛtfəl/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : tending to forget things : forgetting things often or easily ▪ He became forgetful in his old age.
2 — used to say that someone has forgotten something ▪ She has been forgetful of her duties. [=she has forgotten/neglected her duties]
– for•get•ful•ly adv ▪ He forgetfully left the lights on. – for•get•ful•ness noun [noncount] ▪ His forgetfulness grew worse in his old age.

for•get–me–not /fəˈgɛtmiˌnɑːt/ noun, pl -nots [count] : a type of small plant that has bright blue flowers for•get•ta•ble /fəˈgɛtəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : likely to be forgotten : not worth remembering ▪ It was an extremely forgettable performance. — opposite UNFORGETTABLE for•giv•able /fəˈgɪvəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : able to be forgiven : deserving forgiveness ▪ a forgivable error/mistake ▪ Her actions in this case are completely forgivable. [=excusable] — opposite UNFORGIVABLE

– for•giv•ably /fəˈgɪvəbli/ adv

for•give /fəˈgɪv/ verb -gives; -gave /-ˈgeɪv/; -giv•en /-ˈgɪvən/; -giv•ing
1 : to stop feeling anger toward (someone who has done something wrong) : to stop blaming (someone) [+ obj] forgive your enemies ▪ Can you ever forgive me for being so selfish? ▪ I've never forgiven myself for the way I treated her. ▪ We must ask God to forgive us for our sins. ▪ He can be forgiven for feeling this way. [=it is understandable that he feels this way; he should not be blamed for feeling this way] [no obj] When he feels he's been insulted, he finds it hard to forgive and forget.
2 [+ obj] : to stop feeling anger about (something) : to forgive someone for (something wrong) ▪ He finds it hard to forgive an insult. ▪ We must ask God to forgive our sins.
3 [+ obj] : to stop requiring payment of (money that is owed) ▪ The government has agreed to forgive some of the debt.
forgive me — used in speech as a polite way of starting to say something that may seem rude or unpleasant ▪ Forgive me (for saying so), but I don't think you understood my point. ▪ Forgive me, but something has come up and I have to leave right away.
– for•giv•er noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ a forgiver of sins for•give•ness /fəˈgɪvnəs/ noun [noncount]

1 : the act of forgiving someone or something ▪ I ask (for) your forgiveness. [=I ask you to forgive me] ▪ forgiveness of our sins
2 : the attitude of someone who is willing to forgive other people ▪ She treats us with kindness and forgiveness.

forgiving adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : able or willing to forgive someone or something ▪ a person with a forgiving nature — sometimes + of ▪ As a teacher, she was forgiving of her students' mistakes.
2 — used to describe something that produces good results even when it is not used perfectly ▪ The tennis racket is designed to be forgiving. [=designed to produce good shots even when the ball is not hit perfectly] — opposite UNFORGIVING for•go or fore•go /foəˈgoʊ/ verb -goes; -went /-ˈwɛnt/; -gone /-ˈgɑːn/; -go•ing [+ obj] : to give up the use or enjoyment of (something) ▪ forgo an opportunity ▪ She is planning to forgo her right to a trial and simply plead guilty. ✧ The past tense forwent is now rare or formal.

forgot past tense of FORGET forgotten past participle of FORGET for in•stance /fəˈrɪnstəns/ noun, pl ~ -stanc•es [count] US, informal : EXAMPLE ▪ Let me give you a for instance. — see also for instance at INSTANCE

[1]fork /ˈfoək/ noun, pl forks [count]
1 a : a small tool with two or more pointed parts (called prongs or tines) used for picking up and eating food ▪ a salad fork — see picture at PLACE SETTING b : a garden tool with two or more prongs used for lifting and digging soil — see also PITCHFORK
2 a : a place where something (such as a road or river) divides into two parts ▪ a fork in the road b : either one of the parts that a road, river, etc., divides into ▪ take the left fork ▪ the north fork of the river
3 : a part or tool that divides into two parts ▪ the front fork of a bicycle — see also TUNING FORK

[2]fork verb forks; forked; fork•ing
1 [no obj] of a road, river, etc. : to divide into two parts ▪ The road forks to the north and south.
2 [+ obj] informal : to pay or give (money) — usually + over or out ▪ He had to fork over half his paycheck. ▪ The company forked out thousands of dollars to repair the damage.
3 [+ obj] : to lift or throw (something) with a fork ▪ They forked the hay into the loft.

forked /ˈfoəkt/ adj : divided into two parts at one end : shaped like the letter Y ▪ a bird with a deeply forked tail ▪ forked lightning ▪ the forked tongue of a snake speak/talk with (a) forked tongue : to speak in a dishonest way that is meant to deceive people ▪ His colleagues accused him of speaking with a forked tongue.

fork•ful /ˈfoəkˌfʊl/ noun, pl -fuls [count] : the amount held by a fork ▪ a forkful of mashed potatoes fork•lift /ˈfoəkˌlɪft/ noun, pl -lifts [count] : a machine that is used for lifting and moving heavy objects — called also forklift truck; see picture at CONSTRUCTION for•lorn /fəˈloən/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : sad and lonely ▪ a forlorn old widow

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 66 SESS: 10 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:33:40 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-f

2 : empty and in poor condition ▪ a forlorn landscape ▪ a forlorn abandoned factory
3 : not having much chance of success : nearly hopeless ▪ a forlorn cause/hope ▪ He led a forlorn [=desperate] attack against the enemy.
– for•lorn•ly adv ▪ She wandered forlornly through the deserted neighborhood.

[1]form /ˈfoəm/ noun, pl forms
1 [count] a : a type or kind of something ▪ Coal is a form of carbon. ▪ a rare/deadly form of cancer ▪ a popular form of entertainment ▪ different forms of life = different life forms [=different types of living beings] ▪ an ancient form of music ▪ an art form b : one of several or many different ways in which something is seen, experienced, or produced ▪ The medicine can be taken in the form of a liquid or pill. = The medicine can be taken in pill or liquid form. ▪ His essays are now available in book form. [=his essays have been published in a book] ▪ the written/spoken form of the language ▪ Antisocial behavior can take many forms. [=there are many different types of antisocial behavior] ▪ Most of his wealth is in the form of stocks. [=most of his wealth consists of stocks]
2 a : the shape of something [count] the building's massive form [noncount] a style of architecture that emphasizes form over function b [count] : something that can be seen only as a shape or outline ▪ The shadowy forms of several people were visible through the smoke. c [count] : bodily shape : FIGURE ▪ the human/female form
3 [count] : a document with blank spaces for filling in information ▪ a tax form ▪ an application form ▪ fill out a form
4 [noncount] somewhat old-fashioned : a way of behaving that is judged as proper or improper ▪ It's considered bad/poor form to arrive so early. = It's not considered good form to arrive so early. [=it is not proper to arrive so early]
5 [noncount] a : a manner or style of performing ▪ an athlete with good form ▪ She would be a better swimmer/golfer if she improved her form. b : condition for performing ▪ an athlete in top form [=shape] c — used to describe how well or badly someone is performing ▪ She was really in great form at the party, telling jokes and dancing. ▪ He was at the top of his form. [=he was performing extremely well] ▪ (chiefly Brit) He's been playing poorly in recent months, but now he's back on form. [=now he's playing well again] ▪ (chiefly Brit) She was a little off form.
6 : the way in which the parts of a piece of writing or music or of a work of art are arranged [noncount] the form and content of a poem/essay [count] The sonnet is a poetical form. ▪ symphonic forms
7 [count] : any one of the different ways in which a word may be written or spoken ▪ the plural/possessive form of a noun ▪ the inflected forms of a verb — see also COMBINING FORM
8 [noncount] : a grade in a British secondary school or in some American private schools ▪ students in the sixth form as a matter of form — used to say that something is done because it is polite, usual, or required ▪ He was asked to participate only as a matter of form.
form of address see [2]ADDRESS in any way, shape, or form see [1]WAY take form : to begin to develop : to start to exist or be seen ▪ a political movement that first took form in the 1960s ▪ The new stadium is gradually taking form. [=being built] true to form ✧ Something or someone that is (or runs, holds, etc.) true to form behaves or proceeds in the usual and expected way. ▪ Her latest movie is/runs true to form. ▪ True to form, he was 20 minutes late for the meeting.

[2]form verb forms; formed; form•ing
1 [+ obj] : to cause (something) to have a particular shape or form ▪ She formed [=made] the dough into balls.
2 [+ obj] : to get, create, or develop (something) over a period of time ▪ form a habit ▪ The friendship that they formed in school lasted a lifetime. ▪ form an opinion ▪ Her early experiences played an important role in forming her personality. ▪ His ideas were not yet fully formed.
3 a : to begin to exist or to be seen [no obj] Fog often forms [=develops] in this valley. ▪ The drug can help prevent blood clots from forming. ▪ Beads of sweat formed on his forehead. ▪ A plan was gradually forming in my mind. [+ obj] A plan was gradually forming itself in my mind. b [no obj] : to gather together in a group ▪ An angry crowd was forming in the streets. ▪ insects forming into swarms
4 [+ obj] : to make or create (something) ▪ Water vapor condenses to form clouds. ▪ The two traditions have merged to form a new culture. ▪ A thin layer of plastic forms a protective coating over the surface. ▪ They have formed a council to investigate the incident. ▪ form a government/company/coalition/partnership ▪ Mix the wet and dry ingredients until they form a paste. ▪ Our footprints formed a lovely pattern in the wet sand.
5 [linking verb] : to be something ▪ one of several products that form [=make up, constitute] the foundation/basis of the company's success ▪ These principles form [=are] the essence of his philosophy. ▪ These books form the backbone of his collection.
6 [+ obj] : to be arranged in (a shape) ▪ The chairs formed a semicircle. : to move or be moved into (a shape) ▪ a substance capable of forming different shapes ▪ The dancers formed a line. = The dancers formed themselves into a line.

[1]for•mal /ˈfoəməl/ adj
1 [more ~; most ~] : requiring or using serious and proper clothes and manners ▪ We attended a formal dinner. ▪ a formal occasion/event ▪ They are formal with people they don't know well.; also : suitable for a formal occasion ▪ a formal dress ▪ wearing formal clothes — opposite INFORMAL
2 [more ~; most ~] of language : suitable for serious or official speech and writing ▪ He spoke to them in formal Spanish. ▪ a formal word — opposite INFORMAL
3 a : made or done in an official and usually public way ▪ He wrote up a formal statement of his political beliefs. ▪ She received formal recognition for her volunteer work. ▪ He has made a formal announcement of his candidacy. b : done in a proper way according to the law ▪ a formal contract ▪ They seem to be interested in buying the house, but they haven't yet made a formal offer.
4 : arranged in a very orderly and regular way ▪ a formal garden — opposite INFORMAL
5 [more ~; most ~] : showing great concern for behaving in a proper and serious way ▪ He has a very stiff and formal manner.
6 : received in a school ▪ His formal education ended when he dropped out of high school. ▪ He lacks formal schooling.
7 : relating to the form of something (such as a piece of writing) rather than the content ▪ the formal aspects of a poem
– for•mal•ly adv ▪ dressed formally ▪ They behave very formally with people they don't know well. ▪ He formally announced his candidacy.

[2]formal noun, pl -mals [count] US : a social gathering (such as a dance) that requires formal dress and manners : a formal event for•mal•de•hyde /foəˈmældəˌhaɪd/ noun [noncount] chemistry : a chemical that is used to prevent decay in the dead bodies of people and animals for•mal•ism /ˈfoəməˌlɪzəm/ noun [noncount] : a method, style, way of thinking, etc., that shows very careful attention to traditional forms and rules ▪ artistic/musical formalism

– for•mal•ist /ˈfoəməlɪst/ noun, pl -ists [count] – for•mal•ist or for•mal•is•tic /ˌfoəməˈlɪstɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ formalist notions about art for•mal•i•ty /foəˈmæləti/ noun, pl -ties

1 : a formal quality [noncount] Her use of old-fashioned language lends an air of formality to her writing. ▪ He failed to appreciate the formality of the occasion. [singular] a formality of expression
2 [count] : something that is required or usual but that has little true meaning or importance ▪ They haven't approved the loan yet, but that's just a mere/pure formality.
3 [count] : a formal part, activity, etc. — usually plural ▪ the formalities of courtship ▪ Let's skip the formalities and get right down to business.

for•mal•ize also Brit for•mal•ise /ˈfoəməˌlaɪz/ verb -iz•es; -ized; -iz•ing [+ obj] : to make (something) formal : to give proper or official form to (something) ▪ The company has formalized its hiring practices. ▪ Congress formalized the policy by making it law.
– for•mal•i•za•tion also Brit for•mal•i•sa•tion /ˌfoəməlәˈzeɪʃən, Brit ˌfɔːməˌlaɪˈzeɪʃən/ noun [noncount]

[1]for•mat /ˈfoəˌmæt/ noun, pl -mats
1 : the form, design, or arrangement of something (such as a book, magazine, or television or radio program) [count] the book's large-print format ▪ The radio station recently changed its format from jazz to classical. [=the radio station now plays classical music instead of jazz] [noncount] The journals are available in electronic format.
2 : the way in which information is stored on a computer disk [count] different file formats [noncount] The file is saved in MP3 format.

F

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 67 SESS: 67 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:33:40 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-f

F

[2]format verb -mats; -mat•ted; -mat•ting [+ obj]
1 : to arrange (something) in a particular format ▪ The book is formatted in several different styles. ▪ The data was improperly formatted.
2 : to prepare (a computer disk) so that it can store information in a particular format ▪ format a floppy disk

for•ma•tion /foəˈmeɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions
1 [noncount] : the act of forming or creating something ▪ the formation [=development] of new ideas ▪ The book explains the formation of the planets.
2 [count] : something that is formed or created ▪ an interesting cloud formation ▪ new word formations ▪ rock formations
3 : an orderly arrangement or group of people, ships, or airplanes — often used after in [noncount] The soldiers were marching in formation. ▪ jets flying in formation [count] The team ran on the field and lined up in a punt formation.

for•ma•tive /ˈfoəmətɪv/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 — used to describe the time when someone or something is growing or being formed ▪ The movement was then still in its formative stages. ▪ His family traveled widely during his formative years. [=when he was young]
2 : helping to develop something ▪ This experience had a formative influence on his art. ▪ a formative experience for•mer /ˈfoəmə/ adj, always used before a noun

1 — used to say what someone or something was in the past ▪ a former congressman ▪ her former husband ▪ two former friends
2 : existing in the past ▪ They hope to restore the old theater to its former glory. [=to make it as good as it was in the past] ▪ She is now just a shadow of her former self. [=she is not the same person she once was] the former : the first one of two things or people that have been mentioned ▪ Of these two options, the former is less expensive, while the latter is less risky. ▪ If offered a choice between death and exile, he said that he would choose the former. [=he would choose death] — compare the latter at LATTER for•mer•ly /ˈfoəməli/ adv : at an earlier time : in the past ▪ He was formerly a congressman. ▪ a privilege formerly [=previously] available only to the rich ▪ Istanbul was formerly [=once] known as Constantinople.

form– t •ting /ˈfoəmˌfɪtɪŋ/ adj : matching the shape of a person's body : fitting very tightly or closely ▪ a form-fitting dress

For•mi•ca /foəˈmaɪkə/ trademark — used for various plastic products that are used especially for covering surfaces for•mi•da•ble /ˈfoəmədəbəl, foəˈmɪdəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : very powerful or strong : deserving serious attention and respect ▪ a formidable enemy/opponent/weapon
2 : very difficult to deal with ▪ The mountains were a formidable barrier. ▪ a formidable challenge/task
3 : large or impressive in size or amount ▪ He has mastered a formidable amount of material.
– for•mi•da•bly /ˈfoəmədəbli, foəˈmɪdəbli/ adv ▪ a formidably long list form•less /ˈfoəmləs/ adj : having no regular form or shape ▪ a formless [=shapeless] pile – form•less•ness noun [noncount]

form letter noun, pl ~ -ters [count] : a letter that has a standard form and is sent to many people ▪ The bank sent out thousands of form letters offering its credit card.

for•mu•la /ˈfoəmjələ/ noun, pl -las also -lae /-ˌliː/
1 [count] a : a plan or method for doing, making, or achieving something ▪ His investment strategy is based on a simple formula. ▪ This has proven to be a winning formula. — often + for ▪ a formula for success/happiness ▪ There is no magic formula [=no simple and certain method] for achieving success in the business world. b : a list of the ingredients used for making something (such as a medicine or a drink) ▪ The product is made using a secret formula that the company refuses to reveal.
2 [count] a mathematics : a general fact or rule expressed in letters and symbols ▪ The formula for the area of a rectangle is l X w. [=length times width] b chemistry : a series of letters, numbers, and symbols showing the chemicals that a compound is made of ▪ The formula for water is H_2O. ▪ chemical formulas
3 [noncount] US : a liquid that usually contains milk and that is used for feeding a baby ▪ infants drinking formula instead of their mother's milk
4 [count] a : a set of words that are commonly used in a way that does not seem original or sincere : a conventional statement ▪ Politicians often resort to familiar formulas when discussing controversial issues. b : a common way of creating or telling a story in a movie, book, etc. ▪ the narrative formula offered in so many movies ▪ All her books are written according to a familiar formula.

for•mu•la•ic /ˌfoəmjəˈleɪɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : produced according to a formula : not new or original ▪ a formulaic movie/novel/plot
2 : commonly used ▪ a formulaic [=set, fixed] phrase such as "Sincerely yours" at the end of a letter for•mu•late /ˈfoəmjəˌleɪt/ verb -lates; -lat•ed; -lat•ing [+ obj] : to create, invent, or produce (something) by careful thought and effort ▪ A long-range plan is being formulated. [=devised] ▪ formulate a rule/theory/principle ▪ a carefully formulated response ▪ a plastic specially formulated to resist high temperatures – for•mu•la•tion /ˌfoəmjəˈleɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count, noncount] ▪ the formulation of a new drug ▪ a drug available in several formulations – for•mu•la•tor /ˈfoəmjəˌleɪtə/ noun, pl -tors [count] ▪ Darwinism was named after its formulator, Charles Darwin.

for•ni•cate /ˈfoənəˌkeɪt/ verb -cates; -cat•ed; -cat•ing [no obj] formal + disapproving : to have sexual intercourse ✧ Fornicate refers to sexual intercourse that occurs between people who are not married to each other. It is a word that is associated with legal language and the language of the Bible.
– for•ni•ca•tion /ˌfoənəˈkeɪʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ laws forbidding fornication ▪ commit fornication – for•ni•ca•tor /ˈfoənəˌkeɪtə/ noun, pl -tors [count]

for–prof•it /ˈfoəˈprɑːfət/ adj, always used before a noun : existing or done for the purpose of making a profit ▪ a for-profit company/venture for•sake /fəˈseɪk/ verb -sakes; -sook /-ˈsʊk/; -sak•en /-ˈseɪkən/; -sak•ing [+ obj] : to give up or leave (someone or something) entirely ▪ All my friends have forsaken [=abandoned] me. ▪ She forsook [=left] acting for a teaching career.

for•swear /foəˈsweə/ verb -swears; -swore /-ˈswoə/; -sworn /-ˈswoən/; -swear•ing [+ obj] formal : to promise to give up (something) or to stop doing (something) ▪ She forswore her allegiance to the old regime. ▪ He foreswore cigarettes/smoking as his New Year's resolution.

for•syth•ia /fəˈsɪθijə, Brit fəˈsaɪθiə/ noun, pl -ias also -ia [count, noncount] : a type of bush that produces bright yellow flowers in the early spring fort /ˈfoət/ noun, pl forts [count] : a strong building or group of buildings where soldiers live ▪ They captured the fort after a long battle.

hold the fort or US hold down the fort : to be in charge of a place while the person who is usually in charge is away ▪ You can stay here and hold the fort while I go to the store.

[1]forte /ˈfoət, ˈfoəˌteɪ/ noun, pl fortes [count] : something that a person does well ▪ Drawing was always your forte. [=strength]

[2]for•te /ˈfoəˌteɪ/ adv, music : in a loud manner ▪ violins playing a passage forte — abbr. f
– forte adj ▪ a forte passage forth /ˈfoəθ/ adv, literary

1 : out into notice or view : OUT ▪ a flow of lava bursting forth from the earth ▪ The snow is gone and the flowers are ready to spring forth. ▪ He went forth to spread the news.
2 : onward or forward in time or place ▪ She stretched forth her hands in prayer. ▪ from that day forth [=from that time onward] and so forth see [1]SO bring forth see BRING call forth see [1]CALL hold forth see [1]HOLD put forth see [1]PUT sally forth see [2]SALLY set forth see [1]SET
– see also BACK AND FORTH

forth•com•ing /foəθˈkʌmɪŋ/ adj
1 always used before a noun : appearing, happening, or arriving soon ▪ the forthcoming [=approaching] holidays ▪ He read an excerpt from his forthcoming [=soon to be published] autobiography.
2 not used before a noun : readily available ▪ No help has been forthcoming from the government. [=the government has not provided any help]
3 not used before a noun [more ~; most ~] : honest and open ▪ He was more forthcoming about his past than they expect-

